

Word Parts Dictionary

MICHAEL J. SHEEHAN

McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers

Word Parts Dictionary

Word Parts Dictionary

Standard and Reverse Listings of Prefixes, Suffixes, Roots and Combining Forms

by

MICHAEL J. SHEEHAN

McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers
Jefferson, North Carolina, and London

Library of Congress Cataloguing-in-Publication Data

Sheehan, Michael, 1939–

Word parts dictionary : standard and reverse listings of prefixes, suffixes, and combining forms / by Michael Sheehan.

p. cm.

Includes index.

ISBN 0-7864-0819-7 (library binding : 50# alkaline paper) ∞

1. English language — Suffixes and prefixes — Dictionaries.
2. English language — Word formation — Dictionaries.
3. English language — Reverse dictionaries. I. Title.

PE1175.S45 2000

423'.1—dc21

00-37217

British Library cataloguing data are available

©2000 Michael J. Sheehan. All rights reserved

No part of this book may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without permission in writing from the publisher.

Manufactured in the United States of America

McFarland & Company, Inc., Publishers
Box 611, Jefferson, North Carolina 28640
www.mcfarlandpub.com

*To Dona Sheehan,
salubrious wife and gift*

Table of Contents

Preface 1

PART I

Dictionary 3

PART II

Finder (Reverse Dictionary) 97

PART III

Categories 181

ANIMALS 182

THE BODY 187

COLORS 193

DIMENSIONS 196

DIRECTIONS 197

DIVINATION 197

THE ENVIRONMENT 200

FEAR OR DISLIKE OF ... 205

FOOD 214

LOCATION 216

NEGATIVES 217

NUMBERS 218

THE SENSES 220

SHAPES 222

TIME 226

Preface

This dictionary is based on word parts — those prefixes, suffixes, combining forms and roots which show up repeatedly to form words — and is meant to be used in conjunction with a standard dictionary and a thesaurus. It can help to retrieve words only dimly remembered, or it can lead to specific new words which otherwise might never have been discovered. And since a single recurrent letter combination often unlocks the partial meaning of dozens of words, it can act as an efficient way to expand one's general vocabulary.

The Word Parts Dictionary is divided into three sections.

Part I, the standard Dictionary, allows a reader to find the meaning of word parts conveniently arranged in alphabetical order, together with an example. For instance, Part I would reveal that the word part -nov- can mean either “new” (for instance, novelty) or “nine” (for instance, novenary), so the user would then become alert to context clues. This section is particularly useful to the person who has set out to expand his or her vocabulary. It is also a convenient place to consult to find actual examples after using Part II. Generally, one example is provided for each meaning.

Part II, the Finder, allows a user to start with a meaning or concept and then find the word parts which express that meaning. It is a reverse dictionary. For instance, one would learn that the meaning “color” is carried by the word parts chromato-, -chrome, chromo-, -chroous, -pigm-, -tinct-, and -ting-. Armed with that information, a user could then consult his or her memory or turn to the appropriate pages of a standard dictionary to find a variety of words which a thesaurus would not have contained. The alternative to finding such word parts is endless paging through an unabridged dictionary.

Part III, Categories, is also a reverse dictionary, but this time with the word parts arranged in clusters of meaning. For example, Part III would enable a reader to find, in one convenient listing, word parts which express many specific colors. Each color would also appear in Part II, of course, but in an isolated, alphabetical fashion.

This dictionary focuses on four kinds of word parts.

Prefixes (pre): A prefix is a syllable, group of syllables, or word united with or joined to the beginning of another word to alter its meaning or create a new word. For example, re- is a prefix in the word “redevelop.” The hyphen at the end of the prefix indicates that it usually starts a word.

Suffixes (suf): A suffix is a syllable, group of syllables, or word added at the end of a word or word base to change its meaning, give it grammatical form, or form a new word. For example, -ette is a suffix in the word “kitchenette.” The hyphen at the start of the suffix indicates that it normally ends a word.

Combining forms (comb): A combining form is a word form that occurs only in compounds, or in compounds and derivatives, and that can combine with other such forms or with prefixes and suffixes to form a word. For example, cryo- is one of the combining forms in the word “cryogenic,” and -genic is the other one. The hyphens indicate that cryo- usually starts the word in which it appears and that -genic usually ends the word in which it appears.

Bases (base): A base is a stem or a root, a generally short letter combination that conveys a recurrent meaning all by itself without being involved in a compound word. Prefixes and suffixes may be added to it. For example, -dict- is a base in the word “predictable.” The two hyphens indicate that it may appear at any location in a word: front, back, or middle. Thus, we have “dictation,” “contradict,” and “predictable.”

PART I
Dictionary

A

a⁻¹ see ad-

a⁻², ab-, abs- pre from; off; away;
down (avert, abduct, abscond)

a⁻³, an- pre not; without (anoxia, anandrous)

-a⁴ 1. suf singular feminine ending (Roberta); 2. plural ending (phenomena)

abdomino- comb abdomen (abdominocentesis)

abiet- base fir (abietic)

-able 1. suf able to (durable); 2. capable of being (drinkable); 3. worthy of being (lovable); 4. having qualities of (comfortable); 5. tending to (peaceable)

ablut- base bathe; wash away (ablution)

-ably suf adverb form of -able (affably). See -ible

ac⁻¹ see ad-

-ac² suf of; pertaining to (cardiac).
See -ic

acantho- comb spiny; thorny (acan-thocyte)

acar-, acari-, acarin-, acaro- comb mite; tick (acarine, acariasis, acarinoses, acarophobia) accipit- base falcon; hawk (accip-itrine)

-acea suf plural for names of animal classes or orders (Cetacea)

-aceae suf plural for names of plant families or orders (Rosaceae)

-acean, -aceous suf of the nature of;
like; characterized by; belonging to (crustacean, crustaceous) acer⁻¹ base sharp; needle-like (acerose)

acer⁻² base maple (aceric)

acerb- base harsh; bitter (acerbic)

acerv- base heap (acervate)

acet-, aceto-, acetyl- comb acetic; acetyl; vinegar (acetamid, acetometer, acetylcholine) acetabul- base saucer (acetabuli-

form)

acetar- base salad (acetaryious)

acheron- base hell; underworld (acherontical)

achlu- base darkness (achluophobia)

aci- base needle (acicular)

acid- comb sour (acidosis) acinaci- comb scimitar (acinaci-

form)

acini- comb grape (aciniform)

-acious suf characterized by; full of (audacious)

acipenser- base sturgeon (acipenserine)

-acity suf quality of (tenacity)

acou-, acoust- comb hearing; sound (acouesthesia, acoustical)

acrid- base grasshopper (acridid) acro- 1. comb pointed (acro-cephaly); 2. highest (acrospire); 3. extremity (acroataxia)

acromio- comb upper arm; shoulder (acromioclavicular)

actino- 1. comb [zoology] possession of tentacles (actinomorphic);
2. [physics/chemistry] presence of actinic rays (actinometry); 3. light ray (actinotherapy)

acu-, acul- comb sharp (acumen, aculeate)

aculei- base spine (aculeiform) acuti- comb sharp-pointed (acutifo-liate)

-acy suf quality; position; condition (democracy)

ad⁻¹ 1. pre motion toward (advance); 2. addition to (admit);

3. nearness to (adjoin) NOTE:
ad- can change to: a- (ascribe); ac- (acclaim); af- (affirm); ag- (ag-grade); al- (allege); an- (announce); ap- (approve); ar- (arrive); as- (assent); at- (attrition)
- ad² suf of or relating to; used to form names of 1. collective numerals (monad); 2. some poems (Iliad); 3. some plants (cycad)
- ad³ suf [anatomy]: toward; in the direction of (dorsad)
- ade 1. suf the act of (blockade); 2. product of (pomade); 3. participant (brigade); 4. drink made from (lemonade)
- adelph- base brother (Philadelphia)
- aden-, adeni-, adeno- comb gland or glands (adenalgia, adeniform, adenography)
- adip-, adipo- comb fat (adipose, adipocellular)
- adjut-, adjuv- base help (adjutant, adjutant)
- adren-, adreno- comb adrenal gland (adrenalitis, adrenotoxin)
- adul- base flattery (adulation)
- adular- base blue (adularescent)
- ae suf plural ending (antennae)
- aed- base yellow fever mosquito (Aedes)
- aede- base genitals (aedeagus). Also aedoe- (aedoeomania)
- aedi- base temple; shrine; habitat (aedicule). See edi-
- aegr- base illness (aegritude)
- aei- base always; ever; continued (aeipathy)
- aeluro- see ailuro-
- aemia comb blood condition (hyperaemia). See -emia
- aen- base metallic brown (aeneous)
- aenio- base brass (aeniolithic)
- aequor- base sea; ocean (aequorial)
- aer-, aeri-, aero- comb air; gas (aerate, aeriferous, aerobatics)
- aerug- base green-blue; verdegriis (aeruginous)
- aerumn- base toil; trouble (aerumnous)
- aescul- base horse chestnut (aesculin)
- aestiv- base summer (aestivate)
- aestu- base boil up (exaestuating). Also estu- (estuosity)
- aet- base eagle (aetites)
- aetheo- base unusual (aetheogamous)
- aetio- base cause (aetiology). See etio-
- aev- base time; age (mediaeval)
- af- see ad-
- afflat- base breathe on; inspiration (afflatus)
- Afro- comb African (Afroasiatic)
- ag- see ad-
- agalma- base image; statue (stylagmatic)
- agap- base love (agape)
- agar- base mushroom (agariciform)
- agath- base good (agathism)
- agati- comb agate (agatiforous)
- age 1. suf act; condition; result of (marriage); 2. amount; number of (acreage); 3. cost of (postage); 4. place of (steerage); 5. collection of (peerage); 6. home of (hermitage); 7. to act (forage)
- agglut- base stick to (agglutination)
- agito- comb excited; restless (agiotophasia)
- agmat- base fracture; break (catagmatic)
- agn- base lamb (agnification)
- agnosia comb loss of knowledge (prosopagnosia)
- agogue 1. comb leading; directing

(pedagogue); 2. inciting (dema-gogue); adj. -agogic (hemagogic) agon- base contest; struggle (antagonist) agora- comb open space (agoraphobic)
-agra comb sudden pain; seizure (pelagra) agrest- base rural; field (agrestic) agri- comb field; earth; soil (agriculture) agri- base wild; savage (agriologist) agro- comb field; earth; soil (agronomy) agrost- base grass (agrostography)
-agrypn- base sleeplessness (agrypnod)
-aholic comb person addicted to or obsessed with ___ (workaholic) aichm- base needle (aichmophobia) aichur- base pointed (aichurophobia) ailuro- comb cat (ailurophobia).
Also aeluro- (aeluromania)
-aire suf person characterized by or occupied with (legionnaire) aischro- base smut; obscenity (aischrolatria) al⁻¹ see ad-
al⁻² comb the (alchemy)
-al³ 1. suf belonging to; like; of (theatrical); 2. nouns from adj. (perennial); 3. act or process of (acquittal); 4. [chemistry] having aldehydes (chloral) ala- base wing (alation) alacr- base promptness (alacrity) alaud- base skylark (alaudine)
-alb- base white (albino) alcelaph- base antelope (alcelaphine) alcid- base auk (alcidine) alea- base dice; chance (aleatory) alectoro-, alectryo- comb cock;

rooster (alectoromachy, alectryomancy)
-ales suf ending for scientific Latin names of plants (Liliales) aleth- base truth (alethiology) aleuro- base flour (aleuromancy) alex-, alexi-, alexo- comb to ward off; keep away (alexiteric, alexipyretic, alexocyte) alg- base cold (algid) alge-, algesi-, -algia, algo-, -algy comb pain (algetic, algesimeter, neuralgia, algophobia, coxalgy) ali⁻¹ comb wing (aliform)
-ali⁻² base another; other (alien)
-alim- base nourishment; food (alimentation)
-aliph- base unguent; fat (aliphatic)
-alis suf ending for scientific Latin names (borealis)
-allac-, -allag- base exchange; mutually binding (synallactic, synallagmatic) allant(o)- 1. comb membrane: fetal (allanto-chorion); 2. sausage-shaped (allantoid)
-allaxis- base exchange (morphallaxis) allelo- comb of one another; reciprocal (allelomorph) alli- base garlic (alliaceous) allo- comb variation; reversal; departure from normal (allonym)
-ally suf to form certain adverbs (terrifically) alog(o)- base unreasonable (alogotrophy) alopec- base fox (alopecoid); baldness (alopecia) alphito- base barley (alphitomorphous) alter- comb another; other (alternate) alti-, alto- comb high (altimeter, altocumulus) alumino- comb aluminum (aluminosilicate) alut- base leather (alutaceous) alv- base belly (alvine) alve- base beehive (alveary) alveolo- 1. comb connected with alveolus (alveolodental); 2. small cavity; socket (alveolopalatal) alyt- base police officer (alytarch)

-am- base love; friendship (amity) amar- base sour (amarine) amaranth- base purple (amaranthine) amath- base dust (amathophobia) amaur- base dim; dark (amaurosis) amaxo- base automobile (amaxophobia) ambag- base oblique; indirect (ambagious) ambi-, ambo- comb both; around (ambience, amboceptor). See amphi- ambig- base uncertain (ambiguity) ambly- comb dullness; dimness (amblyopia) ambul- comb walk (somniaambulate) amelo- comb enamel (amelogenesis) amensi- base amnesia (amensiphobia) ament⁻¹ base insanity (amentia) ament⁻² base catkin (amentaceous) amic⁻¹ base friend (amicable)
-amic⁻² suf amide related (lactamic acid) amido- comb amide radical (amido-hydrolases)
-amine comb having one hydrogen atom (Dramamine) amino- comb in the ammonia molecule replaced by an alkyl or other nonacid radical (aminophenol) amita- base aunt (amitate) ammino- comb containing amines (ammino-chloride) ammo- comb sand (ammochryse) ammonio-, ammono- comb containing ammonia (ammonioferric, ammonotelic) amn- base river (amnicolist) amnes- base forgotten (paramnesia) amnio- comb amniotic sac; membrane: fetal (amniocentesis) amorpho- comb shapeless; irregularly shaped (amorphogranular)

-ampel- base vine (ampelopsis) amphi-, amphi- comb on both sides; surrounding (amphibology, amphoteric). See ambi-
-ampl- base large (amplifier) ampull- base bottle (ampule) amycho- base scratch; irritate (amyctic) amygdalo- comb almond-shaped (amygdalophenin) amyl-, amylo- comb of starch (amylamine, amyloimeter) an⁻¹ pre not; lacking (anarchy) an⁻² see ad-
-an⁻³ 1. suf belonging to; of; characteristic of (diocesan); 2. born in; living in (American); 3. believing in; following (Mohammedan) ana⁻¹ pre up; upon; back; again; anew; throughout (anabolism)
-ana⁻² suf plural: collective (Americana) anacard- base cashew (anacardiaceous) anaps- base turtle (anapsid) anat- base duck (anatine) anathem- base curse (anathematize)
-ance 1. suf the act of (utterance); 2. quality or state of being (vigilance); 3. a thing that __ (conveyance); 4. a thing that is __ (dissonance); adv. -ancy (constancy) ancip- base doubtful; two-edged (ancipitous)
-ancon- base elbow (anconitis)

ancry- base anchor (ancryoid) ancylo- comb bent; crooked; stiff (ancylostomiasis). Also ankylo- (ankyloglossia) ancylostom- base hookworm (Ancylostoma) andro-, -andry comb man; male (androgenous, polyandry)
-androus 1. comb man; male (polyandrous); 2. BOT: having stamens (diandrous)
-ane suf denoting a hydrocarbon of the paraffin series (methane) anemo- comb wind (anemometer) anet- base soothing (anetic) aneth- base dill (anethated) angin- base strangulation; heart attack (angina) angio- comb vessel; case; pot (angiocarp) Anglo- comb English (Anglo-Irish) angui- base snake (anguiform) anguill- base eel (anguilliform) angul- base angle (angularity) angusti- comb narrow (angustifoliate) anhydro- comb anhydride (anhydroglucose)
-anim- base spirit; life (animation) aniso- comb unequal; dissimilar (anisometropia) ankylo- comb bent; crooked; stiff (ankylosis). Also ancylo-
-ann-, -enn- base year (annual, biennial); yearly (anniversary) annul- comb ring (annular) ano¹ pre upward; above (anotropia) ano² comb anal; ring-shaped (anorectal) anom-, anomo- comb unusual; irregular; abnormal (anomalous, anomocarpous) anomalo- comb irregular; uneven (anomalogonatus) anophel- base mosquito (anopheline) ansa- base handle (ansated) anser- base goose (anserine)

-ant 1. suf performing an act (defiant); 2. person who performs (accountant); 3. impersonal physical agent (lubricant) ante- pre before in time, order, or position (antedate) antero- comb anterior; front (anterolateral)
-anthema comb rash; eruption (enanthema) antho- comb of flowers (anthomania)
-anthous comb having flowers of a specified kind or number (monanthous) anthraco- comb coal; carbuncle (anthracomancy) anthropo- comb human (anthropology) anti- 1. pre against; hostile (antibor); 2. operating against (antiballistic); 3. preventing, curing, neutralizing (antitoxin); 4. opposite; reverse (antiperistalsis); 5. rivaling (antipope) antio- comb set against (antiopelmus)
-antiq- base old; ancient (anti-quoted) antlo- base flood (antlophobia) antro- comb nearly closed cavity; antrum (antroscope) anu- base circular; ring-shaped (annulus)
-anus suf scientific word ending (Platanus) aorto- comb extremity (aortoclasia) ap- see ad-
apat- base deceit (apatite) apeir- base infinite; endless (apeirogon) apert- base open (apertometer) aphe-, -aphia comb sense of touch (aphophobia, dysaphia) aphro- base foam (Aphrodite) aphrodisio- base sexual (aphrodisiac)

api- comb bee (apiculture)
-apical, apico- comb apex; tip (periapical, apicotomy) apio- base pear (apiocrinite) apo- pre off; from; away from; separation (apococate) apocris- base to give or receive answers (apocrisiary) apolaust- base enjoyment; self-indulgence (apolaustic) aporet- base doubt (aporetic) apostem- base abscess (apostematous) appell- base call to; name (appellation) appet- base craving (appetite) apricat- base sunbathing (aprication)
-aps-, -apt-¹ base joining (synapse, synaptic)
-apsia comb touch (parapsia) apt-² base ability (aptitude) aqua-, aque-, aqui- comb water (aquatic, aqueduct, aquiclude) aquil- base eagle (aquiline) ar-¹ see ad-
-ar² 1. suf pertaining to (angular); 2. one who __ (burglar); 3. connected with __ (collar) arach- base peanut; ground nut (arachidic) arachn-, arachno- comb spider; cobweb (arachnophobia, arachnodactylia)
-araneo- base spider (araneology) arat- base farming; tillage (aratory)
-arbor- base tree (arboretum) arcan- base secret (arcane)

arch-¹ pre main; chief; principal (archbishop)
-arch² comb ruler (patriarch) archaeo-, archeo- comb ancient; original (archaeology, Archeozoic) archi- pre [biology] primitive (archiplasm)
-archy comb rule; government (monarchy) arci- base arch (arciform) arct- base moth (arctian) arcto- comb bear (cynarctomachy) arctoid- base raccoon; weasel (arctoidian) ard-¹, ars- base burn (ardor, arson)
-ard², -art suf one who is or does too much (drunkard, braggart) ard-³ base erect; steep; laborious (arduous) arde- base heron (ardeid) ardu- base laborious; steep (arduous) aren- comb sand (arenicolous) arenaceo- comb sandy (arenaceous, argillaceous) arene- base spider (areneiform) areo-¹ comb Mars (areology) areo-² base thin; rare (areometer) argent-, argenti-, argento- comb silver (argentite, argentiferous, argento-cuprous) argillaceo- comb clay (arenaceous, argillaceous) argillo- comb clay (argillo-calcareous) argyro- comb silver (argyrophyllus)
-aria suf [botany/zoology] used to form names of groups and names of genera (Planaria)
-arian suf age; sect; occupation; social belief (Unitarian) arid- base dry (aridity) ariet- base ram (arietine)
-arious suf relating to; connected with (vicarious)

-aris suf scientific word ending (Polaris) aristo- comb best (aristotype) arithm- base number (arithmetic)

-arium suf location; receptacle (solarium)

armo- base shoulder (armomancy)

arrhen- comb male (arrhenotoky)

arseno- comb having arsenic (arsenopyrite) arterio- comb artery (arteriosclerosis)

arthr-, arthro- comb connected with a joint (arthrectomy, arthrodynia) arthropod- base millipede (arthropodal)

arti- comb workmanship (artifact)

-articul- base joint (multiarticular)

artio- comb even number (artiodactyl) artiodyctyl- base giraffe (artiodactylous)

arto- comb bread (artophagous)

arundi- base reed (arundiferous)

-ary 1. suf relating to; like (legendary); 2. thing/person connected to __ (military)

as-¹ see ad-

as-², asin- base jackass (asinine)

ascari- comb intestinal worm (ascariasis)

asco- comb [botany] sac (ascocarp)

-ase suf that decomposes; names of enzymes (amylase)

-asis suf condition resembling; disease names (psoriasis)

-asm suf result of an action (orgasm) asmato- comb song (asmatographer)

asper- comb rough (asperity)

aspid- base shield (aspidomancy)

assid- base unceasing (assiduity)

-ast suf one who is __ (entusiast) astac- base lobster (astacian)

aster-¹ comb star (asteraceous)

-aster² suf diminution; inferiority; worthlessness; slight resemblance (poetaster) asteroid- base starfish (asteroidean) asthen-, astheno- comb weakness (asthenopia, asthenobiosis). See -esthenia astra- comb lightning (astraphobia) astragalo- comb anklebone; dice (astragalonavicular, astragalomancy) astro- comb star; celestial activity (astronomy)

at- see ad-

-ata suf result of; plural ending (stomata) atax-, ataxi-, -ataxia, ataxio-, ataxo- comb confusion; disorder (ataxaphasia, ataxiamnesic, psychataxia, ataxiophemia, ataxophobia)

-ate¹ v. 1. suf to become (maturate);

2. cause to become (invalidate);

3. form or produce (salivate);

4. provide or treat with (refrigerate);

5. put in the form of; form by means of (delineate);

6. to arrange for (orchestrate);

7. to combine; infuse; treat with (chlorinate)

-ate² adj. 1. suf characteristic of (collegiate); 2. having; filled with (passionate); 3. [biology] having or characterized by (caudate)

-ate³ n. 1. suf office; function; agent; official (directorate); 2. person or thing that is the object of an action (legate); 3. [chemistry] a salt made from an acid ending in -ic (nitrate) ate-⁴ base ruinous; reckless impulse (atephobia) atelia-, atelo- comb incomplete; undeveloped (myelatelina, atelocardia)

ather- base smelt (atherine) athero- comb deposit: soft materials (atherogenic)
-athlon, -athon suf event; contest (pentathlon, walkathon)
-atic suf of the kind of (chromatic)
-atile suf possibility; quality (volatile)
-ation 1. suf the act of (alteration); 2. condition of being (gratification); 3. the result of (compilation)
-ative suf relating to; tending to (correlative) atlanto- comb [anatomy] pertaining to the atlas, top vertebra (atlantoaxial) atlo- comb of the neck (atloid) atmo- comb steam; vapor; air (atmosphere)
-ator suf doer; agent; actor (educator)
-atory suf of the nature of; pertaining to; produced by (accusatory) atrament- base ink (atramental)
-atresia comb imperforate; lacking an opening (colpatresia) atreto- comb imperforate; lacking an opening (atretocyst) atrio- comb cavity, esp. a chamber of the heart (atrioventricular) atro- comb black (atrorubent)
-atrophia, atrophic 1. comb malnutrition (metatrophia); 2. progressive decline (neuratrophia, myotrophic) atto- pre one-quintillionth (attogram) atychi- base failure (atychiphobia)
-auchen- base neck (maerauchenia) audac- base boldness (audacity) audi-, audio- comb hearing (auditorium, audiology)
-aug- base grow; increase (augment) augur- base soothsaying; divination (augury) aulo- comb pipe; reed (aulophyte) auranti- base orange (aurantiaceus) aur(i)-¹ comb ear (auricle) aur(i)-², auro- comb gold (auriferous, aurous) auricalc- base copper; gold (auricalceous) auriculo- comb outer ear; lobe (auriculo-temporal)

-auror- base dawn (aurorean) aurora- comb radiant emissions in both hemispheres (aurora borealis) austro- 1. comb wind: south (austromancy); 2. eastern (Austro-Hungarian) auto- comb self; self-moving (autobiography) autumn- base fall (autumnal) auxano-, auxeto-, auxo- comb increase; growth (auxanogram, auxetophone, auxochrome) auxil- base help; assistance (auxiliary) avar- base greed (avarice) aven- base oats (avenaceous) avern- base hellish (avernal) avia-, avio- 1. comb bird (aviary); 2. flight (aviator) avid- base eager (avidity) av(in)- base grandmother (avitic) aviono- comb flying (avionics)
-avunc- base uncle (avunculate) av(us)- base grandfather (avital) axi-, axio-¹, axo- comb related to an axis (axial, axiomesial, axometer)
-axill- base armpit (periaxillary) axin- base ax (axinomancy) axio-² comb values (axiology) azo- comb [chemistry] nitrogen (azobenzene)
-azur- base sky-blue (azureous)

B

baccato- comb bearing berries (baccato-tuberculous)

bacci- comb berry (baccivorous)

bacill-, bacilli-, bacillo- comb rod-shaped bacillus (bacillema, bacilliform, bacillotherapy) back- 1. comb of the back (backache); 2. behind (backfield); 3. prior (backdate); 4. opposing (backlash)

-bacter, bacteri-, bacterio- comb of bacteria (aerobacter, bactericide, bacteriology) bacul- base rod (baculine)

balaen- base whale (balaenoid) balani-, balano- comb acorn; gland (balanitis, balanorrhagia) balatro- base buffoon (balatrophobia)

balaust- base pomegranate (balaustine)

balbut- base stutter; stammer (balbutiate) ballist- base projectile (ballistic)

balneo- comb baths; bathing (balneology) banaus- base mechanical (banausic)

-bar comb atmospheric pressure; weight (isobar) barb- comb beard; tufted (barbate) bari-, baro- comb atmospheric pressure weight (baritone, barograph)

bary- comb heavy difficult (baryphonia) basi-, baso- comb [biology] the base; at or near base (basidigitale, basocellular)

-basia comb [medicine] ability to walk (abasia) basiat- base kiss (basiation)

basidio- comb base (basidiomycetes)

basil- base king (basilic)

-bat- base walk; go; pass (diabatic) batho-, bathy- comb depth; deep (bathometer, bathysphere) bato-¹ comb height (batophobia)

bato-² comb brambles (batology) batracho- comb frog; toad (batrachophagous)

batto- comb repetition (battologize)

bdell- base leech (bdellatomy)

be- 1. pre around (beset); 2. completely (besmear); 3. away (bereave); 4. about (bemoan); 5. make (besot); 6. furnish with (befriend); 7. cover(ed) with (becloud)

beati- base happy; blessed (beatitude)

-bell- base war (bellicose)

-belo- base arrow (beloid)

-belon- base needle; pin; sharp object (belonoid) bene- pre good; well (benefactor)

benzo- comb [chemistry] benzine (benzo-phenone) benzoxo- comb [chemistry] benzoyl group (benzoxycetanilide) benzyloxy- comb [chemistry] benzyl group (benzyloxyamine) beryl- base green (berylline)

betul- base birch (betulaceous)

bi- 1. pre having two (biangular); 2. on both sides in two ways (bilingual); 3. every two (biweekly); 4. using two (bilabial); 5. involving two (bipartisan); 6. [botany/zoology] twice; doubly; in pairs (bipinnate); 7. [chemistry] having twice as many atoms or chemical equivalents for a definite weight of the other constituent of the compound (sodium bicarbonate);

8. organic compounds having a combination of two radicals of the same composition (biphenyl) bib- base drink (bibulous) biblio- 1. comb of books (bibliography); 2. of the Bible (bibliomancy)

bili- comb gall; bile (biligenic)

-bility suf power to do or be (responsibility) bin- pre two (binaural)

bio- comb living; life (biography)

-biosis comb way of living (symbiosis)

-bis- pre two; twice (bisferious) bland- base flattery (blandishment)

-blast, -blastic, blasto-, -blasty comb formative; germinal; embryonic; developing (mesoblast, osteoblastic, blastoderm) blatt⁻¹ base cockroach (blatta) blatt⁻² base purple (blattein)

-ble see -able

blenn-, blenno- comb mucus; slime (blennadenitis, blennostasis)

-blep- base sight (ablepsia) blepharo- comb eyelid (blepharotomy)

blesi- base stammering (blesiloquent)

-bly see -ably

-bole comb thrown down/out/in/together/beyond (hyperbole)

bolet- base fungus; mushrooms (boletus)

-bolic, bolo⁻¹, -boly comb thrown down/out/in/together/beyond (catabolic, bolometer, epiboly)

bolo⁻² base ray; radiant energy (bolometer)

-bomb- 1. base bee (bombilation);
2. silk; silkworm (bombycinous)

bon- base good (bonanza)

borea- base north (boreal) borbor- base filthy talk (borborology)

boro- comb [chemistry] boron (boroflouride)

-bosc- base to feed (hippoboscid) botano- comb plant (botanomancy) botaur- base bittern (botaurus)

-bothr- base pitted; grooved (bothrenchyma)

-bothro- base pit; mine (bothrodendron)

botry(o)- comb grapes (botryose)

-botul- base sausage (botulism) bou-, bu- comb ox; cow (boustrophedon, bulemia)

-bound 1. comb constrained (snow-bound); 2. going toward (west-bound)

-bov- base cow (bovine) brachi-, brachio- comb arm; upper arm (brachialgia, brachiopod) brachisto- comb short (brachistocephal) brachy- comb short (brachycardia)

bract- base leaf (bracteate)

brady- comb slow; delayed (bradyarthria)

-branchia, branchio- comb gills (pulmobranchia, branchiopod) brassic- base broccoli; cabbage (brassicacious) brepho- comb fetus (brephotrophic) brevi- comb brief; little; short (breviloquence)

brom-, bromo- comb stench (bromidrosis, bromopnea) bromato- comb food (bromatology)

bromel- base pineapple (bromeliaceous)

bromo- comb [chemistry] bromine (bromoderma) bronch-, bronchi-, bronchio-, broncho- comb the windpipe (bronchadenitis, bronchiectasis, bronchiogenic, bronchoscope) bronto- 1. comb thunder (bronto-graph); 2. [paleontology] hugeness (brontosaurus)

-brotic comb inclined to eat (scolobrotic) bruch- base caterpillar (bruchus) brum-¹ base winter (brumal) brum-² base foggy (brumous) brun- base dark brown (brunneous) brux- base grind (bruxism) bryo- comb moss (bryophyte) bu- see bou-
bubal- base antelope; buffalo (bubaline) bubo- base groin (bubonocoele) buccin- base trumpet (buccinatory) bucco- comb cheek (buccolabial) bucerat-, bucorac- base hornbill (Buceratinae, Bucoracinae) bufo- comb toad (bufotoxin)

bulbo- comb bulb; bulbous (bulbospinal)
-bulia comb will (dysbulia) bullat- base bubble; blister (bullate)
-burg, -burgh comb city; town; village (Vicksburg, Pittsburgh)
-burger comb sandwich made on a roll or bun (cheeseburger) burs-, burso- comb pouch; purse; sac (bursar, bursopathy) buteo- comb hawk; buzzard (buteonine) butyro- comb butter (butyrometer) bux- base box-tree (buxiferous) by- 1. pre near; close by (bystander); 2. side (bystreet); 3. secondary (by-product)
-byon- base plug; stuff (rhinobyon)
-byss- base depth (hyperbyssal)
byssi- comb flax (byssinosis)

C

caball- base horse (caballine) cachex- base ill health (cachectic) cachin- base laugh (cachinnate) caco- comb bad; poor; harsh (cacophony). Also kako- (kakistocracy) cacumin- base tip (cacuminate) cad- base fall (cadence) cadav- base corpse (cadaverous)
-cade comb procession; parade (moltorcade) caduc- base transitory; perishable (caducous) caec- 1. base blind (caecilian); 2. intestinal pouch (caeciform) caed- see -cide
cael- base heavens (caelometer). See celestcaeno-¹, ceno-, coeno- comb in common (Caenozoic, cenobite, coenobium) caeno-² comb new (caenogenesis). Also caino- (cainophobia) caes- base blue; gray; green (caesious)

-caine comb synthetic alkaloid in anesthetic drugs (novocaine) cal-, cale- base heat (decalescence, caleficient) calam- base reed (calamiform) calar-, calat- base inserted (intercalary, intercalated) calathi- comb cup; basket (calathiform) calcaneo- comb heel-bone (calcaneofibular) calcareo- comb of lime (calcareousulfurous)
-calce- base shoe (discalced) calci- comb calcium; lime (calcify) calcitr- base kick (recalcitrant)

-calcul- base count; pebble (calculator)

-cali- base nest; hut (caliology)

calig- base fog; mist (caliginous)

calli- comb beautiful (calligraphy) callithri- base marmoset (callith-ricid)

callo- base beautiful (callomania) calo-, calori- comb heat (caloreceptor, calorimeter)

calumn- base slander (calumniate)

calv- base bald (calvarium) calyc- base cup-shaped (calycan-themy)

calypto- comb hidden; covered (calyptoblastic)

calyptri- base hood (calyptriform)

-camb- base change; exchange (ex-cambition)

cameli- base camel (cameline)

-camp¹ base field (campimeter)

-camp² base caterpillar (campodei-
form)

campan- base bell (campanology)

-campsis, campto- comb bent (phallocampsis, camptomelia) campylo- comb crooked; bent (campylosporous)

can¹ base dog (canine)

can² base gray (canescent)

canalic- base groove (canaliculate) cancell- base barrier; latticed (can-cellate)

cancr- base crab (cancrine)

cand- base white (candescent) cantho- comb eye: corner of (can-thoplasty)

-cap- base take; hold; receive (recapture). Also cep/cip (receptacle, recipient)

capel- base shopkeeper (capelocracy)

capilli- comb hair (capilliform)

-capit- base head (decapitate)

-capnia, capno- comb smoke; vapor; carbon dioxide (acapnia, capnomancy)

capri- base goat (capriform)

capsuli-, capsulo- comb capsule (capsuliform, capsulolenticular) carbo- comb [chemistry] carbon (carbohydrate)

carbol- base of phenol (carbolize)

carbon- base charcoal (carbonara) carcer- base jail (incarcerate) carcharin- base shark (carcharinid) carcin(o)- comb cancer (carcinogenesis)

cardi-, -cardia, cardio-, -cardium comb heart (cardiagra, tachycardia, cardiology, myocardium)

-carin- base keel; ridge (carinula)

cario- comb tooth disease; caries (cariogenic)

carni- comb flesh (carnivore) carnoso- comb fleshy (carnoso-fibrous)

carot- base stupefying; soporific (carotic)

-carp, -carpic, carpo¹, -carpous comb fruit; seeds (endocarp, endocarpic, carpophore, monocarpous) carpho- comb straw; dry (carphology) carpo² comb wrist (carpopso-sis)

carto- comb map; card; piece of paper (cartographer). Also charto- (chartometer)

caryo- comb nucleus (caryopsis).

Also karyo- (karyokinesis)

cas- base fall (cascade)

case- base cheese (caseation)

cassidi- base helmet (cassidiform) cassiter- base tin (cassiterite)

-cast comb transmit (telecast) castan- base brown; chestnut (castaneous, castanet) castella- base fortification (incastellate)

castig- base chasten; reprove (castigate)

castor- base beaver (castoreum)

castr- base camp (castronian) casuar- base cassowary (casuarina) cata-, cath- pre down; through; against; completely (catabolism, cathartic). Also kata- (katabatic) catagelo- base ridicule (catagelophobia). Also katagelo- cataglott- base tongue-kissing (cataglottism) catagm- base fracture (catagmatic)

caten- base chain (catenation)

cathar- base clean; purge; purify (catharize)

cathart- base buzzard (cathartine)

-cathex- base retention (acathexis) cathis- base sit; seat (cathisma)

catoptro- comb mirror (catoptromantic)

caudo- comb tail (caudo-femoral)

cauli-, caulo- comb stem; stalk (caulicolous, caulocarpic) caum- base heat (caumesthesia)

caupon- base tavern; innkeeper (cauponate)

-caust- base burn (holocaust)

caut- base heed; carefulness (precautionary) cauter- comb caustic; burning (cauterize)

cava- comb hollow (cavate)

caval- base horse (cavalry)

-cave, cavi-, cavo- base hollow (cavate)

-ce suf multiplicative suffix (twice)

cebo- comb monkey (cebocephalic) cecid- base gall; tumorous plant tissue (cecidomyian) ceco- comb intestinal pouch; cecum (cecostomy). Also caec- (caeciform)

-ced-, -cess- base move; go; give way (concede, procession)

cedr- base cedar (cedrine)

-cele comb tumor; swelling (cystocele); hernia (perineocele)

-celer- base speed (accelerate) celest- base heavens (celestial) celido- comb spot; surface marking (celidography) celio- comb abdomen (celiomyositis)

celli- comb cell (celliferous)

cello- comb cellulose (cellophane) celluli-, cellulo- comb cell; cell wall (celluliferous, cellulo-fibrous) celo-¹ 1. comb celom (celomate); 2. hernia (celotomy); 3. abdomen (celoscopy). Also coelo- (coeloscope)

-celo-² base dry; burnt (celosia)

celsi- base dignity; eminence; lofty position (celsitude)

Celto- comb Celt; Celtic (Celtogermanic)

cen- base meal (cenatory)

-cene comb geological epoch (Miocene)

ceno-¹ comb new; recent (cenogenesis). Also caeno-, caino-, kaino- (Caenozoic, Cainozoic, Kainozoic) ceno-² comb in common; common (cenobite). Also coeno- (coenobite) ceno-³ comb empty (cenotaphic). Also keno- (kenosis)

cenoto- comb new (cenotophobia)

-centered comb focused on (market-centered). Also cainoto-, kainoto- (cainotophobia, kainotophobia)

-centesis comb puncture (amniocentesis) centi- 1. comb hundred-fold (centipede); 2. hundredth part (centigram) centri-, centro- comb center (centripetal, centrobatic)

-centric 1. comb having __ center (polycentric); 2. focused around __ (ethno-centric)

-cep¹ base take (receptor). See -cap-

-cep² base onion; bulb (cepivorous) cephal-, -cephalic, cephalo-, -cephalous, -cephaly comb head; skull (cephalitis, dolichocephalic, cephalopod, brachycephalous, dolichocephaly)

cephalopod- base squid (cephalopodal)

-ceptor comb taker; receiver (neuro-receptor) ceras- base cherry (cerasin)

cerato- comb horn; hornlike (ceratophyllous). Also kerato- (keratoglobus) cerator- base rhino (ceratorhine) cerauno- comb thunder (ceraunoscope). Also kerauno- (keraunoscope)

-cerca, -cercal, cerc- comb having a __ tail (Schistocerca, heterocercal, Cercopithecus) cerebri-, cerebro- comb brain (cerebritis, cerebrospinal)

-cern- base to sift (excernent)

cero- comb wax (cerograph)

cerr- base evergreen oak (cerrial) cerul- base blue (cerulean)

cerumini- comb wax-like secretion (ceruminiferous) ceruss- base white (cerussal)

-cerv- base deer; elk; moose (cervine) cervico- comb cervical; of the neck (cervicodorsal) cervis- base beer (cervisial) cespitoso- comb growing in dense tufts or clumps (cespitoso-ramose)

-cess-, -ced- comb move; go; give way (procession, concede)

-cet- base whale (cetology)

-chaem- base low (chaemacephalic) chaeti-, chaeto- comb hair; bristle; seta (chaetiferous, chaetophorous) chalast- base laxative; relaxant (chalastic) chalax- base hailstone (chalaxa)

chalco- comb copper; brass (chalcocite) chalyb- base steel (chalybean). See iron chamae- comb low-growing; dwarf-like (chamaedorea) chao- 1. base abyss (chaotic); 2. atmosphere (chaomancy) charadr- base sandpiper, snipe, plover, woodcock (charadrine) charit- base love (charity)

charto- comb paper; map (chartomancy)

chasma- comb fissure (chasmophobia) cheilo- comb lip (cheiloplasty). See chilo- cheima- comb cold (cheimaphilic) cheir(o)- comb hand (macrocheiria). See chiro-

-chela, cheli- comb claw (isochela, cheliferous) chelic- base a swallow (chelidonian)

-chelo(n)-, chelys base turtle (chelonian, Lepidochelys) chemo- comb chemicals (chemotherapy)

cheno- base goose (chenopod) chero¹ comb happy (cherophobia)

chero² base hyrax (cherogrill)

cherso- base dry (chersonese)

-chezia comb defecation condition (hematochezia) chili- comb one thousand (chiliasm) chilo- comb lip (chiloplasty) chilopod- base centipede (chilopodal)

chim- base transplant; tissues from foreign source (chimera)

Chino- comb Chinese (Chino-Tibetan)

-chion- base snow (chionodoxa).

See -chium

chiro- comb hand (chiromancy).

Also cheiro-

chirur- base surgeon (chirurgery)

-chium base snow (hedychium). See -chion- chlamyd- comb cloak; sheath (chlamydeous) chloro- 1. comb green (chlorophyll); 2. having chlorine (chloroform)

choano- comb funnel (choanocyte)

chol-, chole-, cholo- comb bile; gall; anger (chologogue, cholecyst, chololith) chondr-, chondrio-, chondro- comb cartilage (chondrify, chondriosome, chondroblast) chord-, -chorda comb cord; sinew (chorditis, (Protochorda). Also cord- (cordotomy)

-chorea, choreo- comb involuntary movement; spasm; dance (labiochorea, choreophrasia) chori- comb apart; separate (choripetalous) chorio- comb membrane; skin (choriocele)

choristo- comb apart; separate (choristophyllus)

choro- comb region; land (chorology) choroid- comb membrane; skinlike (choroideremia) chrem-, chremat- base wealth; money (chrematistic) chreo- comb useful (chreotechnics) chresis- base used for doing (catachresis) chresmo- comb oracle (chresmomanancy)

chresto- base useful (chrestomathic)

chromato- comb color; chromatin (chromatogenous)

-chrome 1. comb color (monochrome); 2. chromium (ferrochrome) chromo- comb color (chromosome) chrono- comb time (chronometer)

-chroous comb colored (xanthochroous)

chrys(o)- comb yellow; golden (chrysocarpous) chyl-, chyli-, chylo- comb connected with chyle; digestive fluid gastric juice (chylaqueous, chyliferous, chylocyst)

chymo- comb partially digested food (chymotrypsin)

-chys-, -chyt- base to pour (synchysis, synchytic)

-cib- base food (cibarious)

cica- base scar (cicatrix) cichlo- base thrush (cichlomorphous) cichor- base chicory (cichoraceous) ciconi- comb stork (ciconiiform)

cicur- base tame (cicuration)

-cid- base fall (incident)

-cidal, -cide, -cidious, -cidism comb killing (homicidal, patricide, parricidious, suicidism) cilii-, cilio- comb cilia; hairlike process (ciliiferous, cilioretinal) cimic- base bug (cimicoid)

cimol- base chalk; light earth (cimolian)

-cinc- base ring; girdle (cincture) cinchon- base quinine (cinchonism) cinninn- base curl (cinninnal)

cine- comb movement; movie (cinematography). Also kine- (kinescope) ciner- base ashes (incinerate)

-cing- base ring; girdle (cingulate)

cinqe- base five (cinquefoil)

-cion suf variation of -tion (suspicion)
-cip- base take (recipient). See -cap- circin- base round (circinate) circul- base circle (circulate) circum- suf around; about; surrounding (circumscribe) cirr(h)i-, cirr(h)o- comb curl; ringlet; tendril (cirriferous, cirrocumulus) cirso- comb enlarged vein (cirsectomy) cis⁻¹ suf on this side of; near (cisalpine). See citra-
-cis², -cise- base cut; cut off (incision, precise) ciss- base ivy (cissoid)
-cisto- base chest; container (cistophorous)
-cit- base arouse (incite) citra- comb on this side of; near (citramontane). See cis- citro- comb citric (citromalic) civ- base citizen (civic) clad- base leaf (cladode) clado- comb branch (cladophyll)
-claim, clam- comb say; speak; tell (exclaim, exclamation) clar- base clear (clarified)
-clasia, -clasis, -clastic comb break fracture; fragment (osteoclasia, onychoclasia, aclastic) clasmato- comb fragment (clasmatoocyte) clathr- base lattice; bars (clathrate) claud- base lame (claudication) claustr- comb closed; shut (claustrophobia)
-clav- base nail (inclavate) clavato- comb studded; knobbed (clavototurbinate) clavi⁻¹ comb key; collarbone (clavichord) clavi⁻² base club (clavicorn) -cle 1. suf diminutive spelling (particle); 2. place; means (receptacle) cleido- see clido-

-cleisis comb closure (colpocleisis) cleisto- comb shut; closed (cleistocarp) clem⁻¹ base vine (clematis) clem⁻² base mercy; leniency (clemency) clepto- comb robber (cleptobiosis). See klepto- clerico- comb clerical and (clerico-political) clero- comb chance; lot (cleromancy) clido- 1. comb key (clidomancy); 2. clavicle (clidomastoid). Also cleido- (cleidomancy) climac- base stairs; ladder rungs (climacophobia) clin- base bed (clinoid)
-clinal, -clinate, -cline, -clinic, clino-, -clinous comb sloped; bent; directed toward; inclined (anticlinal, proclinate, incline, matroclinic, clinodiagonal)
-clisis comb proneness; bending (pathocclisis)
-clit- base bend; inflect; lean (heteroclitral)
-clithr- 1. base closed; shut (clithral); 2. keyhole (clithridiate)
-cliv- base slope (proclivity) cloac- base sewer (cloacal)
-clonic, -clonus comb spasm; twitching (synclonic, myoclonus)
-clud-, -clus- base closed; shut (exclude, reclusive) clupe- base herring (clupeoid) clype- comb like a shield (clypeiform)
-clysis comb irrigation (peritoneoclysis) clysm-, clyst- base enema (clysmic, clysterize)

-cnem- base leg; tibia (gastrocnemius) cnido- comb nettle; stinging organ (cnidophore) co⁻¹ 1. suffix together; with (co-operation); 2. joint (co-owner); 3. equally (coextensive); 4. complement of (cosine). NOTE: co- can change to: col- (colleague); com- (commingle); con- (convulse); cor- (correlate) co⁻² suffix trade names (Pepsico) cobalti-, cobalto- comb cobalt (cobalti-cyanide, cobalto-cyanide)
-coccal, -coccic, cocco-, -coccoid, -coccus comb of or like a bacterium; bacteria names; berry-like; grainlike (staphylococcal, staphylococcic, coccobacillus, staphylococcoid, staphylococcus) cocci- comb berry (coccigerous) coccy-, coccygo- comb coccyx (coccyalgia, coccygodynia) cochle(a)- base snail (cochleiform) cochleari- base spoon (cochleariform) cochlio- comb spiral (cochliocarpous)
-coct- base cook; boil (decoction)
-coele comb cavity; chamber (blastocoele) coeli- comb heaven; sky (coelicolist) coelo- comb hollow (coelodont) coen- base meal (coenaculous) coeno- comb in common (coenobite). Also ceno- (cenobite) cogit- base know; think (cogitation)
-cogn- base know; related by blood (recognize, cognation) coimet- base cemetery (coimetrophobia). Also coemet- coit- base intercourse; coming together (coition) col⁻¹ See co-
col⁻² base strain; filter (colander)

colaco- base parasite (colacobiosis) colar-, colat- base strain (colarin, colation)
-cole, -colent comb [botany] inhabit; habitat (arboricole, accolent). See -colous coleo- comb sheath; scabbard (coleorhiza) coleopter- base beetle (coleopterous) coli⁻¹, colo- comb colon (coliform, coloenteritis) coli⁻² comb sieve (coliform) coll⁻¹ base neck; collar (decollate, colliform) coll⁻² base glue (collenchyma) coll⁻³ base hill (colliculate)
-colleto- base one who glues or fastens (colletocystophore) collodio- comb collodion (collodichloride) collut- base mouthwash (collution)
-colous comb growing in; living among (arenicolous). See -cole colp(o)- comb vagina (colpocele) colubri- comb snake (colubriiform) columb- base dove; pigeon (columbaceous) columelli- comb small column (columelliform) column- base pillar (columniferous)
-com- base treatment (gerocomy)
-coma, comi-, como- comb having hair or a hairlike structure (Abrocoma, comiferous, comophorous) comest- base eat up (comestible) comico- comb humorous (comico-cynical) comit- base affable; courteous (comity) conat- base attempt; desire (conative) concavo- comb concave (concavo-convex) concess- base grant; yield (concession) conchi- comb shell (conchiferous) concin- base adjusted; suitable; harmonious (inconcinny)

-cond- base put together (incondite) condyl- comb knob; protuberance (condyloid) conger- base pile (congeries) congru- base come together (congruency) coni⁻¹, -conia, conio- comb dust; granules (coniosis, fibroconia, coniofibrosis). Also konio- (koniosis) coni⁻², cono- comb cone (coniferous, conodont) conico- comb conical (conico-cylindrical) conist- base dusty place (conistery) conjugato- comb coupled; paired (conjugato-palmate) connict- base blink (connictation) conniv- base blink (connivance) connochaet- base gnu (connochaetes) conoido- comb nearly conical (conoido-hemispherical) consil- base in accord; agreeing (consilience) contig- base adjacent (contiguous) contin- base unceasing (continuous) contorto- comb twisted (contortofoliaceous) contra- pre against; contrary; opposite (contradiction) contre- pre opposite (contrecoup) contum- base insolence; stubbornness (contumely) convexo- comb rounded; convex (convexo-concave)
-cop- base beat; strike (syncope) coph- base deaf (cophosis) copi- base abundance (copious) copro- comb excrement; filth (coprolite); obscenity (coprology) coraci-, coraco- 1. comb coracoid bone; beaklike (coraco-acromial); 2. crow; raven (coraciiform, coracomorphic) coralli- comb coral (corallidomous) corb- base basket (corbula) cord- comb cord; sinew (cordotomy). Also chord (chorditis) cordato- comb heart-shaped (cordato-ovate) cordi- comb heart (cordiform) core⁻¹, coreo-, -coria, coro- comb pupil of the eye (corelysis, coreoplasty, isocoria, coroplastic). Also -koria (leukokoria) core⁻² base bug (coreopsis)

-cori- base leather (coriaceous) cormo- comb trunk; stem (cormophyly)
-corn, corni- comb horn (unicorn, corniform) corneo- 1. comb with a horny admixture (corneo-silicious); 2. cornea of eye (corneoiritis) cornic- base little tentacles; antennae (corniculate) cornu- base horn (cornucopia) corolli- comb crown; flower garland (corolliflorous) coroni-, corono- comb crown (coroniform, coronofacial)
-corp- base body; bulk (incorporate) corrugato- comb wrinkled (corrugato-striate) cortici-, cortico- comb bark; cortex (corticiform, corticotropin) corv- base crow; magpie, raven (corvine) corymbi- comb cluster (corymbiferous) coryn- base rod; club (coryniform)

-coryph- base top; summit (coryphodon) coscino- comb sieve (coscinomancy)
-cosm, cosmo- comb world; universe (macrocosm, cosmotheism) costi-, costo- comb rib (costiform, costotome) coturn- base quail (coturnine) cotyle-, cotyli-, cotylo- comb cup-shaped; hollow; hipjoint socket (cotyledonary, cotyliform, cotylosacral) counter- 1. comb opposite; contrary to (counterclockwise); 2. in retaliation (counterplot); 3. complementary (counterpart) couphe- comb frail; fragile; tender (coupfolite). Also kouphe- (koupfolite) coxo- comb hip (coxodynia)
-cracy comb form of government (theocracy)
-craft comb work; skill; art; practice of (woodcraft) cranio- comb skull (craniofacial)
-cranter- base wisdom teeth (syncranterian) crapul- base excessive eating and drinking (crapulence)
-crasia 1. comb mixture (spermacrasia); 2. loss of control (coprocrasia). Also -crasy (idiocrasy)
-crass- base thickened; condensed (incrassated) crastin- base tomorrow (procrastinate)
-crat comb participant in government (democrat)
-crataeg- base hawthorn (crataegin) crater- base bowl (crateriform) crateri- base crater (crateriform) cratic- base lattice (craticle)
-crease comb grow (decrease) crebr- base frequent (crebrous) crebri- comb ridged (crebrisulcate)

-cred- base belief; trust (incredible)
-crem- base burn (incremable) cremno- base precipice (cremno-phobia) cremo- comb hanging (cremocarp) cren-¹, crenato-, crenulato- comb notched; scalloped (crenellation, crenato-serrate, crenulato-dentate) cren-² base fountain; spring (crenic) creo- comb flesh (creophagous). Also kreo- (kreophagy)
-crep- base shoe (hippocrepian)
-crepit- base crack; creak; crackle (decrepit)
-crepus- base twilight (crepuscular)
-cresc- base grow; build up (crescitive) crescenti- base crescent (crescentiform) cretaceo- comb [geology] chalk formation (cretaceo-tertiary) crev- base crack; rift (crevice) cribri- comb sieve (cribriform) cricet- base gerbil; muskrat (cricetine) crico- comb ring; circle (cricothyroid)
-crin- base cup; calyx (crinoidal) crini- comb hair (criniferous) crino-, -crine comb secretion (crinogenic, endocrine) crio- comb a ram (criocephalous)
-crisp- base curl; wrinkle (incrispated) crist- base crested (cristate) crit-¹ base judge; decide (criticism); Also krit- (kritarchy)
-crit² comb separate (hematocrit) crith- comb barley (crithology) critico- comb critical and (critico-historical) croce- base saffron (croceal) crocodil- base crocodile (crocodilian) cromny- base onion (cromnyomancy)

cross- suf transverse; contrary (crossroads) crosso- suf fringed; tasseled (Crossopterygian)

-crot- base beat; strike (catacrotic) crotal- base rattlesnake (crotaliform) cruci- comb cross (cruciferous)

-cruent- base bloody (incruent)

cruur- base blood (cruorin)

-crur- base leg (crural) crymo-, cryo- comb cold; freezing (crymophilic, cryogenics) crypto- comb secret; hidden; covered (cryptogram) crystallo- comb crystal (crystallogenic)

cteno- comb comb (ctenobranch)

-cub- base lie; recline (incubator)

cubi-, cubo- comb cube; dice (cubi-contravariant, cubo-octahedron) cubito- comb [anatomy] ulna and ___ (cubito-carpal) cucul- comb cuckoo; roadrunner (cuculiform) cuculli- comb hood; cowl (cuculiform) cucumi- comb cucumber (cucumiform)

cucurbit- base gourd (cucurbitin)

-cula, -cule, suf diminutive (Auricula, molecule) culici- base gnat; mosquito (culiciform) culin- base kitchen (culinary) culmi- comb plant stem; straw (culmicolous) culmin- base peak; top (culmination) culp- base fault; blame (exculpate)

cult- base worship (cultism) cultel- base knife (cultellary)

cultri- comb knife (cultrirostral)

-culture comb tillage; raising (vini-culture)

-culum, -culus suf diminutive (curriculum, fasciculus) cuma- base wave; surf (cuma-phytism)

-cumb- base lie; recline (recumbent) cumulo- comb heaplike; cumulus and ___ (cumulonimbus) cunct- base delay; tardy action (cunctation) cuneo- comb wedge (cuneo-scapoid) cunic- base hare; rabbit (cuniculous) cunicul- base underground (cunicular) cup- base desire (cupidity) cupreo-, cupri-, cupro-, cuproso- comb copper (cupreo-violaceous, cupriferous, cupromagnesite, cuproso-ferric) cupress- base cypress (cupressineous) cupuli- comb cup (cupuliform) cur- base health; healing (curative) curculion- base weevil (curculionid)

-cur(r)-, -curs- base run; go (recur-rent, cursory) curt- base short; abbreviated (curtail) curvi- comb curved; bent (curvilin-ear) cuspid- base point (cuspid)

cuss- base strike; shake (percussion) custod- base watchman (custodial)

cuti- comb skin (cutisector)

-cy 1. suf quality; fact of being; state; condition (democracy); 2. position; rank (captaincy)

-cyam- base bean (hyoscyamine) cyano- 1. comb dark blue (cyanosis); 2. cyanide (cyanohydrin) cyathi-, cyatho- comb cuplike (cyathiform, cyatholith) cyber- comb relating to computers (cyberphobia) cyclo- comb wheel; circle; cycle (cyclograph) cyclorraph- base fly (cyclorraphous) cyclostom- base eel (cyclostomatous)

-cyesis comb pregnancy (polycyesis) cygn- base swan (cygning). Also cycn- (cycnean) cylico- base bowl (cylicomancy). Also kylixo- cylindro- comb cylinder (cylindroconical) cyma-, cymato-, cymo- comb wave; billow (cymagraph, cymatolite, cymoscope) Also kymo- (kymograph) cymbi-, cymbo- comb boat (cymbiform, cymbocephalic) cyn-, cyno- comb dog (cynanthropy, cynophobia). Also kyno-

cyo- comb fetus (cyogenic) cypho- comb humped; bent; crooked (cyphonism). Also kypho- (kyphosis) cypriani- base lewd; harlot (cypriante) cyprid- base sexual (cypridophobia) cyprin- base carp; goldfish; minnow (cyprinid) cypsel- base swift (cypseline) cyrio- base regular; proper (cyriologic) cyrto- comb curved; arched (cyrtometer) cyst-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto- comb like a bladder; pouch; sac; cyst (cystalgia, statocyst, cystiform, cystocarp)
-cyte, cyto- comb cell (lymphocyte, cytology)
-cythemia comb blood cell condition (leukocythemia)

D

dacn- base bite; kill (Tridacna) dacry(o)- comb tear (dacryocystitis) dactyl-, dactylo-, -dactylous, -dactyly comb finger; toe (dactyliology, dactylogy, tridactylous, brachydactyly) dactylio- comb finger ring (dactyloglyphic) daedal- base cunning (logodaedaly) daemon- see demon- Dano- comb Danish and __ (Dano-Irish) dapat- base sumptuous; costly (dapatical) daphn- base laurel (daphnomancy)

dasy- comb hairy or wooly; thick or dense (dasyphyllous) dasypod- base armadillo (Dasypodid) dasyproct- base agouti (Dasyprocta) dativo- comb dative (dativo-gerundial) de- 1. pre away from; off (detrain); 2. down (decline); 3. entirely (defunct); 4. undo; reverse (defrost) debil- base weakness (debility) dec(a)- comb ten (decagon) decem- base ten (decemcostate) deci- comb one-tenth (decimeter)

-decker comb having __ decks or in layers (double-decker) decresc- base wane; lessen (decrecent) decuss- base divided crosswise; x-shaped (decussate) degen- base decline (degenerative)

dehydro- comb dehydrogenated (dehydrochlorinate)

de(i)- base God (deification)

-deictic comb demonstrating (epideictic) deipno- comb dinner (deipnophobia)

deka- comb ten (dekaliter)

delect- base please (delectation) delinq- base fault (delinquency)

delphin- base porpoise; dolphin (delphine) delto- comb triangular (deltohedron) dement- base insane (dementia)

demi- 1. pre half (demivolt); 2. less than usual (demigod)

-demia comb fatty degeneration (myodemia) demo- comb people (democracy)

demono- comb demon (demonology) dendri-, dendro-, -dendron comb tree; treelike (dendriform, dendrology, rhododendron) dentato- comb dentate and (dentato-serrate) denti-, dento- comb tooth (denti-form, dentosurgical). Also dont- (pedodontics) deoxy- comb oxygen removed (deoxyhemoglobin) deris- base mockery; scorn (deristic) derm-, -derm, derma, -derma, dermato-, -dermatous, -dermis, dermo- comb skin; covering (dermabrasion, endoderm, dermatherm, scleroderma, dermatology, xerodermatous, epidermis, dermoneural) des⁻¹ pre missing; deprived of (desoxydation). See dis-

-des² suf plural ending (proboscides) desid- base wish; desire (desiderative) desmo- comb bond; band; ligament (desmogen) desmodont- base bat (desmodontid) deuter(o)-, deuto- comb second; secondary (deuterogamy, deutoplasm) dexio- comb on the right side (dextrotropic) dextr(o)- 1. comb on the right side (dextrocardia); 2. [chemistry] clockwise (dextrorotatory) di⁻¹ 1. pre twice; double (dichroism); 2. having two (diacid) di⁻² pre away; apart (divest). See dis- dia- 1. pre through; across (diagonal); 2. apart; between (diaphony)

-diabol- base devil (diabolic) dialy- comb separate; distinct (dialysepalous) diamido- comb having two atoms of hydrogen replaced by two of the radical Amidogen NH₂ (diamidobenzene) diaphano- comb transparent (diaphanometer) diazo- comb having a group of two nitrogen atoms combined directly with one hydrocarbon radical (diazamino) dibromo- comb having two atoms of bromine which have replaced two of hydrogen (dibromoaldehyde) dicarbo- comb containing two

- atoms or equivalents of carbon (dicarbopyridenic)
- dichloro- comb two chlorine atoms substituting for hydrogen atoms (dichlorohydrin)
- dicho- comb in two; split; separately (dichotomy)
- dichro- comb two-colored (dichromatism)
- dict- base say; speak; tell (contradiction)
- dictyo- comb net (dictyogen)
- dicyano- comb combined with two equivalents of the radical cyanogen replacing two of hydrogen, chlorine, etc. (dicyanodiamide)
- did- base dodo (didine)
- didact- base teach (didactic)
- didelph- base opossum (didelphine)
- didym-, didymo- comb relating to the testis (didymalgia)
- diethene comb combined with two equivalents of ethene (diethenediamine)
- dif- pre away; apart (differ). See dis-
- digitato- comb having fingerlike divisions (digitato-pinnate)
- digiti- comb finger; toe (digitigrade)
- digito- comb digitalis; foxglove (digitoleic acid)
- dihydro- comb having two atoms of hydrogen in combination (dihydrobromide)
- diiodo- comb having two atoms of iodine replacing two of hydrogen (diiodomethane)
- dike- comb justice (dikephobia)
- dilat- base expansion (dilation)
- diluv- base flood (diluvial)
- (di)mid- base half (dimidiation)
- (di)min- base lessen (diminution)
- dioxy comb having two atoms of oxygen (dioxybenzene)
- dinitro- comb having two nitro groups per molecule (dinitrobenzene)
- dino-¹ comb terrible; mighty; huge (dinosaur)
- dino-² comb whirling (dinoflagellate)
- diomed- base albatross (diomedidae)
- dior- base distinction; definition (dioristic)
- dioscorea- base yam (dioscoreaceous)
- diphy- comb double; bipartite (diphyccercal)
- diplo- comb two; double; twin (diplocephaly)
- diplopod- base millipede (diplopodal)
- dipso- comb thirst (dipsomania)
- diptero- comb having two wings (dipterology)
- dis- 1. pre away; apart (dismiss); 2. deprive of (disbar); 3. cause to be the opposite of (disable); 4. fail; refuse to (disallow); 5. not (dishonest); 6. lack of (disunion) NOTE: dis- can change to di- (divest) or dif- (differ). See des-
- discip- base follower; learner (disciple)
- disco- comb disk-shaped (discocarp)
- discophor- base jellyfish; leech (discophoran)
- disso- base double (dissoconch)
- disto- comb remote; farther away (distolabial)
- disulpho- comb acids derived from two molecules of sulphurous acid (disulphoanthraquinic)
- diurn- base day (diurnal)
- diuturn- base lasting; long duration (diuturnal)
- divergenti-, divergi- comb diver-

- gent (divergentiflorous, diverginate)
- doc- base teach (indoctrinate)
- dodeca- comb twelve (dodecagon)
- dogmato- comb pertaining to dogma (dogmatopoeic)
- dolabri- comb ax; cleaver (dolabrium)
- dolero- comb deceptive (dolero-phanite)
- dolicho- comb long; narrow (dolichocephalic)
- dolio- base barrel (dolioform)
- dolor- base pain; sorrow (dolorific)
- dom¹ base house; dwelling (domestic)
- dom² 1. suf rank of; position of; domain of (kingdom); 2. state of being (wisdom); 3. total of all who are (officialdom)
- don- base give (donation). Also -dor- gift (Dorothy)
- dont comb tooth (orthodontist). Also dent- (dentifrice)
- dora- base fur; hide (doromania)
- dorm- base sleep (dormitive)
- dorsi-, dorso- comb the back (dorsibranh, dorsoventral)
- double- comb in combination (double-breasted)
- draco-, draconi- base dragon (dracocephalum, draconiform)
- drapeto- comb flee; fugitive (drapetomania)
- drepani- comb sickle (drepaniform)
- driri- base drip (dririmancy)
- drome, dromo-, -dromous comb running; moving; racecourse (hippodrome, dromomania, catadromous)
- droso- comb dew (drosometer)
- drosophyl- base fruitfly (Drosophilidae)
- du- pre two (duplicate)
- dub- base doubtful (indubitably)
- duc(e), -duct- base lead (induce, conductor)
- ducen- base two hundred (ducenarious)
- dulc- base sweet (dulcify)
- dulo- comb slave (dulocracy). Also doulo- (doulocracy)
- duo- comb two; double (duograph)
- duodec-, duodecim-, duoden- base twelve (duodecuple, duodecimfid, duodenary)
- duodeviginti- base eighteen (duodevigintiangular)
- uplicato- comb doubly (uplicatodentate)
- uplici- comb duplex (uplicipennate)
- dur-, duro- base hard; lasting (endurance, durometer)
- dyna-, dynamo- comb power; strength; energy (dynameter, dynamogeny)
- dynia comb pain (inguinodyn timer)
- dyo- comb two (Dyophysite)
- dys- pre hard; ill; bad; difficult (dysentery)
- dyte- base to get or enter (troglodyte)

E

- e- see ex-
- ea suf noun ending (cornea)
- eae suf plant tribes: plural ending (Gramineae)
- ean suf belonging to; like (European)
- ebon- base black (ebony)
- ebur- base ivory (eburnine)

ec- see ex-

ecclesiastico- comb of the church or clergy (ecclesiastico-military)

-echia comb have; retain (synechia) echidno- comb viper (echidno-toxin) echin- base hedgehog; sea urchin (echinate) echinato-, echino- comb prickly; spiny (echinato-dentate, echinococcus) echinoderm- base starfish (echinodermatous) echinulato-, echinuli- comb prickly; spiny (echinulato-striate, echinuliform) echo- comb repeated sound (echo-lalia) eco- comb environment (ecosystem)

-ecoia comb hearing condition (dysecoia)

-ectasia, -ectasis comb dilation; expansion (colpectasia, anectasis) ect(o)- comb outside; external (ectoderm)

-ectomy comb surgical operation; excision; cutting (appendectomy) ectro- comb congenital absence of a part (ectrodactyly)

ed¹ base eat (edible)

-ed² suf having; provided with; characterized by (pileated)

edaph- base floor; ground (edaphic)

-edema comb swelling (myoedema)

-edent- 1. base lacking teeth (edentulous); 2. order of New World mammals which includes armadillos, sloths, anteaters (edentate)

edi- base building (edifice). Also aedi-

-ee 1. suf recipient (appointee);

2. person (employee); 3. thing (goatee)

-een suf diminutive (colleen)

-eer 1. suf person who does (engineer); 2. person who writes (sonneteer)

ef- see ex-

efficac- base effective; competent (efficacious) egagro- base wild goat (egagropile) ego- comb self (egomania) egress- depart; leave (egressive)

egro- comb dead (egromancy): corrupt form of necro-

Egypto- comb Egyptian and __ (Egypto-Arabic)

eico- comb twenty (eicosapentaenoic) eid-, eido- comb shape; form; that which is seen (eidetic, eidoclast) eiren- base peace (eirenarchy)

eis- pre into (eisegesis)

eisoptro- comb mirror (eisoptrophobia)

-eity suf noun of quality or condition (spontaneity) eka- comb one (ekaselenium)

ekist- comb settlement; house (ekistics)

-el suf diminutive (satchel)

elao-, elaeo- comb oil (elaolite, elaeometer) elaph- base deer; stag (elaphine)

-elasmo- base metal plate (elasmosaurus)

elat- base joy (elation) electro- comb electrical (electromagnetic)

eleo- comb oil (eleoma)

elephant- base elephant (elaphantine)

eleuthero- comb freedom (eleutheromania)

-ella 1. suf diminutive (umbrella); 2. bacteria genus (salmonella) elytri- comb wing case (elytriiform) elytr(o)- comb [medicine] vagina (eletroplasty) em- 1. pre in (embed); 2. cause to be (empower); 3. to place (emplacement); 4. to restrict (embrace) emberiz- base bunting (emberizine) embol-, emboli-, embolo- comb plug; obstruction; patch; stopper (embolism, emboliform, embololalia) embryo- comb fetus (embryogeny)

-eme suf [linguistics] significant contrastive unit (phoneme)
-emesis, -emetic, emeto- comb vomiting (hematemesis, antiemetic, emetophobia)
-emia comb blood condition; blood disease (leukemia). Also -aemia (hyperaemia) emmen- comb monthly; menstrual (emmeniotherapy) empor- base trade; merchant; merchandise (emporetic)
-empt- base buy; take (exempt) emul- base jealous; rivalrous (emulate) emunct- base nose blowing; excretory (emunctory) emydo- comb tortoise (emydosaurian) en-¹ 1. pre in; within (energy); 2. to place (entomb); 3. to cause to be in (enshrine); 4. to restrict (encircle) NOTE: en- becomes em- before B and P: (embed). See eis-
-en² 1. suf plural form (oxen); 2. cause to be (weaken); 3. cause to have (strengthen); 4. made of (wooden); 5. female (vixen); 6. diminutive (kitten) enalio- base of the sea (enaliosaur) enantio- comb opposite (enantiothetic)
-enarthra- base jointed (enarthrosis)
-ence suf action; state; quality (excellence). See -ance encephalo- comb brain (encephalocoele)

-enchyma¹ comb sinuous; wavy (colpencychyma)
-enchyma² comb infusion (protenchyma) encom- base praise (encomium) enerv- base weakness (enervated)
-ency suf act; fact; quality; degree; state; result (emergency) endeca- comb eleven (endecagon). Also hendeca- (hendecasyllabic) endo- comb inside; within (endocardium)
-ene suf hydrocarbons (benzene) engraul- base anchovy (Engraulid) enigmato- comb obscure; enigmatic (enigmatology) enisso- comb reproach; criticism (enissophobia)
-enn- base year (biennial). Also -ann- (annual) -enne suf feminine ending (comedienne)
ennea- comb nine (enneahedron) enneacent- base nine hundred (enneacentenary) enneaconta- base ninety (enneacontahedral) enneakaideca- comb nineteen (enneakaidecahedron)
-enoic suf unsaturated acid (eicosatrienoic) enoptro- comb mirror (enoptromancy) enosi- base reproach (enosiphobia) ensi- comb sword-shaped (ensiform)
-ensis suf scientific derivatives of place names (carolinensis)
-ent 1. suf having the quality of (insistent); 2. person who (superintendent); 3. material agent (emolient). See -ant enter- pre between; among; mutually (entertain). Usually inter- entero- comb intestines (enteropathy)

ento- comb within; inner (entophyte) entomo- comb insect (entomogenous) entostho- comb from within (entosthoblast) entre- base in; undertaking (entrepreneur) eo- pre early time period; dawn (eolithic)

eoso- comb dawn (eosophobia)

-eous suf having the nature of; like (beauteous)

epana- comb repetition (epanastrophe)

-epeiro- base mainland; continent (epeirogenic) ephem- base lasting for a day (ephemeris) ephipp- base saddle (ephippium) epi- pre on; upon; up to; over; on the outside; among; beside; following (epicardium). NOTE: epi- can change to: ep- (epaxial) and eph- (ephedrine) epicid- base pertaining to funeral rites (epicidial) episcop- base bishop (episcopicide) episio- comb vulva (episiotomy) epistem- base knowledge (epistemology) equ- base horse (equine) equi- comb equal (equidistant)

equiset- base horsetail (equisetiform)

-er 1. suf person who (farmer);
2. person living in (New Yorker);
3. thing or action (double-header); 4. repeatedly (flicker);
5. comparative degree (cooler)

-erel suf pejorative (doggerel) eremo- 1. comb alone; solitary (eremophobia); 2. of/in a desert (eremophyte)

-erethis- base irritate (erethistic)

-ergasia comb interfunctioning of mind and body; work; activity (hypoergasia). Also ergasio- (ergasiophobia) ergo-, -ergic, -ergy comb work; activity; result (ergonomics, neuro-ergic, allergy) erinac- base hedgehog (erinaceous) erio- base wood; fiber (erimeter)

eris- base controversy; strife (eristic)

-ern suf direction names (southern) eroso- comb incised; indented (erosodentate)

erot- base question (erotesis)

eroto- comb sexual desire (erotomania) err- base wander (errant)

eruci- base caterpillar (eruciform)

-ery 1. suf a place to (brewery); 2. a place for (nunnery); 3. practice/act of (robbery); 4. product/goods of (pottery); 5. collection of (crockery); 6. condition/state of (slavery)

erysi- comb red; inflamed (erysipeloid) erythro- comb red; erythrocyte (erythrocarpous)

es- see ex-

-es suf plural ending (dishes)

-esce suf incomplete action (incandesce)

-escence suf something becoming (convalescence)

-escent suf starting to be; becoming (obsolescent) eschato- base last (eschatology)

escul- base food (esculent)

-ese 1. suf of a country (Portuguese); 2. of a language (Chinese);
3. in the style of (journalese)

-esis suf condition; process; action (enuresis)

-esmus comb spasm; contraction (tenesmus). Also -ismus (vaginismus) eso- comb inner; within (esotropia) esophag- base gullet (esophagus). Also oesophag- (oesophagalgalgia)

-esque 1. suf in the style of (Romanesque); 2. like (picturesque)

-ess suf female who (princess) esse- base being; existence (essential)

-est suf superlative degree (coolest)

-esthesia-, -esthesio- comb sensation; perception (myesthesia, esthesiogenic) estu- base 1. boil (estuant); 2. tide (estuary). Also aestu- esur- base hunger; appetite (esurient)

-et suf diminutive (rivulet)

-eth suf ordinal numbers (fiftieth) ethico- comb ethical and (ethicopolitical) ethmo- comb sieve; ethmoid bone (ethmo-turbinal) ethno- comb race; people; culture; nation (ethnology)

etho- comb character; behavior (ethology)

-etic suf adjective ending (pathetic)

etio- comb cause; origin (etiologist). Also aetio- (aetiology)

-ette 1. suf diminutive (dinette); 2. female (suffragette); 3. substitute (leatherette)

-etum suf a grove of the plant specified (pinetum)

eu- pre good; well (eulogy)

-eum suf scientific name ending (peritoneum)

-eur suf one who (voyeur)

euro- comb east (euroboreal)

Euro- comb European (Eurodollars)

Europaeo-, Europeo- comb European (Europaeo-Siberian, Europeo-Asiatic)

eur- comb [science] broad; wide (eurycephalic)

-eus suf scientific name ending (nucleus) eusuch- base alligator (eusuchian)

even- comb smooth; consistent (even-tempered) ever- comb always (ever-abiding) ex- 1. pre from; out (expel); 2. beyond (excess); 3. away from; out of (expatriate); 4. thoroughly (exterminate); 5. upward (exalt); 6. not having (exanimate); 7. former (ex-husband). NOTE: ex- can change to: e- (eject); ec- (eccentric); ef- (efferent); es- (escape)

exa- comb quintillion (exameter) exanim- base without life (exanimate) excito- comb [anatomy] stimulating (excito-nutrient) excub- base watchman (excubation)

-exia See -orexia

exig- 1. base demanding (exigency); 2. scanty (exiguous) exo- pre without; outside; outer part (exocardia) exousia- comb authority (exousias-tic) explanato- comb spread out in a plane or flat surface (explanatofoliaceous) extero- comb outside (exteroceptive)

extra-, extro- pre outside; beyond; more than; besides (extraordinary, extrovert)

-ey suf characterized by; inclined to (goosey)

F

-faba-, -fabi- base bean (fabaceous, fabiform)

-fabr- base make; construct (fabrication) fabul- base tale (fabulist)

-fac-, -fec-, -fic- base make; do (factory, efficient, fictitious)

-facient comb causing to become; making (liquefacient) facil- base easy (facilitate)

facin- base wicked; vile (facinorous)

facio- comb face (facioplegia)

-faga- base beech (fagaceous)

-falc- base sickle (falciform) falco-, falconi- base falcon; kestrel; hawk (falconry) fan- base lighthouse; beacon (fanal) farct- base to stuff; obstruct (infarction) farin- base flour (farinaceous)

farr-, farrag- base mixed feed grains; spelt (confarreation, farraginous) fasciculato- comb arranged in a bundle (fasciculato-glomerate) fascio- comb fibrous tissue; fascia; bundle (fasciotomy) fastid- base disgust (fastidious) fastig- base gabled; pointed; tapered (fastigate) fati- base prophet (fatidic) fatic- base cleft (fatiscent) fatu- base foolish (fatuous) fauc- base throat (faucal)

faust- base fortune; chance (faustity) fav- base honeycomb (faviform) favill- base ashes (favillous)

favon- base west wind (favonian) favoso- comb honeycombed (favoso-dehiscent) febri- comb fever (febrifuge)

-fec-¹ base make; do (effective). See fac-

-fec-² base filth; dregs (feculent) fedi- base compact; covenant (fedifragous)

fel- base cat (feline)

felic- base happy (felicify) femin- base woman (feminization)

femto- pre one-quadrillionth (femtometer)

fenest- base window (fenestrate)

-fer comb one that bears; one that produces (aquifer)

-fer- base wild animal (ferine) ferment- base yeast (fermentareous)

feroc- base bold; fierce (ferocity)

-ferous comb bearing; producing; yielding (coniferous) ferri-, ferro- comb containing ferric iron (ferricyanide, ferromagnetism) ferul- base rod; stalk (ferulaceous) ferv- base boil; glow (fervency) fescinn- base obscene (fescinnine)

-fest comb assembly or celebration (songfest) festin- base haste; speed (festination) festuc- base stalk; straw (festucine)

fet- base stink (fetid)

fibri- comb fiber (fibriform) fibrilloso- comb fibril-shaped (fibrilloso-striate) fibrino- comb fibrin (fibrinogen)

fibro- comb fibrous matter (fibroadipose) fibroso- comb fibrous (fibroso-calcareus)

-fic comb making; creating (scientific). See fac-

-fication comb a making; a creating; a causing (calcification)

- fici- base fig (ficiform)
- fict- base made up (fiction)
- fid-¹ base faith; belief (confide)
- fid-² comb cleft; segment (multifid)
- figur- base form; shape (disfiguration)
- fil-¹, fili-, filo- comb threadlike (filament, filigrain, filoplume)
- fil-² base child (filial)
- filamento- comb threadlike (filamento-cribrate)
- filari- base worm (filariform)
- fili- base fern (filiiform)
- fim-, fimi- comb dung (fimetic, fimicolous)
- fimbr- comb fringe; border (fimbriate)
- fimbriato- comb fringed with hairs (fimbriato-lacinate)
- fimbrilli- comb small fringe (fimbrilliferous)
- fin- base end; limit (infinity)
- Finno- comb Finnish (Finno-Ugric)
- fissi- comb [anatomy] cleft (fissidactyl)
- fissuri- comb fissure (fissuriform)
- fistul- base reed; pipe; tube (fistuliform)
- flabelli- comb fanlike (flabellifoliate)
- flacc- base drooping; weak (flaccid)
- flagel- base whip; lash (flagelliferous)
- flagit- base vicious; wicked (flagitious)
- flat- base wind (flatulent)
- flavido- comb yellowish (flavido-cinerascent)
- flavin comb natural derivatives of flavin (riboflavin)
- flavo- 1. comb yellow (flavopurpurin); 2. flavin (flavoprotein)
- fleb- base weeping; doleful (flebile)
- flect-, -flex- base bend (inflection, flexible)
- flet- base weep; cry (fletiferous)
- flexuoso- comb winding; bending; undulating (flexuoso-convex)
- flocc- base wool; tuft (flocculent)
- flori-, -florous comb flower; having flowers (floriferous, multiflorous)
- flu- base flowing (fluent)
- flucti- comb undulation; wave (fluctifragous)
- flum- base river (fluminal)
- fluo-, fluor-, fluoro- comb fluorine; fluorescent (fluophosphate, fluorhydric, fluoroscope)
- fluv- base flowing (effluvia)
- fluvio- comb [geology] river; stream (fluvio-terrestrial)
- fod- base dig; burrow (fodient)
- fold 1. suf having parts (twofold); 2. larger; more (hundredfold)
- foliato- comb leaf-like (foliato-explanate)
- folii-, folio-, -folious comb leaf (foliiferous, foliolar, unifolious)
- follic- base tube; small bag (follicular)
- foot(er) comb so many feet long (six-footer)
- for- 1. pre away; apart; off (forgo); 2. very much (forladen)
- foramin- base hole (foraminate)
- forc-, -fort- base strength (enforcement, fortification)
- fore- 1. pre before (forecast); 2. front part of (forehead)
- forfic- base scissors (forficulate)
- forficul- base earwig (forficulid)
- foris- base outside (forisfamiliate)
- form 1. suf shaped like (oviform); 2. having __ forms (uniform)
- formic- base ant (formication)
- formo- comb [chemistry] formic acid (formo-benzoic)
- fornic- base arch; vault (forniciform)
- foss- base dig (fossorial)

fov- base pitted; pockmarked (foveate)
-fract- base break (fracture). Also
-frag- and -frang- fracto- comb ragged mass of cloud (fracto-stratus)
-frag- base break (fragmented). Also
-fract- and -frang-
fragar- base strawberry (fragarol) Franco- comb French (Franco-American)
-frang- base break (irrefragible). Also -fract- and -frag- frat- base brother (fratricide)
-frax- base ash tree (fraxetin)
-frem- base roar; murmur (fremescent) frend- base grind; gnash (frendent) frenet- base frenzied (frenetic)
-frig- base cold (frigorific)
-fringill- base finch (fringillaceous)
-frond- base leaf (frondivorous) fronto- 1. comb frontal bone (fronto-parietal); 2. meteorological front (frontogenesis) fructi-, fructo- comb fruit; fructose (fructiferous, fructosuria) frug-¹ base fruit; fructose (frugivorous) frug-² base sparing; thrifty (frugality)
-frument- base grain; cereal; corn (frumentaceous) frust- base fragment; piece (frustulent) fruticuloso- comb shrub-like (fruticuloso-ramose)
-fuc- base seaweed (fucivorous)
-fuge comb driving out; driving away (febrifuge)
-ful 1. suf full of (painful); 2. having qualities of (masterful); 3. having ability to (forgetful); 4. amount that fills (handful) fulic- base coot (fulicinae)

-fulg- base bright; flashing (fulgorant)
-fulig- base black; sooty (fuliginated) fuligul- base duck (fuliguline)
-fulmin- base lightning; thunder (fulmination)
-fulv- base brown (fulvescent) fulv- base yellow-brown; tan (fulvous)
-fum- base smoke (fumigate)
-fun- base rope (funambulist)
-fund- base bottom; base (fundamental)
-fundi- base sling (fundiform) funest- base fatal; deadly; disastrous (funestous) fungi- comb fungus (fungicide) funi- comb cord; rope; fiber (funiform) fur- base angry (furious)
-furc- base forked (bifurcation)
-furfur- base bran; dandruff (furfuraceous) furt- base theft; stealth (furtive)
-fus- base flow; pour; melt (transfusion) fusco- comb dark brown; dusky; gloomy (fusco-ferruginous) fusi-, fuso- comb spindle; rod (fusiform, fusobacterium)
-fustig- base beat; cudgel (fustigation) futil- base useless (futility)
-fy 1. suf make; cause to be (deify); 2. cause to have; imbue with (dignify); 3. become (putrefy)

G

- gaea comb earth (Paleogaea) galact(o)- comb milk; milky (galactocete)
-gale¹ base weasel (potamogale)
-gale² base shark (galeod)
-gale³ base cat (galeanthropy)
-galea base helmet (galeated)
-gallinac-, -gallinag- base poultry: chicken, grouse, partridge, pheasant, quail, turkey, woodcock (gallinaceous, gallinaginous)
Gallo- comb French; Gallic (Gallophobia) galvano- comb galvanic; electricity (galvanometer) gambog- base yellow (gambogian) gameto- comb gamete; union (gametophore)
-gammar- base sea crab; lobster (gammarolite) gamo- 1. comb sexually united (gamogenesis); 2. joined (gamosepalous)
-gamous, -gamy comb marrying uniting sexually (polygamous, polygamy) ganglio- comb nerve cells; swelling; ganglion (ganglioplexus)
-gano- base bright; shiny (ganoidal) garrul- base chatter; magpie, jay (garrulous, garruline) gaso- comb gas (gasohol) gastro-, -gastria, gastro- comb stomach (gasteropod, microgastria, gastroenteritis) gastropod- base snail (gastropodal)
-gate comb [journalism] concealed scandal (Watergate) gato- comb cat (gatophobia) gaud- base joy (gaudiloquence) gavi- base gull (Gaviae) gavial- base crocodile (gavialoid)
- geitono- base neighbor (geitono-gamy)
-gel⁻¹ base ice; frost; freeze (regelation)
-gel⁻² base laughter (gelastic) gelatino- comb gelatin (gelatino-albuminous)
-gemelli- base twins (gemelliparous)
-gemin- base double (geminiflorous) gemm⁻¹ base leaf buds (gemmate) gemm⁻² base jewel (gemmiferous)
-gen 1. comb something that produces; origin (oxygen); 2. something produced (endogen). Also -genic (endogenic); -genous (endogenous); -geny (endogeny)
-genesis comb origination; creation; formation; evolution (parthenogenesis)
-geneth- base birthday (genethliacon)
-genetic suf origin (phylogenetic)
-genia, genio-, geny⁻¹ comb jaw; cheek; chin (microgenia, genioplasty, genyplasty) genic-, genu- base knee (geniculate, genuflect) genito- comb genital (genitourinary) geno- comb race; genetic makeup (genotype)
-geny² comb product of (phylogeny) geo- comb earth (geocentric) gephyr- base bridge (gephyrophobia) ger⁻¹ base hold; manage (gerent) ger⁻² base old age (geriatric) gerasco- comb aging (gerascophobia) Germano- comb German (Germanophile)

gero-, geronto- comb old; elderly (gerodontics, gerontology)

-gerous comb producing; bearing; carrying (dentigerous) gestat- base carrying; pregnancy (gestation)

-geton- base neighbor (potamogenton)

geum-, geumat- base taste (geumaphobia, geumatophobia)

-geusia comb taste (parageusia)

-gibboso- base rounded; humped; convex; protuberant (gibbosolobate) giga- pre billion (gigabyte) giganto- comb gigantic; large (gigantology)

gilv- base yellow (gilvous)

gingivo- comb gums (gingivoglossitis)

-gingly- base hinge (ginglyform) glabello- comb space between the eyebrows (glabello-occipital)

-glabr- base smooth; bald (glabrous) glacio- comb glacier; ice (glaciologist)

gladi- comb sword (gladiolus) gland- 1. base acorn (glandiferous); 2. yellow-brown (glandaceous) glare- base gravel; sand (glareous) glauco- comb bluish-green; gray; silvery; opaque (glaucoma)

-glea comb glue; cement (mesoglea)

-gleb- base clod; lump; dirt (glebous) gleno- comb shallow joint-socket (gleno-humeral)

-glia, glio- comb glue; glue-like (neuroglia, glioblastoma)

glico- See gluco-

-glir- base dormouse (gliriform) globi-, globo- comb round; ball-shaped; spherical (globiferous, globosphaerite)

glom- base cluster; ball (glomerulus) glosso- 1. comb of the tongue (glossoplegia); 2. the tongue plus (glossopharyngeal); 3. of words; of language (glossology). Also glossia- (macroglossia)

-glot, glotto- comb language, communication in; languages, knowledge of (polyglot, glottogony) gluco- comb glycerin; glycerol; glycogen; sugar (glucokinase) glut- base rump (gluteus)

-glutin- base glue (glutinate) glutt- base eat; gulp (glutton) glycero-, glyco- comb glycerin; glycerol; glycogen; sugar (glycerolysis, glycogenesis) glycyr- base licorice (glycyrrize)

-glyph comb carve; engrave (hieroglyph)

-glypha comb [zoology] snakes with grooved fangs (Opisthoglyph) glypto- comb carve; engrave (glyptograph) gnatho-, -gnathous comb [zoology] jaw (gnathodynamics, prognathous)

-gnomy, -gnosia, -gnosis, -gnostic comb judging; determining; knowledge (physiognomy, dysgnosia, diagnosis, diagnostic) gnoto- comb known (gnotobiote)

gog-, -gogue see -agogue

-gomph- base bolt; socket; nail (gomphosis)

-gon, -gonal comb figure with — angles (pentagon, polygon) gonado- comb gonad; sex gland (gonadopathy)

-gone, -gonium, gono-, -gony comb reproduction; generation; origin; formation (myelogone, sporogonium, gonothecal, cosmogony) gonio- comb angle (goniometry)

-gracil- base slender; lean (graciles-cent) gracul- base jackdaw (graculine)

grad- base walk; move; go (gradation)

-grade comb a specified manner of walking or moving (plantigrade).
See -gress-

Graeco- comb Greek (Graeco-mania). Also Greco- (Grecophile)

-grall- base wading bird (gralline) grallator- base stork; heron (grallatorial)

-gram 1. comb written or drawn (telegram); 2. grams: x number of (kilograms); 3. gram: fraction of (centigram)

-gramen-, -gramin- base grass (gramenite, graminiferous) grand- comb of the generation older than or younger than (grandfather)

grandi- base great; large (grandiloquent) grandin- base hail (grandinous) grani- comb grain; corn (granivorous) graniti- comb granite (granitiform) grano- 1. comb granite: like/of (granolithic); 2. granular (granophyre) granulo- comb granular (granuloadipose)

grao- comb old woman (graocracy)

-graph 1. comb that which writes/draws/describes (telegraph);
2. that which is written/drawn (autograph). Also -grapher (stenographer); -graphic (telegraphic); grapho- (graphology); -graphy (autobiography) grapto- comb writing (graptomancy) grat- base thankful (gratitude)

-graticul- base gridiron (graticulation)

-grav- base weight heavy; serious (gravimeter)

-gravid- base pregnant (multi-gravida)

Greco- comb Greek (Greco-Roman). Also Graeco- (Graecophile)

-greg- base herd; flock (congregation)

grem- base bosom; lap (gremial)

-gress- base walk move; go (aggressive). See -grad-

-gris- base gray (griseous)

-grui- base crane (gruiform)

-grum- base clot (grumous)

gryll- base cricket; grasshopper (gryllotalpa) gubern- base ruler; guide (gubernatorial) gulos- base gluttony; voracity (gulosity)

-gust- base taste; eat (gustatory) gutti- base drop; gum-yielding (guttiferous) gutturo- comb throat (gutturolabial)

gymno- comb naked; stripped; bare (gymnocarpous) gyn-, gyno- 1. comb woman; female (gynarchy); 2. ovary; pistil (gynophore). Also -gynous (polygynous) and -gyny (monogyny) gynandro- comb of uncertain sex (gynandromorphism) gyne-, gyneco-, gyneo- comb woman; female (gynephobia, gynecocracy, gyneolatry)

-gypso- base chalk (gypsophila)

gyro- 1. comb gyrating (gyroscope);
2. spiral (gyroidal); 3. gyroscope (gyrocompass) gyroso- comb marked with wavy lines (gyroso-rugose)

H

habil- 1. base ability; equipped (rehabilitate); 2. clothing (habiliments)

-habro- base graceful; delicate (habroreme)

-hadro- base thick (hadrosaur)

haema- see hema-

hagi-, hagio- comb saintly; holy (hagiheroical, hagiology) halcyon- base kingfisher (halcyonine)

-hale base breath; vapor (exhale)

-halec- base herring (halecomorphic)

-halieut- base fishing (halieutics)

-halit- base breath; vapor (halitosis) halluc- base toe (hallucar)

halo- 1. comb of the sea (halosaurian); 2. of salt (halophyte); 3. of halogen (halogenous)

-ham- base hook (hamated) hama- pre together with; at the same time; united (hamarchy)

-hamart- 1. base sin (hamartiology); 2. corporal defect (hamartoma)

hamat- base barb; hook (hamate) hand- comb hand: of/with/by/for (handcuff)

-hapal- base soft (hapalote)

haph- base touch (haphalgnesia)

haplo- comb onefold; single (haplodont)

hapt-, hapto-¹ comb touch; sensation (haptics, haptotaxis)

-hapto-² base fasten; combine (haptophore) harengi- comb herring (harrengiform) hariol- base divination (hariolation). Also see "Divination" in Part III harmat- base car; chariot (harmatian) harpax- base robber (harpaxophobia)

-hastato-, hasti- comb spear (hastato-lanceolate; hastiform)

-haur-, -haust- base draw (forth); drain; suck (exhaustiate, haustellum)

-headed 1. comb having a __ head (clearheaded); 2. having __ heads (two-headed) heauto- comb of oneself (heautomorphism) hebdom- base week; seven days (hebdomadal) hebe- comb pubescent (hebegynous)

-hebet- base dull; blunt (hebetude)

Hebraico- comb Hebrew (Hebraico-Hibernian)

hecato-, hecto- comb one hundred (hecatophyllous, hectoliter). Also hekto- (hektograph) hecaticosa- comb one hundred twenty-four (hecaticosachoron)

-heder- base ivy (hederaceous)

-hedon- base pleasure (anhedonia)

-hedral, -hedron comb geometric figure with x number of surfaces (hexahedral, hexahedron)

-hedy- base sweet (hedychium) hegemon- base leader; chief (hegemonic)

-hekisto- base smallest (hekistotherm) helco- comb festering wound; ulcer (helcoplasty) helici-, helico- comb spiral-shaped (heliciform, helicopter) helio- comb sun; bright; radiant (heliocentric) helminth(o)- comb [botany] worm (helminthogogue) helo-¹ comb nail; spike (helodont) helo-² comb marsh (helobious) helv- base yellow (helvenac) Helvet- base Swiss (Helvetian) hema-, hemato-, hemo- comb blood (hemachrome, hematogenic, hemophilia). Also haem- (haemachrome) hemangio- comb blood vessels (hemangiosarcoma) hemer- base day (monohemerous) hemi- pre half (hemicardia) hemispherico- comb hemispheric (hemispherico-conical) hendeca- comb eleven (hendecahedron)

-heno- base one (henotheism) heort- base feast day; festival (heortology) hepatic-, hepato- comb liver (hepaticostomy, hepatogastric) hepta- comb seven (heptagon) heptakaideca- comb seventeen (heptakaidecahedron)
-herbi- base plant (herbivorous)
-herco- base wall; barrier (hercogamy) heredo- comb heredity (heredofamilial) heresio- base heresy (heresiologist) heri- base master (hericide)
-hermen- base interpretation (hermeneutical) hernio- comb hernia (herniotomy) herpeto- comb reptile (herpetology)
-hesper- base west (hesperian)
-hesperid- base the orange (hesperidine)
-hesson- base less; inferior (hessonite)
-hestern- base yesterday (hesternal) hestho- base clothing; dress (hesthogenous) hesy- base still; quiet (hesychastic) hetaero- base companion; courtesan (hetaerocracy) hetero- comb other; another; different (heterosexual)

-heur- base discover; invent (heuristic) hexa- comb six (hexameter) hexaconta- comb sixty (hexacontahedron) hexacosi- comb six hundred (hexacosichoron) hexadeca-, hexakaideca- comb sixteen (hexadecachoron, hexakaidcahedron) hexakis- comb six times (hexakisotahedron) hexametro- comb hexameter (hexametromania)
-hexi- base habit; behavior (hexiology) hibern- base winter (hibernation) Hiberno- comb Irish (Hiberno-Celtic)
-hidro- base sweat (anhidrosis) hiem- base winter (hiemal) hieraco- comb hawk (hieracosophic) hiero- comb holy; consecrated; sacred (hierophobia) hilasm- base propitiatory (hilasmic)
-himant- base strap; thong (himan-topus) hind- comb rear; following (hind-brain) hippo-, -hippus comb horse (hippocrepian, eohippus) hippocamp- base seahorse (hippocampine) hippocrepi- base horseshoe (hippocrepiiform) hippogloss- base halibut (hippoglossoid)
-hirc- base goat (hircine)
-hirmo- base series; connection (hirmologion) hirsuto- comb having hair of a certain color (hirsuto-rufus)

-hirudin- base leech (hirudiniculture)

-hirund- base swallow; martin (hirundine)

Hispano- comb Spanish (Hispano-American)

-hispid- base shaggy; hairy (hispidulous) histio-, histo- comb tissue (histiocytoma, histology) historico- comb historical (historico-geographical)

-histrion- base stage-player (histrionically)

-hodiern- base today (hodiernal)

hodo- comb way; road (hodograph).
See odo-

-holco- base furrow (holcodont) holo- comb complete; entire; whole (holocaust) hom- base humankind (homicide) homalo-, homolo- comb even; regular; level; ordinary (homalographic, homolographic)

-homar- base lobster (homarine) homeo- comb similar; like (homeomorphism) homichlo- base cloud; fog; dimness (homichlophobia) homil- base sermon (homiletics) homin- base humankind (homini-form) homo- comb same; equal (homosexual) homoeo-, homoio- comb similar; like (homoeodont, homoiothermal) homolo- comb corresponding; assenting (homologous). See homalo-

-hood 1. suf quality; character; state; condition (childhood); 2. whole group of __ (brotherhood) hoplo- comb weapon; armor (hoplophorous)

-hord- base barley (hordeaceous) horm- base urge; impel (hormetic)

horo- comb hour time; season (horology)

-hort- base urge; encourage (exhortation)

-horti- base garden (horticulture)

hosp- base host (hospitality)

-hum- base ground (exhumation) humano- comb human and (humano-taurine)

-humect- base moist; wet (humectant) humero- comb shoulder; upper arm (humero-cubital) hyalo- comb [chemistry] transparent; glassy (hyalophane)

-hybo- base hump (hybodont)

-hydno- base truffle (hydnocarpous)

hydraulico- comb hydraulic (hydraulico-pneumatical)

-hydric comb the presence of x number of hydroxyl radicals or replaceable hydrogen atoms (monohydric) hydro- 1. comb water (hydrometer); 2. [chemistry] hydrogen (hydrocyanic) hydroxy- comb hydroxyl group (hydroxy-benzene) hyeto- comb rain; rainfall (hyetograph) hygeo-, hygien- comb health; hygiene (hygeiolatry, hygienist) hygro- comb wet; moisture (hygrometer) hylac- base barking (hylactic) hylaeo- comb forest (hylaeosaurus) hyle-, hylo- 1. comb wood (hylephobia, hylophagous); 2. matter (hylozoism) hylobat- base gibbon (hylobatine) hymeno- comb membrane (hymenogeny) hyo- comb hyoid bone (hyoglossal) hyos- base hog (hyoscyamine) hypedia- base responsibility (hypediaphobia) hypengy- base responsibility (hypengyophobia) hyper- 1. pre over; above; excessive (hypercritical); 2. [chemistry] maximum (hyperoxide)

-hyphe- base web (hyphomycetes) hypno- comb sleep; hypnotism (hypnophobia) hypo- 1. pre under; below (hypodermic); 2. less than (hypotaxis); 3. [chemistry] having a lower state of oxidation (hypophosphorous) hypocrater- base tray (hypocrateriform) hypsi-, hypso- comb high; height (hypsicephalic, hypsodont) hyraci-, hyraco- comb hyrax: rabbit-like quadruped (hyraciform, hyracodont)

-hystat- base lowest (hystatite) hystero-¹ 1. comb uterus; womb (hysterodynia); 2. hysteria (hysteroepilepsy) hystero-² comb later; inferior (hystero-genetic)
-hystric- base porcupine (hystriciasis)

I

-i suf plural ending (foci)
-ia 1. suf country names (India); 2. disease names (pneumonia); 3. festival names (Lupercalia); 4. Gk/Lat. words (militia); 5. plurals >Gk/Lat. (genitalia); 6. [biology] class names (Reptilia); 7. [botany] some generic plant names (zinnia); 8. [chemistry] alkaloid names (strychnia)
-ial suf of; pertaining to (magisterial)
-ian/-iana see -an/-ana ianth- base violet (ianthine)
-iasis 1. comb process; condition; 2. morbid condition (hypochondriasis)
-iatrics, iatro-, -iatry comb medical treatment (pediatrics, iatrophysical, psychiatry) Ibero- comb Spanish (Iberian)

-ibility, -ible, -ibly suf capable of (sensibility, sensible, visibly)
-ic 1. suf having to do with; of (volcanic); 2. like; having the nature of; characteristic of (angelic); 3. produced by; caused by (symphonic); 4. made up of; containing; consisting of (dactylic); 5. [chemistry] higher valence than is indicated by the suffix -ous (nitric); 6. nouns from adjectives (magic)
-ical, -ically suf adjective/adverb forms parallel to -ic (angelical, magically)
-ice¹ suf condition; state; quality of; action (malice)
-ice² suf feminine ending (mediatrice)
-ichno comb [paleontology] track; trace; posture; position (ichnology) ichor- comb serous fluid (ichor-remia) ichthyo- comb fish; fishlike (ichthyophagous)

-ician suf practitioner; specialist (beautician)

-icity suf nouns formed from -ic adjectives (publicity)

icono- comb figure; likeness; image (iconograph)

icosa-, icosi- comb [mathematics/botany] twenty (icosahedron, icositetrahedron: 24)

-ics 1. suf art; science (mathematics); 2. activities; practice properties; system (statistics)

icter⁻¹, ictero- comb yellow; jaundice (icteric, icteronemia) icter⁻² base blackbird; bobolink; meadowlark; oriole (icterine)

-id¹ 1. suf belonging to; connected with (Aeneid); 2. animal group name (arachnid); 3. meteor names (Perseid)

-id² suf filled with (vivid)

-ida suf [zoology] order/class names (Acarida)

-idae suf [zoology] family names (Felidae)

-idan suf [zoology] of or pertaining to (arachnidan)

-ide suf [chemistry] compound names (chloride)

ideo- comb idea; creation (ideology)

-ides suf [science] name endings (cantharides)

-idine suf chemical compound related to another (pyridine) idio- comb one's own; distinct; personal (idiocracy)

-idion suf diminutive (enchiridion)

-idium suf [science] diminutive (phyllidium) idolo- comb idol (idolomancy)

-ie suf diminutive (doggie)

-ier suf person concerned with (glazier)

-iferous see -ferous

-ific see -fic

-ification see -fication

-iformes suf [zoology] names: having the form of (Passeriformes)

-ify see -fy

igneo- comb fire (igneo-aqueous)

igni- base fire (igniferous)

il- see in-

-il, -ile suf like; having to do with; suitable for (civil, docile) ilast- base propitiatory (ilastic)

ileo-, ilio- 1. comb of the ileum (ileostomy); 2. ileac plus (ilio-sacral)

-ilia suf able to be __ (memorabilia)

ilic- base holly (ilicic)

-ility suf quality; condition (sensitivity)

-illa suf diminutive (cedilla)

-illo suf diminutive (cigarillo) illyngo- base vertigo (illyngophobia)

im- see in-

-im suf Hebrew plural ending (cherubim) imbri- base rain; rain tile (imbriferous, imbricated) imbricato- comb composed of parts which overlap like tiles (imbricato-granulose)

-imido comb NH in acid radicals (imidogen) imino- comb NH in nonacid radicals (iminourea) immuno- comb resistant to disease; immune (immunotherapy) immut- base unalterable (immutable) impari- comb odd-numbered; unpaired (imparisyllabic) imped- base snare; delay (impedance) imper- base power; authority (imperial) impet- base rush; assault (impetuous) in-¹ 1. pre within; inside; into; toward (inbred); 2. intensifier (instigate); 3. not; without (insane). NOTE: in- can change to: il- (illuminate); im- (impossible); ir- (irrigate)

-in² suf [chemistry] names of neutral substances (albumin)

-ina 1. suf feminine ending (ballerina); 2. characterized by (sonatina); 3. [biology] name endings (Nemertina)

-inae suf names of subfamilies of animals (felinae) inan- base empty; foolish (inane) inaug- base start (inaugurate) incess- base unceasing (incessant)

incip- base take in hand; begin (incipient) inciso- comb cut into (incisoblate) incred- base scold; rebuke (incredulous)

-indag- base trace; search; investigate (indagation) indi-, indo-¹ comb indigo; metallic violet-purple (indirubin, indophenol)

-indigen- base native (indigenous)

Indo-² comb India (Indo-Malayan)

inducto- comb electrical induction (inductoscope)

-ine 1. suf of; like; pertaining to; characterized by (canine); 2. feminine ending (heroine); 3. abstract noun ending (discipline); 4. commercial names (Vaseline); 5. [chemistry] names of: halogens (iodine); alkaloid/nitrogen bases (morphine); hydrides (stibine); 6. of the nature of (crystalline)

inebr- base drunk (inebriated)

inequi- comb unequal (inequidistant)

infern- base underworld; hell (infernal) infero- comb underneath; low; below (inferolateral) infra- pre below; beneath (infrastructure)

infundib- base funnel (infundibuliform)

-ing 1. suf belonging to; descended from (atheling); 2. present participle (shifting sand); 3. act of; process (talking); 4. produced by (painting); 5. material for (roofing)

ingen- base versatile; clever (ingenious) ingress- base enter (ingressive)

inguino- comb inguinal; groin (inguinoscrotal)

-ini suf [zoology] group names (Acanthurini) inimic- base hostile (inimical)

iniq- base bad; uneven (iniquity) init- base begin; enter (initialize) innato- comb inborn; natural (innato-sessile) ino- comb fiber; fibrous growth (inolith)

inquis- see -quire

insect-, insecto- comb bug (insecticide, insectology) insul- base island (insularity) integri- comb whole (integripallial) inter- 1. comb between; among (interchange); 2. mutual; reciprocal; with each other (interact) interno-, intero- comb internal; inside; within (internomedial, interoceptive) intestino- comb intestine (intestino-vesical) intra- comb within; inside (intramural) intro- comb into; within; inward (introvert) inund- base flood; overflow (inundate)

inutil- base useless (inutility)

-invid- base envy; resentment (invidious)

-involver- base wrapping; covering (involveriform)

iodo- comb iodine (iodoform)

-ion 1. suf act; process (solution);
2. state; condition (ambition)

iono- comb ion (ionosphere)

-ior 1. suf one who ___ (warrior);
2. comparative form (inferior)

-ious suf characterized by; having (contentious)

ipse- base self (ipseity)

ir- see in-

-ira-, -irasc- base hatred; anger (irate, irascible)

-iren- base peace (irenic)

irid- base rainbow (iridial) iridico-, iridio- comb iridium (iridico-potassic, iridio-cyanide) irido- comb iris (iridomotor)

isch- comb restriction; deficiency (ischemia) ischi-, ischio- comb hip; ischium (ischialgia, ischiocapsular)

-ise suf quality; condition; function (merchandise)

-ish 1. suf national connection (Irish); 2. characteristic of; like (devilish); 3. tending to (bookish); 4. somewhat; rather (whitish); 5. approximately (thirty-ish)

-isk suf diminutive (obelisk)

-ism 1. suf act; result of; practice (terrorism); 2. condition of being (barbarism); 3. qualities characteristic of; conduct characteristic of (patriotism); 4. doctrine; theory; principle of (socialism); 5. devotion to (nationalism);

6. instance of; example of; peculiarity of (Gallicism); 7. abnormal condition caused by ___ (alcoholism)

-ismus suf spasm; contraction (vaginismus). See -esmus iso- comb equality; identity; similarity (isodactylous) isoptero- base termite; white ant (isopteroous)

-ist suf practitioner; believer; person skilled in (theorist) isthm- base narrow passage; neck of land (isthmian)

-istic, -istical suf tending towards; acting like (communistic, egotistical)

istiophor- base marlin; sailfish (istiophorid)

Italo- comb Italy (Italophile)

-ite 1. suf native; inhabitant; citizen of (Brooklynite); 2. adherent; believer (Benthamite); 3. manufactured product (dynamite); 4. fossil (coprolite); 5. bodily organ part (somite); 6. salt or ester of an acid ending in -ous (nitrite); 7. mineral or rock (anthracite)

itea- comb willow tree (iteatic)

-iter- base repeat (reiterate)

ithy- comb erect; straight (ithyphallic)

-itic suf relating to; of (syphilitic)

-itiner- base journey (itinerary)

-ition see -ation

-itious suf having the nature of; characterized by (fictitious)

-itis suf inflammation; disease (bronchitis)

-itive see -ative

-itol suf names of alcohols with more than 1 hydroxyl group (mannitol)

-ity suf state; character; condition (nobility)

-ium suf noun ending (opprobrium)
-ive 1. suf related to; belonging to; (negative); 2. tending to (creative)
-ivus suf [science] name endings (exfoliativus)
-ixo- base mistletoe; sticky or clammy like birdlime (ixolite) ixobrych- base bittern (ixobrychus)

ixod- base tick (ixodicide)
-ization suf used to form noun from
-ize verb (realization)
-ize 1. suf cause to be or become; resemble; make (sterilize); 2. become like (crystallize); 3. subject to; treat with; combine with (oxidize); 4. engage in; act (theorize)

J

-jact-, -jacula-, -ject- base hurl; throw (jactation, ejaculation, inject) jaun- base yellow (jaundice) jecor- base liver (jecorary)
-jejuno- comb of the jejunum (jejunocolostomy)
-jent- base breakfast (jentacular)
-joco(s)-, -jocu(l)- base joke; jest (jocosity, jocularity) journ- comb day; daily (journalism) jubat- base mane (jubate)
-jubil- base joy; elation (jubilation)
jud- comb wisdom; law; justice (judiciously) Judaeo-, Judeo- comb Jewish (Judaeophobia, Judeo-Christian) Judaico- comb Judaic (Judaico-Christian)

juglan- base walnut (juglandaceous) jugo- comb neck; throat; yoke (jugo-maxillary)
-juli- base catkin (juliferous) jun- base young (junior)
-junc- base a rush (juncaceous) junct- comb join (conjunction) jur-, juris- comb law (juridical, jurisprudence)
-juss- base command (jussive)
-jut-, -juv- base aid; help (adjutant, adjuvant) juven- comb young; immature (juvenile) juxta- comb near; beside; close by (juxtaposition)

K

kako- comb bad; evil (kakogenesis).
Also caco- (cacophony)
kakorrhaph- base failure (kakorrhaphiophobia)
-kal- base beautiful (kaleidoscope) kal(i)- comb potassium (kaliopenia) karyo- comb [biology] nucleus (karyokinesis). Also caryo- (caryopsis) kata-. See cata- katheno- comb each; every; one by one (kathenotheism) kathis- base sit; seat (kathisma) kelyph- base shell; pod (kelyphite) keno- comb empty (kenotic) kephalo- comb head (kephalotomy).

Also cephalo- (cephalopod) kera-, kerato- 1. comb horn; horn-like; horny tissue (keracele, keratogenous); 2. cornea (keratomy). Also cerato- (ceratosaur) keraulo- comb hornblower (keraulophon) kerauno- comb thunder (keraunograph). Also cerauno- (ceraunoscope) kery- base proclamation; preaching (kerygma) keto- comb ketone; organic chemical compound (ketogenesis)
-kibdelo- base adulterated; spurious (kibdelophane) kil-, kill- comb cell; church; burying place (Kilpatrick, Kilkenny) kilo- comb thousand (kilogram)
-kin suf diminutive (lambkin) kinesi-, -kinesia, -kinesis, kineso- comb movement; muscular activity (kinesiology, hyperkinesia, telekinesis, kinesodic)
-kinetic, kineto- comb motion (hyperkinetic, kinetograph). See cine-
-kinin suf hormone names (cyto-kinin) kino- base movement; muscular activity (kinocilium) klepto- comb steal (kleptomaniac).
Also clepto- (cleptobiosis) klino- comb sloped; bent (klinocephalic). Also clino- (clinograph) klope- comb steal (klopemania) kniss- base incense (knissomancy) koilo- comb hollow (koilonychia) koin- base common (koine). See ceno-² koll(o)- comb glue (kolloxylin). Also coll- (colloidal) kolpo- comb vagina (kolpoccele).

Also colpo- (colposcope)
koly- comb inhibit; restrain (kolytic)
-kompo- base boasting (kompology) koni(o)- comb dust (konimeter) kopo- base exhaustion (kopophobia) kopro- comb filth; excrement (koprophilia). See copro-
-koria comb pupil of the eye (leukokoria). Also -coria (leucocoria) kreo- comb flesh (kreophagus)
-krio- base ram (krioboly). Also crio- (criocephalous) krymo-, kryo- see crymo- kryo- comb frost; cold (kryometer).
Also cryo- (cryogen)
kyano- see cyano- kylixo- base bowl (kylixomancy) kymo- comb wave (kymograph).
Also cymo- (cymophane)
kyno- comb dog (kynophagous) kypho- comb hump (kyphosis). Also cypho- (cyphonism)
-kyrio- base authorized; proper (kyriolexy). Also cyrio- (cyriologic) kyto- comb cell (kytometry). Usually cyto- (cytopathic)

L

-lab- base totter; shake; weaken (labefaction) labar- base banner; standard (labarum)

-labido- base forceps (labidometer)

labio- comb lips (labiodental)

-labor- base work (laboriousness)

lac- base white (lacteous)

-lacco- base reservoir (laccolite)

-lacer- base mangle (laceration) lacert- base lizard (lacertilian)

-lchan- base vegetable (lchanopolist)

-lacin- base fringed; jagged (lacini-form) lacrim-, lacrimo- comb tears; crying (lachrimation, lacrimonasal). Also lachrym- (lachrymose) lacti-, lacto- 1. comb milk (lactiflorous); 2. [chemistry] lactic acid (lactophosphate) lactuc- base lettuce (lactucarium)

-lacun- base cavity; hole (lacunose)

-lacus- base lake; pool (lacustrine) ladron- base steal (ladronism)

laeo-, laevo- 1. comb on the left (laeotropic); 2. counterclockwise (laevorotation). Also levo- (levogyrate)

-lagen- base flask (lageniform)

-lagnia comb desire coition; lust (al-golagnia)

lago- comb [zoology] hare (lagopodus)

-lalia comb speech disorder (copro-lalia) lalo- comb talking; speech defect (lalopathy)

lamb- base lick (lambent) lamelli- comb plate; layer; scales (lamelliform) lamini-, lamino- 1. comb plate; layer (laminiferous); 2. blade of the tongue (laminoalveolar)

-lampad- base torch; lamp (lampadomancy) lampro- comb clear; distinct (lamprophony) lampyr- base firefly (lampyrid)

-lana- base wool (lanate). See lani-

lanci- base lance (lanciform)

-land 1. comb a kind of land (highland); 2. territory or country (England); 3. place with a specified character (cloudland)

lani- base wool (laniferous). See lana-

-lania- base to tear; butcher (laniary) laniar- base canine tooth (laniariform) lanug- base hair (lanugo)

laparo- comb abdominal wall; flank; loins (laparotomy)

-lapid- base stone; gem (lapidary) laps- base slip away; error; fall (elapsed)

lar- base gull (larine)

-largi- base abundant; copious (largiloquent) larix- base larch (larixinic) larvi- comb larva (larvigerous) laryngo- comb windpipe larynx (laryngoscope)

-lass- base weary (lassitude)

-later- base brick (lateritious)

-later comb one who worships (gastrolater). See -latry lateri-, latero- comb on the side (laterigrade, laterodeviation) lati- comb wide; broad (latipennate) latib- base hiding place (latibulate) latici- comb latex (laticiferous)

-latra- base barking (latration) latro- base robber (latronage) latroduct- base black widow spider (latroductus)

-latry comb excessive devotion; worship of (idolatry). See -later

-laud- base praise (applaud)

-lav- base wash (lavage)

lazul- base blue (lazuline)

-le 1. suf small (icicle); 2. person who does (beadle); 3. something

- used for doing (girdle); 4. frequent (wriggle)
- lecano- comb basin; pan; dish (lecanomancy)
- lechrio- comb slanting (lechriodont)
- lecith-, lecitho- comb egg yolk (lecithin, lecithoprotein)
- leco- base dish (lecotropical)
- lect- base read (lectionary)
- leg-¹ base read (legendary)
- leg-² base law (legality)
- legia comb read (bradylegia)
- leio- comb smooth (leiomyoma)
- lemma¹ comb assumption; proposition (dilemma)
- lemma² comb rind; peel; husk (neurolemma)
- lemnisc- base ribbon (lemniscus)
- lemur- base tarsier (lemuroid)
- len- base gentle; mild; soothing (lenity)
- leno- base entice; pander; wheedle (lenocinant)
- lenocin- base allure; entice (lenocinant)
- lent- base slow (lentitude)
- lentig- base freckle (lentigo)
- lent suf full of (pestilent)
- leo- base lion (leonine)
- lepido- comb [botany/zoology] scaly (lepidodendron)
- lepidopter- base butterfly (lepidoptero-logy)
- lepor- base hare (leporine)
- lepsia-, -leptis-, -lepsy, lepti-, -leptic comb fit; attack; seizure (Epilepsia, catalepsis, catalepsy, epileptiform, narcoleptic)
- lepto- comb narrow; thin; fine; frail (leptocephaly)
- less suf without; lacking; incapable of being (lawless)
- lesto- comb thief; robber (lestobiosis)
- let 1. suf small (hamlet); 2. band (anklet)
- leth- base forgetfulness; drugged state (lethomania)
- leuco-, leuko- comb colorless; white (leucocyte, leukemia)
- levi- base airy; light (levitation)
- levig- base smooth; polished (levigated)
- levo- 1. comb on the left (levogyrate); 2. counterclockwise (levorotatory). Also laevo- (laevorotation)
- levul- base sugar (levulose)
- lexia-, -lexis-, -lexy comb speech (dyslexia, catalexis, kyriolexy)
- lexico- comb word; vocabulary (lexicographer)
- libano- base incense (libanomancy)
- libell- base dragonfly (libelluloid)
- liber- base free (liberation)
- libid- base desirous; lustful (libidinous)
- libr- base book (librarian)
- libra- base balance; scale (libration)
- lichen- comb skin disease (lichenolupoid)
- lien(o)- comb spleen (lienogastic)
- liga- base tie; bind (ligament)
- ligamenti-, ligamento- comb having ligaments (ligamentiferous, ligamento-muscular)
- ligni-, ligno- comb wood (lignivorous, lignoceric)
- liguli- comb tongue-like; strap (liguliflorate)
- ligur- base lick (ligurition)
- ligyr- base noise (ligyrophobia)
- like 1. suf characteristic of; suitable for (warlike); 2. in the manner of (bird-like)
- lilaps- base tornado; hurricane (lilapsophobia)
- lili- base lily (liliform)

-lim- base mud (limicolous)
-limac- base snail; slug (limaceous) limen- base harbor (limenarch)
-limin- base threshold (eliminate) limno- comb lake; pond; pool (limnology) limo-¹ comb clayey and (limo-cretaceous) limo-² comb fasting; famine (limotherapy) linar- base flax (linaria) lineo- comb line (lineo-polar)
-ling¹ suf person or thing belonging to or concerned with (underling)
-ling² suf diminutive (duckling)
-ling³ suf direction; extent; condition (darkling) ling-⁴ base lick (lingible) lingui-, linguo- comb language; tongue (bi-lingual, linguopalatal) linon- base string (linonophobia) lipar- base grease; fat (liparocela) lipo-¹ comb fatty (liposuction) lipo-² comb lacking; without (lipostomosis) lipsano- comb relics (lipsanographer)
-liqu- base melt; make liquid; dissolve (liquescent)
-lirio- base lily (liriodendron)
-liss(o)- base smooth (lissotrichous)
-litan- base prayer; entreaty (litanical)
-lite suf names of minerals; stone (chrysolite)
-lith comb stone (monolith)
-lithic comb stone-using stage (neolithic) litho- comb stone; rock; calculus (lithosphere) litig- base quarrel; lawsuit (litigation)
-littor- base shore (littoral)
-litu- base clarion (lituiform) livid- base blue (lividity)

-lixiv- base lye; alkaline (lixivation) lobulato- comb having small lobes (lobulato-glomerate) lochio- comb childbirth (lochio-peritonitis) loco- 1. comb from place to place (locomotive); 2. a particular place (locodescriptive)
-locu- base word; speech; discourse (interocutor). Also -loqu- (eloquence) locust- base cricket; locust; grasshopper (locustarian) lodic- base blanket; rug (lodicule)
-logic, -logical comb of a science (geologic, biological)
-logist comb one versed in __ (biologist) logo- comb word; speech; discourse (logorrhea)
-logue comb kind of speaking; kind of writing (monologue)
-logy 1. comb kind of speaking (eulogy); 2. science; doctrine; theory/study of (geology)
-loimo- base pestilence (loimography). Also læmo- (læmology)
-lonch- base spearhead (lonchidite) longi- comb long (longipennate) lopho- comb [zoology/anatomy] crest; ridge (lophocercal)
-loqu- base talk; speech (grandiloquent). See locu-
-lor- base thong; strap (lorate) lorido- comb hump (lordoscoliosis)
-lorica- base covering; hard shell (illoricated) loxo- comb [medicine/zoology] slanting oblique (loxotomy)
-lubric- base smooth; slippery (lubricity) luc-, luci comb light; clear; dawn (lucidity, lucifugal, antelucan) lucern- base lamp (lucernal)

-lucr(i)- base profit; gain (lucriferous)
 -luct⁻¹ base sorrow (luctisonant) luct⁻² base wrestle (luctation) lucubr- base work; nocturnal study (lucubration)
 -lude comb a play; to play with (prelude) ludif- base hoax; deception (ludificatory)
 -luetic comb syphilis (paraluetic)
 -lum- base light (illumination). See -luc- lumbo- comb loin; lumbar (lumbo-dorsal)
 -lumbric- base worm (lumbriciform) luni- comb moon (lunitidal) lunu- comb crescent; moon-shaped (lunulite)
 -lup- base wolf (lupine) lupan- base brothel (lupanar) lur- base yellow-brown (lurid) lurido- comb yellow (lurido-cinerascent)
 -lusc- base one-eyed (eluscate) lustr- base shining; splendor (illustrious) lut- base mud (lutulent) luteo- comb yellow (luteo-fulvous) lutjan- base snapper (lutjanid) lutr- base otter (lutrine)

-ly 1. suf characteristic of; suitable to (earthly); 2. happening every — (hourly); 3. in a specified way (harshly); 4. in some direction (outwardly); 5. in some order (thirdly) lyc-, lyco- comb wolf (lycanthropy, lycomania)
 -lych- base lamp (lychnic) lyg- base dark; murky (lygaeid) lymphaden(o)- comb lymph nodes (lymphadenopathy) lymphangio- comb lymphatic vessels (lymphangioplasty) lymphato- comb lymphatic (lymphatolysis) lympho- comb of the lymph (lymphocyte) lync- base lynx (lyncean) lyo- comb dissolution (lyophilic) lype- comb sadness; grief (lypemania) lyri- base lyre (lyriform) lyrico- comb lyric (lyrico-dramatic) lysi-, -lysis, lyso-, -lyte, -lytic, -lyze comb freeing; relieving; breaking up; dissolving; destroying (lysimeter, lysogen, electrolysis, gazolyte, paralytic, paralyze)
-lyss- base rabies (lyssophobia)
-lyte comb decomposed substance; dissolved (hydrolyte)

M

-ma suf result of action (enigma)
macar- base happy; blessed (macarism) macell- base meat market (macellarious)
 -machaero- base sword (machaerodont) macho-, -machy comb struggle;

contest; battle; fight (macho-polyp, hieromachy) maci- base thin; lean (macilence) macro- comb long; large (macrocosm) macropod- base kangaroo (macropodine) macrur- base shrimp (macruran)

-macul- base spot; stain (immaculate) mad- base wet; moist (madeficient) mageir- base cook (mageiricophobia). Also magir- (magiric)
-magist- base master; head; authority (magistrate) magneto- comb magnetic force (magneto-electric) magni- comb great; large (magniloquent) mag- comb magic (mago-chemical) maha- base mastery; control (maharane) maieusi- base bringing forth; midwifery (maieutic)
-maj- base great; large (majority) mal- comb bad; wrong; ill (maldroit)
-malacia, malaco- 1. comb soft (gastromalacia); 2. mollusks (malacology)
-malax- base soften (malaxation) Malayo- comb Malay (Malayo-Polynesian) male- comb evil (malefaction)
-mali- base apple (maliform) malleo- comb hammer (malleo-incudal)
-mallo- base wool (mallophagous) malneiro- comb nightmare (malneirophrenia) mamilli- comb nipple (mamilliform) mammato- comb rounded clouds (mammato-cumulus) mammi-, mammo- comb breasts (mammiiferous, mammogram)
-man comb human; male (anchor-man)
-mancy, -mantic comb divination (necromancy, necromantic)
-mand- base command; oblige (mandatory) mandibulo- comb jaw (mandibulo-maxillary) manduc- comb chew; eat (manducation) mangan-, mangani-, mangano- comb manganese (manganbrucite, manganicyanide, manganosiderite) mani-, manu- comb hand (manipulate, manuscript)

-mania 1. comb mental disorder (kleptomania); 2. excessive craving (bibliomania) mano- comb thin; rare (manometer) mansue- base tame; mild (mansuetude) manubr- base handle (manubriated)
-marc- base faded; withered (marcescent) mare- comb sea (mareography) marg- base border; verge (marginal) margarit- base pearl (margaritaceous)
-margy base raging mad (gastro-margy) mari- comb sea (mariculture) marit- base spouse; marriage (marital)
-marm- base marble (marmoreal)
-marsup- base pouch (marsupial)
-mas comb feast day (Christmas) masculo- comb male (masculo-nucleus)
-mastia, masto- comb [medicine/zoology] breast: of or like (macro-mastia, mastodynia) mastic- base chew (mastication) mastigo- comb whiplike; scourge bearing (mastigophore) masto- comb breast (mastodynia) mastoido- comb mastoid (mastoido-humeral)
-mataeo- base unprofitable; useless; vain (mataeology) mater-, matri- comb mother (maternity, matriarchy) matertera- base aunt on mother's side (materteral)

-math- comb learn (opsimath)

matur- base ripe (maturity)

-matut- base morning (matutinal)

maxi- comb very large; very long (maxicoat) maxillo- comb of the maxilla; jaw (maxillo-palatine) mazo-¹ comb placenta (mazolysis)

mazo-² comb breast (mazoplazia)

-meal comb measure (piecemeal)

meato- comb passage channel (meatoscopy) mechanico- comb partly mechanical (mechanico-chemical) mechano- comb machines (mechanotherapy)

-meco- base length (mecodont)

-mecon- base poppy; opium (meconidine)

-med- 1. base s. bladder (medorrhea); 2. pl. genitals (medorthophobia) medi-, medio- comb middle (medicommisure, mediadorsal) mediastino- comb membranous partition (mediastino-pericardial) medico- comb medical; of healing (medico-legal) mega- 1. comb large; powerful (megaphone); 2. a million of (megacycle) megacheiropter- base bat (megacheiropteran) megalo-, -megaly 1. comb large; powerful (megalomania); 2. abnormal enlargement (megalocardia, hepatomegaly) meio- comb less (meiosis). Also mio- (Miolithic) meizo- comb greater (meizoseismal)

melan-, melano- comb black; very dark (melanosis, melanocomous)

-mele comb limb; extremity (phocomele) meleagr- base turkey (meleagrine)

melet- base meditation (meletetics)

-melia-¹ comb limb; extremity (macromelia)

-melia-² base ash tree (meliaceous) melin- 1. base badger (meline);

2. tawny (meline)

-melior- base make better; improve (ameliorate) melisso- base bee (melissean) melitto- base bee (melittology)

mell(i)- comb honey; sweet (mellifluous) melo-¹ comb song; music (melomania)

melo-² comb cheek (meloplasty)

melo-³ comb limb; extremity (melorheostosis)

membrano- comb membrane plus (membranocartilaginous) mendac- base falsehood (mendacious) mendic- base beggar; poor (mendicant)

-menia comb [medicine] pertaining to the menses (paramenia) meningo- comb [medicine/anatomy] related to the meninges (meningocele)

-menisc- base crescent-shaped (meniscoid) meno- 1. comb [medicine] pertaining to the menses (menopause); 2. month (menology) mens- base month (menses)

-ment¹ 1. suf result; product (pavement); 2. instrument; means (adornment); 3. process of doing (measurement); 4. state of being acted on (disappointment)

ment⁻² base mind; thought (mentation)

menth- base mint (menthaceous)

mento- comb chin (mentoplasty)

-mentul- base penis (mentulate) mephit- base skunk (mephitic)

-mer, -meran comb part; unit (isomer, heteromeran). Also -mere (blastomere). See mero⁻¹

-merc- base goods (mercantile)

-merd- base dung (immerd)

-mere comb part; unit (blastomere). See -mer and mero⁻¹ meretric- base harlot (meretricious)

-merge, -merse comb plunge; dip (submerge, immerse) merid- base noon (postmeridian) merinth- base bind (merinthophobia) mero⁻¹, -merous comb part; unit; partial; having __ parts (meroblast, heteromeros) mero⁻² comb thigh (meroceles)

merul- base blackbird (meruline) mesati- comb medium (mesati-cephaly) mesmer- base hypnotism (mesmerism)

meso- 1. comb in the middle (mesocarp); 2. [anatomy] a mesentery (mesogastrium) meta⁻¹ 1. pre changed (metamorphosis); 2. after (metaphysics); 3. behind; in back (metathorax); 4. beyond; higher (metapsychosis) meta⁻² [chemistry] 1. pre polymer of (metaldehyde); 2. derivative of (metaprotein); 3. acid containing less water combined with the anhydride than other acids of the same non-metallic element (metaphosphoric); 4. characterized by substitutes in the 1,3 position in the benzene ring (metacoumarate) metacarpo- comb metacarpus plus (metacarpophalangeal) metalli-, metallo- comb metal (metalliferous, metallochrome) metatarso- comb metatarsus plus (metatarso-phalangeal)

metax- base silk (metaxite)

-meter 1. comb device for measuring (barometer); 2. so many meters (kilometer); 3. fraction of a meter (centimeter); 4. having __ metrical feet (pentameter)

-meth- base intoxicated (methystic) metho- comb methyl (methoxyl) methoxy- comb methoxy group (methoxychlor) methyl- comb methyl group (methyl-benzene) methys- base drunk; intoxicated (methystic) metopo- comb forehead (metoposcopy)

metr- base poem (metrical) metra-, metro⁻¹ comb uterus (metratonia, metrorrhagia)

-metric, -metrics, metro⁻², -metry comb measure (geometric, econometrics, metrology, chronometry)

-metrio- base moderate (metrioccephalic)

mezzo- comb middle; half (mezzotint) micro- 1. comb little; small (microbarograph); 2. abnormally small (microcephalic); 3. enlarging what is small (microscope); 4. relation to microscopes (microchemistry); 5. one millionth part of (microgram) microcheiropter- base bat (microcheiropteran)

-mict- base urine (micturient). See -ming

mid- comb middle part (midbrain)

-milit- base soldier (militancy)

milli- 1. comb one thousandth part of (millimeter); 2. one thousand (millifold) milv- base kite — the bird (milvine)
-mim- 1. base imitate (mimetic); 2. mockingbird (mimine) min- base threat (minatory)
-ming- base urine (retromingent).
See -mict-
mini- comb smaller; shorter; lesser than usual (miniskirt) mio- comb less; diminished (miosis). Also meio- (meiosis)
-mir- base wonder (admiration) mis- pre wrong; bad (miscalculate)
-misc- base mixed (immiscible) miso- comb hated; hating (misogyny)
-miss-, -mit-¹ base send (dismiss, remit) mit-², mito- comb thread (mitosis, mitochondria) miti-¹ base mild; soothing (mitigate) miti-² base mite (miticide) mitri- base miter (mitriform) mixo- comb mixed (mixogamy)
-mnem-, -mnesia, -mnesis base memory (mnemonics, amnesia, anamnesis)
-mo suf printing books: a suffix to the number designating one of the equal parts into which a sheet is divided, the size of a page varying with the size of the sheet folded (12mo)
-mob- base move (immobility)
-mobile comb special type of vehicle (bookmobile)
-mochl- base lever (hypomochlion) mogi- comb with difficulty (mogi-graphia) mol- base grind (molar)
-molend- base mill (molendarious)
-moll- base soft (emollient) mollusc- base mollusk (mallusous) molybdo- comb lead (molybdocolic) molys- base dirt (molysmophobia)

-mon- base warn (admonish) monach- base monk (monachism)
-monil- base necklace (moniliform) mono- 1. comb single; alone; one (monoclinal); 2. containing one atom (monochloride); 3. one molecule thick (monolayer) monotrem- base platypus (monotremal)
-monstr- base show (demonstrate) mont- base mountain (montane)
-mony suf resulting state (patrimony)
-mor-¹ base usage; custom (mores)
-mor-² base mulberry (moriform)
-mora- base delay (remorate)
-morb- base sickly; diseased (morbidity)
-mord- base sharp biting; acrid (mordant)
-moriger- base obedient; submissive (morigerous)
-morilli- base fungus; morel (moriliform) moro- base foolish (morology) moros- base surly (morosity)
-morph-, -morphic, -morphism, morpho-, -morphous comb having a specified form (pseudomorph, anthropomorphic, monomorphism, morphology, isomorphous) mort-, morti- comb death (immortality, mortify)
-mosch- base musk (moschiferous)
-most suf superlatives (foremost)
-motive comb moving (automotive) moto- comb motor (moto-sensitive)
-mouthed comb having a __ mouth; having __ mouths (large-mouthed) mov- base move (movable) muci-, muco- comb snot; mucous membrane (muciparous, mucoprotein) mucid- base musty (mucidous) mucoso- comb partly mucous (mucoso-granular)

-mucro- base point (mucronulate)
-mug- base bellow (remugient) mugil- base mullet (mugiloid) muliebr- base woman (mulierbrity) mult(i)- 1. comb having many (multicolored); 2. more than two (multilateral); 3. many times (millionaire) mummi- base mummy (mummi-form) mun- base gift (munificent)
-mund⁻¹ base world (mundiciduous)
-mund⁻² base cleanse (mundation)
-mur⁻¹ base mouse (murine)
-mur⁻² base wall (immured)
-mur⁻³ base mulberry (muriform) muraen- base moray (muraenid)
-muri- base brine (muriatic)
-muric- base pointed; sharp (muri-cated) musa- base banana (musaceous)
-musc⁻¹ base fly (musci-form)
-musc⁻² base moss (emuscation) muscar- base brush (muscariform) muscap- base flycatching bird; thrush (muscapine) musculo- comb muscle (musculophrenic) musico- comb music (musicophobia) muso- base poem (musophobia) muss- base mutter; murmur (mussitation)
-mustel- 1. base weasel; badger; skunk; polecat; ermine; marten; mink; wolverine; ferret (musteline); 2. tawny (musteline)
-mut- base change (immutable)
-mutil- base maim (mutilation)

-mutu- base reciprocal (mutuality)
-mycete, myceto- comb fungus of a specified group (schizomycete, mycetoma)
-mycin comb derivative of a specified substance from bacteria or fungi; antibiotic (streptomycin) myco- comb mushroom; fungus (mycology) mycter- comb sneer; scoff; nose (mycterism)
-myelia, myelo- comb spinal cord; marrow (micromyelia, myelogenic) myia- base fly (myiasis) myo⁻¹ comb [medicine/anatomy] muscle (myocardium) myo⁻² base mouse (myomancy) myox- base dormouse (myoxine) myria- 1. comb numerous; many (myriapod); 2. ten thousand (myriameter). Also myrio- (myriophyllus) myringo- base tympanic (myringitis) myrist- base nutmeg (myristic) myrmeco-, myrmic- comb ant (myrmecology, myrmicine) myrmecophag- base anteater (myrmecophagine) myro- comb ointment; perfume (myropolist)
-myrti- base myrtle (myrtiform) myso- comb dirt (mysophobia). Also miso- (misophobia) mystico- comb partly mystical (mystico-religious) mythico- comb partly mythical (mythico-romantic) mytho- comb myth; story (mythoclast)
-mytil- base mussel (mytiliform)
-myxia, myxo- comb slime; mucus (hypomyxia, myxomycete)
-myz- base suck (myzostoma)

N

-nacar- base orange-red (nacarine)

nano- 1. comb dwarfism (nanocephalous); 2. one-billionth (nanosecond). Also nanno- (nanofossil)

-nao- base temple (naology)

-napi- base turnip (napiform)

narco- comb numbness; stupor (narcolepsy)

-nari- base nostrils (nariform) narr- base relate; tell (narrative)

nasc- base born (nascent)

nasi-, naso- comb nose; nasal (nasicornous, nasolabial)

-nastic, -nasty comb plant growth: unequal by some specified means or in a specified direction (hypo-nastic, hyponasty)

-nata- base swim (natatorium)

-natal- base birth (neonatal)

-nati- base buttocks (natiform)

-natremia comb sodium (hyponatremia)

-natured comb having a __ nature or temperament (good-natured) naus- base sick; seasick (nausea)

-naut-, -nav- base ship; sea (nautical, navigate) navig- base voyage (navigable)

ne- pre not (nescience)

-nebul- base cloud; mist; vapor (nebulous) necro- comb death; corpse; dead tissue (necrology) necto- comb swimming (nectozoid)

necyo- comb demon; damned spirit (necyomancy)

-neg- base deny (negativist)

-negot- base business (negotiate)

-nema- base thread (hyalonema) nemato- comb thread; threadlike (nematocyst) nemor- base woods; forest (nemorous) neo- 1. comb new; recent; latest (neo-classic); 2. [geology] chronologically last part of a period (Neocene) nephal- base sober; abstinent (nephalism) nephelo-, nepho- comb cloud (nephelometer, nephology) nephro- comb kidney (nephrotomy)

-nepo- base nephew (nepotic)

-ner- base liquid (aneroid)

-nerter- base the dead (nerterology) nerv-, nervi-, nervo- comb nerve (nervosity, nervifolious, nervovital)

-ness suf condition; quality of (greatness) neuro- comb nervous system; nerve (neuropath) neutro- comb neutral (neutropenia) nev-, nevo- base birthmark; mole (nevoid, nevoxanthoendothelioma)

-nex- base connect; bind (annex) nic- base victory (epinician)

-nict- base wink (nictitate) nid-, nidi- base nest (nidal, nidification) nidor- base smell (nidorous) nigri-, nigro- comb black (nigri-cauline, nigrofuscous)

nihili- comb nothing (nihili-parturient)

-nik suf one who is __ (beatnik) nimb- base cloud; rainstorm (nimbification)

ning- base snow (ninguid)

nitid- base lustrous; bright (nitidity) nitro- 1. comb presence of nitrogen compounds made by the action of nitric or nitrous acid and other substances (nitro-cellulose); 2. the presence of the NO² radical (nitrobenzene); 3. niter (nitrobacteria)

nitroso- comb presence of the NO radical (nitrosamine)

-niv- base snow (niveous)

noci- comb hurt; pain; injury (nociceptor) nocti- comb night (noctiferous) noctilion- base bat (noctilionid)

-nod- base knot (nodulose)

-noe- base thought; intellect (noetic)

-noia comb thought (metanoia)

-nom-, -nym- base name (nomenclature, synonymous) nomato- see onomato-

-nomia comb name (paranoia) nomo- comb law; custom (nomology)

-nomy comb systematized knowledge of (astronomy)

non-¹ pre negative; not (non-descript)

non-² base ninth (nonan)

nona- comb nine (nonagenarian) nonagen-, nonages- base ninety (nonagenarian, nonagesimal)

-noo- base mind (nooscopic)

Normano- comb Norman (Normano-Saxonic)

normo- comb usual; normal (normotensive)

noso- comb disease (nosophobia) nosocom- base hospital (nosocomial) nosto- comb a return home (nostomania)

nota-, noto- comb the back; dorsum (notancephalia, notochord)

-notho- base spurious; false (nothosaurus)

-noto- base south (notothere)

-nov-¹ base new (renovate)

-nov-² base nine (novenary)

-noverc- base stepmother (novercant)

-nox- base harmful (obnoxious)

-nub-, -nupt- base marry (connubial, nuptial)

-nubi- base cloud (nubiferous)

nuci- comb nut (nuciferous) nucleo- comb nucleus: relation to; kernel (nucleoplasm) nudi- comb naked; bare (nudi-branchiate)

-nuga- base trifling (nugatory) nulli- comb none (nullify)

-num- base count (enumerate)

-numisma- base coin (numismatist) nummi- comb coin; disk (nummi-form) nundin- base market; commerce (nundinal)

-nupt- base wed (nuptial)

nur(us)- base daughter-in-law (nurine)

nuta- base sway; nod (nutatation)

-nutr- base nourish (malnutrition)

-nychia see onycho-

nycta-, nycti-, nycto- comb night (nyctalopia, nyctitropic, nyctophobia)

-nym- see -nom

nympho- 1. comb labia minora (nymphotomy); 2. nymphs (nympholepsy)

O

- o 1. suf informal abbreviation (ammo); 2. person associated with (politico)
- oario- comb ovary (oariopathy). See ovario-
- ob- 1. pre to; toward; before (object); 2. opposed to; against (obnoxious); 3. upon; over (obfuscate); 4. completely; totally (objurgate). NOTE: ob- can change to: o- (omission); oc- (occur); of- (offer); op- (oppose)
- oben- base walrus (obenid)
- obes- base fat; heavy (obesity)
- obit- base death (obituary)
- oblit- base erase (obliteration)
- oblongo- comb with oblong extension (oblongo-elliptic)
- obscur- base dark (obscurant)
- obstin- base stubborn (obstinacy)
- obtusi- comb obtuse; blunted (obtusipennate)
- occid- base west (occidental)
- occipito- comb occipital; skull (occipito-axial)
- occult- base hidden (occultation)
- ocelli- comb spot; eyelet (ocelliform)
- ochlo- comb crowd; mob (ochlophobia)
- ocho¹ base vehicle (ochophobia)
- ocho² base capacious; ample (ochopetalous)
- ochreo- comb containing ochre; light brownish yellow (ochreiferous)
- ochro- comb pale yellow (ochrocarpous)
- ock suf diminutive: small (hillock)
- ocracy comb the rule of any class (tradeocracy)
- octa-, octo- comb eight (octagon, octobrachiate)
- octakaideca- comb eighteen (octakaidecahedron)
- octan- base eighth (octant)
- octocent- base eight hundred (octocentenary)
- octogen-, octoges- base eighty (octogenarian, octogesimal)
- oculi-, oculo- comb eye (oculiform, oculomotor)
- ocy- comb swift (ocydrome)
- ode¹ comb way; path (cathode)
- ode² suf like (geode)
- odi- base hatred (odious)
- odic comb smell (euodic)
- odo- comb road; journey (odometer). See hodo-
- odont, odonto- comb tooth (macrodont, odontoblast)
- odori-, odor- comb smell; scent (odoriferant, odorscope)
- odus comb having teeth; names of genera (ceratodus)
- odynia, odyno- comb pain in ___ (osteodynia, odynophagia)
- oeco- comb environment (oecology). See eco-
- oego- base open (oegopsid). Also oigo- (oigopsid)
- oen- comb wine (oenophile)
- oesophago- see esophag-
- off¹ comb away from (offbrand)
- off² suf a competition (bakeoff)
- ogdo- comb eight (ogdoad)
- oid, -oidal suf shape; like; resembling (spheroid, trapezoidal)
- oidea comb names of zoological classes; names of entomological superfamilies (Molluscoidea)
- oigo- base open (oigopsid) oiko- comb environment (oiko-fugic). See eco- oino- comb wine (oinomania). See oeno-

-ol suf [chemistry] 1. alcohol or phenol (menthol); 2. same as -ole (anethol)
-ola suf diminutive (variola)
-ole¹ suf [chemistry] 1. compound: closed-chain with five members (pyrrole); 2. names of certain aldehydes and ethers (anethole)
-ole² suf diminutive (variole) olea-, -oleic, oleo- comb oil; olein; oleic (oleaginous, palmitoleic, oleomargarine)
-olent base giving out a smell (redolent) oler- base vegetables; potherbs (oleraceous) olfacto- comb smell (olfactometer) oligo- comb few; deficiency of (oligophrenia) olit- base vegetables (olitory) oliv-, olivaceo- comb dusky green (olivaceous, olivaceo-cinereous)
-ologist comb specialist (proctologist)
-oma, -ome suf morbid growth; tumor; neoplasm; formation (sarcoma, phyllome) omalo- see homalo- ombro- comb rain; shower (ombrometer) ommat- base eye (ommatophore) omni- comb all; everywhere (omniscient) omo⁻¹ base shoulder (omodynia) omo⁻² base raw (omophagia) omphalo- comb navel; umbilicus (omphalitis)
-on suf [chemistry] 1. elementary particle (gluon); 2. inert gas (neon) onco- comb tumor (oncologist)

-one suf [chemistry] a ketone (acetone) oneiro- comb dream (oneirocritic)
-oner- base burden (onerous)
-onic suf names of acids (gluconic acid) onio- base buy (oniomania)
-onisc- base woodlouse (onisciform) ono- base donkey; beast of burden (onology)
-onocrot- base pelican (onocrotal) onom-, onomato- comb name (onomastic, onomatopoeia) onto- comb being; existence (ontology) onych-, -onychia, onycho- comb claw; nail (onychosis, leukonychia, onychophagy)
-onym comb name (pseudonym) oo- comb egg; ovum (oogamous) oophoro- comb ovary (oophoritis) op- comb eye (opalgia)
-opac- base shade; dimness (opacity)
-oper⁻¹ base work; labor (operosity)
-oper⁻² base lid; cover (inoperculate) ophio- comb snake (ophiolatry)
-ophidia, ophidio- comb [medicine] venomous snakes (Thanatophidia, ophidiophobia) ophry- base eyebrow (ophryosis) ophthalmo- comb eye (ophthalmoscope)
-opia comb eye defect; vision (diplopia) opio- comb poppy juice (opiomania)
-opiso- base backwards (opisometer) opistho- comb behind; dorsal (opisthodont) opo- comb juice (opobalsam) oppositi- comb opposite (oppositifolious)

opsi⁻¹ comb late (opsigamy) opsi⁻² comb sight; eye (opsiometer)
-opsia comb sight; view (hemianopsia)
-opsis 1. comb see (synopsis);
 2. likeness; resembling (coreopsis)
opso- 1. comb eye (opsoclonus);
 2. cooked meat; relish; rich fare; provisions; sweets (opsomania)
-opsy comb examination (biopsy)
-opt⁻¹ base wish; choice (optional)
-opt⁻² base best (optimism) optico- comb pertaining to sight (optico-ciliary) opto- comb sight; eye (optometry) opul- base riches (opulent) opus- base work (opuscular) or⁻¹ base mouth (orifice)
-or² suf person or thing that (inventor)
-or³ suf quality; condition (horror)
orag- base storm (oragious)
-orama comb display; spectacle (georama)
-orat- base speak (oratorical) orbiculato- comb partly rounded (orbiculato-cordate) orbito- comb orbit; circle (orbito-nasal)
-orches- base dance (orchestic) orchido⁻¹ comb orchid (orchidology) orchido⁻² comb testicle (orchidotomy) orchio- comb testicle (orchiocele) orect-, -orexia comb appetite (orectic, dysorexia) organo- comb organ; organic (organography)
-orial suf pertaining to an action (conspiratorial) orient- base east; sunrise (orienting)
-orior suf relating to; characterized by (meritorious) orismo- comb definition; boundary (orismology)

-orium suf a place for __ (auditorium) orneo-, orni-, ornitho-, orno- comb bird (orneoscopic, orniscopic, ornithology, ornomancy) oro⁻¹ comb mouth (orolingual) oro⁻² comb mountain (orogenic).
Also oreo- (oreology)
orrho- comb serum (orrhocyst) ortho- 1. comb straight; regular; upright (orthodontia); 2. right angle (orthorhombic); 3. proper; correct; standard (orthography);
 4. [chemistry] that acid of a group containing the same nonmetallic element that has the largest number of OH groups per atom of the nonmetal (orthophosphoric);
 5. [medicine] correction of deformities (orthopedics)
-ory 1. suf having the nature of (hortatory); 2. a place for __ (observatory) orycto- comb dug up: fossil or mineral (oryctological)
-oryzi- base rice (oryzivorous) oscheo- comb scrotum (oscheitis)
-oscill- base swing (oscillation) oscin- base songbirds (oscine)
-oscit- base yawn (oscitation) oscul- base kiss (osculation)
-ose¹ 1. suf carbohydrate (cellulose);
 2. protein hydrolysis: product of (protease)
-ose² suf full of; containing; like (verbose). See -osity
-osis 1. suf state; condition; action (osmosis); 2. abnormal condition; diseased condition (neurosis)
-osity suf full of; containing; like (verbosity). See -ose²
-osmia comb smell; odor (anosmia)

osmio- comb osmium (osmio-chloride) osmo-¹ comb smell; odor (osmodysphoria) osmo-² comb osmosis (osmolarity) osphresio- comb odor; sense of smell (osphresiophobia) osphy-, osphyo- comb loins (osphyalgia, osphyocoele)
-ossi, osseo-, osteo- comb bone (ossification, osseomucin, osteoplasty) ossifrag- base osprey (ossifrage) osti- base gate; opening (ostiole)
-ostraca, ostraco- comb shell (Lepidostrea, ostracoderm) ostre-, ostrei-, ostreo- comb oyster (ostreaceous, ostreiform, ostreophage) ot-, oto- comb ear (otomorrhagia, otopyosis)
-ota suf plural ending of taxonomic names (biota)
-ote suf singular ending of taxonomic names (eukaryote) oti- base idleness; leisure (otiose)
-otic 1. suf affected with; of (sclerotic); 2. producing (narcotic) oulo- comb gums (oulorrhagy) ourano- comb heavens (ouranomania). See urano-ouro- comb urine (ouromancy)
-ous 1. suf characterized by; having; full of (generous); 2. [chemistry] having a valence lower than in a compound whose name ends in -ic (sulfurous)

-ousia, -ousian comb essence; substance (homousia, heterousian) out- 1. comb situated at; outside (outpatient); 2. going away; outward (outcast); 3. better; greater; more than (outsell) ovario- comb ovary (ovariocentesis). See oario-ovato- comb egg-shaped (ovato-deltoid) over- 1. comb above; upper; superior; eminent (overbearing); 2. beyond normal; excessive (overrate); 3. passing across; passing beyond (overshoot); 4. moving lower (overwhelm) ovi-¹ comb egg; ovum (oviduct) ovi-² comb sheep (ovicide) ovo- comb ovum; ovally (ovolecithin) oxa- pre [chemistry] presence of oxygen, especially as replacing carbon in a ring (oxazine) oxal-, oxalo- comb containing the radical ovalyl (oxalamide, oxalonnitrate) oxy-¹ comb sharp; pointed; acute; acid (oxycephalic) oxy-² comb oxygen-containing (oxyacetylene) oxyur- base worm (oxyuricide) ozo- comb smell (ozostomia) ozono- comb ozone (ozonolysis) ozostom- base bad breath (ozostomia)

P

pac- base peace (pacific) pachno- comb frost (pachnolite) pachy- comb thick; large; massive (pachyderm) pachyderm- base elephant; tapir (pachydermatous) paedo-¹ comb dirt; soil (paedogenic). Also pedo- (pedocal)

paedo-² comb child; immature; doll (paedomorphic). Usually pedo- (pedophile)

-pagia comb conjoined twins (ectopagia) pago- comb cold; frost (pagophagia) pagur- base hermit crab (pagurian)

-pagus comb conjoined twins (diplopagus)

-paizo- base loveplay (paizogony) palato- comb palate; roof of mouth (palatonasal) palea- base chaff; chaff-like (paleaceous) paleo- 1. comb ancient; prehistoric (Paleozoic); 2. primitive (paleolithic); 3. paleontological (paleozoology). Also paleo- (paleozoic)

-pali-, palil-, -palin- base over; again (paliphrasia, palilogy, palinogenesis) pallio- comb pallium; mantle (palliopedal) pallo- comb vibrations (pallometric) palma- base palm tree (palmaceous) palmati-, palmato- comb like the palm of the hand (palmatid, palmatopeltate)

-palp- base touch; feel (palpable) paludi-, palus- base marsh (paludicole, palustrine) palumb- base pigeon (palumbine) palyn- base pollen (palynology)

-pampin- base vine; tendril (pampiniform) pan-¹ 1. comb all (pantheism); 2. common to all/every (Pan-American); 3. belief in a unified group (Pan-Slavism) pan-² base bread (panivorous) pancreato-, pancreo- comb of the pancreas (pancreatotomy, pancreopathy) pandur- base fiddle (panduriform)

pann- base rag (pannose)

-pannychy comb lasting all night (psychpannychy)

pant-, panto- comb all; every (pantalga, pantograph)

-papaver- base poppy (papaverous) papil- base butterfly (papilionaceous) papilli-, papillo-, papilloso- comb papillary; nipple-like (papilliform, papillomatosis, papilloso-asperate) papulo- comb papule; skin elevation (papulopustular) papyro- comb papyrus (papyrology) par-¹ base fraction; portion (partition) par-² base titmouse; chickadee (parine) para-¹ 1. comb protecting from (parapet); 2. using a parachute (paratroop) para-² 1. pre beside; beyond (parallel); 2. [chemistry] an isomer, modification, polymer, derivative of a specified substance (paradichlorobenzene); 3. [medicine] secondary capacity; accessory capacity (paramedical); 4. [medicine] functionally disordered; abnormal (parafunctional); 5. [medicine] like; resembling (paracholera)

-para³ comb woman who has given birth; parturient (multipara)

paral- base seashore (paralian) paralip- base neglect; omission (paralipomena) paraphil- base unusual sexual practices (paraphilia) parasit- base parasite (parasitical) pard- base leopard (pardine)

pari- comb equal (paripinnate)

-paria comb genera and order of trilobites; cheeks (Opisthoparia)

parieto- comb forming a cavity; parietal; wall (parietomastoid) pariso- comb evenly balanced; almost equal (parisology) paroem- base proverb (paroemiology). Also parem- (paremiography)
-parous comb producing; bearing; bringing forth (viviparous) pars- base spare; save (parsimony) partheno- comb virgin (parthenogenesis) parti- base division; part (partition)
-partur- base giving birth (parturition) parvi-, parvo- comb small (parvifolious, parvoline) pascu- base grazing (pascuant) pasi- comb all; universal (pasigraphy). See pan-
-passeri- base perching bird; sparrow (passeriform)
-pated comb head: type of (bald-pated)
-pater- base father (paternity)
-path-, -pathic, patho-, -pathy comb suffering; disease; feeling (psychopath, telepathic, pathopoeia, antipathy) patri- comb father (patrimony) patroc- base support; defend (patrocinate) patroio- comb ancestor (patroio-phobia) patru- base uncle (patruity) patul- base open; spread out (patul-ent) pauc-, pauci- comb few (paucity, pauciflorous) paup- base poor (pauper)
-pavid- base fearful (impavidity)
-pavon- 1. base peacock (pavonine); 2. peacock blue (pavonine) pax- comb peace (Pax Romana) paxill- base pillarlike; stalklike (paxilla)

-pecca- base fault; sin; disease (impeccable) pect- base breastbone (pectoral) pectinato- comb like the teeth of a comb (pectinato-denticulate) pecul- base embezzle (peculation)
-pecun- base money (impecunious) ped⁻¹-, -pede, pedi-, pedo⁻¹ comb foot (pedal, centipede, pedicure, pedopathy). Also pod- (tripod) ped⁻² comb child (pedagogy) pedati- comb pedately; like a foot (pedatid)
-pedia comb teach (encyclopedia) pedicul- base lice (pediculosis) pedion- base flat surface; plain (pedionomite) pedipalp- base scorpion (pedipalpus) pedo⁻² comb child (pedodontia) pedo⁻³ comb dirt; soil (pedocal) pegm- base framework; fastening (pegmatite) pego- base spring; fountain (pegomancy) peir- base try; experiment (peirastic) pejor- base worse (pejorative)
-pel- base push; drive (propel). Also -pul- (propulsion) pelad- base bald (peladic) pelag- base sea (archipelago) pelec- base hatchet (pelecypod) pelecan- base pelican (pelecanid) pell-, pelli- base skin; hide (pellagra, pellibranchiate) pellarg- base stork (pellargic)
-pelm- base sole of the foot (antiopelmous) pelo- comb mud; clay (pelophilous) pelor- base monster (pelorization) pelt-, pelti-, pelto- comb shield (peltate, peltiferous, peltogaster) peltati-, peltato- comb shield-shaped (peltatid, peltatodigitate) pelvi- comb pelvis; pelvic; basin-shaped (pelvimeter)

-pend- 1. base hang (pendant);

2. pay; weigh (expend). Also

-pens- (pension)

pendulin- base birds with hanging nests (penduline) pen(e)- comb almost; nearly (penannular)

-penia comb poverty; deficiency; tightening (kaliopenia) pennati- comb feather (pennatifid)

penni- comb feather; featherlike (penniform)

-penny comb monetary unit (half-penny) peno- base punishment (penology) penta- comb five (pentamorous) pentacost- base fifty (pentacostal) pentakaideca- comb fifteen (pentakaidecahedron) penteconta- comb fifty (pentecontaglossal) penther- base mother-in-law (pentheraphobia)

penur- base poverty; lack (penurious)

