Constitution
of
THE HIGH COUNCIL
Societas Rosicruciana

In Civitatibus Foederatis

As Amended Through June 30, 1979

Now, in consequence with the provisional Act of Constitution of April, 1880, and of the Affirmative Act of September 21, 1880, the Amendments passed subsequently, The High Council does hereby, in the exercise of its functions and its highest powers, ordain the following.

HIGH COUNCIL

Section 1—TITLE The supreme governing body of the Society of Rosicrucians shall be styled "The High Council Societas Rosicruciana in Civitatibus Foederatis", and declares itself entirely independent, established on its own basis, and as a Society is in no wise connected with any other institution, saving and excepting that its members shall be selected from Master Masons in good and regular standing

Section 2—CONVOCATIONS The High Council shall hold Annual Convocations at such time and place as the Supreme Magus shall determine. Special Convocations may be held at the call of the Supreme Magus

Section 3—COMPOSITION OF THE HIGH COUNCIL The High Council shall be composed of all members of the Third Order, plus those Celebrants who have not attained the Eighth Grade, while in office

Section 4—OFFICERS The Officers of The High Council shall consist of the following (The "Ruling Magi" shall be the first three)

|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1—Supreme Magus | 10—Fifth Ancient |
| 2—Senior Substitute Magus | 11—Sixth Ancient |
| 3—Junior Substitute Magus | 12—Seventh Ancient |
| 4—Treasurer-General | 13—Precentor |
| 5—Secretary-General | 14—Conductor of Novices |
| 6—First Ancient | 15—Torch Bearer |
| 7—Second Ancient | 16—Herald |
| 8—Third Ancient | 17—Guardian of the Caverns |
| 9—Fourth Ancient | 18—Medallist |

Section 5—ELECTIONS The Supreme Magus shall be elected ad vitam. All other officers shall be elected annually. Should vacancies occur due to deaths, resignations, or other inability of the incumbent to serve his elected term, the Supreme Magus shall fill any vacancy by appointment, the appointed officer to fill the office for the remainder of the term.

Section 6—ELIGIBILITY TO OFFICE Any member who has attained the Eighth Grade is eligible to office in The High Council.

Section 7—VOTE AND VOICE All members of the High Council shall have one vote only and voice in elections and questions brought before it—except in the matter of Ritual, which shall be solely under the care and control of the three Ruling Magi.

Section 8—QUORUM Five members of The High Council, including at least one of the Ruling Magi, shall constitute a quorum of The High Council.

Section 9—TITLES Members of the Society shall be known as Fraters with the following titles:

Most Worthy—Supreme Magus

Right Worthy—Ninth and Eighth Grades

Very Worthy—Celebrants and Suffragans of Colleges

Worthy — All other—First to Seventh Grades

Section 10—NINTH GRADE By virtue of the office held by the Supreme Magus, Senior Substitute Magus, Junior Substitute Magus, Treasurer-General, Secretary-General and Chief Adept of a College, they shall be elevated to the Grade of Magus. All Grades shall be ad vitam, and therefore, shall not cease should an office incumbent cease to hold office. This shall not preclude The High Council from conferring Honorary Eighth and Ninth Grades.

Section 11—POWER TO VISIT Any of the three Ruling Magi shall have the right and power to visit and inspect all Colleges.

Section 12—RULING MAGI VACANCIES In case of death, resignation, removal from the jurisdiction, or other cause, of one or both of the Substitute Magi, the vacancy or vacancies shall be filled for the remaining portion of the triennial term by a majority vote of The High Council at its first Convocation thereafter, Annual or otherwise. In case of a vacancy in the office of Supreme Magus, the Senior Substitute Magus, by virtue of his office and rank, shall immediately succeed to the highest office, with all the rights, powers and privileges thereto belonging, and in like manner the Junior Substitute Magus shall thereupon succeed as Senior Substitute Magus. A Supreme Magus thus created shall complete the triennial term of his predecessor when the next election will take place.

Section 13—HONORARY MEMBERS Honorary membership may be conferred upon distinguished Fraters by The High Council or by the Supreme Magus. This distinction is to be confined to members of the Third Order of other Rosicrucian Societies recognized by The High Council. There shall be no fee for Honoris Causa.

Section 14—GRADE DESIGNATIONS Full membership in any Grade shall be designated by Roman Numerals following the name. Honorary membership shall be designated by an Arabic Numeral following the name. Such numerals shall be followed by the "degree" mark (°).

