SEMI-PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS
FULL FORM CEREMONY

SEMI-PUBLIC INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS - FULL FORM CEREMONY

FULL FORM CEREMONY Prior to the Excellent Chief-elect being installed in a public or private ceremony, it is necessary that a Council of Installed Excellent Chiefs be convened and he receive instruction as to the "Secrets restricted to the Office of Excellent Chief of a Council of Knight Masons". Upon conclusion of the work of the Council of Installed Excellent Chiefs, the Past Excellent Chief, who will be acting as the Installing Officer (I. O.), will proclaim the Council of Installed Excellent Chiefs closed and labor resumed in a Council of Knight Masons. (Refer to Ritual for a Council of Installed Excellent Chiefs printed under separate cover).

[Note: - Extra chairs should be placed at the D. of C. and Priest stations for the Installing Conductor and Installing Priest.]

I. O.-The installing suite will take their stations. [Done.]

I. O. - Sir Knight Conductor you will invite the officers, members, and their guests to return to the Council Room.

[Note: - The Officers should take their current stations. After all are seated, the I. O. should make some welcoming remarks especially to the guests seated on the sidelines.]

I. O. - Sir Knight Conductor, you will retire the current officers of _____ Council No.____ and conduct the newly elected and appointed Officers into the Council.

Cond. - Officers will rise. I will make one circuit of the Council Room and the retiring Officers and the new Officers to be installed will fall -in, single file, behind me with the retiring Excellent Chief at the end.

[Note: - Conductor makes one circuit of the Council Room and halts the procession, before the door, in the Southwest corner of the room. He gives a command of Right Face, proceeds to end of procession and conducts the retiring Excellent Chief out of the Lodge. The I. O. should initiate the applause as the retiring Excellent Chief is escorted from the Council Room. The remainder of the Officers will exit in single file, starting from the end of the line.]

[Note: - Outside of the Council Room, the Conductor will assemble the Officers to be installed; according to their Rank and Station into a single file with the Excellent Chief at the head and with the Tyler at the end. When the line is assembled, the Conductor conducts the elected and appointed Officers to be installed into the Council Room; forming a single line, West of and three steps from the Altar with the Excellent Chief-elect at his immediate right.]

I. O. - Sir Knight Conductor, you will present the Excellent Chief-elect at the altar.

[The Conductor escorts Excellent Chief-elect to the Altar, causes him to kneel and returns to head of line.]

Cond.- E. C., I now present to you our Brother, Sir Knight _____, to be installed as Excellent Chief of this Council for the ensuing year. We know him to be a true and valiant Sir Knight, skilled in our mysteries, and we pray that he be now installed.

I. O. - Sir Knight Priest, Lead our devotions. [Knocks with Trowel.]

{Priest proceeds to East of Altar, kneels or stands, facing the Excellent Chief-elect.}

Priest. - [The Priest may use any prayer of his choosing but should end his prayer with the following.] Almighty and most merciful God, direct us, we pray Thee, in all our doings by thy gracious favor, and further us with Thy continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy Holy Name. Amen. So Mote It Be.

[At the completion of his prayer, Priest returns to his station and is seated.]

I. O. - Please be seated. [Knock. with Trowel.]

I. O.- Sir Knight _____, before I can proceed to install you in the Chair of Excellent Chief, it is necessary to obtain your assent to the following binding institutes:

I. O. - Do you promise strictly to conform to and observe the Laws, Constitutions and Orders of the Most Excellent Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America?

E.C.-elect. - I do.

I. O. - Do you promise to devote your self to forwarding the welfare of this Council and adhere to such By - laws as may be sanctioned by the Most Excellent Grand Council for its government?

E.C.-elect. - I do.

I. O. - Do you promise to govern this Council, or any other Council of Knight Masons over which you may be called upon to preside, in a just, equitable, and impartial manner?

E.C.-elect: I do.

I. O. - Sir Knights, you have heard the undertakings by which your Excellent Chief is bound.

I. O. - Sir Knight Conductor, you will conduct the Excellent Chief to the Chair.

[Excellent Chief-elect is seated in the Chair. Conductor returns to position next to the Senior General-elect.]

I. O. - Sir Knights, I proclaim to you that Sir Knight _____ has been lawfully installed in the Chair of Excellent Chief.

(Installing Officer descends to the floor, stands near to the Southwest corner of the Altar facing the East, and gestures toward the Holy Writ).

I. O.- Excellent Chief, I figuratively hand over to you the Roll of the Law which we believe to contain those Divine Precepts by which all Masons should be guided in their journey through life.