-peo- base penis (peotomy)

pepo- base pumpkin (pepon)

peps-, pept-, pepto- comb digest (pepsinogen, peptic, peptogenic) per- 1. pre through; away (percolate); 2. completely; very (persuade); 3. [chemistry] containing a specified element or radical in its maximum or a relatively high valence (perchlorate) percepto- comb perceived (percepto-motor) perces- base barracuda (Percesocine)

percesoc-, -perci-, -perco- base barracuda; perch (percesocine, perci-form, percomorph) perchloro- comb indicates a compound in which there is the maxi-imum replacement of hydrogen by chlorine (perchlorobenzene) perd- base destroy; lose (perdition)

-perdic- base partridge (perdicine) perdit- base wicked (perdition)

perdri- base partridge (perdricide)

peregrin- base journey (peregrination)

-peregrin- base travel; wander (peregrinate) perenn- base lasting (perennial)

-pergamen- base parchment (pergameneous) peri- 1. pre around; surrounding (periscope); 2. near (perigee) pericardio-, pericardio- comb relating to the sac surrounding the heart; pericardial (pericardiophrenic, pericardiostomy) pericul- base danger (periculous) perineo- comb perineum (perineocele) perioste- comb periosteum; bone membrane (periosteophyte) perisso comb uneven; strange; redundant (perissodactyl)

-perister- base pigeon (peristeronic) peritoneo- comb peritonium; abdominal sac (peritoneoclysis) perm- base lasting; remaining (permanent) pero- comb maimed; malformed (perodactyl) peroneo- comb peroneal; fibula (peroneo-calcaneal) peroxy- comb peroxy group (peroxyborate) perpet- base unceasing (perpetual) pers- base avocado (persea) persic- base peach (persicaria)

-person comb person in a specialized activity (chairperson)

-pervic- base stubborn (pervicacious)

pesso- comb pebble (pessomancy)

-pessul- base bolt (pessular) pesti- comb injurious plant or animal; pest; plague (pestiferous)
-pet- base seek; ask; require (compete) peta- comb quadrillion (petameter)
-petal comb moving toward; seeking (centripetal) petalo- base leaf (petaloceros) petri-, petro- comb rock; stone (petrification, petroglyph) petro- comb petroleum (petrodollars) petrosel- base parsley (petroseline) petuli- base petal (petuliform)
-peuce- base pine (peucedaneous)
-pexy comb fixation: surgical (nephropexy)
-phacell- base bundle (phacellate) phaco- comb lens; lentil-shaped (phacolytic). Also phako- (phakocyst)
-phaein, phaeo- comb dusky; gray; muddy brown (haemophaein, phaeophyl). Also pheo- (pheochrome)
-phaeno- base showing (phaenogamous). Also pheno- (phenocryst)
-phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy
 1. comb eating destroying;
 2. phagocyte (xylophage, phagocytosis, xylophagous, anthropophagy)
-phakia comb lens (microphakia). Also phaco- (phacolytic)
-phalacr- base bald (phalacrophobia) phalacrocorac- base cormorant (phalacrocoracine)
-phalaen- base moth (phalaenoid)
-phalang- base spider (phalangium) phall(o)- comb penis (phallocampsis)
-phane, -phanic, -phany comb appearance; resemblance (allophane, urophanic, epiphany) phanero- comb visible; manifest (phanerogam) phantas- base illusion (phantasmal)

-phar- base lighthouse (pharology) pharmaco- comb drugs (pharmacotherapy) pharyngo- comb the pharynx (pharyngology)
-phasco- base bag; purse (phascolome) phascolom- base wombat (phascolomian)
-phaseol- base kidney bean (phaseolite)
-phasia, -phasic, -phasis, -phasy comb speech disorder (aphasia, dysphasic, emphasis, aphasy)
-phasian- base pheasant (phasianoid) phasm- base apparition (phasmophobia) phat- base speak (phatic)
-phein- base dusky (hemophein). See phaeo- phello- comb cork (phellogen)
-phemia, -phemys comb speech disorder (paraphemia, heterophemy) phenac-, phenakist- base imposter (phenacite, phenakistoscope) phenanthro- comb [chemistry] phenanthrene (phenanthroline) pheng(o)- base light; luster (phengite) phenic- base purple (phenicine) pheno- 1. comb appearance (phenomenon); 2. phenyl group (phenoxide) pheo- comb dusky; gray (pheochrome). Also phæo- (phæophile)
-pher comb bearing; carrying (chronopher) philatel- base postage stamp (philatelic) -phile, -philic, -philism, philo-, -philous comb favorably disposed to; loving; liking (Anglophile, Francophilic, bibliophilism, philology, photophilous)

-philia, -philiac 1. comb tendency toward (hemophilia, hemophil-iac); 2. abnormal attraction to (coprophilia) philomel- base nightingale (philomelian) philosophico- comb philosophical and (philosophico-historic)

-phim- base narrow (phimosis) phlebo- comb vein (phlebotomy)

-phloem- base tree bark (epi-phloem) phlog-, phlogo- comb inflammation (phlogistic, phlogogenous) phlyc- base blister (phlyctenous)

-phobe, -phobia, -phobic, phobo- comb fear; hatred; dread (Franco-phobe, claustrophobia, ailurophobic, phobophobia)

phoco- comb seal: sea mammal (phocomelia) phoeaen- base porpoise (Phoeaenoides) phœnicopt- base flamingo (phœnicopterous) pholid- base scales (pholidosis)

-phone, phono-, -phony comb sound; tone; speech; voice (megaphone, phonology, cacophony) phonetico- comb phonetic and (phonetico-grammatical)

-phor, -phore, -phorous comb bearer; producer (phosphor, car-phophore, gonophorous) phos- base light (phosphor) phospho-, phosphoro- comb phosphorus (phosphoprotein, phosphoroscope)

photo- 1. comb of light (photodynamics); 2. of photography (photomontage)

-phragma, phragmo- comb barrier;

wall; fence (diaphragma, phragmoporous) phraseo- comb phrase; verbal expression (phraseology)

-phrastic comb word choice (periph-rastic)

-phrat- base clan (phratric)

phreato- base well (phreatic)

-phrenia comb mental disorder (schizophrenia)

-phrenic, phrenico-, phreno- 1. comb diaphragm; midriff (gas-trophrenic); 2. mental condition; mind (schizophrenic, phrenico-tomy, phrenogastric) phryno- comb toad (phryno-derma) phthart- base destructive; deadly (phthartic) phthino- comb wasting away; decay (phthinoplasm)

-phthir- base louse (phthiro-phagous). Also phthyr- phthisi-, phthisio-, -phthisis, -phthisis comb wasting away; decay; tuberculosis (phthisiology, phthisiogenesis, myelophthisis, panmyelophthisis)

-phthong comb voice; sound (diph-thong)

-phthor- base corruption (thelyph-thoric)

-phyceae, -phyceous, phyco- comb seaweed (Rhodophyceae, Rhodophyceous, phycology)

-phygo- base shun; flee (phygo-galactic)

-phylactic, phylacto-, -phylax, -phylaxis comb protection; defense; guard (prophylactic, phylactocarp, chartophylax, tachy-phylaxis)

-phyletic comb origin (mono-phyletic)

-phyll, phyllo-, -phyllous comb leaf

(sporophyll, phyllophagous, monophyllous) phyllo- comb tribe; race; phylum (phylogenesis) phym-, -phyma comb tumor; swelling; outgrowth (phymatosis, osteophyma)
-phyr- base mix; mingle (haunophyr)
-phyre comb porphyritic rock (granophyre) physa- base flatulence (physagogue) physali- comb bladder; bubble (physaliphore) physc- base swelling; potbelly (physcony) physi-, physico-, physio- comb nature natural; physical bodily (physitheism, physicochemical, physiography)
-physis comb growth (prophysis) physo- 1. comb tendency to swell (physocle); 2. relating to air or gas (physometra); 3. bladder (physogastric)
-phyte, phyto- comb plant; flora; vegetation (microphyte, phytogenesis)
-piceo- comb reddish-black (piceoferruginous)
-pici- base woodpecker (piciform) pico- comb one-trillionth (picogram) picro- comb bitter (picroerythrin)
-pict- base paint (depiction)
-piesis comb pressure (anisopiesis) piezo- comb pressure; strain (piezometer) pigm- base paint; color (pigmentation)
-pign- base pledge; pawn; mortgage (impignorate)
-pigr- base slow; sluggish; slothful (impigrity) pil-, pili-, pilo- comb hair (depilatory, piliform, piloerection)

-pile- base cap (pileolus) piloso- comb hairy (piloso-fimbriate) pinel-, pinelo- comb fat; fatty (pinelitis, pinelosis) pin- base pine (pinaceous)
-pinac- base tablet; slab (pinacoid). Also -pinak- (pinakoid)
-pingu- base fat (pinguence) pinnati-, pinnato- comb like a feather; pinnately (pinnatifid, pinnato-pectinate) pinni- comb fin; flipper (pinni-grade) pino- comb drink (pinocytosis) pio- comb fat (pioscope)
-piper- base pepper (piperic)
-piq- base stinging; sharp (piquant) piri-, piro- comb pear (piriform, piroplasmosis). See pyri- pisci- comb fish (piscivorous) pisi- comb pea (pisiform) pist-, pisti- base faith (pistology, pistiology) pithec-, -pithecus comb primate; apelike (pithecoïd, Australopithecus)
-pityr- base bran (pityriasis)
-plac- base please; appease (placidity) placinti- comb placenta (placentiform) placo- comb flat plate (placodermal) plag- base kidnap; seize (plagiarize) plagio- comb slanting; oblique (plagiotropic)
-plakia comb [medicine] patch (leukoplakia)
-plang- base strike; beat (plangency) plani-, plano-¹ comb level; plane; flat (planimeter, plano-concave)
-plania, plano-² comb wandering moving (uroplania, planogamete)

-plant- base sole of the foot (plantigrade)

-plasia, -plasis comb development; growth; change (hypoplasia, cataplasia)

-plasm, plasm- comb fluid cell substances of an animal or vegetable (endoplasm, plasmolysis)

-plast, -plastic, plasto- comb molded; formed (protoplast, protoplastic, plastotype)

-plasty 1. comb forming: act or means (genioplasty); 2. plastic surgery: specific part of the body (thoracoplasty); 3. plastic surgery: tissue from specified source (autoplasty); 4. plastic surgery: for a specific purpose (kineplasty) plat¹ base flat (platen)

plat² base silver (plateresque) platini-, platino- comb platinum (plantiniferous, platinocyanide) platy- comb broad; flat (platypus) plastr- base cart; wagon (plastrary)

-pleb- base common people (plebiscite) pleco-, plecto- comb twist; twine; plait (plecopteran, plectognath)

-plegia, -plegy comb paralysis (paraplegia)

-pleisto- comb most (Pleistocene)

plemyr- base flood-tide (plemyrameter). Also plemmir- (plemmirulate)

-plen-, -pler-, -plet- base fill; full (replenish, plerocercoid, complete) pleo-, pleon-, plio- comb more; increased (pleomorphic, pleonasm, Pliosaurus. Also pleio- (pleomorphy) pleonec-, pleonex- base greed; avarice (pleonectic, pleonexia)

-plero- base full (pleroma) plesio- comb near (plesiosaurus)

pless(i)- comb striking; percussion (plessimeter) plethys- comb increase; large number (plethysmometry) pleuro- 1. comb side: on or near (pleurodont); 2. pleura: of or near (pleurotomy); 3. pleural (pleuropneumonia)

-plex comb network; folds; layers (cerviplex)

-plexia comb stroke (apoplexia) plicato-, plici- comb folded (plicatolobate, pliciform) plinthi- comb brick; squared stone (plinthiform)

plio- see pleo-

-ploid comb chromosones: of a specified multiple of (diploid) plor- base cry (ploration)

plum-, plumi- comb feather (plumage, plumiform) plumb-, plumbo- comb lead (plumbism, plumbocalcite)

pluri- comb several; many (pluriflorous) pluto- comb wealth (plutocracy) pluvial- base plover (pluvialine)

pluvio- comb rain (pluviograph)

-pnea, pneo- comb breath; respiration (dyspnea, pneograph) pneum-, pneumato- 1. comb air vapor (pneumatophore); 2. breathing (pneumatometer); 3. spirits (pneumatology) pneumo-, pneumono- comb lungs; air; gas (pneumobacillus, pneumonophorous) pneusio- comb breathing (pneusio-biognosis)

-pnig- base choke; suffocate (pnigophobia)

-pocul- base drink; cup (poculiform)

-pod, -poda, -pode, podo-, -podous

1. comb foot (pleopod, Cephalopoda, pseudopode, podomere, cephalopodous);
 2. having ___ feet (tripod)
- podic- base rump (podical)
- podium comb supporting part; footstalk (monopodium)
- poecilo- comb irregular; many-colored (poecilomere). Also poicilo-
- pogon-, pogono- comb beard (pogoniasis, pogonotrophy)
- poiesis, -poietic comb making; forming; producing (leukopoiesis, onomatopoeitic)
- poikilo- comb irregular; varied (poikiloderma)
- poimen- base pastoral (poimenic)
- poine- base punishment (poinephobia)
- polari- comb polar (polari-gut-tulate)
- polem- base war (polemic)
- polio- comb gray; gray matter (poliomyelitis)
- polis comb city (metropolitan)
- politico- comb political (politico-religious)
- pollaki- comb many times (pollaki-uria)
- pollic- base thumb (pollicate)
- pollin(i)- comb pollen (pollinosis)
- poly- 1. comb more than one (polychromatic); 2. more than usual; excessive (polyphagia); 3. many kinds or parts (polymorphous)
- polymorpho- comb multiform (polymorphocellular)
- polyped- base frog (polypedatid)
- pomerid- base afternoon (pomeridian)
- pomi-, pomo- comb fruit; apple (pomiform, pomology)
- pomp- 1. base release; sending away (hypnopompic); 2. conductor; guide (psychopomp)
- pon-, -pos- base to place (opponent, opposition)
- pond- base weight (ponderous)
- ponero- comb evil; wicked (ponerology)
- pong- base gorilla; orangutan (pongid)
- ponic base cultivation (geoponic)
- pono-¹ comb pain; fatigue (ponograph)
- pono-² comb work (ponophobia)
- pont- base bridge (pontal)
- poplit- base back of knee (popliteal)
- popul- base people (depopulate)
- porcin- base pork (porcine)
- pори-, poro- comb pore; channel (poriferous, porencephalia)
- porno- comb harlot (pornography)
- poroso- comb filled with pores (poroso-punctate)
- porphyro- comb purple (porphyro-genite)
- porrac- base leek; green (porraceous)
- porrig- base dandruff (porriginous)
- port- base carry (portable)
- porto- comb portal; entrance (portosystemic)
- portulac- base purslain (portulacceous)
- pos- see -pon-
- poso- comb dose (posology)
- post- 1. pre after in time; following; later (postgraduate); 2. after in space; behind (postaxial)
- postero- comb posterior; behind (postero-lateral)
- pot-, poto- comb drink (potable, potomania)
- potamo- comb river (potamologist)
- poten- base power; ability (impotency)
- pothiri- base parasite (pothiriophobia) poticho- comb porcelain (poticho-mania)

pov- base poor (impoverished)

-pragia comb a quality of action (bradypragia)

-prand- base dinner (postprandial)

-pras- base leek-green (prasine)

praso- comb leek (prasophagous)

-prat- base meadow (pratral)

-prav- base crooked; wrong; bad (impravable)

-praxia, -praxis comb movement;
action (hyperpraxia, parapraxis)

pre- 1. pre before in time; earlier; prior to (presuppose); 2. before in place; anterior; in front of (preaxial); 3. before in rank; superior; surpassing (preeminent); 4. in preparation for (preschool). Also prae- (praenomen)

-preca- base entreat; pray (impreca-tion)

precip- base steep; headlong (precipice)

pred- base robbery (predation)

-prehend, -prehens- base hold;
seize (apprehend, apprehensive)

presby- comb old age (presbyaculis) presbyter- comb elder; priest (pres-byteral)

preter- pre past; beyond; outside the bounds (preternatural)

pri-, prion- base a saw (priodont, prionodont)

prid- base yesterday (pridian) prim-, primi-, primo- comb first; original; early (primacy, primigravida, primogenitor)

primaver- base spring (primaveral) princip- base chief; first; main (principal)

prisc- base ancient; primitive (priscan)

-priv- base lack; absence (deprivation)

privign- base stepchild (privignal) pro-¹ 1. pre moving forward; moving ahead of (proclivity); 2. forth (produce); 3. substituting for; acting for (pronoun); 4. defending;

supporting (prolabor)

pro-² pre before in place or time (prologue)

prob- base good; upright (probity)

-probosc- base long flexible snout (probosciform)

procac- base bully; insolent (procacious)

procell- base storm (procellous) procellar- base albatross (procellar-ine)

procer- base tall; long (procerity) procto- comb rectum (proctology)

procyon- base raccoon (procyonine)

-prodit- base traitor (proditomania)

-profund- base deep (profundiplantar)

prohib- base hold back; forbid (prohibit)

proli- comb offspring (proliferous)

-proof 1. suf impervious to (waterproof); 2. protected against (weatherproof); 3. as strong as (armorproof); 4. resistive to;
unaffected by (womanproof) proprio- comb one's own (proprioceptor)

pros- comb to; toward (prosody)

proso- comb forward; anterior (prosopyle)

prosop(o)- comb face (prosopagnosia)

prostato- comb of the prostate (prostatectomy)

proteo- comb protein (proteolysis) protero- comb earlier; before; former; anterior (proterogyny) proterv- base stubborn; insolent (protervity)

proto- 1. comb first in time; original

(protocol); 2. first in importance; principal; chief (protagonist); 3. primitive (proto-Arabic); 4. [chemistry] being that member of a series of compounds having the lowest proportion of the specified element or radical; being the parent form of a specified substance (protoactinium) protother- base platypus (Prototheria)

prox-, proximo- comb near (proxemics, proximocephalic) prozym- base yeast (prozymite)

-pruin- base frost (pruinose)

-prur- base itch (pruritic)

-psalid- base shears; scissors (psalidodect) psamm(o)- comb sand (psamphilous)

-psar- 1. base speckled; 2. starling (psarolite)

-pselaph base grope (pselaphognath)

psell- base stuttering (psellism) pseph(o)- comb pebble; counter (psephology) psett- base turbot (psettaceous) pseudo- 1. comb fictitious; sham (pseudonym); 2. counterfeit; spurious (pseudepigrapha); 3. closely similar or deceptively similar (pseudomorph); 4. illusory (pseudacis); 5. [chemistry] an isomer or related form (pseudo-cholinesterase)

psil-, psilo- comb bare; smooth; mere (psilanthropy, psilodermatous)

-psithur- base whisper (psithurism)

-psittac- base parrot; macaw; parakeet (psittacoid) psor- comb itch (psoriasis) psycho- comb mind; mental processes (psychology) psychro- comb cold (psychrometer) psyll- base 1. snake charming (psyllic); 2. flea (psylly)

ptarm- base sneeze (ptarmic)

pteno- comb feathered (ptenoglossate)

-pter, ptero- comb wing; wing-shaped; feather; fin (hymenopter, pterodactyl) pterido- comb fern (pteridology) ptern- base heel bone (pterna) pterocl- base sand grouse (pteroclid) pteron- comb wing; feather; fin (pteronophobia) pterop- base bat (pteropine) pterophyll- base angelfish (pterophyllous)

-pteros, pterygo- comb wing; wing-shaped; feather; fin (homopterous, pterygoblast)

-pteryl- base feather (pterylosis)

ptib- base wing (ptiboid) ptilo- comb wing; soft feather (ptilogenesis)

ptis- base barley (ptisan)

ptocho- comb poor; beggar (ptochocracy)

-ptosia, -ptosis comb falling; drooping (phrenoptosis, nephroptosis) ptyal-, ptyalo- comb saliva (ptyalagogue, ptyalogenic)

-ptych- base folded (ptychodont)

-ptysis base spitting (hemoptysis)

pubio-, pubo- comb pubic (pubiotomy, pubofemoral)

-puden- base shame; modesty (impudent)

-puer- base child (puerile) puerper- base childbirth (puerperal)

pug- base attack; fight; fist (pugilistic)

-pugn- base fight; oppose (impugn)

-pul- base push; drive (propulsion).
Also -pel- (repel)
pulchr- base beautiful (pulchritude)
-puli- base flea (pulicosity) pull- base chicken (pullet) pullastr- base pigeon (pullastrine) pulmo-, pulmoni-, pulmono-
 1. comb lung (pulmonate); 2. pulmonary (pulmocutaneous, pulmonigrade, pulmonogastropod)
-puls- base beating; knocking (pulsation) pulver- base dust; ash (pulverize)
-pulvin- base cushion (pulvinate)
-pun¹ base punish (impunity)
-pun² base purple (puniceous)
-punct-, pung- base point; sharp (punctiform, pungent) punctato- comb with points or dots (punctato-striate) pupa- base puppet (pupaphobia) pupillo- comb pupil of the eye (pupillometer)
-pur- base pus (suppuration)
-purg- base cleanse (purgative) purpureo- comb [chemistry] purple compounds (purpureo-cobaltic) purulo- comb pus (purulo-gangrenous) pusill- base petty; very small (pusillanimous) pustulo- comb pimple (pustulocrustaceous)
-put- base think (reputed) putamin- base husk (putaminous) putea- base a well (puteal) putre-, putri- comb rotten (putrefaction, putriform) pycno- comb thick; compact; dense (pycnometer). Also pykn(o)- (pyknic) pyelo- comb pelvis; kidney (pyelocystitis)

-pygia, pygo- comb rump; buttocks (steatopygia, pygopod) pygm- base fist (pygmachy)
-pyle comb gate; aperture (micro-pyle) pylo- base gate; aperture (pylon) pyloro- comb pylorus; stomach opening (pylorodiosis) pyo- 1. comb pus (pyogenic); 2. suppurative (pyosis) pyreto-, -pyrexia comb fever (pyretology, eupyrexia)
-pyrgo- base tower (pyrgocephalic)
-pyri- base pear (pyriform). Also piro- (piroplasm) pyrito- comb pyrites (pyritohedron) pyro- 1. comb fire; heat (pyromania); 2. [chemistry] a substance derived from the specified substance by or as if by the action of heat (pyrogallol); 3. [geology] formed by heat (pyroxenite) pyrrho- comb reddish (pyrrhocorax) pyrrhul- base bullfinch; bunting (pyrrhuline) pyrrhulox- base cardinal (pyrrhuloxine) pytho- comb corrupt; decomposed (pythogenesis) pyx- comb box (pyxidate)

Q

quadr- base four; fourfold; square (quadrangle) quadragen- base forty (quadragenarian) quadrages- base forty (quadragesimal) quadrato- comb four fourfold (quadrato-cubic) quadri- base four; fourfold (quadrilateral) quadricent- base four hundred (quadricentennial) quadru- base four; fourfold (quadrumanous) quaest- base gain; money-making (quaestuary) quali- base characteristics; competence (qualitative) quanti- comb amount; extent (quantitative) quart-, quarter-, quarti- base one-fourth (quartile, quartering, quartisect) quasi- comb seemingly; as if; resembling (quasi-judicial) quass- base shake; beat (quassation) quat-, quater-, quatr- comb four (quatrain, quaternion, quatrefoil) quattuordec- base fourteen (quattuordecillion)

-quer- base complain (querimounious)

querc-, querci- comb oak (quercine, quercivorous) querul- base complain (querulousness) quid- base nature; essence (quidity) quiesc- base quiet (quiescent)
quin- base five; multiple of five (quinary) quincen- base five hundred (quincennial) quindec(em)- base fifteen (quindecemvirate) quinguagen- base fifty (quinguagenarian) quingages- base fifty (quingagesimal) quinque- comb five (quinquevalent) quint⁻¹, quinti- comb five; multiple of five (quintuplets, quintilateral) quint⁻² comb one-fifth (quintile)
-quire, -quiry comb seek; search for (require, inquiry)
-quis- base seek; search for (inquisition) quot- base how many (quotient) quotid- base daily (quotidian)

R

-racem- base cluster (racemiform)
rachi-, rachio- comb relating to the spine (rachicentesis, rachimeter).
See -rrhachia
-rad- base ray; rod; spoke (irradiate) radiato- comb ray-like (radiato-striate) radici- comb root (radicolous) radiculo comb radicle; rootlike part (radiculoganglionitis) radio- 1. comb ray; raylike (radio-larian); 2. by radio (radiotelegram); 3. [anatomy] radius and (radiobicipital); 4. [medicine] by radiant energy (radiotherapy); 5. [physics] radioactive (radiothorium) rami- comb branch (ramification) ramoso- comb protuberance (ramoso-palmate) ramul- base twig (ramulose)

rani- comb frog (raniverous) rap- base snatch; seize (rapture)
-raphan- base radish (raphania) raptor- base falcon (raptorial) rat- base emu; ostrich (ratite)
-rater comb specified rate or class (second-rater)
-ratio- base reasoning; thought (irrational) re- 1. pre back (restore); 2. again; anew (retell) recti- comb straight; right (rectirostral) recto- comb rectal (rectoscope) recurvo- comb bent back (recurvoternate)
-red suf condition; state (hatred) regin- base queen (reginal)
-regn- base royal; ruling (interregnum) regul- base standard pattern (regulations)
-rel suf diminutive (wastrel) religio- comb religion (religio-educational) relinq- base leave; jilt; abandon (relinquish) reliq- base remains; relic (reliquary)
-reme, -remi- base oar (trireme, remiform) reni-, reno- comb kidney (reniform, renovascular) rep- base snatch; seize (surreptitious) repando- comb bent back (repandodentate)
-rept- base creep; crawl (reptation) reptil- base reptile (reptilian) repud- base jilt; reject (repudiate) resino- comb resin (resino-vitreous) respirato- comb respiratory (respirato-prehensory)
-resti- base cord; cordlike (restiform) reti- base net (retiform) reticulato-, reticulo- comb net; network (reticulato-venose, reticuloramose) retino- comb of the retina (retinoschisis) retro- comb backward; back; behind (retroflex) rhabdo- comb rod; wand (rhabdo-coele)

-rhachia see -rrhachia
-rhag- base grape (rhagite)
-rhage see -rrhage
-rhamn- base buckthorn (rhamneous) rhampho- comb beak (rhamphotheca)
-rhapfy see -rrhaphy
-rhaps- base stitch; poem (rhapsody)
-rhea see -rrhea
rhegma- comb fracture; break (rhegmatogenous) rhema- base word; verb (rhematic) rheo- comb flow; current (rheoscope) rhet- base say; speak (rhetorical)
-rheum- base flow; stream (rheumatic)
-rhexis see -rrhexis
rhigo- comb cold; frost (rhigosis) rhino- comb nose (rhinology) rhipi-, rhipido- comb fan (rhipidate, rhipidoglossate) rhizo- comb root (rhizomorph). See -(r)rhiza rhodo- comb rose; rose-red (rhodolite)
-rhoeica see -rrhoeica rhombo- comb rhombus (rhombohedral)
-rhonch- base snoring (rhonchal)
-rhopal- base club; cudgel (rhopalocercous)
-rhopo- base petty; restricted (rhopography) rhyngo- comb snout; beak (rhyngophore). See -rrhyncha rhyparo-, rypo- comb dirt; filth (rhyparographer, rhyphagy).

Also rypo- (rypophagy)
rhyti- comb wrinkle (rhytidectomy)
-ric comb jurisdiction; realm (bishopric) ricinol- comb castor oil (ricinolamide)
-ridden comb obsessed or burdened with (guilt-ridden)
-rig- base wet (rigation) rigesc- base stiff; rigid (rigescence)
-rim- base opening; crack (rimose)
-rip- base river; water (riparian)
-ris- base laugh (risible) riv- base fishing (rivation)
-rix- base quarrel (rixation) rizi- base rice (riziform)
-robor- base strength (roborant) roentgeno- comb X-rays (roentgenology)
-rog- base ask; question (interrogate) Romano- comb Roman and (Romano-Lombardic) romantico- comb romantic (romantico-heroic)
-ror- base dew (roriferous) roseo- comb [chemistry] reddish salts (roseo-cobaltic)
-rostell- base snout; radicle (rastelliform) rostrato-, rostri-, rostro- comb beak (rostrato-nariform, rostri-form, rostrocarnate) rot-, roti- comb turn; wheel (rotation, rotiform) rotundi-, rotundo- comb round (rotundifoliate, rotundo-tetragonal)
-rrhachia comb spine (glycorrhachia). See rachio-
-rrhage, -rrhagia comb abnormal discharge; excessive flow (hemorrhage, menorrhagia)

-rrhaphy comb suture (cystorrhaphy)
-rrhea comb flow; discharge (diarrhea). Also -rrhœa (diarrhœa). See rheo-
-rrhexis comb rupture; bursting (myorrhexis). See rhagma-rrhexo- base pinch (rrhexophobia)
-rrhiza comb root (mycorrhiza). See rhizo-
-rrhoeica comb flow (seborrhoeica)
-rrhyncha comb snout; beak (oxyrryncha). See rhyngo-
-rub- base red (rubescence) rubig- base rust (rubiginous)
-ruct- base belch; emit (eructation)
-rud- base rough; elementary (rudiments) ruder- base stone fragments; rubble; rubbish (ruderal) rufi-, rufo- comb red (ruficaudate, rufo-fulvous)
-rug- base wrinkle (erugate) runc- base weed (runcation) runcin- base saw-toothed (runcinate) runo- comb rune (runographic) rupes-, rupic- base rock (rupes-trine, rupicolous) rupicap- base chamois (rupicaprine) rupo- base filth (rupophobia). See rhypo-
-rupt- base burst; break (disruption) rur- base the country (rural) Russo- 1. comb Russia (Russophobia);
 2. Russian and (Russo-Japanese) rut- base rue (rutaceous)
-rutil- base shining; reddish (rutilant)
-ry see -ery
ryo- base filth (rypophagy). Also rupo-

S

-s suf plural ending (dogs)

sabul- base sand; grit (sabulosity) saburr- base sand (saburration)

-sacc- base pouch; bag; cyst (sacculation) saccharo- 1. comb sugar (saccharometer); 2. saccharin and (saccharo-mucilaginous) sacerdot- base priest (sacerdotal)

-sacr- base holy; set apart (sacrament) sacro- 1. comb the sacrum (sacroiliac); 2. sacral and (sacrovertebral)

safran- base yellow (safranin)

-sagitt- base arrow (sagittate)

-salebr- base rough; uneven (salebrosity)

-sali- base salt (desalination)

-salic- base willow (salicaceous) salino- comb salt and (salinosulphureous) salmoni- base salmon (salmoniform) salpingo- 1. comb of a fallopian tube (salpingotomy); 2. of a eustachian tube (salpingitis)

sals- base salt (salsamentarious)

-salta- base leap; dance (saltatory)

saltu- base woods (saluary)

-salub- base healthy (salubrious)

-salv- base save (salvage)

-san- base health; healing (unsanitary) sanct-, sancti- comb holy (sanctuary, santicolist) sangui-, sanguineo-, sanguino- comb blood (sanguicolous, sanguineo-vascular, sanguino-purulent) sanguisug- base leech (sanguisugous)

-sapien- base wise (sapiently) sapon-, saponi- comb soap (saponaceous, saponification) sapor- base taste (saporific)

sapro- comb [biology] dead; putrefying; decaying (saprogenic)

-sarc-, sarco- comb flesh; tissue (ectosarc, sarcology) sarcin- base bundle (sarcina)

-sarmass- base loveplay (sarmassation) sarment- base stem (sarmentaceous) sartor- base tailor (sartorial)

sativ- base sown; planted (sativous) sator- base sow (satorious) sauciat- base wound (sauciate)

-saur, sauro-, -saurus comb lizard (dinosaur, sauropod, ichthyosaurus) sax-, saxi- comb rock; stone (saxatile, saxicoline) scabi- base itch (scabiosity)

scaev- base leftsided; unlucky (scaevity)

-scal- base climb; ladder (escalation)

-scalpri- base chisel (scalpriform)

-scan- base climb (scansorial)

-scape comb view; scenery (seascape) scapho- comb boat-shaped (scaphoid) scapi- comb stalk; shaft (scapiform) scapuli-, scapulo- comb scapula and; shoulder blade (scapulimancy, scapuloclavicular) scarab- base beetle (scaraboid)

scato- comb excrement; feces (scatology) scatur- base spring of water (scaturient)

-scel- base leg (isosceles)

sceler- base wicked (scelerous)
-scelia comb [medicine] condition of the legs (macroscelia)
-schem- base appearance; form (schematism) schisto- comb split; cleft (schistocephalus) schizo- comb split; cleavage; division (schizocarp)
-schæno- base rope (schænobatic) schol- base school (scholar)
-sci- base know (omniscient)
-scia- base shadow (macroscian).
Also scio- (sciomancy). See skia-
-scintill- base spark (scintillation)
-scio-¹ base shadow (sciomancy).
Also -scia- (macroscian)
scio-² comb knowledge (sciolism) sciss- base cut; divide (scission)
-sciur- base squirrel; marmot (sciurine) sclero- 1. comb hard (sclerometer);
 2. of the sclera (sclerotomy)
-scob- base sawdust (scobiform) scolec-, scolec- comb worm (scoleciform, scolecobrotic) scoli(o)- comb bent; crooked (scoliosis) scolo- comb spike (scolophore) scolopac- base snipe; woodcock (scolopacine) scolopendri- base centipede (scolopendriform) scombr- base mackerel (scombroid) scopa-, scopi- base twigs; broom; brush (scoparious, scopiform)
-scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy comb sight; observation; examination (telescope, microscopic, scopophilia, bioscopy) scopeli- base bony fish; Scopelidae (scopeliform) scophthalm- base turbot (scophthalmus) scopi- base twig; broom (scopiform) scopul- base crag; cliff (scopulous)

-scorb- base scurvy (scorbutigenic)
-scoria- base slag (scoriaceous)
-scoro- base garlic (scorodite)
-scort- base fornication; harlot (scortatory) Scoto- comb Scottish and (Scoto-Irish) scoto- base darkness; dimness (scotophobia)
-scrib-, -script- base write (scribber, manuscript)
-scrobic- base furrowed; pitted (scrobiculous)
-scrot- base scrotum; testicular sac (scrotocele)
-scrut- base examine; search (scrutinize)
-scut- base shield; scale (scutiform) scutel- base dish (scutelliform) scyphi-, scypho- comb cup; [botany] cup-shaped part (scyphiform, scyphomancy) Scytho- comb Scythian and (Scytho-Aryan) se- pre away from (seclude)
-seb- base tallow; grease (sebaceous) sebo- comb sebum; suetlike; tallow (seborrhea)
-sec-, -sect- base cut (secant, intersection)
-secul- base worldly; temporal (secularize) securi- comb ax; hatchet (securiform)
-secut- base follow (consecutive).
See -seq-
-sed- base sit (sedentary) sedat- base allay; calm (sedation) sedecim- base sixteen (sedecimal) segn- base sloth; sluggishness (segnity) seismo- comb earthquake (seismograph) sela- comb flash (selaphobia) selach- base shark (selachoid) seleno- comb moon (selenography) self- comb oneself (self-denial) sema-, -seme, semeio-, semiocomb sign; signal; symbol; index; symptom (semaphore, micro-seme, semeiology, semiotics) semi- 1. pre half (semidiameter);

 2. partly; imperfectly (semicivilized); 3. twice per __ (semi-annual) semin- base seedbed (seminal) semper- base always (sempervivum)
-sen- base old (seniority)
seni- base six (senary)
-sens-, -sent- base feel (sensitive, sentimental)
sensori- comb pertaining to the senses or to sensations (sensorimotor)
-sepalous comb having a specific kind or number of sepals (trisepalous)
sepi- base cuttlefish (sepiacean) sept- base seven (September) septem- comb seven (septempartite) septen- base north (septentrion) septendecim- base seventeen (septendecimal)
septi-¹ comb seven (septilateral) septi-², septico- comb decomposed; vitiated (septicemia, septico-pyaemia)
septim- base seventh (septimal) septingenti- base seven hundred (septingentenary) septo-¹ comb decomposed; vitiated (septogenic) septo-² comb dividing wall (septocephalic) septuagen- base seventy (septuage-narian) septuages- base seventy (septagesimal)

septuagint- base seventy (septuagintal)
sepul- base grave; tomb; burial (sepulcher)
-seq- base follow (consequence). See
-secut-
-ser- base bar; bolt (reseration) Serbo- comb Serbia (Serbo-Croatian)
seri-, sericeo-, serico- comb silk (serigraph, sericeo-tomentose, sericostoma)
serio- comb partly serious (seriocomic) sero- comb serum (serology) serot- base late in occurrence or development (serotine) serpen- base snake (serpentine) serrato- comb saw-toothed (serrato-crennate) serri- comb [entomology/zoology] a saw (serrirostrate)
serv- base slave (servitude)
-serve comb keep; attend to (reservation)
sesqui- comb one and one half (sesquicentennial) sesquipedal- base long words (sesquipedalophobia)
-sess- base sit; perch (insessorial) setaceo- comb bristles and (setaceorostrate)
seti- base bristle (setiferous) sexagen- base sixty (sexagenarian) sexages- base sixty (sexagesimal) sexcent- base six hundred (sexcentenary)
sexi- comb six (sexipolar) sext- comb sixth (sextant) sexti- comb six (sextisection)
she- comb female (she-bear)
-ship 1. suf quality; condition; state of (friendship); 2. rank; office; status (kingship); 3. ability; skill (leadership); 4. collective: all individuals of a specified class (readership)

-siagon- base jawbone (siagonology)

sial⁻¹ base saliva (sialorrhea)

sial⁻² base bluebird (Sialia)

-sibil- base hiss; whistle (sibilant) sica- base knife; dagger (sicarian)

-sicc- base dry (desiccate)

Siculo- comb Sicilian (Siculo-Punic)

-sid- base inhere; sit in (insident)

-sidere comb star (hagiosidere)

sidero⁻¹ comb iron (siderolite)

sidero⁻² comb star (siderostat)

siderodromo- comb railroad

(siderodromophobia)

-sigil- base seal; signet (sigillation) siliceo-, silici-, silico- comb [chemistry] silica: containing or relating to (siliceo-calcareous, siliciferous, silico-alkaline) silig- base winter wheat (siliginous) siliqu- base pod (siliquiferous)

-silur- base catfish (silurid)

Siluro- comb Silurian (Siluro-Cambrian)

silvi- comb tree; forest (silviculture) sim- base ape; chimp (simian)

-simil- base like; resembling (dissimilarity)

-simo- base snub-nosed (simosaurus)

-simul- 1. base at the same time (simultaneous); 2. feign; pretend (simulate) sinap- base mustard (sinapism) sindon- base shroud (sindonology) singult- base hiccup; sob (singultous, singultient) sinistro- comb left: of, at, using (sinistro-cerebral) sino- comb sinus (sinorespiratory)

Sino- comb Chinese: people/language (Sinology)

-sinu- base bending; winding (insinuate) sinuato-, sinuoso- comb wavy; uneven (sinuato-dentate, sinuoso-lobate)

-sion see -ion

siphoni-, siphono- comb tube; pipe (siphoniform, siphonostele)

-sis suf action; condition (stasis)

-siti- base thirst (insitiency)

-sitia, sitio-, sito- comb food; eating; appetite (asitia, sitiophobia, sitology) sitt- base nuthatch (sittine) situ- base located; inherent (situation)

-size, -sized comb having a specified size (life-size, small-sized) skeleto- comb skeleton (skeleto-trophic)

-skeuo- base vessel; utensil (skeuomorphic)

skia- comb shadow (skiascopy). See scia-

Slavo- comb Slav (Slavophile)

smaragd- base emerald (smaragdine)

socer- base father-in-law (soceraphobia) socio- comb society; social (sociobiological)

sodio- comb sodium (sodio-hydric)

-soever comb any ___ of those possible (whosoever) sol- comb sun (solarium)

solen-, soleno- base [zoology] channel; pipe (solenite, solenoglypha)

sol- comb alone (solitude)

-solu-, -solv- base melt; dissolve (soluble, solvent)

-soma comb [zoology] names of genera (Schistosoma)

somato- comb body (somatology)

-some¹ comb body (chromosome)

-some² suf like; tending to be (tire-some)

-some³ suf number: in a specified (threesome) somni- comb sleep (somniferous) son-, soni-, sono-, sonoro- comb sound (sonancy, soniferous, sonogram, sonoro-sibilant)
-sophy comb knowledge; thought (philosophy)
-sopor- base sleep (soporific)
-sor- base heap (sorotrochous)
-sorb-¹ base soak up (absorbent)
-sorb-² base mountain ash (sorbic)
-sord- base dirt; filth (insordescant) soric- base shrew (soricine)
-soror- base sister (sorority)
-sote comb preserver (creosote)
-soter- base salvation (soteriology) spad- base brown (spadiceous) spadici- comb succulent spike (spadicifloral) spano- comb scarce (spanopnea) sparasso-, sparax- comb laceration; tearing (sparassodont, sparaxis) sparg- base sprinkle; scatter (spargification) spasmo- comb spasm; contraction (spasmolysis) spathi- base spatula; broad blade (spathiform) spatilo- comb excrement (spatilomancy) spatul- base shoulder (spatulomancy) spatuli- comb spatula (spatuliform)
-spec(t)-, -spic- base look; see (spectator, conspicuous)
-specific comb applied or limited to the particular item named (culture-specific) specio- comb specific (speciographic) spectr- base ghost (spectral) spectro- 1. comb radiant energy as exhibited in a spectrum (spectrogram); 2. of/by a spectroscope

(spectro-heliogram); 3. mirror (spectrophobia) speleo-, spelunc- base cave (speleologist, speluncar) sper- base hope (sperable)
-sperg-, -spers- base sprinkle (insperge, inspersation)
-sperm, sperma-, -spermal, spermatio-, spermato, spermi-, -spermic, spermo-, -spermous comb seed; germ; beginning (gymnosperm, spermaphore, gymnospermal, spermatogenous, spermatocyte, spermiducal, endospermic, spermogonium, monospermous) sphacel- base gangrene (sphacelo-derma)
-sphagn- base moss (sphagnologist)
-sphair- base tennis (sphairistic)
-sphal- base error (sphalma)
-sphec- base wasp; hornet (sphecoid) sphenisc- base penguin (spheniscan) spheno- 1. comb wedge-shaped (sphenogram); 2. sphenoid bone (sphenoccipital)
-sphere, spherico-, sphero- comb sphere (stratosphere, sphericylindrical, spherocyte). Also sphaero- (sphaeroblast)
-sphingo- base bound tightly (sphingometer)
-sphrag- base seal; signet (sphragistic) sphygmo- comb pulse (sphygmograph) sphyr- base hammer (sphyrelaton) sphyraen- base barracuda (sphyraenoid) sphyrn- base shark (Sphyrna)
-spici- base ear of corn (spiciferous) spicul-, spiculi-, spiculo- comb spiky; pointed (spicular, spiculiferous, spiculofibrous)

-spil- base spot; speck (spilosite) spini-, spino-, spinoso-, spinuloso-comb spine (spini-acute, spino-cerebellar, spinoso-dentate, spinuloso-serrate)
-spinthar- base spark (spinthariscope) spiri- comb coil; spiral (spiriform) spiro¹ comb respiration; breath (spiograph) spiro² comb spiral; coil (spirochete)
-spiss- base thick; dense (inspissation)
-splachn- base moss (splachnoid) splanchno- comb viscera (splanchnology) splenico-, splen(o)- comb spleen (splenico-phrenic, splenocele) spodo- base ashes (spodogenous) spondylo- comb vertebra (spondylitis) spongi-, spongio-, spongo- comb sponge-like (spongiculture, spongiocyte, spongolith) spor- base scatter (sporadic)
-spore, spori-, sporo-, -sporous
1. comb spore; seed (teliospore, sporiferous, sporocarp); 2. specific number/kind of spores (monosporous)
-spum- base foam; froth (spumescence)
-spurc- base dirty; foul (spurcity)
-squal- base shark (squaloid) squamato-, squamo-, squamoso-, squaroso- comb squama; scalelike (squamato-granulose, squamocellular, squamoso-dentated, squaroso-lacinate) stabil- base lasting; fixed (stability)
-stact- base drop (stactometer)
-stagn- base drop (stagnoid)
-stagn- base pool (stagnicolous)
-stal- base motion; contraction (peristalsis)

-stalac(ti)-, -stalag- base dropping; dripping (stalactite, stalagmite) stamini- comb stamen (staminiferous)
-stann- base tin (stanniferous)
-stap- base stirrup; stapes (stapedectomy) staphylo- 1. comb uvula; grapelike (staphylorrhaphy); 2. staphylococcus (staphylo dermatitis) stasi-, -stasis comb standing still; balance; arrest; halt (stasimetry, phlebostasis)
-stat comb scientific instrument (thermostat) stato- comb stationary; stabilized (statocyst) stauro- comb cross (staurophobia)
-stead comb place (homestead) stearo-, steato- comb fatty substance (stearoglucose, steatopygia)
-stegano- base covered (steganopodous) stegno- comb constriction (thecostegnosis) stego- comb covered; closed (stegosaur)
-stell- base star (interstellar) stellio- base lizard (stellion)
-stema- base filament (stemapod) sten(o)- comb small; thin; narrow; abbreviated (stenographer) step- comb relationship not by blood (stepfather)
-ster 1. suf person who is/does/creates __ (punster); 2. person associated with __ (gangster) sterco- comb dung; feces (stercora-ceous) stereo- comb three-dimensional; solid (stereoscope)
-sterigm- base prop; support (sterigmatic) stern- base tern (sternine)

sterno- comb sternum and; breast-bone (sternoclavicular)

-sternut- base sneeze (sternutation)

-sterquil- base dunghill (sterquilinious)

-stert- base snore (stertorous) stetho- comb chest; breast (stethoscope)

-sthenia, sthen(o)- comb strength; force; power (hypersthenia, hyposthenuria) stibio- comb [chemistry] black antimony (stibiotrimethyl) stibo- comb footprint (stibogram)

-stichia, sticho-, -stichous comb row; line; verse (tristichia, stichometry, tristichous)

-stict- base spotted (laparostict)

-stig- base a point; to punctuate; to goad; stimulate (instigate)

-stigm- base mark; point; dot; puncture; tattoo (stigmatized) stigno- comb writing (stignomancy)

-still- base drop (stillatitious)

-stilpno- base glittering (stilpnomelane)

-stip-¹ base stalk; support (stipitate)

-stip-² base press together; pack (constipation)

-stiri- base icicle (stiriated)

-stirp- base stem; stock (exstirpate)

-stoch- base guess (stochastic)

-stoicheio- base element (stoicheiometry)

stomato-, -stome, -stomous comb [medicine/botany] mouth (stomatalgia, cyclostome, megastomous)

-stomy comb surgical opening into — (colostomy) stone- comb very; completely (stone-broke)

-storgy base affection (philostorgy)

-stori- base tales; legends (storiology)

-strab-, strabism- base squinting (strabotomy, strabismometer)

-stragul- base covering (stragulum)

-strain comb restrict; bind (constrain)

-stramin- base straw (stramineous)

-strat- base a general; an army (strategic) strati-, strato- comb layer; stratum (stratification, stratosphere)

-stren- base difficult (strenuous) strep-, strepi- base noisy (obstreperous, strepitous) strepho-, strepsi-, strepto- comb turned; twisted (strephosymbolia, strepsipterous, streptococcal)

-stress suf female (seamstress) stria-, striato-, strio- comb furrow; groove (striaform, striatocrenulate, striomuscular)

-strict comb tightly drawn; limited (restriction)

-strid-, stridul- base creak; harsh noise (strident, stridulation)

-strig- base furrow; channel (strigated) strigi- base owl (strigiform)

-string- base constricted (astringent)

-strob- base twisting; spinning (strobilation) strobil- base pine cone (strobiliform)

-strom- base fibrous structure (stromatiform)

-stromb- base spiral; twisted (strombiform) stromboli- base top (stromboliform)

strongyl- base round (strongylate)

-stroph- base turn; twist (strophiole) struct- comb arrange; put together (constructive) strum-, strumi- base goiter; swollen gland (strumitis, strumiferous)

-struma- base tumor (strumectomy)
-struthio- base ostrich (struthious)
-stult- base foolish (stultiloquy)
-stup- base senseless (stupefaction) stupr- base fornicate; rape (stuprate)
-sturim- base sturgeon (sturionic)
-sturn- base starling; swallow (sturnine) styg- base hellish (Stygian) styl- base pen (styliform) stylo⁻¹ 1. comb pointed; sharp (stylograph); 2. styloid: bony process (stylohyoid)
stylo⁻² comb column; pillar (styolite)
-stypt- base astringent (stypticity)
-suad-, -suas- base urge (dissuade, persuasion) suav- base sweet (suaveolent) sub- 1. pre under; below (submarine); 2. lower in rank; inferior to (subaltern); 3. to a lesser degree; slightly (subtropical); 4. division (sublet); 5. [chemistry] less than the normal amount of __; basic (subchloride); 6. [mathematics] ratio inverse to a given ratio (subduplicate). NOTE: sub- can change to: su- (suspect); suc- (succeed); suf- (suffocate); sug- (suggest); sum- (summon); sup- (support); sur- (surrogate); sus- (suspend) subagit- base sexual intercourse (subagitation)
-suber- base cork (suberose) subero- comb suberic acid (suberopyroxylic) subig- base knead (subigate) subit- base sudden; hasty (subitaneous) subsesqui- pre [chemistry] elements combined in the proportion of 2 to 3 (subsesquiacetate) subter- pre below; under; less than; secretly (subterfuge)

-subul- base awl (subuliform) suc- base juice (succulent)
-succino- comb amber (succino-sulphuric) sucr- base sugar (sucrose) sud-, sudori- comb sweat; perspiration (sudatory, sudorific)
-suet- base custom (conseutude) suffrag- base voting (suffragette)
-suge base suck (potisuge) sui- base oneself (suicide) sui-, suid- base pig; boar (suilline, suidian) sulc- base groove (sulcus) sulcato- comb furrowed; grooved; cleft (sulcato-areolate) sulfato- comb sulfate (sulfatidates). Also sulphato- (sulphato-acetic) sulfo- comb sulfur; sulfonate sulfonic acid (sulfocyanogen). Also sulpho- (sulpho-indigotic) sulfureo comb sulfurous (sulfureo-nitrous) super- 1. pre over; above; on top (superstructure); 2. higher in rank/position; superior to (superintendent); 3. greater in quality/amount/degree; surpassing (superabundance); 4. greater or better (supermarket); 5. greater than normal (supersaturate); 6. extra; additional (supertax); 7. to a secondary degree (superparasite); 8. [chemistry] large amount of __ (superphosphate) supero- comb [anatomy] on the upper side (supero-dorsal) supin- base lying down (supine) supra- pre above; over; beyond (supraliminal) sur- pre over; upon; above; beyond (surface) sura- base calf of the leg (sural)

surcul- base grafting; twig (surcullose)
-surd- base deaf (surdity)
-surg- base rise (resurgent)
-susurr- base whisper; murmur (insusurration)
-sutil- base stitch; sew (inconsutile)
-syc- base fig (sycoma)
-sychno- base many (sychnocarpous) symmetr- base symmetry (asymmetrical) symphyo- comb growing together (symphyogenesis) syn- pre with; together; at the same time; by means of (synagogue).
 NOTE: syn- can change to: sy-

(syzygy); syl- (syllogism); sym- (symbiosis); sys- (system) synchro- comb synchronized (synchromesh) syndesmo- comb ligament; binding together (syndesmosplasty)
-synœc- base community (synœcology) syphili-, syphilo- comb siphylis (syphilitic, syphilophobia)
-syr- base reed; pipe; tube (syringe) syringo- comb tube-shaped cavity (syringocarcinoma) Syro- comb Syrian and (Syro-Arabian)
-syrt- base quicksand (syrtic)

T

-tab- base emaciated; wasted away (tabescent) taban- base horsefly (tabanid) tabell- base tablet; ballot (tabellary) tacho- comb speed (tachometer) tachy- comb rapid; swift; fast (tachycardia) tacit- base quiet (taciturn)
-tact- base touch (contact)
-tactic, -tactous comb order; arrangement (heterotactous, syntactic) taeni-, taenio- comb ribbon or band; tapeworm (taeniafuge, taeniosomous). Also teni- (teniacide) -tain comb hold (maintain). See -ten- tali-, talo- comb ankle (taligrade, talocalcaneal) talpi- base mole (talpicide)
-tang- base touch (intangible) tantalo- base tease (tantalize)

-taph, tapho-, taphro- comb tomb; pit (cenotaph, taphophobia, taphrenchyma) tapin- base contagious (tapinophobia)
-tapino- base low (tapinocephalic)
-tard- base slow; delay (retardation) tarso- 1. comb instep (tarso-metatarsus); 2. eyelid cartilage (tarsoplasty) tartr(o)- comb tartar; tartaric acid (tartromethylates)
-taseo-, -tasi- base tension (taseometer, tasimetric) tauri-, tauro- 1. comb of/like a bull (tauricide, tauromachy); 2. [chemistry] taurine (taurocholate) taurotrag- base eland (taurotragus) tauto- comb the same; identical (tautology) tax- base yew (taxaceous)

taxi-, -taxia, -taxis, taxo-, -taxy comb arrangement; order (taxidermy, heterotaxia, parataxis, taxonomy, homotaxy) techno-, -techny 1. comb art; science; skill (technocracy); 2. technical; technological (technochemistry, pyrotechny)

tecno- comb child (tecnonymy)

-tect- base roof; cover (tectiform)

-teen suf ten and numbers: cardinal (sixteen)

teg-, tegu- base cover (tegmental, tegument)

tegul- base tile (tegar)

-teicho- base wall (teichopsia)

tek- base child (ateknia)

tel- base dart (teliferous) tele- 1. comb at a distance; far (telegraph); 2. television (telecast) teleo-, telo- comb end; purpose; final stage (teleology, telophase) tellur- base earth (intratelluric)

-telmat- base a bog (telamatology)

-temerat- base violate (intemperate)

temno- comb cut (temnospondylous)

-temp- base regulate; mix (temperament)

-tempor- base time (contemporary) temporo- comb temple of the head (temporo-maxillary)

-temul- base drunkenness (temulency)

-ten- base hold (tenacious). See -tain tend- base stretch (distend)

-tene comb [biology] ribbon-shaped (pachytene)

-tenebr- base darkness (tenebrosity)

-teni- base tapeworm; ribbon-like (teniacide). Also taeni(i)- (taenii-phobia) teno-, tenonto- comb tendon (tenotomy, tenontodynia) tensio- comb stretch; strain (tensiometer) tentaculi- comb tentacle (tentaculiform)

tentig- base bore; penetrate (tentiginous) tenui- comb slender; thin; narrow (tenuifolious) tephro- 1. comb ashes (tephromancy); 2. gray (tephroite)

ter- comb thrice (tercentennial)

tera- comb one trillion (terahertz) terato- comb monster; monstrosity (teratology) terebinth- base turpentine (terebinthinate) terebr- base bore; penetrate (terebriation) tered- base worm (teredines) tereti-, tereto- comb rounded (tereticaudate, teretosetaceous) tergi-, tergo- comb the back (tergiversation, tergolateral)

-termin- base end; limit (termination) termit- base termite (termitophagous)

-tern- base three; triple (ternion)

-terr- base earth (territorial)

-tert- base third (tertiary) tessera- comb four (tesseraglot) tesseracteca- comb fourteen (tesseractecasyllabon)

testac- base reddish-brown (testaceous) testaceo- comb shell (testaceology) testud- base turtle (testudinal) tetano- comb tetanus stiff (tetanospasmin) tetarto- comb one fourth (tetartohedral) tetra- comb four (tetragamy) tetracyclo- comb with four circles; with four atomic rings (tetracycline) tetradeca- comb fourteen (tetradecapod). Also tetrakaideca- (tetrakaidecahedron) tetrakis- comb four times (tetrakis-dodecahedron) tetraon- base grouse; ptarmigan (tetraonid) tetrazo- [chemistry] 1. comb compound with 4 atoms of nitrogen (tetrazone); 2. presence of four azo groups (tetrazolyl)

teuth- base cuttlefish; squid (teuthologist) teuto- comb German (teutophobia)

tex- base weave (textile)

-th 1. suf act of (stealth); 2. state of being/having; quality of being/having (wealth)

-th suf numbers: ordinal (sixteenth) thalamo- comb thalamus (thalamocortical) thalasso-, thalatto- comb sea; marine (thalassocracy, thalattology) thalero- comb blooming; fresh (thalerophagous) thall-, thallas- base green (thallium, thallasine) thallo- comb thallium (thallophyte) thamn- base shrub (thamnium) thanato- comb death (thanatology) thaumato- comb wonder; miracle (thaumatology) theatro- comb theater (theatromania)

-theca, theci-, theco- comb sheath; container; case; cover (sarcotheca, theciform, thecostegnosis)

-thei- base tea (theiform) thelo- comb nipple (perithelium)

thely- comb female (thelytoky)

theo- comb god (theocentric)

-thera- base catcher; trap (oeno-thera) theraphos- base tarantula (theraphosid)

-there, therio-, thero- 1. comb extinct mammalian form (megathere); 2. beast (theriomorphic, theropod)

-therm, thermo-, -thermy comb heat; hot (isotherm, thermodynamics, diathermy)

-thesis, -thetic comb set; put; place (hypothesis, antithetic)

-thesmo- base law (thesmothete) thesp- base actor (thespian)

thia-, thio- comb sulfur (thiabendazole, thioaldehyde) thigmo- comb touch (thigmotropism)

thino- base beach; seashore (thino-lite)

thio- comb [chemistry] sulfur (thiobacillus)

-thlips- base pressure (thlipsencephalus) thneto- comb mortal (thnetopsychism) thoracico-, thoraco- 1. comb thorax and (thoracico-abdominal);

2. thorax; chest (thoracoplasty)

thras- base brag; boast (thrasonical) thremm- base breed; propagate (thremmatology) thren- base lamentation (threnody) thrept- base nourish; nurse (threpterophilia) thripto- base mortal (thriptophobia)

-thrix- base hair (streptothrix)

-throated comb throat: specific kind (ruby-throated) thrombo- comb blood clot (thrombo-phlebitis)

thumo- comb soul (thumomancy)

-thur- base incense (thurifer)

-thy- base offering; sacrifice (idolothyus)

-thylac- base pouch (thylacine)

-thymia¹ comb mental disorder (dysthymia)
-thymia⁻² base perfume; incense (thymiatechny) thymo- 1. comb thymus (thymokinetic); 2. mind; soul; mood; emotions (thymogenic)
-thyrea, thyreo-, thyro- comb thyroid (hypothyrea, thyrectomy, thyromegaly) thyrsi-, thyrso- comb stalk; stem; inflorescence (thyrsiflorous, thyrsocephalic)
-thysan- base fringe; tassel (thysanopter) tibio- comb tibia and (tibiotarsal)
-tic See -ic
ticho- base wall (tichorhine)
-tight comb impervious to (water-tight) tigr- base tiger (tigrine) tilia- comb lime; linden (tiliaceus)
-till- base to pluck (peotillomania)
-tim- base fear; dread (timorous) timbro- comb postage stamp (timbophilic)
-timo- base honor (timocracy) timor- base fear (timorous)
-tinct-, -ting- base stain; color (intinction, tingible) tinea- base moth; bookworm (tineid) tinn-, tintinn- base jingling; ringing; bell (tinnitus, tintinnabular)
-tion, -tious 1. suf act of (creation); 2. state of being (elation, ambitious); 3. thing that is (creation) titano⁻¹ comb titan (titanosaur) titano⁻² comb titanium (titanocyanide) titillo- base scratch; tickle (titillation)
-titub- base stagger (titubation)
-tmesis comb cutting (neurotmesis)

-tocia, toco- comb childbirth; labor (dystocia, tocolytic). Also toko- (tokogony)
-toky comb childbearing (thelytoky)
-tolypeut- base armadillo (tolypeutine)
-tome comb [medicine] cutting instrument (osteotome) tomo-, -tomous, -tomy comb cutting; dividing; surgery (tomography, dichotomous, appendectomy)
-ton comb town (Washington)
-tonia 1. comb tone; muscle tension (isotonia); 2. personality disorder (catatonia)
-tonic 1. comb notes in a musical scale (pentatonic); 2. musical intervals (diatonic); 3. phonetic units of stress (pretonic); 4. muscle contraction (myatonic); 5. pathological spasms (vagatonic); 6. restorative substance (hematonic); 7. solution (isotonic)
-tonitru- base thunder (tonitrual) tono- comb tension; pressure (tonometer) tonsillo- comb tonsil (tonsillotomy) tonsor- base shave; barber (tonsorial)
-toothed comb specific number/kind of teeth (big-toothed) topo-, -topy comb place; topical (topology, somatotopy) toreut- base embossing metal or ivory (toreutics) torp- base numbness (torporific)
-tors-, -tort- base twist (torsion, distorted)
-tory see -ory
toti- comb whole entire (totalpalmate) tox-, toxi-, toxico-, toxo-¹ comb poison; infection (toxemia, toxituberculide, toxicogenic, toxoplasma) toxo-² comb archery (toxophily)

-trab- base beam (trabeation) trachelo- comb neck (trachelodynia) tracheo- 1. comb windpipe (tracheotomy); 2. trachea and (tracheobronchial)

trachy- comb rough (trachyspermous)

-tract- base draw; pull (detract) tragelaph- base kudu (tragelaphus)

trago- comb goat (tragopogon)

trans- 1. pre across; over; on the other side; to the other side (transatlantic); 2. change thoroughly (transliterate); 3. transcending; above and beyond (trans-sonic) transverso- comb transverse; crosswise (transversomedial) trapezi- base trapezoid (trapezoid) traumato- comb wound; injury (traumatopnea) trecent- comb three hundred (trecentene) tredecim- base thirteen (tredecimal)

tremo- base shaking; tremble (tremogram)

-trepid- base scared; agitated (intrepid)

-tresia comb perforation (proctotresia)

-tress suf feminine ending (actress)

tri- 1. comb three; three parts (triplane); 2. three times; into three (trisect); 3. every three; every third (triannual); 4. [chemistry] having three atoms; having three equivalents of; having three groups (tribasic) triaconta- comb thirty (triacontahedral) triakis- comb three (triakisioctahedron) triangulato- comb triangulate (triangulato-subovate) tribo- comb friction (tribology)

-trice suf feminine ending (genetrice). NOTE: -trix is now preferred triceni- base thirty (tricenary)

-trich, -tricha comb [zoology] creature with hairlike structures (hyoptrich, Gastrotricha) trichec- base manatee (trichechine) tricho- comb hair (trichogenous) trient- base third (triental) triethyl- comb [chemistry] three ethyl groups (triethylamine) triges- base thirty (trigesimal) trigint- base thirty (trigintal) trigono- comb three-cornered; triangular (trigonocephalic) tring- base sandpiper (tringoid) trinitro- comb [chemistry] three atoms of nitrogen (trinitroglycerin)

-trione comb [chemistry] three ketone groups (Indantrione) trioxy- comb having 3 atoms of oxygen (trioxynaphthalene) triplicato- comb triplicate (triplicato-pinnate)

-triplo- base threefold; triple (triploblastic)

-tripsy comb crushing; friction (neurotripsy) tripud- base dance; exult (tripudiate) triquadr- base three-fourths (triquadrantal) triskaideka- comb thirteen (triskaidaphobia)

trist- base grief; sadness (tristful)

trit- base friction; threshing (triturate)

-tritic- base wheat (triticeous)

trito- comb third (tritocere)

-trix suf female agent (executrix) troch-, trochi-, trocho- comb wheel; pulley rounded (trochlear, trochiferous, trochocardia)

- trocha comb [zoology] having a band (cephalotrocha)
- trochalo- comb rolling; rotary (trochalopod)
- trochil- base hummingbird (trochiline)
- trocto- base trout (troctolite)
- trog- base to gnaw (trogonine)
- troгло- base hole; cave (troglodyte)
- troglodyt- base wren (troglodytine)
- tromo- base earth tremor (tromometry)
- tron comb names of devices used in electronic or subatomic experiments (cyclotron)
- trope, -tropic, -tropism, tropo-, -tropous, -tropy comb responding to a specific stimulus; turning; changing (heliotrope, phototropic, thermotropism, trophilous, phototropous, entropy)
- troph, -trophic, tropho-, -trophы comb nutrition; food; nourishment (heterotroph, autotrophic, trophoplasm, atrophy)
- trucid- base kill; slaughter (trucidation)
- trude, -trus- base push; thrust (protrude, intrusion)
- trutt- base trout (truttaceous)
- trypano- 1. comb parasite; borer (trypanosome); 2. injection (trypanophobia)
- trypet- base fruitfly (Trypetidae)
- tuberculo- 1. comb tuberculous (tubercular); 2. tubercle bacillus (tuberculoïd); 3. tuberculosis (tuberculocidin)
- tubi-, tubo- comb tube (tubiflorous, tubotorsion)
- tubuli-, tubulo- comb tubule; small tube (tubulidentate, tubulocyst)
- tude suf state of being quality of being (solitude)
- tum- base swelling (tumescent)
- tupai- base shrew (tupaiid)
- turb- base confuse; disturb (perturbation)
- turbar- base peat bog (turbarian)
- turbinato- comb top-shaped (turbinato-cylindrical)
- turbo- comb consisting of or driven by a turbine (turbogenerator)
- turd- base thrush; robin; bluebird (turdine)
- ture comb action (caricature)
- turg- base swelling (turgescence)
- Turko- comb Turkey (Turko-Russian). Also Turco- (Turcophobia)
- turp- base pollute; disgrace (turpitude)
- turri- base tower (turriferous)
- turtura- base turtle (turturing)
- tus- base strike; bruise (contusion)
- tuss- base cough (antitussive)
- twi- comb double (twi-arched)
- ty¹ suf quality of; condition of (novelty)
- ty² suf times ten; tens (sixty)
- tych-, tycho- comb chance; occasional accident (tychastics, ty-chopotamic). Also tich- (dys-tichophobia)
- tyl-, tylo- comb knot; knob; callus; cushion (tylosis, tylopod)
- tympano- comb drum tympanum (tympanoplasty)
- type 1. comb type; representative form; example (prototype); 2. stamp; printing type; print (monotype)
- typhlo- 1. comb cecum; intestinal pouch (typhlostomy); 2. blindness (typhlosis)
- typho- comb typhus; typhoid (typhogenic)
- typo- comb type (typography)
- tyro- base cheese (tyroleucin)
- tyto- base owl (Tytonidae)

U

-ubi- base place; position; location (ubiquitous)

udo- comb wet; damp (udometer)

Ugro- comb Ugrian (Ugro-Slavonic)

-ula suf diminutive (fibula)

-ular suf having the form or character of (circular)

-ule suf diminutive (pustule)

-ulent suf full of (virulent)

-ulig- base full of moisture (uliginous) ulm- base elm (ulmaceous)

ulno- comb ulna and (ulnoradial) ulo⁻¹ comb scar (ulodermatitis)

ulo⁻² comb gums (uloglossitis)

ulo⁻³ comb curly; crisp (ulotrichous)

-ulose suf characterized by; marked by (granulose)

-ulous suf characterized by; full of; tending to (populous) ultim-, ultimo- base final; last (ultimatum, ultimogeniture) ultra- 1. pre on the further side of; beyond (ultraviolet); 2. to an extreme degree; excessive (ultra-modern); 3. beyond the range of (ultramicroscopic)

ultro- comb voluntary; spontaneous (ultroneous) ulul⁻¹ base wail; howl (ululation)

ulul⁻² base owl (ululant)

-ulum suf diminutive (speculum)

-ulus suf diminutive (homunculus) umbell-, umbelli- base sunshade; parasol (umbellated, umbellifer) umbilici- base navel (umbiliciform)

umbo- base knob; nipple (umbonulate)

-umbr- base shadow (umbriphilous) umbraculi- comb sunshade (umbraculiferous)

umbrelli- base umbrella (umbrelliform)

Umbro- comb Umbrian (Umbro-Etruscan)

un- 1. pre not; opposite of; lack of (unhappy); 2. back; reversal (unlock) unci- comb hook (unciform)

-unct- base ointment; oil (unctuous)

-unda- base wave (exundant)

undec- comb eleven (undecagon)

under- 1. pre lower place; in/on/to; beneath; below (undershirt); 2. inferior rank/position; subordinate (undergraduate); 3. amount below standard; inadequate (underdevelop) undeviginti- comb nineteen (undevigintiangular)

-undul- base wave (undulations)

ungu- base ointment; grease (unguent)

-ungui-, -ungul- base claw; nail (unguiform, exungulate)

uni- comb having one only (unicellular)

-uous suf of the nature of; consisting of (strenuous)

-ura- base tail (gastruran) uranisco- comb hard palate (uraniscoplasty) urano- 1. comb hard palate (uranoschisis); 2. the heavens (uranography) uranoso- comb [chemistry] containing uranium (uranosopotassic)

-urb- base city (suburban)

urcei-, urceo- base urn; pitcher (urceiform, urceolate)

-ure 1. suf act/result of being (exposure); 2. agent of; instrument of; scope of (legislature); 3. state of being (composure) urea-, ureo- comb urine; urea (ureapoiesis, ureometer) uredo- base blight; fungus (uredo-spore) uretero- comb urethra and (ureterostomy) urethro- comb ureter and (urethroscopy)
-uretic comb urine (diuretic)
-urgy comb working of; fabricating (zymurgy) uri-, urico- base uric acid (uridrosis, uricometer)
-uria comb diseased condition of urine (glycosuria)
-urient suf desiring (parturient) urini-, urino- comb urinary tract; urine (uriniparous, urinometer) uro-¹ comb tail (uropod) uro-² comb urine (urolith)

-urs- base bear (ursine)
-urtic- base nettle (urticaceous)
-ury- base urination (strangury)
-ust- base burn (ustulation) utero- comb uterus and (uterovaginal)
-util- base useful (inutile) utrei-, utri-¹ comb leather bottle (utreiform, utriform) utri-², utric- base sac; baglike part (utriform, utricular)
-uvi-, -uvu- base grape (uviform, uvula) uvulo- comb uvula (uvulectomy)
uxori- base wife (uxoricide)

V

-vac-, -vacu- base empty; free (vacancy, vacuity) vacci- comb cow (vaccinulgence) vaccin- base blueberry (vaccinium) vaccino- comb vaccine (vaccinophobias)
-vacil- base sway (vacillation)
-vad-, -vas- base rush; go (invade, invasion)
-vag-, -vagr- base wander (vagary, vagrant) vagini-, vagino- comb sheath; vagina and (vaginipennous, vaginotomy) vago- comb vagus nerve (vagotropic) vagu- base uncertain (vagueness) vale- base farewell (valediction) valetud- base ill (valetudinary)

-valent 1. comb having a specified valence (monovalent); 2. specified number of valences (univalent); 3. having antibodies (multivalent) vall- base wall (vallation) valvi- comb valve; opening (valviform) valvulo- comb valve, esp. of the heart (valvulotomy) vapo-, vapori- comb emanation; vapor (vapography, vaporimeter)
-vapul- base beat; flog (vapulatory) vari- comb changed; diverse (invariable) varic-, varici-, varico- base enlarged vein (varication, variciform, varicocele)
-variol- base spotted; speckled (varioid) vasculo- comb blood vessel (vasculitis)

vasi- comb vessel; tube (vasifactive) vaso- 1. comb blood vessels (vasoconstrictor); 2. vas deferens (vasectomy); 3. vasomotor (vasoinhibitor)

-vast- base destroy (devastation) vati- comb prophet (vaticide)

-vect- base carry (provect) vegeti-, vegeto- comb vegetable; plant (vegetivorous, vegeto-alkaline) vel-, veli- comb cover; veil; sail (velated, veliferous)

-velar comb soft palate (labiovelar) velit- base skirmish; dispute (velitation)

vell- base wish; desire (velleity)

-vellic- base pluck; twitch; nip (vellicative) veloci- base speed (velocimeter)

-velut- base velvet (velutinous)

-ven- base come (convention)

-venat- base hunt (venatorial)

vene- comb vein (venesection)

-venefic- base sorcery; witchcraft (veneficious) veneno- comb poison (veneno-salivary)

-vener-¹ base sexual desire; Venus (venereal)

-vener-², -venerat- base worship (venerable, veneration) veni-, veno-, venoso-, -venous comb veins (venipuncture, venotomy, venoso-reticulated, intra-venous)

-vent- base wind; air (ventilation) ventri-, ventro- 1. comb abdomen; belly (ventricumbent); 2. ventral and (ventrodorsal) ventricos- comb distended abdomen (ventricoso-globose) ventriculo- comb ventricle (ventriculoatrial)

-ver- base truth (verification)

-verber- base beat (reverberate) verbi-, verbo- comb word; talk (verbification, verbotomy)

-verd- base green (verdant)

verecund- base shame; modesty (verecund)

-verge comb turn; bend (converge).

See -vers-

vergi- comb rod-like (vergiform).

See -virgul-

vermi- comb worm (vermicide)

vermin- comb vermin (verminous) vermivor- base warbler (Vermivora); worm-eating (vermivorous)

-vern- base spring (vernal) verrucci- comb wart; growth (verruciform) vers-, -verse, vert- comb turn; direct (reversal, transverse, revert).

See -verge

vertebro- comb vertebra (vertebroiliac)

vertig- base dizziness (vertiginous)

-verv- base sheep (vervecine) vesica- comb blister (vesicatory) vesico- 1. comb bladder (vesicotomy); 2. bladder and (vesicoprostatic)

vesiculi-, vesiculo- comb vesicle; bladder-like vessel (vesiculigerous, vesiculo-pustular)

-vesper- base evening (vespertilionine)

-vespertil- base bat; vampire (vespertilionine) vespi- comb wasp; hornet (vespiform) vest- comb clothing (divest) vestibulo- comb vestibule; small cavity (vestibulocochlear)

-vet- base old; experienced (veteran) vex- base bother; irritate (vexatious) vexill- comb flag; banner (vexillology) vi-, via- comb journey; way (multivious, viaduct) vibro- comb vibration; shaking (vibrograph) vice- comb deputy; assistant (vice-chancellor)

-vicesim- base twentieth (vicesimal) vicin- base neighborhood; proximity (vicinage)
-vid-, -vis- base see (video, invisible) video- comb televised (videoconference) vidu- base widowed; destitute (viduated)
-viges- base twenty (vigesimal) vigil- base watchful (vigilant) viginti- comb twenty (vigintiangular)
-vili- base worthless; base (viliorate) vill- base shaggy (villose) villos- comb covered with hairlike material (villos-scabrous). See pilosovimin- base wicker (vimineous)
-vinc- base conquer; bind (invincible) vini-, vino- comb wine; grapes (viniculture, vinometer). See viti-viol- base violet (violaceous) viper- base snake (viperoous) vir- base green (virescence) virgul- base rod; twig (virgulate)
-virid- base green (viridescent)
-viridae comb virus family (Picornaviridae)
-viril- base masculine (virility)
-virinae comb virus subfamily (Spumavirinae)
-virus comb virus genus (Flavivirus)
-vis-, -vid- base look; see (invisible)
-visaged comb having a specific kind of face (round-visaged) visc-, visco- base sticky; thick (viscous, viscometer) viscero- comb viscera (visceroptosis) visuo- comb sight (visuo-auditory)

-vit- base alive (vitality). See vivi-vitelli-, vitello- comb yolk; germinative contents (vitelligerous, vitellogenous) viti- comb vine (viticulture) vitia- base corrupt (vitiated) vitreo-, vitri-, vitro- comb glass; glassy (vitreodentin, vitriform, vitrotype) vitric- base stepfather (vitricophobia) vitriolico- comb vitriol (vitriolico-muriated)
-vitul- base calf (vituline) vituper- base blame; revile (vituperative) viverr- base civet; ferret; mongoose (viverrine) vivi- comb living; alive (viviparous) voc-, voci-, -voke comb say; speak (invocation, vociferous, revoke) vocif- base shout (vociferate)
-vol- base wish; will (involuntary) volta- comb [electricity] voltaic (volta-electric) volucr- base bird (volucrine) volupt- base pleasure (voluptuary)
-volut-, -volv- base turn (revolution, revolve) vomic- base abscess (vomicose)
-vora-, -vore-, -vorous comb feeding on; eating (Carnivora, herbivore, omnivorous)
-vorag- base chasm; whirlpool (voraginous) vortici- comb whirling motion; vortex (vorticiform) vulcan- comb volcanoes (vulcanology)
-vulg- base common; the public (divulge)

-vuln- base wound (invulnerable) vulpi- base fox (vulpicide) vult- base likeness; visage (invultuation) vultur- base vulture (vulturine) vulvi-, vulvo- 1. comb vulva (vulvi-form); 2. vulva and (vulvovaginal)

W

-ward suf having a specified direction (westward)
-ways suf in a specified direction, manner, or position (sideways)
-wheeler comb having a specified kind or number of wheels (eighteen-wheeler)
-wide comb throughout a given space (worldwide)
-wife comb traditional female role (midwife)
-wise 1. suf in a specified direction, manner, or position (sidewise);

2. characteristic manner (clockwise); 3. with regard to; in connection with (weatherwise) with- 1. comb away; back (withdraw); 2. against; from (withhold)
-witted comb having a specified kind of intelligence (quick-witted)
-woman comb female (congress-woman)
-worthy comb deserving of; fit for (newsworthy)

X

xantho- comb yellow (xanthoderma)
-xen- base host (metoxeny) xenarth- base sloth (xenarthral) xeno- comb stranger; foreigner (xenophobia) xero- comb dry (xerophyte) xest- base polish (xesturgy)

xilin- base cotton (xilinous) xiph(i)-, xipho- comb swordlike; xiphoid process; swordfish (xiphoid, xyphophyllous) xylo-, -xylous comb wood (xylograph, epixylous) xyr- base sharp-edged; razorlike (xyridaceous)

Y

-y¹ 1. suf characterized by; full of (healthy); 2. somewhat; rather (chilly); 3. tending to; inclined (drowsy); 4. suggestive of; somewhat like (wavy)

-y² 1. suf condition of; quality (jealousy); 2. action of (inquiry)
-y³ suf diminutives; terms of endearment; nicknames (Billy)

-yer suf person concerned with (lawyer) yester- comb previous time (yesterday)
-yl suf [chemistry] names of radicals (butyl)
-ylene suf [chemistry] bivalent hydrocarbon radical; possessing a double bond (piperylene)

ylo- see hylo-
yocto- comb heptillionth (yoctogram) yotta- comb heptillion (yottameter)
-ysis suf action; process (electrolysis)
yttr- comb yttrium (yttrocerite)

Z

za- pre intensifier (zalambdodont) zebr- base zebra (zebrine) zelo- base zeal; emulation (zelotypia) zemni- base mole rat (zemniphobia)
-zephyr- base west wind (zephyranth) zepto- comb hexillionth (zeptovolt) zetta- comb hexillion (zettabyte)
-zeug-, -zeux- base yoke (zeuglondont, zeuxite) zibel- base sable (zibeline) zinco- comb zinc as an element in specific double compounds (zincolysis)
-zingiber- base ginger (zingiberaceous) zirconio- comb zirconium (zirconioflouride)
-zo- base animal (zoanthropy)
-zoa, -zoon comb [zoology] name of group (protozoa, protozoon)

-zoic 1. suf relating to animal life (celozoic); 2. relating to geologic ages (Mesozoic) zon-, zoni- comb girdle; band; encircling structure (zonesthesia, zonifugal) zono- comb zone (zonochlorite) zoo- 1. comb animal; animal body (zoology); 2. zoology and (zoochemical)
-zooid comb distinct animal (Antherozoid) zoster- base girdle; band; belt (zosterops) zyga-, zygo- comb yoke; pair; articulation (zygapophysis, zygodactyl) zygomatiko-, zygomato- comb [anatomy] related to the zygoma (zygomatiko-auricular, zygomatotemporal) zym-, zymo- comb fermentation; enzymes; yeast (zymurgy, zymophoric)

PART II
Finder
(Reverse Dictionary)

A

aardvark base -edent-

abandon base relinq-

abbreviated comb brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, micro-, mini-,

parvi-, parvo-, steno-; base -cort-,
-curt-; suf -cle-, -cula-, -cule-,
-culum-, -culus-, -een-, -el-, -ella-,
-en-, -et-, -ette-, -idion-, -idium-, -ie-,
-illa-, -illo-, -isk-, -le-, -let-, -ling-,
-ock-, -ola-, -ole-, -rel-, -ula-, -ule-,
-ulum-, -ulus-, -y

abdomen comb abdomino-, celio-, celo¹-, coelo-, laparo-, ventri-, ventro-; distended~: ventricosabdominal sac comb peritoneoabet base auxil-, jut-, juv-abhorrence comb miso-, -phobe-,

-phobia-, -phobic; base -invid-,
-ira(sc)-, odi-

ability base -apt⁻²-, -habil-, -poten-,

-qual-; suf -bility-, -ful-, -ship able to comb -potent; suf -able-,

-ible-, -ile; in an ~way: -bly abnormal comb anom(o)-, poecilo-, poikilo-; ~attraction: comb

-lagnia-, -philia-, -philiac; ~condi- tion: pre para-; suf -ism-, -osis-,

-otic; ~discharge: comb -(r)rhage-,

-(r)rhagy-, -(r)rhagia; ~enlarge- ment: comb megalo-, -megaly;

~smallness: comb micro-abode comb -cole-, -colent-, -colous-, eco-, oiko-; base -aed-, -dom-,

-edi-

abolish base fin-, perd-, termin-, vast-; suf -ate⁻⁴

about pre be-, circum-, peri-; comb

amphi-; base -zon-, -cing-, -cinct-above pre ano⁻¹-, epi-, hyper-, ob-, super-, supra-, sur-, ultra-; comb

over-, poly-

abscess base apostem-, vomit-abscond base drapeto-, phygo-absence pre a-, an-, dis-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, un-; comb lipo-; base

-priv-; suf -less; ~of an opening:

comb -atresia, atreto-; ~of a part:

comb ectro-

absorb comb -sorb; base bib-absurd base fatu-, inan-, moro-,

stult-

abundance base ampl-, copi-, largabusive comb noci-, pesti-; base

-nox-, pericul-

abyss comb batho-, bathy-; base

-byss-

accept base -cap-, -cep-, -cip-,

-dyte-

accessory pre co-, para⁻²-, syn; comb

inter-

accidents base -tich-, -tych(o)- accumulation comb cumulo-; base acerv-, -sor-

accurate comb ortho-, rectiacetic comb acet-

acetyl comb aceto-, acetyl-acid comb ortho-, oxy¹-, -base

-acerb-, -oxal-

acorn comb balani-, balano-; base

-gland-

acquire base -cap-, -cep-, -cip-,

-dyte-

acid comb picro-; base -acerb-,

-mord-

acrimonious base acerb-, mord-

across pre dia-, per-, trans-; comb

transverso-

act (to) base -fac-, -fec-, -fic-; suf

-age-, -ate-, -ize

act of comb -craft; suf -ade-, -age-,

-al-, -ance-, -ancy-, -asis-, -asm-,

-ation-, -cy-, -ence-, -ency-, -ery-,

-esis-, -iasis-, -ice¹-, -ics-, -ing-, -ion-,

-ism-, -ment-, -osis-, -otic-, -sion-,

- sis, -th, -tion, -tious, -ture, -ure, -y², -ysis
- actinic rays comb actino-
- activity comb -ergasia, ergasio-, -ergic, ergo-, -ergy, -orial, -pragia, -praxia, -praxis; suf -esce, -escence, -escent, -esis; quality of~: comb -pragia
- actor base histrion-, thesp-
- actual base ver-
- acute comb oxy-¹; base acer-, -grav-, vehem-
- adamant base contum-, obstin-, pervic-, proterv-
- adder base colub-
- addicted to comb -aholic
- addition pre a-, ac-, ad-, af-, ag-, al-, an-, ap-, ar-, as-, at-, extra-, super-. See more
- adherent suf -ist, ite
- adjacent base contig-, -tang-, vicin-. See near
- adjusted base concinn-
- admirable pre bene-, eu-; base agath-, bon-, prob-
- adrenal gland comb adren(o)-
- adroit base agil-, facil-, ingen-
- adulterated base kibdelo-
- advance pre pro-; base ced-, cess-
- adversarial base hostile-, inimic-
- affected with suf -otic
- affecting comb -tropic
- affection base -storgy
- affinity comb -trope. See attracted
- affluence comb chryso-, pluto-; base chrem-, -opul-, pecun-
- afraid base pavid-, tim-, trepid-. See fear
- African comb Afro-
- after pre meta-, post-; comb hystero-, opistho-, postero-, retro-
- aftereffect suf -age, -asm, -ata, -ation, -ency, -ism, -ma, -ment, -mony, -sion, -ure
- afternoon base pomerid-
- again pre ana-, re-; base -pali(n)-
- against pre anti-, cata-, cath-, contra-, contre-, ob-, with-; comb antio-, counter-, enantio-
- agate base agati-
- age pre eo-; comb chrono-; base -temp-; suf -arian. See old
- agent suf -ant, -ate³, -ator, -ent, -ure
- agitate base agit-, mov-, trepid-, turb-
- agouti base dasyproct-
- agree(ment) pre co-; base concinn-, congru-, consil-, unanim-
- aid base -auxil-, -jut-, -juv-
- ailment pre dys-, mal-; comb noso-, path-, -pathic, patho-, -pathy; base aegr-, cachex-, -morb-, -pecca-, valetud-
- air comb aer-, aeri-, aero-, anemo-, atmo-, physo-, -pnea, pneo-, pneumato-, pneumo-, pneu-mono-; base -flat-, -vent-
- albatross base diomed-, -procellar-
- alcohol suf -ol
- aldehydes suf -al, -ole
- alike pre co-; comb equi-, homo-, iso-, pari-, tauto-
- alive comb bio-, -biosis, quick-, vivi-, -zoic, zoo-, -zoid; base -anim-, vita-
- alkaline base lixiv-
- alkaloid names suf -ia; ~with nitrogen bases: -ine
- all pre be-, cata-, cath-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-, omni-, pan-¹, panto-, pasi-, toti-
- alligator base -eusuch-
- allow base conced-, concess-
- allure base lenocin-
- almond comb amygdal(o)-
- almost comb pene-
- alone pre mono-; comb eremo-, soli-, uni-
- alteration pre meta-, trans-; comb

-plasia, -plasis, -tropic; base -mut-, -vari-, -vert-. See change altitude comb acro-, alti-, alto-, bato-, hypsi-, hypso-; base procer-aluminum comb alumino-alveolus comb alveoloalways comb ever-; base aei-, etern-, semper-amber comb succino-

ambiguous base ambig-, ancip-, dub-, parisoamend pre be-, em-, en-, meta-, trans-; comb aetio-, -blast, -blastic, -blasto-, -craft, ergo-, etio-, -facient, -fic, -fication, -gen, -genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny, -parous, -plasia, -plasis, -plasmo-, -plast, -plastic, -plasto-, -plasty, -poiesis, -poietic, -trope, -tropic, -tropism, -tropo-, -tropous, -tropy, -urgy; base camb-, -fabr-, -fec-, -mut-, -vari-, -vert-; suf -ate, en, -fy, -ize, -otic amide comb -amic²; ~radical: amido-ammonia comb ammonio-, ammonoamnesia base amensi-, amnesiamniotic sac comb amnioamong pre dia-, epi-; comb enter-, inter-amount comb quanti-; suf -age, -ful, -ling ample base ocho-²

amplify pre ad-, extra-, hyper-, super-; comb auxano-, auxo-, multi-, myria-, myrio-, out-, over-, -plasia, -pleni-, -pleo-, -pleio-, -pleon-, -plethys-, -plio-, -pluri-, -polaki-, -poly-; base ampl-, -aug-, -cresc-, -dilat-, -fold-, -pler-, -pletanal comb ano-², podic-ancestors comb patroioanchor base ancry-

anchovy base -engraul-ancient comb archaeo-, archeo-, palaeo-, paleo-, proto-; base -antiq-, prisc-, -vet-anesthetic comb -caine anew pre ana-, re-; base -palin-angelfish base pterophyllanger base chol-, -invid-, -ira-, -margy angle comb -angle, -gon, -gonal, -gonio-; base -angulanguish comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet-, luct-, trist-animal comb therio-, thero-, zoo-, -zoid; base -fer-, zo-; ~classes: suf -acea; early ~form: comb larvi-; ~group name: suf -id¹, -ida, -idae, -iformes, -zoa, -zoic, -zoon; wild~: fer-. Also see "Animals" in Part III animation comb bio-, -biosis, vita-, vivi-, zoo-, -zoic, -zoid; base -animankle (bone) comb astragalo-, tali-, taloannoy base vex-

another comb allelo-, allo-, alter-, hetero-; base -ali-² answer base apocris-. See say

ant comb myrmec-, myrmeco-, myrmic-; base -formicanteater base myrmecophagantelope base -alcelaph-, -bubal-anterior pre fore-; comb antero-, proso-antibiotic comb -mycin antibodies, having comb -valent antimony comb stibio-

antrum comb antro-

any __ of those possible comb -soever apart pre de-, des-, di-², dia-, dis-, for-, se-; comb chori-, choristo-, dialy-ape comb pithec-, -pithecus; base -sim-aperture base -pylo-. See hole

apex comb -apical, apicoapparel base habil-, hesto-, -vest-apparent comb lampro, luc-, luci-; base -clarapparition base phantas-, phasmappearance comb -phane, phanero-, -phanic, -phany, pheno-; base -schem-, -spec-, -spic-appease base -plac-

appetite comb -orexia, -sitia, sitio-, sito-; base esur-apple base mali-, pomi-

approximately suf -ish arched comb arc-, cyrto-; base -fornic-archery comb toxo-²

ardor base ard-, alacr-, -ferv-, zeloarduous pre dys-; comb -bar, bary-, mogi-; base ardu-, stren-argument comb -machy; base litig-, pugil-, -pugn-, -rix-arid comb carpho-, xero-; base arid-, -celo-, -siccarm limb: comb acromio-, brachioarmadillo base dasypod-, -tolypeutarmor comb hoplo-

armpit base -axill-

aroma comb brom(o)-, odori-, odor-, olfacto-, -osmia, osmo-, osphresio-, ozo-, ozono-around pre be-, circum-, peri-; comb ambi-, ambo-, amphi-; base -cing-, -cinct-, -zonarouse comb agito-; base -cit-arrange(ment) comb -tactic, -tactous, -taxis, taxo-, -taxy; base -pos-, -struct-; suf -ate arrest stop: comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat, statoarrow base belo-, -sagitt-

arsenic comb arseno-

art comb craft-, -ship, techno-, -techny artery comb arterio-, -venous articulation comb zyga-, zygo-

as if comb pseudo-, quasi-ash tree base -frax(in)-, -melia-²; mountain~: sorb-² ashes comb ciner-, pulver-, spodo-, tephro-; base favill-ask base -pet-, -quir-, -quis-, -rog-ass base as-, ono-

assemblage suf -ad-, -age, -ery, -hood, -ship assemble base -fabr-, -fac-, -fec-, -fic-, -structassist base -auxil-, -jut-, -juv-assistance base -(ad)jut-, -(ad)juv-, auxil-assumption comb -lemma¹ astragalus comb astragalo-, taloastringent base stypt-

at pre ad-, juxta-; ~the same time: pre co-, syn-; comb -simulatlas map: comb carto-; vertebra: comb atlanto-, atloatmosphere comb -bar, baro-

atrophy base -tabe-

attack fight: base -pugil-, -pugn-; seizure: comb -agra-, -lepsia, -lepis, -lepsy, -leptic attempt base conat-, peirattend to comb -serve attracted to comb -phile, -philia, -philiac, -philic, -philism, philo-, -philous, -trope, -tropic, -tropism, -tropous, -tropy; base -uriaugmented pre ad-, extra-, hyper-, super-; comb auxano-, auxo-, multi-, myria-, myrio-, out-, over-, -plasia, pleni-, pleo-, pleio-, pleon-, plethys-, plio-, pluri-, pol-laki-, poly-; base ampl-, -aug-, -cresc-, dilat-, -fold-, pler-, -pletauk base alcid-

aunt base -amita-, -materteraauricle comb atrio-authority comb exousia-; base imper-, magist-
authorized comb cyrio-, kyrio-automobile comb amaxo-, -mobile; base harmat-, -ocho-
avarice base avar-, avid-, cup(id)-, edac-, gulos-, pleonec-, pleonexavocado base pers-

avoid base avers-, drapeto-, fug-, phygo-
away (from) pre ab-, abs-, apo-, be-,
 de-, des-, di-², dia-, dif-, dis-, e-, ec-, ef-, ex-, for-, off-¹, se, with-;
comb ectro-
awl base subul-
ax base axin-, dolabri-, securi-, pelec-
axis comb axi-, axio-¹, axo-

B

bacillus comb bacill-, bacilli-, bacilloback pre ana-, re-, un-, with-; comb retro-; the~: comb back-, dorsi-, dorso-, nota-, noto-; base -terg-backbone comb rachi-, rachio-, rhach-, rhachio-
backward comb opiso-, retrobacteria comb bacter-, bacteri-, bacterio-, coccal-, -coccic, cocco-, coccoid-, -coccus, mycin; base -ella badger base -melin-, -mustel-bad(ly) pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-,
 -iniq-, kak-, kako-, mal-, male-, perv-, ponero-, -prav-, -turp-, vitia-
bag(like) comb angio-, asco-, bursi-, burso-, ceco-, chlamyd-, chrysali-,
 coleo-, cyst, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, pericardiaco-, pericardio-, peritoneo-, phasco- physa-, physali, physo-, -theca, theco-, typhlo-, utri-², utric-, vesico-; base
 -sacc-, -thylac-
balance comb counter-, libra-, pariso-, stasi-, -stasis, stat, stato-bald base -calv-, glabr-, -pelad-,
 -phalacr-
ball-shaped comb globi-, globo-,
 -sphere, sphero-; base -glom-. See circle

ballot base tabell-, suffragban pre anti-; base imped-, prohibbanana base musa-
band comb desmo-, syndesmo-, taeni-, teni-, -trocha, zon-, zoni-;
base -lemnisc-, liga-, zoster-; suf
 -let bang comb plessi-, -cuss-; base
 -cop-, -crot-, plang-, -puls-, -tus-,
 -vapul-, -verber-
banner comb labar-, vexillbar base clathr-, -ser-barbed base hamat-
barber base tonsor-
bare comb gymno-, nudi-, psilo-.
See bald
bark dog: base hylac-, latr-; tree:
base cortici-, phloem-
barley comb alphito-; base crith-, horde-, ptis-
barracuda base -perces-, sphyaen-barrel base dolio
barrier comb herco-, septo-, pari-eto-, -phragma, phragmo-; base cancell-, claustr-, -mur-base foundation: comb basi-, basio-, baso-, fund-; base -radic-; evil:
pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, iniq-, kak(o)-, mal(e)-, ponero-; base
 -prav-, sceler-, turp-

basic base prim-, -rud-; [chemistry] pre sub-basin (shaped) comb cylico-, kylixo-, lecano-, pelvi-basket base calath-, -corb-bat base desmodont-, megacheirop-ter-, microcheirop-ter-, noctilion-, -pterop-, -vespertilbath(ing) comb balneo-; base -ablut-, -lav-battle comb macho-, -machy; base -bell-, -pugil-, -pugnbeach base littor-, thino-; See sand beak comb coraco-, rhampho-, rhyncho-, rostrato-, rostri-, rostro-, -rrhyncha; base -aquil-. See nose beam base trab-

bean base cyam-, fab-, phaseol-bear animal: comb arcto-; base -urs-; carry: comb -fer-, -ferous, -gerous, -parous, -pher, -phore, -phorous; base -port-, -vect-beard comb pogon(o)-; base -barbabearing comb -fer-, -ferous, -gerous, -parous, -pher, phor-, -phore, -phorous; base -port-beast comb -there, therio-, thero-; base fer-beat comb -cuss-, plessi-, rhabdo-; base -cop-, -crot-, fustig-, plang-, puls-, quass-, vapul-, -verberbeautiful comb calli-, callo-; base kal-, pulchr-beaver base -castor-

become suf -ate¹, -en, -fy; ~like: -ize becoming suf -esce-, -escence, -escent bed base clin-

bee comb api(o)-, melisso-; base -bomb-; ~hive: -alve-

beech base faga-

beer base cervis-

beetle base coleopter-, scarabbefore pre ante-, fore-, ob-, pre-, pro-²; comb antero-, protero-, proto-, retro-; base prior-beggar comb ptocho-; base mendicbegin(ning) comb -phyletic, spermato-; base incip-, -init-; suf -esce-, -escence, -escent. See origin behavior comb etho-; base hexibehind pre meta-, post-; comb after-, back-, hind-, opistho, postero, retro-; base terg-being comb onto-; base -esse-belch base -ruct-

belief comb -ousia; base -cred-, -fid-¹; suf -ism believer suf -ist, -ite believing in suf -an bell base campan-, -tintinnbelligerence base chol-, -invid-, -ira-, -margy bellow base -mug-

belly comb abdomino-, celio-, celo-, coelo-, laparo-, ventri-, ventro-; base -alv-. See stomach belonging to suf -acean-, -aceous, -ad-, al³, -an³, -ar, -arious, -ary, -atic, -ative, -atory, -eae, -ean, -eous, -ery, -etic, -ial, -ian, -ic, -id¹, -il, -ile, -ina, -inae, -ine, -ing, -ious, -istic, -ite, -itic, -itious, -itive, -ive, -oidea, -ory, -otic, -tious, -tive, -ular. See characteristic of below pre hypo-, infra-, sub-, subter-; comb infero-, under-bend, bent comb ancylo-, ankylo-, -campsis, campto-, campylo-, -clinal, -clinate, -cline, -clinic, clino-, -clinous, -clisis, curvi, cyrto-, -flect, flex-, flexuouso-, lechrio-, loxo-, recurvo-, repando-, scolio-, -tort-, -verge; base -clit-, cliv- -sinu-benefit base -auxil-, -jut-, -juvbenzine pre meta-; comb benzo-, phen-bereavement comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet-, luct-, trist-berry comb baccato-, bacci-, cocci-; base -acinbeside pre a-, ac-, ad-, af-, ag-, al-, an-, ap-, ar-, as-, at-, by-, epi-, para-², peri-; comb juxta-, citra-, pene-, proximo-besides pre extra-

best comb aristo-; base -opt-² bestow base -don-

better comb melior-, out-between pre dia-, epi-; comb enter-, inter-beyond pre ex-, extra-, meta-, para-², preter-, super-, supra-, sur-, ultra-; comb over-

Bible comb biblio-

big base grand-, magn-. See large bile comb bili-, chole-, cholo-, gall-billion comb giga-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III

billionth comb nanno-, nanobind comb sphingo-, -strain, -strict, syndesmo-; base liga-, -merinth-, nex-, -string-, -vinc-bipartite comb diphy-. See two birch base betul-

bird comb orneo-, orni-, ornitho-, orno-; base -avi-, grall-, musci-cap-, oscin-, passer-, pendulin-, volucrbirth comb -genic, -natal, -para-, -tocia-, -toky; base geneth-, -nasc-, -partur-; ~day: geneth-birthmark comb nevi-, nevobishop base episcop-

biting comb aceto-, keto-, oxal-, oxy-; base -acid-, -mord-

bitter comb picro-; base -acerb-, asper-, -mord-

bittern base botaur-, ixobrych black comb atro-, melano-, piceo; base -ebon-, fulig-, -nigr-. Also see "Colors" in Part III

black widow base latroductblackbird base -icter-, merul-bladder comb asco-, burs-, bursi-, burso-, ceco-, cyst-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, physa-, physali-, physo-, typhlo-, utri-, utric-, vesico-, vesiculi-, vesiculo-; base -sacc-, -thylac-blame base culp-, reprehend-, -vituper-blanket base -lodic-

blend pre co-; comb conjugato-, -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-, junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-, -soc-; suf -ate-, -ize blight comb fungi-, -mycete, myceto-, -mycin, myco-, uredoblind comb caeco-, ceco-, typhlo-; base -lusc-blink base -conniv-, -nict-blister comb phlyc-, vesica-, vesico-, vesiculo-; base pustul-blood comb haema-, haemo-, hema-, hemato-, hemo-, sangui-, sanguineo-, sanguino-; base cruent-, cruor-; ~clot: thrombo-; ~condition or disease: -aemia, cythemia, -emia; ~fluid: lympho-; ~vessels: hemangio-, vasculo-, vaso-blooming comb thalero-; base flor-, vigblow wind: base anemo-, flat-, vent-; punch: comb plessi-; base cop-, -crot-, -cuss-, -plang-, puls-, -tus-, vapul-, -verberblue comb cyano-, glauco-; base adular-, aerug-, -azur-, -caes-, -cerul-, -lazul-, -livid-, -pavon-. Also see "Colors" in Part III blueberry base vaccin-bluebird base sial-², -turdblunder base culp-, delinq-, laps-, pecc-, sphal-blunt comb obtusi-; base hebetboar base suid-

boasting base kompo-, thrasboat (-shaped) comb navi-, scapho-, scapulo-; base -cymb-bobolink base -icterbody comb physico-, physi-, physio-, somato-, -some!; base
 -corp-; Lead~: comb necro-; base
 -cadav-; ~defect: base -hamart-; ~odor: brom-, ozostom-; ~organ
part: suf -ite
bog base telmat; peat~: base turbarboil (up) base aestu-, -coct-, ferv-bold base audac-, feroc-bolt base gomph-, pessul-, -ser-bond comb desmo-, ligamenti-, lig-amento-, syndesmo-; base -caten-,
 -vinc-; double~: suf -ylene bone comb ossi-, osseo-, osteo-; forearm~: ulno-; ~joining hip- bones: sacro-; ~membrane: pe-riosteo-; frontal~: fronto-; bony process: comb stylo-
book comb biblio-; base -libr-; ~size: suf -mo-; ~worm: tine-border base fimbr-, -marg-, propinq-, prox-, termin-. See near
born comb -genic-, -natal-, -para-,
 -tocia-, -toky-; base geneth-, -nasc-, partur-; ~in: suf -an boron comb boro-
both comb ambi-, ambo-; ~sides:
 amphi-, amphi-, bi-bother base vex-
bottle base ampull-, lagen-;
leather~: utrei-, utri-bottom pre sub-; comb basi-, fund-;
base -radic-
boundary comb orismo-; base fin-, termin-
bowl comb crater-, cylico-, kylixo-box comb pyx-; ~tree: base buxboy base puer-

bragging base kompo-, thrasbrain comb cephal-, cerebri-, cerebro-, encephalo-
brambles comb bato-²
bran base furfur-, pityrbranch comb clado-, ramibrass comb chalc-; base -aeniobrave base audac-, ferocbrazen base contum-, impud-, procac-
bread base arto-, pan-² breakfast base -jent-
break(ing) comb -clasia-, -clasis,
 -clastic-, -rhegma-, -(r)rhexis; base agmat-, -fract-, -frag-, -frang-,
 -rupt-
breast comb mammi-, mammo-, mastia-, -masto-, mazo-², stetho-; base pect-; ~bone: sterno-. See nipple
breath comb -hale-, -pnea, pneo-, pneumato-, pneumo-, pneu-
 mono-, pneusio-, pulmo-, spiro-!;
base afflat-; bad~: -halit-, ozos-tom-
breed base thremm-
brick base -later-, plinthibridge base gephyr-, pont-brief comb brachio-, brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, chamae-, hekisto-,
 micro-, mini-, parvi-, parvo-, steno-, tapino-; base -cort-, -curt-,
 exig-; suf cle-, -cula-, -cule-, -een-,
 -el-, -ella-, -en-, -et-, -ette-, -idion-,
 -idium-, -ie-, -illa-, -illo-, -isk-, -kin-,
 -le-, -let-, -ling-, -ock-, -ola-, -ole-,
 -rel-, -ula-, -ule-, -ulum-, -ulus-, -y bright comb helio-; base -clar-,
 -fulg-, -gano-, -luc-, -lumin-, nitid-
brine base muri-
bring base -duc-, -fer-, -port-. See carry
bring forth comb maieusi-, -parous;
base partur-

brisk comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy-; base alacr-, celer-, festin-, veloc-bristle comb chaeti-, chaeto-, seti-broad comb eury-, lati-, platybromine comb bromo-broom comb scop-, scopi-brothel base lupan-
brother comb frater-, fratri-; base
 -adelph-
brown comb fusco-, phaeo-; base aen-, brun-, castan-, -fulv-,
 -gland-, lur-, mustel-, -spad-,
 -testac-. Also see "Colors" in Part III
bruise base -tus-
brush base muscar-
bubble comb pego-, physali-; base bullat-
buckthorn base -rhamn-bud base gemm-¹
buffalo base bubal-
buffoon comb balatrobug comb cemic-, core-², entomo-, insecti-, insecto-
build base -fabr-, -fac-, -fec-, -fic-,
 -struct-
bulb(ous) comb bulbo-; base cep-² bulge comb -cele-, edema, ganglio-, phlogo-, phym-, -phyma, physa-, physo-, strum(i)-; base aug-, cresc-, physc-, strum-, -tum-,
 -turg-; suf -itis
bull comb tauri-, tauro-

bullfinch base pyrrhul-bull-headed base contum-, obstin-, pervic-, proterv-
bully base -procac-
bundle comb fasciculato-, fascio-;
base phacell-, -sarcinbunting base emberiz-, pyrrhulburden(ed) comb hypegia-, hypengy-, -ridden; base -oner-, par-alip-
burdensome pre dys-; comb -bar, bary-, mogi-; base ardu-, stren-
burning comb causto-, igni- pyro-; base ard-¹, ars-, cauter-, celo-², combust-, crem-, phlog-, -ust-bursting base -rrhexis-, -rupt-. See breaking
bury base -hum-
burying place comb kil(1)-. See tomb
business base -negotbutcher base lania-
butter comb butyro-butterfly base lepidopter-, papilbuttocks comb -pygia, pygo-; base nati-, podic-
buzzard comb buteo-; base cathartbuy comb onio-; base -empt-,
 -merc-, nundin-
by pre ad-, by-, epi-, peri-; comb juxta-; base -prox-; ~means of:
pre syn-

C

cabbage base brassic-calcium comb calc-, calci-calf base animal: vitul-; leg: suracall base appell-, -claim-, -clam-, - dict-, -nom-, -voc-; ~upon: base - prec-
calm base placid-, sedat-, tranquilcamel comb cameli-

camp base castr-
cancel base oblit-
cancer base carcin(o)-
cap base -pile-
capable of being suf -able, -ibility, - ible, -ibly, -ile
capacious base ocho-² capsule comb capsuli-, capsulocarbohydrate suf -ose¹ carbon comb carbo-

carbon dioxide comb -capnia, capno-
carbuncle comb anthraco-card comb carto-, chartocardinal bird: base pyrrhulcareful base attent-, caut-, diligencaries comb cario-
carp base cyprin-
carry(ing) comb -fer-, -ferous, -ger-ous, -parous, -pher, -phore,
 -phorous; base -port-, -vectcartilage comb chondr-, chondrio-, chondro-, xiphi-; eyelid~: tarsocarve comb -glyph, glypto-case comb angio-, chlamyd-, coleo-, meningo-, -theca, theci-, theco-cash comb -penny; base chremat-,
 -numm-, -pecun-, quaest-cashew base anacard-
cassowary base casuarcastor oil base ricinolcat comb aeluro-, ailuro-, gato-; base -fel-, gale-³
catch comb -tain; base -cap(t)-,
 -cathex-, -ger-, -hapt-, -prehend, prehens-, rap-, rep-, -tencaterpillar base bruch-, -camp-², eruc-
catfish base silur-
catkin base ament-², -juli-cauliflower base brassiccause, causing pre be-, em-, en-², meta-, trans-; comb aetio-, -blast,
 -blastic, blasto-, -craft, ergo-, etio-, -facient, -fic, -fication, -gen,
 -genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny,
 -parous, -plasia, -plasis, plasm-,
 -plast, -plastic, plasto-, -plasty,
 -poesis, -poietic, -trope, -tropic,
 -tropism, tropo-, -tropous, -tropy,
 -urgy; base -fabr-, -fec-, -mut-,
 -vert-; suf -ate, -en, -fy, -ize, -otic caused by suf -atory, -ic, -ing caustic comb cauter-; acrimonious base acerb-, mord-

cave comb speleo-, troglo-; base spelunc-
cavity comb alveolo-, antro-, atrio-,
 -coele, coelo-, parieto-, sino-, sinu-, syringo-, ventriculo-, vesiculo-, vestibulo-; base lacun-.
See hollow
cease comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat; base
 fin-, termin-
cecum comb ceco-, typhlo-cedar base cedr-
celebration comb -fest, -mas; suf -ia celestial activity comb astrocell comb alveolo-, celli-, celluli-, cellulo-, -cyte, -cythemia, cyto-,
 -gonium, kyto-, -plasm, plasmcellulose comb cello-celom comb celo-¹ Celt comb Celto-
cement comb glea-
cemetery base coemet, coimetcenter comb centr-, centri-, -centric, centro-
centipede base chilopod-, scolopendri-
cereal base frument-
cervical comb cervico-chaff base palea-
chain base caten-, vincchair base cathedr-, sedilchalk base cimol-, -cret-, gypso-; [geology] comb cretaceochamber comb alveolo-, atrio-, antro-, -coele, coelo-, parieto-, sino-, sinu-, sinuso-, syringo-,
 ventriculo-, vesiculo-, vestibulo-.
See hollow
chamois base rupicapchance comb clero-, faust-, tycho-change pre be-, em-, en-, meta-, trans-; comb aetio-, -blast, -blas-
 tic, blasto-, -craft, ergo-, etio-,
 -facient, -fic, -fication, -gen,

- genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny,
 -parous, -plasia, -plasis, plasm-,
 -plast, -plastic, plasto-, -plasty,
 -poiesis, -poietic, -trope, -tropic,
 -tropism, tropo-, -tropous, -trophy,
 -urgy; base camb-, -fabr-, -fec-,
 -mut-, -vari-, -vert-; suf -ate, en,
 -fy, -ize, -otic
- channel comb aulo-, follic-, meato-, poro-, salpingo-, siphono-, soleno-, syringo-, tubi-, tubo-, tubulo-, vasi-; base strig-
- character comb etho-, -hood, quali-;
suf -ity
- characteristic of suf -an³, -ar, -ary,
 -ate², -ean, -en, -esque, -ian, -ic,
 -ical, -il, -ile, -ine, -ish, -istic,
 -like, -ly, -ous, -ular, -ulent,
 -ulose, -y. See belonging to
- characterized by suf -acean,
 -aceous, -acious, -aire, -al, -ate,
 -ed², -eous, -ey, -ful, -gerous, -ial,
 -ine, -ious, -itious, -oid, -orious,
 -ory, -ose, -osity, -ous, -some,
 -ular, -ulent, -ulose, -ulous, -
 wise, -y¹
- chariot base harmat-
- chasm base vorag-
- chastisement comb mastigo-, rhabdo-; base castig-, peno-,
 poine-, -pun-
- chatter base garrul-. See talk
- cheat base apat-, dolero-, ludif-
- checked comb brady-; base -cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tard-. See in- hibit
- cheek comb bucco-, -genia, genio-, geny-, mel(o)-², -paria, zygomatico-, zygomato-
- cheerful comb chero-; base beati-, felic-, jubil-, macar-
- cheese comb tyro-; suf case-
- chemicals comb chemo-
- cherry base -ceras-
- chest comb sterno-, stetho-, thoracico-, thoraco-; base
 pector-
- chestnut base aescul-, -castan-
- chew base manduc-, -mastic-, trog-
- chickadee base par-²
- chicken base gallin-, pull-. See cock
- chicory base cichor-
- chief comb arch-¹, archi-, proto-;
base -prim-, -princip-
- child comb paed-², pedi-, pedo-², proli-, tecno-; base -fil-², -puer-,
 tek-
- childbirth comb lochio-, maieusi-,
 -para-, -parous, -tocia, toco-, toko-, -toky; base -partur-
- chimpanzee base sim-
- chin comb -genia, genio-, geny-, mento-
- Chinese comb Chino-, Sino-
- chisel comb scalpri-
- chlorine comb chloro-, perchloro-
- choice base -opt-¹, -vol-
- choke base -pnig-
- chore comb arti-, -craft, -ergasia, ergasio-, -ergics, ergo-, -ergy, organo-, -urgy; base -labor-, lucubr-, oper-¹, -opus-, pono-²
- chromatin comb chromato-
- chromium comb -chrome
- chromosomes: of a specified multiple of __ comb -ploid
- church comb ecclesiastico-, kil(l)-
- chyle base chyl-
- cilia comb cilii-, cilio-
- circle comb ano-, annul-, crico-, cyclo-, disco-, globi-, globo-,
 glom-, gyro-, orbito-, -sphere,
 sphero-, stilli-, zon-, zoni-;
base -anu-, -cing-, -cinct-,
 -circin-, -circul-, -coron-,
 -glomer-, -numm-, -orb-, -rot-,
 -troch-
- citizen (of) base -civ-; suf -an,
 -ian, -ite
- citric base citro-

- city comb -burg(h), -polis, -ton, -ville; base -civ-, -urb-
- civet base viverr-
- clamor base crepit-, frem-, ligyr-, strep(i)-, strid-, stridul-. See sound
- clan base -phrat-
- clarion base -litu-
- class names suf -ia
- clatter base -strepit-
- clavicle comb cleido-, clido-
- claw comb -chela, cheli-, helo-, onycho-, -onychial; base -ungui-, ungu-
- clay comb argillaceo-, argillo-, limo⁻¹, pelo-
- cleanse comb balneo-; base ablut-, cathar-, -lav-, -mund⁻², -purg-
- clear comb lampro-, luc-, luci-; base -clar-
- cleaver base -dolabr-
- cleft comb dicho-, -fid², fissi-, schisto-, schizo-, sulcato-, -tomy; base fatisc-, -par-, rim-. See groove
- clever base ingen-
- cliff base scopul-
- climb base -ascend-, ascens-, -scal-, -scand-, -scans-
- cloak base chlamyd-
- clockwise comb dextr(o)-
- clod base gleb-
- close by pre a-, ac-, ad-, af-, ag-, al-, an-, ap-, ar-, as-, at-, by-, cis-, epi-, para-, peri-; comb juxta-, citra-, pene-, proximo-
- closed, closure comb -atresia, atreto-, claustro-, cleido-, -cleisis, cleisto-, stego-; base -clithr-, -clud-, -clus-
- clot comb thrombo-; base grum-
- clothing base habil-, hesto-, -vest-
- cloud comb fracto-, nephelo-, nepho-, nimbo-; base homichlo-, -nebul-, -nubi-; rounded~: mam-mato-
- club base clavi-, rhopal-
- clumps comb cespitoso-; base -glob-. See tufts
- cluster base corymbi-, glom-, racem-
- clutch comb -tain; base -cap(t)-, -cathex-, -ger-, -hapt-, -prehend, prehens-, rap-, rep-, -ten-
- coal comb anthraco-; base -carb-
- coast shore: base littor-, maritim-
- cobweb base arachn-
- coccus comb -coccal
- coccyx comb coccy-, coccygo-
- cock base alector-, alectry-
- cockroach base blatt⁻¹
- coercion comb dyna-, dynamo-, mega-, megallo-, -megaly, -sthenia, stheno-; base -forc-, -fort-, -poten-, robor-
- coil comb cirri-, cochlio-, gyro-, helico-, spiro⁻², strepto-; base stromb-. See curl
- coin base numisma-, -numm-
- coincide base concinn-, congru-, unan-
- coition comb -lagnia; base -coit-
- cold comb cheima-, crymo-, cryo-, frigo-, gelo-, kryo-, pago-, psychro-, rhigo-; base alg-, glac-
- collar base coll⁻¹
- collarbone base clavi⁻¹
- collection of suf -ad-, -age-, -ery, -hood, -ship
- collodion comb collodio-
- colon comb coli⁻¹, colo-
- color comb chromato-, -chrome, chromo-; base -pigm-, -tinct-, -ting-; colored: comb -chroous; two-colored: comb dichro-. Also see "Colors" in Part III
- colorless comb leuco-, leuko-
- column base stylo⁻²; small~: col-umelli-comb base cteno-; ~teeth: pecti-nato-

combat comb macho-, -machy, pugn-; base -bell-, pugilcombine pre co-; comb conjugato-,

-ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-², junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-,
-soc-; suf -ate-, -ize

combustible comb ard-, ars-

come base -ven(t)- comestibles comb bromato-,

-brotic, manduc-, opso-, -phage,
phago-, -phagous, -phagy, -sitia,
sitio-, sito-, -troph, -trophic,
tropho-, -trophy, -vora, -vore,
-vorous; base -alim-, -cib-, escul-,
-gust-, -nutr-; partially digested~: chymocommand base -imper-, juss-,

-mand-

commence base inaug-, incip-, init-commercial names suf -co-, -ine common comb caeno-¹, ceno-², coeno-, pan-¹; base -commun-,

-vulg-; ~people: comb demo-;
base -pleb-, -popul-

commotion base -agit-, -tumult-,
-turb-

community base synœc-

compact dense: comb dasy-, pycno-, pykno-; base -crass-, -press-,
-spiss-; small: comb brachio-,
brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, chamae-, hekisto-, micro-, mini-,
nano-, parvi-, parvo-, -steno-;
base cort-, curt-; suf -cle-, -cula,
-cule, -culum, -culus, -een, -el,
-ella, -en, -et, -ette, -idion,
-idium, -ie, -illa, -illo, -isk, -kin,
-le, -let, -ling, -ock, -ola, -ole,
-rel, -ula, -ule, -ulum, -ulus, -y comparable pre para-, quasi-; comb homeo-, omœo, homio-, homolo-, iso-, -phane, -phanic; base simil-; suf -acean, -aceous, -al,

-an, -ar, -ary, -ean, -en, -eous,
-esque, -ful, -ic, -il, -ile, -ine,
-ing, -ish, -itious, -ize, -like, -ode,
-oid, -ose, -osity, -some, -tious,
-ular, -y

compel See urge competence base quali-

competitive event comb -athlon,
-athon, -off²

complain base -quer-, -querul-

complement of pre co-

complementary comb counter-complete(ly) pre be-, cata-, cath-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-,

omni-, pan-, panto-, stone-, toti-

compound names comb tetrazo-; suf -ide, -ole¹

comprehension comb -gnomy,
-gnosia, -gnosis, -gnostic, gnoto-, ideo-, -noia, -nomy, -phrenic,
phrenico-, phreno-, psycho-,
-sophy; base -cogit-, -cogn-, epis-
tem-, ment(a)-, -noe-, -put-,
ratio-, -sci-

computer comb cyber-

concave comb concavo-concealed pre sub-; comb calypto-, crypto-; base occult-

concept comb -gnomy, -gnosia,
-gnosis, -gnostic, gnoto-, ideo-,
-noia, -nomy, phreno-, psycho-,
-sophy; base -cogit-, -cogn-, epis-
tem-, -noe-, -put-, ratio-, -sci-

concise comb brachio-, brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, chamae-, hekisto-,
micro-, mini-, parvi-, parvo-,
steno-, tapino-; base -cort-, -curt-,
exig-; suf -cle, -cula, -cule,
-culum, -culus, -een, -el, -ella,
-en, -et, -ette, -idion, -idium, -ie,
-illa, -illo, -isk, -kin, -le, -let,
-ling, -ock, ola, -ole, -rel, -ula,
-ule, ulum, -ulus, -y

conclude base -fin-, termincondensed comb brachio-,

brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-,
chamae-, hekisto-, micro-, mini-,
parvi-, parvo-, steno-, tapino-;
base -cort-, -curt-, exig-; suf -cle,
-cula, -cule-, culum, -culus, -een,
-el, -ella, -en, -et, -ette, -idion,
-idium, -ie, -illa, -illo, -isk, -le,
-let, -ling, -ock, -ola, -ole, -rel,
-ula, -ule, -ulum, -ulus, -y condition suf -able, -acity, -acy,

-age, -ance, -ancy, -ant, -asis,
-asm, -ate, -atile, -ation, -cy,
-dom, -eity, -ence, -ency, -ent,
-ery, -esis, -ful, -hood, -iasis,
-ice¹, -ility, -ion, -ise, -ism, -ity,
-ling³, -ma, -ment, -ness, -or³,
-osis, -otic, -red, -ship, -sion, -sis,
-th, -tion, -tude, -ture, -ty¹, -ure,
-y²

conduct behavior: comb etho-; base hexi-; lead: comb -arch, -duce, duc(t)-, magist-; base hegemon-,
-reg-

cone comb coni-², conico-, cono-, conoido-; pine~: strobilconfer base -don-

configuration comb topo-confine comb sphingo-, -strain,

-strict, syndesmo-; base -liga-,
-merinth-, -string-, -vinc-

conflict comb macho-, -machy; base
-bell-, -pugil-, -pugnconfusion comb atax-, ataxi-,

-ataxia, ataxio-, ataxo-; base
misc-, -turb-

connected (with) base hirmo-, nex-;
suf -ar², -arious, -ary, -id¹, -wise; ~twins: comb -pagia, -pagus conquer base vict-, -vinc-consecrated comb hagio-, hiero-; base -sacr-, -sanct-

consequence comb ergo-, -ergic,
-ergy; suf -age, -asm, -ata, -ation,
-ency, -ism, -ma, -ment, -mony,
-sion, -ure

consistent comb even-constitution comb -ousia, -ousian;

base quid-

constrained comb -bound constriction comb lepto-, stegno-, steno-; base -stal-, -strict-. See tightening

construction comb -craft, ergo-,
-fic, -urgy; base -fabr-, -fac-, -fic-.
See make

contagious base -tapin-

container comb angio-, asco-, bursi-, burso-, ceco-, chlamyd-, chrysali-,
cisto-, coleo-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, meningo-, pericardiac-,
pericardio-, peritoneo-, phasco-,
physa-, physali-, physo-, -theca,
theci-, theco-, typhlo-, utri-,
utric, vesico-; base -sacc-, -thylac-

containing comb -filled, pleni-, pleo-, pluri-; base -pler-, -plet-;
suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -ful, -lent,
-ose², -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y contempt base fastid-

contentment comb chero-; base beati-, felic-, jubil-, macar-contest comb -athlon, -athon, macho-, -machy, -off; base agoncontinent base -epeiro-continual base assid-, contin-, incess-, perpet-

contorted comb contorto-, gyro-, helico-, pleco-, plecto-, spiro-, strepho-, strepsi-, strepto-; base
-strob-, -stromb-, -stroph-, -tors-,
-tort-

contraction comb -chorea, choreo-,
-clonic, -clonus, -esmus, -ismus,
spasmo-; base -stal-, vellic-

contrary pre anti-, cata-, contra-, contre-, cross-, dis-, hetero-, ob-, un-, with-; comb counter-, enantio-, oppositi-

control base magist-, maha-; loss of~: comb -crasia

controversy base eris-

converge comb -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-, junct-; base -aps-, -apt-, -greg-, -soc-; suf -ate, -ize conversation comb -claim, logo-, -logue, -lalia, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy, -logy, -phone, hono-, -phony, verbi-, verbo-, voc-, voci-, -voke; base -clam-, -dict-, -loc(u)-, -loqu-, -orat-, rhetconvex comb convexo-, gibbosocook base -coct-, mageir-, magircoot base fulic-

copious base ampl-, copi-, largi-copper comb chalco-, cupreo-, cupri-, cupro-, cuproso-; base auricalc-. Also see "Colors" in Part III copy base -mim-

coracoid bone comb coraco-

coral comb coralli-

cord comb -chorda, chord-, cordo-, funi-, tendo-; base cord-, resticore comb caryo-, karyo-, nucleocork comb phello-; base suber-cormorant base phalacrocorac-corn base frument-, grani-; ear of~: spici-cornea comb corneo-, kerato-corpse comb necro-; base -cadav-corpulent base obes-, pingucorrect(ion) comb ortho-; base castig-, emend-corruption comb lysi-, -lysis, lyso-, -lyte, -lytic, -lyze, phthino-, phthio-, -phthisis, phthysio-, -phthysis, putri-, pyo-, pytho-, sapro-, septi-, septo-, septico-; base phthor-, vitia-cortex comb cortico-, pallio-

cost of suf -age

costly base dapa-

cotton base xilin-

cough base -tuss-

count base calcul-, -comput-, -numcounterclockwise comb laevo-, levo-counterfeit comb pseudocountless comb myrio-; base innumcountry base -rur-, -rustic-; of a~: suf -ese, -ian; ~names: comb -land; suf -ia coupled comb conjugatocourtesan comb cypriano-, hetaero-, porno-; base -meretric-, scort-;

brothel: lupan-

courtesy base -comit-cousin base -sobrin-

covenant base fed-

cover(ed) with pre be-; comb calypto-, stegano-, stegocovering comb lamelli-, lepido-, squamo-, tecti-, tegu-, -theca, theco-, theci-, veli-; base involver-, loric-, oper-², -scut-, strag-. See skin covert pre sub-; comb crypto-; base clandest-, furt-covetousness base avar-, cup(id)-, pleonec-, pleonexcow base bou-, bov-, bu-, -vacccowardly base pav-, timid-, trepcowl base cuculli-

crab base cancr-; hermit~: pagur-;

sea~: gammar-

crack comb dicho-, -fid, fissi-, schisto-, schizo-, sulcato-, -tomy;

base fatisc-, -par-, rim-craft base techn-. See make crane comb alector-, grallator-, grui-crater base crateri-

craving comb eroto-, -lagnia, -mania, -orexia; base -appet-, conat-, -cup-, -libid-, -opt-, vell-; suf -urient crazy comb lyss-, -mania; base ament-, dement-creak base -crep-, -crepit-, strid-, stridulcreased base -rug-

create/creation pre be-, em-, en-, meta-, trans-; comb aetio-, -blast, -blastic, blasto-, -craft, ergo-, etio-, -facient, -fic, -fication, -gen, -genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny, -parous, -plasia, -plasis, plasm-, -plast, plastic, plasto-, -plasty, -poiesis, -poietic, -trope, -tropic, -tropism, tropo-, -tropous, -tropy, -urgy; base -fabr-, -fec-, -mut-, -vert-; suf -ate, -en, -fy, -ize, -otic creep base -rept-
crescent base crescenti-, lunul-, menisccrest comb lopho-; base crist-cricket base gryll-, locust-crime pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, enisso-, enosio-, kak-, kako-, mal-, male-, ponero-; base culp-, delict-, facin-, flagit-, hamart-, iniq-, nefar-, pecca-, perdit-, -prav-, sceler-, scelest-, turp-crisp comb ulo-³
critical comb enisso-; base criticocrocodile base crocodil-, -gavialcrooked comb ancylo-, ankylo-, -campsis, campto-, campylo-, -clinal, -clinate, -cline, -clinic, clino-, -clinous, -clisis, curvi-, cyrto-, -flect, flex-, flexuoso-, lechrío-, loxo-, recurvo-, repando-, scolio-, -tort, -verge; base -clit-, -cliv-, sinu-cross comb cruci-, staurocrosswise comb transverso-crow comb coraci-, coraco-; base corvin-crowd comb ochlo-
crown base corolli-, -coroncruel base agrio-
crushing comb stip-², tribo-, -tripsy cry tears: comb dacryo-, fleb-, flet, lachrim(o)-, lachrym(o)-, -plor-;

call out: comb -claim; base -clam-, -plorcrystal comb crystallocube comb cubi-, cubo-; base tessercuckoo base cucul-
cucumber base cucumicudgel base fustig-culpability base culp-, delinq-, laps-, -pecca-, sphalcultivation comb -ponic culture comb ethnocumulus comb cumulo-
cunning base daedal-
cup (-shaped) comb calath-, calyc-, cotyle-, cotyli-, cotylo-, cupuli-, cyathi-, cyatho-, scyphi-, scypho-; base crin-, poculcuring comb -iiatrics, -iatr(o)-, -iatry, medico-; base cur-, sancurl, curly comb cirrhi-, cirrho-, cirri-, cirro-, ulo-³; base cincinn-, -crisp-. See coil current electrical: comb rheo-; water: comb fluvio-; base -potam-, rheum-, -rip-; contemporary: See new curse base anathemcurved comb ancylo-, ankylo-, -campsis, campto-, campylo-, -clinal, -clinate, -cline, -clinic, clino-, -clinous, -clisis, curvi-, cyrto-, -flect, flex-, flexuoso-, lechrío-, loxo-, recurvo-, repando-, scolio-, -tort, -verge; base -clit-, -cliv-, sinucushion base pulvin-, tylocustom base mor-¹, nomo-, -suetcustomer base emptcut comb -cide, cis-², -cise, -ectomy, inciso-, -sect, temno-, -tmesis, -tome, tomo-, -tomous, -tomy; base sec-cutting surgical: comb -ectomy, -tome, -tomy cuttlefish base -teuth-, sepi(a)- cyanogen comb cyanocycle comb cyclo-; base circul-, orb-cylinder comb cylindrocypress base cupresscyst base sacc-

D

dagger base sica-
damaging comb noci-, pesti-; base -noxdamp comb hydro-, hygro-, udo-; base humect-, uligdance comb choreo-; base orchest-, -salta-, tripuddandruff base furfur-, porrigdanger base pericul-Danish comb Dano-
dark(ness) comb ambly-, melan(o)-, nycto-, scoto-; base -achlu-, amaur-, fusc-, lyg-, obscur-, tenebrdart base tel-
dative comb dativo-
daughter comb fili-
daughter-in-law base -nur(us)- dawn base -auror-, eos(o)-, luc-day base diurn-, ephem-, hemer-, hodiern-, journ-, quotiddaylight base -phengdeaf base coph-, -surd-death comb mort(i)-, necro-, sapro-, thanato-; base exanim-, nerter-, obit-; deadly: phthartdebility comb astheno-, -atrophia, lepto-, -plegia, -plegy; base -debil-, dimin-, enerv-, flacc-, labedecaying comb cario-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-, -lyte, phthino-, phthisio-, -phthisis, putre-, putri-, pytho-, sapro-, septi-, septico-, septo-; base marcesc-, phthor-, tabe-; suf -ase deceptive base apat-, dolero-, ludifdecide base crit⁻¹

decks comb -decker
decline comb -atrophia; base dimindecomposed comb septi-², septo-¹ decomposing enzyme suf -ase decrease base decresc-, dimin-decree base -imper-, juss-, -manddeep comb batho-, bathy-; base profunddeer base cervi-, elaphdefeat base vict-, -vinc-defecation comb -chezia, copro-, fim-, fimi-, kopro-, scato-, spatilo-, sterco-; base -fec(u)- defect, bodily comb pero-; base -hamart-, -mutildefending pre pro-; base patroc-defense comb -phylactic, phylacto-, -phylax, -phylaxis deficiency comb isch-, oligo-, -penia definition comb orismo-; base diordeformed comb pero-; base -mutil-degree suf -ency
dehydrogenated comb dehydrodeity comb theo-; base dei-delayed comb brady-; base -cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tard-. See late delete base oblit-deleterious comb noci-, pesti-; base -nox-, periculdelicate comb habro-, lepto-, subtil-, tenudelight comb chero-; base beati-, elat-, felic-, gaud-, jubil-, macardementia comb lyss-, -mania; base ament-, dement-demon comb daemono-, demono-; base diabol-, necyo-, satandemonstrating comb -deictic; base

 -monstr-

dense comb dasy-, pycno-, pykno-, -spiss-; base -crass-; ~tufts:
 cespitoso-

dentate comb dentato-

deny base -neg-

deoxygenated comb deoxy-

depart base relinq-

deposit of soft materials comb athero-

depraved pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, enisso-, enosio-, kak-, kako-, mal-, male-, ponero-; base
 culp-, facin-, flagit-, hamart-,
 iniq-, nefar-, pecca-, perdit-,
 -prav-, sceler-, scelest-, turp-deprive of pre ab-, apo-, be-, de-, des-¹, di-, dia-, dif-, dis-, e-, ec-,

 ef-, ex-, for-, off-, se-, with-; comb
 ectro-; base -spol-

depth comb batho-, bathy-; base
 -byss-

deputy comb vicederivative of pre meta-, para-descended from comb -gone,

 -gonium, gono-, -gony, proli-;
suf -ing

description comb -graphy desert comb eremo-

deserving of comb -worthy desire comb eroto-, -lagnia, -mania,

 -orexia; base -appet-, conat-,
 -cup-, -libid-, -opt-, vell-; suf
 -urient

destination comb teleo-, telo-, ultim(o)-; base -fin-, -termin-

destitute comb ptocho-, vidu-; base- mendic-, -paup-, -povdestroying comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis,

 -lytic, -lyze, -phage, phago-,
 -phagous, -phagy; base -ate-⁴,
 perd-, phthart-, -vast-

determine comb -gnomy, -gnosia,
 -gnosis, -gnostic, gnotodetestation comb miso-, -phobe,

 -phobia, -phobic; base -invid-,
 -ira(sc)-, odi-

detrimental comb noci-, pesti-; base
 -nox-, pericul-

development comb -blast, -blastic, blasto-, -geny, -plasia, -plasis,
 -plast, -plastic, plasto-, -plasty,
 -trope, -tropism, tropo-,
 -tropous, -trophy; base -mut-,
 -vari-, -vert-; late~: serotdevice for measuring comb -meter devil comb demono-, necyo-, satan-; base -diabol-

devoid comb ceno-, keno-; base
 -erem-, (ex)haur-, inan-, -vac(u)- devotion to, excessive comb -latry;

suf -ism

devour comb bromato-, -brotic,
 manduc-, -phage, phago-,
 -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-,
 sito-, -troph, -trophic, tropho-,
 -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous;
base -alim-, -cib-, comest-, -ed-, escul-, glutt-, -gust-

dew comb droso-, -ror-

diaphragm comb -phrenic, phrenico-, phreno-

dice base alea-, astragal-, clero-, cubo-

die See death

different comb hetero-

difficult pre dys-; comb -bar, bary-, mogi-; base ardu-, strendig comb orycto-; base fod-, -foss-digest comb peps-, pept-, pepto-;

partially~: comb chymo-

digestive fluid comb chyli-, chylo-, chymo-

digitalis comb digito-

dignity base celsi-

dilation comb -ectasia, -ectasis

dill base anethdimension comb -footer, -sized; ~of a sheet: suf -mo. Also see "Dimension" in Part III diminution suf -aster² diminutive ending suf -cle, -cula, -cule, -culum, -culus, -een, -el, -ella, -en, -et, -ette, -idion, -idium, -ie, -illa, -illo, -isk, kin, -le, -let, -ling², -ock, -ola, -ole², -rel, -ula, -ule, -ulum, -ulus, -y³ dimness comb ambly-, melan(o)-, nycto-, scoto-; base -achlu-, amaur-, fusc-, lyg-, obscur-, opac-, tenebr-dinner comb deipno-, prand-

dip comb -merge, -merse directing comb -agogic, -agogue; base -vers-, -vert-direction comb—ward, -ways, -wise; suf -ern, -ling³; ~east: euro-, -orient-; ~north: -borea-, septen-; ~south: -austr-, noto-; ~west: hesper-, occid-, -zephyr-. Also see "Direction" in Part III dirt comb blenno-, -chezia, copro-, edaph-, fim(i)-, kopro-, miso-², myso-, -myxia, myxo-, paedo-¹, pedo-³, scato-, spatilo-, spurc-, stegno-, sterco-; base -fecu-, gleb-, hum-, macul-, molys-, rhypar-, rhypo-, rypo-, sorddisastrous base funest-discharge flow: comb rheo-, rheum-, -(r)rhage, -(r)rhagia, -(r)rhea, -(r)rhoea, -(r)rhoeca; base -flu(v)-, -fus-; release: base -miss-, -mit-, -pomp-discipline comb mastigo-, rhabdo-; base castig-, peno-, poine-, -pun-discontinue comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat; base fin-, termindiscourse comb -claim, logo-, -logue, -lalia, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy, -logy, -phone, hono-,

-phony, verbi-, verbo-, voc-, voci-, -voke; base -clam-, -dict-, -loc(u)-, -loqu-, -orat-, rhet-; defective~: comb -lalia, lalo-, -phasia, -phasic, -phasis, -phasy, -phemia, -phemy; base pselldiscover base heur-

disease pre dys-, mal-; comb loemo-, loimo-, noso-, -path, -pathic, patho-, pathy; base aegr-, -morb-, -pecca-; ~names: comb -aemia, -emia; suf -asis, -ia, -itis, -oma, -osis; skin~: lichen-; ~treatment: comb -iatrics, iatro-, -iatry.

See disorder

disfigured comb pero-; base -mutildisgorge comb -emesis, -emetic, emetodisgrace base sord-, turp-disgust base fastiddish comb lecano-; base -leco-, scutel-disk-shaped comb disco-; base -nummdisorder comb atax-, ataxi-, -ataxia, ataxio-, ataxo-, -thymia, -phrenia, -phrenic; base -turb-; of personality~: comb -tonia display comb -orama, phaeno-, pheno-; base -monstr-dispute base velit-

dissimilar comb aniso-, anomal-^o-, anomo-, perisso-, poikilo-dissolve comb lyo-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-, -lyte, -lytic, -lyze; base -liqu-, -solu-, -solv-distant comb disto-, tele-distension comb -cele, -edema, ganglio-, phlogo-, phym-, -phyma, physa-, physo-, strum(i)-; base aug-, cresc-, physc-, strum-, -tum-, -turg-; suf -itis distinct separate: pre dia-, dis-, for-, se-; comb -crit, dialy-, ideo-, proprio-, self-. See divided; clear:

comb lampro-, luc-, luci-; base
-clar-

distress base aerumn-, vex-divalent sulfur comb sulfodivergent comb divergenti-, divergi-, vari-

divided pre sub-; comb dicho-, -fid, fissi-, schisto-, schizo-, tomo-,
-tomous, -tomy; ~crosswise:
decuss-

dividing wall comb sept(o)-² divination comb -mancy, -mantic; base augur-, hariol-, vatic-. Also see "Divination" in Part III

dizziness comb dino-²; base vertig-do pre em-, en-; comb -craft, ergo-,
-facient, -fic, -fication, -gen,
-genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny,
ideo-, -plast, -plastic, plasto-,
-plasty, poiesis, -poietic, -urgy;
base -fabr-, -fac-, -fec-¹; suf -ate,
-en, -fy, -ize

docile base moriger-

doctor comb iatro-; base -med-doctrine suf -ism, -logy dodo base did-

doer suf -an, -ant, -ard, -arian, -art,
-ary, -ast, -ator, -ee, eer, -en,
-ent, -er, -ette, -ier, -ist, -le,
-man, -nik, -o, -or, -person,
-people, -ster, -woman

dog comb cyno-, kyno; base -can-¹ dogma comb dogmatodoleful comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet-, luct-, trist-

doll comb paedo-²

dolphin base delphin-

domain of suf -dom²

donkey base as-, ono-

door comb osti-, porto-; base valvdormouse base glir-, myox-dorsum comb dorsi-, dorso-, nota-, noto-, opistho-; base

-terg-

dose comb poso-

dotted comb punctato-; base
-stigm-

double pre bi-, bin-, bis-, di-², dy-, twi-; comb ambi-, ambo-, amphi-, ampho-, deuterio-, deuto-, dicho-, diphy-, diplo-, disso-, double-,
dui-, duo-, duplicato-, duplici-, dyo-, gemin-, zygo-. Also see
"Numbers" in Part III

doubtful base ambig-, ancip-, apor-, dub-, vagu-

dove base columb-

down (from) pre a-, ab-, abs-, cata-, cath-, de-, kata-

downcast comb lype-; base dolor-,
fleb-, flet, luct-, -trist-

dozen comb dodeca-, duodec-, duodecim-, duoden-

dragon base draco-, draconi-dragonfly base libell(ul)- draw art: comb -gram, graph(o)-,

-pict-; pull: base -duct, -tract-; ~forth: base -haur-, -haustdread comb -phobe, -phobia, -phobic, phobo-; base pavid-, tim(or)-,

trem-, trep-. Also see "Fear" in
Part III

dream comb oneiro-

dregs base fec-²

drink comb pino-, potio-; base -bib-, pocul-; ~made from __ : suf
-ade

dripping base driri-

drive base -pel-, -pul-

driving away, out comb -fuge drooping comb -ptosis, -ptosis; base -flacc-. See bent drop liquid: comb gutti-, stilli-; base stact-, stagm-; fall: comb -ptosis,

-ptosis; base -cad-, -cas-, -ciddropping base stalac-, stalagdrugs comb pharmaco-; base medic-

drum comb tympano-

drunk base inebr-, methys-, temul-dry comb carpho-, xero-; base arid-, celo-², cherso-, -siccdry out base marces-, marcid-duck base anat-, fuligul-dull base hebet-, obtus-, -tard-; ~vision: comb ambly-

dung comb -chezia, copro-, fimi-, kopro-, scato-, spatilo-, sterc(o)-; base -fec(u)-, -merd-; ~hill:
sterquil-
during pre con-, in-, inter-, per-dusk base -crepus-, lyg-dusky comb fusc-, fusco-, -phaein, phaeo-, pheine-, pheo-dust comb coni-¹, -conia, conio-, konio-; base amath-, pulver-; dusty place: conist-

duty comb hypogia-, hypengy-; base paralipdwarf comb chamae-, nan(n)o-, dwelling comb ekist-; base -aed-, -cali-, -dom-, -edi-; suf -age

E

each comb katheno-
eager base avid-, cupideagle base aet-, aquilear comb auri-¹, auriculo-, oto-. See sound early pre ante-, pre-; comb prim-, primi-, primo-, proto-; ~period:
pre eo-; comb paleo-, protero-earth comb agro-, -gaea, geo-, hum-; base secul-, tellur-, -terrearthquake comb seismo-, tromoearwig base forficuleast base euro-, -orient-easy base -facil-
eating comb bromato-, -brotic, manduc-, -phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-, sito-, -troph, -trophic, tropho-, -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous; base -alim-, -cib-, comest-, -ed-¹, escul-, glutt-, -gusteccentric comb aetheo-, anom(o)-, anomal-o-. See irregular educate comb -pedia; base -didact-, doc-, -paedeel base anguill-, -cyclostom-, -mu-raen-effect comb -ergy
efficient base efficac-, habil-, quali-effort base conat-, peir-egg comb oo-, ovario-, ovi-¹, ovo-;

~yolk: lecith-, lecitho-, vitell-;
~shaped: ovato-
Egyptian comb Egypto-eight comb octa-, octo-, ogdo-; ~hundred: octocent-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III eighteen comb duodeviginti-, octakaidecaeighth base octan-eighty base octogen-, octoges-eland base taurotragelation base jubil-
elbow base -ancon-
elderly comb gerasco-, gero-, geronto-, grand-, presby-, presbyter-; base -antiqu-, -sen-, -vet-; ~woman: grao-
electric(al) comb electro-, galvano-; ~induction: comb inducto-elementary base prim-, -rud-; ~particle: comb stoichio-; suf -on elephant base elephant-, pachyderm-elevation comb acro-, alti-, alto-, bato-, hypsi-, hypso-; base procer-eleven comb endeca-, hendeca-, undeca-, undecim-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III

elk base cerv-

elm base ulm-

emaciated base tab-. See wasting away emanation comb atmo-, -capnia, capno-, vapo-, vapor-; base nebulembarrassment base pud-, verecundembezzle base peculemboss base toreut-

embryo(nic) comb -blast, -blastic, blasto-, -blasty; base embry-emendation comb ortho-; base castig-, emendemerald base smaragdeminent comb over-

emotions comb thymo-; disordered~: -thymia empty comb ceno-³, keno-; base -erem-, (ex)haur-, inan-, -vac(u)- emu- base rat-

emulation base zelo-

enamel comb amelo-

encounter base congress-, congru-

encourage base -hort-

end comb teleo-, telo-, ultim-, ultimo-; base -fin-, -termin-; endless: apeiro-

enduring base diuturn-, dur(o)-, perenn-, perm-, stabilenema base clysm-; clystenemy base advers-, hostil-, inimic-energy comb dyna(mo)-

engage in suf -ize

English comb Anglo-

engrave comb -glyph, glyptoenigmatic comb enigmatico-enlarged pre ad-, extra-, hyper-, super-; comb auxano-, auxo-, multi-, myria-, myrio-, out-, over-, -plasia, pleni-, pleo-, pleio-, pleon-, plethys-, plio-, pluri-, pol-laki-, poly-; base ampl-, -aug-, -cresc-, dilat-, -fold-, pler-, -pletenormous comb bronto-, dino-, giganteo-, mega-, megaloo-, -megaly enter comb intro-; base ingress-enthusiasm base ard-, alacr-, -ferv-, zelo-entice base lenocin-

entire(ly) pre be-, cata-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-, omni-, pan-, panto-, stone-, totientrance comb portoentreaty base litan-, -preca-enveloped pre be-; comb calypto-, stegano-, stegoenvironment comb -cole, -colent, -colous, eco-, oeco-, oiko-; base -aed-, -dom-, -edienvy base -invid-

enzymes comb zym-, zymo-; suf -ase epidemic base luet-, morb-, pestil-

epoch comb -cene

equal(ly) pre co-; comb equi-, homalo-, homo-, homolo-, iso-, pari-, tautoequivalent pre para-, quasi-; comb homeo-, omceo, homoio-, homolo-, iso-, -phane, -phanic; base simil-; suf -acean, -aceous, -al, -an, -ar, -ary, -ean, -en, -eous, -esque, -ful, -ic, -il, -ile, -ine, -ing, -ish, -itious, -ize, -like, -ode, -oid, -ose, -osity, -some, -tious, -ular, -y erase base oblit-

erect comb ithy-, ortho-, recti-; base ard-³

ermine base mustel-

error base culp-, delinq-, laps-, pecc-, sphal-

eruption comb -anthema erythrocyte comb erythroessence base -ousia, -ousian, quideternal comb ever-; base etern-, perpet-, semper-

ethers suf -ole ethical comb ethico-
ethmoid bone comb ethmo-European comb Euro-, Europaeo-, Europeo-
eustachian tube comb salpingoeven level: comb homalo-, homolo-, plani-, plano-, plate-, platy-;
number: artio-. See equal evening comb -noct(i)-, nyct(o)-; base crepus-, -vesper-
event comb -athlon-, -athon,
-machy, -off. See festival everlasting base assid-, contin-, incess-, perpet-
every comb katheno-, omni-, pan-, pant(o)-
evil pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, iniqu-, kak(o)-, mal(e)-, ponero-;
base -prav-, sceler-, turp-evolution comb -genesis. See cre- ation
examination comb -opsy-, -scope,
-scopic, scopo-, -scopy; base
-(in)quir-, -(in)quis-, -scrutexample of comb -type; suf -ism excessive pre hyper-, super-, ultra-;
comb over-, poly-; ~craving:
comb -lagnia, -mania; ~devotion:
comb -latry; suf -ism; ~drinking and eating: base crapul-; ~flow:
comb -(r)rhagia, -(r)rhage,
-(r)rhagy
exchange base -allac-, -allag-, -al-laxis-, camb-
excision comb -(ec)tomy excite comb agito-; base -citexclaim base clam-, vocifexclude pre ab-, apo-, be-, de-, des-, di-, dia-, dif-, dis-, e-, ec-, ef-, ex-,
for-, off-, se-, with-; comb ectro-;
base -spol-
excrement comb -chezia, copro-, fimi-, kopro-, scato-, spatilo-, sterco-; base -fec(u)-, -merd-exertion comb -ergasia, ergasio-,

-ergic, ergo-, -ergy, -orial, -pra-gia, -praxia, -praxis; suf -esce, -escence, -escent, -esis; quality of~: comb -pragia
exhaustion comb pono-; base -fatig-,
-kopo-, -lass-
exhibit comb phaeno-, pheno-;
base -monstr-
existence comb onto-; base
-esse-
exit base egress-, relinq-expansion comb -ectasia, -ectasis;
base -dilat-
experienced base -vet-experiment base peir-extended comb dolicho-, -footer, longi-, macro-, maxi-; base procer-; ~words: sesquipedalextent comb quant(i)-; suf -age,
-ful, -ling³
external comb ect(o)-, exo-, extra-
extinct mammal form comb
-there, therio-, theroextol base laud-
extra pre hyper-, super-. See in- creased
extremity comb acro-, aorto-,
-mele, -melia¹, melo-³
exultation comb chero-; base beati-,
felic-, jubil-, macar-
eye comb eid(o)-, oculi-, oculo-,
op-, ophthalmo-, -opia, opsi-,
-opsia, -opsis, opso-², -opsy, optico-, opto-, -scope, -scopic,
-scopy; base blep-, ommat-,
-spec-, -spic-, -vid-, -vis-; cornea of~: comb corneo-, kerato-; cor- ner of~: canth(o)-; ~covering:
sclero-; iris of~: irido-; ~lash:
cili-; ~lid: blepharo-, tarso-; one- eyed: lusc-; pupil of~: core(o)-,

-coria, coro-, -koria, pupillo-; ~retina: retino-eyebrows base ophry-; space be- tween~: glabello-

 eyelet comb ocelli-

F

fabricate/fabrication pre be-; comb
 -craft, ergo-, -facient, fic-,
 -fication, -plastic, -plast, plasto-,
 -plasty, -poiesis, -poietic, -urgy;
base aedi-, edi-, -fabr-, -fac-, -fec-;
suf -ate, -fy, -ize

face comb facio-, prosop(o)-, - visaged

faceted comb -hedral, -hedron fact of being suf -cy, -ency faded base -marc-

fail(ure) pre dis-; base atychi-, kakorrhaph-

fainting base asthen-

faith comb -ousia; base -cred-,
 -fid-¹, -pist-; suf -ism fake see false

falcon base accipit-, falconi-, raptor-

fall base -autumn-

falling comb -ptosia, -ptosis; base
 -cad-, -cas-, -cid-

fallopian tube comb salpingo-false comb mytho-, pseudo; base fict-, kibdelo-, -mendac-, nothofame/famous base celebr-, laud-, -lustr-

family base cogn-, famil-, stirpfamily names [zoology] suf -idae famine comb limo-² fan base rhipi-; ~like: flabelli-, rhipido-

far comb disto-, tele-

farewell base vale-

farming base agricol-, agricult-, arat-

fascia comb fascio-

fast comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy; base alacr-, -celer-, velocfasten base -hapto-², pegm-. See bind

fasting comb limo-²

fat comb adip(o)-, lipo-¹, pimel(o)-, pio-, stearo-, steato-; base -aliph-, lipar-, -obes-, -pingu-, sebo-;

~degeneration: comb -demia father comb pater-, patri-father-in-law base socerfatigue comb pono-; base -fatig-,

 -kopo-, lass-

fault base culp-, delinq-, laps-,
 -pecca-, sphal-

fear comb -phobe, -phobia, -phobic, phobo-; base pavid-, tim(or)-,
 -trem-, -trep-. Also see "Fear" in
 Part III

feast day suf -fest, -ia, -mas feather(like) comb penni-, pennati-, pinnati-, pinnato-, pinni-, plum(i)-, pteno-, pter, ptero-, pterono-, -pteros, pterygo-,

 -pteryl, ptilo-. See wing feces comb -chezia, copro-, fim(i)-, kopro-, scato-, spatilo-, sterco-;

base -fec(u)-, -merd-

feeble comb astheno-, -atrophia, lepto-, -plegia, -plegy; base -debil-, dimin-, enerv-, flacc-, labefeeding on comb bromato-, -brotic,

 manduc-, -phage, phago-,
 -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-,
 sito-, -troph, -trophic, tropho-,
 -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous;
base -alim-, -bosc-, -cib-, -gustfeel comb -aphia, -apsia, hapt(o)-, -path, -pathic, patho-, -pathy, sensi-, senso-, sensori-, thigmo-; base -palp-, -sens-, -sent-, -tact-, -tang-feet long comb -foot(er) feign comb pseudo-; base -simula-felicity comb chero-; base beati-, felic-, jubil-, macarfemale comb gyn(e)-, gyneco-, gyneo-, gyno-, -gynous, -gyny, -para, she-, thely-, -wife; base femin- muliebr-, mulier-; suf -a⁴, -en, enne-, -ess, -ette, -ice², -ine, -stress, -trice, -trix; elderly~: grao-ferment social: base -agit-, -tumult-, -turb-fermentation comb zym(o)- fern comb pterido-; base filicferret base mustel-, viverrferric iron comb ferrifervor base ard-, alacr-, -ferv-, zelo-festival (names) comb—athon, -fest, -mas; base -heort-; suf -ia fetus comb brepho-, cyo-, embryo-, kyo-; ~membrane: comb allanto-, amniofever comb feбри-, pyreto-, -pyrexia few comb oligo-; base pauc(i)- fiber base erio-, fibri-, ino-fibril-shaped comb fibrillosofibrin comb fibrino-fibrous matter comb fibro-, fibroso-, funi-, strom-; ~growth: ino-; ~tissue: fasciofibula base peroneo-

fictitious comb pseudofiddle base pandur-

field comb agri-, agro-; base agrest-, camp¹ fifteen base pentakaideca-, quindec-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III fifty base pentaconta-, pentacosta-, quinquagen-, quinquagesfig base -fici-, -syc-

fight comb macho-, -machy, pugn-; base -bell-, pugil-figure comb icono-, -form; base schem-; ~with (x) angles: -gon; ~with (x) surfaces: -hedral, -hedron filament comb fili-, filio-, filamento-, filo-, mito-, nemato-; base stema-filled with comb -filled, plen(i)-; base -pler-, -plet-; suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -id², -ful, -ose, -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y filter base col-²

filth comb blenno-, -chezia, copro-, fim(i)-, kopro-, miso-, myso-, -myxia, myxo-, paedo-, pedo-, scato-, spatilo-, spurc-, stegno-, sterco-; base -fec-², molys-, rhy-par-, rupo-, rhypo-, rypo-, sord-; filthy talk: borbor-

fin comb pinni-, pterygofinal stage comb eschato-, teleo-, telo-, ultim(o)-; base -fin-, -terminfinch base fringill-

find base heur-

fine comb habro-, lepto-, subtil-, tenu-finger comb -dactyl, dactylo-, -dactylous, -dactyly, digiti-; ~like: comb digitato-; ~ring: comb dactyl-io-finger nail comb -onychia, onycho-

Finnish comb Finno-

fir base abiet-

fire comb igni-, pyr(o)-; base ard-, ars-, flagr-, flamm-, incend-, phlogfirefly base lampyr-

firm comb duro-, sclero-

first comb arch-, fore-, pre-, primi-, primo-, pro-, proso-, protero-, proto-; base -princip-fish(like) comb ichthyo-, pisci-; base halieut-; bony~: scopeli fishing base riv-fissure comb fissuri-, rimfist base pug-, pygmfit seizure: comb -agra, -lepsia, -leptosis, -lepsy, -leptic; capable: comb -worthy; suf -able, -ibility, -ible, -ile five comb cinque-, penta-, quin-, quinque-, quint(i)-; ~hundred: quincen-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III fixation comb -lagnia, -philia; surgical~: -pexy fixed comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat, stato-; base stabilflag comb vexillo-

flamingo base phoenicopter-flammable comb ard-, ars-flank comb laparo-
flash comb sela-; base -fulg-, stilpnoflask base lagen-, ampulflat comb plain-, plani-, plano-¹, plat-¹, platy-; ~plain: pedion-flattery base adul-, bland-flatulence comb physaflavin comb -flavin, flavoflaw base culp-, delinq-, laps-, pecc-, sphalflax comb byssi-, linarflea base psyll-², puliflee base avers-, drapeto-, fug-, -phygo-flesh comb carni-, carnos-, creo-, kreo-, -sarc, sarco-. See skin flexible base agil-, facil-, ingen-flight comb avi; base -fug-. See flying fling comb -bole, -bolic, bolo-, -boly; base ballist-, -jact-, -jacula-, -ject-flipper comb pinni-, pterygo-flock base -greg-flood base -antlo-, diluv-, inund-; ~tide: plemyr-floor (soilbed) base edaph-flora comb botano-, herbi-, -phyte, phyto-; base veget-; suf -aceae, -ad, -ales, -eae, -ia flour comb aleuro-; base farinflower comb antho-, -anthous, flori-, -florous; ~garland: base corolliflow(ing) comb rheo-, rheum-, -(r)rhage, -(r)rhagia, -(r)rhea, -(r)rhoea, -(r)rhoeca; base -flu(v)-, -fus-fluid comb -plasm, plasm-, base -liqu-, -nerfluorescence comb fluo(ro)- fluorine comb fluo-, fluor(o)- flute comb aulo-

fly insect: base cyclorrhaph-, musc-¹, myiaflying comb aero-, avia-, avio-, aviono-. See wing foam base aphro-, -spumfocused on comb -centered, -centric foe base advers-, hostil-, inimicfog comb fracto-, nephelo-, nepho-; base brum-², calig-, homichlo-, nebul-, -nubfold comb -plex, plicato-, plici-, -ptych follow(ing) pre epi-, meta-, post-; comb after-, hind-, postero-; base -secut-, -sequ-; suf -an folly see foolish
food comb bromato-, -brotic, man-duc-, opso-, -phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-, sito-, -troph, -trophic, tropho-, -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous; base -alim-, -cib-, escul-, -gust-, -nutr-; partially digested~: chymo-. Also see "Food" in Part III.
foolish base fatu-, inan-, moro-, stultfoot comb ped-¹, pedati-, -pede, pedi-, pedo-¹, -poda, -pode, -podium, -pod, podo-, -podous,

 -pus base -plant-; ~sole: -pelm-, plant-
footprint comb ichno-, stibo-
for pre pro-
forbid base prohib-
force comb dyna-, dynamo-, mega-, megallo-, -megaly, -sthenia, sthen-; base -forc-, -fort-, - poten-, robor-
forceps base labido-
forearm comb ulno-
forehead comb metopoforeign(er) comb perisso-, xeno-;
base -ali-
foremost comb arch-, archi-, proto-;
base -prim-, -princip-
forest comb dendri-, dendro-,
 -dendron, hylaeo-, saltu-, silvi-, xylo-; base arbor-, nemo(r),
 -sylv-
forever comb ever-; base etern-, perpet-, semper-
forget base leth-
forked base -furc-
form, a comb eid(o)-, -form,
 -morph-, -morphic-, -morphism,
 morpho-, -morphous; base -figur-,
 -schem-
form, to pre be-; comb aetio-, etio-; base -fabr-, fac-, fec-, ficformation pre em-, en-, meta-, trans-; comb -blast-, -blastic, blasto-, -craft, ergo-, etio-,
 -facient-, -fic-, -fication-, -gen-, -
 genesis-, -genic-, -genous-, -geny,
 -parous-, -plasia-, -plasis, -plasmo-,
 -plast-, -plastic, -plasto-, -plasty,
 -poiesis-, -poietic-, -trope-, -tropic,
 -tropism, tropo-, -tropous-, -tropy,
 -urgy; base -fec-, -mut-, -vert-;
suf -ate-, -en-, -fy-, -ize-, -otic fornicate base copul-, scort-, stupr-fortification base castella-fortune luck: comb tycho-; base faust-; wealth: comb pluto-; base opul-

forty base quadragen-, quadragesforward pre fore-, pre-, pro-¹; comb antero-, proso-
fossil base oryct-; suf -ite foul dirt: comb blenno-, -chezia, copro-, edaph-, fim(i)-, kopro-, miso-, myso-, -myxia, myxo-, paedo-, pedo-, scato-, spatilo-, spurc-, stegno-, sterco-; base
 -fecu-, gleb-, hum-, macul-, molys-, rhypar-, rhy-po-, rypo-, sord-; evil: pre dys-, mis-; comb
 caco-, iniq-, kak(o)-, mal(e)-, ponero-, -prav-, turp-
foundation comb base-, basi-, baso-fountain base cren-², pego-four(th) comb quadr-, quadrato-, quadri-, quadru-, quart-, quarter-, quarti-, quat-, quater-, tetarto-, tetra-, tessera-; ~cycles: tetra-, cyclo-; ~hundred: quadricent-; ~times: tetrakis-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III
fourteen base quattuordec-, tessaradeca-, tetradeca-, tetra-kaideca-
fowl base gallin-
fox base alopec-, vulpifoxglove comb digito-fraction base -par-¹, parti-; ~of a meter: comb -meter fracture comb -clasia-, -clasis, -clas-tic, rhegma-, -(r)raghia-, -(r)rhexis;
base agmat-, -fract-, frag-, -frang-,
 -rupt-; bone~: catagmfragile see frail fragment comb clasmato-, -fid; base frust-, -par-
frail comb lepto-; base -asthen-, coupho-, -debil-, koupho-framework base pegm-
fraudulent base apat-, dolero-, ludif-

freckle base lentig-
free comb eleuthero-; base -liber-, vac(u)-
freeing comb lyo-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-,
 -lyte, -lytic, -lyze; base -liqu-,
 -solu-, -solv-
freezing comb cheima-, crymo-, cryo-, frigo-, gelo-, kryo-, pago-, psychro-, rhigo-; base alg-, glac-French comb Franco-, Gallofrenzied base frenetfrequent comb pluri-, pollaki-, poly-; base crebr-; suf -le. See repeatedly fresh comb thalero-; base -nov-friction comb tribo-, -tripsy; base
 trit-
friendship comb socio-; base -am-, amic⁻¹, comit-
fright see fear
frigid see freezing
fringe comb crosso-; base -fimbr-, lacin-, thysan-; small~: fimbrilli-; ~with hairs: fimbriato-frog comb batracho-, bufo-, phryno-, rani-; base polyped-
from pre a⁻², ab-, abs-, apo-, e-, ex-, with-
front pre ante-, pre-, pro-; comb antero-, fore-, proso-frontal bone comb frontofrost base cryo-, gel⁻¹, kryo-, pachno-, pago-, pruin-, rhigo-froth base -spumfructose comb fructi-, fructo-fruit comb -carp, -carpic, carpo⁻¹,

 -carpous, pomi-, pomo-; base
 -frug⁻¹; ~sugar: fructi-, fructofruitfly base drosophyl-, trypet-fugitive base drapeto-
full of comb -filled, pleni-, pleo-, plero-, pluri-; base -pler-, -plet-;
suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -ful, -ilent,
 -ose², -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y fun comb chero-
function suf -ate³, -ise functionally disordered pre para-funeral rites base epicid-, thren-fungus comb fungi-, morilli-,
 -mycete, mycet(o)-, -mycin, myco-, uredo-; base boletfunnel comb choano-, infundibuli-fur base dora-
furious base chol-, -invid-, -ira-,
 -margy
furnish with pre be-; suf -ate furrow comb holco-, stria-, striato-, strio-, sulcato-; base -scrobic-, strig-
fusion pre co-; comb conjugato-,
 -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-,
 junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-,
 -soc-; suf -ate, -ize
futile base futil-, inutil-, mataeo-

G

gable base fastig-
gain base lucr-, quaestgall bile: comb bili-, chol(e)-, gall-; tumorous plant tissue: cecidgalvanic comb galvanogambling base aleagamete comb gameto-

ganglion comb gangliogangrene base sphacelgap base -apert-, -cav-, fenest-, foram-, oego-, oigo-, osti-, patul-, pylo-, rim, valv-
garb base habil-, hesto-, -vest-garden comb horti-

garlic base alli-, scorogas comb aeri-, aero-, gaso-, pneumo-; stomach~: physa-, physo-
gash comb -cide, cis-, -cise,
 -ectomy, inciso-, -sect, temno-,
 -tmesis, -tome, tomo-, -tomous,
 -tomy; base sec-
gastric comb chyli-, chylo-, chymagate comb porto-; base osti-, -pylgathered together comb cumulo-; base acerv-, -sor-
gelatin comb gelatino-generate comb aetio-, etio-, -gen, geno-, -genesis, -genic, -genous,
 -geny, -gone, -gonium, gono-, - gony, -phyletic. See cause genital(s) comb genito-; base -aede-; female~: colpo-; male~: phallogentle base -len-, mansue-, miti-, moll-
geological epoch comb -cene geometric figure comb -gon, -hedral, -hedron
gerbil base cricet-
German comb Germano-, Teutano-, Teuto-
germinal comb -blast, blasto-,
 -blasty, -carp, -carpic, carpo-,
 -carpous, sperma-, -spermal, spermatio-, spermato-, spermi-,
 -spermic, spermo-, -spermous,
 sporo-; base semin-
germs comb bacilli-, bacillo-, - bacter, bacteri-, bacterioget base -cap-, -cep-, -cip-, -dyteghost base phantas-, phasm-, spectr-
gibbon base hylobat-
gift base don-, dor-, mungigantic comb bronto-, dino-, giganto-, mega-, megalo-,
 -megaly, super-. See large gills comb -branchia, branchioginger base zingibergiraffe base artiodactylgirdle comb zoni-, zono-; base

 -cing-, zoster-. See band
give base -don-; ~birth: base
 -partur-; ~way: base -ced-, -cessglacier comb glacio-
gland comb adeni-, adeno-, balani-, balano-; swollen~: strum(i)- glass(y) comb crystallo-, hyalo-, vitreo-, vitri-, vitro-. See mirror gleam comb sela-; base -fulg-, gano-, lustr-, rutil-, stilpnoglittering base stilpno-globe comb ano-, annul-, crico-,
 cyclo-, disco-, globi-, globo-,
 glom-, gyro-, orbito-, -sphere,
 sphero-, stilli-, zon-, zoni-; base
 -anu-, -cing-, -cinct-, -circin-,
 -circul-, -coron-, -glomer-,
 -numm-, -orb-, -rot-, -troch-gloomy base fusc-, obscur-, tenebr-glowworm base lampyr-glue (like) comb colieto-, -glea,
 -glia, glio-, glutin-, kollo-; base coll-²
glum comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet, luct-, -trist-
glutted comb -filled, pleni-, pleo-, plero-, pluri-; base -pler-, -plet-;
suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -ful, -ilent,
 -ose, -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y glycerin, glycerol, glycogen comb glico-, gluco-
gnash base brux-, frend-, mol-gnat base culicignaw base -trog-. See chew
gnu base connochaet-
go comb -grade, -motive, -plania , plano-; base -bat-, -ced-, -cess-,
 -cur(s), -grad-, -gress-, -mob-,
 -vad-, -vas-; ~away: out-; ~into:
 -dyte-; ~forward: pro-; ~toward:
 -bound, -petal
goal comb teleo-, telo-, ultim(o)-;
base -fin-, -termin-

goat comb capri-, egagro-, trago-;

base hircin-

goblet base pocul-

God comb theo-; base dei-

goiter base strum(i)- gold(en) comb auri-², auro-, chrys(o)-. Also see "Colors" in Part III goldfish base cyprin-

gonad comb gonado-

good pre bene-, eu-; base agath-, bon-, prob-goodbye base vale-

goods base empor-, -merc-

goose base anser-, cheno-gorgeous comb calli-, callo-; base kal-, pulchrgorilla base -pong-

gourd base cucurbit-

government comb -archy, -cracy, -crat(ic); base guberngrab base rap-, rep-. See grasp graceful comb habro-

grafting base surcul-

grain comb grani-; base farr-, farrag-, -frumentgram comb -gram

grandfather base av(us)- grandmother base av(ia)- granite comb graniti-; like, of~: grano-granular comb coni-, -conia, conio-, granulo-grape (like) comb acini-, botry-, staphylo-, vini-, vino-, viti-; base racem-, -rhag-, -uvi-, -uvugrasp comb -tain; base -cap(t)-, -cathex-, -ger-, -hapt-, -prehend, prehens-, -ten-grass base agrost-, gramingrasshopper base acrid-, gryll-, locust-grave comb -taph, tapho-; base sepul-gravel base glare-

gray comb glauco-, -phaein, phaeo-, pheo-, polio-; base caesi-, -can-², -gris-, -tephr-. Also see "Colors" in Part III grazing base pascu-

grease base lipar-, sebo-, unct-, ungugreat size: comb macro-, magni-, maxi-, plethys-; base -ampl-, -maj-; suf -fold. See gigantic greater pre super-; comb meizo-, out-greed base avar-, avid-, cup(id)-, edac-, gulos-, pleonec-, pleonex-

Greek comb Graeco-, Greco-; base Hellen-green comb chloro-, glauco-, olivaceo-; base -beryl-, caes-, oliv-, porrac-, pras-, smaragd-, thall-, thallas-, verd-, -vir-, virid-. Also see "Colors" in Part III gridiron base graticul-grief comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet-, luct-, trist-grind base -brux-, frend-, molgrit comb ammo-, aren-, arenaceo-, glare-, psammo-, sabulgroin comb bubo-, inguinogroove comb bothr-, -glyph, glypto-, stria-, striato-, strio-, sulcato-; base canalic-, sulc-. See cleft grope base pselaph-

ground base edaph-, geo-, -hum-, -terr-

group (of) suf -age, -ery, -hood, -ship group names [zoology] suf -ini grouse base gallinac-, tetrao-grove suf -etum

grow, growth comb auxano-, auxeto-, auxo-, -blast, -blastic, -blasto-, -blasty, -colous, -crease, -culture, -nastic, -nasty, onco-, -physis, -plasia, -plasis, -plast, -plastic, plasto-, plethys-, verruci-;

base -aug, -cresc-; suf -oma,
-ome; ~in: -cole, -colent, -colous; ~together: symphyo-
guess base -stoch-
guide base gubern-
guilt base -culp-
gull base gavi-, lar-

gullet comb esophago-, œsophagogulp base glutt-
gum-yielding comb guttigums comb gingivo-, oulo-, ulo-² gyrating comb gyro-
gyroscope comb gyro-

H

habit base -hexi-
habitat comb -cole, -colent,
-colous, eco-, oiko-; base -aed-,
-dom-, -edi-
hailstone base grandin-, chalax-hair/hairlike comb capilli-, chaet(o)-, cili-, cilio-, -coma, comi-, como-, crin(i)-, dasy-, fimbr-, fimbrilli-, pili-, pilo-, piloso-, -trich, -tricha, tricho-, villosa-; base hirsut-, hispid-, lanug-, -thrix-, vill-
half pre demi-, hemi-, semi-; comb dicho-, mezzo-; base dimid-halibut base hippogloss-halogen comb halo-; suf -ine halt comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat, stato-;
base fin-, termin-
hammer comb malleo-; base mall-, sphyr-
hampered comb brady-; base - cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tard-
hand comb cheiro-, chiro-, hand-, mani-, manu-
handle base ansa-, manubr-
hang comb cremo-; base -pend-,
-pens-
happening every __ suf -ly happiness comb chero-¹; base beati-, felic-, jubil-, macar-
harbor base limen-
hard comb duro-, sclero-; ~palate:

comb uranisco-, urano-; ~shell:
base lorica-. See difficult hare base cunic-, lago-, lepor-harlot comb cypriano-, hetaero-, porno-; base meretric-, scort-
harmful comb noci-, pesti-; base
-nox-, pericul-
harmony pre co-; base concinn-, congru-, -eiren-, -iren-, -pac-,
-pax, unanim-
harsh comb caco-; base acerb-, asper-
haste base alacr-, celer-, festin-, subit-; comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy-hatchet base dolabr-, pelec-, securi-hate(d) comb miso-, -phobe, -
phobia, -phobic; base -invid-,
-ira(sc)-, odi-
haul(ing) comb -fer, -ferous, -ger-
ous, -parous, -pher, -phore,
-phorous; base -port-, -vect-
having comb -echia; suf -acean, -aceous, -al, -ate², -ed², -ful, -ger-
ous, -ial, -ine, -ious, -itious, -ory,
-ous, -some, -ulent, -ulous, -wise,
-y; base -ten-; ~parts:comb -fold hawk base accipit-, buteo-, falco-, hieraco-
hawthorn base -crataeghazard base pericul-
head comb capit-, cephal-,
-cephalic, cephalo-, -cephalous,

-cephaly, cranio-, kephalo-; having a __ head: -headed; type of~: -pated headstrong base contum-, obstin-, pervic-, proterv-healing comb -iatrics, -iatr(o)-, -iatry, medico-; base cur-, san-health base salub-, san-. See sickness heap(ing) comb cumulo-; base acerv-, -sorhearing comb acou-, acoust-, audi(o)-, auri-, echo-, -ecoia, oto-, -phone, phono-, -phony, -phthong, soni-, sono-, sonoroheart comb cardi-, -cardia, cardio-, -cardium, cordato-, cordi-, pericardiac-, pericardio-; ~attack: base angin-; ~cavity: comb atrio-; ~shaped: comb cordatoheartbreak comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet-, luct-, trist-heat comb cal(e)-, calo-, calor(i)-, pyr(o)-, -therm, thermo-, -thermy; base aest-, caum-, ferv-heave comb -bole, -bolic, bolo-, -boly; base -ballist-, -jact-, -jacula-, -jectheavens comb ourano-, urano-; base cael-, cel-heavy comb -bar, bari-, baro-, grav(i)-; base -obes-, -pond-

Hebrew comb Hebraico-hedgehog base echin-, erinac-heel-bone comb calcaneo-, pternheight comb acro-, alti-, alto-, bato-¹, hypsi-, hypso-; base procer-hell base acheron-, avern-, infern-, -styghelmet base cassidi-, -gale-

help base -(ad)jut-, -(ad)juv-, -auxilhelpful comb chreo-, chresto-; base -utilhemispheric comb hemispherico-

hen base gallin-

heptillion comb yotta; ~th: yocto-herd base -gregheredity comb heredo-

heresy base heresio-

hermit base eremit-; ~crab: pagurhernia comb -cele, celo-¹, hernio-heron base arde-, grallatorherring comb harengi-; base clupe-, halec-hesitate base cunct-

hexillion comb zetta-; ~th: zepto-hiccup base singult-

hidden pre sub-; comb calypto-, crypto-; base occult-; hiding place: latib-. See covered hide animal: comb pelli-; conceal: See hidden high(er) pre meta-, super-; comb acro-, alti-, alto-, hypsi-, hypsohigher valence pre per-; suf -ic highest comb acro-

highway comb hodo-, -ode, odo-; base -iter-, -via-hill base coll-³

hinge base gingly-

hip comb cotyle-, cotyli-, cotylo-, coxo-, ischi(o)- hiss base -sibil-

historical comb historico-hit comb plessi-; base cop-, -crot-, -cuss-, -plang-, puls-, -tus-, vapul-, -verberhoard comb cumulo-; base acerv-, -sor-hoax base ludif-

hog base hyos-

hold comb -tain-, base -cap(t)-, -cathex-, -ger-¹, -hapt-, -prehend, prehens-, -ten-; ~back: prohibholder comb angio-, asco-, bursi-, burso-, ceco-, chlamyd-, chrysali-, cisto-, coleo-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, meningo-, pericardiac-, pericardio-, peritoneo-, phasco-,

 physa-, physali-, physo-, -theca,
 theci-, theco-, typhlo-, utri-,
 utric, vesico-; base -sacc-, -thylac-

hole base cav-, foramin-, lacun-, troglo-. See opening

holler base clam-, vocifhollow comb cava-, -cave, cavi-, cavo-, -coele, coelo-, cotyle-, cotyli-, cotylo-, koilo. See cavity

holly base ilic-

holy comb hagio-, hiero-, sanct(i)-;
base -sacr-

home (of) comb eco-, ekist-, nosto-, oeco-, oiko-; base aed-, -dom-, edi-; suf -age

honest base prob-

honey comb mell(i)-

honeycomb comb favoso-; base fav-

honor base timo-

honorable pre bene-, eu-; base
 agath-, bon-, prob-

hood base calyptri-, cuculli-hook base hamat-, -uncihookworm base ancylostom-

hope base -sper-

hormone names comb -kinin horn, hornlike comb cerat(o)-,

 -corn, corneo-, corni-, cornu-, kerat(o)-

hornbill base bucerot-, bucorachornblower comb keraulo-hornet comb vespi-; base -sphec-horse comb equ(i)-, hippo-, -hippus; base caball-, cavalhorsefly base taban-

horseshoe base hippocrepihorsetail base equiset-

hospital base nosocom-

host base -hosp-, -xenhostile pre anti-; base inimic-hot comb cal(e)-, calo-, calor(i)-, pyr(o)-, thermo-, -thermy; base aestu-, caum-, ferv-

hour comb horo-

house comb eco-, ekist-, oeco-, oiko-; base aed-, -dom-¹, edi-; suf
 -age

how many base quot-

howl base ulul-¹

hub comb centr-, centri-, -centric, centro-

huge comb bronto-, dino-, gigante-, mega-, megal-, -megaly

hull ship: base naut-; husk: base follic-, -lemma², putamin-

human comb anthrop(o)-, humano-.
See people

humid comb hydro-, hygro-, udo-; base humect-, madefac-, -righummingbird base trochil-humorous comb comico-hump comb cypho-, gibboso-, hybo-, lordo-, scoli-; base -kyph-hundred comb cent(i)-, hecato-, hecto-, hekto-; ~twenty: hecaton-icos-

hunger base esur-; ~for: comb eroto-, -lagnia, -mania, -orexia;
base -appet-, conat-, -cup-, -libid-,
 -opt-, vell-; suf -urient

hunt base venat-

hurl comb -bole, -bolic, bolo-,
 -boly; base ballist-, -jact-, -jacula-,
 -ject-

hurricane base lilaps-

hurry base accel-, celer-, festinhurt comb noci-; base -nox-, vuln-.

