Master Elect Candidate. It is.

Installing Master- Venerable Brother Director of Ceremonies, how are Installed Sovereign Masters proven?

Venerable Brother Director of Ceremonies By the Perfect Ashlar, which is a stone of true die - a perfect cube - which can be tried and proven only by the Square and Compasses, and to us represents the mind of man in his declining years after a life well spent in acts of piety and virtue. A mind thus disciplined and matured cannot otherwise be tried and proven than by the Square of God's Word and the Compasses of his own self-convincing conscience.

Installing Master- Venerable Brother Director of Ceremonies, has our Ven. Brother been thus proven Venerable Brother Director of Ceremonies He has, Venerable. Installing Master.

Installing Master - Then he is truly prepared to advance.

( - All rise – Installing Master descends from the East)

I..... in the presence of the Sovereign Grand Master of the Universe, and this venerable Council of Installed Sovereign Masters, sincerely promise that I will never reveal any of the secrets of this degree to anyone not properly entitled to receive them, as I now am. I promise this under no less a penalty than that of having my right hand struck off and slung over my left shoulder, there to wither and decay as an emblem of shame, and I would rather my tongue should cleve to the roof of my mouth than would I knowingly violate this, my vow as an Installed Sovereign Master. Amen.

Installing Master- As a token of your sincerity, you will seal the Volume of Sacred Law before you.

(Done)

Installing Master- Arise, duly and truly obligated Installed Sovereign Master.

(Installing Master Returns to East, seats all [*] – Venerable Brother Director of Ceremonies and Candidate remain West of Pedestal.)

LECTURE

The secrets of an Installed Sovereign Master originated in events which occurred after the completion of the Temple. These I will narrate in accordance with our traditions, supplemented by testimony from the Volume of Sacred Law.

When, through the mercy of the Sovereign Grand Master of the Universe, the Temple at Jerusalem was completed by the wisdom of King Solomon, assisted by the strength of Hiram King of Tyre, and the beautifying skill of Hiram Abiff, the Sovereigns of the neighboring countries sent their ambassadors bearing precious gifts to the King, congratulating him upon the completion of his great and holy work; but there was one, the Sovereign of a more distant country, the Queen of Sheba, who would not be content to send an embassy, however splendid, but would go up to Jerusalem herself, so that her eyes might see the magnificent Temple, and her ears might hear the wisdom of King Solomon, whose fame had spread throughout the then known world.

The circumstances of the following visit are given in the 10th Chapter of the First Book of Kings, which I commend to your earnest perusal.

On a set day, the Queen of Sheba, attended by her brilliant and numerous retinue, went to view the buildings of the Temple. She was escorted by King Solomon, who, seeing his chief Master Mason Adoniram, standing aside modestly, and wishing to confer upon him the distinguished honor of presenting him to the Queen, beckoned him thus; (Gesture with left hand beckoning him to advance) but Adoniram, either misinterpreting the gesture, or from a humility which often accompanies true genius, hesitated to advance; the King beckoned him again, and yet a third time. Adoniram thereupon approached the Illustrious Sovereign and his distinguished guest, and, making this obeisance (right hand on heart and bow) would have knelt at his royal Master's feet; but King Solomon, taking him by the hand, prevented him, and, raising him with the grip of a Most Excellent Master, said Rise, Giblum.

(Giblum is a Hebrew word signifying Stone Squarer, or Perfect Mason.)

When the royal party was about to retire, Adonirum saluted the King thus:
(Gesture with left hand beckoning to advance three times)

(Penal Sign, then right hand over heart and bow) in token of humility; hence is derived the Sign and Salute of an Installed Sovereign Master.

The Pass Word is Sheba and is given to the Venerable Senior Warden on entering a Council of Installed Sovereign Masters.

Installing Master- Venerable Brother Director of Ceremonies, present our Venerable Brother to the East .

(Done)

(The. Installing Master and Director of Ceremonies seat the Candidate as in the Past Master degree, after which the D.C. immediately returns to his station.)

Installing Master- Venerable Brother_____, I now declare you duly and truly installed as Sovereign Master of _____ Council No. ____, A.M.D., and call upon the brethren to salute you accordingly.

(All rise and give Sign and Salute)

CLOSING

Installing Master- () - All rise) Venerable Brethren, I now declare this Council of Installed Sovereign Masters duly closed, but before departing, let us attend prayer. Venerable. Brother Chaplain, lead our devotions.