[Installing Officer proceeds to Scribe's desk and picks up the Bylaws.]

I. O. - The Bylaws of this Council on which you will base all your decisions for the good government of this Council and the general welfare of the Order.

[Returns the Bylaws to desk.]

[Installing Officer points to the Charter at the base of the Pedestal in the East.]

I. O. - The Warrant, the authority without which meetings of this Council cannot be held. You will guard it carefully for it is the Instrument by which you rule and is the Symbol of your obedience to constituted authority.

[Installing Officer returns to the Altar, stands near to the Southwest corner of the Altar facing the East, and picks up the Sword.]

I. O.- The Sword, the symbol of Justice. You will use it only to maintain the right, to uphold the weak, to shield the innocent, to protect the poor and defend the widow and the orphan.

[Installing Officer returns Sword to Altar and picks up the Trowel.]

I. O. - The Trowel, the symbol of that affection and kindness which cements all the members of the Masonic family into one great companionship of brotherly love.

[I. O. returns to East.]

I. O. - Sir Knights, assist me to salute your newly installed Excellent Chief with 7 and 2, taking your cue from me. [Done.]

[Note: - If non-members are seated as guests on the sidelines, applause or the Public Honors of Freemasonry (3 X 3, right over left etc.) may be substituted for the above.]

[Note: - At the discretion of the E. C. and if time is of concern, the remaining Officers, both elected and appointed may be installed using the optional short form ritual which follows at the end of this procedure. Should any Officer be continuing in his respective station, such as Scribe, it is not necessary that he be reinstalled. Should an Officer not be present for installation, it is permissible to use a proxy in his stead.]

I. O. - Sir Knight Conductor, present the remaining Officers to be installed, at the altar.

[Note: - The remaining Officers will be presented and installed in one group. As they are introduced by the Conductor, each of the Officers will take one step forward. Each Officer, following his being installed, is to be conducted to his station by the Conductor and is seated. The Conductor returns to the West of the Altar.]

CEREMONY OF INSTITUTION OF A COUNCIL UNDER DISPENSATION

CEREMONY OF INSTITUTION OF A COUNCIL UNDER DISPENSATION

This Ceremony was located by Douglas L. Jordan, Grand Scribe of the Grand Council of Knight Masons for the United States of America in a file denominated "November 1961" in the papers of Harold Van Buren Voorhis, Past Provincial Grand Superintendent of the Grand Council of Knight Masons headquartered in Dublin, Ireland, and the initial Past Great Chief for the Grand Council of Knight Masons of the U.S.A.

This Ceremony was originally a Ceremony of Constitution of a Council, and it appears to be an unofficial short-form version of the Ceremony of Constitution adopted by the Grand Council of Knight Masons, headquartered in Dublin, Ireland, on June 24, 1961.

A Ceremony of Institution of a Council Under Dispensation has not been located. The Grand Council of Knight Masons of the USA issues a Dispensation for a new council, which is later confirmed and replaced by a Charter if the new Council meets the requirements of, and is approved by the Grand Council. A Ceremony of Institution of a Council Under Dispensation is needed to set to work a Council Under Dispensation. Therefore, the original short-form Voorhis Ceremony of Constitution has been revised to be a Ceremony of Institution of a Council Under Dispensation, keeping the original Ceremony in tact as much as possible.

Preliminary arrangements

The Initial Members of the Council shall be seated in the front of the Hall. Visitors and aspirants shall be seated thereafter.

The Instituting Officer (the Great Chief or his deputy for the institution) will remain outside with an Instituting Director of Ceremonies, appointed by the Instituting Officer. When all is in readiness the Instituting Director of Ceremonies will enter and announce:

Sir Knights, the Most Excellent Great Chief (or the Deputy for ...) is about to enter the Council Chamber. Please arise.

When all have arisen, the procession enters with the Instituting Director of Ceremonies first and the Instituting Officer following. He is escorted to his seat in the East, where he is seated by the Instituting Director of Ceremonies, the latter taking his seat at the left and in front of the Instituting Officer

Instituting Officer; — I declare this occasional Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America open in ample form, Sir Knights will be seated,

The Instituting Officer then proceeds as follows:

Sir Knights, I have been directed by the Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America to form and institute a Council of Knight Masons in this city, in consequence of a petition of Sir Knights of this locality for a dispensation for a Council, and it is my pleasure to advise you that the Grand Council has heeded your petition and granted the desired dispensation.

The Instituting Director of ceremonies, now in possession of said dispensation, will read this document. (Done).