See pain

husband base conjug-, marit-hushed comb hesy-; base -plac-, quiesc-, -tacit-

husk comb follic-, -lemma², puta-min-

hut base -cali-

hydraulic comb hydraulico-

hydrides suf -ine

hydrocarbon suf -ene; ~radical: suf
 -ylene; ~paraffin series: suf -ane; ~plus nitrogen: comb diazo-

hydrogen comb -hydric hydroxyl radicals: comb -hydric; ~group: comb hydroxyhygiene base salub-, sanhyoid bone comb hyo-

hypnotism comb hypno-; base mesmer-
hyrax- comb chero-², hyraci-, hyraco-
hysteria comb hyster(o)-

I

ice comb glacio-, pago-; base gel-¹ icicle base stiri-
icon comb icono-
idea comb -gnomy, -gnosia, -gnosis,
 -gnostic, gnoto-, ideo-, -noia,
 -nomy, phreno-, psycho-, -sophy
base -cogit-, -cogn-, epistem-,
 -noe-, -put-, ratio-, -sci-identical pre co-; comb equi-, homo-, iso-, pari-, tautoidiot base fatu-, inan-, moro-, stultidle base oti-, pigritidol comb idolo-
ignorant base hebet-, obtus-, -tardileac plus, ileum comb ileo-, ilio-ill(ness) pre dys-, mal-; comb noso-,
 -path, -pathic, patho-, -pathy;
base aegr-, -morb-, -pecca-, vale-tud-; ~names: comb -aemia,
 -emia; suf -asis, -ia, -itis, -oma,
 -osis; ~treatment: comb -iatrics, iatro-, -iatry. See disorder illumination comb actino-, luci-, phengo-, phos-, photo-; base clar-,
 -luc-, -lum-
illusory comb pseudo-; base -phantas-, phasm-
image comb icono-; base agalmaimbibe comb pino-, poto-; base
 -bib-, pocul-
imitate base emul-, -mim-immature comb paedo-², pedo-; base juven-. See undeveloped immense comb bronto-, dino-, gi-ganto-, mega-, megaloo-, -megaly immobility comb -plegia, -plegy immorality pre dys-, mis-; comb

 caco-, enisso-, enosio-, kak-,
 kako-, mal-, male-, ponero-; base
 culp-, facin-, flagit-, hamart-,
 iniq-, nefar-, pecca-, perdit-,
 -prav-, sceler-, scelest-, turp-
immortal comb ever-; base etern-, perpet-, semper-
immovable comb stasi-, -stasis,
 -stat, stato-; base stabil-immune comb immuno-
impaired base vitia-
impartial comb equi-
impede comb isch-, koly-, -penia, rhopo-, -strain, -strict; base
 angust-, -string-; suf -en imperfection base culp-, delinq-, laps-, -pecca-, sphalimperfectly pre demi-, hemi-, semi-;
comb -atelia, atelo-
imperforate comb -atresia, atreto-impervious to comb -proof, -tight impetus base horm-
important base grav-
imposter base phenac-, phenak-impoverished comb ptocho-, vidu-; base -mendic-, -paup-, penur-,
 -pov-
improved comb melior-, out-impulse base ate-⁴
in pre eis-, em-, en-¹, il -, im-, in-,
 ir-; comb endo-, ento-, entre-, eso-, inter(o)-, intra-, intro-; ~a specified way: suf -ly, -ways,

-wise; ~back: pre meta-; comb post-, postero-; ~common: comb caeno-, ceno-; ~front of: pre ante-, fore-, ob-, prae-, pre-, pro-; ~some order: suf -ly; ~the direction of: suf -ad, -ly, -ward, -ways, -wise; ~the manner of: suf -like, -ways; ~the style of: suf -ese, -esque inaccuracy base culp-, delict-, laps-, pecc-, sphal-inadequacy comb isch-, oligo-, -penia inaudible comb hesy-; base -plac-, quiesc-, -tactic-inborn comb innatoincapable of being suf -less. See not incense comb -thymia²; base kniss-, liban-, thur-

incessant base assid-, contin-, incess-, perpetincipient base incip-, -init-; suf -esce, -escence, -escent.

incised comb eros-. See groove inciting comb -agogic, -agogue incline comb -clinal, -clinate, -cline, -clinic, clino-, -clinous, -clisis, lechrío-, loxo-, plagio-; base -clivincomplete pre demi-, hemi-, semi-; comb -atelia, atelo-; suf -esce, -escence, -escent incorrect base dys-, mis-increased pre ad-, extra-, hyper-, super-; comb auxano-, auxo-, multi-, myria-, myrio-, out-, over-, -plasia, pleni-, pleo-, pleio-, pleon-, plethys-, plio-, pluri-, polaki-, poly-; base -aug-, -cresc-, -fold-, -pler-, -plet-. See grow indefinite base ambig, dub-, ancipindex comb sema-, -seme, semeio-, semio-

India comb Indo-²

indicate comb phaeno-, pheno-; base -monstrindigence comb -penia, ptocho-, vidu-; base -mendic-, -paup-, penur-, -pov-indigo comb indi-, indo-¹ indirect comb loxo-, plagio-; base ambag-indisposed pre dys-, mal-; comb noso-, path, -pathic, patho-, -pathy; base aegr-, cachex-, -morb-, -pecca-, valetudindividual suf -aholic, -aire, -an, -ant, -ard, -arian, -art, -ary, -ast, -ate, -ator, -ee, -eer, -en, -ent, -er, -ette, -eur, -fer, -ician, -ier, -ior, -ist, -le, -ling, -man, -nik, -o, -or, -person, -people, -ster, -woman, -yer indolent base pigr-

inebriated base inebr-, methys-, temulinert gas suf -on ineffectual base futil-, inutil-, mataeoinexpensive base viliinfection comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis, -lyte, -lytic, -lyze, phthisio-, -phthisis, phthysio-, -phthysis, putre-, putri-, pyo-, pytho-, sapro-, septi-, septico-, septo-, toxi-, toxico-, toxo-; base phthor-, vitiainferiority pre hypo-, sub-, under-; comb hystero-²; base hesson-; suf -aster² infinity base apeiro-. See forever infirm pre dys-, mal-; comb noso-, path, -pathic, patho-, -pathy; base aegr-, cachex-, -morb-, -pecca-, valetudinflammation comb erysi-, phlog(o)-; suf -itis. See swelling inflorescence comb thyrsi-, thyrsio-infuse comb -enchyma²; suf -ate ingest comb bromato-, -brotic, manduc-, -phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-, sito-, -troph, -trophic, tropho-, -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous; base -alim-, -cib-, comest-, -ed-, escul-, glutt-, -gust-inguinal comb inguino-inhabit(ant) comb -cole, -colent, -colous; suf -an, -ite inhale comb -hale, -pnea, pneo-, pneumato-, pneumo-, pneu-mono-, pneusio-, pulmo-, spiro-; base afflatinhere base -sid-, situ-inhibit comb isch-, koly-, -penia, -strain, -strict; base -string-; suf -en. See checked iniquity pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, iniq-, kak(o)-, mal(e)-, ponero-; base -prav-, sceler-, turp-initial comb arch-, fore-, pre-, primi-, primo-, pro-, proso-, protero-, proto-; base -princip-initiate base inaug-, incip-, initinjection base trypan-injudicious base fatu-, inan-, moro-, stult-injurious comb noci-, pesti-; base -nox-, periculinjury comb noci-, traumato-; base -nox-

ink base atrament-

innkeeper base caupon-inquiry base erot-, -quir-, -roginsanity comb lyss-, -mania; base ament-¹, dementinsatiable base avid-, edac-, gulosinscribe comb -gram, -graph, -grapher, -graphic, grapho-, -graphy, grapto-, -logue; base -scrib-, -script-, typo-insect comb cimic-, core-², entomo-, insecti-, insecto-. See mite insert base calar-, calat-, pon-, pos-inside pre eis-, em-, en-¹, il -, im-, in-¹, ir-; comb endo-, ento-, entre-, eso-, inter(o)-, interno-, intra-, intro-; from~: entostho-insolent base contum-, impud-, procacinspection comb -opsy, -scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy; base -(in)quir-, -(in)quis-, -scrutinstance of suf -ism

instantly base subit-

instep comb tarso-

instruct comb -pedia; base -didact-, doc-, -paedinstrument (of) suf -ment¹, -ure; medical~: -tome; scientific~: -stat insufficient pre demi-, hemi-, semi-; comb -atelia, atelo-insult base contum-

intact pre be-, cata-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-, omni-, pan-, panto-, stone-, toti-; base integr-intellect comb -gnomy, -gnosia, -gnosis, -gnostic, -gnoto, ideo-, -noia, -nomy, phren(o)-, psycho-, -sophy, thymo-, -witted; base -cogit-, -cogn-, ment(a)-, -noe-, -put-, -ratio-, -sci-intelligent base sapien-intensifier pre em-, en-, in-, zaintercourse comb -lagnia; base -coit-, copulinterfunctioning comb -ergasia, ergasiointermix pre co-; comb conjugato-, -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-, junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-, -soc-; suf -ate, -ize interpretation base -hermeninterrogate base -pet-, -quir-, -quis-, -rogintestinal pouch comb caeco-, ceco-, typhlointestines comb entero-, ileo-, ilio-, intestino-, jejuno-; base viscer-; ~worm: ascari-

intimidated base -pavid-, -tim-, trepid-. See fear intoxicated base -inebr-, -meth-, temul-
intractable base contum-, obstin-,
 pervic-, proterv-
invent base -heur-
inverse pre anti-, contra-, contre-, dis-, hetero-, ob-, un-; comb
 back-, counter-, enantio-, oppositi-
invisible pre sub-; comb calypto-, crypto-; base occult-
involuntary movement comb
 -chorea-, choreo-, -clonic,
 -clonus, spasmo-; base -stal-; suf
 -esmus, -ismus
iodine comb iodo-
ion comb iono-

irate base chol-, -invid-, -ira-,
 -margy
iris comb irido-
Irish comb Hiberno-iron comb ferri-, ferro-, sidero-¹ irregular comb allo-, anomal-, anomo-, poecilo-, poikilo-; ~shape: comb amorphoirridium comb iridico-, iridioirrigation comb -clysis irritate base erethisischium comb ischi(o)- island base insul-isomer comb pseudo-
isthmus base isthm-
Italy comb Italo-
itch comb acari-, scabi-; base -prur-, psor-
ivory base ebur-
ivy base ciss-, -heder-

J

jackass base as-², asin-jackdaw base gracul-
jagged comb serrato-; base cren-¹, lacin-
jail base -carcer-
jam comb emboli-, embolo-; base
 -byon-, -farct-
jaundice comb icter(o)- jaw comb genia-, genio-, geny-¹, gnatho-, -gnathous, mandibulo, maxillo-; ~bone: base -siagonjay base garrul-
jealous base -emul-jeer comb catagelo-, katagelojeopardy base pericul-jejenum comb jejunojellyfish base discophor-jerk comb -chorea, choreo-,
 -clonic, -clonus, -esmus, -ismus,

spasmo-, -tonic; base -stal-,
 -vellic-
jest base joco(s)-, jocu(l)- jewel base -gemm-²
Jewish comb Judaico-, Judaeo-, Judeo-
jilt base relinq-, repudjingling base tinn-
job comb arti-, -craft, -ergasia, ergasio-, -ergic, ergo-, -ergy, organo-, -urgy; base -opus-,
 pono-; suf -arian
join comb -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-, junct-; base -aps-, -apt-¹,
 -greg-, -soc-; suf -ate, -ize; ~to- gether: pre co-; comb conjugatojoint body~: comb arthr(o)-, articul-; ~socket: gleno-; jointed:
base -enarthra-

joke base joco(s)-, jocu(l)- journey comb hodo-, -ode, odo-, via-; base -itin-, peregrinjoy comb chero-; base beati-, elat-, felic-, gaud-, jubil-, macarjudging comb -gnomy, -gnosia,
 -gnosis, -gnostic; base -crit-¹,
 -judic-, krit-, -soph-
jug base urcei-
juice comb opo-; base -suc-

jump base -salta-
junction pre co-; comb conjugato-,
 -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-,
 junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-,
 -soc-; suf -ate, -ize jurisdiction suf -dom, -ric justice comb dike-
juvenile comb paedo-, pedi-, pedo-, proli-, tecno-; base -fil-, -puer-,
 tek-

K

kangaroo base macropodkeel base -carin-
keen base -acer(b)-
keep comb -serve, -tain; base custod-, -ten-; ~away: comb alex-, alexi-, alexo-
keg comb dolio-
kernel comb caryo-, karyo-; base
 -nucl-
kestrel base falcoketone comb keto-; suf -one key comb clavi-¹, cleido-, clidokick base -calcitr-
kidney comb nephro-, pyelo-, reni-, reno-
kidney-bean base phaseolkilling comb -cidal, -cide, -cidious,
 -cidism; base -dacn-, trucid-
kind category: comb -type; suf -atic;
gentle: base -len-, mansue-, miti-,
 moll-
kindle comb causto-, igni- pyro-; base ard-², ars-, cauter-, celo-,
 combust-, crem-, phlog-, -ust-kinetic comb cine-, -drome, dromo-, -dromous, excito-, kine-, -ki-nesi(a), -kinesis, -kinetic, kineso-, kineto-, kino-, -motive, -pragia, - praxia, -praxis, tremo-; base -stal-

kinfolk base cogn-, famil-, stirp-
king base basil-, reg(n)- kingfisher base halcyon-kinked comb cirri-, cochlio-, gyro-, helico-, spiro-, strepto-;
base stromb-. See curl kiss base basiat-, oscul-; tongue~:
 cataglott-
kitchen base culin-
kite bird: base milv-
knack base -apt-, -habil-,
 -poten-, -qual-; suf -bility,
 -ful, -ship
knavish pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, kak-, kako-, mal-, male-, ponero-;
base facin-, flagit-, iniq-, nefar-, perdit-, -prav-, sceler-, scelest-,
 turp-
knead base subig-
knee base gen(u)-
knife comb cultell-, cultri-, sicaknit together base -hapto-, pegm-knob comb clavato-; base condyl-, umbo-
knock base -puls-
knot base -nod-, -tylo-
knowledge comb -gnomy, -gnosia,
 -gnosis, -gnostic, gnoto-, ideo-,

-noia, -nomy, -phrenic, phrenico-, phreno-, psycho-, scio-², -sophy;
base -cogit-, -cogn-, epistem-,

ment(a)-, -noe-, -put-, ratio-,
-scikudu base tragelaph-

L

labia minora comb nympho-labor childbirth: comb lochio-,
-para-, -parous, -tocia, toco-,
toko-, -toky; work: comb -craft, ergic, -ergy, ergo-, -urgy; base ardu-, oper-¹, pono-
laborious pre dys-; comb -bar, bary-, mogi-; base ard³-, strenlaceration comb sparasso-; base
-sparax-
lacking pre a-, an-¹, dis-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, un-; comb lipo-²; base penur-, -priv-; suf -less; ~a part:
comb ectro-; ~an opening: comb
-atresia, atreto-
lactic comb lacto-
ladder base scala-; ~rung: climaclady comb gyn(e)-, gyneco-, gyneo-, gyno-, -gynous, -gyny, -para,
thely-, -wife; base -femin-, muliebr-, mulier-; suf -en, -enne,
-ess, -ette, -ice, -ine, -stress,
-trice, -trix
lake comb limno-; base lacuslamb base -agn-
lame base claud-, debil-lamentation base threnlamp base lampad-, lucern-, lychnlamprey base cyclostom-land comb agri-, agro-, choro-, geo-;
base tellur-, -terr-
language comb -glossia, gloss(o)-,
-glot, glotto-, lingui-, linguo-; suf
-ese. See word
larch base larix-
large(r) pre super-; comb -fold, macro-, magni-, maxi-, plethys-; base -ampl-, grandi-, -maj-. See gigantic larva comb larvi-

larynx comb guttur-, laryngo-lassitude comb pono-; base -fatig-,
-kopo-, lass-
last base eschato-, -fin-, termin-,
-ultim-
lasting base diuturn-, dur(o)-, perenn-, perm-, stabil-
late comb opsi-¹, serot-. See tardy later pre meta-, post-; comb hystero-²
latest comb neo-latex comb latici-
lattice base cancell-, clathr-, craticlaugh comb gel-²; base cachinn-,
-ris-
laurel base daphn-
law comb juris-, nomo-, thesmo-; base jud-, jur-, leg-², regul-lawless comb anomolawsuit base litig-
laxative base chalast-layer(ed) comb -decker, lamelli-, lamini-, lamino-, -plex, strati-, strato-
lazy base oti-, pigrit-lead conduct: comb -arch, -duce,
duc(t)-, magist-; base hegemon-,
-reg-; metal: comb molybdo-, plumbo-
leading comb -agogic, -agogue leaf comb foli(i)-, -folious, petalo-,
-phyll, phyllo-, -phyllous; base

bract-, clad-, frondi-; ~buds: base gemm-¹; ~like: comb foliato-lean comb angusti-, dolicho-, lepto-, mano-, stegno-, steno-, tenu-; base areo-, gracil-, isthm-, maci-, stal-, strict-leap base salta-
learn base disc-, -math, sophleather base alut-, cori-, pelli-, utri-¹; ~bottle: utrei-, utric-leave base relinqleech base bdell-, discophor-, hirus-, sanguisugleek base porr-, praso-left comb laeo-, laevo-, levo-, sinistro-; ~handed: scaev-leg base -cnem-, -crur-, -scel-; condition of~: comb -scelia legend comb mytho-, stori-; base fabul-, -narr-, length base meco-. See long leniency base clem-² lens comb phaco-, phako-, -phakia leopard base pard-
less pre demi-, hypo-, mis-, sub-, subter-; comb meio-, mini-, mio-, oligo-; base dimin-, hesson-, -pauc-lettuce base lactuc-level comb homalo-, homolo-, plain-, plani, plano-¹, platy-; base plat-lever base -mochlliability comb hypegia-, hypengy-; base paraliplice comb pedicul-, phthiro-lick base lamb-, ligur(r)-, ling-⁴ licorice base glycyr-lid base oper-²
lie untruth: base mendac-; recline: base -cub-, -cumb-life comb bio-, -biosis, vita-, vivi-, zoo-, -zoic, -zooid; base -animligament comb desmo-, ligamenti-, ligamento-, syndesmolight not dark: comb actino-, luci-, phengo-, phos-, photo-; base clar-, -luc-, -lum-; not heavy: base levi(t)- lighthouse base fan-, pharlightning comb astra-; base astraph-, fulgur-, fulminlike pre para-, quasi-; comb homeo-, omceo, homoio-, homolo-, iso-, -phane-, -phanic; base simil-; suf -acean-, -aceous-, -al³, -an-, -ar-, -ary-, -ean-, -en-, -eous-, -esque-, -ful-, -ic-, -il-, -ile-, -ine-, -ing-, -ish-, -itious-, -ize-, -like-, -ode², -oid-, -ose², -osity-, -some², -tious-, -ular-, -y likeness comb icono-, -opsis-, -vultliking comb -phile-, -philia-, -philiac-, -philic-, -philism, philo-, -philous lily base lili-, -liriolimb comb -mele-, -melia¹, melo-³ lime CaO: comb calcareo-; base calc-; fruit: tilia-limit comb isch-, koly-, -penia-, -strain-, -strict; base -fin-, -string-, termin-; suf -en; limited to: comb -specific, speciolinden base tilia- (tiliaceus) line comb lineo-, -stichia, sticho-, -stichous; wavy~: comb gyroso-link pre co-; comb conjugato-, -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-, junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-, -soc-; suf -ate-, -ize lion base leo(n)- lips comb cheilo-, chilo-, labio-; base labi-liquid base flu-, -ner-. See water little comb brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, chamae-, micro-, mini-, nano-, parvi-, parvo-, pauci-, steno-; base -curt-, exig-; suf -cle-, -cula-, -cule-, -culum-, -culus-, -een-, -el-, -ella-, -en-, -et-, -ette-, -idion-, -idium-, -ie-, -illa-, -illo-, -isk,

- kin, -le, -let, -ling, -ock, -ola, -ole, -rel, -ula, -ule, -ulum, -ulus, -y
- liver comb hepatico-, hepato-; base jecor-
- living comb bio-, vivi-, -zoic, -zooid; base -anim-, -vit-; ~among: comb -colous; ~in: suf -an
- lizard comb -saur, sauro-, -saurus; base lacert-, stellio-
- load base oner-
- loaded comb -filled, pleni-, pleo-, plero-, pluri-; base -pler-, -plet-; suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -ful, -ilent, -ose, -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y
- lobe comb lobulato-; ear: comb auriculo-
- lobster base astac-, -gammar-, homar-
- location comb -land, loc(o)-, situ-, -stead, topo-, -topy; suf -age, -arium, -ary, -ensis, -ery, -orium, -ory. Also see "Location" in Part III
- lock comb clido-; base cleid-
- locust base locust-
- loins comb laparo-, lumbo-, osphy(o)-
- long comb dolicho-, -footer, longi-, macro-, maxi-; base procer-; ~words: sesquipedal-
- look comb eid(o)-, oculo-, ommat-, -opia, opsi-, -opsia, -opsis, opso-, -opsy, ophthalmo-, optico-, opto-, -scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy, visuo-; base -blep-, -scrut-, -spec-, -spic-, -vid-
- loosen comb lyo-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-, -lyte, -lytic, -lyze; base -liqu-, -solu-, -solv-
- loss of control comb -crasia, -crazy
- loss of knowledge comb -agnosia
- lot comb clero-
- loudness base crepit-, frem-, ligyr-, strep(i)-, strid-, stridul-. See sound
- louse base pedicul-, phthir-, phthyr-
- love comb -phile, -philia, -philic, -philic, -philism, philo-, -philous; base -agap-, -am-, charit-
- loveplay comb paizo-, paraphil-
- low(er) pre hypo-, infero-, infra-, sub-, subter-, under-; comb chamae-, infero-, tapino-; base hystat-
- luck base faust-, tych-
- ludicrous base fatu-, inan-, moro-, stult-
- lumbar comb lumbo-
- lump base gleb-, glom-
- lunch base prand-
- lung(s) comb -pnea, pneo-, pneumato-, pneumo-, pneumono-, pulmo-, pulmoni-, pulmono-, spiro-
- lust comb eroto-, -lagnia, -mania; base appet-, -cup-, -libid-, tentig-
- luster comb sela-; base -fulg-, gano-, lustr-, pheng-, rutil-, stilpno-
- lye base lixiv-
- lying down base -cub-, -cumb-, supin-
- lymph(atic) comb lymphato-, lympho-; ~nodes: comb lymphadeno-; ~vessels: comb lymphangio-
- lynx base lync-
- lyre base lyri-
- lyric comb lyrico-

M

macaw base psittacmachine(s) comb mechanomackerel base scombr-mad comb -margy; base frenet-, -fur-, -ira-
made of suf -en-, -ic madness comb lysso-, -mania; base ament-, dement-
magic base mago-
magnetic force comb magnetomagnify base ampl-, aug-. See increased
magpie base corv-, garull-maim(ed) comb pero-; base -mutil-main comb arch(i)-¹, proto-; base
 -prim-, -princip-; ~land: comb epeiro-
make, making pre em-, en-; comb
 -craft, ergo-, -facient, -fer-, -fic,
 -fication, -gen, -genesis, -genic,
 -genous, -geny, -gerous, ideo-,
 -parous, -phor, -phorous, -plast,
 -plastic, plasto-, -plasty, poiesis,
 -poietic, -urgy; base -fabr-, -fac-,
 -fec-¹; suf -ate, -atory, -en-, -ic,
 -ing, -fy, -ize, -otic
Malay comb Malayo-
male comb andr(o)-, -androus,
 -andry, arrhen-, masculino-; base
 viril-
malevolent pre dys-, mis-; comb
 caco-, iniq-, kak(o)-, mal(e)-, ponero-; base -prav-, sceler-,
 turp-
malformed comb pero-; base
 -mutil-
malfunction pre dys-
malnutrition comb -atrophia,
 -atrophic
manage base ger-¹
manatee base trichec-
mane base jubat-

manganese comb mangani-, mangano-
mangle comb sparasso-; base lacer-, lania-, sparax-. See maim manifest comb luci-, phanero-, pheno-; base -clar-
mankind comb anthropo-manner comb -wise
mantle comb pallio-
manufactured product suf -ite
many comb multi-, myria-, myrio-, pluri-, poly-, sychno-; ~colored:
comb poecilo-; ~times: comb pol-laki-. See increased map comb carto-, chartomaple base acer-² marble base -marm-
marine comb halo-, mari-, thalasso-, thalatto-; base naut-, nav-, pelagmark base stigm-
marlin base istiophor-marmoset comb callithri-marmot base sciur-
marriage comb gameto-, gamo-,
 -gamous, -gamy; base conjug-, marit-, -nub-, -nupt-
marrow comb -myelia, myelo-Mars comb areo-¹
marsh comb helo-², palud-, palus-, ulig-
marten base mustel-
martin base hirund-
masculine comb andro, -androus,
 -andry, arrhen-, masculino-; base
 viril-
master comb magist-, maha-; base heri-
mastoid comb mastoidomatching pre para-, quasi-; comb homeo-, omœo, homoio-,
 homolo-, iso-, -phane, -phanic;
base simil-; suf -acean-, -aceous,

-al, -an, -ar, -ary, -ean, -en,
-eous, -esque, -ful, -ic, -il, -ile, -ine, -ing, -ish, -itious, -ize, -like,
-ode, -oid, -ose, -osity, -some,
-tious, -ular, -y

material for suf -ing

matter comb hylo-

maxilla comb maxillo-

maxim base gnom-

maximum pre hyper-

meadow base prat-; ~lark:

icter-

meager comb oligo-, -penia, ptocho-, vidu-; base -mendic-,

-paup-, penur-, -pov-

meal comb deipno-; base cen-, coen-, prand-. See food. Also see

"Food" in Part III

means suf -cle, -ment¹ measure comb -meal, -meter,

-metric(s), metro-, -metry meat comb -burger, carni-, carnos-, creo-, kreo-, -sarc, sarco-; ~mar- ket: macell-

mechanical comb mechanico-; base

banaus-

medical comb medico-; base -san-;

~treatment: comb -iatrics, iatro-,

-iatry

medicine base pharma(co)- mediocre pre hypo-, sub-, under-;

comb hystero-; base hesson-; suf

-aster

meditate base melet-

medium comb mesati-, metrio-. See middle meeting base congress-, congru-

melt comb lyo-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-,

-lyte, -lytic, -lyze; base -liqu-,

-solu-, -solv-

membrane comb chorio-, choroid-, hymeno-, membrano-; eyeball~:

sclero-; fetal~: allant(o)-, amnio-;

~partition: comb mediastino-;

mucous~: comb muc-, muco-, mucoso-; ~sheath: comb

meningo-

memory comb -mnesia, -mnesis;

base -mem-, -mnem-

meninges comb meningo-menstrual comb emmen-, -menia, men(o)-

mental comb -gnomy, -gnosis,

-gnostic, -gnoto, ideo-, -noia,

-nomy, phren(o)-, psycho-,

-sophy, thymo-; base -cogit-,

-cogn-, -noe-, -put-, -ratio-, -sci-;

~disorder: comb -mania, -phre-

nia, -phrenic, phrenico-, phreno-,

-thymia¹

merchandise base empor-, emptmercy base clem-², mansue-mere comb psilo-

mesentery comb meso-

metacarpus comb metacarpometal comb metalli-, metallo-;

~plate: base -elasmometatarsus comb metatarso-meteor names suf -id¹

meteorological front comb fronto-

method comb -craft; suf -ade, -age,

-al, -ance, -ancy, -asis, -asm,

-ation, -cy, -ence, -ency, -ery,

-esis, -iasis, -ice, -ics, -ing, -ion,

-ism, -ment, -osis, -otic, -sion,

-sis, -th, -tion, -tious, -ture, -ure,

-y, -ysis

methyl comb metho-

middle comb centri-, -centric, centro-, medi(o)-, mesati-, mesio-, meso-, mezzo-, mid-

mighty comb dino-. See powerful mild base -len-, mansue-, miti-¹,

moll-

milk(y) comb galact(o)-, lacti-, lacto-

mill base molend-

million comb mega-

millionth comb micromillipede base arthropod-, diplopod mind comb -gnomy, -gnosis, -gnostic, -gnoto, ideo-, -noia, -nomy, phren(o)-, psycho-, -sophy, thymo-, -witted; base -cogit-, -cogn-, ment-², -noe-, -noo-, -put-, -ratio-, -sci-; ~disorder: comb -mania, -phrenia, -phrenic, -thymia mine base bothro-

mineral suf -ite, -lite mink base mustel-

minnow base cyprin-

minor insignificant: base -nuga-.
See small. child: comb paed-, pedi-, pedo-, proli-, tecno-; base -fil-, -puer-, tek-mint base menth-

miracle comb thaumatomirror comb catoptro-, eisoptro-, enoptro-, spectro-misery base aerumn-

missile base ballist-

missing pre a-, an-, des-¹, dis-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, un-; comb lipo-; base paralip-, -priv-; suf -less; ~a part: comb ectro-; ~an opening: comb -atresia, atreto-mist comb fracto-, nepho-, nephelo-; base calig-, -nebul-, -nubmistake base culp-, delict-, laps-, pecc-, sphal-

mistletoe comb ixomite comb acari-, acarin-, acaro-, miti-². See termite miter base mitri-

mixed, mixture comb mixo-, -crasia; base farrag-, -misc-, -phyr-, -temp-

mob comb ochlo-

mobility comb cine-, -drome, -dromo-, -dromous, excito-, kine-, -kinesi(a), -kinesis, -kinetic, kineso-, kineto-, kino-, -motive, -pragia, -praxia, -praxis, tremo-; base -stal-

mockery base deris-

mockingbird base -mim-moderate base metrio-. See medium modern comb neo-. See new modesty base -pud-, verecund-modification comb allo-, anomal-, anomo-, poikilo-; base -mut-. See change moisture comb hydro-, hygro-; base humect-, mad-, ulig-molded comb -plast, -plastic, -plasto-, -plasty mole blemish: base nev(o)-; animal: base talpmole rat base zemni-

mollusks comb malaco-; base molluscmoney comb -penny; base chremat-, -numm-, -pecun-, quaestmongoose base viverrmonkey base cebo-, pithec-monster comb terato-; base pelormonth base mens-

monthly base emmen-

mood comb thymo-

moon comb luni-, lunu-, seleno-moose base cervi-

moral pre bene-, eu-; base agath-, bon-, probmoray base muraen-

morbid condition comb -iasis; suf -oma more pre ad-, extra-, super-; comb auxano-, auxeto-, auxo-, multi-, myria-, myrio-, out-, over-, -plasia, pleni-, pleo-, pleio-, pleon-, plethys-, plio-, pluri-, pollaki-, poly-; base -aug-, -cresc-, -fold-, -pler-, -plet-. See addition morning base -matut-mortal base thneto-, thripto-

mortgage base -pign-

mosquito comb anophel-, culici-; base aedmoss comb bryo-; base musc-², sphagn-, splachn-

most comb pleisto-

moth base arct-, phalaen-, tine-mother comb mater-, matri-, metr-, -para

mother-in-law base socrus-, penther-

motion comb cine-, -drome, dromo-, -dromous, excito-, kine-,
-kinesi(a), -kinesis, -kinetic, kineso-, kineto-, kino-, -motive,
-pragia, -praxia, -praxis, tremo-;
base -stal-

motor comb moto-

mountain comb oreo-, oro-²; base
-mont-; ~ash: sorb-²

mourning comb lype-; base dolor-,
-fleb-, -flet-, -luct-, trist-

mouse base mur-¹, myo-² mouth comb -mouthed, or-¹, oro-, stomato-, -stome, -stomous; roof of~: comb palato-, uranisco-, urano-; ~wash: collutmove comb -grade, -motive,

-planian, plano-²; base -bat-, -ced-,
-cess-, -cur(s), -grad-, -gress-,
-mob-, -mot-, mov-, -vad-, -vas-; ~away: comb allelo-, out-; ~for- ward: comb pro-; ~toward: comb
-petal

movies base cine-

muck comb blenno-, -chezia, copro-, lim-, muc-, muco-, myco-, myso-,
-myxia, myxo-, p(a)edo-, scato-, stegno-, sterco-; base -fecu-, -fim-, molys-, rhypar-

mucus comb blenno-, muc-, muco-, mucoso-, -myxia, myxo-

mud comb pelo-; base -lim-, lutmulberry base -mor-², -mur-³ mulish base contum-, obstin-,

pervic-, proterv-

mullet base mugil-

multiform comb polymorphomultitude comb ochlo-

mummy base mummi-

murder comb -cidal, -cide, -cidious,
-cidism; base dacn-, trucid-

murky comb ambly-, melano-, nycto-, scoto-; base achlu-,
amaur-, fusc-, lyg-, obscur-, opac-,
tenebr-

murmur base frem-, mussit-, susurr-

muscle comb musculo-, myo-¹,
-tonic; ~tension: -tonia mushroom comb agar-, fungi-, myco-. See fungus

music comb melo-¹, musico-, -tonic

musk base -mosch-

muskrat base cricet-

mussel base mytil-

mustard base sinap-

musty base mucid-

mutable pre be-, em-, en-, meta-, trans-; comb aetio-, -blast, -blas-
tic, blasto-, -craft, ergo-, etio-,
-facient, -fic, -fication, -gen,
-genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny,
-parous, -plasia, -plasis, plasmo-,
-plast, -plastic, plasto-, -plasty,
-poiesis, -poietic, -trope, -tropic,
-tropism, tropo-, -tropous, -tropy,
-urgy; base camb-, -fabr-, -fec-,
-mut-, -vari-, -vert-; suf -ate, en,
-fy, -ize, -otic

mutter see murmur

mutual pre co-, enter-, inter-, syl-, sym-, syn-, sys-; comb allelo-, hama-, symphyo-, synchro-; base
-allac-, -allag-, -allaxis-, -mutu-

myrtle base myrti-

mystical comb mystico-

myth comb mytho-

N

nail comb helo-¹, onych-, onychia, onycho-, scolo-; base clav-, unguinaked comb gymno-, nudi- psiloname comb nomato-, -nomia, onomato-, -onym; base appell-, -nom-, -nymnames of ~acids: suf -onic; ~alco- hols: suf -itol; ~animals: suf -id, -ida, -idae, -iformes, -zooic;

~bacteria: suf -ella; ~classes: suf -acea, -aceae, -ia, -oidea; ~com- panies: suf -co, -ine; ~com- pounds: suf -ide, -idine; ~coun- try: comb -land; suf -ia;

~directions: suf -ern; ~diseases: comb -aemia, -emia; suf -asis, -ia, -itis, -osis; ~electronic devices:

comb -tron; ~enzymes: suf -ase;

~families: suf -idae; ~festivals:

comb -fest, -mas; suf -ia; ~genera:

suf -aria, -odus, -soma; ~groups:

comb -zoa, -zoon; suf -aria, -id,

-ini; ~hormones: suf -kinin;

~meteors: suf -id; ~minerals: suf -lite; ~neutral substances: suf -in ;

~numerals, collective: suf -ad;

~orders: suf -acea; ~plants: suf -ad, -ales, -ia; ~radicals: suf -yl;

~super-families: suf -oidea; taxo-

nomic~: suf -ota, -ote narcotics comb leth-, mecon-, narco-

narrow comb angusti-, areo-, dolicho-, isthm-, lepto-, stegno-, steno-; base -phim-, -stal-,

-strict-, -tenu-

nasal comb nasi-, naso-, rhino-nationality suf -an, -ean, -ian, -ish,

-ite, -n

nature comb -ousia, -ousian; base

quid-

natural comb innato-, physico-, physi-, physionavel comb omphalo-, umbilicinear pre a-, ac-, ad-, af-, ag-, al-, an-, ap-, ar-, as-, at-, by-, cis-¹,

epi-, para-, peri-; comb juxta-, citra-, pene-, plesio-, proximo-; base propinq-. See adjacent nebulous base ambig, dub-, ancipneck comb atlo-, cervico-, coll-¹, jug-, trachelo-; base -auchen-

necklace base monil-

needle comb aci-, acicul-; base

acer-¹, -aichm-, -belon-negatives pre a-, ab-, an-, anti-,

apo-, cata-, de-, dis-, dys-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, mal-, mis-, ne-, non-¹, ob-, un-; comb anti-, -atresia, atreto-, contra-, counter-, ectro-, lipo-, mal-, neutro-, nihil-, no-, nulli-, with-; base -priv-; suf -less neglect base paralip-neighbor base geiton(o)- neoplasm suf -oma

nephew base nepo-

nerve comb ganglio-, nervi-, nervo-, neuro-

nest base -cali-, nid(i)- net/network comb dictyo-, -plex, reti-, reticulato-, reticulonettle comb cnido-; base -urticneutral(izing) pre anti-; comb neutro-

neutral substances suf -in new comb caeno-², caino-, cainoto-,

-cene, ceno-¹, cenoto-, kaino-, kainoto-, neo-, thalero-; base

-nov-¹

NH comb ~acid radicals: -imido;

~nonacid radicals: imino-nicknames suf -y³

night comb nocti-, nycta-, nycti-, nycto-; base -crepus-, -vesper-;

all~: comb -pannychy
nightingale base philomelnightmare base malneironimbleness comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy-; base alacr-, celer-, festin-,
 veloc-
nine comb ennea-, nona-; base
 -nov-²; ~hundred: enneacent-.
Also see "Numbers" in Part III
nineteen base enneakaideca-, unde-viginti-
ninety base enneaconta-, nonagen-, nonages-
ninth base non-²
nip base vellic-
nipple comb mamilli-, papilli-, papillo-, papilloso-, thelo-, umbo-.
See breast
niter comb nitro-
nitrogen comb azo-, nitro-, nitroso-; ~plus hydrocarbon: diazo-
NO radical comb nitro(so)- nod base nut(a)-
noise base crepit-, frem-, ligyr-, strep(i)-, strid-, stridul-. See
 sound
noiseless comb hesy-; base -plac-, quiesc-, -tacit-
nonacid radical comb -amine, amino-
none comb nulli-. See negatives nonsense base fatu-, inan-, moro-, stult-
noon base merid-
normal comb normo-Norman comb Normanonorth base borea-, septennorthern lights comb aurora-nose comb nasi-, naso-, rhino-, rhyncho-, -rrhyncha. See beak.
 ~bleed: epistax-; ~blowing:
 emunct-; snub~: simo-; sneer:
 mycter-
nostrils base nari-

not pre a-³, ab-, an-¹, apo-, cata-, de-, dis-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, mis-, ne-, non-¹, ob-, un-; comb anti-, contra-, counter-, mal-, neutro-, no-, nulli-, with-; suf
 -less
not having pre a-, an-, des-, dis-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, un-; comb
 -atresia, atreto-, ectro-, lipo-; base
 -priv-; suf -less
notch comb crenato-, crenulato-.
See jagged
nothing base nihili-
notion comb -gnomy, -gnosia,
 -gnosis, -gnostic, gnoto-, ideo-,
 -noia, -nomy, phreno-, psycho-,
 -sophy base -cogit-, -cogn-, epis-
 tem-, -noe-, -put-, ratio-, -sci-nourishment comb bromato-,
 -brotic, manduc-, opso-, -phage,
 -phago, -phagous, -phagy, -sitia,
 sitio-, sito-, -trophia, -trophic,
 tropho-, -trophy, -vora-, -vore,
 -vorous; base -alim-, -cib-, -gust-,
 -nutr-, thrept-
noxious comb noci-, pesti-; base
 -nox-, pericul-
nucleus comb caryo-, karyo-, nucleo-
number base -numer-; even~: comb artio-; uneven~: comb impari-, perisso-; a number of: suf -age,
 -some³. Also see "Numbers" in
 Part III
numbness comb narco-; base torpnumerals base arithm-; cardinal~:
suf -teen; collective~: suf -ad;
ordinal~: suf -eth, -th. Also see
 "Numbers" in Part III
numerous comb multi-, myria-, myrio-, pluri-, poly-, sychno-nurse comb threptero-nut, nut-shaped comb caryo-, karyo-, nuci-, nucleo-
nuthatch base sitt-

nutmeg base myrist-
nutrition comb bromato-, -brotic, manduc-, opso-, -phage, -phago,
 -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-,

sito-, -trophia, -trophic, tropho-,
 -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous;
base -alim-, -cib-, -gust-, -nutr-, thrept-

O

oak base querc(i)-; evergreen~:
 cerr-
oar comb -reme, remi-oats base aven(i)- obedient base moriger-
obese comb adip(o)-, lipo-, pimel(o)-, pio-, stearo-, steato-;
base -aliph-, lipar-, -obes-,
 -pingu-, sebo-
object of an action suf -ate objective comb teleo-, telo-, ultim(o)-; base -fin-, -termin-
oblige base -mand-
oblique comb loxo-, plagio-; base ambag-
oblong comb oblongo-
obscenity base aischro-, borbor-, copro-, fescinn-
obscure comb enigmato-; base
 ambig, dub-, acip-
observe comb eid(o)-, oculo-,
 ommat-, -opia, opsi-, -opsia,
 -opsis, opso-, -opsy, ophthalmo-, optico-, opto-, -scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy, visuo-; base -blep-,
 -scrut-, -spec-, -spic-, -vidobsessed with comb -aholic,
 -lagnia, -philia, -ridden obstinate base contum-, obstin-,
 pervic-, proterv-
obstructed comb brady-; base
 -cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tard-
obstruction comb emboli-, embolo-; base -byon-, -farct-
obtain base -cap-, -cep-, -cip-,
 -dyte-

obtuse comb obtusiobvious comb lampro, luc-, luci-;
base -clar-
ocean comb halo-, mari-, thalasso-, thalatto-; base aequor-, naut-, nav-, pelag-
occipital comb occipito-occupation comb arti-, -craft, -
 -ergasia, ergasio-, -ergic, ergo-,
 -ergy, organo-, -urgy; base -opus-,
 pono-; suf -arian
odd-numbered comb impari-odor comb brom(o)-, -odic, odori-, odoro-, -olent, olfacto-, -osmia,
 osmo-¹, osphresio-, ozo-, ozono-;
base fet-, nidor-. See also "The Senses" in Part III
of suf -acean, -aceous, -ac², -ad², -al,
 -an, -ar, -arious, -ary, -atic,
 -ative, -atory, -eae, -ean, -eous,
 -ery, -etic, -ial, -ian, -ic, -id, -il,
 -ile, -ina, -inae, -ine, -ing, -ious,
 -istic, -ite, -itic, -itious, -itive,
 -ive, -oidea, -ory, -otic, -tious,
 -tive, -ular
off pre ab-, apo-, de-, ex-, for-offering base -don-, -thy-office suf -acy, -ate³, -cy, -dom,
 -ship
offspring comb proli-
often comb pluri-, pollaki-, poly-; base crebr-; suf -le
oil comb elaeo-, elaio-, eleo-, olea-,
 -oleic, oleo-
ointment comb myro-; base -unct-, ungu-

old comb archaeo-, archeo-, eo-, gerasco-, gero-, geronto-, grand-, paleo-, presbyo-; base -antiq-, -sen-, -vet-; ~age: ger-²; ~woman: graoomission pre a-, an-, dis-, ex-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, un-; comb lipo-; base -priv-; suf -less; ~of an opening: comb -atresia, atreto-; ~of a part: comb ectro-

on pre ana-, epi-, ob-, sur-; ~both sides: comb amph(i)-; ~the left side: comb laeo-, laevo-, levo-, sinistro-; ~the other side: pre trans-; ~the outside: pre epi-; ~the right side: comb dextro-, dextro-; ~the side: pre by-; comb lateri-, latero-; ~this side of: pre cis-; comb citra-; ~top: pre super-

one comb eka-, haplo-, heno-, mono-, uni-; ~and one-half: comb sesqui-; ~billion: comb giga-; ~billionth: comb nan(n)o-; ~by one: katheno-; ~fifth: quint-; ~fourth: comb tetarto-; ~half: comb demi-, dicho-, dimid-, hemi-, mezzo-, semi-; ~heptillion: comb yotta-; ~heptillionth: comb yocto-; ~hexillion: comb zetta-; ~hexillionth: comb zepto-; ~hundred: comb centi-, hecato-, hecto-, hekto-; ~hundredth: comb centi-; ~million: comb mega-; ~millionth: comb micro-; ~quadrillion: comb femto-; ~quadrillionth: comb peta-; ~quintillion: comb atto-; ~quintillionth: comb exa-; ~thousand: comb chili-, kilo-; ~thousandth: comb milli-; ~trillion: comb pico-; ~trillionth: comb tera-. See also "Numbers" in Part III one who __ suf -aholic, -aire, -an, -ant, -ar², -ard², -arian, -art, -ary, -ast, -ate, -ator, -ee, -eer, -en,

-ent, -er, -ette, -eur, -fer, -ician, -ier, -ior, -ist, -le, -man, -nik, -o, -or, -person, -people, -ster, -woman, -yer; ~is well versed in __: -logist one-eyed base lusc-

one's own comb heauto-, idio-, proprio-, self-, sui-onion base cep-², cromny-ooze base ulig-

opaque comb glauco-

open space comb agora-, ceno-, keno-opening base -apert-, -cav-, fenest-, foram-, ægo-, oigo-, osti-, patul-, pylo-, rim, valv-; lack of~: comb -atresia, atreto-; surgical~: -stomy operation comb -ectomy opinion base gnom-

opium base mecon-

opossum base didelph-

opposite pre anti-, contra-, contre-, dis-, hetero-, ob-, un-; comb back-, counter-, enantio-, oppositioption base -opt-, -vol-opulence comb chryso-, pluto-; base chrem-, -opul-, pecunoracle comb chresmo-

orange fruit: base -hesperid-; color: base auranti-. Also see "Colors" in Part III orangutan base -pong-orb comb ano-, annul-, crico-, cyclo-, disco-, globi-, globo-, glom-, gyro-, orbito-, -sphere, sphero-, stilli-, zon-, zoni-; base -anu-, -cing-, -cinct-, -circin-, -circul-, -coron-, -glomer-, -numm-, -orb-, -rot-, -troch-orbit comb orbito-

orchid comb orchido-¹ order placement: comb -tactous, taxi-, -taxia-, -taxis, taxo-, -taxy; base -pon-, -pos-; command: base imper-, -jus-, -mand-ordinary people comb demo-, base -pleb-, -popul-organ comb organo-, suf -ite; having female~: comb -gynous; having male~: comb -androus organic comb organoorigin comb aetio-, -blast, blasto-, -blasty, -carp, -carpic, carpo-, -carpous, etio-, -gen, -genic, -genesis, -genous, -geny, -gone, -gonium, gono-, -gony, -phyletic, sperma-, spermal, spermatio-, spermato-, spermi-, -spermic, spermo-, -spermous, sporo-, base -init-, suf -esce, -escence, -escent original comb archaeo-, primi-, primo-, proto-originate base inaug-, incip-, init-oriole base -icterosmium comb osmio-

osmosis comb osmo-²
osprey base ossifrag-ostrich base -rat-, struthi-other comb allo-, alter-, hetero-, base -ali-² otter base -lutrout of pre e-, ec-, ef-, ex-. See out-side outcome comb ergo-, -ergic, -ergy; suf -age, -asm, -ata, -ation, -ency, -ism, -ma, -ment, -mony, -sion, -ure outgrowth comb cele-, -edema, ganglio-, -phym(a); base -tum-outside pre epi-, exo-, extra-, extro-, para-, preter-, comb ecto-, extero-, foris-, out-. See out of outskirts base limin-, marg-ovary comb gyn(o)-, -gynous, -gyny, oario-, oophoro-, ovarioover above: pre ano-, meta-, ob-, preter-, super-, supra-, sur-, sursum-, comb over-, again: pre ana-, re-, base -palin-, excessive: pre hyper-, super-, ultra-, comb over-, poly-overflow base antlo-, diluv-, inund-oversight base culp-, delict-, laps-, pecc-, sphal-overt comb lampro-, luc-, luci-, -phane, phanero-, -phanic, -phany, pheno-, base -clar-, -schem-, -spec-, -spic-overthrow base vict-, -vinc-overweight base obes-, pingu-ovum comb oo-, ovario-, ovi-¹, ovo-owl base strigi-, tyto-, ulul-² ox comb bou-, bov-, bu-oxygen comb oxa-, oxy-²; deprived of~: comb deoxy-oyster comb ostrei-, ostreo-, base -ostracozone comb ozono-

P

pack together base stip-² pad comb tylo-
page size suf -mo
pain comb alge-, algesi-, -algia, algo-, -algy, -dynia, noci-, -odynia, odyno-, pono-¹; base dolor-, -nox-, sudden~: comb -agra. See suffering paint base -pict-, pigm-pairs pre bi- comb conjugato-, didymo-, diplo-, zyga-, zygo-palate comb palato-, uranisco-, urano-, velarpaleontological comb paleo-palliative base anet-, -len-, miti-¹ pallium comb pallio-

palm hand: comb palmati-, palmato-; tree: base palmacpan comb lecano-
pancreas comb pancreato-, pancreopander comb leno- (lenocinant) panic comb -phobe-, -phobia,
 -phobic, phobo-; base pavid-,
 tim(or)-, -trem-, -trep-. Also see
 "Fear" in Part III
paper comb carto-, charto-, papyro-papillary comb papilli-, papillo-, papilloso-
papule comb papulo-
papyrus comb papyro-
parachute (using) comb para-parade comb -cade
paraffin series: hydrocarbon suf
 -ane
parakeet base psittacparalysis comb -plegia, -plegy paramount comb arch-, archi-, proto-; base -prim-, -principparasite base colaco-, parasit-, pothiri-, trypano-, vermin-parasol base umbell(i)-, umbrell(i)- parched comb carpho-, xero-; base arid-, celo-, cherso-, -sicc-parchment base pergamenparent form comb proto-parietal comb parieto-parrot base psittac-
parsley base petrosel-
part(s) comb -fold-, -meran,
 -mer(e), mer(o)-¹, -merous, par-,
 parti-
participant suf -ade; ~in govt: comb
 -crat
particular comb -specific partition comb parieto-, -phragma, phragmo-, septo-; base -mur-partly comb demi-, hemi-, semi-;
~serious: serio-
partridge base gallinac-, -perdic-,
 -perdri-
parturient comb -para

pass base -bat-
passage comb isthm-, meato-, over-, poro-, soleno-; base -bat-past comb preter-paste base glutin-. See glue pastoral care base poimenpatch comb emboli-, embolo-,
 -plakia
path comb -ode¹, odo-; base -itin-,
 -via-
pathetic base fleb-, tristpawn base pign-
pay base -pend-, -pens-pea comb pisi-
peace base -eiren-, -iren-, -pac-,
 -pax-
peach base persic-
peacock base pavon-
peak comb coryph-
peanut base arach-
pear comb apio-, piri¹-, piro-, pyripearl base margarit-
peat bog base turbar-pebble comb pesso-, psepho-; base calcul-. See stone peculiar comb aetheo-, anom(o)-, anomal-. See irregular peculiarity of suf -ism peel comb -lemma²
pejorative suf -aster, -erel pelican base onocrot-, pelecantpelvis comb pelvi-, perineo-, pyelo-
pen base styl-
penguin base sphenisc-peninsula base chersones-penis comb peo-, phall(o)-; base med-, mentul-
pennant base vexill-
penniless comb -penia, ptocho-, vidu-; base -mendic-, -paup-, penur-, -pov-
people comb dem(o)-, ethno-; base anthrop-, -pleb-, -popul-, -vulg-pepper base piper-

perception comb -esthesia, -esthesia, percepto-perch fish: base perc- sit: base -sesspercussion comb pless(i)-; base
 -crot-, -cuss-, -puls-, -tus-, vapul-, verber-
perforation comb -tresia. See tear perfume comb myro-, -thymia² pericardial comb pericardiaco-, pericardio-
peril base pericul-
perineum comb perineo-
period time: comb back-, chrono-, eo-, horo-, paleo, protero-, yester-;
menstrual: comb emmen-,
 -menia, meno-
periosteum comb periosteo-perishable base caduc-, fragilperitoneum comb meso-, peritoneo-permanent base diuturn-, dur(o)-, perenn-, perm-, stabil-
pernicious comb noci-, pesti-; base
 -nox-, pericul-
perpetual base assid-, contin-, in-cess-, perpet-
person suf -aholic, -aire, -an, -ant,
 -ard, -arian, -art, -ary, -ast, -ate,
 -ator, -ee, -eer, -en, -ent, -er,
 -ette, -eur, -fer, -ician, -ier, -ior,
 -ist, -le, -ling¹, -man, -nik, -o,
 -or², -person, -people, -ster,
 -woman, -yer
personal comb idio-, proprio-, selfperspiration comb sudori-; base
 -hidr-, -suda-
persuade base -duc-
pertaining to suf -ac², -acean, -aceous, -ad, -al, -an, -ar², -ari-ous, -ary, -atic, -ative, -atory,
 -eae, -ean, -eous, -ery, -etic, -ial,
 -ian, -ic, -id, -il, -ile, -ina, -inae,
 -ine, -ing, -ious, -istic, -ite, -itic,
 -itious, -itive, -ive, -oidea, -ory,
 -otic, -tious, -tive, -ular pest comb pesti-, vermin-pestilence comb loemo-, loimo-. See disease

petal comb petuli-, -sepalous petroleum comb petropetty base pusill-, rhopopharynx comb pharyngopheasant base alector-, gallinac-, phasian-
phenanthrene comb phenanthro-phenol base carbol-; suf -ol phenyl comb pheno-philosophical comb philosophicophonetic comb phonetico-phosphorous comb phospho-, phosphoro-
phrase comb phraseo-
phylum comb phylo-
physical comb physi-, physico-, physio-; ~love: erotopiece comb clasmato-, -fid; base frag-, frust-, -par-
pig base porcin-, sui-
pig-headed base contum-, obstin-,
 pervic-, proterv-
pigeon base columb-, palumb-, perister-, pullastr-
pile base -acerv-, conger-, -cumul-pillar comb column-, stylo-²; ~like:
 paxill-; small~: columelli-pillow base pulvinpimp base leno-
pimple comb pustulo-
pin base acu-, belonpinch base -rrhexo-
pine base -peuce-, pin-; ~cone:
 strobil-
pineapple base bromel- (bromeliaceous)
pipe comb aulo-, follic-, salpingo-, siphoni-, siphono-, solen(o)-, sy-ringo-, tubi-, tubo-, tubuli-, vasi-; base calam-, fistul-, -syrpistil comb gyn(o)-, -gynous, -gyny pit base -taph(o)-, taphropitcher comb urcei-, urceo-pitted base bothr-, fov-, scrobic-place, a comb -land, loco-, situ-,

 -stead, topo-, -topy, ubi-; suf
 -ensis; ~of: suf -age; ~for: suf
 -arium, -ary, -cle, -ery, -orium, ory. Also see "Location" in Part III
place, to comb -thesis, -thetic; base
 -pon-, -pos-; suf -en placenta base mazo-¹, placentiplait comb pleco, plectoplane surface: comb explanato-, plani-, plano-¹
plant growth: unequal comb -nastic, -nasty
plants comb botano-, herbi-,
 -phyte, phyto-, vegeti-, vegeto-;
suf -ad, -aceae, -ales, -eae, -ia plastic surgery comb -plasty plate comb lamelli-, lamini-, lamino-, placo-; base -tect-;
metal~: comb elasm-
platinum comb platini-, platinoplatypus base monotrem-, protother-
play comb -lude
please base delect-, -plac-, volupt-pleasure base -hedon-, voluptpleura comb pleuro-plover base charadr-, pluvial-pluck base -tillo-, -vellic-plug comb emboli-, embolo-; base
 -byon-, -farct-
plunge comb -merge, -merse plural suf -a, -aceae, -aceae, -ae,
 -des², -eae, -en², -es, -i, -ia, -ata,
 -ota, -s; collective~: suf -ana pod base kelyph-, siliqupoems comb rhapso-; base -metr-, muso-; suf -ad
pointed comb acantho-, aceto-, acetyl-, acid-, acro-, acu-, acuti-, cusp-, mucro-, oxy-¹, spiculi-, spiculo-, stylo-¹; base -acerb-, aci-,

-aichm-, -aichur-, -belon-, fastig-, muric-, -punct-, -piq-, -pung-,
 stigm-
points, having comb punctato-poison comb tox(i), toxico-, -toxin, toxo-¹, veneno-
polar comb polari-
polecat base mustel-
police officer base alytpolished base levig-, xest-political comb politicopollen comb palyn-, pollini-pollute base -turppolymer of pre meta-pomegranate base balaustpond, pool comb limno-; base lacus-, stagn-
poor deficient: comb -isch-, oligo-,
 -penia; penniless: comb ptocho-,
 vidu-; base -mendic-, -paup-, penur-, -pov-; quality: comb
 caco-, kako-
poppy comb opio-, papaver-; base
 -mecon-
porcelain base potichoporcupine base hystric-pore comb pori-, poro-, poroso-pork base porc-
porphyritic rock comb -phyre - porpoise base delphin-, phoeaenportal comb porto-portion base par-¹
position office: suf -acy, -ate, -cy,
 -dom, -ship
possessing comb -echia; suf -acéan,
 -aceous, -al, -ate, -ed, -ful, -ger-
 ous, -ial, -ine, -ious, -itious, -ory,
 -ous, -some, -ulent, -ulous, -wise,
 -y; base -ten-; ~parts: comb -fold
possibility suf -atile postage stamp base philatel-, tim-broposterior comb posteropotassium comb kal(i)- potency comb dyna-, dynamo-, mega-, megalo-, -megaly, -sthenia, stheno-; base -forc-, -fort-, -poten-, robor-; ~to do or be: suf -bility pouch comb angio-, asco-, burs(o)-, -ceco, chlamyd-, chrysalis-, coleo-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, meningo-, pericardiac-, pericardio-, peritoneo-, physa-, physali-, physo-, theca-, theco-, typhlo-, utric-, vesico-; base marsup-, -sacc-, scrot-, -thylac-poultry base gallin-

pound comb -cuss-, plessi-, rhabdo-; base -cop-, -crot-, fustig-, plang-, puls-, quass-, vapul-, -verberpour base -chys-, -chyt-, -flu-, -fus-poverty comb -penia, ptocho-, vidu-; base -mendic-, -paup-, penur-, -povpower(ful) comb -crat, crato-, dyna-, dynamo-, mega-, megalo-, -megaly, stheno-; base -forc-, -fort-, imper-, -poten-; ~to do or be: suf -bility practice of comb -craft; suf -ade, -age, -al, -ance, -ancy, -asis, -asm, -ation, -cy, -ence, -ency, -ery, -esis, -iasis, -ice, -ics, -ing, -ion, -ism, -ment, -osis, -otic, -sion, -sis, -th, -tion, -tious, -ture, -ure, -y, -ysis practitioner suf -ician, -ist praise base encom-, -laudpray base litan-, orat-, -prec-, -rogpreaching base kery-

precipice base -cremno-predilection for comb philo-pregnancy comb -cyesis, toco-; base gestat-, -gravid-, -maieusi-prehistoric comb eo-, paleo-, proto-preparation pre pre-

present base -don-

preserver suf -sote

press together base stip-² pressure comb bar(o)-, -piesis, piezo-, -tonia, -tonic, tono-; base thlips-pretend comb pseudo-; base fict-, -simulpreventing pre anti-; base imped-, prohibprevious pre pre-; comb back-, yesterprickly comb echinato-, echino-, echinulato-, echinuli-; base -urticpriest base presbyter-, sacerdotprimary comb archi-, proto-; base -prim-, -princip-

primate comb -pithecus primitive comb archi-, paleo-, prisc-, proto-principal comb arch(i)-¹, prim-, proto-principle of suf -ism

print comb -type

prior to pre pre-; comb back-, yester-proceed comb -grade, -motive, -plania, plano-; base -bat-, -ced-, -cess-, -cur(s), -grad-, -gress-, -mob-, -vad-, -vas-; ~away: out-; ~into: -dyte-; ~forward: pro-; ~toward: -bound, -petal process of comb -craft; suf -ade, -age, -al, -ance, -ancy, -asis, -asm, -ation, -cy, -ence, -ency, -ery, -esis, -iasis, -ice, -ics, -ing, -ion, -ism, -ment¹, -osis, -otic, -sion, -sis, -th, -tion, -tious, -ture, -ure, -y, -ysis procession comb -cade proclamation base kery-procure base -cap-, -cep-, -cip-, -dyteproduce/producing comb -facient, -ferous, -fic, -fication, -gen, -genesis, -genic, -genous, -geny, -gerous, ideo-, -parous, -phor,

-phorous, -plast, -plastic, plasto-,
-plasty, poiesis, -poietic, -urgy; suf
-ate, -atory, -ic, -fer, -ing, -otic product of comb -geny², -gony; suf

-ade, -ery, -ment¹

proficiency base -apt-, -habil-,
-poten-, -qual-; suf -bility, -ful,
-ship

profit base lucri-, quaestprofusion base ampl-, copi-, larg-projectile base -ballistpromoting base -gog-

propagate base thremm-

propel comb -bole, -bolic, bolo-,
-boly; base ballist-, -jact-, -jacula-,
-ject-

proper comb cyrio-, kyrio-, orthoproperties suf -ics prophetic comb fati-, vatipropitiatory base hilasm-, ilast-proposition comb -lemma¹ prosperity comb chryso-, pluto-;

base chrem-, -opul-, pecun-

prostate comb prostato-prostitute comb cypriano-, hetaero-, porno-; base -meretric-, scort-;

brothel: lupan-

protected against comb -proof protecting from comb para-¹ protection comb -phylactic, phylacto-, -phylax, -phylaxis protein comb proteo-

protein hydrolysis suf -ose protest base -quer-, -querulprotoplasm comb -plasmo-, -plast protuberance comb condyl(o)-, gibboso-, hybo-, papillo-, ramoso-, thelo-, umbo-

proverb base parem-, paroemprovide pre be-; base -don-; suf -ate provided with comb -echia; suf

-able, -ate, -ed², -ious, -ous, proving comb -deictic

proximity pre a-, ac-, ad-, af-, ag-, al-, an-, ap-, ar-, as-, at-, by-, cis-,

epi-, para-, peri-; comb juxta-,

citra-, pene-, proximo-

proxy comb allelo-, allo-, alter-, hetero-; base -ali-

psychosis comb lyssso-, -mania; base
ament-, dement-

ptarmigan base tetraon-

pubescent base hebe-

pubic comb pubio-, pubo-

public comb demo-; base -pleb-,
-vulgpuke comb -emesis, -emetic, emeto-pull base -tillo-, -tract-, vellpulley comb trochi-, trochopulmonary comb pulmo-

pulse comb sphygmo-; base -crotpumpkin base pepo-

puncture comb -centesis; base
stigm-

punishment comb mastigo-, rhabdo-; base castig-, peno-,
poine-, -pun-¹

pupil eye: comb core-¹, coreo-,
-coria, coro-, -koria, pupillo-;

student: base -discip-

puppet base pupa

purchase comb onio-; base -empt-,
-merc-, nundin-

purify base cathar-. See cleanse purple comb purpureo-; base amaranth-, blatt-², indi-, indo-, phenic-, porphyr-, -pun-². Also see "Colors" in Part III

purpose comb teleo-, telo-purse comb burs(o)-, marsup-, phasco-

purslain base portulacpursue base secut-, sequpus comb purulo-, pyo-. See infection

push comb -trude; base -pel-, -pul-, trus-

put base -pon-, -pos-; suf -en;

~in the form of: suf -ate; ~to- gether: comb -thesis, -thetic; base cond-, -fabr-, -fac-, -fec-, -fic-,

-struct-
putrefying comb cario-, lysi-, lyso-,
-lysis, -lyte, -lytic, phthino-, phthisio-, -phthisis, putre-, putri-, pytho-, sapro-, septi-, septico-, septo-; base marcesc-, phthor-, tabe-; suf -ase

pylorus comb pyloro-
pyrites comb pyrito-

Q

quadrillion(th) comb femto-, peta-quaff comb pino-, poto-; base -bib-, pocul-
quail base coturn-, gallinacquake base -pav-, -trem-qualified comb -potent; suf -able,
-ible, -ile; in an ~way: -bly quality of suf -able, -acity, -acy,
-age, -ance, -ancy, -ant, -asis,
-asm, -ate, -atile, -ation, -cy,
-dom, -eity, -ence, -ency, -ent,
-ery, -esis, -ful, -hood, -iasis,
-ice¹, -ility, -ion, -ise, -ism, -ity,
-ling, -ma, -ment, -ness, -or³,
-osis, -otic, -red, -ship, -sion, -th,
-tion, -tude, -ture, -ty¹, -ure, -y²
qualm comb -phobe, -phobia,
-phobic, phobo-; base pavid-,
tim(or)-, -trem-, -trep-. Also see
"Fear" in Part III
quantity base -quant-; suf -age,
-ful
quarrel comb -machy; base litig-, pugil-, -pugn-, -rix-
quarter base quadr-
quash comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis,
-lytic, -lyze, -phage, phago-, -
phagous, -phagy; base -ate⁴,
perd-, phthart-, -vast-

quaver comb tremo-; base pav-, trep-
queen base regin-
quell comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat, stato-; base fin-, termin-
quest comb -petal, -quire, -quiry; base indag-, -rog-, -scrut-question base erot-, -quir-, -rogquickness comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy-; base alacr-, celer-, festin-,
veloc-
quicksand base syrt-
quiet comb hesy-; base -plac-, quiesc-, -tacet-
quinine base cinchonquintillion(th) comb atto-, exa-quirky comb aetho-, anom(o)-, anomalo-. See irregular quisling base prodit-quit base relinq-
quite pre be-, cata-, cath-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-,
omni-, pan-, panto-, stone-, toti-
quivering comb -chorea, choreo-,
-clonic, -clonus, -esmus, -ismus,
spasmo-; base -stal-, -vellic-

R

rabbit base cunic-, lago-, lepor-rabies base lyss-

raccoon base arctoid-, procyon-

race group: comb -ethno, geno-, phylo-race course comb -drome, dromo-, dromous radiant comb helio-; base fulg-, nitid-; ~energy: comb bolo-², radio-, spectroradicals suf -yl, -ylene; two~: comb bi-radicle comb radiculo-, rostell-radioactive comb radioradish base raphan-

rag base pann-

railroad base siderodromo-

rain comb hyeto-, pluvio-; base imbri-, nimb-, ombr-rainbow base irid-

raise cultivate: base -ponic; lift: levatram comb crio-, krio-; base -ariet-rank comb -rater; suf -cy, -dom², -ship rap comb plessi-; base cop-, -crot-, -cuss-, -plang-, puls-, -tus-, vapul-, -verberrape base rap-, rep-, stuprrapid comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy-; base alacr-, celer-, festin-, veloc-rare comb mano-, spano-; base -areo-² rash comb -anthema

rat base mur-

ratio, inverse pre sub-rattlesnake base crotalraven comb coraci-, coraco-; base corvinravenous base avid-, edac-, gulos-

raw base omo-²

ray comb radio-, radiato-; base bolo-², -rad-

razor base xyr-

reading comb -legia; base lect-, -leg-¹

real base ver-

realm suf -dom, -ric

rear comb hind-. See behind reasoning comb -gnomy, -gnosia, -gnosis, -gnostic, -gnoto, ideo-, -noia, -nomy, -phrenic, phrenico-, phreno-, psycho-, -sophy, thymo-, -witted; base -cogit-, -cogn-, ment(a)-, -noe-, -put-, -ratio-, -scirebuke base increp-

receiver comb -ceptor; base -cap-, -cip-; suf -ee recent comb -cene, ceno-¹, neo-, nov-receptacle comb angio-, asco-, bursi-, burso-, ceco-, chlamyd-, chrysalis-, cisto-, coleo-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, meningo-, pericardiac-, pericardio-, peritoneo-, phasco-, physa-, physali-, physo-, -theca, theci-, theco-, typhlo-, utri-, utric, vesico-; base -sacc-, -thylac-reciprocal pre co-, inter-, syl-, sym-, syn-, sys; comb allelo-, hama-, symphyo, synchro-; base -allac-, -allag-, -allaxis-, -mutu-

recline base -cub-, -cumb-recognition comb -gnosis, -gnostic reconstructive surgery comb -plasty rectification comb ortho-; base castig-, emendrectum comb procto-, recto-red comb carmino-, erysi-, erythro-, phoeni-, pyhrro-, rhodo-, roseo-, testaceo-; base coccin-, coquel-, cruent-, -ereuth-, ferrug-, fuc-, grenat-, -later-, minia-, murex-, nacar-, -rub-, -rud-, -ruf-, -rut-.

Also see "Colors" in Part III

redundant comb perisso-reed comb aulo-, follic-, salpingo-, siphoni-, siphono-, solen(o)-, syringo-, tubi-, tubo-, tubuli-, vasi-; base arundi-, calam-, fistul-,

-syr-

refuse to pre dis-

region comb choro-

regular comb cyrio-, kyrio-, homalo-, homolo-, ortho-

regulate base -temp-

regurgitate comb -emesis, -emetic, emeto-

reject base relinq-

relate base narr-

relating to suf -acean, -aceous, -ad²,

-al, -an, -ar, -arious, -ary, -atic,
-ative, -atory, -eae, -ean, -eous,
-ery, -etic, -ial, -ian, -ic, -id, -il,
-ile, -ina, -inae, -ine, -ing, -ious,
-istic, -ite, -itic, -itious, -itive,
-ive, -oidea, -orious, -ory, -otic,
-tious, -tive, -ular

relatives base cogn-, famil-, stirprelease base -miss-, -mit-, -pomprelieving comb lyo-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-, -lyte, -lytic, -lyze; base

-liqu-, -solu-, -solv-

relics comb lipsano-, reliqreligion comb religio-, theo-remember comb -mnesia, -mnesis;

base -mem-, -mnem-

remote comb disto-, teleremove pre ab-, abs-, apo-, be-, de-, des-, di-, dia-, dif-, dis-, e-, ec-,

ef-, ex-, for-, off-, se, with-; comb
ectro-

repair comb ortho-; base castig-, emend-

repeatedly comb batto-, pollaki-;

base epana-, -iter-, palin-; suf -er.

See frequent replacement comb allelo-, allo-, alter-, hetero-; base -ali-replete comb -filled, pleni-, pleo-, plero-, pluri-; base -pler-, -plet-;

suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -ful, -ilent,
-ose, -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y reply base apocris-. See say repress comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat,

stato-; base fin-, termin-

reproach comb enisso-, enosi-reproduce comb aetio-, -blast, blasto-, -blasty, -carp, -carpic, carpo-, -carpous, etio-, -gen,

-genic, -genesis, -genous, -geny,
-gone, -gonium, gono-, -gony,
-phyletic, sperma-, -spermal, spermato-, spermi-, -spermic, spermo-, sporo-; base -init-; suf
-esce, -escence, -escent reptile comb echidno-, -glypha, herpeto-, -ophidia, ophidio-, ophio-, -saur, sauro-, -saurus;

base angui-, batrach-, colubr-, reptil-, -serp-, viper-

repulsion base fastid-request base -pet-, -quir-, -quis-, -rog-

require base exig-

rescued comb eleuthero-; base
-liber-, vac(u)-

resembling pre para-, quasi-; comb homeo-, homoio-, homolo-, iso-,
-opsis, -phane, -phanic, -phany,
pheno-; base simil-; suf -acean,
-aceous, -al, -an, -ar, -ary, -ean,
-en, -eous, -esque, -ful, -ic, -il,
-ile-, -ine, -ing, -ish, -istic, -istical, -itious, -ize, -like, -ode, -oid,
-oidal, -ose, -osity, -some, -tious,
-ular, -y

resentment base -invid-

reservoir base lacco-

resin comb resino-

resistant to comb -proof, -tight; ~disease: comb immunoresourceful base agil-, facil-, ingenrespiration comb -pnea, pneo-,
 pneumato-, pneumo-, pneu-
 mono-, pneusio-, pulmo-, respirato-, spiro-¹; base -hal-responsibility comb hypedia-, hypengy-; base paralip-responsive to comb -trope, -tropic,
 -tropism, tropo-, -tropical,
 -tropy
rest base oti-
restless comb agito- base -turbrestrained comb brady-; base
 -cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tardrestriction comb isch-, koly-, -penia, rhopo-, -strain, -strict;
base angust-, -string-; suf -en. See tie
result (of) comb ergo-, -ergic,
 -ergy; suf -age, -asm, -ata, -ation,
 -ency, -ism, -ma, -ment¹, -mony,
 -sion, -ure
retaliation comb counter-retention comb -echia, -tain; base
 -cathe-, -ten-
reticular comb reticuloretina comb retino-
return pre re-; comb nosto-reveal comb phaeno-, pheno-; base
 -monstr-
reversal comb allo-; base -vers-,
 -vert-
reverse pre anti-, de-revile base vituper-
revulsion comb miso-, -phobe,
 -phobia, -phobic; base -invid-,
 -ira(sc)-, odi-
rhinoceros base ceratorhrhombus comb rhombo-
rib comb costi-, costo-ribbon comb taeni-, taenio-, -tene, teni-; base lemnisc-
rice base oryzi-, rizi-

riches comb chryso-, pluto-; base
 chrem-, -opul-, pecun-
ridge comb crebri-, lopho-; base
 -carin-
ridicule comb catagelo-, katagelo-ridiculous base fatu-, inan-, moro-,
 stult-
right comb recti-; ~angle: comb ortho-; ~side: comb dextro-, dextro-; correct: comb ortho-; base
 emend-
righteous pre bene-, eu-; base
 agath-, bon-, prob-
rigid comb ancylo-, ankylo-, tetanorind comb -lemma²
ring comb annul-, ano-², crico-, cyclo-, disco-, globo-, gyro-,
 -sphere, sphero-, stilli-; base
 -anu-, -cinct-, -cing-, -circin-,
 -circul-, -coron-, -glomer-,
 -numm-, -orb-, -rot-, -troch-,
 -zon-; finger~: dactyl-; ~shaped: ano-²
ringing base tinn-, tintinn-ringlet comb cirr(h)i-, cirr(h)o-ripe base -matur-
rise base -cresc-, -surgrisky base pericul-rivaling pre anti-river comb fluvio-, potamo-; base amn-, flum-, -rip-
roach base blatt-
road comb hodo-, -ode, odo-; base
 -iter-, -via-roadrunner base cucul-
roar base -frem-
robber comb clepto-, klepto-, lesto-; base -furt-, harpax-, latro-, predrobin base -turd-
robust comb -proof, dur(o)-; base
 -forc-, -fort-
rock comb -lithic, litho-, pesso-, petri-, petro-, sax(i)-; base -lapid-,
 -rupes-, rupic-; suf -ite rod (shaped) comb bacilli-, bacillo-, bacul-, fusi-, fuso-, rhabdo-, vergi-; base coryn-, ferul-, -rad-, virgul-

Roman comb Romano-

romantic comb romanticoroof comb stego-, tecti-, tegu-; ~of mouth: comb palato-, uranisco rooster comb alector-, alectryroot comb radiculo-, rhizo-, -rrhiza;

base -radic-, -stirp-

rope comb funi-, resti-, schoeno-

rose comb rhodo-, roseo-rotary comb cyclo-, roti-, troch-, trochalo-, trochi-, trocho-rotten comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis, -lyte, phthysio-, -phthysis, putre-, putri-, pytho-, sapro-, septi-, septo-; base -putr-

rough comb asper-, trachy-; base
-rud-, salebr-

round comb ano-, annul-, convexo-, crico-, cyclo-, disco-, gibboso-, globi-, globo-, glom-, gyro-, orbito-, rotundi-, rotundo-,
-sphere, sphero-, stilli-, tereti-, tereto-, trochi-, trocho-, zon-, zoni-; base -anu-, -cing-, -cinct-,
-circin-, -circul-, -coron-,
-glomer-, -numm-, -orb-, -rot-, strongyl-; partly~: comb orbiculato-

route comb -ode, odo-; base -itin-,
-via-

routine comb -craft; suf -ade, -age,

-al, -ance, -ancy, -asis, -asm,
-ation, -cy, -ence, -ency, -ery,
-esis, -iasis, -ice, -ics, -ing, -ion,
-ism, -ment, -osis, -otic, -sion,
-sis, -th, -tion, -tious, -ture, -ure,
-y, -ysis

rows comb -stichia, sticho-, -stichous

rubbing comb tribo-, -tripsy; base
trit-

rude base contum-, impud-, pro-
cac-

rue base rut-

rug base lodic-

ruination comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis,
-lytic, -lyze, -phage, phago-,
-phagous, -phagy; base -ate⁴,
perd-, phthart-, -vast-

ruler comb -arch², gubern-; base
-reg-

ruling comb -archy, -ocracy; base
-regn-

rump comb podic-, pygia, pygo-;
base nati-

run comb -drom(e), dromo-, -dromous; base curr-, -cur(s)- rune comb runo-

rupture comb -clasia, -clasis, clastic, frag-, -rhegma, -(r)rhexis; base
-fract-, -frang-, -rupt-

rush hurry: base curr-, impet-,
-vad-, -vas-; plant: -junc-

Russia(n) comb Russo-

rust base rubig-

S

sable base zibel-

sac comb angio-, asco-, bursi-, burso-, ceco-, chlamyd-, chrysali,
coleo-, -cyst, cysti-, cysto-, follic-, meningo-, pericardiaco-, pericardio-, peritoneo-, physa-, physali-, physo-, -theca, theco-, typhlo-, utri⁻², utric-, vesico-; base mar-sup-, -sacc-, -thylac-

saccharin comb saccharosacrifice base -thy-sacred comb hagio-, hiero-; base

 -sacr-, -sanct-
sacrum comb sacro-
saddle base ephipp-
sadness comb lype-; base dolor-,
 fleb-, flet, luct-, -trist-
safe from comb -proof, -tight saffron base -croce-
sail base navig-
sailfish base istiophorsaint comb hagio-
salad base acetar-
saliva comb ptyal(o)-, sial¹-salmon comb salmoni-
salt comb alo-, halo-, sali-, salino-; base sals-; suf -ate, -ite salvation base soter-same pre co-; comb equi-, homo-, iso-, pari-, tauto-; ~time: comb
 hama-; base -simul-
sand comb ammo-, arenacio-, psammo-; base aren-, sabul-, saburr-
sand grouse base pteroclsandpiper base charadr-, -tring-sandwich comb -burger
sarcastic base acerb-, mord-
sated comb -filled, pleni-, pleo-, plero-, pluri-; base -pler-, -plet-;
suf -acious, -ate, -ic, -ful, -ilent,
 -ose, -osity, -ous, -ulent, -y saucer base acetabulsausage(-shaped) base allant(o)-, botul-
savage base agrio-
save base salv-, serratosaw tool: comb pri-, prion-, runcin-, serrato-, serri-
sawdust base scobi-
say comb -claim, logo-, -logue,
 -lalia, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy,
 -logy, -phone, phono-, -phony,
 rhet-, verbi-, verbo-, voc-, voci-,
 -voke; base -clam-, -dict-,

-loc(u)-, -loqu-, narr-, -orat-,
 -phat-, -phem-
scabbard comb coleo-
scale base -libra-
scales comb lamelli-, lepido-, squamato-, squamo-, squamoso-, squaroso-; base -pholid-, -scutscalloped comb cren-, crenato-, crenulato-
scandal comb -gate
scapula comb scapulo-scar comb ulo-¹; base -cicascarce comb mano-, spano-; base
 -areo-
scared base -pavid-, -tim-, trepid-.
See fear
scatter comb -sperse; base -sporscenery comb -scape
scent comb brom(o)-, odori-, odoro-, olfacto-, -osmia, osmo-, osphresio-, ozo-, ozono-
school base schol-
science comb -graphy, -logic, -logical, -logy, techno-, -techny; suf
 -ics
scimitar comb acinaci-scintillation comb sela-; base -fulg-, stilpno-
scissors base forfic-, -psalid-sclera comb sclero-scold base increp-
scope of suf -ure
scorn base deris-
scorpion base pedipalp-Scottish comb Scoto-scourge comb cnido-, mastigo-;
base flagell-, -piq-, -urtic-scrap comb clasmato-, -fid; base
 frag-, frust-, -par-
scratch comb amycho-, scab-, titillo-
scrotum comb didym(o)-, orchido-, orchio-, oscheo-; base -scrot-scrub comb balneo-; base ablut-, cathar-, -lav-, -mund-, -purgsculpt comb glyph-, glyptscurvy base -scorb-Scythian comb Scythosea comb enalio-, halo-, mare-, mari-, thalasso-, thalatto-; base aequor-, naut-, nav-, pelag-; ~shore: paral-, thinosea horse base hippocamp-sea urchin base echin-seagull base -lar-

seal animal: comb phoc(o)-; stamp:
base -sigil-, sphrag-
search(ing) comb -petal, -quire,
 -quiry; base indag-, -rog-, -scrut-.
See turn towards seasons comb horo-; fall: base -autumn-; spring: base -vern-; sum- mer: base -aestiv-; winter: base
 -hibern-, -hiem-
seat base cathedr-, sedil-seaweed comb phyceae-, -phyceous, phyco-; base -fuc-
sebum comb sebo-
second/secondary pre bi-, para-², super-; comb deuter(o)-, deuto-.
See two
second-rate pre hypo-, sub-, under-;
comb hystero-; base hesson-; suf -
 aster
secret pre subter-; comb calypto-, crypto-; base arcan-, occultsecretion comb crino-, -crine; wax- like~: comb ceruminisect suf -arian
secure comb -proof, -tight
see comb eid(o)-, oculo-, ommat-,
 -opia, opsi-, -opsia, -opsis, opso-,
 -opsy, ophthalmo-, optico-, opto-,
 -scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy,
 visuo-; base -blep-, -scrut-, -spec-,
 -spic-, -vid-. Also see "The Senses"
in Part III
seeds comb -carp-, -carpic, carpo-,
 -carpous, -sperm, -spermal, spermatio-, spermato-, spermi-,

-spermic, spermo-, -spermous,
 -spore, spori-, sporo-, -sporous;
base semin-
seek(ing) comb -petal, -quire,
 -quiry; base -rog-, -scrut-. See turn towards seemingly pre quasi-
segment comb clasmato-, dicho-,
 -fid², fissi-, schisto-, schizo-,
 -tomy; base -par-
seize comb -tain; base -cap(t)-,
 -cathex-, -ger-, -hapt-, plag-,
 -prehend, prehens-, rap-, rep-,
 -ten-
seizure comb -agra, -lepsia, -leptis,
 -lepsy, -leptic
selection base -opt-, -vol-
self comb auto-, ego-, idio-, ipse-, proprio-, self-, tauto-; base -ille-; ~indulgence: apolaustselfishness base avar-, avid-, cup(id)-, edac-, gulos-, pleonec-, pleonex-
self-moving comb auto-sell base empor-, -merc-, vendsend base -miss-, -mit-¹, -pomp-sensation comb -esthesia, esthesio-, hapto¹-, sensi-, senso-, sensori-.
Also see "The Senses" in Part III senseless base -stupsensory comb sensorisepals comb sepalous separate pre apo-, dia-, dis-, for-, se-; comb chori-, choristo-, crit-², dicho-, dialy-
sequel following: pre epi-, meta-, post-; comb after-, hind-, postero-; base -secut-, -sequ-; suf
 -an; outcome: comb ergo-, -ergic,
 -ergy; suf -age, -asm, -ata, -ation,
 -ency, -ism, -ma, -ment, -mony,
 -sion, -ure
Serbia comb Serboserenity base -eiren-, -iren-, -pac-,
 -pax-

series base -hirmo-
serious base grav-
sermon base -homil-, keryserous fluid base ichorserrated comb serrato-; base cren-¹, lacin-. See notched serum comb oro-, orrho-, seroserviceable comb chreo-, chresto-;
base -util-
set comb -thesis, -thetic; base -pon-,
 -pos-; suf -en; ~apart: base sacr-seta comb chaet(o)-
settlement comb ekist-; base -dom-;
suf -age
seven comb hebdo-, hepta-, septem-, sept(i)-¹; ~hundred: septinginti-.
Also see "Numbers" in Part III
seventeen base heptakaideca, septendecim-
seventh base septim-
seventy base septuagen-, septuages-, septuagint-
sever comb -cide, cis-, -cise, -ectomy, inciso-, -sect, temno-,
 -tmesis, -tome, tomo-, -tomous,
 -tomy; base sec-
several comb multi-, pluri-, pollaki-, poly-
sew base -sutil-
sewer base cloac-
sex organs comb genito-; base
 -aede-; female~: colpo-; male~:
 phallo-
sexual comb aphrodisio-, eroto-, gameto-, gamo-, -gamous, -gamy,
 geno-, gonado-, -gone, -gonium, gono-, -gony, nympho-; base - coit-, -cyprid-, -vener-¹; ~inter- course: subagit-; ~uncertainty:
 gynandro-
shabby base sord-, turp-shadow comb scia-, scio-¹, skia-; base -opac-, -umbr-
shaft comb calam-, cauli-, caulo-, cormo-, culm-, ferul-, paxill-, scapi-, thyrsi-, thyrso-; base festuc-, stip-

shaggy base -hispid-, villshaking base agit-, -cuss-, lab-, pav-, quass-, tremo-, trep-, vibroshallow base lev-, parv-shame base pud-, verecundshape, a comb eid(o)-, -form,
 -morph, -morphic, -morphism,
 morpho-, -morphous; base
 -figur-, -schem-
shaped like comb -form, -oid,
 -oidal. Also see "Shapes" in Part III
shapeless comb amorphoshark base carcharin-, gale-², selach-, sphyrn-, squal-
sharp comb acantho-, aceto-, acetyl-, acid-, acro-, acu-, acuti-, cusp-, echino-, mord-, oxal-, oxy-¹, spi-culi-, spiculo-, stylo-¹; base acer-¹,
 -acerb-, -aichm-, -aichur-, asper-,
 -belon-, muric-, -punct-, -piq-, pung-, xyr-
shatter comb -clasia, -clasis, -clas-tic, -rhegma, -(r)rhexis; base
 agmat-, -fract-, -frag-, -frang-,
 -rupt-
shave base tonsor
shears base forfic-, psalidsheath comb angio-, chlamyd-, coleo-, meningo-, -theca, theci-, theco-, vagini-, vagino-. See con- tainer
shed comb lyo-, lysi-, -lysis, lyso-,
 -lyte, -lytic, -lyze; base -liqu-,
 -solu-, -solv-
sheep base ovi-², verv-. See lamb sheet bed~: lodic-; layer: lamin-; winding~: sindon-
shell comb conchi-, kelyph-, lorica-,
 -ostraca, ostraco-, testaceo-shield comb aspidio-, peltati-, peltato-, pelti-, peltó- base clype-, scut-

shift base camb-, -fabr-, -fec-,
-mut-, -vari-, -vert-. See change shiny base fulg-, gano-, lustr-, pheng-, rutil-, sela-, stilpno-ship base nau-, naut-, navshoe base -calce-, -crepshoot base weapon: -ballist-, -jacul-; plant: surcul-
shopkeeper base capel-
shore base littor-
shortage comb isch-, oligo-, -penia shorter comb brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, chamae-, hekisto-, micro-,
mini-, parvi-, parvo-, steno-, tapino-; base -curt-, exig-; suf
-cle, -cula, -cule, -een, -el, -ella,
-en, -et, -ette, -idion, -idium, -ie,
-illa, -illo, -isk, kin, -le, -let,
-ling, -ock, -ola, -ole, -rel, -ula,
-ule, -ulum, -ulus, -y
shoulder comb acromio-, humero-, omo-¹; ~blade: comb scapuli-, scapulo-; base spatul-shout base clam-, vocifshow comb phaeno-, pheno-; base
-monstr-
showers comb hyeto-, pluvio-; base imbri-, ombr-
shrew base soric-, tupai-shrimp base macrur-
shrine comb aedi-
shrink base dimin-
shrivel base marces-, marcidshroud base sindon-
shrub base thamn- (thamnium);
shrublike: comb fruticulosshun base phygo-
shut comb -atresia, atreto-, claustro-, cleido-, -cleisis, cleisto-, stego-; base clithr-, -clud-, -clusshyness base tim-, verecund-Sicilian comb Siculosickle(-shaped) comb drepani-, falci-
sickness pre dys-, mal-; comb noso-, path-, -pathic, patho-, -pathy; base aegr-, cachex-, -morb-, -pecca-, valetud-

side pre by-; on or near~: comb lateri-, latero-, pleuro-
sieve comb coli-², coscino-, cribri-, ethmo-
sift base -cern-
sight comb eid(o)-, oculo-, ommat-,
-opia, opsi-², -opsia, -opsis, opso-,
-opsy, ophthalmo-, optico-, opto-,
-scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy,
visuo-; base -blep-, -scrut-, -spec-,
-spic-, -vid-, vis-
sign(al) comb sema-, -seme, se-meio-, semio-
silent comb hesy-; base -tacitsilica/silicon comb siliceo-, silici-, silico-
silk comb metax-, seri-, sericeo-, serico-
silkworm base -bombycsilly base fatu-, inan-, moro-,
stult-
Silurian comb Silurosilver(y) comb argenti-, argento-, argyro-, glauco-, plat-². Also see
"Colors" in Part III
similar pre para-, quasi-; comb
-esque, homeo-, homoeo-, homoio-, homolo-, iso-, -phane,
-phanic; base simil-; suf -acean,
-aceous, -al, -an, -ar, -ary, -ean,
-en, -eous, -esque, -ful, -ic, -il,
-ile-, -ine, -ing, -ish, -itious, -ize,
-like, -ode, -oid, -ose, -osity,
-some, -tious, -ular, -y simple base facil-. See single sin comb enisso-, enosio-; base
-culp-, hamart-, -peccasincere base prob-, versinew comb chord-, -chorda, cord-single comb eka-, haplo-, heno-, mono-, uni-
sink decline: comb -atrophia; base

dimin-; decrease: base decresc-, dimin-

sinuous comb -enchyma¹

siphylis comb syphilo-

sister base -soror-

sit base -cathis-, -kathis-, -sed-,
-sess-; ~in: -sid-

situated comb out-

six comb hexa-, seni-, sexi-, sexti-, sise-; ~hundred: hexacosi-, sex-cent-; ~times: hexakis-. Also see
"Numbers" in Part III

sixteen base hexadeca-, hexa-kaideca, sedecimsixth base sext-

sixty base hexaconta-, sexagen-, sexages-

size comb -footer, -sized; ~of a sheet: suf -mo. Also see "Dimension" in Part III

skeleton comb skeleto-

skill comb -craft, -ship, techno-skin comb chorio-, cut(i)-, -derm,

-derma, dermato-, -dermatous,
-dermis, dermo-, dora-; base - pell-; ~disease: lichen-; ~elevation: comb papulo-; ~itch: comb acar-, scabi(o)-; base -prur-,
-psor-. See flesh

skirmish base velit-. See battle skull comb -cephalic, cephalo-,

-cephalous, -cephaly, cranio-, occipito-, orbito-

skunk base mephit-, mustel-

sky base coeli-

skylark base alaud-

slab base -pinac-, -pinak-

slag base scoria-

slander base calumn-

slanting comb -clinal, -clinate,
-cline, -clinic, clino-, -clisis, lechrío-, loxo-, plagio-; base
-cliv-. See bent

slaughter base trucid-

Slav comb Slavo-

slave comb dulo-; base -serv-sleep comb hypno-, somni-; base

carot-, -dorm-, -soporsleeplessness base agrypno-slender comb lepto-, steno-, -tenu-; base -areo-, gracil-

slide base laps-

slightly pre sub-; suf -aster² slime comb blenno-, -chezia, copro-, lim-, mucí-, muco-, myco-, myso-,

-myxia, myxo-, p(a)edo-, scato-,
stegno-, sterco-; base -fecu-, -fim-,
moly-, rhypar-

slippery base -lubric-

slope comb -clinal, -clinate, -cline,

-clinic, clino-, -clisis, klino-, lechrío-, loxo-, plagio-; base -clit-,

-cliv-

sloth animal: base xenarthr-; indolence: base pigr-, segnslow comb brady-; base -cunct-, lent-, -pigr-, -tard-

slug base limac-

sly base daedal-

small(er) comb brachisto-, brachy-, hekisto-, micro-, mini-, nano-, parvi-, parvo-, steno-; base -curt-,
exig-; suf -cle, -cula, -cule,
-culum, -culus, -een, -el, -ella,
-en, -et, -ette, -idion, -idium, -ie,
-illa, -illo, -isk, kin, -le, -let,
-ling, -ock, -ola, -ole, -rel, -ula,
-ule, -ulum, -ulus, -y

smart base sapien-

smell comb brom(o)-, -odic, odori-, odoro-, -olent, olfacto-, -osmia,
osmo-¹, osphresio-, ozo-, ozono-;
base fet-, nidor-. See also "The Senses" in Part III

smelt base -ather-

smile base ris-

smoke comb -capnia, capno-; base
-fum-

smooth comb even-, leio-, lisso-; base -glabr-, -levig-, -lubr-, psilo-smother base -pnig(er)- smut base aischro-

snail base cochlea-, gastropod-, limac-
snake comb -glypha, herpeto-, echidno-, -ophidia, ophio-; base angui-, colubr-, reptil-, serpen-, viper-; ~charmer: psyllsnapper base lutjan-snatch base -rap-, -repsneer base mycter-
sneeze base ptarm-, sternutsnipe base charadr-, scolopacsnore base rhonch-, stertorsnout comb rhyncho-, -rrhyncha; base probosc-, rostell-, -rostr-. See beak
snow base -chion-, -chium-, ning-, niv-
soak up comb -sorb¹; base bibsoap base sapon(i)- sober base abstinent: nephal-; seri- ous: grav-
social belief suf -arian society comb anthropo-, socio-socket comb alveolo-; base -gomph-sodium comb -natremia, sodiosoft comb -malacia, malaco-; base hapal-, -len-, malax-, -moll-; ~deposit: comb athero-; ~palate:
 velar-
soil comb agro-, paedo⁻¹, pedo⁻³; base edaph-, -hum-, -terr-soldier comb -milit-
sole of the foot base pelm-, -plant-solid comb stereo-
solitary comb auto-, eremo-, mono-, soli-, uni-. See one somewhat pre demi-, hemi-, semi-;
comb -atelia, atelo-; suf -esce-,
 -escence, -escent, -y¹
son base fili-
son-in-law base -genersong comb asmato-, lyrico-, melo⁻¹, musico-; ~birds: oscinsoot base fuligsoothing base anet-, -len-, miti⁻¹ sorcery base -veneficsordid base sord-, turp-soreness comb alge-, algesi-, -algia, algo-, -algy, -dynia, noci-, -odynia, ody-no-, pono-; base dolor-,

 -nox-
sorrow comb lype-; base dolor-,
 -fleb-, -flet-, -luct⁻¹, trist-soul comb pneumatō-, thumo-,
 -thymia, thymo-; base -anim-,
 -spirit-
sound comb acou-, acoust-, audi(o)-, auri-, echo-, oto-,
 -ecoia, -phone, phono-, -phony,
 -phthong, soni-, sono-, sonoro-.
See noise
soundness base salub-, san-sour base acer-, acid-, amar-source comb aetio-, -blast, blasto-,
 -blasty-, carp-, -carpic, carpo-,
 -carpous, etio-, -gen-, -genic,
 -genesis, -genous, -geny, -gone,
 -gonium, gono-, -gony, -phyletic, sperma-, -spermal, spermato-,
 spermi-, -spermic, spermo-,
 sporo-; base -init-; suf -esce-,
 -escence, -escent
south comb austro-, noto-sow base sativ-, sator-, sparg-Spanish comb Hispano-, Iberosparing base frug⁻² spark base -scintill-, spintharsparrow base passer-sparse comb oligo-; base pauc(i)- spasm comb -chorea, choreo-,
 -clonic, -clonus, -esmus, -ismus,
 spasma-, -tonic; base -stal-,
 -vellic-
spatula comb spathi-, spatulispeak, speech comb -claim, logo-,
 -logue, -lalia, -lexia, lexico-,
 -lexis, -lexy, -logy, -phone,
 phono-, -phony, verbi-, verbo-,

voc-, voci-, -voke; base -clam-,
 -dict-, garrul-, -loc(u)-, -loqu-,
 -orat-, phat-, -phem-, rhet-; de- fective~: comb -lalia, lalo-, -pha-sia, -phasic, -phasis, -phasy,
 -phemia, -phemy; base psellspear comb hastato-, hasti-; ~head:
 lonch-
specialist suf -ician, -ist, -ologist speckled base -psar-. See spotted specter base phantas-, phasm-,
 spectr-
spectroscope comb spectro-speed comb tacho-, tachy-, veloci-; base -celer-, festinsphenoid bone comb sphenspherical comb ano-², annul-, crico-², cyclo-, disco-, globi-, globo-, glom-, gyro-, orbito-, sphaero-, -sphere, spherico-,
 sphero-, stilli-, zon-, zoni-; base
 anu-, -cing-, -cinct-, -circin-,
 -circul-, -coron-, -glomer-,
 -numm-, -orb-, -rot-, -troch-
spider comb arachn(o)-, araneo-; base arene-, phalang-; black
widow~: base latroductspike comb helo-¹, scolo-, spiculi-, spiculo-; ~of corn: spici-; succu- lent~: comb spadici-
spill base -chys-, -chyt-, -flu-, -fusspin comb gyro-¹
spinal cord comb -myelia, myelospindle comb fusi-, fuso-, fusu-spine comb aculei-, rachi(o)-, rhach(i)-, -rrhachia, spini-, spino-, spinoso-, spinuloso-, spondylo-, vertebro-
spiny comb acantho-, aceto-, acetyl-, acid-, acro-, acu-, acuti-, cusp-,
 echinato-, echino-, echinulato-, echinuli-, oxal-, oxy-, spiculi-, spiculo-, stylo-; base -acerb-,
 -aichm-, -aichur-, -belon-, muric-,
 -punct-, -piq-, -punctspiral comb cirri-, cochlio-, gyro-, helico-, spiri-, spiro-², strepto-, stromb-

spirit comb pneumato-; base
 -anim-
spirits base phantas-, phasm-,
 spectr-
spitting comb -ptysis. See saliva spleen comb lieno-, splenico-, spleno-
splendid base lustr-
split comb dicho-, -fid-, -fissi-, schisto-, schizo-, -tomy; base
 -par-, -crev-
spoil comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis, -lytic,
 -lyze-, -phage, phago-, -phagous,
 -phagy; base -ate-⁴, perd-, phthart-, -vast-, vitiaspoke a brace: base -rad-; talked:
 See speak
sponge-like comb spongio-, spongo-spontaneous comb ultro-spoon base cochlea-
spore comb -spore, spori-, sporo-, -sporous
spot comb celido-
spotted comb ocelli-; base -macul-, psar-, -stict-, -variolspouse base conjug-, marit-, uxor-spread expand: comb -ectasia, -ectasis; base -dilat-; scatter: base sparg-
spring leap: salta-; season: primaver-, -vern-; water: base cren-², pego-, scatur-
sprinkle base sparg-, -sperg-,
 -spers-
spurious comb kibdelo-, pseudo-;
base -notho-
squama comb squamato-, squamo-, squamoso-, squaroso-
square base quadr-
squid base cephalopod-, teutho-squinting base -strab-, -strabism-squirrel base sciur-

stable base diuturn-, dur(o)-,

perenn-, perm-, stabil-

stag base cerv-, elaph-stage player base -histrionstagger base titub-

stain base -macul-, spil-, -tinct-,
-ting-

stairs base -climac-

stalactite comb stalacti-stalk shaft: comb calam-, cauli-, caulo-, cormo-, culm-, ferul-, paxill-, scapi-, thyrso-, thyrso-;

base festuc-, stip-¹; hunt: base

-venat-

stamens comb -androus, staministamp comb -type, sigil-; postage~:

base philatel-, timbro-

standard comb ortho-; base -regul-standing still comb stasi-, -stasis,

-stat, stato-

staphylococcus comb staphylo-star comb aster-¹, astro-, -sidere, sidero-², stelli-

starch comb amyl(o)-

starfish base asteroid-, echinoderm-starling base psar-², sturn-start base inaug-, incip-, initstarting to be suf -esce-, -escence,

-escent

state of suf -able, -acity, -acy, -age,

-ance, -ancy, -ant, -asis, -asm,

-ate, -atile, -ation, -cy, -dom,

-ence, -ency, -ent, -ery, -esis, -ful,

-hood, -iasis, -ice¹, -ility, -ion,

-ism, -ity, -ling, -ma, -ment,

-mony, -ness, -or, -osis, -otic,

-red, -ship, -sion, -th, -tion,

-tude, -ture, -ty, -ure, -y stationary comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat, stato-; base stabil-

statue base agalma-

status suf -ship

stay remain: base contin-, dur-, perpet-; delay: comb brady-; base

-cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tard-

steady base perm-, stabil-steal comb clepto-, klepto-, lesto-;

base -furt-, harpax-, klope-, ladron-, latro-, -rept-

steam comb atmo-

steel base chalyb-

steep base ard-³, precipsteering comb -agogic, -agogue;

base -vers-, -vert-

stem comb cauli-, caulo-, cormo-, scapi-; base calam-, culmi-, sar-

ment-

stench comb brom(o)-, odori-,

odoro-, olfacto-, -osmia, osmo-,

osphresio-, ozo-, ozono-; base fet-,

-mephit-, putr-

step comb -basia, bato-, -grade; base

-ambul-, -gress-

stepdaughter base privign-stepfather base vitric-stepmother base noverc-stepson base privign-

sternum comb sterno-

stick comb scop(i)-; base carph-, ramul-, -sarment-, surcul-, vir-

gul-

sticky base agglut-, ixo-, visc(o)-.

See glue

stiff comb ancylo-, ankylo-, tetano-

still base eremo-, hesy-stimulating comb excito-; base stigsting comb cnido-, mastigo-; base

-piq-, -urtic-

stirrup base stap-

stitch base rhaps-, sutil-stomach comb gastero-, -gastria, gastro-; ~opening: comb pyloro-.

See belly

stone comb -lith(o), pesso-, petri-, petro-, psepho-, sax(i)-; base

-lapid-, -rup-; suf -lite; ~using

stage: comb -lithic

stooping comb kypho-, scolio stop comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat; base

fin-, termin-

stopper comb emboli-, embolostork base ciconi-, grallator-, pellarg-
storm base orag-, procellstory comb mytho-
straight comb ithy-, ortho-, rectistrain comb -piesis, piezo-; base col-², colar-, colat-, -tens-strange(r) comb perisso-, xeno-; base -ali-, peregrin-
strap base himant-, -ligul-, lorastratum comb strati-, strato-. See layer
straw comb carpho-, culmi-, festuc-, stramin-
strawberry base fragar-stream comb fluvio-; base -potam-, rheum-, -rip-
strength comb dyna-, dynamo-, mega-, megallo-, -megaly,
 -sthenia, stheno-; base -forc-,
 -fort-, -poten-, robor-; ~to do or
be: suf -bility
strenuous pre dys-; comb -bar, bary-, mogi-; base ardu-, stren-stretch comb -tend, teno-, tensio-, tono-
stricture comb isch-, koly-, -penia, rhopo-, -strain, -strict; base
 angust-, -string-; suf -en strife base eris-
strike comb plessi-, -cuss-; base
 -cop-, -crot-, plang-, -puls-, -tus-,
 -vapul-, -verber-
string base linon-
stripped comb gymno-, nudi-, psilo-
stroke comb -plexia
strong comb -proof, dur(o)-; base
 -forc-, -fort-. See strength struggle comb macho-, -machy;
base agon-
stubborn base contum-, obstin-,
 pervic-, proterv-
studded comb clavato-

study base disc-, -math, sophstuff up base -byonstupid base hebet-, obtus-, -tardstupor comb carot-, narco-surgeon base acipenser-, sturi(m)- stutter base balbut-, blesi-, -psellstyloid comb stylosuberic acid comb suberosubject to suf -ize submissive base morigersubordinate pre sub-, under-subsequent to pre cis-. See following
substance comb -ousia, -ousian substitute pre pro-¹; suf -ette succeed base -cap-, -cep-, -cipsuccinct base brev-. See short suck comb -suge; base -haur-, -haust-, -myzsudden base subit-. See quickness suffering comb -path, -pathic, patho-, -pathy. See pain sugar comb gluco-, glycer-, glyco-, levul-, saccharo-, suc-
suggestive of pre para-, quasi-;
comb homeo-, homoio-, homolo-, iso-, -phane, -phanic; base simil-;
suf -acean, -aceous, -al, -an, -ar,
 -ary, -ean, -en, -eous, -esque, -ful,
 -ic, -il, -ile-, -ine, -ing, -ish,
 -itious, -ize, -like, -ode, -oid, -ose,
 -osity, -some, -tious, -ular, -y¹ suitable for base concinn-; suf -il, -ile, -like, -ly
sulfate comb sulfatosulfur comb sulfo-, sulfureo-, sulpho-, thia-, thio-
summit base coryph-
summon base appell-, -claim,
 -clam-, -dict-, -nom-, -voc-; ~upon: base -prec-
sumptuous base datatsun comb helio-, sol-; ~bathing:
 apricat-; ~shade: comb umbelli-, umbello-, umbraculi-

superior pre pre-, super-; comb over-superlatives suf -est, -most supplement pre a-, ac-, ad-, af-, ag-, al-, an-, ap-, ar-, as-, at-, co-, extra-, para-, super-, syn; comb inter-. See more supporting pre pro-; comb -pher; base patroc-; ~part: comb -podium, scapi-; base paxill-, sterigm-, -stip¹. See carrying suppress base fin-, termin-suppurative comb pyo-. See putrefying supreme comb arch-, archi-, proto-; base -prim-, -principsurf comb cuma-
surfaces comb -hedral, -hedron, topo-, -topy surfeit base ampl-, copi-, larg-surgeon base chirur-, medicsurgical operation comb -ectomy, -pexy, -stomy, tomo-, -tomous, -tomy surly base acerb-, moros-surpassing pre ex-, extra-, meta-, over-, para-, pre-, preter-, super-, supra-, sur-, ultra-surplus base ampl-, copi-, largsurrounding pre be-, circum-, peri-; comb amphi-, ampho-; base -zon-, -cing-, -cinctsuture comb -(r)rhaphy swallow bird: base chelid-, hirund-, -sturn-; ingest: comb -phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy; base -glut-swamp base palud-, palusswan base cyn-, cygnsway base nuta-, -vacilsweat comb sudori-; base -hidr-, -sudasweet comb mell(i)-; base -dulc-, -hedy-, suav-swelling comb -cele, -edema, ganglio-, phlogo-, phym-, -phyma, physa-, physo-, strum(i)-; base aug-, cresc-, physc-, strum-, -tum-, -turg-; suf -itis swift bird: base cypsel-; fast: comb ocy-, tacho-, tachy-; base -celer-, velocswim comb necto-; base -nata-swine base porc-, sui-Swiss base Helvetsword(like) comb ensi-, gladi-, machaero-, xiphi-, xiphoswordfish base xiphi-symbol comb sema-, -seme, semeio-, semiosymmetry comb pari-; base concinn-, congru-, symmetrsynchronized comb synchro-syphilis comb -luetic Syrian comb Syro-system suf -ics

T

tablet base pinac-, tabell-tacit comb hesy-; base -tacit-tail comb caudo-, -cerca-, -cercal, cerco-, uro¹ tailor base sartor-
take base -cap(t)-, -cep¹-, -empttake hold of comb -tain; base -capt-, -cathex-, -ger-, -hapt-, -prehend, prehens-, rap-, rep-, -ten-taker comb -ceptor tale base -fabul-, mytho-, -narr-, stori-

talented base ingen-

talk(ing) comb -claim, glosso-,
-lalia, lalo-, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis,
-lexy, logo-, -logue, -logy, -phone,
phono-, -phony, verbi-, verbo-,
voc-, voci-, -voke; base -clam-,
-dict-, garrul-, -loc(u)-, -loqu-,
-orat-, -phem-, rhet-; filthy~:
borbor-. Also see speak/speech tallness comb acro-, alti-, alto-, bato-, hypsi-, hypso-, longi-; base procer-

tallow comb seb(o)-

talon base ungui-, ungul-

tame base cicur-, mansuetan base fulv-. Also see "Colors" in

Part III

tapered base fastigtapeworm comb taeni-, teni

tapir base pachyderm-

tarantula base theraphos-tardy comb brady-; base -cunct-,

-tard-. See late

tarsier base lemur-

tartar comb tartro-

tasseled base crosso-, -thysan-taste comb -geusia; base -geum-,

-geumat-, -gust-, -sapor-. Also see
"The Senses" in Part III

tattoo base stigm-

taurine comb tauro-

tavern base caupon-

tawny base melin-, mustel-

tea base -thei-

teach comb -pedia; base -didact-, doc-, -paed-

tear rip: comb sparasso-; base lacer-,
-lania-, sparax-; cry: comb dacry(o)-, lachrim-, lachrym-, lacrimo-; base fleb-, flet-, -plor-tease comb tantalo-; base vex-

technical comb technotechnique comb -craft; suf -ade,

-age, -al, -ance, -ancy, -asis, -asm,
-ation, -cy, -ence, -ency, -ery,

-esis, -iasis, -ice, -ics, -ing, -ion,
-ism, -ment, -osis, -otic, -sion,
-sis, -th, -tion, -tious, -ture, -ure,
-y, -ysis

teeth see tooth

television comb tele-, video-tell comb -claim, logo-, -logue,

-lalia, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy,
-logy, -phone, phono-, -phony,
rhet-, verbi-, verbo-, voc-, voci-,
-voke; base -clam-, -dict-,
-loc(u)-, -loqu-, narr-, -orat-,
-phat-, -phem-

temperament comb -natured temple head: comb temporo-; church: comb aedi-; base -nao-

temporal base -secul-

ten comb dec(a)-, decem-, deka-;

one tenth: comb deci-; ten and __:
suf -teen; ~thousand: myria-;

x times ten: suf -ty². Also see
"Numbers" in Part III

ten thousand comb myria-, myrio-tending to pre pro-; comb -phile,

-philia, -philiac, -trope, -tropic;
suf -able, -ative, -ish, -istic, -istical, -ive, -like, -some², -orial,
-ulous, -y¹

tendon comb tendo-, teno-, tenonto-

tendrill comb cirr(h)i-, cirr(h)o-, pampin-

tennis base sphair-

tension comb tasi-, taso-, -tonia,
-tonic, tono-

tentacles comb actino-, tentaculi-; base brach-, cornic-, flagell-tentative base ambig-, ancip-, apor-, dub-, vagu-

terminate comb stasi-, -stasis, -stat;
base fin-, termin-

termite base isoptero-, termit-

tern base stern-

terrified base -pavid-, -tim-, trepid-.
See fear

terrifying comb dino-¹ territory suf -land
testicle comb didym(o)-, orchido-², orchio-, oscheo-; base -scrottesting comb -opsy-, -scope-, -scopic, -scopo-, -scopy; base -(in)quir-, -(in)quis-, -scrut-testy base acerb-, mord-tetanus comb tetanothalamus comb thalamothallium comb thallo-thankful base grat-
the pre al-²
theater comb teatro-
theory suf -ism-, -logy thermoelectric comb thermothick comb cespitoso-, dasy-, hadro-, pachy-, pycno-, pykno-, visc(o)-; base -crass-, -spissthief comb clepto-, klepto-, lesto-; base -furt-, harpax-, ladron-, latr(o) thigh comb mero-² thin comb angusti-, dolicho-, lepto-, maci-, mano-, stegno-, steno-, tenu-; base -areo-², gracil-, -isthm-, stal-, -strict-thing that is ___ suf -ance-, -ee-, -er-, -tion-, -tious think see thought
third base -tert-, trient-, trito-thirst comb dipso-; base siti-. See dry thirteen base tredecim-, triskai-dekathirty base triaconta-, triceni-, triges-, trigint-thong base lor-. See strap thorax comb thoracico-, thoracothorny comb acantho-, echino-, rhamn-, spiculi-, spiculo-, spini-; base -muric-, -urticthought comb -gnomy-, -gnosia-, -gnosis-, -gnostic, gnoto-, ideo-, -noia-, -nomy, phreno-, psycho-,

-sophy; base -cogit-, -cogn-, epis-tem-, -heur-, ment²-, -noe-, -put-, ratio-, -sci-; insane~: comb lysso-, -mania; base ament-, dementthousand comb chili-, kilo-; ~th: milli-thread(like) comb filamento-, fili-, filio-, filo-, mit²-, nemato-; base -nema-, stema-threat base min-
three comb ter-, tri-, triakis-, triplo-, trito-; base -tern-, -tert-; ~dimensional: comb stereo-; ~fourths: triquad-; ~hundred: trecent-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III threshing base trit-
threshold base -limin-, marg-, propinq-, proxthrift base frug-², pars-throat comb gutturo-, laryngo-, pharyngo-, -throated, tracheo-; base fauc-, jug-through pre cata-, cath-, dia-, per-, trans-throughout pre ana-; comb -wide throw comb -bole, -bolic, bolo-¹, -boly; base -ballist-, -jact-, -jac-ula-, -ject-thrush base -musicap-, -turd-, cichlothrust base -pel-, -pul-, -trude-, -trus-thumb base pollic-thunder comb bronte-, bronto-, cerauno-, kerauno-; base fulmin-, tonitr-thymus comb thymothyroid comb -thyrea, thyreo-; ~gland: comb thyrotibia comb tibio-; base -cnemtick base acar-, ixodtickle comb titillo-
tide base aestu-, estutie comb sphingo-, -strain-, -strict, syndesmo-; base -liga-, -merinth-, -string-, -vinc-. See restriction

tiger base tigr-

tightening comb isch-, koly-, -penia-, -strain-, -strict; base -string-; suf -en. See constriction tile base imbricato-, tegul-tillage comb -culture tilting comb -clinal-, -clinate-, -cline-, -clinic, clino-, -clisis, lechrio-, loxo-, plagio-; base -clivtime comb back-, chrono-, horo-, yester-; base -tempor-; ~period: pre eo-; comb aev-, -cene, paleo-, protero-. Also see "Time" in Part III

timid base pav-, trep-, verecund-tin base cassiter-, stann-tiny comb brachisto-, brachy-, brevi-, chamae-, micro-, mini-, nano-, parvi-, parvo-, pauci-, steno-; base -curt-, exig-; suf -cle-, -cule-, -een-, -el-, -ella-, -en-, -et-, -ette-, -idion-, -idium-, -ie-, -illa-, -illo-, -isk-, -kin-, -le-, -let-, -ling-, -ock-, -ola-, -ole-, -rel-, -ula, ule-, -ulum-, -ulus-, -y tip comb -apical, apico-; base cacumentired comb pono-; base -fatig-, kopo-, -lass-tissue comb fascio-, histio-, histo-, -sarc, sarco-; dead~: necrotitan comb titano-¹

titanium comb titano-²

titmouse base par-²

to pre a-, ac-¹, ad-¹, af-, ag-, al-¹, an-², ap-, ar-¹, as-¹, at-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, ob-; comb -bound; base pros-; suf -ad-, -ly-, -ward-, -ways-, -wise; ~the other side: pre trans-toad comb batracho-, bufo-, phrynotoday base hodie-

toe comb dactyl(o)-, -dactylous, -dactyly, digiti-; base halluctogether pre co-¹, inter-, syl-, sym-, syn-, sys-; comb allelo-, hama-, symphyo-, synchro-; base -mutu-, -simultoil base aerumn-. See difficult and work tomb comb -taph, tapho-; base sepulc-

tomorrow base crastin-

tone comb tonia-, -phone, phono-, -phony; base son-tongue comb -glossia, glosso-, -glot, lamino-, lingu(o)-; base -ligul-; ~kissing: cataglotttonsil comb tonsillotooth comb dentato-, denti-, dento-, dont-, -odont(o)-, -odus, -toothed; canine~: laniar-; ~disease: comb cario-; lacking~: base edent-, coryph-; wisdom~: base cranter-top crest: comb cory-, coryph-, stromboli-; base cacum-, culm-; ~shaped: comb turbinatotopical comb topo-, -topy torch base lampad-, lychn-

tornado base -lilapstortoise base -chelon-, emydo-, testud-. See turtle totally pre be-, cata-, cath-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-, omni-, pan-, panto-, stone-, totitotter base -lab-

touch comb aphe-, -aphia, -apsia, hapto-¹, sensori-, thigmo-; base -palp-, -sent-, -tact-, -tang-. Also see "The Senses" in Part III toughness comb dyna-, dynamo-, mega-, megalo-, -megaly, -sthenia, stheno-; base -forc-, -fort-, -poten-, robortour comb hodo-, -ode, odo-, via-; base -itin-, peregrin-toward pre a-, ac⁻¹, ad⁻¹, af-, ag-, al⁻¹, an⁻², ap-, ar⁻¹, as⁻¹, at-, il-, im-, in-, ir-, ob-; comb -bound, -petal; base pros-; suf -ad³, -ly, -ward, -ways, -wise tower base pyrgo-, turritown comb -burg(h), -ton, -ville; base urbtoxic comb tox(i), toxico-, -toxin, toxo-, veneno-trace comb ichno-; base indag-, vestigtrachea comb tracheo-

track comb ichno-

trade base empor-, merc-, nundin-; ~names: co⁻²

train comb siderodromo-trait suf -able, -acity, -acy, -age, -ance, -ancy, -ant, -asis, -asm, -ate, -atile, -ation, -cy, -dom, -eity, -ence, -ency, -ent, -ery, -esis, -ful, -hood, -iasis, -ice, -ility, -ion, -ise, -ism, -ity, -ling, -ma, -ment, -ness, -or, -osis, -otic, -red, -ship, -sion, -th, -tion, -tude, -ture, -ty, -ure, -y traitor base prodit-

tranquility base -eiren-, -iren-, -pac-, -paxtranscending pre trans-

transfer carry: comb -fer, -ferous, -gerous, -parous, -pher, -phore, -phorous; base -port-, -vect-; change: base camb-, -fabr-, -fec-, -mut-, -vari-, -vert-; suf -ate, en, -fy, -ize, -otic transgression comb enisso-, enosio-; base -culp-, hamart-, -pecca-transitory base caductransmission comb -cast transparent comb diaphano-, hyalo-, -phane transplant base chim-transport comb -fer, -ferous, -gerous, -parous, -pher,

-phore, -phorous; base -port-, -vecttransverse comb cross-

trap comb -thera

trapezoid comb trapezi-travel comb hodo-, dromo-, odo-; base -itiner-, -peregrin-, -via-. See wander tray base hypocraater-treat with suf -ate, -ize treatment comb -iatrics, iatro-, -iatry; base -com-tree(like) comb dendri-, dendro-, -dendron, silvi-, xylo-; base -arbor-. See woods tremble comb tremo-; base pav-, trep-; earth~: tromo-trepidation comb -phobe, -phobia, -phobic, phobo-; base pavid-, tim(or)-, -trem-, -trep-. Also see "Fear" in Part III triangular comb delta-, triangulato-, trigono-tribe comb phylo-

trifling base -nuga-

trillion comb tera-; -th: pico-trilobes comb -paria trip comb hodo-, -ode, odo-; base -itiner-, -peregrin-, -via-triple comb triplicato-, triplo-; base -ter(n)- trouble base aerumn-. See grief trout base -trocto-, trutt-truffle comb hydno-

trumpet base buccin-

trunk comb cormo-. See stem trust base -cred-. See belief truth base aleth-, -ver-

try base conat-, peir-

tube comb aulo-, follic-, salpingo-, siphoni-, siphono-, soleno-, tubi-, tubo-, tubuli-, tubulo-, vasi-; base fistul-, -syr-; ~shaped: comb syringo-tuberculosis comb tuberculo-; base phthisi-, phthisio-, -phthisis tufts comb cespitoso-; base carph-, crin-, crist-, flocctumor comb -cele, onco-, phym-, -phyma, struma-; suf -oma tumult base -agit-, -tumult-, -turbtunnel base cunicul-

turbine comb turbo-turbot base psett-, scophthalmturkey base gallinac-, meleagr-Turkey comb Turco-, Turkoturn comb gyro-, helico-, roti-, strepho-, strepsi-, strepto-, stroph(i)-, trepo-, -verge, vortici-; base -vers-, -vert-, -volut-, -volv-; ~towards or away: comb -trope, -tropic, -tropism, tropo-, -tropous, -tropy turnabout comb allo-; base -vers-, -vert-turnip base napi-
turpentine base terebinth-turtle comb chelo(n)-; base -anaps-, chelys-, -testud-, -turtura-. See tortoise twelve comb dodeca-, duodec-, duodecim-, duodentwenty comb eico-, icoso-, icosi-, viginti-; base vicesim-; ~four: icositetra-twice pre bi-, di-¹; ~per time period: pre semi-twigs comb scop(i)-; base carph-, ramul-, -sarment-, surcul-, virgultwilight base -crepus-, -lyg-twin(s) comb diplo-, zygo-; base -didym-, gemelli-, gemin-; conjoined~: comb -pagina-, -pagius. See two twisted comb contorto-, gyro-, helico-, pleco-, plecto-, spiro-, strepho-, strepsi-, strepto-; base -strob-, -stromb-, -stroph-, -tors-, -torttwitching comb -chorea, choreo-, -clonic, -clonus, -esmus, -ismus, spasmo-; base -stal-, -vellic-two pre bi-, bin-, bis-, di-, du-; comb ambi-, ambo-, amphi-, ampho-, deuterio-, deuto-, dicho-, diphy-, diplo-, disso-, double-, duo-, duplicato-, duplici-, dyo-, gemelli-, twi-, zygo-; base -didym-, gemin-; ~colored: comb dichro-; ~hundred: base ducen-; ~wings: comb diptero-. Also see "Numbers" in Part III tympanic comb myringotype comb -type, typotyphoid comb typho-

U

ulcer comb helco-
ulna comb cubito-, ulno-umbilicus comb omphaloumbrella comb umbell(i)-, umbraculi-, umbrelliunaffected by suf -proof unalterable base immut-unceasing base assid-, contin-, incess-, perpet-uncertain base ambig-, ancip-, apor-, dub-, vaguuncle base -avunc-, patru-unclean comb blenno-, -chezia, copro-, fim(i)-, kopro-, myso-,

- myxia, myxo-, paedo-, pedo-, scato-, spatilo-, spurc-, stegno-, sterco-; base -fecu-, molys-, rhypar-, rhy-po-
- unconscious base -stup-
- under pre hypo-, infra-, sub-, sub-ter-; comb infero-, under-; base cunicul-; ~world: infern-
- understanding comb -gnomy,
-gnosia, -gnosis, -gnostic; base
-crit-, -judic-, -soph-
- undertaking pre entre-
- undeveloped comb -atelia, atelo-.
See immature
- undiscerning base hebet-, obtus-,
-tard-
- undivided base integ-, tot-
- undo pre de-
- undulation comb flexuoso-; base
-sinu-. See wave
- uneasy base agit-, mov-, trepid-,
turb-
- unequal comb aniso-, inequi-, impari-, perisso-
- uneven comb anomalo-, anomo-, perisso-, poikilo-, sinuato-, sinuoso-; base salebr-
- unfinished pre demi-, hemi-, semi-;
base -atelia, atelo-; suf -esce,
-escence, -escent
- unguent base -aliph-, unct-
- unhappy comb lype-; base dolor-,
fleb-, flet, luct-, -trist-
- unimportant base -nuga-
- union comb -ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, -gamous, -gamy; base
-greg-, -junct-, -soc-
- unit comb -mer(e), mero-
- unite pre co-; comb conjugato-,
-ergasia, gameto-, gamo-, hapto-,
junct-; base aps-, apt-, -greg-,
-soc-; suf -ate, -ize
- universe comb -cosm, cosmo-
- unlike pre anti-, contra-, contre-,
dis-, hetero-, ob-, un-; comb
back-, counter-, enantio-,
oppositi-
- unlit comb ambly-, melan(o)-, nycto-, scoto-; base -achlu-,
amaur-, fusc-, lyg-, obscur-,
tenebr-
- unprofitable base mataeo-
- unquenchable base avid-, edac-, gulos-
- unreasonable base alogo-
- unsatisfactory pre hypo-, sub-, under-; comb hystero-; base
hesson-; suf -aster
- unsaturated acid comb -enoic
- unspecified base ambig, dub-, ancip-
- untrustworthy base apat-, dolero-, ludif-
- unusual comb aetheo-, anom(o)-,
anomalo-. See irregular
- unwell pre dys-, mal-; comb noso-,
-path, -pathic, patho-, -pathy;
base aegr-, -morb-, -pecca-,
valetud-
- up pre ana-, ano-; comb super-, supra-; ~to: pre epi-
- upheaval base -agit-, -tumult-,
-turb-
- upon pre ana-, epi-, ob-, super-, sur-
- upper side comb supero-
- upright comb ortho-, prob-, recti-
- uproar base crepit-, frem-, ligyr-, strep(i)-, strid-, stridul-. See
sound
- upward pre ano-¹, ex-
- uranium comb uranoso-
- urea comb ure(a)-
- ureter comb uretero-, urethro-
- urge base horm-, -hort-, -suade,
-suas-
- uric acid comb uri-, urico-
- urine/urinary tract comb ouro-, ure(a)-, ureo-, uretero-, -uretic, urini-, urino-, uro-², -ury; base

-mict-, -ming-; diseased condition of~: comb -uria urn comb urcei-, urceousage base mor-¹
used for doing comb -chresis; suf -le useful comb chreo-, chresto-; base -util-useless base futi-, inutil-, mataeo-usual comb normoutensil base skeuo-

uterus comb hyster(o)-¹, metra-, metro-, uteroutter comb -claim, logo-, -logue, -lalia, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy, -logy, -phone, phono-, -phony, rhet-, verbi-, verbo-, voc-, voci-, -voke; base -clam-, -dict-, -loc(u)-, -loqu-, narr-, -orat-, -phat-, -phem-uvula comb staphylo-, uvulo-

V

vacant comb ceno-, keno-; base -erem-, (ex)haur-, inan-, -vac(u)- vaccine comb vaccino-vagina comb colp(o)-, elytr(o)-, kolpo-, vagini-, vagino-. See vulva vague base ambig, dub-, ancipvagus nerve comb vagovain comb mataeovalence comb -valent; lower~: suf -ous validating comb -deictic values comb axio-² valve comb valvi-, valvulovampire base vespertil-vanishing base marcvanquish base vict-, -vincvapor comb atmo-, -capnia, capno-, vapo-, vapor-; base halit-, -nebul-variation comb allo-, anomal-, anomo-, poikilo-; base -mut-. See change vas deferens comb vasovase comb urcei-
vast comb bronto-, dino-, giganto-, mega-, megal-, -megaly vault base fornic-
veal base vitul-
vegetable comb vegeti-, vegeto-; base lachan-, oler-, olit-vegetation comb botano-, herbi-, -phyte, phyto-; base veget-; suf -aceae, -ad, -ales, -eae, -ia vehicle comb amaxo-, -mobile; base -ocho-¹ veiled pre sub-; comb calypto-, crypto-; base occultvein comb cirso-, phlebo-, vene-, veni-, veno-, venoso-, -venous; enlarged~: comb varici-, varico-velvet base velut-ventral comb abdomino-, celio-, laparo-, ventro-ventricle comb ventriculo-veracity base aleth-, -ververdegris base aerugverge base marg-, propinq-, prox-vermin base pesti-, verminversatile base agil-, facil-, ingen-verse comb rhapso-, -stichia, sticho-, -stichous vertebra comb spondylo-, vertebro-; top~: comb atlanto-, atlovertigo base illyngoverve base ard-, alacr-, -ferv-, zelovery pre per-; comb stonevesicle comb vesiculi-, vesiculovessel comb angio-, vasculo-, vasi-, vaso-; serving~: base skeuo-vestibule comb vestibuloviands comb bromato-, -brotic, manduc-, opso-, -phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy, -sitia, sitio-, sito-, -troph, -trophic, tropho-, -trophy, -vora, -vore, -vorous; base -alim-, -cib-, escul-, -gust-, -nutr-; partially digested:- chymovibration comb pallo-, tremo-, vibro-vice comb enisso-, enosio-; base -culp-, hamart-, -pecca-vicious base flagit-, iniq-, perdit-, -prav-, turp-victory base nic-

view, a comb -scape

view, to comb eid(o)-, oculo-, ommat-, -opia, opsi-, -opsia, -opsis, opso-, -opsy, ophthalmo-, optico-, opto-, -scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy, visuo-; base -blep-, -scrut-, -spec-, -spic-, -vid-

village comb -burg(h), -ton, -ville villainous pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, enisso-, enosio-, kak-, kako-, mal-, male-, ponero-; base culp-, facin-, flagit-, hamart-, iniq-, nefar-, pecca-, perdit-, -prav-, sceler-, scelest-, turp-vine comb clem-¹, viti-; base -ampel-, pampinvinegar comb acet(o)-, acetyl-, acid-, keto-; See sharp violate base temeratviolet comb indo-¹; base ianth-, -viol-. Also see "Colors" in Part III viper comb echidno-

virgin comb partheno-

virtuous pre bene-, eu-; base agath-, bon-, prob-virus comb genus:-virus; family:-viridae; subfamily:-virinae viscera comb splanchno-, viscervisible comb lampro-, luc-, luci-, -phane, phanero-, -phanic, -phany, pheno-; base -clar-, -schem-, -spec-, -spic-vision comb eid(o)-, oculo-, ommat-, -opia, opsi-, -opsia, -opsis, opso-, -opsy, ophthalmo-, optico-, opto-, -scope, -scopic, scopo-, -scopy, visuo-; base -blep-, -scrut-, -spec-, -spic-, -vidvitality comb bio-, -biosis, vita-, vivi-, zoo-, -zoic, -zooid; base -animvitiated comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis, -lyte, phthysio-, -phthysis, putre-, putri-, pytho-, sapro-, septi-², septico-, septo-¹; base -marces-, -putr-, tabe-; suf -ase vitriol comb vitriolico-vocabulary comb glosso-, -glot, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy, logo-, -logue, -logy, verbo-; base -lingu-, -locu-, -loqu-, rhemavoice comb -claim, logo-, -logue, -lalia, -lexia, lexico-, -lexis, -lexy, -logy, -phone, phono-, -phony, -phthong, rhet-, verbi-, verbo-, voc-, voci-, -voke; base -clam-, -dict-, -loc(u)-, -loqu-, -orat-, -phat-, -phemvoid comb ceno-, keno-; base -erem-, (ex)haur-, inan-, -vac(u)- voltaic comb volta-

voluminous base ampl-, copi-, magnvoluntary comb ultro-. See free vomit comb -emesis, -emetic, emetovoracious base avid-, edac-, gulos-vortex comb vortici-

vote base suffrag-

voyage base -curs-, itiner-, -navig-, peregrin-, via-vulgar obscene: base aischro-, borbor-, copro-, fescinn-; ordinary: comb demo-; base -pleb-, -popul-vulture base -vulturvulva comb episio-, vulvi-, vulvo-.

See vagina

W

wading bird base grallator-wagon base plaustr- (plaustrary) wail base plang-, -plor-, -ulul-¹ wait comb brady-; base -cunct-, imped-, -mora-, -tard-

walk comb -basia, bato-, -grade;
base -ambul-, -gress-

wall comb parieto-, -phragma, septo-; base herco-, -mur-², teicho-, ticho-, vall-

walnut base juglan-

walrus base oben-

wand comb rhabdo-

wander comb -plania, plano-²; base err-, -peregrin-, -vag(r)-. See travel

wanting pre hypo-, sub-, under-;
comb hystero-; base hesson-; suf
-aster

wanton base meretric-, scort-war base arm-, -bell-, milit-, polem-

warbler base vermivor-

ward off base alexi-, alexowarmth comb cal(e)-, calo-, calor(i)-, pyro-, -therm, thermo-, thermy; base aest-, caum-, fervwarn base -mon-

wart base verruci-

wash comb balneo-; base ablut-, cathar-, -lav-, -mund-², -purg-wasp comb vespi-; base sphec-, sphek-

wasting away comb phthino-, phthisio-, -phthisis; base tab-watchman base excub-, custod-, vigil-

water comb aqua-, aque-, aqui-, hydro-, hyeto-, hygro-; base -ripwaterless comb carpho-, xero-; base

arid-, celo-, cherso-, -sicc-

wave comb cuma-, cyma-, cymato-, cymo-, -enchyma, flexuoso-, gy-roso-, kymo-, sinuato-, sinuoso-; base -fluct-, -unda-, -undul-

wax comb cero-, ceruminiway comb hodo-, -ode¹, odo-, via-;

base -itin-

weakness physical: comb astheno-,
-atrophia, lepto-, -plegia, -plegy;
base -debil-, dimin-, enerv-, flacc-, labe-; spiritual: base culp-, delinq-, laps-, -pecca-, sphal-wealth comb chryso-, pluto-; base

chrem-, -opul-, pecun-

weapon comb hoplo-

weary comb pono-; base -fatig-,
kopo-, lass-

weasel base arctoid-, gale-¹, -mustelweave base tex-

web comb hypho-

wed comb gameto, gamo-, -gamous,
-gamy; base conjug-, marit-,
-nub-, -nupt-

wedge-shaped comb spheno-; base cuneo-

weed base runc-

week base -hebdom-

weep base dacryo-, fleb-, flet-, lachrim-, lachrym-, plor-

weevil base curculion-weight comb -bar, baro-, bary-, gravi-; base obes-, -pond-

well condition: pre bene-, eu-; base
-san-, -salub-; water: comb phreato-, putea-

west base hesper-, -occid-, zephyr-.
See direction

wet comb hydro-, hygro-, udo-; base humect-, madefac-, -rig-. See water

whale base -balaen-, cet(o)- wheat base silig-, triticwheedle base leno-

wheel comb cyclo-, roti-, trochalo-, trochi-, trocho-, -wheeler. See circle where base -ubi-. See location whip(like) comb flagello-, mastigo-; base lorawhirl comb dino-², vorticiwhirlpool base vorag-whisper base psithur-, susurr-whistle base sibil-

white comb leuco-, leuko-; base -alb-, alut-, -cand-, ceruss-, ebur-, -lac-, -niv-. Also see "Colors" in Part III whole pre be-, cata-, de-, kata-, ob-, per-; comb holo-, omni-, pan-, panto-, stone-, toti-; base integrwhore comb cypriano-, hetaero-, porno-; base -meretric-, scort-; brothel: lupanwicked(ness) pre dys-, mis-; comb caco-, enisso-, enosio-, kak-, kako-, mal-, male-, ponero-; base culp-, facin-, flagit-, hamart-, iniq-, nefar-, pecca-, perdit-, -prav-, sceler-, scelest-, turpwicker base vimin-

wide comb eury-, lati-, platy-; base ampl-widow base -vidu-

wife comb uxori-; base conjug-, marit-

wild base agrio-

wild animal comb -there, therio-, thero-; base -fer-will comb -bulia, ultro-; base -vol-willow base itea-, salic-win base vict-, -vinc-

wind comb anemo-; base -flat-, -vent-; north~: base -borea-;

south~: comb austro-; west~:

comb zephyro-; base favonwinding comb flexuoso-; base -sinuwindow base -fenestrwindpipe comb bronch(i)-, bronchio-, broncho-, laryngo-, tracheo-wine comb oeno-, oino-, vini-, vino-, viti-wing comb ala-, ali-¹, pteno-, -pter, pterido-, pterigo-, ptero-, -pterous, pterygo-, pteryl-, ptib-, ptilo-; having two~: comb diptero-;

~case: elytri-

wink base conniv-, nict-

winter base brum-¹, cheima-, hibern-, hiema-wipe out comb lysi-, lyso-, -lysis, -lytic, -lyze, -phage, phago-, -phagous, -phagy; base -ate-⁴, perd-, phthart-, -vast-wisdom base -jud-, sapient-, -soph-

wish base desid-, opt-¹, -vell-, -volwitchcraft base -venefic-with pre co-, inter-, para-, syl-, sym-, syn-, sys-; comb allelo-, hama-, symphyo-, synchro-; base -mutu-

withdraw leave: base relinq-;

remove: pre ab-, abs-, apo-, be-, de-, des-, di-, dia-, dif-, dis-, e-, ec-, ef-, ex-, for-, off-, se, with-; comb ectrowither base marces-, marcidwithin pre eis-, em-, en-¹, il-, im-, in-¹, ir-; comb endo-, ento-, eso-, intero-, intra-, intro-; from~: comb entosthowithout missing: pre a-, an-, dis-, ex-, in-; comb lipo-; base priv-; suf -less; outside: pre epi, exo-, extra-, para-, preter; comb ecto-, extero-, outwoe comb lype-; base dolor-, fleb-, flet-, luct-, tristwolf comb lyco-; base -lup-wolverine base -mustel-woman comb gyn(e)-, gynec-, gyno-, gyno-, -gynous, -gyny,

-para³, thely-, -wife; base -femin-, muliebr-; suf -en-, -enne-, -ess-, -ette-, -ice-, -ine-, -stress-, -trice-, -trix; old~: graowomb comb hyster(o)-¹, metra-, metro-, uterowombat base phascolumwonder comb thaumato-; base -mirwood comb erio-, hyle-, hylo-, ligni-, ligno-, xylo-, -xylous, ylo-woodcock base -charadr-, gallinag-, scolopac-woodlouse base -onisc-woodpecker base -pici-

woods base nemo(r)-, saltu-, silv-.