Section 15—EXPENDITURES No contract to bind The High Council for the payment of funds of The High Council shall be entered into unless approved by the Supreme Magus, or by the affirmative vote of The High Council. The Treasurer-General shall honor for payment all bills approved by the Supreme Magus or, when the contract is approved by The High Council, they may be approved by the Secretary-General.

Section 16—SEE AND OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS The See of the Society shall be in the City of Boston, Massachusetts, U S A , and all printed official documents shall emanate from said city. However, the Supreme Magus may issue Edicts, Decretals and other documents from his place of residence at his discretion.

Section 17—DUTY OF SUPREME MAGUS The Supreme Magus, together with the two Substitute Magi, shall form the Executive Head of the Society in its jurisdiction. The Supreme Magus shall preside over all Convocations of The High Council, and, at his pleasure, over all Colleges of the Society which he shall favor with his presence. He shall have power to call Special Convocations of The High Council, specifying the business to be laid before it, whenever a majority of the Magi shall deem the good of the Society requires it. He shall be punctilious in observing that the Constitution and Edicts of The High Council are strictly executed. He may, with the consent of the majority of the Magi, issue Dispensations for the organization of Colleges during the recess of The High Council, to be returned at the succeeding Annual Convocation, at which time a Charter may be issued by The High Council.

Section 18—DUTY OF THE SUBSTITUTE MAGI The Senior and Junior Substitute Magi shall assist the Supreme Magus in an executive capacity. During any temporary absence from the Country or inability of the Supreme Magus to discharge the duties of his office, the Senior Substitute Magus shall act—and in the absence or inability of both of the aforesaid officers, the Junior Substitute Magus shall assume the duties incumbent thereupon.

Section 19—DUTY OF THE TREASURER-GENERAL The Treasurer-General shall submit at each Annual Convocation of The High

Council, a general and detailed account of all monies received and disbursed by him. He shall faithfully keep the funds received into his custody, in a bank account in the name of the Society, and pay out such monies only upon approval by the Supreme Magus or, the Secretary-General in payment of an appropriation by The High Council.

Section 20—DUTY OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL. The Secretary-General shall keep a record of all the work, deliberations, and transactions of The High Council, and transcribe the same in a book kept for that purpose. He shall keep a copy of all letters and communications emanating from The High Council, and attest and seal, as the case may be, every order, mandate, or act of the Body. Every Diploma, Brief or Letters Patent issued by The High Council shall be attested by his signature and the seal of The High Council. He shall furnish all the Colleges in the jurisdiction with a blank return form in duplicate four weeks before June 30th each year. He shall receive all monies due The High Council and transmit same to the Treasurer-General. He shall be the custodian of the Archives.

Section 21—THE DUTIES OF THE ANCIENTS. In addition to their ceremonial duties, they shall act as aides to the Supreme Magus, Senior and Junior Substitute Magi, Treasurer-General and Secretary-General.

Section 22—DUTIES OF OTHER OFFICERS. The six other officers shall discharge such ceremonial duties pertaining to the constitution of Colleges, installation of officers and conferring Grades on proper occasions—all under the direction of the Ruling Magi.

Section 23—DECLARATIONS. All Declarations and Proclamations shall commence with the words, "In the Name—I. N. R. I."

Section 24—POWER TO CONFER GRADES. The High Council reserves to itself the right of conferring any of the Grades of the Society. It may delegate that right to any Frater of the Second or Third Order to be exercised in countries where no College has been founded or exists, and in the States and Territories of the United States, for the purpose of establishing Bodies of the Society. When The High Council is in recess these powers may be exercised by the Magi.

Section 25—REVENUES. The revenues of The High Council shall be as follows:

Dispensation for Charter (to be returned if Charter is not granted) includes set of rituals	$75 00
Per capita on each College initiate	2 00
Fee for Eighth Grade	15 00
Fee for Ninth Grade	25 00
Per capita on each member as of June 30	1.00

The Supreme Magus shall have the power to lower or dispense with per capita payment for any year, if he shall deem it expedient

Section 26—DISPENSATIONS FOR ELECTIONS. If for any cause the Annual Convocation or Election in a College has not been held at the time prescribed, any one of the three Ruling Magi may grant a dispensation for lawfully convening and holding an election to correct such failure.