The instituting officer then proceeds as follows.

The charter Sir Knights will be required to assent to the following binding institutes. You will arise and place your right hand over your heart. (Done)

Do you promise to observe and strictly conform to the laws and constitutions of the Most Excellent Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America and be loyal to the Most Excellent Great Chief as head of the Order of Knight Masons in the United States of America and obey such edicts as may be lawfully issued under his authority? (Answer)

Do you promise to devote yourselves to the promotion of the welfare of this Council about to be constituted and adhere to such by-laws as may be sanctioned from time to time by the Most Excellent Grand Council for its good government? (Answer)

Do you promise that you will not admit to this order or install in any office thereof anyone who had not received the Craft and Capitular degrees of Freemasonry, nor anyone whose admission thereto or installation therein will not be to its honor, dignity and interest? (Answer)

All Sir Knights will arise (Done)

May He Who is Love pour down upon us the oil of His Grace. May He grant that the members of this Council be ever of one mind and one heart, and may they ever do unto others as we would they do to us. Amen.

Sir Knights be seated The instituting Director of Ceremonies will present the Excellent Chief designate of this Council. (Done)

In consequence of your assent to the binding institutes and by virtue of the power and authority from the Most Excellent Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America, in me vested, and all other powers and authorities me thereunto enabling, I hereby constitute (Knocks: ●●●●●●●●) as a regular Council of Knight Masons Council Name Council, and I declare said Council registered on the Roll of Councils of the Most Excellent Grand Council of the United States of America as a Council Under Dispensation.

I further declare the officers of this Council Under Dispensation to be:
*(Reads the names, etc.)

Sir Knight instituting Director of Ceremonies, declare the Council has been instituted (Done).

Instituting Director of Ceremonies: In the name and under the authority of the Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America, and by direction of the Instituting Officer, I declare _____ Council to be under Dispensation until such time as it is granted a Charter, or surrenders its Dispensation, or that the same is recalled by the Most Excellent Great Chief. All Sir Knights will take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

Instituting officer: Sir Knights Arise: Salute with the honors of five and two, taking your time from the instituting Marshal. (Done).

I declare this occasional Grand Council of Knight Masons of the United States of America closed in ample form.

The G.D. of Ceremonies presents the Signet to the M.E. Great Chief saying:

“I now deliver to you a Knight Mason’s Signet of Authority.”

The Officers, having assumed their stations the Roll is called.

The M.E. Great Chief calls on the Grand Scribe to read the Authority of Grand Council (or the Commission) to constitute the new Council (name and number).

The Grand Scribe reads the Grand Council Summons (or the Commission).

The M.E. Great Chief opens an occasional Grand Council for the purposes of Constitution

The M.E. Great Chief announces the issue of the Warrant and the object of the occasional meeting of Gd. Council to be the Constitution of a Council of Kt. Masons, and calls upon the Grand Scribe to produce and read the Warrant.

Grand Scribe — Most Ex. Great Chief, a number of Sir Kts., duly instructed in the mysteries of the Craft, of the M.M.M., of the Royal Arch and of Knight Masons, being zealous of promoting the honour and of propagating the principles enunciated in Knight Masonry have applied to the M.E. Grand Council for a Warrant to hold a Council in _____ which having been granted them, is as follows (reads Warrant). The Petitioners are now assembled and are desirous of being duly constituted into a Regular Council of Kt. Mason of having the Council dedicated and their Officers installed and invested in due and ancient form.

The Grand Scribe having so said~ submits the Warrant, Roll of officers and members of the new Council and copies of the Laws and Constitutions for inspection by M. E. Great Chief.

HYMN

O God of Bethell, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led:

Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before Thy throne of grace:
God of our Fathers! be the God
Of their succeeding race.

The M.E. Great Chief directs the Grand Dir. of Ceremonies to assemble the Petitioners in the West.

The 68th Psalm is read -

Grand Priest: O sing unto God, and sing praises unto His Name; magnify him that rideth upon the heavens; praise Him in His Name JAH and rejoice before Him. He is a father of the fatherless, and defendeth the cause of the widows; even God in his holy habitation.

He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captivity; but letteth the rebellious continue in scarceness.

Thou art gone up on high, Thou hast led thy captivity captive and received gifts from men; yea, even from thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them. Praised be the Lord daily; even the God who helpth us, and poureth his benefits upon us.

Give thanks, O israel, unto God the Lord in the congregations; from the ground of the heart.

There is little Benjamin their ruler, and the princes of Judah their council; the princes of Zabulon and the princes of Napthali.