See forest

wool comb lani-; base -flocc-, -lana-, mallo-, -ulo-³; wooly: comb dasywords comb -glossia, glosso-, -glot-, -lexia-, -lexis, lexico-, -lexy, lingu(o)-, logo-, -logue, -logy, phraseo-, -phrastic, verbi-, verbo-; base -lex-, -locu-, -loqu-, rhema-, vocab-; suf -ese; long~: base sesquipedal-; ~unit: suf -eme work comb arti-, -craft, -ergasia, ergasio-, -ergics, ergo-, -ergy, organo-, -urgy; base -labor-, lucubr-, oper-¹, -opus-, pono-² workable comb chreo-, chresto-;

base -util-

world comb -cosm, cosmo-, -gaea; base mund-¹, secul-, -tellur-, -terrworm comb ascari-, filari-, helminth(o)-, nemato-, scoleci-, scoleco-, taeni-, vermi-; base lumbric-, oxyur-, tered-, tine-worry base vex-

worse pre sub-; base degen-, pejor-worship comb -latry; base cult-, vener-², -venerat-; one who~: comb -later worthlessness base futil-, inutil-, mataeo-, -nuga-, -vili-; suf -aster² worthy of being suf -able, axio-; base -dignwound comb helco-, traumato-; base sauciat-, -vuln-wrapping base involverwren base troglodyt-

wrestling base luct-² wrinkle comb corrugato-, rhyti-; base -crisp-, -rug-wrist comb carpo-²

write comb -gram, -graph, -grapher, -graphic, grapho-, -graphy, grapto-, -logue; base -scrib-, -script-, typowrong pre dys-, mis-. See wicked

X

X-rays comb radio-, roentgeno-

X-shaped base decussxiphoid process comb xiphi-, xipho-

Y

yam base dioscorea-

yarn base fabul-, mytho-, narr-, storiyawl base nav-, scaph-

yawn base oscit-

year base -ann-, -enn-; period of two~: bienn-; period of three~: trienn-; period of four~: quadrenn-; period of five~: quinquenn-; period of six~: sexenn-; period of seven~: septenn-; period of eight~: octenn-; period of nine~: novenn-; period of ten~: decenn-. See "Numbers" in Part III yearly base anniversyearn for comb eroto-, -lagnia, -mania, -orexia; base -appet-, -conat-, -cup-, -libid-, -opt-, vell-; suf -urient yeast base ferment-, prozym-, zym(o)- yell base -clam-, vocif-yellow comb chrys(o)-, flavido-, flavo-, -icter-, lurido-, luteo-, ochreo-, ochro-, xantho-; base aen-, croce-, -fulv-, gambog-, gilv-, -helv-, jaun-, lur-, lut-, -melin-, safran-, vitell-. Also see "Colors" in Part III yesterday base hestern-, pridyew base tax-

yield base ced-, -cess yoke comb jug-, zyga-, zygo-; base zeug-, zeux-yolk comb lecith(o)-, vitelli-, vitelloyoung base jun-, -juven-, nov-. See child yttrium comb yttro-

Z

zany base fatu-, inan-, moro-, stult-zeal base ard-, alacr-, -ferv-, zelo-zebra base -zebr-

zenith comb -apical, apicozero comb nihil-, nulli-. See also "Negatives" in Part III zest comb agito-; base alacr-, ard-, avid-, cupid-, ferv-, hedon-, volupt-, zelozinc comb zinco-

zirconium comb zirconio-zygora comb zygomatiko-, zygomato-

PART III

Categories

ANIMALS

- aardvark edent- (edentate) adder colub- (colubrine) agouti dasyproct- (dasyproctidae) albatross diomed- (diomedidae);
 procellar- (procellariid) alligator eusuch- (eusuchian) anchovy engraul- (engraulid) angel fish pterophyll- (pterophyllous) ant formic- (formicine); myrmec- (myrmecine); myrmeco- (myrmecology); myrmic- (mymicine) anteater myrmecophag- (myrmecophagine) antelope alcelaph- (alcelaphine); bubal- (bubaline) ape pithec- (pithecoïd); -pithecus (Australopithecus); sim- (simian) armadillo dasypod- (dasypodid); tolypeut- (tolypeutine) ass as- (assinine); ono (onolatry) auk alcid- (alcidine)
badger melin- (meline); mustel- (mustelid) barracuda percesoc- (percesocine); sphyraen- (sphyraenoid) bat desmodont- (desmodontid); megacheiropter- (megacheiropteran); microcheiropter- (microcheiropteran); noctilion- (noctilionid); pterop- (pteropine); vespertil- (vespertilian) bear arcto- (cynarctomachy); urs- (ursine) beaver castor- (castoreum) bee api- (apiarian); bomb- (bombid); melisso- (melissean) beetle coleopter- (coleopteral); scarab- (scaraboid) bird avi- (avian); orneo- (orneoscopic); orni- (ornithology); ornitho- (ornithological); volucr- (volucrine); flycatching~: muscicap- (muscicapine); hanging nest building~: pendulin- (penduline); perching~: passer- (passerine); singing~: oscin- (oscine); wad-ing~: grall- (gralline) bittern botaur- (botaurus); ixobrych- (ixobrychus) black widow spider latrodect- (latrodectus) blackbird icter- (icterine); merul- (meruline) bluebird sial- (Sialia); turd- (turdine) boar suid- (suidian)
bobolink icter- (icterine)
buffalo bubal- (bubaline) bug cimic- (cimicoid); entomo- (entomology); insecti- (insecticide); insecto- (insectology) bull taur- (tauriform)
bullfinch pyrrhul- (pyrrhuline) bunting emberiz- (emberizine); pyrrhul- (pyrrhuloxine) butterfly lepidopter- (lepidopterous); papil- (papilionaceous) buzzard buteo- (buteonine); cathart- (cathartine) calf vitul- (vituline)
camel camel- (caneline) cardinal pyrrhul- (pyrrhuloxine) carp cyprin- (cyprinoid) casowary casuar- (casuarina) cat aeluro- (aelurophile); ailuro- (ailurophobe); feli- (feline); gale- (galeanthropy); gato- (gatophobia) caterpillar bruch- (bruchus); -camp- (campodean); eruc- (eruciform) catfish silur- (silurid) centipede chilopod- (chilopodal); scolopendr- (scolopendriiform)

- chamois rupicap- (rupicaprine) chickadee par- (parine) chicken gallin- (gallinaceous); pull- (pullet) chimpanzee sim- (simid)
civet viverr- (viverrine) cock alector- (alectoromancy); alectry- (alectryomachy) cockroach blatt- (blatta) coot fulic- (Fulicinae) cormorant phalacrocorac- (phalacrocoracine) cow bou- (boustrophedon); bov- (bovine); bu- (bulimia); vacc- (vaccine) crab cancri- (cancrine); gammar- (gammarolite) crane alector- (alectorine); grallator- (grallatorial); grui- (grui-form) cricket gryll- (gryllid); locust- (locustarian) crocodile crocodil- (crocodilian); gaval- (gavialoid) crow coraci- (coraciform); coraco- (coracoid); corvin- (corvine) cuckoo cucul- (cuculine) cuttlefish sepi- (sepiacean); -teuth- (teuthologist) deer cervi- (cervine); elaph- (elaphine) dodo did- (didine)
dog cani- (canine); cyn- (cynanthropy); kyn- (kynanthropy) dolphin delphin- (delphine) donkey ono- (onocentaur) dormouse glir- (gliriform); myox- (myoxine) dove columb- (columbine) dragonfly libellul- (libellulid) duck anat- (anatine); fuligul- (fuliguline) eagle aet- (aetites); aquil- (aquiline) earwig forficul- (forficulid) eel anguill- (anguilliform); cy-clostom- (cyclostome); muraen- (muraenoid) eland taurotrag- (Taurotragus oryx) elephant elephant- (elephantine); pachyderm- (pachydermic) elk cerv- (cervine)
emu rat- (ratite)
ermine mustel- (musteline) falcon accipit- (accipitrine); falcon- (falconry); raptor- (raptorial) ferret mustel (musteline); viverr- (viverrine) finch fringill- (fringilline) firefly lampyr- (lampyrid) fish ichthyo- (ichthyoid); pisci- (piscine); bony~: scopeli- (scopeli-form) flamingo phoenicopter- (phoenicopteroid) flea puli- (pulicine)
fly cyclorrhaph- (cyclorrhaphous); musc- (muscid); myia- (myiasis) fox alopec- (alopecoid); vulp- (vulpine) frog batracho- (batrachoid); bufo- (bufotenine); phryno- (phryno-derma); polyped- (polypedatid); rani- (ranine) fruitfly drosophil- (Drosophilidae); trypet- (Trypetidae) gerbil cricet- (cricetine) gibbon hylobat- (hylobatine) giraffe artiodactyl- (artiodactylous) gnat culici- (culiciform) gnu connochaet- (Connochaetes) goat caprin- (caprine); egagro- (egagropile); hircin- (hircine); trago- (tragopan) goldfish cyprin- (cyprinid) goose anser- (anserine); cheno- (Chenopod) gorilla pong- (pongid)
grasshopper acrid- (acridid); gryll- (gryllotalpa); locust- (locustid) grouse gallinac- (gallinaceous); tetrao- (tetraonid)

gull gavi- (Gaviae); lar- (larine) halibut hippogloss- (hippoglossoid) hare cunic- (cuniculous); lago(lagotic); lepor- (leporine) hawk accipit- (accipitrine); buteo-(buteonine); falco- (falconine);
 hieraco- (hieracosophic)
hedgehog echin- (echinate); erinac(erinaceous)
heron arde- (ardeid); grallator-(grallatorial)
herring clupeo- (clupeoid); halec-(halecomorphous); harengi-(harengiform)
hog hyos- (hyoscyamine) hookworm ancylostom- (Ancylostoma)
hornbill bucerot- (Bucerotinae);
 bucorac- (Bucoracinae)
hornet -sphec- (sphecoid); vespi(vespine)
horse caball- (caballine); caval(cavalry); equ- (equine); hippo(hippology); -hippus (eohippus) horsefly taban- (tabanid) hummingbird trochil- (trochiline) hyrax chero- (cherogril) jackass asin- (asinine) jackdaw gracul- (graculine) jay garrul- (garruline) jellyfish discophor- (discophoran) kangaroo macropod- (macropo-dine)
kestrel falco- (falconine) kingfisher halcyon- (halcyonine) kite milv- (milvine)
kudu tragelaph- (Tragelaphus)
lamb agn- (agnification) leech bdell- (bdellatomy); discophor- (discophorous); hirud-(hirudine); sanguisug- (san-guisugous)
leopard pard- (pardine)

lion leo- (leonine)
lizard lacert- (lacertilian); saur(saurian); sauro- (sauropod); - saurus (ichthyosaurus); stellio(stellion)
lobster astac- (astacian); gammar-(gammarolite); homar- (homarine)
locust locust- (locustarian) louse pedicul- (pediculous); phthir(phthiriasis); phthyr- (phthyria-sis)
lynx lync- (lyncean)
macaw psittac- (psittacine) mackerel scombr- (scombroid) magpie corv- (corvoid); garrul(garruline) manatee trichec- (Trichechus) marlin istiophor- (istiophorid) marmoset callithric- (callithricid) marmot sciur- (sciurid) marten mustel- (musteline) martin hirund- (hirundine) meadowlark icter- (icterine) millipede arthropod- (arthropo-dal); diplopod- (diplopodal) mink mustel- (musteline) minnow cyprin- (cyprinid) mite acar- (acaroid); miti- (miticide)
mockingbird mim- (mimine)
mole talp- (talpine)
mole-rat zemn- (zemnine)
mollusk malaco- (malacological);
 mollusc- (molluscous)
mongoose viverr- (viverrine) monkey cebo- (cebocephalic);
 pithec- (pithecoid)
moose cerv- (cervine)
mosquito aed- (aedine); anophel(anopheline); culici- (culicid) moth arct- (arctian); phalaen(phalaenoid); tine- (tineid) mouse mur- (murine); myo- (myomancy)

mullet mugil- (mugiloid) muskrat cricet- (cricetid) mussel mytil- (mytiloid) nightingale philomel(philomelian) nuthatch sitt- (Sitta)
opossum didelph- (didelphine)
orangutan pong- (pongoid) oriole icter- (icterine) osprey ossifrag- (ossifrage) ostrich rat- (ratite); struthi(struthious)
otter lutr- (lutrine) owl strigi- (strigine); tyto- (Tytonidae); ulul- (ululant) ox bou- (boustrophedon); bov-(bovine); bu- (bulimia) oyster ostrac- (ostracine); ostrei(ostreiform); ostreo- (os-treophage)
parakeet psittac- (psittacine) parrot psittac- (psittacine) partridge gallinac- (gallinaceous);
 -perdic- (perdicine); perdri- (perdricide)
peacock pavon- (pavonine) pelican onocrot- (onocrotal); pelecan- (pelecanid)
penguin sphenisc- (spheniscan)
perch perc- (perciform) pheasant alector- (alektorine); gal-linac- (gallinaceous); phasian-(phasianine)
pig porcin- (porcine); sui- (suilline) pigeon columb- (columbaceous);
 palumb- (palumbine); perister(peristeronic); pullastr- (pullastrine)
platypus monotrem-(monotremal); protother- (Prototheria)
plover charadr- (charadrine); pluvial- (pluvialine)
polecat mustel- (musteline) porcupine hystric- (hystricine) porpoise delphin- (delphine);

 phoeaen- (Phoeaenoides)
poultry gallin- (gallinaceous) ptarmigan tetraon- (tetraonid) quail coturn- (coturnine); gallinac-(gallinaceous) rabbit cunic- (cuniculous); lagoon-(lagotic); lepor- (leporine) raccoon arctoid- (arctoidean); procyon- (procyonine)
ram ariet- (arietine); crio- (criocephalous); krio- (krioboly) rat mur- (murine)
rattlesnake crotal- (crotaline) raven coraci- (coraciiform); coraco(coracomorphic); corvin-(corvine) reptile batrach- (batrachian); her-peto- (herpetology); -ophidia (Thanatophidia); ophio- (ophio-latry); reptil- (reptilian); saur(saurian); -saurus (ichthyosaurus); serp- (serpentine)
rhinoceros ceratorh- (ceratorhine) roach blatt- (blattid)
roadrunner cucul- (cuculid)
robin turd- (turdine)
sable zibel- (zibeline) sailfish istiophor- (istiophorid) salmon salmoni- (salmoniform) sandgrouse pterocl- (pteroclid) sandpiper charadr- (charadrine);
 tring- (tringoid)
scorpion pedipalp- (pedipalpous) sea horse hippocamp- (hippocam-pine)
sea urchin echin- (echinoid) seagull lar- (laroid)
seal phoc- (phocine)
shark carchar- (carcharinid); gale(galeod); selach- (selachoid) ham- merhead~: sphyrn- (Sphyrna);
 squal- (squaloid)
sheep ovi- (ovine); verv- (vervecine)

shrew soric- (soricine); tupai- (tupaïd) shrimp macrur- (macruran) silkworm bombyc- (bombycine) skunk mephit- (mephitine); mustel- (mustelid) skylark alaud- (alaudine) sloth xenarth- (xenarthral) slug limac- (limacine)
smelt ather- (atherine)
snail cochlea- (cochleiform); gastropod- (gastropodal); limac- (limacine) snake angui- (anguiform); colubr- (colubrine); echidno- (echidno-toxin); -glypha (episthoglypha); herpeto- (herpetology); ophid- (ophidian); ophio- (ophiolatry); reptil- (reptilian); serpen- (serpentine); viper- (viperine) snapper lutjan- (lutjanid) snipe charadr- (charadrine); scolopac- (scolopaceous) sparrow passer- (passerine) spider arachn- (arachnoid); arene- (areneiform); phalang- (phalangium) squid cephalopod- (cephalopodal); teutho- (teuthologist) squirrel sciur- (sciurine) stag cerv- (cervine); elaph (elaphine) starfish asteroid- (asteroidean); echinoderm- (echinodermatous) starling psar- (psarolite); sturn- (sturnoid) stoat mustel- (musteline) stork cicon- (ciconine); grallator- (grallatorial); pelarg- (pelargic) surgeon acipenser- (acipenserine); sturion- (sturionic) swallow chelid- (chelidonian); -hirund- (hirundine); sturn- (sturnoid) swan cygn- (cycnean); cygn- (cycnine)

swift cypsel- (cypseline) swine porc- (porcine); su- (suoid) swordfish xiphi- (xiphioid) tapeworm taeni- (taenioid); teni- (teniaceid) tapir pachyderm- (pachydermoid) tarantula theraphos- (theraphosid) tarsier lemur- (lemuroid) termite isoptero- (isopterous); termit- (termitarium) tern stern- (sternine)
thrush cathar- (Catharus); cichlo- (cichlomorphous); muscicap- (muscicapine); turd- (turdiform) tick acar- (acarine); ixod- (ixodid) tiger tigr- (tigrine)
titmouse par- (parine)
toad batrach- (batrachian); bufo- (bufonite); phryno- (phryno-derma) tortoise chelon- (chelonian); emydo- (emydosaurian); testud- (testudineous) trout trocto- (troctolite); trutt- (truttaceous) turbot psett- (psettaceous); scophthalm- (Scophthalmus) turkey gallinac- (gallinaceous); meagr- (meleagrine) turtle anaps- (anapsid); chelon- (chelonian); -chelys (Lepidochelys); testud- (testudinal); turtura- (turturring) vulture vultur- (vulturine) walrus oben- (obenid)
warbler vermivor- (Vermivora) wasp sphec- (sphecid); vesp- (vespine) weasel arctoid- (arctoidean); gale- (phascogale); mustel- (musteline) weevil curculion- (curculionid) whale balaen- (balaenoid); cet- (cetaceous) wolf lup- (lupine); lyc- (lycanthropy)

wolverine mustel- (musteline) wombat phascolum- (phascolomian) woodcock charadr- (charadrine); gallinag- (gallinaginous); scolopac- (scolopacine) woodlouse isopod- (isopodous); onisc- (onisciform) woodpecker pic- (picine) worm ascari- (ascariasis); filari-

(filariform); helminth- (helminthoid); lumbric (lumbriciform); oxyur- (oxyurifuge); scolec- (scolecoid); scoleci- (scoleciform); scoleco (scolecobrotic); taeni- (taeniophobia); tered- (teredines); tine- (tineid); vermi- (vermiform) wren troglodyt- (troglodytine) zebra zebr- (zebrine)

THE BODY

abdomen abdomino- (abdominocentesis); alv- (alvine); celio- (celiomyositis); celo- (celoscope); laparo- (laparotomy); ventri- (ventricumbent); ventro- (ventrodorsal); abdominal sac: peritoneo- (peritoneoclysis); distended~: ventricos- (ventricosoglobose) adrenal gland adreno- (adrenotoxin) amniotic sac amnio- (amniocentesis) ankle bone astragalo- (astragalonavicular); tali- (taligrade); talo- (talocalcaneal) antibodies -valent (multivalent) anus ano- (anorectal) arm acromio- (acromioclavicular); brachio- (brachiocephalic) armpit axill- (periaxillary) artery arterio- (arteriosclerosis); -venous (intravenous) atlas vertebra: atlanto- (atlantoaxial); atlo- (atloid) atrophy tabe- (tabescent) auricle atrio- (atrioventricular) backbone rachi- (rachicentesis); rachio- (rachimeter); rhach- (rhachitis); -rrhachia (glycorrachia) bile bili- (biligenic); chole- (chole-cyst); cholo- (chololith); gall- (gallbladder) birthmark nevi- (nevoid); nevo- (nevosity) blister phlyc- (phlyctenous); pustul- (pustule); vesica- (vesicatory); vesico- (vesicoprostic); vesiculo- (vesiculo-pustular) blood cruent- (incruent); cruor- (cruorin); haema- (haemachrome); haemo- (haemogastric); hema- (hemachrome); hemato- (hematogenic); hemo- (hemophilia); sangui- (sanguicolous); sanguineo- (sanguineous); sanguino- (sanguino-purulent); ~clot: thrombo- (thrombophlebitis); ~condition or disease: -aemia (hyperaemia); -cythemia (leucocythemia); -emia (leukemia); ~fluid: lympho- (lymphocyte); ~vessels: hemangio- (hemangiosarcoma); vasculo- (vasculitis); vaso- (vasoconstrictor) body corp- (corporeal); physico- (physicochemical); physi- (physiatrics); physio- (physiotherapy); somato- (somatology); -some (chromosome); dead~: cadav- (cadaver); necro- (necrosis);

- ~defect: hamart- (hamartoma); ~odor: brom- (bromidrosis);
 ~organ part: -ite (somite)
- bone ossi- (ossification); osseo- (osseomucin); osteo- (osteoplasty); forearm~: ulno- (ulnorradiar); frontal~: fronto- (frontoparietal); ~joining hipbones: sacro- (sacroiliac); ~membrane: periosteal- (periosteophyte); bony process: stylo- (stylohyoid)
- brain cephal- (cephalitis); cerebri- (cerebritis); cerebro- (cerebrospinal); encephalo- (encephalocele)
- breast mammi- (mammary); mammo- (mammogram); -mastia (macromastia); masto- (mastodynia); mazo- (mazoplasia); stetho- (stethoscope); ~bone: pect- (pectoral); sterno- (sternoclavicular)
- breath afflat- (afflatus); -hale (exhale); halit- (halitosis); ozostom- (ozostomia); -pnea (apnea); pneo- (pneograph); pneumato- (pneumatometer); pneumo- (pneumobacillus); pneumono- (pneumonophorous); pneusio (pneusiobiognosis); pulmo- (pulmonary); spiro- (spiograph)
- buttocks nati- (natiiform); -pygia (steatopygia); pygo- (pygopod)
- cartilage chondr- (chondrify); chondrio- (chondriosome); chondro- (chondroblast); xiphi- (xiphioid); eyelid~: tarso- (tarsoplasty)
- cecum ceco- (cecostomy); typhlo- (typhlostomy)
- cell alveolo- (alveolopalatal); celli- (celliferous); celluli- (celluliferous); cellulo- (cellulo-fibrous); -cyte (lymphocyte); -cythemia (leukocythemia); cyto- (cytology); -gonium (sporogonium);
- kyto- (kymetry); -plasm (neoplasm); plasm- (plasmolysis)
- cellulose cello- (cellophane)
- celom celo- (celomate)
- cervical cervico- (cervicodorsal)
- cheek bucco- (buccolabial); -genia (microgenia); genio- (genioplasty); geny- (genyplasty); melo- (meloplasty); zygomatico- (zygomatico-auricular); zygomatico- (zygomatico-temporal)
- chest pector- (pectoral); sterno- (sternocostal); stetho- (stethometric); thoracico- (thoracico-abdominal); thoraco- (thoracotomy)
- chin -genia (microgenia); genio- (genioplasty); geny- (genyplasty); mento- (mentoplasty)
- chromosomes -ploid (diploid)
- chyle chyl- (chylaqueous)
- clavicle cleido- (cleidomastoid); clido- (clidomastoid)
- clot grum- (grumous); thrombo- (thrombo-phlebitis)
- coccyx coccy- (coccygia); coccygo- (coccygodynia)
- collarbone clavi- (clavicle)
- colon coli- (coliform); colo- (coloenteritis)
- cornea corneo- (corneitis); kerato- (keratotomy)
- corpse cadav- (cadaverous); necro- (necrophilia)
- cyst -sacc- (sacculation)
- dandruff porrige- (porriginous)
- defecation -chezia (hematochezia); copro- (coprolagnia); fecu- (feculent); fim- (fimetis); fimi- (fimicolous); kopro- (koprophilia); merd- (immerd); scato- (scatology); spatilo- (spatilomancy); sterco- (stercoraceous)
- diaphragm -phrenic (gastrophrenic); phrenico- (phrenicotomy); phreno- (phrenogastric) ear auri- (auricular); auriculo- (auriculo-temporal); ot- (otitis); oto- (otopyosis)

elbow ancon- (anconitis) embryo- -blast (mesoblast); -blastic (osteoblastic); blasto- (blastoderm); -blasty; embry- (embryonic) ethmoid bone ethmo- (ethmoturbinal) eustachian tube salpingo- (salpingitis) eye eido- (eidoptometry); oculi- (oculiform); oculo- (oculomotor); op- (opalgia); ophthalmo- (ophthalmoscope); -opia (diplopia); opsi- (opsiometer); -opsis (coreopsis); ommat- (ommatophore); opsi- (opsiometer); opso- (opso-clonus); -opsy (achromatopsy); optico- (optico-papillary); opto- (optometry); -scope (telescope); -scopic (microscopic); -scopy (bioscopy); spec- (inspect); spic- (conspicuous); vid- (video); vis- (visual); ~brow: ophry- (ophryosis); cornea: corneo- (corneitis); kerato- (keratotomy); corner of~: cantho- (canthoplasty); ~covering: sclero- (sclerotomy); iris of~: irido- (iridomotor); ~lash: cili- (ciliary); ~lid: blephar- (blepharotomy); retina: retino- (retinoschisis). See pupil face facio- (facioplegia); prosopo- (prosopagnosia); -visaged (round-visaged) fallopian tube salpingo- (salpingotomy) fibula peroneo- (peroneo-calcaneal) finger -dactyl (dactyliology); dactylo- (dactylogy); -dactylous (tridactylous); -dactyly (brachydactyly); digiti- (digitigrade) finger nail -onychia (leukonychia); onycho- (onychophagy) foot ped- (pedal); pedi- (pedicure); pedo- (pedopathy); pod- (podalgia); ~sole: pelm- (antiopelmus); plant- (plantigrade)

forearm ulno- (ulnoradial) forehead metopo- (metoposcopy)

freckle lentig- (lentigo)

frontal bone fronto- (fronto-parietal) gall bili- (biligenic); chole- (cholecyst); gall- (gallbladder) gastric chyli- (chyliferous); chylo- (chylocyst); chymo- (chymopoiesis) genitals aede- (aedeagus); genito- (genitourinary); female~: colpo- (colpospasm); male~: phallo- (phallocampsis) gland adeni- (adeniform); adeno- (adenomere); balani- (balanitis); balano- (balanorrhagia) goiter strumi- (strumiferous)

gonad gonado- (gonadopathy)

groin bubo- (bubonocoele); inguino- (inguinoscrotal) gullet esophago- (esophagus); oesophago- (oesophagalgalgia) gums gingivo- (gingivoglossitis); oulo- (oulorrhagy); ulo- (uloglossitis) hair capilli- (capilliform); crini- (criniferous); pili- (piliform); pilo- (piloerection); piloso- (piloso-fimbriate); hirsut- (hirsute); lanug- (lanugo); thrix- (strep-tothrix) hand cheiro- (macrocheiria); chiro- (chiromancy); mani- (manipulate); manu- (manual) head capit- (decapitate); cephal- (cephalitis); -cephalic (dolichocephalic); cephalo- (cephalocentesis); -cephalous (brachycephala-

- loius); -cephaly (dolichocephaly);
 cranio- (craniotomy); kephalo(kephalotomy)
- heart cardi- (cardiagra); -cardia (tachycardia); cardio- (cardiology); -cardium (myocardium);
 cordato- (cordato-ovate); cordi-(cordiform); pericardiac- (peri-cardiac-phrenic); pericardio-(pericardiostomy)
- heel bone calcaneo- (calcaneo-fibular)
- hernia -cele (perineocele); celo-(celotomy); hernio- (herniotomy)
- hip cotyle- (cotyledonary); cotyli-(cotyliform); cotylo- (coty-losacral); coxo- (coxodynia); ischio- (ischiocapsular)
- hyoid bone hyo- (hyoidal)
- intestinal pouch caeci- (caeciform); ceco- (cecostomy); typhlo- (ty-phlostomy)
- intestines entero- (enteropathy);
 ileo- (ileostomy); ilio- (iliosacral); intestino- (intestino-vesical); je-jun- (jejunocolostomy); viscer(visceroptosis)
- iris irido- (iridomotor)
- jaw -genia (microgenia); genio(genioplasty); geny- (genyplasty);
 gnatho- (gnathodynamics);
 -gnathous (prognathous); mandibulo- (mandibulo-maxillary); maxillo- (maxillo-palatine)
- jejunum jejuno- (jejunoplasty)
- joint arthro- (arthrodynia); articul(multiarticular); ~socket: gleno(gleno-humeral)
- kidney nephro-; pyelo-; reni-;
 reno-
- knee genu- (genuflect)
- labia minora nympho- (nymphoncus)
- larynx guttur- (gutturo-labial);
 laryngo- (laryngoscopy)
- leg cnem- (gastrocnemius); crur(crural); scel- (isosceles)
- limb -mele (phocomele); -melia (macromelia); melo- (melorheostosis)
- lips cheilo- (cheiloplasty); chilo(chiloplasty); labio- (labiodental)
- liver hepatico- (hepaticostomy); he-pato- (hepatogastric); jecor- (jecorary)
- loins laparo- (laparotomy); lumbo-(lumbodorsal); osphyo- (osphyocele)
- lumbar lumbo- (lumbosacral)
- lungs -pnea (apnea); pneo- (pneograph); pneumato- pneumatometer); pneumo- pneumobacillus);
 pneumono- (pneumonophorous);
 pneusio (pneusiobiognosis);
 pulmo- (pulmonary); pulmoni(pulmonigrade); pulmono- (pul-monobranchous); spiro- (spirom-eter)
- lymph lymphato- (lymphatolysis);
 lympho- (lymphocyte)
- marrow -myelia (micromyeloid);
 myelo- (myelogenic)
- mastoid mastoido- (mastoidohumeral)
- membrane chorio- (choriocele);
 choroid- (choroideremia); hy-
 meno- (hymenogeny); membrano- (membranocartilaginous);
eyeball~: sclero- (sclerotomy);
fetal~: allanto- (allanto-chorion);
 amnio (amniocentesis)-; mu- cous~: muc- (muciparous);
 muc- (mucoprotein); mucoso(mucoso-granular); ~sheath:
 meningo- (meningocele)
- mole nevo- (nevoid)
- mouth -mouthed (open-mouthed);
 oro- (orolingual); stomato(stomatoglossa); -stome (cyclostome); -stomous (megastomous);

- roof of~: palato- (palatonasal); uranisco- (uraniscoplasty); urano- (uranoschisis)
- mucus blenno- (blennostasis); muc- (muciparous); muco- (mucoprotein); mucoso- (mucoso-granular); -myxia (hypomyxia); myxo- (myxomycete)
- muscle musculo- (musculophrenic); myo- (myocardium); -tonic (myatonic); -tonia (isotonia)
- navel omphalo- (omphalitis); umbilici- (umbiliciform)
- neck atlo- (atloid); auchen- (maerauchenia); cervico- (cervicodorsal); coll- (decollate); jug- (jugulate); trachelo- (trachelodynia)
- nipple mamilli- (mamilliform); papilli- (papilliform); papillo- (papillomatosis); papilloso- (papilloso-asperate); thelo- (perithelium); umbo- (umbonulate)
- nose nasi- (nasion); naso- (nasolabial); rhino- (rhinology)
- nostrils nari- (narial)
- occipital occipito- (occipito-axial)
- ovary oario- (oariopathy); oophoro- (oophoritis); ovario- (ovariocentesis)
- ovum oo- (oogamous); ovario- (ovariocele); ovi- (oviduct); ovo- (ovolecithin)
- palate palato- (palatonasal); uranisco- (uraniscoplasty); urano- (uranoschisis); velar- (labiovelar)
- palm palmati- (palmatid); palmato- (pelmatopeltate)
- pancreas pancreato- (pancreatotomy); pancreo- (pancreopathy)
- pelvis pelvi- (pelvimeter); perineo- (perineocele); pyelo- (pyelocystitis)
- penis med- (medorthophobia); mentul- (mentulate); peo- (peotomy); phall- (phallic)
- pericardial pericardio- (pericardio-phrenic); pericardio- (pericardiostomy)
- perineum perineo- (perineocele)
- periosteum perioste- (periosteophyte)
- peritoneum meso- (mesogastrium); peritoneo- (peritoneoclysis)
- perspiration hidr- (anhidrosis); suda- (sudatory); sudori- (sudorific)
- pharynx pharyngo- (pharyngology)
- pimple pustulo- (pustulocrustaceous)
- placenta mazo- (mazolysis); placenti- (placentiform)
- pleura pleuro- (pleurotomy)
- prostate prostato- (prostatectomy)
- pubic area pubio- (pubiotomy); pubo- (pubofemoral)
- pulse crot- (catacrotic); sphygmo- (sphygmograph)
- pupil core- (corelysis); coreo- (coreoplasty); -coria (isocoria); coro- (coroplastic); -koria (leukocoria); pupillo- (pupillometer)
- pus purulo- (purulo-gangrenous); pyo- (pyogenic)
- pylorus pyloro- (pylorodiosis)
- rash -anthema (enanthema)
- rectum procto- (proctology); recto- (rectoscope)
- retina retino- (retinoschisis)
- rib costi- (costiform); costo- (costotome)
- saliva ptyal- (ptyalogogue); sialo- (sialorrhea)
- scapula scapulo- (scapuloclavicular)
- scar cica- (cicatrix); ulo- (ulodermatitis)
- scrotum didymo- (didymalgia); orchido- (orchidotomy); orchio- (orchiocele); oscheo- (oscheitis); scrot- (scotocele) shoulder acromio- (acromioclavicular); humero- (humero-cubital); omo- (omodynia); scapuli- (scapulimancy); scapulo- (scapuloclavicular); spatul- (spatulamancy) sinew chord- (chorditis); chorda- (chordamesoderm); cord- (corotomy) skeleton skeleto- (skeleto-trophic)

skin chorio- (choriocele); cuti- (cutisector); derm- (dermabrasion); -derm (endoderm); -derma (scleroderma); dermat- (dermatology); -dermatous (xerodermatous); -dermis (epidermis); dermo- (dermoneural); dora- (doramania); pell- (pellagra) skull -cephalic (dolichcephalic); cephalo- (cephalometry); -cephalous (brachycephalous); -cephaly (dolichocephaly); cranio- (craniofacial); occipito- (occipito-axial); orbito- (orbitonasal) socket alveolo- (alveolopalatal); gomph- (gomphosis) sphenoid bone sphen- (sphenocapital) spinal cord -myelia (micromyelia); myelo- (myelogenic) spine rachi- (rachicentesis); rhachi- (rhachitis); -rrhachia (glycorrhachia); spini- (spini-acute); spino- (spinobulbar); spinoso- (spinoso-dentate); spinuloso- (spinuloso-serrate); spondylo- (spondylitis); vertebro- (vertebroiliac) spleen lieno- (lieno-gastric); splenico- (splenico-phrenic); spleno- (splenocele) sternum sterno- (sternoclavicular) stomach -gastria (microgastria); gastro- (gastroenteritis) sweat hidr- (anhidrosis); suda-

(sudaminal); sudori- (sudoriparous) temple temporo- (temporomandibular) tendon tendo- (tendolysis); teno- (tenotomy); tenonto- (tenontodynia) testicle didymo- (didymalgia); orchido- (orchidotomy); orchio- (orchiocele); oscheo- (oscheitis); scrot- (scotocele) thalamus thalamo- (thalamocortical)

thigh mero- (meroceles)

thorax thoracico- (thoracicoabdominal); thoraco- (thoracoplasty) throat fauc- (faucal); gutturo- (gutturolabial); jugo- (jugo-maxillary); laryngo- (laryngoscope); pharyngo- (pharyngology); tracheo- (tracheotomy)

thumb pollic- (pollicate)

thymus thymo- (thymokinetic) thyroid -thyrea (hypothyrea); thyreo- (thyreotomy); thyro- (thyromegaly) tibia cnem- (cnemis); tibio- (tibiotarsal) toe -dactyl (dactyliology); dactylo- (dactylogy); -dactylous (tridactylous); -dactyly (brachydactyly); digiti- (digitigrade); hal-luc- (hallucar) tongue -glossia (macroglossia); glosso- (glossoplegia); -glot (polyglot); lamino- (lamino-alveolar); ligul- (liguliform); linguo- (linguopalatal) tonsil tonsillo- (tonsillotomy)

tooth cranter- (syncranterian); dentato- (dentato-serrate); denti- (dentifrice); dento- (dentosurgical); dont- (periodontal); laniar- (laniariform); odont- (macrodont); -toothed (gap-toothed)

trachea tracheo- (tracheobronchitis) tumor -cele (cystocele); -oma (sarcoma); onco- (oncologist); phym- (phymatosis); -phyma (osteophyma); struma- (strumectomy) ulcer helco- (helcoplasty) ulna cubito- (cubito-carpal); ulno- (ulnoradial) umbilicus omphalo- (omphalitis) ureter uretero- (ureterostomy); urethro- (urethroscopy) urine mict- (micturient); ming- (bradymingent); ouro- (ouromancy); urea- (ureapoiesis); ureo- (ureometer); uretero- (ureteros-tomy); -uretic (diuretic); urini- (uriniparous); urino- (urinometer); uro- (urolith); -ury (strangury) uterus hystero- (hysterodynia); metra- (metratonia); metro- (metrorrhagia); utero- (uterovaginal) uvula staphylo- (staphylorrhaphy); uvulo- (uvulectomy) vagina colpo- (colpocele); elytro- (elytrophasty); kolpo- (kolposcope); vagini- (vaginismus); vagino- (vaginomycosis) vagus nerve vago- (vagotropic) vein cirso- (cirsotomy); phlebo- (phlebotomy); varici- (variciform); varico- (varicocele); vene- (venesection); veni- (venipuncture); veno- (venostomy); venoso-

(venoso-reticulated); -venous (intravenous) ventral abdomino- (abdominoscrotal); celio- (celiopathy); laparo- (laparoscope); ventro- (ventrotomy) ventricle ventriculo- (ventriculoatrial) vertebra atlanto- (atlantoaxial); atlo- (atloaxoid); spondylo- (spondylopyosis); vertebro- (vertebrocostal) vesicle vesiculi- (vesiculigerous); vesiculo- (vesiculo-pustular) vomit -emesis (hematemesis); -emetic (antiemetic); emeto- (emetophobia) vulva episio- (episiotomy); vulvi- (vulviform); vulvo- (vulvovaginal) wart verruci- (verruciform) windpipe bronchi- (bronchiectasis); bronchio- (bronchiogenic); broncho- (bronchoscope); laryngo- (laryngostenosis); tracheo- (tracheomalacia) womb hystero- (hysteropexy); metra- (metralgia); metro- (metro-phlebitis); utero- (uterolith) wrist carpo- (carpoptosis) xiphoid process xiphi- (xiphisternum); xipho- (xiphoiditis) yawn oscit- (oscitation) zygoma zygomatico- (zygomaticoauricular); zygomato- (zygomatotemporal)

COLORS

Black

blue-black nigr- (nigrosine) deep-black melan(o)- (melanous) ebony-black ebon- (ebonize) inky-black atro- (atroceruleous) reddish-black piceo- (piceo-ferruginous) sooty-black fulig- (fuliginated)

Blue

black-blue livid- (lividity) dark-blue cyan(o)- (cyanean) gray-blue caes- (caesious) green-blue aerug- (aeruginous);
 glauco- (glaucous)
milky-blue adular- (adularescent) peacock blue pavon- (pavonine) sea-blue cumat- (cumatic) sky-blue azur- (azureous); -cerul(cerulean); lazul- (lazuline)

Brown

acorn-brown gland- (glandaceous) chestnut-brown castan- (castaneous); -spad- (spadiceous) dark-brown brun- (brunneous);
 fusco- (fuscous)
dusky-brown phaeo- (phaeophyll) reddish-brown testac- (testaceous) yellow-brown fulv- (fulvous);
 gland- (glandaceous); lur- (lurid);
 mustel- (musteline)

Copper

brassy-yellow copper chalco(chalcography)
gold-copper auricalc- (auricalceous)
red-brown copper cupr- (cupreous); cupreo- (cupreo-violaceous); cuproso- (cuproso-ferric)

Gold

copper-gold auricalc- (auricalceous) yellow-gold aur- (aurulent);
 chryso- (chrysography)

Gray

ash-gray teph- (tephroite) blue-gray caesi- (caesious) dusky-gray phaeo- (phaeophyll);

-phaein (haemophaein); phео(pheochrome)

pale-gray polio- (poliomyelitis) pearl-gray gris- (griseous) silvery-gray glauco- (glaucodot)
white-gray can- (canescent)

Green

blue-green caes- (caesious); glauco-(glaucous)
dusky-green oliv- (olivaceous); olivaceo- (olivaceo-cinereous) emerald-green smaragd- (smaragdine) fresh-green thall- (thallium); -virid- (viridescence) grass-green verd- (verdurous) leek-green porrac- (porraceous); pras- (prasine)
light-green/blue beryl- (berylline) sea-green thalass- (thalassine) slightly-green vir- (virescence) yellow-green chloro- (chlorophyllose)

Orange

fruit-orange auranti- (aurantiaceous)

Purple

bright-purple blatt- (blatteen) dark-purple porphyr- (porphyrin) metallic purple indi- (indirubin);
 indo- (indophane)
red-purple amaranth- (amaranthine); phenic- (phenicine); -pun- (puniceous) standard-purple purpureo- (purpureous)

Red

blood-red cruent- (cruentous) brick-red later- (lateritious);
 testaceo- (testaceo-fuscous)

bright-red -rub- (rubicund) brownish-red -ruf- (rufescent) cinnabar-red minia- (miniaceous) copper-red pyrrho- (pyrrhotite) crimson-red carmino- (carmino-philous) dark-red -rut- (rutilant) deep-red grenat- (grenatite) healthy-red -rud- (ruddy) inflamed-red erysi- (erysipelatus) orange-red nacar- (nacarine);
 pyrrho- (pyrrho-arsenite)
poppy-red coquel- (coquelicot) purple-red erythro- (erythrean);
 murex- (murexide); phoeni(phoeniceous)
rose-red rhodo- (rhodophyllose);
 roseo (roseo-cobaltic)
rouge-red fuc- (fucate) rusty-red ferrug- (ferruginous) scarlet-red coccin- (coccineous) vermillion-red minia- (minia-ceous)

Silver

blue-silver glauco- (glaucous) white-silver argyro- (argyranthemous) white-silver argent(i)- (argenteous)

Tan

light-brown fulv- (fulvous)

Violet

metallic-violet indi- (indirubin);
 indo- (indophane)
purple-blue ianth- (ianthine); io(iopterous); -viol- (violaceous)

White

intense-white cand- (candescent) ivory-white ebur- (eburnine) lead-white ceruss- (cerussal) leathery-white alut- (alutaceous) milk-white lac- (lacteous) pale-white leuco- (leucous) snow-white niv- (niveous) standard-white alb- (albican) yellowish-white ochroleuc(ochroleucous)

Yellow

bright-yellow gambog- (gambogian) brown-yellow fulv- (fulvous); lur(lurid); ochreo- (ochreous) canary-yellow melin- (meline) gold-yellow chryso- (chrysocrous) greenish-yellow icter- (icterus);
 jaun- (jaundice)
honey-yellow helv- (helvine) lemon-yellow citr- (citreous) light-yellow xantho- (xanthous) metallic-yellow aen- (aeneous) orange-yellow safran- (safranin) pale-yellow flav- (flavescent);
 flavido- (flavido-cinerascent);
 gilv- (gilvous); helv- (helvenac);
 lurido- (lurido-cinerascent);
 ochro- (ochrocarpous)
red-yellow luteo- (luteous) saffron-yellow croce- (croceous) yolk-yellow lut- (lutein); vitell(vitelline)

DIMENSIONS

deep batho- (bathometer); bathy (bathysphere) gigantic bronto- (brontosaurus); dino- (Dinotherium); giganto- (gigantology); mega- (megalith); megalo- (megalopolis); -megaly (hepatomegaly); super- (super-nova) high acro- (acrophobia); alti- (altimetry); alto- (altostratus); hypsi- (hypsicephalic); hypso- (hypsodont); super- (superstructure) large ampl- (amplification); -fold (hundredfold); grand- (grandiflora); macro- (macrocosm); magni- (magnifying); maj- (majority); maxi- (maximum); plethys- (plethysmometry); super- (supertanker)

long dolicho- (dolichocephalic); -footer (ten-footer); longi- (longicaudate); macro- (macropterous); maxi- (maxicoat); procer- (procercoid)

low chamae- (chamaerops); hypo- (hypocaust); infero- (inferolateral); infra- (infrapatellar); sub- (subway); subter- (subteraqueous); under- (underground) narrow/thin angusti- (angustifoliolate); areo- (areolation); dolicho- (dolichocephalic); gracil- (gracile); isthm- (isthmian); lepto- (leptorrhine); phim- (phimosis); -stal- (staltic); stegno- (stegnotic); steno- (stenosis);

-strict- (stricture); tenu- (tenuity)

short brachisto- (brachistocephaly); brachy- (brachypterous); brevi- (abbreviation); chamae- (chamaerops); curt- (curtate); exig-² (exiguous); mini- (minidrama) small -cle (particle); -cule (molecule); -culum (curriculum); -culuc (fasciculus); -een (colleen); -el (satchel); -ella (umbrella); -en (kitten); -et (rivulet); -ette (kitchenette); hekisto- (hekistotherm); -idion (enchiridion); -idium (peridium); -ie (laddie); -illa (cedilla); -illo (cigarillo); -isk (asterisk); -kin (lambkin); -le (icicle); -let (ringlet); -ling (duckling); micro- (microcassette); mini- (minibus); nano- (nanosecond); -ock (hillock); -ola (variola); -ole (variole); parvi- (parvipotent); parvo- (parvoline); -rel (wastrel); -ula (fibula); -ule (ampule); -ulum (speculum); -ulus (homunculus); -y (Billy) thick cespitoso- (cespitoso-arborescent); -crass- (crassitude); dasy- (dasymeter); hadro- (hadrosaur); pachy- (pachyderm); pycno- (pycnometer); pykn(o)- (pyknic); spiss- (spissatus); visco- (viscosity) wide ampl- (amplitude); eury- (eurygnathous); lati- (latisternal); platy- (platypellic)

DIRECTIONS

away from, apart a-² (avert); ab-² (abduct); abs-² (abstruse); apo- (apogeotropism); be- (bereave); de- (deplane); des- (descant); di-² (divest); dia- (diagnose); dif- (differ); dis-¹ (dismiss); e- (emigrate); ec- (ecdemic); ectro- (ectrotic); ef- (efferent); ex- (expatriate); for- (forgo); off-¹ (offload); se- (separate); with- (withdraw)

backward retro- (retroversion); opiso- (opisometer) down a-² (abate); ab-² (abdicate); abs-² (abscond); cata- (catacomb); cath- (cathepsin); de- (decumbent); kata- (katabatic)

east euro- (euroboreal); orient- (orienteering) forward antero- (antero-frontal); fore- (foredeck); pre- (preaxial); pro-¹ (projection); proso- (proso-gaster) into eis- (eisegesis); em-¹ (emigrate); en-¹ (entomb); il- (illuminate); im- (immerse); in- (instill); ir- (irradiate)

left laeo- (laeotropic); laevo- (laevogyrate); levo- (levorotatory); sinistro- (sinistrotocular)

north borea- (boreal); septen- (septentrion) out of e- (eject); ec- (eccentric); ef- (effluence); ex- (expulsion) right dextro- (dextrotropic); dextro- (dextrorotatory)

south austr- (Austronesia); noto- (notothere) toward a-¹ (ascribe); ac- (acclaim); ad- (advance); -ad (dorsad); af- (affirm); ag- (aggrade); al- (allege); an- (announce); ap- (approve); ar- (arrive); as- (assent); at- (attrition); -bound (east-bound); il- (illuminate); im- (impel); in- (inboard); ir- (irrigate); -ly (northerly); ob- (object); -ward (outward) up ana- (anabatic); ano- (anoopsia); ex- (extol); super- (superscript); sur- (surmount);

west hesper- (hesperian); occid- (occident); zephyr- (zephyrean)

DIVINATION

To extract the root which shows the method being used, simply drop the -mancy, which signifies telling the future.

air blowing or moving: aeromancy; visions in the sky: chaomancy angels angelomancy
animals behavior: zoomancy;
movement: theriomancy appearance or form of a person schematomancy

arrows with incised marks or words belomancy
ashes cineromancy, spodomancy; ~of a sacrifice: tephromancy ass head, boiled cephalomancy ax (balanced on a bar) axinomancy barley meal alphetomancy

- basin of water lecanomancy
Bible verses (randomly selected) bibliomancy
birds ornithomancy; ornomancy blood hematomancy; ~dripping in patterns: dririmancy bones osteomancy, osteomanty; ~marked as dice: astragalomancy bowl of water cylicomancy, kylixomancy brass vessels (sound of) chalcomancy breastbone sternomancy
bubbles rising in a fountain pegomancy cake dough (sprinkled on sacrificial victim) crithomancy candles (blowing them out) pneumancy cards cartomancy, chartomancy cat (jumping and landing) ailuromancy, felidomancy cheese (patterns of coagulation) tyromancy cloud formations chaomancy coals (burning) anthracomancy contour of the land topomancy counting mathemancy
crystal gazing crystallomancy; spheromancy cup scyphomancy dead people (communication with) egromancy, necromancy, necyomancy, psychomancy, sciamancy, sciomancy, thanatomancy devil or demons demonomancy, necyomancy dice (or beans with points or marks on them) astragalomancy, cleromancy, cubomancy digging things up oryctomancy dirt (thrown on ground to produce patterns) geomancy dots or points (drawn at random, originally on the ground) geomancy dreams oneiromancy, sompnary dust amathomancy
eggs oomancy, ovomancy
embryonic sac amniomancy entrails of a human anthropomancy, splanchnomancy evil spirits demonomancy, necyomancy false divination pseudomancy feces (examination of) scatomancy, spatilomancy, stercomancy feet (soles of) paedomancy, pedomancy figs or fig leaves botanomancy, sycomancy fingernails onychomancy fire empyromancy, pyromancy fish (examining heads or entrails) ichthyomancy flour aleuromancy
flowers anthomancy
foolish divination moromantie footsteps ichnomancy forehead wrinkles metopomancy fountain pegomancy
glass vessels (figures appearing in) gastromancy gods (speaking through oracles) theomancy handwriting chartomancy, graphomancy hatchet axinomancy
head cephalomancy
heavens ouranomancy, uranomancy horses (neighing) hippomancy human features and form colliomancy, frontimancy, metopomancy, physiognomancy, schematomancy icons iconomancy
idols idolomancy
incense burning knissomancy, libanomancy

key kleidomancy, clidomancy kidneys nephromancy
lamp or torch flame lampadomancy, lychnomancy largest object nearby macro-mancy laughter gelomancy
laurel tree or leaves daphnomancy lead, molten (motions and figures in) molybdomancy leaves phyllomancy; tea~: foliomancy, theimancy letters (of a person's name) nomancy, onomancy, onomatomancy, onomomancy lines on the forehead: frontimancy, metopomancy; on the ground: geomancy; on the neck: colli-mancy; on the palms: cheiromancy, chiromancy; on the soles: paedomancy, pedomancy lip reading labiomancy logarithms logarithmomancy
lots cleromancy
Lucifer necyomancy
magic magastromancy
meteors meteoromancy
mice movements myomancy mirrors catoptromancy, enoptromancy molten lead (dropped on water) molybdomancy moon selenomancy
names (including number of letters in) nomancy, onomancy, onomatomancy neck wrinkles collimancy numbers arithmancy, arithmomancy nursing baby (choice of breast) mazomancy objects offered in sacrifice hieromancy onions cromniomancy, cromnyomancy oracle's rapturous statements chresmomancy, theomancy palm reading cheiromancy, chiromancy paper (written on) chartomancy pearls margaritomancy pebbles pessomancy, psephomancy plants botanomancy, floromancy playing cards cartomancy pointed objects aichmomancy posture ichnomancy

random lines or passages of books stichomancy rings dactyliomancy, dactylomancy rod rabdomancy, rhabdomancy rooster (choosing grains of corn) alectoromancy, alectryomancy sacred objects, sacrificial offerings hieromancy sage botanomancy
salt alomancy, halomancy secret means cryptomancy serpents ophiomancy
sheep (shoulder blade) spatulomancy shells conchomancy
shield aspidomancy
shoulder blades (charred or cracked) armomancy, omoplatoscopy, scapulimancy; ~of sheep: spatulamancy sieve (suspended on shears) coscinomancy sleep meonomancy
smallest object nearby micromancy smoke (ascent and motion) capnomancy snakes ophiomancy
soles of feet (lines on) paedomancy, pedomancy soul (emotional and ethical dispositions) psychomancy, thumomancy spinning (in a marked circle until dropping) gyromancy spots maculomancy

spring of water pegomancy stars astromancy, sideromancy, uranomancy sticks or wands rhabdomancy, xylomancy
stomach rumblings gastromancy stones (or stone charms) litho-
 mancy stranger (studying the first one to appear) xenomancy
straws (burning) sideromancy sword machaeromancy
teeth odontomancy
things seen over one's shoulder retromancy
thunder brontomancy, cerauno-
 mancy
tide (motion and appearance) hydromancy
time chronomancy
tongue hyomancy
torch flame lampadomancy, lychno-
 mancy
tree bark (writing on) stigono-
 mancy
twitching limbs spasmatomancy, spasmodomancy

umbilical cord (number of knots in) omphalomancy
urine ouromancy, urimancy, urino-mancy, uromancy
verses or poems rhapsodomancy walking ambulomancy
wand rhabdomancy
water hydromancy, ydromancy; ~in a basin or shallow bowl: cylico-mancy, kylixomancy, lecanomancy; ~fountain or spring: pegomancy wax (melted and dropped in water) ceromancy
weather aeromancy, meteoromancy weights zygomancy
wheel tracks trochomancy
wild animals theriomancy wind (observation of) aeromancy, austromancy wine (its color, sound, etc. when poured) oenomancy, oinomancy wood (pieces of) xylomancy words logomancy
writing on bark of a tree: stigonomancy; on paper: chartomancy

THE ENVIRONMENT

NOTE: For mammals, birds, insects, and fish, see "Animals" in this section.

air aer- (aerate); aeri- (aeriferous);
 aero- (aerobic); anemo(anemometer); atmo- (atmosphere); flat- (flatulent); physo(physometra)
ash tree fraxin- (fraxinella); melia(meliaceous) atmosphere -bar (isobar); baro(barometric)

beach littor- (littoral); thino(thinolite)
beech faga- (fagaceous) birch betul- (betulaceous) blooming flor- (floriferous);
 thalero- (thalerophagous); vig(vigorous) bog telmat- (telmatology); turbar-(turbarian) box-tree bux- (buxiferous) branch clado- (cladophyll); rami- (ramify) buckthorn rhamn- (rhamneous) bud gemm-¹ (gemmate)

bug cimic- (cimicoid); entomo- (entomology); insecti- (insecticide); insecto- (insectology). Also see "Animals" in Part III
carbon dioxide -capnia (acapnia); capno- (capnomancy) cedar cedr- (cedrine)
celestial activity astro- (astronomy)
chasm vorag- (voraginous) clay argillaceo- (arenaceo-argillaceous); argillo- (argillo-calcareous); limo- (limo-cretaceous); pelo- (pelophilous) cloud fracto- (fracto-stratus); homichlo- (homichlophobia); mammato- (mammato-cumulus); nebul- (nebulous); nephelo- (nephelometer); nepho- (nephology); nubi- (nubiferous) coal anthraco- (anthracomancy); carb- (carbonize) coast littor- (littoral); maritim- (maritime) cold alg- (algid); cheima- (cheimaphilic); crymo- (crymophilic); cryo- (cryogenics); frigo- (frigoric); gel- (regelation); kryo- (kryometer); pago- (pagophagia); psychro (psychrometer); rhigo- (rhigosis) continent epeiro- (epeirogenic) cone, pine strobil- (strobiliform) copper auricalc- (auricalceous); chalco- (chalcocite); cupreo- (cupreo-violaceous); cupri- (cupriferous); cupro- (cupromagnetite); cuproso- (cuproso-ferric) coral coralli- (corallidomous) country rural: rur- (ruralize); rustic- (rusticity); nation: -ese (Japanese); -ia (India); -ian (Syrian); -land (Ireland) crater crateri- (crateriform) cypress cupress- (cupressineous) darkness achlu- (achluophobia); amaur- (amaurosis); ambly- (amblyopia); crepus- (crepuscular); fusc- (fuscous); lyg- (lygaeid); melan- (melatonin); nyct- (nyctitropic); obscur- (obscurity); tenebr- (tenebrous) dawn auror- (auroral); eo- (eosophobia) day diurn- (diurnal); ephemer- (ephemeris); hemer- (monohemerous); hodiern- (hodiernal); journ- (journal); quotid- (quotidian) decomposing enzyme -ase (amylase) desert eremo- (eremophyte) dry arid- (aridity); carpho- (carphology); celo- (celosia); sicc- (desiccate); xero- (xerophyte) dust amath- (amathophobia); conio- (coniosis); -conia (fibroconia); conio- (coniofibrosis); conist- (conistery); konio- (koniosis); pulver- (pulverize) earth agro- (agronomy); -gaea (Paleogaea); geo- (geocentric); hum- (inhumation); secul- (secular); tellur- (intratelluric); terr- (terrestrial); ~quake: seismo- (seismograph); tromo- (tromometry) elm ulm- (ulmaceous)

environment eco- (ecology); oeco- (oecology); oiko- (oikofugic) evening crepus- (crepuscule); nocti- (noctiluculent); nycto- (nyctophobia); vesper- (vespertine) fall autumn- (autumnal) fern filic- (filiciform); pterido- (pteridology) fir abiet- (abietic)

- flax byssi- (byssinosis)
- flood antlo- (antlophobia); diluv- (diluvial); inund- (inundation)
- flora -phyte (microphyte); phyto- (phytogenesis)
- flower antho- (anthomania); -anthous (monanthous); flori- (floriferous); -florous (multi-florous)
- fog calig- (caliginous); homichlo- (homichlophobia); nebul- (nebulous); nephelo- (nephelological); nepho- (nephology); nubi- (nubi-form)
- forest arbor- (arboreal); dendri- (dendritic); dendro- (dendrophilous); -dendron (rhododendron); hylaeo- (hylaeosaurus); nemor- (nemoricole); saltu- (saltuary); silvi- (silviculture); sylv- (sylvan); xylo- (xylophage)
- fountain cren- (crenic); pego- (pegomancy)
- foxglove digito- (digitalis)
- frost cryo- (cryophyte); gel- (gelid); kryo- (kryometer); pachno- (pacnolite); pago- (pagophagia); pruin- (pruinose); rhigo- (rhigolene)
- fungus fungi- (fungicide); -mycete (schizomycete); myceto- (mycetoma); -mycin (streptomycin); myco- (mycology); uredo- (uredospore)
- garden horti- (horticultural)
- glacier glacio- (glaciologist)
- granite graniti- (granitiform)
- grass gramin- (graminivorous)
- hawthorn crataeg- (crataegin)
- holly ilic- (ilicic)
- hot aestu- (exaestuating); cale- (caleficient); calo- (caloreceptor); caum-; (caumesthesia) calori- (calorimetry); ferv- (effervesce); pyro- (pyromania); thermo- (thermonuclear); -thermy (diathermy)
- hurricane lilaps- (lilapsophobia)
- ice gel- (gelation); glacio- (glaciological); pago- (pagophagia); icle: stiri- (stiriated)
- island insul- (insular)
- isthmus isthm- (isthmian)
- ivy heder- (hederated)
- lake lacus- (lacustrine); limno- (limnologist)
- land agri- (agricultural); agro- (agrology); choro- (chorography); geo- (geothermal); tellur- (telluric); terr- (subterranean)
- larch larix- (larixinic)
- laurel daphn- (daphnomancy)
- leaf bract- (bracteate); clad- (cladanthous); foliato- (foliation); -folious (multifolious); frondi- (frondescence); petalo- (petalody); -phyll (sporophyll); phyllo- (phylomania); -phyllous (diphyllous)
- lettuce lactuc- (lactucarium)
- lightning astra- (astraphobia); fulgur- (fulgurant); fulmin- (fulmination)
- lily lili- (liliform); lirio- (liriodendron)
- linden tilia- (tiliaceus)
- maple acer- (aceric)
- marble marm- (marmoreal)
- marsh helo- (helobius); palud- (paludicolous); palus- (palustrine); ulig- (uliginous)
- meadow prat- (pratral)
- meteorological front fronto- (frontogenesis)
- mineral -ite (anthracite); -lite (chrysolite)
- mist calig- (caliginous); homichlo- (homichlophobia); nebul- (nebulous); nephelo- (nephelological); nepho- (nephology); nubi- (nubi-form)

- mistletoe ixo- (ixolite)
- moisture humect- (humectant); hydro- (hydrobiology); hygro- (hygrophyte); ulig- (uliginose)
- moon luni- (lunisolar); lunu- (lunulate); seleno- (selenodesy)
- moss bryo- (bryophytic), musc- (emuscation); sphagn- (sphagnous); splachn- (splachnoid)
- mountain mont- (ultramontane); oro- (orogeny); ~ash: sorb- (sorbose)
- mud lim- (limivorous); pelo- (peloid)
- mulberry mor- (moriform); mur- (muriform)
- mushroom myco- (mycotoxin)
- myrtle myrti- (myrtiform)
- nettle cnido- (cnidophore); urtic- (urticaceous)
- night -crepus- (crepuscule); nocti- (noctiluca); nycta- (nyctalopia); nycti- (nyctitropism); nycto- (nyctophobia); vesper- (vespertilionine); all~: -pannychy (psych-pannychy)
- oak querc- (quercitron)
- ocean enalio- (enaliosaur); halo- (halosaurian); mari- (mariculture); naut- (nautical); nav- (navigation); pelag- (archipelago); thalasso- (thalassocracy); thalatto- (thalattology)
- orchid orchido- (orchidology)
- oxygen oxa- (oxazine); oxy- (oxyacid)
- ozone ozono- (ozonosphere)
- peat bog turbar- (turbary)
- pebble calcul- (calculous); pesso- (pessomancy); psepho- (psephology)
- peninsula cherson- (chersonese)
- petal petuli- (petuliform); -sepalous (trisepalous)
- pine -peuce (peucedaneous); pin- (pinaceous); ~cone: strobil- (strobiliform)
- plants -aceae (Rosaceae); -ad (cycad); -ales (Liliales); botano- (botanomancy); -eae (Gramineae); herbi- (herbicide); -ia (zinnia); -phyte (macrophyte); phyto- (phytography); vegeti- (vegetivorous); vegeto- (vegetoalkaline)
- pollen pollini- (pollinosis)
- pond lacus (lacuscular); limno- (limnophilous); stagn- (stagnal)
- poppy mecon- (meconidine); opio- (opiomania); papaver- (papaverous)
- precipice cremno- (cremnophobia)
- purslain portulac- (portulaceous)
- pyrites pyrito- (pyritohedron)
- quicksand syrt- (syrtic)
- radiant emissions aurora- (aurora australis)
- rain hyeto- (hyetograph); imbri- (imbriferous); ombro- (ombrometer); pluvio- (pluviograph)
- reservoir lacco- (laccolite)
- river amn- (amnicolist); flum- (fluminal); fluvio- (fluvio-terrestrial); potamo- (potamologist); rip- (riparian)
- rock -ite (anthracite); lapid- (lapidary); -lithic (neolithic); litho- (lithotomy); pesso- (pessomancy); petri- (petrification); petro- (petroglyph); rupes- (rupestrine); rupic- (rupicolous); saxi- (saxifrage)
- rose rhodo- (rhodochrosite); roseo- (roseola)
- rue rut- (rutaceous)
- sand ammo- (ammocete); aren- (arenicolous); arenacio- (arenacio-argillaceous); psammo- (psammophilous); sabul- (sabulosity); saburr- (saburration)

- sea enalio- (enaliosaur); halo- (halosaurian); mari- (mariculture); naut- (nautical); nav- (navigation); pelag- (archipelago); thalasso- (thalassocracy); thalatto- (thalattology); ~shore: thino- (thinolite)
- seasons horo- (horology); fall: autumn- (autumnal); spring: vern- (vernal); summer: aestiv- (aestival); winter: hibern- (hibernal); hiem- (hiemal)
- seaweed fuc- (fucivorous); phyceae- (Rhodophyceae); -phyceous (Rhodophyceous); phyco- (phycology)
- shell conchi- (conchiferous); lorica- (illoricated); -ostraca (Lep-tostraca); ostraco- (ostracoderm); testaceo- (testaceology)
- shore littor- (littoral)
- shrub fruticuloso- (fruticuloso-ramose)
- sky coeli- (coelicolist)
- snow chion- (chionodoxa); -chium (hedychium); ning- (ninguid); niv- (niveous)
- soil agro- (agronomy); edaph- (edaphic); hum- (exhumation); paedo- (paedogenic); pedo- (pedology); terr- (terrarium)
- spring of water cren-² (crenic); pego- (pegomancy)
- star aster- (asteraceous); astro- (astonomy); -sidere (hagiosidere); sidero- (siderostat); stelli- (stelliferous)
- stone -ite (anthracite); lapid- (lapidary); -lithic (neolithic); litho- (lithotomy); pesso- (pessomancy); petri- (petrification); petro- (petroglyph); rupes- (rupestrine); rupic- (rupicolous); saxi- (saxifrage)
- straw carpho- (carphology); culmi- (culmicolous); festuc- (festucine); stramin- (stamineous)
- stream fluvio- (fluviomarine); potam- (potamoplankton); rip- (riparian)
- sun helio- (heliotropic); sol- (solarium)
- swamp palud- (paludism); palus- (palustrine)
- tendrill cirri- (cirrigerous); cirro- (cirro-pinnate); pampin- (pampiniform)
- thunder bronte- (bronteon); bronto- (brontology); cerauno- (ceraunoscope); fulmin- (fulminic); kerauno- (keraunograph); tonitr- (tonitruel)
- tornado lilaps- (lilapsophobia)
- tree arbor- (arboreal); dendri- (dendritic); dendro- (dendrophilous); -dendron (rhododendron); silvi- (silviculture); xylo- (xylophage)
- twigs ramul- (ramulose); sarment- (sarmentaceous); scopi- (scopiform); surcul- (surculose); virgul- (virgulation)
- twilight crepus- (crepuscular); lyg- (lygaeid)
- universe -cosm (macrocosm); cosmo- (cosmology)
- vegetation -aceae (Rosaceae); -ad (cycad); -ales (Liliales); botano- (botanomancy); -eae (Gramineae); herbi- (herbicide); -ia (zinnia); -phyte (macrophyte); phyto- (phytography); vegeti- (vegetivorous); vegeto- (vegeto-alkaline)
- vine ampel- (ampelopsis); pampin- (pampiniform); viti- (viticulture)
- water aqua- (aquatic); aque- (aque-duct); aqui- (aquiclude); hydro- (hydrophilous); hyeto- (hyetology); hygro- (hygrometry); rip- (riparian)

weed runc- (runcation)
well phreato- (phreatic); putea- (puteal) whirlpool vorag- (voraginous) willow itea- (iteatic); salic- (saliceous) wind anemo- (anemometer); vent- (ventilation); north~: -borea (boreal); south~: austro- (austromancy); west~: zephyro- (zephyranth); favon- (favonian) wood erio- (eriometer); hyle- (hylephobia); hylo- (hylopho-gous); ligni- (lignivorous); ligno- (lignoceric); xylo- (xylophage); -xylous (epixylous); ylo- (ylo-mancy) woods nemor- (nemoricole); saltu- (saltuary); silv- (silvics); sylv- (sylvan) world -cosm (macrocosm); cosmo- (cosmography); -gaea (Paleogaea); mund- (mundane); secul- (secular); tellur- (telluric); terr- (terrain) yew tax- (taxaceous)

FEAR OR DISLIKE OF...

To extract the word part, simply drop "phobia" from each word.

abuse, sexual contreltophobia accidents dystichiphobia acid soils acidophobia
acorns balanophobia
aging gerascophobia
air aerophobia, anemophobia, pneumatophobia airplanes aeronautophobia, aerophobia, aviatophobia, avionophobia, aviophobia airsickness aernausiphobia alkaline soils basiphobia, basophobia alligators eusuchophobia amnesia amensiophobia, amnesiophobia ancestors patroiophobia anger cholero-phobia
angina anginophobia animals zoophobia; wild~: agrizophobia, theriophobia ants myrmecophobia
arts and crafts technophobia ashes of cremation spodophobia asymmetry asymmetriphobia atomic explosions atomosophobia bacteria bacteriophobia, microbiophobia baldness peladophobia, phalacro-phobia banners/bumper stickers vexillo-phobia base or low pursuits tapinophobia bats desmodontophobia, pteropophobia beaches thinophobia

beards pogonophobia
bears arctophobia
beds clinophobia
bees apiophobia, apiphobia, melissophobia beggars/street people ptochophobia being afraid phobophobia being alone autophobia, monophobia, eremophobia being beaten rhabdophobia, vapulophobia being beautiful callophobia being bound merinthophobia being buried alive taphephobia, taphophobia

 being burned caustophobia being clean balneophobia being contagious tapinophobia being dirty automysophobia being pinched rrhexophobia being ridiculed catagelophobia being scolded enissophobia being scratched amychophobia being shot ballistophobia being stared at ophthalmophobia, scopophobia, scoptophobia bicycles cyclophobia
 birds ornithophobia
 Blacks negrophobia
 blindness scotomaphobia, typhlo-
 phobia
 blood haemaphobia, hemaphobia, hematophobia, hemophobia blushing ereuthophobia, erythro-phobia, erytophobia
 boasting kompophobia
 boats scaphophobia
 body odor autodysosmophobia, bromidrosiphobia
 bogs telmatophobia
 books bibliophobia
 boozing dipsophobia
 breasts, developing mastophobia bridges gephyrophobia brothers adelphophobia
 buffoons balatrophobia
 bulls taurophobia
 buttocks pygophobia
 buzzards buteophobia
 cancer carcinophobia, carcinomatophobia
 cars ochophobia; riding in~:
 amaxophobia
 cattle boustrophobia

cats aelurophobia, ailurophobia, elurophobia, felinophobia, galeophobia, gatophobia
 caves speleophobia
 Celts Celtophobia
 cemeteries coimetrophobia changes tropophobia, metathesio-
 phobia
 chatter, meaningless garrulophobia chemicals chemophobia
 chickens alektorophobia childbirth lochiophobia, maieusiophobia, parturiphobia, tocopho-
 bia
 children pediophobia, pedophobia China/the Chinese Sinophobia chins geniophobia
 choking pnigerophobia, pnigopho-
 bia
 cholera cholerophobia
 churches ecclesiaphobia clergy hierophobia
 clocks/watches chronometrophobia closed spaces claustrophobia, cleisiophobia, cleithrophobia, clithrophobia
 clothes vestiphobia, vestiophobia clouds nephophobia
 cockroaches blattophobia coitus coitophobia
 cold cheimaphobia, cheimatophobia, frigophobia, psychrophobia, psychropophobia
 colors chromatophobia, chromophobia; black: melanophobia;
blue: caerulophobia; brown: fus-cophobia; copper: chalcophobia;
gold: aureophobia; gray: phaeophobia; green: verdophobia;
orange: aurantiphobia; purple:
 porphyrophobia; red: erythro-phobia; silver: argentophobia; tan: fulvophobia; violet: indophobia; white: leukophobia; yel- low: xanthophobia

comets cometophobia commitment zygophobia
 computers cyberphobia, computer-phobia constipation coprostatophobia cooking mageiricophobia corpse necrophobia
 crevices chasmophobia
 criticism enissophobia
 critics criticophobia
 cross or crucifix staurophobia crossing a bridge gephyrophobia crossing busy streets agylophobia, agyrophobia, dromophobia crowds demophobia, enochlophobia, ochlophobia crystals crystallophobia cyclones anemophobia
 dampness hygrophobia
 dancing choreophobia, chorophobia, orchestrophobia darkness achluophobia, lygophobia, nyctophobia, scotophobia dawn eosophobia
 daylight phengophobia
 death necrophobia, thanatophobia decaying matter pythophobia, septophobia defecation, painful defecalgiesophobia deformity dysmorphophobia demons and devils daemonophobia, demonophobia, necyophobia dental work dentophobia, odontophobia dependence soteriophobia depth bathophobia
 design or ultimate ends teleophobia diabetes diabetophobia
 dinner parties deipnophobia dirt misophobia, molysmophobia, mysophobia, rhyphophobia disease loimophobia, nosophobia, pathophobia; specific~: monopathophobia disorder ataxiophobia, ataxophobia dizziness dinophobia, vertigophobia doctors iatrophobia

 dogs cynophobia, kynophobia dolls paedophobia, pediophobia, pedophobia, double vision diplopiaphobia, diplophobia drafts aerophobia, anemophobia dreams oneirophobia
 drink alcoholophobia, dipso-manophobia, methyphobia, potophobia drugs pharmacophobia dryness xerophobia
 duration chronophobia
 dust amathophobia, koniophobia; dusty surfaces: conistrophobia dwarfs nanophobia
 earthquakes seismophobia eating phagophobia
 eels anguillophobia
 electricity electrophobia emotions thymophobia empty rooms cenophobia, kenophobia England/the English Anglophobia erection maintaining: ithyphallophobia; loss of: medomalacophobia everything panophobia, panphobia, pantaphobia, pantophobia excrement coprophobia, koprophobia, scatophobia exhaustion kopophobia
 experimenting peirophobia eyes ommatophobia, ommetaphobia; ~opening: optophobia fabrics textophobia
 faces prosopophobia
 failure atychiphobia, kakorrhaphia-phobia, kakorrhaphiophobia, kakorrhaphiophobia

fainting asthenophobia
falling basophobia
falling downstairs climacophobia falling in love philophobia fat lipophobia, obesiophobia father-in-law soceraphobia Fathers of the early church patero-
phobia
fatigue kopophobia, ponophobia fear phobophobia
feathers pteronophobia
feces coprophobia, koprophobia, scatophobia
fever febriphobia, pyrexeophobia, pyrexiophobia
fighting machophobia
filth rhyphobia, rypophobia, rupophobia
fire arsonophobia, pyrophobia fish ichthyophobia
flashes selaphobia
flatulence physaphobia
flood antlophobia
flowers anthophobia
flute aulophobia
flying aeronautophobia, aeropho-bia, aviatoophobia, avionophobia, aviophobia
fog homichlophobia, nebulaphobia, nephophobia
food cibophobia, sitiophobia, sito-
phobia,
foreigners xenophobia
foreplay malaxophobia, paizophobia, sarmassophobia forests hylephobia, hylophobia, xylophobia, ylophobia
fountains pegophobia
France/the French Francophobia, Gallophobia
freedom eleutherophobia French kissing cataglottophobia friendship sociophobia

frogs batrachophobia
frost cryophobia, pagophobia, rhigophobia
fun cherophobia
funeral rites epicidiophobia, threnatophobia
fur doraphobia
gambling aleaphobia
garlic alliumphobia, scorophobia gay people homophobia genitals: genitophobia; female~:
colpophobia, eurotophobia, kolpophobia; male~: phallopho-
bia
Germany/the Germans Germano-phobia, Teutophobia, Teutono-
phobia
germs bacillophobia, bacteriopho-bia, spermophobia
ghosts phantasmophobia, phasmo-phobia, spectrophobia glass crystallophobia, hyalophobia, hyelophobia, vitreophobia God deiphobia, theophobia going to bed clinophobia gold aurophobia
good news euphobia
graves taphophobia
gravity barophobia
Greece/the Greeks Grecophobia, Hellenophobia
growing old gerascophobia, gerontophobia
hair chaetophobia, trichophobia;
curly~: ulophobia; ~disease:
trichopathophobia; excessive~:
hypertrichophobia Halloween Samhainophobia
happiness cherophobia
heart attack or disease anginophobia, cardiophobia
heat thermophobia
heaven ouranophobia, uranophobia heights: looking down: acrophobia, altophobia, batophobia, hypsi-phobia, hypsophobia; looking up:

 anablephobia, anablepophobia hell Avernophobia, Hadeophobia, stygiophobia
 heredity patroiphobia
 heresy heresiophobia
 holy things hagiophobia, hiero-
 phobia
 home and environment domatophobia, ecophobia, oecophobia, oikophobia; returning~: nosto-
 phobia
 homosexuals homophobia
 hornets vespiophobia
 horses equinophobia, hippophobia hospitals nosocomophobia human beings anthropophobia hurricanes lilapsophobia hydrophobia hydrophobophobia hypnotism hypnophobia, mesmerophobia
 ice cryophobia, gelophobia ideas gnotophobia, ideophobia illness nosophobia, pathophobia;
specific~: monopathophobia;
wasting~: tabophobia
 immobility of a joint ankylophobia imperfection atelophobia inability to stand basiphobia, baso-
 phobia
 infection molysmophobia, myso-phobia, septophobia
 infinity apeirophobia
 injections trypanophobia injury traumatophobia
 insanity dementophobia, lysso-phobia, maniaphobia
 insects acarophobia, entomo-phobia, insectophobia, isoptero-phobia; stinging~: cnidophobia Ireland/the Irish Celtophobia, Hibernophobia
 irrational destruction atepophobia isolation eremophobia
 Italy/Italians Italophobia

itching acarophobia, scabiophobia Japan/the Japanese Japanophobia jealousy zelophobia
 Jews Judaeophobia, Judeophobia, Judophobia
 jumping catapedaphobia
 justice dikephobia
 kidney disease albuminurophobia killing dacnophobia
 kissing philemaphobia, philematophobia; tongue~: cataglottopho-
 bia
 kleptomania kleptophobia knees genuphobia
 knowledge epistemophobia, gnosiophobia
 lacerations sparassophobia ladders scalaphobia
 lakes limnophobia
 large objects megalophobia laughter gelophobia
 lawsuits litigaphobia
 learning sophophobia
 left side levophobia, sinistrophobia leprosy lepraphobia, leprophobia lice pediculophobia, phthiriophobia light phengophobia, photophobia;
glaring~: photoaugiaphobia, photoaugiophobia lightning astraphobia, astrapopho-
 bia
 liquids aquaphobia, hygrophobia lizards stelliophobia
 lobsters homariphobia
 lockjaw tetanophobia loneliness eremiphobia, eremopho-
 bia
 long waits macrophobia
 loud noise ligyrophobia love philophobia
 lying mythophobia
 machines mechanophobia
 many things polyphobia marriage gametophobia, gamophobia, nuptophobia

materialism hylephobia meat carnophobia, kreophobia medicine pharmacophobia meeting people anthropophobia memories mnemophobia, nostophobia men androphobia, arrhenophobia meningitis meningitophobia menstruation menophobia metals metallophobia
meteors meteorophobia
mice muriphobia, murophobia, myosophobia microbes bacilliphobia, microbiophobia, microphobia milk galactophobia
mind psychophobia
mirrors catoptrophobia, eisoptrophobia, spectrophobia missiles ballistophobia mistletoe ixophobia
mites acarophobia
moisture hygrophobia
money chrematophobia
monotony homophobia
monstrosities teratophobia moon selenophobia
mornings matutinophobia mortality thriptophobia mother-in-law pentheraphobia moths phalaenophobia
motion kinesophobia, kinetophobia motor vehicles motorphobia mountains orophobia
mummies mummiphobia
mushrooms mycophobia
music melophobia, musicophobia myths mythophobia
names nomatophobia, onomatophobia narcotics lethophobia, meconophobia narrowness anginaphobia, stenophobia navels omphalophobia

needles aichmophobia, belonophobia neglect of duty paralipophobia new things cainophobia, cainotophobia, cenotophobia, kainophobia, kainotophobia, neophobia night noctiphobia, nyctophobia nipples, being seen through clothing thelophobia nocturnal emissions oneirogophobia noise acousticophobia, ligyrophobia, phonophobia Northern lights auroraphobia nosebleeds epistaxiophobia nuclear weapons nucleomitophobia nudity gymnophobia, nudiphobia, nudophobia numbers arithmophobia, numerophobia; uneven~: perissophobia nurses threpterophobia
nutritional food threptophobia oceans thalassophobia odors olfactophobia, ophresiophobia, osmophobia, osphresiophobia; foul~: bromidrophobia, bromidrosiphobia old people gerontophobia one thing monophobia
oneself autophobia
open spaces agoraphobia, cenophobia, kenophobia; high~: aeroacrophobia opinions of others allodoxaphobia opposite sex heterophobia otters lutraphobia
owls strigiphobia
pain algiaphobia, algophobia, odynephobia, odynophobia, ponophobia; from light sensitivity: photaugiaphobia, photaugiophobia pairs didymophobia
paper papyrophobia
parasites parasitophobia, pothiriophobia, trypanophobia, verminophobia parents-in-law soceraphobia peace eirenophobia

 peanut butter arachibutyrophobia pellagra pellagrophobia penis: peophobia; erect~: ithyphalophobia, medorthophobia; visible contour of~: medectophobia people anthropophobia, demophobia perfume myrophobia
 philosophy philosophobia physical love erotophobia places topophobia
 planning for the future teleophobia plants botanophobia
 pleasure hedonophobia
 poetry metrophobia, musophobia pointed objects aichmophobia, aichurophobia poison iophobia, toxicophobia, toxiphobia, toxophobia politicians politicophobia pollen palynophobia
 popes papaphobia
 poverty peniaphobia
 precipices cremnophobia pregnancy maieusiophobia, toco-phobia prickly objects echinophobia progress prosophobia
 propriety orthophobia prostitutes cyprianophobia, cypri-dophobia, cypriphobia, cyprinophobia, scortophobia public places agoraphobia public speaking glossophobia pumpkins, especially jack-o'-lanterns pepophobia punishment mastigophobia, poine-phobia, rhabdophobia puppets pupaphobia
 purposive effort hormephobia pus pyophobia

quarrels rixophobia
 quicksand syrtophobia
 rabies hydrophobophobia, lysso-phobia railways siderodromophobia rain hyetophobia, ombrophobia, pluviophobia rape stupraphobia, virgivitiphobia rattlesnakes crotalophobia razors xyrophobia
 rectal disease proctophobia, recto-phobia referring to oneself autophoby relatives syngenesophobia religion theophobia
 religious ceremonies teletophobia reproach enissophobia, enisiophob-
 bia
 responsibility hypegiaphobia, hy-pengyophobia, paralipophobia reptiles batrachophobia, herpeto-phobia ridicule catagelophobia, katagelo-phobia riding in a car amaxophobia right side dextrophobia rivers potamophobia
 robbers harpaxophobia
 room full of people koinoniphobia ruin atephobia
 Russia/the Russians Russophobia rust iophobia, rubigophobia sacred things hagiophobia, hiero-phobia sadness lypephobia
 saints hagiophobia
 salt halophobia
 sand psammophobia
 Satan Satanophobia
 sausage allantophobia
 scabies scabiophobia
 scarring ulophobia
 school didaskaleinophobia, scho-lionophobia scissors forficophobia

scotomas scotomaphobia
scratches amychophobia
sea pelagophobia, thalassophobia secretions crinophobia secrets calyptophobia
semen spermatophobia, spermophobia sermons homilophobia, keryophobia sexual intercourse coitophobia, cypridophobia, erotophobia, genophobia sexual perversion paraphobia shadows sciaphobia, sciophobia sharks carcharinophobia, selachophobia sharp objects aichmophobia, belonophobia shellfish ostraconophobia shock hormephobia
sinning enissophobia, enosiophobia, hamartophobia, peccatophobia, peccatophobia sisters sororophobia sitting cathisophobia, kathisophobia, thaasophobia skin dermatophobia
skin diseases dermatopathophobia, dermatosiophobia skin of animals doraphobia skunks mephitophobia
sleep hypnophobia, somniphobia slime blennophobia, myxophobia small objects microphobia, tapinophobia smells olfactophobia, osmophobia, osphresiophobia smoke capnophobia
smothering pnigerophobia, pnigophobia snakes herpetophobia, ophicophobia, ophidiophobia, ophiophobia snoring rhonchophobia
snow chionophobia

society anthropophobia, sociophobia solitude autophobia, eremiophobia, eremophobia, ermitophobia, isolophobia, monophobia sorcery veneficophobia sound acousticophobia ~of certain words: onomatophobia sourness acerbophobia, acerophobia spasms choreophobia
speaking aloud phonophobia speech defect laliophobia, lalophobia speed tachophobia
spiders arachnophobia, arachnophobia spiny creatures echinophobia spirits demonophobia, phantasmaphobia, pneumatiphobia, spectrophobia stage fright prosceniophobia, topophobia stairs climacophobia
standing or walking basiphobia, basophobia, basistasiphobia, basostasophobia, stasibasiphobia, stasiphobia, stasobasiphobia, stasophobia stars astrophobia, siderophobia statues agalmaphobia
staying single anuptaphobia stealing cleptophobia, kleptophobia stepfather vitricophobia stepmother novercaphobia stillness eremophobia, hesyphobia stings cnidophobia
stooping kyphophobia, scolophobia strangers xenophobia streets agyiophobia, agryophobia; crossing~: dromophobia string linonophobia
stuttering psellismophobia sun heliophobia, phengophobia surgical operations ergasiophobia, tomophobia

swallowing phagophobia

swamps paludophobia

sweating sudoriophobia

symbolism semiophobia, symbolo-
phobia

symmetry [in Egyptian temples, Japanese art, etc.] symmetro-
phobia

syphilis luetiphobia, syphilidophobia, syphiliphobia, syphilophobia talking glossophobia, laliophobia, lalophobia, phonophobia tapeworms taeniophobia, taenio-phobia, teniophobia

taste geumaphobia, geumatophobia, geumophobia; sour~: acerbo-phobia; sweet~: hedisophobia technology technophobia teeth odontophobia

teleology teleophobia

telephones telephonophobia termites isopterophobia theaters theatrophobia

theology theologicophobia thieves cleptophobia, kleptophobia, harpaxophobia

thinking phronemophobia

thirst dipsophobia

thirteen tredecaphobia, tridecaphobia, triakaidekaphobia, triska-dekaphobia, triskaidekaphobia thunder brontophobia, ceraunophobia, keraunophobia, tonitro-

phobia

tickling with feathers pterono-
phobia

ticks acarophobia

time chronophobia

toads batrachophobia, bufono-
phobia

tombs taphophobia; ~stones: placo-
phobia

tooth decay cariophobia

tornadoes lilapsophobia touching or being touched aphephobia, chiroptophobia, haphe-phobia, hapnophobia, haptephobia, haptophobia, thixo-

phobia

train travel siderodromophobia traitors proditophobia

travel dromophobia, hodophobia trees dendrophobia

trembling tremophobia

trichinosis trichinophobia tuberculosis phthisiophobia, phthisophobia, tuberculophobia

Turks Turcophobia

tyrants tyrannophobia

ugliness cacophobia

ulcers helcophobia

undressing deshabillophobia

urinating urophobia

vaccinations vaccinophobia vampires vespertiliophobia vegetables lachanophobia vehicles amaxophobia, ochophobia venereal disease cyprianophobia, cypridophobia, cyprinophobia, cypriphobia, venereophobia vermin verminophobia

vertigo illyngophobia

virginity, losing esodophobia, primeisophobia

virgins parthenophobia

vomiting emetophobia

walking ambulophobia, basiphobia, basophobia, bathmophobia warfare polemophobia

warts verruciophobia

washing oneself ablutophobia, bal-neophobia

wasps spheksophobia

wasting sickness tabophobia water aquaphobia, hydrophobia waves cymophobia, kymophobia wax cerophobia

weakness asthenophobia wealth chrematophobia, chrysophobia, plutophobia

weapons hoplophobia
weasels galeophobia
weight, gaining obesiophobia, procrescophobia
werewolves lycophobia
whirlpools dinophobia
whispering psithurophobia white leukophobia
wickedness sclerophobia wild animals agrizoophobia, pro-theriophobia
wind aneraophobia, anemiophobia, anemophobia windows fenestrophobia wine enophobia, oenophobia, oino-
phobia
winter cheimaphobia

women feminophobia, gynephobia, gynophobia; beautiful~: calligynophobia, venustaphobia wood hylephobia, hylophobia, xylophobia, ylophobia words logophobia, verbophobia; long~: sesquipedalophobia work ergasiophobia, ergophobia, ponophobia worms helminthophobia, scoleciphobia, vermiphobia wounds traumatophobia wrinkles rhytiphobia
writing graphophobia, scriptophobia x-rays radiophobia
yawning oscitophobia
young girls parthenophobia zombies basinecrophobia

FOOD

Nonvegetarians should also see "Animals."

acorn balan- (balaniferous); gland- (glandiferous) almond amygdalo- (amygdalaceous) apple mali- (maliform); pom- (pomaceous) avocado pers- (persea)
banana musa- (musaceous)
barley alphoto- (alphantomancy); crith- (crithology); horde- (hordeaceous); ptis- (ptisan) bean cyam- (cyamoid); fab- (fabaceous); phaseol- (phaseolous) beer cervis- (cervisial) belch ruct- (eructation) berry acin- (acinaceous); baccat- baccate; bacci- (bacciferous); cocci- (coccigerous)

blueberry vaccin- (vaccinium) bran furfur- (furfuraceous); pityr- (pityroid) bread arto- (artophagous); pan- (panivorous) breakfast jent- (jentacular) butter butyro- (butyraceous) cabbage brassic- (brassicaceous) carbohydrate -ose (fructose) cashew anacard- (anacardic) cereal frument- (frumentaceous) cheese case- (casefy); tyro- (tyromancy) cherry ceras- (cerasin) chestnut aescul- (aesculin); castan- (castaneous) chew manduc- (manducation); mastic- (mastication)

- citric citro- (citron)
- cook -coct- (decoction); mageir- (mageiricophobia); magir- (magiric)
- corn frument- (frumentation); spici- (spiciferous)
- cucumber cucumi- (cucumiform)
- cultivation -ponic (hydroponics)
- digest chyli- (chyliferous); chymo- (chymotrypsin)-; peps- (pepsinogen); pept- (peptic); pepto- (peptogenic)
- dill aneth- (anethated)
- dinner deipno- (deipnophobia); prand- (postprandial)
- drink -ade (lemonade); bib- (bibulous); pino- (pinocytosis); pocul- (poculent); pot- (potomania)
- eating alim- (alimentation); bromato- (bromatology); -brotic (scolecobrotic); cib- (cibarious); comest- (comestible); ed- (edible); escul- (esculent); gust- (gustatory); manduc- (manducation); mastic- (mastication); -phagous (creophagous); -phagy (anthropophagy); -sitia (asitia); sitio- (sitiophobia); -troph (heterotroph); -trophic (heterotrophic); -trophy (hypertrophy); -vora (Carnivora); -vore (herbivore); -vorous (omnivorous)
- fig fici- (ficiform); syc- (sycoma)
- fruit -carp (endocarp); -carpic (endocarpic); carpo- (carpophore); -carpous (monocarpous); frug- (frugivorous); pomi- (pomiform); pomo- (pomology)
- garlic scor- (scorodite)
- grain farr- (confarreate); farrag- (farraginous); frument- (frumentaceous); grani- (granivorous)
- grape acini- (aciniform); botry- (botryose); racem- (racemiform); rhag- (rhagite); staphylo- (staphyline); uvi- (uviform); uvu- (uvula); vini- (viniculture); vino- (vinosity); viti- (viticulture)
- hickory cichor- (cichoraceous)
- honey melli- (melliferous)
- kidney bean phaseol- (phaseolous)
- leek porr- (porraceous); praso- (prasophagous)
- lime tilia- (tiliaceae)
- lunch prand- (prandial)
- meal cen- (cenatory); coen- (coenaculous); deipno- (deipnophobia); prand- (antepandial)
- meat -burger (hamburger); carni- (carnivore); carnos- (carnosity)
- mint menth- (menthaceous)
- mustard sinap- (sinapistic)
- nutmeg myrist- (myristic)
- oats aveni- (avenaceous)
- onion cep- (cepus); cromny- (cromnyomancy)
- orange hesperid- (hesperidine)
- parsley petrosel- (petroseline)
- pea pisi- (pisiform)
- peach persic- (persicaria)
- peanut arach- (arachidic)
- pear apio- (apiocrinite); piri- (piriform); pyri- (pyriform)
- pepper piper- (piperic)
- pineapple bromel- (bromeliaceous)
- pomegranate balaust- (balaustine)
- pumpkin pepo- (pepon)
- radish raphan- (raphania)
- rice oryzi- (oryzivorous); rizi- (riziform)
- salad acetar- (acetarous)
- salt halo- (halophile); sali- (desalination); salino- (salinometric); sals- (salsamentarous)
- sandwich -burger (cheeseburger)
- sausage allanto- (allantoid); botul- (botuliform)
- strawberry fragar- (fragarol)
- sugar gluco- (glucose); glycer- (glycerol); glyco- (glycosuria);

levul- (levulose); saccharo- (saccharometer); suc- (sucrose) tea thei- (theiform)
truffle hydno- (hydnocarpous)
turnip napi- (napiform) vegetable lachan- (lachanopolist); oler- (oleraceous); olit- (olitory);

vegeti- (vegetivorous); vegeto- (vegetarian) walnut juglan- (juglandaceous) wheat silig- (siliginous); tritic- (triticeous) yam dioscorea- (dioscoreaceous)

LOCATION

above ano- (anocarpous); epi- (epidermis); ob- (obliterate); over- (overhang); super- (superscript); supra- (supraliminal); sur- (surbase) across dia- (diameter); per- (perigrinaion); trans- (transmit); transverso- (transverso-cubital) apex -apical (periapical); apico- (apicotomy) behind after- (afterburner); back- (backdrop); meta- (metasternum); opistho- (opisthotic); post- (postscenium); postero- (posterolateral); retro- (retrocopulant) between/among dia- (diagnosis); enter- (entergrave); entre- (entr'acte); epi- (epidemic); inter- (interval) distant tele- (television) front ante- (antependium); antero- (anteroparietal); fore- (forefront); pre- (preaortic); pro- (proscenium); proso- (prosogaster) high(er) acro- (acrocephaly); alti- (altitude); alto- (alto-relievo); hypsi- (hypsistenocephalic); hypso- (hypsometry); super- (superstructure) inside eis- (eisegesis); em- (embedded); en- (enclose); endo- (endoskeleton); ento- (entoparasite); eso- (esoenteritis); il- (illuminate); im- (implosion); in- (incarcerate); intero- (interoceptor); ir- (irradiate); intra- (intramural); intro- (introspection) left laeo- (laeotropic) laevo- (laevorotatory) levo- (levogyrate) sinistro- (sinistrorse) middle centri- (centripetal); centro- (centrolineal); -centric (heliocentric); medi- (medieval); medio- (mediodorsal); mes- (mesallantoid); mesati- (mesati-cephalic); mesio- (mesio-sinistral); meso- (mesothorax); mezzo- (mezzotint); mid- (midsection) near ad- (adjoining); by- (bystander); cis- (cismontane); epi- (epicenter); juxta- (juxtapose); para- (parametric); peri- (perigee); prox- (approximal) proximo- (proximocephalic) outside ecto- (ectoparasite); epi- (epidermis); exo- (exoskeleton); extero- (exteroceptor); extra- (extraterritorial); extro- (extrovert); out- (outhouse); para- (paradox); preter- (preternatural) right dextio- (dextiotropic); dextro- (dextrorse) surrounding ambi- (ambiance); amphi- (amphithecium); be-

(beset); circum- (circumference);
peri- (periotic)

through dia- (diaphanous); per(percolate); trans- (transparent);
-wide (worldwide)

under hypo- (hypodermic); infero(inferoposterior); infra- (infrastructure); sub- (subscript); sub-ter- (subterfluent); under- (underpinning)

upon ana- (anacclisis); epi- (epilogue); ob- (obtrude); super- (superstructure); sur- (surcharge) with co- (coterminous); col- (colleague); com- (commingle); con(convulse); cor- (correlate); hama- (hamadryad); inter- (intermixed); para- (parataxis); syl-(syllable); sym- (symbiosis); sym-phyo- (symphyogenesis); sym-physio- (symphysiorrhaphy); syn(synagogue); sys- (system)

NEGATIVES

a- pre not; without (atypical)

ab- pre away from (absorbent)

an- pre not; without (anorexia) anti- pre opposite of; against (antidote)

apo- pre detached; apart (apogamy)
-atresia comb absence of an opening (proctatresia)

atreto- comb absence of an opening (atretocyst)

cata- pre against (catachresis) contra- pre opposite; against (contravene)

counter- comb opposite; against (counter-clockwise)

de- pre deprived of; apart (devaluation)

dis- pre apart; opposite (disengage)

dys- pre badly; not correct (dysfunctional)

ectro- comb missing; absent (ectromelia)

ex- pre former; deprived of (ex-member)

il- pre not; opposite of (illicit) im- pre not; opposite of (impartial) in- pre not; opposite of (inarticulate)

ir- pre not; opposite of (irreverent)
-less suf without; unable to (restless)

lipo- comb lacking; leaving (lipography)

mal- pre poorly; not (malnutrition) mis- pre wrongly; not (misalign-ment)

miso- comb antipathy; hatred (mis-ocainea)

ne- pre not; opposite of (nescient)

nihil- base nothingness (annihilate)

no- pre not any (no-load) non- pre not; absence of (nonaller-genic)

nulli- pre none (nulliparous)

ob- pre against; inverse (obliterate)

-priv- base lacking; taken away (deprivation)

un- pre not; reversal (unimaginable)

with- pre apart; opposed (withstand)

NUMBERS

- 0 nulli- (nullipara)
 $\frac{1}{10}$ decim- (decimate)
 $\frac{1}{9}$ non- (nonan)
 $\frac{1}{8}$ octan- (octant)
 $\frac{1}{7}$ septim- (septimal)
 $\frac{1}{6}$ sext- (sextant)
 $\frac{1}{5}$ quint- (quintant)
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tetarto- (tetartohedral)
 $\frac{1}{3}$ trient- (triental)
 $\frac{1}{2}$ demi- (demitint); dicho- (dichotomize); dimid- (dimidiation); hemi- (hemisphere); mezzo- (mezzo-relievo); semi- (semi-columnar)
 $\frac{3}{4}$ triquadr- (triquadrantal)
- 1 eka- (ekaselenium); haplo- (haplopetalous); heno- (henotheism); mono- (monorail); uni- (unilateral)
- 1 & $\frac{1}{2}$ sesqui- (sesquihoral)
- 2 ambi- (ambiversion); ambo- (amboceptor); amphi- (amphicarpous); amphi- (amphora); bi- (bicentennial); bin- (binaural); bis- (bissextile); deuter- (deuterogamy); deuto- (deutoplasm); di- (diplegia); dicho- (dichotomous); didym- (didymalgia); diphy- (diphyceral); diplo- (diplopia); disso- (dissogony); double- (doubleheader); du- (duplicate); duplicato- (duplicatodentate); duplici- (duplicipennate); duo- (duograph); dyo- (Dyophysite); gemelli- (gemelliparous); gemin- (geminiflorous); twi- (twinight); zygo- (zygodont)
- 3 ter- (tercet); -tern- (ternary); -tert- (tertiary); tri- (trifocal); triakis- (triakisoctahedron); triangulato- (triangulato-subovate); trigono- (trigonocephalic); triplo- (triploblastic); triplicato- (triplicato-pinnate); trito- (tritoen-cephalon)
- 4 quadra- (quadrasonic); quadrato- (quadrato-cubic); quadri- (quadrilateral); quadru- (quadruped); quart- (quarterly); quarti- (quartisection); quat- (quaternate); quater- (quatercentenary); quatre- (quatrefoil); tessara- (tesseraphthong); tetarto- (tetartohedral); tetra- (Tetragrammaton); tetrakis- (tetrakis-dodecahedron)
- 5 cinque- (cinquefoil); penta- (pentacle); quin- (quinary); quinque- (quinquennium); quint- (quintuplets); quinti- (quintiped)
- 6 hexa- (hexahedron); hexakis- (hexakisoctahedron); seni- (senary); sex- (sexagenarian); sexi- (sexipolar); sexti- (sextisection); sise- (siseangle)
- 7 hebdo- (hebdomadral); hepta- (Heptateuch); septem- (September); septi- (septifolious)
- 8 octa- (octagon); octo- (octonary); ogdo- (ogdoastich)
- 9 ennea- (enneahedron); nona- (nonagon); -nov- (novena)
- 10 dec(a)- (decade); decem- (decempennate); deci- (decimeter); deka- (dekagram); -teen (sixteen); -ty (seventy)
- 11 endeca- (endecagon); hendeca- (hendecasyllabic); undec- (undecagon); undecim- (undecimal)
- 12 dodeca- (dodecastyle); duodec- (duodecennial); duodecim- (duodecimfid); duoden- (duodenary)

- 13 tredecim- (tredecimal);
triskaideka- (triskaidekaphobia)
- 14 quattuordec- (quattuordecillion);
tessaradeca- (tessaradecasyllabon);
tetradeca- (tetradecapod); tetra- kaideka- (tetraikaidecahedron)
- 15 pentakaideka- (pentakaidecahe-dron); quindec- (quindecennial)
- 16 hexadeca- (hexadecachoron); hexakaideka- (hexakaidecahedron); sedecim- (sedecimal)
- 17 heptakaideka- (heptakaidecahedron); septendecim- (septendeci-
mal)
- 18 duodeviginti- (duodevigintian-gular); octakaideka- octakaidecahedron)
- 19 enneakaideka- (enneakaidecahe-dron); undeviginti- (undevigin-tiangular)
- 20 eico- (eicosapentaenoic: 25);
icosa- (icosandria); icosi- (icositetrahedron: 24); vicesim- (vicesimal); vigent- (vigentennial); vig- inti- (vigintiangular)
- 30 triaconta- (triacontahedral); tricen- (tricenary); triges- (trigesimal); trigint- (trigintal)
- 40 quadragen- (quadragenarian);
quadrages- (quadragesimal)
- 50 pentacosta- (pentacostaglossal); penteconta- (pentecontaglossal);
quinguagen- (quinguagenarian);
quinguages- (quinguagesimal)
- 60 hexaconta- (hexacontahedron);
sexagen- (sexagenarian); sexages- (sexagesimal)
- 70 septuagen- (septuagenarian);
septuages- (septuagesimal); septu- agint- (Septuagint)
- 80 octogen- (octogenarian); octo-
ges- (octogesimal)
- 90 enneaconta- (enneacontahedral);
nonagen- (nonagenarian);
nonages- (nonagesimal)
- 100 cent(i)- (centigrade); hecato- (hecato-phyllous); hecatinicos- (hecatinicosachoron: 120); hecto- (hectoliter); hekto (hektogram)
- 200 ducen- (ducenarianous)
- 300 trecent- (trecentene)
- 400 quadracent- (quadracentennial)
- 500 quincen- (quincennial)
- 600 hexacosi- (hexacosichoron);
sexcent- (sexcentenary)
- 700 septingenti- (septingentenary)
- 800 octocent- (octocentenary)
- 900 enneacent- (enneacentenary)
- 1,000 -chili- (chiliarch); kilo- (kilogram); ~th: milli- (millibar)
- 10,000 myria- (myriameter); myrio- (myriophyllous)
- 1,000,000 one million mega- (mega-volt); ~th: micro- (microgram)
- 1,000,000,000 one billion giga- (gigabyte); ~th: nano- (nanosecond); nanno- (nannoplankton)
- 1,000,000,000,000 one trillion tera- (terahertz); ~th: pico- (picofarad)
- 1,000,000,000,000,000 one qua- drillion peta- (petameter); ~th:
femto- (femtometer);
- 1,000,000,000,000,000,000 one
quintillion exa- (exameter); ~th:
atto- (attogram)
- 1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 one
hexillion zetta- (zettabyte); ~th:
zepto- (zeptovolt)
- 1,000,000,000,000,000,000,000,000
one heptillion yotta- (yottame-ter); ~th: yocto- (yoctogram)

THE SENSES

Hearing

deafness -surd- (surdity)

ear auri- (auricle); auriculo- (auriculo-temporal); ot- (otom- orrhagia); oto- (otology) hear acou- (acouasm); acoust- (acoustical); audi- (auditory); audio- (audiology); auri- (auricle); ecoia (dysecoia) sound echo- (echogenic); -phone (telephone); phono- (phonograph); -phony (euphony); -phthong (diphthong); son- (sonic); soni- (soniferous); sono- (sonometer); sonoro- (sonorous)

RELATED PERCEPTIONS

noisy crepit- (crepitation); frem- (fremitus); ligyr- (ligyrophobia); strid- (strident); stridul- (stridulous); strepi- (strepitus);

silent hesy- (hesychastic); tacit- (taciturnity)

Seeing

blindness caec- (caecilian); cec- (cecility); lusc- (eluscate); typhlo- (typhlosis) eye blepharo- (blepharotomy); cantho- (canthoplasty); cili- (ciliary); corneo- (corneoiritis); irido- (iridomotor); kerato- (keratotomy); oculi- (oculiform); oculo- (oculomotor); ommat- (ommatophore); op- (opalgia); ophthalm- (ophthalmoscope); -opia (diplopia); ophry- (ophryosis); opsi- (opsiometer); opso- (opso-clonus); optico- (optico-papillary); opto- (optometry); retino- (retinoschisis); sclero- (sclerotomy); tarso- (tarsoplasty) pupil core- (corelysis); coreo- (coreoplasty); -coria (isocoria); coro- (coroplastic); -koria (leukokoria); pupillo- (pupillometer) see -blep- (ablepsia); eid- (eidetic); -opsia (hemianopsia); -opsis (synopsis); -opsy (biopsy); -scope (telescope); -scop- (microscop-); -scop- (scopophilia); -scopy (bioscopy); -scrut- (inscrutable); spec- (spectator); -spic- (conspicuous); -vid- (video); -vis- (vision); visuo- (visuosensory)

RELATED PERCEPTIONS

bright fulg- (fulgorant); helio- (helioscope); luc- (luciferous); lumin- (luminosity) dark amaur- (amaurosus); ambly- (amblyopia); nyct- (nyctalopia); scoto- (scotophobia); tenebr- (tenebrous)

Smelling

nose nasi- (nasiform); naso- (nasology); rhino- (rhinology) smell bromo- (bromidrosis); fet- (fetid); nidor- (nidorous); -odic (euodic); odori- (odoriferous); odor- (odoroscope); -olent (redolent); -olfact- (olfactory); -osmia (anosmia); osmo- (osmodysphoria); osphresio (osphresiphobia); ozo- (ozostomia)

RELATED PERCEPTIONS

pleasant bene- (beneficial); eu- (euodic) unpleasant cac- (cacosmia); mal- (malodorous)

Tasting

mouth -mouthed (dry-mouthed); oro- (orolingual); stomato- (stomatalgia); -stome (cytostome); -stomous (monostomous) palate palato- (palatonasal); uranisco- (uranisconitis); urano- (uranoplasty); velar- (velarize) saliva ptyal- (ptyalagogue); sialo- (sialorrhea) taste geum- (geumaphobia); geumat- (geumatophobia); -geusia (parageusia); -gust- (gustatory); sapor- (saporific) tongue -glossia (macroglossia); glosso- (glossodynia); hyo- (hyoglossal); lamino- (lamino-alveolar); ligur- (ligurition); ling- (lingible); lingui- (linguiform)

RELATED PERCEPTIONS

bitter alk- (alkaloid); picro- (picrotoxin) salty alo- (alomancy); halo- (halophile); sal- (saline); sals- (salsamentarious) sour acerb- (acerbity); acid- (acidulous); amar- (amarine) sweet hedy- (hedyphane); melli- (mellifluous); dulc- (dulcify)

Touching

sensation -esthesia (myesthesia); esthesio- (esthesiometer) skin cut(i)- (subcutaneous); derm- (dermabrasion); -derm (melanoderm); derma- (dermatherm); -derma (scleroderma); dermat- (dermatitis); dermat- (dermatology); -dermatous (xerodermatous); -dermis (epidermis); dermo- (dermoneural) touch aphe- (aphophobia); -aphia (dysaphia); -apsia (parapsia); haph- (haphalgnesia); hapto- (haptometer); -palp- (palpable); sens(i)- (sensiferous); sensori- (sensorineural); sent- (sentient); -tact- (contact); -tang- (tangible); thigmo- (thigmotaxis)

RELATED PERCEPTIONS

cold alg- (algid); cheima- (cheimaphilic); crymo- (crymophilic); cryo- (cryopathy); frigo- (frigorific); gelo- (gelosis); kryo- (kryometer); psychro- (psychroalgia); rhigo- (rhigolene)

dry -sicc- (desiccate); xero- (xerophyte) hard dur- (duricrust); scler- (scleronychia) rough salebr- (salebrous); trachy- (trachycarpous) smooth glabr- (glabrous); leio- (leiotrichous); levig- (levigated); lisso- (lissotrichous); lubr- (lubricity); psilo- (psilodermatous) soft malac- (malacissant); malax- (malaxation); -moll- (emollient) warm calo- (caloreceptor); calori- (calorific); caum- (caumesthesia); pyr- (pyrogenic); therm- (thermal); thermo- (thermosensitive); -thermy (diathermy) wet humect- (humectant); hydro- (hydrorrhea); hygro- (hygroscopic); madefac- (madefaction)

SHAPES

acorn-shaped glandi- (glandiform)

agate-shaped agat- (agatiform) almond-shaped amygdal- (amygdaliform) anchor-shaped ancry- (ancryoid) angle -angle (quadrangle); angul- (rectangular); -gon (polygon); -gonal (polygonal); gonio- (goniometer) antennae-shaped antenn- (antenniform) anther-shaped anther- (antheriform)

apple-shaped pomi- (pomiform)

arch-shaped arc- (arciform) ax-shaped securi- (securiform) barrel-shaped dolio- (dolioform) basket-shaped calathi- (calathiform) beak-shaped aquil- (aquiline); corac- (coracoid); rhamph- (rhamphoid); rhyncho- (rhy-nchoporous); rostrato- (rostrato-nariform); rostri- (rostriform)

bean-shaped fabi- (fabiform) bear-shaped urs- (ursiform) beehive-shaped alve- (alveated)

beetle-shaped scarab- (scaraboid)

bell-shaped campan- (campaniform) bent ancylo- (ancylostomiasis); ankylo- (ankylosis); -campsis (phallocampsis); campto- (camptocormia); campylo- (campylo-dactyly); -clinal (anticlinal); -clinate (proclinate); -cline (incline); -clinic (matroclinic); clino- (clinometer); -clinous (patroclinous); -clisis (pathoclisis); clit- (heteroclit); cliv- (declivity); curvi- (curvilinear); cyrto- (cyrto-meter); -flect- (genuflection); flex- (flex-ural); lechrio- (lechriodont);

loxo- (loxotomy); repando-

(repando-dentate); scolio- (scolio-kypshosis); sinu- (sinuosity); -verge (diverge) berry-shaped bacc- (bacciform) boat-shaped cymb- (cymbiform); navi- (naviform); scapho- (scaphocephaly); scapulo- (scapulo-humeral) bottle-shaped ampull- (ampulla-ceous) leather bottle-shaped: utrei- (utreiform); utric- (utricular) bowl-shaped crater- (crateriform)

branch-shaped rami- (ramiform) breast-shaped mammi- (mammi-form)

brick-shaped plinthe- (plintheiform) bristle-shaped seti- (setiform)

broom-shaped scopi- (scopiform) brush-shaped muscar- (muscariform) bud-shaped gemm- (gemmiform)

bull-shaped taur- (tauriform) canine tooth-shaped lanar- (lanariform)

cap-shaped pile- (pileiform) caterpillar-shaped eruci- (eruciform) catkin-shaped amenti-² (amentiform); juli- (juliform) chisel-shaped scalpri- (scalpriform) clarion-shaped litui- (lituiform) claw-shaped ungui- (unguiform) cleaver-shaped dolabr- (dolabrim-form)

cloud-shaped nubi- (nubiform) club-shaped clav- (claviform) cobweb-shaped arachn- (arachnoid) coin-shaped nummi- (nummiform)

- collar-shaped colli- (colliform) column-shaped columelli- (columelliform) comb-shaped pectin- (pectiniform) cone-shaped coni- (coniform) coral-shaped coralli- (coralliform) corn-shaped grani- (graniform) cowl-shaped cuculli- (cuculliform) crab-shaped cancri- (cancriform) crater-shaped crateri- (crateriform) crescent-shaped crescenti- (crescentiform) lunul- (lunular) cross-shaped cruc- (cruciform) crown-shaped coron- (coroniform) crystal-shaped crystalli- (crystalliform) cube-shaped cubi- (cubiform) cuckoo-shaped cuculi- (cuculiform) cucumber-shaped cucumi- (cucumiform) cup-shaped calath- (calathiform); cotyl- (cotyliform); crin- (crinoid); cupuli- (cupuliform); cyath- (cyathiform); pocul- (poculiform); scyphi- (scyphiform) cylinder-shaped cylindri- (cylindriciform) dish-shaped scutel- (scutelliform) drop-shaped gutti- (guttiform); stilli- (stilliform) ear-shaped aur-¹ (auriform) eel-shaped anguill- (anguilliform) egg-shaped ov- (oviform); oval- (ovaliform) embryo-shaped embryo- (embryoniform) eye-shaped ocul- (oculiform) faced/faceted -hedral (hexahedral); -hedron (polyhedron) fan-shaped flabelli- (flabelliform) feather-shaped pinni- (pinniform); plumil- (plumiliform) fern-shaped filici- (filiciform)
- fiber-shaped fibri- (fibriform) fibril-shaped fibrilli- (fibrilliform) fiddle-shaped pandur- (panduriform) fig-shaped fici- (ficiform) finger-shaped digiti- (digitiform) fish-shaped pisci- (pisciform) fissure-shaped fissuri- (fissuriform) flask-shaped ampulli- (ampulliform); lagen- (lageniform) flat plani- (planimeter); plano- (planoconcave); platy- (platypus) flower-shaped flor- (floriform) foot-shaped ped-¹ (pediform) forked -furc- (bifurcation) fowl-shaped galli- (galliform) frog-shaped rani- (raniform) fruit-shaped fructi- (fructiform) fungus-shaped fungill- (fungilliform) funnel-shaped infundibuli- (infundibuliform) gland-shaped aden- (adeniform) gnat-shaped culici- (culiciform) goat-shaped capri- (capriform) goblet-shaped pocul- (poculiform) grape-shaped staphylo- (staphyloma); uvi- (uviform); uvu- (uvula); ~cluster: acini- (acini-form) hair-shaped capilli- (capilliform) hammer-shaped malle- (malleiform) hand-shaped mani- (maniform) hatchet-shaped dolabri- (dolabrimform) heart-shaped cord- (cordoform); cordato- (cordato-ovate) helmet-shaped cassid- (cassidiform); gale- (galeate) herring-shaped harengi- (harengiform) hinge-shaped gingly- (ginglyform) hood-shaped calyptri- (calyptriform) hook-shaped hami- (hamiform);

 unci- (unciform)
horn-shaped corni- (corniculate, corniform)
horseshoe-shaped hippocrepi-(hippocrepiiform) horsetail-shaped equiset- (equiseti-
 form)
hull-shaped naut- (nautiform) hydra-shaped hydr- (hydraform) irregular poikilo- (poikilocyte) isopod-shaped isopodi- (isopodi-
 form)
ivy-shaped hederi- (hederiform) kidney-shaped reni- (reniform) knee-shaped genu- (genuform) knife-shaped cultell- (cultellated);
 cultri- (cultriform)
ladder-shaped scalari- (scalarm-
 form)
lance-shaped lanci- (lanciform) larva-shaped larvi- (larviform) layered -decker (double-decker);
 lamelli- (lamelliform); lamin-(lamination); -plex (cerviplex); strat- (stratified)
leaf-shaped clad- (cladode); foli-(foliiform); phyll- (phylliform) leather bottle-shaped utrei-(utreiform); utric- (utricular) lid-shaped operculi- (operculiform) lily-shaped lili- (liliform) lizard-shaped lacerti- (lacerti-
 form)
lyre-shaped lyri- (lyriform) malformed -mutil- (Mutilla); pero(peropodous) miter-shaped mitri- (mitriform) moon-shaped luni- (luniform) mummy-shaped mummi- (mum-miform) mushroom-shaped fungi- (fungi-form); agar- (agariciform) myrtle leaf-shaped myrti- (myrti-
 form)

necklace-shaped monili- (monili-
 form)
needle-shaped aci- (aciform); acicul- (acicular)
nose-shaped nari- (nariform); nasi(nasiform)
nut-shaped caryo- (caryopsis);
 karyo- (karyokinesis); nuci- (nu-ciform); nucleo (nucleolus) oar-shaped remi- (remiform) oat-shaped aveni- (aveniform) ox-shaped bov- (boviform) oyster-shaped ostrea- (ostreiform) pea-shaped pisi- (pisiform) pear-shaped piri- (piriform); pyri(pyriform)
pen-shaped styl- (styliform) penis-shaped pen- (peniform) petal-shaped petuli- (petuliform) pillar-shaped columelli- (columel-liform); columni- (columniform) pinecone-shaped strobil- (strobili-
 form)
pipe-shaped fistuli- (fistuliform) placenta-shaped placenti- (placentiform)
pod-shaped siliqu- (siliquiform) pointed aci- (acicular); acro- (acrocephal); acu- (aculeate); acuti(acutifoliate); -belon- (belonophobia); cusp- (cuspid); muric(muricate); oxy- (oxyrhine);
 -punct- (punctured); stylo- (stylograph)
pouch-shaped scroti- (scrotiform) purse-shaped bursi- (bursiform) rattlesnake-shaped crotali- (crotal-iform)
reed-shaped calam- (calamiform) rice grain-shaped rizi- (riziform) ring-shaped annul- (annular);
 circin- (circinate)
rod-shaped -bacill- (bacilliform);
 bacul- (baculiform); coryn(coryneform); -rad- (radial);

- rhabdo- (rhabdomyoma); virgul- (virgulate) roof-shaped tecti- (tectiform) root-shaped radic- (radiciform) rope-shaped funil- (funiliform); resti- (restiform) round -annul- (annulate); -anu- (anulus); -cing- (cingulum); cinct- (cincture); circin- (circinately); -circul- (recirculate); -coron- (coronation); crico- (cricoid); cyclo (cyclostomous); disco- (discoïd); globo- (globosity); glomer- (glomerate); numm- (nummular); -orb- (sub-orbital); -rot- (rotund); -sphere (hemisphere); sphero- (spheroid); stilli- (stilliform); tereti- (tereticaudate); troch- (trochal); zon- (zonesthesia) rush-shaped junci- (junciform) sac-shaped bursi- (bursiform); sacc- (sacciform) salmon-shaped salmoni- (salmoniform) saucer-shaped acetabul- (acetabuliform) sausage-shaped allanto- (allantoid); botul- (botuliform) saw-shaped serrati- (serratifform) scale-shaped lamelli- (lamelliform); squami- (squamiform) scimitar-shaped acinaci- (acinaciform) shell-shaped conchi- (conchiform) shield-shaped clype- (clypeiform); pelti- (peltiform); scut- (scutiform) sickle-shaped drepani- (drepaniform); faldi- (falciform) sieve-shaped coli- (coliform); cribri- (cribriiform) slanting loxo- (loxodromic); plagio- (plagiodont) slug-shaped limaci- (limaciform)
- snake-shaped angui- (anguiform); colubri- (colubriform); serpenti- (serpentiniform) spatula-shaped spatuli- (spatuliform) spear-shaped hasti- (hastiform) sphere-shaped spheri- (spheriform) spider-shaped arene- (areneiform) spike-shaped spic- (spiciform) spindle-shaped fusu- (fusiform) spine-shaped aculei- (aculeiform); spini- (spiniiform) spiral-shaped cirri- (cirriform); cochl- (cochleate); gyro- (gyroidal); helici- (heliceiform); spiri- (spiriform) spoon-shaped cochleari- (cochleariform) square -quadr- (quadrangle) stalactite-shaped stalacti- (stalactiform) stalk-shaped stipiti- (stipitiform) star-shaped aster- (asterisk); stelli- (stelliform) straight ithy- (ithyphallic); ortho- (orthogonal) strap-shaped liguli- (liguliform); lora- (lorate) sword-shaped ensi- (ensiform); xiphi- (Xiphias); xipho- (xiphoid) tea leaf-shaped thei- (theiform) tear-shaped lachrymi- (lachrymiform) tendril-shaped cirri- (cirriform); pampin- (pampiniform) tentacle-shaped tentaculi- (tentaculiform) thread-shaped fili- (filiform); nemato- (nematogen) tongue-shaped lingui- (linguiform) tooth-shaped denti- (dentiform) top-shaped strombuli- (strombuliform); turbi- (turbinated) tower-shaped pyrgo- (pyrgoidal) trapezoid-shaped trapezi- (trapeziform) tray-shaped hypocra- (hypocra-teriform) tree-shaped arbor- (arboriform); dendri- (dendriform) triangular delt- (deltoidal); triangulato- (triangulato-subovate); trigon- (trigonal) tube-shaped fistuli- (fistuliform); syringo- (syringotomy); tubi- (tubiform); tubuli- (tubuliform); vasi- (vasiform) turnip-shaped napi- (napiform) umbrella-shaped umbraculi- (umbraculiform) vase-shaped urcei- (urceiform) wart-shaped verruci- (verruciform) wedge-shaped cune- (cuneiform); spheno- (sphenography) wheel-shaped roti- (rotiform); troch- (trochal) whiplash-shaped flagelli- (flagelliform) wing-shaped ala- (aliform) wingcase-shaped elytri- (elytriform) worm-shaped lumbric- (lumbriciform); scoleci- (scoleciform); vermi- (vermiform) x-shaped decuss- (decussate) yoke-shaped zygo- (zygomorphic)

TIME

afternoon pomerid- (pomeridian) ancient -antiq- (antiquity); arch(a)eo- (archaeology); pal(a)eo- (Paleozoic); proto- (protohuman) day -diurn- (diurnal); ephemer- (ephemeris); hemer- (hemerine); -journ- (journal); quotid- (quotidian) earlier ante- (antedate); fore- (forecast); pre- (predawn); pro- (provision); protero- (proterotype); proto- (protomartyr); retro- (retroactive); yester- (yesteryear) early period eo- (eolithic); paleo- (paleolithic) evening crepus- (crepuscular); noct- (nocturnal); nocti- (noctiluculent); nycto- (nyctophobia); vesper- (vespertine) hour horo- (horology)
incomplete -esce (incandesce); -escence (convalescence); -escent (incandescent) lasting diuturn- (diuturnal); dur- (durable); perenn- (perennial); perm- (permanent); stabil- (stability) later hystero- (hystero-genic); meta- (metabiosis); post (postmeridian); retro- (retrofit) month -mens(i)- (mensal) monthly: emmen- (emmenio-pathy) morning matut- (matutinal) new caeno- (Caenozoic); caino- (Cainozoic); ceno- (cenogenesis); neo- (neoplast); nov- (novelty); thalero- (thalerophagous) night crepus- (crepuscular); noct- (nocturnal); nocti- (noctiluculent); nycto- (nyctophobia); vesper- (vespertine) old gerasco- (gerascophobia); gero- (gerodontics); geronto- (gerontology); grand- (grandfather); presbyo- (presbyacismus); -sen- (seniority); -vet- (veteran) recent -cene (Miocene); ceno-(Cenozoic)

same time co- (coexist); hama-(hamarchy); simul- (simultaneous); synchron- (synchronicity) time chrono- (chronology) ; -temp(temporary)

today hodie- (hodiernal)

tomorrow crastin- (procrastinate)

twilight crepus- (crepusculine); lyg-(lygophilia)

week -hebdom- (hebdomadal); sep-timan- (septimanal)

year -ann- (annual); -enn- (biennial)

yesterday hestern- (hesternal);
prid- (pridian)

young juven- (juvenile)

NTC's AMERICAN IDIOMS DICTIONARY

THE MOST PRACTICAL REFERENCE FOR
THE EVERYDAY EXPRESSIONS OF
CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN ENGLISH

THIRD EDITION

RICHARD A. SPEARS, PH.D.

NTC's
AMERICAN
IDIOMS
DICTIONARY

This page intentionally left blank.

NTC's AMERICAN IDIOMS DICTIONARY

THE MOST PRACTICAL REFERENCE FOR
THE EVERYDAY EXPRESSIONS OF
CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN ENGLISH

THIRD EDITION

RICHARD A. SPEARS, Ph.D.

NTC Publishing Group

Copyright © 2000 by The McGraw-Hill Companies. All rights reserved. Manufactured in the United States of America. Except as permitted under the United States Copyright Act of 1976, no part of this publication may be reproduced or distributed in any form or by any means, or stored in a database or retrieval system, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

0-07-138988-1

The material in this eBook also appears in the print version of this title: 0-8442-0274-6.

All trademarks are trademarks of their respective owners. Rather than put a trademark symbol after every occurrence of a trademarked name, we use names in an editorial fashion only, and to the benefit of the trademark owner, with no intention of infringement of the trademark. Where such designations appear in this book, they have been printed with initial caps.

McGraw-Hill eBooks are available at special quantity discounts to use as premiums and sales promotions, or for use in corporate training programs. For more information, please contact George Hoare, Special Sales, at george_hoare@mcgraw-hill.com or (212) 904-4069.

TERMS OF USE

This is a copyrighted work and The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("McGraw-Hill") and its licensors reserve all rights in and to the work. Use of this work is subject to these terms. Except as permitted under the Copyright Act of 1976 and the right to store and retrieve one copy of the work, you may not decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer, reproduce, modify, create derivative works based upon, transmit, distribute, disseminate, sell, publish or sublicense the work or any part of it without McGraw-Hill's prior consent. You may use the work for your own noncommercial and personal use; any other use of the work is strictly prohibited. Your right to use the work may be terminated if you fail to comply with these terms.

THE WORK IS PROVIDED "AS IS". McGRAW-HILL AND ITS LICENSORS MAKE NO GUARANTEES OR WARRANTIES AS TO THE ACCURACY, ADEQUACY OR COMPLETENESS OF OR RESULTS TO BE OBTAINED FROM USING THE WORK, INCLUDING ANY INFORMATION THAT CAN BE ACCESSED THROUGH THE WORK VIA HYPERLINK OR OTHERWISE, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM ANY WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. McGraw-Hill and its licensors do not warrant or guarantee that the functions contained in the work will meet your requirements or that its operation will be uninterrupted or error free. Neither McGraw-Hill nor its licensors shall be liable to you or anyone else for any inaccuracy, error or omission, regardless of cause, in the work or for any damages resulting therefrom. McGraw-Hill has no responsibility for the content of any information accessed through the work. Under no circumstances shall McGraw-Hill and/or its licensors be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, punitive, consequential or similar damages that result from the use of or inability to use the work, even if any of them has been advised of the possibility of such damages. This limitation of liability shall apply to any claim or cause whatsoever whether such claim or cause arises in contract, tort or otherwise.

DOI: 10.1036/0071389881

Contents

To the User	vii
Terms and Symbols	ix
About This Dictionary	xi
Dictionary	1
Phrase-Finder Index	447
Appendix	621

This page intentionally left blank.

To the User

All languages have phrases or sentences that cannot be understood literally. Even if you know the meaning of all the words in a phrase and understand all the grammar of the phrase completely, the meaning of the phrase may still be confusing. Many proverbs, informal phrases, and common sayings offer this kind of problem. A phrase or sentence of this type is said to be idiomatic. This dictionary is a collection of the idiomatic phrases and sentences that occur frequently in American English. The third edition contains more than one thousand idiomatic expressions not listed in the second edition and a number of new features that provide additional convenience and simplicity.

Using the Dictionary

1. Start by looking up the complete phrase that you are seeking in the dictionary. Each expression is alphabetized under the first word of the phrase, except the words a, an, and the. After the first word, entry heads are alphabetized letter by letter. For example, in so many words will be found in the section dealing with the letter i. Entry phrases are never inverted or reordered like so many words, in; words, in so many; or many words, in so. Initial articles—a, an, and the—are not alphabetized and appear in a different typeface in the entry. In the entry heads, the words someone or one stand for persons, and something stands for things. These and other generic expressions appear in a different typeface.
2. If you do not find the phrase you want, or if you cannot decide exactly what the phrase is, look up any major word in the phrase in the Phrase-Finder Index, which begins on page 447. There you will find all the phrases that contain the key word you have looked up. Pick out the phrase you want and look it up in the dictionary.
3. An entry head may have one or more alternate forms. The entry head and its alternates are printed in boldface type, and the alternate forms are preceded by “AND.” Two or more alternate forms are separated by a semicolon (;).
4. Many of the entry phrases have more than one major sense. These senses are numbered with boldface numerals.

5. Individual numbered senses may have additional forms that appear in boldface type, in which case the AND and the additional form(s) follow the numeral.
6. The boldface entry head (together with any alternate forms) is usually followed by a definition or explanation. Explanations are enclosed in angle brackets (< and >), and explain or describe the entry head rather than define it. Definitions take the form of words, phrases, or sentences that are semantic equivalents of the entry head. Alternate definitions and restatements of the definitions are separated by a semicolon (;). These additional definitions are usually given to show slight differences in meaning or interpretation. Sometimes an alternate definition is given when the vocabulary of the first definition is difficult.
7. Some entries include instructions to look up some other phrase. For example:
scarcer than hen's teeth Go to (as) scarce as hen's teeth.
8. A definition or explanation may be followed by comments in parentheses. These comments tell about some of the variations of the phrase, explain what it refers to, give other useful information, or indicate cross-referencing.
9. Some definitions are preceded by additional information in square brackets. This information makes the definition clearer by supplying information about the typical grammatical context in which the phrase is found.
10. Sometimes the numbered senses refer only to people or things, but not both, even though the entry head indicates both someone or something. In such cases, the numeral is followed by “[with someone]” or “[with something].”
11. Examples are introduced by a □ or a ⊞ and are in italic type. The ⊞ introduces an example containing two elements that have been transposed, such as a particle and the object of a verb. This is typically found with phrasal verbs.
12. Some entry heads stand for two or more idiomatic expressions. Parentheses are used to show which parts of the phrase may or may not be present. For example: (all) set to do something stands for all set to do something and set to do something.

Terms and Symbols

[...] enclose a partial entry that is followed by an instruction about where to find the whole entry or a comment. For instance, [heart stands still] Go to one's heart stands still.

<....> enclose a description of or explanation about an entry head rather than a definition. For instance, Finders keepers(, losers weepers).

□ (a box) marks the beginning of an example.

▣ (a box containing a “T”) marks the beginning of an example in which two elements of the phrase, usually a particle and an object, are transposed.

AND indicates that an entry head has variant forms that are the same or similar in meaning as the entry head. One or more variant forms are preceded by AND.

entry block is the body of an entry starting with a boldface word or phrase type and running to the next boldface word or phrase.

entry head is the first phrase or word, in boldface type, of an entry block; the phrase or word that the definition explains.

go to means to turn to the entry head indicated.

see also means to consult the entry head indicated for additional information or to find expressions similar in form or meaning to the entry head containing the see also instruction.

Type Styles

Entry heads are printed in boldface type, e.g., Join the club!

Variable parts of an entry are printed in condensed type, e.g., just the same (to someone).

Entry heads being referred to as cross-references are printed in sans serif type, e.g., get the short end of the stick.

Variable parts of cross-references are printed in light condensed type, e.g., ease off (on someone or something).

Words or phrases that are mentioned but are not entries are printed in italic type, e.g., (Preceded by be or seem).

Examples are printed in italic type, e.g., □ The cashier was not allowed to leave the bank until the manager balanced the books.

Definitions, descriptions, and comments are printed in roman type, e.g., a very active and energetic person who always succeeds.

Words or phrases being emphasized in examples are printed in roman type, e.g., □ And stop hiding your head in the sand. All of us will die somehow, whether we smoke or not.

The articles a, an, and the appear in roman type at the beginning of an entry head, and these words are ignored in the process of alphabetizing, e.g., a babe in the woods, which is found under B, not under T.

About This Dictionary

NTC's American Idioms Dictionary is designed for easy use by lifelong speakers of English, as well as the new-to-English speaker or learner. The dictionary uses 14,000 examples to illustrate the meanings of approximately 8,500 idiomatic forms in 7,500 entry blocks. An appendix includes 500 irreversible binomial and trinomial phrases. The dictionary contains a unique Phrase-Finder Index that allows the user to identify and look up any expression in the dictionary from a single key word.

This is a dictionary of form and meaning. It focuses on the user's need to know the meaning, usage, and appropriate contexts for each idiomatic phrase. Specialized knowledge of English lexical and sentential semantics and English grammar is not used in indexing, defining, or explaining the idiomatic expressions.

English is a highly variable language. American English has differences that correlate with geographical location, the level and register of use, and other differences that relate to characteristics of the speaker. To include examples that would represent all kinds of American English as spoken by all kinds of speakers is not possible. The kind of American English used in the dictionary is generally what one would expect to hear used by educated, polite individuals representative of the traditional American home, family, and community. It is widely used in the United States and understood by English speakers throughout the country.

Idioms or idiomatic expressions are often defined as “set phrases” or “fixed phrases.” The number of idiomatic expressions that are totally invariant is really quite small, however, even when the English proverbs are included in this category. Most such phrases can vary the choice of noun or pronoun and most select from a wide variety of verb tense and aspect patterns. Adjectives and some adverbs can be added at will to idiomatic phrases. Furthermore, the new-to-English user is faced with the difficulty of isolating an idiomatic expression from the rest of the sentence and determining where to find it in a dictionary of idioms. If the user fails to extract the essential idiomatic expression, the likelihood of finding it in any dictionary is reduced considerably.

In dictionaries that list each idiomatic expression under a “key word,” there may be some difficulty in deciding what the “key word” is. In phrases such as on the button or in the cards, the key word, the only noun in the phrase, is easy to determine if one has correctly isolated the phrase from the sentence in which it was found. In phrases that have more than one noun, such as all hours of the day and night or A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, deciding on a “key word” may be more difficult. It is even more difficult when the only noun in the phrase is one of the variable words, such as with go around with her old friends, go around with Jim, and go around with no one at all, which are examples of go around with someone.

This dictionary uses the Phrase-Finder Index to get around the problems users face with trying to isolate the complete idiom and trying to predict its location in the dictionary. Simply look up any major word—noun, verb, adjective, or adverb—in the Phrase-Finder index, and you will find the form of the entry head that contains the definition you seek.

Another important feature for the learner is the use of object placeholders indicating human and nonhuman. Typical dictionary entries for idiomatic phrases—especially for phrasal verbs, prepositional verbs, and phrasal prepositional verbs—omit direct objects, as in put on hold, bail out, or see through. This dictionary uses the stand-in forms such as someone, something, some amount, or somewhere for variable objects and other variable forms. These stand-in forms are in condensed type.

All of that information is vital to learners of English, although it seems to come perfectly naturally to lifelong English speakers. For example, there is a big difference between put someone on hold and put something on hold, or between bail someone out and bail something out. There is also a great difference between see something through and see through something. These differences may never be revealed if the entry heads are just put on hold, bail out, and see through, with no object indicated.

Many idioms have optional parts. In fact, a phrase may seem opaque simply because it is really just an ellipsis of a longer, less opaque phrase. This dictionary shows as full a form of an idiom as possible with the frequently omitted parts in parentheses. For example: back down (from someone or something), be all eyes (and ears), and (every) once in a while.

The dictionary includes numerous irreversible binomials and trinomials—sequences of two or three words that are in a fixed order, such as fast and furious, but not furious and fast. These sequences are listed in the Appendix, beginning on page 621, and those that require explanation are cross-referenced to entries in the dictionary.

The compiler has included idiomatic phrases drawn from or suggested by Anne Bertram in NTC's Dictionary of Proverbs and Clichés, NTC's Dictionary of Euphemisms, and NTC's Dictionary of Folksy, Regional, and Rural Sayings and Elizabeth Kirkpatrick in NTC's English Idioms Dictionary.

A

[a] <Entries beginning with a, an, or the are alphabetized under the second word in the entry. That means that a bed of roses will appear in the Bs.>

an A for effort recognition for having tried to do something even if it was not successful. □ The plan didn't work, but I'll give you an A for effort for trying so hard. □ Bobby played his violin in the concert and got an A for effort. It sounded terrible.

(a little) new to (all) this an apologetic way of saying that one is experiencing something new or participating in something new and is therefore ineffective or inept. □ I'm sorry I'm slow. I'm a little new to all this. □ She's new to this. She needs practice.

abide by something to follow the rules of something; to obey someone's orders. □ John felt that he had to abide by his father's wishes. □ All drivers are expected to abide by the rules of the road.

able to breathe (easily) again AND able to breathe (freely) again able to relax and recover from a busy or stressful time; able to catch one's breath. (Also literal. Able to can be replaced with can.) □ Now that the lion has been caught, we'll be able to breathe freely again. □ Now that the annual sale is over, the sales staff will be able to breathe again. □ Final exams are over, so I can breathe easily again.

able to breathe (freely) again Go to able to breathe (easily) again.

able to do something blindfolded AND able to do something standing on one's head able to do something easily and quickly, possibly without even looking. (Informal. Able to can be replaced with can.) □ Bill boasted that he could pass his driver's test blindfolded. □ Mary is very good with computers. She can program blindfolded. □ Dr. Jones is a great surgeon. He can take out an appendix standing on his head.

able to do something standing on one's head Go to able to do something blindfolded.

able to do something with one's eyes closed able to do something very easily, even without having to think about it or look at it. (Also literal. Also with can. Always affirmative.) □ It's easy. I can do it with my eyes closed. □ I can clean the house with my eyes closed! It's easy!

able to fog a mirror alive, even if just barely. (Usually jocular. Refers to the use of a small mirror placed under one's nose to tell if one is breathing or not.) □ Look, I don't need an athlete to do this job. Anybody able to fog a mirror will do fine! □ I'm so tired this morning, I feel like I'm hardly able to fog a mirror.

able to make something able to attend an event. (Also literal. Informal. Able to can be replaced with can.) □ I don't think I'll be able to make your party, but thanks for asking me. □ We are having another one next month. We hope you can make it then.

able to take a joke to be able to accept ridicule good-naturedly; to be the object or butt of a joke willingly. (Able to can be replaced with can.) □ Let's play a trick on Bill and see if he's able to take a joke. □ Better not tease Ann. She can't take a joke.

able to take just so much able to endure only a limited amount of discomfort. (Able to can be replaced with can.) □ Please stop hurting my feelings. I'm able to take just so much before I get angry. □ I can take just so much.

able to take something able to endure something; able to endure abuse. (Often in the negative. Able to can be replaced with can. See also the previous entry.) □ Stop yelling like that. I'm not able to take it anymore. □ Go ahead, hit me again. I can take it.

above and beyond (something) more than is required. □ Her efforts were above and beyond. We appreciate her time. □ All this extra time is above and beyond her regular hours.

(above and) beyond the call of duty in addition to what is required; more than is required in one's job. □ We didn't expect the police officer to drive us home. That was above and beyond the call of duty. □ The English teacher helped students after school every day, even though it was beyond the call of duty.

above average higher or better than the average. □ Max's grades are always above average. □ His intelligence is clearly above average.

above par better than average or normal. □ His work is above par, so he should get paid better. □ Your chances of winning the game are a little above par.

above reproach not deserving of blame or criticism. □ Some politicians behave as though they are above reproach. □ You must accept your punishment. You are not above reproach.

above suspicion honest enough that no one would suspect you; to be in a position where you could not be suspected. □ The general is a fine old man, completely above suspicion. □ Mary was at work at the time of the accident, so she's above suspicion.

aboveboard AND honest and aboveboard; open and aboveboard in the open; visible to the public; honest. (Especially with keep, as in the examples below.) □ Don't keep it a secret. Let's make sure that everything is aboveboard. □ You can do whatever you wish, as long as you keep it honest and aboveboard. □ The in- spector had to make sure that everything was open and aboveboard.

absent without leave AND AWOL absent from a military unit without permission; absent from anything without permission. (AWOL is an abbreviation. This is a serious offense in the military.) □ The soldier was taken away by the military police because he was absent without leave. □ John was AWOL from school and got into a lot of trouble with his parents.

according to all accounts AND by all accounts from all the reports; everyone is saying. □ According to all accounts, the police were on the scene immediately. □ According to all accounts, the meeting broke up over a very minor matter. □ By all accounts, it was a very poor performance.

according to Hoyle according to the rules; in keeping with the way it is normally done. (Refers to the rules for playing games. Edmond Hoyle wrote a book about games. This expression is usually used for something other than games.) □ That's wrong. According to Hoyle, this is the way to do it. □ The carpenter said, "This is the way to drive a nail, according to Hoyle."

according to one's own lights according to the way one believes; according to the way one's conscience or inclinations lead one. (Rarely used informally.) □ People must act on this matter according to their own lights. □ John may have been wrong, but he did what he did according to his own lights.

according to someone or something as said or indicated by someone or something. □ According to the weather forecast, this should be a beautiful day. □ According to my father, this is a very good car to buy. □ It's too cold to go for a walk, according to the thermometer.

according to something in proportion to something. □ You will get paid according to the number of hours that you work. □ The doctor charges patients according to their ability to pay.

accustomed to someone or something used to or comfortable with someone or something; accepting of someone or something as common and usual. ☐ We were accustomed to wearing shoes. ☐ They aren't accustomed to paying a visit without bringing a gift. ☐ I'll never become accustomed to you.

[ace in the hole] Go to someone's ace in the hole.

an aching heart the feeling of distress because of love that is lost or has faded away, described as being in the heart, where love is said to reside. ☐ I try to tell my aching heart that I don't love him. ☐ There is no medicine for an aching heart.

acid test a test whose findings are beyond doubt or dispute. (Refers to a chemical test that shows whether a metal is gold.) ☐ Her new husband seems generous, but the acid test will be if he lets her mother stay with them. ☐ The senator isn't very popular just now, but the acid test will be if he gets reelected.

acknowledge receipt (of something) to inform the sender that what was sent was received. (Commonly used in business correspondence.) ☐ In a letter to a shoe company, Mary wrote, "I'm happy to acknowledge receipt of four dozen pairs of shoes." ☐ John acknowledged receipt of the bill. ☐ The package hasn't arrived, so I'm unable to acknowledge receipt.

acknowledge someone to be right to admit or state that someone is correct about something. ☐ Mary acknowledged Bill to be right about the name of the store. ☐ Bill said that the car was useless, and the mechanic acknowledged him to be right.

acquire a taste for something to develop a liking for food, drink, or something else; to learn to like something. ☐ One acquires a taste for fine wines. ☐ Many people are never able to acquire a taste for foreign food. ☐ Mary acquired a taste for art when she was very young.

across the board equally for everyone or everything. ☐ The school board raised the pay of all the teachers across the board. ☐ Congress cut the budget by reducing the money for each department 10 percent across the board.

act as someone to perform in the capacity of someone, temporarily or permanently. ☐ I'll act as your supervisor until Mrs. Brown returns from vacation. ☐ This is Mr. Smith. He'll act as manager from now on.

act high-and-mighty to act proud and powerful. (Informal.) ☐ Why does the doctor always have to act so high-and-mighty? ☐ If Sally wouldn't act so high-and-mighty, she'd have more friends.

an act of faith an act or deed demonstrating religious faith; an act or deed showing trust in someone or something. ☐ He lit candles in church as an act of faith. ☐ For him to trust you with his safety was a real act of faith.

an act of God an occurrence (usually an accident) for which no human is responsible; a dramatic act of nature such as a storm, an earthquake, or a windstorm. ☐ My insurance company wouldn't pay for the damage because it was an act of God. ☐ The thief tried to convince the judge that the diamonds were in his pocket due to an act of God.

an act of war an international act of violence for which war is considered a suitable response; any hostile act between two people. ☐ To bomb a ship is an act of war. ☐ Can spying be considered an act of war? ☐ "You just broke my stereo," yelled John. "That's an act of war!"

act one's age to behave more maturely; to act as grown-up as one really is. (This is frequently said to a child.) ☐ Come on, John, act your age. Stop throwing rocks. ☐ Mary! Stop picking on your little brother. Act your age!

act something out to perform an imaginary event as if one were in a play. ☐ Bill always acted his anger out by shouting and pounding his fists. ☐ The psychiatrist asked Bill to act out the way he felt about getting fired.

act up to misbehave; to run or act badly. ☐ John, why do you always have to act up when your father and I take you out to eat? ☐ My arthritis is acting up. It really hurts.

□ My car is acting up. I could hardly get it started this morning.

Actions speak louder than words. It is better to do something about a problem than just talk about it. (Proverb.) □ Mary kept promising to get a job. John finally looked her in the eye and said, “Actions speak louder than words!” □ After listening to the senator promising to cut federal spending, Ann wrote a simple note saying, “Actions speak louder than words.”

add fuel to the fire AND add fuel to the flame to make a problem worse; to say or do something that makes a bad situation worse; to make an angry person even more angry. (Also literal.) □ To spank a crying child just adds fuel to the fire. □ Bill was shouting angrily, and Bob tried to get him to stop by laughing at him. Of course, that was just adding fuel to the flame.

add fuel to the flame Go to add fuel to the fire.

add insult to injury to make a bad situation worse; to hurt the feelings of a person who has already been hurt. □ First, the basement flooded, and then, to add insult to injury, a pipe burst in the kitchen. □ My car barely started this morning, and to add insult to injury, I got a flat tire in the driveway.

add up (to something) 1. to total up to a particular amount. □ The bill added up to $200. □ These groceries will add up to almost sixty dollars. □ These numbers just won’t add up. 2. to mean something; to signify or represent something; to result in something. □ All this adds up to trouble! □ I don’t understand. What does all this add up to? □ If you think about it carefully, these facts add up perfectly.

address someone as something 1. to talk to or write to a person, using a particular title. □ They addressed Abraham Lincoln as “Mr. President.” □ A physician is usually addressed as “Doctor.” 2. to treat a person you are talking with in a particular manner. □ You should address him as your equal. □ Do not address me as your superior.

advanced in years Go to up in years.

advise against something to suggest that something not be done. □ I advised against quitting work early. □ Lisa always advises against hasty actions.

advise someone against doing something to supply someone with a suggestion of not doing something. □ I advised Bill against quitting his job. □ Lisa advised Tom against doing it.

an affinity for someone or something a strong preference for something; a strong liking for something. □ Cats have an affinity for seafood. □ Mary’s affinity for classical music accounts for her large collection of recordings.

afraid of one’s own shadow easily frightened; always frightened, timid, or suspicious. □ After Tom was robbed, he was even afraid of his own shadow. □ Jane has always been a shy child. She has been afraid of her own shadow since she was three.

after a fashion in a manner that is just barely adequate; poorly. □ He thanked me—after a fashion—for my help. □ Oh, yes, I can swim, after a fashion.

after all 1. anyway; in spite of what had been decided. (Often refers to a change in plans or a reversal of plans.) □ Mary had planned to go to the bank first, but she came here after all. □ It looks like Tom will go to law school after all. 2. remember; consider the fact that. □ Don’t punish Tommy! After all, he’s only three years old! □ After all, we really didn’t hurt anyone!

after all is said and done when everything is settled or concluded; finally. (See also when all is said and done.) □ After all was said and done, it was a lovely party. □ After all is said and done, it will turn out just as I said.

after hours after the regular closing time; after any normal or regular time, such as one’s bedtime. □ John was arrested in a bar after hours. □ The soldier was caught sneaking into the barracks after hours. □ John got a job sweeping floors in the bank after hours.

after the fact after something has happened; after something, especially a crime, has taken place. (Primarily a legal phrase.) □ John is always making excuses after the fact. □ Remember to lock your car whenever you leave it. If it's stolen, there is nothing you can do after the fact.

after the fashion of someone or something in the manner or style of someone or something. (See also after a fashion.) □ She walks down the street after the fashion of a grand lady. □ The church was built after the fashion of an English cathedral.

again and again repeatedly; again and even more. □ I like going to the beach, and I will go back again and again. □ He knocked on the door again and again until I finally answered.

against someone's will without a person's consent or agreement. □ You cannot force me to come with you against my will! □ Against their will, the men were made to stand up against the wall and be searched.

against the clock in a race with time; in a great hurry to get something done before a particular time. (See also race against time.) □ Bill set a new track record, running against the clock. He lost the actual race, however. □ In a race against the clock, they rushed the special medicine to the hospital.

ahead of one's time having ideas or attitudes that are too advanced to be acceptable to or appreciated by the society in which one is living. □ People buy that artist's work now, but his paintings were laughed at when he was alive. He was ahead of his time. □ Mary's grandmother was ahead of her time in wanting to study medicine.

ahead of schedule having done something before the time listed on the schedule. □ I want to be able to finish the job ahead of schedule. □ We don't have to rush because we are ahead of schedule.

ahead of the game being early; having an advantage over a situation; having done more than necessary. (Informal or slang.) □ Whenever we go to a movie, we show up ahead of the game and have to wait. □ Bill has to study math very hard to keep ahead of the game. □ Bob does extra work so he's always ahead of the game.

ahead of time beforehand; before the announced time. □ If you show up ahead of time, you will have to wait. □ Be there ahead of time if you want to get a good seat.

aid and abet someone to help someone; to incite someone to do something that is wrong. □ He was scolded for aiding and abetting the boys who were fighting. □ It's illegal to aid and abet a thief.

aim to do something to mean to do something; to intend to do something in the future. (Folksy.) □ I aim to paint the house as soon as I can find a brush. □ He aims to take a few days off and go fishing.

Ain't it the truth? Isn't that just the way it is?; I agree with you completely. (Informal.) □ A: Things aren't the way they used to be in the good old days. B: Ain't it the truth? □ A: You just can't buy good shoes anymore. B: Ain't it the truth?

air one's dirty linen in public AND wash one's dirty linen in public to discuss private or embarrassing matters in public, especially when quarreling. (This linen refers to sheets and tablecloths or other soiled cloth.) □ John's mother had asked him repeatedly not to air the family's dirty linen in public. □ Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are arguing again. Why must they always air their dirty linen in public? □ Jean will talk to anyone about her financial problems. Why does she wash her dirty linen in public?

air one's grievances to complain; to make a public complaint. □ I know how you feel, John, but it isn't necessary to air your grievances over and over. □ I know you're busy, sir, but I must air my grievances. This matter is very serious.

air something out to freshen up something by placing it in the open air; to freshen a room by letting air move through it. □ It's so stale in here. Mary, please open a window and air this place out. □ Please take this pillow outside and air it out. □ I'll have to air out the car. Someone has been smoking in it.

alive and kicking AND alive and well well and healthy. (Informal.) □ JANE: How is Bill? MARY: Oh, he's alive and kicking. □ The last time I saw Tom, he was alive and well.

alive and well Go to alive and kicking.

alive with someone or something covered with, filled with, or active with people or things. □ Look! Ants everywhere. The floor is alive with ants! □ When we got to the ballroom, the place was alive with dancing. □ The campground was alive with campers from all over the country.

all and sundry everyone; one and all. (Folksy.) □ Cold drinks were served to all and sundry. □ All and sundry came to the village fair.

all around Robin Hood's barn going somewhere not by a direct route; going way out of the way [to get somewhere]; by a long and circuitous route. □ We had to go all around Robin Hood's barn to get to the little town. □ She walked all around Robin Hood's barn looking for a shop that sold Finnish glassware.

all at once 1. suddenly. □ All at once the chair broke, and Bob fell to the floor. □ All at once she tripped on a stone. 2. all at the same time. □ The entire group spoke all at once. □ They were trying to cook dinner, clean house, and paint the closet all at once.

(all) at sea (about something) confused; lost and bewildered. □ Mary is all at sea about getting married. □ When it comes to higher math, John is totally at sea.

(all) balled up troubled; confused; in a mess. (Slang.) □ Look at you! You're really all balled up! □ John is all balled up because his car was stolen. □ Of course this typewriter won't work. It's all balled up.

(all) beer and skittles all fun and pleasure; easy and pleasant. (Skittles is the game of ninepins, a game similar to bowling.) □ Life isn't all beer and skittles, you know! □ For Sam, college was beer and skittles. He wasted a lot of time and money.

all better now improved; cured. (Folksy or juvenile.) □ My leg was sore, but it's all better now. □ I fell off my tricycle and bumped my knee. Mommy kissed it, and it's all better now.

all day long throughout the day; during the entire day. □ We waited for you at the station all day long. □ I can't keep smiling all day long.

all dressed up dressed in one's best clothes; dressed formally. □ We're all dressed up to go out to dinner. □ I really hate to get all dressed up just to go somewhere to eat.

all for something very much in favor of something. (For is usually emphasized.) □ Bill is all for stopping off to get ice cream. □ Mary suggested that they sell their house. They weren't all for it, but they did it anyway.

(all) for the best good in spite of the way it seems now; better than you think. (Often said when someone dies after a serious illness.) □ I'm very sorry to hear of the death of your aunt. Perhaps it's for the best. □ I didn't get into the college I wanted, but I couldn't afford it anyway. It's probably all for the best.

all gone used up; finished; over with. □ Oh, the strawberry jelly is all gone. □ We used to have wonderful parties, but those days are all gone.

all in tired; exhausted; all tuckered out. □ I just walked all the way from town. I'm all in. □ "What a day!" said Sally. "I'm all in."

all in a day's work part of what is expected; typical or normal. (Also literal.) □ I don't particularly like to cook, but it's all in a day's work. □ Putting up with rude customers isn't pleasant, but it's all in a day's work. □ Cleaning up after other people is all in a day's work for a chambermaid.

all in all considering everything that has happened; in summary and in spite of any unpleasantness. □ All in all, it was a very good party. □ All in all, I'm glad that I visited New York City.

all in good time at some future time; in good time; soon. (This phrase is used to encourage people to be patient and wait quietly.) □ When will the baby be born? All in good time. □ MARY: I'm starved! When will Bill get here with the pizza? TOM: All in good time, Mary, all in good time.

(all) in one breath spoken rapidly, usually while one is very excited. (Also literal.) □ Ann said all in one breath, "Hurry, quick! The parade is coming!" □ Jane was in a play, and she was so excited that she said her whole speech in one breath. □ Tom can say the alphabet all in one breath.

all in one piece safely; without damage. (Informal.) □ Her son come home from school all in one piece, even though he had been in a fight. □ The package was handled carelessly, but the vase inside arrived all in one piece.

(all) in the family restricted to one's own family, as with private or embarrassing information. (Especially with keep.) □ Don't tell anyone else. Please keep it all in the family. □ He only told his brother because he wanted it to remain in the family.

(all) joking aside AND (all) kidding aside being serious for a moment; in all seriousness. □ I know I laugh at him but, joking aside, he's a very clever scientist. □ I know I threatened to leave and go round the world, but, joking aside, I need a vacation.

(all) kidding aside Go to (all) joking aside.

all kinds of someone or something a great number of people or things; a great amount of something, especially money. (Informal. Also literal, meaning "all types.") □ There were all kinds of people there, probably thousands. □ The Smith family has all kinds of money.

all manner of someone or something all types of people or things. □ We saw all manner of people there. They came from every country in the world. □ They were selling all manner of things in the country store.

all night long throughout the whole night. □ I couldn't sleep all night long. □ John was sick all night long.

all of a sudden suddenly. □ All of a sudden, lightning struck the tree we were sitting under. □ I felt a sharp pain in my side all of a sudden.

all or nothing 1. everything or nothing at all. □ Sally would not accept only part of the money. She wanted all or nothing. □ I can't bargain over trifles. I will have to have all or nothing. 2. time to choose to do something or not to do it. □ It was all or nothing. Tim had to jump off the truck or risk drowning when the truck went into the water. □ Jane stood at the door of the airplane and checked her parachute. It was all or nothing now. She had to jump or be looked upon as a coward.

an all-out effort a very good and thorough effort. (See also make an all-out effort.) □ We need an all-out effort to get this job done on time. □ The government began an all-out effort to reduce the federal budget.

all-out war total war, as opposed to small, warlike acts or threats of war. □ We are now concerned about all-out war in the Middle East. □ Threats of all-out war caused many tourists to leave the country immediately.

all over 1. finished; dead. (Compare this with (all) over with.) □ Dinner is all over. I'm sorry you didn't get any. □ It's all over. He's dead now. 2. everywhere. (See also all over the earth.) □ Oh, I just itch all over. □ She's spreading the rumor all over.

(all) over again starting over completely again; going through something completely yet another time. □ Do I have to go through this all over again? □ Please start over again for those who came in late.

all over but the shouting essentially decided and concluded. (An elaboration of all over, which means "finished.") □ The last goal was made just as the final whistle sounded. Tom said, "Well, it's all over but the shouting." □ Tom worked hard in college and graduated last month. When he got his diploma, he said, "It's all over but the shouting."

all over the earth AND all over the world everywhere. □ Grass grows all over the earth. □ It's the same way all over the world.

all over the place everywhere; in all parts of a particular location. □ Tom, stop leaving your dirty clothes all over the place. □ We keep finding this kind of problem all over the place.

all over the world Go to all over the earth.

all over town 1. everywhere in town. □ Our dog got loose and ran all over town. □ Jane looked all over town for a dress to wear to the party. 2. known to everyone. □ Now keep this a secret. I don't want it all over town. □ In a short time the secret was known all over town.

(all) over with finished. (See also all over.) □ His problems are all over with now. □ After dinner is all over with, we can play cards.

all right 1. well, good, or okay, but not excellent. (Informal. This phrase has all the uses that okay has.) □ I was a little sick, but now I'm all right. □ His work is all right, but nothing to brag about. □ All right, it's time to go. 2. beyond a doubt; as the evidence shows. □ The dog's dead all right. It hasn't moved at all. □ The train's late all right. It hasn't been late in months. 3. hooray. (An exclamation of joy or encouragement.) □ The Bears won! All right! □ All right! That's the way to do it!

All right for you! That's it for you!; That's the last chance for you! (Juvenile and informal. Usually said by a child who is angry with a playmate.) □ All right for you, John. See if I ever play with you again. □ All right for you! I'm telling your mother what you did.

all right with someone agreeable to someone. □ If you want to ruin your life and marry Tom, it's all right with me. □ I'll see if it's all right with my father.

all set ready to begin; okay. (See also (all) set to do something.) □ TOM: Is everything all right? JANE: Yes, we are all set. □ We are ready to leave now. Are you all set?

(all) set to do something prepared or ready to do something. (See also all set.) □ Are you set to cook the steaks? □ Yes, the fire is ready, and I'm all set to start.

(all) shot to hell totally ruined. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ My car is all shot to hell and can't be depended on. □ This knife is shot to hell. I need a sharper one.

(all) skin and bones Go to nothing but skin and bones.

all sweetness and light very sweet, innocent, and helpful. (Perhaps insincerely so.) □ She was mad at first, but after a while, she was all sweetness and light. □ At the reception, the whole family was all sweetness and light, but they argued and fought after the guests left.

all systems (are) go everything is ready. (Informal. Originally said when preparing to launch a rocket.) □ The rocket is ready to blast off—all systems are go. □ TOM: Are you guys ready to start playing? BILL: Sure, Tom, all systems go.

all talk (and no action) talking about doing something, but never actually doing it. □ The car needs washing, but Bill is all talk and no action on this matter. □ Bill keeps saying he'll get a job soon, but he's all talk and no action. □ Bill won't do it. He's just all talk.

All that glitters is not gold. Many attractive and alluring things have no value. (Proverb.) □ The used car looked fine but didn't run well at all. "Ah, yes," thought Bill, "all that glitters is not gold." □ When Mary was disappointed about losing Tom, Jane reminded her, "All that glitters is not gold."

all the livelong day throughout the whole day. (Folksy.) □ They kept at their work all the livelong day. □ Bob just sat by the creek fishing, all the livelong day.

all the rage in current fashion. □ A new dance called the "floppy disc" is all the rage. □ Wearing a rope instead of a belt is all the rage these days.

all the same AND just the same nevertheless; anyhow. □ They were told not to bring presents, but they brought them all the same. □ His parents said no, but John went out just the same.

all the same (to someone) AND just the same (to someone) of no consequence to someone; immaterial to someone. □ It's all the same to me whether we win or lose. □ If it's just the same to you, I'd rather walk than ride. □ If it's all the same, I'd rather you didn't smoke.

all the time 1. throughout a specific period of time. □ Bill was stealing money for the last two years, and Tom knew it all the time. □ Throughout December and January, Jane had two jobs all the time. 2. at all times; continuously. □ Your blood keeps flowing all the time. □ That electric motor runs all the time. 3. repeatedly; habitually. □ She keeps a handkerchief in her hand all the time. □ She hums softly all the time.

all the way from the beginning to the end; the entire distance, from start to finish. (See also go all the way (with someone).) □ The ladder reaches all the way to the top of the house. □ I walked all the way home.

all thumbs awkward and clumsy, especially with one's hands. □ Poor Bob can't play the piano at all. He's all thumbs. □ Mary is all thumbs when it comes to gardening.

all told totaled up; including all parts. □ All told, he earned about $700 last week. □ All told, he has many fine characteristics.

all to the good for the best; for one's benefit. □ He missed the train, but it was all to the good because the train had a wreck. □ It was all to the good that he died without suffering.