COLLEGES

Section 27—TITLE AND JURISDICTION. Subordinate Organizations in this Society shall be known as "Colleges" of which not more than one shall be located in each State or Territory or other political subdivisions of similar nature, without the consent and approval of the College or Colleges already therein existing.

Section 28—ORGANIZATION. For the organization of a College of the Society, at least three Fraters of the Seventh Grade, in good standing, must petition The High Council, through the Supreme Magus, for a Charter. If The High Council is not in Convocation, the Supreme Magus, or the Substitute Magus who is acting as Supreme Magus, may issue a Dispensation, which shall be effective until the first Convocation thereafter of The High Council. The petition must be accompanied by the fee prescribed by this Constitution.

Section 29—OFFICERS. The officers of a College shall be styled and take rank as follows:

1—Chief Adept	10—Conductor of Novices
2—Celebrant	11—Organist
3—Suffragan	12—First Herald
4—Treasurer	13—Second Herald
5—Secretary	14—Torch Bearer
6—First Ancient	15—Guardian of the Caverns
7—Second Ancient	16—Medallist
8—Third Ancient	17—Acolyte
9—Fourth Ancient	18—Librarian (optional)

The Chief Adept is appointed by The Supreme Magus, ad vitam. He is subject to removal by the same power or by The High Council. The Celebrant, Treasurer, Secretary and four Ancients shall be elected each year at the Annual Convocation by ballot, and a majority of votes cast shall constitute election. The officers, if possible, shall be inducted into office the day of election. To be eligible for office a Frater must have attained the Fourth Grade. All officers shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected and installed. The remaining officers are appointed by the Chief Adept.

Section 30—MEMBERSHIP LIMIT. A College, in conformity with ancient usage, shall consist of not more than SEVENTY-TWO members, who shall have voice and vote in the matters pertaining to the College, so far as such matters pertain to the rank of the Frater.

Section 31—CANDIDATES. No Aspirant shall be admitted to membership in a College unless he be a Master Mason of good moral character, intelligent, and possessing a mind free from prejudice and anxious for instruction. The name of the Aspirant shall be submitted by the Chief Adept for scrutiny by the members not less than ten days prior to the College Convocation. Unanimous consent of those present shall be necessary in each Order for admission thereto. Written objection made to the Chief Adept shall be sufficient cause for withdrawal of the petition for membership. It shall be further required that all aspirants shall be of the Christian faith.

Section 32—THE THREE ORDERS. The College has control and power to confer the four Grades of the FIRST ORDER, which are I—ZELATOR, II—PHILOSOPHUS, III—PRACTICUS and IV—THEORICUS, and also the three Grades of the SECOND ORDER, which are V—ADEPTUS JUNIOR, VI—ADEPTUS SENIOR, and VII—ADEPTUS EXEMPTUS. The two Grades of the THIRD ORDER, which are VIII—MAGISTER TEMPLI and IX—MAGUS are official grades and conferred only by The High Council. The Fraters of the THIRD ORDER are all members of The High Council.

Section 33—QUORUM. Not less than FIVE shall constitute a quorum in the First Order and not less than THREE shall constitute a quorum in the Second Order.

Section 34—CONVOCATIONS. Each College shall hold an Annual Convocation prior to June 30. A collation at the Annual Convocation is obligatory.

Section 35—MOTTO. Every Frater shall, on admission in a College, choose a Latin Motto which will be registered with the Secretary-General by the Secretary of the College with the Annual Return. Should it appear that the motto is already chosen by a living Frater in that College, another must be selected. After the Motto is once registered by the Secretary-General it shall not afterwards be changed under any pretext.

Section 36—FEES. The minimum fee for conferring the Grades of the first two Orders shall be not less than TEN DOLLARS, but a College may have a greater fee if approved by The High Council.

Section 37—RIGHTS OF ADVANCEMENT. Candidates elected to the First or the Second Order shall be entitled to all the Grades of such Order.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS OF COLLEGES

Section 38—CHIEF ADEPT. He shall have the general superintendence of all affairs pertaining to the College, he shall preside at all convocations thereof, and appoint all committees, and be ex-officio, chairman of same. He shall discharge all the duties prescribed for him by the Constitution, Ordinances, Regulations, Rituals, and usages of the Order. In his absence the Celebrant shall preside, and thereupon have equal authority as if he were Chief Adept, subject to appeal to the Chief Adept and The High Council. The presiding officer may convoke the College at any time he may deem necessary.

