S.O.—Have you seen the Keystone?

J.O.—What Keystone?

J.D.—A white Keystone to complete the arch
of the Temple.

J.O.—We have had no orders to furnish such a stone.

S.O.—It should have been brought up from the quarries several days ago.

J.O.—To whom was the work assigned?

J.D.—I don't know; but the workmen are at a stand for the want of it.

S.O.—Let us inform the Senior Grand Warden.

Why, this is the stone which was set at naught of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner. *

Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected is become the head stone of the corner. * *

And have ye not read this Scripture, The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner. * * *

What is this, then, that is written, The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner. * * * *

THE WORKING TOOLS OF A MARK MASTER MASON ARE THE CHISEL AND MALLET.

THE CHISEL

Is an instrument used by operative Masons to cut, carve, mark and indent their work. It morally demonstrates the advantages of discipline and education. The mind, like the diamond in its original state, is rude and unpolished; but as the effect of the Chisel on the external coat soon presents to view the latent beauties of the diamond, so education discovers the latent virtues of the mind, and draws them forth to range the large field of matter and space, to display the summit of human knowledge, our duty to God and to man.

THE MALLET

Is an instrument used by operative Masons to knock off excrescences and smooth surfaces. It morally teaches to correct irregularities, and to reduce man to a proper level; so that, by quiet deportment, he may, in the school of discipline, learn to be content. What the Mallet is to the workmen, enlightened reason is to the passions; it curbs ambition, depresses envy, moderates anger, and encourages good dispositions; whence arises, among good Masons, that comely order,

*Which nothing earthly gives, or can destroy,
The soul's calm sunshine and the heartfelt joy.*

SECOND SECTION

R.W.M.—Brn, is it yo pl tht th br wh ha ju be ob, be el to pr ov ths Lo? If so, yo wi ma it by th us si.

It is the order of the Grand Chapter that the ritual of the Past Master's Degree shall be confined exclusively to the text as laid down by the Grand Chapter, and shall be conferred without any intermission or interruption in the order of progression.

R.W.M.—Br Mal, yo wi in th ca.

ca to pr ov th sa.

I now invest you with this jewel, the badge of your office. It is the Square, and teaches you that you should be a square stone in the Temple of Freemasonry.

I now present you the three great lights in Freemasonry, the Holy Bible, Square and Compasses.

The Holy Bible, the great light in Masonry, will guide you to all truth; it will direct your paths to the temple of happiness and point out to you the whole duty of man.

The Square teaches us to regulate our actions by rule and line, and harmonize our conduct by the principles of morality and virtue.

The Compasses teach us to limit our desires in every station, that, rising to eminence by merit, we may live respected, and die regretted.

The Book of Constitutions you are to search at all times. Cause it to be read in your Lodge, that none may pretend ignorance of the excellent precepts it enjoins.

You now receive in charge the Charter, by the authority of which this Lodge is held. You are carefully to preserve, and duly transmit it to your successor in office.

You will also receive in charge the Records and By-Laws of your Lodge; the former you will see faithfully kept, the latter carefully and punctually executed.

Lastly, the Gavel, an emblem of authority.

R.W.M.—An no, Ri Wo, al me to co yo to th Or Ch, on so ab fi by ou An Gr Ma, So, Ki of Is; an ma a du po of hi wi re up an ab wi yo.

R. W., the duties of the Chair are many and various, such as opening, instructing and closing Lodges; initiating, crafting and raising Masons; presiding at installations, consecrations and dedications; the laying the corner stones of public edifices; presiding at funeral ceremonies; and a variety of other duties belonging thereto and explanatory thereof.

R.W.M.—Ri Wo, I wi ca yo at to a ti in yo ob, wh yo sw tht yo wo no pr ov ths or an ot Lo wi gi a le, a pa of a le, or cag th sa to be do if wi yo po. Th pr is a fa op. Th le ma be in ths or an it yo, I wi ca up so br pr to le fo yo.

(Lecture)

R.W.M.—Ri Wo, ths is a pa of a le an co wi th ti in yo ob.

This degree in former times could only be conferred on such as had been duly elected, and regularly installed, to preside over and govern a regular and duly constituted Lodge under the jurisdiction of some Grand Lodge; and none but those who had received this honor could be admitted to the Royal Arch Degree.

The ancient regulation so limited the number of Royal Arch Masons that the excellent precepts of Chapter Masonry lost much of their strength and beauty by the want of numbers sufficiently interested and duly qualified to teach them.

Borrowing the forms and ceremonies from the Lodge, this degree has been introduced into the Chapter as the best means that could be devised for the instruction of those who are regarded as faithful among the craft and worthy to be advanced in Masonry. It is conferred in the Chapter for Chapter purposes only, and entitles none who receive it to the honors accorded to one who has regularly passed the Chair of a subordinate Lodge.

It differs in many particulars from all other Masonic degrees, but when properly cultivated it serves to impress upon our minds that he who aspires to the honors and rewards that await the faithful of the Craft should also possess the requisite skill and ability to propagate the excellent principles of our Institution.