(all) tuckered out tired out; worn out. (Folksy.) □ Poor John worked so hard that he's all tuckered out. □ Look at that little baby sleeping. She's really tuckered out.

all walks of life all social, economic, and ethnic groups. □ We saw people there from all walks of life. □ The people who came to the art exhibit represented all walks of life.

(all) well and good good; desirable. □ It's well and good that you're here on time. I was afraid you'd be late again. □ It's all well and good that you're passing English, but what about math and science?

all wet mistaken; wrongheaded; on the wrong track. (Also literal.) □ It's not that way, John. You're all wet. □ If you think that prices will come down, you're all wet.

all wool and a yard wide genuine; genuinely warmhearted and friendly. (Informal and folksy. Refers to cloth that is 100 percent wool and exactly one yard wide.) □ Old Bob is a true gentleman—all wool and a yard wide. □ The banker, hardly all wool and a yard wide, wouldn't give us a loan.

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. One should have recreation as well as work. (Proverb. Jack does not refer to anyone in particular. The phrase can be used for persons of either sex.) □ Stop reading that book and go out and play! All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. □ The doctor told Mr. Jones to stop working on weekends and start playing golf, because all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

(all) worked up (about something) Go to (all) worked up (over something).

(all) worked up (over something) AND (all) worked up (about something) excited and agitated about something. (See also get worked up (over something).) □ Tom is all worked up over the threat of a new war. □ Don't get all worked up about something that you can't do anything about. □ Bill is all worked up again. It's bad for his health.

(all) year round throughout all the seasons of the year; during the entire year. □ The public swimming pool is enclosed so that it can be used all year round. □ In the South they can grow flowers all year round.

allow for someone or something 1. to plan on having enough of something (such as food, space, etc.) for someone. □ Mary is bringing Bill on the picnic, so be sure to allow for him when buying the food. □ Allow for an extra person when setting the table tonight. 2. to plan on the possibility of something. □ Allow for a few rainy days on your vacation. □ Be sure to allow for future growth when you plant the rosebushes.

All's well that ends well. An event that has a good ending is considered good, even if some things went wrong along the way. (Proverb. This is the name of a play by Shakespeare.) □ I'm glad you finally got here, even though your car had a flat tire on the way. Oh, well. All's well that ends well. □ The groom was late for the wedding, but everything worked out all right. All's well that ends well.

the almighty dollar the U.S. dollar, worshiped as a god; money, viewed as more important and powerful than anything else. □ Bill was a slave to the almighty dollar. □ It's the almighty dollar that drives the whole country.

almost lost it having been so angry or distraught as to nearly lose one's temper, composure, or control. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I was so mad, I almost lost it. □ When he saw the dent in his fender, he almost lost it.

along in years Go to up in years.

along with someone or something in addition to someone or something; together with someone or something. □ Jane went to the mall along with David. □ I ate some chocolates along with some fruit.

alongside (of) someone or something as compared to a person or a thing. (Also literal. Informal. The things being compared need not be beside one another.) □ Our car looks quite small alongside of theirs. □ My power of concentration is quite limited alongside of yours.

alpha and omega both the beginning and the end; the essentials, from the beginning to the end; everything, from the beginning to the end. (Refers to the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet.) □ He was forced to learn the alpha and omega of corporate law in order to even talk to the lawyers. □ He loved her deeply; she was his alpha and omega.

amount to something [for someone or something] to be or to become valuable or successful. □ Most parents hope that their children will amount to something. □ I put $200 in the bank, and I hope it will amount to something in twenty years.

amount to the same thing AND come to the same thing to be the same as something; to have the same effect as something. □ Borrowing can be the same as stealing. If the owner does not know what you have borrowed, it amounts to the same thing. □ Beer, wine. They come to the same thing if you drink and drive.

[an] <Entries beginning with a, an, or the are alphabetized under the second word in the entry. That means that a bed of roses will appear in the Bs.>

and change [some number of dollars] plus between 1 and 99 cents more. □ The book cost $12.49. That's twelve dollars and change. □ Subway fare is now one dollar and change.

and so forth continuing talking in the same way; and so on. □ She told me everything about her kids and so on and so forth. □ I heard about problems at work and so forth.

and something to spare AND with something to spare with extra left over; with more than is needed. (With something, time, room, money, plenty, etc.) □ I had as much flour as I needed with something to spare. □ Fred said he should have enough cash to last the week—with money to spare.

and so on continuing on in the same way [without saying all the details]; continuing to talk, saying more and more. □ He told me about all his health problems, including his arthritis and so on. □ I need some help getting ready for dinner, setting the table, and so on.

and the like and similar things or people. □ I eat hamburgers, hot dogs, and the like. □ I bought shirts, pants, socks, and the like.

and then some and even more; more than has been mentioned. (Folksy.) □ John is going to have to run like a deer and then some to win this race. □ The cook put the amount of salt called for into the soup and then some.

and what have you and so on; and other similar things. □ Their garage is full of bikes, sleds, old boots, and what have you. □ The merchant sells writing paper, pens, string, and what have you.

angry enough to chew nails Go to mad enough to chew nails.

another country heard from  □ Jane and Bill were discussing business when Bob interrupted to offer an opinion. "Another country heard from," said Jane. □ In the middle of the discussion, the baby started crying. "Another country heard from," said Tom.

(another) nail in someone's or something's coffin something that will harm or destroy someone or something. □ Every word of criticism that Bob said about the boss was a nail in his coffin. □ Losing the export order was the final nail in the company's coffin.

answer for someone or something [with something] to assume responsibility for something. (Also literal.) □ John had to answer for the theft of the bicycle since it was found at his house. □ Someday we'll all have to answer for our wrongdoings.

answer someone's purpose AND serve someone's purpose to fit or suit someone's purpose. □ This piece of wood will answer my purpose quite nicely. □ The new car serves our purpose perfectly.

answer the door [after hearing the doorbell or a knock] to go to the door to see who is there. □ Would you please answer the door? I am busy. □ I wish someone would answer the door. I can't wait all day.

answer to someone to explain to someone; to justify one's actions to someone. (Usually with have to.) □ If John cannot behave properly, he'll have to answer to me. □ The car thief will have to answer to the judge.

any number of someone or something a large number; a sufficiently large number. (Used when the exact number is not important.) □ Any number of people can vouch for my honesty. □ I can give you any number of reasons why I should join the army. □ I ate there any number of times and never became ill.

Any port in a storm. When one is in difficulties one must accept any way out, whether one likes the solution or not. (Proverb.) □ I don't want to live with my parents, but it's a case of any port in a storm. I can't find an apartment. □ He hates his job, but he can't get another. Any port in a storm, you know.

appear as something to act a certain part in a play, opera, etc. □ Madame Smith-Franklin appeared as Carmen at the City Opera last season. □ The actor refused to appear as a villain in the play.

appear out of nowhere to appear suddenly, without warning. (Almost the same as come out of nowhere.) □ A huge bear appeared out of nowhere and roared and threatened us. □ A butler appeared out of nowhere and took our coats.

the apple of someone's eye someone's favorite person or thing; a boyfriend or a girlfriend. □ Tom is the apple of Mary's eye. She thinks he's great. □ John's new stereo is the apple of his eye.

apples and oranges a pair of people or things representing two entities that are not similar. □ You can't talk about Fred and Ted in the same breath! They're apples and oranges. □ Talking about her current book and her previous best-seller is like comparing apples and oranges.

arguing for the sake of arguing AND arguing for the sake of argument simply arguing to be difficult or contrary. □ You are just arguing for the sake of arguing. You don't even know what the issue is. □ He is annoying, because he is always arguing for the sake of argument.

arguing for the sake of argument Go to arguing for the sake of arguing.

arm in arm linked or hooked together by the arms. □ The two lovers walked arm in arm down the street. □ Arm in arm, the line of dancers kicked high, and the audience roared its approval.

armed and dangerous said of an armed person who is suspected of a crime and has not been captured and who is likely to resist arrest. (This is a warning to police officers.) □ Max is at large, presumed to be armed and dangerous. □ The suspect has killed once and is armed and dangerous.

armed to the teeth heavily armed with deadly weapons. □ The bank robber was armed to the teeth when he was caught. □ There are too many guns around. The entire country is armed to the teeth.

(a)round the clock continuously for twenty-four hours at a time; all day and all night. □ The priceless jewels were guarded around the clock. □ Grandfather was so sick that he had to have nurses round the clock.

(a)round-the-clock constant; day and night. (Adjective.) □ Grandfather required around-the-clock care. □ I tuned into the around-the-clock news station.

arrange something with someone 1. AND arrange to do something with someone to plan an event so as to include another person or persons. □ Jane arranged a meeting with Ann. □ Bill arranged to go to the station with Tom and Mary. 2. to get someone's consent for something. □ Mary arranged the entire affair with her employer. □ The new mother arranged the christening with the pastor.

arrange to do something with someone Go to arrange something with someone.

arrive in a body Go to come in a body.

arrive on the scene Go to come on the scene.

as a duck takes to water easily and naturally. (Informal.) □ She took to singing just as a duck takes to water. □ The baby adapted to bottle-feeding as a duck takes to water.

as a (general) rule usually; almost always. □ He can be found in his office as a general rule. □ As a general rule, Jane plays golf on Wednesdays. □ As a rule, things tend to get less busy after supper time.

as a last resort as the last choice; if everything else fails. □ Call the doctor at home only as a last resort. □ As a last resort, she will perform surgery.

as alike as (two) peas in a pod very similar. (Compare this with like (two) peas in a pod.) □ The twins are as alike as two peas in a pod. □ These two books are as alike as peas in a pod.

as a matter of course normally; as a normal procedure. □ The nurse takes your temperature as a matter of course. □ You are expected to make your own bed as a matter of course.

as a matter of fact actually; in addition to what has been said; in reference to what has been said. (See also matter-of-fact.) □ As a matter of fact, John came into the room while you were talking about him. □ I'm not a poor worker. As a matter of fact, I'm very efficient.

as an aside as a comment; as a comment that is not supposed to be heard by everyone. □ At the wedding, Tom said as an aside, "The bride doesn't look well." □ At the ballet, Billy said as an aside to his mother, "I hope the dancers fall off the stage!"

as a result of something because of something that has happened. □ As a result of the accident, Tom couldn't walk for six months. □ We couldn't afford to borrow money for a house as a result of the rise in interest rates.

as a token (of something) symbolic of something, especially of gratitude; as a memento of something. □ He gave me a rose as a token of the time we spent together. □ Here, take this $100 as a token of my appreciation. □ I can't thank you enough. Please accept this money as a token.

(as) awkward as a cow on a crutch AND (as) awkward as a cow on roller skates very awkward. □ When Lulu was pregnant, she was awkward as a cow on a crutch. □ Tom will never be a gymnast. He's as awkward as a cow on roller skates!

(as) awkward as a cow on roller skates Go to (as) awkward as a cow on a crutch.

(as) bad as all that as bad as reported; as bad as it seems. (Usually expressed in the negative.) □ Come on! Nothing could be as bad as all that. □ Stop crying. It can't be as bad as all that.

(as) bald as a baby's backside Go to (as) bald as a coot.

(as) bald as a coot AND (as) bald as a baby's backside completely bald. □ If Tom's hair keeps receding like that, he'll be bald as a coot by the time he's thirty. □ FRED: Now, I'll admit my hair is thinning a little on the top, but— JANE: Thinning? You're not thinning, you're as bald as a baby's backside!

(as) baleful as death promising evil; very threatening. □ The wind's moan was as baleful as death. □ His voice sounded baleful as death.

(as) big as all outdoors very big, usually referring to a space of some kind. (Folksy.) □ You should see Bob's living room. It's as big as all outdoors. □ The new movie theater is as big as all outdoors.

(as) big as life AND (as) big as life and twice as ugly an exaggerated way of saying that a person or a thing appeared in a particular place. (Folksy. The second phrase is slang.) □ The little child just stood there as big as life and laughed very hard. □ I opened the door, and there was Tom as big as life. □ I came home and found this cat in my chair, as big as life and twice as ugly.

(as) big as life and twice as ugly Go to (as) big as life.

(as) black as a skillet black. □ I don't want to go down to the cellar. It's as black as a skillet down there. □ The bruise turned black as a skillet.

(as) black as a stack of black cats very black. □ I'm scared to go into that closet. It's as black as a stack of black cats in there. □ Her hair was black as a stack of black cats.

(as) black as a sweep extremely dirty. (The sweep is a chimney sweep.) □ After playing in the mud all morning, the children were as black as sweeps. □ When Jane came in from working on her car, Alan told her, "Wash before you come to the dinner table. You're black as a sweep!"

(as) black as coal completely black. □ Mark's eyes were as black as coal. □ The stranger's clothes were all black as coal.

(as) black as night very dark and black. □ The ink in this pen is black as night. □ During the eclipse, my room was as black as night.

(as) black as one is painted as evil as described. (Usually negative.) □ The landlord is not as black as he is painted. He seems quite generous. □ Young people are rarely black as they are painted in the media.

(as) black as pitch very black; very dark. □ The night was as black as pitch. □ The rocks seemed black as pitch against the silver sand.

(as) black as the ace of spades very black. (Refers to playing cards.) □ The car was long and shiny and black as the ace of spades. □ Jill's shoes are black as the ace of spades.

(as) blind as a bat with imperfect sight; blind. □ My grandmother is as blind as a bat. □ I'm getting blind as a bat. I can hardly read this page.

(as) bold as brass very bold; bold to the point of rudeness. □ Lisa marched into the manager's office, bold as brass, and demanded her money back. □ The tiny kitten, as bold as brass, began eating the dog's food right in front of the dog's nose.

(as) bright as a button intelligent; quick-minded. (Usually used to describe children.) □ Why, Mrs. Green, your little girl is as bright as a button. □ You can't fool Mandy. She may be only six years old, but she's bright as a button.

(as) bright as a new pin bright and clean; shiny. □ After Nora cleaned the house, it was as bright as a new pin. □ My kitchen floor is bright as a new pin since I started using this new floor wax.

(as) broad as a barn door very broad. □ Jim's backside is as broad as a barn door.

□ The weight-lifter's chest was broad as a barn door.

(as) busy as a beaver AND (as) busy as a bee very busy. □ I don't have time to talk to you. I'm as busy as a beaver. □ You don't look busy as a beaver to me. □ Whenever there is a holiday, we are all as busy as bees getting things ready.

(as) busy as a bee Go to (as) busy as a beaver.

(as) busy as a cat on a hot tin roof full of lively activity; very busy. □ I'm afraid I can't go to lunch with you on Saturday; I'll be busy as a cat on a hot tin roof, between working overtime and the two parties I have to go to. □ Jerry's three part-time jobs kept him as busy as a cat on a hot tin roof.

(as) busy as a hibernating bear not busy at all. □ TOM: I can't go with you. I'm busy. JANE: Yeah. You're as busy as a hibernating bear. □ He lounged on the sofa all day, busy as a hibernating bear.

(as) busy as a one-armed paperhanger very busy. □ My boss keeps me as busy as a one-armed paperhanger. □ I've got plenty of work. I'm busy as a one-armed paperhanger.

(as) busy as Grand Central Station very busy; crowded with customers or other people. (Refers to Grand Central Station in New York City.) □ This house is as busy as Grand Central Station. □ When the tourist season starts, this store is busy as Grand Central Station.

(as) busy as popcorn on a skillet very active. □ She rushed around, as busy as popcorn on a skillet. □ Prying into other folks' business kept him busy as popcorn on a skillet.

(as) calm as a toad in the sun very calm and content. □ She smiled, as calm as a toad in the sun. □ Nothing ruffles him. He's calm as a toad in the sun.

(as) clean as a hound's tooth very clean. (Clean can mean "innocent," as in the first example.) □ John had faith that he would not be convicted for the robbery, since he had been clean as a hound's tooth

since getting out of prison. □ After his mother scrubbed him thoroughly, James was as clean as a hound's tooth.

(as) clean as a whistle very clean. □ The wound isn't infected. It's clean as a whistle. □ I thought the car would be filthy, but it was as clean as a whistle.

(as) clear as a bell very clear and easy to hear. □ I fixed the radio, so now all the stations come in clear as a bell. □ Through the wall, I could hear the neighbors talking, just as clear as a bell.

(as) clear as crystal 1. very clear; transparent. □ The stream was as clear as crystal. □ She cleaned the windowpane until it was clear as crystal. 2. very clear; easy to understand. □ The explanation was as clear as crystal. □ Her lecture was not clear as crystal, but at least it was not dull.

(as) clear as mud not understandable. (Informal.) □ Your explanation is as clear as mud. □ This doesn't make sense. It's clear as mud.

(as) clear as vodka 1. very clear. □ The weather is as clear as vodka. □ The river wasn't exactly as clear as vodka because it had just rained. 2. very understandable. □ Everything he said is as clear as vodka. □ I understand what John said, but everything you say is clear as vodka.

(as) close as two coats of paint close and intimate. □ When Tom and Mary were kids, they were as close as two coats of paint. □ All their lives, the cousins were close as two coats of paint.

(as) cocky as the king of spades boastful; overly proud. (Refers to playing cards.) □ He'd challenge anyone to a fight. He's as cocky as the king of spades. □ She strutted in, cocky as the king of spades.

(as) cold as a witch's caress AND (as) cold as a witch's tit very cold; chilling. (Use caution with tit.) □ The wind was as cold as a witch's caress. □ She gave me a look as cold as a witch's caress.

(as) cold as a witch's tit Go to (as) cold as a witch's caress.

(as) cold as marble Very cold indeed. (Used to describe a person who is either physically or emotionally cold.) □ Raymond took Joanna's hand. It was cold as marble. □ No one ever got a smile out of Caroline, who was as cold as marble.

(as) comfortable as an old shoe very comfortable; very comforting and familiar. □ This old house is fine. It's as comfortable as an old shoe. □ That's a great tradition—comfortable as an old shoe.

(as) common as an old shoe low class; uncouth. □ That trashy girl is just as common as an old shoe. □ Jim may have money, but he's common as an old shoe.

(as) common as dirt vulgar; ill-mannered. □ FRED: Did you notice Mr. Jones blowing his nose into the linen napkin at dinner? ELLEN: I'm not surprised. Everyone knows that the Joneses are as common as dirt. □ Despite Jane's efforts to imitate the manners of the upper class, the town's leading families still considered her common as dirt.

(as) conceited as a barber's cat very conceited; vain. □ Ever since he won that award, he's been as conceited as a barber's cat. □ She's stuck up all right—conceited as a barber's cat.

(as) cool as a cucumber calm and not agitated; with one's wits about one. (Informal.) □ The captain remained as cool as a cucumber as the passengers boarded the lifeboats. □ During the fire the homeowner was cool as a cucumber.

(as) crazy as a betsy bug loony. □ TOM: Susan says she's really the Queen of England. BILL: She's crazy as a betsy bug. □ Ever since his wife left him, Joe's been acting as crazy as a betsy bug.

(as) crazy as a loon very silly; completely insane. (Folksy.) □ If you think you can get away with that, you're as crazy as a loon. □ Poor old John is crazy as a loon.

(as) crazy as a peach-orchard boar loony. □ What's wrong with Jim? He's acting as crazy as a peach-orchard boar. □ Mary's been standing out on the street corner telling everybody the world's about to end. Poor thing—she's crazy as a peach-orchard boar.

(as) crooked as a barrel of fishhooks AND (as) crooked as a fishhook dishonest. □ Don't play cards with him. He's as crooked as a barrel of fishhooks. □ After Jane cheated a few folks, word got around that she was crooked as a fishhook.

(as) crooked as a dog's hind leg dishonest. □ Don't trust John. He's as crooked as a dog's hind leg. □ Mary says all politicians are crooked as a dog's hind leg.

(as) crooked as a fishhook Go to (as) crooked as a barrel of fishhooks.

(as) dead as a dodo dead; no longer in existence. (Informal.) □ Yes, Adolf Hitler is really dead—as dead as a dodo. □ That silly old idea is dead as a dodo.

(as) dead as a doornail dead. (Informal.) □ This fish is as dead as a doornail. □ John kept twisting the chicken's neck even though it was dead as a doornail.

(as) deaf as a post very deaf; profoundly deaf. □ He can't hear a thing you say. He's as deaf as a post. □ Our old dog is deaf as a post and he can't see much either.

(as) different as night and day completely different. □ Although Bobby and Billy are twins, they are as different as night and day. □ Birds and bats appear to be similar, but they are different as night and day.

(as) drunk as a lord AND (as) drunk as a skunk very drunk. □ He came home drunk as a lord again. □ She was as drunk as a lord by the time they left here.

(as) drunk as a skunk Go to (as) drunk as a lord.

(as) dry as a bone completely dry. □ During the drought, the soil was as dry as a bone. □ The dog's water dish was dry as a bone.

(as) dry as dust 1. very dry. □ The bread is as dry as dust. □ When the leaves are dry as dust, they break into powder easily. 2. very dull; very boring. □ This book is as dry as dust. I am going to stop reading it. □ Her lecture was dry as dust—just like her subject.

(as) dull as dishwater AND (as) dull as ditchwater very uninteresting. □ I'm not surprised that he can't find a partner. He's as dull as dishwater. □ Mr. Black's speech was as dull as dishwater.

(as) dull as ditchwater Go to (as) dull as dishwater.

(as) easy as ABC very easy. □ Making apple pie is as easy as ABC. □ Calculus is easy as ABC.

(as) easy as (apple) pie very easy. (Informal.) □ Mountain climbing is as easy as pie. □ Making a simple dress out of cotton cloth is easy as pie.

(as) easy as duck soup very easy; requiring no effort. (Informal. When a duck is cooked, it releases a lot of fat and juices, making a "soup" without effort.) □ Finding your way to the shopping center is easy as duck soup. □ Getting Bob to eat fried chicken is as easy as duck soup.

(as) easy as falling off a log AND (as) easy as rolling off a log very easy. (Folksy.) □ Passing that exam was as easy as falling off a log. □ Getting out of jail was easy as rolling off a log.

(as) easy as rolling off a log Go to (as) easy as falling off a log.

(as) exciting as watching (the) paint dry very, very dull. □ This book is about as exciting as watching paint dry. □ Listening to you is exciting as watching the paint dry.

(as) far as anyone knows AND so far as anyone knows to the limits of anyone's knowledge. (Informal. The anyone can be replaced with a more specific noun or pronoun.) □ As far as anyone knows, this is the last of the great herds of buffalo. □ Far as I know, this is the best one. □ These are the only keys to the house so far as anyone knows.

as far as it goes as much as something does, covers, or accomplishes. (Usually said of something that is inadequate.) □ Your plan is fine as far as it goes. It doesn't seem to take care of everything, though. □ As far as it goes, this law is a good one. It should require stiffer penalties, however.

as far as possible AND so far as possible as much as possible; to whatever degree is possible. □ We must try, as far as possible, to get people to stop smoking in buses. □ As far as possible, the police will issue tickets to all speeding drivers. □ I'll follow your instructions so far as possible.

(as) far as someone or something is concerned AND so far as someone or something is concerned 1. [with someone] for all that someone cares; if someone is to make the decision. □ You can take your old dog and leave as far as I'm concerned. □ Far as I'm concerned, you can get out and never come back. □ So far as I'm concerned, you're okay. 2. [with something] having to do with something; pertaining to something; as for something. □ This bill? As far as that's concerned, the committee will have to take care of it. □ As far as the roof's concerned, it will just have to last another year.

(as) fat as a pig exceptionally fat; grotesquely fat. □ If I don't stop eating this cake, I'll be fat as a pig! □ You really ought to go on a diet; you're as fat as a pig.

(as) fit as a fiddle healthy and physically fit. □ Mary is as fit as a fiddle. □ Tom used to be fit as a fiddle. Look at him now!

(as) flat as a board very flat. (Also used to describe someone's chest or abdomen, referring to well-developed abdominal muscles or to small or absent breasts or pectoral development—in either sex.) □ Jane was flat as a board until she was sixteen, when she suddenly blossomed. □ The terrain in that part of the country is as flat as a board.

(as) flat as a pancake very flat. (Informal.) □ The punctured tire was as flat as a pancake. □ Bobby squashed the ant flat as a pancake.

as for someone or something 1. AND as to someone or something regarding someone or something. □ As for the mayor, he can pay for his own dinner. □ As for you, Bobby, there will be no dessert tonight. □ As for this chair, there is nothing to do but throw it away. □ As to your idea about building a new house, forget it. 2. [with someone] quoting someone; speaking for someone.

 □ As for me, I prefer vegetables to meat. □
As for Tom, he refuses to attend the concert.

(as) free as a bird carefree; completely free. □ Jane is always happy and free as a bird. □ The convict escaped from jail and was as free as a bird for two days. □ In the summer I feel free as a bird.

(as) free as (the) air completely free; without obligations or responsibilities. □ The day I got out of the army, I felt as free as air. □ No, I'm not married. I don't even have a girlfriend. I'm free as the air.

(as) fresh as a daisy very fresh; fresh and alert. □ The morning dew was as fresh as a daisy. □ Sally was fresh as a daisy and cheerful as could be.

(as) full as a tick AND (as) tight as a tick very full of food or drink. (Informal. Refers to a tick that has filled itself full of blood.) □ Little Billy ate and ate until he was as tight as a tick. □ Our cat drank the cream until he became full as a tick.

(as) funny as a barrel of monkeys AND more fun than a barrel of monkeys very funny. (Almost the same as as much fun as a barrel of monkeys.) □ Todd was as funny as a barrel of monkeys. □ The entire evening was funny as a barrel of monkeys. □ The party was more fun than a barrel of monkeys.

(as) funny as a crutch not funny at all. □ Your trick is about as funny as a crutch. Nobody thought it was funny. □ The well-dressed lady slipped and fell in the gutter, which was funny as a crutch.

(as) gaudy as a butterfly gaudy; colorful. □ Marie looked as gaudy as a butterfly in her new dress. □ Michael's scarf is gaudy as a butterfly.

(as) gentle as a lamb very gentle. (Used to describe people.) □ Don't be afraid of Mr. Smith. He may look fierce, but he's as gentle as a lamb. □ Lisa was gentle as a lamb when dealing with children.

(as) good as done the same as being done; almost done. (Other past participles can replace done in this phrase: cooked, dead, finished, painted, typed, etc.) □ This job is as good as done. It'll just take another second. □ Yes, sir, if you hire me to paint your house, it's as good as painted. □ When I hand my secretary a letter to be typed, I know that it's as good as typed right then and there.

(as) good as gold genuine; authentic. □ Mary's promise is as good as gold. □ Yes, this diamond is genuine—good as gold.

as good as one's word obedient to one's promise; dependable in keeping one's promises. □ He was as good as his word. He lent me the books as promised. □ She said she would baby-sit and she was as good as her word.

(as) graceful as a swan very graceful. □ The boat glided out onto the lake as graceful as a swan. □ Jane is graceful as a swan.

(as) gruff as a bear gruff; curt and unsociable. □ I hate to ask Erica questions; she's always gruff as a bear. □ I'm always as gruff as a bear before I've had my first cup of coffee.

(as) happy as a clam happy and content. (Note the variation in the examples. Sometimes with additional phrases, such as in butter sauce or at high tide.) □ Tom sat there smiling, as happy as a clam. □ There they all sat, eating corn on the cob and looking happy as clams.

(as) happy as a lark visibly happy and cheerful. (Note the variation in the examples.) □ Sally walked along whistling, as happy as a lark. □ The children danced and sang, happy as larks.

(as) happy as can be very happy. □ We are both as happy as can be. □ Bob was happy as can be when he won the lottery.

(as) hard as a rock AND (as) hard as stone very hard. □ This cake is as hard as a rock! □ I can't drive a nail into this wood. It's hard as stone.

(as) hard as nails very hard; cold and cruel. (Refers to the nails that are used with a hammer.) □ The old loaf of bread was dried out and became as hard as nails. □ Ann was unpleasant and hard as nails.

(as) hard as stone Go to (as) hard as a rock.

(as) high as a kite AND (as) high as the sky 1. very high. □ The tree grew as high as a kite. □ Our pet bird got outside and flew up high as the sky. 2. drunk or drugged. □ Bill drank beer until he got as high as a kite. □ The thieves were high as the sky on drugs.

(as) high as the sky Go to (as) high as a kite.

(as) hoarse as a crow hoarse. □ After shouting at the team all afternoon, the coach was as hoarse as a crow. □ JILL: Has Bob got a cold? JANE: No, he's always hoarse as a crow.

(as) hot as fire very hot; burning hot. □ I'm afraid Betsy has a high fever. Her forehead is hot as fire. □ In the summertime, the concrete sidewalks feel as hot as fire.

(as) hot as hell very hot. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ It's as hot as hell outside. It must be near 100 degrees. □ I hate to get into a car that has been parked in the sun. It's hot as hell.

(as) hungry as a bear very hungry. (Informal.) □ I'm as hungry as a bear. I could eat anything! □ Whenever I jog, I get hungry as a bear.

(as) hungry as a hunter very hungry. □ Is there anything to eat? I've been out hoeing my garden all morning, and I'm as hungry as a hunter! □ We'd better have a big meal ready by the time Tommy gets home; he's always hungry as a hunter after soccer practice.

as I expected Go to (just) as I expected.

(as) innocent as a lamb guiltless; naive. □ "Hey! You can't throw me in jail," cried the robber. "I'm innocent as a lamb." □ Look at the baby, as innocent as a lamb.

as it were as one might say. (Sometimes used to qualify an assertion that may not sound reasonable.) □ He carefully constructed, as it were, a huge sandwich. □ The Franklins live in a small, as it were, exquisite house.

(as) large as life in person; actually, and sometimes surprisingly, present at a place. □ I thought Jack was away, but there he was as large as life. □ Jean was not expected to appear, but she turned up large as life.

(as) light as a feather of little weight. □ Sally dieted until she was as light as a feather. □ Of course I can lift the box. It's light as a feather.

(as) likely as not probably; with an even chance either way. □ He will as likely as not arrive without warning. □ Likely as not, the game will be canceled.

as long as 1. AND so long as since; because. □ As long as you're going to the bakery, please buy some fresh bread. □ So long as you're here, please stay for dinner. 2. AND so long as if; only if. □ You may have dessert so long as you eat all your vegetables. □ You can go out this evening as long as you promise to be home by midnight. 3. for a specified length of time. □ You may stay out as long as you like. □ I didn't go to school as long as Bill did. 4. [in comparisons] of equal length. □ Is this one as long as that one? □ This snake is as long as a car!

as luck would have it by good or bad luck; as it turned out; by chance. □ As luck would have it, we had a flat tire. □ As luck would have it, the check came in the mail today.

(as) mad as a hatter 1. crazy. (From the crazy character called the Hatter in Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.) □ Poor old John is as mad as a hatter. □ All these screaming children are driving me mad as a hatter. 2. angry. (This is a misunderstanding of mad in the first sense. Folksy. The first as can be omitted.) □ You make me so angry! I'm as mad as a hatter. □ John can't control his temper. He's always mad as a hatter.

(as) mad as a hornet angry. □ You make me so angry. I'm as mad as a hornet. □ Jane can get mad as a hornet when somebody criticizes her.

(as) mad as a March hare crazy. (From the name of a character in Lewis Carroll's

- Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.) □ Sally is getting as mad as a March hare. □ My Uncle Bill is mad as a March hare.
- (as) mad as a wet hen angry. (Folksy.) □ Bob was screaming and shouting—as mad as a wet hen. □ What you said made Mary mad as a wet hen.
- (as) mad as hell very angry. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ He made his wife as mad as hell. □ Those terrorists make me mad as hell.
- (as) meek as a lamb meek; quiet and docile. □ Only an hour after their argument, Joe went to Elizabeth and, meek as a lamb, asked her to forgive him. □ Betsy terrorizes the other children, but she's as meek as a lamb around her elders.
- (as) merry as a cricket cheerful. (Old-fashioned.) □ Mary is as merry as a cricket whenever she has company come to call. □ George is such a pleasant companion; he's usually merry as a cricket.
- (as) merry as the day is long very happy and carefree. □ The little children are as merry as the day is long. □ Only on vacation are we merry as the day is long.
- as much fun as a barrel of monkeys a great deal of fun. (Almost the same as (as) funny as a barrel of monkeys.) □ Roger is as much fun as a barrel of monkeys. □ The circus was as much fun as a barrel of monkeys.
- (as) naked as a jaybird naked. □ “Billy,” called Mrs. Franklin, “get back in the house and get some clothes on. You're as naked as a jaybird.” □ Tom had to get naked as a jaybird for the doctor to examine him.
- (as) neat as a pin neat and orderly. □ Brad is such a good housekeeper; his apartment is always as neat as a pin. □ Joanne certainly is well-organized. Her desk is neat as a pin.
- (as) nutty as a fruitcake silly; crazy. (Slang. A fruitcake usually has lots of nuts in it.) □ Whenever John goes to a party, he gets as nutty as a fruitcake. □ Sally has been acting as nutty as a fruitcake lately.
- (as) old as the hills very old. □ The children think their mother's as old as the hills, but she's only forty. □ That song's not new. It's old as the hills.
- as one as if a group were one person. (Especially with act, move, or speak.) □ All the dancers moved as one. □ The chorus spoke as one.
- (as) pale as a ghost Go to (as) white as a ghost.
- (as) pale as death extremely pale. (The reference to death gives this phrase ominous connotations.) □ Rita was as pale as death when she came out of the doctor's office. □ What's the matter? You're pale as death!
- (as) patient as Job very patient. (Refers to a character in the Bible.) □ If you want to teach young children, you must be as patient as Job. □ The director who is working with that temperamental actor must have the patience of Job.
- (as) phony as a three-dollar bill phony; bogus. □ This guy's as phony as a three-dollar bill. □ The whole deal stinks. It's as phony as a three-dollar bill.
- (as) plain as a pikestaff obvious; very clear. □ JILL: Why does the Senator always vote for measures that would help the tobacco industry? JANE: It's as plain as a pikestaff—because there are a lot of tobacco growers in his district, and he wants them to vote for him. □ FRED: I have a suspicion that Marcia is upset with me. ALAN: A suspicion? Come on, Fred, that's been plain as a pikestaff for quite some time!
- (as) plain as day 1. very plain and simple. □ Although his face was as plain as day, his smile made him look interesting and friendly. □ Our house is plain as day, but it's comfortable. 2. clear and understandable. □ The lecture was as plain as day. No one had to ask questions. □ His statement was plain as day.
- (as) plain as the nose on one's face obvious; clearly evident. (Informal.) □ What do you mean you don't understand? It's as plain as the nose on your face. □ Your guilt is plain as the nose on your face.

(as) pleased as punch very pleased; very pleased with oneself. (Refers to the character Punch in [English] Punch and Judy puppet shows. Punch is sometimes capitalized.) □ Wally was as pleased as punch when he won the prize. □ She seems pleased as punch, but she knows she doesn't deserve the award.

(as) poor as a church mouse very poor. □ My aunt is as poor as a church mouse. □ The Browns are poor as church mice.

(as) pretty as a picture very pretty. □ Sweet little Mary is as pretty as a picture. □ Their new house is pretty as a picture.

(as) proud as a peacock very proud; haughty. □ John is so arrogant. He's as proud as a peacock. □ The new father was proud as a peacock.

(as) pure as the driven snow pure and virginal. (Often used ironically.) □ JILL: Sue must have gone to bed with every man in town. JANE: And I always thought she was as pure as the driven snow. □ Robert was notoriously promiscuous, but tried to convince all his girlfriends that he was pure as the driven snow.

(as) queer as a three-dollar bill very strange. □ Today I saw a woman pushing a lawn mower down the street and singing to it as she went. I thought she was queer as a three-dollar bill. □ JILL: In all the years I've known him, Mike has never had a suit and he goes barefoot. FRED: That's because he's as queer as a three-dollar bill.

(as) quick as a flash Go to (as) quick as a wink.

(as) quick as a wink AND (as) quick as a flash very quickly. □ As quick as a wink, the thief took the lady's purse. □ I'll finish this work quick as a wink. □ The dog grabbed the meat as quick as a flash. □ The summer days went by quick as a flash.

(as) quick as greased lightning very quickly; very fast. (Folksy. See also like greased lightning.) □ Jane can really run. She's as quick as greased lightning. □ Quick as greased lightning, the thief stole my wallet.

(as) quiet as a mouse very quiet; shy and silent. (Informal. Often used with children.) □ Don't yell; whisper. Be as quiet as a mouse. □ Mary hardly ever says anything. She's quiet as a mouse.

(as) quiet as the grave very quiet; silent. □ The house is as quiet as the grave when the children are at school. □ This town is quiet as the grave now that the offices have closed.

(as) red as a cherry bright red. (Somewhat old-fashioned.) □ When the children came in from ice-skating, Clara's nose was as red as a cherry. □ When Lester proposed marriage, Nancy blushed as red as a cherry.

(as) red as a poppy bright red. (Usually used to describe someone blushing.) □ You must be embarrassed—you're as red as a poppy! □ When her boss praised her in front of the whole office, Emily turned red as a poppy.

(as) red as a rose intensely red. □ Bill blushed as red as a rose when we teased him.

(as) red as a ruby deep red. (Often used to describe a person's lips.) □ Linda has a beautiful face, with big blue eyes and lips as red as rubies.

(as) red as blood completely red; deep red. (The reference to blood gives this expression sinister connotations.) □ The magician's cape was lined with satin as red as blood. □ I want to have my car painted red as blood.

(as) regular as clockwork dependably regular. (Informal.) □ She comes into this store every day, as regular as clockwork. □ Our tulips come up every year, regular as clockwork.

(as) right as rain correct; genuine. (Folksy.) □ Your answer is as right as rain. □ John is very dependable. He's right as rain.

(as) scarce as hens' teeth AND scarcer than hens' teeth very scarce or nonexistent. (An exaggeration. Chickens don't have teeth.) □ I've never seen one of those. They're as scarce as hens' teeth. □ I was told that the part needed for my car is scarcer than hens' teeth, and it would take a long time to find one.

(as) sharp as a razor 1. very sharp. □ The penknife is sharp as a razor. □ The carving knife will have to be as sharp as a razor to cut through this meat. 2. very sharp-witted or intelligent. □ The old man's senile, but his wife is as sharp as a razor. □ Don't say too much in front of the child. She's as sharp as a razor.

(as) sharp as a tack intellectually bright. □ Melissa doesn't say very much, but she's sharp as a tack. □ Sue can figure things out from even the slightest hint. She's as sharp as a tack.

(as) sick as a dog very sick; sick and vomiting. □ We've never been so ill. The whole family was sick as dogs. □ Sally was as sick as a dog and couldn't go to the party.

(as) silent as the dead AND (as) silent as the grave completely silent. (Has ominous connotations because of the reference to death. Usually used to promise someone that you will be silent and therefore not betray a secret.) □ I knew something was wrong as soon as I entered the classroom; everyone was silent as the dead. □ Jessica is as silent as the grave on the subject of her first marriage. □ If you tell me what Katy said about me, I promise to be as silent as the grave.

(as) silent as the grave Go to (as) silent as the dead.

(as) silly as a goose very foolish. □ Edith is as silly as a goose. She thinks that reading aloud to her houseplants will help them grow. □ JILL: The ad in the newspaper said this lotion would make my hair grow faster, but I've been using it for a whole month and my hair is still the same length. JANE: You're as silly as a goose! Do you believe everything you read in newspaper ads?

(as) slick as a whistle quickly and cleanly; quickly and skillfully. □ Tom took a broom and a mop and cleaned the place up as slick as a whistle. □ Slick as a whistle, Sally pulled off the bandage.

(as) slippery as an eel devious; unpendable. □ Tom can't be trusted. He's as slippery as an eel. □ It's hard to catch Joe in his office because he's slippery as an eel.

(as) slow as molasses in January AND slower than molasses in January slow. □ Can't you get dressed any faster? I declare, you're as slow as molasses in January. □ The traffic on the way to the concert was slower than molasses in January.

(as) sly as a fox smart and clever. □ My nephew is as sly as a fox. □ You have to be sly as a fox to outwit me.

(as) smooth as glass smooth and shiny. (Often used to describe calm bodies of water.) □ The bay is as smooth as glass, so we should have a pleasant boat trip. □ Eugene polished the floor until it was smooth as glass.

(as) smooth as silk very smooth. □ This pudding is smooth as silk. □ Your skin is as smooth as silk.

(as) snug as a bug in a rug cozy and snug. (Informal. The kind of thing said when putting a child to bed.) □ Let's pull up the covers. There you are, Bobby, as snug as a bug in a rug. □ What a lovely little house! I know I'll be snug as a bug in a rug.

(as) sober as a judge 1. very formal, somber, or stuffy. □ You certainly look gloomy, Bill. You're sober as a judge. □ Tom's as sober as a judge. I think he's angry. 2. not drunk; alert and completely sober. □ John's drunk? No, he's as sober as a judge. □ You should be sober as a judge when you drive a car.

(as) soft as a baby's bottom very soft and smooth to the touch. □ This cloth is as soft as a baby's bottom. □ No, Bob doesn't shave yet. His cheeks are soft as a baby's bottom.

(as) soft as down soft to the touch. (Refers to the softness of goose or duck down.) □ The kitten's fur was as soft as down. □ The baby's skin was soft as down.

(as) soft as silk very soft. □ This fabric is as soft as silk. □ Your touch is soft as silk.

(as) soft as velvet very soft to the touch. □ The horse's nose felt as soft as velvet. □

This lotion will make your skin soft as velvet.

(as) solid as a rock very solid; dependable.

□ Jean has been lifting weights every day, and her arm muscles are solid as a rock.

□ This company builds typewriters that are as solid as a rock.

as soon as at the moment that; at the time that; when. □ I fell asleep as soon as I lay down. □ John ate dinner as soon as he came home.

(as) soon as possible at the earliest time.

□ I'm leaving now. I'll be there as soon as possible. □ Please pay me as soon as possible.

(as) sound as a dollar 1. very secure and dependable. □ This investment is as sound as a dollar. □ I wouldn't put my money in a bank that isn't sound as a dollar. 2. sturdy and well-constructed. □ This house is as sound as a dollar. □ The garage is still sound as a dollar. Why tear it down?

(as) sour as vinegar sour and disagreeable. □ The old man greeted us ill-naturedly, his face as sour as vinegar. □ JILL: Is Mary in a bad mood today? JANE: Yes, sour as vinegar.

(as) steady as a rock very steady and unmovable; very stable. □ His hand was steady as a rock as he pulled the trigger of the revolver. □ You must remain as steady as a rock when you are arguing with your supervisor.

(as) stiff as a poker rigid and inflexible; stiff and awkward. (Usually used to describe people.) □ This guy's dead. He's cold and as stiff as a poker. □ John is not a very good dancer; he's stiff as a poker.

(as) still as death immobile; completely still. (The reference to death gives this expression ominous connotations.) □ George sat as still as death all afternoon. □ When the storm was over, everything was suddenly still as death.

(as) straight as an arrow 1. [of something] very straight. □ The road to my house is as straight as an arrow, so it should be very easy to follow. 2. [of someone] honest or forthright. (Straight here means "honest.") □ Tom is straight as an arrow. I'd trust him with anything.

(as) strong as a horse [of someone] very strong. □ JILL: My car broke down; it's sitting out on the street. JANE: Get Linda to help you push it; she's as strong as a horse. □ The athlete was strong as a horse. He could lift his own weight with just one hand.

(as) strong as a lion very strong. □ See if you can get Melissa to help us move our furniture. She's as strong as a lion. □ The football player was strong as a lion.

(as) strong as an ox very strong. □ Tom lifts weights and is as strong as an ox. □ Now that Ann has recovered from her illness, she's strong as an ox.

(as) stubborn as a mule very stubborn. □ My husband is as stubborn as a mule. □ Our cat is stubborn as a mule.

as such the way something is; as someone or something is. □ I cannot accept your manuscript as such. It needs revisions. □ You are new here, and as such, I will have to train you.

(as) sure as death sure; very certain. □ As political tension increased, it became more and more apparent that war was coming, as sure as death. □ JILL: Is the company definitely going to lay people off? JANE: Sure as death.

(as) sweet as honey AND (as) sweet as sugar 1. very sweet. □ These little cakes are as sweet as honey. □ This fruit juice is as sweet as honey. 2. charming; very nice and friendly. □ She is as sweet as honey whenever she talks to me. □ He seems sweet as honey, but he is really mean.

(as) sweet as sugar Go to (as) sweet as honey.

(as) swift as an arrow very fast. □ The new intercity train is swift as an arrow. □ My week of vacation sped by as swift as an arrow.

(as) swift as the wind very fast. □ This new car is as swift as the wind. □ Joe ran swift as the wind, trying to get home in time.

(as) swift as thought extremely fast. □ Thanks to modern communication devices, news can now travel almost as swift as thought. □ You won't have to wait for me long; I'll be there, swift as thought.

as the crow flies straight across the land, as opposed to distances measured on a road, river, etc. (Folksy.) □ It's twenty miles to town on the highway, but only ten miles as the crow flies. □ Our house is only a few miles from the lake as the crow flies.

(as) thick as pea soup [of a liquid or fog] very thick. (Informal.) □ This fog is as thick as pea soup. □ Wow, this coffee is strong! It's thick as pea soup.

(as) thick as thieves very close-knit; friendly; allied. □ Mary, Tom, and Sally are as thick as thieves. They go everywhere together. □ Those two families are thick as thieves.

(as) tight as a drum 1. stretched tight. □ Julia stretched the upholstery fabric over the seat of the chair until it was as tight as a drum. 2. sealed tight. □ Now that I've caulked all the windows, the house should be tight as a drum. 3. very stingy. □ He won't contribute a cent. He's as tight as a drum.

(as) tight as a tick Go to (as) full as a tick.

(as) tight as Dick's hatband very tight. □ I've got to lose some weight. My belt is as tight as Dick's hatband. □ This window is stuck tight as Dick's hatband.

as to someone or something Go to as for someone or something.

(as) tough as an old boot 1. very tough. □ This meat is tough as an old boot. □ Bob couldn't eat the steak. It was as tough as an old boot. 2. very strong; not easily moved by feelings such as pity. □ Margaret is never off work. She's as tough as an old boot. □ Don't expect sympathy from the boss. She's tough as an old boot.

(as) true as steel very loyal and dependable. □ Through all my troubles, my husband has been as true as steel. □ Pedro was a staunch friend, true as steel.

(as) ugly as a toad very ugly. □ Maria may be a beautiful woman, but when she was a child she was as ugly as a toad. □ The shopkeeper was ugly as a toad, but he was kind and generous, and everyone loved him.

(as) ugly as sin very ugly. □ The new building is as ugly as sin. □ The old woman is ugly as sin, but she dresses beautifully.

as usual as is the normal or typical situation. □ John ordered eggs for breakfast as usual. □ He stood quietly as usual, waiting for the bus to come.

(as) warm as toast very warm and cozy. □ The baby will be warm as toast in that blanket. □ We were as warm as toast by the side of the fire.

(as) weak as a baby [of someone] physically very weak. □ Six weeks of illness left the athlete as weak as a baby. □ Hot, humid weather like this always makes me feel weak as a baby.

(as) weak as a kitten weak; weak and sickly. □ John is as weak as a kitten because he doesn't eat well. □ Oh! Suddenly I feel weak as a kitten.

as well also; in addition. □ Could I have some more potatoes as well? □ I'm feeling tired, and dizzy as well.

as well as 1. in addition to someone or something. □ Mary and Jane are coming to the party, as well as Tom. □ I'm studying biology and chemistry, as well as history. 2. to the same high degree as someone or something; as much as. □ Mary's parents treated me as well as they treated her. □ I did as well as you on the test.

(as) white as a ghost AND (as) pale as a ghost [of a person] very pale. □ His face is as white as a ghost. □ He turned pale as a ghost when he saw his injured leg.

(as) white as a sheet very pale. □ Jane was white as a sheet for weeks after her illness. □ Mary went as white as a sheet when she heard the news.

(as) white as the driven snow very white. □ I like my bed sheets to be as white as the driven snow. □ We have a new kitten whose fur is white as the driven snow.

(as) wise as an owl very wise. ☐ Grandfather is as wise as an owl. ☐ My goal is to be wise as an owl.

(as) wise as Solomon very wise. (Refers to a character in the Bible.) ☐ If you are in trouble, get Chris to advise you. He's as wise as Solomon. ☐ This is a difficult problem. You'd need to be as wise as Solomon to be able to solve it.

aside from someone or something not including someone or something. ☐ Aside from a small bank account, I have no money at all. ☐ Aside from Mary, I have no friends.

ask for something to do something that will cause trouble. (Also literal.) ☐ Don't talk to me that way! You're really asking for it. ☐ Anyone who acts like that is just asking for a good talking to.

ask for the moon to ask for too much; to make great demands. ☐ When you're trying to get a job, it's unwise to ask for the moon. ☐ Please lend me the money. I'm not asking for the moon!

ask for trouble AND look for trouble to seem to be trying to get into trouble; to do something that would cause trouble; to do or say something that will cause trouble. ☐ Stop talking to me that way, John. You're just asking for trouble. ☐ The guard asked me to leave unless I was looking for trouble. ☐ Anybody who threatens a police officer is just asking for trouble. ☐ You're looking for trouble if you ask the boss for a raise.

ask someone out to ask a person for a date. ☐ Mary hopes that John will ask her out. ☒ John doesn't want to ask out his best friend's girl.

asleep at the switch not attending to one's job; failing to do one's duty at the proper time. (Also literal.) ☐ The guard was asleep at the switch when the robber broke in. ☐ If I hadn't been asleep at the switch, I'd have seen the stolen car.

assault and battery a violent attack [upon someone] followed by a beating. (A criminal charge.) ☐ Max was charged with two counts of assault and battery. ☐ Dave does not go out at night because he does not want to be a victim of assault and battery.

assault the ears [for sound or speech] to be very loud or persistent. ☐ That loud music assaults the ears! ☐ I can't hear with all that talk assaulting my ears.

assemble a case (against someone) Go to build a case (against someone).

assume liability to accept the responsibility for paying a cost. ☐ Mr. Smith assumed liability for his son's student loans. ☐ The store assumed liability for the injured customer's hospital bill.

at all without distinguishing; without qualification. (See the examples for word order variations.) ☐ It really wasn't very cold at all. ☐ It really wasn't at all cold. ☐ Tom will eat anything at all. ☐ Jane isn't at all hungry. ☐ Grandma was always ready to go anywhere at all.

at all costs AND at any cost regardless of the difficulty or cost; no matter what. ☐ I intend to have that car at all costs. ☐ I'll get there by six o'clock at all costs. ☐ Mary was going to get that job at any cost.

at all times constantly; continuously. ☐ You must keep your passport handy at all times when you are traveling in a foreign country. ☐ When you're in a crowd, you must watch your child at all times.

at a loss (for words) unable to speak; speechless; befuddled. ☐ I was so surprised that I was at a loss for words. ☐ Tom was terribly confused—really at a loss.

at an early date soon; some day soon. ☐ The note said, "Please call me at an early date." ☐ You're expected to return the form to the office at an early date.

at any cost Go to at all costs.

at any rate anyway. (Informal. Frequently used as an introduction to a conclusion or a final statement.) ☐ At any rate, we had a nice time at your party. We are grateful that you asked us. ☐ It's not much, at any rate, but it's the best we can do.

at a premium at a high price; priced high because of something special. ☐ Sally bought the shoes at a premium because they were of very high quality. ☐ This model of car is selling at a premium because so many people want to buy it.

at a set time at a particular time; at an assigned time. □ Each person has to show up at a set time. □ Do I have to be there at a set time, or can I come whenever I want?

at a sitting at one time; during one period. (Refers to an activity that takes place while a person is seated.) □ The restaurant could feed only sixty people at a sitting. □ I can read about 300 pages at a sitting.

at a snail's pace very slowly. □ When you watch a clock, time seems to move at a snail's pace. □ You always eat at a snail's pace. I'm tired of waiting for you.

at a stretch continuously; without stopping. □ We all had to do eight hours of duty at a stretch. □ The baby doesn't sleep for more than three hours at a stretch.

at bay at a distance. □ I have to keep the bill collectors at bay until I get my check. □ The wolves will not remain at bay for very long.

at best AND at most in the best view; in the most positive judgment; as the best one can say. □ I believe her to be totally negligent. Her actions were careless at best. □ At best we found their visit pleasantly short. □ The dinner was not at all pleasant. At best the food was not burned. □ At most she was careless, but not criminal. □ We found their visit pleasingly short at most.

at close range very near; in close proximity. (Usually used in regard to shooting.) □ The hunter fired at the deer at close range. □ The powder burns tell us that the gun was fired at close range.

at cross-purposes with opposing purposes; with goals that interfere with each other. □ We are arguing at cross-purposes. We aren't even discussing the same thing. □ Bill and Tom are working at cross-purposes. They'll never get the job done right.

at death's door near death. (Euphemistic.) □ I was so ill that I was at death's door. □ The family dog was at death's door for three days, and then it finally died.

at ease relaxed and comfortable. □ I don't feel at ease driving when there is a lot of traffic. □ Mary is most at ease when she's near the sea.

at every turn everywhere; everywhere one looks. □ There is a new problem at every turn. □ Life holds new adventures at every turn.

at face value from outward appearance; from what something first appears to be. (From the value printed on the "face" of a coin or bank note.) □ Don't just accept her offer at face value. Think of the implications. □ Joan tends to take people at face value and so she is always getting hurt.

at first initially; at the beginning. □ He was shy at first. Then he became more friendly. □ At first we chose the red one. Later we switched to the blue one.

at first blush Go to at first glance.

at first glance AND at first blush when first examined; at an early stage. □ At first glance, the problem appeared quite simple. Later we learned just how complex it really was. □ He appeared quite healthy at first glance. □ At first blush, she appeared to be quite old.

(at) full blast using full power; as loudly as possible. □ The neighbors had their televisions on at full blast. □ The car radio was on full blast. We couldn't hear what the driver was saying.

at full speed AND at full tilt as fast as possible. □ The motor was running at full speed. □ John finished his running at full speed. □ Things are now operating at full tilt.

at full tilt Go to at full speed.

at half-mast halfway up or down. (Primarily referring to flags. Can be used for things other than flags as a joke.) □ The flag was flying at half-mast because the general had died. □ Americans fly flags at half-mast on Memorial Day. □ The little boy ran out of the house with his pants at half-mast.

at hand close by. (Used with both time and distance. See also close at hand; near at hand.) □ I don't happen to have your ap- plication at hand at the moment. □ With the holiday season at hand, everyone is very excited.

at hazard risked; in danger; at risk. □ He is not willing to have much of his money at hazard in the stock market. □ Your entire life is at hazard unless you wear a helmet when you ride your bicycle.

at home at or in one's dwelling. □ Is Mary at home, or is she still at work? □ What time will she be at home?

at home with someone or something comfortable with someone or something; comfortable doing something. (Also literal. See also feel at home.) □ Tom is very much at home with my parents. □ Sally seems to be very much at home with her car. □ Mary seems to be at home with her job.

at it again doing something again. (Informal.) □ I asked Tom to stop playing his trumpet, but he's at it again. □ They are at it again. Why are they always fighting?

at large 1. free; uncaptured. (Usually said of criminals running loose.) □ At noon the day after the robbery, the thieves were still at large. □ There is a murderer at large in the city. 2. in general; according to a general sample. □ Truck drivers at large don't like the new law. □ Students at large felt that the rule was too strict. 3. representing the whole group rather than its subsections. (Always refers to a special kind of elective office.) □ He ran for representative at large. □ She represented shareholders at large on the governing board.

at last Go to at (long) last.

at least 1. no less than; no fewer than. □ There were at least four people there that I knew. □ I want to spend at least three weeks in Mexico. 2. anyway; in spite of difficulties. □ At least we had a good evening, even though the afternoon was rainy. □ At least we came away with some of our money left.

at leisure 1. resting; not working. □ What do you usually do when you are at leisure? □ During the summer when you are at leisure, you ought to play golf. 2. AND at one's leisure at one's convenience. □ Choose one or the other at your leisure. □ Please drop by at your leisure.

at length 1. after some time; finally. □ At length, the roses bloomed and the tomatoes ripened. □ And at length, the wizard spoke. 2. AND at some length for quite a long time. □ He spoke on and on at some length. □ He described the history of his village at length.

at liberty free; unrestrained. □ The criminal was set at liberty by the judge. □ You're at liberty to go anywhere you wish. □ I'm not at liberty to discuss the matter.

at loggerheads (with someone) in opposition; at an impasse; in a quarrel. □ Mr. and Mrs. Franklin have been at loggerheads for years. □ The two political parties were at loggerheads during the entire legislative session. □ She was at loggerheads with him for years.

at (long) last after a long wait; finally. □ At last the hostages were released. □ Sally earned her diploma at long last.

at loose ends restless and unsettled; unemployed. □ Just before school starts, all the children are at loose ends. □ When Tom is home on the weekends, he's always at loose ends. □ Jane has been at loose ends ever since she lost her job.

at most Go to at best.

at night during the night. □ Most people sleep at night. □ Mary studies at night.

at odds (with someone) in opposition to someone; at loggerheads (with someone). □ Mary is always at odds with her father about how late she can stay out. □ John and his father are always at odds too.

at once immediately; at this very moment. □ John, come here at once! □ Bring me my coffee at once! □ Shall I do it at once or wait until morning?

at one fell swoop AND in one fell swoop in a single incident; as a single event. (This phrase preserves the old word fell, meaning "terrible" or "deadly.") □ The party guests ate up all the snacks at one fell swoop. □ When the stock market crashed, many large fortunes were wiped out in one fell swoop.

at one's best in the best of health; displaying the most civilized behavior. (Often in the negative.) ☐ I'm not at my best when I'm angry. ☐ He's at his best after a good nap.

at one's leisure Go to at leisure.

at one's wit's end at the limits of one's mental resources. ☐ I'm at my wit's end with this problem. I cannot figure it out. ☐ Tom could do no more. He was at his wit's end.

at peace 1. peaceful; relaxed; happy. ☐ I am always at peace when I sit in my rocking chair. ☐ When the warm breeze is blowing, I am at peace. 2. dead. ☐ It was a long illness, but she is at peace now. ☐ At last, Uncle Tom is at peace.

at play [at this moment] involved in playing. ☐ The children are at play, and I am doing household chores. ☐ Whether I am at work or at play, I try to be pleasant to people.

at present now; at this point in time. ☐ We are not able to do any more at present. ☐ We may be able to lend you money next week, but not at present.

at random without sequence or order. ☐ Sally picked four names at random from the telephone book. ☐ The gunman walked into the crowded restaurant and fired at random. ☐ Jane will read almost anything. She selects four novels at random at the library each week and reads them all.

at regular intervals at points that are equal in distance apart. ☐ You will find service stations at regular intervals along the highway. ☐ There are streetlights at regular intervals on the main street of town.

at rest not moving; not active. ☐ After the hectic day, the office was finally at rest by midnight. ☐ Do not remove your seat belt until the plane is at rest.

at risk in a situation where there is risk or hazard; in danger. ☐ I refuse to put my family's welfare at risk by quitting my job. ☐ Your whole future is at risk if you don't stop smoking.

at sea on the sea; away on a voyage on the ocean. (See also (all) at sea (about something).) ☐ The ship is at sea now, and you can't disembark. ☐ I spent many happy days at sea on my cruise.

at sea (about something) Go to (all) at sea (about something).

at sea level located at the bottom of the sea. ☐ It is easier to breathe at sea level than in the mountains. ☐ Boats on the ocean are at sea level, but those on rivers are not.

at sixes and sevens disorderly; lost and bewildered; at loose ends. ☐ Mrs. Smith is at sixes and sevens since the death of her husband. ☐ Bill is always at sixes and sevens when he's home by himself.

at some length Go to at length.

at someone's beck and call ready to obey someone. ☐ What makes you think I wait around here at your beck and call? I live here too, you know! ☐ It was a fine hotel. There were dozens of maids and waiters at our beck and call.

at someone's doorstep AND on someone's doorstep in someone's care; as someone's responsibility. ☐ Why do you always have to lay your problems at my doorstep? ☐ I shall put this issue on someone else's doorstep. ☐ I don't want it on my doorstep.

at someone's earliest convenience as soon as it is easy or convenient for someone. (This is also a polite way of saying immediately.) ☐ Please stop by my office at your earliest convenience. ☐ Bill, please have the oil changed at your earliest convenience.

at someone's mercy Go to at the mercy of someone.

at someone's request due to someone's request; on being asked by someone. ☐ At his mother's request, Tom stopped playing the saxophone. ☐ At the request of the police officer, Bill pulled his car over to the side of the road.

at someone's service ready to help someone in any way. ☐ The count greeted me warmly and said, "Welcome to my home. Just let me know what you need. I'm at your service.” □ The desk clerk said, “Good morning, madam. We are always at your service.”

at some time sharp exactly at a named time. □ You must be here at noon sharp. □ The plane is expected to arrive at seven forty-five sharp.

at stake to be won or lost; at risk; hanging in the balance. □ That’s a very risky investment. How much money is at stake? □ I have everything at stake on this wager.

at that rate in that manner; at that speed. (See also at this rate.) □ If things keep progressing at that rate, we’ll be rich by next year. □ At that rate we’ll never get the money that is owed us.

at the appointed time at the announced or assigned time. □ The cab pulled up in the driveway at the appointed time. □ We all met at the hotel at the appointed time.

at the bottom of the hour on the half hour; the opposite of at the top of the hour. (Typically heard on television or the radio. Refers to the minute hand on a clock.) □ Hear the news on WNAG at the bottom of the hour. □ We will have an interview with Harry Smith at the bottom of the hour.

at the bottom of the ladder at the lowest level of pay and status. □ Most people start work at the bottom of the ladder. □ When Ann got fired, she had to start all over again at the bottom of the ladder.

at the break of dawn Go to at the crack of dawn.

at the crack of dawn AND at the break of dawn at the time of the earliest light of the day. □ Jane was always up at the crack of dawn. □ The birds start singing at the break of dawn.

at the drop of a hat immediately and without urging. □ John was always ready to go fishing at the drop of a hat. □ If you need help, just call on me. I can come at the drop of a hat.

at the eleventh hour at the last possible moment. (See also eleventh-hour decision.) □ She always turned her term pa- pers in at the eleventh hour. □ We don’t worry about death until the eleventh hour.

at the end of nowhere at a remote place; at some distance from civilization. □ They live way out in the country at the end of nowhere. □ The police will never find us here at the end of nowhere.

at the end of one’s rope AND at the end of one’s tether at the limits of one’s endurance. □ I’m at the end of my rope! I just can’t go on this way! □ These kids are driving me out of my mind. I’m at the end of my tether.

at the end of one’s tether Go to at the end of one’s rope.

at the end of the day when everything else has been taken into consideration. (Also literal.) □ At the end of the day you will have to decide where you want to live. □ The committee interviewed many applicants for the post, but at the end of the day made no appointment.

at the expense of someone or something to the detriment of someone or something; to the harm of someone or something. □ He had a good laugh at the expense of his brother. □ He took a job in a better place at the expense of a larger income.

at the forefront (of something) AND in the forefront (of something) the most important place; the place of greatest activity. □ I interviewed Max Brown, the director who is in the forefront of the movie industry. □ The university I go to is at the forefront of computer technology.

at the height of something at the most intense or forceful aspect of something. □ At the height of his career, Tom was known around the world. □ At the height of the party, there were 50 people present.

at the helm (of something) in the position of being in control of something. (Also literal for ships and boats.) □ The president is at the helm of the company. □ Things will go well with Anne at the helm.

at the last gasp at the very last; at the last chance; at the last minute. (Refers to someone’s last breath before death.) □ She finally showed up at the last gasp, bringing the papers that were needed. □ We got there at the last gasp, just before our names were called.

at the last minute at the last possible chance. (Compare this with at the eleventh hour.) □ Please don't make reservations at the last minute. □ Why do you ask all your questions at the last minute?

at the latest no later than. □ Please pay this bill in ten days at the latest. □ I'll be home by midnight at the latest.

at the mercy of someone AND at someone's mercy under the control of someone; without defense against someone. □ We were left at the mercy of the arresting officer. □ Mrs. Franklin wanted Mr. Franklin at her mercy.

at the outset at the beginning. (See also from the outset.) □ It seemed like a very simple problem at the outset. □ At the outset, they were very happy. Then they had money problems.

at the point of doing something Go to on the point of doing something.

at the present time AND at this point (in time) now; at present. (Used often as a wordy replacement for now.) □ We don't know the location of the stolen car at the present time. □ The tomatoes are doing nicely at the present time. □ At this point in time, we feel very sad about his death. □ Yes, it's sad, but there is nothing we can do at this point.

at the rear of something located at the back part of something. □ I keep my tools at the rear of my garage. □ There's a creek at the rear of my property.

at the same time nevertheless; however. (Also literal.) □ Bill was able to make the car payment. At the same time, he was very angry about the bill. □ We agree to your demands. At the same time, we object strongly to your methods.

at the top of one's lungs Go to at the top of one's voice.

at the top of one's voice AND at the top of one's lungs with a very loud voice. □ Bill called to Mary at the top of his voice.

□ How can I work when you're all talking at the top of your lungs?

at the top of the hour at the exact beginning of the hour. (Typically heard on television or the radio. See also at the bottom of the hour. Refers to the minute hand on a clock.) □ Every class in my school starts at the top of the hour. □ Our next newscast will be at the top of the hour.

at the (very) outside at the very most. □ The car repairs will cost $300 at the outside. □ I'll be there in three weeks at the outside.

at (the) worst in the worst view; in the most negative judgment; as the worst one can say about something. □ At worst, Tom can be seen as greedy. □ Ann will receive a ticket for careless driving, at the worst.

at the zenith of something at the highest point of something; at the pinnacle of something. □ At the zenith of his career, the teacher died suddenly. □ The scientist was at the zenith of her career when she made her discovery.

at this juncture at this point in time; at this pause. □ There is little more that I can say at this juncture. □ We can, if you wish, at this juncture, request a change in venue.

at this point (in time) Go to at the present time.

at this rate at this speed. (Compare this with at any rate and at that rate.) □ Hurry up! We'll never get there at this rate. □ At this rate, all the food will be gone before we get there.

at this stage Go to at this stage of the game.

at this stage of the game AND at this stage at the current point in some event; currently. (The first phrase is informal.) □ We'll have to wait and see. There isn't much we can do at this stage of the game. □ At this stage, we are better off not calling the doctor.

at times sometimes; occasionally. □ I feel quite sad at times. □ At times, I wish I had never come here.

at will whenever one wants; freely. (Compare this with at liberty.) ☐ You're free to come and go at will. ☐ The soldiers were told to fire their guns at will. ☐ You can eat anything you want at will.

at work 1. working (at something); busy (with something). ☐ Tom is at work on his project. He'll be finished in a minute. ☐ Don't disturb me when I'm busy at work. 2. at one's place of work. ☐ I'm sorry to call you at work, but this is important. ☐ She's at work now. She'll be home at supper time.

at worst Go to at (the) worst.

attached to someone or something fond of something or something. ☐ John is really attached to his old-fashioned ideas. ☐ I'm really attached to this old house.

attract someone's attention to cause someone to take notice; to get someone's attention. ☐ I called and waved to attract Ann's attention. ☐ A small yellow flower attracted my attention.

augur well for someone or something to indicate or predict good things for someone or something. (Usually in the negative.) ☐ This latest message does not augur well for the hostages. ☐ I am afraid that this does not augur well for the outcome of the election.

avail oneself of something to help oneself by making use of something that is available. ☐ We availed ourselves of Tom's goodwill and let him repair the fence. ☐ The campers availed themselves of the first chance in a week to take a shower.

avenue of escape the pathway or route along which someone or something escapes. ☐ The open window was the bird's only avenue of escape from the house. ☐ Bill saw that his one avenue of escape was through the back door.

avoid someone or something like the plague to avoid someone or something totally. (Informal.) ☐ What's wrong with Bob? Everyone avoids him like the plague. ☐ I don't like opera. I avoid it like the plague.

away from one's desk not available for a telephone conversation; not available to be seen. (Sometimes said by the person who answers a telephone in an office. It means that the person whom the caller wants is not immediately available due to personal or business reasons.) ☐ I'm sorry, but Ann is away from her desk just now. Can you come back later? ☐ Tom is away from his desk, but if you leave your number, he will call you right back.

awkward as a cow on a crutch Go to (as) awkward as a cow on a crutch.

awkward as a cow on roller skates Go to (as) awkward as a cow on roller skates.

AWOL Go to absent without leave.

B

a babe in the woods a naive or innocent person; an inexperienced person. □ Bill is a babe in the woods when it comes to dealing with plumbers. □ As a painter, Mary is fine, but she's a babe in the woods as a musician.

back and fill to act indecisively; to change one's direction repeatedly; to reverse one's course. (Originally nautical, referring to alternately filling the sails with wind and releasing the wind.) □ The president spent most of his speech backing and filling on the question of taxation. □ The other candidate was backing and filling on every issue, depending on whom she was addressing.

back and forth backwards and forwards; first one way and then another way. (Compare this with to and fro.) □ The young man was pacing back and forth in the hospital waiting room. □ The pendulum on the clock swung back and forth.

back down (from someone or something) AND back off (from someone or something) to yield to a person or a thing; to fail to carry through on a threat. □ Jane backed down from her position on the budget. □ It's probably better to back down from someone than to have an argument. □ John agreed that it was probably better to back down than to risk getting shot. □ Bill doesn't like to back off from a fight. □ Sometimes it's better to back off than to get hurt.

back East to or from the eastern United States, often the northeastern or New England states. (See also down South, out West, and up North. This is used even by people who have never been in the East.) □ Sally felt that she had to get back East for a few days. □ Tom went to school back back in circulation 1. [for a thing to be] available to the public again. (Said especially of things that are said to circulate, such as money, library books, and magazines.) □ I've heard that gold coins are back in circulation in Europe. □ I would like to read War and Peace. Is it back in circulation, or is it still checked out? 2. [for a person to be] socially active again; dating again after a divorce or breakup with one's lover. (Informal.) □ Now that Bill is a free man, he's back in circulation. □ Tom was in the hospital for a month, but now he's back in circulation.

East, but his brother attended college in the Midwest.

back off (from someone or something) Go to back down (from someone or something).

back of the beyond the most remote place; somewhere very remote. (Informal.) □ John hardly ever comes to the city. He lives at the back of the beyond. □ Mary likes lively entertainment, but her husband likes to vacation in the back of the beyond.

back order something [for a merchant] to order something that is not in stock and then make delivery to the customer when the goods become available. (The merchant may hold your money until the order is filled.) □ The store didn't have the replacement part for my vacuum cleaner, so the manager back ordered it for me. □ The shop had to back order some of the items on my list.

back out (of something) to withdraw from something you have agreed to do; to break an agreement. (Also literal.) □ The buyer tried to back out of the sale, but the seller wouldn't permit it. □ Please don't back out of our date. □ Mary backed out at the last minute.

back someone or something up to support someone or something; to concur with someone. (Also literal.) □ Please back me up in this argument. □ I would like you to back up John in this discussion.

back the wrong horse to support someone or something that cannot win or succeed. (Also literal, as in horse racing.) □ I don't want to back the wrong horse, but it seems to me that Jed is the better candidate. □ Fred backed the wrong horse in the budget hearings.

back-to-back 1. adjacent and touching backs. □ They started the duel by standing back-to-back. □ Two people who stand back-to-back can manage to see in all directions. 2. following immediately. (Said of things or events.) □ The doctor had appointments set up back-to-back all day long. □ I have three lecture courses back-to-back every day of the week.

back to square one back to the beginning. (Also literal with a board game. See also the following entry.) □ Negotiations have broken down, and it's back to square one. □ We lost the appeal of the court case, so it's back to square one.

back to the drawing board time to start over again; it is time to plan something over again. (Also literal. Note the variation in the examples.) □ It didn't work. Back to the drawing board. □ I flunked English this semester. Well, back to the old drawing board.

back to the salt mines time to return to work, school, or something else that might be unpleasant. (As if the speaker were a slave who works in the salt mines.) □ It's eight o'clock. Time to go to work! Back to the salt mines. □ School starts in the fall, and then it's back to the salt mines again.

bad as all that Go to (as) bad as all that.

bad blood (between people) unpleasant feelings or animosity between people. □ There is bad blood between Fred and Jim. They cannot be civil to one another. □

There is no bad blood between us. I don't know why we should quarrel.

bad-mouth someone or something to say bad things about someone or something. (Slang.) □ Mr. Smith was always bad-mouthing Mrs. Smith. They didn't get along. □ John bad-mouths his car constantly because it doesn't run.

bag and baggage AND part and parcel with one's luggage; with all one's possessions. (Informal. See also part and parcel (of something).) □ Sally showed up at our door bag and baggage one Sunday morning. □ All right, if you won't pay the rent, out with you, bag and baggage! □ Get all your stuff—part and parcel—out of here!

bag of tricks a collection of special techniques or methods. □ What have you got in your bag of tricks that could help me with this problem? □ Here comes Mother with her bag of tricks. I'm sure she can help us.

bail out (of something) 1. to jump out of an airplane (with a parachute). □ John still remembers the first time he bailed out of a plane. □ When we get to 8,000 feet, we'll all bail out and drift down together. We'll open our parachutes at 2,000 feet. 2. to abandon a situation; to get out of something. (Informal.) □ John got tired of school, so he just bailed out. □ Please stay, Bill. You've been with us too long to bail out now.

bail someone or something out 1. [with someone] to deposit a sum of money that allows someone to get out of jail while waiting for a trial. □ John was in jail. I had to go down to the police station to bail him out. □ You kids are always getting into trouble. Do you really expect me to bail out the whole gang of you every time you have a problem? 2. [with something] to remove water from the bottom of a boat by dipping or scooping. □ Tom has to bail the boat out before we get in. □ You should always bail out a boat before using it. 3. to rescue someone or something from trouble or difficulty. □ The proposed law was in trouble, but Todd bailed it out at the last minute. □ I was going to be late with my report, but my roommate lent a hand and bailed me out at the last minute.

bait and switch a deceptive merchandising practice where one product is advertised to get people's attention [the bait], but pressure is applied to get the customer to purchase a more expensive item. □ Walter described the appliance store as bait and switch, since they never seemed to have in stock the bargains that they advertised. □ Max accused the merchant of bait and switch and stalked out of the store.

balance the accounts 1. AND balance the books to determine through accounting that accounts are in balance, that all money is accounted for. □ Jane was up all night balancing the accounts. □ The cashier was not allowed to leave the bank until the manager balanced the books. 2. to get even [with someone]. □ Tom hit Bob. Bob balanced the accounts by breaking Tom's toy car. □ Once we have balanced the accounts, we can shake hands and be friends again.

balance the books Go to balance the accounts.

bald as a baby's backside Go to (as) bald as a baby's backside.

bald as a coot Go to (as) bald as a coot.

baleful as death Go to (as) baleful as death.

ball and chain a person's special burden; a job. (Usually considered slang. Prisoners are sometimes fettered with a chain attached to a leg on one end and a heavy metal ball on the other.) □ Tom wanted to quit his job. He said he was tired of that old ball and chain. □ Mr. Franklin always referred to his wife as his ball and chain.

ball of fire a very active and energetic person who always succeeds. (Usually considered slang.) □ Sally is a real ball of fire—she works late every night. □ Ann is no ball of fire, but she does get the job done.

balled up Go to (all) balled up.

the balls of one's feet the bottom part of the feet just under the toes. □ Mary got blisters on the balls of her feet from playing tennis. □ The dancer balanced on the balls of his feet.

bang one's head against a brick wall Go to beat one's head against the wall.

bank on something to count on something; to rely on something. □ The weather service said it wouldn't rain, but I wouldn't bank on it. □ My word is to be trusted. You can bank on it.

baptism of fire a first experience of something, usually something difficult or unpleasant. □ My son's just had his first visit to the dentist. He stood up to the baptism of fire very well. □ Mary's had her baptism of fire as a teacher. She was assigned to the worst class in the school.

the bare something the smallest amount of something possible. □ Bob did the bare minimum of work to pass the class. □ Food, clothing, and shelter are the bare necessities of life.

bargain for something AND bargain on something to plan for something; to expect something. (Also literal. Informal.) □ We knew it would be difficult, but we didn't bargain for this kind of trouble. □ I bargained on an easier time of it than this.

bargain on something Go to bargain for something.

barge in (on someone or something) to break in on someone or something; to interrupt someone or something. □ Oh! I'm sorry. I didn't mean to barge in on you. □ They barged in on the church service and caused a commotion. □ You can't just barge in like that!

[bark is worse than one's bite] Go to One's bark is worse than one's bite.

bark up the wrong tree to make the wrong choice; to ask the wrong person; to follow the wrong course. (Refers to a hunting dog's error.) □ If you think I'm the guilty person, you're barking up the wrong tree. □ The baseball players blamed their bad record on the pitcher, but they were barking up the wrong tree.

base one's opinion on something to make a judgment or form an opinion from something. □ You must not base your opinion on one bad experience. □ I base my opinion on many years of studying the problem.

batten down the hatches to prepare for difficult times. (A nautical expression, meaning, literally, to seal the hatches against the arrival of a storm.) □ Here comes that contentious Mrs. Jones. Batten down the hatches! □ Batten down the hatches, Congress is in session again.

battle something out to argue something to a conclusion; to fight something to a conclusion. □ The Senate and the House disagree on the bill, so they will have to battle a compromise out. □ The two young toughs went into the alley to battle out their disagreement.

bawl someone out to scold someone in a loud voice. □ The teacher bawled the student out for arriving late. □ Teachers don't usually bawl out students.

[be] <For phrases that can begin with be, become, or seem like, consult some other word in the phrase in the Phrase-Finder Index.>

be about something to be busy doing something, especially doing one's business. □ It's eight o'clock, and it's time I was about my homework. □ Good-bye, Jane. I must be about my business.

be a heartbeat away from something [for someone] to be the next ruler upon the final heartbeat of the current ruler. (Especially in reference to U.S. presidential succession.) □ The vice president is just a heartbeat away from being president. □ The prince was only a heartbeat away from being king.

be-all and (the) end-all Go to the be-all and (the) end-all.

the be-all and (the) end-all something that is the very best or most important; something so good that it will end the search for something better. □ Finishing the building of his boat became the be-all and end-all of Roger's existence. □ Sally is the be-all and the end-all of Don's life.

be all ears listening eagerly and carefully. (See also the following entry.) □ Well, hurry up and tell me. I'm all ears. □ Be careful what you say. The children are all ears.

be all eyes (and ears) to be alert for something to happen; to wait eagerly for something to happen or for someone or something to appear. (See also the previous entry.) □ There they were, sitting at the table, all eyes. The birthday cake was soon to be served. □ Nothing can escape my notice. I'm all eyes and ears.

be all things to all men AND be all things to all people [for someone or something] to be liked or used by all people; [for someone or something] to be everything that is wanted by all people. □ You simply can't be all things to all people. □ The candidate set out to be all things to all men and came off looking very wishy-washy.

be all things to all people Go to be all things to all men.

be a million miles away to be distracted and daydreaming; not to be paying attention. (Also literal.) □ You were a million miles away while I was talking to you. □ Most of the class was a million miles away in the hot spring afternoon.

be a new one on someone to be something one has not heard before and that one is not ready to believe. (Informal. The someone is often me.) □ Jack's poverty is a new one on me. He always seems to have plenty of money. □ The city's difficulties are a new one on me.

be curtains for someone or something to be the death, end, or ruin of someone or something. (Informal. From the lowering or closing of the curtains at the end of a stage performance.) □ If the car hadn't swerved, it would have been curtains for the pedestrians. □ If they can't get into the export market, it's curtains for the whole company.

be death on something to be very harmful to something. (Informal or slang.) □ The salt they put on the roads in the winter is death on cars. □ That teacher is death on slow learners.

(be) easier said than done said of a task that is easier to talk about than to do. □ Yes, we must find a cure for cancer, but it's easier said than done. □ Finding a good job is easier said than done.

be flying high 1. to be very successful in one's ambitions; to obtain an important or powerful position. (Also literal. Often with the implication that this will not last very long.) □ The government is flying high just now, but wait until the budget is announced. □ He's flying high these days, but he comes from a very poor family. 2. to be in a state of euphoria. (From good news, success, or drugs.) □ Wow! Todd is really flying high. Did he discover a gold mine? □ Sally is flying high. What's she on?

be friends with someone to be a friend of someone. □ Sally is friends with Bill. □ Mary and Bill are friends with one another.

be from Missouri to require proof; to have to be shown [something]. (Also literal. From the nickname for the state of Missouri, the "Show Me" State.) □ You'll have to prove it to me. I'm from Missouri. □ She's from Missouri and has to be shown.

be game to be ready for action; to be agreeable to participating in something. □ "I'm game," David replied when I suggested we go bowling. □ We're going to the park to play football. Are you game?

be into something to be interested in something; to be involved in something. (Slang.) □ Did you hear? Tom is into sky-diving! □ Too many people are into drugs.

be off 1. to be spoiled; to be running incorrectly, as with a mechanical device. □ Oh! I'm afraid that this meat is off. Don't eat it. □ I don't have the exact time. My watch is off. 2. to leave; to depart. □ Well, I must be off. Good-bye. □ The train leaves in an hour, so I must be off.

be off on the wrong foot AND be off to a bad start to have started something with negative factors. (Literal in reference to marching. See also get off on the wrong foot; get off to a bad start; start off on the wrong foot.) □ I'm sorry we are off to a bad start. I tried to be friendly. □ I hope that we won't be off to a bad start after our little argument.

be off to a bad start Go to be off on the wrong foot.

be of service (to someone) to help someone; to serve someone. (A phrase often used by salesclerks. See also be at someone's service.) □ Good morning, madam. May I be of service to you? □ Welcome to the Warwick Hotel. Can I be of service?

be of the persuasion that something is so to hold a belief that something is true or is in existence. □ Anne is of the persuasion that supports that candidate for mayor. □ The paranoid was of the persuasion that aliens lived among us.

be reluctant to do something to be unwilling to do something. □ David was reluctant to admit his mistakes. □ The witness was reluctant to testify and was ordered to do so by the judge.

be sick to vomit. (Euphemistic. Also with get, as in the examples. Also literal, meaning "to suffer from an illness.") □ Mommy, Billy just got sick on the floor. □ Oh, excuse me! I think I'm going to be sick. □ Bob was sick all over the carpet.

be so Go to be too.

be swimming in something to be engulfed by an excess of something, as if it were a flood. (Also literal.) □ The war-torn city was swimming in blood. □ I am just swimming in paperwork.

be that as it may even if what you say is true. □ I am sorry to hear that, but, be that as it may, you still must carry out your responsibilities. □ Be that as it may, I still cannot help you.

be the case to be true; to be an actual situation. □ I think Bill is a vegetarian, and if that is the case, we should not serve him meat. □ Susie believes trees can talk, but that is not the case.

be the death of me (yet) [these kinds of problems will] be my ruin, death, or downfall. □ This cold will be the death of me. □ All these problems will be the death of me yet.

be the last straw AND be the straw that broke the camel's back to be the final thing; to be the last little burden or problem that causes everything to collapse. (From the image of a camel being loaded down with much weight, one straw at a time. Finally, at some point, when one is adding straw after straw, one straw will finally be too much and the camel's back will break.) □ When Sally came down sick, that was the straw that broke the camel's back. □ When she showed up late, that was the straw that broke the camel's back.

be the spit and image of someone AND be the spitting image of someone to look very much like someone; to resemble someone very closely. (Folksy. The second version is a frequent error.) □ John is the spit and image of his father. □ I'm not the spit and image of anyone. □ At first, I thought you were saying spitting image.

be the spitting image of someone Go to be the spit and image of someone.

be the straw that broke the camel's back Go to be the last straw.

be to do something to be obliged to do something; to be expected or directed to do something. □ Am I to clean up the entire kitchen by myself? □ John is to take the money to the bank.

be too AND be so to be something (despite anything to the contrary). (An emphatic form of is, am, are, was, were. See also do too, have too.) □ MOTHER: Billy, you aren't old enough to be up this late. BILLY: I am too! □ I was so! I was there exactly when I said I would be!

be used to doing something Go to be used to something.

be used to something AND be used to doing something accustomed to something; comfortable with something because it is familiar. □ We are used to cooking our own food. □ I lived in Alaska so long that I am used to the cold.

be with someone to be on someone's side; to be allied with someone. (Also literal.) □ Keep on trying, John. We are all with you. □ I'm with you in your efforts to win reelection.

bear a grudge (against someone) AND have a grudge (against someone); hold a grudge (against someone) to have an old resentment for someone; to be continually angry at someone. (See also nurse a grudge (against someone).) □ She bears a grudge against the judge who sentenced her. □ I have a grudge against my landlord for overcharging me. □ How long can a person hold a grudge? Let's be friends.

bear fruit to yield results; to give results. (Also literal for fruit-bearing plants and trees.) □ I hope your new plan bears fruit. □ We've had many good ideas, but none of them has borne fruit.

bear in mind that something is so to remember that something is so; to consider that something is so. (See also keep someone or something in mind.) □ Bear in mind that the trip will be expensive. □ I asked the teacher to bear in mind that I am just a beginner.

bear one's cross AND carry one's cross to carry or bear one's burden; to endure one's difficulties. (This is a Christian biblical theme. It is always used figuratively except in the biblical context.) □ It's a very bad disease, but I'll bear my cross. □ I can't help you with it. You'll just have to carry your cross.

bear someone or something in mind Go to keep someone or something in mind.

bear something out to demonstrate or prove that something is right. □ I hope that the facts will bear your story out. □ I'm sure that the facts will bear out my story.

bear the brunt (of something) to withstand the worst part or the strongest part of something, such as an attack. □ I had to bear the brunt of her screaming and yelling. □ Why don't you talk with her the next time? I'm tired of bearing the brunt.

bear watching to need watching; to deserve observation or monitoring. □ This problem will bear watching. □ This is a very serious disease, and it will bear watching for further developments.

bear with someone or something to be patient with someone or something; to endure someone or something. □ Please bear with me while I fill out this form. □ Please bear with my old car. It'll get us there sooner or later.

beard the lion in his den to face an adversary on the adversary's home ground. □ I went to the tax collector's office to beard the lion in his den. □ He said he hadn't wanted to come to my home, but it was better to beard the lion in his den.

beat about the bush Go to beat around the bush.

beat a dead horse to continue fighting a battle that has been won; to continue to argue a point that is settled. (A dead horse will not run no matter how hard it is beaten.) □ Stop arguing! You have won your point. You are just beating a dead horse. □ Oh, be quiet. Stop beating a dead horse.

beat a (hasty) retreat to retreat or withdraw very quickly. □ We went out into the cold weather, but beat a retreat to the warmth of our fire. □ The dog beat a hasty retreat to its own yard.

beat a path to someone's door [for people] to come to someone in great numbers. (So many people will wish to come and see you that they will wear down a pathway to your door.) □ I have a product so good that everyone is beating a path to my door. □ If you really become famous, people will beat a path to your door.

beat around the bush AND beat about the bush to avoid answering a question; to stall; to waste time. □ Stop beating around the bush and answer my question. □ Let's stop beating about the bush and discuss this matter.

beat one's brains out (to do something) to work very hard (to do something). (Informal or slang.) □ I beat my brains out to solve the problem. □ That's the last time I'll beat my brains out trying to cook a nice dinner for you.

beat one's head against the wall AND bang one's head against a brick wall to waste one's time trying to accomplish something that is completely hopeless. □ You're wasting your time trying to fix up this house. You're just beating your head against the wall. □ You're banging your head against a brick wall trying to get that dog to behave properly.

beat someone down (to size) AND knock someone down (to size) to make a person more humble, possibly by beating. (See also cut someone down (to size).) □ If you keep acting so arrogant, someone is going to beat you down to size. □ It's time someone knocked you down to size. □ I'll try to be more thoughtful. I don't want anyone to beat me down.

beat someone to the draw Go to beat someone to the punch.

beat someone to the punch AND beat someone to the draw to do something before someone else does it. □ I wanted to have the first new car, but Sally beat me to the punch. □ I planned to write a book about computers, but someone else beat me to the draw.

beat someone up to harm or subdue a person by beating and striking. □ The robber beat me up and took my money. □ I really want to beat up that robber.

beat something into someone's head to force someone to learn something, possibly through violence. (This can be a threat of violence and should not be used casually.) □ I studied for hours. I have never beat so much stuff into my head in such a short time. □ You're going to learn this math if I have to beat it into your head.

[beat the band] Go to to beat the band.

beat the clock to do something before a deadline; to finish before the time is up. □ Sam beat the clock, arriving a few minutes before the doors were locked. □ They were afraid they would be late and hurried in order to beat the clock.

beat the gun to manage to do something before the ending signal. (Originally from sports, referring to making a goal in the last seconds of a game. See also jump the gun.) □ The ball beat the gun and dropped through the hoop just in time.

□ Tom tried to beat the gun, but he was one second too slow.

beat the living daylight out of someone

AND beat the stuffing out of someone;
beat the tar out of someone; whale the tar out of someone to beat or spank someone, probably a child. (Folksy. These are all threats to do violence and should not be used casually.) □ If you do that again, I'll beat the living daylight out of you. □ The last time Bobby put the cat in the refrigerator, his mother beat the living daylight out of him. □ If you continue to act that way, I'll beat the tar out of you. □ He wouldn't stop, so I beat the stuffing out of him. □ He threatened to whale the tar out of each of them.

beat the pants off someone 1. to beat someone severely. (Informal. Refers to physical violence, not the removal of someone's pants.) □ The thugs beat the pants off their victim. □ If you do that again, I'll beat the pants off you. 2. to win out over someone. (Informal. This has nothing to do with violence or removing pants.) □ In the footrace, Sally beat the pants off Jane. □ Tom beats the pants off Bob when it comes to writing poetry.

beat the rap to escape conviction and punishment (for a crime). (Slang, especially criminal slang.) □ He was charged with drunk driving, but he beat the rap. □ The police hauled Tom in and charged him with a crime. His lawyer helped him beat the rap.

beat the stuffing out of someone Go to beat the living daylight out of someone.

beat the tar out of someone Go to beat the living daylight out of someone.

beat the tar out of someone Go to beat the living daylight out of someone.

Beauty is only skin-deep. Looks are only superficial. (Proverb.) □ BOB: Isn't Jane lovely? TOM: Yes, but beauty is only skin-deep. □ I know that she looks like a million dollars, but beauty is only skin-deep.

becoming on someone complimentary to someone; enhancing one's good looks. (Refers to clothing and other personal ornaments.) □ The dress you wore last night is not becoming on you. □ That color is becoming on you.

becoming to someone complimentary to someone; enhancing one's good looks. (Refers to hairstyle and things that add to one's good looks. See also becoming on someone.) □ Your new fur coat is becoming to you. □ That hairstyle is very becoming to you.

a bed of roses a situation or way of life that is always happy and comfortable. □ Living with Pat can't be a bed of roses, but her husband is always smiling. □ Being the boss isn't exactly a bed of roses. There are so many problems to take care of.

beef something up to make something stronger; to supplement something. (Informal or slang.) □ The government decided to beef the army up by buying hundreds of new tanks. □ Okay, let's beef up the opening song. Please, everyone, sing louder!

[been had] Go to have been had.

beer and skittles Go to (all) beer and skittles.

before long soon. □ Billy will be grown-up before long. □ Before long, we'll be without any money if we keep spending so much.

before you can say Jack Robinson almost immediately. (Often found in children's stories.) □ And before you could say Jack Robinson, the bird flew away. □ I'll catch a plane and be there before you can say Jack Robinson.

before you know it almost immediately. □ I'll be there before you know it. □ If you keep spending money like that, you'll be broke before you know it.

beg off (on something) to ask to be released from something; to refuse an invitation. □ I'm sorry. I'll have to beg off on your invitation. □ I have an important meeting, so I'll have to beg off.

beg the question 1. to carry on a false argument where one assumes as proved the very point that is being argued, or more generally, to evade a principled discussion of the issue at hand. (Essentially a criticism of someone's line of argument.)

□ Stop talking in circles. You're begging the question. □ A: Why do two lines that are equidistant from one another never meet? B: Because they are parallel. A: You are begging the question. 2. to invite the (following) question. (This erroneous reinterpretation of beg the question is becoming increasingly popular and widespread.) □ His complaints beg the question: Didn't he cause all of his problems himself?

beg to differ (with someone) to disagree with someone; to state one's disagreement with someone in a polite way. (Usually used in a statement made to the person being disagreed with.) □ I beg to differ with you, but you have stated everything exactly backwards. □ If I may beg to differ, you have not expressed things as well as you seem to think.

beggar description to defy description; to be unable to be described. □ The house was a mess. The place begged description. □ Our reaction to the proposal beggars description. We were deeply disturbed for days.

Beggars can't be choosers. One should not criticize something one gets for free. (Proverb.) □ I don't like the old hat that you gave me, but beggars can't be choosers. □ It doesn't matter whether people like the free food or not. Beggars can't be choosers.

begin to see daylight to begin to foresee the end of a long task. (Also literal. See also see the light (at the end of the tunnel).) □ I've been working on my thesis for two years, and at last I'm beginning to see daylight. □ I've been so busy. Only in the last week have I begun to see daylight.

begin to see the light to begin to understand (something). (Also literal.) □ My algebra class is hard for me, but I'm beginning to see the light. □ I was totally confused, but I began to see the light after your explanation.

beginning of the end the start of the final phase of something or of someone's death. □ When he stopped coughing and remained still, I knew it was the beginning of the end. □ The enormous federal deficit marked the beginning of the end as far as our standard of living is concerned.

behind closed doors in secret; away from observers, reporters, or intruders. (Refers to being in a private room with the doors closed.) □ They held the meeting behind closed doors, as the law allowed. □ Every important issue was decided behind closed doors.

behind in something AND behind on something late with something; late in doing something. □ I'm behind in my car payments. □ She's behind on her work.

behind on something Go to behind in something.

behind schedule having failed to do something by the time listed on the schedule. □ We have to hurry and finish soon because we are behind schedule. □ The project is behind schedule. Very late, in fact.

behind someone's back in secret; without someone's knowledge. □ Please don't talk about me behind my back. □ She sold the car behind his back.

behind the eight ball in a difficult or awkward position. (Informal. Refers to billiards, a game played with numbered balls.) □ Bob broke his wife's crystal vase and is really behind the eight ball. □ I ran over the neighbor's lawn with my car, so I'm really behind the eight ball.

behind the scenes privately; out of public view. □ The people who worked behind the scenes are the real heroes of this project. □ I worked behind the scenes in the play. □ We don't usually thank the people who are behind the scenes.

behind the times old-fashioned. □ Sarah is a bit behind the times. Her clothes are quite old-fashioned. □ Our legislature is a bit behind the times.

Behind you! Watch out behind you!; There is danger behind you! □ Behind you! That car almost hit you. □ There are snakes everywhere! Behind you! Look out!

belabor the point to spend too much time on a point of discussion. □ I don't want to belabor the point, but the sooner we get these things settled, the better. □ If the speaker would agree not to belabor the point further, I will place it on the agenda for the next meeting.

believe it or not to choose to believe something or not. (Indicating that an assertion may be hard to believe.) □ Believe it or not, I just got home from work. □ I'm over fifty years old, believe it or not.

bell, book, and candle symbols of witchcraft. □ Look, I can't work miracles! Do you expect me to show up at your house with bell, book, and candle, and make everything right? You have to take charge of your own destiny! □ On the top shelf of the tiny used-book store, Jim saw a bell, book, and candle sitting in a row, and he knew he was going to find some very interesting reading material.

below average lower or worse than average. □ Tom's strength is below average for a child his size. □ Dad asked why my grades are below average.

below par not as good as average or normal. □ I feel a little below par today. I think I am getting a cold. □ His work is below par, and he is paid too much money.

belt something out to sing or play a song loudly and with spirit. □ When she's playing the piano, she really belts the music out. □ She really knows how to belt out a song.

bend over backwards (to do something) Go to fall over backwards (to do something).

bend someone's ear to talk to someone, perhaps annoyingly. □ Tom is over there, bending Jane's ear about something. □ I'm sorry. I didn't mean to bend your ear for an hour.

bent on doing something determined to do something. □ Jane was bent on having her own apartment. □ Her mother was bent on keeping her at home.

beside oneself (with something) in an extreme state of some emotion. (Preceded by be or seem.) □ I was beside myself with joy. □ Sarah could not speak. She was beside herself with anger. □ I laughed so hard I was beside myself.

beside the point AND beside the question irrelevant; of no importance. □ That's very interesting, but beside the point. □ That's beside the point. You're evading the issue. □ Your observation is beside the question.

beside the question Go to beside the point.

best bib and tucker one's best clothing. (Folksy.) □ I always wear my best bib and tucker on Sundays. □ Put on your best bib and tucker, and let's go to the city.

the best-laid plans of mice and men AND the best-laid schemes of mice and men the best thought-out plans of anyone. □ If a little rain can ruin the best-laid plans of mice and men, think what an earthquake might do! □ The best-laid schemes of mice and men are often disturbed by any small matter.

the best-laid schemes of mice and men Go to the best-laid plans of mice and men.

the best part of something almost all of something; a large part of something; the major part of something. □ The discussion took the best part of an hour. □ The best part of the meeting was taken up by budgetary matters.

bet one's bottom dollar AND bet one's life to be quite certain (about something). (Both are informal and folksy. A bottom dollar is the last dollar.) □ I'll be there. You bet your bottom dollar. □ I bet my bottom dollar you can't swim across the pool. □ You bet your life I can't swim that far. □ I bet my life on it.

bet one's life Go to bet one's bottom dollar.

[better half] Go to one's better half.

better late than never better to do something late than not at all. □ I wish you had come here sooner, but better late than never. □ She bought a house when she was quite old. Better late than never.

better off (doing something) AND better off (if something were done) in a better position if something were done. □ She'd be better off selling her house. □ They are better off flying to Detroit. □ They would be better off if they flew to Detroit. □ I'm better off now.

better off (if one were somewhere else) Go to better off (somewhere).

better off (if something were done) Go to better off (doing something).

better off (somewhere) AND better off (if one were somewhere else) in a better position somewhere else. □ They would be better off in Florida. □ We'd all be better off if we were in Florida. □ I know I'd be better off.

between a rock and a hard place AND between the devil and the deep blue sea in a very difficult position; facing a hard decision. (Informal.) □ I couldn't make up my mind. I was caught between a rock and a hard place. □ He had a dilemma on his hands. He was clearly between the devil and the deep blue sea.

between life and death in a position where living or dying is an even possibility. (Especially with caught or hovering.) □ And there I was on the operating table, hovering between life and death. □ The mountain climber hung by his rope, caught between life and death.

between the devil and the deep blue sea Go to between a rock and a hard place.

between you, me, and the lamppost confidentially, just between you and me. □ Just between you, me, and the lamppost, Fred is leaving school. □ Now don't tell anyone else. This is just between you, me, and the lamppost.

betwixt and between 1. between (people or things). □ I liked the soup and the dessert and all that came betwixt and between. □ I sat betwixt and between all the actors who weren't on stage. 2. undecided. □ I wish she would choose. She has been betwixt and between for three weeks. □ Tom is so betwixt and between about getting married. I don't think he's ready.

beyond a reasonable doubt almost without any doubt. (A legal phrase.) □ The jury decided beyond a reasonable doubt that she had committed the crime. □ She was also found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

beyond measure more than can be measured; in a very large amount. □ They brought in hams, turkeys, and roasts, and then they brought vegetables and salads beyond measure. □ They thanked all of us beyond measure.

beyond one's depth 1. in water that is too deep. (See also in over one's head.) □ Sally swam out beyond her depth. □ Jane swam out to get her even though it was beyond her depth, too. 2. beyond one's understanding or capabilities. □ I'm working beyond my depth in algebra class. □ Poor John was involved in a problem that seemed really beyond his depth.

beyond one's means more than one can afford. (See also live beyond one's means.) □ I'm sorry, but this house is beyond our means. Please show us a cheaper one. □ They felt that a Caribbean cruise is beyond their means.

beyond the call of duty Go to (above and) beyond the call of duty.

beyond the pale unacceptable; outlawed; over the top. □ Your behavior is simply beyond the pale. □ Because of Tom's rudeness, he's considered beyond the pale and is never asked to parties anymore.

beyond the shadow of a doubt completely without doubt. (Said of a fact, not a person. See also beyond a reasonable doubt.) □ We accepted her story as true beyond the shadow of a doubt. □ Please assure us that you are certain of the facts beyond the shadow of a doubt.

beyond words more than one can say. (Especially with grateful, shocked, and thankful.) □ Sally was thankful beyond words. □ I don't know how to thank you. I'm grateful beyond words.

bid adieu to someone or something AND bid someone or something adieu to say good-bye to someone or something. (This adieu is French for good-bye and should not be confused with ado.) □ Now it's time to bid adieu to all of you gathered here. □ He silently bid adieu to his favorite hat as the wind carried it down the street.

bid someone or something adieu Go to bid adieu to someone or something.

bide one's time to wait patiently. □ I've been biding my time for years, just waiting for a chance like this. □ He's not the type just to sit there and bide his time. He wants some action.

big and bold [of things] large and capable of getting attention. □ The lettering on the book's cover was big and bold, and it got lots of attention, but the price was too high. □ She wore a brightly colored dress. The pattern was big and bold and the skirt was very full.

big as all outdoors Go to (as) big as all outdoors.

big as life Go to (as) big as life.

big as life and twice as ugly Go to (as) big as life.

a big frog in a small pond an important person in the midst of a less important setting. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ I'd rather be a big frog in a small pond than the opposite. □ The trouble with Tom is that he's a big frog in a small pond. He needs more competition.

the big moment AND the moment everyone has been waiting for the special time that everyone has been waiting for. □ The big moment has come. I will now announce the winner. □ This is the big moment that you all have been waiting for!

big of someone generous of someone; kind or forgiving of someone. (Sometimes sarcastic.) □ He gave me some of his apple. That was very big of him. □ It was big of Sally to come over and apologize like that.

binge and purge to overeat and then vomit, over and over. (A symptom of the condition called bulimia.) □ She had binged and purged a number of times before she finally sought help from a doctor. □ Terry had been bingeing and purging for a number of years and was very, very thin.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. Something you already have is better than something you might get. □ Bill has offered to buy my car for $4,000. Someone else might pay more, but a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. □ I might be able to find a better price, but a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

the birds and the bees human reproduction. (A euphemistic way of referring to human sex and reproduction.) □ My father tried to teach me about the birds and the bees. □ He's twenty years old and doesn't understand about the birds and the bees.

a bird's-eye view 1. a view seen from high above. (Refers to the height of a flying bird.) □ We got a bird's-eye view of Cleveland as the plane began its descent. □ From the top of the tower you get a splendid bird's-eye view of the village. 2. a brief survey of something; a hasty look at something. (Refers to the smallness of a bird's eye.) □ The course provides a bird's-eye view of the works of Mozart, but it doesn't deal with them in enough detail for your purpose. □ All you need is a bird's-eye view of the events of World War II to pass the test.

Birds of a feather flock together. People of the same type seem to gather together. (Proverb.) □ Bob and Tom are just alike. They like each other's company because birds of a feather flock together. □ When Mary joined a club for redheaded people, she said, "Birds of a feather flock together."

bite off more than one can chew to take (on) more than one can deal with; to be overconfident. (This is used literally for food and figuratively for other things, especially difficult projects.) □ Billy, stop biting off more than you can chew. You're going to choke on your food someday. □ Ann is exhausted again. She's always biting off more than she can chew.

bite one's nails to be nervous or anxious; to bite one's nails from nervousness or anxiety. (Used both literally and figuratively.) □ I spent all afternoon biting my nails, worrying about you. □ We've all been biting our nails from worry.

bite one's tongue to struggle not to say something that you really want to say. (Used literally only to refer to an accidental biting of one's tongue.) □ I had to bite my tongue to keep from telling her what I really thought. □ I sat through that whole conversation biting my tongue.

bite someone's head off to speak sharply and angrily to someone. □ There was no need to bite Mary's head off just because she was five minutes late. □ The boss has been biting everybody's head off since his accident.

bite the bullet to put up with or endure (something). (Informal or slang.) □ I didn't want to go to the doctor, but I bit the bullet and went. □ John, you just have to bite the bullet and do what you're told.

bite the dust to fall to defeat; to die. (Typically heard in movies about the old western frontier.) □ A bullet hit the sheriff in the chest, and he bit the dust. □ Poor old Bill bit the dust while mowing the lawn. They buried him yesterday.

bite the hand that feeds one to harm someone who does good things for you. (Literal in reference to a dog, cat, or other animal.) □ I'm your mother! How can you bite the hand that feeds you? □ She can hardly expect much when she bites the hand that feeds her.

a bitter pill to swallow an unpleasant fact that has to be accepted. □ It was a bitter pill for her brother to swallow when she married his enemy. □ We found his deception a bitter pill to swallow.

black-and-blue bruised; showing signs of having been physically harmed. (Also literal.) □ The child was black-and-blue after having been struck. □ She was black-and-blue all over after falling out of the tree.

black as a skillet Go to (as) black as a skillet.

black as a stack of black cats Go to (as) black as a stack of black cats.

black as a sweep Go to (as) black as a sweep.

black as coal Go to (as) black as coal.

black as night Go to (as) black as night.

black as one is painted Go to (as) black as one is painted.

black as pitch Go to (as) black as pitch.

black as the ace of spades Go to (as) black as the ace of spades.

black out to faint or pass out. □ Sally blacked out just before the crash. □ I was so frightened that I blacked out for a minute.

the black sheep of the family the worst member of the family. □ Mary is the black sheep of the family. She's always in trouble with the police. □ He keeps making a nuisance of himself. What do you expect from the black sheep of the family?

blast off [for a rocket] to shoot into the sky. □ What time does the rocket blast off? □ It won't blast off today. It has been canceled.

blaze a trail (in something) to create and develop a new area of study or development. (Literal in reference to creating and marking a trail.) □ In the area of conservation, Wright and Walters blazed a trail in the use of technology to preserve topsoil. □ Professor Williams blazed a trail in the study of physics.

bleep something out to replace a word or phrase in a radio or television broadcast with some sort of musical tone. (This is sometimes done to prevent a bad word or other information from being broadcast.) □ He tried to say the word on television, but they bleeped it out. □ They tried to bleep out the whole sentence.

a blessing in disguise something that turns out to be fortunate and advantageous after seeming to be the opposite at first. □ Our missing the train was a blessing in disguise. It was involved in a crash. □ It was a blessing in disguise that I didn't get the job. I was offered a better one the next day.

blind as a bat Go to (as) blind as a bat.

the blind leading the blind having to do with a situation where people who don't know how to do something try to explain it to other people. □ Tom doesn't know anything about cars, but he's trying to teach Sally how to change the oil. It's a case of the blind leading the blind. □ When I tried to show Mary how to use a computer, it was the blind leading the blind.

Blood is thicker than water. Go to Blood runs thicker than water.

Blood runs thicker than water. AND Blood is thicker than water. People who are related have stronger obligations to each other than to people outside the family and are expected to endure family problems. (Proverb.) □ My friends invited me to go camping on Saturday, but I have to go to my cousin's wedding instead. Blood is thicker than water, after all. □ If you ever need help, don't ask your friends. Come home and ask us, your family. Blood is thicker than water.

blood, sweat, and tears the signs of great personal effort. □ There will be much blood, sweat, and tears before we have completed this project. □ After years of blood, sweat, and tears, Timmy finally earned a college degree.

bloody but unbowed [one's head] showing signs of a struggle, but not bowed in defeat. □ Liz emerged from the struggle, her head bloody but unbowed. □ We are bloody but unbowed and will fight to the last.

blow a fuse 1. to burn out a fuse. □ The microwave oven blew a fuse, so we had no power. □ You'll blow a fuse if you use too many appliances at once. 2. Go to blow a gasket.

blow a gasket AND blow a fuse; blow one's cork; blow one's top; blow one's stack to become very angry; to lose one's temper. (Slang.) □ I was so mad I almost blew a gasket. □ I've never heard such a thing. I'm going to blow a fuse. □ I blew my cork when he hit me. □ I was so mad I could have blown my top. □ I makes me so mad I could blow my stack.

blow-by-blow account AND blow-by-blow description a detailed description (of an event) given as the event takes place. (This referred originally to boxing or other combat.) □ I want to listen to a blow-by-blow account of the prizefight. □

The lawyer got the witness to give a blow-by-blow description of the argument.

blow-by-blow description Go to blow-by-blow account.

blow hot and cold to be changeable or uncertain (about something). □ He keeps blowing hot and cold on the question of moving to the country. □ He blows hot and cold about this. I wish he'd make up his mind.

blow off steam Go to let off steam.

blow one's cookies Go to blow one's lunch.

blow one's cool Go to lose one's cool.

blow one's cork Go to blow a gasket.

blow one's lines Go to fluff one's lines.

blow one's lunch AND blow one's cookies to vomit. (Slang.) □ The accident was so horrible I almost blew my lunch. □ Don't run so hard, or you'll blow your cookies.

blow one's nose to drive mucus and other material from the nose using air pressure from the lungs. □ Excuse me, I have to blow my nose. □ Bill blew his nose into his handkerchief.

blow one's own horn Go to toot one's own horn.

blow one's stack Go to blow a gasket.

blow one's top Go to blow a gasket.

blow over to go away without causing harm. □ If we are lucky, the storm will blow over. □ Given time, all this controversy will blow over.

blow someone or something away 1. to kill or destroy someone or something. (Also literal. Slang.) □ He drew his gun and blew the thief away. □ His bad attitude blew away the whole deal. 2. [with someone] to overcome someone emotionally. □ The bad news really blew me away. □ Your news just blew me away! How exciting!

blow someone or something off 1. [with something] to neglect or bumble something. (Slang.) □ He would do better in school if he didn't blow his math class off. □ He blew off his homework. 2. [with someone] to deceive or cheat someone. (Slang.) □ She really blew me off on the question of grades. She was really failing all the time.

 ☐ She blew off the teacher by cheating on the test.

blow someone or something to smithereens to explode someone or something into tiny pieces. ☐ The bomb blew the ancient church to smithereens. ☐ The mortar blew the entire squad to smithereens.

blow someone's cover to reveal someone's true identity or purpose. ☐ The spy was very careful not to blow her cover. ☐ I tried to disguise myself, but my dog recognized me and blew my cover.

blow someone's mind 1. to destroy the function of one's brain. (Slang.) ☐ It was a terrible experience. It nearly blew my mind. ☐ She blew her mind on drugs. 2. to overwhelm someone; to excite someone. (Slang.) ☐ It was so beautiful, it nearly blew my mind. ☐ The music was so wild. It blew my mind.

blow something to ruin or waste something. ☐ I had a chance to do it, but I blew it. ☐ He blew the whole five dollars on candy.

blow something out of all proportion to cause something to be unrealistically proportioned relative to something else. (The all can be left out.) ☐ The press has blown this issue out of all proportion. ☐ Let's be reasonable. Don't blow this thing out of proportion.

blow the lid off (something) to reveal something, especially wrongdoing; to make wrongdoing public. ☐ The police blew the lid off the smuggling ring. ☐ The government is glad that they blew the lid off.

blow the whistle (on someone) to report someone's wrongdoing to someone (such as the police) who can stop the wrongdoing. ☐ The citizens' group blew the whistle on the street gangs by calling the police. ☐ The gangs were getting very bad. It was definitely time to blow the whistle.

blow up to fall apart or get ruined. ☐ The whole project blew up. It will have to be canceled. ☐ All my planning was blown up this afternoon.

blow up (at someone) to get angry at someone; to lose one's temper and yell at someone. ☐ I'm sorry. I didn't mean to blow up. ☐ You'd blow up, too, if you'd had a day like mine.

blow up in someone's face 1. to blow up or explode suddenly. (Also literal.) ☐ The bomb blew up in the terrorist's face. ☐ The firecracker blew up in his face and injured him. 2. [for something] to get ruined while someone is working on it. (Also literal.) ☐ All my plans blew up in my face. ☐ It is terrible for your life to get ruined and blow up in your face.

blue around the gills Go to pale around the gills.

blue blood the blood [heredity] of a noble family; aristocratic ancestry. ☐ The earl refuses to allow anyone who is not of blue blood to marry his son. ☐ Although Mary's family is poor, she has blue blood in her veins.

bog down to slow down; to become stuck. ☐ The project bogged down because of so much red tape. ☐ We bog down every year at this time because many of our workers go on vacation.

boggle someone's mind to confuse someone; to overwhelm someone; to blow someone's mind. ☐ The size of the house boggles my mind. ☐ She said that his arrogance boggled her mind.

boil down to something to reduce to something; to come down to something; to be essentially something. (Also literal.) ☐ It all boils down to whether you wish to buy a car. ☐ It boils down to a question of good health.

boil something down to summarize something; to make information more concise. (Also literal in reference to liquids.) ☐ I don't have time to listen to the whole story. Please boil it down for me. ☐ Please boil down the report so I can read it on the plane.

bold as brass Go to (as) bold as brass.

bone of contention the subject or point of an argument; an unsettled point of disagreement. ☐ We've fought for so long that we've forgotten what the bone of contention is. ☐ The question of a fence between the houses has become quite a bone of contention.

bone up (on something) to study something thoroughly; to review the facts about something. ☐ I have to bone up on the state driving laws because I have to take my driving test tomorrow. ☐ I take mine next month, so I'll have to bone up, too.

boot someone out Go to kick someone out.

bore someone stiff AND bore someone to death to bore someone very much. (Stiff is an old slang word meaning “dead.”) ☐ The play bored me stiff. ☐ The lecture bored everyone to death.

bore someone to death Go to bore someone stiff.

bored silly AND bored stiff; bored to distraction; bored to tears very bored; completely bored. (Usually an exaggeration.) ☐ I was bored silly at the lecture. ☐ The dull speaker left me bored to distraction. ☐ I am bored to tears. Let's go home.

bored stiff Go to bored silly.

bored to death very bored. ☐ The children were bored to death. ☐ I've never been so bored to death in my life.

bored to distraction Go to bored silly.

bored to tears Go to bored silly.

born and bred Go to born and raised.

born and raised AND born and bred born and nurtured through childhood, usually in a specific place. ☐ She was born and raised in a small town in western Montana. ☐ Freddy was born and bred on a farm and had no love for city life.

born out of wedlock born to an unmarried mother. ☐ The child was born out of wedlock. ☐ In the city many children are born out of wedlock.

born with a silver spoon in one's mouth born with many advantages; born to a wealthy family. ☐ Sally was born with a silver spoon in her mouth. ☐ I'm glad I was not born with a silver spoon in my mouth.

borrow trouble to worry needlessly; to make trouble for oneself. ☐ Worrying too much about death is just borrowing trouble. ☐ Do not get involved with politics. That's borrowing trouble.

boss someone around to give orders to someone; to keep telling someone what to do. ☐ Stop bossing me around. I'm not your employee. ☐ Captain Smith bosses around the whole crew. That's his job.

bottle something up 1. to constrict something as if it were put in a bottle. ☐ The patrol boats bottled the other boats up at the locks on the river. ☐ The police bottled up the traffic while they searched the cars for the thieves. 2. to hold one's feelings within; to keep from saying something that one feels strongly about. ☐ Let's talk about it, John. You shouldn't bottle it up. ☐ Don't bottle up your problems. It's better to talk them out.

the bottom line 1. the last figure on a financial balance sheet representing net profit or loss. ☐ What's the bottom line? How much do I owe you? ☐ Don't tell me all those figures! Just tell me the bottom line. 2. the result; the final outcome. ☐ I know about all the problems, but what is the bottom line? What will happen? ☐ The bottom line is that you have to go to the meeting because no one else can.

bottom out to reach the lowest point. ☐ The price of wheat bottomed out last week. Now it's rising again. ☐ My interest in school bottomed out in my junior year, so I quit and got a job.

Bottoms up! Everyone should drink now! (Said at the end of a drinking toast.) ☐ Here's to the bride and groom. Bottoms up! ☐ Bottoms up! Drink hearty!

bound and determined determined. ☐ We were bound and determined to get there on time. ☐ I'm bound and determined that this won't happen again.

bound for somewhere on the way to somewhere; planning to go to somewhere. ☐ I'm bound for Mexico. In fact, I'm leaving this afternoon. ☐ I'm bound for the bank. Do you want to go, too?

bound hand and foot with hands and feet tied up. ☐ The robbers left us bound hand and foot. □ We remained bound hand and foot until the maid found us and untied us.

bound to (do something) to be certain to do something. □ They are bound to come home soon. They always come home early. □ Oh, yes. They are bound to.

bow and scrape to be very humble and subservient. □ Please don't bow and scrape. We are all equal here. □ The salesclerk came in, bowing and scraping, and asked if he could help us.

bow out to quit and depart; to resign; to retire. □ I've done all that I can do. Now is the time to bow out. □ Most workers bow out at the normal retirement age.

bow someone over to surprise or overwhelm someone. (Also literal.) □ The news bowled me over. □ The details of the proposed project bowled everyone over.

Boys will be boys. That's the kind of thing that boys seem to do.; That's the kind of silly behavior that boys and men exhibit. (Proverb.) □ They really messed up the living room, but boys will be boys. □ Boys will be boys, but they can be trained.

brain someone to strike a person on the skull as if to knock out the person's brains. □ I thought he was going to brain me, but he only hit me on the shoulder. □ If you don't do it, I'll brain you.

[bread and butter] Go to someone's bread and butter.

bread-and-butter letter a letter or note written to follow up on a visit; a thank-you note. □ When I got back from the sales meeting, I took two days to write bread-and-butter letters to the people I met. □ I got sort of a bread-and-butter letter from my nephew, who wants to visit me next summer.

bread and water the most minimal meal possible; a prison meal. (Also literal. Refers to the stereotypical prison meal.) □ Max knew that if he got in trouble again it would be at least a year on bread and water. □ This dinner is terrible again. I would rather have bread and water! Why don't we ever have pizza?

break a code to figure out a code; to decipher a code. □ The intelligence agents finally broke the enemy's code. □ When they broke the code, they were able to decipher messages.

break a habit AND break the habit; break one's habit to end a habit. □ I was not able to break the habit of snoring. □ It's hard to break a habit that you have had for a long time.

break a law AND break the law to fail to obey a law; to act contrary to a law. □ Lisa broke the law when she drove the wrong way on a one-way street. □ If you never break the law, you will never get arrested.

Break a leg! Good luck! (Also literal. Theatrical slang. This is said to actors before a performance instead of Good luck.) □ Before the play, John said to Mary, "Break a leg!" □ Saying "Break a leg!" before a performance is an old theatrical tradition.

break a record to surpass a previously set high record of achievement by setting a new one. □ The athlete broke all the school records in swimming. □ The record was broken after thirty years.

break camp to close down a campsite; to pack up and move on. □ Early this morning we broke camp and moved on northward. □ Okay, everyone. It's time to break camp. Take those tents down and fold them neatly.

break down 1. [for something] to fall apart; [for something] to stop operating. (See also break someone or something down.) □ The air-conditioning broke down, and we got very warm. □ The car broke down in the parking lot. 2. [for one] to lose control of one's emotions; [for one] to have a nervous collapse. □ He couldn't keep going. He finally broke down and wept. □ I was afraid I'd break down.

break even for income to equal expenses. (This implies that money was not earned or lost.) □ Unfortunately my business just managed to break even last year. □ I made a bad investment, but I broke even.

break ground (for something) to start digging the foundation for a building. □ The president of the company came to break ground for the new building. □ This was the third building this year for which this company has broken ground. □ When will they break ground?

Break it up! Stop fighting!; Stop it! (Said to two or more people causing a disturbance.) □ All right! Break it up, you guys! □ Stop your talking! Break it up and get back to work.

break loose (from someone or something) to get away from a person or a thing that is holding one. (Compare this with cut loose (from someone or something).) □ The criminal broke loose from the police officer. □ It's hard to break loose from home. □ I was twenty years old before I could break loose.

break new ground to begin to do something that no one else has done; to pioneer (in an enterprise). (See also break ground (for something).) □ Dr. Anderson was breaking new ground in cancer research. □ They were breaking new ground in consumer electronics.

break off (with someone) to end a friendship with someone, especially a boyfriend or a girlfriend. □ Tom has finally broken off with Mary. □ I knew it couldn't last. He was bound to break off.

break one's back (to do something) Go to break one's neck (to do something).

break one's habit Go to break a habit.

break one's neck (to do something) AND break one's back (to do something) to work very hard to do something. □ I broke my neck to get here on time. □ That's the last time I'll break my neck to help you. □ There is no point in breaking your back. Take your time.

break one's word not to do what one said one would do; not to keep one's promise. (The opposite of keep one's word.) □ Don't say you'll visit your grandmother if you can't go. She hates people who break their word. □ If you break your word, she won't trust you again.

break out 1. to burst forth suddenly, as with a fire, a riot, giggling, shouting, etc.

□ A fire broke out in the belfry. □ A round of giggling broke out when the teacher tripped. □ A riot almost broke out when the police came. 2. [for one's face] to erupt in pimples. □ Bob's face has started breaking out badly. □ My face breaks out when I eat a lot of chocolate.

break out in a cold sweat to perspire from fever, fear, or anxiety; to begin to sweat profusely or suddenly. □ I was so frightened I broke out in a cold sweat. □ The patient broke out in a cold sweat.

break out (in something) to erupt with something such as a rash, a cold sweat, or pimples. □ After being in the woods, I broke out in a rash. I think it's poison ivy. □ I hate to break out like that. □ When I eat chocolate, I break out in pimples. □ I was so frightened I broke out in a cold sweat. □ The patient broke out in a cold sweat.

break (out) in(to) tears to start crying suddenly. □ I was so sad that I broke out into tears. □ I always break into tears at a funeral. □ It's hard not to break out in tears under those circumstances.

break out (of something) to escape from something, often by destructive means. (Especially from prison, but also in figurative senses.) □ The convicts plotted to break out of prison. □ You don't have the guts to break out of jail! □ Don finally broke out of the depression that had held him captive for so long. □ The lion broke out of its cage.

break someone or something down 1. [with someone] to force someone to give up and tell secrets or agree to do something. □ After threats of torture, they broke the spy down. □ They broke down the agent by threatening violence. 2. [with something] to tear something down; to destroy something. □ They used an ax to break the door down. □ We broke down the wall with big hammers.

break someone or something in 1. [with someone] to train someone to do a job; to supervise a new person learning a new job. □ It takes time to break a new worker in. □ Are they hard to break in? □ I have to break in a new worker. 2. [with something] to make something fit by wearing or using it. □ I'll be glad when I've finished breaking in these shoes. □ Yes, it takes time to break them in. □ They are easy to break in, though. □ The car will run better after I break it in.

break someone or something up 1. [with someone] to cause a person to laugh, perhaps at an inappropriate time. (Informal.) □ John told a joke that really broke Mary up. □ The comedian's job was to break up the audience by telling jokes. 2. [with something] to destroy something. □ The storm broke the docks up on the lake. □ The police broke up the gambling ring. 3. [with something] to put an end to something. □ The police broke the fight up. □ Walter's parents broke up the party at three in the morning.

break someone's fall to cushion a falling person; to lessen the impact of a falling person. □ When the little boy fell out of the window, the bushes broke his fall. □ The old lady slipped on the ice, but a snowbank broke her fall.

break someone's heart to cause someone emotional pain. □ It just broke my heart when Tom ran away from home. □ Sally broke John's heart when she refused to marry him.

break something down (for someone) to explain something to someone in simple terms or in an orderly fashion. □ She doesn't understand. You will have to break it down for her. □ I can help. This is a confusing question. Let me break it down for you.

break something down (into something) to divide something into smaller parts; to divide something into its component parts. □ Please break this paragraph down into sentences. □ The chemist broke down the compound into a number of elements. □ Walter broke the project down into five tasks and assigned them to various people.

break something to pieces to shatter something. (Informal.) □ I broke my crystal vase to pieces. □ I dropped a glass and broke it to pieces.

break something to someone to tell bad news to someone. □ I hated to break the news to Dad about his car. □ Bill broke it to his employees gently.

break the back of something to end the domination of something; to reduce the power of something. □ The government has worked for years to break the back of organized crime. □ This new medicine should break the back of the epidemic.

break the bank to use up all one's money. (As in casino gambling where a gambler wins more money than the house has on hand.) □ It will hardly break the bank if we go out to dinner just once. □ Buying a new dress at that price won't break the bank.

break the habit Go to break a habit.

break the ice to initiate social interchanges and conversation; to get something started. (Also literal.) □ Tom is so outgoing. He's always the first one to break the ice at parties. □ It's hard to break the ice at formal events. □ Sally broke the ice by bidding $20,000 for the painting.

break the law Go to break a law.

break the news (to someone) to tell someone some important news, usually bad news. □ The doctor had to break the news to Jane about her husband's cancer. □ I hope that the doctor broke the news gently.

break through (something) to overcome something nonphysical, such as a barrier caused by law, regulation, prejudice, attitude, etc. (Also literal.) □ Tom was able to break through racial barriers. □ The scientists broke through the mystery surrounding the disease and found the cause.

break up (with someone) to end a love affair or a romance. □ Tom finally broke up with Mary. □ I thought they would break up. He has been so moody lately.

breaking and entering the crime of forcing one's way into a place. (A criminal charge.) □ Max was charged with four counts of breaking and entering. □ It was not an act of breaking and entering. The thief just opened the door and walked right in.

a breath of fresh air 1. air that is not stale or smelly. (This is the literal sense.) □ I feel faint. I think I need a breath of fresh air. □ You look ill, John. What you need is a breath of fresh air. 2. air that is not (figuratively) contaminated with unpleasant people or situations. (This is a sarcastic version of sense 1.) □ You people are disgusting. I have to get out of here and get a breath of fresh air. □ I believe I'll go get a breath of fresh air. The intellectual atmosphere in here is stifling. 3. a new, fresh, and imaginative approach (to something). (Usually with like.) □ Sally, with all her wonderful ideas, is a breath of fresh air. □ New furniture in this room is like a breath of fresh air.

breathe down someone's neck 1. to keep close watch on someone; to watch someone's activities. (Also literal. Refers to standing very close behind a person.) □ I can't work with you breathing down my neck all the time. Go away. □ I will get through my life without your help. Stop breathing down my neck. 2. to try to hurry someone along; to make someone get something done on time. (The subject does not have to be a person. See the second example.) □ I have to finish my taxes today. The tax collector is breathing down my neck. □ I have a deadline breathing down my neck.

breathe easy to assume a relaxed state after a stressful period. (Also literal.) □ After all this is over, I'll be able to breathe easy again. □ He won't be able to breathe easy until he pays off his debts.

breathe one's last to die; to breathe one's last breath in the process of dying. □ Mrs. Smith breathed her last this morning. □ I'll keep running every day until I breathe my last.

brew a plot to plot something; to make a plot. □ The children brewed an evil plot to get revenge on their teacher. □ We brewed a plot so that we would not have to help with dinner.

bricks and mortar buildings. (The buildings referred to can be constructed out of anything.) □ The new president of the college preferred to invest in new faculty members rather than bricks and mortar. □ Sometimes people are happy to donate millions of dollars for bricks and mortar, but they never think of the additional cost of annual maintenance.

bright and early very early. □ Yes, I'll be there bright and early. □ I want to see you here on time tomorrow, bright and early, or you're fired!

bright as a button Go to (as) bright as a button.

bright as a new pin Go to (as) bright as a new pin.

bright-eyed and bushy-tailed very cheerful and eager. (Refers to the twinkling eyes and quick, energetic movements of a squirrel.) □ She appeared at the top of the stairs, bright-eyed and bushy-tailed, ready to start the day. □ I am awake, but I am hardly bright-eyed and bushy-tailed.

brimming with something 1. full of some kind of happy behavior. □ The volunteer worker was brimming with goodwill. □ The giggling children were brimming with joy. 2. full to the point of overflowing. □ Tom's glass was brimming with milk. □ The pool was brimming with water.

bring down the curtain (on something) Go to ring down the curtain (on something).

bring down the house to excite a theatrical audience to laughter or applause or both. □ Her performance didn't bring down the house—it emptied it. □ This is a great joke. The last time I told it, it brought the house down.

bring home the bacon to earn a salary. (Folksy.) □ I've got to get to work if I'm going to bring home the bacon. □ Go out and get a job so you can bring home the bacon.

bring people or other creatures out in droves to lure or draw out someone or some creature in great number. □ The availability of free drinks brought people out in droves. □ The fresh grass sprouts brought the deer out in droves.

bring someone around 1. to bring someone for a visit; to bring someone for someone (else) to meet. □ Please bring your wife around sometime. I'd love to meet her. □ You've just got to bring the doctor around for dinner. 2. to bring someone to consciousness. □ The doctor brought Tom around with smelling salts. □ The boxer was knocked out, but the doctor brought him around. 3. to persuade someone (to accept something); to manage to get someone to agree (to something). □ The last debate brought a lot of voters around to our candidate. □ I knew I could bring her around if I just had enough time to talk to her.

bring someone or something up 1. to mention a person or a thing. □ I'm sorry. I won't bring him up again. □ Please don't bring up that matter again. □ Please don't bring up John Jones's name again. 2. to raise a child or an animal. □ Her uncle brought her up. □ It's difficult to bring up a pet monkey.

bring someone or something up-to-date to make someone or something more modern. (See also bring someone up-to-date (on someone or something).) □ Let's buy some new furniture and bring this room up-to-date. □ John tried to bring himself up-to-date by changing his hairstyle, but he still looked like the same old John.

bring someone to to bring someone to consciousness; to wake someone up. (See also bring someone around; come to.) □ The nurse brought the patient to. □ She's hurt! Come on, help me bring her to.

bring someone up-to-date (on someone or something) to tell someone the news about something. □ Please bring me up-to-date on the Middle East situation. □ Please bring me up-to-date on John. I want to hear all the news. □ And bring me up-to-date, too.

bring something about to make something happen. □ Is she clever enough to bring it about? □ Oh, yes, she can bring about anything she wants.

bring something crashing down (around one) to destroy something that one has built; to destroy something that one has a special interest in. □ She brought her whole life crashing down around her. □

Bob's low grade in English brought everything crashing down when his parents grounded him.

bring something home to someone to cause someone to realize the truth of something. □ Seeing the starving refugees on television really brings home the tragedy of their situation. □ It wasn't until she failed her test that the importance of studying was brought home to her.

bring something into question to question something; to raise a question about something. □ It was necessary to bring your part in this matter into question. □ The city council brought the building project into question.

bring something off to make something happen; to produce a great event. □ She managed to bring the party off with no difficulty. □ She brought off a similar party last season.

bring something to a head to cause something to come to the point when a decision has to be made or an action taken. □ The latest disagreement between management and the union has brought matters to a head. There will be an all-out strike now. □ It's a relief that things have been brought to a head. The disputes have been going on for months.

bring something to light to make something known; to discover something. □ The scientists brought their findings to light. □ We must bring this new evidence to light.

bring something to someone's attention to make someone aware of something; to mention or show something to someone. □ I would like to bring this problem to your attention. □ If there is something I should know about, please bring it to my attention.

bring up the rear to move along behind everyone else; to be at the end of the line. (Originally referred to marching soldiers.) □ Here comes John, bringing up the rear. □ Hurry up, Tom! Why are you always bringing up the rear?

broad as a barn door Go to (as) broad as a barn door.

broad in the beam with wide hips or large buttocks. (From a nautical expression for a wide ship.) □ I am getting a little broad in the beam. It's time to go on a diet. □ John is just naturally broad in the beam.

[brother's keeper] Go to one's brother's keeper.

brush up (on something) to review something, especially a school subject. □ I think I should brush up on my Spanish before I go to Mexico. □ I've heard you speak Spanish. You need to do more than brush up.

buck for something to aim, try, or strike for a goal. (Originally referred to trying to get a higher military rank.) □ Bill acts that way because he's bucking for corporal. □ Tom is bucking for a larger office.

buck up cheer up. □ Buck up, old friend! Things can't be all that bad. □ I know I have to buck up. Life must go on.

buckle down (to something) to settle down to something; to begin to work seriously at something. □ If you don't buckle down to your job, you'll be fired. □ You had better buckle down and get busy.

bug out to leave; to pack up and get out. (Slang.) □ It's time to bug out. Let's get out of here. □ I just got a call from headquarters. They say to bug out immediately.

bug someone to irritate someone; to bother someone. (Slang.) □ Go away! Stop bugging me! □ Leave me alone. Go bug someone else.

build a case (against someone) AND assemble a case (against someone); gather a case (against someone) to put together the evidence needed to make a legal or disciplinary case against someone. □ The police easily built a case against the drunken driver. □ As soon as we gather the case against her, we will arrest her.

build a fire under someone to do something to make someone else start doing something. (Informal.) □ The teacher built a fire under the students, and they really started working. □ Somebody built a fire under Bill, so he finally went out and got a job.

build castles in Spain Go to build castles in the air.

build castles in the air AND build castles in Spain to daydream; to make plans that can never come true. □ Ann spends most of her time building castles in Spain. □ I really like to sit on the porch in the evening, just building castles in the air.

build (someone or something) up 1. to make someone or something stronger or bigger. □ Tom is eating lots of fresh fruits and vegetables to build himself up for basketball. □ Tom needs to build up. □ Tom needs to build himself up. □ The farmer built up his stone fences where they had weakened. 2. to advertise, praise, or promote someone or something. □ Theatrical agents work very hard to build up their clients. □ An advertising agency can build up a product so much that everyone will want it.

build something to order to build something especially for the customer who ordered it. (See also make something to order.) □ Our new car was built to order just for us. □ My company builds computers to order. No two are alike.

build up to something to lead up to something; to work up to something. □ You could tell by the way she was talking that she was building up to something. □ The sky was building up to a storm.

a bull in a china shop a very clumsy or wild person around breakable things; a thoughtless or tactless person. (China is fine crockery.) □ Look at Bill, as awkward as a bull in a china shop. □ Get that big dog out of my garden. It's like a bull in a china shop. □ Bob is so rude, a regular bull in a china shop.

bump into someone AND run into someone to chance on someone; to meet someone by chance. (Also literal.) □ Guess who I bumped into downtown today? □ I ran into Bob Jones yesterday.

bump someone off AND knock someone off to kill someone. (Slang, especially criminal slang.) □ They tried to bump her off, but she was too clever and got away. ☐ The crooks bumped off the witness to the crime. ☐ They tried to knock them all off.

a bundle of nerves someone who is very nervous and anxious. ☐ Mary was a bundle of nerves until she heard that she passed the test. ☐ You always seem to be such a bundle of nerves.

burn one's bridges (behind one) 1. to make decisions that cannot be changed in the future. ☐ If you drop out of school now, you'll be burning your bridges behind you. ☐ You're too young to burn your bridges that way. 2. to be unpleasant in a situation that you are leaving, ensuring that you'll never be welcome to return. ☐ If you get mad and quit your job, you'll be burning your bridges behind you. ☐ No sense burning your bridges. Be polite and leave quietly. 3. to cut off the way back to where you came from, making it impossible to retreat. ☐ The army, which had burned its bridges behind it, couldn't go back. ☐ By blowing up the road, the spies had burned their bridges behind them.

burn one's bridges in front of one to create future problems for oneself. (A play on burn one's bridges (behind one).) ☐ I made a mistake again. I always seem to burn my bridges in front of me. ☐ I accidentally insulted a math teacher whom I will have to take a course from next semester. I am burning my bridges in front of me.

burn (oneself) out to do something so long and so intensely that one gets sick and tired of doing it and can no longer do it well. ☐ I burned myself out as an opera singer. I just cannot do it anymore. ☐ Tom burned himself out playing golf. He can't stand it anymore. ☐ Tom burned out too young.

burn out [for electrical or mechanical devices] to break down and become useless. ☐ I hope the light bulb in the ceiling doesn't burn out. I can't reach it. ☐ The motor burned out.

burn someone at the stake 1. to set fire to a person tied to a post (as a form of execution). ☐ They used to burn witches at the stake. ☐ Look, officer, I only ran a stop sign. What are you going to do, burn me at the stake? 2. to chastise or denounce someone severely, but without violence. ☐ Stop yelling. I made a simple mistake, and you're burning me at the stake for it. ☐ Sally only spilled her milk. There is no need to shout. Don't burn her at the stake for it.

burn someone in effigy to burn a dummy or other figure that represents a hated person. (See also hang someone in effigy.) ☐ For the third day in a row, they burned the king in effigy. ☐ Until they have burned you in effigy, you can't really be considered a famous leader.

burn someone or something to a crisp to burn someone or something totally or very badly. ☐ The flames burned him to a crisp. ☐ The cook burned the meat to a crisp.

burn someone up to make someone very angry. (Informal.) ☐ People like that just burn me up! ☐ It burns me up to hear you talk that way. ☐ His answers really burned up the committee members.

burn the candle at both ends to work very hard and stay up very late at night. ☐ No wonder Mary is ill. She has been burning the candle at both ends for a long time. ☐ You can't keep on burning the candle at both ends.

burn the midnight oil to stay up working, especially studying, late at night. (Refers to working by the light of an oil lamp.) ☐ I have to go home and burn the midnight oil tonight. ☐ If you burn the midnight oil night after night, you'll probably become ill.

burn with a low blue flame to be very angry. (Refers to the imaginary heat caused by extreme anger. A blue flame is a hot flame.) ☐ By the time she showed up three hours late, I was burning with a low blue flame. ☐ Whenever Ann gets mad, she just presses her lips together and burns with a low blue flame.

burned to a cinder burned very badly. (Not necessarily literal.) ☐ I stayed out in the sun too long, and I am burned to a cinder. ☐ This toast is burnt to a cinder.

burned up very angry. □ I've never been so burned up in my life. □ I'm really burned up at Bob.

burst at the seams [for someone] to “explode” (figuratively) with pride or laughter. (Also literal with things.) □ Tom nearly burst at the seams with pride. □ We laughed so hard we just about burst at the seams.

burst in on someone or something [for someone] to enter a room, interrupting someone or some activity. (Often without knocking or seeking permission to enter.) □ Tom burst in on his sister and her boyfriend while they were kissing. □ I must ask you not to burst in on a board meeting again. Whatever it is can wait.

burst into flames to catch fire suddenly; to ignite all at once. □ Suddenly, the car burst into flames. □ It was so hot in the forest fire that a few trees literally burst into flames.

burst into tears AND burst out crying to begin to cry suddenly. (See also break (out) in (to) tears.) □ After the last notes of her song, the audience burst into tears, such was its beauty and tenderness. □ The brother and sister burst into tears on hearing of the death of their dog. □ Some people find themselves bursting out crying for no reason at all.

burst onto the scene to appear suddenly in a location. □ When Charles burst onto the scene, no one was prepared for the news he brought. □ The police suddenly burst onto the scene and arrested everyone present.

burst out crying Go to burst into tears.

burst out laughing to begin to laugh suddenly. □ The entire audience burst out laughing at exactly the wrong time, and so did the actors. □ Every time I think of you sitting there with a lap full of noodle soup, I burst out laughing.

burst someone's bubble to destroy someone's illusion or delusion; to destroy someone's fantasy. □ I hate to burst your bubble, but Columbus did not discover Canada. □ Even if I am completely wrong, please don't burst my bubble.

burst with joy to be full to the bursting point with happiness. (See also burst at the seams.) □ When I got my grades, I could have burst with joy. □ Joe was not exactly bursting with joy when he got the news.

burst with pride to be full to the bursting point with pride. (See also burst at the seams.) □ My parents were bursting with pride when I graduated from college. □ I almost burst with pride when I was chosen to go up in the space shuttle.

bury one's head in the sand AND hide one's head in the sand to ignore or hide from obvious signs of danger. (Refers to an ostrich, which we picture with its head stuck into the sand or the ground.) □ Stop burying your head in the sand. Look at the statistics on smoking and cancer. □ And stop hiding your head in the sand. All of us will die somehow, whether we smoke or not.

bury the hatchet to stop fighting or arguing; to end old resentments. □ All right, you two. Calm down and bury the hatchet. □ I wish Mr. and Mrs. Franklin would bury the hatchet. They argue all the time.

business as usual having things go along as usual. □ Right after the flood, it was business as usual in all the stores. □ Please, everyone, business as usual. Let's get back to work.

the business end of something the part or end of something that actually does the work or carries out the procedure. □ Keep away from the business end of the electric drill to avoid getting hurt. □ Don't point the business end of that gun at anyone. It might go off.

a busman's holiday leisure time spent doing something similar to what one does at work. □ Tutoring students in the evening is too much of a busman's holiday for our English teacher. □ It's a bit of a busman's holiday to ask her to be wardrobe mistress for our amateur production in the summer. She's a professional dressmaker.

bust a gut (to do something) to work very hard; to strain oneself to do something. (Slang. Gut is considered impolite in some circumstances. Bust is an informal form of burst.) □ I don't intend to bust a gut to get there on time. □ I busted a gut to get there the last time, and I was the first one there.

busy as a beaver Go to (as) busy as a beaver.

busy as a beaver (building a new dam) Go to (as) busy as a beaver (building a new dam).

busy as a bee Go to (as) busy as a beaver.

busy as a cat on a hot tin roof Go to (as) busy as a cat on a hot tin roof.

busy as a hibernating bear Go to (as) busy as a hibernating bear.

busy as a one-armed paperhanger Go to (as) busy as a one-armed paperhanger.

busy as Grand Central Station Go to (as) busy as Grand Central Station.

busy as popcorn on a skillet Go to (as) busy as popcorn on a skillet.

but for someone or something if it were not for someone or something. □ But for the railing, I'd have fallen down the stairs. □ But for the children, Mrs. Smith would have left her husband years ago.

butt in (on someone or something) to interrupt someone or something. □ Pardon me for butting in on your conversation, but this is important. □ John butted in on Tom and Jane to tell them that the mail had come. □ That's a strange reason to butt in. What was in the mail?

butter someone up to praise and flatter someone, usually with the intention of requesting a favor. □ I believe my landlady prefers for me to butter her up rather than getting the rent on time. □ If I butter up the teacher, will he give me a good grade?

button one's lip to get quiet and stay quiet. (Often used with children.) □ All right now, let's button our lips and listen to the story. □ Button your lip, Tom! I'll tell you when you can talk.

buy a pig in a poke to purchase or accept something without having seen or examined it. (Poke means "bag." Compare this with buy something sight unseen.) □ Buying a car without test-driving it is like buying a pig in a poke. □ He bought a pig in a poke when he ordered a diamond ring by mail.

buy someone off to bribe someone; to win someone over by gifts or favors. □ It's not hard to buy politicians off. □ They bought off the whole city council with campaign contributions.

buy something to believe someone; to accept something to be a fact. (Also literal. Informal.) □ It may be true, but I don't buy it. □ I just don't buy the idea that you can swim that far.

buy something for a song to buy something cheaply. □ No one else wanted it, so I bought it for a song. □ I could buy this house for a song, because it's so ugly.

buy something on credit to purchase something now and pay for it later (plus interest). (See also sell something on credit.) □ Almost everyone who buys a house buys it on credit. □ I didn't have any cash with me, so I used my credit card and bought a new coat on credit.

buy something sight unseen to buy something without seeing it first. (Compare this with buy a pig in a poke.) □ I bought this land sight unseen. I didn't know it was so rocky. □ It isn't usually safe to buy something sight unseen.

buy something to go AND get something to go; have something to go; order something to go to purchase food to take out; to make a purchase of cooked food to be taken elsewhere to be eaten. □ Let's stop here and buy six hamburgers to go. □ I didn't thaw anything for dinner. Let's stop off on the way home and get something to go. □ No, I don't want to sit at a table. I'll just have a cup of coffee to go.

by a hair('s breadth) AND by a whisker just barely; by a very small distance. (The whisker phrase is folksy.) □ I just missed getting on the plane by a hair's breadth. □ I made it by a hair! □ The arrow missed the deer by a whisker.

by all accounts Go to according to all accounts.

by all appearances apparently; according to what one sees. □ She is, by all appearances, ready to resume work. □ By all appearances, we ought to be approaching the airport.

by all means certainly; yes; absolutely. (Compare this with by any means.) □ I will attempt to get there by all means. □ BOB: Can you come to dinner tomorrow? JANE: By all means. I'd love to.

by all means of something using every possible manner of something to do something. □ People will be arriving by all means of transportation. □ The surgeon performed the operation by all means of instruments.

by a mile by a great distance. (Also literal. An exaggeration in this case.) □ You missed the target by a mile. □ Your estimate of the budget deficit was off by a mile.

by and by after a period of time has passed. (Most often seen in children's stories.) □ By and by the bears returned home, and can you guess what they found? □ And by and by the little boy became a tall and handsome prince.

by and large generally; usually. (Originally a nautical expression.) □ I find that, by and large, people tend to do what they are told to do. □ By and large, rosebushes need lots of care.

by any means by any way possible. □ I need to get there soon by any means. □ I must win this contest by any means, fair or unfair. □ It cannot be done by any means.

by a show of hands a vote expressed by people raising their hands. □ We were asked to vote for the candidates for captain by a show of hands. □ Bob wanted us to vote on paper, not by a show of hands, so that we could have a secret ballot.

by a whisker Go to by a hair('s breadth).

by chance accidentally; randomly; without planning. □ I found this book by chance at a book sale. □ We met by chance in a class in college.

by check by using a check. □ He paid for the book by check. □ You will be paid by check.

by choice due to conscious choice; on purpose. □ I do this kind of thing by choice. No one makes me do it. □ I didn't go to this college by choice. It was the closest one to home.

by coincidence by an accidental and strange similarity; by an unplanned pair of similar events or occurrences. □ We just happened to be in the same place at the same time by coincidence. □ By coincidence, the circus was in town when I was there. I'm glad because I love circuses.

by day AND by night during the day; during the night. □ By day, Mary worked in an office; by night, she took classes. □ Dave slept by day and worked by night.

by dint of something because of something; due to the efforts of something. (Dint is an old word meaning "force," and it is never used except in this phrase.) □ They got the building finished on time by dint of hard work and good organization. □ By dint of much studying, John got through college.

by fits and starts irregularly; unevenly; with much stopping and starting. □ Somehow, they got the job done by fits and starts. □ By fits and starts, the old car finally got us to town.

by guess and by golly by luck; with the help of God. (Folksy. Golly is a disguise of God.) □ They managed to get the shed built by guess and by golly. □ I lost my ruler and had to install the new floor tile by guess and by golly.

by herself 1. with no one else present; alone. □ She hates to go to strange places by herself. □ She sat by herself at a table big enough for six people. 2. with the help of no one else. □ She can do it by herself. □ Susan is unable to get there by herself.

by himself 1. alone; with no one else present. □ He is home by himself tonight. □ He hates to eat by himself. It makes him feel lonely. 2. with the help of no one else. □ Can he do it by himself? □ The two-year-old boy can get dressed by himself.

by hook or (by) crook by any means, legal or illegal. (Folksy.) ☐ I'll get the job done by hook or by crook. ☐ I must have that house. I intend to get it by hook or crook.

by itself with the help of nothing else; without the addition of anything else. ☐ Will this be enough by itself? ☐ Can the dog get out of the house by itself?

by leaps and bounds rapidly; by large movements forward. ☐ Our garden is growing by leaps and bounds. ☐ The profits of my company are increasing by leaps and bounds.

by means of something using something; with the use of something. ☐ I opened the bottle by means of a bottle opener. ☐ I was able to afford a car by means of a loan.

by mistake in error; accidentally. ☐ I'm sorry. I came into the wrong room by mistake. ☐ I chose the wrong road by mistake. Now we are lost.

by myself 1. with no one else present; alone. ☐ I sat at the table by myself. ☐ I will not be at the party. I will be at home by myself tonight. 2. without the help of anyone else. ☐ I did it all by myself. ☐ Do you think I can eat this whole pie by myself?

by night Go to by day.

by no means absolutely not; certainly not. ☐ I'm by no means angry with you. ☐ BOB: Did you put this box here? TOM: By no means. I didn't do it, I'm sure.

by oneself 1. with no one else present; alone. ☐ Must one sit by oneself or may one join another group? ☐ One just hates eating by oneself, doesn't one? 2. with the help of no one else. ☐ One is expected to do it by oneself. ☐ Can one do this by oneself?

by ourselves 1. with no one else present; alone. ☐ Do we have to sit here by ourselves? Can't we sit with Mary and Max? ☐ We like to eat by ourselves, so we can talk about private matters. 2. with the help of no one else. ☐ We can do it by ourselves. ☐ Can we lift this by ourselves, or do we need some help?

by return mail by a subsequent mailing (back to the sender). (A phrase indicating that an answer is expected soon, by mail.) ☐ Since this bill is overdue, would you kindly send us your check by return mail? ☐ I answered your request by return mail over a year ago. Please check your records.

by shank's mare by foot. (Shank refers to the shank of the leg. Folksy. See also go (somewhere) by shank's mare.) ☐ My car isn't working, so I'll have to travel by shank's mare. ☐ I'm sore because I've been getting around by shank's mare.

by the each; per. (Used to show a unit of measure, but not the rate of a measure.) ☐ Lettuce is sold by the head. ☐ Gas is sold by the gallon.

by the book Go to by the numbers.

by the day one day at a time. ☐ I don't know when I'll have to leave town, so I rent this room by the day. ☐ Sally is in such distress. She manages to live only by the day.

by the dozen twelve at a time; in a group of twelve. (Almost the same as the following entry.) ☐ I purchase socks by the dozen. ☐ Eggs are usually sold by the dozen. ☐ Around here we have problems by the dozen.

by the dozens many; by some large, indefinite number. (Similar to but less than hundreds. Almost the same as the previous entry.) ☐ Just then people began showing up by the dozens. ☐ I baked cakes and pies by the dozens.

by the handful in measurements equal to a handful; lots. ☐ Billy is eating candy by the handful. ☐ People began leaving by the handful at midnight.

by the hour at each hour; after each hour. ☐ It kept growing darker by the hour. ☐ I have to take this medicine by the hour. ☐ The illness is getting worse by the hour.

by the month one month at a time. ☐ Not many apartments are rented by the month. ☐ I needed a car for a short while, so I rented one by the month.

by themselves 1. with help from no one else. ☐ Do you think they can do it by themselves? □ Mike and Max cannot lift the piano by themselves. 2. with no one else present; alone. □ They are sitting there by themselves. Let's sit with them. □ They enjoy spending the evening at home by themselves.

by the nape of the neck by the back of the neck. (Mostly found in real or mock threats.) □ He grabbed me by the nape of the neck and told me not to turn around if I valued my life. I stood very still. □ If you do that again, I'll pick you up by the nape of the neck and throw you out the door.

by the numbers AND by the book according to the rules. (Informal.) □ He always plays the game by the numbers. He never cheats. □ I want all my people to go by the numbers. This place is totally honest. □ We always go by the book in matters like this.

by the same token in the same way; reciprocally. □ Tom must be good when he comes here, and, by the same token, I expect you to behave properly when you go to his house. □ The mayor votes for his friend's causes. By the same token, the friend votes for the mayor's causes.

by the seat of one's pants by sheer luck and very little skill. (Informal. Especially with to fly.) □ I got through school by the seat of my pants. □ The jungle pilot spent most of his days flying by the seat of his pants.

by the skin of one's teeth just barely; by an amount equal to the thickness of the (imaginary) skin on one's teeth. (Informal or slang.) □ I got through that class by the skin of my teeth. □ I got to the airport late and missed the plane by the skin of my teeth.

by the sweat of one's brow by one's efforts; by one's hard work. □ Tom raised these vegetables by the sweat of his brow. □ Sally polished the car by the sweat of her brow.

by the way incidentally; in addition; while I think of it. □ By the way, I'm not going to the bank today. □ Oh, by the way, your shoes need polishing.

by the week one week at a time. □ I plan my schedules by the week. □ Where can I rent a room by the week?

by the year one year at a time. □ Most apartments are available by the year. □ We budget by the year.

by virtue of something because of something; due to something. □ She's permitted to vote by virtue of her age. □ They are members of the club by virtue of their great wealth.

by way of something 1. passing through something; via something. □ He came home by way of Toledo. □ She went to the bank by way of the drugstore. 2. in illustration; as an example. □ By way of illustration, the professor drew a picture on the board. □ He read them a passage from Shakespeare by way of example.

by word of mouth by speaking rather than writing. □ I learned about it by word of mouth. □ I need it in writing. I don't trust things I hear about by word of mouth.

by yourself 1. with no one else present; alone. □ Do you want to sit here by yourself, or can I sit here too? □ Don't sit at home by yourself. Come to the movie with me. 2. with the help of no one else. □ Can you really do this by yourself? □ Bill, can you lift this by yourself?

by yourselves 1. with no one else present; alone. □ Are you two going to sit here by yourselves all evening? □ Don't sit home by yourselves. Come to the party. 2. with the help of no one else. □ Can you do this by yourselves? □ Can all of you get to the meeting by yourselves?

C

call a meeting to ask that people assemble for a meeting; to request that a meeting be held. ☐ The mayor called a meeting to discuss the problem. ☐ I'll be calling a meeting of the town council to discuss the new building project.

call a spade a spade to call something by its right name; to speak frankly about something, even if it is unpleasant. ☐ Well, I believe it's time to call a spade a spade. We are just avoiding the issue. ☐ Let's call a spade a spade. The man is a liar.

call for someone or something 1. to arrive to collect or pick up a person or a thing. (Used especially when you are to pick someone up and are acting as an escort.) ☐ I will call for you about eight this evening. ☐ The messenger will call for your reply in the morning. 2. to need, require, or demand something or the services of someone. ☐ The recipe calls for two cups of flour. ☐ This job calls for someone with good eyesight.

call it a day to quit work and go home; to say that a day's work has been completed. ☐ I'm tired. Let's call it a day. ☐ The boss was mad because Tom called it a day at noon and went home.

call it a night to end what one is doing at night and go [home] to bed. ☐ At midnight, I called it a night and went to bed. ☐ Guest after guest called it a night, and at last we were alone.

call it quits to quit; to resign from something; to announce that one is quitting. (Informal.) ☐ Okay! I've had enough! I'm calling it quits. ☐ Time to go home, John. Let's call it quits.

call of nature the need to go to the lavatory. (Humorous.) ☐ Stop the car here! I have to answer the call of nature. ☐ There was no break in the agenda to take account of the call of nature.

call on someone to visit someone. ☐ I have to call on my aunt this Sunday. ☐ Bill called on his brother in the hospital.

call out (to someone) to shout to someone. ☐ Mike called out to Tom that there was a telephone call for him. ☐ I heard someone call out, but I could see no one.

call someone down to reprimand a person; to bawl someone out. ☐ The teacher had to call Sally down in front of everybody. ☐ "I wish you wouldn't call me down in public," cried Sally.

call someone names to call a person unpleasant or insulting names. (Usually viewed as a juvenile act.) ☐ Mommy! John is calling me names again! ☐ We'll never get anywhere by calling one another names.

call someone on the carpet to reprimand a person. (The phrase presents images of a person called into the boss's carpeted office for a reprimand.) ☐ One more error like that and the boss will call you on the carpet. ☐ I'm sorry it went wrong. I really hope he doesn't call me on the carpet again.

call someone or something in to call on the special talents, abilities, or power of someone or something. ☐ They had to call a new doctor in. ☒ Yes, they had to call in a specialist. ☒ They had to call in a huge tractor to move the boulder.

call someone or something into question to cause someone or something to be evaluated; to examine or reexamine the qualifications or value of someone or something. ☐ Because of her poor record, we were forced to call Dr. Jones into question. ☐ We called Dr. Jones's qualifications into question. ☐ They called the whole project into question. ☒ I cannot call into question the entire medical profession.

call someone or something off 1. to call a halt to an attack by someone or something. ☐ Please call your dog off. It's trying to bite me! ☒ Okay, you can call off the police. I surrender. ☒ It's time to call off the man-hunt. The criminal has given himself up.
2. [with something] to cancel an event. ☐ It's too late to call the party off. The first guests have already arrived. ☒ Because of rain, they called off the baseball game.

call someone or something up 1. to call a person, business, or office on the telephone. ☐ Mary called the company up and ordered a new supply of medicine. ☒ Tom called up Mary. 2. [with something] to summon information from a computer. ☒ John used a computer to call up the information. ☒ With a few strokes on the computer keyboard, Sally called up the figures she was looking for.

call someone's bluff to demonstrate that a person is or is not being deceptive, usually by demanding that the person prove a claim or carry out a threat. ☐ All right, I'll call your bluff. Show me you can do it! ☐ Tom said, "I've got a gun here in my pocket, and I'll shoot if you come any closer!" "Go ahead," said Bill, calling his bluff.

call the dogs off to stop threatening, chasing, or hounding (a person). (Also literal. Informal. Note the variation in the examples.) ☐ All right, I surrender. You can call your dogs off. ☒ Tell the sheriff to call off the dogs. We caught the robber. ☒ Please call off your dogs!

call the meeting to order to start a meeting officially; to announce that the meeting has started. ☐ The president called the meeting to order shortly after noon. ☐ We cannot do anything until someone calls the meeting to order.

call (the) roll AND take (the) roll to call the names of people on the rolls, expecting them to reply if they are present. ☐ After I call the roll, please open your books to page 12. ☐ I will take roll, and then we will do arithmetic.

call the shots AND call the tune to make the decisions; to decide what is to be done. (Informal.) ☐ Sally always wants to call the shots, and Mary doesn't like to be bossed around. They don't get along well. ☐ Sally always wants to call the tune. ☐ Look here, friend, I'm calling the shots. You just be quiet.

call the tune Go to call the shots.

calm as a toad in the sun Go to (as) calm as a toad in the sun.

the calm before the storm Go to the lull before the storm.

can take it to the bank able to depend on the truthfulness of my statement: it is not counterfeit or bogus; to be able to bank on something. ☐ Believe me. What I am telling you is the truth. You can take it to the bank. ☐ This information is as good as gold. You can take it to the bank.

