CRONINGER PRINTING CO.,
COVINGTON, KY.

R. E. Sir GEO. A. LEWIS, Grand Commander, Frankfort, Ky.:

DEAR SIR AND FRATER—Your committee appointed at the last session of the Grand Commandery, in regard to a uniform, submits herewith a report as to what shall constitute the regular uniform for Knights Templar in Kentucky

We have carefully considered the regulations of other States and reconciled the differences contained therein, and now present for your consideration a uniform, with as few changes from the commonly accepted uniform now used in our State as could be consistently made

Fraternally submitted,

FRANK H. JOHNSON,
JOHN H. COWLES,
EDWARD C. SELLERS

Committee

UNIFORM REGULATIONS.

1st. It is hereby required of all Kentucky Commanderies that when they shall hereafter procure uniforms or parts of uniforms as Knights of the Red Cross or Knights Templar, such uniforms or parts of uniforms shall strictly conform with these regulations.

2nd. Any Sir Knight who shall transgress or violate any of these regulations, shall, upon conviction thereof, be reproved, reprimanded or suspended at the discretion of his Commandery.

3d. Any Commandery that shall fail to enforce these regulations shall be reprimanded in general orders by the Grand Commander, and if it persists in its tactics its charter may be arrested.

4th. Inspecting Officers shall "inspect the lines" as nearly as practicable, according to the tactical forms and report every instance of violation or non-conformity with these uniform regulations

UNIFORM IN DETAIL.

FULL DRESS COAT.—Double breasted frock coat of black cloth, lined with black material, with straight standing collar, not less than one inch nor more than one and one-half inches in height, to hook in front at the seam, with a V opening at the throat and sloping at an angle of twenty-five degrees, buttoned with two rows of buttons nine in each row, placed four and one-half to five and one-half inches apart from eye to eye at top button, according to breadth of chest, and two and one-half to three and one-half inches apart from eye to eye at bottom button. Skirt of coat to have side edges and to reach no lower than two inches above the bend of knee; rear of skirt to have four buttons, two at waist seam and two at bottom of side edges. Sleeves of coat to be finished with stitching to simulate cuffs, three and one-half inches deep with three small buttons on each cuff and with an appropriate cross in the center of the front of the cuff, the horizontal arm of the cross resting on the seam of stitching.

FOR GRAND COMMANDERS AND OFFICERS OF THE GRAND COMMANDERY—The same coat as described above, buttoned with two rows of gold metal K. T. buttons, nine in each row, arranged in groups of three, with a Templar Cross on sleeve of red silk velvet, bordered with a single row of No. 26 gilt or gold bullion embroidery three-sixteenths of an inch wide, with one red stone set at intersection of the points of said cross in the center, outside measurement of said cross, including the embroidery, to be one and one-half inches square

FOR PAST COMMANDERS AND COMMANDERS—Same coat as above, except buttoned with two rows of gold metal K. T. buttons, nine in each row, arranged equal in distance one from the other. A Passion Cross on the sleeve of red silk velvet, embroidered on each edge with one row of No. 26 gilt or gold bullion embroidery, three-sixteenths of an inch wide, with rays between the arms of the cross alternately in No. 26 and No. 27 gilt or gold bullion embroidery, in solid pattern; said cross to be, including embroidery, two inches high, cross arm to be one and one-third inches long, center of the cross between the edges of embroidery to be three-sixteenths of an inch wide.

FOR OFFICERS AND SIR KNIGHTS BELOW THE RANK OF EMINENT COMMANDER.—The same as described above for Grand Officers and Eminent Commanders, except that the coat shall be single breasted, with nine silver metal K. T. buttons in front, equal in distance, one from the other, four buttons on the skirt and three on each sleeve, same size, pattern and material as those above described for Grand Officers and Eminent Commanders. The cuff shall be the same as that above described, except that the cross thereon shall be of red silk velvet, bordered with one row of No 26 silver plated bullion embroidery, the cross to be of the same dimensions as that prescribed for Past Commanders and Commanders, except that it shall have no rays

PAST GRAND COMMANDERS shall wear the same coat as that prescribed for officers of the Grand Commandery, except sleeve crosses with purple velvet centers and purple stone sets.

TROUSERS

FOR ALL OFFICERS AND MEMBERS —To be of black broad cloth or doe skin, of standard military cut, without side stripes or ornamentation of any sort whatsoever

SWORD

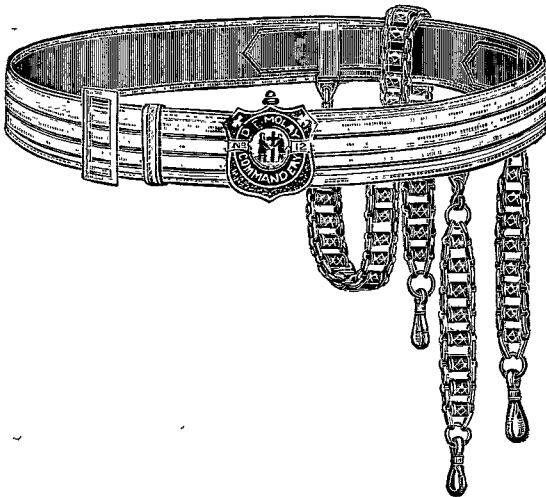

FOR GRAND OFFICERS, PAST COMMANDERS AND COMMANDERS—To be from 32 to 40 inches long, according to height, inclusive of scabbard, with helmet head, straight cross guard, metal scabbard, white ivory handle. The scabbard to have two metal rings at the upper mount and one at the middle mount. The ivory handle to be ornamented in front with the monogram of the owner, and on the opposite side is a Passion Cross with rays, provided, that Grand Officers may have the Templar Cross etched upon the sword handle if they so elect. All metal to be gilt or gold plate.

