HISTORY OF BARKER LODGE NO. 129

F. & A. M.

Barker Lodge was granted dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Kentucky on June 22, 1843 Instituted July 6, 1843. Charter granted August 29, 1843. Organized October 7, 1843 with the following officers: T. D. Geohegan, Worshipful Master; H. F. Able, Senior Warden; S. B. Thomas, Junior Warden; Albert Torrence, Treasurer; J. H. Thomas, Secretary; Isaac Carrico, Senior Deacon; Thos Neill, Junior Deacon; S. H. Potts, Steward and Tiler.

Barker Lodge has been in continuous existence except for a time during the Civil War It is not known whether it was active or not during this period as there were no returns made to the Grand Lodge at this time.

The lodge has had 64 masters during its existence Thirteen have served a total of 53 years while 51 have served one each.

Those who served more than one year are as follows: J. R. Kelly, nine years; S. H. Jenkins, eight years; V. P. Armstrong, six years; J G Brashear and A. E. Burchiel, five years each; John Smith, three years; and J. D. Fisher, D C Pusey, B. K. Lewis, F. R. Lord, W. H. Thompson, and W E. Balinger two years each.

The years with the largest increase in membership are as follows: 1912 and 1920, 27 each; 1910 with 20, and 1918 with 18. There were no new members during the following years 1877, 1883, 1884, 1888, 1891, 1930, 1931, and 1935.

Barker Lodge has 29 living Past Masters as follows: J M. Robinson, B. T. Perry, G. A. Hendry, J. B. Lamb, F E Goodman, D. T.

Roberts, A. G. Sheilds, H E. Patterson, E. N. Pusey, J. M. Culver, Harry DeWitt, Silas DeWitt, T. D. Cotner, R. S. Hamilton, W. L. Brammer, E. L. Reeser, J. S. Goodman, E. L. Blevens, Garland Dawson, J. R. Sanderfer, W. E. Roberts, R. A. Lansdale, Clyde Canady, Coleman Ritchie, Raymond Hicks, Julian Horton, Dee Cabbage, D. L. Williams, and W R. Brunton.

Our hall was built on its present site around 1911 or 1912. The original building was destroyed by fire in February, 1927, with all of our equipment.

At the time of the fire we had insurance of $8,000 on the building and the contents.

The present building was built in 1927 at a cost of $8,200 not including the equipment.

The flood in 1937 did quite a lot of damage to our present building but we were soon back ready for business.

Our present membership is 213 and the lodge is quite active with the following officers Curtis W. Smith, Worshipful Master; Robert Gammon, Senior Warden; Virgil Preston, Junior Warden; E. L. Reeser, Treasurer, Wm J. Jones, Secretary; Russell McSevery, Senior Deacon; Louie Warren, Junior Deacon; Thomas Howey, Senior Steward; Robert E. Goodman, Junior Steward; Pryor Kitterman, Tiler.

Our stated meetings are the second and fourth Saturday nights and on St. John the Evangelist's Day, December 27.

We have three 50-year members as follows: G. M. Ritchie, G. A. Hendry, and J. M. Culver.

Approved by the Committee on By-Laws of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F.&A.M., this 17th day of June, 1953.

GEORGE W. SNODGRASS,
Chairman,
EUGENE ALLEN,
TED ADAMS.

BY - LAWS

BARKER LODGE NO. 129

F. & A. M.

ARTICLE I—This lodge shall be known as Barker Lodge No. 129, F.&A.M.

ARTICLE II—The regular meetings shall be held on the second and fourth Saturdays of each month and on St. John the Evangelist, and St. John the Baptist days, except when they fall on Sunday; then the meeting shall be held on the day before.

The clock time of the opening of each meeting shall be 7:30 p. m. prevailing local time.

ARTICLE III—The following officers shall be elected by a majority of all votes cast and for a period of one year; the Worshipful Master, the Senior Warden, the Junior Warden, the Secretary, and the Treasurer. When more than two candidates are nominated for the same office and one does not get a majority of votes on the second ballot, the one with the smaller number shall drop out. This shall continue until one receives a majority.

ARTICLE IV—The regular election of officers shall be held on St. John's Day, December 27, except as follows: When December falls on a Sunday the election shall be held on December 26 or December 28.

ARTICLE V—The following officers shall be appointed by the Master and selected with the assistance of the other elected officers: Senior Deacon, Junior Deacon, Senior Steward, Junior Steward, Tiler and Chaplain. Their term shall be for one year.

ARTICLE VI—The Worshipful Master may call a meeting at his pleasure, but must call one upon the request of eight Master Mason members. All or sufficient number shall have due and timely notice.

ARTICLE VII—Failure to hold a meeting for a period of longer than three months shall be reported to the Grand Secretary by the Worshipful Master and Secretary.

ARTICLE VIII—Nominations shall be made from the floor and the brother making the nomination shall be recognized by the Master. Any brother who may wish to decline his nomination may do so but must do it before the nominations are closed. All nominations must receive a second. A motion to close the nominations may be made by any brother about the lodge, provided he has been recognized by the Master. All seconds for the above nominations or motions shall be recognized by the Master. After the motion to close the nominations has been seconded, the Worshipful Master shall ask for a vote of the lodge on the motion.

ARTICLE IX—The Master shall decide a voice vote, but if any brother should request a count vote the Master shall request the same.