Section 39—CELEBRANT AND SUFFRAGAN. They shall respectively discharge the several duties prescribed for them in the rituals of the Order. In the absence of the Chief Adept and Celebrant the Suffragan, for the time being, shall succeed to the Presidency.

Section 40—TREASURER. He shall receive into his custody all funds, and pay them out only upon a warrant signed by the Secretary and countersigned by the Chief Adept, or subject to such specific regulations adopted by the College. His accounts shall be audited at the Annual Convocation by the Ancients.

Section 41—SECRETARY. He shall convene the College by written notification to all the Fraters ten days prior to the Convocation date. He shall submit to the Fraters the names of all aspirants for their scrutiny. He shall keep the minutes of the College, register all of the members, their mottoes, and dates of admission to each grade, and receive all fees, dues, and subscriptions which shall be paid to the Treasurer for which he shall receive a receipt. His accounts shall be audited at the Annual Convocation by the Ancients. He shall, within ten days after the Annual Convocation, transmit a certificate of the elections of the Officers of the College to the Secretary-General of The High Council, with the post-office address of the Presiding Officer and Secretary. He shall prepare an annual return to The High Council, in duplicate, embracing the transactions for the fiscal year ending the 30th of June, and shall state the Latin Motto for each new Frater. One copy shall be forwarded to the Secretary-General on or before the first day of August in each year and the other filed in the archives of the College. He shall act under the direction of the Chief Adept.

Section 42—FOUR ANCIENTS. They shall assist their superiors in all matters of ritual and ceremony, and instruct their Fraters in the science and philosophy of Rosicrucianism.

Section 43—CONDUCTOR OF NOVICES. He shall examine and prepare all aspirants and conduct them in accordance with the forms of the Ritual.

Section 44—FIRST AND SECOND HERALDS They shall have charge of the ballot, and otherwise generally assist the Conductor of Novices, as provided in the Ritual and ceremonies; and see that proper silence and order are observed, and the caverns protected from the unworthy.

Section 45—GUARDIAN OF THE CAVERNS. He shall have charge of the entrances of the caverns, and a general supervision of the Acolytes in his relation thereto. The duty of tiling the several Orders must be strictly enforced.

Section 46—ACOLYTE. He shall act as outer guard, under the immediate direction of the Celebrant, through the Guardians of the Caverns. He shall likewise have the care of all properties, paraphernalia, and furniture of the College, and shall set them forth and remove the same as occasion may require and as directed by the Celebrant.

Section 47—OTHER OFFICERS Other officers shall discharge their duties in accordance with the provisions of the Ritual.

Section 48—DISCIPLINE All Fraters of the Society of Rosicrucians shall be amendable to the Colleges to which they severally belong. Any member disciplined may appeal to the High Council within six months, where the sentence may be revised; pending such final action, the penalty awarded by the College shall be effective. Any College within the State shall have jurisdiction over a nonaffiliate residing in such State.

Section 49—COLLEGE DISSOLUTION If any College under this Jurisdiction be temporarily interdicted or permanently dissolved, the officers thereof shall forthwith deposit their Dispensation or Charter, Ordinances, Regulations, and all manuscripts and printed papers, moneys, and properties appertaining to the College, with the Secretary-General, that the same may be deposited in the archives of The High Council for safe keeping, the monies deposited in the Society's treasury.

Section 50—JURISDICTION. A College cannot lawfully receive an application from a Candidate residing within the jurisdiction of another College without consent thereof, and any action taken thereon shall be void.

A Candidate rejected by a College having jurisdiction over him, shall not be received in any other College without the consent of the one by which he was rejected.

No College or Frater shall recognize as a Rosicrucian any person, whose residence is within the jurisdiction of this High Council, who shall hereafter, while so residing, receive the grades in some other jurisdiction, without having first obtained the consent of the College having jurisdiction over him, or of one of the three Ruling Magi of The High Council.

Section 51—ORDINANCES AND REGULATIONS Colleges may form and adopt "Ordinances" and "Regulations" for their government not inconsistent with the Constitution, Regulations, and Rituals adopted by The High Council but a copy of all such "Ordinances" and "Regulations" must, upon their adoption, be forthwith filed with the Secretary-General for examination and approval of one of the Ruling Magi. The governing laws of Colleges must be by "Ordinance" or by "Regulation".

Section 52—AMENDMENTS This Constitution shall not be amended, except by the consent of a majority of the Fraters of The High Council duly assembled in regular Convocation.
