PRAYER

Chaplain- May the Supreme Grand Master graciously preside over all our councils, and direct us in all such things as he will be pleased to approve and bless. May our profession as Masons be the rule of our conduct as men. May our secret retreat ever continue to be the resort of the just and merciful; the seat of the moral virtues, and the home of the select. Amen.

All- ♫ m i b.

The following Psalm may be read
or sung:

His foundation is in the holy mountains. The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
Glorious things are spoken of thee, O, city of God. Selah. I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me; behold Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.
And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her; and the Highest Himself shall establish her. The Lord shall count when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.
As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee. Psalm lxxxvii.

 example of sincere friendship, so beautifully illustrated in the lives of the founders of this degree.

Let us take the lesson home with us;
 and may it strengthen the bonds of fraternal love between us, incite our hearts to duty, and our desires to wisdom. Let us exercise Charity, cherish Hope, walk in Faith, and may that moral principle, which is the mystic cement of our fellowship, remain with us and bless us.
 Amen.

GED.—(Reads): Judah is gone into captivity because of great affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest; all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

Lam. i: 3-4

How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

Psalms cxvii: 4-5

ODE

Our feasts and Sabbaths cease,
Our tribes, dispersed through distant lands,
Are hopeless of release

Hag.—(Reads): Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon:

Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens and eat the fruit of them:

Take ye wives, and beget ye sons and daughters: and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters: that ye may be increased there and not diminished!

For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

For I know the thoughts I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Jer. 29: 4, 5, 6, 10, 11.

Zedekiah, who reigned at that time in Jerusalem, was the uncle of Jehoiachin, the youthful king, placed at eighteen years of age upon the throne of Judah, who, having rebelled against his master, King Nebuchadnezzar, was taken prisoner after a brief reign of three months. The King of Babylon bestowed the vacant throne upon Zedekiah, in the expectation of securing a faithful liegeman. In this he was mistaken.
Zedekiah "did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord." Forgetting his obligations to Nebuchadnezzar, he formed an alliance with Egypt, the hereditary enemy of Assyria and Chaldea, and attempted to overthrow the authority of Babylon. Swift vengeance overtook the traitor. A Babylonian army invaded and ravaged the country, besieged Jerusalem and, after inflicting a crushing defeat on an Egyptian force that was marching to the relief of the City, reduced the inhabitants to such horrible extremities that they could no longer hold out. Zedekiah, accompanied by his wife and children, fled in the darkness of the night toward the Jordan, but was overtaken and made prisoner near Jericho. The monarch and his sons were taken to Riblah, where Nebuchadnezzar then abode.

The conqueror, with customary Asiatic cruelty, ordered the sons to be slain before their father's face, and then deprived the wretched parent of his eyesight. Thus maimed and bound with fetters of brass, he was conveyed to Babylon, where he probably died. Thus were verified what had seemed to be the contradictory prophecies of Jeremiah and Ezekiel; the former predicting of Zedekiah—"Thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the King of Babylon, and he shall speak to thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon," and the latter announcing, "I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans, yet see it he shall not, though he shall die there."

The Temple and City of Jerusalem were destroyed, the inhabitants carried away into captivity and the Kingdom of David and Solomon ceased to have a place on the earth.

History teaches that those achievements of true greatness which stand forth most clearly upon its pages, were wrought by an earnest and strenuous endeavor to attain some high ideal.

As long as the Jewish Nation followed the commandments of God and worshipped Him, all was well. It bred mighty kings, who ruled over the nations round about, and toll, tributes and custom were paid unto it.

Whenever Israel departed from its God, or lost sight of the Jewish ideal, disaster followed as surely and swiftly as night succeeds the day.

It is better never to have assumed any vow than to assume it and then wilfully ignore it, or by carelessness or indifference prove equally faithless.