R.W.M.—

Then said Solomon, The Lord hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling forever.

And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, and all the congregation of Israel stood. And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build any house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel; but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

Now was it in the heart of David, my father, to build an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel. But the Lord said to David, my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart; notwithstanding, thou shalt not build the house; but thy son, which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name. The Lord, therefore, hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am risen up in the room of David, my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built the house for the name of the Lord God of Israel; and in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the Lord that he made with the children of Israel.

And he stood before the altar of the Lord, in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands. For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and set it in the midst of the court; and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven, and said,

O Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heaven, nor in the earth; which keepeth covenant and shewest mercy unto thy servants that walk before thee with all their hearts; thou which hast kept with thy servant David, my father, that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day. Now, therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David, my father, that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; yet so thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me. Now then, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David. But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have builded! Have respect, therefore, to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord, my God, to hearken to the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee; that thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldst put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place.

Hearken, therefore, unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place; hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

Now, therefore, arise, O Lord God, into thy resting-place, thou and the ark of thy strength; let thy priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

O Lord God, turn not away the face of thine anointed; remember the mercies of David, thy servant,

(Fi de)

Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house. And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the Lord's house.

And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground, upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth forever; for he is good, for his mercy endureth forever; for he is good, for his mercy endureth forever.

MY BROTHER: The ceremonies commemorated in this degree refer to the completion and dedication of the first Temple—indeed, upon those ceremonies this degree was founded. Tradition informs us that at its completion King Solomon instituted a new Order of Masons and bestowed upon them the honorary appellation of Most Excellent Masters; and none but the meritorious and praiseworthy; none but those who, through diligence and industry, have advanced far towards perfection; none but those who have been seated in the Oriental Chair by the unanimous suffrages of their brethren, can be admitted to this degree of Masonry.

In the original establishment, when the Temple of Jerusalem was finished, and the Fraternity celebrated the cope-stone with great joy, it is demonstrable that none but those who had proved themselves to be complete masters of their profession were admitted to this honor; and, indeed, the duties incumbent on every Mason who is received and acknowledged as a Most Excellent Master are such as render it indispensable that he should have a correct knowledge of all the preceding degrees.

The foundations of the Temple were laid by King Solomon in the year of the world two thousand, nine hundred and ninety-two, and the building was finished in the year three thousand. About seven years and six months were consumed in its erection. It was dedicated in the year three thousand and one, with great solemnity, and in the presence of the assembled people of Israel, to the worship of Jehovah, who condescended to make it the place of the special manifestation of his glory.

Perhaps no structure, erected either before or since, is to be compared with it, for its exactly proportioned and beautiful dimensions. Its various courts and other apartments were capable of holding three hundred thousand people. It was adorned with fourteen hundred and fifty-three columns of the finest Parian marble, twisted, sculptured, and voluted; and two thousand, nine hundred and six pilasters, decorated with magnificent capitals.

The oracle and sanctuary were lined with massive gold, adorned with embellishments in sculpture, and set with numerous gorgeous and dazzling decorations of diamonds and all kinds of precious stones. In the emphatic language of Josephus, "the whole Temple shined and dazzled the eyes of such as entered it, by the splendor of the gold that was on every side of them." The multitude, on beholding it, were struck with bewildering amazement, and raised their hands in astonishment and admiration at its wondrous magnificence, as well as to protect their eyes from the effects of its exceeding brilliance. Nothing ever equalled the splendor of its consecration. Israel sent forth her thousands, and the assembled people beheld, in awful adoration, the vast sacrifice of Solomon accepted. The flame descended upon the altar and consumed the offering; the shadow and glory of the Eternal proclaimed his presence between the cherubim, and the voice of his thunders told to the faithful of the Craft that the perfectness of their labor was approved.

..... *Bright was the hour
When Israel's princes, in their pride and power,
Knelt in the Temple's court; the living flame,
The accepted sacrifice to all proclaim.
Brightly the splendor of the Godhead shone,
In awful glory, from his living throne:
Then bowed was every brow; no human sight
Could brave the splendor of that flood of light
That veiled his presence, and his awful form,
Whose path the whirlwind is—whose breath the storm.*

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together, whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord. For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. Because of the house of the Lord, our God, I will seek thy good.

P.S.—

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire, out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behöld, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And Moſes said, I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt. And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses! And he said, here am I. And He said, draw not nigh hither; put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is Holy Ground.

 Jacob. And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.

(Co Cas in fr of We, fa Ea)

Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet, speaking from the mouth of the Lord. And he also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, and stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart, from turning unto the Lord God of Israel.

Moreover, all the chief of the priests and the people transgressed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, and polluted the house of the Lord, which He had hallowed in Jerusalem. And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers; because He had compassion on his people and on His dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised His word, and misused His prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against His people till there was no remedy.

Therefore, He brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword, in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young men or maidens, old men, or him that stooped for age; He gave them all into his hand. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the King and his Princes, all these he brought to Babylon. And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof. And them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon, where they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia.