Can you imagine? Can you believe that?; Imagine that! ☐ She wore jeans to the dance. Can you imagine? ☐ Billy was eating the houseplant! Can you imagine?

cancel something out to destroy the effect of something; to balance something. ☒ This last payment cancels out my debt. ☐ Yes, your last payment cancels it out. ☒ Bob's two good grades canceled out his two failing grades.

cannot help doing something not able to refrain from doing something; not able not to do something. ☐ Anne is such a good cook, I can't help eating everything she makes. ☐ Since John loves to shop, he can't help spending money.

cannot stomach someone or something Go to not able to stomach someone or something.

[can't] Go to the expressions listed at not able, as well as those listed below.

can't carry a tune [to be] unable to sing a simple melody; lacking musical ability.

(Almost always negative. Also with cannot.) □ I wish that Tom wouldn't try to sing. He can't carry a tune. □ Listen to poor old John. He really cannot carry a tune.

can't do anything with someone or something not [to be] able to manage or control someone or something. (Also with cannot.) □ Bill is such a problem. I can't do anything with him. □ My hair is such a mess. I just can't do anything with it.

can't help but do something [to be] unable to choose any but one course of action. (Also with cannot.) □ Her parents live nearby, so she can't help but go there on holidays. □ Bob is a tennis fan and can't help but travel to Wimbledon each year.

can't hold a candle to someone not [to be] equal to someone; unable to measure up to someone. (Also with cannot.) □ Mary can't hold a candle to Ann when it comes to auto racing. □ As for singing, John can't hold a candle to Jane.

can't make heads or tails (out) of someone or something [to be] unable to understand someone or something. (Also with cannot.) □ John is so strange. I can't make heads or tails of him. □ Do this report again. I can't make heads or tails out of it.

can't see beyond the end of one's nose [to be] unaware of the things that might happen in the future; not farsighted; self-centered. (Also with cannot.) □ John is a very poor planner. He can't see beyond the end of his nose. □ Ann can't see beyond the end of her nose. She is very self-centered.

can't see one's hand in front of one's face [to be] unable to see very far, usually due to darkness or fog. (Also with cannot.) □ It was so dark that I couldn't see my hand in front of my face. □ Bob said that the fog was so thick he couldn't see his hand in front of his face.

can't stand (the sight of) someone or something AND can't stomach someone or something [to be] unable to tolerate someone or something; disliking someone or something extremely. (Also with cannot.) □ I can't stand the sight of cooked carrots.

□ Mr. Jones can't stand the sight of blood. □ None of us can stand this place. □ Nobody can stand Tom when he smokes a cigar. □ I can't stomach your foul language. □ I just can't stomach Mr. Smith.

can't stomach someone or something Go to can't stand (the sight of) someone or something.

can't wait (for something to happen) [to be very eager and] to be unable to endure the wait for something to happen. □ I am so anxious for my birthday to come. I just can't wait. □ Tom can't wait for Mary to arrive.

can't wait (to do something) [to be very eager and] unable to endure the wait until it is possible to do something. □ I'm glad it's almost summertime—I just can't wait to go swimming! □ Jimmy can't wait to go to school tomorrow.

cap and gown the academic cap or mortarboard and the robe worn in academic ceremonies. □ We all had to rent cap and gown for graduation. □ I appeared wearing my cap and gown, but I had shorts on underneath because it gets so hot at that time of year.

capable of doing something having the ability to do something. □ Do you think Tom is capable of lifting 200 pounds? □ No one I know is capable of such a crime!

a card an entertaining and clever person who says or does funny things. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ He is such a card. Always making jokes. □ Mary is a card, and someone is going to have to deal with her!

the cards are stacked against one luck is against one. (Informal. Refers to playing cards. See also have the cards stacked against one; stack the cards (against someone or something).) □ I have the worst luck. The cards are stacked against me all the time. □ How can I accomplish anything when the cards are stacked against me?

carried away excited or moved to (extreme) action (by someone or something). □ The crowd got carried away and did a lot of damage to the park. □ I know that planning a party is fun, but don't get carried away.

carry (a lot of) weight (with someone or something) to be very influential with someone or some group of people. □ Your argument does not carry a lot of weight with me. □ The senator's testimony carried a lot of weight with the council. □ Her opinion carries weight with most of the members.

carry a secret to one's grave Go to carry a secret to the grave.

carry a secret to the grave AND carry a secret to one's grave to avoid telling a secret, even to the day of one's death. □ John carried our secret to his grave. □ Trust me, I will carry your secret to the grave!

carry a torch (for someone) to be in love with someone who is not in love with you; to brood over a hopeless love affair. (Also with the.) □ John is carrying a torch for Jane. □ Is John still carrying a torch? □ Yes, he'll carry the torch for months.

carry coals to Newcastle to do something unnecessary; to do something that is redundant or duplicative. (Newcastle is an English town from which coal was shipped to other parts of England.) □ Taking food to a farmer is like carrying coals to Newcastle. □ Mr. Smith is so rich he doesn't need any more money. To give him money is like carrying coals to Newcastle.

carry on (about someone or something) to make a great fuss over someone or something; to cry and become out of control about someone or something. (Note the variation in the examples below.) □ Billy, stop carrying on about your tummy ache like that. □ Billy, you must stop carrying on so. □ The child carried on endlessly about his mother.

carry one's cross Go to bear one's cross.

carry one's (own) weight AND pull one's (own) weight to do one's share; to earn one's keep. □ Tom, you must be more helpful around the house. We all have to carry our own weight. □ Bill, I'm afraid that you can't work here anymore. You just haven't been carrying your weight. □ If you would just pull your weight, we would finish this by noon.

carry on somehow to manage to continue somehow, in spite of problems. □ Even though we did not have a lot of money, we managed to carry on somehow. □ Don't worry about us. We will carry on somehow.

carry on without someone or something to manage to continue without someone or something. □ I don't know how we will be able to carry on without you. □ We can't carry on without a leader!

carry on (with someone or something) 1. [with something] to continue with something. □ Can I please carry on with my work now? □ Yes, please carry on. 2. [with someone] to behave improperly with someone; to be affectionate in public. □ Look at Jane carrying on with Tom. They ought to be ashamed. □ Jane, stop carrying on like that!

carry over to extend into another time period or location. □ I don't like for bills to carry over into the next month. □ Please do not let the paragraph carry over.

carry something off to make a planned event—especially a joke or deception—work out successfully. (Also literal, meaning to take something away. See also pull something off.) □ It was a huge party, but the hostess carried it off beautifully. □ The magician carried off the trick with great skill.

carry something out to perform a task; to perform an assignment. (Also literal meaning to remove something.) □ "This is a very important job," said Jane. "Do you think you can carry it out?" □ The students didn't carry out their assignments.

carry something over to let something like a bill extend into another period of time; to extend to another location. □ We'll carry the amount of money due over into the next month. □ Yes, please carry over the balance. □ We'll have to carry this paragraph over to the next page.

carry the ball 1. to be the player holding the ball, especially in football when a goal is made. (Sports.) □ It was the fullback carrying the ball. ☐ Yes, Tom always carries the ball. 2. to be in charge; to make sure that a job gets done. (See also drop the ball.) ☐ We need someone who knows how to get the job done. Hey, Sally! Why don't you carry the ball for us? ☐ John can't carry the ball. He isn't organized enough.

carry the day AND win the day to be successful; to win a competition, argument, etc. (Originally meaning to win a battle.) ☐ Our team didn't play well at first, but we won the day in the end. ☐ Hard work won the day and James passed his exams.

carry the torch 1. to uphold a set of goals; to lead or participate in a (figurative) crusade. ☐ The battle was over, but John continued to carry the torch. ☐ If Jane hadn't carried the torch, no one would have followed, and the whole thing would have failed. 2. Go to carry a torch (for someone).

carry the weight of the world on one's shoulders to appear to be burdened by all the problems in the whole world. ☐ Look at Tom. He appears to be carrying the weight of the world on his shoulders. ☐ Cheer up, Tom! You don't need to carry the weight of the world on your shoulders.

carry through (on something) Go to follow through (on something).

a case in point an example of what one is talking about. ☐ Now, as a case in point, let's look at nineteenth-century England. ☐ Fireworks can be dangerous. For a case in point, look what happened to Bob Smith last week.

a case of mistaken identity the incorrect identification of someone. ☐ It is simply a case of mistaken identity. ☐ I am not the criminal you want to arrest. This is a case of mistaken identity.

cash-and-carry a method of buying and selling goods at the retail level where the buyer pays cash for the goods and carries the goods away. (As opposed to paying on credit or having something delivered.) ☐ Sorry, we don't accept credit cards. This is strictly cash-and-carry. ☐ I bought the chair cash-and-carry before I realized that there was no way to get it home.

cash in one's chips to die. (Also literal. Slang. From an expression used in gambling, chiefly poker.) ☐ Bob cashed in his chips yesterday. ☐ I'm too young to cash in my chips.

cash in (on something) to earn a lot of money at something; to make a profit at something. (See also cash something in.) ☐ This is a good year for farming, and you can cash in on it if you're smart. ☐ It's too late to cash in on that particular clothing fad.

cash on the barrelhead money paid for something when it is purchased; money paid at the time of sale. (Folksy. See also cash-and-carry.) ☐ I don't extend credit. It's cash on the barrelhead only. ☐ I paid $12,000 for this car—cash on the barrelhead.

cash or credit [a purchase made] either by paying cash or by putting the charges on a credit account. ☐ When Fred had all his purchases assembled on the counter, the clerk asked, "Cash or credit?" ☐ That store does not give you a choice of cash or credit. They want cash only.

cash something in to exchange something with cash value for the amount of money it is worth. ☐ I should have cashed my bonds in years ago. ☐ It's time to cash in your U.S. savings bonds. ☐ I need to cash in an insurance policy.

cast about for someone or something Go to cast around for someone or something.

cast around for someone or something AND cast about for someone or something to seek someone or something; to seek a thought or an idea. (Refers to a type of person rather than a specific person.) ☐ John is casting around for a new cook. The old one quit. ☐ Bob is casting about for a new car. ☐ Mary cast about for a way to win the contest.

cast aspersions on someone to make a rude and insulting remark. ☐ I resent your casting aspersions on my brother and his ability! ☐ It is rude to cast aspersions on people in general.

cast doubt(s) (on someone or something) to cause someone or something to be doubted. □ The police cast doubt on my story. □ How can they cast doubt? They haven't looked into it yet. □ The city council cast doubt on John and his plan. □ They are always casting doubts.

cast in the same mold very similar. □ The two sisters are cast in the same mold—equally mean. □ All the members of the family are cast in the same mold and they all end up in prison.

cast one's lot in with someone to join in with someone and accept whatever happens. □ Mary cast her lot with the group going to Spain. They had a wonderful time. □ I decided to cast in my lot with the home team this year.

cast (one's) pearls before swine to waste something good on someone who doesn't care about it. (From a biblical quotation.) □ To sing for them is to cast pearls before swine. □ To serve them French cuisine is like casting one's pearls before swine.

cast one's vote to vote; to place one's ballot in the ballot box. □ The citizens cast their votes for president. □ The wait in line to cast one's vote was almost an hour.

cast the first stone to make the first criticism; to be the first to attack. (From a biblical quotation.) □ Well, I don't want to be the one to cast the first stone, but she sang horribly. □ John always casts the first stone. Does he think he's perfect?

Cat got your tongue? Why do you not speak?; Speak up and answer my question! (Folksy.) □ Answer me! What's the matter, cat got your tongue? □ Why don't you speak up? Cat got your tongue?

catch-as-catch-can the best one can do with whatever is available. □ We went hitchhiking for a week and lived catch-as-catch-can. □ There were ten children in our family, and every meal was catch-as-catch-can.

catch a whiff of something Go to get a whiff of something.

catch cold AND take cold to contract a cold (the disease). □ Please close the win- dow, or we'll all catch cold. □ I take cold every year at this time.

catch fire to begin to burn; to ignite. □ If the wood were not so wet, it would catch fire more easily. □ The curtains blew against the flame of the candle and caught fire.

catch forty winks AND catch some Zs; take forty winks to take a nap; to get some sleep. (Informal. See also forty winks.) □ I'll just catch forty winks before getting ready for the party. □ Tom always tries to catch some Zs before going out for a late evening. □ I think I'll go to bed and take forty winks. See you in the morning. □ Why don't you go take forty winks and call me in about an hour?

catch hell Go to get the devil.

catch it to get into trouble and receive punishment. (Informal. See also get the devil.) □ I know I'm going to catch it when I get home. □ Bob hit Billy in the face. He really caught it from the teacher.

catch one off one's guard Go to catch someone off guard.

catch one's breath to resume one's normal breathing after exertion; to return to normal after being busy or very active. □ I don't have time to catch my breath. □ I ran so fast that it took ten minutes to catch my breath.

catch one's death (of cold) AND take one's death of cold to contract a cold; to catch a serious cold. (See also catch cold.) □ If I go out in this weather, I'll catch my death of cold. □ Dress up warm or you'll take your death of cold. □ Put on your raincoat or you'll catch your death.

catch one with one's pants down to catch someone doing something, especially something that ought to be done in secret or in private. (Informal. Use with caution. This refers to having one's pants down in the bathroom.) □ John couldn't convince them he was innocent. They caught him with his pants down. □ Did you hear that John took the camera? The store owner caught him with his pants down.

catch (on) fire to ignite and burn with flames. □ Keep your coat away from the flames, or it will catch fire. □ Lightning struck the prairie, and the grass caught on fire.

catch on (to someone or something) to figure someone or something out; to solve a puzzle; to see through an act of deception. □ Mary caught on to Bob and his tricks. □ Ann caught on to the woman's dishonest plan. □ The woman thought that Ann wouldn't catch on.

catch sight of someone or something to see someone or something briefly; to get a glimpse of someone or something. □ I caught sight of the rocket just before it flew out of sight. □ Ann caught sight of the robber as he ran out of the bank.

catch someone in the act (of doing something) to catch a person doing something illegal or private. (See also in the act (of doing something).) □ They know who set the fire. They caught someone in the act. □ I caught Tom in the act of stealing a car.

catch someone napping to find someone unprepared. (Informal. Literally, to discover someone "asleep.") □ The enemy soldiers caught our army napping. □ The thieves caught the security guard napping.

catch someone off balance to catch a person who is not prepared; to surprise someone. □ Sorry I acted so flustered. You caught me off balance. □ The robbers caught Ann off balance and stole her purse.

catch someone off guard AND catch one off one's guard to catch a person at a time of carelessness. (Compare this with catch someone off-balance.) □ Tom caught Ann off guard and frightened her. □ She caught me off my guard, and I told the location of the jewels.

catch someone red-handed to catch a person in the act of doing something wrong. (See also caught red-handed.) □ Tom was stealing the car when the police drove by and caught him red-handed. □ Mary tried to cash a forged check at the bank, and the teller caught her red-handed.

catch someone's eye AND get someone's eye
1. to establish eye contact with someone.

(Also with have, as in the example.) □ Tom got Mary's eye and waved to her. □ When Tom had her eye, he smiled at her.
2. to appear and attract someone's interest. □ A small red car passing by caught my eye. □ One of the books on the top shelf caught my eye, and I took it down to look at it.

catch some Zs Go to catch forty winks.

catch the devil Go to get the devil.

catch up (to someone or something) AND catch up (with someone or something) to move faster in order to reach someone or something ahead, moving in the same direction. □ The red car caught up with the blue one. □ Bill caught up with Ann, and they walked to the bank together. □ He had to run to catch up to her.

catch up (with someone or something) Go to catch up (to someone or something).

caught in the act seen doing something illegal or private. □ Tom was caught in the act. □ She's guilty. She was caught in the act.

caught in the cross fire Go to caught in the middle.

caught in the middle AND caught in the cross fire caught between two arguing people or groups, making it difficult to remain neutral. (Both are also literal.) □ The cook and the dishwasher were having an argument, and Tom got caught in the middle. All he wanted was his dinner. □ Mr. and Mrs. Smith tried to draw me into their argument. I don't like being caught in the middle. □ Bill and Ann were arguing, and poor Bobby, their son, was caught in the cross fire.

caught red-handed caught in the act of doing something wrong. □ Tom was caught red-handed. □ Many car thieves are caught red-handed.

caught short to be without something you need, especially money. □ I needed eggs for my cake, but I was caught short. □ Bob had to borrow money from John to pay for the meal. Bob is caught short quite often.

caught unaware(s) surprised and unprepared. □ Sorry. You startled me when you came up behind me. I was caught unaware. □ The clerk was caught unawares, and the robber emptied out the cash register before the clerk could sound the alarm.

cause a commotion Go to cause a stir.

cause a stir AND cause a commotion to cause people to become agitated; to cause trouble in a group of people; to shock or alarm people. (Notice the example with quite.) □ When Bob appeared without his evening jacket, it caused a stir in the dining room. □ The dog ran through the church and caused quite a commotion.

cause (some) eyebrows to raise to shock people; to surprise and dismay people. (See also raise some eyebrows.) □ John caused eyebrows to raise when he married a poor girl from Toledo. □ If you want to cause some eyebrows to raise, just start singing as you walk down the street.

cause (some) tongues to wag to cause people to gossip; to give people something to gossip about. □ The way John was looking at Mary will surely cause some tongues to wag. □ The way Mary was dressed will also cause tongues to wag.

cave in (to someone or something) [for someone] to yield and give in to someone else or to something. (Also literal in reference to the collapse of caves, tunnels, ceilings, etc.) □ Mr. Franklin always caves in to Mrs. Franklin. □ It's easier to cave in than to go on fighting. □ Tom caved in to the pressure of work.

cease and desist to stop doing something and stay stopped. (A legal phrase.) □ The judge ordered the merchant to cease and desist the deceptive practices. □ When they were ordered to cease and desist, they finally stopped.

chalk something up to something to recognize something as the cause of something else. □ We chalked her bad behavior up to her recent illness. □ I had to chalk up the loss to experience. □ I chalked up my defeat to my impatience.

champ at the bit AND chomp at the bit to be ready and anxious to do something. (Originally said about horses.) □ The kids were champing at the bit to get into the swimming pool. □ The dogs were champing at the bit to begin the hunt.

chance something to risk doing something; to try doing something. □ I don't usually ride horses, but this time I will chance it. □ Bob didn't have reservations, but he went to the airport anyway, chancing a cancellation.

chance (up)on someone or something to find someone or something by chance. □ I just happened to chance upon this excellent restaurant down by the river. The food is superb. □ We were exploring a small Kentucky town when we chanced on an old man who turned out to be my great-uncle.

change hands [for something] to be sold or passed from owner to owner. □ How many times has this house changed hands in the last ten years? □ We built this house in 1920, and it has never changed hands.

change horses in the middle of the stream to make major changes in an activity that has already begun; to choose someone or something else after it is too late. □ I'm already baking a cherry pie. I can't bake an apple pie. It's too late to change horses in the middle of the stream. □ The house is half-built. It's too late to hire a different architect. You can't change horses in the middle of the stream.

a change of pace an addition of some variety in one's life. □ Going to the beach on the weekend will be a change of pace. □ The doctor says I need a change of pace.

a change of scenery a move to a different place, where the scenery is different or where things in general are different. □ I thought I would go to the country for a change of scenery. □ A change of scenery would help me relax and organize my life.

change someone's mind to cause a person to think differently (about someone or something). □ Tom thought Mary was unkind, but an evening out with her changed his mind. □ I can change my mind if I want to. I don't have to stick with an idea.

change someone's tune to change the manner of a person, usually from bad to good, or from rude to pleasant. □ The teller was most unpleasant until she learned that I'm a bank director. Then she changed her tune. □ "I will help change your tune by fining you $150," said the judge to the rude defendant.

change the subject to begin talking about something different. □ They changed the subject suddenly when the person whom they had been discussing entered the room. □ We'll change the subject if we are embarrassing you.

chapter and verse detailed, in reference to sources of information. (A reference to the method of referring to biblical text.) □ He gave chapter and verse for his reasons for disputing that Shakespeare had written the play. □ The suspect gave chapter and verse of his associate's activities.

charge someone or something up 1. [with someone] to get someone excited and enthusiastic. □ The speaker charged up the crowd to go out and raise money. □ Mrs. Smith tried to charge her husband up about getting a job. 2. [with something] to restore a charge to an electrical storage battery. (Also without up.) □ They charged up the battery overnight. □ My car charges the battery whenever the engine runs.

charged up 1. [of someone] excited; enthusiastic □ The crowd was really charged up. □ Tom is so tired that he cannot get charged up about anything. 2. [of something] full of electrical power. (Also without up.) □ The battery is completely charged up. □ If the battery isn't charged, the car won't start.

charm the pants off (of) someone to use charming behavior to persuade someone to do something. (Use with caution.) □ She is so nice. She just charms the pants off of you. □ He will try to charm the pants off you, but you can still refuse to take the job if you don't want to do it.

cheat on someone to commit adultery; to be unfaithful to one's lover. □ "Have you been cheating on me?" cried Mrs. Franklin. □ "No, I haven't been cheating on you," said Mr. Franklin.

check in (on someone or something) Go to look in (on someone or something).

check into something Go to look into something.

check out to be verified or authenticated. □ I spent all afternoon working with my checkbook, trying to get the figures to check out. □ The police wouldn't believe that I am who I say I am until they made a few telephone calls to see if my story checked out.

checks and balances a system where power is kept in control and balance among the various branches of government. □ The newspaper editor claimed that the system of checks and balances built into our Constitution has been subverted by party politics. □ We depend on checks and balances in government to keep despots from seizing control of the government.

cheek by jowl side by side; close together. □ The pedestrians had to walk cheek by jowl along the narrow streets. □ The two families lived cheek by jowl in one house.

cheer someone on to give words or shouts of encouragement to someone who is trying to do something. □ John was leading in the race, and the whole crowd was cheering him on. □ Sally was doing so well in her performance that I wanted to cheer her on.

cheer someone up to make a sad person happy. □ When Bill was sick, Ann tried to cheer him up by reading to him. □ Interest rates went up, and that cheered up all the bankers.

cheer up to become more happy. □ Things are bad for you now, but you'll cheer up when they get better. □ Cheer up, Tom! Things can't be that bad.

cheesed off bored; depressed; annoyed. □ He was cheesed off with his job. □ She was cheesed off when she missed the bus.

chew someone out AND eat someone out to scold someone; to bawl someone out thoroughly. (Informal. Used much in the military.) □ The sergeant chewed the corporal out; then the corporal chewed the private out. ☐ The boss is always chewing out somebody. ☐ The coach ate out the entire football team because of their poor playing.

chew the fat AND chew the rag to have a chat with someone; to talk very informally with one's close friends. (Informal.) ☐ Hi, old buddy! Come in and let's chew the fat. ☐ They usually just sat around and chewed the rag. They never did get much done.

chew the rag Go to chew the fat.

chicken out (of something) to withdraw from something due to fear or cowardice. (Informal.) ☐ Jane was going to go parachuting with us, but she chickened out at the last minute. ☐ I'd never chicken out of parachute jumping, because I'd never agree to do it in the first place!

The chickens have come home to roost.

All the problems have returned to the person who caused them and that person must now solve them or take the blame. (Literal for chickens whose home is a chicken house. See also come home (to roost).) ☐ You took on too much credit card debt and now you are broke. The chickens have finally come home to roost. ☐ Your car broke down because you never changed the oil. The chickens have come home to roost.

child's play something very easy to do. ☐ The test was child's play to her. ☐ Finding the right street was child's play with a map.

chilled to the bone very cold. ☐ I was chilled to the bone in that snowstorm. ☐ The children were chilled to the bone in the unheated room.

chime in (with something) to add one's voice to something; to add something to the discussion, usually by interrupting. ☐ Billy chimed in by reminding us to come to dinner. ☐ Everyone chimed in on the final chorus of the song.

chink in one's armor a special weakness that provides a means for attacking or impressing someone otherwise invulnerable. ☐ His love for his child is the chink in his armor. ☐ Jane's insecurity is a chink in her armor.

chip in (on something) AND chip in something on something; chip something in (on something) to contribute a small amount of money to a fund that will be used to buy something. ☐ Would you care to chip in on a gift for the teacher? ☐ Yes, I'd be happy to chip in. ☐ Could you chip in a dollar on the gift, please?

chip in something on something Go to chip in (on something).

a chip off the old block a person (usually a male) who behaves in the same way as his father or resembles his father. (Usually informal.) ☐ John looks like his father—a real chip off the old block. ☐ Bill Jones, Jr., is a chip off the old block. He's a banker just like his father.

chip something in (on something) Go to chip in (on something).

chips and dip potato chips, or some other kind of crisply fried substance, and a sauce or dressing to dip them into before eating them. ☐ There were tons of chips and dip and all kinds of cold pop available for everyone.

chisel someone out of something to cheat someone to get money or belongings. ☐ The company tried to chisel the government out of taxes it owed. ☐ Bill chiseled his little sister out of her allowance.

choke someone up to make a person become overemotional and speechless; to make a person begin to cry. (Informal.) ☐ The sight of all those smiling people choked Bob up, and he couldn't go on speaking. ☐ The funeral procession choked up the whole family.

choke something off to stifle something; to force something to an end. ☐ The car ran over the hose and choked the water off. ☐ The president choked off the debate.

chomp at the bit Go to champ at the bit.

choose up sides to form into two opposing teams by having a leader or captain take turns choosing players. ☐ Let's choose up sides and play baseball. ☐ When

I choose up sides, all the best players don't end up on the same team.

claim a life [for something] to take the life of someone. □ The killer tornado claimed the lives of six people at the trailer park. □ The athlete's life was claimed in a skiing accident.

clam up to shut up; to refuse to talk; to close one's mouth (as tightly as a clam closes its shell). (Slang.) □ You talk too much, John. Clam up! □ When they tried to question her, she clammed up.

clamp down (on someone or something) to become strict with someone; to become strict about something. (Also literal.) □ Because Bob's grades were getting worse, his parents clamped down on him. □ The police have clamped down on speeders in this town. □ Things have already gone too far. It's too late to clamp down.

clap eyes on someone or something to see someone or something, perhaps for the first time; to set eyes on someone or something. (Informal.) □ I wish she had never clapped eyes on her fiancé. □ I haven't clapped eyes on a red squirrel for years.

clean as a hound's tooth Go to (as) clean as a hound's tooth.

clean as a whistle Go to (as) clean as a whistle.

clean out (of something) Go to fresh out (of something).

clean up to make a great profit. (Also literal. Informal.) □ John won at the races and really cleaned up. □ Ann cleaned up by taking a job selling encyclopedias.

clean up one's act to reform one's conduct; to improve one's performance. (Informal. Originally referred to polishing one's stage performance.) □ Since Sally cleaned her act up, she has become very productive. □ If you don't clean up your act, you'll be sent home.

clear as a bell Go to (as) clear as a bell.

clear as crystal Go to (as) clear as crystal.

clear as mud Go to (as) clear as mud.

clear as vodka Go to (as) clear as vodka.

clear of something without touching something; away from something. □ Please stand clear of the doors while the train is moving. □ Make sure the dog moves clear of the driveway before backing the car up.

clear out to get out (of a place); to leave. □ All right, you people, clear out of here now. □ I knew right then that it was time to clear out.

clear sailing progress made without any difficulty; an easy situation. □ Once you've passed that exam, it will be clear sailing. □ Working there was not all clear sailing. The boss had a very bad temper.

clear someone's name to prove that someone is not guilty of a crime or misdeed. □ I was accused of theft, but I cleared my name. □ The student was accused of cheating, but her name was cleared.

clear something up 1. to explain something; to solve a mystery. □ I think that we can clear this matter up without calling in the police. □ First we have to clear up the problem of the missing jewels. 2. to cure a disease or a medical condition. (Especially facial pimples.) □ There is no medicine that will clear pimples up. □ The doctor will give you something to clear up your cold.

clear the air to get rid of doubts or hard feelings. (Also literal. Sometimes this is said about an argument or other unpleasantness.) □ All right, let's discuss this frankly. It'll be better if we clear the air. □ Mr. and Mrs. Brown always seem to have to clear the air with a big argument before they can be sociable.

clear the decks get out of the way; get out of this area. (From a naval expression, "Clear the decks for action!" urging seaman to prepare for battle or other action.) □ Clear the decks! Here comes the teacher. □ Clear the decks and take your seats.

clear the table to remove the dishes and other eating utensils from the table after a meal. (The opposite of set the table.) □ Will you please help clear the table? □ After you clear the table, we'll play cards.

clear up 1. [for a problem] to become solved. □ This matter won't clear up by itself. □ The confusion cleared up very quickly when I explained. 2. [for a disease] to cure itself or run its course. □ I told you your pimples would clear up without special medicine. □ My rash cleared up in a week.

climb on the bandwagon to join others in supporting someone or something. (See also get on the bandwagon, jump on the bandwagon.) □ Come join us! Climb on the bandwagon and support Senator Smith! □ Look at all those people climbing on the bandwagon! They don't know what they are getting into!

climb the wall(s) to do something desperate when one is extremely anxious, bored, or excited. (Informal or slang.) □ I'm so upset I could climb the wall. □ The meeting was so long and the speaker so boring that most of the audience wanted to climb the wall.

clip someone's wings to restrain someone; to reduce or put an end to a teenager's privileges. (Informal.) □ You had better learn to get home on time, or I will clip your wings. □ My mother clipped my wings. I can't go out tonight.

cloak-and-dagger involving secrecy and plotting. □ A great deal of cloak-and-dagger stuff goes on in political circles. □ A lot of cloak-and-dagger activity was involved in the appointment of the director.

close as two coats of paint Go to (as) close as two coats of paint.

close at hand within reach; handy. (See also at hand.) □ I'm sorry, but your letter isn't close at hand. Please remind me what you said in it. □ When you're cooking, you should keep all the ingredients close at hand.

close enough for government work fairly close or accurate. (Jocular.) □ I can do math pretty well. Close enough for government work anyway. □ This isn't quite right, but it's close enough for government work.

close in (on someone or something) to overwhelm or surround someone or something. □ My problems are closing in on me. □ The wolves closed in on the elk. □ They howled as they closed in.

close one's eyes to something to ignore something; to pretend that something is not really happening. □ You can't close your eyes to hunger in the world. □ I just closed my eyes to the problem and pretended that it wasn't there.

close ranks to move closer together in a military formation. (See also close ranks (behind someone or something); close ranks (with someone).) □ The soldiers closed ranks and marched on the enemy. □ All right! Stop that talking and close ranks.

close ranks (behind someone or something) to support someone or something; to back someone or something. □ We will close ranks behind the candidate. □ She needs our help. Let's close ranks behind her and give her the support she needs.

close ranks (with someone) to join with someone. □ We can fight this menace only if we close ranks. □ Let's all close ranks with Ann and adopt her suggestions.

close something down AND shut something down to make something stop operating; to put something out of business. □ The police closed the factory down. □ The manager shut down the factory for the holidays. □ The city council closed down the amusement park.

close the books (on someone or something) to put an end to a matter that concerns someone or something. (The books here refers to financial accounting records.) □ It's time to close the books on the Franklin case. □ Yes, let's close the books on Mr. Franklin. □ You closed the books too soon. Here is some new information.

close the door on someone or something Go to shut the door on someone or something.

close to home AND where one lives affecting one personally and intimately. (Informal.) □ Her remarks were a bit too close to home. I was afraid she was discussing me! □ She's got me figured out all right. She knows where I live. □ Every criticism she made of the performance hit a little too close to home for my comfort. I didn't know I was so bad! □ When you go through an experience like that and see the horror of a hurricane face to face, that sort of gets you where you live!

close to someone fond of someone; very good friends with someone. □ Tom is very close to Mary. They may get married. □ Mr. Smith isn't exactly close to Mrs. Smith.

close up shop to quit working, for the day or forever. (Informal.) □ It's five o'clock. Time to close up shop. □ I can't make any money in this town. The time has come to close up shop and move to another town.

closefisted (with money) Go to tightfisted (with money).

cloud up 1. [for the sky] to get cloudy, as if it were going to rain. □ All of a sudden it clouded up and began to rain. □ It usually clouds up at sunset. 2. [for someone] to grow very sad, as if to cry. (See also turn on the waterworks.) □ The baby clouded up and let out a howl. □ Whenever Mary got homesick, she'd cloud up. She really wanted to go home.

clue someone in (on something) to inform someone of something. (Informal.) □ Please clue me in on what's going on. □ Yes, clue her in.

clutch at straws to continue to seek solutions, ideas, or hopes that are insubstantial. □ When you talk of inheriting money, you are just clutching at straws. □ That is not a real solution to the problem. You are just clutching at straws.

The coast is clear. There is no visible danger. □ I'm going to stay hidden here until the coast is clear. □ You can come out of your hiding place now. The coast is clear.

coast-to-coast from the Atlantic to the Pacific Oceans (in the continental U.S.A.); all the land between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. □ My voice was once heard on a coast-to-coast radio broadcast. □ Our car made the coast-to-coast trip in eighty hours.

coat and tie [for men] a jacket or sports coat and necktie. (A standard of dress between casual and a suit.) □ My brother was not wearing a coat and tie, and they would not admit him into the restaurant. □ I always carry a coat and tie in my car just in case I have to dress up a little for something.

cock-and-bull story a silly, made-up story; a story that is a lie. □ Don't give me that cock-and-bull story. □ I asked for an explanation, and all I got was your ridiculous cock-and-bull story!

cock of the walk someone who acts more important than others in a group. □ The deputy manager was cock of the walk until the new manager arrived. □ He loved acting cock of the walk and ordering everyone about.

cocky as the king of spades Go to (as) cocky as the king of spades.

coffee and Danish a cup of coffee and a Danish sweet roll. □ A few of us like to have coffee and Danish before we start work. □ Coffee and Danish is not my idea of a good breakfast!

coffee-table book a book that is more suitable for display than for reading, typically, an illustrated book left on the coffee table for visitors to examine. □ This book is more of a coffee-table book than an art book. I prefer something more scholarly. □ We purchased a coffee-table book for Jan's birthday.

coffee, tea, or milk a choice of beverage. (Originally used by airline personnel when offering something to drink to the passengers.) □ She asked me if I wanted coffee, tea, or milk, and I chose just plain water. □ Would you prefer coffee, tea, or milk to go with your meal?

cold as a witch's caress Go to (as) cold as a witch's caress.

cold as a witch's tit Go to (as) cold as a witch's tit.

cold as marble Go to (as) cold as marble.

cold comfort no comfort or consolation at all. □ She knows there are others worse off than she is, but that's cold comfort. □ It was cold comfort to the student that others had failed as badly as he did.

a cold fish a person who is distant and unfeeling. (Informal or slang. Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ Bob is so dull—a real cold fish. □ She hardly ever speaks to anyone. She's a cold fish.

cold, hard cash cash, not checks or promises. (Informal.) □ I want to be paid in cold, hard cash, and I want to be paid now! □ Pay me now! Cash on the barrel-head—cold, hard cash.

come about 1. to happen. □ How did this come about? □ This came about due to the severe weather. 2. [for a sailboat] to turn. □ Look how easily this boat comes about. □ Now, practice making the boat come about.

come a cropper to have a misfortune; to fail. (From an expression meaning to fall off one's horse.) □ Bob invested all his money in the stock market just before it fell. Boy, did he come a cropper. □ Jane was out all night before she took her tests. She really came a cropper.

come across someone or something AND run across someone or something to find someone or something; to discover someone or something. □ John came across a book he had been looking for. □ Where did you run across that lovely skirt?

Come again. 1. Come back.; Return some other time. □ I'm so glad you enjoyed our party. Please come again sometime. □ The store clerk gave me my change and my purchase and said, "Thank you. Come again." 2. Say it again. I did not hear you. (Folksy. Usually Come again?) □ TOM: Hello, Grandfather. GRANDFATHER: Come again? You'll have to talk louder. □ The farmer looked at me and said, "Come again?"

Come and get it! Dinner is ready. Come and eat it! (Folksy.) □ A shout was heard from the kitchen, "Come and get it!" □ No one says "Come and get it!" at a formal dinner.

come and gone already arrived and already departed. □ No, Joy is not here. She's come and gone. □ Sorry, you are too late for your appointment. The doctor has come and gone.

come apart at the seams suddenly to lose one's emotional self-control. (Informal. From the literal sense referring to something falling apart. See also burst at the seams; fall apart at the seams.) □ Bill was so upset that he almost came apart at the seams. □ I couldn't take anymore. I just came apart at the seams.

come (a)round 1. finally to agree or consent (to something). □ I thought he'd never agree, but in the end he came around. □ She came round only after we argued for an hour. 2. to return to consciousness; to wake up. □ He came around after we threw cold water in his face. □ The boxer was knocked out, but came round in a few seconds.

come as no surprise not to be surprising [for someone] to learn [something]. □ It will come as no surprise for you to learn that the company is losing money this year. □ It came as no surprise that the president had been lying.

come away empty-handed to return without anything. (See also go away empty-handed.) □ All right, go gambling. Don't come away empty-handed, though. □ Go to the bank and ask for the loan again. This time don't come away empty-handed.

come by something 1. to travel by a specific carrier, such as a plane, a boat, or a car. □ We came by train. It's more relaxing. □ Next time, we'll come by plane. It's faster. 2. to find or get something. □ How did you come by that haircut? □ Where did you come by that new shirt?

come by something honestly 1. to get something honestly. □ Don't worry. I came by this watch honestly. □ I have a feeling she didn't come by it honestly. 2. to inherit something—a character trait—from one's parents. □ I know I'm mean. I came by it honestly, though. □ She came by her kindness honestly.

come clean (with someone) to be completely honest with someone; to confess (everything) to someone. □ The lawyer said, "I can help you only if you come clean with me.” □ All right, I’ll come clean. Here is the whole story.

come down [for something] to descend (to someone) through inheritance. □ All my silverware came down to me from my great-grandmother. □ The antique furniture came down through my mother’s family.

come down hard on someone or something to attack vigorously; to scold someone severely. □ Tom’s parents really came down hard on him for coming home late. □ Yes, they came down on him hard.

come down in the world to lose one’s social position or financial standing. □ Mr. Jones has really come down in the world since he lost his job. □ If I were unemployed, I’m sure I’d come down in the world, too.

come down to earth to become realistic; to become alert to what is going on around one. (Informal.) □ You have very good ideas, John, but you must come down to earth. We can’t possibly afford any of your suggestions. □ Pay attention to what is going on. Come down to earth and join the discussion.

come down to something to be reduced to something; to amount to no more than something. (Informal. Similar to boil down to something.) □ It comes down to whether you want to go to the movies or stay at home and watch television. □ It came down to either getting a job or going back to college.

come down with something to become ill with some disease. □ I’m afraid I’m coming down with a cold. □ I’ll probably come down with pneumonia.

come from far and wide to come from many different places. □ Everyone was there. They came from far and wide. □ We have foods that come from far and wide.

come from nowhere to come as a surprise with no warning. □ The dogs came from nowhere and attacked my cat. □ The whole set of problems came from nowhere. There was no way we could have foreseen them.

come full circle to return to the original position or state of affairs. □ The family sold the house generations ago, but things have come full circle and one of their descendants lives there now. □ The employer’s power was reduced by the unions at one point, but matters have come full circle again.

come hell or high water no matter what happens. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ I’ll be there tomorrow, come hell or high water. □ Come hell or high water, I intend to have my own home.

come home (to roost) [for a problem] to return to cause trouble [for someone]. (See also The chickens have come home to roost.) □ As I feared, all my problems came home to roost. □ Yes, problems all come home eventually.

come home to someone to become apparent to someone; to be realized by someone. □ The truth of the matter suddenly came home to me. □ It all came home to me while I was taking a bath. Suddenly I understood everything.

come in a body AND arrive in a body to arrive as a group. □ All the guests came in a body. □ Things become very busy when everyone arrives in a body.

come in for something AND fall in for something to receive something; to acquire something. □ Billy came in for a good bawling-out when he arrived home. □ Mary came in for a tremendous amount of money when her aunt died. □ Sally fell in for a lot of trouble when she bought a used car.

come in handy to be useful or convenient. (Informal.) □ A small television set in the bedroom would come in handy. □ A good hammer always comes in handy. □ A nice cool drink would come in handy about now.

come in out of the rain to become alert and sensible; to come down to earth. (Also literal. See also not know enough to come in out of the rain.) □ Pay attention, Sally! Come in out of the rain! □ Bill will fail if he doesn’t come in out of the rain and study.

come into its own Go to come into one's own.

come into one's own AND come into its own 1. [for one] to achieve one's proper recognition. □ Sally finally came into her own. □ After years of trying, she finally came into her own. 2. [for something] to achieve its proper recognition. □ The idea of an electric car finally came into its own. □ Film as an art medium finally came into its own.

come into something to inherit something. (Also literal. See also come in for something, which is very close in meaning.) □ Jane came into a small fortune when her aunt died. □ Mary came into a house and a new car when her rich uncle died.

come of age to reach an age when one is old enough to own property, get married, and sign legal contracts. □ When Jane comes of age, she will buy her own car. □ Sally, who came of age last month, entered into an agreement to purchase a house.

come off to happen; to take place. (Also literal referring to something that becomes disconnected. Informal.) □ What time does this party come off? □ How did your speech come off? □ It came off very well.

Come off it! Tell the truth!; Be serious! (Slang.) □ Come off it, Bill! I don't believe you! □ Come on, Jane. Come off it! That can't be true.

come off second-best to win second place or worse; to lose out to someone else. □ John came off second-best in the race. □ Why do I always come off second-best in an argument with you?

come on to hurry up; to follow (someone). □ Come on! I'm in a hurry. □ If you don't come on, we'll miss the train.

come on like gangbusters to approach people in a wild and exciting manner; to seem very active and pushy when approaching people. □ Why is she so unpolished? She comes on like gangbusters and frightens people away. □ The people in this town come on like gangbusters and they seem very rude at first.

come on somehow to appear as having certain characteristics to other people. (Informal. Especially with strong, which means "intensely." See also the previous entry.) □ Jane comes on like a very unpleasant person. □ She really comes on strong. □ John doesn't care how he comes on.

come on the scene AND arrive on the scene to appear in a certain area or place. (Used in particular in police reports or dramatizations of police reports.) □ What time did the picnickers come on the scene? □ The witness arrived on the scene at about 7:13 in the evening.

come out 1. to become; to turn out. (Also literal.) □ We'll just have to wait and see how things come out. □ I'm baking a cake. I hope it comes out okay. 2. to be presented to the public; to be released to the public. □ My new book came out last month. □ Mary Ann Smith came out last fall at a lovely party. 3. Go to come out (of the closet).

come out ahead to end up with a profit; to improve one's situation. (Compare this with break even.) □ I hope you come out ahead with your investments. □ It took a lot of money to buy the house, but I think I'll come out ahead.

come out for someone or something to announce one's support for someone or something. □ I'm coming out for Senator Brown's reelection. □ All the employees came out for a longer workweek.

come out in the wash to work out all right. (Informal. This means that problems or difficulties will go away as dirt goes away in the process of washing.) □ Don't worry about that problem. It'll all come out in the wash. □ This trouble will go away. It'll come out in the wash.

come out of left field [for a problem or dilemma] to come from an unexpected place. □ This new problem came out of left field. We were really surprised. □ Your remarks came out of left field. I can't understand your complaint.

come out of nowhere to appear suddenly. (Almost the same as appear out of nowhere.) ☐ Suddenly, a truck came out of nowhere. ☐ Without warning, the storm came out of nowhere.

come out of one's shell to become more friendly; to be more sociable. (Refers to a turtle that sticks its head and legs out of its shell when it feels safe.) ☐ Ann, you should come out of your shell and spend more time with your friends. ☐ Come out of your shell, Tom. Go out and make some friends.

come out of the blue to appear suddenly as if falling from the sky. (The blue refers to the blue sky.) ☐ This idea came out of the blue, and I think it is a good one. ☐ Sally showed up at the party even though no one told her where it was. She just came out of the blue.

come out (of the closet) 1. to reveal one's secret interests. ☐ Tom Brown came out of the closet and admitted that he likes to knit. ☐ It's time that all of you lovers of chamber music came out of the closet and attended our concerts. 2. to reveal that one is a homosexual. (See also come out.) ☐ Tom surprised his parents when he came out of the closet. ☐ It was difficult for him to come out of the closet.

come out with something to say something; to announce something. ☐ Sometimes Jane comes out with the most interesting comments. ☐ Jane came out with a long string of curse words.

come over 1. to join this party or side; to change sides or affiliation. ☐ Tom was formerly an enemy spy, but last year he came over. ☐ I thought that Bill was a Republican. When did he come over? 2. to come for a visit. ☐ See if Ann wants to come over. ☐ I can't come over. I'm busy.

come someone's way to come to someone. ☐ I wish a large sum of money would come my way. ☐ I hope that no bad luck comes my way.

come through 1. to do what one is expected to do, especially under difficult conditions. ☐ You can depend on Jane. She'll always come through. ☐ We thought that there would be no food, but Tom came through at the last minute with everything we needed. 2. [for something] to be approved; [for something] to gain approval. ☐ Our mortgage loan application finally came through! ☐ Your papers came through, and you can be sure that the matter has been taken care of.

come through something with flying colors to survive something quite well. (See also with flying colors.) ☐ Todd came through the test with flying colors. ☐ Mr. Franklin came through the operation with flying colors.

come to to become conscious; to wake up. ☐ We threw a little cold water in his face, and he came to immediately. ☐ Come to, John! You act as if you were in a daze.

come to a bad end to have a disaster, perhaps one that is deserved or expected; to die an unfortunate death. ☐ My old car came to a bad end. Its engine burned up. ☐ The evil merchant came to a bad end.

come to a dead end to come to an absolute stopping point. ☐ The building project came to a dead end. ☐ The street came to a dead end. ☐ We were driving along and came to a dead end.

come to a head to come to a crucial point; to come to a point when a problem must be solved. ☐ Remember my problem with my neighbors? Well, last night the whole thing came to a head. ☐ The battle between the two factions of the city council came to a head yesterday.

come to an end to stop; to finish. ☐ The party came to an end at midnight. ☐ Her life came to an end late yesterday.

come to an untimely end to come to an early death. ☐ Poor Mr. Jones came to an untimely end in a car accident. ☐ Cancer caused Mrs. Smith to come to an untimely end.

come to a pretty pass to develop into a bad, unfortunate, or difficult situation. ☐ Things have come to a pretty pass when people have to beg in the streets. ☐ When parents are afraid of their children, things have come to a pretty pass.

come to a standstill to stop, temporarily or permanently. ☐ The building project came to a standstill because the workers went on strike. □ The party came to a standstill until the lights were turned on again.

come to a stop [for someone or something] to stop moving or happening. □ The bus finally came to a stop so I could get off. □ The loud noise finally came to a stop.

come to blows (over something) [for people] to become increasingly angry and begin to fight about something, usually by striking blows, or verbally. □ They got excited about the accident, but they never actually came to blows over it. □ Yes, they aren't the kind of people who come to blows.

come to grief to fail; to have trouble or grief. □ The artist wept when her canvas came to grief. □ The wedding party came to grief when the bride passed out.

come to grips with something to face something; to comprehend something. □ He found it difficult to come to grips with his grandmother's death. □ Many students have a hard time coming to grips with algebra.

come to life to become alive or lively. (Usually used in a figurative sense.) □ The party came to life about midnight. □ As the anesthetic wore off, the patient came to life.

come to light to become known. □ Some interesting facts about your past have just come to light. □ If too many bad things come to light, you may lose your job.

come to mind [for a thought or idea] to enter into one's consciousness. (Compare this with cross someone's mind.) □ Do I know a good barber? No one comes to mind right now. □ Another idea comes to mind. Why not cut your own hair?

come to naught Go to come to nothing.

come to nothing AND come to naught to amount to nothing; to be worthless. □ So all my hard work comes to nothing. □ Yes, the whole project comes to naught.

come to one's senses to wake up; to become conscious; to start thinking clearly.

□ John, come to your senses. You're being quite stupid. □ In the morning I don't come to my senses until I have had two cups of coffee.

come to pass to happen. (Formal.) □ When did all of this come to pass? □ When will this event come to pass?

come to rest to stop moving. □ When the car comes to rest, you can get in. □ The leaf fell and came to rest at my feet.

come to terms with someone or something 1. to come to an agreement with someone. □ I finally came to terms with my lawyer about his fee. □ Bob, you have to come to terms with your father's wishes. 2. to learn to accept someone or something. (See also come to grips with something.) □ She had to come to terms with the loss of her sight. □ It's time you came to terms with your boss and her unreasonable demands.

come to the fore to become prominent; to become important. □ The question of salary has now come to the fore. □ Since his great showing in court, my lawyer has really come to the fore in city politics.

come to the point AND get to the point to get to the important part (of something). □ He has been talking a long time. I wish he would come to the point. □ Quit wasting time! Get to the point! □ We are talking about money, Bob! Come on, get to the point.

come to the same thing Go to amount to the same thing.

come to think of it I just remembered [something]. □ Come to think of it, I know someone who can help. □ I have a screwdriver in the trunk of my car, come to think of it.

come true [for a dream or a wish] actually to happen. □ When I got married, all my dreams came true. □ Coming to the big city was like having my wish come true.

come unglued to lose emotional control; to have a mental breakdown; to break out into tears or laughter. (Slang.) □ When Sally heard the joke, she almost came unglued. □ When the bank took away my car, I came unglued and cried and cried.

come up to happen unexpectedly. (Also literal.) □ I'm sorry, I cannot come to your party. Something has come up. □ The storm came up so quickly that I almost got blown away.

come up in the world to improve one's status or situation in life. □ Since Mary got her new job, she has really come up in the world. □ A good education helped my brother come up in the world.

come up smelling like roses to end up looking good or respectable after being involved in some difficult or notorious affair. □ It was a nasty political campaign, but both candidates came up smelling like roses. □ I was not surprised that my congressional representative came up smelling like roses after his colleagues investigated him.

come up with someone or something to find or supply someone or something. □ I came up with a date at the last minute. □ My mom is always able to come up with a snack for me in the afternoon. □ I don't have the tool you need, but I'll see if I can come up with something.

come what may no matter what might happen. □ I'll be home for the holidays, come what may. □ Come what may, the mail will get delivered.

come within an ace of doing something Go to come within an inch of doing something.

come within an inch of doing something AND come within an ace of doing something almost to do something; to come very close to doing something. □ I came within an inch of going into the army. □ I came within an inch of falling off the roof. □ She came within an ace of buying the house.

come with the territory to be expected under circumstances like this. (Refers to the details and difficulties attendant to something like the assignment of a specific sales territory to a salesperson. When one accepts the assignment, one accepts the problems.) □ There is a lot of paperwork in this job. Oh, well, I guess it comes with the territory. □ There are problems, but that comes with the territory.

comfortable as an old shoe Go to (as) comfortable as an old shoe.

commit something to memory to memorize something. □ We all committed the Gettysburg Address to memory. □ I committed to memory the whole list of names and numbers.

common as an old shoe Go to (as) common as an old shoe.

common as dirt Go to (as) common as dirt.

con someone out of something to trick someone out of money or something of value. (Slang.) □ Anne conned her little sister out of her allowance. □ Dave conned me out of my autographed baseball.

conceited as a barber's cat Go to (as) conceited as a barber's cat.

confide in someone to tell secrets or personal matters to someone. □ Sally always confided in her sister Ann. □ She didn't feel that she could confide in her mother.

conk out 1. [for someone] to collapse as from exhaustion. (Slang.) □ I was so tired I just went home and conked out. □ I was afraid I would conk out while I was driving. 2. [for something] to break down; to quit running. (Slang.) □ My car conked out finally. □ I hope my computer doesn't conk out.

conspicuous by one's absence to have one's absence (from an event) noticed. □ We missed you last night. You were conspicuous by your absence. □ How could the bride's father miss the wedding? He was certainly conspicuous by his absence.

contradiction in terms a statement containing a seeming contradiction. □ A wealthy pauper is a contradiction in terms. □ A straight-talking politician may seem a contradiction in terms.

contrary to something in spite of something; regardless of something. □ Contrary to what you might think, I am neat and tidy. □ Contrary to public opinion, my uncle is well and healthy.

control the purse strings to be in charge of the money in a business or a household. □ I control the purse strings at our house. □ Mr. Williams is the treasurer. He controls the purse strings.

cook someone's goose to damage or ruin someone. □ I cooked my own goose by not showing up on time. □ Sally cooked Bob's goose for treating her the way he did.

cook something to perfection to cook something perfectly. □ John cooked my steak to perfection. □ The entire dinner was cooked to perfection!

cook something up to plot something; to improvise something. (Also literal.) □ Mary cooked an interesting party up at the last minute. ▢ Let me see if I can cook up a way to get you some money.

cook the accounts to cheat in bookkeeping; to make the accounts appear to balance when they do not. □ Jane was sent to jail for cooking the accounts of her mother's store. □ It's hard to tell whether she really cooked the accounts or just didn't know how to add.

cooking with gas doing things the right way. (Also literal. Informal. From an advertising slogan.) □ That's great. Now you're cooking with gas. □ Things are moving along nicely with the project. The entire staff is really cooking with gas.

cool as a cucumber Go to (as) cool as a cucumber.

cool down Go to cool off.

Cool it! Calm down!; Take it easy! (Slang.) □ Don't get mad, Bob. Cool it! □ Cool it, you guys! No fighting around here.

cool off AND cool down 1. to lose or reduce heat. □ I wish my soup would cool off. I'm hungry. □ It'll cool down this evening, after dusk. 2. to let one's anger die away. □ I'm sorry I got angry. I'll cool off in a minute. □ Cool off, Tom. There is no sense getting so excited. 3. to let one's passion or love die away. □ TED: Is Bob still in love with Jane? BILL: No, he's cooled off a lot. □ TED: I thought that they were both cooling down.

cool one's heels to wait (for someone). (Informal.) □ I spent all afternoon cooling my heels in the waiting room while the doctor talked on the telephone. □ All right. If you can't behave properly, just sit down here and cool your heels until I call you.

cool someone down AND cool someone off

1. to reduce someone's anger. (Also literal.) □ I just stared at him while he was yelling. I knew that would cool him down. □ The coach talked to them for a long time. That cooled them off. 2. to reduce someone's passion or love. □ When she slapped him, that really cooled him down. □ Dating Mary was too intense, so Bill cooled himself off by dating Sally for a while.

cool someone off Go to cool someone down.

cop a plea to plead guilty to a crime in hopes of receiving a lighter punishment. (Slang, especially criminal slang.) □ The robber copped a plea and got only two years in jail. □ When you cop a plea, it saves the court system a lot of money.

cop out to get out of a difficult situation; to sneak out of a difficult situation. (Slang.) □ At the last minute she copped out on us. □ Things were going badly for Senator Phillips, so he copped out by resigning.

a copycat a person who copies or mimics what someone else does. (Usually juvenile. Can be preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ Sally wore a pink dress just like Mary's. Mary called Sally a copycat. □ Bill is such a copycat. He bought a coat just like mine.

cost an arm and a leg to cost too much. □ It cost an arm and a leg, so I didn't buy it. □ Why should a little plastic part cost an arm and a leg?

cost a pretty penny to cost a lot of money. □ I'll bet that diamond cost a pretty penny. □ You can be sure that house cost a pretty penny. It has seven bathrooms.

cough something up to produce something unwillingly (that someone has requested). (Also literal. Informal.) □ All right, Bill. Cough the stolen diamonds up or else. □ Okay, okay. I'll cough them up. ▢ Bill had to cough up forty dollars to pay for the broken window.

Could be better. satisfactory, but capable of improvement. □ The pie's okay, but could be better. □ Q: How do you feel? A: Could be better.

Could be worse. satisfactory, but not as bad as it could be. □ Q: How are things? A: Could be worse. □ Things could be worse, and in a little while, they probably will be.

could do with someone or something to want or need someone or something; to benefit from someone or something. (Compare this with go for someone or something.) □ I could do with a nice cool drink right now. □ I could do with some help on this project. □ This house could do with some cleaning up. □ They said they could do with John to help them finish faster. □ My car could do with a bigger engine.

couldn't be better completely satisfactory. □ I feeling great and couldn't be better. □ We had a wonderful time and our vacation couldn't have been better.

couldn't be happier totally happy. □ We are delighted. Couldn't be happier. □ They both couldn't be happier since they got married.

could(n't) care less unable to care at all. (Informal. Could care less is almost slang.) □ John couldn't care less whether he goes to the party or not. □ So she won first place. I couldn't care less. □ I could care less if I live or die.

count noses to count people. □ I'll tell you how many people are here after I count noses. □ Everyone is here. Let's count noses so we can order hamburgers.

count one's chickens before they hatch to plan how to utilize good results before they have occurred. (Frequently used in the negative.) □ You're way ahead of yourself. Don't count your chickens before they hatch. □ You may be disappointed if you count your chickens before they hatch.

count on someone or something to rely on someone or something. □ Can I count on you to be there at noon? □ I want to buy a car I can count on in winter weather.

count someone in (on something) to include someone in something. (Compare this with count someone out (for something).) □ If you're looking for a group to go mountain climbing, count me in on it. □ I would like to count in your entire family, but there isn't enough room. □ Please count me in.

count someone out (for something) to exclude someone from something. (Compare this with count someone in (on something).) □ Please count me out for the party next Saturday. I have other plans. □ You should count the whole family out. We are going to the beach for the weekend.

a couple of two; two or three; a few; some; not many. □ Bill grabbed a couple of beers from the refrigerator. □ I hung a couple of pictures on the wall.

course of action the procedures or sequence of actions that someone will follow to accomplish a goal. □ I plan to take a course of action that will produce the best results. □ The committee planned a course of action that would reduce costs and eliminate employees.

cover a lot of ground AND cover a lot of territory 1. to travel over a great distance; to investigate a wide expanse of land. □ The prospectors covered a lot of ground, looking for gold. □ My car can cover a lot of ground in one day. 2. to deal with much information and many facts. □ The history lecture covered a lot of ground today. □ Mr. and Mrs. Franklin always cover a lot of ground when they argue.

cover a lot of territory Go to cover a lot of ground.

cover for someone 1. to make excuses for someone; to conceal someone's errors. □ If I miss class, please cover for me. □ If you're late, I'll cover for you. 2. to handle someone else's work. □ Dr. Johnson's partner agreed to cover for him during his vacation. □ I'm on duty this afternoon. Will you please cover for me? I have a doctor's appointment.

cover someone's tracks (up) to conceal one's trail; to conceal one's past activities. □

She was able to cover her tracks up so that they couldn't find her. [] It's easy to cover up your tracks if you aren't well known. [] The robber failed to cover his tracks.

cover something up to conceal something. (Also literal.) [] They covered up the truth about the crime. [] We'll cover this little matter up and make up a story for the press.

cover the territory Go to cover the waterfront.

cover the waterfront AND cover the territory to deal with many things, much space, or much information from many points of view. (Informal.) [] That lecture really covered the waterfront. I could hardly follow it. [] Why can't she stick to the point? She has to cover the territory every time she talks.

cozy up (to someone) to be extra friendly with someone, perhaps in hope of special favors in return. (Informal or slang.) [] Look at that lawyer cozying up to the judge! [] Lawyers who cozy up like that usually get into big trouble.

crack a book to open a book to study. (Slang. Almost always in the negative.) [] I passed that test with an A, and I didn't even crack a book. [] If you think you can get through college without cracking a book, you're wrong.

crack a joke to tell a joke. (Informal.) [] She's never serious. She's always cracking jokes. [] As long as she's cracking jokes, she's okay.

crack a smile to smile a little, perhaps reluctantly. (Informal.) [] She cracked a smile, so I knew she was kidding. [] The soldier cracked a smile at the wrong time and had to march for an hour as punishment.

crack down (on someone or something) to be hard on someone or something; to enforce a rule or law more strenuously. [] They are cracking down on speeding around here. [] It's about time they cracked down.

crack open a bottle to open a bottle; to remove the cork or seal from a bottle, usually a bottle of an alcoholic drink. [] They cracked open a bottle to celebrate her arrival. [] Let's crack open a bottle of champagne and celebrate.

crack someone or something up 1. [with something] to crash something; to destroy something (in an accident). [] The driver cracked the car up in an accident. [] The pilot cracked up the plane. 2. [with someone] to make someone laugh. [] She told a joke that really cracked us up. [] I cracked up my history class with a silly remark.

crack something wide open to expose and reveal some great wrongdoing. (Also literal.) [] The police cracked the drug ring wide open. [] The newspaper story cracked the trouble at city hall wide open.

crack up 1. [for a plane, boat, car, etc.] to crash. [] The plane cracked up in the storm. [] The boat cracked up on the rocks. 2. [for someone] to break out in laughter. [] The audience really cracked up during the second act. [] The class cracked up when I told my joke, but the teacher didn't like it. 3. to go crazy. (Slang.) [] The mayor cracked up after only a year in office. [] I was afraid the mayor would crack up because of too much work.

cramp someone's style to limit someone in some way. [] I hope this doesn't cramp your style, but could you please not hum while you work? [] To ask him to keep regular hours would really be cramping his style.

crank something out to produce something; to make something in a casual and mechanical way. (Slang.) [] John can crank a lot of work out in a single day. [] That factory keeps cranking out cars even though no one buys them.

crash and burn to fail spectacularly. (Also literal, as with a car or a plane.) [] Poor Chuck really crashed and burned when he made his presentation at the sales meeting. [] Mary just knew that the whole project would crash and burn if she didn't keep a close watch on it.

crazy about someone or something AND crazy for someone or something; mad about some- one or something; mad for someone or something; nuts about someone or something very fond of someone or something. (Slang.) ☐ Ann is crazy about John. ☐ He's crazy about her, too. ☐ I'm mad about their new song. ☐ Our whole family is nuts about homemade ice cream.

crazy as a betsy bug Go to (as) crazy as a betsy bug.

crazy as a loon Go to (as) crazy as a loon.

crazy as a peach-orchard boar Go to (as) crazy as a peach-orchard boar.

crazy for someone or something Go to crazy about someone or something.

the cream of the crop the best of all. ☐ This particular car is the cream of the crop.
☐ The kids are very bright. They are the cream of the crop.

create an uproar AND make an uproar to cause an outburst or sensation. (Especially with such.) ☐ The dog got into church and made an uproar. ☐ Her poodle created an uproar in the restaurant. ☐ Why did you make such an uproar?

create a scene Go to make a scene.

create a stink (about something) AND make a stink (about something); raise a stink (about something) to make a major issue out of something; to make much over something; to make a lot of complaints and criticisms about something. (Slang. Compare this with make a federal case out of something.) ☐ Tom created a stink about Bob's remarks. ☐ Why did he make a stink about that? ☐ Tom is always trying to raise a stink.

creature comforts things that make people comfortable. ☐ The hotel room was sparse, but all the creature comforts were there. ☐ The entire country of Adonia seemed to lack the expected creature comforts.

a credit to someone or something someone or something that is of value or benefit. (Preceded by be, become, or seem like.) ☐ I always want to be a credit to my school.
☐ John is not what you would call a credit to his family.

a crick in one's back a twisted or cramped place in the back that causes pain. ☐ I can't move! I've got a crick in my back! ☐ I had a crick in my back all night and I couldn't sleep.

a crick in one's neck a twisted place or a cramp in the neck that causes pain. ☐ I got a crick in my neck from sleeping in a draft. ☐ When I read on the plane, I get a crick in my neck.

crooked as a barrel of fishhooks Go to (as) crooked as a barrel of fishhooks.

crooked as a dog's hind leg Go to (as) crooked as a dog's hind leg.

crooked as a fishhook Go to (as) crooked as a fishhook.

cross a bridge before one comes to it to worry excessively about something before it happens. (Note the variation in the examples.) ☐ There is no sense in crossing that bridge before you come to it. ☐ She's always crossing bridges before coming to them. She needs to learn to relax.

cross a bridge when one comes to it to deal with a problem only when one is faced with the problem. (Note the variation in the examples.) ☐ Please wait and cross that bridge when you come to it. ☐ He shouldn't worry about it now. He can cross that bridge when he comes to it.

cross-examine someone to ask someone questions in great detail; to question a suspect or a witness at great length. ☐ The police cross-examined the suspect for three hours. ☐ The lawyer plans to cross-examine the witness tomorrow morning.

cross one's fingers Go to keep one's fingers crossed (for someone or something).

cross one's heart (and hope to die) to pledge or vow that the truth is being told.
☐ It's true, cross my heart and hope to die.
☐ It's really true—cross my heart.

cross someone's mind Go to pass through someone's mind.

cross someone's palm with silver to give money to someone in payment for a service. (A fortune-teller might ask for a potential customer to cross her palm with silver. Used in that sense or jocularly for something like tipping a porter.) □ I crossed his palm with silver, but he still stood there. □ You will find that things happen much faster in hotels if you cross the staff's palms with silver fairly often.

cross someone up to give someone trouble; to defy or betray someone. (Also without up.) □ You really crossed me up when you told Tom what I said. □ Please don't cross me up again.

cross swords (with someone) (on something) to enter into an argument with someone. □ I don't want to cross swords with Tom on this matter. □ The last time we crossed swords, we had a terrible time.

cross the Rubicon to do something that inevitably commits one to following a certain course of action. (The crossing of the River Rubicon by Julius Caesar inevitably involved him in a war with the senate in 49 B.C.) □ Jane crossed the Rubicon by signing the contract. □ Find another job before you cross the Rubicon and resign from this one.

crushed by something demoralized; with hurt feelings. (Also literal.) □ The whole family was completely crushed by the news. □ I was just crushed by your attitude. I thought we were friends.

the crux of the matter the central issue of the matter. (Crux is an old word meaning "cross.") □ All right, this is the crux of the matter. □ It's about time that we looked at the crux of the matter.

cry before one is hurt to cry or complain before one is injured. □ Bill always cries before he's hurt. □ There is no point in crying before one is hurt.

cry bloody murder to scream as if something very serious has happened. (See also scream bloody murder.) □ Now that Bill is really hurt, he's crying bloody murder. □ There is no point in crying bloody murder about the bill if you aren't going to pay it.

cry crocodile tears Go to shed crocodile tears.

cry one's eyes out to cry very hard. □ When we heard the news, we cried our eyes out with joy. □ She cried her eyes out after his death.

cry over spilled milk to be unhappy about something that cannot be undone. (Also literal.) □ I'm sorry that you broke your bicycle, Tom. But there is nothing that can be done now. Don't cry over spilled milk. □ Ann is always crying over spilled milk.

cry wolf to cry or complain about something when nothing is really wrong. □ Pay no attention. She's just crying wolf again. □ Don't cry wolf too often. No one will come.

crying need for someone or something a definite or desperate need for someone or something. □ There is a crying need for someone to come in and straighten things out. □ All the people in that area have a crying need for better housing.

a crying shame a very unfortunate situation; a real shame. □ It's a crying shame that people cannot afford adequate housing. □ That everyone could not attend the concert was a crying shame.

cue someone in 1. to give someone a cue; to indicate to someone that the time has come. □ Now, cue the orchestra director in. □ All right, cue in the announcer. 2. to tell someone what is going on. (Informal. Almost the same as clue someone in (on something).) □ I want to know what's going on. Cue me in. □ Cue in the general about the troop movement.

curdle someone's blood to frighten or disgust someone severely. □ The story was scary enough to curdle your blood. □ The terrible scream was enough to curdle my blood.

Curiosity killed the cat. It is dangerous to be curious. (Proverb.) □ Don't ask so many questions, Billy. Curiosity killed the cat. □ Curiosity killed the cat. Mind your own business.

curl someone's hair AND make someone's hair curl to frighten or alarm someone; to shock someone with sight, sound, or taste. (Also literal.) □ Don't ever sneak up on me like that again. You really curled my hair. □ The horror film made my hair curl.

curl up and die to retreat and die. □ When I heard you say that, I could have curled up and died. □ No, it wasn't an illness. She just curled up and died.

curry favor (with someone) to try to win favor from someone. □ The lawyer tried to curry favor with the judge. □ It's silly to curry favor. Just be yourself.

cut a big swath Go to cut a wide swath.

a cut above someone or something a measure or degree better than someone or something else. (Especially with average, as in the examples.) □ Your shirt is beautiful, but mine is a cut above yours. □ John isn't the best mechanic in town, but he's a cut above average.

cut across something to reach beyond something; to embrace a wide variety; to slice across a figurative boundary or barrier. (Also literal.) □ His teaching cut across all human cultures and races. □ This rule cuts across all social barriers.

cut a fine figure to look good; to look elegant. (Formal. Usually said of a male.) □ Tom really cuts a fine figure on the dance floor. □ Bill cuts a fine figure since he bought some new clothes.

cut-and-dried fixed; determined beforehand; usual and uninteresting. □ I find your writing quite boring. It's too cut-and-dried. □ The lecture was, as usual, cut-and-dried. It was the same thing we've heard for years.

cut and paste 1. to cut something out of paper with scissors and paste it onto something else. □ The teacher told the little children that it was time to cut and paste, and they all ran to the worktables. □ Mary made a tiny house by cutting and pasting little strips of paper. 2. something trivial, simple, or childish. □ I hate this job. It's nothing but cut and paste. □ I don't mind doing things that have to be done, but I hate to waste my time on cut and paste.

cut and run to get free and run away. (Slang. As in cutting loose the rope on a ship's or boat's anchor and sailing away in a hurry.) □ Max decided to cut and run when he heard the police sirens. □ As soon as I finish what I am doing here, I'm going to cut and run. I've got to get home by six o'clock.

cut a wide swath AND cut a big swath to seem important; to attract a lot of attention. □ In social matters, Mrs. Smith cuts a wide swath. □ Bob cuts a big swath whenever he appears in his military uniform.

cut back (on something) to reduce one's use of something; to use less of something. □ The government has to cut back on its spending. □ It's very difficult for the government to cut back.

cut both ways to affect both sides of an issue equally. □ Remember that your suggestion that costs should be shared cuts both ways. You will have to pay as well. □ If our side cannot take along supporters to the game, then yours cannot either. The rule has to cut both ways.

cut class to skip going to class. (Informal.) □ If Mary keeps cutting classes, she'll fail the course. □ I can't cut that class. I've missed too many already.

cut corners to reduce efforts or expenditures; to do things poorly or incompletely. □ You cannot cut corners when you are dealing with public safety. □ Don't cut corners, Sally. Let's do the job right.

cut from the same cloth AND made from the same mold sharing a lot of similarities; seeming to have been created, reared, or fashioned in the same way. □ She and her brother are cut from the same cloth. They both tell lies all the time. □ They are made from the same mold and even sound alike on the telephone.

Cut it out! Stop doing that! □ That's enough! Cut it out! □ Stop doing that. It hurts! Cut it out!

cut loose (from someone or something) to break away from someone or something; to break ties with someone or something; to act in a free manner. (Also literal. Compare this with break loose (from someone or something).) □ Jane is finding it hard to cut loose from her family. □ Cutting loose is part of growing up. □ When those farm boys get to town, they really cut loose from convention. □ They sure are wild when they cut loose.

cut loose (with something) Go to let go (with something).

cut no ice (with someone) to fail to change the mind of someone; to have no influence on someone. (Informal.) □ What you just said will cut no ice with the manager. □ All that may be true, but it cuts no ice with me. □ That idea cuts no ice. □ It won't help at all. □ It cuts no ice that your mother is the mayor.

cut off to stop by itself or oneself. (Informal.) □ The machine got hot and cut off. □ Bob cut off in midsentence.

cut off one's nose to spite one's face to harm oneself while trying to harm another person. (Note the variation in the examples.) □ Billy loves the zoo, but he refused to go with his mother because he was mad at her. He cut off his nose to spite his face. □ Find a better way to be angry. It is silly to cut your nose off to spite your face.

cut one's eyeteeth on something to have done something since one was very young; to have much experience at something. (Folksy.) □ Do I know about cars? I cut my eyeteeth on cars. □ I cut my eyeteeth on Bach. I can whistle everything he wrote.

cut one's losses to reduce someone's losses of money, goods, or other things of value. □ I sold the stock as it went down, thus cutting my losses. □ He cut his losses by putting better locks on the doors. There were fewer robberies. □ The mayor's reputation suffered because of the scandal. He finally resigned to cut his losses.

cut one's (own) throat [for someone] to experience certain failure; to do damage to oneself. (Also literal. Informal.) □ If I were to run for office, I'd just be cutting my throat. □ Judges who take bribes are cutting their own throats.

cut out for something well-suited for something; with a talent for something. (Compare this with cut out to be something.) □ Tom was not cut out for banking. □ Sally was cut out for the medical profession.

cut out the deadwood to remove unproductive persons from employment. (Also literal as in pruning away dead branches or deadwood.) □ This company would be more profitable if management would cut out the deadwood. □ When we cut out the deadwood, all our departments will run more smoothly.

cut out to be something well-suited for a particular role or a particular occupation. (Compare this with cut out for something.) □ Tom was not cut out to be a banker. □ Sally was cut out to be a doctor.

cut (someone) a check to write a check; to have a computer print a check. □ We will cut a check for the balance due you later this afternoon. □ We will cut you a check as soon as possible.

cut someone dead to ignore someone totally. □ Joan was just about to speak to James when he cut her dead. □ Jean cut her former husband dead.

cut someone down (to size) AND take someone down (to size) to make a person humble; to put one in one's place. (See also beat someone down (to size).) □ John's remarks really cut me down to size. □ Jane is too conceited. I think her new boss will take her down to size. □ The boss's angry stare will really cut her down.

cut someone in to give someone a share of something. (Informal or slang.) □ Shall we cut Bill in on this deal? □ I don't think we should cut anybody in. □ Pretty soon we'll have to cut in the whole town.

cut someone off without a penny to end someone's allowance; to fail to leave someone money in one's will. □ Mr. and Mrs. Franklin cut their son off without a penny after he quit school. □ They cut off both of their sons without a penny. □ We learned, when Uncle Sam's will was read, that he cut off his own flesh and blood without a penny.

cut someone or something to the bone 1. to slice flesh or meat deep to the bone. □ The knife cut John to the bone. He had to be sewed up. □ Cut each slice of ham to the bone. Then each slice will be as big as possible. 2. [with something] to cut down severely (on something). □ We cut our expenses to the bone and are still losing money. □ Congress had to cut the budget to the bone in order to balance it.

cut someone or something up to criticize someone or something severely. (Also literal. Slang.) □ Jane is such a gossip. She was really cutting Mrs. Jones up. □ The professor really cut up my essay.

cut someone to the quick to hurt someone's feelings very badly. □ Your criticism cut me to the quick. □ Tom's sharp words to Mary cut her to the quick.

cut teeth [for a baby or young person] to grow teeth. □ Billy is cranky because he's cutting teeth. □ Ann cut her first tooth this week.

cut the ground out from under someone to destroy the foundation of someone's plans or someone's argument. □ The politician cut the ground out from under his opponent. □ Congress cut out the ground from under the president.

cut to the chase to get to the important matters. □ Let's stop all this chatter and cut to the chase. □ I like the way you cut to the chase and don't waste my time.

cut up to act wildly; to show off and be troublesome; to act like a clown. (Slang. See also cut someone or something up.) □ Tom, Billy! Stop cutting up, or I'll send you to the principal's office. □ If you spent more time studying than cutting up, you'd get better grades.

D

[daily dozen] Go to one's daily dozen.

the daily grind [someone's] everyday work routine. (Informal.) □ I'm getting very tired of the daily grind. □ When my vacation was over, I had to go back to the daily grind.

damn someone or something with faint praise to criticize someone or something indirectly by not praising enthusiastically. □ The critic did not say that he disliked the play, but he damned it with faint praise. □ Mrs. Brown is very proud of her son's achievements, but damns her daughter's with faint praise.

dance to another tune to shift to a different kind of behavior; to change one's behavior or attitude. (See also change someone's tune; sing a different tune.) □ After being yelled at, Ann danced to another tune. □ A stern talking-to will make her dance to another tune.

dance with death to attempt to do something that is very risky. □ The crossing of the border into Adonia was like dancing with death. □ You are dancing with death in your effort to cross that narrow ledge.

dare someone (to do something) to challenge someone to do something. □ Sally dared Jane to race her to the corner. □ You wouldn't do that, would you? I dare you.

dark horse someone or something whose abilities, plans, or feelings are little known to others. (From horse racing.) □ It's difficult to predict who will win the prize—there are two or three dark horses in the tournament. □ Everyone was surprised at the results of the election. The dark horse won.

darken someone's door [for an unwelcome person] to come to someone's door seeking entry. (As if the unwelcome visitor were casting a shadow on the door. Formal or jocular.) □ Who is this who has come to darken my door? □ Is that you, John, darkening my door again? I thought you were out of town. □ The heroine of the drama told the villain never to darken her door again. □ She touched the back of her hand to her forehead and said, "Go, and never darken my door again!"

dart in and out [for something moving] to dart quickly between two things, or into a number of things, and move away again. □ On the highway, a small car was darting in and out of the two right lanes of traffic. □ A small bird darted in and out of the bush, probably going into a nest inside.

dash cold water on something Go to pour cold water on something.

dash something off to send something off, usually quickly. □ I'll dash a quick note off to Aunt Mary. □ Ann just dashed off a message to her parents.

date back (to sometime) to extend back to a particular time; to have been alive at a particular time in the past. □ My late grandmother dated back to the Civil War. □ This record dates back to the sixties. □ How far do you date back?

Davy Jones's locker the bottom of the sea, especially when it is a grave. (From the seamen's name for the evil spirit of the sea. See also go to Davy Jones's locker.) □ They were going to sail around the world, but ended up in Davy Jones's locker. □ Most of the gold from that trading ship is in Davy Jones's locker.

dawn on someone to occur to someone; to cross someone's mind. ☐ It just dawned on me that I forgot my books. ☐ When will it dawn on him that his audience is bored?

day after day every day; daily; all the time. ☐ He wears the same clothes day after day. ☐ She visits her husband in the hospital day after day.

day and night AND night and day all the time; around the clock. ☐ The nurse was with her day and night. ☐ The house is guarded night and day.

day in and day out AND day in, day out on every day; for each day. ☐ She smokes day in and day out. ☐ They eat nothing but vegetables, day in, day out.

day in, day out Go to day in and day out.

day-to-day daily; everyday; common. ☐ They update their accounts on a day-to-day basis. ☐ Just wear your regular day-to-day clothing.

daylight robbery the practice of blatantly or grossly overcharging. ☐ It's daylight robbery to charge that amount of money for a hotel room! ☐ The cost of renting a car at that place is daylight robbery.

[days are numbered] Go to one's days are numbered.

days running AND weeks running; months running; years running days in a series; months in a series; etc. (Follows a number.) ☐ I had a bad cold for 5 days running. ☐ For two years running, I brought work home from the office every night.

dead ahead straight ahead; directly ahead. ☐ Look out! There is a cow in the road dead ahead. ☐ The farmer said that the town we wanted was dead ahead.

dead and buried gone forever. (Refers literally to persons and figuratively to ideas and other things.) ☐ Now that memories of Uncle Bill are dead and buried, we can throw away his old boots. ☐ That kind of thinking is dead and buried.

dead and gone dead and buried, and probably forgotten. ☐ John is dead and gone. There is no reason to fear him any- more. ☐ Her husband is dead and gone, but she is getting along fine.

dead as a dodo Go to (as) dead as a dodo.

dead as a doornail Go to (as) dead as a doornail.

a dead duck someone or something that is failed, finished, or nearly dead. ☐ He missed the exam. He's a dead duck. ☐ Yes, John's a dead duck. He drove his car into a tree.

dead in someone's or something's tracks stopped exactly where someone or something is at the moment. (This does not usually have anything to do with death. The phrase is often used with stop.) ☐ Her unkind words stopped me dead in my tracks. ☐ When I heard the rattlesnake, I stopped dead in my tracks. ☐ The project came to a halt dead in its tracks.

dead letter 1. a piece of mail that is returned to the post office as both undeliverable and unreturnable. ☐ At the end of the year, the post office usually has bushels of dead letters. ☐ Some of the dead letters are opened to see if there is an address inside. 2. an issue, law, or matter that is no longer important or that no longer has force or power. (Usually a dead letter. Could also be used for a person.) ☐ His point about the need for education reform is a dead letter. It is being done now. ☐ This point of law is a dead letter since the last Supreme Court ruling on this matter.

a dead loss a total loss. ☐ My investment was a dead loss. ☐ This car is a dead loss. It was a waste of money.

dead on its feet AND dead on one's feet exhausted; worn out; no longer useful. ☐ Ann is so tired. She's really dead on her feet. ☐ He can't teach well anymore. He's dead on his feet. ☐ This inefficient company is dead on its feet.

dead on one's feet Go to dead on its feet.

dead set against someone or something totally opposed to someone or something. (See also one's heart is (dead) set against something.) ☐ I'm dead set against the new tax proposal. □ Everyone is dead set against the mayor.

dead to the world tired; exhausted; sleeping soundly. (Compare this with dead on one's feet.) □ I've had such a hard day. I'm really dead to the world. □ Look at her sleep. She's dead to the world.

deaf and dumb unable to hear or speak. (Used without any intended malice, but no longer considered polite. Sometimes euphemized as "hearing and speech impaired.") □ Fred objected to being called deaf and dumb. □ Aunt Clara—she was deaf and dumb, you know—lived to be over 100.

deaf as a post Go to (as) deaf as a post.

deal in something to buy and sell something. □ My uncle is a stockbroker. He deals in stocks and bonds. □ My aunt deals in antiques.

death and taxes death, which is inevitable, and the payment of taxes, which is unavoidable. (A saying that emphasizes the rigor with which taxes are collected.) □ There is nothing as certain on this old planet as death and taxes. □ Max said he could get out of anything except death and taxes.

death on someone or something 1. very effective in acting against someone or something. □ This road is terribly bumpy. It's death on tires. □ The sergeant is death on lazy soldiers. 2. [with something] accurate or deadly at doing something requiring skill or great effort. □ John is death on curve balls. He's our best pitcher. □ The boxing champ is really death on those fast punches.

decide in favor of someone or something to determine that someone or something is the winner. □ The judge decided in favor of the defendant. □ I decided in favor of the red one.

deem it (to be) necessary AND deem that it is necessary to believe that something is necessary. □ Mary deemed that it was necessary to leave town that night. □ Lisa deemed it necessary to go home.

deem that it is necessary Go to deem it (to be) necessary.

deep-six someone or something to get rid of someone or something; to dispose of someone or something. (Slang. To bury someone or something six feet deep, the standard depth for a grave.) □ Take this horrible food out and deep-six it. □ That guy is a pain. Deep-six him so the cops will never find him.

[deepest sympathy] Go to one's deepest sympathy.

a den of iniquity a place filled with wickedness. □ The town was a den of iniquity and vice was everywhere. □ Police raided the gambling house, calling it a den of iniquity.

desert a sinking ship AND leave a sinking ship to leave a place, a person, or a situation when things become difficult or unpleasant. (Rats are said to be the first to leave a ship that is sinking.) □ I hate to be the one to desert a sinking ship, but I can't stand it around here anymore. □ There goes Tom. Wouldn't you know he'd leave a sinking ship rather than stay around and try to help?

devil-may-care attitude AND devil-may-care manner a very casual attitude; a worry-free or carefree attitude. □ You must get rid of your devil-may-care attitude if you want to succeed. □ She acts so thoughtlessly with her devil-may-care manner.

devil-may-care manner Go to devil-may-care attitude.

a devil of a job AND the devil's own job the most difficult task. (Informal.) □ We had a devil of a job fixing the car. □ It was the devil's own job finding a hotel with vacancies.

the devil's own job Go to devil of a job.

a diamond in the rough a valuable or potentially excellent person or thing hidden by an unpolished or rough exterior. □ Ann looks like a stupid woman, but she's a fine person—a real diamond in the rough. □ That piece of property is a dia- mond in the rough. Someday it will be valuable.

die a natural death 1. [for someone] to die by disease or old age rather than by violence or foul play. □ I hope to live to 100 and die a natural death. □ The police say she didn't die a natural death, and they are investigating. 2. [for something] to fade away or die down. □ I expect that all this excitement about computers will die a natural death. □ Most fads die a natural death.

die in one's boots AND die with one's boots on to go down fighting; to die in some fashion other than in bed; to die fighting. (A cliché popularized by western movies. The villains of these movies said they preferred death by gunshot or hanging to dying in bed. See also go down fighting.) □ I won't let him get me. I'll die in my boots. □ He may give me a hard time, but I won't be overcome. I'll fight him and die with my boots on.

The die is cast. some process is past the point of no return. (This die is one of a pair of dice. This cast means "thrown.") □ After that speech favoring reform of the education system, the die is cast. This is now a campaign issue. □ The die is cast. There is no turning back on this point.

die laughing 1. to meet one's death laughing—in good spirits, revenge, or irony. □ Sally is such an optimist that she'll probably die laughing. □ Bob tried to poison his rich aunt, who then died laughing because she had taken Bob out of her will. 2. to laugh very long and hard. (Informal.) □ The joke was so funny that I almost died laughing. □ The play was meant to be funny, but the audience didn't exactly die laughing.

die of a broken heart 1. to die of emotional distress. □ I was not surprised to hear of her death. They say she died of a broken heart. □ In the movie, the heroine appeared to die of a broken heart, but the audience knew she was poisoned. 2. to suffer from emotional distress, especially from a failed romance. □ Tom and Mary broke off their romance and both died of broken hearts. □ Please don't leave me. I know I'll die of a broken heart.

die of boredom to suffer from boredom; to be very bored. □ No one has ever really died of boredom. □ We sat there and listened politely, even though we almost died of boredom.

die on someone 1. [for someone] to die while in someone's care. □ The ambulance driver didn't want his patient to die on him. □ "Come on, don't die on me!" cried the emergency room doctor. 2. [for something, such as a car engine] to stop running while one is using it. □ My car just died on me. □ His computer keeps dying on him.

die on the vine Go to wither on the vine.

die with one's boots on Go to die in one's boots.

different as night and day Go to (as) different as night and day.

dig in 1. to eat a meal; to begin eating a meal. (Informal. See also Come and get it!) □ Dinner's ready, Tom. Sit down and dig in. □ The cowboy helped himself to some beans and dug in. 2. to apply oneself to a task; to tackle (something) vigorously. □ Sally looked at the big job ahead of her. Then she rolled up her sleeves and dug in. □ "Tom," hollered Mrs. Smith, "you get to that pile of homework and dig in this very minute."

dig one's heels in to refuse to alter one's course of action or opinions; to be obstinate or determined. □ The student dug her heels in and refused to obey the instructions. □ I'm digging in my heels. I'm not going back.

dig one's own grave to be responsible for one's own downfall or ruin. □ The manager tried to get rid of his assistant, but he dug his own grave. He got fired himself for trying. □ The committee has dug its own grave with the new tax bill.

dig some dirt up on someone to find out something bad about someone. (Informal.) □ If you don't stop trying to dig some dirt up on me, I'll get a lawyer and sue you. □ The citizens' group dug up some dirt on the mayor and used it against her at election time.

dig someone or something to understand something; to relate to a person or a thing. (Slang.) □ I really dig Tom. He's a special guy. □ I really dig rock music.

dig someone or something up to go to great effort to find someone or something. (There is an implication that the thing or person dug up is not the most desirable, but is all that could be found.) □ Mary dug a date up for the dance next Friday. □ I dug up a recipe for roast pork with pineapple. □ I dug up a carpenter who doesn't charge very much.

dig something out to work hard to locate something and bring it forth. (Also literal.) □ They dug the contract out of the file cabinet. □ I dug this old suit out of a box in the attic. □ I dug out an old dress and wore it to the fifties party.

a dime a dozen abundant; cheap and common. (Also literal.) □ People who can write good books are not a dime a dozen. □ Romantic movies are a dime a dozen.

dine out Go to eat (a meal) out.

dip in(to something) to take or borrow from a supply of something, especially a supply of money. (Also literal.) □ I had to dip into my savings account to pay for the car. □ I hate to dip in like that. □ She put out her hand and dipped into the chocolate box.

dirt cheap extremely cheap. (Informal.) □ Buy some more of those plums. They're dirt cheap. □ In Italy, the peaches are dirt cheap.

dirty old man an older man who is excessively interested in sex. □ Tell your daughter to stay away from him. He's a dirty old man and might attack her. □ There were several dirty old men looking at pornographic magazines in the park.

dirty one's hands Go to get one's hands dirty.

dirty work 1. unpleasant or uninteresting work. □ My boss does all the traveling. I get all the dirty work to do. □ She's tired of doing all the dirty work at the office. 2.

dishonest or underhanded actions; treachery. □ She knew there was some dirty work going on when she saw her opponents whispering together. □ The company seems respectable enough, but there's a lot of dirty work that goes on.

divide and conquer to cause the enemy to split into two or more warring factions, and then move in to conquer all of them. □ Mary thought she could divide and conquer the board of directors, but they had survived such tactics many times, and her efforts failed. □ Sam led his men to divide and conquer the enemy platoon, and his strategy succeeded.

divide something fifty-fifty AND split something fifty-fifty to divide something into two equal parts. (Informal. Each fifty means 50 percent.) □ Tommy and Billy divided the candy fifty-fifty. □ The robbers split the money fifty-fifty.

do a double take to react with surprise; to have to look twice to make sure that one really saw correctly. (Informal.) □ When the boy led a goat into the park, everyone did a double take. □ When the nurse saw that the man had six toes, she did a double take.

do a flip-flop (on something) AND do an about-face to make a sudden reversal of opinion. (Informal or slang.) □ Without warning, the government did a flip-flop on taxation. □ It had done an about-face on the question of deductions last year.

do a job on someone or something 1. to damage someone or something; to mess up someone or something. (Informal or slang.) □ The robbers really did a job on the bank guard. They beat him when they robbed the bank. □ The puppy did a job on my shoes. They are all chewed to pieces. 2. [with something] to defecate on something. (Informal and euphemistic. Note the variation in the second example.) □ The puppy did a job on the living-room carpet. □ It's supposed to do its job on the newspapers in the basement.

do a land-office business to do a large amount of business in a short period of time. □ The ice cream shop always does a land-office business on a hot day. □ The tax collector's office did a land-office business on the day that taxes were due.

do an about-face Go to do a flip-flop (on something).

do an errand Go to run an errand.

do a number on someone or something to damage or harm someone or something. (Slang.) □ The teacher did a number on the whole class. That test was terrible. □ Tom did a number on Mary when he went out with Ann.

do a snow job on someone to deceive or confuse someone. (Informal or slang.) □ Tom did a snow job on the teacher when he said that he was sick yesterday. □ I hate it when someone does a snow job on me. I find it harder and harder to trust people.

do away with someone or something 1. [with someone] to kill someone; to dispose of someone or something. □ The crooks did away with the witness. □ I was there, too. I hope they don't try to do away with me. 2. [with something] to get rid of something; to dispose of something. □ This chemical will do away with the stain in your sink. □ The time has come to do away with that old building.

do credit to someone AND do someone credit to add to the reputation of someone. □ Your new job really does credit to you. □ Yes, it really does you credit.

Do I need to paint you a picture? It is so very simple, so why do you require more explanation to understand it? □ What is so difficult? Do I need to paint you a picture? □ I've explained it every way I can. Do I need to paint you a picture?

do justice to something 1. to do something well; to represent or portray something accurately. □ Sally did justice to the contract negotiations. □ This photograph doesn't do justice to the beauty of the mountains. 2. to eat or drink a great deal. □ Bill always does justice to the turkey on Thanksgiving. □ The party didn't do justice to the roast pig. There were nearly ten pounds left over.

do not have a care in the world being free and casual; being unworried and carefree. (Do not have can be replaced with be without.) □ I really feel good today—as if I didn't have a care in the world. □ Ann always acts as if she doesn't have a care in the world.

do not have a leg to stand on [for an argument or a case] to have no support. (Informal. Do not have can be replaced with be without.) □ You may think you're in the right, but you don't have a leg to stand on. □ My lawyer said I didn't have a leg to stand on, so I shouldn't sue the company.

do not have all one's marbles do not have all one's mental capacities. (Also literal. Informal.) □ John acts as if he doesn't have all his marbles. □ I'm afraid that I don't have all my marbles all the time.

do one's bit Go to do one's part.

do one's duty to do one's job; to do what is expected of one. □ Please don't thank me. I'm just doing my duty. □ Soldiers who fight in wars are doing their duty.

do oneself proud [for one] to make oneself proud. (Folksy. See also do credit to someone.) □ Well, Bill really did himself proud in the horse race. □ You did yourself proud by raising that fine-looking, prizewinning hog.

do one's (level) best to do (something) as well as one can. □ Just do your level best. That's all we can ask of you. □ Tom isn't doing his best. We may have to replace him.

do one's (own) thing to do what one likes or what one pleases. (Informal or slang.) □ Tom doesn't like being told what to do. He prefers to do his own thing. □ When you do your thing, you have no one but yourself to blame if things don't work out.

do one's part AND do one's bit to do one's share of the work; to do whatever one can do to help. □ All people everywhere must do their part to help get things under control. □ I always try to do my bit. How can I help this time?

do or die to do something or die trying. (Refers to an attitude adopted when one must do something whether one wants to or not. Occurs as a noun or an adjective.)

□ It was do or die. There was no turning back now. □ He simply had to get to the airport on time. It was a case of do or die.

do so Go to do too.

do somehow by someone to treat someone in a particular manner. (Informal. Do not confuse this with a passive construction. The someone is not the actor but the object.) □ Tom did all right by Ann when he brought her red roses. □ I did badly by Tom. I fired him.

do someone a good turn to do something that is helpful to someone. □ My neighbor did me a good turn by lending me his car. □ The teacher did me a good turn when he told me to work harder.

do someone a kindness to do a kind deed for a person. □ My neighbor did me a kindness when he cut my grass. □ I am always happy to have the opportunity of doing someone a kindness.

do someone credit Go to do credit to someone.

do someone damage to harm someone. (Informal.) □ I hope she doesn't plan to do me damage. □ They did us damage by telling the whole story to the newspapers.

do someone good to benefit someone. (Informal.) □ A nice hot bath really does me good. □ A few years in the army would do you good.

do someone one better Go to go someone one better.

do someone or something in 1. [with someone] to make someone tired. □ That tennis game really did me in. □ Yes, hard activity will do you in. 2. [with someone] to cheat someone; to take someone in. □ The crooks did the widow in. ☐ They did in the widow by talking her into giving them all the money in her bank account. 3. [with someone] to kill someone. ☐ The crooks did in the bank guard. ☐ They'll probably do in the witnesses soon. 4. [with something] to destroy something. ☐ The huge waves totally did in the seaside community. □ The fire did the wooden building in.

do someone or something over AND make someone or something over 1. [with someone] to buy a new wardrobe for someone; to redo someone's hair. (See also make a fuss (over someone or something).) □ Sally's mother did Sally over for the play tryouts.

□ It's very expensive to do a person over completely. □ The designer did Sally over completely. 2. [with something] to rebuild, redesign, or redecorate something. □ We did our living room over for the holidays. ☐ We made over the family room because it was looking shabby.

do someone out of something to cheat someone out of something. (Informal or slang.) □ They did the widow out of her life savings. □ I won't let anyone do me out of anything. I'm a very cautious and suspicious person.

do someone's bidding to do what is requested by someone. □ The servant grumbled but did his employer's bidding. □ Am I expected to do your bidding whenever you ask?

do someone's heart good to make someone feel good emotionally. (Also literal. Informal.) □ It does my heart good to hear you talk that way. □ When she sent me a get-well card, it really did my heart good.

do something by hand to do something with one's hands rather than with a machine. □ The computer was broken so I had to do the calculations by hand. □ All this tiny stitching was done by hand. Machines cannot do this kind of work.

do something fair and square to do something fairly. (Folksy. See also fair and square.) □ He always plays the game fair and square. □ I try to treat all people fair and square.

do something for a living to do some kind of work to earn enough money to live. □ John paints houses for a living. □ What do you do for a living?

do something hands down to do something easily and without opposition. □ The mayor won the election hands down. □

She was the choice of the people hands down.

do something in a heartbeat to do something almost immediately. ☐ If I had the money, I would go back to college in a heartbeat. ☐ Just tell me that you need me and I'll come there in a heartbeat.

do something in person to appear somewhere and do something oneself rather than sending someone else or doing it over the telephone, or by mail. ☐ I know the money should be in his account. I saw him put it there in person. ☐ The famous actor came to the hospital and greeted each patient in person.

do something in public to do something where anyone looking could see it. ☐ You should dress neatly when you appear in public. ☐ I wish that you wouldn't talk to me so rudely in public. ☐ Bob, you must behave properly in public.

do something in secret to do something privately or secretly. ☐ Why do you always do things like that in secret? ☐ There is no need to count your money in secret.

do something in vain to do something with no result; to do something that fails. ☐ They rushed her to the hospital, but they did it in vain. ☐ We tried in vain to get her there on time.

do something on the fly to do something while one is moving; to do something (to something that is in motion). (Slang. This has nothing to do with actual flight.) ☐ We can't stop the machine to oil it now. You'll have to do it on the fly. ☐ We will have to find the break in the film on the fly—while we are showing it.

do something on the run to do something while one is moving hurriedly; to do something while one is going rapidly from one place to another. (Informal.) ☐ I was very busy today and had to eat on the run. ☐ I didn't have time to meet with Bill, but I was able to talk to him on the run.

do something on the sly to do something slyly or sneakily. (Informal.) ☐ He was seeing Mrs. Smith on the sly. ☐ She was supposed to be losing weight, but she was snacking on the sly.

do something over (again) to redo something; to repeat the doing of something. ☐ This isn't right. You'll have to do it over again. ☐ The teacher made me do my paper over.

do something the hard way 1. to accomplish something in the most difficult manner, rather than by an easier way. ☐ I made it to this job the hard way. I came up through the ranks. ☐ She did it the hard way. She had no help from her parents. 2. to do something the wrong way. ☐ No, you can't pound in nails like that. You're doing it the hard way. ☐ I'm sorry. I learn things the hard way.

do something to excess to do too much of something; to consume too much of something. ☐ Anne often drinks to excess at parties. ☐ John smokes to excess when he works.

do something up to repair or redecorate something. ☐ If we're going to sell the house, we'll have to do it up. ☒ I'm going to do up the kitchen.

do something up brown to do something just right. (Folksy. Refers to cooking something until it has just the right amount of brownish color.) ☐ Of course I can do it right. I'll really do it up brown. ☐ Come on, Bob. Let's do it right this time. I know you can do it up brown.

do something with a vengeance to do something with vigor; to do something energetically as if one were angry with it. (Folksy.) ☐ Bob is building that fence with a vengeance. ☐ Mary is really weeding her garden with a vengeance.

do the dishes to wash and dry dishes, glasses, cups, knives, forks, etc., after a meal. ☐ Bill, you cannot go out and play until you've done the dishes. ☐ Why am I always the one who has to do the dishes?

do the honors to act as host or hostess and serve one's guests by pouring drinks, slicing meat, making (drinking) toasts, etc. ☐ All the guests were seated, and a huge, juicy turkey sat on the table. Jane Thomas turned to her husband and said, "Bob, will you do the honors?" Mr. Jones smiled and began slicing thick slices of meat from the turkey. □ The mayor stood up and addressed the people who were still eating their salads. "I'm delighted to do the honors this evening and propose a toast to your friend and mine, Bill Jones. Bill, good luck and best wishes in your new job in Washington." And everyone sipped a bit of wine.

do the trick to do exactly what needs to be done. (Folksy.) □ Push it just a little more to the left. There, that does the trick. □ If you lend me five dollars, I'll have enough to do the trick.

do too AND do so to do something (despite anything to the contrary). (An emphatic way of saying do. See also be too, have too.) □ BOB: You don't have your money with you. BILL: I do too! □ He does so! I saw him put it in his pocket. □ She did too. I saw her do it.

do without (someone or something) to manage to get through life without someone or something that you want or need. □ I guess I'll just have to do without a car. □ I don't know how I can do without. □ The boss can't do without a secretary.

Do you read me? Do you understand what I am telling you? (Typically asked of someone receiving a radio communication, such as from an airplane or an airport control tower. Also used as an emphatic way of asking if one is understood.) □ This is Delta heavy 54. Do you read me? □ I have said no twenty times already! The answer is still no! Do you read me?

dog and pony show a display, demonstration, or exhibition of something—such as something one is selling. (Refers to a circus act where trained dogs leap onto and off of trained ponies, in exactly the same sequence each time the show is performed.) □ Gary was there with his dog and pony show, trying to sell his ideas to whomever would listen to him. □ Don't you get tired of running through the same old dog and pony show, week after week?

dog-eat-dog a situation in which one has to act ruthlessly in order to survive or succeed; ruthless competition. □ It is dog-eat-dog in the world of business these days. □ Universities are not quiet peaceful places. It's dog-eat-dog to get a promotion.

dog in the manger one who prevents other people from doing or having what one does not wish them to do or have. (From one of Aesop's fables in which a dog—which cannot eat hay—lay in the hayrack [manger] and prevented the other animals from eating the hay.) □ Jane is a real dog in the manger. She cannot drive, but she will not lend anyone her car. □ If Martin were not such a dog in the manger, he would let his brother have that dinner jacket he never wears.

dollar for dollar considering the amount of money involved; considering the cost. (Informal. Often seen in advertising.) □ Dollar for dollar, you cannot buy a better car. □ Dollar for dollar, this laundry detergent washes cleaner and brighter than any other product on the market.

done in tired; exhausted; terminated; killed. □ I am really done in after all that exercise. □ The project was done in by a vote of the board. □ The witness was afraid he would be done in by the mobsters.

done to a T AND done to a turn cooked just right. (Folksy. See also fit someone to a T; suit someone to a T.) □ Yummy! This meat is done to a T. □ I like it done to a turn, not too done and not too raw.

done to a turn Go to done to a T.

Don't hold your breath. Do not stop breathing (while waiting a long time for something to happen). (Informal.) □ You think he'll get a job? Ha! Don't hold your breath. I'll finish building the fence as soon as I have time, but don't hold your breath.

Don't let it go any further. AND Don't let it out of this room. Don't tell this secret to anyone else. (Also literal.) □ This is a strict secret. Don't let it go any further. □ I'll tell you what you what to know, but don't let it go any further.

Don't let it out of this room Go to Don't let it go any further.

Don't let someone or something get you down. Do not allow yourself to be overcome by someone or something. □ Don't let their constant teasing get you down. □ Don't let Tom get you down. He's not always unpleasant.

Don't quit your day job. You are not very good at what you are doing, so don't quit your regular job in hopes that you can support yourself doing this. □ I saw your comedy act at the nightclub. Don't quit your day job! □ So, you laid the bricks in this wall. Well, don't quit your day job.

doomed to failure certain to fail, usually because of some obvious flaw. □ This project was doomed to failure from the very beginning. □ The play is doomed to failure because there is not a good story line.

door-to-door 1. having to do with movement from one door to another or from one house to another. (See also from door to door.) □ John is a door-to-door salesman. □ We spent two weeks making a door-to-door survey. 2. by moving from one door to another or one house to another. □ Anne is selling books door-to-door. □ We went door-to-door, collecting money.

a dose of one's own medicine the same kind of treatment that one gives to other people. (Often with get or have.) □ Sally never is very friendly. Someone is going to give her a dose of her own medicine someday. □ He didn't like getting a dose of his own medicine.

double back (on someone or something) [for a person or animal] to reverse motion, moving toward someone or something rather than away from someone or something. □ The deer doubled back on the hunter. □ The robber doubled back on the police, and they lost track of him. □ He doubled back on his trail.

double-cross someone to betray someone by doing the opposite of what was promised; to betray a person by not doing what was promised. (Slang. Originally criminal slang.) □ If you double-cross me again, I'll kill you. □ Tom is mad at Jane because she double-crossed him on the sale of his car.

double in brass to serve two purposes; to be useful for two different things. (Refers to a musician who can play a trumpet or trombone, etc., in addition to some other instrument.) □ The English teacher also doubles in brass as the football coach. □ The drummer doubles in brass as a violinist.

double up (with someone) to share something with someone. □ We don't have enough books. Tom, will you double up with Jane? □ When we get more books, we won't have to double up anymore. □ We'll share hotel rooms to save money. Tom and Bill will double up.

doubting Thomas someone who will not easily believe something without strong proof or evidence. (From the Bible.) □ Mary won't believe that I have a dog until she sees him. She's such a doubting Thomas. □ This school is full of doubting Thomases. They want to see Jimmy's new bike with their own eyes.

down-and-dirty sneaky, unfair, low-down, and nasty. (Slang.) □ The boys played a real down-and-dirty trick on the teacher. □ A political campaign provides a lot of down-and-dirty speeches that only confuse the voters.

down-and-out having no money or means of support. □ There are many young people down-and-out in Los Angeles just now. □ John gambled away all his fortune and is now completely down-and-out.

down-at-the-heels shabby; poorly dressed. (Refers to shoes that are worn down at the heels.) □ The hobo was really down-at-the-heels. □ Tom's house needs paint. It looks down-at-the-heels.

down by some amount having a score that is lower, by the specified amount, than someone else's score or the other team's score. □ At halftime, the home team was down by 14 points. □ Down by one run, the team scored two runs in the ninth inning and won the game.

down for the count finished for the time being. (From boxing, where a fallen fighter remains down [resting] until the last count, or even beyond.) □ After the professor rebuked me in class, I knew I was down for the count. □ I am down for the count, but I'll try again tomorrow.

down in the dumps sad or depressed. (Informal.) □ I've been down in the dumps for the past few days. □ Try to cheer Jane up. She's down in the dumps for some reason.

down in the mouth sad-faced; depressed and unsmiling. □ Since her dog died, Barbara has been down in the mouth. □ Bob has been down in the mouth since the car wreck.

down on one's luck without any money; unlucky. (Euphemistic for broke.) □ Can you lend me twenty dollars? I've been down on my luck lately. □ The gambler had to get a job because he had been down on his luck and didn't earn enough money to live on.

down on someone or something against someone or something; negative about someone or something. □ I've been down on red meat lately. It's better to eat chicken or fish. □ The teacher was down on Tom because he's always talking in class.

down South to or in the southeastern United States. (See also back East; out West; up North.) □ I used to live down South. □ We are going down South for the winter.

down the drain lost forever; wasted. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I just hate to see all that money go down the drain. □ Well, there goes the whole project, right down the drain.

down the hatch [to] swallow (something). (Informal or slang. Sometimes said when someone takes a drink of alcohol.) □ Come on, Billy. Eat your dinner. Down the hatch! □ John raised his glass of beer and said, "Down the hatch."

down the street a short distance away on this same street. □ Sally lives just down the street. □ There is a drugstore down the street. It's very convenient.

down the tubes ruined; wasted. (Slang.) □ His political career went down the tubes after the scandal. He's lost his job. □ The business went down the tubes.

down-to-earth 1. direct, frank, and honest. □ You can depend on Ann. She's very down-to-earth. □ It's good that she's down-to-earth and will give us a frank response. 2. practical; not theoretical; not fanciful. □ Her ideas for the boutique are always very down-to-earth. □ The committee's plans for the village are anything but down-to-earth.

down to the last detail considering all of the details. □ Jean planned the party very carefully, down to the last detail. □ Mary wanted to be in charge of everything right down to the last detail.

down to the wire at the very last minute; up to the very last instant. (Refers to a wire that marks the end of a horse race.) □ I have to turn this in tomorrow, and I'll be working down to the wire. □ When we get down to the wire, we'll know better what to do.

down with some disease ill; sick at home. (Can be said about many diseases.) □ Tom isn't here. He's down with a cold. □ Sally is down with the flu. □ The whole office has come down with something.

downhill all the way easy all the way. (Informal.) □ Don't worry about your algebra course. It's downhill all the way. □ The mayor said that the job of mayor is easy—in fact, downhill all the way.

downhill from here on easy from this point on. (Informal.) □ The worst part is over. It's downhill from here on. □ The painful part of this procedure is over. It's downhill from here on.

drag one's feet to act very slowly, often deliberately. □ The government is dragging its feet on this bill because it costs too much. □ If the planning department had not dragged their feet, the building would have been built by now.

a drag (on someone) a burden to someone; a bore. (Slang. Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ Mr. Franklin seems like a drag on Mrs. Franklin. □ Yes, I'd expect him to be a drag.

draw a bead on someone or something to aim at someone or something; to pick out someone or something for special treatment. (Informal.) □ Ann wants a new car, and she has drawn a bead on a red convertible. □ Jane wants to get married, and she has drawn a bead on Tom.

draw a blank 1. to get no response; to find nothing. □ I asked him about Tom's financial problems, and I just drew a blank. □ We looked in the files for an hour, but we drew a blank. 2. to fail to remember (something). □ I tried to remember her telephone number, but I could only draw a blank. □ It was a very hard test with just one question to answer, and I drew a blank.

draw a line between something and something else AND draw the line between something and something else to separate two things; to distinguish or differentiate between two things. (See also draw the line (at something).) □ It's necessary to draw a line between bumping into people and striking them. □ It's very hard to draw the line between slamming a door and just closing it loudly.

draw blood 1. to make a wound that bleeds. □ The dog chased me and bit me hard, but it didn't draw blood. □ The boxer landed just one punch and drew blood immediately. 2. to anger or insult a person. □ Sally screamed out a terrible insult at Tom. Judging by the look on his face, she really drew blood. □ Tom started yelling and cursing, trying to insult Sally. He wouldn't be satisfied until he had drawn blood, too.

draw interest 1. to appear interesting and get (someone's) attention. (Note the variation in the examples below.) □ This kind of event isn't likely to draw a lot of interest. □ What kind of thing will draw interest? 2. [for money] to earn interest while on deposit. □ Put your money in the bank so it will draw interest. □ The cash value of some insurance policies also draws interest.

draw lots AND draw straws to choose from a group of things to determine who will do something. (Typically, to choose a straw from a bundle of straws. The person with the shortest straw is selected.) □ We drew lots to decide who would wash the dishes. □ The players drew straws to determine who would go first.

draw someone or something out 1. [with someone] to coax someone to speak or answer; to bring someone into a conversation or other social interaction. □ Jane is usually very shy with older men, but Tom really drew her out last evening. □ John drew out Mr. Smith on the question of tax increases. 2. [with something] to make something longer in length or time. □ Jane drew out the conversation for more than twenty minutes. □ Bill drew the taffy candy out into a long string.

draw (someone's) fire (away from someone or something) to make oneself a target in order to protect someone or something. (Refers to gunfire.) □ The mother bird drew fire away from her chicks. □ The hen drew the hunter's fire away from her nest. □ Birds draw fire by flapping their wings to get attention. □ The president drew fire away from Congress by proposing a compromise.

draw something to a close to make something end. □ It is now time to draw this evening to a close. □ What a lovely vacation. It's a shame that we must draw it to a close.

draw something up to put something into writing; to prepare a written document; to put plans on paper. (Used especially with legal documents prepared by a lawyer.) □ You should draw a will up as soon as you can. □ I went to see my lawyer this morning about drawing up a will. □ The architect is drawing up plans for the new city hall.

draw straws Go to draw lots.

draw the line (at something) to set a limit at something; to decide when a limit has been reached. (See also hold the line (at someone or something).) □ You can make as much noise as you want, but I draw the line at fighting. □ It's hard to keep young people under control, but you have to draw the line somewhere.

draw the line between something and something else Go to draw a line between something and something else.

draw to a close to end; to come to an end. □ This evening is drawing to a close. □ It's a shame that our vacation is drawing to a close.

drawn and quartered dealt with very severely. (Refers to a practice of torturing someone guilty of treason, usually a male, by disemboweling and dividing the body into four parts.) □ Todd was practically drawn and quartered for losing the Wilson contract. □ You were much too harsh with Jean. No matter what she did, she didn't need to be drawn and quartered for it!

a dream come true a wish or a dream that has become real. □ Going to Hawaii is like a dream come true. □ Having you for a friend is a dream come true.

Dream on. What you are expecting or wanting to happen is nothing but fantasy, so enjoy yourself and create as many fantasies as you want. □ You want to get promoted to general manager? Dream on. □ You, an opera singer? Dream on.

redge something up Go to rake something up.

dress someone down to bawl someone out; to give someone a good scolding. (Primarily military.) □ The sergeant dressed the soldier down severely. □ I know they'll dress me down when I get home.

dressed to kill dressed in fancy or stylish clothes. (Slang.) □ Wow, look at Sally! She's really dressed to kill. □ A person doesn't go to church dressed to kill.

dressed to the nines dressed very well. (What nines means is not known.) □ Tom showed up at the dance dressed to the nines. □ Sally is even dressed to the nines at the office.

dribs and drabs in small irregular quantities. (Especially with in and by.) □ The checks for the charity are coming in in dribs and drabs. □ The members of the or- chestra arrived by dribs and drabs. □ All her fortune was spent in dribs and drabs on silly things—like clothes and fine wines.

drink to excess to drink too much alcohol; to drink alcohol continually. □ Mr. Franklin drinks to excess. □ Some people drink to excess only at parties.

drive a hard bargain to work hard to negotiate prices or agreements in one's own favor. (Informal.) □ I saved $200 by driving a hard bargain when I bought my new car. □ All right, sir, you drive a hard bargain. I'll sell you this car for $12,450. □ You drive a hard bargain, Jane, but I'll sign the contract.

drive at something to be making a point; to be approaching the making of a point. □ I do not understand what you are telling me. What are you driving at? □ She was driving at how important it is to get an education.

drive someone crazy AND drive someone mad 1. to make someone insane. □ He's so strange that he actually drove his wife crazy. □ Doctor, there are little green people following me around trying to drive me mad. 2. to annoy or irritate someone. □ This itch is driving me crazy. □ All these telephone calls are driving me mad.

drive someone mad Go to drive someone crazy.

drive someone out (of office) Go to force someone out (of office).

drive someone to the wall Go to force someone to the wall.

drive someone up the wall 1. to make someone insane. (Slang.) □ Mr. Franklin drove his wife up the wall. □ All my problems will drive me up the wall someday. 2. to annoy or irritate someone. (Slang.) □ Stop whistling that tune. You're driving me up the wall. □ All his talk about moving to California nearly drove me up the wall.

drive something home to make something clearly understood. (Also literal.) □ Why do I always have to shout at you to drive something home? □ Sometimes you have to be forceful to drive home a point.

drive something into the ground Go to run something into the ground.

driving force (behind someone or something) a person or a thing that motivates or directs someone or something. ☐ Money is the driving force behind most businesses. ☐ Ambition is the driving force behind Tom. ☐ Love can also be a driving force.

drop a bomb(shell) AND explode a bombshell; drop a brick to announce shocking or startling news. (Also literal for bomb and brick. Informal or slang.) ☐ They really dropped a bombshell when they announced that the mayor had cancer. ☐ Friday is a good day to drop a bomb like that. It gives the business world the weekend to recover. ☐ They must speak very carefully when they explode a bombshell like that. ☐ They really dropped a brick when they told the cause of her illness.

drop a brick Go to drop a bomb(shell).

drop around (sometime) AND drop by (sometime) to come and visit at some future time. (Similar to drop in (on someone).) ☐ Nice to see you, Mary. You and Bob must drop around sometime. ☐ Please do drop around when you're out driving. ☐ We'd love to have you drop by.

drop by (sometime) Go to drop around (sometime).

drop by the wayside Go to fall by the wayside.

drop dead 1. to die suddenly. ☐ I understand that Tom Anderson dropped dead at his desk yesterday. ☐ No one knows why Uncle Bob suddenly dropped dead. 2. Go away and stop bothering me. (Rude slang.) ☐ If you think I'm going to put up with your rudeness all afternoon, you can just drop dead! ☐ Drop dead! I'm not your slave!

drop everything to stop doing whatever one is doing. ☐ Drop everything and go outside. The house is on fire. ☐ Do you expect me to drop everything and come and pick you up at school?

drop in one's tracks to stop or collapse from exhaustion; to die suddenly. ☐ If I keep working this way, I'll drop in my tracks. ☐ Uncle Bob was working in the garden and dropped in his tracks. We are all sorry that he's dead.

drop in (on someone) AND drop in (to say hello) to pay someone a casual visit, perhaps a surprise visit. ☐ I hate to drop in on people when they aren't expecting me. ☐ You're welcome to drop in at any time. ☐ We won't stay a minute. We just dropped in to say hello.

a drop in the bucket Go to a drop in the ocean.

a drop in the ocean AND a drop in the bucket just a little bit; not enough of something to make a difference. ☐ But one dollar isn't enough! That's just a drop in the ocean. ☐ At this point your help is nothing more than a drop in the ocean. I need far more help than twenty people could give. ☐ I won't accept your offer. It's just a drop in the bucket.

drop in (to say hello) Go to drop in (on someone).

drop names to mention the names of important or famous people as if they were personal friends. ☐ Mary always tries to impress people by dropping the names of well-known film stars. ☐ Bill's such a snob. Leave it to him to drop the names of all the local gentry.

drop off (to sleep) to go to sleep without difficulty; to fall asleep. ☐ I sat in the warm room for five minutes, and then I dropped off to sleep. ☐ After I've eaten dinner, I can drop off with no trouble at all.

drop out (of something) to stop being a member of something; to stop attending or participating in something. (Also literal.) ☐ I'm working part time so that I won't have to drop out of college. ☐ I don't want to drop out at this time.

drop someone to stop being friends with someone, especially with one's boyfriend or girlfriend. ☐ Bob finally dropped Jane. I don't know what he saw in her. ☐ I'm surprised that she didn't drop him first.

drop someone a few lines Go to drop someone a line.

drop someone a line AND drop someone a few lines to write a letter or a note to someone. (Line refers to lines of writing.)
□ I dropped Aunt Jane a line last Thanksgiving. □ She usually drops me a few lines around the first of the year.

drop someone's name to mention the name of an important or famous person as if the person were a personal friend. □ Mary always tries to impress people by dropping a well-known movie star's name. □ Joan is such a snob. Leave it to her to drop some social leader's name.

drop the ball to make a blunder; to fail in some way. (Refers to dropping the ball in a ball game.) □ Everything was going fine in the election until my campaign manager dropped the ball. □ You can't trust John to do the job right. He's always dropping the ball.

drop the other shoe to do the deed that completes something; to do the expected remaining part of something. (Refers to the removal of shoes at bedtime. One shoe is dropped, and then the process is completed when the second shoe drops.)
□ Mr. Franklin has left his wife. Soon he'll drop the other shoe and divorce her. □ Tommy has just failed three classes in school. We expect him to drop the other shoe and quit altogether any day now.

drop the subject to stop talking about whatever is being talked about. □ This is a disgusting conversation. Let's drop the subject. □ He had heard enough about my operation, so I just dropped the subject.

drown one's sorrows Go to drown one's troubles.

drown one's troubles AND drown one's sorrows to try to forget one's problems by drinking a lot of alcohol. (Informal.) □ Bill is in the bar, drowning his troubles. □ Jane is at home, drowning her sorrows.

drown someone or something out to make so much noise that someone or something cannot be heard. □ I can't hear what you said. The radio drowned you out. □ We couldn't hear all the concert because the airplanes drowned out the quiet parts.

drug on the market on the market in great abundance; a glut on the market. □ Right now, small computers are a drug on the market. □ Ten years ago, small transistor radios were a drug on the market.

drum some business up to stimulate people to buy what you are selling. □ I need to do something to drum some business up. □ A little bit of advertising would drum up some business.

drum someone out of something to expel or send someone away from something, especially in a formal or public fashion. (From the military use of drums on such occasions.) □ The officer was drummed out of the regiment for misconduct. □ I heard that he was drummed out of the country club for cheating on his golf score.

drum something into someone's head to make someone learn something through persistent repetition. □ Yes, I know that. They drummed it into me as a child. □ Now I'm drumming it into my own children. □ I will drum it into their heads day and night.

drunk and disorderly a criminal charge for public drunkenness accompanied by bad or offensive behavior. □ The judge fined Max for being drunk and disorderly. □ In addition to being convicted for driving while intoxicated, Max was found guilty of being drunk and disorderly.

drunk as a lord Go to (as) drunk as a lord.

drunk as a skunk Go to (as) drunk as a lord.

dry as a bone Go to (as) dry as a bone.

dry as dust Go to (as) dry as dust.

dry run an attempt; a rehearsal. □ We had better have a dry run for the official ceremony tomorrow. □ The children will need a dry run before their procession in the pageant.

dry someone out to help a drunk person get sober. □ We had to call the doctor to help dry Mr. Franklin out. □ It takes time to dry out someone who has been drinking for a week.

dry up to become silent; to stop talking. (Also literal. Informal.) □ The young lecturer was so nervous that he forgot what he was going to say and dried up. □ Actors have a fear of drying up on stage. □ Oh, dry up! I'm sick of listening to you.

duck and cover 1. to dodge something, such as an issue or a difficult question, and attempt to shield oneself against similar issues or questions. (Refers to ducking down and taking cover to protect oneself.) □ The candidate's first reaction to the question was to duck and cover. □ The debaters were ducking and covering throughout the evening. 2. dodging something, such as an issue or a difficult question, and attempting to shield oneself against similar issues or questions. (Typically duck-and-cover.) □ These politicians are experts at duck-and-cover. □ When in doubt, turn to duck-and-cover.

dull as dishwater Go to (as) dull as dishwater.

dull as ditchwater Go to (as) dull as dishwater.

Dutch auction an auction or sale that starts off with a high asking price that is then reduced until a buyer is found. □ Dutch auctions are rare—most auctioneers start with a lower price than they hope to obtain. □ My real estate agent advised me to ask a reasonable price for my house rather than get involved with a Dutch auction.

Dutch courage unusual or artificial courage arising from the influence of alcohol. □ It was Dutch courage that made the football fan attack the policeman. □ It will take a bit of Dutch courage to make an after-dinner speech.

Dutch treat a social occasion where one pays for oneself. (See also go Dutch.) □ "It's nice of you to ask me out to dinner," she said, "but could we make it a Dutch treat?" □ The office outing is always a Dutch treat.

Dutch uncle a man who gives frank and direct advice to someone in the manner of a parent or relative. □ I would not have to lecture you like a Dutch uncle if you were not so extravagant. □ He acts more like a Dutch uncle than a husband. He's forever telling her what to do in public.

duty bound (to do something) forced by a sense of duty and honor to do something. □ Good evening, madam. I'm duty bound to inform you that we have arrested your husband. □ No one made me say that. I was duty bound.

dyed-in-the-wool permanent; indelible; stubborn. (Usually said of a person.) □ My uncle was a dyed-in-the-wool farmer. He wouldn't change for anything. □ Sally is a dyed-in-the-wool socialist.

dying to do something very anxious to do something. □ I'm just dying to go sailing in your new boat. □ After a long hot day like this one, I'm just dying for a cool drink of water.

E

an eager beaver someone who is very enthusiastic; someone who works very hard. □ New volunteers are always eager beavers. □ The young assistant gets to work very early. She's a real eager beaver.

an eagle eye careful attention; an intently watchful eye. (From the sharp eyesight of the eagle.) □ The students wrote their essays under the eagle eye of the headmaster. □ The umpire kept his eagle eye on the tennis match.

early bird someone who gets up or arrives early or starts something very promptly, especially someone who gains an advantage of some kind by so doing. (See also The early bird gets the worm.) □ The members of the Smith family are all early birds. They caught the first bus to town. □ I was an early bird and got the best selection of flowers.

The early bird gets the worm. The early person will get the reward or benefit. □ Don't be late again! Don't you know that the early bird gets the worm? □ I'll be there before the sun is up. After all, the early bird gets the worm.

early on early; at an early stage. □ We recognized the problem early on, but we waited too long to do something about it. □ This doesn't surprise me. I knew about it early on.

Early to bed, early to rise(, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise). Going to bed early and getting up early is good for you. (Proverb. Sometimes said to explain why a person is going to bed early. The last part of the saying is sometimes left out.) □ Tom left the party at ten o'clock, saying, "Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise." □ I al- ways get up at dawn. After all, early to bed, early to rise.

earn one's keep to help out with chores in return for food and a place to live; to earn one's pay by doing what is expected. □ I earn my keep at college by shoveling snow in the winter. □ Tom hardly earns his keep around here. He should be fired.

[ears are red] Go to one's ears are red.

[ears are ringing] Go to one's ears are ringing.

ease off (on someone or something) AND ease up (on someone or something) to reduce the urgency with which one deals with someone or something; to put less pressure on someone or something. □ Ease off on John. He has been yelled at enough today. □ Yes, please ease off. I can't stand any more. □ Tell them to ease up on the horses. They are getting tired. □ Tell them to ease up now! They are making the horses work too hard.

ease up (on someone or something) Go to ease off (on someone or something).

easier said than done Go to (be) easier said than done.

easy as ABC Go to (as) easy as ABC.

easy as (apple) pie Go to (as) easy as (apple) pie.

easy as duck soup Go to (as) easy as duck soup.

easy as falling off a log Go to (as) easy as falling off a log.

easy as rolling off a log Go to (as) easy as falling off a log.

easy come, easy go  □ Ann found twenty dollars in the morning and spent it foolishly at noon. "Easy come, easy go," she said. □ John spends his money as fast as he can earn it. With John it's easy come, easy go.

Easy does it. Act with care. (Informal.) □ Be careful with that glass vase. Easy does it! □ Now, now, Tom. Don't get angry. Easy does it.

easy to come by easily found; easily purchased; readily available. □ Please be careful with that phonograph record. It was not easy to come by. □ A good dictionary is very easy to come by.

eat (a meal) out AND dine out to eat a meal at a restaurant. □ I like to eat a meal out every now and then. □ Yes, it's good to eat out and try different kinds of food. □ It costs a lot of money to dine out often.

eat and run to eat a meal or a snack and then leave. □ Well, I hate to eat and run but I have to take care of some errands. □ I don't invite John to dinner anymore because he always has some excuse to eat and run.

eat away at someone or something 1. to remove parts, bit by bit. □ John's disease was eating away at him. □ The acid in the rain slowly ate away at the stone wall. 2. [with someone] to bother or worry someone. □ Her failure to pass the exam was eating away at her. □ Fear of appearing in court was eating away at Tom.

eat high on the hog to eat good or expensive food. (Folksy. Compare this with live high on the hog. Note the so in the second example. See also live high off the hog.) □ The Smith family has been eating pretty high on the hog since they had a good corn harvest. □ John would have more money to spend on clothing if he didn't eat so high on the hog.

eat humble pie 1. to act very humbly when one is shown to be wrong. □ I think I'm right, but if I'm wrong, I'll eat humble pie. □ You think you're so smart. I hope you have to eat humble pie. 2. to accept insults and humiliation. □ John, stand up for your rights. You don't have to eat humble pie all the time. □ Beth seems quite happy to eat humble pie. She should stand up for her rights.

eat like a bird to eat only small amounts of food; to peck at one's food. □ Jane is very slim because she eats like a bird. □ Bill is trying to lose weight by eating like a bird.

eat like a horse to eat large amounts of food. (Informal.) □ No wonder he's so fat. He eats like a horse. □ John works like a horse and eats like a horse, so he never gets fat.

eat one's cake and have it too Go to have one's cake and eat it too.

eat one's hat  (Informal. Always used with an if-clause.) □ If we get there on time, I'll eat my hat. □ I'll eat my hat if you get a raise. □ He said he'd eat his hat if she got elected.

eat one's heart out 1. to be very sad (about someone or something). □ *Bill spent a lot of time eating his heart out after his divorce. □ Sally ate her heart out when she had to sell her house. 2. to be envious (of someone or something). (Informal.) □ *Do you like my new watch? Well, eat your heart out. It was the last one in the store. □ Don't eat your heart out about my new car. Go get one of your own.

eat one's words to have to take back one's statements; to confess that one's predictions were wrong. □ You shouldn't say that to me. I'll make you eat your words. □ John was wrong about the election and had to eat his words.

eat out of someone's hands to do what someone else wants; to obey someone eagerly. (Often with have.) □ Just wait! I'll have everyone eating out of my hands. They'll do whatever I ask. □ The president has Congress eating out of his hands. □ A lot of people are eating out of his hands.

eat someone out Go to chew someone out.

eat someone out of house and home to eat a lot of food (in someone's home); to eat all the food in the house. □ Billy has a huge appetite. He almost eats us out of house and home. □ When the kids come home from college, they always eat us out of house and home.

eat something up to enjoy, absorb, or appreciate. (Also literal. Informal.) □ The audience loved the comedian. They ate his act up and demanded more. □ The children ate up Grandfather's stories. They listened to him for hours.

ebb and flow to decrease and then increase, as with tides; a decrease followed by an increase, as with tides. □ The fortunes of the major political parties tend to ebb and flow over time. □ The ebb and flow of democracy through history is a fascinating subject.

edge someone out to remove a person from a job, office, or position, usually by beating the person in competition. □ The vice president edged the president out during the last election. □ Tom edged out Bob as the new cook at the restaurant.

egg someone on to encourage, urge, or dare someone to continue doing something, usually something unwise. □ John wouldn't have done the dangerous experiment if his brother hadn't egged him on. □ The two boys kept throwing stones because the other children were egging them on.

either feast or famine either too much (of something) or not enough (of something). (Also without either.) □ This month is very dry, and last month it rained almost every day. Our weather is either feast or famine. □ Sometimes we are busy, and sometimes we have nothing to do. It's feast or famine.

elbow someone out (of something) to force or pressure someone out of something, such as an office, post, or status. (Also literal when attempting to use one's elbows to move the person beside oneself away.) □ The old head of the company was elbowed out of office by a young vice president. □ They tried to elbow me out, but I held on to what was mine.

eleventh-hour decision a decision made at the last possible minute. (See also at the eleventh hour.) □ Eleventh-hour decisions are seldom satisfactory. □ The president's eleventh-hour decision was made in a great hurry, but it turned out to be correct.

an end in itself for its own sake; toward its own ends; toward no purpose but its own. □ For Bob, art is an end in itself. He doesn't hope to make any money from it. □ Learning is an end in itself. Knowledge does not have to have a practical application.

the end of the line Go to the end of the road.

the end of the road AND the end of the line the end; the end of the whole process; death. (Line originally referred to railroad tracks.) □ Our house is at the end of the road. □ We rode the train to the end of the line. □ When we reach the end of the road on this project, we'll get paid. □ You've come to the end of the line. I'll not lend you another penny. □ When I reach the end of the road, I wish to be buried in a quiet place, near some trees.

end something up to bring something to an end. (Informal. Also without up.) □ I want you to end your game up and come in for dinner. □ We can't end up the game until someone scores.

end up by doing something to conclude something by doing something. (Compare this with end up doing something.) □ We ended up by going back to my house. □ They danced until midnight and ended up by having pizza in the front room.

end up doing something AND wind up doing something to have to do something that one had not planned to do. (Compare this with end up by doing something.) □ We ended up going back to my house after all. □ Todd wound up inviting everyone to his house, even though he planned to spend the evening at home alone.

end up (somehow) to end something at a particular place, in a particular state, or by having to do something. (Compare this with end up by doing something.) □ I ended up having to pay for everyone's dinner. □ After paying for dinner, I ended up broke. □ We all ended up at my house. □ After playing in the rain, we all ended up with colds.

end up somewhere AND wind up somewhere to finish at a certain place. □ If you don't get straightened out, you'll end up in jail. □ I fell and hurt myself, and I wound up in the hospital.

end up with the short end of the stick Go to get the short end of the stick.

engage in small talk to talk only about minor matters rather than important or personal matters. □ All the people at the party were engaging in small talk. □ They chatted about the weather and otherwise engaged in small talk.

Enjoy your meal.  □ There you go. Enjoy your meal. □ Do you have the medium steak? Enjoy your meal.

Enough is enough. That is enough, and there should be no more. □ Stop asking for money! Enough is enough! □ I've heard all the complaining from you that I can take. Stop! Enough is enough!

enough to go (a)round a supply adequate to serve everyone. (Informal.) □ Don't take too much. There's not enough to go around. □ I cooked some extra potatoes, so there should be enough to go around.

enter one's mind to come to one's mind; [for an idea or memory] to come into one's consciousness. □ Leave you behind? The thought never even entered my mind. □ A very interesting idea just entered my mind. What if I ran for Congress?

enter the fray Go to join the fray.

equal to someone or something able to handle or deal with someone or something. (Also literal.) □ I'm afraid that I'm not equal to Mrs. Smith's problem right now. Please ask her to come back later. □ That's a very difficult task, but I'm sure Bill is equal to it.

escape someone's notice to go unnoticed; to be overlooked. (Usually a way to point out that someone has failed to see or respond to something.) □ I suppose my ear- lier request escaped your notice, so I'm writing again. □ I'm sorry. Your letter escaped my notice.

even in the best of times even when things are good; even when things are going well. □ It is hard to get high-quality leather even in the best of times. □ John had difficulty getting a loan even in the best of times because of his poor credit record.

even steven even (with someone or something). (Informal or slang. Preceded by be or seem.) □ Bill hit Tom; then Tom hit Bill. Now they are even steven. □ Mary paid Ann the $100 she owed her. Ann said, "Good, we are even steven."

ever and anon now and then; occasionally. (Literary and archaic.) □ Ever and anon the princess would pay a visit to the sorcerer in the small walled garden directly behind the castle. □ We eat swan ever and anon, but not when we can get wild boar.

Every cloud has a silver lining. There is something good in every bad thing. (Proverb.) □ Jane was upset when she saw that all her flowers had died from the frost. But when she saw that the weeds had died too, she said, "Every cloud has a silver lining." □ Sally had a sore throat and had to stay home from school. When she learned she missed a math test, she said, "Every cloud has a silver lining."

Every dog has his day Go to Every dog has its day.

Every dog has its day. AND Every dog has his day. Everyone will get a chance. (Proverb.) □ Don't worry, you'll get chosen for the team. Every dog has its day. □ You may become famous someday. Every dog has his day.

every inch a something AND every inch the something completely; in every way. □ Mary is every inch the schoolteacher. □ Her father is every inch a gentleman.

every inch the something Go to every inch a something.

every last one every one; every single one. (Informal.) □ You must eat all your peas!

Every last one! □ Each of you—every last one—has to take some medicine.

every living soul every person. (Informal.) □ I expect every living soul to be there and be there on time. □ This is the kind of problem that affects every living soul.

every minute counts AND every moment counts time is very important. □ Doctor, please try to get here quickly. Every minute counts. □ When you take a test, you must work rapidly because every minute counts. □ When you're trying to meet a deadline, every moment counts.

every moment counts Go to every minute counts.

every nook and cranny every small, out-of-the-way place where something can be hidden. □ We looked for the tickets in every nook and cranny. They were lost. There was no doubt. □ The decorator had placed flowers in every nook and cranny.

(every) now and again Go to (every) now and then.

(every) now and then AND (every) now and again; (every) once in a while occasionally; infrequently. □ We eat lamb every now and then. □ We eat pork now and then. □ I read a novel every now and again. □ We don't go to the movies except maybe every now and then. □ I drink coffee every once in a while. □ I drink tea once in a while.

(every) once in a while Go to (every) now and then.

every other person or thing every second person or thing; alternating. □ The magician turned every other card over. □ Every other table had an ashtray on it.

every time one turns around frequently; at every turn; with annoying frequency. (Informal.) □ Somebody asks me for money every time I turn around. □ Something goes wrong with Bill's car every time he turns around.

(every) Tom, Dick, and Harry everyone, without discrimination; ordinary people. (Not necessarily males.) □ The golf club is very exclusive. They don't let any Tom, Dick, and Harry join. □ Mary's sending out very few invitations. She doesn't want every Tom, Dick, and Harry turning up.

every which way in all directions. (Folksy.) □ The children were all running every which way. □ The wind scattered the leaves every which way.

everything but the kitchen sink almost everything one can think of. □ When Sally went off to college, she took everything but the kitchen sink. □ John orders everything but the kitchen sink when he goes out to dinner, especially if someone else is paying for it.

everything from A to Z Go to everything from soup to nuts.

everything from soup to nuts AND everything from A to Z almost everything one can think of. □ For dinner we had everything from soup to nuts. □ In college I studied everything from soup to nuts. □ She mentioned everything from A to Z.

everything humanly possible everything that is in the range of human powers. □ The rescuers did everything humanly possible to find the lost campers. □ The doctor tried everything humanly possible to save the patient.

Everything's coming up roses. Everything is really just excellent. □ Life is wonderful. Everything is coming up roses. □ Q: How are things going? A: Everything's coming up roses.

the exception that proves the rule  □ Sixth-graders do not have to wear school uniforms, but they're the exception that proves the rule. □ The youngest dog is allowed in the house. He's the exception that proves the rule.

exchange more than some number of words with someone to say hardly anything to someone. (Always negated.) □ I know Tom was there, but I am sure that I didn't exchange more than three words with him before he left. □ We hardly exchanged more than two words the whole evening. □

Sally and Liz didn't have enough time to exchange more than five words.

exciting as watching (the) paint dry Go to (as) exciting as watching (the) paint dry.

excuse oneself to make polite apologies or explanations before leaving a place. ☐ Please excuse me. I must leave. ☐ I will have to excuse myself from this meeting since I have a vested interest in the outcome.

excuse someone 1. to forgive someone. (Usually with me. Said when interrupting or when some other minor offense has been committed. There are many mannerly uses of this expression.) ☐ John came in late and said, "Excuse me, please." ☐ John said "excuse me" when he interrupted our conversation. ☐ When John made a strange noise at the table, he said quietly, "Excuse me." ☐ John suddenly left the room saying, "Excuse me. I'll be right back." 2. to permit someone to leave; to permit someone to remain away from an event. ☐ The coach excused John from practice yesterday. ☐ The teacher excused John, and he ran quickly from the room.

expecting (a child) pregnant. (Euphemism.) ☐ Tommy's mother is expecting a child. ☐ Oh, I didn't know she was expecting.

expense is no object Go to money is no object.

explain oneself 1. to explain what one has said or done or what one thinks or feels. (Formal and polite.) ☐ Please take a moment to explain yourself. I'm sure we are interested in your ideas. ☐ Yes, if you give me a moment to explain myself, I think you'll agree with my idea. 2. to give an explanation or excuse for something wrong that one may have done. (Usually said in anger.) ☐ Young man! Come in here and explain yourself this instant. ☐ Why did you do that, Tom Smith? You had better explain yourself, and it had better be good.

explain something away to give a good explanation for something; to explain something so that it seems less important; to make excuses for something. ☐

This is a very serious matter, and you cannot just explain it away. ☐ John couldn't explain away his low grades.

explode a bombshell Go to drop a bomb(shell).

express one's anger to allow a release or expression of anger, such as through angry words. ☐ Don't keep your emotions inside of you. You have to learn to express your anger. ☐ Bob expresses his anger by yelling at people.

extend credit (to someone) AND extend someone credit to allow someone to purchase something on credit. ☐ I'm sorry, Mr. Smith, but because of your poor record of payment, we are no longer able to extend credit to you. ☐ Look at this letter, Jane. The store won't extend credit anymore. ☐ We are unable to extend that company credit any longer.

extend one's sympathy (to someone) to express sympathy to someone. (A very polite and formal way to tell someone that you are sorry about a misfortune.) ☐ Please permit me to extend my sympathy to you and your children. I'm very sorry to hear of the death of your husband. ☐ Let's extend our sympathy to Bill Jones, who is in the hospital with a broken leg. We should send him some flowers.

extend someone credit Go to extend credit (to someone).

extenuating circumstances special circumstances that account for an irregular or improper way of doing something. ☐ Mary was permitted to arrive late because of extenuating circumstances. ☐ Due to extenuating circumstances, the class will not meet today.

the eye of the storm the center of a problem; the center of a commotion or a disturbance. ☐ Tom, finding himself at the eye of the storm, tried to blame someone else for the problem. ☐ The manager's office was known as the eye of the storm since all the major problems ended up there.

eyeball-to-eyeball person to person; face to face. ☐ The discussions will have to be eyeball-to-eyeball to be effective. □ Telephone conversations are a waste of time. We need to talk eyeball-to-eyeball.

[eyes are bigger than one's stomach] Go to One's eyes are bigger than one's stomach.

F

face someone down to overcome someone by being bold; to disconcert someone by displaying great confidence. □ The teacher faced the angry student down without saying anything. □ The mayor couldn't face down the entire city council.

face the music to receive punishment; to accept the unpleasant results of one's actions. □ Mary broke a dining-room window and had to face the music when her father got home. □ After failing a math test, Tom had to go home and face the music.

face-to-face 1. in person; in the same location. (Said only of people. An adverb.) □ Let's talk about this face-to-face. I don't like talking over the telephone. □ Many people prefer to talk face-to-face. 2. facing one another; in the same location. □ I prefer to have a face-to-face meeting. □ They work better on a face-to-face basis.

the facts of life 1. the facts of sex and reproduction, especially human reproduction. (See also birds and the bees.) □ My parents told me the facts of life when I was nine years old. □ Bill learned the facts of life from his classmates. 2. the truth about the unpleasant ways that the world works. □ Mary really learned the facts of life when she got her first job. □ Tom couldn't accept the facts of life in business, so he quit.

fair and impartial fair and unbiased. (Usually referring to some aspect of the legal system, such as a jury, a hearing, or a judge.) □ Gary felt that he had not received a fair and impartial hearing. □ We demand that all of our judges be fair and impartial in every instance.

fair and square completely fair(ly). □ She won the game fair and square. □ The division of the money should be fair and square.

fair game someone or something that it is quite permissible to attack. □ I don't like seeing articles exposing people's private lives, but politicians are fair game. □ Journalists always regard movie stars as fair game.

fair-haired boy a favored person. (Not necessarily young or male.) □ The teacher's fair-haired boy always does well on tests. □ The supervisor's son was the fair-haired boy on the construction site.

[fair share] Go to one's fair share.

fair to middling only fair or okay; a little better than acceptable. (Folksy.) □ I don't feel sick, just fair to middling. □ The play wasn't really good. It was just fair to middling.

fair-weather friend someone who is your friend only when things are going well for you. (This person will desert you when things go badly for you. Compare this with A friend in need is a friend indeed.) □ Bill wouldn't help me with my homework. He's just a fair-weather friend. □ A fair-weather friend isn't much help in an emergency.

fall afoul of someone or something AND run afoul of someone or something to get into a situation where one is opposed to someone or something; to get into trouble with someone or something. □ Dan fell afoul of the law at an early age. □ I hope that you will avoid falling afoul of the district manager. She can be a formidable enemy. □ I hope I don't run afoul of your sister. She doesn't like me.

fall (all) over oneself to behave awkwardly and eagerly when doing something. (See also fall over backwards (to do something).) □ Tom fell all over himself trying to make Jane feel at home. □ I fall over myself when I'm doing something that makes me nervous.

fall all over someone to give a lot of attention, affection, or praise to someone. (Informal.) □ My aunt falls all over me whenever she comes to visit. □ I hate for someone to fall all over me. It embarrasses me.

fall apart at the seams [for something] to break into pieces; to fall apart; [for material that is sewn together] to separate at the seams. (Literal for cloth, otherwise figurative. See also come apart at the seams.) □ My new jacket fell apart at the seams. □ This old car is about ready to fall apart at the seams.

fall asleep to go to sleep. □ The baby cried and cried and finally fell asleep. □ Tom fell asleep in class yesterday.

fall back on someone or something to turn to someone or something for help. (Also literal.) □ Bill fell back on his brother for help. □ John ran out of ink and had to fall back on his pencil.

fall between two stools to come somewhere between two possibilities and so fail to meet the requirements of either. □ The material is not suitable for an academic book or for a popular one. It falls between two stools. □ He tries to be both teacher and friend, but falls between two stools.

fall by the wayside AND drop by the wayside to give up and quit before the end (of something). (Refers to being too exhausted to finish a footrace.) □ John fell by the wayside and didn't finish college. □ Many people start out to train for a career in medicine, but some of them drop by the wayside. □ All of her projects fall by the wayside when she tires of them.

fall down on the job to fail to do something properly; to fail to do one's job adequately. (Also literal referring to an accident while one is working.) □ The team kept losing because the coach was falling down on the job. □ Tom was fired because he fell down on the job.

fall flat (on its face) Go to fall flat (on one's face).

fall flat (on one's face) AND fall flat (on its face) to be completely unsuccessful. (Informal.) □ I fell flat on my face when I tried to give my speech. □ The play fell flat on its face. □ My jokes fall flat most of the time.

fall for someone or something 1. [with someone] to fall in love with someone. □ Tom fell for Ann after only two dates. He wants to marry her. □ Some men always fall for women with blond hair. 2. [with something] to be deceived by something. □ I can't believe you fell for that old trick. □ Jane didn't fall for Ann's story.

fall from grace to cease to be held in favor, especially because of some wrong or foolish action. □ He was the teacher's pet until he fell from grace by failing the history test. □ Mary was the favorite grandchild until she fell from grace by running away from home.

fall head over heels to fall down, perhaps turning over or rolling. (Also literal.) □ Fred tripped on the rug and fell head over heels into the center of the room. □ Slow down or you will fall down—head over heels.

fall head over heels in love (with someone) to fall deeply in love with someone, perhaps suddenly. □ Roger fell head over heels in love with Maggie, and they were married within the month. □ Very few people actually fall head over heels in love with each other. □ She fell head over heels in love and thought she was dreaming.

fall ill to become ill. □ Tom fell ill just before he was to perform. □ We both fell ill after eating the baked fish.

fall in to line up in a row, standing shoulder to shoulder. (Also literal, meaning "to collapse." Usually refers to people in scouting or the military. Compare this with fall in(to) line and fall out.) □ The Boy Scouts were told to fall in behind the scoutmaster. □ The soldiers fell in quickly.

fall in for something Go to come in for something.

fall in love (with someone) to develop the emotion of love for someone. □ Tom fell in love with Mary, but she only wanted to be friends. □ John is too young to really fall in love.

fall into a trap AND fall into the trap; fall into someone's trap to become caught in someone's scheme; to be deceived into doing or thinking something. (Also literal.) □ We fell into a trap by asking for an explanation. □ I fell into his trap when I agreed to drive him home. □ We fell into the trap of thinking he was honest.

fall in(to) line 1. to line up with each person (except the first person) standing behind someone. (Compare this with fall in.) □ The teacher told the students to fall in line for lunch. □ Hungry students fall into line very quickly. 2. to conform; to fall in(to) place. □ All the parts of the problem finally fell into line. □ Bill's behavior began to fall in line.

fall in(to) place to fit together; to become organized. □ After we heard the whole story, things began to fall in place. □ When you get older, the different parts of your life begin to fall into place.

fall into someone's trap Go to fall into a trap.

fall into the trap Go to fall into a trap.

fall in with someone or something 1. [with someone] to meet someone by accident; to join with someone. □ John has fallen in with a strange group of people. □ We fell in with some people from our hometown when we went on vacation. 2. to agree with someone or something. □ Bill was not able to fall in with our ideas about painting the house red. □ Bob fell in with Mary's plans to move to Texas.

fall off to decline or diminish. □ Business falls off during the summer months. □ My interest in school fell off when I became twenty.

fall on deaf ears [for talk or ideas] to be ignored by the persons they were intended for. □ Her pleas for mercy fell on deaf ears. □ All of Sally's good advice fell on deaf ears. Walter had made up his own mind.

fall out 1. to happen; to result. □ As things fell out, we had a wonderful trip. □ What fell out of our discussion was a decision to continue. 2. to leave one's place in a formation when dismissed. (Usually in scouting or the military. The opposite of fall in.) □ The scouts fell out and ran to the campfire. □ All the soldiers fell out and talked among themselves.

fall out (with someone about something) Go to fall out (with someone over something).

fall out (with someone over something) AND fall out (with someone about something) to quarrel or disagree about something. □ Bill fell out with Sally over the question of buying a new car. □ Bill fell out with John about who would sleep on the bottom bunk. □ They are always arguing. They fall out about once a week.

fall over backwards (to do something) AND bend over backwards (to do something); lean over backwards (to do something) to do everything possible to please someone. (Informal. See also fall (all) over oneself.) □ The taxi driver fell over backwards to be helpful. □ The teacher bent over backwards to help the students understand. □ The principal said that it was not necessary to bend over backwards. □ You don't have to lean over backwards to get me to help. Just ask.

fall short (of something) 1. to lack something; to lack enough of something. □ We fell short of money at the end of the month. □ When baking a cake, the cook fell short of eggs and had to go to the store for more. 2. to fail to achieve a goal. □ We fell short of our goal of collecting a thousand dollars. □ Ann ran a fast race, but fell short of the record.

fall through not to happen; to come to nothing. (Informal.) □ Our plans fell through, and we won't be going to Texas after all. □ The party fell through at the last minute.

fall to to begin (to do something). (Compare this with turn to.) □ The hungry children took their knives and forks and fell to. □ The carpenter unpacked his saw and hammer and fell to. □ The boys wanted to fight, so the coach put boxing gloves on them and told them to fall to. □ John fell to and cleaned up his room after he got yelled at.

fall to someone to do something to become the responsibility of someone. □ It always falls to me to apologize first. □ Why does it fall to me to answer the telephone every time it rings?

fall (up)on someone or something 1. to attack someone or something. (Also literal.) □ The cat fell upon the mouse and killed it. □ The children fell on the birthday cake and ate it all. 2. [with someone] [for a task] to become the duty of someone. □ The task of telling Mother about the broken vase fell upon Jane. □ The job of cleaning up the spill fell upon Tom.

familiar with someone or something having a good knowledge of someone or something. □ Are you familiar with changing a flat tire? □ I'm can't speak German fluently, but I'm somewhat familiar with the language.

Familiarity breeds contempt. Knowing a person closely for a long time leads to bad feelings. (Proverb.) □ Bill and his brothers are always fighting. As they say: "Familiarity breeds contempt." □ Mary and John were good friends for many years. Finally they got into a big argument and became enemies. That just shows that familiarity breeds contempt.

a fan of someone a follower of someone; someone who idolized someone. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ My mother is still a fan of the Beatles. □ I'm a great fan of the mayor of the town.

fan the flames (of something) to make something more intense; to make a situation worse. □ The riot fanned the flames of racial hatred even more. □ The hostility in the school is bad enough without anyone fanning the flames.

far and away the best unquestionably the best. □ This soap is far and away the best.

□ Sally is good, but Ann is far and away the best.

far as anyone knows Go to (as) far as anyone knows.

far as something is concerned Go to (as) far as something is concerned.

a faraway look AND a far-off look an appearance on one's face of having one's mind in another place. □ Dave had a far-away look in his eyes, so I touched him to get his attention. □ Katherine's face had a far-off look indicating that she was daydreaming.

far be it from me to do something it is not really my place to do something. (Always with but, as in the examples below.) □ Far be it from me to tell you what to do, but I think you should buy the book. □ Far be it from me to attempt to advise you, but you're making a big mistake.

a far cry from something a thing that is very different from something else. (Informal.) □ What you did was a far cry from what you said you were going to do. □ The song they played was a far cry from what I call music.

far from it not it at all; not at all. □ Do I think you need a new car? Far from it. The old one is fine. □ BILL: Does this hat look strange? TOM: Far from it. It looks good.

far into the night late into the night; late. □ She sat up and read far into the night. □ The party went on far into the night.

a far-off look Go to a far-away look.

far out 1. far from the center of things; far from town. □ The Smiths live sort of far out. □ The restaurant is nice, but too far out. 2. strange. (Slang.) □ Ann acts pretty far out sometimes. □ The whole group of people seemed pretty far out.

farm someone or something out 1. [with someone] to send someone (somewhere) for care or development. □ When my mother died, they farmed me out to my aunt and uncle. ⑤ The team manager farmed out the baseball player to the minor leagues until he improved. 2. [with something] to send something (elsewhere) to be dealt with. □ Bill farmed his chores out to his brothers and sisters and went to a movie.

☐ I farmed out various parts of the work to different people.

fast and furious very rapidly and with unrestrained energy. ☐ Her work in the kitchen was fast and furious, and it looked lovely when she finished. ☐ Everything was going so fast and furious at the store during the Christmas rush that we never had time to eat lunch.

faster and faster at an increasing rate of speed; fast and then even faster. ☐ The car went faster and faster and I was afraid we would crash. ☐ The cost of education goes up faster and faster every year.

fat and happy well-fed and content. ☐ Since all the employees were fat and happy, there was little incentive to improve productivity. ☐ You look fat and happy. Has life been treating you well?

fat as a pig Go to (as) fat as a pig.

fat chance very little likelihood. (Informal.) ☐ Fat chance he has of getting a promotion. ☐ You think she'll lend you the money? Fat chance!

favor someone or something with something to provide someone or something with something beneficial or special. ☐ Mary favored us with a song. ☐ Nature favored Bill with curly hair.

feast one's eyes (on someone or something) to look at someone or something with pleasure, envy, or admiration. ☐ Just feast your eyes on that beautiful, juicy steak! ☐ Yes, feast your eyes. You won't see one like that again for a long time.

a feather in one's cap an honor; a reward for something. ☐ Getting a new client was really a feather in my cap. ☐ John earned a feather in his cap by getting an A in physics.

feather one's (own) nest 1. to decorate and furnish one's home in style and comfort. (Birds line their nests with feathers to make them warm and comfortable.) ☐ Mr. and Mrs. Simpson have feathered their nest quite comfortably. ☐ It costs a great deal of money to feather one's nest these days. 2. to use power and prestige to provide for oneself selfishly. (Said especially of politicians who use their offices to make money for themselves.) ☐ The mayor seemed to be helping people, but she was really feathering her own nest. ☐ The building contractor used a lot of public money to feather his nest.

fed up (to somewhere) (with someone or something) bored with or disgusted with someone or something. (Informal. The some-where can be here, the teeth, the gills, or other places.) ☐ I'm fed up with Tom and his silly tricks. ☐ I'm fed up to here with high taxes. ☐ They are fed up to the teeth with screaming children. ☐ I'm really fed up!

feed one's face to eat; to eat a regular meal. (Slang.) ☐ Come on, everyone. It's time to feed your faces. ☐ Bill, if you keep feeding your face all the time, you'll get fat.

feed someone a line Go to give someone a line.

feed the kitty to contribute money to a special, voluntary collection. (See also pass the hat.) ☐ Please feed the kitty. Make a contribution to help sick children. ☐ Come on, Bill. Feed the kitty. You can afford a dollar for a good cause.

feel a glow of something a feeling of contentment, happiness, satisfaction, peace, etc. ☐ Anne felt a glow of happiness as she held her new baby. ☐ Sitting by the lake, the lovers felt a warm glow of contentment.

feel at home to feel as if one belongs; to feel as if one were in one's home; to feel accepted. (See also at home with someone or something.) ☐ I liked my dormitory room. I really felt at home there. ☐ We will do whatever we can to make you feel at home.

feel dragged out to feel exhausted. (Informal.) ☐ What a day! I really feel dragged out. ☐ If he runs too much, he ends up feeling dragged out.

feel fit to feel well and healthy. ☐ If you want to feel fit, you must eat the proper food and get enough rest. ☐ I hope I still feel fit when I get old.

feel free (to do something) to feel like one is permitted to do something or take something. ☐ Please feel free to stay for dinner.

