Four Red, Unidentified Lights Change Patterns Over North Phoenix

© 2008 by Linda Moulton Howe

“ABC15 contacted several agencies, including the FAA, Sky Harbor, Luke AFB, and the Phoenix Police Department. No one could explain what the lights are.” - ABC15-TV, Phoenix.

Update: April 24, 2008 - Four Red, Lights Over North Phoenix Now Described As Red Flares Tied to Helium Balloons.

But Phoenix New Times on April 22, headlined: “Air Traffic Controllers Who Saw UFO Muzzled by FAA.”

ABC15.com interviewed Phoenix resident, Lino Mailo, who says he watched his still-anonymous neighbor launch red flares attached to black and white helium balloons into the sky around 8 PM, April 21. Click here for video interview. But it's still a confusing event. Not only is the perpetrator still anonymous and not talking, his house is allegedly shown about 100 feet from the backyard where the ABC15.com does his interview - so why didn't the reporter simply walk over to that house and knock on the door and ask to talk to the alleged hoaxer? Also, a retired military USAF pilot was interviewed by a Phoenix radio station yesterday morning, April 23. He said he watched the red lights over the half-hour between 8 and 8 PM and said, “They were definitely not flares attached to helium balloons.”

Earthfiles, news category.

April 23, 2008 Phoenix, Arizona - On Monday night, April 21, 2008, a few minutes after 8 PM MST, the phone rang at the Brad Drenning home near 7th Street and Union Hills Drive in north Phoenix. The call was from a friend of Brad's 16-year-old son, David, about strange lights in the sky. Brad Drenning is sales manager for a Phoenix electronic equipment firm. Their home has a large back yard with clear sky and Brad, with his wife, De De, David and 8-year-old daughter, Hannah, all went out to look.

Red circle at intersection of 7th Street and Union Hills Drive is near the Brad Drenning home in north Phoenix and the Deer Valley region.

Interview:

Brad Drenning, Sales Manager, Phoenix, Arizona: “There were four lights pretty much in a straight line and they were hovering in just the same area. They weren’t drifting with any kind of air currents. They were staying in one location.

WHAT WAS THE COLOR TO YOUR EYES?

Bright red.

YOUR HOUSE IS WHERE?

I’m in the North Valley of Phoenix and the lights were in the eastern sky from my home. So, I thought this was pretty neat so, I got my camera out and started to videotape. The lights stayed in the same area and then they started moving in different formations. The first 2:49 of my videotape, there are two red objects in a pair to the left and two red objects in a pair to the right, kind of angled to each other. Then came other patterns like a square and a trapezoid and like a kite. The four red lights changed formation several times. I’ve got more footage. [ See hot links to IReport videos below photo sequence.]

Four Red Lights Moved Into Several Different Formations

“Our entire sighting was around 14 minutes. I would say there were approximately six to seven different formations, each lasting about 1.5 to 2 minutes each before the next pattern formed.

Video frames excerpted from Brad Drenning's 14-minute videotape shot between 8:10 and 8:25 PM MST in north Phoenix on April 21, 2008. Camera is a Kodak 6.1 megapixel with a 36 – 108 millimeter lens.

Toward the end, the lights separated apart with two higher on the left and two lower on the right and they sat there for a minute or so. Then one-by-one, they took off, or went out, or whatever. Then the last one, the fourth and final one, sat there for another three or four minutes before it eventually looked as if it had gone farther away from us until we could not see it any longer.

SORT OF A RECEDING OF THE LIGHT INSTEAD OF IT BLINKING OUT?

Well, the first light blinked several times and then was gone. The second one then that was right below it, it blinked a couple of times and then it was gone. Then, the third one on the right, it blinked about the same amount of times and then it had left and then reappeared for just a few moments. Then the fourth one, it was there for several more minutes after and then it began to blink and fade. Then it came back on, was there for a while and then it looked like it got farther away. Then it looked like it got a little bit closer. It blinked a few more times and then it faded away, but it was not like the other three. It was more like it went farther away to where you just could not see it anymore.

It was unlike anything I have ever witnessed. If it were a balloon or flare – I've been in the military - and those over time, if there is any kind of air current, those will usually drift with the air current. They will drift in one direction or another.

THEY DON'T HAVE THE ABILITY TO FORM EVERY TWO MINUTES DIFFERENT PRECISE PATTERNS?

That is correct. These sat and hovered in one area. They didn't have any drifting. You'll see this video – in the other 10 minutes, they are very distinctive formations that were created. If it was some type of balloon, in my opinion, there is no way that anything else could have done that. What it was, I have no idea, but it does not make sense that it was a flare or balloon or something of that nature.

DID YOU AND YOUR FAMILY LAST NIGHT TALK ABOUT THE POSSIBILITY THE RED LIGHTS COULD BE A NON-HUMAN TECHNOLOGY?

We didn't necessarily talk about non-human, but my daughter asked, 'Is it aliens? Is it a sign?' We didn't know what it was, but it was unlike anything I've ever seen before. And I don't know if it could be something human-made.

WOULD IT BOTHER YOU IF YOU KNEW FOR AN ABSOLUTE FACT THAT THE RED LIGHTS WERE EXTRATERRESTRIAL CRAFT FROM SOME PLACE ELSE IN THE UNIVERSE?

Would it bother me? It is what it is. I have a hard time believing that we are the only life form in this universe. I'm not a big alien fan, but at the same time, I believe there has to be something else out there as well. I'm a very optimistic person and if there is something else out there looking upon us, let's just hope that it's looking on us in a peaceful way.

IF IT WERE NON-HUMAN AND THIS IS THE SECOND TIME THAT PATTERNS HAVE APPEARED OVER THE CITY OF PHOENIX AFTER MARCH 13, 1997, WHAT IS THE PURPOSE, THE AGENDA?

That's a good question. I wish we could ask them. I have no idea what their agenda could be.

ALMOST AS IF SOMETHING WERE TRYING TO COMMUNICATE AND WE DON'T UNDERSTAND?

Exactly. It was just amazing! It was unlike anything else we've ever watched or witnessed. It was almost unbelievable! But it was there."