PRAYER

Venerable Chaplin- Direct us, O Sovereign Grand Master of the Universe, in all our doings with Thy most gracious favor, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name; and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life. To all these points I pledge my honor as a man and a Mason.

Installing Master - As a pledge of your fidelity you will salute the Volume of Sacred Law once.

(Sovereign Master Elect does so.)

(Director of Ceremonies places two chairs East of the Altar, facing each other East and West. Installing Master leaves chair, takes Sovereign Master Elect by both hands, conducts him via South and seats him in chair facing East; IM sits opposite him facing West.)

Installing Master - When it became necessary for our predecessors of old to change their place of abode in search of work, a knowledge of this Degree was of great importance to them, as it enabled them to claim the needful amount of hospitality to prosecute their journey from place to place. As the means of travel in those days were much restricted, they were obligated to go on foot, or as they called it, "on tramp". At the close of day, when they were in need of rest after their exertions, they were accustomed to enter a roadside hostelry. Anxious to discover if any of their Brethren were present, they clenched the right hand and struck the right knee with the right elbow. The reply to this was given by clenching the left hand and striking the left knee with the left elbow.

(Both rise. Installing Master conducts Sovereign Master Elect with both hands to the East, Installing Master facing South, Sovereign Master Elect facing North.)

Installing Master - The Grip is given in this manner: place your clenched right hand (knuckles down) on my open right hand: I cover this with my open left hand: each then gives the Sign of Fidelity and says "Hand and Heart", signifying that your hand and heart are alike open to the wants of your Brethren.

The Salute of an Installed Master is given in this manner:

Extend the right hand clenched, then strike the left breast with the open right hand, and then, slightly bending the right knee, strike the front of the right knee with the right hand.

Installing Master - I now invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office, the highest honor which the Lodge can bestow on any of its Brethren.

(Installing Master with Grip leads Sovereign Master Elect to the Chair.)

With the Grip and the words, "Hand and Heart", I now place you in the Chair of this Lodge of St. Lawrence the Martyr.

(Installing Master adopts Sign of Fidelity). May the Great Disposer of All have you in His holy keeping now and for ever.

I salute you as an Installed Master. (Installing Master gives Salute, hand, heart and thigh, once.)

I present to you this gavel, the symbol of authority.

You will now invest the Immediate Past Master.

(Sovereign Master does so extempore.)

Installing Master - Brethren, Venerable Brother _____ has been installed into the Chair of this Lodge of St. Lawrence, and has thereby become the Sovereign Master of the _____ Council of the Allied Masonic Degrees, and I call upon you to salute him as Installed Masters with five, taking time from me. Sovereign Master - (The Officers are asked to line up behind the Altar as their names are called.)

Sovereign Master - Each officer who has been called to office in this Council will attend me while I recite the obligation to which I invite your assent. I do hereby accept the office to which I have been elected or appointed, and do promise to fulfill the duties of that office faithfully and conscientiously, to the best of my skill and ability.

And moreover in times past even when Saul was King, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel, and the Lord thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be Ruler over my people Israel. Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the King to Hebron, and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Lord; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord by Samuel.

Installing Officer - (SR-Elect remains kneeling) The Brethren will now turn to the East and assume the attitude of prayer.

Let us pray. Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord, blessed be His Holy name for ever and ever. We humbly beseech Thee, O Grand Supreme Ruler of the Universe, to look down upon our sacred Rite, and to endow this our Brother with strength and fortitude to abide by the solemn Obligation he is now about to take; assist him with Thy might, prevent him by Thy grace, and enrich him with Thy knowledge, so that he may rule this Conclave with wisdom, and exhibit to all who are placed under his authority a bright example of honor and true friendship - to the Glory of Thy Holy Name. So Mote It Be.

Installing Officer - Brother _____, are you prepared to take upon yourself one of the most solemn Obligations of Freemasonry, the infraction of which will forfeit one of your senses, to keep inviolate the secrets of this the 3§ of our Order ?

(Supreme Ruler-Elect) – (I am.)

Installing Officer - Then you will rise and advance to the Pedestal and remembering that you are calling upon the Holy Name of your Maker, place your right hand upon the Volume of Sacred Law and with your left pressed firmly upon your Closed Eyes thus take a solemn Obligation with respect to the secrets belonging to a Supreme Ruler.