FOR SIR-KNIGHTS —A sword with white metal scabbard, suspended by three white metal rings, two at the upper mount and one at the middle mount; a straight cross guard, a helmet head, a white ivory handle, etched in front with the monogram of the owner, and on the opposite side with a plain Passion Cross without rays.

On all swords for both officers and members there shall be no chain from pommel to cross guard, nor shall the guard be other than a straight, solid pattern with curved edges. A blade not to exceed nineteen millimeters in width, with a scabbard to properly accommodate the same. All scabbards should be devoid of elaborate ornamentation and must contain no emblem other than recognized emblems of the Order.

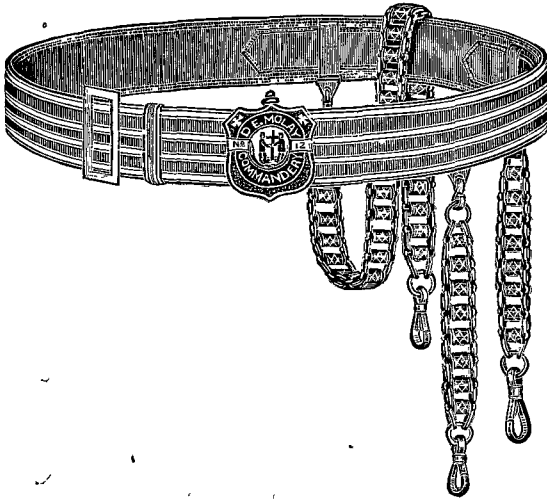

BELTS.

FOR GRAND OFFICERS, PAST COMMANDERS AND COMMANDERS — A red euameled or patent leather strap, one and three-quarter inches wide, fastened with gold-plated buckle or clasp, of pattern hereinafter described. The strap is to be trimmed over its entire width with metal and silk woven lace of gilt and red, known as Artillery lace. Three gold plated barrel chains supported by slides on the inside of the belt, two of said chains being short, the remaining one long with swivels and snaps at the lower ends thereof. On the top ring of the front short chain shall be a gold-plated sword hook.

FOR OFFICERS AND SIR KNIGHTS BELOW THE RANK OF EMINENT COMMANDER — A black enamel leather strap, one and three-fourth inches ($1\frac{3}{4}$) wide, mounted with a lace woven of silver wire, and black silk one and five-eighth ($1\frac{5}{8}$) inches wide, with colors in parallel stripes, four of silver and three of black; the black stripes to be of equal width, and silver stripes to be five thirty-seconds of an inch wide. The belt clasped with silver-plated belt plate of pattern hereinafter described, and to have three barrel chains on which to hang the sword, two of said chains being short and one long The chains to be suspended from a leather strap fastened to the inside of the belt; each chain to have heavy silver-plated swivels and snaps at the lower ends thereof On the first chain at the lower edge of the belt to be placed a silver-plated sword hook.

BELT BUCKLE OR CLASP.

To be shield shaped, two and one-half ($2\frac{1}{2}$) inches wide by two and three-quarter ($2\frac{3}{4}$) inches long, of hard metal with helmet head at the top and center of shield, across the upper part of the buckle in half circle, the name of the Commandery, in the lower half circle the word "Commaudery" In the center of the two half circles is the number of the Commandery. In the center of the shield shall appear the coat-of-arms of the State of Kentucky, in the center of the coat-of-arms a Passion Cross of red hard euamel.

COMMANDERS AND PAST COMMANDERS shall wear the Passion Cross as above described, except with rays around the intersection of the arms of the cross

BALDRIC.

Worn only by officers and members under the rank of Eminent Commander. Body of Baldric to be four (4) inches in width, the center of white moire antique silk, bordered on each side with black silk velvet, one inch in width, over the seam where the velvet joins the silk to be a strip of silver-plated wire lace, three (3) lignes in width of vellum pattern (No. 1962) "On the center and front of the baldric a white metal star of nine points, in the center of star a Passion Cross without rays, the center of which is lined or filled with red silk velvet, surrounded by the motto, "IN HOC SIGNO VINCES;" said star to be three and three-fourth ($3\frac{3}{4}$) inches in diameter; the ends of baldric to be held in place by a metal clasp or fastening, so that the point of intersection shall be six (6) inches from the lower end of the baldric; on the outer side, at point of intersection, a silver-plated plate or hauger in the shape of a Templar Cross, which may be provided with device for supporting the sword. Baldric is to be lined with green moire silk throughout its entire width and length. At the back of the baldric, so as to show on the left breast when reversed, a cross of equal arms and angles, made of red satin ribbon, one inch wide, the total length of the arms being four inches; said cross to be mitered in the center. The shoulder seam on the outside of the baldric is to be covered on the white moire silk only with a piece of silver-plated wire lace, nine (9) lignes wide, of double edged pattern (No 2035). The baldric is to be worn from the right shoulder to the left hip.