It is said that about fifty thousand of the Jews accepted the offer of Cyrus to return into their own country under the leadership of Zerubbabel, who was governor, or Masonically speaking, King; the prophet Haggai probably officiated as Scribe, Joshua, the son of Josadac, being High Priest. During their journey they passed through many rough and rugged countries, but in the midst of their tribulation, and when their "spirit was overwhelmed within them," their eyes were turned unto the Lord, in whom was their trust, who knew their path and the way wherein they walked.

On arriving at Jerusalem their first care was to restore the sacrifices and to regulate the offices and orders of the Priests and Levites—and tradition says they had previously adopted words and signs as marks by which the true descendants of Abraham should forever after be distinguished by each other.

In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the Lord by the prophet, Haggai, saying, Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Josadac, the High Priest, and to the residue of the people, saying, Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? And how do you see it now? Is it not in your eyes, in comparison of it, as nothing?

Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josadac, the High Priest; and be strong all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work; for I am with you, saith the Lord of Hosts, according to the word which I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you; fear ye not. For thus saith the Lord of Hosts, Yet once it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; and I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than the former, and in this place will I give peace.

In the beginning, God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light, and there was light.

And Moses said, this is the thing which the Lord commandeth: Fill an omer of the manna to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt. And Moses said unto Aaron, take a Pot and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the Lord, to be kept for your generations. As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the testimony to be kept.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Bring Aaron's Rod again before the testimony, to be kept for a token.

And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, that Moses commanded the Levites which bare the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord, saying: Take this Book of the Law, and put it in the side of the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

And my Companions, you will permit me to express the hope that it is not an idle or vain curiosity that merely grasps at novelty which has induced you to receive this sublime degree of Masonry, infinitely more important than all which have preceded it. It is calculated to impress upon our minds a firm belief in the being and existence of a God; and teaches a due reverence for His great and holy name.

It also brings to light some of the most important secrets of the Craft, which had laid buried in darkness from the death of King Solomon to the erection of the Second Temple—a period of four hundred and seventy years—and without a knowledge of which the Masonic character is not complete.

THE WORKING TOOLS AND PRINCIPAL EMBLEMS

of a Royal Arch Mason are the Square and Compasses, which have been presented to your view in every degree of Freemasonry through which you have passed.

THE SQUARE

teaches us, as Royal Arch Masons, that God has made all things square, upright, and perfect.

THE COMPASSES

is an instrument used by operative Masons to describe Circles, every part of which is equally near and equally distant from the centre.

THE CIRCLE

is therefore, a striking emblem of the relation in which the creature stands to his Creator. As every part of the circumference of a Circle is equally near and equally distant from its centre, so is every creature whom God has made, to Him equally near and equally distant.

THE EQUILATERAL OR PERFECT TRIANGLE

is an emblem of the three essential attributes of Deity, namely, Omnipresence, Omniscience and Omnipotence; and as the three equal legs or equal angles form but one triangle, so these three equal attributes constitute but one God.

Q.—Wht is th us of th ch?

A.—Th ch is an in us by op Mas to cu, ca, ma an in thr wo.

Q.—Wht do it mo de?

A.—The advantages of discipline and education. The mind, like the diamond in its original state, is rude and unpolished; but as the effect of the chisel on the external coat soon presents to view the latent beauties of the diamond, so education discovers the latent virtues of the mind, and draws them forth to range the large field of matter and space, to display the summit of human knowledge, our duty to God and to man.

Q.—Wht is th us of th ma?

A.—Th ma is an in us by op Mas to kn of exs an sm sus.

Q.—Wht do it mo te?

A.—To correct irregularities, and to reduce man to a proper level; so that, by quiet deportment, he may, in the school of discipline, learn to be content. What the mallet is to the workmen, enlightened reason is to the passions; it curbs ambition, depresses envy, moderates anger, and encourages good dispositions; whence arises, among good Masons, that comely order which nothing earthly gives, or can destroy, the soul's calm sunshine and the heartfelt joy.

Q.—What are the Working Tools and Principal Emblems of a Royal Arch Mason?

A.—The Square and Compasses, which have been presented to our view in every degree of Freemasonry through which we have passed.

Q.—How are they explained?

A.—The Square teaches us, as Royal Arch Masons, that God has made all things square, upright, and perfect.

The Compasses is an instrument used by operative Masons to describe Circles, every part of which is equally near and equally distant from the centre.

MEMORANDA

Q.—Explain the Circle.

A.—The Circle is therefore, a striking emblem of the relation in which the creature stands to his Creator. As every part of the circumference of a Circle is equally near and equally distant from its centre, so is every creature whom God has made, to Him equally near and equally distant.

Q.—What is the equilateral or perfect Triangle?

A.—It is an emblem of the three essential attributes of Deity, namely, Omnipresence, Omniscience and Omnipotence; and as the three equal legs or equal angles form but one triangle, so these three equal attributes constitute but one God.