OBLIGATION

(Installing Officer Gavels *)

Installing Officer Repeat after me - I _____ in the presence of the God of Abraham, the Father of His people, and of Moses the Leader of His people and of this solemn Convocation of Supreme Rulers in the Order of the Secret Monitor duly constituted and regularly convened, do hereby and hereon most solemnly promise and swear, that I will keep inviolate the secrets and mysteries of this degree now entrusted to my care, and communicate them to none, unless it be to a duly Installed Ruler in the Order, or to a Brother regularly elected or designated as Ruler of a Conclave and so acknowledged in my presence, by two or more Rulers in the Order, at a meeting of Rulers regularly convened for that purpose.

All these points I solemnly swear to observe, under the penalty of being struck blind that I may never be able to see the light of the sun, to gaze upon the face of a brother or to perceive his warning sign. So help me the Most High and preserve me faithful in this my solemn Obligation of a Supreme Ruler in the Brotherhood of David and Jonathan.

Installing Officer - As a pledge perpetually binding you to fidelity you will seal this Obligation with your lips four times upon the Volume of Sacred Law.

(Installing Officer.O. Leaving the chair says -) I now invest you with the collar and jewel of your office, and the sash of Supreme Ruler of this Conclave. (no robe)

(Leads him to the chair) I also form with you the living Magen David and with this sign place you in the seat of authority, and whisper into your ear the word of a Supreme Ruler, which is Shaddai which means Jehovah.

The due guard of the degree is given by pressing the left hand firmly over the closed eyes. This alludes to the penalty of the Obligation wherein you solemnly swore under the penalty of being struck blind that you may never be able to see the light of the sun, to gaze upon the face of a brother or to perceive his warning sign.

I now communicate to you the sign of a Supreme Ruler in our Order, which is given by placing the hands side by side with the first two fingers of the right hand overlapping the first two of the left hand, thumbs under the palms of the opposite hands, the third and fourth fingers together at an angle from the first two, thus forming as nearly as possible a letter "w" and represents Schin, the first letter of the Hebrew word Shaddai.

It was in this position that Aaron placed his hands when he blessed the Children of Israel, as I now bless you. May the Most High grant you health for many years to come, to share with us the blessings of pure and unselfish friendship and communion, and when in the fullness of time He shall in His mercy call you to that land from whose bourne no traveller returns, may you leave behind you the imperishable inheritance of a good name, as did our Grand Supreme Ruler Abram Oveni.

(Installing Officer salutes the Supreme Ruler)

(The Past Supreme Rulers form a semi-circle and salute the Supreme Ruler four times accompanied by the appropriate words "Attah. Gibor. Leolam. Adonai.")

Installing Officer - I now declare this Convocation of Supreme Rulers closed.

(Installing Officer requests Director Ceremonies to admit the Princes and to form them in a line in the North.)

Installing Officer - Princes, you will pass before our newly installed Supreme Ruler and salute him as Princes of the Order.

(The Director of Ceremonies leads the procession. He and each Prince gives the due guard of the Order in passing the Supreme Ruler with the words Semper Fidelis.)

Installing Officer - Princes, I now proclaim our Bro. _____ the duly installed Supreme Ruler of this Conclave until the next regular period of election within the Conclave and until a successor shall have been regularly elected and installed in his stead. I now call upon him to appoint and invest the Officers necessary for this degree.

Director of Ceremonies - Princes be seated.

(The Director of Ceremonies, addressing the Supreme Ruler, asks him to invest the Immediate Past Supreme Ruler as Jonathan and then to appoint and invest

1. Abishai
2. Adino
3. Eleazar
4. Shammah.)

Installing Officer - To your regularly elected and installed Supreme Ruler _____ you, the Officers and the Princes of this Conclave, owe allegiance, honor and fealty, and I feel assured, it will be your pleasure, as well as your duty, to render him your best individual and collective support, during the term of his office. As Supreme Ruler of this Conclave he will have many privileges and responsibilities, not the least of which will be judiciously to husband the resources of the Conclave so that no distressed brother may apply in vain for sympathy or relief, and no perplexed brother may lack discreet direction and guidance. In all these matters, I am convinced your Supreme Ruler will command your fullest confidence, and he in turn will rule you worthily and well.