Thy God hath sent forth strength for thee; establish the Thing, O God, that Thou hast wrought in us. For Thy temple's sake at Jerusalem; so shall kings bring presents unto Thee.

The M..E. Great Chief addresses the Petitioners and directing them to draw their Swords, continues:-

Sir Knight A. B. and your accompanying Sir Kt. Masons, before I may proceed to constitute the _____ Council, it is my duty to receive the assent of each of you to the following binding Institutes. As you assent, you will depress the point of your Sword and then raise it aloft.

- 1. Do you and each of you promise to observe and strictly conform to the Laws and Constitutions of the M.E. Grand Council of Kt. Masons of the United States of America?
- 2. Do you and each of you promise to be loyal to the M.E. Great Chief as head of the Order of Knight Masons of the United States of America, and obey such edicts as may be lawfully issued under his authority?
- 3. Do you and each of you;— promise to devote yourselves at all times to the promotion: of the welfare of the _____ Council and adhere to such Bye-Laws as may be sanctioned from time to time by the Most Excellent Grand Council for its good government?
- 4. Do you and each of you promise that you will not admit into this Exalted Order or install in any Office therein anyone who has not received the Degrees of Craft Masonry and of M.M.M. and of R.A.M., and whose admission thereto or installation therein will not be to its honour, dignity and interest?

M.E. Great Chief:— Sir Knights, as you have satisfactorily answered these questions I shall now proceed to constitute the Council.

The M. E. Great Chief then directs the Petitioners (in order) to approach the Altar Table and each lay his Sword upon the same, having the points meeting on the Trowel resting on the Roll of the Law.

M.E. Great Chief: — Sir Knights arise.

The M.E. Great Chief stands. The Grand Officers in procession bearing the symbols of the new Council:-

- 1. Roll of the Law.*
- 2. Laws and Constitutions.*
- 3. Warrant.*
- 4. Sword, and*
- 5. Trowel.*
- 6. Corn, Wine and Oil.*

make a circuit of the Council Chamber during which the following verse is sung:

Through each perplexing path of life,
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us each our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

The procession halts and forms round the Altar, facing inwards.

The Ewer of Corn is presented to the M.E. Great Chief in the following terms:-

M.E. Great Chief, it has been the custom from time immemorial in the Constitution of all new Councils to pour out Corn as the emblem of nourishment. I therefore present to you this Ewer of Corn to be applied by you in accordance with ancient usages.

The M.E. Great Chief receives the Ewer, strikes with his Trowel once and proceeds to scatter (using the Trowel) the Corn saying:

M.E. Great Chief: — I scatter Corn in token of Prosperity and Plenty.

V.E. Grand Priest: — May the Giver of all good things shower clown His choicest blessings on this Council of Kt. Masons.

Sir Kts. respond:— So mote it be.

A second circuit is then made, during which the following verse is sung:

Oh spread thy covering wings around
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

The Procession having halted as before in the East, the Vessel of Wine is presented, and the M.E. Great Chief addressed as follows:—

M.E. Great Chief, Wine the Emblem of Refreshment having been used by the Ancient Masons in the Dedication and Consecration of their temples, I present to you this Vessel of Wine to be used by you according to ancient Masonic Customs.

The M.E. Great Chief here dips his Trowel in the Wine, sprinkles It on the Council and says

M.E. Great Chief: — I sprinkle Wine in token of Cheerfulness and Joy.

V.E. Grand Priest: — May the Almighty give us the Wine of Gladness and make us ever ready to relieve the wants of others.

Sir Kts. respond: — So mote it be.

A third circuit is made during which the following verse is sung:

Such blessings from Thy gracious hand
Our humble prayers implore;
Be Thou to us the Lord our God,
Our portion evermore.

The Procession having arrived a third time in the East, the Vessel of Oil is presented to the M.E. Great Chief, who is addressed as follows:—

M.E. Great Chief, I now present to you this Vessel of Oil to be used by you according to our Ancient Rites.

The M.E. Great Chief taking the Oil on the Trowel sprinkles it on the Altar, on the points of the Swords of the Petitioners and on the floor of the Council, saying:

M.E. Great Chief:— I sprinkle Oil in token of Peace Love, and Harmony

V.E. Grand Priest: — May He who is Love pour down upon us the precious Oil of His Grace, May He grant that the members of this Council be ever of one mind and one heart, and may they ever do unto others as we would they should do to us.

Sir Kts. respond — So mote it be

The M.E. Great Chief and Procession remain standing round the Altar while the following verse is sung:

Wide as the world is Thy command,
Vast as eternity Thy love,
Firm as a rock Thy truth shall stand.
When rolling years cease to move.