☐ If you see something you want in the refrigerator, please feel free.

feel it beneath one (to do something) to feel that one would be lowering oneself to do something. ☐ Ann feels it beneath her to carry her own luggage. ☐ I would do it, but I feel it beneath me.

feel like a million (dollars) to feel well and healthy, both physically and mentally. ☐ A quick swim in the morning makes me feel like a million dollars. ☐ What a beautiful day! It makes you feel like a million.

feel like a new person to feel refreshed and renewed, especially after getting well or getting dressed up. ☐ I bought a new suit, and now I feel like a new person. ☐ Bob felt like a new person when he got out of the hospital.

feel like doing something 1. to want to do something; to be in the mood to do something. ☐ Do you feel like stopping work to eat something? ☐ I feel like going on a vacation. 2. to feel well enough to do something. ☐ I believe I'm getting well. I feel like getting out of bed. ☐ I don't feel like going to the party. I have a headache.

feel like (having) something to want to have something or do something. ☐ I feel like having a nice cool drink. ☐ I feel like a nice swim.

feel one's gorge rise to sense that one is getting very angry. ☐ I felt my gorge rise and I knew I was going to lose my temper. ☐ Bob could feel his gorge rise as he read his tax bill.

feel on top of the world to feel very good, as if one were ruling the world. ☐ I feel on top of the world this morning. ☐ I do not actually feel on top of the world, but I have felt worse.

feel out of place to feel that one does not belong in a place. ☐ I feel out of place at formal dances. ☐ Bob and Ann felt out of place at the picnic, so they went home.

feel put-upon to feel taken advantage of or exploited. ☐ Bill refused to help because he felt put-upon. ☐ Sally's mother felt put-upon, but she took each of the children home after the birthday party.

feel someone out to try to find out how someone feels (about something). (Informal. This does not involve touching anyone.) ☐ Sally tried to feel Tom out on whether he'd make a contribution. ☐ The students felt out their parents to find out what they thought about the proposed party.

feel something in one's bones AND know something in one's bones to sense something; to have an intuition about something. ☐ The train will be late. I feel it in my bones. ☐ I failed the test. I know it in my bones.

feel the pinch to experience hardship because of having too little money. ☐ The Smiths used to go abroad every year, but now that he's retired, they're really feeling the pinch. ☐ You're bound to feel the pinch a bit when you're a student.

feel up to something to feel well enough or prepared enough to do something. (Often in the negative.) ☐ I don't feel up to jogging today. ☐ Aunt Mary didn't feel up to making the visit. ☐ Do you feel up to going out today?

feeling no pain drunk. ☐ Bob's on his eighth beer and feeling no pain. ☐ At midnight when we were all feeling no pain, the landlord comes up and tells us to be quiet.

fence someone in to restrict someone in some way. (Also literal. See also hem someone or something in.) ☐ I don't want to fence you in, but you have to get home earlier at night. ☐ Don't try to fence me in. I need a lot of freedom.

fend for oneself Go to shift for oneself.

ferret something out of someone or something to remove or retrieve something from someone or something, usually with cunning and persistence. (In the case of someone, the thing being ferreted out would be information.) ☐ I tried very hard, but I couldn't ferret the information out of the clerk. ☐ I had to ferret out the answer from a book in the library.

few and far between very few; few and widely scattered. (Informal.) □ Get some gasoline now. Service stations on this highway are few and far between. □ Some people think that good movies are few and far between.

a few cards short of a deck Go to a few cards shy of a full deck.

a few cards shy of a full deck AND a few cards short of a deck; two bricks shy of a load [of someone] not very smart or clever. □ Bob's nice, but he's a few cards shy of a full deck. □ You twit! You're two bricks shy of a load!

fiddle about (with someone or something) Go to fiddle around (with someone or something).

fiddle around (with someone or something) AND fiddle about (with someone or something) 1. [with someone] to tease, annoy, or play with someone; to waste someone's time. (See also mess around (with someone or something).) □ All right, stop fiddling around with me and tell me how much you will give me for my car. □ Now it's time for all of you to quit fiddling around and get to work. □ Tom, you have to stop spending your time fiddling about with your friends. It's time to get serious with your studies. 2. [with something] to play with something; to tinker with something ineptly. □ My brother is outside fiddling around with his car engine. □ He should stop fiddling around and go out and get a job. □ Stop fiddling about with that stick. You're going to hurt someone.

fiddle while Rome burns to do nothing or something trivial while knowing that something disastrous is happening. (From a legend that the emperor Nero played the lyre while Rome was burning.) □ The lobbyists don't seem to be doing anything to stop this tax bill. They're fiddling while Rome burns. □ The doctor should have sent for an ambulance right away instead of examining the woman. In fact, he was just fiddling while Rome burned.

field questions to answer a series of questions, especially from reporters. □ After her speech, Jane fielded questions from reporters. □ The president's press agents fielded questions from the newspaper.

fight against time to hurry to meet a deadline or to do something quickly. □ The ambulance sped through the city to reach the accident, fighting against time. □ All the students fought against time to complete the test.

fight someone or something hammer and tongs AND fight someone or something tooth and nail; go at it hammer and tongs; go at it tooth and nail to fight against someone or something energetically and with great determination. □ They fought against the robber tooth and nail. □ The dogs were fighting each other hammer and tongs. □ The mayor fought the new law hammer and tongs. □ We'll fight this zoning ordinance tooth and nail.

fight someone or something tooth and nail Go to fight someone or something hammer and tongs.

a fighting chance a good possibility of success, especially if every effort is made. (See also sporting chance.) □ They have at least a fighting chance of winning the race. □ The patient could die, but he has a fighting chance since the operation.

figure in something [for a person] to play a role in something. □ Tom figures in our plans for a new building. □ I don't wish to figure in your future.

figure on something to plan on something; to make arrangements for something. (Informal.) □ We figured on twenty guests at our party. □ I didn't figure on so much trouble.

figure someone or something out to understand someone or something; to find an explanation for someone or something. □ It's hard to figure John out. I don't know what he means. □ I can't figure out this recipe.

fill someone in (on someone or something) to inform someone about someone or something. □ Please fill me in on what is happening in Washington. □ Please fill me in on Ann. How is she doing? □ Sit down, and I'll fill you in. ☐ Later, I'll fill in everyone else.

fill someone's shoes to take the place of some other person and do that person's work satisfactorily. (Refers to the notion of taking on someone else's problems by wearing the other person's shoes.) ☐ I don't know how we'll be able to do without you. No one can fill your shoes. ☐ It'll be difficult to fill Jane's shoes. She did her job very well.

fill the bill AND fit the bill to be exactly the thing that is needed. ☐ Ah, this steak is great. It really fills the bill. ☐ I think that this book will fit the bill just right.

filled to the brim filled all the way full; filled up to the top edge. ☐ I like my coffee cup filled to the brim. ☐ If the glass is filled to the brim, I can't drink without spilling the contents.

a final fling the last act or period of enjoyment before a change in one's circumstances or life-style. ☐ You might as well have a final fling before the baby's born. ☐ Mary's going out with her girlfriends for a final fling. She's getting married next week.

find a happy medium Go to strike a happy medium.

find fault (with someone or something) to find things wrong with someone or something. ☐ We were unable to find fault with the meal. ☐ Sally's father was always finding fault with her. ☐ Some people are always finding fault.

find it in one's heart (to do something) to have the courage or compassion to do something. ☐ She couldn't find it in her heart to refuse to come home to him. ☐ I can't do it! I can't find it in my heart.

find its way somewhere [for something] to end up in a place. (This expression avoids accusing someone of moving the thing to the place.) ☐ The money found its way into the mayor's pocket. ☐ The secret plans found their way into the enemy's hands.

find oneself to discover what one's talents and preferences are. ☐ Bill did better in school after he found himself. ☐ John tried a number of different jobs. He finally found himself when he became a cook.

find one's feet to become used to a new situation or experience. ☐ She was lonely when she first left home, but she is finding her feet now. ☐ It takes time to learn the office routine, but you will gradually find your feet.

find one's own level to find the position or rank to which one is best suited. (As water "seeks its own level.") ☐ You cannot force clerks to be ambitious. They will all find their own level. ☐ The new student is happier in the beginning class. It was just a question of letting her find her own level.

find one's tongue to be able to talk. (Informal.) ☐ Tom was speechless for a moment. Then he found his tongue. ☐ Ann was unable to find her tongue. She sat there in silence.

find one's way (around) to be able to move about an area satisfactorily. ☐ I can go downtown by myself. I can find my way around. ☐ I know the area well enough to find my way. ☐ He can find his way around when it comes to car engines.

find one's way somewhere to discover the route to a place. ☐ Mr. Smith found his way to the museum. ☐ Can you find your way home?

find someone guilty AND find someone innocent to decide guilt or innocence and deliver a verdict in a court of law. ☐ The judge found the defendant not guilty by reason of insanity. ☐ The jury found the defendant innocent.

find someone innocent Go to find someone guilty.

find someone or something out 1. [with something] to discover facts about someone or something; to learn a fact. ☐ I found something out that you might be interested in. ☐ We found out that the Smiths are going to sell their house. 2. [with someone] to discover something bad about someone. ☐ John thought he could get away with smoking, but his mother found him out. ☐ Jane was taking a two-hour lunch period until the manager found her out.

find (something) out the hard way Go to learn (something) the hard way.

Finders keepers, losers weepers.  (The person who finds something gets to keep it. The person who loses it can only be sorry.) □ John lost a quarter in the dining room yesterday. Ann found the quarter there today. Ann claimed that since she found it, it was hers. She said, "Finders keepers, losers weepers." □ John said, "I'll say finders keepers when I find something of yours!"

fine and dandy all right; okay; really fine. □ Everything is fine and dandy at work. No special problems at the present time. □ I feel fine and dandy. The new medicine seems to be working.

a fine how-de-do Go to a fine how-do-you-do.

a fine how-do-you-do AND a fine how-de-do a predicament. □ What a mess! This is a fine how-do-you-do! □ Here's a fine how-de-do!

a fine kettle of fish a real mess; an unsatisfactory situation. □ The dog has eaten the steak we were going to have for dinner. This is a fine kettle of fish! □ This is a fine kettle of fish. It's below freezing outside, and the furnace won't work.

the fine print Go to the small print.

a fine state of affairs Go to a pretty state of affairs.

fire a gun to shoot a gun; to discharge a gun. □ The police caught the robber who had fired the gun. □ Jane fired the gun and hit the target.

fire away at someone or something 1. to shoot at someone or something. □ The hunters fired away at the ducks. □ On television, somebody is always firing away at somebody else. 2. [with someone] to ask many questions of someone; to criticize someone severely. □ When it came time for questions, the reporters began firing away at the mayor. □ Members of the opposite party are always firing away at the president.

firing on all cylinders AND hitting on all cylinders working at full strength; making every possible effort. (Refers to an internal combustion engine.) □ The team is firing on all cylinders under the new coach. □ The factory is hitting on all cylinders to finish the orders on time.

first and foremost first and most important. □ First and foremost, I think you should work harder on your biology. □ Have this in mind first and foremost: Keep smiling!

first and ten [in football] the first down [of four] with ten yards needed to earn another first down. □ It is first and ten on the forty-yard line, and Army has the ball. □ There will be no first and ten on the last play because there was a flag on the play.

First come, first served. The first people to arrive will be served first. □ They ran out of tickets before we got there. It was first come, first served, but we didn't know that. □ Please line up and take your turn. It's first come, first served.

first of all the very first thing; before anything else. □ First of all, put your name on this piece of paper. □ First of all, we'll try to find a place to live.

first off first; the first thing. (Almost the same as first of all.) □ He ordered soup first off. □ First off, we'll find a place to live.

first thing (in the morning) before anything else in the morning. □ Please call me first thing in the morning. I can't help you now. □ I'll do that first thing.

first things first the most important things must be taken care of first. □ It's more important to get a job than to buy new clothes. First things first! □ Do your homework now. Go out and play later. First things first.

fish for a compliment to try to get someone to pay you a compliment. (Informal.) □ When she showed me her new dress, I could tell that she was fishing for a compliment. □ Tom was certainly fishing for a compliment when he modeled his fancy haircut for his friends.

fish for something to try to get information (from someone). (Also literal.) □ The lawyer was fishing for evidence. □ The teacher spent a lot of time fishing for the right answer from the students.

fish in troubled waters to involve oneself in a difficult, confused, or dangerous situation, especially in order to gain an advantage. □ Frank is fishing in troubled waters by buying more shares of that company. They are supposed to be in financial difficulties. □ The company could make more money by selling armaments abroad, but they would be fishing in troubled waters.

fish or cut bait either do the task you are supposed to be doing or quit and let someone else do it. □ Mary is doing much better on the job since her manager told her to fish or cut bait. □ The boss told Tom, "Quit wasting time! Fish or cut bait!"

fit and trim slim and in good physical shape. □ Jean tried to keep herself fit and trim at all times. □ For some people, keeping fit and trim requires time, effort, and self-discipline.

fit as a fiddle Go to (as) fit as a fiddle.

fit for a king totally suitable. □ What a delicious meal. It was fit for a king. □ Our room at the hotel was fit for a king.

fit in someone Go to fit someone in(to something).

fit in (with someone or something) to be comfortable with someone or something; to be in accord or harmony with someone or something. □ I really feel as if I fit in with that group of people. □ It's good that you fit in. □ This chair doesn't fit in with the style of furniture in my house. □ I won't buy it if it doesn't fit in.

fit like a glove to fit very well; to fit tightly or snugly. □ My new shoes fit like a glove. □ My new coat is quite snug. It fits like a glove.

fit someone in(to something) AND fit in someone to manage to put someone into a schedule. □ The doctor is busy, but I can fit you into the schedule. □ Yes, here's an opening in the schedule. I can fit you in.

fit someone or something out (with something) to provide or furnish someone or something with something. □ They fitted the camper out with everything they needed. □ They fitted them out for only $140. □ He fitted his car out with lots of chrome.

fit someone to a T 1. Go to suit someone to a T. 2. [for something] to fit a person very well. □ His new jacket fits him to a T. □ My new shoes fit me to a T.

fit the bill Go to fill the bill.

fit to be tied very angry and excited. (Folksy. To be so angry that one has to be restrained with ropes.) □ If I'm not home on time, my parents will be fit to be tied. □ When Ann saw the bill, she was fit to be tied.

fit to kill dressed up to look very fancy or sexy. (Folksy.) □ Mary put on her best clothes and looked fit to kill. □ John looked fit to kill in his tuxedo.

fix someone's wagon to punish someone; to get even with someone; to plot against someone. (Informal.) □ If you ever do that again, I'll fix your wagon! □ Tommy! You clean up your room this instant, or I'll fix your wagon! □ He reported me to the boss, but I fixed his wagon. I knocked his lunch on the floor.

fix someone up (with someone or something) 1. [with something] to supply a person with something. (Informal.) □ The usher fixed us up with seats at the front of the theater. □ We fixed up the visitors with a cold drink. 2. [with someone] AND line someone up with someone to supply a person with a date or a companion. (Informal.) □ They lined John up with my cousin, Jane. □ John didn't want us to fix him up. □ We fixed up Bob with a date.

fizzle out to die out; to come to a stop shortly after starting; to fail. □ It started to rain, and the fire fizzled out. □ The car started in the cold weather, but it fizzled out before we got very far. □ My attempt to run for mayor fizzled out. □ She started off her job very well, but fizzled out after about a month.

flare up [for emotions or a chronic disease] to grow intense suddenly. (Refers to a fire, suddenly burning brighter or with more vigor.) □ Just when we thought we had put the fire out, it flared up again. □ Mr. Jones always flares up whenever anyone mentions taxes. □ My hay fever usually flares up in August.

a flash in the pan someone or something that draws a lot of attention for a very brief time. (Refers to a small grease fire in a frying pan. Informal.) □ I'm afraid that my success as a painter was just a flash in the pan. □ Tom had hoped to be a singer, but his career was only a flash in the pan.

flat as a board Go to (as) flat as a board.

flat as a pancake Go to (as) flat as a pancake.

flat broke completely broke; with no money at all. (Informal.) □ I spent my last dollar, and I'm flat broke. □ The bank closed its doors to the public. It was flat broke!

flat out 1. clearly and definitely; holding nothing back. (Informal.) □ I told her flat out that I didn't like her. □ They reported flat out that the operation was a failure. 2. at top speed, with the accelerator pedal flat on the floor. (Slang.) □ How fast will this car go flat out? □ This car will hit about 110 miles per hour flat out.

Flattery will get you nowhere. You can praise me, but I'm not going to give you what you want. □ I am glad to hear that I am beautiful and talented, but flattery will get you nowhere. □ Flattery will get you nowhere, but that doesn't mean you should stop flattering me!

flesh and blood 1. a living human body, especially with reference to its natural limitations; a human being. □ This cold weather is more than flesh and blood can stand. □ Carrying 300 pounds is beyond mere flesh and blood. 2. the quality of being alive. □ The paintings of this artist are lifeless. They lack flesh and blood. □ This play needs flesh and blood, not the mumbling of intensely dull actors. 3. one's own relatives; one's own kin. □ That's no way to treat one's own flesh and blood. □ I want to leave my money to my own flesh and blood. □ Grandmother was happier living with her flesh and blood.

flesh something out to make something more detailed, bigger, or fuller. (As if one were adding flesh to a skeleton.) □ This is basically a good outline. Now you'll have to flesh it out. □ The play was good, except that the author needed to flesh out the third act. It was too short.

flight of fancy an idea or suggestion that is out of touch with reality or possibility. □ What is the point in indulging in flights of fancy about foreign vacations when you cannot even afford the rent? □ We are tired of her flights of fancy about marrying a millionaire.

fling oneself at someone Go to throw oneself at someone.

flip one's lid Go to flip one's wig.

flip one's wig AND flip one's lid to suddenly become angry, crazy, or enthusiastic. (Slang.) □ Whenever anyone mentions taxes, Mr. Jones absolutely flips his wig. □ Stop whistling. You're going to make me flip my lid. □ When I saw that brand-new car and learned it was mine, I just flipped my wig.

flirt with the idea of doing something to think about doing something; to toy with an idea; to consider something, but not too seriously. □ I flirted with the idea of going to Europe for two weeks. □ Jane flirted with the idea of quitting her job.

float a loan to get a loan; to arrange for a loan. □ I couldn't afford to pay cash for the car, so I floated a loan. □ They needed money, so they had to float a loan.

flora and fauna plants and animals. (Latin.) □ The magazine story described the flora and fauna of Panama. □ We went for a hike in the Finnish wilderness hoping to learn all about the local flora and fauna.

flotsam and jetsam worthless matter; worthless encumbrances. (Refers to the floating wreckage of a ship and its cargo or to floating cargo deliberately cast overboard to stabilize a ship in a rough sea.) □ His mind is burdened with the flotsam and jetsam of many years of poor instruction and lax study habits. □ Your report would be better if you could get rid of a lot of the flotsam and jetsam and clean up the grammar a bit.

fluff one's lines AND blow one's lines; muffle one's lines to speak one's speech badly or forget one's lines when one is in a play. (Informal.) □ The actress fluffed her lines badly in the last act. □ I was in a play once, and I muffed my lines over and over. □ It's okay to blow your lines in rehearsal.

flunk out to fail a course; to fail out of school. □ Tom didn't study, and he finally flunked out. □ Bill is about to flunk out of geometry.

flunk someone out to cause someone to leave school by giving a failing grade. □ The teacher flunked Tom out. □ The professor wanted to flunk out the whole class.

flush with something 1. even with something; sharing a surface with something. □ The edge of the sink is flush with the counter. □ The wood flooring is flush with the carpet so people won't trip. 2. having lots of something. □ Our garden is flush with fresh vegetables. □ The committee was flush with helpful ideas.

fly-by-night irresponsible; untrustworthy. (Refers to a person who sneaks away secretly in the night.) □ The carpenter we hired was a fly-by-night worker who did a very bad job. □ You shouldn't deal with a fly-by-night merchant.

fly in the face of someone or something AND fly in the teeth of someone or something to disregard, defy, or show disrespect for someone or something. □ John loves to fly in the face of tradition. □ Ann made it a practice to fly in the face of standard procedures. □ John finds great pleasure in flying in the teeth of his father.

a fly in the ointment a small, unpleasant matter that spoils something; a drawback. □ We enjoyed the play, but the fly in the ointment was not being able to find our car afterward. □ It sounds like a good idea, but there must be a fly in the ointment somewhere.

fly in the teeth of someone or something Go to fly in the face of someone or something.

fly into the face of danger to take great risks; to threaten or challenge danger, as if danger were a person. (This may refer to flying, as in an airplane, but not necessarily.) □ John plans to go bungee-jumping this weekend. He really likes flying into the face of danger. □ Willard was not exactly the type to fly into the face of danger, but tonight was an exception, and he ordered enchiladas.

fly off the handle to lose one's temper. (Informal.) □ Every time anyone mentions taxes, Mrs. Brown flies off the handle. □ If she keeps flying off the handle like that, she'll have a heart attack.

fly the coop to escape; to get out or get away. (Informal. Refers to a chicken escaping from a chicken coop.) □ I couldn't stand the party, so I flew the coop. □ The prisoner flew the coop at the first opportunity.

foam at the mouth to be very angry. (Informal. Related to a "mad dog"—a dog with rabies—which foams at the mouth.) □ Bob was raving—foaming at the mouth. I've never seen anyone so angry. □ Bill foamed at the mouth in anger.

fob something off (on someone) to trick someone into accepting something that is worthless. (Informal.) □ The car dealer fobbed a car off on Tom. □ He also fobbed off a bad car on Jane. □ Some car dealers are always trying to fob something off.

foist something (off) on someone to force someone to take something that they don't want. □ Bill tried to foist the task of washing dishes off on his sister. □ The city council foisted the new garbage dump on the poorest neighborhood in the city.

fold one's hands to bring one's hands together, palm to palm, with the fingers interlocking; to grasp one's hands together, palm to palm, perpendicular to one another. □ Please fold your hands and put them on the table while the teacher reads you a story. □ Sue folded her hands to pray.

fold something up to put an end to something; to close something such as a business or some other enterprise. (Refers to folding something closed.) □ Mr. Jones was going broke, so he folded his business up. □ The producer decided to fold up the play early. It was losing money.

fold, spindle, or mutilate to harm or disfigure a machine-readable document, such as a computer punch card. (Such a document, if folded, placed on a bill spike, or otherwise punctured, would no longer be machine-readable. Now rarely seen on a bill but the expression is sometimes used in a figurative sense.) □ At the bottom of the bill, it said "do not fold, spindle, or mutilate," and Jane, in her anger, did all three. □ Look here, chum, if you don't want to get folded, spindled, or mutilated, you had better do what you are told!

fold up to close up; to end. (Alluding to something that folds closed or collapses along its folds.) □ The play folded up after two days. □ It's time to fold up and go home.

follow in someone's footsteps Go to follow in someone's tracks.

follow in someone's tracks AND follow in someone's footsteps to follow someone's example; to assume someone else's role or occupation. □ The vice president was following in the president's footsteps when he called for budget cuts. □ She followed in her father's footsteps and went into medicine.

follow one's heart to act according to one's feelings; to obey one's sympathetic or compassionate inclinations. □ I couldn't decide what to do, so I just followed my heart. □ I trust that you will follow your heart in this matter.

follow one's nose 1. to go straight ahead, the direction that one's nose is pointing. (Folksy.) □ The town that you want is straight ahead on this highway. Just follow your nose. □ The chief's office is right around the corner. Turn left and follow your nose. 2. to follow an odor to its source. (Informal.) □ The kitchen is at the back of the building. Just follow your nose. □ There was a bad smell in the basement—probably a dead mouse. I followed my nose until I found it.

follow orders to do as one has been instructed. □ You have to learn to follow orders if you want to be a marine. □ I didn't do anything wrong. I was only following orders.

follow someone or something up 1. [with something] to add more information or detail to something; to follow something through. □ Bill had to follow my suggestion up. □ The police followed up my story. 2. [with someone] to review someone's work and check it over. □ The person who follows you up will make sure you're doing the right thing. □ When I followed up Mary, I found errors in her work.

follow someone's lead to do as someone else does; to accept someone's guidance; to follow someone's direction. □ Just follow my lead and you will not get lost. □ John followed his father's lead and became a lawyer.

follow suit to follow in the same pattern; to follow someone else's example. (From card games.) □ Mary went to work for a bank, and Jane followed suit. Now they are both head cashiers. □ The Smiths went out to dinner, but the Browns didn't follow suit. They stayed home.

follow the crowd to do what everyone else is doing. □ I am an independent thinker. I could never just follow the crowd. □ When in doubt, I follow the crowd. At least I don't stand out like a fool.

follow through (on something) AND carry through (on something) to complete a task; to see a task through to its completion. □ You must follow through on the things that you start. □ Don't start the job if you can't follow through. □ Ask Sally to carry through on her project.

follow up (on someone or something) to find out more about someone or something. □ Please follow up on Mr. Brown and his activities. □ Bill, Mr. Smith has a complaint. Would you please follow up on it?

□ We can take care of that when we follow up.

follow up (on something) to check (on something) and do what needs to be done. □ I will follow up on this matter and make sure it is settled. □ There is a problem with the bank account. Will you please follow up?

fond of someone or something to like someone or something. □ I'm fond of chocolate. □ Mary isn't fond of me, but I'm fond of her.

food for thought something to think about. □ I don't like your idea very much, but it's food for thought. □ Your lecture was very good. It contained much food for thought.

A fool and his money are soon parted. A person who acts unwisely with money soon loses it. (Often said about a person who has just lost a sum of money because of poor judgment.) □ When Bill lost a $400 bet on a horse race, Mary said, "A fool and his money are soon parted." □ When John bought a cheap used car that fell apart the next day, he said, "Oh, well, a fool and his money are soon parted."

fool around (with someone or something) to fiddle, play, or mess with someone or something; to waste time with someone or something. (Informal.) □ John is out fooling around with his friends again. □ That child spends most of his time fooling around. □ Please don't fool around with the light switch. You'll break it. □ There are lots of interesting things in here, but you must leave them alone. Don't fool around.

fools rush in (where angels fear to tread) people with little experience or knowledge often get involved in difficult or delicate situations that wiser people would avoid. (Proverb.) □ I wouldn't ask Jean about her divorce, but Kate did. Fools rush in, as they say. □ Only the newest member of the committee questioned the chairman's decision. Fools rush in where angels fear to tread.

foot the bill to pay the bill; to pay (for something). □ Let's go out and eat. I'll foot the bill. □ If the bank goes broke, don't worry. The government will foot the bill.

footloose and fancy-free without responsibilities or commitments. □ All the rest of them have wives, but John is footloose and fancy-free. □ Mary never stays long in any job. She likes being footloose and fancy-free.

for a lark AND on a lark for a joke; as something done for fun. □ For a lark, I wore a clown's wig to school. □ On a lark, I skipped school and drove to the beach.

for all I care I don't care if (something happens). (Informal.) □ For all I care, the whole city council can go to the devil. They can all starve for all I care.

for all I know according to the information I have; I think; probably. (Informal.) □ For all I know, the mayor has resigned already. □ She may have gone to town for all I know.

for all intents and purposes virtually; practically speaking; in effect. (Sometimes this expression has very little meaning.) □ He entered the room, looking for all intents and purposes as if he would burst into song. □ She said that for all intents and purposes she had completed her assignment.

for all it's worth AND for what(ever) it's worth if it has any value. □ My idea—for all it's worth—is to offer them only $300. □ Here is my thinking, for whatever it's worth. □ Ask her to give us her opinion, for what it's worth.

for all practical purposes as might be reasonably expected; essentially. □ For all practical purposes, this is simply a matter of right and wrong. □ This should be considered final, for all practical purposes.

for all something in spite of something; even with so much of something. □ For all her complaining, she still seems to be a happy person. □ For all my aches and pains, I'm still rather healthy.

for all the world 1. exactly; precisely. (Especially with look.) □ She sat there looking for all the world as if she was going to cry. □ It started out seeming for all the world like a beautiful day. Then a storm came up. 2. everything. (Usually in the negative.) ☐ I wouldn't give up my baby for all the world. ☐ They wouldn't sell their property for all the world.

for better or for worse under any conditions; no matter what happens. ☐ I married you for better or for worse. ☐ For better or for worse, I'm going to quit my job.

for chicken feed AND for peanuts for nearly nothing; for very little money. (Informal.) ☐ Bob doesn't get paid much. He works for chicken feed. ☐ You can buy an old car for chicken feed. ☐ I won't do that kind of work for peanuts!

For crying out loud! For heaven's sake!; I am amazed! (An exclamation of surprise and mild shock.) ☐ For crying out loud! I didn't expect to see you here. ☐ For crying out loud! What a time to call someone on the telephone.

for days on end for many days. ☐ We kept on traveling for days on end. ☐ Doctor, I've had this pain for days on end.

for fear of something out of fear of something; because of fear of something. ☐ He doesn't drive for fear of an accident. ☐ They lock their doors for fear of being robbed.

for free for no charge or cost; free of any cost. ☐ They let us into the movie for free. ☐ I will let you have a sample of the candy for free.

for good forever; permanently. ☐ I finally left home for good. ☐ They tried to repair it many times before they fixed it for good.

for good measure as extra; (adding) a little more to make sure there is enough. ☐ When I bought a pound of nails, the clerk threw in a few extra nails for good measure. ☐ I always put a little extra salt in the soup for good measure.

for hours on end for many hours. ☐ We sat and waited for the doctor for hours on end. ☐ We listened to the speaker for hours on end.

for instance for example. ☐ I've lived in many cities, for instance, Boston, Chicago, and Detroit. ☐ Jane is very generous. For instance, she volunteers her time and gives money to charities.

for keeps forever; permanently. (Informal. See also play for keeps. Compare this with for good.) ☐ When I get married, it'll be for keeps. ☐ We've moved around a lot. Now I think we'll stay here for keeps.

for kicks for fun; just for entertainment; for no good reason. (Slang.) ☐ They didn't mean any harm. They just did it for kicks. ☐ We drove over to the next town for kicks.

for life for the remainder of one's life. ☐ The accident caused me to become blind for life. ☐ She will stay in prison for life.

for one's (own) part as far as one is concerned; from one's point of view. ☐ For my own part, I wish to stay here. ☐ For her part, she prefers chocolate.

for one's (own) sake for one's good or benefit; in honor of someone. ☐ I have to earn a living for my family's sake. ☐ I did it for my mother's sake. ☐ I didn't do it for my own sake.

for openers AND for starters to start with. (Informal.) ☐ For openers, they played a song everyone knows. ☐ For starters, I'll serve a delicious soup.

for peanuts Go to for chicken feed.

for real authentic; genuine; really. (Informal or slang.) ☐ Is this diamond for real? ☐ Are you for real? ☐ Are we there for real?

for safekeeping for the purpose of keeping someone or something safe. ☐ I put my jewelry in the vault for safekeeping. ☐ I checked my fur coat at the entrance to the bar for safekeeping.

for sale available for purchase; buyable. (Compare this with on sale.) ☐ Is this item for sale? ☐ How long has this house been for sale? ☐ My car is for sale. Are you interested?

for short in a short form. (Usually refers to names of people or things.) ☐ My name is William. They call me Bill for short. ☐ Almost everyone who is named Robert is called Bob for short.

for starters Go to for openers.

for sure certainly; surely. (Informal or slang.) □ MARY: Do you like my new jacket? JANE: For sure. □ For sure, I want to go on the picnic.

for that matter besides; in addition. □ If you're hungry, take one of my doughnuts. For that matter, take two. □ I don't like this house. The roof leaks. For that matter, the whole place is falling apart. □ Tom is quite arrogant. So is his sister, for that matter.

[for the asking] Go to one's for the asking.

for the best Go to (all) for the best.

for the better better; an improvement. (See also take a turn for the better.) □ A change of government would be for the better. □ A new winter coat would certainly be for the better.

for the birds worthless; undesirable. (Slang.) □ This television program is for the birds. □ Winter weather is for the birds.

for the devil of it AND for the heck of it; for the hell of it just for fun; because it is slightly evil; for no good reason. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ We filled their garage with leaves just for the devil of it. □ Tom tripped Bill for the heck of it. □ John picked a fight with Tom just for the hell of it.

for the duration for the whole time that something continues; for the entire period of time required for something to be completed; for as long as something takes. □ We are in this war for the duration. □ However long it takes, we'll wait. We are here for the duration.

for the good of someone or something for the benefit, profit, or advantage of someone or something. □ The president said the strict drug laws were for the good of the country. □ David took a second job for the good of his family.

for the heck of it Go to for the devil of it.

for the hell of it Go to for the devil of it.

for the life of one even if one's life were threatened; even in exchange for one's life. (Informal. Always with a negative, and usually having to do with one's memory.) □ For the life of me, I don't remember your name. □ She couldn't recall the correct numbers for the life of her. □ For the life of them, they couldn't remember the way home.

for the moment AND for the time being for the present; for now; temporarily. □ This will have to do for the moment. □ This is all right for the time being. It'll have to be improved next week, however. □ This good feeling will last only for the time being. □ This solution is satisfactory for the moment.

for the most part mostly; in general. □ For the most part, the class is enjoying geometry. □ I like working here for the most part.

for the odds to be against one for things to be against one generally; for one's chances of success to be slim. □ You can give it a try, but the odds are against you. □ I know the odds are against me, but I wish to run in the race anyway.

for the record so that (one's own version of) the facts will be known; so there will be a record of a particular fact. (This often is said when there are reporters present.) □ I'd like to say—for the record—that at no time have I ever accepted a bribe from anyone. □ For the record, I've never been able to get anything done around city hall without bribing someone.

for the sake of someone or something for the good of someone or something; for the honor or recognition of someone or something. (Compare this with for one's own sake.) □ I did it for the sake of all those people who helped me get through school. □ I'm investing in a house for the sake of my children. □ For the sake of honesty, Bill shared all the information he had.

for the time being Go to for the moment.

for what(ever) it's worth Go to for all it's worth.

forbidden fruit someone or something that one finds attractive or desirable partly because having the person or thing is immoral or illegal. (From the fruit in the Garden of Eden that was forbidden to Adam by God.) □ Jim flirts with his sister-in-law only because she's forbidden fruit. □ The boy watches that program only when his parents are out. It's forbidden fruit.

force someone or something down someone's throat Go to shove someone or something down someone's throat.

force someone out (of office) AND drive someone out (of office) to pressure someone to leave an elective office. □ The city council forced the mayor out of office. □ Please resign immediately, or I'll have to drive you out.

force someone's hand to force a person to reveal plans, strategies, or secrets. (Refers to a handful of cards in card playing.) □ We didn't know what she was doing until Tom forced her hand. □ We couldn't plan our game until we forced the other team's hand in the last play.

force someone to the wall AND drive someone to the wall to push someone to an extreme position; to put someone into an awkward position. □ He wouldn't tell the truth until we forced him to the wall. □ They don't pay their bills until you drive them to the wall.

a force to be reckoned with someone or something that is important and powerful and must not be ignored. □ Walter is a force to be reckoned with. Be prepared to deal with him. □ The growing discontent with the political system is a powerful force to be reckoned with.

fore and aft at the front and the back, usually of a boat or ship. □ They had to attach new lights fore and aft because the old ones were not bright enough to meet the new regulations. □ The captain ordered a watch stationed fore and aft.

a foregone conclusion a conclusion already reached; an inevitable result. □ That the company was moving to California was a foregone conclusion. □ That the mayor will win reelection is a foregone conclusion.

forever and a day Go to forever and ever.

forever and ever AND forever and a day forever. □ I will love you forever and ever. □ This car won't keep running forever and ever. We'll have to get a new one sometime. □ We have enough money to last forever and a day.

forget oneself to forget one's manners or training. (Said in formal situations alluding to belching, bad table manners, and, in the case of very young children, pants-wetting.) □ Sorry, Mother, I forgot myself. □ John, we are going out to dinner tonight. Please don't forget yourself.

forgive and forget to forgive someone (for something) and forget that it ever happened. □ I'm sorry, John. Let's forgive and forget. What do you say? □ It was nothing. We'll just have to forgive and forget.

fork money out (for something) to pay (perhaps unwillingly) for something. (Informal. Often mention is made of the amount of money. See the examples below.) □ Do you think I'm going to fork twenty dollars out for that book? □ Forking money out to everyone is part of life in a busy economy. □ I like that stereo, but I don't want to fork out a lot of money.

fork something over to give something to someone. (Refers to handing over money. Slang. Usually used in a command.) □ Now! Fork it over now! □ Okay, Joe. Fork over that twenty dollars you owe me.

form and substance meaningful content; structure and meaningful content. (See also sum and substance.) □ The first act of the play was one screaming match after another. It lacked form and substance throughout. □ Jane's report was good. The teacher commented on the excellent form and substance of the paper.

form an opinion to think up or decide on an opinion. (Note the variation in the examples.) □ I don't know enough about the issue to form an opinion. □ Don't tell me how to think! I can form my own opinion. □ I don't form opinions without careful consideration.

forty winks a short sleep; a nap. (Informal. See also catch forty winks.) □ I had forty winks on the plane. □ If you're lucky you'll get forty winks while the children are out.

foul one's own nest to harm one's own interests; to bring disadvantage upon oneself. □ He tried to discredit a fellow senator with the president, but just succeeded in fouling his own nest. □ The boss really dislikes Mary. She certainly fouled her own nest when she spread those rumors about him.

foul play illegal activity; bad practices. □ The police investigating the death suspect foul play. □ Each student got an A on the test, and the teacher imagined it was the result of foul play.

foul someone or something up to cause disorder and confusion for someone or something; to tangle up someone or something; to mess someone or something up. (Informal.) □ Go away! Don't foul me up any more. □ You've fouled up my whole day. □ Watch out! You're going to foul up my kite strings. □ Stay off the field. You're going to foul up the coach.

foul up to do (something) badly; to mess something up. (Informal.) □ At the last minute, he fouled up and failed the course. □ Take your time. Plan your moves, and don't foul up.

fouled up messed up; in disorder. □ My fishing line is all fouled up. □ The football team got fouled up and lost the game.

fraught with danger [of something] full of something dangerous or unpleasant. □ The spy's trip to Russia was fraught with danger. □ My escape from the kidnappers was fraught with danger.

free and clear without encumbrance, particularly in regard to the ownership of something. □ After the last payment, Jane owned the car free and clear. □ If you can't prove that you own the house and the land it stands on free and clear, you can't sell it.

free and easy casual. □ John is so free and easy. How can anyone be so relaxed? □ Now, take it easy. Just act free and easy. No one will know you're nervous.

free as a bird Go to (as) free as a bird.

free as (the) air Go to (as) free as (the) air.

free-for-all a disorganized fight or contest involving everyone; a brawl. □ The picnic turned into a free-for-all after midnight. □ The race started out in an organized manner, but ended up being a free-for-all.

free translation a translation that is not completely accurate and not well thought out. □ John gave a free translation of the sentence, which did not help us at all. □ Anne gave a very free translation of the poem.

fresh as a daisy Go to (as) fresh as a daisy.

fresh out (of something) AND clean out (of something) just now having sold or used up the last of something. (Folksy.) □ Sorry, I can't serve you scrambled eggs. We are fresh out of eggs. □ We are fresh out of nails. I sold the last box just ten minutes ago. □ Lettuce? Sorry. I'm fresh out. □ Sorry. We are clean out of dried beans.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. A true friend is a person who will help you when you really need someone. (Compare this with fair-weather friend.) □ When Bill helped me with geometry, I really learned the meaning of "A friend in need is a friend indeed." □ "A friend in need is a friend indeed" sounds silly until you need someone very badly.

friend or foe a friend or an enemy. □ I can't tell whether Jim is friend or foe. □ "Who goes there? Friend or foe?" asked the sentry.

frighten one out of one's wits AND scare one out of one's wits to frighten one very badly. (See also frighten the wits out of someone.) □ Oh! That loud noise scared me out of my wits. □ I'll give him a good scolding and frighten him out of his wits.

frighten someone to death AND scare someone to death to frighten someone severely. (Also literal.) □ The dentist always frightens me to death. □ She scared me to death when she screamed.

frighten the (living) daylight's out of someone Go to frighten the wits out of someone.

frighten the wits out of someone AND frighten the (living) daylight out of someone; scare the (living) daylight out of someone; scare the wits out of someone to frighten someone very badly. □ We nearly had an accident. It frightened the living daylight out of me. □ The incident scared the wits out of me.

frightened to death AND scared to death severely frightened. (Also literal.) □ I don't want to go to the dentist today. I'm frightened to death. □ I'm frightened to death of dogs. □ She's scared to death she'll fail algebra.

fritter something away to waste something little by little, especially time or money. (Folksy.) □ Don't stand around and fritter the whole day away. □ Stop frittering away my hard-earned money!

from dawn to dusk during the period of the day when there is light; from the rising of the sun to the setting of the sun. □ I have to work from dawn to dusk on the farm. □ The factory runs from dawn to dusk to produce hats and gloves.

from day to day on a daily basis; one day at a time; occasionally. □ We face this kind of problem from day to day. □ I'll have to check into this matter from day to day. □ When you're very poor, you live from day to day.

from door to door moving from one door to another—typically, from one house to another. (See also door-to-door.) □ Anne went from door to door, selling books, to earn money for college. □ The children went from door to door, saying "Trick or treat!" at each one.

from far and near AND from near and far from all around, both close by and farther away. (Reversible, but with a preference for from far and near.) □ All the young people from far and near gathered at the high school for the game. □ The eagles gathered from near and far at the river where the salmon were spawning.

from hand to hand from one person to a series of other persons. □ The book traveled from hand to hand until it got back to its owner. □ By the time the baby had been passed from hand to hand, it was crying.

from head to toe from the top of one's head to one's feet; all over the body. (See also from tip to toe.) □ She was decked out in flowers from head to toe. □ The huge parka covered the small child from head to toe, assuring that she would be well protected against the cold.

from near and far Go to from far and near.

from overseas from a location on the other side of the Atlantic or Pacific Ocean, according to the point of view of someone located in the U.S. □ The latest word from overseas is that the treaty has been signed. □ Is there any news from overseas about the war?

from pillar to post from one place to a series of other places; (figuratively) from person to person, as with gossip. □ My father was in the army, and we moved from pillar to post year after year. □ After I told one person my secret, it went quickly from pillar to post.

from rags to riches from poverty to wealth; from modesty to elegance. □ The princess used to be quite poor. She certainly moved from rags to riches. □ After I inherited the money, I went from rags to riches.

from side to side moving first to one side and then to the other, repeatedly. □ The pendulum of the clock swings from side to side. □ The singers swayed from side to side as they sang.

from start to finish from the beginning to the end; throughout. □ I disliked the whole business from start to finish. □ Mary caused problems from start to finish.

from stem to stern from one end to another. (Refers to the front and back ends of a ship.) □ Now, I have to clean the house from stem to stern. □ I polished my car carefully from stem to stern.

from the bottom of one's heart sincerely. (Compare this with with all one's heart and soul.) □ When I returned the lost kitten to Mrs. Brown, she thanked me from the bottom of her heart. □ Oh, thank you! I'm grateful from the bottom of my heart.

from the cradle to the grave from birth to death; throughout one's life. □ The government promised to take care of us from the cradle to the grave. □ You can feel secure and well protected from the cradle to the grave.

from the ground up from the beginning; from start to finish. (Refers to the building of a house or other building.) □ We must plan our sales campaign carefully from the ground up. □ Sorry, but you'll have to start all over again from the ground up.

from the heart from a deep and sincere emotional source. □ I know that your kind words come from the heart. □ We don't want your gift unless it comes from the heart.

from the horse's mouth Go to (straight) from the horse's mouth.

from the old school holding attitudes or ideas that were popular and important in the past, but which are no longer considered relevant or in line with modern trends. □ Grammar was not taught much in my son's school, but fortunately he had a teacher from the old school. □ Aunt Jane is from the old school. She never goes out without wearing a hat and gloves.

from the outset from the beginning. □ We had problems with this machine from the outset. □ We knew about the unfriendly judge from the outset of our trial.

from the top from the beginning of something, such as a song or a script. □ Okay, let's try it again from the top. □ Play it from the top one more time.

from the word go from the beginning. (Informal.) □ I knew about the problem from the word go. □ She was failing the class from the word go.

from this day forward Go to from this day on.

from this day on AND from this day forward from today into the future. (Formal.) □ We'll live in love and peace from this day on. □ I'll treasure your gift from this day forward.

from time to time occasionally. □ We have pizza from time to time. □ From time to time, a visitor comes to our door.

from tip to toe from the top to the bottom. (Not necessarily of a person. See also from head to toe.) □ She is wearing all new clothes from tip to toe. □ The house needs to be cleaned thoroughly from tip to toe.

from top to bottom from the highest point to the lowest point; throughout. (Compare this with from stem to stern.) □ I have to clean the house from top to bottom today. □ We need to replace our elected officials from top to bottom.

from way back from far in the past; from an earlier time. (Informal.) □ Grandfather comes from way back. □ This antique clock is from way back.

fruit(s) of one's labor(s) the results of one's work. □ We displayed the fruits of our labor at the convention. □ What have you accomplished? Where is the fruit of your labors?

full as a tick Go to (as) full as a tick.

full blast Go to (at) full blast.

full of beans Go to full of hot air.

full of bull Go to full of hot air.

full of hot air AND full of beans; full of bull; full of it; full of prunes full of nonsense; talking nonsense. (Slang.) □ Oh, shut up, Mary. You're full of hot air. □ Don't pay any attention to Bill. He's full of beans. □ My English professor is full of bull. □ You're full of it. □ She doesn't know what she's talking about. She's just full of prunes.

full of it Go to full of hot air.

full of Old Nick Go to full of the devil.

full of oneself conceited; self-important. □ Mary is very unpopular because she's so full of herself. □ She doesn't care about other people's feelings. She's too full of herself.

full of prunes Go to full of hot air.

full of the devil AND full of Old Nick always making mischief. (Informal. Old Nick is another name for the devil.) □ Tom is a lot of fun, but he's sure full of the devil. □ I've never seen a child get into so much mischief. He's really full of Old Nick.

full steam ahead forward at the greatest speed possible; with as much energy and enthusiasm as possible. (From an instruction given to engineers on steamships.) □ It will have to be full steam ahead for everybody if the factory gets this order. □ It's going to be full steam ahead for me this year. I take my final exams.

fun and games playing around; doing worthless things. (Informal.) □ All right, Bill, the fun and games are over. It's time to get down to work. □ This isn't a serious course. It's nothing but fun and games.

funny as a barrel of monkeys Go to (as) funny as a barrel of monkeys.

funny as a crutch Go to (as) funny as a crutch.

funny business trickery or deception; illegal activity. □ From the silence as she entered the room, the teacher knew there was some funny business going on. □ There's some funny business going on at the warehouse. Stock keeps disappearing.

funny ha-ha amusing; comical. (Informal. Compare this with funny peculiar.) □ I didn't mean that Mrs. Peters is funny ha-ha. She's weird—funny peculiar, in fact. □ Mike thinks his jokes are funny ha-ha, but we laugh because they are so silly.

funny peculiar odd; eccentric. (Informal. Compare this with funny ha-ha.) □ I didn't mean that Mary is funny ha-ha. She's weird—funny peculiar, in fact. □ His face is sort of funny—funny peculiar, that is.

G

gain ground to make progress; to advance; to become more important or popular. □ Our new product is gaining ground against that of our competitor. □ Since the government announced the new policies, the stock market is gaining ground.

The game is up. AND The jig is up. The deception is over.; The illegal activity has come to an end. □ When the police were waiting for them inside the bank vault, the would-be robbers knew that the game was up. □ “The jig is up!” said the cop as he grabbed the shoulder of the pickpocket.

a game that two can play a manner of competing that two competitors can use; a strategy that competing sides can both use. (Also literal.) □ The mayor shouted at the city council, “Politics is a game that two can play.” □ “Flattery is a game that two can play,” said John as he returned Mary’s compliment.

gang up (on someone) to form into a group and attack someone. (Usually a physical attack, but it can also be a verbal attack.) □ We can’t win against the robber unless we gang up on him. □ All right, you guys, don’t gang up on me. Play fair!

a gas [someone or something] wild or funny. □ You should have been at Susan’s party last night. It was a gas. □ That movie was such a gas. I haven’t laughed so hard in ages.

gas up to fill up one’s gasoline tank with gasoline. (Informal.) □ I have to stop at the next service station and gas up. □ The next time you gas up, try some of the gasoline with alcohol in it.

gather a case (against someone) Go to build a case (against someone).

gaudy as a butterfly Go to (as) gaudy as a butterfly.

gear (oneself) up (for something) to prepare for something; to get into shape for something. □ We are gearing up for a very busy summer season. □ We are not ready yet. We have to gear up. □ Tom is gearing himself up for his exams.

gear something to someone or something to cause something to match something else or some group of people; to create or adapt something for a specific purpose. □ Tim geared his speech to his audience. □ The newspaper geared its language to a fourth-grade reading level.

generous to a fault too generous; overly generous. □ My favorite uncle is generous to a fault. □ Sally—always generous to a fault—gave away her sandwiches.

gentle as a lamb Go to (as) gentle as a lamb.

get a bang out of someone or something Go to get a charge out of someone or something.

get a bee in one’s bonnet to get an idea or a thought that remains in one’s mind; to get an obsession. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also put a bee in someone’s bonnet.) □ I have a bee in my bonnet that you’d be a good manager. □ I got a bee in my bonnet about swimming. I couldn’t stop wanting to go swimming.

get a big send-off to receive or enjoy a happy celebration before departing. (Note: Get can be replaced with have. Note the variation in the examples. Get usually means “to become, to acquire, or to cause.” Have usually means “to possess, to be, or to have resulted in.”

See also give someone a big send-off.) □ I had a wonderful send-off before I left. □ John got a fine send-off as he left for Europe.

get a black eye 1. to get a bruise near the eye from being struck. (The area around the eye is darkened, not black. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I got a black eye from walking into a door. □ I have a black eye where John hit me. 2. to have one's character or reputation harmed. □ Mary got a black eye because of her complaining. □ The whole group now has a black eye.

get a break to have good fortune; to receive a bit of luck. (Often with lucky, nice, etc. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Mary is going to get a break. □ I wish I'd get a lucky break. □ Why don't I have a lucky break when I need one? □ She's got a lucky break and doesn't even know it.

get a bright idea for a clever thought or idea to occur (to someone). (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Now and then I get a bright idea. □ John hardly ever gets a bright idea. □ Listen here! I have a bright idea!

get a charge out of someone or something AND get a bang out of someone or something; get a kick out of someone or something to receive special pleasure from someone or something. (Informal.) □ Tom is really funny. I always get a kick out of his jokes. □ Bill really got a bang out of the present we gave him. □ Mary got a charge out of Bob's visit.

get a charley horse to develop a cramp in the arm or leg, usually from strain. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Don't work too hard or you'll get a charley horse. □ Poor Tom is always getting a charley horse in his leg. □ Sally can't play. She has a charley horse.

get a checkup to have a physical examination by a physician. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ She got a checkup yesterday. □ I going to have a checkup in the morning. I hope I'm okay.

get a clean bill of health [for someone] to be pronounced healthy by a physician. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Sally got a clean bill of health from the doctor. □ Now that Sally has a clean bill of health, she can go back to work.

get a crush on someone to become infatuated with someone. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Mary thinks she's getting a crush on Bill. □ Sally says she'll never get a crush on anyone again. □ John has a crush on Mary.

get a dirty look from someone to get frowned at by someone. □ I stopped whistling when I got a dirty look from Ann. □ I got a dirty look from the teacher. I don't know why.

get a feel for something Go to get the feel of something.

get a fix on something 1. to find out the exact location of something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone a fix on something.) □ I can't get a fix on your location. Where are you? □ We are trying to get a fix on your radio transmission. □ I have a fix on them now. 2. to begin to understand the direction of a discussion. □ I can't quite get a fix on what you're trying to say. □ I can't get a fix on where you're going with this argument.

get a foothold (somewhere) AND get a toe-hold (somewhere) an initial position of support; a starting point. □ It's difficult to get a foothold in the education market when schools are laying off teachers. □ Max's father helped him get a toehold in the textile industry.

get a free hand (with someone or something) to be granted complete control over something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone a free hand (with something).) □ I didn't get a free hand with the last project. □ John was in charge then, but he didn't have a free hand either. □ I demand to have a free hand with my own child!

get a frog in one's throat to get soreness or something else in one's throat that prevents one from talking well. (This often leads to one clearing one's throat. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ The speaker got a frog in his throat and had to stop talking for a while. ☐ Excuse me. I have a frog in my throat.

get after someone to remind, scold, or nag someone (to do something). (Informal. See also keep after someone.) ☐ John hasn't taken out the garbage. I'll have to get after him. ☐ Mary's mother will get after her if she doesn't do the dishes.

get a grasp of something to understand something. (Also with good, solid, and sound, as in the examples. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Try to get a grasp of the basic rules. ☐ You don't have a good grasp of the principles yet. ☐ John was unable to get a solid grasp of the methods used in his work, and we had to let him go.

get a handle on something Go to have a handle on something.

get a hand with something to receive assistance with something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Mary would really like to get a hand with that. It's too much for one person. ☐ I'd like to have a hand with this.

get ahead of oneself [for someone] to do or say something sooner than it ought to be done so that the proper explanation or preparations have not been made. ☐ I have to stick to my notes or I will get ahead of myself in my lecture. ☐ When he bought a new little bicycle before the baby was born, he was getting ahead of himself.

get a head start (on someone or something)

1. [with someone] to start (something) earlier than someone else. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Bill always gets there first because he gets a head start on everybody else. ☐ I'm doing well in my class because I have a head start. 2. [with something] to start something earlier (than someone else). ☐ I was able to get a head start on my reading during the holidays. ☐ If I hadn't had a head start, I'd be behind in my reading.

get (a)hold of someone or something 1. [with someone] to make contact with someone; to call someone on the telephone. (See also get one's hands on someone or something; get in touch (with someone). Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ I'll try to get hold of you in the morning. ☐ It's very hard to get hold of John. He's so busy. 2. [with something] to obtain something. ☐ I'm trying to get hold of a glass jar. I need it for school. ☐ Does anyone know where I can get hold of a spare tire? ☐ I have hold of a very large piece of land. 3. Go to take (a)hold of someone or something.

get a hurry on AND get a move on to start to hurry. (Informal.) ☐ We are going to leave in five minutes, Jane. Get a hurry on! ☐ Mary! Get a move on! We can't wait all day.

get a jump(start) Go to get a start.

get a kick out of someone or something Go to get a charge out of someone or something.

get a licking AND take a licking to get a spanking; to get beat in a fight. (Folksy.) ☐ Billy, you had better get in here if you don't want to get a licking. ☐ Bob took a real licking in the stock market. ☐ Tom took a licking in the fight he was in.

Get a life! Don't act so stupid!; Get a purpose for existing! (Slang. Usually rude.) ☐ Hey, stupid! You want to get run over? Get a life! ☐ You worthless jerk! Get a life!

get a line on someone or something to get an idea on how to locate someone or something; to find out about someone who can help find someone or something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ I got a line on a book that might help explain what you want to know. ☐ Sally has a line on someone who could help you fix up your apartment.

get (all) dolled up to dress (oneself) up. ☐ I have to get all dolled up for the dance tonight. ☐ I just love to get dolled up in my best clothes.

get a load off one's feet AND take a load off one's feet to sit down; to enjoy the results of sitting down. (Informal.) ☐ Come in, John. Sit down and take a load off your feet. ☐ Yes, I need to get a load off my feet. I'm really tired.

get a load off one's mind to say what one is thinking; to talk about what is troubling one; to speak one's mind. (Informal.) ☐ He sure talked a long time. I guess he had to get a load off his mind. ☐ You aren't going to like what I'm going to say, but I have to get a load off my mind.

get a load of someone or something look at someone or something. (Informal or slang.) ☐ Get a load of that guy. Have you ever seen such arrogance? ☐ Get a load of that car. It's got real wire wheels.

get along (in years) to grow older. ☐ Grandfather is getting along in years. ☐ Yes, he's really getting along.

get along (on a shoestring) to be able to afford to live on very little money. ☐ For the last two years, we have had to get along on a shoestring. ☐ With so little money, it's hard to get along.

get along (without (someone or something)) to manage without someone or something; to do without someone or something. ☐ I don't think I can get along without my secretary. ☐ My secretary just quit, and I don't think I will be able to get along. ☐ I like steak, but I can't afford it. I guess I'll have to get along without.

get along (with someone or something) Go to get on (with someone or something).

get a lot of mileage out of something to get a lot of use from something, as if it were a car. ☐ Bob always got a lot of mileage out of one joke. ☐ I got a lot of mileage out of my TV before it broke down.

get a lump in one's throat to have the feeling of something in one's throat—as if one were going to cry. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Whenever they play the national anthem, I get a lump in my throat. ☐ I have a lump in my throat because I'm frightened.

get a move on Go to get a hurry on.

get an earful to hear or listen to a great amount of discussion, criticism, or complaint. ☐ She was really mad about something, and I sure got an earful. ☐ Sue was standing around the corner while Jim and Mary were arguing and got an earful.

get an eyeful (of someone or something) to see everything; to see a shocking or surprising sight. ☐ The office door opened for a minute and I got an eyeful of the interior. ☐ Mary got an eyeful of the company's extravagant spending when she peeked into the conference room.

get an in (with someone) to develop a way to request a special favor from someone; to gain influence with someone. (The in is a noun. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Did you get an in with the mayor? I have to ask him a favor. ☐ Sorry, I don't have an in, but I know someone who does.

get another guess coming Go to get another think coming.

get another think coming AND get another guess coming to have to rethink something because one was wrong the first time. (Folksy. Think is a noun here. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ She's quite wrong. She's got another think coming if she wants to walk in here like that. ☐ You have another guess coming if you think you can treat me like that!

get ants in one's pants to become nervous and agitated. (Refers to the agitation caused by ants crawling into one's pants. Slang. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ I always get ants in my pants before a test. ☐ I wonder if all actors get ants in their pants before they go on stage.

get a rain check (on something) AND take a rain check (on something) 1. to accept a piece of paper allowing one to see an event—which has been canceled—at a later time. (Originally said of sporting events that had to be canceled because of rain. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ The game was canceled because of the storm, but we all got rain checks on it. ☐ I didn't take a rain check because I'm leaving town for a month. 2. to accept (or request) a reissuance of an invitation at a later date.

(Said to someone who has invited you to something that you cannot attend now, but would like to attend at a later time.)

□ We would love to come to your house, but we are busy next Saturday. Could we take a rain check on your kind invitation?

□ Oh, yes. You have a rain check that's good anytime you can come by and visit.

3. to accept a piece of paper that allows one to purchase an item on sale at a later date. (Stores issue these pieces of paper when they run out of specially priced sale merchandise.) □ The store was all out of the shampoo they advertised, but I got a rain check. □ Yes, you should always take a rain check so you can get it at the sale price later when they have more.

get a raw deal to receive unfair or bad treatment. (Slang. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone a raw deal.) □ Mary got a raw deal on her traffic ticket. She was innocent, but she had to pay a big fine. □ I bought a used TV that worked for two days and then quit. I sure got a raw deal. □ You sure had a raw deal.

get a reputation (as a something) to become recognized for being something. (Can be a good or a bad reputation. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ You'll get a reputation as a cheater. □ She once had a reputation as a singer. □ Behave yourself, or you'll get a reputation. □ Unfortunately, Tom's got a reputation.

get a reputation (for doing something) to become recognized for doing something. (Often a bad reputation, as in the examples. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ You'll get a reputation for cheating. □ I don't want to get a reputation. □ He's got a bad reputation. □ I have a reputation for being honest.

get a rise out of someone to get a reaction from someone, usually anger or laughter. (Informal.) □ Mary really liked my joke. I knew I could get a rise out of her. □ I got a rise out of him by telling him to go home.

get a rough idea (about something) AND get a rough idea (of something) to receive a general idea; to receive an estimate.

(Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I need to get a rough idea of how many people will be there. □ I don't need to know exactly. Just get a rough idea.

□ Judy has got a rough idea about who'll be there. □ I have a rough idea. That's good enough.

get a rough idea (of something) Go to get a rough idea (about something).

get around to be experienced; to know a lot about life. (Informal. Use with caution—especially with females—since this can also refer to sexual experience. See also have been around.) □ That's a hard question. I'll ask Jane. She gets around. □ John knows a lot about New York City. He gets around.

get around to doing something to find time to do something; to do something after a long delay. (Compare this with get (around) to something.) □ I finally got around to buying a new coat. □ It takes Sally years to get around to visiting her aunt. □ I finally got around to doing the breakfast dishes.

get (around) to something to manage to deal with someone or something after a delay. (Compare this with get around to doing something.) □ It was noon before I got around to the breakfast dishes. □ The doctor was not able to get to John, even though John waited for three hours. □ I can't get around to you until tomorrow.

get a run for one's money 1. to receive what one deserves, expects, or wants. (See also give one a run for one's money.) □ I get a run for my money at a high school football game. □ I get a run for my money in the stock market. 2. to receive a challenge. □ Bob got a run for his money when he tried to convince Mary to go to college. □ Bill got a run for his money playing cards with John.

get a shellacking AND take a shellacking 1. to receive a beating. (Informal.) □ The boxer took a shellacking and lost the fight. □ I got a shellacking when I broke the window. 2. to be beaten—as in sports. (Informal.) □ Our team played well, but got a shellacking anyway. ☐ I practiced my tennis game so I wouldn't take a shellacking in the tournament.

get a slap on the wrist to get a light punishment (for doing something wrong). (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone a slap on the wrist.) ☐ He created quite a disturbance, but he only got a slap on the wrist. ☐ I thought I'd get a slap on the wrist for speeding, but I got fined $200. ☐ She had a slap on the wrist about that before.

get a start 1. AND get a jump(start) to receive help starting one's car. ☐ My car is stalled. I need to get a start. ☐ I got my car going. I got a jump from John. 2. to receive training or a big opportunity in beginning one's career. (The same as get one's start. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ She got a start in show business in Cincinnati. ☐ She had a start when she was only four.

get a taste of one's own medicine [for one] to receive difficulties of the same kind that one has been causing other people. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also dose of one's own medicine.) ☐ Now you see how it feels to have someone call you names! You are getting a taste of your own medicine! ☐ John, who is often rude and abrupt with people, was devastated when the teacher treated him rudely. He doesn't like having a taste of his own medicine.

get a thing about someone or something to develop strong likes or dislikes about someone or something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ I have a thing about celery. I can't stand it. ☐ John can't get enough celery. He's got a thing about it. ☐ John has a thing about Mary. He thinks he's in love.

get a toehold (somewhere) Go to get a foothold (somewhere).

get a tongue-lashing to receive a severe scolding. (Folksy. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone a tongue-lashing.) ☐ I really got a tongue-lashing when I got home. ☐ Ted will have a tongue-lashing at home. ☐ I never had a tongue-lashing like that before.

get at someone or something 1. to attack or strike someone or something. (Compare this with go at someone or something. Also with have.) ☐ The cat jumped over the wall to get at the mouse. ☐ Ok, you guys. There he is. Have at him! 2. [with something] to eat food; to gobble up food. (Informal. Also with have.) ☐ I can't wait to get at that cake. ☐ Dinner's ready. Sit down and have at it. 3. [with someone] to find a way to irritate someone; to manage to wound someone, physically or emotionally. ☐ Mr. Smith found a way to get at his wife. ☐ John kept trying to get at his teacher. 4. [with something] to explain or try to explain something; to hint at something. ☐ We spent a long time trying to get at the answer. ☐ I can't understand what you're trying to get at. 5. [with something] to begin to do something; to get (around) to something. ☐ I won't be able to get at it until the weekend. ☐ I'll get at it first thing in the morning.

get at the heart of the matter Go to get to the heart of the matter.

get away (from it all) to get away from one's work or daily routine; to go on a vacation. ☐ I just love the summer when I can take time off and get away from it all. ☐ Yes, that's the best time to get away.

get away with something to do something bad and not get punished or found out. ☐ Tom did it again and didn't get punished. He's always getting away with murder. ☐ Just because she's so popular, she thinks she can get away with anything. ☐ You'll never get away with it.

get a whiff of something AND catch a whiff of something to learn about someone almost accidentally. (Also literal.) ☐ The boss got a whiff of the problems in the accounting department. ☐ No one will get a whiff of your trouble with the police. I'll see to that.

get a word in edgewise Go to get a word in edgewise.

get a word in edgewise AND get a word in edgewise to manage to say something when other people are talking and ignoring you. (Often in the negative.) □ It was such an exciting conversation that I could hardly get a word in edgewise. □ Mary talks so fast that nobody can get a word in edgeways.

get back (at someone) AND have back at someone to repay one for a bad deed; to get even (with someone). (Have back at someone is informal or folksy. Compare this with have at someone or something at get at someone or something.) □ Tom called me a jerk, but I'll get back at him. □ I don't know how I'll get back, but I will. □ Just wait. I'll have back at you!

get back into circulation to start being social with people again after a period of being by oneself; to start dating again, especially after a divorce or breakup with a lover. □ Sally is anxious to get back into circulation after the nasty divorce she went through. □ Todd could not bring himself to get back into circulation after the death of his wife.

get back into harness to return to one's workplace, such as after a vacation or a period of illness. (Refers to harnessing a horse so it can return to work.) □ I am not at all anxious to get back into harness after spending two weeks in Mexico. □ Tom was eager to get back into harness after his illness.

get back on one's feet to become independent again; to become able to get around again. (Note the variations with own and two in the examples.) □ He was sick for a while, but now he's getting back on his feet. □ My parents helped a lot when I lost my job. I'm glad I'm back on my own feet now. □ It feels great to be back on my own two feet again.

get back (to someone) to continue talking with someone (at a later time); to find out information and tell it to a person (at a later time). □ I don't have the answer to that question right now. Let me find out and get back to you. □ Okay. Please try to get back early tomorrow.

get better to improve. □ I had a bad cold, but it's getting better. □ Business was bad last week, but it's getting better. □ I'm sorry you're ill. I hope you get better.

get busy to start working; to work harder or faster. □ The boss is coming. You'd better get busy. □ I've got to get busy and clean this house up. □ Come on, everybody. Let's get busy and get this job done.

get butterflies in one's stomach to get a nervous feeling in one's stomach. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give one butterflies in one's stomach.) □ Whenever I have to go on stage, I get butterflies in my stomach. □ She always has butterflies in her stomach before a test.

get by (on something) to manage on the least amount of money, supplies, goods, etc. (Compare this with get along (on a shoe-string).) □ We don't have much money. Can we get by on love? □ I'll get by as long as I have you. □ We don't have very much food, but we'll get by for the weekend.

get by (with something) 1. to satisfy the minimum requirements. □ I was failing geometry, but managed to get by with a D. □ I took the bar exam and just barely got by. 2. to do something bad and not get caught or punished; to get away with something. □ Tom cheated on the test and got by with it. □ Maybe you can get by like that once or twice, but you'll get caught.

get carried away to be overcome by emotion or enthusiasm (in one's thinking or actions). (Also literal when someone or something is transported away.) □ Calm down, Jane. Don't get carried away. □ Here, Bill. Take this money and go to the candy store, but don't get carried away.

get close (to someone or something) 1. [with someone] to be close friends with someone; to get to know someone well. □ I would really like to get close to Jane, but she's so unfriendly. □ We talked for hours and hours, but I never felt that we were getting close. □ It's very hard to get next to someone who won't talk to you. 2. [with something] to almost equal something; to be almost as good as something. (Often in the negative.) □ I practiced and practiced, but my bowling couldn't get close to get cold feet AND have cold feet to become timid or frightened; to have one's feet seem to freeze with fear. ☐ I usually get cold feet when I have to speak in public. ☐ John got cold feet and wouldn't run in the race.

Mary's. ☐ Her performance was so good that I couldn't get close.

get cracking to get moving; to get busy. (Folksy.) ☐ Let's go. Come on, get cracking! ☐ Move it! We don't have all day. Let's get cracking! ☐ We'll never get finished if you don't get cracking.

get credit (for something) to receive praise or recognition for one's role in something. (Especially with a lot of, much, etc., as in the examples below.) ☐ Mary should get a lot of credit for the team's success. ☐ Each of the team captains should get credit.

get down to brass tacks to begin to talk about important things; to get down to business. ☐ Let's get down to brass tacks. We've wasted too much time chatting. ☐ Don't you think that it's about time to get down to brass tacks?

get down to business AND get down to work to begin to get serious; to begin to negotiate or conduct business. ☐ All right, everyone. Let's get down to business. There has been enough playing around. ☐ When the president and vice president arrive, we can get down to business. ☐ They're here. Let's get down to work.

get down to cases to begin to discuss specific matters; to get down to business. ☐ When we've finished the general discussion, we'll get down to cases. ☐ Now that everyone is here, we can get down to cases.

get down to (doing) something to begin doing some kind of work in earnest. ☐ I have to get down to my typing. ☐ John, you get in here this minute and get down to that homework!

get down to the facts to begin to talk about things that matter; to get to the truth. ☐ The judge told the lawyer that the time had come to get down to the facts. ☐ Let's get down to the facts, Mrs. Brown. Where were you on the night of January 16?

get down to the nitty-gritty to get down to the facts; to get down to cases. (Slang.) ☐ Stop fooling around. Get down to the nitty-gritty. ☐ Let's stop wasting time. We have to get down to the nitty-gritty.

get down to work Go to get down to business.

get even (with someone) to repay someone's bad deed; to get back (at someone). ☐ Bill hit Bob, and Bob got even with Bill by hitting him back. ☐ Some people always have to get even.

get fresh (with someone) to become overly bold or impertinent with someone. ☐ When I tried to kiss Mary, she slapped me and shouted, "Don't get fresh with me!" ☐ I can't stand people who get fresh.

get goose bumps AND get goose pimples [for one's skin] to feel prickly or become bumpy due to cold, fear, or excitement. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ When he sings, I get goose bumps. ☐ I never get goose pimples. ☐ That really scared her. Now she's got goose pimples.

get goose pimples Go to get goose bumps.

get gray hair(s) to have one's hair turn gray from stress or frustration. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ I'm getting gray hair because I have three teenage boys. ☐ Oh, Tom, stop it! I'm going to get gray hairs. ☐ I have gray hairs from raising four kids.

get hell Go to get the devil.

get in on something to become associated with something, such as an organization or an idea; to find out or be told about special plans. (Also with be, as in the final example.) ☐ There is a party upstairs, and I want to get in on it. ☐ I want to get in on your club's activities. ☐ Mary and Jane know a secret, and I want to get in on it. ☐ I'm happy to be in on your celebration. ☐ There is going to be a surprise party, and I'm in on it.

get in (on the ground floor) to become associated with something at its start. (Refers to getting into an elevator at the lowest level when it is not yet crowded.)

☐ If you move fast, you can still get in on the ground floor. ☐ A new business is starting up, and I want to get in early.

get in someone's hair [for someone] to bother or irritate someone. (Also literal.) ☐ Billy is always getting in his mother's hair. ☐ I wish you'd stop getting in my hair.

get into a jam Go to get into a mess.

get into a mess AND get into a jam to get into difficulty or confusion. (Informal. Compare this with get out of a mess.) ☐ Try to keep from getting into a mess. ☐ "Hello, Mom," said John on the telephone. "I'm at the police station. I got into a jam."

get into an argument (with someone) to begin to argue with someone. ☐ Let's try to discuss this calmly. I don't want to get into an argument with you. ☐ Tom got into an argument with John. ☐ Tom and John got into an argument. ☐ Let's not get into an argument.

get into full swing AND get into high gear to move into the peak of activity; to start moving fast or efficiently. (Informal.) ☐ In the summer months, things really get into full swing around here. ☐ We go skiing in the mountains each winter. Things get into high gear there in November.

get into high gear Go to get into full swing.

get in(to) hot water to get into trouble or difficulty; to get involved in something that is complicated or troublesome. ☐ When you start trying to build your own computer, you are getting into hot water. ☐ When Fred was caught cheating on his exam, he got into hot water.

get into the act to try to be part of whatever is going on. (Refers to someone trying to get on stage and participate in a performance.) ☐ I can do this by myself. There is no need for you to get into the act. ☐ Everyone wants to get into the act. Please let us do it. We don't need your help!

get into the swing of things to join into the routine or the activities. ☐ Come on,

Bill. Try to get into the swing of things. ☐ John just couldn't seem to get into the swing of things.

get in touch (with someone) to communicate with someone; to telephone or write to someone. (See also keep in touch (with someone).) ☐ I have to get in touch with John and ask him to come over for a visit. ☐ Yes, you must try to get in touch.

get involved (with someone) to become associated with someone. (Sometimes romantically involved.) ☐ Sally is getting involved with Bill. They've been seeing a lot of each other. ☐ I hope they don't get too involved. ☐ He didn't want his son involved with the gangs.

get it Go to get something.

get it (all) together to become fit or organized; to organize one's thinking; to become relaxed and rational. (Slang. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Bill seems to be acting more normal now. I think he's getting it all together. ☐ I hope he gets it together soon. His life is a mess. ☐ When Jane has it all together, she really makes sense. ☐ Sally is a lovely person. She really has it together.

get it in the neck to receive something bad, such as punishment or criticism. (Slang. Compare this with get it.) ☐ I don't know why I should get it in the neck. I didn't break the window. ☐ Bill got it in the neck for being late.

get lost 1. to become lost; to lose one's way. ☐ We got lost on the way home. ☐ Follow the path, or you might get lost. 2. Go away!; Stop being an annoyance! (Slang. Always a command.) ☐ Stop bothering me. Get lost! ☐ Get lost! I don't need your help. ☐ Stop following me. Get lost!

get mad (at someone or something) 1. to become angry at someone or something. ☐ Don't get mad at me. I didn't do it. ☐ I got mad at my car. It won't start. ☐ I get mad every time I think about it. 2. [with something] to muster all one's physical and mental resources in order to do something. (Informal or slang.) ☐ Come on, Bill. If you're going to lift your end of the piano, you're going to have to get mad at it. □ The sergeant keep yelling, "Work, work! Push, push! Come on, you guys, get mad!"

get married to become united as husband and wife. □ Bill and Sally got married when they were in college. □ We got married in Texas just after we graduated from college.

get mixed-up to get confused. □ I get mixed-up easily whenever I take a test. □ Sorry, I didn't say the right thing. I got mixed-up.

get nowhere fast not to make progress; to get nowhere. (Informal or slang.) □ I can't seem to make any progress. No matter what I do, I'm just getting nowhere fast. □ Come on. Speed up this car. We're getting nowhere fast.

get off 1. to escape or avoid punishment (for doing something wrong). (Also literal meaning to disembark.) □ It was a serious crime, but Mary got off with a light sentence. □ I was afraid that the robber was going to get off completely. 2. to start off (on a friendship). (See also get off on the wrong foot. Compare this with get along (with someone).) □ Tom and Bill had never met before. They seemed to get off all right, though. □ I'm glad they got off so well. 3. to leave; to depart. □ The plane did not get off on time. □ We have to get off early in the morning before the traffic gets heavy.

get off easy AND get off lightly to receive very little punishment (for doing something wrong). (See also get a slap on the wrist.) □ It was a serious crime, but Mary got off easy. □ Billy's punishment was very light. Considering what he did, he got off lightly.

Get off it! Don't talk nonsense!; Don't talk like that! (Usually a command.) □ Get off it, Tom! You don't know that for a fact. □ Oh, get off it! You sound so conceited!

get off lightly Go to get off easy.

get off on the wrong foot AND get off to a bad start to start something (such as a friendship) with negative factors. (Also literal. See also get off; be off on the wrong foot; be off to a bad start; start off on the wrong foot.) □ Bill and Tom got off on the wrong foot. They had a minor car accident just before they were introduced. □ Let's work hard to be friends. I hate to get off on the wrong foot. □ Bill is getting off to a bad start in geometry. He failed the first test.

get off scot-free Go to go scot-free.

Get off someone's back! Go to Get off someone's case!

Get off someone's case! AND Get off someone's back!; Get off someone's tail! Leave someone alone!; Stop picking on someone! (Slang. Usually a command.) □ I'm tired of your criticism, Bill. Get off my case! □ Quit picking on her. Get off her back! □ Leave me alone! Get off my tail!

Get off someone's tail! Go to Get off someone's case!

get off the hook to free oneself from an obligation. □ They have asked you to lead the parade, and I don't think you can get off the hook. □ I couldn't get off the hook no matter how much I pleaded.

get off to a bad start Go to get off on the wrong foot.

get off to a flying start to have a very successful beginning to something. □ The new business got off to a flying start with those export orders. □ We shall need a large donation from the local citizens if the charity is to get off to a flying start.

get off your high horse to become less haughty. □ You should get off your high horse and pay attention more to what people think. □ If she would get off her high horse and try to be human, everyone would like her better.

get one's act together to get oneself organized, especially mentally. (Slang. Originally from theatrical use. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I'm so confused about life. I have to get my act together. □ Bill Smith had a hard time getting his act together after his mother's death. □ Mary really has her act together. She handles herself very well.

get one's bearings to determine where one is; to determine how one is oriented to one's immediate environment. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ After he fell, it took Ted a few minutes to get his bearings. □ I don't have my bearings yet. Wait a minute.

get one's comeuppance to get a reprimand; to get the punishment one deserves. (Folksy.) □ Tom is always insulting people, but he finally got his comeuppance. Bill hit him. □ I hope I don't get my comeuppance like that.

get one's ducks in a row to get something into order or into line; to put one's affairs in order; to get things ready. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. Refers to a mother duck leading a row of ducklings.) □ Jane is organized. She really has all her ducks in a row. □ You can't hope to go into a company and sell something until you get your ducks in a row. □ As soon as you people get your ducks in a row, we'll leave.

get (oneself) into a stew (over someone or something) to be worried or upset about someone or something. □ Please don't get yourself into a stew over Walter. □ Liz is the kind of person who gets into a stew over someone else's business.

get one's feet on the ground AND have one's feet on the ground to get firmly established or reestablished. (Also literal.) □ He's new at the job, but soon he'll get his feet on the ground. □ Her productivity will improve after she gets her feet on the ground again.

get one's feet wet to begin something; to have one's first experience of something. (Also literal. Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Of course he can't do the job right. He's hardly got his feet wet yet. □ I'm looking forward to learning to drive. I can't wait to get behind the steering wheel and get my feet wet. □ I've only been at this job for a month, and I don't have my feet wet yet.

get one's fill of someone or something to receive enough of someone or something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ You'll soon get your fill of Tom. He can be quite a pest. □ I can never get my fill of shrimp. I love it. □ Three weeks of visiting grandchildren is enough. I've had my fill of them.

get one's fingers burned to have a bad experience. (Also literal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I had my fingers burned the last time I did this. □ I tried that once before and got my fingers burned. I won't try it again. □ If you go swimming and get your fingers burned, you won't want to swim again.

get one's foot in the door to achieve a favorable position (for further action); to take the first step in a process. (Refers to people selling things from door to door who block the door with a foot so it cannot be closed on them. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I think I could get the job if I could only get my foot in the door. □ It pays to get your foot in the door. Try to get an appointment with the boss. □ I have a better chance now that I have my foot in the door.

get one's hands dirty AND dirty one's hands; soil one's hands to become involved with something illegal; to do a shameful thing; to do something that is beneath one. (Also literal.) □ The mayor would never get his hands dirty by giving away political favors. □ I will not dirty my hands by breaking the law. □ Sally felt that to talk to the hobo was to soil her hands.

get one's hands on someone or something AND lay one's hands on someone or something to get (a)hold of someone or something; to get someone or something in one's grasp. (Informal. Sometimes said in anger, as if one may wish to do harm.) □ Just wait until I get my hands on Tom. I'll really give him something to think about. □ When I lay my hands on my book again, I'll never lend it to anyone.

get one's head above water to get ahead of one's problems; to catch up with one's work or responsibilities. (Also literal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I can't seem to get my head above water. Work just keeps piling up. □ I'll be glad when I have my head above water.

get one's hooks into someone or something to grasp someone or something; to acquire someone or something; to get someone or something in one's grasp. (Slang. Said of someone who is grasping and acquisitive and who will not let go easily. Usually said about a person or about something that is small enough to grasp in one's hand.) □ I want to get my hooks into a copy of that book. □ She can't wait until she gets her hooks into George.

get one's just deserts to get what one deserves. □ I feel better now that Jane got her just deserts. She really insulted me. □ Bill got back exactly the treatment that he gave out. He got his just deserts.

get one's just reward(s) to get something as bad as one deserves. □ The criminal who was sent to prison got his just rewards. □ I am sure that when he died, he got his just reward.

get one's knuckles rapped to receive punishment. (Also literal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I got my knuckles rapped for whispering too much. □ You will have your knuckles rapped if you are not careful.

get one's money's worth to get everything that has been paid for; to get the best quality for the money paid. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Weigh that package of meat before you buy it. Be sure you're getting your money's worth. □ I didn't get my money's worth with my new camera, so I took it back. □ I will stay here and watch the movie over and over until I get my money's worth.

get one's nose out of someone's business to stop interfering in someone else's business; to mind one's own business. (See also keep one's nose out of someone's business.) □ Go away! Get your nose out of my business! □ Bob just can't seem to get his nose out of other people's business.

get one's (own) way (with someone or something) to have someone or something follow one's plans; to control someone or something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ The mayor got his way with the city council. □ He seldom gets his own way. □ How often do you have your way with your own money? □ Parents usually have their way with their children.

get one's say to be able to state one's position; to be able to say what one thinks. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also have a voice (in something).) □ I want to have my say on this matter. □ He got his say, and then he was happy.

get one's sea legs to become accustomed to the movement of a ship at sea; to be able to walk steadily on the constantly rolling and pitching decks of a ship. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Jean was a little awkward at first, but in a few days she got her sea legs and was fine. □ You may feel a little sick until you get your sea legs. □ I will feel better when I have my sea legs.

get one's second wind 1. for one's breathing to become stabilized after exerting oneself for a short time. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ John was having a hard time running until he got his second wind. □ Bill had to quit the race because he never got his second wind. □ "At last," thought Ann, "I have my second wind. Now I can really swim fast." 2. to become more active or productive (after starting off slowly). □ I usually get my second wind early in the afternoon. □ Mary is a better worker now that she has her second wind.

get one's start to receive the first major opportunity of one's career. □ I had my start in painting when I was thirty. □ She helped me get my start by recommending me to the manager.

get one's teeth into something to start on something seriously, especially a difficult task. (Informal. See also sink one's teeth into something.) □ Come on, Bill. You have to get your teeth into your biology. □ I can't wait to get my teeth into this problem.

get one's walking papers to get fired. (Informal. See also give one one's walking papers.) □ Well, I'm through. I got my walking papers today. □ They are closing down my department. I guess I'll get my walking papers soon.

get one's wires crossed to get confused about something. (Informal. As if one's brain were an electrical circuit. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.)
☐ You don't know what you are talking about. You really have your wires crossed!
☐ Joan got her wires crossed about who arrived first. It was Bob, not Gary.

get one's wits about one to pull oneself together for action; to set one's mind to work, especially in a time of stress. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.)
☐ Let me get my wits about me so I can figure this out.
☐ I don't have my wits about me at this time of the morning.

get on someone to pester someone (about something); to pressure someone. (Also literal.) ☐ John is supposed to empty the trash every day. He didn't do it, so I will have to get on him.
☐ It's time to get on Bill about his homework. He's falling behind.

get on someone's nerves to irritate someone.
☐ Please stop whistling. It's getting on my nerves.
☐ All this arguing is getting on their nerves.

get on the bandwagon AND jump on the bandwagon to join the popular side (of an issue); to take a popular position.
☐ You really should get on the bandwagon. Everyone else is.
☐ Jane has always had her own ideas about things. She's not the kind of person to jump on the bandwagon.

get on the good side of someone to get in someone's favor.
☐ You had better behave properly if you want to get on the good side of Mary.
☐ If you want to get on the good side of your teacher, you must do your homework.

get on (with someone or something) AND get along (with someone or something) 1. [with someone] to be friends with someone; to have a good relationship with someone. (The friendship is always assumed to be good unless it is stated to be otherwise.)
☐ How do you get on with John?
☐ I get along with John just fine.
☐ We get along.
☐ I don't get on with John.
☐ We don't get along. 2. [with something] to continue with something.

☐ I must get on with my work.
☐ Now that the crisis is over, I'll get on with my life.

get out from under someone or something 1. [with someone] to get free of someone's control.
☐ Mary wanted to get out from under her mother.
☐ We started our own business because we needed to get out from under our employer. 2. [with something] to get free of a burdensome problem.
☐ I can't go out tonight until I get out from under this pile of homework.
☐ There is so much work to do! I don't know when I'll ever get out from under it.

get out of a jam to get free from a problem or a bad situation.
☐ Would you lend me five dollars? I need it to get out of a jam.
☐ I need some help getting out of a jam.

get out of a mess to get free of a bad situation. (Informal. Also with this, such a, etc. See the examples. Compare this with get into a mess.)
☐ How can anyone get out of a mess like this?
☐ Please help me get out of this mess!

get out of someone's way AND get out of the way to move out of the path or route.
☐ Will you please get out of the way?
☐ The dog got out of Jane's way just before she stepped on it.

get out of the way Go to get out of someone's way.

get out of the wrong side of the bed Go to get up on the wrong side of the bed.

get out while the getting is good to leave a place while it is still possible to do so; to withdraw from a place, position, or some organization at an opportune time.
☐ The party was getting noisy enough that one of the neighbors was bound to call the police, so we left. We always get out while the getting is good.
☐ Everyone at my office was being required to do more and more work. I decided to get out while the getting was good. I quit.

get over someone or something to recover from someone or something.
☐ Now that Bob has left me, I have to learn to get over him.
☐ It was a horrible shock. I don't know when I'll get over it. □ It was a serious illness. It took two weeks to get over it.

get physical (with someone) 1. to use physical force against someone. □ The coach got in trouble for getting physical with some members of the team. □ When the suspect wouldn't cooperate, the police were forced to get physical. 2. to touch someone in lovemaking. □ I've heard that Bill tends to get physical with his dates. □ I don't care if he gets physical—within reason.

get ready (to do something) to prepare to do something. □ Get ready to jump! □ It's time to get ready to go to work. □ It's time to get ready.

get religion to become serious (about something), usually after a powerful experience; to develop a strong religious belief. (Folksy. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I've always had religion. I don't need a crisis to make me get it. □ When I had an automobile accident, I really got religion. Now I'm a very safe driver. □ Soldiers often say they got religion in the midst of a battle.

get rid of someone or something to get free of someone or something; to dispose of or destroy someone or something. □ I'm trying to get rid of Mr. Smith. He's bothering me. □ I'll be happy when I get rid of my old car.

get right on something to do something immediately. □ I know it has to be done today. I'll get right on it. □ Please get right on these reports as soon as possible.

get rolling to get started. (Informal.) □ Come on. It's time to leave. Let's get rolling! □ Bill, it's 6:30. Time to get up and get rolling!

get second thoughts about someone or something to have new doubts about someone or something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I'm beginning to get second thoughts about Tom. □ Tom is getting second thoughts about it, too. □ We now have second thoughts about going to Canada.

get set get ready; get organized. (Also with be, as in the examples below.) □ We are going to start. Please get set. □ We are set. Let's go. □ Hurry up and get set!

get sick 1. to become ill (perhaps with vomiting). □ I got sick and couldn't go to school. □ My whole family got sick with the flu. 2. to vomit. (A euphemism.) □ Mommy, the dog just got sick on the carpet. □ Bill got sick in the hallway.

get sidetracked to become diverted from one's task; to start off on a second task before the first one is finished. □ I'm sorry the work is not completed. I got sidetracked. □ Pay attention to what you are doing and don't get sidetracked.

get someone down to depress someone; to make someone sad. □ Try not to let all your problems get you down. □ She is very cheerful and practically nothing gets her down.

get (someone) off the hook to free someone from an obligation. (Informal. When someone is omitted, this refers to oneself.) □ Thanks for getting me off the hook. I didn't want to attend that meeting. □ I couldn't get off the hook by myself.

get someone or something across Go to put someone or something across.

get someone or something down 1. [with something] to manage to swallow something, especially something large or unpleasant. □ The pill was huge, but I got it down. □ It was the worst food I have ever had, but I got it down somehow. 2. [with someone] to depress a person; to make a person very sad. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ My dog ran away, and it really got me down. □ Oh, that's too bad. Don't let it get you down. □ All my troubles really have me down.

get someone or something out of one's head Go to get someone or something out of one's mind.

get someone or something out of one's mind AND get someone or something out of one's head to manage to forget someone or something; to stop thinking about or wanting someone or something. (Almost the same as put someone or something out of one's mind.) □ I can't get him out of my mind. □ Mary couldn't get the song out of her mind. □ Get that silly idea out of your head!

get someone or something out of the way to remove someone or something out of the path or route. □ Get your big feet out of my way! □ Please get your child out of the way!

get someone out of a jam to free someone from a problem or a bad situation. (Informal. Compare this with in a jam.) □ I like John. He got me out of a jam once. □ I would be glad to help get you out of a jam.

get someone over a barrel AND get someone under one's thumb [for someone] to be put at the mercy of someone; to get control over someone. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ He got me over a barrel, and I had to do what he said. □ Ann will do exactly what I say. I've got her over a barrel. □ All right, John. You've got me under your thumb. What do you want me to do?

get someone's back up Go to get someone's dander up.

get someone's dander up AND get someone's back up; get someone's hackles up; get someone's Irish up to make someone get angry. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Now, don't get your dander up. Calm down. □ I insulted him and really got his hackles up. □ Bob had his Irish up all day yesterday. I don't know what was wrong. □ She really got her back up when I asked her for money. □ Now, now, don't get your hackles up. I didn't mean any harm.

get someone's ear to get someone to listen (to you). (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. Compare this with bend someone's ear.) □ He got my ear and talked for an hour. □ While I have your ear, I'd like to tell you about something I'm selling.

get someone's eye Go to catch someone's eye.

get someone's goat to irritate someone; to annoy and arouse someone to anger. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I'm sorry. I didn't mean to get your goat. □ Jean got Sally's goat and Sally made quite a fuss about it. □ Tom really had her goat for a while.

get someone's hackles up Go to get someone's dander up.

get someone's Irish up Go to get someone's dander up.

get someone's number 1. to find out someone's telephone number. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ As soon as I get Mary's number, I'll call her. □ I have her number. Do you want me to write it down for you? 2. to find out about a person; to learn the key to understanding a person. (Informal.) □ I'm going to get your number if I can. You're a real puzzle. □ I've got Tom's number. He's ambitious.

get someone under one's thumb Go to get someone over a barrel.

get something AND get it 1. to receive punishment. (Also literal meaning to receive something or to contract a disease.) □ Bill broke the window, and he's really going to get a scolding. □ John got it for arriving late at school. 2. to receive the meaning of a joke; to understand something. □ John told a joke, but I didn't get it. □ Bob laughed very hard, but Mary didn't get it.

get something across (to someone) to convey information to someone; to teach someone. □ I'm trying to get this across to you. Please pay attention. □ I'll keep trying until I get it across.

get something into someone's thick head Go to get something through someone's thick skull.

get something off one's chest to tell something that has been bothering you. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I have to get this off my chest. I broke your window with a stone. □ I knew I'd feel better when I had that off my chest.

get something off (the ground) to get something started. (Also literal.) □ I can relax after I get this project off the ground. □ You'll have a lot of free time when you get the project off.

get something on someone to learn something potentially damaging to someone. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Tom is always trying to get something on me. I can't imagine why. □ If he has something on you, he'll have you over a barrel. □ If he gets something on you, you ought to get something on him.

get something out in the open to make something public; to stop hiding a fact or a secret. □ We had better get this out in the open before the press gets wind of it. □ I'll feel better when it's out in the open. I can't stand all of this secrecy.

get something out of one's system 1. to get something like food or medicine out of one's body, usually through natural elimination. □ He'll be more active once he gets the medicine out of his system. □ My baby, Mary, ate applesauce and has been crying for three hours. She'll stop when she gets the applesauce out of her system. 2. to be rid of the desire to do something; to do something that you have been wanting to do so that you aren't bothered by wanting to do it anymore. □ I bought a new car. I've been wanting to for a long time. I'm glad I finally got that out of my system. □ I can't get it out of my system! I want to go back to school and earn a degree.

get something out of something to get some kind of benefit from something. □ I didn't get anything out of the lecture. □ I'm always able to get something helpful out of our conversations.

get something over (with) to complete something, especially something you have dreaded. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Oh, please hurry and get it over with. It hurts. □ Please get it over. □ When I have this over with, I can relax.

get something sewed up AND get something wrapped up to have something settled or finished. (See also wrap something up. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I'll take the contract to the mayor tomorrow morning. I'll get the whole deal sewed up by noon. □ Don't worry about the car loan. I'll have it sewed up in time to make the purchase. □ I'll get the loan wrapped up, and you'll have the car this week.

get something straight to understand something clearly. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Now get this straight. You're going to fail history. □ Let me get this straight. I'm supposed to go there in the morning? □ Let me make sure I have this straight.

get something through someone's thick skull AND get something into someone's thick head to manage to get someone, including oneself, to understand something. (Informal.) □ He can't seem to get it through his thick skull. □ If I could get this into my thick head once, I'd remember it.

get something to go Go to buy something to go.

get something under one's belt 1. to eat or drink something. (This means the food goes into one's stomach and is under one's belt. Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I'd feel a lot better if I had a cool drink under my belt. □ Come in out of the cold and get a nice warm meal under your belt. 2. to learn something well; to assimilate some information. □ I have to study tonight. I have to get a lot of algebra under my belt. □ Now that I have my lessons under my belt, I can rest easy.

get something under way to get something started. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ The time has come to get this meeting under way. □ Now that the president has the meeting under way, I can relax.

get something wrapped up Go to get something sewed up.

get stars in one's eyes to be obsessed with show business; to be stage-struck. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Many young people get stars in their eyes at this age. □ Ann has stars in her eyes. She wants to go to Hollywood.

get the advantage of someone AND get the advantage over someone; get the edge on someone; get the edge over someone to achieve a position superior to someone else. (The word the can be replaced with an. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also take advantage of someone or something.) □ Toward the end of the race, I got the advantage over Mary. □ She'd had an advantage over me since the start of the competition. □ I got an edge on Sally, too, and she came in second. □ It's speed that counts. You can have the edge over everyone, but if you don't have speed, you lose.

get the advantage over someone Go to get the advantage of someone.

get the air to be ignored or sent away. (See also give someone the air.) □ Whenever I get around Tom, I end up getting the air. □ I hate to get the air. It makes me feel unwanted.

get the ax Go to get the sack.

get the ball rolling AND set the ball rolling; start the ball rolling to start something; to get some process going. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ If I could just get the ball rolling, then other people would help. □ Who else would start the ball rolling? □ I had the ball rolling, but no one helped me with the project. □ Ann set the ball rolling, but didn't follow through.

get the benefit of the doubt to receive a judgment in your favor when the evidence is neither for you nor against you. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone the benefit of the doubt.) □ In my math course, I was right between a B and an A. I got the benefit of the doubt—an A. □ I thought I should have had the benefit of the doubt, but the judge made me pay a fine.

get the best of someone Go to get the better of someone.

get the better of someone AND get the best of someone to win out over someone in a competition or bargain. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Bill got the best of John in the boxing match. □ I tried to get the better of John, but he won anyway. □ I set out to have the better of Sally, but I didn't have enough skill.

get the blues to become sad or depressed. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ You'll have to excuse Bill. He has the blues tonight. □ I get the blues every time I hear that song.

get the boot to be sent away (from somewhere); to be dismissed from one's employment; to be kicked out (of a place). (Slang. See also get the sack; give someone the boot.) □ I guess I wasn't dressed well enough to go in there. I got the boot. □ I'll work harder at my job today. I nearly got the boot yesterday.

get the brush-off to be ignored or sent away; to be rejected. (Slang.) □ Don't talk to Tom. You'll just get the brush-off. □ I went up to her and asked for a date, but I got the brush-off.

get the cold shoulder to be ignored; to be rejected. (Informal. See also give someone the cold shoulder.) □ If you invite her to a party, you'll just get the cold shoulder. □ I thought that Sally and I were friends, but lately I've been getting the cold shoulder.

get the creeps AND get the willies to become frightened; to become uneasy. (Slang. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I get the creeps when I see that old house. □ I really had the willies when I went down into the basement.

get the day off to have a day free from working. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also take the day off.) □ The next time I get a day off, we'll go to the zoo. □ I have the day off. Let's go to the zoo.

get the devil AND catch hell; catch the devil; get hell to receive a severe scolding. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ Bill is always getting the devil about something. □ I'm late. If I don't get home soon, I'll catch hell! □ I caught the devil yesterday for being late.

get the drift of something to understand the general idea of something. □ I knew enough German to get the drift of this article. □ I don't get the drift of what you're trying to tell me.

get the edge on someone Go to get the advantage of someone.

get the edge over someone Go to get the advantage of someone.

get the facts straight to get a good understanding of the facts; to make sure that all the facts are accurate and properly stated. □ Ask a lot of questions and get all of the facts straight. □ Please be sure you get the facts straight before you make a decision.

get the feel of something AND get a feel for something [for someone] to learn the way something feels (when it is used). (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also have the feel of something.) □ I haven't yet got the feel of this bat. I hope I don't strike out. □ I can drive better now that I have the feel of this car's steering.

get the final word Go to get the last word.

get the floor to receive official permission to address the audience. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ When I get the floor, I'll make a short speech. □ The last time you had the floor, you talked for an hour.

get the gate to be sent away; to be rejected. (Slang. See also give someone the gate.) □ I thought he liked me, but I got the gate. □ I was afraid I'd get the gate, and I was right.

get the glad hand to receive an overly friendly welcome; to receive insincere attention. (Informal.) □ Whenever I go into that store, I get the glad hand. □ I hate to go to a party and get the glad hand.

get the go-ahead AND get the green light to receive a signal to start or continue. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone the go-ahead.) □ We have to wait here until we have the go-ahead. □ I hope we get the green light on our project soon.

get the go-by to be ignored or passed by. (Slang.) □ It was my turn, but I got the go-by. □ Tom stood on the road for fifteen minutes trying to get a ride, but all he could get was the go-by.

get the goods on someone to find out something potentially damaging or embarrassing about someone. (Slang. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ John beat me unfairly in tennis, but I'll get even. I'll get the goods on him and his cheating. □ The authorities have the goods on Mr. Smith. He has been selling worthless land again.

get the green light Go to get the go-ahead.

get the hang of something to learn how to do something; to learn how something works. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ As soon as I get the hang of this computer, I'll be able to work faster. □ Now that I have the hang of starting the car in cold weather, I won't have to get up so early.

get the hard sell to receive considerable pressure to buy or accept (something). (Informal.) □ I won't go to that store again. I really got the hard sell. □ You'll probably get the hard sell if you go to a used-car dealer.

get the high sign to receive a prearranged signal. (Often refers to a hand signal or some other visual signal.) □ When I got the high sign, I pulled cautiously out into the roadway. □ The train's engineer got the high sign and began to move the train out of the station.

get the inside track to get the advantage (over someone) because of special connections, special knowledge, or favoritism. (The inside track is the shortest track in an oval race track that is divided into tracks. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ If I could get the inside track, I could win the contract. □ The boss likes me. Since I have the inside track, I'll probably be the new office manager.

get the jump on someone to do something before someone; to get ahead of someone. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I got the jump on Tom and got a place in line ahead of him. □ We'll have to work hard to get the contract, because they have the jump on us.

get the last laugh to laugh at or ridicule someone who has laughed at or ridiculed you; to put someone in the same bad position that you were once in; to turn the tables (on someone). (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also He who laughs last, laughs longest.) □ John laughed when I got a D on the final exam. I got the last laugh, though. He failed the course. □ Mr. Smith said I was foolish when I bought an old building. I had the last laugh when I sold it a month later for twice what I paid for it.

get the last word AND get the final word to get to make the final point (in an argument); to get to make the final decision (in some matter). (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ The boss gets the last word in hiring. □ Why do you always have to have the final word in an argument?

get the lead out AND shake the lead out to hurry; to move faster. (Slang. This means to get the lead weights out of your pants so you can move faster.) □ Come on, you guys. Get the lead out! □ If you're going to sell cars, you're going to have to shake the lead out.

get the low-down (on someone or something) to receive the full story about someone or something. (Slang. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone the low-down (on someone or something).) □ I need to get the low-down on John. Is he still an accountant? □ Sally wants to get the low-down on the new expressway. Please tell her all about it. □ Now I have the low-down on the princess!

get the message Go to get the word.

get the nod to get chosen. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ The manager is going to pick the new sales manager. I think Ann will get the nod. □ I had the nod for captain of the team, but I decided not to do it.

get the (old) heave-ho to get thrown out (of a place); to get dismissed (from one's employment). (Informal. From nautical use, where sailors used heave-ho to coordinate hard physical labor. One sailor called "Heave-ho," and all the sailors would pull at the same time on the ho. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone or something the (old) heave-ho.) □ I went there to buy a record album, but I got the old heave-ho. That's right. They threw me out! □ They fired a number of people today, but I didn't get the heave-ho. □ John had the old heave-ho last week. Now he's unemployed.

get the once-over to receive a quick visual examination. (Note the variations in the examples. See also give someone the once-over.) □ Every time John walks by I get the once-over. Does he like me? □ I went to the doctor yesterday, but I only had a once-over. □ I wanted a complete examination, not just a once-over.

get the picture to understand the whole situation. (Informal or slang.) □ Okay, Bob. That's the whole explanation. You get the picture? □ Yes, I got the picture.

get the red-carpet treatment to receive very special treatment; to receive royal treatment. (This refers—sometimes literally—to the rolling out of a clean red carpet for someone to walk on. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off. See also give someone the red-carpet treatment; roll out the red carpet for someone.) □ I love to go to fancy stores where I get the red-carpet treatment. □ The queen expects to get the red-carpet treatment wherever she goes.

get the runaround to receive a series of excuses, delays, and referrals. □ You'll get the runaround if you ask to see the manager. □ I hate it when I get the runaround.

get the sack AND get the ax to get fired; to be dismissed (from one's employment). (Slang. See also give someone the ax.) □ I got the sack yesterday. Now I have to find a new job. □ I tried to work harder, but I got the ax anyway.

get the shock of one's life to receive a serious (emotional) shock. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ I opened the telegram and got the shock of my life. ☐ I had the shock of my life when I won $5,000.

get the short end of the stick AND end up with the short end of the stick to end up with less (than someone else); to end up cheated or deceived. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ Why do I always get the short end of the stick? I want my fair share! ☐ She's unhappy because she has the short end of the stick again. ☐ I hate to end up with the short end of the stick.

get the show on the road to get (something) started. (Slang.) ☐ Hurry up, you guys. Let's get the show on the road. ☐ If you don't get the show on the road right now, we'll never finish today.

get the slip [for someone] to elude or escape (someone). (Slang.) ☐ We followed her for two blocks, and then got the slip. ☐ The police got the slip, and the criminal got away.

get the third degree to be questioned in great detail for a long period. (Slang. See also give someone the third degree.) ☐ Why is it I get the third degree from you every time I come home late? ☐ Poor Sally spent all night at the police station getting the third degree.

get the upper hand (on someone) to get into a position superior to someone; to get the advantage of someone. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ John is always trying to get the upper hand on someone. ☐ He never ends up having the upper hand, though.

get the willies Go to get the creeps.

get the word AND get the message to receive an explanation; to receive the final and authoritative explanation. ☐ I'm sorry, I didn't get the word. I didn't know the matter had been settled. ☐ Now that I have gotten the message, I can be more effective in answering questions.

get the works to receive a lot of something. (Slang. The works can be a lot of food, good treatment, bad treatment, etc. See also give someone the works.) ☐ BILL: Shall we order a snack or a big meal? JANE: I'm hungry. Let's get the works. ☐

But, your honor. I shouldn't get the works. I only drove too fast!

get the worst of something to experience the worst aspects of something. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ No matter what happens at the office, I seem to get the worst of it. ☐ He always gets the worst of the bargain. ☐ I got to choose which one I wanted, but I still got the worst of the two.

get through something 1. to finish something; to work one's way through something. (Compare this with get through with something.) ☐ If I read fast, I can get through this book in an hour. ☐ I don't think I can get through all this work by quitting time. 2. to survive something; to go through something. ☐ This is a busy day. I don't know how I'll get through it. ☐ Sally hopes to get through college in three years.

get through (to someone) 1. to reach someone; to manage to communicate to someone. ☐ I called her on the telephone time after time, but I couldn't get through to her. ☐ I tried every kind of communication, but I couldn't get through. 2. to pass through (something). ☐ The crowd was so thick that I couldn't get through to him. ☐ I tried, but I couldn't get through. The crowd was too heavy. 3. to make someone understand something; to get something through someone's thick skull. ☐ Why don't you try to understand me? What do I have to do to get through to you? ☐ Can anybody get through, or are you just stubborn? ☐ Ann is still too sick to understand what I'm saying. Maybe I can get through to her tomorrow.

get through with something to get finished with something. (Compare this with get through something.) ☐ You can use this pencil when I get through with it. ☐ Can I have the salt when you get through with it?

get time off to receive a period of time that is free from employment. (Compare this with get the day off. See also take time off. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) ☐ I'll have to get time off for jury duty. ☐ I got time off to go downtown and shop. □ I don't have time off from work very often.

get time off for good behavior to have one's prison sentence shortened because of good behavior. (Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Bob will get out of jail tomorrow rather than next week. He got time off for good behavior. □ I know I will have time off for good behavior.

get time to catch one's breath to find enough time to relax or behave normally. (Also literal. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ When things slow down around here, I'll get time to catch my breath. □ Sally was so busy she didn't even have time to catch her breath.

get to first base (with someone or something) AND reach first base (with someone or something) to make a major advance with someone or something. (Informal. First base refers to baseball.) □ I wish I could get to first base with this business deal. □ John adores Sally, but he can't even reach first base with her. She won't even speak to him. □ He smiles and acts friendly, but he can't get to first base.

get to one's feet to stand up. □ On a signal from the director, the singers got to their feet. □ I was so weak, I could hardly get to my feet.

get to someone to affect someone emotionally in a bad way; to bother someone. □ Working with abandoned children eventually got to David, and he had to transfer to another department. □ Nothing gets to me like seeing people litter.

get to the bottom of something to get an understanding of the causes of something. (Also literal.) □ We must get to the bottom of this problem immediately. □ There is clearly something wrong here, and I want to get to the bottom of it.

get to the heart of the matter AND get at the heart of the matter to get to the essentials of a matter. □ We have to stop wasting time and get to the heart of the matter. □ You've been very helpful. You really seem to be able to get to the heart of the matter.

get to the point Go to come to the point.

get to the root of the problem to gain an understanding of the causes or basis of a problem and propose a solution; to get to the bottom of something. □ It will take a little more study to get to the root of the problem. □ Let's stop avoiding the issue and get to the root of the problem.

get tough (with someone) to become firm with someone; to use physical force against someone. (Compare this with get physical (with someone).) □ The teacher had to get tough with the class because the students were acting badly. □ I've tried to get you to behave, but it looks like I'll have to get tough.

get two strikes against one to get a number of things against one; to be in a position where success is unlikely. (From baseball where one is "out" after three strikes. Also with have. See the note at get a big send-off.) □ Poor Bob got two strikes against him when he tried to explain where he was last night. □ I can't win. I've got two strikes against me before I start.

get under someone's skin to bother or irritate someone. (Informal.) □ John is so annoying. He really gets under my skin. □ I know he's bothersome, but don't let him get under your skin.

get under way to start going; to start. (The word get can be replaced with be. Compare this with get something under way.) □ The ship is leaving soon. It's about to get under way. □ Let us get our journey under way. □ I'm glad our project is under way.

get-up-and-go energy; motivation. □ I must be getting old. I just don't have my old get-up-and-go. □ A good breakfast will give you lots of get-up-and-go.

get up enough nerve (to do something) to get brave enough to do something. □ I could never get up enough nerve to sing in public. □ I'd do it if I could get up enough nerve, but I'm shy.

get up on the wrong side of the bed AND get out of the wrong side of the bed to get up in the morning in a bad mood. □ What's wrong with you? Did you get up on the wrong side of the bed today? □ Excuse me for being grouchy. I got out of the wrong side of the bed.

get used to someone or something to become accustomed to someone or something. □ I got used to being short many years ago. □ John is nice, but I really can't get used to him. He talks too much.

get well to become healthy again. □ Ann had a cold for a week, and then she got well. □ Hurry up and get well!

get wet to become soaked with water. (See also all wet.) □ Get out of the rain or you'll get wet. □ Don't get wet, or you'll catch a cold.

get what's coming to one to get what one deserves. (See also give one what's coming to one.) □ If you cheat, you'll get in trouble. You'll get what's coming to you. □ Billy got what was coming to him.

get wind of something to hear about something; to receive information about something. (Informal.) □ I just got wind of your marriage. Congratulations. □ Wait until the boss gets wind of this. Somebody is going to get in trouble.

get wise (to someone or something) to find out about someone or something; to see through the deception of someone or something. (Informal or slang.) □ Watch out, John. Your friends are getting wise to your tricks. □ John's friends are getting wise. He had better watch out.

get with something 1. to become alert. (Slang. Usually with it.) □ Hey, stupid. Get with it! □ Wake up, Bill. Get with what's going on! 2. to get up to date on something. (Slang. Usually with it.) □ You're too old-fashioned, Mary. Get with it! □ Tom just couldn't get with the newest dance fad.

get worked up (about something) Go to get worked up (over something).

get worked up (over something) AND get worked up (about something) to get excited or emotionally distressed about something. (See also all worked up (over something).) □ Please don't get worked up over this matter. □ They get worked up about these things very easily. □ I try not to get worked up.

a ghost of a chance even the slightest chance; even the most insubstantial chance. □ She can't do it. She doesn't have a ghost of a chance. □ There is just a ghost of a chance that I'll be there on time.

gild the lily to add ornament or decoration to something that is pleasing in its original state; to attempt to improve something that is already fine the way it is. (Often refers to flattery or exaggeration.) □ Your house has lovely brickwork. Don't paint it. That would be gilding the lily. □ Oh, Sally. You're beautiful the way you are. You don't need makeup. You would be gilding the lily.

gird (up) one's loins to get ready; to prepare oneself (for something). □ Well, I guess I had better gird up my loins and go to work. □ Somebody has to do something about the problem. Why don't you gird your loins and do something?

give a blank check to someone Go to give someone a blank check.

give a good account of oneself to do (something) well or thoroughly. □ John gave a good account of himself when he gave his speech last night. □ Mary was not hungry, and she didn't give a good account of herself at dinner.

give-and-take flexibility; willingness to compromise. □ Don't expect any give-and-take when you are negotiating with Roger. □ There was no question of give-and-take in the contract talks. They would not budge on their demands one little bit.

give (an) ear to someone or something AND give one's ear to someone or something to listen to someone or to what someone is saying. (Compare this with get someone's ear.) □ I gave an ear to Mary so she could tell me her problems. □ She wouldn't give her ear to my story. □ He gave ear to the man's request.

give as good as one gets to give as much as one receives; to pay someone back in kind. (Usually in the present tense.) □ John can take care of himself in a fight. He can give as good as he gets. □ Sally usu- ally wins a formal debate. She gives as good as she gets.

give birth to someone or some creature to bring a baby or other offspring into the world through birth. ☐ Mary gave birth to a lovely baby girl. ☐ The raccoon gave birth to 6 little raccoons.

give birth to something to give rise to or start something. ☐ The composer gave birth to a new kind of music. ☐ They gave birth to a new view of language.

give carte blanche to someone Go to give someone carte blanche.

give chase (to someone or something) to chase someone or something. ☐ The dogs gave chase to the fox. ☐ A mouse ran by, but the cat was too tired to give chase. ☐ The police gave chase to the robber.

give credence to something to believe something; to consider something believable. ☐ He tells lies. Don't give credence to what he says. ☐ Please don't give credence to Mary. She doesn't know what she's talking about.

give credit where credit is due to give credit to someone who deserves it; to acknowledge or thank someone who deserves it. ☐ We must give credit where credit is due. Thank you very much, Sally. ☐ Let's give credit where credit is due. Mary is the one who wrote the report, not Jane.

give free rein to someone AND give someone free rein to allow someone to be completely in charge (of something). (See also get a free hand (with someone or something).) ☐ The boss gave the manager free rein with the new project. ☐ The principal gave free rein to Mrs. Brown in her classes.

give ground to retreat (literally or figuratively). ☐ When I argue with Mary, she never gives ground. ☐ I approached the barking dog, but it wouldn't give ground.

give her the gun Go to give it the gun.

give in (to someone or something) to yield to someone or something; to give up to someone or something. ☐ He argued and argued and finally gave in to my demands. ☐ I thought he'd never give in.

Give it a rest. Stop talking and give your mouth a rest. (Informal.) ☐ Shut up, Bob! Give it a rest! ☐ Give it a rest. You talk too much.

give it the gun AND give her the gun to make a motor or engine run faster; to rev up an engine. (Informal or slang. The her is often pronounced "er.") ☐ BILL: How fast will this thing go? BOB: I'll give it the gun and see. ☐ Hurry up, driver. Give 'er the gun. I've got to get there immediately.

Give it time. Be patient.; In time, things will change for the better or for the worse. ☐ Things will get better. Don't worry. Give it time. ☐ Of course, things will improve. Give it time.

give it to someone (straight) to tell something to someone clearly and directly. (Informal.) ☐ Come on, give it to me straight. I want to know exactly what happened. ☐ Quit wasting time, and tell me. Give it to me straight.

Give it up. Give up.; Stop trying. ☐ It's no use trying any more. Give it up. ☐ You will never get this car to start. Give it up.

give of oneself to be generous with one's time and concern. ☐ Tom is very good with children because he gives of himself. ☐ If you want to have more friends, you have to learn to give of yourself.

Give one an inch, and one will take a mile. A person who is granted a little of something (such as a reprieve or lenience) will want more. (Proverb.) ☐ I told John he could turn in his paper one day late, but he turned it in three days late. Give him an inch, and he'll take a mile. ☐ First we let John borrow our car for a day. Now he wants to go on a two-week vacation. If you give him an inch, he'll take a mile.

give one a run for one's money 1. to give one what one deserves, expects, or wants. (See also get a run for one's money.) ☐ High school football gives me a run for my money. ☐ I invest in the stock market, and that really gives me a run for my money.

2. give one a challenge. □ That was some argument. Bill gave John a run for his money. □ Tom likes to play cards with Mary because she always gives him a run for his money.

give one butterflies in one's stomach to cause someone to have a nervous stomach. (See also get butterflies in one's stomach.) □ Tests give me butterflies in my stomach. □ It was not frightening enough to give me butterflies in my stomach, but it made me a little apprehensive.

give one one's freedom to set someone free; to divorce someone. □ Mrs. Brown wanted to give her husband his freedom. □ Well, Tom, I hate to break it to you this way, but I have decided to give you your freedom.

give one one's walking papers to fire someone; to give someone the sack. (Informal. See also get one's walking papers.) □ Tom has proved unsatisfactory. I decided to give him his walking papers. □ We might even give Sally her walking papers, too.

give one's ear to someone or something Go to give (an) ear to someone or something.

give one what's coming to one to give one what one deserves, either a punishment or a reward. (See also get what's coming to one.) □ I'm here to be paid. Give me what's coming to me. □ Thank you. I will see that you get what's coming to you.

give out to wear out; to become exhausted and stop. □ The old lady's heart finally gave out. □ Our television set gave out right in the middle of my favorite program. □ Bill gave out in the middle of the race.

give out with something to utter or say something. (Informal. Also with have. See the examples below.) □ Suddenly, the dog gave out with a horrible growl. □ At that point, John gave out with a comment about how boring it all was. □ Come on, tell me. Have out with it!

give rise to something to cause something. □ The bad performance gave rise to many complaints. □ The new law gave rise to violence in the cities.

give someone a bang AND give someone a charge; give someone a kick to give someone a bit of excitement. (Informal.) □ John always gives me a bang. □ The whole afternoon, with all its silliness, gave me a charge anyway.

give someone a big send-off to see someone off on a journey with celebration and encouragement. (See also get a big send-off.) □ When I left for college, all my brothers and sisters came to the airport to give me a big send-off. □ When the sailors left, everyone went down to the docks and gave them a big send-off.

give someone a black eye 1. to hit someone near the eye so that a dark bruise appears. □ John became angry and gave me a black eye. □ The door began to swing closed as I approached and it gave me a black eye. 2. to harm the character or reputation of someone. (See also get a black eye) □ The constant complaining gave the whole group a black eye. □ His behavior gave him a black eye with the manager.

give someone a blank check AND give a blank check to someone to give someone freedom or permission to act as one wishes or thinks necessary. (Refers to a signed bank check with the amount left blank.) □ He's been given a blank check with regard to reorganizing the work force. □ The manager has been given no instructions about how to train the staff. The owner just gave him a blank check. □ Jean gave the decorator a blank check and said she wanted the whole house done.

give someone a break to give someone a chance; to give someone another chance or a second chance. □ I'm sorry. Don't send me home. Give me a break! □ They gave me a nice break. They didn't send me home.

give someone a bright idea to give someone a clever thought or idea. □ That gives me a bright idea! □ Thank you for giving me a bright idea.

give someone a bum steer to give someone misleading instructions or guidance; to make a misleading suggestion. (Slang. Bum = false; phony. Steer = guidance, as in the steering of a car.) ☐ Max gave Ted a bum steer and Ted ended up in the wrong town. ☐ Someone gave me a bum steer and I paid far more than I needed to for a used car.

give someone a buzz Go to give someone a ring.

give someone a charge Go to give someone a bang.

give someone a clean bill of health [for a doctor] to pronounce someone well and healthy. ☐ The doctor gave Sally a clean bill of health. ☐ I had hoped to be given a clean bill of health, but there was something wrong with my blood test results.

give someone a dirty look [for a person] to frown or make an angry face at someone. ☐ Ann gave me a dirty look. ☐ I gave her a dirty look back.

give someone a fair shake to give someone fair treatment. ☐ He's unpleasant, but we have to give him a fair shake. ☐ We give all our people a fair shake.

give someone a fix on something to tell someone the location of something. (See also get a fix on something.) ☐ Please give me a fix on your location. ☐ If you give the tower a fix on where you are, they can advise you on runway selection.

give someone a free hand (with something) to give someone complete control over something. (See also get a free hand (with someone or something).) ☐ They gave me a free hand with the project. ☐ I feel proud that they gave me a free hand. That means that they trust my judgment.

give someone a (good) dressing-down a scolding. ☐ After that dressing-down I won't be late again. ☐ The boss gave Fred a real dressing-down for breaking the machine.

give someone a hand (for something) to applaud someone for something. ☐ After she sang, they gave her a nice hand. ☐ Come on, give them a hand. They did very well.

give someone a hand (with someone or something) to help someone with someone or something, often with the hands. ☐ Will somebody please give me a hand with this?

☐ Can you give me a hand with the baby?

give someone a hard time to give someone unnecessary difficulty. ☐ Please don't give me a hard time. ☐ The clerk gave me a hard time, so I walked out.

give someone a head start (on someone or something) 1. [with someone] to allow someone to start (something) earlier than someone else. ☐ They gave Bill a head start on everyone else, so he arrived early. ☐ Please give me a head start on Charles. He is too fast! 2. [with something] to allow someone to start something earlier (than someone else). ☐ We'll give you a head start on the project. ☐ I need a head start on the test because I lost my glasses.

give someone a kick Go to give someone a bang.

give someone a licking to beat someone. ☐ Bill give Tom a licking in a fight. ☐ I'll give you a good licking if you don't leave me alone.

give someone a line AND feed someone a line to lead someone on; to deceive someone with false talk. ☐ Don't pay any attention to John. He gives everybody a line. ☐ He's always feeding us a line.

give someone an earful 1. to scold someone. ☐ I was so mad at her! I really gave her an earful. ☐ When I find that little jerk I'm going to give him an earful. 2. to tell someone a lot of gossip; to give someone a lot of information. ☐ I just talked to Margaret. Boy did she give me an earful. ☐ She always gives me an earful. Otherwise I'd never know what's going on.

give someone a pain to annoy or bother someone. (Slang.) ☐ Here comes Sally. Oh, she gives me a pain. ☐ She's such a pest. She really gives me a pain.

give someone a pat on the back Go to pat someone on the back.

give someone a piece of one's mind to bawl someone out; to tell someone off; to rebuke someone. ☐ I've had enough from John. I'm going to give him a piece of my mind.

□ Sally, stop it, or I'll give you a piece of my mind.

give someone a rain check (on something)

1. to give someone a piece of paper allowing admission to an event—which has been canceled—at a later time. □ The game was canceled because of the rain, but they gave everyone rain checks. □ They were not able to show the film, so everyone was given a rain check. 2. to tell someone that an invitation to a social event will be reissued at a later date. □ We couldn't go to the Smiths' party, so they gave us a rain check. □ We are sorry we cannot attend, but we would love for you to give us a rain check on another date. 3. to issue a piece of paper that allows one to purchase an item on sale at a later date. □ If you have no more of the sale shampoo, will you give me a rain check on it, please? □ Can I have a rain check on this item? You don't have enough of it in stock.

give someone a raw deal to treat someone unfairly or badly. (See also get a raw deal.) □ The judge gave Mary a raw deal. □ The students think that the teacher gave them a raw deal.

give someone a reputation (as a something) to cause someone to be known for being something. □ That evening gave him a reputation as a flirt. □ Yes, it gave him a reputation.

give someone a reputation (for doing something) to cause someone to be known for doing something. □ Her excellent parties gave Jane a reputation for entertaining well. □ You had better be careful or your behavior will give you a reputation.

give someone a ring AND give someone a buzz to call someone on the telephone. (Informal.) □ Nice talking to you. Give me a ring sometime. □ Give me a buzz when you're in town.

give someone a rough idea (about something) AND give someone a rough idea (of something) to give someone a general idea or an estimate about something. □ I don't need to know exactly. Just give me a rough idea about how big it should be. □ Let me give you a rough idea about my plan.

give someone a rough idea (of something) Go to give someone a rough idea (about something).

give someone a shellacking 1. to beat someone. (See also get a shellacking.) □ My dad gave me a shellacking when I broke his fishing rod. □ If you do that again, I will give you a shellacking. 2. to beat someone (in a contest). □ The other team gave us a shellacking. □ The Bears gave the Packers a shellacking.

give someone a slap on the wrist AND slap someone on the wrist; slap someone's wrist to give someone a light punishment (for doing something wrong). (See also get a slap on the wrist.) □ The judge gave her a slap on the wrist for speeding. □ The judge should have done more than slap her wrist. □ They should do more than just slap his wrist.

give someone a start 1. to help start someone's car. □ John gave me a start when my car was stalled. □ Won't someone please give me a start? 2. to give someone training or a big opportunity in beginning one's career. □ No one gave me a start in the theater, and I eventually gave up trying. □ My career began when my father gave me a start in his act. 3. to startle someone; to make someone jerk or jump from a sudden fright. (Often with quite.) □ The thunderclap gave me quite a start. □ I didn't mean to give you a start. I should have knocked before I entered.

give someone a swelled head to make someone conceited. □ Fame gave John a swelled head. □ Don't let this success give you a swelled head.

give someone a tongue-lashing to give someone a severe scolding. (Folksy. See also get a tongue-lashing.) □ I gave Bill a real tongue-lashing when he got home late. □ I will give you a real tongue-lashing if you ever do that again.

give someone carte blanche AND give carte blanche to someone to give someone freedom or permission to act as one wishes or thinks necessary. (Almost the same as give someone a blank check.) □ He's been given carte blanche with the re- organization of the work force. □ The manager has been given no instructions about how to train the staff. The owner just gave him carte blanche. □ Jean gave carte blanche to the decorator and said she wanted the whole house done.

give someone credit (for something) to praise or recognize someone for doing something. □ The coach gave Mary a lot of credit. □ The director gave John much credit for his fine performance.

give someone free rein Go to give free rein to someone.

give someone goose bumps AND give someone goose pimples to cause someone to have prickly or bumpy skin owing to excitement or fear. □ It was a scary movie and it gave me goose bumps. □ I hate being in that old house. It gives me goose pimples.

give someone goose pimples Go to give someone goose bumps.

give someone gray hair(s) to cause someone's hair to turn gray from stress or frustration. (Usually an expression of fear that one's hair will turn gray.) □ My three teenage boys are giving me gray hair. □ Your behavior is giving me gray hairs.

give someone hell Go to give someone the devil.

give someone or something a wide berth to keep a reasonable distance from someone or something; to steer clear (of someone or something). (Originally referred to sailing ships.) □ The dog we are approaching is very mean. Better give it a wide berth. □ Give Mary a wide berth. She's in a very bad mood.

give someone or something the (old) heave-ho to throw someone or something out; to get rid of someone or something; to fire someone. (Informal. See also get the (old) heave-ho.) □ We gave Jane the old heave-ho today. □ John was behaving badly at our party, so my father gave him the heave-ho. □ This chair is completely worn out. Shall I give it the old heave-ho?

give someone pause to cause someone to stop and think. □ When I see a golden sunrise, it gives me pause. □ Witnessing an accident is likely to give all of us pause.

give someone some skin [for two people] to touch two hands together in a special greeting, like a handshake. (Slang. One hand may be slapped down on top of the other, or they may be slapped together palm to palm with the arms held vertically. Usually said as a command.) □ Hey, Bob, give me some skin! □ Come over here, you guys. I want you to meet my brother and give him some skin!

give someone the air to ignore someone; to dismiss someone. (See also get the air.) □ Tom always gives me the air. Is there something wrong with me? □ Why is she giving him the air? What did he do?

give someone the ax AND give someone the sack to fire someone; to terminate someone's employment. (See also get the sack.) □ I gave Tom the sack, and he has to find a new job. □ I had to give three people the ax yesterday. We are having to reduce our office staff.

give someone the benefit of the doubt to make a judgment in someone's favor when the evidence is neither for nor against the person. (See also get the benefit of the doubt.) □ I'm glad the teacher gave me the benefit of the doubt. □ Please, judge. Give me the benefit of the doubt.

give someone the boot to dismiss someone; to kick someone out (of a place). (Slang. See also get the boot.) □ You had better behave, or they'll give you the boot. □ I will give him the boot if he doesn't straighten up.

give someone the brush-off to send someone away; to reject someone. (Slang.) □ Tom wouldn't talk to her. He just gave her the brush-off. □ Please don't give me the brush-off!

give someone the bum's rush to hurry someone into leaving; to usher someone out of a place quickly. (As someone might quickly escort a vagrant from a fancy restaurant.) □ The young customer in the jewelry store was being given the bum's rush, so he pulled out an enormous roll of bills and the clerk became much more helpful. □ The doorman gave Bill the bum's rush at the restaurant because Bill did not have a tie on.

give someone the business to harass someone; to give someone a bad time. (Informal.) □ The people in that office can't answer your question. They just give you the business. □ I'll get rid of her. I'll give her the business.

give someone the cold shoulder to ignore someone; to reject someone. (Informal. See also get the cold shoulder.) □ She gave me the cold shoulder when I asked her to the party. □ Sally has been giving me the cold shoulder.

give someone the creeps AND give someone the willies to make someone uneasy; to frighten someone. (Informal. See also get the creeps.) □ That old house gives me the creeps. □ That strange old man gives him the willies.

give someone the devil AND give someone hell to scold someone severely. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ I'm going to give Bill hell when he gets home. He's late again. □ Bill, why do I always have to give you the devil?

give someone the eye to look at someone in a way that communicates romantic interest. (Informal. See also catch someone's eye.) □ Ann gave John the eye. It really surprised him. □ Tom kept giving Sally the eye. She finally left.

give someone the gate to send someone away; to reject someone. (Slang. See also get the gate.) □ Not only was he not friendly, he gave me the gate. □ He was rude, so we gave him the gate.

give someone the glad hand to give someone an overly friendly welcome; to give someone insincere attention. (Informal.) □ Here comes Tom. Watch him give us the glad hand and leave. □ These politicians give you the glad hand and ignore you after they are elected.

give someone the go-ahead AND give someone the green light to give someone the signal to start or continue. (See also get the go-ahead.) □ It's time to start work.

Give everybody the go-ahead. □ They gave us the green light to start.

give someone the go-by to pass by or ignore someone. (Slang.) □ I could see that Tom wanted a ride, but I gave him the go-by. □ There was no reason to give the me go-by!

give someone the green light Go to give someone the go-ahead.

give someone the hard sell to put pressure on someone to buy or accept (something). (Informal.) □ They gave me the hard sell, but I still wouldn't buy the car. □ The clerk gave the customer the hard sell.

give someone the high sign to give someone a prearranged signal. □ As the robber walked past me, I gave the police officer a high sign. Then the officer arrested the robber. □ Things got started when I gave the conductor the high sign.

give someone the low-down (on someone or something) to tell someone the full story about someone or something. (Slang. See also get the low-down (on someone or something).) □ Please give Sally the low-down on the new expressway. □ I do not know what's going on. Please give me the low-down.

give someone the once-over to visually examine someone quickly. (See also get the once-over.) □ John gives me the once-over every time he walks by me. □ Why does he just give me the once-over? Why doesn't he say hello?

give someone the red-carpet treatment to give someone very special treatment; to give someone royal treatment. (See also get the red-carpet treatment.) □ We always give the queen the red-carpet treatment when she comes to visit. □ They never give me the red-carpet treatment.

give someone the runaround to give someone a series of excuses, delays, and referrals. □ If you ask to see the manager, they'll give you the runaround. □ Stop giving me the runaround!

give someone the sack Go to give someone the ax.

give someone the shirt off one's back to be very generous or solicitous to someone.

□ Tom really likes Bill. He'd give Bill the shirt off his back. □ John is so friendly that he'd give anyone the shirt off his back.

give someone the slip to escape from or elude someone. (Slang.) □ We followed her for two blocks, and then she gave us the slip. □ Max gave Lefty the slip.

give someone the third degree to question someone in great detail for a long period. (Slang. See also get the third degree.) □ The police gave Sally the third degree. □ Stop giving me the third degree. I told you what I know.

give someone the willies Go to give someone the creeps.

give someone the works to give someone the full amount or the full treatment. (Slang. See also get the works.) □ The judge gave her the works for driving too fast. □ I want everything on my hamburger. Give me the works.

give someone tit for tat to give someone something equal to what was given you; to exchange a series of things, one by one, with someone. (Informal.) □ They gave me the same kind of difficulty that I gave them. They gave me tit for tat. □ He punched me, so I punched him. Every time he hit me, I hit him. I just gave him tit for tat.

give someone to understand something to explain something to someone; to imply something to someone. (This may mislead someone, accidentally or intentionally.) □ Mr. Smith gave Sally to understand that she should be home by midnight. □ The mayor gave the citizens to understand that there would be no tax increase. He didn't promise, though.

give someone what for to scold someone. (Folksy.) □ Billy's mother gave him what for because he didn't get home on time. □ I will really give you what for if you don't straighten up.

give something a lick and a promise to do something poorly—quickly and carelessly. (Informal.) □ John! You didn't clean your room! You just gave it a lick and a promise. □ This time, Tom, comb your hair. It looks as if you just gave it a lick and a promise.

give something a shot AND take a shot at something to try something. □ I have never dived before, but I will give it a shot. □ Tom decided to take a shot at writing a poem.

give something a whirl make a try at doing something. □ If at first you don't succeed, give it another whirl. □ John gave bowling a whirl last night.

give something one's best shot to give a task one's best effort. □ I gave the project my best shot. □ Sure, try it. Give it your best shot!

give the bride away [for a bride's father] to accompany the bride to the groom in a wedding ceremony. □ Mr. Brown is ill. Who'll give the bride away? □ In the traditional wedding ceremony, the bride's father gives the bride away.

give the devil her due Go to give the devil his due.

give the devil his due AND give the devil her due to give your foe proper credit (for something). (This usually refers to a person who has been evil—like the devil.) □ She's generally impossible, but I have to give the devil her due. She bakes a terrific cherry pie. □ John may cheat on his taxes and yell at his wife, but he keeps his car polished. I'll give the devil his due.

give the game away to reveal a plan or strategy. (Informal.) □ Now, all of you have to keep quiet. Please don't give the game away. □ If you keep giving out hints, you'll give the game away.

give up the ghost to die; to release one's spirit. (Considered formal or humorous.) □ The old man sighed, rolled over, and gave up the ghost. □ I'm too young to give up the ghost.

give vent to something to express anger; to release one's anger, irritation, emotion, etc. (The something is usually anger, ire, irritation, etc.) □ John gave vent to his anger by yelling at Sally. □ Bill couldn't give vent to his frustration because he had been warned to keep quiet.

give voice to something to express a feeling or an opinion in words; to speak out about something. □ The bird gave voice to its joy in the golden sunshine. □ All the people gave voice to their anger at Congress.

a given a fact that is taken for granted; a fact that is assumed. □ That Mary will go to college is a given. The question is what she is going to study. □ It is a given that the earth revolves around the sun.

given to doing something likely to do something; inclined to do something habitually. □ Mary is given to singing in the shower. □ Bob is given to shouting when things don't go his way.

given to understand made to believe. □ They were given to understand that there would be no tax increase, but after the election taxes went up. □ She was given to understand that she had to be home by midnight.

gloss something over to cover up or conceal an error; to make something appear right by minimizing or concealing the flaws. □ When I asked him not to gloss the flaws over, he got angry. □ When Mr. Brown was selling me the car, he tried to gloss over its defects.

glutton for punishment someone who seems to like doing or seeking out difficult, unpleasant, or badly paid tasks. □ If you want to work for this charity, you'll have to be a glutton for punishment and work long hours for nothing. □ Jane must be a real glutton for punishment. She's typing Bill's manuscript free of charge, and he doesn't even thank her.

gnash one's teeth to slash about with the teeth. □ Bill clenched his fists and gnashed his teeth in anger. □ The wolf gnashed its teeth and chased after the deer.

go about one's business to mind one's business; to move elsewhere and mind one's own business. □ Leave me alone! Just go about your business! □ I have no more to say. I would be pleased if you would go about your business.

go against the grain to go against the natural direction or inclination. (Refers to the grain of wood. See also rub someone's fur the wrong way.) □ You can't expect me to help you cheat. That goes against the grain. □ Would it go against the grain for you to call in sick for me?

go all out to use all one's resources; to be very thorough. (Informal. Compare this with make an all-out effort.) □ Whenever they have a party, they really go all out. □ My cousin is coming for a visit, and she expects us to go all out.

go all the way (with someone) AND go to bed (with someone) to have sexual intercourse with someone. (Euphemistic. Use with caution.) □ If you go all the way, you stand a chance of getting pregnant. □ I've heard that they go to bed all the time.

go along for the ride to accompany (someone) for the pleasure of riding along. □ Join us. You can go along for the ride. □ I don't really need to go to the grocery store, but I'll go along for the ride.

go a long way in doing something Go to go a long way toward doing something.

go a long way toward doing something AND go a long way in doing something almost to satisfy specific conditions; to be almost right. □ This machine goes a long way toward meeting our needs. □ Your plan went a long way in helping us with our problem.

go along (with someone or something) 1. [with something] to agree to something. (Also literal, meaning "to accompany someone.") □ All right. I'll go along with your plan. □ I'm sure that John won't want to go along with it. 2. [with someone] to agree with someone. □ I go along with Sally. I'm sure she's right. □ I can't go along with John. He doesn't know what he's talking about.

go ape (over someone or something) to become very excited and enthusiastic about someone or something. (Slang.) □ I really go ape over chocolate ice cream. □ Tom really goes ape over Mary.

go (a)round in circles 1. to keep going over the same ideas or repeating the same actions, often resulting in confusion, without reaching a satisfactory decision or conclusion. ☐ We're just going round in circles discussing the problems of the party. We need to consult someone else to get a new point of view. ☐ Fred's trying to find out what's happened but he's going round in circles. No one will tell him anything useful. 2. to be or act confused. (Informal.) ☐ I'm so busy I'm going around in circles. ☐ I can't work anymore. I'm so tired that I'm going round in circles.

go (a)round the bend 1. to go around a turn or a curve; to make a turn or a curve. ☐ You'll see the house you're looking for as you go round the bend. ☐ John waved to his father until the car went round the bend. 2. to go crazy; to lose one's mind. (Informal.) ☐ If I don't get some rest, I'll go round the bend. ☐ Poor Bob. He has been having trouble for a long time. He finally went around the bend.

go around with someone Go to hang around (with someone).

go astray to leave the proper path (literally or figuratively). ☐ Stay right on the road. Don't go astray and get lost. ☐ Follow the rules I've given you and don't go astray. That'll keep you out of trouble.

go at it hammer and tongs Go to fight someone or something hammer and tongs.

go at it tooth and nail Go to fight someone or something hammer and tongs.

go at someone or something to attack someone or something; to move or lunge toward someone or something. ☐ The dog went at the visitor and almost bit him. ☐ He went at the door and tried to break it down.

go away empty-handed to depart with nothing. (Compare this with come away empty-handed.) ☐ I hate for you to go away empty-handed, but I cannot afford to contribute any money. ☐ They came hoping for some food, but they had to go away empty-handed.

go AWOL to become absent without leave. (See also absent without leave.) ☐ Private Smith went AWOL last Wednesday. Now he's in a military prison. ☐ Tom went AWOL once too often.

go back on one's word to break a promise that one has made. ☐ I hate to go back on my word, but I won't pay you $100 after all. ☐ Going back on your word makes you a liar.

go bad to become rotten, undesirable, evil, etc. ☐ I'm afraid that this milk has gone bad. ☐ Life used to be wonderful. Now it has gone bad.

go bananas to go crazy or become silly. (Slang.) ☐ Whenever I see Sally, I just go bananas! She's fantastic. ☐ This was a horrible day! I almost went bananas.

go begging to be unwanted or unused. (As if an object were begging for an owner or a user.) ☐ There is still food left. A whole lobster is going begging. Please eat some more. ☐ There are many excellent books in the library just going begging because people don't know they are there.

go broke to completely run out of money and other assets. ☐ This company is going to go broke if you don't stop spending money foolishly. ☐ I made some bad investments last year, and it looks as if I may go broke this year.

go by the board to get ruined or lost. (This is a nautical expression meaning "to fall or be washed overboard.") ☐ I hate to see good food go by the board. Please eat up so we won't have to throw it out. ☐ Your plan has gone by the board. The entire project has been canceled.

go by the book to follow the rules exactly. (Refers to a book of rules.) ☐ The judge of the contest went by the book and disqualified us in the first round. ☐ Everyone insisted that the chairman go by the book and rule against the questionable motion.

go chase oneself to go away (and stop being a bother). (Slang.) ☐ He was bothering me, so I told him to go chase himself. ☐ Get out, you pest! Go chase yourself!

Go climb a tree! AND Go fly a kite!; Go fry an egg!; Go jump in the lake!; Take a hike!; Take a walk! Go away and stop bothering me! ☐ Go away and stop both- ering me. Go climb a tree! □ Go climb a tree! You are a pain in the neck.

go cold turkey to stop (doing something) without tapering off. (Slang. Originally drug slang. Now concerned with breaking any habit.) □ I had to stop smoking, so I went cold turkey. It's awful! □ When heroin addicts go cold turkey, they get terribly sick.

go crazy to become crazy, disorientated, or frustrated. □ It is so busy here that I think I will go crazy. □ Bob went crazy because his car got a flat tire.

go down fighting to continue the struggle until one is completely defeated. □ I won't give up easily. I'll go down fighting. □ Sally, who is very determined, went down fighting.

go downhill [for something] to decline and grow worse and worse. (Also literal.) □ This industry is going downhill. We lose money every year. □ As one gets older, one tends to go downhill.

go down in history to be remembered as historically important. □ Bill is so great. I'm sure that he'll go down in history. □ This is the greatest party of the century. I bet it'll go down in history.

go Dutch to share the cost of a meal or some other event. (See also Dutch treat.) □ JANE: Let's go out and eat. MARY: Okay, but let's go Dutch. □ It's getting expensive to have Sally for a friend. She never wants to go Dutch.

go easy (on someone or something) 1. to be kind or gentle with someone or something. (See also take it easy (on someone or something).) □ Go easy on Tom. He just got out of the hospital. □ Go easy on the cat. It doesn't like to be roughed up. □ Okay, I'll go easy. 2. [with something] to use something sparingly. □ Go easy on the mustard. That's all there is. □ When you make my sandwich, please go easy on the onions. I don't like them very well.

go fifty-fifty (on something) to divide the cost of something in half with someone. □ Todd and Jean decided to go fifty-fifty on dinner. □ The two brothers went fifty-fifty on a replacement for the broken lamp.

Go fly a kite! Go to Go climb a tree!

go for broke to risk everything; to try as hard as possible. (Slang.) □ Okay, this is my last chance. I'm going for broke. □ Look at Mary starting to move in the final hundred yards of the race! She is really going for broke.

go for it to make a try for something; to decide to do something. (Slang.) □ I have an offer of a new job. I think I'm going to go for it. □ Hey, great. Go for it!

go for someone or something 1. to desire someone or something. (Also literal meaning to go in someone's place. Usually with could, as in the examples.) □ Look at that cute guy. I could really go for him. □ I could go for a nice cool glass of iced tea.

2. to attack someone or something; to lunge at someone or something. □ The lion went for the antelope's throat. □ After the robber struck Bill, he went for John.

3. to reach for a weapon. □ The robber went for his gun and the cop shot him. □ The hunter went for his knife, but it was too late. The bear was upon him.

go from bad to worse to progress from a bad state to a worse state. □ This is a terrible day. Things are going from bad to worse. □ My cold is awful. It went from bad to worse in just an hour.

Go fry an egg! Go to Go climb a tree!

go great guns to go fast or energetically. (Folksy.) □ I'm over my cold and going great guns. □ Business is great. We are going great guns selling ice cream.

go haywire to go wrong; to malfunction; to break down. (Folksy.) □ I was talking to Mary when suddenly the telephone went haywire. I haven't heard from her since. □ There we were, driving along, when the engine went haywire. It was two hours before the tow truck came.

go hog-wild to behave wildly. (Folksy.) □ Have a good time at the party, but don't go hog-wild. □ The teacher cannot control a class that is going hog-wild.

go in a body to move in a group. □ The whole team went in a body to talk to the coach. □ Each of us was afraid to go alone, so we went in a body.

go in for something to take part in something; to enjoy (doing) something. □ John doesn't go in for sports. □ None of them seems to go in for swimming.

go in one ear and out the other [for something] to be heard and then forgotten. (See also in one ear and out (of) the other.) □ Everything I say to you seems to go in one ear and out the other. Why don't you pay attention? □ I can't concentrate. Things people say to me just go in one ear and out the other.

go into action AND swing into action to start doing something. □ I usually get to work at 7:45, and I go into action at 8:00. □ When the ball is hit in my direction, you should see me swing into action.

go into a nosedive AND take a nosedive

1. [for an airplane] suddenly to dive toward the ground, nose first. □ It was a bad day for flying, and I was afraid we'd go into a nosedive. □ The small plane took a nosedive. The pilot was able to bring it out at the last minute, so the plane didn't crash. 2. to go into a rapid emotional or financial decline, or a decline in health. (Informal.) □ Our profits took a nosedive last year. □ After he broke his hip, Mr. Brown's health went into a nosedive, and he never recovered.

go into a tailspin 1. [for an airplane] to lose control and spin to the earth, nose first. □ The plane shook and then suddenly went into a tailspin. □ The pilot was not able to bring the plane out of the tailspin, and it crashed into the sea. 2. [for someone] to become disoriented or panicked; [for someone's life] to fall apart. (Informal.) □ Although John was a great success, his life went into a tailspin. It took him a year to get straightened out. □ After her father died, Mary's world fell apart, and she went into a tailspin.

go into detail to give all the details; to present and discuss the details. □ The clerk went into detail about the product with the customer. □ I just want a simple answer. Don't go into detail.

go into effect AND take effect [for a law or a rule] to become effective; to start to function. □ When does this new law go into effect? □ The new tax laws won't go into effect until next year. □ This law takes effect almost immediately.

go into hiding to conceal oneself in a hidden place for a period of time. □ The political dissident went into hiding. □ After robbing the bank, the bandits went into hiding for months.

go into hock go into debt. □ We will have to go into hock to buy a house. □ I go further into hock every time I use my credit card.

go into one's song and dance (about something) to start giving one's explanations and excuses about something. (One's can be replaced by the same old.) □ Please don't go into your song and dance about how you always tried to do what was right. □ John went into his song and dance about how he won the war all by himself. □ He always goes into the same old song and dance every time he makes a mistake.

go into orbit to get very excited; to be in ecstasy. (Also literal. Slang.) □ When I got a letter from my boyfriend in England, I almost went into orbit. □ Tom goes into orbit every time the football team scores.

go into something to start something new. (Especially a new career, project, product line, etc. Compare this with be into something.) □ I may quit selling and go into management. □ We are shifting production away from glass bottles, and we are going into vases and other decorative containers. □ After she graduated, she went into law.

go it alone to do something by oneself. (Informal.) □ Do you need help, or will you go it alone? □ I think I need a little more experience before I go it alone.

Go jump in the lake! Go to Go climb a tree!

go like clockwork to progress with regularity and dependability. (Informal.) □ The building project is progressing nicely. Everything is going like clockwork. □ The elaborate pageant was a great success. It went like clockwork from start to finish.

go off [for something] to explode. □ The fireworks didn't go off when they were supposed to. □ There was a bomb in the building, but it didn't go off.

go off half-cocked to proceed without proper preparation; to speak (about something) without adequate knowledge. (Informal or slang.) □ Don't pay any attention to what John says. He's always going off half-cocked. □ Get your facts straight before you make your presentation. There is nothing worse than going off half-cocked.

go off on a tangent to go off suddenly in another direction; suddenly to change one's line of thought, course of action, etc. (A reference to geometry.) □ Please stick to one subject and don't go off on a tangent. □ If Mary would settle down and deal with one subject she would be all right, but she keeps going off on tangents.

go off the deep end AND jump off the deep end to become deeply involved (with someone or something) before one is ready; to follow one's emotions into a situation. (Informal. Refers to going into a swimming pool at the deep end—rather than the shallow end—and finding oneself in deep water. Applies especially to falling in love.) □ Look at the way Bill is looking at Sally. I think he's about to go off the deep end. □ Now, John, I know you really want to go to Australia, but don't go jumping off the deep end. It isn't all perfect there.

go on stop saying those things; not so; I don't believe you. (Also literal, meaning "to continue." Always as a command.) □ Go on! You don't know what you're talking about! □ Oh, go on! You're just trying to flatter me.

go on a binge to do too much of something. (Slang. Especially to drink too much.) □ Jane went on a binge last night and is very sick this morning. □ Bill loves to spend money on clothes. He's out on a binge right now—buying everything in sight.

go on a fishing expedition to attempt to discover information. (Also literal.) □ We are going to have to go on a fishing expedition to try to find the facts. □ One lawyer went on a fishing expedition in court, and the other lawyer objected.

go on and on to (seem to) last or go forever. (Folksy.) □ You talk too much, Bob. You just go on and on. □ The road to their house is very boring. It goes on and on with nothing interesting to look at.

go on an errand Go to run an errand.

go on a rampage to have a rampage. □ The angry bull went on a rampage and broke the fence. □ My boss went on a rampage because the report wasn't finished.

go on to a better land to die. (Euphemistic.) □ After a long illness, Reggie went on to a better land. □ When I finally go on to a better land, I hope there is enough money for a proper funeral.

go out (for something) to try out for something. (Usually refers to attempting to get onto a sports team. Also literal.) □ Mary went out for the soccer team. □ Tom went out for baseball. □ He didn't go out last year.

go out of fashion AND go out of style to become unfashionable; to become obsolete. □ That kind of furniture went out of style years ago. □ I hope this kind of thing never goes out of fashion.

go out of one's way (to do something) 1. to travel an indirect route in order to do something. □ I'll have to go out of my way to give you a ride home. □ I'll give you a ride even though I have to go out of my way. 2. to make an effort to do something; to endure and accept the bother of doing something. □ We went out of our way to please the visitor. □ We appreciate anything you can do, but don't go out of your way.

go out of style Go to go out of fashion.

go (out) on strike [for a group of people] to quit working at their jobs until certain demands are met. □ If we don't have a contract by noon tomorrow, we'll go out on strike. □ The entire work force went on strike at noon today.

go out (with someone) 1. to go out with someone for entertainment. □ The Smiths went out with the Franklins to a movie. □ Those guys don't have much time to go out. 2. to go on a date with someone; to date someone regularly. □ Is Bob still going out with Sally? □ No, they've stopped going out.

go over to succeed; to be accepted. □ His idea went over well. □ How did my joke go over?

go over big with someone to be very much appreciated by someone. □ Your jokes did not exactly go over big with my parents. □ We hope that the musical will go over big with the audience.

go overboard to do too much; to be extravagant. (Also literal as on a ship.) □ Look, Sally, let's have a nice party, but don't go overboard. It doesn't need to be fancy. □ Okay, you can buy a big comfortable car, but don't go overboard.

go over like a lead balloon to fail; to go over badly. (Slang. See also go over with a bang.) □ Your joke went over like a lead balloon. □ If that play was supposed to be a comedy, it went over like a lead balloon. □ Her suggestion went over like a lead balloon.

go over someone's head [for the intellectual content of something] to be too difficult for someone to understand. □ All that talk about computers went over my head. □ I hope my lecture didn't go over the students' heads.

go over something to review or explain something. (Also literal.) □ The teacher went over the lesson. □ Will you please go over this form? I don't understand it.

go over something with a fine-tooth comb AND search something with a fine-tooth comb to search through something very carefully. □ I can't find my calculus book. I went over the whole place with a fine-tooth comb. □ I searched this place with a fine-tooth comb and didn't find my ring.

go over with a bang to succeed spectacularly. (Informal. Compare this with go over like a lead balloon.) □ The play was a success. It really went over with a bang. □ That's a great joke. It went over with a bang.

go places to have a good future. (Informal.) □ Sally shows great promise as a scholar. She's really going to go places. □ Tom is as good as we thought. He's certainly going places now.

Go play in the traffic! Go to Take a long walk off a short pier.

go right through someone [for food] to pass through and out of the body very rapidly. (Informal. Use with caution.) □ Those little apples go right through me, but I love them. □ I can't eat onions. They go right through me.

go scot-free AND get off scot-free to go unpunished; to be acquitted of a crime. (This scot is an old word meaning "tax" or "tax burden.") □ The thief went scot-free. □ Jane cheated on the test and got caught, but she got off scot-free.

go sky-high to go very high, as with a price or a measurement. (Informal.) □ Prices go sky-high whenever there is inflation. □ Oh, it's so hot. The temperature went sky-high about noon.

go so far as to say something to put something into words; to risk saying something. □ I think that Bob is dishonest, but I wouldn't go so far as to say he's a thief. □ Red meat may be harmful, but I can't go so far as to say it causes cancer.

go someone one better AND do someone one better to do something superior to what someone else has done; to top someone. □ That was a great joke, but I can go you one better. □ Your last song was beautifully sung, but Mary can do you one better.

go (somewhere) by shank's mare to travel by foot; to go somewhere on foot. □ The car wouldn't start so I had to go to work by shank's mare. □ We enjoy walking and go by shank's mare whenever we can.

go stag to go to an event (which is meant for couples) without a member of the opposite sex. (Informal. Originally referred only to males.) □ Is Tom going to take you, or are you going stag? □ Bob didn't want to go stag, so he took his sister to the party.

go steady (with someone) to date someone on a regular basis. □ Mary is going steady with John. □ Bill went steady for two years before he got married.

go stir-crazy to become anxious because one is confined. (Slang. Stir is an old criminal word for "prison.") □ If I stay around this house much longer, I'm going to go stir-crazy. □ John left school. He said he was going stir-crazy.

go straight to begin to obey the law; to become law-abiding. (Also literal. Slang. Primarily criminal slang.) □ When John got out of prison, he decided to go straight. □ I promised the teacher that I would go straight and that I would never cheat again.

go the distance to do the whole amount; to play the entire game; to run the whole race. (Informal. Originally sports use.) □ That horse runs fast. I hope it can go the distance. □ This is going to be a long, hard project. I hope I can go the distance.

go the extra mile to try harder to please someone or to get the task done correctly; to do more than one is required to do to reach a goal. □ I like doing business with that company. They always go the extra mile. □ My teacher goes the extra mile to help us.

go the limit to do as much as possible. (Compare this with go whole hog.) □ What do I want on my hamburger? Go the limit! □ Don't hold anything back. Go the limit.

go through to be approved; to succeed in getting through the approval process. (See also go through something.) □ I sent the board of directors a proposal. I hope it goes through. □ We all hope that the new law goes through.

go through channels to proceed by consulting the proper persons or offices. (See also work through channels.) □ If you want an answer to your questions, you'll have to go through channels. □ If you know the answers, why do I have to go through channels?

go through something 1. to examine something. □ Give me a day or two to go through this contract, and then I'll call you with advice. □ Don't go through it too fast. Read it carefully, or you might miss something. 2. to experience something; to endure something unpleasant; to get through something. □ It was a terrible thing. I don't know how I went through it. □ It'll take four years to go through college.

go through the changes to experience a rough period in one's life. (Slang.) □ Sally's pretty upset. She's really going through the changes. □ Most teenagers spend their time going through the changes.

go through the motions to make a feeble effort to do something; to do something insincerely. □ Jane isn't doing her best. She's just going through the motions. □ Bill was supposed to be raking the yard, but he was just going through the motions.

go through the roof to go very high; to reach a very high degree (of something). (Informal.) □ It's so hot! The temperature is going through the roof. □ Mr. Brown got so angry he almost went through the roof.

go through with something to decide to do something; to finish something. □ We decided to go through with the new highway. □ I can't do it. I just can't go through with it.

go to any length to do whatever is necessary. □ I'll go to any length to secure this contract. □ I want to get a college degree, but I won't go to any length to get one.

go to bat for someone to support or help someone. (Informal. From baseball. See pinch-hit (for someone).) □ I tried to go to bat for Bill, but he said he didn't want any help. □ I heard them gossiping about Sally, so I went to bat for her.

go to bed to go to where one's bed is, get into it, and go to sleep. □ It's time for me to go to bed. □ I want to go to bed, but there is too much work to do.

go to bed (with someone) Go to go all the way (with someone).

go to bed with the chickens to go to bed at sundown; to go to bed very early (when the chickens do). ☐ Of course I get enough sleep. I go to bed with the chickens. ☐ Mr. Brown goes to bed with the chickens and gets up with them, too.

go to Davy Jones's locker to go to the bottom of the sea. (Thought of as a nautical expression.) ☐ My camera fell overboard and went to Davy Jones's locker. ☐ My uncle was a sailor. He went to Davy Jones's locker during a terrible storm.

go together 1. [for two things] to look, sound, or taste good together. ☐ Do you think that this pink one and this purple one go together? ☐ Milk and grapefruit don't go together. 2. [for two people] to date each other regularly. ☐ Bob and Ann have been going together for months. ☐ Tom and Jane want to go together, but they live too far apart.

go to (hell) AND go to (the devil) to become ruined; to go away and stop bothering (someone). (Informal. Use caution with hell.) ☐ This old house is just going to hell. It's falling apart everywhere. ☐ Leave me alone! Go to the devil! ☐ Oh, go to, yourself!

go to hell in a handbasket to become totally worthless; to go to (hell). (Informal. Use caution with hell. Not used as a command.) ☐ The whole country is going to hell in a handbasket. ☐ Look at my lawn—full of weeds. It's going to hell in a handbasket.

go too far to do more than is acceptable. (Also literal.) ☐ I didn't mind at first, but now you've gone too far. ☐ If you go too far, I'll slap you.

go to pieces 1. to break into pieces; to fall apart. ☐ My old winter coat is going to pieces. ☐ I don't want to see a nice vase like that go to pieces. 2. to break out in tears; to break down mentally. ☐ On hearing of the death, we just went to pieces. ☐ I couldn't talk about it any longer. I went to pieces.

go to pot AND go to the dogs to go to ruin; to deteriorate. (Informal.) ☐ My whole life seems to be going to pot. ☐ My lawn is going to pot. I had better weed it. ☐ The government is going to the dogs.

go to rack and ruin AND go to wrack and ruin to go to ruin. (The words rack and wrack mean “wreckage” and are found only in this expression.) ☐ That lovely old house on the corner is going to go to rack and ruin. ☐ My lawn is going to wrack and ruin.

go to seed Go to run to seed.

go to someone's head to make someone conceited; to make someone overly proud. ☐ You did a fine job, but don't let it go to your head. ☐ He let his success go to his head, and soon he became a complete failure.

go to the bathroom 1. to go into a rest room, bathroom, or toilet. ☐ BILL: Where is Bob? JANE: He went to the bathroom. ☐ John went to the bathroom to brush his teeth. 2. to eliminate bodily wastes through defecation and urination. ☐ Mommy! The dog went to the bathroom on the carpet! ☐ Billy's in there going to the bathroom. Don't disturb him.

go to (the devil) Go to go to (hell).

go to the dogs Go to go to pot.

go to the expense (of doing something) to pay the (large) cost of doing something. ☐ I hate to have to go to the expense of painting the house. ☐ It needs to be done, so you'll have to go to the expense.

go to the lavatory to go somewhere and use a toilet. ☐ Bob requested to leave the room to go to the lavatory. ☐ Please stop the car. I have to go to the lavatory.

go to the limit to do as much as is possible to do. (Compare this with go the limit.) ☐ Okay, we can't afford it, but we'll go to the limit. ☐ How far shall I go? Shall I go to the limit?

go to the toilet to use a toilet for defecation or urination. ☐ Jimmy washed his hands after he went to the toilet. ☐ Excuse me, I have to go to the toilet.

go to the trouble (of doing something) AND go to the trouble (to do something) to endure the bother of doing something. ☐ I really don't want to go to the trouble to cook. ☐ Should I go to the trouble of cooking something for her to eat? ☐ Don't go to the trouble. She can eat a sandwich.

go to the trouble (to do something) Go to go to the trouble (of doing something).

go to the wall to be defeated; to fail in business. (Informal.) ☐ We really went to the wall on that deal. ☐ The company went to the wall because of that contract. Now it's broke.

go to town to work hard or fast. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ Look at all those ants working. They are really going to town. ☐ Come on, you guys. Let's go to town. We have to finish this job before noon.

go to waste to be wasted; to be unused (and therefore thrown away). ☐ Eat your potatoes! Don't let them go to waste. ☐ We shouldn't let all those nice flowers go to waste. Let's pick some.

go to wrack and ruin Go to go to rack and ruin.

go under to fail. ☐ The company was weak from the start, and it finally went under. ☐ Tom had a lot of trouble in school, and finally he went under.

go under the knife to have a surgical operation. (Informal.) ☐ Mary didn't want to go under the knife, but the doctor insisted. ☐ If I go under the knife, I want to be completely asleep.

go up in flames AND go up in smoke to burn up. ☐ The whole museum went up in flames. ☐ My paintings—my whole life's work—went up in flames. ☐ What a shame for all that to go up in smoke.

go up in smoke Go to go up in flames.

go whole hog to do everything possible; to be extravagant. (Informal. Compare this with go the limit.) ☐ Let's go whole hog. Order steak and lobster. ☐ Show some restraint. Don't go whole hog all the time.

go window-shopping to go about looking at goods in store windows without actually buying anything. ☐ The clerks usually go window-shopping in their lunch hour, looking for things to buy when they get paid. ☐ Joan said she was just going window-shopping, but she bought a new coat.

go without (something) to manage to get along without something. (Compare this with do without (someone or something).) ☐ I went without food for three days. ☐ Some people have to go without a lot longer than that.

go with something 1. to go well with something. ☐ Milk doesn't go with grapefruit. ☐ Pink doesn't go with orange. 2. to choose something (over something else). (Informal.) ☐ I think I'll go with the yellow one. ☐ We decided to go with the oak table rather than the walnut one.

go with the flow [for someone] to proceed easily and cooperatively in the same manner that other people or processes are moving. (Informal.) ☐ John is very easy to get along with. He just goes with the flow. ☐ I try to cooperate. I go with the flow where possible.

go wrong to fail; [for something bad] to happen. ☐ The project failed. I don't know what went wrong. ☐ I'm afraid that everything will go wrong.

goes to show you [something] serves to prove a point to you. ☐ It just goes to show you that too much sugar is bad for you. ☐ Of course you shouldn't have married her. It goes to show you that your parents are always right.

goes without saying [something] is so obvious that it need not be said. ☐ It goes without saying that you are to wear formal clothing to dinner each evening. ☐ Of course. That goes without saying.

the going the condition of a path of travel or progress. ☐ The going was rough through the mountains. ☐ I decided to sell my stock while the going was still good.

the going rate the current rate. ☐ The going interest rate for your account is 10 percent. ☐ Our babysitter charges us the going rate.

a gold mine of information someone or something that is full of information. □ Grandfather is a gold mine of information about World War I. □ The new encyclopedia is a positive gold mine of useful information.

gone but not forgotten gone or dead but still remembered. □ The good days we used to have together are gone, but not forgotten. □ Uncle Harry is gone but not forgotten. The stain where he spilled the wine is still visible in the parlor carpet.

gone goose someone or something that has departed or run away. □ Surely, the burglar is a gone goose by now. □ The child was a gone goose, and we did not know where to look for him.

gone on died. (Euphemistic.) □ My husband, Tom—he's gone on, you know—was a great one for golf. □ Let us remember those who have gone on before.

gone to meet one's Maker died. (Euphemistic.) □ Poor old Bob has gone to meet his Maker. □ After a long illness, Reggie went to meet his Maker.

gone with the wind gone; mysteriously gone. (A phrase made famous by the Margaret Mitchell novel and film Gone with the Wind. The phrase is used to make gone have a stronger force.) □ Everything we worked for was gone with the wind. □ Jean was nowhere to be found. She was gone with the wind.

a goner dead or finished; as good as dead or nearly dead. (Informal. Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ The boy brought the sick fish back to the pet store to get his money back. "This one is a goner," he said. □ John thought he was a goner when his parachute didn't open.

good and something very something. (The something can be ready, mad, tired, worn-out, etc.) □ Now I'm good and mad, and I'm going to fight back. □ I'll be there when I'm good and ready. □ He'll go to bed when he's good and tired.

good as done Go to (as) good as done.

good as gold Go to (as) good as gold.

good enough for someone or something adequate for someone or something. □ This seat is good enough for me. I don't want to move. □ I'm happy. It's good enough for me. □ That table is good enough for my office.

good-for-nothing 1. worthless. □ Here comes that good-for-nothing boy now. □ Where is that good-for-nothing pen of mine? 2. a worthless person. □ Tell that good-for-nothing to go home at once. □ Bob can't get a job. He's such a good-for-nothing.

the good old days back in an earlier time, which everyone remembers as a better time, even if it really wasn't. □ Back in the good old days, during WWII, they used real cactus needles in record players. □ The good old days didn't start until they had indoor bathrooms.

good riddance (to bad rubbish) [it is] good to be rid (of worthless persons or things). □ She slammed the door behind me and said, "Good riddance to bad rubbish!" □ "Good riddance to you, madam," thought I.

good to go all ready to go; all checked and pronounced ready to go. □ I've checked everything and we are good to go. □ Everything's good to go and we will start immediately.

goof off to waste time. (Informal or slang.) □ John is always goofing off. □ Quit goofing off and get to work!

the gospel truth [of truth] undeniable. □ The witness swore he was telling the gospel truth. □ I told my parents the gospel truth about how the vase broke.

grab a bite (to eat) to get something to eat; to get food that can be eaten quickly. (Not usually done by grabbing.) □ I need a few minutes to grab a bite to eat. □ Bob often tries to grab a bite between meetings.

grace someone or something with one's presence to honor someone or something with one's presence. □ "How nice of you to grace us with your presence," Mr. Wilson told Mary sarcastically as she entered the classroom late. □ The banquet was graced with the presence of the governor.

graced with something made elegant by means of some ornament or decoration.