Installing Officer - I must now request him to leave for a few moments the exalted position in which your suffrages have placed him, in order that our distinguished Bro. _____, by the power vested in him by the Grand Supreme Ruler as a Commissioning Officer, may confer upon our newly Installed Brother the wider jurisdiction of a Supreme Ruler within our Order, and empower him to bear a more extended sway over all the brethren of the inferior degrees throughout the Grand Council of the Allied Masonic Degrees of the United States of America.

(The Supreme Ruler steps down and is conducted by the Inner Guide to kneeling stool in the South East facing East. The Director of Ceremonies calls the Princes to order and waits upon the Commissioning Officer escorting him to his position, presenting oil and napkin and be prepared to offer him his own sword if necessary.)

(With the sword gives the accolade on the left shoulder, saying:)

Take authority to execute the office of Supreme Ruler within our Order, thus committed unto you, to rule Conclaves, to induct candidates, to admit Princes, and to install a Brother duly elected or designated as Supreme Ruler in any Conclave.

(Invests him with a purple robe with gold facings, saying:)

I now invest you with this robe of a Supreme Ruler within our Order; the color is purple, an emblem of imperial dignity, and I exhort you to wear it worthily.

(Hands him a sword or a bow saying:)

I present you with this _____ (Whichever it is) as an emblem of power: wield it boldly but discreetly: be faithful to your God, your Country, and your Order.

Chaplin. - (Reads I Chronicles 16:2,3) And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord. And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

(The Commissioning Officer hands the plate of bread and meat), to the Commissioning Officer. who gives it to the Supreme Ruler telling him to offer it to each one in the circle, moving clockwise, offering it first to the Commissioning Officer When he returns, the Commissioning Officer should take the plate, offer it to the Supreme Ruler for him to partake, and return it to the Director of Ceremonies

(The Director of Ceremonies then brings the Cup of Wine), which is handed round in the same manner.

The following Anthem is read or sung during the distribution of the Presents.

Chaplin: Chant or Anthem

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is: brethren, to dwell together in unity.

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down unto the beard; even unto Aaron's beard, and went down to the skirts of his clothing.

Like as the dew of Hermon: which fell upon the hill of Sion. For there the Lord promised his blessing: and life for evermore.

(After completion of the distribution the Commissioning Officer exclaims):

Commissioning Officer - This is the Supper of King David, Melaoveh, Malkah.

(The Director of Ceremonies should call on the Princes to form two lines facing each other in the North, having previously arranged for those with swords to go to the East end of the lines. He will marshal the Princes [while the Com.O. leads the S.R. to the West] and give the order for drawing swords and forming the Arch. The Com.O. then conducts the S.R. between the two ranks and under the Arch to the throne.)

Installing Officer - I now declare this assembly of Princes closed.

Director of Ceremonies - Princes, be seated.

(The 3 Great Lights are restored to their place on the Ezel, the chairs of the Visting Deacons replaced by the Director of Ceremonies and the Installing Officer orders the Brethren of the 1§ to be readmitted. The Director of Ceremonies meets the brethren at the door and forms them in a line in the North. If insufficient Brethren, Director of Ceremonies should call on a few Princes.)

Instructions: (The Director of Ceremonies should call on the Princes to form two lines facing each other in the North, having previously arranged for those with swords to go to the East end of the lines). He will marshal the Princes [while the Installing Officer - Brethren, you will proceed round the Conclave and salute the Supreme Ruler as Secret Monitors in passing.

(Director of Ceremonies leads the procession. Salute only is given): When this is done the I.O. standing in the South-East says:

Installing Officer - Brethren, I now proclaim Bro. _____ Supreme Ruler of the _____ Conclave numbered _____ on the books of the Grand Council of the Allied Masonic Degrees of the United States of America, until the next regular period of election within this Conclave, and until a successor shall have been duly installed in his stead, and I call upon you to greet him with three (Sign of Point, Draw, Pierce), taking the time from the Director of Ceremonies.

Supreme Ruler - Brethren, be seated.

(The Installing Officer goes up to the pedestal and says:)

Installing Officer - Supreme Ruler, I now present to you the Warrant of this Conclave: distinguished Brethren have treasured it as a sacred trust, and as you receive it pure and unsullied, so I am convinced you will transmit it to your successor, I also hand you an official copy of the ritual of this third degree, which you must carefully study. I likewise present to you the Constitutions and Regulations of the Order, and the By-Laws of your Conclave. From a perusal of these you will find guidance and help in all cases of difficulty and doubt that may arise within your Conclave. You will now proceed to appoint and invest the Officers chosen to assist you in governing the Conclave during the ensuing year.