Fidelity to all your vows is an absolute necessity if you would be worthy of the title, Super Excellent Master. 49

This degree also inculcates true devotion, in spirit and in truth, to the Great I Am, in contradistinction to idolatry; teaches traditionally life's vicissitudes, encourages generous hospitality and friendship; enlightens the mind and amends the heart, that we may become wiser and purer,

brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

It also teaches the faithful fulfillment of our several vows and the fearless discharge of our respective duties, and admonishes us that the violation of our solemn obligations, as in the case of Zedekiah, the last King of Judah, will not only cause us to forfeit the respect and friendship of our Companions, but will also most surely destroy our own peace of mind.

Then let us, my Companions, labor diligently and fearlessly in the cause of Truth, our allotted time, doing with our might whatsoever our hands find to do, so that, when at the time of the Third Watch, our work is finished, we may be greeted as Super Excellent Masters and be released from our captivity in the flesh, to return over the rough and rugged way of the Valley of the Shadow of Death to our abiding place eternal in the heavens, there to erect our last and perfect moral and Masonic Temple, and adore the Holy One of Israel throughout the endless cycles of Eternity.

Amen.

SUMMARY.

[And now companions you have received all of the instruction that pertains to the Royal Craft. By regular gradation you have ascended to the very summit of our sublime and Noble Art. As an Entered Apprentice Mason, after being invested with the Lamb Skin or White apron, you were conducted around the outer Courts of the Temple that you might view its beautiful proportions: its massive pillars: its starry-decked canopy: its mosaic pavements: its lights, ornaments and furniture.

By a winding stairway you were introduced into the middle chamber where you learned the wages of a Fellowcraft and had your names recorded as such, and by the example of our ancient brethren were taught to reverence the Sabbath Day and to keep it holy.

101-49

You visited the unfinished Sanctum Sanctorum and there in the integrity and inflexible fidelity of the Illustrious Tyrian witnessed an example of firmness and fortitude never surpassed in the history of man.

You were remanded to the Quarries and brought from thence a specimen of your skill and learned how to receive in a proper manner your Masonic wages.

In imitation of the great and wise Solomon you were regularly seated in the Oriental Chair and were there taught how to preside over the Sons of Light. May a portion of his wisdom rest upon and abide with you.

You were present and assisted in celebrating the final completion of the Mystic Temple and for your zeal and fidelity to the craft received the congratulatory title of Most Excellent Master.

You have witnessed the mournful desolation of Zion, the sack and destruction of the City and Temple of God: you have seen the chosen people of God forced, by a foreign despot, from the groves and peaceful vineyards of their native Israel and dragged into captivity on the banks of the far-off Euphrates; again you have seen those distressed Sons of Zion visited in the darkest hours of their adversity by a precious light from Heaven which guided them by rough and rugged paths back to the scenes of their former Glory, where, by the Signet of Eternal Truth they are enabled to pass the veil which interposed between them and their fondest hopes.

You with a chosen few have been permitted to penetrate the Secret Vault and there learned the means by which the Sacred Treasures of a former Temple were preserved through centuries of Moral darkness by the wise suggestion of a Widow's Son.

You have even now entered the most Holy place where you have seen how the Sacred volume of God was saved from the destructive rage of the enemies of TRUTH, and finally restored to the longing eyes of the distressed Israelites.

And finally, Companions, you have witnessed the restoration of the long lost WORD, which Enoch saw in his vision: that ineffable Word which could not be pronounced but once a year by the High Priest at the feast of Expiation amid the clang of cymbals and the sound of Trumpets.

You have seen it restored to the craft for their use for all coming time. And now, companions, we trust that the several forms and ceremonies thru which you have passed from the very moment you first trod the outer courts until your final admission thru the Veils have not seemed to you a series of unmeaning rights, for then we have labored in vain and you have spent your strength for naught. But we trust that you have entered into the full spirit of these interesting ceremonies and learned the full import of their important Symbols. Then and then only can you feel that freedom, that Fervency and Zeal, and that Purity of Heart which should actuate all those who would appropriate to themselves the title of workman that needeth not be ashamed. Then and then only can you justly claim the proud title of R. A. M. as well as that of R. & S. M.]