ARTICLE X—The Master's voice shall decide a tie, but in no case shall he have two votes.

ARTICLE XI—The dues shall be $3.50 per year plus current Grand Lodge dues and assessments payable on or before January 1 of the current year. The yearly dues shall be pro-rated as follows:

January 1 to March 31 Grand Lodge dues plus $3.50

April 1 to June 30 Grand Lodge dues plus $1.75.

July 1 to September 30 Grand Lodge dues plus 75c

October 1 to December 30 $3.75.

The Secretary shall notify each member by April 1 of his indebtedness and if the delinquent fails to pay dues and indebtedness in conformity to the notice, the lodge may suspend him by a majority vote of those present if the indebtedness be one full year's dues. If the indebtedness be two full years' dues, he shall be automatically suspended. However, if a satisfactory reason be given for the delinquency the lodge may excuse him by a three-quarter vote of those present. In either case, the action shall be noted in the minutes. It shall not be necessary to go through the formality of a trial other than as stated in Sections 153, 154 and 155 of the Constitution.

ARTICLE XII—All business shall be transacted in the Master Mason degree except as noted.

Voting on proficiency of candidates shall be by voice vote, and may be in the degree in which the examination takes place or in the next higher degree.

Every member present shall ballot unless excused by the lodge according to Regulations 426 and 427.

ARTICLE XIII—All business before the lodge shall be decided by a majority of all votes cast except in cases otherwise provided for.

ARTICLE XIV—The Master shall decide any question not covered by the Constitution or By-Laws and his decision shall be final unless revoked by the Grand Lodge or the Grand Master.

ARTICLE XV—The lodge shall have the following standing committees composed as follows:

Building Committee, composed of three Master Masons.

Finance Committee, composed of three Master Masons, each member shall serve for a term of three years.

The first committee shall be appointed as follows. One to serve for three years, one to serve for two years and one to serve for one year. Thereafter one shall be appointed each year for the prescribed three year term.

Sick Committee, composed of three or more Master Masons.

Reception Committee, composed of three Past Masters.

The duties of the Building Committee shall be to look after the lodge property and recommend any necessary repairs or additions. The lodge shall authorize any and all repairs or additions the cost of which exceeds $25.00; necessary minor repairs under this amount may be taken care of by the Building Committee as they arise.

The Finance Committee will investigate the financial conditions of the lodge and recommend any expenditure over and above $25.00.

The Sick Committee shall visit all sick and distressed members and with the consent of the Master and Secretary in an emergency render financial aid not to exceed $25.00

The Reception Committee shall meet all visiting brethren.

ARTICLE XVI—A brother shall be automatically re-instated after being suspended for non-payment of dues by paying the indebtedness, provided he has not been suspended for more than two years. If suspended for more than two years he shall petition the lodge for re-instatement and pay two years' back dues and the current year's dues. The petition shall be accepted by the lodge, referred to a committee and balloted on the same as any other petition for membership except that a three-quarter vote of majority present shall elect him to membership.

ARTICLE XVII—No lodge property shall be sold or disposed of without written bids, after notice of such sale has been made at the previous meeting.

ARTICLE XVIII—Duties of the Investigating Committee shall be the same as those stated in Section 112 of the Constitution

ARTICLE XIX—Fees for degrees shall be as follows: $10.00 shall accompany the petition, $10.00 shall be paid before taking the Fellow Craft degree, and $10.00 plus any special Grand Lodge assessments shall be paid before taking the Master Mason degree.

ARTICLE XX—No dues shall be collected from any member who is a minister or who has attained 50 years membership in the fraternity.

ARTICLE XXI—Any Mason may be elected to honorary membership Regulation 198 shall apply.

ARTICLE XXII—No brother shall be chosen Master or Warden of the lodge unless he manifest such zeal for the fraternity as to induce the belief that he can and will qualify himself to preside according to the laws and usages of Masonry. The Warden shall be qualified to fill the Master's chair in his absence.

ARTICLE XXIII—Any Master Mason may preside in the East when requested to do so by the Master or Warden acting as Master, the officer making the request must remain in the hall, provided the brother is not a Past Master.

ARTICLE XXIV—The lodge shall present to each Master, at the end of his term, a suitable Past Master's jewel or a like amount in cash, provided he has purchased the jewel of his choice. This amount shall not exceed 15 dollars.

ARTICLE XXV—The Treasurer shall not be charged any dues during his term of office.

ARTICLE XXVI—The lodge shall present to all Master Masons raised after January 1, 1948 a copy of the Kentucky Monitor.

ARTICLE XXVII—The lodge may temporarily occupy a hall not its own for the conferring of any degree or for the transacting of special business, providing the membership has five days notice. The charter must be present.

ARTICLE XXVIII—The Standard Masonic Code shall govern in all Masonic trials.

ARTICLE XXIX—The Master shall read or cause to be read at least one time a year the ancient charges of Masonry.

ARTICLE XXX—These By-Laws shall, upon the adoption of the lodge, make null and void all preceding By-Laws or parts thereof.

ARTICLE XXXI—The duties of the officers of this lodge shall be as designated in the Constitution. In addition, the Secretary shall be paid a salary of $8.00 per month; the Tiler a salary of $6.00 per month.

ARTICLE XXXII—These By-Laws may be amended according to Section 73 of the Constitution
