2. The LVX Signs vs. the Portal Signs:

"In some of the rituals suggested in this curriculum, (the SIRP, the SBRP, the BRH, and Regardie's Opening by Watchtower) call for the initiate to give the LVX Signs after tracing the Spirit pentagrams.

This is because traditionally, advanced rituals of is type were performed only by initiates in the grade of Adeptus Minor (or higher). The LVX Signs are the grade signs of an Adeptus Minor, not necessarily the grade sign of the Element of Spirit. The Fifth Element is conferred on an initiate in the Portal grade, and therefore the grade signs of Spirit are the Opening and Closing of the Veil, just as the grade sign for Air is that of the Theoricus. It is therefore appropriate for the Portal initiate to freely substitute the Portal Signs for the LVX signs [Rendering for the SIRP, Closing for the SBRP]. We realize, however, that many students have already been performing these rituals with the traditional LVX Signs, and may be reluctant to switch to the portal Signs. Therefore we have presented the rituals in this course with the traditional LVX Signs, and leave the option open for the individual to choose."