All but the Petitioners draw swords at direction of the Grand Director of Ceremonies.

The Grand Priest leading, all Sir Kts. raising the points of their Swords aloft exclaim:—

Sir Kts.:— Great is truth and mighty above all things.

(Raboh keshout usenatzach.)

The Grand Sen. and Jun. Kts. and the Grand Sen. and Jun. W's advance to the Altar and cross their Swords over the Roll of the Law.

M.E. Great Chief:— In consequence of your cheerful assent to the bidding Institutes and by virtue of the power and authority from the M.E., the Grand Council of Kt. Masons in me vested and all other powers and authorities me there unto enabling, I hereby constitute as a regular Council of Kt. Masons _____ Council (raising his Sword with a flourish through the crossed Swords of Grand Sen. and Jun. Kts. and Grand Sr. and Jun. W's so as to break them apart) and I declare the same duly constituted and numbered on the Roll of the M.E. Grand Council.

Knocks with Trowel. •

And I further declare

(As each name is mentioned he takes his Sword from the Altar and stands to attention.)

Sir Knight	Steward
Sir Knight	Sentinel

The Sir Knights who carried Corn, Wine and Oil retire from the Altar.

The bearers of the Symbols then hand them to the M.E. Great Chief, who accepts and says:—

M.E. Great Chief:— By virtue of the authority entrusted to me, I place in proper position on the Altar for the use of _____ Council No. _____ the Symbols of Knight Masonry without which no work can be lawfully transacted in the Council.

Places Roll of the Law, Trowel and Sword.

The Director of Ceremonies then removes the Symbols of Grand Council and hands them to the Sir Knights who bore the Symbols of the New Council. The Standard of Grand Council is furled.

DEDICATION

The M.E.G.C. directs all the Sir Knights to assume the attitude of Prayer (Swords depressed) and delivers the following Invocation:—

M.E. Great Chief:— Invoking the blessing and favour of the All Merciful ,and Gracious Creator of whose Free and Universal Bounty this Corn, Wine and Oil are the significant emblems and of whose Law's the Sword and Trowel and the Roll of the Laws are the symbols to us, I dedicate this Council of Kt. Masons to zeal and perseverance in the search after Truth and the cultivation of Brotherly Love. May the Great Creator protect this Council and all true Knight Masons and prosper our Order

Sir Kts. respond:— O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good and His mercy endureth for ever,

Grand Director of Ceremonies: — Carry Swords. Return swords.

The Grand Priest reads the Constitution Prayer:—

V.E. Grand Priest : — Almighty and Everlasting God, thou great Creator of the Universe, we pray Thee to shower upon these Thy servants and on those who may succeed them in the active duties of this Council, a full measure of Thy divine favour. Grant that the affairs of the Council now established may be conducted by them with wisdom to discern, perseverance to pursue and zeal and fidelity to uphold its true interests. Grant that these symbols which have been entrusted to their keeping, may ever remind them to deal justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly before Thee and to zealously persevere in that Search after Truth which is the aim of all true Masons.

May this Council be established to Thy Glory and devoted to the moral and intellectual advancement of all its members.

All:— So mote it be.

HYMN.

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of days,
Almighty, victorious, Thy great Name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light,
Nor wanting, nor wasting, Thou rulest in might;
Thy justice, like mountains high soaring above
Thy clouds, which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all, life Thou givest to both great and small,
In all life Thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish — but naught changeth thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, Thine Angels adore Thee, all veiling their sight; All laud we render: O help us to see 'Tis only the splendour of Light hideth Thee.

After the Hymn the Grand Priest delivers the Benediction:—

V.E. Grand Priest :— The Lord bless you and preserve you, the Lord make his Face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up the Light of His Countenance upon you and give you Peace both now and for evermore.

Grand Director of Ceremonies calls for the salute of the new Council.

A procession is then formed in accordance with the Ritual of installation of Excellent Chief.:

The M.E. Great Chief then proceeds to install the E.C.

The E. C. installs his Officers, the business of the Council is transacted and the Council is then closed.

The M.E. the Grand Council in occasional meeting has already dissolved, its authority having been spent in the ceremony of Constitution.

The Ceremony of Constitution was revised by the Ritual Committee of the Grand Council of Knight Masons meeting in Dublin and in Belfast, Ireland. This script was approved in principle at a meeting of Grand Council of Knight Masons held in Belfast, Ireland on June 24th, 1961.

J. H. Keers, Deputy Great Chief