(The Officers are invested with sashes): [unless they are already wearing sashes of a higher grade] as follows:

Counselor, Guide,

*Chaplain,

Treasurer,

Secretary,

Director of Ceremonies,

Visiting Deacons,

*Organist,
*Scroll Bearer,
Guarder,
Steward,
Sentinel
[*-optional].

(The Installing Officer then proceeds to a position between the 2nd and 4th (Visiting Deacons) facing the Supreme Ruler. and says:

Installing Officer- Supreme Ruler, now that you have undertaken the important duties of a Ruler in our Order, let me point out to you that as in other degrees in Freemasonry so in this our brotherhood of David and Jonathan the Volume of Sacred Law (goes up to Ezel) the square and compasses represent the three Great Lights whose uses have been taught in those degrees, and whose teachings this degree will continue and develop. Let the pathetic incident upon which our Order is founded ever remind you that its Principles are those imparted in the Sacred Volume, and let the conduct of our great exemplar David to Jonathan his brother, teach you to regulate your life upon the principles of the square and guide your actions within the compasses of disinterested and friendly generosity to all.

May the God of David and Jonathan grant you strength and wisdom to rule your Conclave wisely and well, and may peace and prosperity attend you and the Conclave during your term of office, so that when you shall cease to occupy the chair of Supreme Ruler, the remembrance of your presidency may ever be recalled with pleasure by the Brethren, and by yourself with the approval of a good conscience.

(The Installing Officer directs the Visiting Deacons to stand, and the new Supreme Ruler says:)

Supreme Ruler - Brother Visiting Deacons, as the peculiar foundation of this Order is to give friendly monition and warning to its members in time of danger, and to afford support and assistance to them in time of sorrow and distress, you, as officers specially appointed to fulfill that duty, are strictly enjoined to search out and warn any Brother who may be exposed to danger, secret or apparent, and to visit and console those who may have fallen into adverse circumstances, or who, in any other way, may stand in need of fraternal help and consolation. Your faithful performance of these duties during the term for which you are appointed will enhance the reputation of this Conclave and will evince your qualification for higher posts - while failure therein will entail discredit, alike upon yourselves, and upon our Order.

(The Installing Officer directs all Officers to stand and the Supreme Ruler) continues:

Supreme Ruler - Brother Officers in the two degrees, from the zeal you have already displayed in subordinate positions, I feel assured that you may be relied upon to discharge with fidelity the important duties attached to your several offices, and that your future conduct will fully justify my confidence and trust in conferring these appointments upon you.

Installing Officer - Brethren, be seated.

Installing Officer - I now declare this assembly of Princes closed.

LECTURE

We read in the Volume of Sacred Law that God commanded Noah to make an Ark of gopher wood, instructing him how to fashion it. Noah took 100 years to build it. He was 500 years old when he commenced the work, and consequently was 600 years old when it was finished. When he entered into the Ark he took with him his wife, his three sons and their wives, and two and two of all flesh wherein is the breath of life, as God had commanded him. His father Lamech having died a short time before at the age of 777 years, there were no other ancient Patriarchs at the time of the flood with the exception of Methuselah, who attained the age of 969 years, and as no mention is made in Holy Writ of his death, he is supposed to have perished in the flood. Enoch, the son of Jared the sixth in descent from Adam, who had been instructed in the history of Mankind since the Creation, and also in the Arts and Sciences as known at that time, perceiving that that knowledge was likely to be lost in the general destruction foretold by Adam, and being desirous of preserving that knowledge for future generations, made two pillars, one of brass and the other of brick, and wrote thereon in hieroglyphics a description thereof. Tradition informs us that this knowledge thus preserved and transmitted was afterwards providentially discovered, and applied to the benefit of mankind.

Installing Commander Noah- Bro, having now been regularly installed in the Chair of Commander Noah, I now call upon you to salute him as an Installed Commander Noah.

Installing Commander Noah-) I now declare this Board of Installed Commanders Noah closed.

(knocks one.)

(The Brethren below the rank of Commander Noah are now admitted.)

Installing Commander Noah- I now proclaim Brother. . . . duly installed as Worshipful Commander Noah Elect of this Royal Ark Mariner Lodge held within the Council, No. . . . on the roll of the Grand Council of Allied Masonic Degrees of the United States of America

Other Office-Bearers installed and invested.

The Lodge is thereafter closed.