□ The altar was graced with lovely white flowers. □ The end of the beautiful day was graced with a beautiful sunset.

graceful as a swan Go to (as) graceful as a swan.

a grain of truth even the smallest amount of truth. □ The attorney was unable to find a grain of truth in the defendant's testimony. □ If there were a grain of truth to your statement, I would trust you.

grasp at straws to depend on something that is useless; to make a futile attempt at something. □ John couldn't answer the teacher's question. He was just grasping at straws. □ There I was, grasping at straws, with no one to help me.

grate on someone('s nerves) to annoy someone; to bother someone. □ My obnoxious brother is grating on my nerves. □ Your whining really grates on me.

gray area an area of a subject or question that is difficult to put into a particular category because it is not clearly defined and may have connections or associations with more than one category. □ The responsibility for social studies in the college is a gray area. Several departments are involved. □ Publicity is a gray area in that firm. It is shared between the marketing and design divisions.

gray matter intelligence; brains; power of thought. (Brain tissue is grayish in color.) □ Use your gray matter and think what will happen if the committee resigns. □ Surely they'll come up with an acceptable solution if they use a bit of gray matter.

grease someone's palm AND oil someone's palm to bribe someone. (Slang.) □ If you want to get something done around here, you have to grease someone's palm. □ I'd never oil a police officer's palm. That's illegal.

a great deal much; a lot. □ You can learn a great deal about nature by watching television. □ This is a serious problem and it worries me a great deal.

the greatest thing since sliced bread the best thing there ever was. (Usually sarcastic.) □ To hear her talk, you would think she had found the greatest thing since sliced bread. □ Todd thinks he is the greatest thing since sliced bread.

Greek to me Go to (all) Greek to me.

green around the gills Go to pale around the gills.

green with envy envious; jealous. □ When Sally saw me with Tom, she turned green with envy. She likes him a lot. □ I feel green with envy whenever I see you in your new car.

grin and bear it to endure something unpleasant in good humor. □ There is nothing you can do but grin and bear it. □ I hate having to work for rude people. I guess I have to grin and bear it.

grind to a halt to slow to a stop; to run down. □ By the end of the day, the factory had ground to a halt. □ The car ground to a halt, and we got out to stretch our legs.

grip someone's attention to attract and hold someone's attention. □ The scary movie gripped my attention. □ The professor's interesting lecture gripped the attention of all the students.

grist for someone's mill something that can be put to good use or that can bring advantage or profit. □ Some of the jobs that we are offered are more interesting than others, but each one is grist for my mill. □ The company is having to sell some tacky-looking dresses, but they are grist for their mill and keep the company in business.

grit one's teeth to grind one's teeth together in anger or determination. □ I was so mad, all I could do was stand there and grit my teeth. □ All through the race, Sally was gritting her teeth. She was really determined.

groan under the burden of something to suffer under the burden or domination of someone or something. □ John groaned under the burden of his new responsibilities. □ The servant groaned under the burden of a cruel master.

gross someone out to revolt someone; to make someone sick. (Slang.) □ Oh, look at his face. Doesn't it gross you out? □ That teacher is such a creep. He grosses out the whole class.

ground someone to take away someone's privileges. (Informal. Usually said of a teenager.) □ My father said that if I didn't get at least C's, he'd ground me. □ Guess what! He grounded me!

grounded in fact based on facts. □ This movie is grounded in fact. □ The stories in this book are all grounded in actual fact.

grounds for something a basis or cause for legal action, such as a lawsuit. □ Your negligence is grounds for a lawsuit. □ Is infidelity grounds for divorce in this state?

grow on someone [for someone or something] to become commonplace and comfortable to a person. (The someone is usually one, someone, a person, etc., not a specific person.) □ That music is strange, but it grows on you. □ I didn't think I could ever get used to this town, but after a while it grows on one.

grow out of something to abandon something as one matures. (Also literal.) □ I used to have a lot of allergies, but I grew out of them. □ She grew out of the habit of biting her nails.

grow to do something to gradually begin to do certain things, using verbs such as feel, know, like, need, respect, sense, suspect, think, want, wonder, etc. □ I grew to hate Bob over a period of years. □ As I grew to know Bob, I began to like him.

gruff as a bear Go to (as) gruff as a bear.

grunt work work that is hard and thankless. □ During the summer, I earned money doing grunt work. □ I did all of the grunt work on the project, but my boss got all of the credit.

guard against someone or something to take care to avoid someone or something. □

Try to guard against getting a cold. □ You should guard against pickpockets.

guest of honor a guest who gets special attention from everyone; the person for whom a party, celebration, or ceremony is held. □ Bob is the guest of honor, and many people will make speeches about him. □ The guest of honor sits at the front of the room on the dais.

gulp for air to eagerly or desperately try to get air or a breath. □ Tom gulped for air after trying to hold his breath for three minutes. □ Mary came up out of the water, gulping for air.

gum something up AND gum up the works to make something inoperable; to ruin someone's plans. (Informal.) □ Please, Bill, be careful and don't gum up the works. □ Tom sure gummed it up. □ Tom sure gummed up the whole plan.

gum up the works Go to gum something up.

gun for someone to be looking for someone, presumably to harm them. (Refers to a sheriff or outlaw seeking a person with the intention of shooting him. Originally from western and gangster movies.) □ The coach is gunning for you. I think he's going to bawl you out. □ I've heard that the sheriff is gunning for me, so I'm getting out of town.

gut feeling AND gut reaction; gut response a personal, intuitive feeling or response. □ I have a gut feeling that something bad is going to happen. □ My gut reaction is that we should hire Susan for the job.

gut reaction Go to gut feeling.

gut response Go to gut feeling.

gyp someone out of something to deceive someone in order to get something of value. □ The salesclerk gypped me out of a dollar. □ The taxi driver tried to gyp me out of a fortune by driving all over town.

H

hack something to endure something; to deal with something. (Slang. The something is usually it.) ☐ I don't know if I can hack it. ☐ John works very hard, but he can't seem to hack it.

had best do something ought to do something. (Informal. Almost the same as the following entry.) ☐ You had best get that fixed right away. ☐ You had best be at school on time every day.

had better do something ought to do something (or face the consequences). (Almost the same as the previous entry.) ☐ I had better get home for dinner, or I'll get yelled at. ☐ You had better do your homework right now.

had (just) as soon do something AND would (just) as soon do something would prefer to do something else; would be content to do something. (The would or had is usually 'd. Also with just, as in the examples below.) ☐ They want me to go into town. I'd as soon stay home. ☐ If you're cooking stew tonight, we'd as soon eat somewhere else. ☐ I would just as soon stay home as see a bad movie. ☐ If that's what we're having for dinner, I'd just as soon starve.

(had) known it was coming Go to knew it was coming.

had rather do something AND had sooner do something would prefer to do something. (The had is usually expressed in a contraction, 'd.) ☐ I'd rather go to town than sit here all evening. ☐ They'd rather not. ☐ I'd sooner not make the trip.

had sooner do something Go to had rather do something.

hail-fellow-well-met friendly to everyone; falsely friendly to everyone. (Usually said of males. See also get the glad hand.) ☐ Yes, he's friendly, sort of hail-fellow-well-met. ☐ He's not a very sincere person. Hail-fellow-well-met—you know the type. ☐ What a pain he is. Good old Mr. Hail-fellow-well-met. What a phony!

hail from somewhere [for someone] to come originally from somewhere. ☐ I'm from Kansas. Where do you hail from? ☐ I hail from the Southwest.

the hair of the dog that bit one a drink of liquor taken when one has a hangover; a drink of liquor taken when one is recovering from drinking too much liquor. (Informal.) ☐ Oh, I'm miserable. I need some of the hair of the dog that bit me. ☐ That's some hangover you've got there, Bob. Here, drink this. It's some of the hair of the dog that bit you.

hale and hearty well and healthy. ☐ Doesn't Ann look hale and hearty? ☐ I don't feel hale and hearty. I'm really tired.

Half a loaf is better than none. Having part of something is better than having nothing. (Proverb.) ☐ When my raise was smaller than I wanted, Sally said, "Half a loaf is better than none." ☐ People who keep saying "Half a loaf is better than none" usually have as much as they need.

half-and-half 1. a liquid that is half milk and half cream. ☐ Harry would always pour half-and-half on his breakfast cereal in spite of what his doctor told him. ☐ There is less fat in half-and-half than there is in cream. 2. a substance composed half of one thing and half of another. ☐ This coffee is half-and-half, so there isn't quite as much caffeine as in regular coffee. ☐ I can't decide between a chocolate sundae and a pineapple sundae, so make mine half-and-half.

halfhearted (about someone or something) unenthusiastic about someone or something. ☐ Ann was halfhearted about the choice of Sally for president. ☐ She didn't look halfhearted to me. She looked angry.

ham something up to make a performance seem silly by showing off or exaggerating one's part. (Informal. A show-off actor is known as a ham.) ☐ Come on, Bob. Don't ham it up! ☒ The play was going fine until Bob got out there and hammed up his part.

hammer away (at someone or something) to keep trying to accomplish something with someone or something. (Refers to repeated pounding with a hammer.) ☐ John, you've got to keep hammering away at your geometry. ☐ They hammered away at the prisoner until he confessed.

hammer something home to try extremely hard to make someone understand or realize something. ☐ The teacher hammered the dates home. ☒ I tried to hammer home to Anne the fact that she would have to get a job. ☒ The boss hopes to hammer home the company's precarious financial position to the staff.

hammer something out 1. to work hard at writing up an agreement; to work hard at writing something. (Literally to pound something flat with a hammer or mallet. This refers to hammering at the keys of a typewriter.) ☐ I'm busy hammering my latest novel out. ☒ The lawyers sat down to hammer out a contract. 2. to play something on the piano. ☐ She hammered the song out loudly and without feeling. ☒ Listen to John hammer out that song on the piano.

hand in glove (with someone) very close to someone. ☐ John is really hand in glove with Sally. ☐ The teacher and the principal work hand in glove.

hand in hand 1. holding hands. ☐ They walked down the street hand in hand. ☐ Bob and Mary sat there quietly, hand in hand. 2. together, one with the other.

(Said of two things where the presence of one implies the other.) ☐ Cookies and milk seem to go hand in hand. ☐ Teenagers and back talk go hand in hand.

Hand it over. Give it to me. (Informal.) ☐ It's mine. Hand it over! ☐ Come on. Give me the box of jewels. Hand it over!

hand it to someone to give credit to someone. (Informal. Often with have to or must.) ☐ I'll hand it to you. You did a fine job. ☐ We must hand it to Sally. She helped us a lot.

hand-me-down something, such as an article of used clothing, that has been handed down from someone. (See also hand something down (to someone).) ☐ Why do I always have to wear my brother's hand-me-downs? I want some new clothes. ☐ This is a nice shirt. It doesn't look like a hand-me-down at all.

hand over fist [for money and merchandise to be exchanged] very rapidly. ☐ What a busy day. We took in money hand over fist. ☐ They were buying things hand over fist.

hand over hand [moving] one hand after the other (again and again). ☐ Sally pulled in the rope hand over hand. ☐ The man climbed the rope hand over hand.

hand something down (to someone) 1. to give something to a younger person. (Either at death or during life. See also hand-me-down.) ☐ John handed his old shirts down to his younger brother. ☒ I hope my uncle will hand down his golf clubs to me when he dies. 2. to announce or deliver a (legal) verdict or indictment. ☒ The grand jury handed down seven indictments last week. ☒ The jury handed down a guilty verdict.

handle someone with kid gloves to be very careful with a touchy person. ☐ Bill has become so sensitive. You really have to handle him with kid gloves. ☐ You don't have to handle me with kid gloves. I can take it.

hands down without a doubt. (Usually regarding a choice or a winner.) ☐ Jean was our choice for the new manager hands down. ☐ Todd won the race hands down.

□ Sharon was the favorite librarian of all the people there hands down.

Hands off! Do not touch [someone or something]! □ Careful! Don't touch that wire. Hands off! □ The sign says, "Hands off!" and you had better do what it says.

Hands up! AND Stick 'em up! Put your hands in the air! (Slang. Said by robbers and police officers. Hands that are in the air cannot reach or draw a weapon.) □ All right, you, hands up! □ Stick 'em up! I got you covered.

hang a left to turn to the left. (Slang. See also the following entry.) □ Hang a left up at that light. □ Go three blocks and hang a left.

hang a right to turn to the right. (Slang.) □ At the next corner, hang a right. □ Hang a right at the stop sign.

hang around (with someone) AND go around with someone to spend a lot of time with someone; to waste away time with someone. (See also run around with someone.) □ John hangs around with Bill a lot. □ They've been going around with the Smiths. □ I've asked them all to stop hanging around.

hang back to stay behind (the others); to hold back (from the others). □ Walk with the group, Bob. Don't hang back. You'll get left behind. □ Three of the marchers hung back and talked to each other.

hang by a hair AND hang by a thread to be in an uncertain position; to depend on something very insubstantial; to hang in the balance. (Informal.) □ Your whole argument is hanging by a thread. □ John isn't failing geometry, but his passing grade is just hanging by a hair.

hang by a thread Go to hang by a hair.

hang fire to delay or wait. □ I think we should hang fire and wait for other information. □ Our plans have to hang fire until we get planning permission.

hang in the balance to be in an undecided state; to be between two equal possibilities. □ The prisoner stood before the judge with his life hanging in the balance. □ This whole issue will have to hang in the bal- ance until Jane gets back from her vacation.

hang in there to keep trying; to persevere. (Slang.) □ I know things are tough, John, but hang in there. □ I know if I hang in there, things will come out okay.

hang loose to relax; to remain calm. (Slang.) □ I know I can pass this test if I just hang loose. □ Hang loose, Bob. Everything is going to be all right.

hang one's hat (up) somewhere to take up residence somewhere. □ George loves Dallas. He's decided to buy a house and hang his hat up there. □ Bill moves from place to place and never hangs his hat up anywhere.

hang on someone's coattails Go to ride on someone's coattails.

hang on someone's every word to listen with complete attention to everything someone says. □ He gave a great lecture. We hung on his every word. □ Look at the way John hangs on Mary's every word. He must be in love with her.

hang on (to someone or something) AND hold on (to someone or something) to remember someone or something for a long time; to be affected very much by someone or something in the past. (Also literal meaning grasping or holding someone or something.) □ That's a nice thought, Bob. Hang on to it. □ You've been holding on to those bad memories for too long. It's time to let them go. □ Yes, I can't keep hanging on.

hang out (somewhere) to spend time somewhere; to waste time somewhere. □ I wish you guys wouldn't hang out around the bowling alley. □ Why do you have to hang out near our house?

hang out (with someone) to waste time in the company of someone. □ I hope Bob isn't hanging out with the wrong people. □ He needs to spend more time studying and less time hanging out.

hang someone in effigy to hang a dummy or some other figure of a hated person. (See also burn someone in effigy.) □ They hanged the dictator in effigy. □ The angry mob hanged the president in effigy.

hang tough to be firm in one's position; to stick to one's position. (Slang. Compare this with hang in there.) □ I know that your parents don't want you to go out tonight, but hang tough. They may change their minds. □ Hang tough, Mary. You'll get your way!

hang up to replace the telephone receiver; to terminate a telephone call. □ If you have called a wrong number, you should apologize before you hang up. □ When you hear the busy signal, you're supposed to hang up.

happen (up)on someone or something to meet someone, or find something unexpectedly. □ I happened on this nice little restaurant on Elm Street yesterday. □ Mr. Simpson and I happened on one another in the bank last week.

happy as a clam Go to (as) happy as a clam.

happy as a lark Go to (as) happy as a lark.

happy as can be Go to (as) happy as can be.

a harbinger of things to come AND a portent of things to come; a sign of things to come; a taste of things to come a sample of the events that are to occur in the future. □ The first cuts in our budget are a harbinger of things to come. □ Today's visit from the auditors is a portent of things to come.

hard-and-fast rigid or strict, especially when applied to rules, laws, or regulations. □ The rule isn't hard-and-fast, but we expect you to obey it anyway. □ The company has a hard-and-fast rule about the use of radios, even in private offices.

hard as a rock Go to (as) hard as a rock.

hard as nails Go to (as) hard as nails.

hard as stone Go to (as) hard as a rock.

a hard nut to crack AND a tough nut to crack difficult person or thing to deal with. (Informal.) □ This problem is getting me down. It's a hard nut to crack. □ Tom sure is a hard nut to crack. I can't fig- ure him out. □ He sure is a tough nut to crack.

hard of hearing [of someone] unable to hear well; partially deaf. □ Please speak loudly. I am hard of hearing. □ Tom is hard of hearing, but is not totally deaf.

hard on someone's heels following someone very closely; following very closely to someone's heels. (Informal.) □ I ran as fast as I could, but the dog was still hard on my heels. □ Here comes Sally, and John is hard on her heels.

hard-pressed (to do something) Go to hard put (to do something).

hard put (to do something) AND hard-pressed (to do something) able to do something only with great difficulty. □ I'm hard put to come up with enough money to pay the rent. □ I get hard put like that about once a month.

hard up (for something) greatly in need of something. (Informal.) □ Ann was hard up for cash to pay the bills. □ I was so hard up, I couldn't afford to buy food.

hardly have time to breathe AND scarcely have time to breathe to be very busy. □ This was such a busy day. I hardly had time to breathe. □ They made him work so hard that he hardly had time to breathe.

hardly have time to think so busy that one can hardly think properly; very busy. □ I've been so busy that I hardly have time to think. □ I hardly have time to think in the job that I do. We are just too busy.

hark(en) back to something 1. to have originated as something; to have started out as something. (Harken is an older word meaning "pay heed to.") □ The word ice-box harks back to refrigerators that were cooled by ice. □ Our modern breakfast cereals hark back to the porridge and gruel of our ancestors. 2. to remind one of something. □ Seeing a horse and buggy in the park harks back to the time when horses drew milk wagons. □ Sally says it harkens back to the time when everything was delivered by a horse-drawn wagon.

harp on something to keep talking or complaining about something; to refer to something again and again. □ Mary's always harping on being poor, but she has more than enough money. □ Jack has been harping on high taxes for years.

hash something over to discuss something in great detail. (Informal.) □ Okay, we can hash it over this afternoon. □ Why don't you come to my office so we can hash over this contract?

Haste makes waste. Time gained in doing something rapidly and carelessly will be lost when one has to do the thing over again correctly. (Proverb.) □ Now, take your time. Haste makes waste. □ Haste makes waste, so be careful as you work.

hat in hand Go to (with) hat in hand.

hate someone's guts to hate someone very much. (Informal and rude.) □ Oh, Bob is terrible. I hate his guts! □ You may hate my guts for saying so, but I think you're getting gray hair.

haul someone in to arrest someone; [for a police officer] to take someone to the police station. (Slang.) □ The cop hauled the crook in. □ They hauled in the suspects. □ The traffic officer said, "Do you want me to haul you in?"

haul someone over the coals Go to rake someone over the coals.

haul up (somewhere) AND pull up (somewhere) to stop somewhere; to come to rest somewhere. □ The car hauled up in front of the house. □ My hat blew away just as the bus pulled up. □ The attackers hauled up at the city gates.

have a bad effect (on someone or something) to be bad for someone or something. □ Aspirin has a bad effect on me. □ Cold weather has a bad effect on roses.

have a ball have a really great time. (Slang. This ball is a formal, social dancing party.) □ The picnic was fantastic. We had a ball! □ Hey, Mary! Have a ball at the party tonight!

have a bee in one's bonnet to have an idea or a thought remain in one's mind; to have an obsession. □ I have a bee in my bonnet that you'd be a good manager. □ I had a bee in my bonnet about swimming. I couldn't stop wanting to go swimming.

have a big mouth to be a gossip; to be a person who tells secrets. (Informal.) □ Mary has a big mouth. She told Bob what I was getting him for his birthday. □ You shouldn't say things like that about people all the time. Everyone will say you have a big mouth.

have a blowout 1. [for one's car tire] to burst. □ I had a blowout on the way here. I nearly lost control of the car. □ If you have a blowout in one tire, you should check the other tires. 2. to have a big, wild party; to enjoy oneself at a big party. □ Mary and Bill had quite a blowout at their house Friday night. □ Fred and Tom had quite a blowout last night.

have a bone to pick (with someone) to have a disagreement to discuss with someone; to have something to argue about with someone. (See also bone of contention.) □ Hey, Bill. I've got a bone to pick with you. Where is the money you owe me? □ I had a bone to pick with her, but she was so sweet that I forgot about it. □ You always have a bone to pick.

have a brush with something to have a brief contact with something; to have a brief experience with something. (Especially with the law. Sometimes a close brush. Compare this with have a scrape (with someone or something).) □ Ann had a close brush with the law. She was nearly arrested for speeding. □ When I was younger, I had a brush with scarlet fever, but I got over it.

have a case (against someone) to have much evidence that can be used against someone. (See also build a case (against someone).) □ Do the police have a case against John? □ No, they don't have a case.

have a change of heart to change one's attitude or decision, usually from a negative to a positive position. □ I had a change of heart at the last minute and gave the old lady some money. □ Since I talked to you last, I have had a change of heart. I now approve of your marrying Sam.

have a chip on one's shoulder to be tempting someone else to an argument or a fight; to seem willing to instigate conflict. □ Who are you mad at? You always seem to have a chip on your shoulder. □ John has had a chip on his shoulder ever since he got his speeding ticket.

have a clean conscience (about someone or something) Go to have a clear conscience (about someone or something).

have a clear conscience (about someone or something) AND have a clean conscience (about someone or something) to be free of guilt about someone or something. □ I'm not sorry that John got the blame. I have a clean conscience about the whole affair. □ I have a clear conscience about John and his problems. □ I didn't do it. I have a clean conscience. □ She can't sleep at night because she doesn't have a clear conscience.

have a close call Go to have a close shave.

have a close shave AND have a close call to have a narrow escape from something dangerous. (See also have a brush with something.) □ What a close shave I had! I nearly fell off the roof when I was working there. □ I almost got struck by a speeding car. It was a close shave.

have a clue (about something) to know anything about something; to have even a hint about something. (Usually negative.) □ I don't have a clue about where to start looking for Jim. □ Why do you think I have a clue about Tom's disappearance?

have a conniption (fit) to get angry or hysterical. (Folksy. See also have a fit.) □ I got so mad I thought I was going to have a conniption. □ My father had a conniption fit when I got home this morning.

have a crack at something Go to have a try at something.

have a familiar ring [for a story or an explanation] to sound familiar. □ Your excuse has a familiar ring. Have you done this before? □ This term paper has a familiar ring. I think it has been copied.

have a feeling about something Go to have a feeling (that).

have a feeling (that) AND have a feeling about something to have a premonition that [something might happen]; to have an intuition about something. □ I had a feeling that you might be dropping by this afternoon. □ I didn't have any facts to support it. I just had a feeling.

have a field day to experience freedom from one's usual work schedule; to have a wild time. (Refers to a day when children are released from classes to take part in sports and athletic contests.) □ The boss was gone and we had a field day today. No one got anything done. □ The air was fresh and clear, and everyone had a field day in the park during the lunch hour.

have a finger in the pie AND have one's finger in the pie to have a role in something; to be involved in something. □ Tess wants to have a finger in the pie. She doesn't think we can do it by ourselves. □ Sally always wants to have a finger in the pie.

have a fit to be very angry. (Informal.) □ The teacher had a fit when the dog ran through the classroom. □ John had a fit when he found his car had been damaged.

have a foot in both camps to have an interest in or to support each of two opposing groups of people. □ The shop steward had been promised a promotion and so had a foot in both camps during the strike—workers and management. □ Mr. Smith has a foot in both camps in the parent-teacher dispute. He teaches math, but he has a son at the school.

have a frog in one's throat to have a feeling of hoarseness. □ I cannot speak more clearly. I have a frog in my throat. □ I had a frog in my throat, and the telephone receptionist couldn't understand me.

have a glass jaw to be susceptible to collapsing when struck on the head. (Informal. Said only of boxers who are frequently knocked down by a blow to the head.) □ When the prizefighter was knocked out in his third fight, the newspapers said he had a glass jaw. □ Once a fighter has a glass jaw, he's finished as a boxer.

have a go (at something) to make a try at something. (See also take a try at something.) □ I've never fished before, but I'd like to have a go at it. □ Great, have a go right now. Take my fishing pole and give it a try.

have a good command of something to know something well. □ Bill has a good command of French. □ Jane has a good command of economic theory.

have a good head on one's shoulders to have common sense; to be sensible and intelligent. □ Mary doesn't do well in school, but she's got a good head on her shoulders. □ John has a good head on his shoulders and can be depended on to give good advice.

have a (good) mind to do something to be tempted to do something; to be on the verge of doing something that one has thought about. □ I have a good mind to tell her just exactly what I think of her. □ She had a mind to leave the room right then and there.

have a good thing going to have something arranged for one's benefit. (Informal.) □ Sally paints pictures and sells them at art fairs. She has a good thing going, and she makes good money. □ John inherited a fortune and doesn't have to work for a living anymore. He's got a good thing going.

have a green thumb to have the ability to grow plants well. □ Just look at Mr. Simpson's garden. He has a green thumb. □ My mother has a green thumb when it comes to houseplants.

have a grudge (against someone) Go to bear a grudge (against someone).

have a hand in something to play a part in (doing) something. □ I had a hand in the picnic plans. □ I want to have a hand in any revision of the script.

have a handle on something AND get a handle on something to have or get control of something; to have or get an understanding of something. □ Get a handle on your temper and calm down. □ The police chief had a handle on the potential riot situation.

have a hard time to experience unnecessary difficulties. □ I get a hard time every time I come to this store. □ I never have a hard time at the store across the street.

have a head for something have the mental capacity for something. □ Jane has a good head for directions and never gets lost. □ Bill doesn't have a head for figures and should never become an accountant.

have a heart to be compassionate; to be generous and forgiving. □ Oh, have a heart! Give me some help! □ If Ann had a heart, she'd have made us feel more welcome.

have a heart of gold to be generous, sincere, and friendly. □ Mary is such a lovely person. She has a heart of gold. □ You think Tom stole your watch? Impossible! He has a heart of gold.

have a heart of stone to be cold and unfriendly. □ Sally has a heart of stone. She never even smiles. □ The villain in the play had a heart of stone. He was an ideal villain.

have a heart-to-heart (talk) to have a sincere and intimate talk. □ I had a heart-to-heart talk with my father before I went off to college. □ I have a problem, John. Let's sit down and have a heart-to-heart.

have a hold on someone to have a strong and secure influence on someone. □ The strange religion seemed to have a strong hold on its followers. □ The drug has a hold on the minds of those who use it.

have a hunch about something Go to have a hunch (that).

have a hunch (that) something will happen AND have a hunch about something to have an idea about what did, will, or should happen; to have a feeling that something will or should happen. □ I had a hunch that you would be here when I arrived. □ I have a hunch about the way things will happen.

have a keen interest in something to have a strong interest in something; to be very interested in something. □ Tom had always had a keen interest in music, so he started a band. □ The children have a keen interest in having a pet, so I bought them a cat.

have a look for someone or something Go to take a look for someone or something.

have a lot going (for one) to have many things working to one's benefit. □ Jane is so lucky. She has a lot going for her. □ She has a good job and a nice family. She has a lot going.

have a lot of promise to be very promising; to have a good future ahead. □ Sally is quite young, but she has a lot of promise. □ This bush is small, but it has a lot of promise.

have a lot on one's mind to have many things to worry about; to be preoccupied. □ I'm sorry that I'm so grouchy. I have a lot on my mind. □ He forgot to go to his appointment because he had a lot on his mind.

have a low boiling point to anger easily. (Informal.) □ Be nice to John. He's upset and has a low boiling point. □ Mr. Jones sure has a low boiling point. I hardly said anything, and he got angry.

have a mind like a steel trap to have a very sharp and agile mind; to have a mind capable of fast, incisive thought. □ Sally can handle the questioning. She has a mind like a steel trap. □ If I had a mind like a steel trap, I wouldn't have so much trouble concentrating.

have an accident 1. to experience something that was not foreseen or intended. □ Traffic is very bad. I almost had an accident. □ Drive carefully. Try to avoid having an accident. 2. to lose control of the bowels or the bladder. (Euphemistic. Usually said of a young child.) □ "Oh, Ann," cried Mother. "It looks like you've had an accident!" □ Mother asked Billy to go to the bathroom before they left so that he wouldn't have an accident in the car.

have an ace up one's sleeve to have a secret or concealed means of accomplishing something. (Refers to being prepared to cheat in a card game.) □ I think that Liz has an ace up her sleeve and will surprise us with success at the last minute. □ I have done all I can do. I have no idea what to do next. I don't have an ace up my sleeve, and I can't work miracles.

have an ax to grind (with someone) to have something to complain about. (Informal.) □ Tom, I need to talk to you. I have an ax to grind with you. □ Bill and Bob went into the other room to argue. They had an ax to grind.

have an ear for something to have the ability to learn music or languages. □ Bill doesn't have an ear for music. He can't carry a tune. □ Mary has a good ear for languages.

have a near miss to nearly crash or collide. □ The airplanes—flying much too close—had a near miss. □ I had a near miss while driving over here.

have an eye for someone or something to have a taste or an inclination for someone or something. □ Bob has an eye for beauty. □ He has an eye for color. □ Ann has an eye for well-dressed men.

have an eye on someone or something AND keep an eye on someone or something to keep watch on someone or something; to keep track of someone or something. (The an can be replaced by one's.) □ I have my eye on the apple tree. When the apples ripen, I'll harvest them. □ Please keep an eye on the baby. □ Will you please keep your eye on my house while I'm on vacation?

have an eye out (for someone or something) AND keep an eye out (for someone or something) to watch for the arrival or appearance of someone or something. (The an can be replaced by one's.) □ Please try to have an eye out for the bus. □ Keep an eye out for rain. □ Have your eye out for a raincoat on sale. □ Okay. I'll keep my eye out.

have an in (with someone) to have a way to request a special favor from someone; to have influence with someone. □ Do you have an in with the mayor? I have to ask him a favor. □ Sorry, I don't have an in, but I know someone who does.

have an itch for something to have a desire for something. □ I have an itch for a nice cool glass of lemonade. □ Who besides me has an itch for pizza?

have an itching palm Go to have an itchy palm.

have an itch to do something to have a desire to do something. □ I have an itch to see a movie tonight. □ Tom has an itch to go swimming.

have an itchy palm AND have an itching palm to be in need of a tip; to tend to ask for tips. (As if placing money in the palm would stop the itching.) □ All the waiters at that restaurant have itchy palms. □ The cabdriver was troubled by an itching palm. Since he refused to carry my bags, I gave him nothing.

have a nose for something to have the talent for finding something. □ Police dogs have a good nose for drugs. □ The reporter has a nose for news.

have an out to have an excuse; to have a means of avoiding something. (Refers to a way out or means of escape. Informal. The out is a noun.) □ He's very clever. No matter what happens, he always has an out. □ I agreed to go to a party that I don't want to go to now. I'm looking for an out.

have a one-track mind to have a mind that thinks entirely or almost entirely about one subject, often sex. □ Adolescent boys often have one-track minds. All they're interested in is the opposite sex. □ Bob has a one-track mind. He can only talk about football.

have a passion for someone or something to have a strong feeling of need or desire for someone, something, or some activity. □ Mary has a great passion for chocolate. □ John has a passion for fishing, so he fishes as often as he can.

have a peep AND take a peep to look quickly, sometimes through a small hole. □ Have a peep into the refrigerator and see if we need any milk. □ I took a peep at the comet through the telescope.

have a penchant for doing something to have a taste, desire, or inclination for doing something. □ John has a penchant for eating fattening foods. □ Ann has a penchant for buying clothes.

have a pick-me-up to eat or drink something stimulating. (The have can be replaced with need, want, etc. The me does not change.) □ I'd like to have a pick-me-up. I think I'll have a bottle of pop. □ You look tired. You need a pick-me-up.

have a price on one's head to be wanted by the authorities, who have offered a reward for one's capture. (Informal or folksy. Usually limited to western and gangster movies.) □ We captured a thief who had a price on his head, and the sheriff gave us the reward. □ The crook was so mean, he turned in his own brother, who had a price on his head.

have a right to do something AND have the right to do something to have the freedom to do something; to possess legal or moral permission or license to do something. □ You don't have the right to enter my home without my permission. □ I have a right to grow anything I want on my farmland.

have a rough time (of it) to experience a difficult period. □ Since his wife died, Mr. Brown has been having a rough time of it. □ Be nice to Bob. He's been having a rough time.

have arrived to reach a position of power, authority, or prominence. □ Jane saw her picture on the cover of the magazine and felt that she had finally arrived. □ When I got an office with a window, I knew that I had arrived.

have a run-in with someone to have an unpleasant and troublesome encounter with someone. □ I had a run-in with Anne at the party, so I left early. □ David had a small run-in with the law last night.

have a run of bad luck to have bad luck repeatedly; to have bad things happen a number of times. □ I have had a run of bad luck, and I have no more money to spend. □ The company had a run of bad luck over the last few years.

have a run of something to have a continuous series of events. □ The city had a run of serious crimes that angered the citizens. □ We had a run of very hot days last July.

have a say (in something) Go to have a voice (in something).

have a score to settle (with someone) to have a problem to clear up with someone; to have to get even with someone about something. (See also settle a score with someone.) □ I have a score to settle with John. □ John and I have a score to settle.

have a scrape (with someone or something) to come into contact with someone or something; to have a small battle with someone or something. (Compare this with have a brush with something.) □ I had a scrape with the county sheriff. □ John and Bill had a scrape, but they are friends again now.

have a screw loose to act silly or crazy. (Slang.) □ John is such a clown. He acts as if he has a screw loose. □ What's the matter with you? Do you have a screw loose or something?

have a shot at something Go to have a try at something.

have a smoke to smoke a cigarette, cigar, or pipe. (The have can be replaced with need, want, etc.) □ Can I have a smoke? I'm very nervous. □ Do you have a cigarette? I need a smoke.

have a snowball's chance in hell to have no chance at all; to have a chance no greater than that of a snowball in hell. (A snowball would melt in hell and have no chance of surviving. Use caution with hell.) □ He has a snowball's chance in hell of passing the test. □ You don't have a snowball's chance in hell of her agreeing to marry you.

have a soft spot in one's heart for someone or something to be fond of someone or something. □ John has a soft spot in his heart for Mary. □ I have a soft spot in my heart for chocolate cake.

have a spaz to get angry or hysterical; to have a conniption (fit). (Slang.) □ Relax,

Bob. Don't have a spaz. □ My father had a spaz when I came in late last night.

have a stroke to experience sudden unconsciousness or paralysis due to an interruption in the blood supply to the brain. (Also used as an exaggeration. See the last two examples below.) □ The patient who received an artificial heart had a stroke two days after the operation. □ My great-uncle Bill—who is very old—had a stroke last May. □ Calm down, Bob. You're going to have a stroke. □ My father almost had a stroke when I came home at three o'clock this morning.

have a sweet tooth to desire to eat many sweet foods—especially candy and pastries. □ I have a sweet tooth, and if I don't watch it, I'll really get fat. □ John eats candy all the time. He must have a sweet tooth.

have a taste for something a desire for a particular food, drink, or experience. □ The Smiths have a taste for adventure and take exotic vacations. □ When she was pregnant, Mary often had a taste for pickles.

have a thing going (with someone) AND have something going (with someone) to have a romance or a love affair with someone. (Informal.) □ John and Mary have a thing going. □ Bill has a thing going with Ann. □ They have something going.

have a try at something AND have a shot at something; have a crack at something to take a turn at trying to do something. (The expressions with shot and crack are more colloquial than the main entry phrase. See also the variants at take a try at something.) □ You don't seem to be having a lot of luck with this. Can I have a try at it? □ Let Sally have a shot at it. □ If you let me have a crack at it, maybe I can be successful.

have at someone or something Go to get at someone or something.

have a vested interest in something to have a personal or biased interest, often financial, in something. □ Margaret has a vested interest in wanting her father to sell the family firm. She has shares in it and would make a large profit. □ Jack has a vested interest in keeping the village traffic-free.

have a voice (in something) AND have a say (in something) to have a part in making a decision. □ I'd like to have a voice in choosing the carpet. □ John wanted to have a say in the issue also. □ He says he seldom gets to have a say.

have a way with someone or something to handle or deal well with someone or something. □ John has a way with hamburger. It's always delicious. □ Mother has a way with Father. She'll get him to paint the house.

have a weakness for someone or something to be unable to resist someone or something; to be fond of someone or something; to be (figuratively) powerless against someone or something. (Compare this with have a soft spot in one's heart for someone or something.) □ I have a weakness for chocolate. □ John has a weakness for Mary. I think he's in love.

have a whale of a time to have an exciting time; to have a big time. (Slang. Whale is a way of saying big.) □ We had a whale of a time at Sally's birthday party. □ Enjoy your vacation! I hope you have a whale of a time.

have a word with someone to speak to someone, usually privately. □ The manager asked to have a word with me when I was not busy. □ John, could I have a word with you? We need to discuss something.

have back at someone Go to get back (at someone).

have bats in one's belfry to be slightly crazy. □ Poor old Tom has bats in his belfry. □ Don't act so silly, John. People will think you have bats in your belfry.

have bearing on something to apply to something; to affect or influence something. □ The worker's opinion has no bearing on the boss's decision. □ Does this information have any bearing on the question?

have been around to be experienced in life. (Informal. Use with caution—especially with females—since this can also refer to sexual experience. See also get around.) □ Ask Sally about how the government works. She's been around. □ They all know a lot about life. They've been around.

have been had to have been mistreated; to have been cheated or dealt with badly. (Informal or slang.) □ They were cheated out of a thousand dollars. They've really been had. □ Look what they did to my car. Boy, have I been had.

have been through the mill have been badly treated; have become exhausted. (Informal.) □ This has been a rough day. I've really been through the mill. □ This old car is banged up, and it hardly runs. It's been through the mill.

have been to hell and back to have survived a great deal of trouble. □ What a terrible day! I feel like I have been to hell and back. □ After a day of shopping, I feel like I have been to hell and back.

have bigger fish to fry Go to have other fish to fry.

have broad shoulders to have the ability to take on unpleasant responsibilities; to have the ability to accept criticism or rebuke. (Refers to the apparent strength of broad shoulders to support a heavy burden.) □ No need to apologize to me. I can take it. I have broad shoulders. □ Karen may have broad shoulders, but she can't endure endless criticism.

have clean hands to be guiltless. (Refers to the blood on the hands of a murderer.) □ Don't look at me. I have clean hands. □ The police took him in, but let him go again because he had clean hands.

have cold feet Go to get cold feet.

have come a long way to have accomplished much; to have advanced much. (Also literal.) □ My, how famous you are. You've come a long way. □ Tom has come a long way in a short time.

have contact with someone a link to someone resulting in communication. (Also literal.) □ I have had no contact with Bill since he left town. □ Tom had contact with a known criminal last month.

have designs on someone or something to have plans for someone or something. □ Mrs. Brown has designs on my apple tree. I think she's going to cut off the part that hangs over her fence. □ Mary has designs on Bill. I think she'll try to date him.

have dibs on something to reserve something for oneself; to claim something for oneself. (Informal. See also put (one's) dibs on something.) □ I have dibs on the last piece of cake. □ John has dibs on the last piece again. It isn't fair.

have egg on one's face to be embarrassed because of an error that is obvious to everyone. (Also literal.) □ Bob has egg on his face because he wore jeans to the party and everyone else wore formal clothing. □ John was completely wrong about the weather for the picnic. It snowed! Now he has egg on his face.

have eyes bigger than one's stomach to have a desire for more food than one could possibly eat. (See also one's eyes are bigger than one's stomach.) □ I know I have eyes bigger than my stomach, so I won't take a lot of food. □ Todd has eyes bigger than his stomach.

have eyes in the back of one's head to seem to be able to sense what is going on outside of one's vision. □ My teacher seems to have eyes in the back of her head. □ My teacher doesn't need to have eyes in the back of his head. He watches us very carefully.

have feet of clay [for a strong person] to have a defect of character. □ All human beings have feet of clay. No one is perfect. □ Sally was popular and successful. She was nearly fifty before she learned that she, too, had feet of clay.

have foot-in-mouth disease to embarrass oneself through a silly blunder. (Informal. This is a parody on foot-and-mouth disease or hoof-and-mouth disease, which affects cattle and deer. See also put one's foot in one's mouth.) □ I'm sorry I keep saying stupid things. I guess I have foot-in- mouth disease. □ Yes, you really have foot-in-mouth disease tonight.

have growing pains 1. [for a child] to have pains—which are attributed to growth—in the muscles and joints. □ The doctor said that all Mary had were growing pains and that nothing was really wrong. □ Not everyone has growing pains.

2. [for an organization] to have difficulties in its growth. □ The banker apologized for losing my check and said the bank was having growing pains. □ Governments have terrible growing pains.

have had enough to have had as much of something as is needed or will be tolerated. (Compare this with have had it (up to here).) □ Stop yelling at me. I've had enough. □ No more potatoes, please. I've had enough. □ I'm leaving you, Bill. I've had enough!

have had its day to be no longer useful or successful. □ Streetcars have had their day in most American cities. □ Some people think that radio has had its day, but others prefer it to television.

have had it (up to here) to have reached the end of one's endurance or tolerance. (Informal.) □ Okay, I've had it. You kids go to bed this instant. □ We've all had it with you, John. Get out! □ I've had it. I've got to go to bed before I drop dead. □ Tom is disgusted. He said that he has had it up to here.

have half a mind to do something Go to have half a notion to do something.

have half a notion to do something AND have half a mind to do something to have almost decided to do something, especially something unpleasant. (Informal.) □ I have half a mind to go off and leave you here. □ The cook had half a notion to serve cold chicken.

have hell to pay Go to have the devil to pay.

Have I got something for you! Would you believe that I have something really exciting for you? (Informal.) □ Have I got something for you! Wait'll you hear about it! □ Have I got something for you! You're gonna love it.

Have I made myself clear? Do you understand exactly what I am telling you? (Indicates anger or dominance.) ☐ I don't intend to warn you again. Have I made myself clear? ☐ I do not want you to go there! Have I made myself clear?

have it all over someone or something to be much better than someone or something. ☐ This cake has it all over that one. ☐ My car has it all over yours. ☐ Sally can really run. She has it all over Bill.

have it both ways to have both of two incompatible things. (Also literal. See also have one's cake and eat it too.) ☐ John wants the security of marriage and the freedom of being single. He wants to have it both ways. ☐ John thinks he can have it both ways—the wisdom of age and the vigor of youth.

have it in for someone to have something against someone; to plan to scold or punish someone. ☐ Don't go near Bob. He has it in for you. ☐ Billy! You had better go home. Your mom really has it in for you.

have method in one's madness to have a purpose in what one is doing, even though it seems to be mad. ☐ What I'm doing may look strange, but there is method in my madness. ☐ Wait until she finishes; then you'll see that there is method in her madness.

have mixed feelings (about someone or something) to be uncertain about someone or something. ☐ I have mixed feelings about Bob. Sometimes I think he likes me; other times I don't. ☐ I have mixed feelings about my trip to England. I love the people, but the climate upsets me. ☐ Yes, I also have mixed feelings.

have money to burn to have lots of money; to have more money than one needs. (See also Money burns a hole in someone's pocket.) ☐ Look at the way Tom buys things. You'd think he had money to burn. ☐ If I had money to burn, I'd just put it in the bank.

have more important fish to fry Go to have other fish to fry.

(have) never had it so good have never had so much good fortune. (Informal.)

☐ No, I'm not complaining. I've never had it so good. ☐ Mary is pleased with her new job. She's never had it so good.

have no business doing something to be wrong to do something; to be extremely unwise to do something. ☐ You have no business bursting in on me like that! ☐ You have no business spending money like that!

have none of something to tolerate or endure no amount of something. ☐ I'll have none of your talk about quitting school. ☐ We'll have none of your gossip. ☐ I wish to have none of the sweet potatoes, please.

have no staying power to lack endurance; not to be able to last. ☐ Sally can swim fast for a short distance, but she has no staying power. ☐ That horse can race fairly well, but it has no staying power.

have nothing on someone or something 1. [with someone] to lack evidence against someone. (Informal.) ☐ The police had nothing on Bob, so they let him loose. ☐ You've got nothing on me! Let me go! 2. to have no information about someone or something. ☐ The dictionary had nothing on the word I looked up. ☐ The librarian said that the library has nothing on the Jones brothers.

have nothing to do with someone or something 1. not to be related to or concerned with someone or something. ☐ Your wants and needs have nothing to do with my wants and needs. ☐ Waterloo? That has nothing to do with water! 2. to avoid being associated with someone or something. ☐ She will have nothing to do with me anymore. ☐ I have nothing to do with computers after I found out how hard they are to operate.

have one foot in the grave to be near death, either because of old age or because of illness. ☐ Fred's uncle is ninety. He has one foot in the grave and may not live another two months. ☐ Terry has one foot in the grave and will perish unless he receives treatment soon.

have one for the road to have a drink just before leaving. ☐ I think I'll have one for the road, bartender. ☐ Forget having one for the road if you are driving.

have one's back to the wall to be in a defensive position. (Informal. See also push someone to the wall.) □ He'll have to give in. He has his back to the wall. □ How can I bargain when I've got my back to the wall?

have one's cake and eat it too AND eat one's cake and have it too to enjoy both having something and using it up; to have it both ways. (Usually stated in the negative.) □ Tom wants to have his cake and eat it too. It can't be done. □ Don't buy a car if you want to walk and stay healthy. You can't eat your cake and have it too.

have one's druthers to get one's choice; to be permitted to have one's preference. (Folksy. The druthers is from would rather.) □ If I had my druthers, I'd go to France. □ Tom said that if he had his druthers, he'd choose to stay home.

have one's ear to the ground AND keep one's ear to the ground to listen carefully, hoping to get advance warning of something. (Refers to holding one's ear against the ground to listen for approaching horses or a train.) □ John had his ear to the ground, hoping to find out about new ideas in computers. □ His boss told him to keep his ear to the ground so that he'd be the first to know of a new idea.

have oneself something to select, use, or consume something. (Folksy. Also with non-reflexive pronouns, me, him, her, etc., as in the last example.) □ He had himself a two-hour nap. □ I'll have myself one of those red ones. □ I think I'll have me a big, cold drink.

have one's feet on the ground Go to get one's feet on the ground.

have one's finger in the pie Go to have a finger in the pie.

have one's finger in too many pies to be involved in too many things; to have too many tasks going to be able to do any of them well. □ I'm too busy. I have my finger in too many pies. □ She never gets anything done because she has her finger in too many pies.

have one's hand in the till to be stealing money from a company or an organization. (The till is a cash box or drawer.) □ Mr. Jones had his hand in the till for years before he was caught. □ I think that the new clerk has her hand in the till. There is cash missing every morning.

have one's hands full (with someone or something) to be busy or totally occupied with someone or something. (Literal when one cannot hold anything else in one's hands.) □ I have my hands full with my three children. □ You have your hands full with the store. □ We both have our hands full.

have one's hands tied to be prevented from doing something. (See also tie someone's hands.) □ I can't help you. I was told not to, so I have my hands tied. □ John can help. He doesn't have his hands tied.

have one's head in the clouds to be unaware of what is going on. □ "Bob, do you have your head in the clouds?" said the teacher. □ She walks around all day with her head in the clouds. She must be in love.

have one's heart go out to someone to have compassion for someone. □ I can't have my heart go out to everyone. □ To have compassion is to have one's heart go out to those who are suffering.

have one's heart in the right place to have good intentions, even if there are bad results. (See also one's heart is in the right place.) □ I don't always do what is right, but my heart is in the right place. □ Good old Tom. His heart's in the right place. □ It doesn't matter if she lost the game. She has her heart in the right place.

have one's heart on one's sleeve Go to wear one's heart on one's sleeve.

have one's heart set against something to be totally against something. (Also with dead, as in the example. See also dead set against someone or something; set one's heart against something.) □ Jane has her heart dead set against going to Australia. □ John has his heart set against going to college.

have one's heart set on something to be desiring and expecting something. □ Jane has her heart set on going to London. □ Bob will be disappointed. He had his heart set on going to college this year. □ She had her heart set on it.

have one's heart stand still <an expression said when one's heart (figuratively) stops beating because one is feeling strong emotions.> □ I had my heart stand still once when I was overcome with joy. □ Lovers—at least the ones in love songs—usually have their hearts stand still.

have one's luck run out for one's good luck to stop; for one's good fortune to come to an end. □ I had my luck run out when I was in South America. I nearly starved. □ I hate to have my luck run out just when I need it.

have one's nose in a book to be reading a book; to read books all the time. □ Bob has his nose in a book every time I see him. □ His nose is always in a book. He never gets any exercise.

have one's nose in the air to be conceited or aloof. (See also one's nose is in the air.) □ Mary always seems to have her nose in the air. □ I wonder if she knows that she has her nose in the air.

have one's sights trained on something Go to train one's sights on something.

have one's words stick in one's throat to be so overcome by emotion that one can hardly speak. □ I sometimes have my words stick in my throat. □ John said that he never had his words stick in his throat.

have one's work cut out for one to have a large and difficult task prepared for one. (See also one's work is cut out for one.) □ They sure have their work cut out for them, and it's going to be hard. □ There is a lot for Bob to do. He has his work cut out for him.

have other fish to fry AND have bigger fish to fry; have more important fish to fry to have other things to do; to have more important things to do. □ I can't take time for your problem. I have other fish to fry. □ I won't waste time on your question. I have bigger fish to fry.

have precedence over someone or something; AND take precedence over someone or something have the right to come before someone or something else. □ Ambulances have precedence over regular cars at intersections. □ My manager's concerns take precedence over mine.

have pull with someone to have influence with someone. (Slang. Also with some, much, lots, etc.) □ Let's ask Ann to help us. She has pull with the mayor. □ Do you know anyone who has some pull with the bank president? I need a loan.

have rocks in one's head to be silly or crazy. (Slang.) □ John is a real nut. He has rocks in his head. □ I don't have rocks in my head—I'm just different.

have second thoughts about someone or something to have doubts about someone or something. □ I'm beginning to have second thoughts about Tom. □ We now have second thoughts about going to Canada.

have seen better days to be worn or worn out. (Informal.) □ This coat has seen better days. I need a new one. □ Oh, my old legs ache. I've seen better days, but everyone has to grow old.

have so Go to have too.

have someone dead to rights to have proven someone unquestionably guilty. □ The police burst in on the robbers while they were at work. They had the robbers dead to rights. □ All right, Tom! I've got you dead to rights! Get your hand out of the cookie jar.

have someone in one's pocket to have control over someone. (Informal.) □ Don't worry about the mayor. She'll cooperate. I've got her in my pocket. □ John will do just what I tell him. I've got him and his brother in my pocket.

have someone on the string to have someone waiting for your decision. (Informal.) □ Sally has John on the string. He has asked her to marry him, but she hasn't replied yet. □ Yes, it sounds like she has him on the string.

have someone or something in one's hands to have control of or responsibility for someone or something. □ You have the whole project in your hands. □ The boss put the whole project in your hands. □ I have to leave the baby in your hands while I go to the doctor.

have someone or something in tow to lead, pull, or tow someone or something around. □ Mrs. Smith has her son in tow. □ That car has a boat in tow.

have someone or something on one's hands to be burdened with someone or something. □ I run a record store. I sometimes have a large number of unwanted records on my hands. □ She the all the children on her hands today.

have someone or something on one's mind to think often about someone or something; to be obsessed with someone or something. □ Bill has chocolate on his mind. □ John has Mary on his mind every minute.

have someone over to invite someone as a guest to one's house. □ When can we have Aunt Jane over for dinner? □ I would love to have you over some time.

have someone pegged as something Go to peg someone as something.

have someone's blood on one's hands to be responsible for someone's death; to be guilty of causing someone's death. (Also literal.) □ The teenager's blood was on the policeman's hands. □ The king's blood was on the hands of the murderer who killed him.

have someone's hide to scold or punish someone. (Refers to skinning an animal. Informal. Compare this with skin someone alive.) □ If you ever do that again, I'll have your hide. □ He said he'd have my hide if I entered his garage again.

have something against someone or something to possess something (such as prejudice or knowledge) that is harmful to someone or something. (Note the variation in the examples below.) □ I have something against John. He was rude to me. □ Do you have something against North Americans? □ What do you have against me? □ I don't have anything against eating beef.

have something at hand Go to have something at one's fingertips.

have something at one's fingertips AND have something at hand to have something within (one's) reach. (Have can be replaced with keep.) □ I have a dictionary at my fingertips. □ I try to have everything I need at hand. □ I keep my medicine at my fingertips.

have something coming (to one) to deserve punishment (for something). (Also literal. Informal.) □ Bill broke a window, so he has a spanking coming to him. □ That's it, Bill. Now you've got it coming!

have something doing AND have something on to have plans for a particular time. (Informal. Note the variation with anything in the examples below.) □ BOB: Are you busy Saturday night? BILL: Yes, I've got something doing. □ I don't have anything doing Sunday night. □ I have something on almost every Saturday.

have something down pat to have learned or memorized something perfectly. □ I have practiced my speech until I have it down pat. □ Tom has his part in the play down pat. He won't make any mistakes.

have something going (for oneself) [for someone] to have a beneficial scheme or operation going. (Informal.) □ John really has something going for himself. He's a travel agent, and he gets to travel everywhere for free. □ I wish I could have something like that going.

have something going (with someone) 1. to have a business deal with someone. □ Sally has a new business project going with Ann. They'll announce a new product in the spring. □ John and Tom work as stock-brokers. I've heard that they have a business deal going. 2. Go to have a thing going (with someone).

have something hanging over one's head to have something bothering or worrying one; to have a deadline worrying one. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I keep worrying about getting drafted. I hate to have something like that hanging over my head. □ I have a history paper that is hanging over my head.

have something in common (with someone or something) [for groups of people or things] to resemble one another in specific ways.

□ Bill and Bob both have red hair. They have that in common with each other. □ Bob and Mary have a lot in common. I can see why they like each other.

have something in hand to have something in one's hand or close by. (Compare this with have something at hand.) □ I have your letter of May tenth in hand. □ I have my pen in hand, and I'm ready to write.

have something in mind to think of something in particular; to have an idea or image (of something) in one's mind. □ BILL: I would like to purchase some boots. CLERK: Yes, sir. Did you have something in mind? □ I have something in mind, but I don't see it here. Good day.

have something in stock to have merchandise available and ready for sale. □ Do you have extra large sizes in stock? □ Of course, we have all sizes and colors in stock.

have something in store (for someone) to have something planned for one's future. □ Tom has a large inheritance in store for him when his uncle dies. □ I wish I had something like that in store.

have something made 1. to hire someone to make something. □ Isn't it a lovely coat? I had to have it made because I couldn't find one I liked in a store. □ We had the cake made at the bakery. Our oven isn't big enough for a cake that size. 2. to have achieved a successful state. (Slang. Usually with it.) □ Mary really has it made. She inherited one million dollars. □ I wish I had it made like that.

have something on Go to have something doing.

have something on file to have a written record of something in storage. □ I'm sure I have your letter on file. I'll check again. □ We have your application on file somewhere.

have something on the ball to have a particular amount of smartness or cleverness. (Slang.) □ Both John and Mary have a lot on the ball. They should go far. □ I think I'd do better in school if I had more on the ball. I learn slowly.

have something on the brain to be obsessed with something. (Slang.) □ Bob has chocolate on the brain. □ Mary has money on the brain. She wants to earn as much as possible.

have something on the tip of one's tongue to be on the verge of remembering a specific fact, such as someone's name; to have just forgotten a specific fact. (See also on the tip of one's tongue.) □ Just give me a minute. I have her name on the tip of my tongue! □ I had her name on the tip of my tongue, but you made me forget it when you called.

have something out (with someone) to settle a disagreement or a complaint. (Informal.) □ John has been mad at Mary for a week. He finally had it out with her today. □ I'm glad we are having this out today.

have something stick in one's craw to have something irritate or displease someone. (Folksy.) □ I don't like to have Bill's words stick in my craw. □ He meant to have the problem stick in my craw and upset me.

have something to do with something AND [not] have anything to do with something; have nothing to do with something to be associated with or related to something. □ Does your dislike for Sally have something to do with the way she insulted you? □ My illness has something to do with my lungs.

have something to go Go to buy something to go.

have something to spare to have more than enough of something. (Informal. See also and something to spare.) □ Ask John for some firewood. He has firewood to spare. □ Do you have any candy to spare?

have something up one's sleeve to have a secret or surprise plan or solution (to a problem). (Slang. Refers to cheating at cards by having a card hidden in one's sleeve.) □ I've got something up my sleeve, and it should solve all your problems. I'll tell you what it is after I'm elected. □ The manager has something up her sleeve. She'll surprise us with it later.

have sticky fingers to have a tendency to steal. (Slang.) □ The clerk—who had sticky fingers—got fired. □ The little boy had sticky fingers and was always taking his father's small change.

have the ball in one's court to be responsible for the next move in some process; to have to make a response to something that someone else has started. (Also literal.) □ You have the ball in your court now. You have to answer the attorney's questions. □ There was no way that Liz could avoid acting. She had the ball in her court.

have the best of both worlds to be in a situation where one can enjoy two different opportunities. □ When Donna was a fellow at the university, she had the privileges of a professor and the freedom of a student. She definitely had the best of both worlds. □ Don hated to have to choose between retirement and continuing working. He wanted to do both so he could have the best of both worlds.

have the cards stacked against one AND have the deck stacked against one to have one's chance at future success limited by factors over which one has no control; to have luck against one. □ You can't get very far in life if you have the deck stacked against you. □ I can't seem to get ahead. I always have the cards stacked against have the courage of one's convictions to have enough courage and determination to carry out one's goals. □ It's fine to have noble goals in life and to believe in great things. If you don't have the courage of your convictions, you'll never reach your goals. □ Jane was successful because she had the courage of her convictions.

have the deck stacked against one Go to have the cards stacked against one.

have the devil to pay AND have hell to pay to have a great deal of trouble. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ If you cheat on your income taxes, you'll have the devil to pay. □ I came home after three in the morning and had hell to pay.

have the feel of something 1. [for something] to feel like something (else). □ This plastic has the feel of fine leather. □ The little car has the feel of a much larger one. 2. Go to get the feel of something.

have the gall to do something to have sufficient arrogance to do something. □ I bet you don't have the gall to argue with the mayor. □ Only Jane has the gall to ask the boss for a second raise this month.

have the gift of gab to have a great facility with language; to be able to use language very effectively. (Slang.) □ My brother really has the gift of gab. He can convince anyone of anything. □ If I had the gift of gab like you do, I'd achieve more in life.

have the makings of something to possess the qualities that are needed for something. □ The young boy had the makings of a fine baseball player. □ My boss has all the makings of a prison warden.

have the Midas touch to have the ability to be successful, especially the ability to make money easily. (From the name of a legendary king whose touch turned everything to gold.) □ Bob is a merchant banker and really has the Midas touch. □ The poverty-stricken boy turned out to have the Midas touch and was a millionaire by the time he was twenty-five.

have them rolling in the aisles to make an audience roll in the aisles with laughter. (Slang.) □ I have the best jokes you've ever heard. I'll have them rolling in the aisles. □ What a great performance. We had them rolling in the aisles.

have the patience of a saint to be very patient. (Refers to the "patience" that someone experiencing martyrdom might have.) □ I don't know how she puts up with all those stupid questions. She has the patience of a saint. □ Hurry up, please. I am late and you are working too slow. I don't have the patience of a saint.

have the presence of mind to do something to have the calmness and the ability to act sensibly in an emergency or difficult situation. □ Jane had the presence of mind to phone the police when the child disap- peared. □ The child had the presence of mind to take note of the car's license number.

have the right-of-way to possess the legal right to occupy a particular space on a public roadway. (See also yield the right-of-way.) □ I had a traffic accident yesterday, but it wasn't my fault. I had the right-of-way. □ Don't pull out onto a highway if you don't have the right-of-way.

have the right to do something Go to have a right to do something.

have the shoe on the other foot to experience the opposite situation (from a previous situation). (Informal. Also with be instead of have. See the examples. See the proverb The shoe is on the other foot. Compare this with in someone else's shoes.) □ I used to be a student, and now I'm the teacher. Now I have the shoe on the other foot. □ You were mean to me when you thought I was cheating. Now that I have caught you cheating, the shoe is on the other foot.

have the time of one's life to have a very good time; to have the most exciting time in one's life. □ What a great party! I had the time of my life. □ We went to Florida last winter and had the time of our lives.

have the wherewithal (to do something) to have the means to do something, especially energy or money. □ He has good ideas, but he doesn't have the wherewithal to carry them out. □ I could do a lot if only I had the wherewithal.

have to do with someone or something to be associated with or related to someone or something. □ This information only has to do with people who came in late. □ My illness has to do with my stomach.

have to live with something to have to endure something. (See also learn to live with something.) □ I have a slight limp in the leg that I broke last year. The doctor says I'll have to live with it. □ We don't like the new carpeting in the living room, but we'll have to live with it.

have too AND have so to have done something (despite anything to the contrary). (This is an emphatic way of affirming that something has happened.) □ BILL: You haven't made your bed. BOB: I have too! □ I have so turned in my paper! If you don't have it, you lost it!

have too many irons in the fire to be doing too many things at once. □ Tom had too many irons in the fire and missed some important deadlines. □ It's better if you don't have too many irons in the fire.

have turned the corner to have passed a critical point in a process. (Also literal.) □ The patient has turned the corner. She should begin to show improvement now. □ The project has turned the corner. The rest should be easy.

have two strikes against one to have several things against one; to be in a position where success is unlikely. □ Poor Bob had two strikes against him when he tried to explain where he was last night. □ I can't win. I have two strikes against me before I start.

have what it takes to have the ability, courage, or stamina (to do something). □ Bill has what it takes. He can swim for miles. □ Tom won't succeed. He doesn't have what it takes.

Have you been keeping busy?  (Really just a way to say hello and open a conversation.) □ How are you? Have you been keeping busy? □ What've you been doing? Have you been keeping busy?

hazard a guess to make a guess. □ Even if you don't know, please hazard a guess. □ If you don't know the answer, hazard a guess.

hazard an opinion to give an opinion. □ Anne asked the attorney to hazard an opinion about the strength of her lawsuit. □ Don't feel like you have to hazard an opinion on something you know nothing about.

He laughs best who laughs last Go to He who laughs last, laughs longest.

He who laughs last, laughs longest. AND He laughs best who laughs last. Whoever succeeds in making the last move or pulling the last trick has the most enjoyment. (Proverb.) □ Bill had pulled many silly tricks on Tom. Finally Tom pulled a very funny trick on Bill and said, "He who laughs last, laughs longest." □ Bill pulled another, even bigger, trick on Tom and said, laughing, "He laughs best who laughs last."

He who pays the piper calls the tune.

The person who is paying for something has control over how the money is used. (Proverb.) □ Fred's father is paying his way through college, and wants to help him choose his courses. He says that he who pays the piper calls the tune. □ The bride's parents should have a say in where the wedding is held since they're paying for it. He who pays the piper calls the tune.

a head AND per head [for] a person; [for] an individual. (Also used for cattle.) □ How much do you charge per head for dinner? □ It costs four dollars a head.

head and shoulders above someone or something clearly superior to someone or something. (Often with stand, as in the example.) □ This wine is head and shoulders above that one. □ John stands head and shoulders above Bob.

head for someone or something to aim for or move toward someone or something. □ She waved good-bye as she headed for the door. □ Ann came in and headed for her mother.

head for the last roundup to reach the end of something. (Originally said of a dying cowboy.) □ This ballpoint pen is headed for the last roundup. I have to get another one. □ I am so weak. I think I'm headed for the last roundup.

head over heels in debt deeply in debt. □ Finally, when she was head over heels in debt, she tore up her credit cards. □ I couldn't stand being head over heels in debt, so I always pay off my bills immediately.

head over heels in love (with someone) very much in love with someone. (See also fall head over heels in love (with someone).) □ John is head over heels in love with Mary. □ They are head over heels in love with each other. □ They are head over heels in love.

head someone or something off to prevent someone or something from arriving. □ The doctors worked round the clock to head the epidemic off. □ Bill headed his mother off so that we had time to clean up the mess before she saw it. □ The farmer headed off the herd of sheep before it ruined our picnic.

head something up to serve as leader or head of something. □ I had already agreed to head the fund-raising campaign up. □ They asked me to head up the meeting.

heads or tails the face of a coin or the other side of a coin. (Often used in an act of coin tossing, where one circumstance is valid if the front of a coin appears and another circumstance is valid if the other side appears.) □ Jim looked at Jane as he flipped the coin into the air. "Heads or tails?" he asked. □ It doesn't matter whether the result of the toss is heads or tails. I won't like the outcome in any case.

Heads up! Raise your head from work and look around you carefully for information, danger, or warnings that you need to see! □ Heads up! Watch out for that door! □ Heads up! There is a car coming.

heads will roll someone will get into severe trouble. (Informal.) □ When the company's year-end results are known, heads will roll. □ Heads will roll when the principal sees the damaged classroom.

hear a peep out of someone to get some sort of a response from someone; to hear the smallest word from someone. (Usually in the negative.) □ I don't want to hear another peep out of you. □ I didn't know they were there. I didn't hear a peep out of them.

hear of something to tolerate something; to permit something. (Usually negative.) □ No, you cannot go to the movies! I won't hear of it! □ My mother wouldn't hear of my marrying Bill.

hear someone out to listen to everything that someone has to say and to not interrupt or go away. □ Please, hear me out.

This is important. □ He had a good idea, but the committee would not hear him out.

heart and soul the central core [of someone or something]. (Also literal.) □ My very heart and soul was made sad by her hurtful attitude. □ Now we are getting to the heart and soul of the matter. □ This feature is the heart and soul of my invention.

[heart goes out to someone] Go to one's heart goes out to someone.

[heart is in one's mouth] Go to one's heart is in one's mouth.

[heart is in the right place] Go to one's heart is in the right place.

[heart is (dead) set against something] Go to one's heart is (dead) set against something.

[heart is set on something] Go to one's heart is set on something.

[heart misses a beat] Go to one's heart misses a beat.

[heart skips a beat] Go to one's heart skips a beat.

[heart stands still] Go to one's heart stands still.

heavy going difficult to do, understand, or make progress with. (Informal.) □ Jim finds math heavy going. □ Talking to Mary is heavy going. She has nothing to say.

hedge one's bets to reduce one's loss on a bet or on an investment by counterbalancing the loss in some way. (Slang.) □ Bob bet Ann that the plane would be late. He usually hedges his bets. This time he called the airline and asked about the plane before he made the bet. □ John bought some stock and then bet Mary that the stock would go down in value in one year. He has hedged his bets perfectly. If the stock goes up, he sells it, pays off Mary, and still makes a profit. If it goes down, he reduces his loss by winning the bet he made with Mary.

hell-bent for leather moving or behaving recklessly; riding a horse fast and recklessly. (Informal. Typically found in western movies.) □ They took off after the horse thief, riding hell-bent for leather. □ Here comes the boss. She's not just angry; she's hell-bent for leather.

hell on earth a very unpleasant situation, as if one were in hell. □ That man made my life hell on earth! □ The whole time I was there was just hell on earth.

help do something to assist [someone to] do something. □ Bill can help load the truck. □ I am too tired to help mow the grass. □ Bill can help us load the truck. □ I am too tired to help you mow the grass.

help oneself to take whatever one wants or needs. □ Please have some candy. Help yourself. □ When you go to a cafeteria, you help yourself to the food. □ Bill helped himself to dessert.

help (someone or something) out (with someone or something) to assist (someone or something) with a person or a thing. □ Can you help me out with my geometry? □ Yes, I can help out. □ Please help out my son with his geometry. □ Please help me out around the house. □ We helped out the school with its fund-raising.

hem and haw (around) to be uncertain about something; to be evasive; to say "ah" and "eh" when speaking—avoiding saying something meaningful. (Folksy.) □ Stop hemming and hawing around. I want an answer. □ Don't just hem and haw around. Speak up. We want to hear what you think.

hem someone or something in to trap or enclose someone or something. □ The large city buildings hem me in. □ Don't hem in the bird. Let it have a way to escape.

the here and now the present, as opposed to the past or the future. □ I don't care what's happening tomorrow or next week! I care about the here and now. □ The past is dead. Let's worry about the here and now.

here and there at this place and that; from place to place. (Could imply a casual search. See also here, there, and everywhere; hither and thither.) □ We find rare books in used-book stores here and there.

□ She didn't make a systematic search. She just looked here and there.

Here goes nothing. I am beginning to do something that will probably fail or be poorly done. (Informal.) □ Sally stood on the diving board and said, "Here goes nothing." □ As Ann walked onto the stage, she whispered, "Here goes nothing."

Here (it) goes. Something is going to start.; I will start now.; I will do it now. (Informal or slang.) □ I'm ready to start now. Here goes. □ Okay, it's my turn to kick the ball. Here it goes!

here, there, and everywhere everywhere; at all points. (See also hither, thither, and yon. Compare this with here and there.) □ Fred searched here, there, and everywhere, frantically looking for the lost check. □ She did not rest until she had been here, there, and everywhere, shopping for just the right gift.

Here you go. AND There you go. Here is what you asked for. (Informal.) □ "Here you go," said the waiter as he put the plate on the table. □ There you go. Here is your hamburger and your drink.

Here's looking at you. Drink up. (A simple drinking toast.) □ Here's look at you, Tom. □ Thanks for the drink. Here's looking at you.

Here's mud in your eye. Drink up! (A simple and jocular drinking toast.) □ Here's mud in your eye, Tom. □ Thanks for the drink. Here's mud in your eye.

Here's to someone or something. <an expression used as a toast to someone or something to wish someone or something well.> □ Here's to Jim and Mary! May they be very happy! □ Here's to your new job!

hide-and-seek a guessing game where one has to find something or figure out something that is concealed or disguised. (Refers to a game where a person hides and another person tries to find the hidden person.) □ I am tired of running up against a game of hide-and-seek every time I ask to see the financial records of this company. □ I have been trying to see the manager for two days. Where is she? I refuse to play hide-and-seek any longer. I want to see her now!

hide one's face in shame to cover one's face because of shame or embarrassment. □ Mary was so embarrassed. She could only hide her face in shame. □ When Tom broke Ann's crystal vase, he wanted to hide his face in shame.

hide one's head in the sand Go to bury one's head in the sand.

hide one's light under a bushel to conceal one's good ideas or talents. (A biblical theme.) □ Jane has some good ideas, but she doesn't speak very often. She hides her light under a bushel. □ Don't hide your light under a bushel. Share your gifts with other people.

high and dry 1. safe; unbothered by difficulties; unscathed. (Refers to being safe from a flood.) □ While the riot was going on, I was high and dry in my apartment. □ Liz came out of the argument high and dry. 2. abandoned; unsupported and helpless. (See also leave someone high and dry.) □ Everyone else on the committee quit, leaving me high and dry. □ The company moved to Chicago, and I was left high and dry in Dallas.

high-and-mighty self-important and arrogant. □ I don't know why Albert is so high-and-mighty. He's no better than the rest of us. □ The boss acts high-and-mighty because he can fire us all.

high as a kite Go to (as) high as a kite.

high man on the totem pole the person at the top of the hierarchy; the person in charge of an organization. (Informal. Compare this with low man on the totem pole.) □ I don't want to talk to a secretary. I demand to talk to the high man on the totem pole. □ Who's in charge around here? Who's high man on the totem pole?

high on something 1. intoxicated with some drug. (Slang.) □ He got thrown out of the movie because he was high on something. □ Bill was high on marijuana and was singing loudly. 2. enthusiastic about something. (Slang.) □ Jane quit eating red meat. She's really high on fish, however.

□ Bob is high on meditation. He sits and meditates for an hour each day.

highflier a person who is ambitious or who is very likely to be successful. (Informal.)

□ Jack was one of the highfliers of our university year, and he is now in the foreign office. □ Tom is a highflier and has applied for the post of managing director.

hightail it out of somewhere to run or ride a horse away from somewhere fast. (Folksy. Typically heard in western movies.) □ Here comes the sheriff. We'd better hightail it out of here. □ Look at that guy go. He really hightailed it out of town.

highways and byways [all the] roads; the major and minor roads and routes. (Both literal and figurative.) □ I hope I meet you again some day on life's highways and byways. □ The city council voted to plant new trees along all the highways and byways of the town.

hinge on something to depend on something. □ This all hinges on how much risk you're willing to take. □ Whether we have the picnic hinges on the weather.

hit a happy medium Go to strike a happy medium.

hit-and-miss AND hit-or-miss carelessly; aimlessly; without plan or direction. □ There was no planning. It was just hit-and-miss. □ We handed out the free tickets hit-or-miss. Some people got one; others got five or six.

hit-and-run an accident where the driver of a car strikes a person or another vehicle and speeds away without admitting to the deed or stopping to help. □ Fred was injured in a hit-and-run accident. □ The state passed a law making any kind of hit-and-run accident a felony.

hit a plateau to reach a higher level of activity, sales, production, output, etc., and then stop and remain unchanged. □ When my sales hit a plateau, my boss gave me a pep talk. □ When production hit a plateau, the company built a new factory.

hit a snag to run into a problem. (Informal.) □ We've hit a snag with the build- ing project. □ I stopped working on the roof when I hit a snag.

hit a sour note Go to strike a sour note.

hit bottom to reach the lowest or worst point. □ Our profits have hit bottom. This is our worst year ever. □ When my life hit bottom, I began to feel much better. I knew that if there was going to be any change, it would be for the better.

hit home AND strike home to really make sense; [for a comment] to make a very good point. □ Mary's criticism of my clothes hit home, so I changed. □ The teacher's comment struck home and the student vowed to work harder.

hit it off (with someone) to quickly become good friends with someone. □ Look how John hit it off with Mary. □ Yes, they really hit it off.

hit one close to home Go to hit one where one lives.

hit one's stride Go to reach one's stride.

hit one where one lives AND hit one close to home to affect one personally and intimately. (Informal.) □ Her comments really hit me where I live. Her words seemed to apply directly to me. □ I listened carefully and didn't think she hit close to home at all.

hit-or-miss Go to hit-and-miss.

hit pay dirt to discover something of value. (Slang. Refers to discovering valuable ore.) □ Sally tried a number of different jobs until she hit pay dirt. □ I tried to borrow money from a lot of different people. They all said no. Then when I went to the bank, I hit pay dirt.

hit (someone) below the belt to do something unfair or unsporting to someone. (Informal. From boxing, where a blow below the belt line is not permitted.) □ You really hit me below the belt when you told the boss about my tax problems. □ In business Bill is difficult to deal with. He hits below the belt.

hit someone hard to affect someone's emotions strongly. (Also literal.) □ The death of his friend hit John hard. □ The investor was hit hard by the falling stock prices.

hit (someone) like a ton of bricks to surprise, startle, or shock someone. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Suddenly, the truth hit me like a ton of bricks. □ The sudden tax increase hit like a ton of bricks. Everyone became angry.

hit someone (right) between the eyes to become completely apparent; to surprise or impress someone. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Suddenly, it hit me right between the eyes. John and Mary were in love. □ Then—as he was talking—the exact nature of the evil plan hit me between the eyes.

hit someone up (for something) to ask someone for something. (Informal.) □ John hit me up for a loan. □ I told him to go hit up someone else.

hit the books to begin to study; to study. (Slang.) □ Well, time to hit the books. □ John, if you don't start hitting the books, you're going to fail.

hit the bottle to drink alcohol to excess. (As if drinking directly from the bottle, that is, taking a hit from the bottle. Slang.) □ Fred goes home and hits the bottle every night. □ Bill has been hitting the bottle a lot lately. I think he has a problem.

hit the bricks to start walking; to go out into the streets. (Slang.) □ If you want to get a job, you had better get out there and hit the bricks. □ I got fired today. The boss came by and told me to hit the bricks.

hit the bull's-eye to achieve a goal perfectly. (Refers to hitting the center of a circular target. Informal.) □ Your idea really hit the bull's-eye. Thank you! □ Jill has a lot of insight. She knows how to hit the bull's-eye in discussions.

hit the ceiling to become very angry. (Also literal. Informal.) □ My father hit the ceiling when I damaged the car. □ Our employer hit the ceiling when we lost an important contract.

hit the hay AND hit the sack to go to bed and get some sleep. (Slang. Compare this with sack out.) □ Look at the clock. It's time to hit the hay. □ I like to hit the sack before midnight.

hit the high spots to do only the important, obvious, or good things. (Informal.) □ I won't discuss the entire report. I'll just hit the high spots. □ First, let me hit the high spots; then I'll tell you about everything.

hit the jackpot 1. to win at gambling. (Refers to the “jack” in playing cards.) □ Bob hit the jackpot three times in one night. □ I've never hit the jackpot even once. 2. to have a success. □ I hit the jackpot on a business deal. □ I really hit the jackpot in the library. I found just what I needed.

hit the nail (right) on the head to do exactly the right thing; to do something in the most effective and efficient way; to identify the exact nature of something. (Also literal.) □ You've spotted the flaw, Sally. You hit the nail on the head. □ Bob doesn't say much, but every now and then he hits the nail right on the head.

hit the road to depart; to begin one's journey, especially on a road trip; to leave for home. □ It's time to hit the road. I'll see you. □ We have to hit the road very early in the morning.

hit the sack Go to hit the hay.

hit the skids to decline; to decrease in value. (Slang.) □ Business usually hits the skids in the summer. □ Tom hit the skids after he lost his job.

hit the spot to be exactly right; to be refreshing. (Informal.) □ This cool drink really hits the spot. □ That was a delicious meal, dear. It hit the spot.

hit (up)on something to discover or think up something. (Informal.) □ Ann hit on the idea of baking lots of bread and freezing it. □ John hit upon a new way of planting corn.

hitch a ride Go to thumb a ride.

hither and thither here and there. (Formal and archaic.) □ The dog chased the poor bunny hither and thither, failing at every turn to capture it. □ Sharon searched hither and thither, hoping to find her lost Persian cat.

hither, thither, and yon everywhere; here, there, and everywhere. (Formal and archaic.) □ The prince looked hither, thither, and yon for the beautiful woman who had lost the glass slipper. □ The terrible wizard had sown the seeds of his evil vine hither, thither, and yon, and soon the evil, twisted plants began to sprout in all the land.

hitting on all cylinders Go to firing on all cylinders.

a hive of activity the location where things are very busy. (Refers to the activity around a beehive.) □ The hotel lobby was a hive of activity each morning. □ During the holidays, the shopping center is a hive of activity.

hoarse as a crow Go to (as) hoarse as a crow.

Hobson's choice the choice between taking what is offered and getting nothing at all. (From the name of a stable owner in the seventeenth century who offered customers the hire of the horse nearest the door.) □ We didn't really want that particular hotel, but it was a case of Hobson's choice. We booked very late and there was nothing else left. □ If you want a yellow car, it's Hobson's choice. The garage has only one.

hoist by one's own petard AND hoist with one's own petard harmed or disadvantaged by an action of one's own that was meant to harm someone else. (From a line in Shakespeare's Hamlet.) □ She intended to murder her brother but was hoist by her own petard when she ate the poisoned food intended for him. □ The vandals were hoist with their own petard when they tried to make an emergency call from the pay phone they had broken.

hoist with one's own petard Go to hoist by one's own petard.

hold a grudge (against someone) Go to bear a grudge (against someone).

hold all the aces to be in a favorable position; to be in a controlling position.

(Slang. Refers to having possession of all four aces in a card game.) □ How can I advance in my job when my enemy holds all the aces? □ If I held all the aces, I'd be able to do great things.

hold a meeting to meet; to have a meeting (of an organization). □ We'll have to hold a meeting to make a decision. □ Our club held a meeting to talk about future projects.

hold forth (on something) to speak at length. □ I've never seen anyone who could hold forth so long. □ The professor held forth on economic theory for nearly an hour.

hold no brief for someone or something not to care about someone or something; to dislike someone or something. □ I hold no brief for bad typists. □ My father says he holds no brief for sweet potatoes.

hold one's breath to stop doing something and wait until something special happens. (Also literal. Informal. Usually in the negative.) □ BOB: The bus is going to come soon. BILL: Don't hold your breath until it does. □ I expect the mail to be delivered soon, but I'm not holding my breath.

hold one's end (of the bargain) up to do one's part as agreed; to attend to one's responsibilities as agreed. □ If you don't hold your end up, the whole project will fail. □ Tom has to learn to cooperate. He must hold up his end of the bargain.

hold one's fire 1. to refrain from shooting (a gun, etc.). □ The sergeant told the soldiers to hold their fire. □ Please hold your fire until I get out of the way. 2. to postpone one's criticism or commentary. (Informal.) □ Now, now, hold your fire until I've had a chance to explain. □ Hold your fire, Bill. You're too quick to complain.

hold one's ground Go to stand one's ground.

hold one's head up to retain or display one's dignity. (Also literal.) □ I've done nothing wrong. I can hold my head up in public. □ I'm so embarrassed and ashamed. I'll never be able to hold up my head again.

hold one's own to do as well as anyone else.

- I can hold my own in a footrace any day.
- She was unable to hold her own, and she had to quit.

hold one's peace to remain silent. □ Bill was unable to hold his peace any longer. "Don't do it!" he cried. □ Quiet, John. Hold your peace for a little while longer.

hold one's temper Go to keep one's temper.

hold one's tongue to refrain from speaking; to refrain from saying something unpleasant. (See also the fixed phrase Hold your tongue!) □ I felt like scolding her, but I held my tongue. □ You must learn to hold your tongue, John. You can't talk to people that way.

hold on (to someone or something) Go to hang on (to someone or something).

hold out for something to insist on getting something; to refuse to accept less than something. □ The workers are holding out for a reasonable raise. □ The teachers are holding out for a reduction in class size.

hold out the olive branch to offer to end a dispute and be friendly; to offer reconciliation. (The olive branch is a symbol of peace and reconciliation. A biblical reference.) □ Jill was the first to hold out the olive branch after our argument. □ I always try to hold out the olive branch to someone I have hurt. Life is too short for a person to bear grudges for very long.

hold someone down to try to keep someone from succeeding. (Also literal.) □ I still think you're trying to hold him down. ☐ I'm not trying to hold down my brother.

hold someone hostage to keep someone as a hostage. □ The terrorists planned to hold everyone hostage in the airplane. □ My neighbor was held hostage in his own home by a robber.

hold someone in high regard to have very great respect for someone or something; to admire someone or something greatly. □ We hold our employees in very high regard. □ I do not hold Bob's abilities in high regard.

hold someone or something in check Go to keep someone or something in check.

hold someone or something over to retain someone or something (for a period of time). □ The storm held John over for another day. □ The manager held the movie over for another week.

hold someone or something still Go to keep someone or something still.

hold someone or something up 1. [with someone] to rob someone (figuratively or literally). □ I don't eat at that restaurant any more. The food is too expensive. They really held me up the last time I ate there. □ That's the one who held me up at gunpoint. ☐ The thug held up the old lady. 2. to detain someone or something; to make someone or something late. (Also literal meaning to keep someone or something upright.) □ The traffic on the expressway held me up. ☐ A storm in Boston held up our plane.

hold someone or something up (as an example) to point out someone or something as a good example. (See also make an example of someone.) □ I was embarrassed when the boss held me up as an example. □ I don't like for anyone to hold me up like that. ☐ The teacher held up the leaf as an example of a typical compound leaf.

hold someone's attention to keep someone's attention; to keep someone interested. □ The boring teacher could not hold the students' attention. □ The mystery novel held my attention and I couldn't put it down.

hold something against someone to blame something on someone; to bear a grudge against someone; to resent someone. (Also literal.) □ Your brother is mean to me, but I can't hold it against you. □ You're holding something against me. What is it?

hold still Go to keep still.

hold still for something Go to stand still for something.

hold the fort to take care of a place, such as a store or one's home. (Refers to defending a fort against attackers. Informal. From western movies.) □ I'm going next door to visit Mrs. Jones. You stay here and hold the fort. □ You should open the store at eight o'clock and hold the fort until I get there at ten.

hold the line (at someone or something) to limit the number of people or things; to limit (something) to someone or something. (See also draw the line (at something).) ☐ The room will seat fifty, but I think you should hold the line at forty. ☐ The Browns and the Smiths could be invited, but I think we ought to hold the line at the Browns. ☐ Okay, we'll hold the line.

hold true [for something] to be true; [for something] to remain true. ☐ Does this rule hold true all the time? ☐ Yes, it holds true no matter what.

hold up to endure; to last a long time. ☐ How long will this cloth hold up? ☐ I want my money back for this chair. It isn't holding up well.

hold up (for someone or something) Go to wait up (for someone or something).

hold up on something to delay doing something. ☐ Please hold up on the project. We've run out of money. ☐ I have to hold up on my reading because I broke my glasses.

hold with something to accept or agree with something. (Folksy. Usually in the negative.) ☐ My father doesn't hold with fancy clothes. ☐ I don't hold with too many X rays.

Hold your horses! Wait a minute and be reasonable!; Do not run off wildly! (Folksy. From western movies.) ☐ Now, hold your horses, John. Be reasonable for a change. ☐ Don't get so mad. Just hold your horses.

Hold your tongue! Be quiet!; Stop saying what you are saying! ☐ Hold your tongue! I've heard enough of your insults. ☐ That's enough rudeness for today! Hold your tongue!

a hole in one 1. an instance of hitting a golf ball into a hole in only one try. (From the game of golf.) ☐ John made a hole in one yesterday. ☐ I've never gotten a hole in one. 2. an instance of succeeding the first time. ☐ It worked the first time I tried it—a hole in one. ☐ Bob got a hole in one on that sale. A lady walked in the door, and he sold her a car in five minutes.

hole up (somewhere) to hide somewhere; to live in hiding somewhere. (Slang. Typically in western or gangster movies.) ☐ The old man is holed up in the mountains, waiting for the war to end. ☐ If we are going to hole up for the winter, we'll need lots of food.

holier-than-thou excessively pious; acting as though one is more virtuous than other people. ☐ Jack always adopts a holier-than-thou attitude to other people, but people say he has been in prison. ☐ Jane used to be holier-than-thou, but she is marrying Tom, who is a crook.

home in (on someone or something) to aim exactly at something and move toward it. ☐ The sheriff walked into the room and homed in on the horse thief. ☐ The plane homed in on the beacon at the airport. ☐ First, you must set your goal and then home in.

honest and aboveboard Go to above-board.

Honest to God. Go to Honest to goodness.

Honest to goodness. AND Honest to God.; Honest to Pete. I speak the truth. (Some people may object to the use of God in this phrase.) ☐ Did he really say that? Honest to goodness? ☐ Honest to Pete, I've been to the moon. ☐ I've been there, too—honest to God.

Honest to Pete. Go to Honest to goodness.

The honeymoon is over. The early pleasant beginning has ended. ☐ Okay, the honeymoon is over. It's time to settle down and do some hard work. ☐ I knew the honeymoon was over when they started yelling at me to work faster.

honor someone's check to accept someone's personal check. ☐ The clerk at the store wouldn't honor my check. I had to pay cash. ☐ The bank didn't honor your check when I tried to deposit it. Please give me cash.

hooked (on something) 1. addicted to a drug or something similar. (Slang.) ☐ Jenny is hooked on cocaine. ☐ She was not hooked on anything before that. ☐ John is hooked on coffee. 2. enthusiastic about something; supportive of something. ☐ Mary is hooked on football. She never misses a game. ☐ Jane is so happy! She's hooked on life.

hoot and holler to shout in disapproval; to call and shout one's displeasure. ☐ After the umpire rendered his decision, the spectators hooted and hollered their thoughts on the matter. ☐ It's hard to play a good game of basketball when the fans are hooting and hollering at everything you do.

a hop, skip, and a jump a short distance. (Also literal.) ☐ Her house was just a hop, skip, and a jump away from mine, so we visited often. ☐ Our town is just a hop, skip, and a jump from a big city, so we get the advantages of both city and country life.

Hop to it! Move fast!; Get started! (Slang.) ☐ Come on, you guys, move it! Hop to it! ☐ Hop to it, Bill. You look like you're loafing.

hope against (all) hope to have hope even when the situation appears to be hopeless. ☐ We hope against all hope that she'll see the right thing to do and do it. ☐ There is little point in hoping against hope, except that it makes you feel better.

hopeless at doing something incapable of doing something. ☐ Tom is hopeless at cooking. ☐ Sally is hopeless at dusting. She hates it.

hopped up 1. intoxicated with drugs or alcohol; stimulated by drugs or alcohol. (Slang.) ☐ The old man was hopped up again. He was addicted to opium. ☐ John usually gets hopped up on the weekends. 2. excited; enthusiastic. (Slang.) ☐ What are you hopped up about now? You're certainly cheery. ☐ I always get hopped up when I think of mountain climbing.

horn in (on someone or something) 1. [with someone] to attempt to displace someone. (Informal.) ☐ I'm going to ask Sally to the party. Don't you dare try to horn in on me! ☐ I wouldn't think of horning in. 2. [with something] to attempt to participate in something without invitation or consent. ☐ Are you trying to horn in on my con- versation with Sally? ☐ I hope you are not trying to horn in on our party.

horse and buggy AND horse and carriage a carriage pulled by a horse, as opposed to a modern automobile. (A symbol of old-fashionedness or out-of-dateness. Particularly with go out with, as in the examples below.) ☐ That kind of clothing went out with the horse and buggy. ☐ I thought suspenders went out with the horse and carriage, but I see them everywhere now.

horse and carriage Go to horse and buggy.

horse around to play around; to waste time in frivolous activities. (Informal.) ☐ Stop horsing around and get to work. ☐ The children were on the playground horsing around when the bell rang.

a horse of a different color Go to a horse of another color.

a horse of another color AND a horse of a different color another matter altogether. ☐ I was talking about trees, not bushes. Bushes are a horse of another color. ☐ Gambling is not the same as investing in the stock market. It's a horse of a different color.

horse sense common sense; practical thinking. ☐ Jack is no scholar but he has a lot of horse sense. ☐ Horse sense tells me I should not be involved in that project.

hot and bothered 1. excited; anxious. (Informal.) ☐ Now don't get hot and bothered. Take it easy. ☐ John is hot and bothered about the tax increase. 2. amorous; interested in romance or sex. (Informal and euphemistic. Use with caution.) ☐ John gets hot and bothered whenever Mary comes into the room. ☐ The dog seems hot and bothered. I think it's that time of the year again.

hot and heavy referring to serious passion or emotions. ☐ Things were getting a little hot and heavy so Ellen asked to be taken home. ☐ The movie had one hot and heavy scene after another. Pretty soon it got to be a joke.

hot as fire Go to (as) hot as fire.

hot as hell Go to (as) hot as hell.

hot on something enthusiastic about something; very much interested in something; knowledgeable about something. (Informal.) ☐ Meg's hot on animal rights.
☐ Jean is hot on modern ballet just now.

hot under the collar very angry. ☐ The boss was really hot under the collar when you told him you lost the contract. ☐ I get hot under the collar every time I think about it.

hotfoot it out of somewhere to run away from a place. (Folksy. Compare this with high tail it out of somewhere.) ☐ Did you see Tom hotfoot it out of the office when the boss came in? ☐ Things are looking bad. I think we had better hotfoot it out of here.

How goes it (with you)? Hello, how are you? (Informal.) ☐ Hi, Mary. How goes it with you? ☐ How goes it, Bill?

How's it going? How are you? (Informal.) ☐ Hi, Bob. How's it going? ☐ How's it going? Everything all right?

How's the world (been) treating you? How are you? ☐ Hi, Jane, How's the world treating you? ☐ How's the world been treating you, Bill?

a hue and cry a loud public protest or opposition. ☐ There was a hue and cry when the city government tried to build houses on the playing field. ☐ The decision to close the local school started a real hue and cry.

huff and puff to breathe very hard; to pant as one exerts effort. ☐ John came up the stairs huffing and puffing. ☐ He huffed and puffed and finally got up the steep hill.

hung up (on someone or something) obsessed with someone or something; devoted to someone or something. (Slang.) ☐ John is really hung up on Mary. ☐ She's hung up, too. See how she smiles when he enters the room.

hunger for something to have a strong desire for something. ☐ All her life, Mary has had a hunger for affection. ☐ The pris- oner was consumed with a hunger for freedom.

hungry as a bear Go to (as) hungry as a bear.

hungry as a hunter Go to (as) hungry as a hunter.

hungry for something desiring something. ☐ The orphan was hungry for the warmth of a family. ☐ Bill is hungry for knowledge and always studying.

hunt-and-peck a slow "system" of typing where one searches for a letter and then presses it. (From the movement used by fowls when feeding.) ☐ I never learned to type right. All I do is hunt-and-peck. ☐ I can't type. I just hunt-and-peck, but I get the job done—eventually.

hunt high and low (for someone or something) AND look high and low (for someone or something); search high and low (for someone or something) to look carefully in every possible place for someone or something. ☐ We looked high and low for the right teacher. ☐ The Smiths are searching high and low for the home of their dreams.

hunt someone or something up Go to look someone or something up.

hurl an insult (at someone) to direct an insult at someone; to say something insulting directly to someone. ☐ Anne hurled an insult at Bob that made him very angry. ☐ If you two would stop hurling insults, we could have a serious discussion.

a hush fell over someone or something a sudden silence enveloped something, someone, or a group. ☐ As the conductor raised his arms, a hush fell over the audience. ☐ The coach shouted and a hush fell over the locker room.

hush money money paid as a bribe to persuade someone to remain silent and not reveal certain information. ☐ Bob gave his younger sister hush money so that she wouldn't tell Jane that he had gone to the movies with Sue. ☐ The crooks paid Fred hush money to keep their whereabouts secret.

Hush your mouth!

Hush your mouth! Please be quiet! (Not very polite.) □ I've heard enough of that talk. Hush your mouth! □ Now, hush your mouth! You know you really should not talk about other people's problems like that!

hustle and bustle confusion, hurry, and bother. □ The hustle and bustle of the big city is especially annoying in the hot days of summer. □ Fred seems to enjoy the hustle and bustle of traffic during rush hour, so he is a very happy bus driver.

I

I didn't catch your name. No one told me your name [or I have forgotten it]. (A carrying on of a conversation that has just started—if one hasn't been introduced properly—or simply finding out someone's name.) ☐ I'm sorry, but I didn't catch your name. ☐ I'm Wally Ott. I didn't catch your name.

I just have this feeling I have a premonition about this; I have a strange feeling about this. ☐ I really don't know that something is wrong. I just have this feeling. ☐ I just have this feeling that she is not telling us the truth.

if looks could kill  ☐ Did you see the way she looked at me? If looks could kill.... ☐ If looks could kill. What a nasty glare.

if not if that is not [the case]; if that is not so. ☐ If not cleaned, the clock will stop running. ☐ He should be here at noon. If not, we will eat without him.

if push comes to shove if the situation really becomes difficult; if matters escalate into a strong argument. (See also when push comes to shove.) ☐ If push comes to shove, I am ready to be more aggressive. ☐ If push comes to shove, I am sure that our senator will help out.

if so if that is [the case]; if that is so. ☐ She might be late. If so, we will eat without her. ☐ She is supposed to be all right. If so, we have nothing to worry about.

if the shoe fits, wear it. You should pay attention to advice or criticism if it applies to you. (Proverb.) ☐ Some people here need to be quiet. If the shoe fits, wear it. ☐ This doesn't apply to everyone. If the shoe fits, wear it.

if worst comes to worst in the worst possible situation; if things really get bad. ☐ If worst comes to worst, we'll hire someone to help you. ☐ If worst comes to worst, I'll have to borrow some money.

ill at ease uneasy; anxious. ☐ I feel ill at ease about the interview. ☐ You look ill at ease. Please relax.

ill-disposed to doing something not friendly; not favorable; not well disposed. ☐ I am ill-disposed to doing hard labor. ☐ The police chief was ill-disposed to discussing the details of the case to the news reporters.

I'll drink to that! I agree with that! (Informal. As if joining in with drinks following a toast.) ☐ Great idea! I'll drink to that. ☐ That's a fine suggestion. I'll drink to that.

ill-gotten gains money or other possessions acquired in a dishonest or illegal fashion. ☐ Fred cheated at cards and is now living on his ill-gotten gains. ☐ Mary is also enjoying her ill-gotten gains. She deceived an old lady into leaving her money in her will.

I'll (try to) catch you later. I will try to talk with you or meet with you at some future time. (Informal.) ☐ I don't have time to talk to you now. I'll try to catch you later. ☐ Hi, I'm leaving. I'll catch you later.

ill will hostile feelings or intentions. ☐ I hope you do not have any ill will toward me because of our argument. ☐ Dave felt such ill will toward his family that he left his fortune to his best friend.

I'm awful at names. Go to I'm terrible at names.

I'm damned if I do and damned if I don't. There are problems if I do something and problems if I don't do it. □ I can't win. I'm damned if I do and damned if I don't □ No matter whether I go or stay, I am in trouble. I'm damned if I do and damned if I don't.

(I'm) sorry. <an expression used to excuse oneself politely or apologize, especially when one has collided with someone, when one has offended someone, or to ask someone to repeat what has been said.> □ "I'm sorry," I said to the woman I bumped into. □ I'm sorry, what did you say? I couldn't hear you.

I'm terrible at names. AND I'm awful at names. I can't seem to remember anyone's name. (Said as an apology to someone whose name you have forgotten.) □ I'm terrible at names. Please tell me yours again. □ Haven't we met already? I'm awful at names.

Imagine that! Is that so?; How interesting and strange! (Said when one hears something that is interesting. Often sarcastic.) □ Fell out of bed. Imagine that! □ She's late again. Imagine that!

immediate occupancy [of an apartment or house] ready to be moved into at this moment. □ This house is for immediate occupancy. You can move in today if you want. □ It's empty, so that means immediate occupancy.

implicate someone (in something) to suggest that someone is involved in something. □ The mayor was implicated in the murder. □ Jane's essay implicated her teacher in the cheating scandal.

in a bad mood sad; depressed; grouchy; with low spirits. □ He's in a bad mood. He may yell at you. □ Please try to cheer me up. I'm in a bad mood.

in a bad way in a critical or bad state. (Can refer to health, finances, mood, etc.) □ Mr. Smith is in a bad way. He may have to go to the hospital. □ My bank account is in a bad way. It needs some help from a millionaire. □ My life is in a bad way, and I'm depressed about it.

in abeyance in reserve. □ Until the judge determined that the evidence could be used in the trial, it was held in abeyance. □ I kept my opinion in abeyance.

in a bind AND in a jam in a tight or difficult situation; stuck on a problem. (Note: In can be replaced with into to show movement toward or into the state described by bind or jam. Especially get into. See the examples below.) □ I'm in a bind. I owe a lot of money. □ Whenever I get into a jam, I ask my supervisor for help. □ When things get busy around here, we get in a bind. We could use another helper.

in accordance with something in agreement with; in conformity with. □ In accordance with our discussion, I have prepared a contract. □ I did this in accordance with your request.

in a (constant) state of flux Go to in flux.

in a coon's age AND in a month of Sundays in a very long time. (Folksy. Usually negative. The coon is a raccoon.) □ How are you? I haven't seen you in a coon's age. □ I haven't had a piece of apple pie this good in a coon's age. □ John hasn't seen a movie in a month of Sundays.

in addition (to something) additionally; further; moreover; as an additional thing or person. □ In addition, I would like for you to sweep the kitchen floor. □ I put the books away, and in addition, I cleaned up my desk.

in a dead heat [finishing a race] at exactly the same time; tied. □ The two horses finished the race in a dead heat. □ They ended the contest in a dead heat.

in advance [of something given, paid, or provided] before it is due. □ The bill isn't due for a month, but I paid it in advance. □ I want my pay in advance.

in a family way AND in the family way pregnant. (Informal.) □ I've heard that Mrs. Smith is in a family way. □ Our dog is in the family way.

in a fix in a bad situation. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ I really got my- self into a fix. I owe a lot of money on my taxes. □ John is in a fix because he lost his wallet. □ John got into a fix.

in a flash quickly; immediately. (Informal.) □ I'll be there in a flash. □ It happened in a flash. Suddenly my wallet was gone.

in a fog preoccupied; not paying attention to what is going on around one; not alert. □ Jane always seems to be in a fog. □ When I get up, I'm in a fog for an hour.

in a fool's paradise in a condition of seeming happiness that will not last because it is based on false assumptions. □ They think they can live on love alone, but they are living in a fool's paradise. □ The inhabitants of the island feel politically secure, but they are living in a fool's paradise. They could be invaded at any time.

in agreement in harmony; agreeing. □ The business partners were never in agreement about marketing strategies. □ Because the partners were not in agreement, the business failed.

in a haze in a state of confusion. □ After being hit in the head by the bat, Bill was in a haze. □ After surgery, I was in a haze until the anesthetic wore off.

in a huff in an angry or offended manner. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ He heard what we had to say, then left in a huff. □ She came in a huff and ordered us to bring her something to eat. □ She gets into a huff very easily.

in a jam Go to in a bind.

in a jiffy very fast; very soon. (Slang.) □ Just wait a minute. I'll be there in a jiffy. □ I'll be finished in a jiffy.

in a lather flustered; excited and agitated. (In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ Now, calm down. Don't be in a lather. □ I always get in a lather when I'm late. □ I get into a lather easily.

in a little bit in a small amount of time; soon. □ I will be there in a little bit. Please wait. □ In a little bit, we can go outside and play.

in (all) good conscience having good motives; displaying motives that will not result in a guilty conscience. □ In all good conscience, I could not recommend that you buy this car. □ In good conscience, she could not accept the reward. She had only been acting as any good citizen should.

in all one's born days ever; in all one's life. (Folksy.) □ I've never been so angry in all my born days. □ Have you ever heard such a thing in all your born days?

in all probability very likely; almost certainly. □ He'll be here on time in all probability. □ In all probability, they'll finish the work today.

in a mad rush in a hurry; frantically. □ I ran around all day today in a mad rush, looking for a present for Bill. □ Why are you always in a mad rush?

in a month of Sundays Go to in a coon's age.

in and of itself itself; considering it alone. □ The idea in and of itself is not bad, but the side issues introduce many difficulties. □ Her action, in and of itself, caused us no problem.

in a nutshell in a few words; briefly; concisely. (Informal.) □ I don't have time for the whole explanation. Please give it to me in a nutshell. □ Well, in a nutshell, we have to work late.

in any case AND in any event no matter what happens. □ I intend to be home by supper time, but in any case by eight o'clock. □ In any event, I'll see you this evening.

in any event Go to in any case.

in a pinch in a situation where there is but one choice; in a situation where there is not time to locate another choice. □ I don't care for this kind of paint, but it will do in a pinch. □ Tom is not the best choice around, but he will have to do in a pinch.

in apple-pie order in very good order; very well organized. (Folksy. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ Please put everything in apple-pie order before you leave. □ I always put my desk in apple-pie order every evening. □ I've put my entire life into apple-pie order.

in a (pretty) pickle AND in a real pickle in a mess; in trouble. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ John has gotten himself into a pickle. He has two dates for the party. □ Now we are in a real pickle. We are out of gas.

in a quandary uncertain about what to do; confused. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Mary was in a quandary about what college to go to. □ I couldn't decide what to do. I was in such a quandary. □ I got myself into a quandary.

in a real pickle Go to in a (pretty) pickle.

in arrears overdue; late, especially in reference to bills and money. □ This bill is three months in arrears. It must be paid immediately. □ I was in arrears on my car payments, so the bank threatened to take my car away.

in a rut Go to (stuck) in a rut.

in a sense in a way; sort of. □ In a sense, cars make life better. □ But, in a sense, they also make life worse.

in a snit in a fit of anger or irritation. (Slang. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Mrs. Smith threw on her coat and left in a snit. □ Here comes John—in a snit again—as usual. □ Don't get into a snit.

in a split second in just an instant. (Informal.) □ The lightning struck, and in a split second the house burst into flames. □ Just wait. I'll be there in a split second.

in a stage whisper in a loud whisper that everyone can hear. □ John said in a stage whisper, "This play is boring." □ "When do we eat?" asked Billy in a stage whisper.

in a stew (about someone or something) upset or bothered about someone or something. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ I'm in such a stew about my dog. She ran away last night. □ Now, now. Don't be in a stew. She'll be back when she gets hungry. □ I hate to get into a stew about my friends.

in a stupor in a dazed condition; in a condition in which one cannot concentrate or think. □ The drunk driver walked away from the car accident in a stupor. □ In the morning, Mary remains in a stupor until she drinks coffee.

in a (tight) spot caught in a problem; in a jam. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Look, John, I'm in a tight spot. Can you lend me twenty dollars? □ I'm in a spot too. I need $300. □ I have never gotten into a tight spot.

in a tizzy in an excited and confused condition. □ John is in a tizzy because we're an hour late. □ Mary was in a tizzy when she couldn't find her keys.

in at the kill Go to in on the kill.

in a vicious circle in a situation in which the solution of one problem leads to a second problem, and the solution of the second problem brings back the first problem, etc. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Life is so strange. I seem to be in a vicious circle most of the time. □ I put lemon in my tea to make it sour, then sugar to make it sweet. I'm in a vicious circle. □ Don't let your life get into a vicious circle.

in awe (of someone or something) fearful and respectful of someone or something. □ Everyone in the country was in awe of the king and queen. □ I love my new car. In fact, I'm in awe of it. □ When I first saw the house, I just stood there in awe.

in a word said simply; concisely said. □ Mrs. Smith is—in a word—haughty. □ In a word, the play flopped.

in a world of one's own aloof; detached; self-centered. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ John lives in a world of his own. He has very few friends. □ Mary walks around in a world of her own, but she's very intelligent. □ When she's thinking, she drifts into a world of her own.

in bad faith without sincerity; with bad or dishonest intent; with duplicity. (Compare this with in good faith.) □ It appears that you acted in bad faith and didn't live up to the terms of our agreement. □ If you do things in bad faith, you'll get a bad reputation.

in bad sorts in a bad humor; in a bad mood. □ Bill is in bad sorts today. He's very grouchy. □ I try to be extra nice to people when I'm in bad sorts.

in bad taste AND in poor taste rude; vulgar; obscene. □ Mrs. Franklin felt that your joke was in bad taste. □ We found the play to be in poor taste, so we walked out in the middle of the second act.

in bad (with someone) having someone against you; having gotten into trouble with someone. (Informal. Compare this with in good (with someone).) □ Sally is in bad with her parents for failing algebra. □ She's really in bad. She has real trouble.

in behalf of someone AND in someone's behalf; on behalf of someone; on someone's behalf; in someone's name [doing something] as someone's agent; [doing something] in place of someone; for the benefit of someone. □ I'm writing in behalf of Mr. Smith, who has applied for a job with your company. □ I'm calling on behalf of my client, who wishes to complain about your actions. □ I'm calling in her behalf. □ I'm acting on your behalf.

in between located in the middle of two things, states, or possibilities. □ It's not hot or cold. It's in between. □ A sandwich consists of two slices of bread with some other food in between.

in black and white official, in writing or printing. (Said of something, such as an agreement or a statement, which has been recorded in writing. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ I have it in black and white that I'm entitled to three weeks of vacation each year. □ It says right here in black and white that oak trees make acorns. □ Please put the agreement into black and white.

in bloom with many flowers; at the peak of blooming. □ The garden is beautiful when it is in bloom. □ The roses are in bloom and they smell so sweet!

in blossom with many flowers opening; in bloom. □ The peonies are in blossom early this spring. □ If the daffodils are in blossom, spring is on the way.

in brief briefly; concisely. □ The whole story, in brief, is that Bob failed algebra because he did not study. □ Please tell me in brief why you want this job.

in broad daylight publicly visible in the daytime. □ The thief stole the car in broad daylight. □ There they were, selling drugs in broad daylight.

in bulk in large quantities or amounts, rather than smaller, more convenient quantities or amounts. □ Jane always bought office supplies in bulk to save money. □ Dave purchased cereal in bulk because his family used so much of it.

in cahoots (with someone) in conspiracy with someone; in league with someone. (Folksy.) □ The mayor is in cahoots with the construction company that got the contract for the new building. □ Those two have been in cahoots before.

in care of someone [to be delivered to someone] through someone or by way of someone. (Indicates that mail is to be delivered to a person at some other person's address.) □ Bill Jones is living at his father's house. Address the letter to Bill in care of Mr. John Jones. □ Bill said, "Please send me my mail in care of my father at his address."

in case in the event (that). □ What do we do in case the building catches fire? □ We should close the windows just in case it rains.

in case of something in the event of something. (Compare this with in the case of someone or something; in case something happens.) □ Please leave the building at once in case of fire. □ Please take your raincoat in case of rain.

in case something happens in the event that something takes place. (Compare this with in case of something.) □ She carries an umbrella in case it rains. □ I have some aspirin in my office in case I get a headache.

in character typical of someone's behavior. □ For Tom to shout that way wasn't at all in character. He's usually quite pleasant. □ It was quite in character for Sally to walk away angry.

in clover with good fortune; in a very good situation, especially financially. (Slang.) □ If I get this contract, I'll be in clover for the rest of my life. □ I have very little money saved, so when I retire I won't exactly be in clover.

in cold blood without feeling; with cruel intent. (Informal or slang. Frequently said of a crime, especially murder.) □ The killer walked up and shot the woman in cold blood. □ How insulting! For a person to say something like that in cold blood is just horrible.

in cold storage stored away for future use; in an out-of-the-way place. (Also literal.) □ I have had this special gift in cold storage for an occasion such as this. □ Todd had been keeping himself in cold storage, trying to study for his exams.

in concert (with someone) in cooperation with someone; with the aid of someone. □ Mrs. Smith planned the party in concert with her sister. □ In concert they planned a lovely event.

in condition AND in shape in good health; strong and healthy. (Used only with people. Compare this with in good shape. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Bob exercises frequently, so he's in condition. □ If I were in shape, I could run faster and farther. □ I'm not healthy. I have to try to get into shape.

in consequence (of something) as a result of something; because of something. □ In consequence of the storm, there was no electricity. □ The wind blew down the wires. In consequence, we had no electricity.

in consideration of something in return for something; as a result of something. (Compare this with out of consideration (for someone or something).) □ In consideration of your many years of service, we are pleased to present you with this gold watch. □ In consideration of your efforts, here is a check for $3,000.

in contempt (of court) disrespect for a judge or for courtroom procedures. □ The bailiff ejected the lawyer who was held in contempt. □ The judge found the juror in contempt of court when she screamed at the attorney.

in creation Go to on earth.

in custody of someone or something AND in someone's or something's custody the condition of being kept guarded by someone or some group. □ The suspect was in the sheriff's custody awaiting a trial. □ The prisoner is in the custody of the state.

in debt having debts; having much debt; owing money. □ Mary is deeply in debt. □ I am in debt to the bank for my car loan.

in deep 1. deeply involved. □ John and Mary have been seeing each other for months now. They are really in deep. □ Bill loves the theater. He's definitely in deep. He tries out for all the plays and gets into many of them. 2. deeply in debt. □ Bill owes a lot of money to the bank. He's really in deep. □ John is in deep with his stockbroker.

in deep water in a dangerous or vulnerable situation; in a serious situation; in trouble. (Refers to swimming in or falling into water that is over one's head. See also go off the deep end. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ John is having trouble with his taxes. He's in deep water. □ Bill is in deep water in algebra class. He's almost failing. □ He really got himself into deep water.

in defiance (of someone or something) against someone's will or against instructions; in bold resistance to someone or someone's orders. □ Jane spent the afternoon in the park, in defiance of her mother's instructions. □ She did it in defiance of her mother. □ She has done a number of things in defiance lately.

in denial in a state of refusing to believe something that is true. ☐ Mary was in denial about her illness and refused treatment. ☐ Tom doesn't think he's an alcoholic because he's still in denial.

in detail with lots of details; giving all the details. ☐ I explained the policy to the customer in detail. ☐ We planned the entire project in great detail.

in disguise hidden behind a disguise; looking like something else. ☐ Santa Claus was really the little child's father in disguise. ☐ What I thought was terrible turned out to be a blessing in disguise!

in drag in the clothing of the opposite sex. (Usually refers to a man wearing women's clothing.) ☐ The actor played the woman's part in drag. ☐ We all went to the costume party dressed in drag.

in due course AND in due time; in good time; in the course of time; in time in a normal or expected amount of time. ☐ The roses will bloom in due course. ☐ The vice president will become president in due course. ☐ I'll retire in due time. ☐ Just wait, my dear. All in good time. ☐ It'll all work out in the course of time. ☐ In time, things will improve.

in due time Go to in due course.

in Dutch (with someone) in trouble with someone. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ I'm in Dutch with my parents for my low grades. ☐ You're in Dutch quite a bit. ☐ Don't get into Dutch with anyone.

in earnest sincerely. ☐ This time I'll try in earnest. ☐ She spoke in earnest, and many people believed her.

in effect 1. in existence; applicable. ☐ A reduced rate at the hotel is in effect until the end of the year. ☐ The curfew is in effect for all minors. 2. producing a particular effect; effectively. ☐ In effect, this new law will raise taxes for most people. ☐ This policy harms domestic manufacturers. In effect, all our clothing will be made in foreign countries.

in essence basically; essentially. ☐ I have lots of detailed advice for you, but in essence, I want you to do the best you can. ☐ In essence, lightning is just a giant spark of electricity.

in exchange (for someone or something) in return for someone or something. ☐ They gave us two of our prisoners in exchange for two of theirs. ☐ I gave him chocolate in exchange for some licorice. ☐ John gave Mary a book and got a sweater in exchange.

in existence now existing; currently and actually being. ☐ The tiger may not be in existence in a few decades. ☐ All the oil in existence will not last the world for another century.

in fact in reality; really; actually. ☐ I'm over forty. In fact, I'm forty-six. ☐ This is a very good computer. In fact, it's the best.

in fashion fitting in well with the clothing that has been designed for a particular season of a particular year; fashionable. ☐ I understand that long skirts are in fashion this year. ☐ I always want to find out what styles are in fashion so I can avoid them.

in favor of someone Go to in someone's favor.

in favor (of someone or something) approving, supporting, or endorsing someone or something. (See also in someone's favor.) ☐ Are you in favor of lower taxes? ☐ Of course, I'm in favor.

in fear and trembling with anxiety or fear; with dread. ☐ In fear and trembling, I went into the room to take the test. ☐ The witness left the courtroom in fear and trembling.

in fine feather in good humor; in good health. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ Hello, John. You appear to be in fine feather. ☐ Of course I'm in fine feather. I get lots of sleep. ☐ Good food and lots of sleep put me into fine feather.

in flight while flying. ☐ A passenger became ill in flight and the pilot had to return to the airport. ☐ I really don't care to eat in flight. I am too nervous.

in flux AND in a (constant) state of flux in constant change; changing. ☐ I can't describe my job because it's in a constant state of flux. □ The price of gold is in flux.

in force in a very large group. (See also out in force.) □ The entire group arrived in force. □ The mosquitoes will attack in force this evening.

in for something due to receive a surprise; due to receive punishment. (When the something is it, the it usually means punishment.) □ I hope I'm not in for any surprises when I get home. □ Tommy, you broke my baseball bat. You're really in for it!

in full swing in progress; operating or running without restraint. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ We can't leave now! The party is in full swing. □ Our program to help the starving people is in full swing. You should see results soon. □ Just wait until our project gets into full swing.

in general referring to the entire class being discussed; speaking of the entire range of possibilities; in most situations or circumstances. □ I like vegetables in general, but not beets. □ In general, I prefer a hotel room on a lower floor, but will take a higher room if it's special.

in good condition Go to in good shape.

in good faith with good and honest intent; with sincerity. (Compare this with in bad faith.) □ We are convinced you were acting in good faith, even though you made a serious error. □ I think you didn't sign the contract in good faith. You never intended to carry out our agreement.

in good hands in the safe, competent care of someone. □ Don't worry. Your children are in good hands. Sally is a good babysitter. □ Your car is in good hands. My mechanics are factory-trained.

in good repair in good condition; operating well; well taken care of. (Usually said of a thing rather than a person.) □ The house is in good repair and ought to attract a number of potential buyers. □ If the car were in good repair, it would run more smoothly.

in good shape AND in good condition physically and functionally sound and sturdy. (Used for both people and things. Compare this with in condition. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ This car isn't in good shape. I'd like to have one that's in better condition. □ Mary is in good condition. She works hard to keep healthy. □ You have to make an effort to get into good shape.

in good spirits happy and cheerful; positive and looking toward the future, despite unhappy circumstances. □ The patient is in good spirits and that will speed her recovery. □ Tom wasn't in very good spirits after he heard the bad news.

in good time 1. quickly; in a short amount of time. □ We traveled from Mexico to Texas in good time. □ I've never been able to make that trip in good time. 2. Go to in due course.

in good (with someone) in someone's favor; to have pull with someone. (Compare this with in bad (with someone).) □ I can ask Mary a favor. I'm in good with her. □ Well, I'm not in good with her. □ I don't know Mary. How do I go about getting in good?

in great demand wanted by many people; eagerly sought after. □ Liz is in great demand as a singer. □ Mary's paintings are in great demand.

in great haste very fast; in a big hurry. □ John always did his homework in great haste. □ Why not take time and do it right? Don't do everything in great haste.

in hand controlled; under control. □ I thought I had my destiny in hand, but then fate played a trick on me. □ Don't worry about me. I have everything in hand.

in heat in a period of sexual excitement; in estrus. (Estrus is the period of time in which females are most willing to breed. This expression is usually used for animals. It has been used for humans in a joking sense. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ She goes into heat every year at this time. □ When my dog is in heat, I have to keep her locked in the house.

in heaven 1. in a state of absolute bliss or happiness. □ Lisa was in heaven after winning the lottery. □ Resting in his hammock, John was simply in heaven. 2. dead. (A polite euphemism, and perhaps used more when speaking to children.) □ Mary's daddy is in heaven. He was in a car accident. □ I am afraid that she is not just sleeping. She is in heaven.

in high dudgeon feeling or exhibiting great resentment; taking great offense at something. (Often with leave.) □ After the rude remarks, the person who was insulted left in high dudgeon. □ Dennis strode from the room in high dudgeon, and we knew he would get his revenge eventually.

in high gear very fast and active. (Also literal. Informal. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Don't leave now. The party is just now in high gear. □ When Jane is in high gear, she's a superb athlete. □ When Jane moved into high gear, I knew she'd win the race.

in hindsight Go to in retrospect.

in hock in debt. □ After buying the luxury car, Bob was in hock for years. □ I am deeply in hock and have to pay off my debts.

in honor of someone or something showing respect or admiration for someone or something. □ Our club gave a party in honor of the club's president. □ I wrote a poem in honor of John and Mary's marriage.

in hopes of something expecting something. (Also with high, as in the example.) □ I was in hopes of getting there early. □ We are in high hopes that John and Mary will have a girl.

in horror with intense shock or disgust. □ Mike stepped back from the rattlesnake in horror. □ The jogger recoiled in horror when she came upon a body in the park.

in hot water in trouble. (Slang. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ John got himself into hot water by being late. □ I'm in hot water at home for coming in late last night. □ I get into hot water a lot.

in ink written or signed with a pen that uses ink. □ You should write your report in ink. □ You must sign your checks in ink.

in its entirety AND in their entirety in a state of completeness. □ I watched the basketball game in its entirety. □ My friends and I ate the two large pizzas in their entirety.

in its prime Go to in one's prime.

in jeopardy in danger; at risk; at hazard. □ John puts himself in jeopardy every time he goes skydiving. □ I was in jeopardy when my car broke down on the deserted road.

in (just) a minute Go to in (just) a second.

in (just) a second AND in (just) a minute in a very short period of time. □ I'll be there in a second. □ I'll be with you in just a minute. I'm on the phone.

in keeping (with something) AND in line with something in accord or harmony with something; following the rules of something. □ In keeping with your instructions, I've canceled your order. □ I'm disappointed with your behavior. It really wasn't in keeping. □ It was not in line with the kind of behavior we expect here.

in kind 1. in goods rather than in money. □ The country doctor was usually paid in kind. He accepted two pigs as payment for an operation. □ Do you have to pay tax on payments made in kind? 2. similarly; [giving] something similar to what was received. □ John punched Bill, and Bill gave it back in kind. □ She spoke rudely to me, so I spoke to her in kind.

in labor [of a woman] experiencing the pains and exertion of childbirth. □ Susan was in labor for nearly eight hours. □ As soon as she had been in labor for an hour, she went to the hospital.

in league (with someone) in cooperation with someone; in a conspiracy with someone. □ The mayor is in league with the city treasurer. They are misusing public money. □ Those two have been in league for years.

in less than no time very quickly. □ I'll be there in less than no time. □ Don't worry. This won't take long. It'll be over with in less than no time.

in lieu of something in place of something; instead of something. (The word lieu occurs only in this phrase.) □ They gave me roast beef in lieu of beefsteak. □ We gave money to charity in lieu of sending flowers to the funeral.

in light of something because of certain knowledge; considering something. (As if knowledge or enlightenment were like light shone on ignorance.) □ In light of what you have told us, I think we must abandon the project. □ In light of the clerk's rudeness, we didn't return to that shop.

in limbo 1. a region on the border of hell. (In some Christian religions, there is a limbo set aside for souls that do not go to either heaven or hell. This sense is used only in this religious context. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ The baby's soul was in limbo because she had not been baptized. □ Considering all things, getting into limbo is probably better than going to hell. 2. in a state of neglect; in a state of oblivion; in an indefinite state. □ We'll have to leave the project in limbo for a month or two. □ After I got hit on the head, I was in limbo for about ten minutes.

in line AND on line standing and waiting in a line of people. (On line is used typically by New Yorkers.) □ I've been in line for an hour. □ Get in line if you want to buy a ticket. □ We waited on line to see the movie.

in line with something Go to in keeping (with something).

in love (with someone or something) feeling love for someone or something; experiencing a strong affectionate emotion for someone or something. □ Mary was in love with her new car! It was perfect for her. □ John is deeply in love with Mary. □ Those two are really in love.

in luck fortunate; lucky. □ You want a red one? You're in luck. There is one red one left. □ I had an accident, but I was in luck. It was not serious.

in many respects Go to in some respects.

in memory of someone to continue the good memories of someone; for the honor of a deceased person. □ Many streets were renamed in memory of John F. Kennedy. □ We planted roses in memory of my deceased father.

in midair in a point high in the air. □ The planes crashed in midair. □ Extra fuel was released from the plane in midair.

in mint condition in perfect condition. (Refers to the perfect state of a coin that has just been minted. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ This is a fine car. It runs well and is in mint condition. □ We went through a house in mint condition and decided to buy it. □ We put our house into mint condition before we sold it.

in name only nominally; not actual, only by terminology. □ The president is head of the country in name only. Congress makes the laws. □ Mr. Smith is the boss of the Smith Company in name only. Mrs. Smith handles all the business affairs.

in need [of someone] requiring basic things like food, clothing, and housing. □ Please contribute some money for those who are in need. □ The charity works with old people who are in need.

in need of something [of someone or some creature] requiring something. □ We are in need of a new car. □ The company is in need of a larger building to hold all its employees.

in neutral with the shift lever of a vehicle in the position where the motor is running but is not powering the wheels or other moving parts. □ The car rolled down the hill because I'd left it in neutral and left the brake off. □ If you are moving and in neutral, you do not have control of your vehicle.

in no mood to do something not to feel like doing something; to wish not to do something. □ I'm in no mood to cook dinner tonight. □ Mother is in no mood to put up with our arguing.

in nothing flat in exactly no time at all. (Informal.) □ Of course I can get there in a hurry. I'll be there in nothing flat. □ We covered the distance between New York and Philadelphia in nothing flat.

in no time (at all) very quickly. (Compare this with in less than no time.) □ I'll be there in no time. □ It won't take long. I'll be finished in no time at all.

in no uncertain terms in very specific and direct language. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ I was so mad. I told her in no uncertain terms to leave and never come back. □ I told him in no uncertain terms to stop it. □ He put his demands into no uncertain terms, and then they listened to him.

in one breath Go to (all) in one breath.

in one ear and out (of) the other [for something to be] ignored; [for something to be] unheard or unheeded. (In can be replaced with into. See the explanation at in a bind and the examples. See also go in one ear and out the other.) □ Bill just doesn't pay attention. Everything is in one ear and out the other. □ I told Billy to be home by dinnertime, but I am sure it's just in one ear and out the other.

in one fell swoop Go to at one fell swoop.

in one's birthday suit naked; nude. (Informal. In the "clothes" in which one was born. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ I've heard that John sleeps in his birthday suit. □ We used to go down to the river and swim in our birthday suits. □ You have to get into your birthday suit to bathe.

in one's blood Go to in the blood.

in one's book according to one's own opinion. (Informal.) □ He's okay in my book. □ In my book, this is the best that money can buy.

in one's cups drunk. (Euphemistic.) □ She doesn't make much sense when she's in her cups. □ The speaker—who was in his cups—could hardly be understood.

in one's element in a natural or comfortable situation or environment. (Compare this with out of one's element. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Sally is in her element when she's working with algebra or calculus. □ Bob loves to work with color and texture. When he's painting, he's in his element. □ He's most comfortable when he can get into his element.

in one's glory at one's happiest or best. □ When I go to the beach on vacation, I'm in my glory. □ Sally is a good teacher. She's in her glory in the classroom.

in one's mind's eye in one's mind. (Refers to visualizing something in one's mind.) □ In my mind's eye, I can see trouble ahead. □ In her mind's eye, she could see a beautiful building beside the river. She decided to design such a building.

in one's opinion according to one's belief or judgment. □ In my opinion, that is a very ugly picture. □ That isn't a good idea in my opinion.

in one's (own) backyard [figuratively] very close to one. (Also literal.) □ That kind of thing is quite rare. Imagine it happening right in your backyard. □ You always think of something like that happening to someone else. You never expect to find it in your own backyard.

in one's (own) (best) interest(s) to one's advantage; as a benefit to oneself. □ It is not in your own interests to share your ideas with Jack. He will say that they are his. □ Jane thought it was in the best interest of her friend to tell his mother about his illness.

in one's prime AND in its prime at one's or its peak or best time. (Compare this with in the prime of life.) □ Our dog—which is in its prime—is very active. □ The program ended in its prime when we ran out of money. □ I could work long hours when I was in my prime.

in one's right mind sane; rational and sensible. (Often in the negative.) □ That was a stupid thing to do. You're not in your right mind. □ You can't be in your right mind! That sounds crazy!

in one's salad days in one's youth. (Usually formal or literary. Comparing the greenness of a salad with the greenness, or freshness and inexperience, of youth.) □ I recall the joys I experienced in the warm summer air in my salad days. □ In our salad days, we were apt to get into all sorts of mischief on the weekends.

in one's second childhood [of an adult] interested in things or people that normally interest children. □ My father bought himself a toy train, and my mother said he was in his second childhood. □ Whenever I go to the river and throw stones, I feel as if I'm in my second childhood.

in one's spare time in one's extra time; in the time not reserved for doing something else. □ I write novels in my spare time. □ I'll try to paint the house in my spare time.

in one's Sunday best in one's best Sunday clothes; in the clothes one wears to church. (Folksy. See also Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ All the children were dressed up in their Sunday best. □ I like to be in my Sunday best whenever I go out. □ Let's get into our Sunday best and go out for dinner.

in on the kill AND in at the kill present at the end of some activity, usually an activity with negative results. (Refers to being present when a hunted animal is put to death. Informal when used about any other activity.) □ Congress was due to defeat the bill, and I went to Washington so I could be in on the kill. □ The judge will sentence the criminal today, and I'm going to be in at the kill.

in orbit 1. [for something] to circle a heavenly body. (Planets, moons, and stars are heavenly bodies. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ The moon is in orbit around the earth. □ They put the satellite into orbit. 2. ecstatic; thrilled; emotionally high. (Slang.) □ Jane is in orbit about her new job. □ John went into orbit when he got the check in the mail.

in order to do something for the purpose of doing something; as a means of doing something. □ I went to college in order to further my education. □ I gave John three dollars in order to buy lunch.

in other words said in another, simpler way. □ BOB: Cease! Desist! BILL: In other words, you want me to stop? □ Our cash flow is negative, and our assets are worthless. In other words, we are broke.

in over one's head having more difficulties than one can manage. (Informal. As if being in water that is too deep. See also in deep; in deep water.) □ Calculus is very hard for me. I'm in over my head. □ Ann is too busy. She's really in over her head.

in park [of an automobile transmission] having the gears locked so the automobile cannot move. □ The driver stopped the car and placed it in park. □ You have to be in park in order to start this car.

in part partly; to a lesser degree or extent. □ I was not there, in part because of my disagreement about the purpose of the meeting. I also had a previous appointment. □ I hope to win, in part because I want the prize money.

in particular specifically; especially. □ I'm not going anywhere in particular. □ Of the three ideas, there is one I like in particular.

in passing casually; as an aside. (See also mention someone or something in passing.) □ I just heard your name in passing. I didn't hear more than that. □ The lecturer referred to George Washington in passing.

in pencil written or signed with a pencil. □ Why did you write your report in pencil? □ You can't sign a check in pencil!

in perpetuity for an indefinitely long period of time; eternally. □ My trust fund generates income in perpetuity. □ My family has owned this land for generations and will continue to do so in perpetuity.

in person [with someone] actually present in a place rather than appearing in a film, on a television screen, on a telephone, or through a radio broadcast. □ All the famous movie stars were there in person. □ You must appear in the office in person to collect the money that is due to you.

in place 1. in (someone's or something's) proper place or location. (See also out of place. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ The maid came into the room and put everything into place. □ It's good to see everything in place again. 2. proper. □ Your remark was not in place. □ The presentation was quite in place and nicely done.

in place of someone or something instead of someone or something. □ John went in place of Mary. □ We had vegetables in place of meat.

in plain English Go to in plain language.

in plain language AND in plain English in simple, clear, and straightforward language. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ That's too confusing. Please say it again in plain English. □ Tell me again in plain language. □ Please put it into plain language.

in poor taste Go to in bad taste.

in practice 1. in an application (of a principle, etc.); in the actual doing of something. □ Our policy is to be very particular, but in practice we don't care that much. □ The instructions say not to set it too high. In practice I always set it as high as possible. 2. well-rehearsed; well-practiced; well-exercised. □ The swimmer was not in practice and almost drowned. □ I play the piano for a living, and I have to keep in practice.

in print [of a book, magazine, newspaper, or other written material] available for sale from the publisher. (Compare this with out of print. See also put something into print.) □ I think I can get that book for you. It's still in print. □ This is the only book in print on this subject.

in private privately. □ I'd like to speak to you in private. □ I enjoy spending the evening in private.

in progress happening now; taking place at this time. □ You can't go into that room. There is a meeting in progress. □ Please tell me about the work you have in progress.

in proportion AND out of proportion showing the right or wrong proportion relative to something else. □ That man's large head is out of proportion to his small body. □ The cartoonist drew the dog in proportion to its surroundings.

in public in a place or way so that other people can see or know about something. □ It's illegal to walk naked in public. □ John always tries to embarrass me whenever we're in public.

in pursuit of something chasing after something. □ Bill spends most of his time in pursuit of money. □ Every year Bob goes into the countryside in pursuit of butterflies.

in quest of someone or something AND in search of someone or something seeking or hunting something; trying to find something. □ They went into town in quest of a reasonably priced restaurant. □ Monday morning I'll go out in search of a job.

in rags [dressing] in worn-out and torn clothing. □ Oh, look at my clothing. I can't go to the party in rags! □ I think the new casual fashions make you look as if you're in rags.

in reality viewing things realistically; really. □ Jane dreamed it was snowing, but in reality, it was very warm. □ John looks happy, but in reality, he is miserable.

in receipt of something in a state of having received something. □ We are in receipt of your letter of request. □ When we are in receipt of your check for the full balance, we will mark your bill as paid.

in recent memory the recent period of time in which things happened that can be remembered. □ Never in recent memory has there been this much snow! □

I haven't been this happy in recent memory!

in rehearsal a stage of development in the production of a play, opera, or concert, involving many rehearsals. ☐ The play is in rehearsal now and will open next month. ☐ While the opera was still in rehearsal, the star developed a hatred for the director.

in remission [of a serious disease] not as bad or seeming to be getting better. ☐ While the disease was in remission, John got to leave the hospital. ☐ The doctor said my cancer was in remission.

in retrospect AND in hindsight reconsidering the past with the knowledge one now has. ☐ In retrospect, I would have gone to a better college. ☐ David realized, in hindsight, that he should have finished school.

in return for (someone or something) by way of giving something back; as a way of paying someone back for something; as part of an exchange. ☐ I helped Tom yesterday, and he helped me in return for my efforts. ☐ I paid $20 and received four tickets in return.

in round figures Go to in round numbers.

in round numbers AND in round figures as an estimated number; a figure that has been rounded off. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ Please tell me in round numbers what it'll cost. ☐ I don't need the exact amount. Just give it to me in round figures.

in ruin a state of having been destroyed. ☐ The enemy army left the cities they attacked in ruin. ☐ The crops laid in ruin after the flood.

in search of someone or something Go to in quest of someone or something.

in season 1. currently available for selling. (Some foods and other things are available only at certain seasons. Compare this with out of season. In can be replaced with into, especially when used with come. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ Oysters are avail- able in season. ☐ Strawberries aren't in season in January. ☐ When do strawberries come into season? 2. legally able to be caught or hunted. ☐ Catfish are in season all year round. ☐ When are salmon in season?

in secret secretly. ☐ They planned in secret to blow up the bridge. ☐ I will tell her in secret so no one else will hear.

in session [of a court, congress, or other organization] operating or functioning. ☐ Smoking is forbidden while the meeting is in session. ☐ The spectators must remain quiet while court is in session.

in seventh heaven in a very happy state. ☐ Ann was really in seventh heaven when she got a car of her own. ☐ I'd be in seventh heaven if I had a million dollars.

in shambles in a messy state; destroyed. ☐ After the earthquake, the town lay in shambles. ☐ The TV set was in shambles after John tried to fix it.

in shape Go to in condition.

in short stated briefly. ☐ At the end of the financial report, the board president said, "In short, we are okay." ☐ My remarks, in short, indicate that we are in good financial shape.

in short order very quickly. ☐ I can straighten out this mess in short order. ☐ The people came in and cleaned the place up in short order.

in short supply scarce. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ Fresh vegetables are in short supply in the winter. ☐ Yellow cars are in short supply because everyone likes them and buys them. ☐ At this time of the year, fresh vegetables go into short supply.

in sight able to be seen. ☐ I hear birds, but there are none in sight. ☐ The locusts ate everything in sight.

(in) single file lined up, one behind the other; in a line, one person or one thing wide. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ Have you ever seen ducks walking in single file? ☐ No, do they usually walk single file? □ Please march in single file. □ Please get into single file.

in so many words exactly; explicitly; literally. □ I told her in so many words to leave me alone. □ He said yes, but not in so many words.

in some neck of the woods in some vicinity or neighborhood; in some remote place. (Folksy. The some is usually this, that, your, their, etc.) □ I think that the Smiths live in your neck of the woods. □ What's happening over in that neck of the woods?

in someone else's place Go to in someone else's shoes.

in someone else's shoes AND in someone else's place seeing or experiencing something from someone else's point of view. (See the note at in a bind and the examples. See also put oneself in someone else's place.) □ You might feel different if you were in her shoes. □ Pretend you're in Tom's place, and then try to figure out why he acts the way he does.

in someone's behalf Go to in behalf of someone.

in someone's favor 1. to someone's advantage or credit. (Especially in sports scores, as in the examples below.) □ The score was ten to twelve in our favor. □ At the end of the second half, the score was forty to three in the other team's favor. 2. liked by someone; approved of by someone. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ John might be able to help me. I hope I'm currently in his favor. □ My mother is mad at me. I'm certainly not in her favor. □ I'll try to get into her favor. 3. AND in favor of someone to someone, as when writing a check. (See also honor someone's check.) □ Please make out a check for $300 in Tom's favor. □ I'm making out the check in favor of Mr. Brown.

in someone's name 1. Go to in behalf of someone. 2. in someone's ownership; as someone's property. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ The house is in my name. I own all of it. □ I put the house into my husband's name. □ The car is in our names.

in someone's or something's custody Go to in custody of someone or something.

in someone's prayers [of someone] remembered and called by name when someone prays. □ I am sorry to hear of your sickness. You will be in our prayers. □ The whole family is in my prayers because they have suffered so much.

in some respects AND in many respects with regard to some or many details. □ In some respects, Anne's comments are similar to yours. □ The three proposals are quite different in many respects.

in spite of someone or something regardless of someone or something; in defiance of someone or something. □ In spite of what you said, I still like you. □ He went to the concert in spite of his parents.

in step (with someone or something) 1. [with someone] [marching or dancing] in cadence with another person; marching with the same rhythm as someone else. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Please keep in step with Jane. □ You two, back there. You aren't in step. □ Get into step! 2. AND in time [with something] keeping in rhythm or cadence with music. □ John, your marching isn't in step with the beat. □ I'm trying to play in time. 3. as up to date as someone or something. □ Bob is not in step with the times. □ We try to keep in step.

in stock readily available, as with goods in a store. □ I'm sorry, I don't have that in stock. I'll have to order it for you. □ We have all our Christmas merchandise in stock now.

in storage in a place where things are stored or kept. □ Mary placed her winter clothes in storage during the summer. □ John's furniture is in storage while he is in the army.

in style 1. in fashion; fashionable. (Compare this with out of style. In can be replaced with into, especially with come. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ This old coat isn't in style anymore. ☐ I don't care if it's not in style. It's warm. ☐ I hope this coat comes into style again. 2. in elegance; in luxury. (Informal.) ☐ If I had a million dollars, I could really live in style. ☐ If he saves his money, someday he'll be able to live in style.

in surgery involved in surgery. ☐ Dr. Smith is in surgery now. ☐ The patient is still in surgery.

in tandem in single file. ☐ We marched to the door in tandem. ☐ They rode along in tandem.

in tatters in torn pieces of cloth. ☐ The poor man's clothes hung in tatters. ☐ The flag was in tatters after the storm.

in terms of something relating to something; with regard to something. ☐ In terms of value to this company, how much do you think you are worth? ☐ Is this a good paint job on my car—in terms of the quality, not the color?

in the absence of someone or something while someone or something isn't here; without someone or something. ☐ In the absence of the cook, I'll prepare dinner. ☐ In the absence of opposition, she won easily.

in the act (of doing something) while doing something. (See also catch someone in the act (of doing something).) ☐ There he was, in the act of opening the door. ☐ I tripped while in the act of climbing. ☐ It happened in the act, not before or after.

in the affirmative in the form of an answer that means yes. ☐ The soldier answered in the affirmative by nodding his head "yes." ☐ My manager's response was in the affirmative.

in the air everywhere; all about. (Also literal.) ☐ There is such a feeling of joy in the air. ☐ We felt a sense of tension in the air.

in the altogether AND in the buff; in the raw naked; nude. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ We often went swimming in the altogether down at the creek. ☐ The museum has a painting of some ladies in the buff. ☐ Mary felt a little shy about getting into the altogether. ☐ Bill says he sleeps in the raw.

in the balance in an undecided state. (See also hang in the balance.) ☐ He stood on the edge of the cliff, his life in the balance. ☐ With his fortune in the balance, John rolled the dice.

in the bargain in addition to what was agreed on. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ I bought a car, and they threw an air conditioner into the bargain. ☐ When I bought a house, I asked the seller to include the furniture in the bargain.

in the best of health very healthy. ☐ Bill is in the best of health. He eats well and exercises. ☐ I haven't been in the best of health. I think I have the flu.

in the black not in debt; in a financially profitable condition. (Compare this with in the red. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ I wish my accounts were in the black. ☐ Sally moved the company into the black.

in the blood AND in one's blood built into one's personality or character. ☐ John's a great runner. It's in his blood. ☐ The whole family is very athletic. It's in the blood.

in the buff Go to in the altogether.

in the bullpen [for a baseball pitcher to be] in a special place near a baseball playing field, warming up to pitch. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ You can tell who is pitching next by seeing who is in the bullpen. ☐ Our best pitcher just went into the bullpen. He'll be pitching soon.

in the cards in the future. (Informal.) ☐ Well, what do you think is in the cards for tomorrow? ☐ I asked the boss if there was a raise in the cards for me.

in the care of someone AND in the charge of someone in the keeping of someone. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) ☐ I left the baby in the care of my mother. ☐ I placed the house into the care of my friend. □ Bill left the office in the charge of his assistant.

in the case of someone or something 1. in the matter of someone or something; in the instance of someone or something. (See also in case of something. Compare this with in the event of something.) □ In the case of John, I think we had better allow his request. □ In the case of this woman, we'll not grant permission. 2. [with someone] in the legal proceedings relating to someone. (The someone may be contained in the official name of a legal case.) □ I recall a similar situation in the case of Ohio v. Jane Smith. □ Have they found any new facts in the case of Bill Wilson?

in the charge of someone Go to in the care of someone.

in the chips wealthy; with much money. (Slang. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ John is a stock trader, and occasionally he's in the chips. □ Bill really came into the chips when his uncle died.

in the clear 1. not obstructed; not enclosed. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ You're in the clear. Go ahead and back up. □ Once the deer got into the clear, it ran away. 2. innocent; not guilty. □ Don't worry, Tom. I'm sure you're in the clear. □ I'll feel better when I get into the clear.

in the context of something in the circumstances under which something has happened. □ In the context of a funeral, laughing loudly is inappropriate. □ In the context of an argument, it is fine to speak firmly.

in the course of time Go to in due course.

in the dark (about someone or something) uninformed about someone or something; ignorant about someone or something. □ I'm in the dark about who is in charge around here. □ I can't imagine why they are keeping me in the dark. □ You won't be in the dark long. I'm in charge. □ She's in the dark about how this machine works.

in the doghouse in trouble; in (someone's) disfavor. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ I'm really in the doghouse. I was late for an appointment. □ I hate being in the doghouse all the time. I don't know why I can't stay out of trouble.

in the doldrums sluggish; inactive; in low spirits. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ He's usually in the doldrums in the winter. □ I had some bad news yesterday, which put me into the doldrums.

in the driver's seat in control. (Refers to driving and controlling a vehicle.) □ Now that Fred is in the driver's seat, there is a lot less criticism about how things are being done. □ Joan can't wait to get into the driver's seat and do what she can to turn things around.

in the event of something if something happens. (Compare this with in the case of someone or something.) □ In the event of fire, please leave quickly and quietly. □ The picnic will be canceled in the event of rain.

in the family Go to (all) in the family.

in the family way Go to in a family way.

in the final analysis AND in the last analysis in truth; when all the facts are known; when the truth becomes known. (Usually used when someone is speculating about what the final truth is.) □ In the final analysis, it is usually the children who suffer most in a situation like this. □ In the last analysis, you simply do not want to do as you are told!

in the first instance Go to in the first place.

in the first place AND in the first instance initially; to begin with. (Compare this with in the second place.) □ In the first place, you don't have enough money to buy one. In the second place, you don't need one. □ In the first instance, I don't have the time. In the second instance, I'm not interested.

in the flesh really present; in person. □ I've heard that the queen is coming here in the flesh. □ Is she really here? In the flesh? □ I've wanted a color television for years, and now I've got one right here in the flesh.

in the forefront (of something) Go to at the forefront (of something).

in the gutter [for a person to be] in a low state; depraved. (Also literal. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ You had better straighten out your life, or you'll end in the gutter. □ His bad habits put him into the gutter.

in the hole in debt. (Informal. In can be replaced with into with go. See in a bind and the examples.) □ I'm $200 in the hole. □ Our finances end in the hole every month. □ We went into the hole on that deal.

in the hot seat Go to on the hot seat.

in the interest of someone or something as an advantage or benefit to someone or something; in order to advance or improve someone or something. (Formal.) □ In the interest of health, people are asked not to smoke. □ The police imprisoned the suspects in the interest of public safety.

in the interim (between things) in the meantime; in the time between the ending of something and the beginning of something else. □ In the interim between her morning and afternoon classes, Susan rushed home to get a book she had forgotten. □ My favorite show starts in five minutes, but I'll talk to you in the interim.

in their entirety Go to in its entirety.

in the know knowledgeable. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ Let's ask Bob. He's in the know. □ I have no knowledge of how to work this machine. I think I can get into the know very quickly, though.

in the lap of luxury in luxurious surroundings. (See the explanation at in a bind and the examples below.) □ John lives in the lap of luxury because his family is very wealthy. □ When I retire, I'd like to live in the lap of luxury.

in the last analysis Go to in the final analysis.

in the laundry with the clothes that are waiting to be washed. □ Is my blue shirt clean or is it in the laundry? □ All my socks are in the laundry. What shall I do?

in the limelight AND in the spotlight at the center of attention. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples. Limelight refers to an obsolete type of spotlight, and the word occurs only in this phrase.) □ John will do almost anything to get himself into the limelight. □ I love being in the spotlight. □ All elected officials spend a lot of time in the limelight.

in the line of duty as part of the expected (military or police) duties. □ When soldiers fight people in a war, it's in the line of duty. □ Police officers have to do things they may not like in the line of duty.

in the long run over a long period of time; ultimately. (Compare this with in the short run.) □ We'd be better off in the long run buying one instead of renting one. □ In the long run, we'd be happier in the South.

in the mainstream (of something) following the current trends or styles that are popular or are considered normal. □ Bob is too old-fashioned to be in the mainstream of modern living. □ Max likes to make fun of people in the mainstream.

in the market (for something) wanting to buy something. □ I'm in the market for a video recorder. □ If you have a boat for sale, we're in the market.

in the meantime the period of time between two things; the period of time between now and when something is supposed to happen. □ The movie starts at 6:00. In the meantime, let's eat dinner. □ My flight was at 8:00. In the meantime, I played solitaire.

in the middle of nowhere in a very remote place. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ To get to my house, you have to drive into the middle of nowhere. □ We found a nice place to eat, but it's out in the middle of nowhere.

in the money 1. wealthy. (Informal. See also on the money.) □ John is really in the money. He's worth millions. □ If I am ever in the money, I'll be generous. 2. in the winning position in a race or contest. (Refers to winning the prize money.) □ I knew when Jane came around the final turn that she was in the money. □ The horses coming in first, second, and third are said to be in the money.

in the mood for something AND in the mood to do something having the proper state of mind for a particular situation or for doing something. □ I'm not in the mood to see a movie tonight. □ Are you in the mood for pizza?

in the mood to do something Go to in the mood for something.

in the near future in the time immediately ahead. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ I don't plan to go to Florida in the near future. □ Today's prices won't extend into the near future. □ What do you intend to do in the near future?

in the neighborhood of something Go to (somewhere) in the neighborhood of something.

in the nick of time Go to in the (very) nick of time.

in the nude in a state of nudity. □ Bill says he sleeps in the nude. □ All the little boys swam in the nude in the creek.

in the offing happening at some time in the future. (See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ There is a big investigation in the offing, but I don't know when. □ It's hard to tell what's in the offing if you don't keep track of things.

in the open in the outdoors; in an area that is not closed in. □ John's bike was stolen because he left it out in the open. □ Mary loves gardening because she loves to be in the open.

in theory according to a theory; theoretically. □ In theory, if I take my medicine regularly, I will get well. □ How things work in theory doesn't always match with how things work in reality.

in the pink (of condition) in very good health; in very good condition, physically and emotionally. (Informal. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ The garden is lovely. All the flowers are in the pink of condition. □ Jane has to exercise hard to get into the pink of condition. □ I'd like to be in the pink, but I don't have the time.

in the prime of life in the best and most productive and healthy period of life. (See also in one's prime. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ The good health of one's youth can carry over into the prime of life. □ He was struck down by a heart attack in the prime of life.

in the public eye publicly; visible to all; conspicuous. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Elected officials find themselves constantly in the public eye. □ The mayor made it a practice to get into the public eye as much as possible.

in the raw Go to in the altogether.

in the rear located in the space or area behind someone or something. □ The waiter told me that the bathrooms were in the rear. □ All deliveries must be made in the rear.

in the red in debt. (Compare this with in the black and out of the red. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ My accounts are in the red at the end of every month. □ It's easy to get into the red if you don't pay close attention to the amount of money you spend.

in there pitching trying very hard. (Informal.) □ Bob is always in there pitching. □ Just stay in there pitching. You'll make some progress eventually.

in the right on the moral or legal side of an issue; on the right side of an issue. (Compare this with in the wrong.) □ I felt I was in the right, but the judge ruled against me. □ It's hard to argue with Jane. She always believes that she's in the right.

in the right place at the right time in the location where something is to happen, exactly when it happens. (Usually about something good.) □ I got a good deal on a car because I was in the right place at the right time. □ Unless you are in the right place at the right time, you won't get a chance to meet a movie star.

in the running in competition; competing and having a chance to win. (Compare this with out of the running. In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ Is Tom still in the running? Does he still have a chance to be elected? □ I'm glad I didn't get into the running.

in the same boat (as someone) in the same situation; having the same problem. (In can be replaced with into. See the explanation at in a bind and the examples below.) □ TOM: I'm broke. Can you lend me twenty dollars? BILL: Sorry. I'm in the same boat. □ Jane and Mary are both in the same boat. They have been called for jury duty. □ I am in the same boat as Mary.

in the same breath [stated or said] almost at the same time. □ He told me I was lazy, but then in the same breath he said I was doing a good job. □ The teacher said that the students were working hard and, in the same breath, that they were not working hard enough.

in the second place secondly; in addition. (Usually said after one has said in the first place.) □ In the first place, you don't have enough money to buy one. In the second place, you don't need one. □ In the first place, I don't have the time. In the second place, I'm not interested.

in the short run for the immediate future. (Compare this with in the long run.) □ In the short run, we'd be better off saving our money. □ We decided to rent an apartment in the short run. We can buy a house later.

in the soup in a bad situation. (Slang. In can be replaced with into. See in a bind and the examples below.) □ Now I'm really in the soup. I broke Mrs. Franklin's window. □ I make a lot of mistakes. It's easy for me to get into the soup.

in the spotlight Go to in the limelight.

in the swim of things involved in or participating in events or happenings. (The in can be replaced with into. See the explanation at in a bind and the examples. The opposite of out of the swim of things.) □ I've been ill, but soon I'll be back in the swim of things. □ I can't wait to settle down and get into the swim of things.

in the trust of someone under the responsibility or in the care of someone. □ The state placed the orphan in the trust of the foster parents. □ Our bonds are left in the trust of our broker.

in the twinkling of an eye very quickly. (A biblical reference.) □ In the twinkling of an eye, the deer had disappeared into the forest. □ I gave Bill ten dollars and, in the twinkling of an eye, he spent it.

in the unlikely event of something AND in the unlikely event that something happens if something—which probably will not happen—actually happens. (Compare this with in the event of something.) □ In the unlikely event of my getting the job, I'll have to buy a car to get there every day. □ In the unlikely event of a fire, please walk quickly to an exit.

in the unlikely event that something happens Go to in the unlikely event of something.

in the (very) nick of time just in time; at the last possible instant; just before it's too late. □ The doctor arrived in the nick of time. The patient's life was saved. □ I reached the airport in the very nick of time.

in the wake of something after something; as a result of some event. (Refers to the wake of a boat.) □ We had no place to live in the wake of the fire. □ In the wake of the storm, there were many broken tree limbs.

in the way of something as a kind of something; as a style of something. □ What do you have in the way of leather shoes? □ We have nothing in the way of raincoats. □

I've seen nothing in the way of nice weather in this part of the country.

in the wind about to happen. (Also literal.)

□ There are some major changes in the wind. Expect these changes to happen soon. □ There is something in the wind. We'll find out what it is soon.

in the works being prepared; being planned; being done. (Informal.) □ There are some new laws in the works that will affect all of us. □ I have some ideas in the works that you might be interested in.

in the world Go to on earth.

in the worst way very much. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I want a new car in the worst way. □ Bob wants to retire in the worst way.

in the wrong on the wrong or illegal side of an issue; guilty or in error. (Compare this with in the right.) □ I felt she was in the wrong, but the judge ruled in her favor. □ It's hard to argue with Jane. She always believes that everyone else is in the wrong.

in the wrong place at the wrong time in the location where something is to happen exactly when it happens. (Usually about something bad.) □ I always get into trouble. I'm just in the wrong place at the wrong time. □ It isn't my fault. I was just in the wrong place at the wrong time.

the in thing (to do) the fashionable thing to do. □ Eating low-fat food is the in thing to do. □ Bob is very old-fashioned. He never does the in thing.

in this day and age presently; currently; nowadays. (Folksy.) □ You don't expect people to be polite in this day and age. □ Young folks don't take care of their parents in this day and age.

in time 1. Go to in due course. 2. Go to in step (with someone or something). 3. before the deadline; before the last minute. □ Did you turn in your paper in time? □ I didn't go to Florida. I didn't get to the airport in time.

in times past long ago; in previous times. □ In times past, you would not have been able to wear casual clothing to work. □ In times past, the air always seemed fresher and cleaner.

in top form 1. [of someone or some creature] in very good physical condition. □ The runners are in top form, so this should be a good race. □ I'm not in top form, but I'm not a physical mess either. 2. able to make witty remarks and clever statements quickly and easily. □ That was really funny, Bob. You are in top form tonight.

in tow closely following; under someone's control. □ The nanny walked into the park with three children in tow. □ The manager went to the meeting with her staff in tow.

in transit while in the process of being transported. □ Dave is in transit from London to Chicago. □ The new stereo is now in transit from the manufacturer.

in triplicate [of a document] produced in three copies. □ Mr. Smith asked me to type up his notes in triplicate. □ I completed each form in triplicate.

in trouble 1. in danger; in difficulty; due for punishment. □ If you don't be quiet, you're going to be in trouble. □ The company was in trouble for months, and then went bankrupt. 2. pregnant and unmarried. (Euphemistic.) □ They had to get married. She was in trouble. □ She'll be in trouble before long, if she doesn't quit running around like that.

in tune in a state where musical notes are at their proper intervals so that none are flat or sharp. (Compare this with out of tune (with someone or something).) □ Your piano is nicely in tune. □ The choir members all sang in tune.

in tune with someone or something 1. at the same or a harmonizing musical pitch. (In can be replaced with into. See the note at in a bind and the examples below.) □ The violin isn't in tune with the piano. □ Bill, please get in tune with John. 2. [with something] keeping up with something. □ Tom, your clothes are old-fashioned. You aren't in tune with the times. □ Come on, Sally. Get in tune with what's going on around you.

in turn one at a time in sequence. ☐ Each of us can read the book in turn. ☐ We cut the hair of every child in turn.

in two shakes of a lamb's tail very quickly. ☐ I'll be there in two shakes of a lamb's tail. ☐ In two shakes of a lamb's tail, the bird flew away.

in unison 1. [of musical notes, instruments, or voices] having the same pitch. ☐ This part of the piece is performed in unison. ☐ The twins sang in unison. 2. acting as one; together and at the same time. ☐ In unison, all of the workers voted "yes" for the new contract. ☐ John and his wife responded to my question in unison.

in view of something in consideration of something; because of something. ☐ In view of the high cost of gasoline, I sold my car. ☐ I won't invite John to the meeting in view of his attitude.

in with someone friends with someone; having influence with someone. ☐ Are you in with John? I need to ask him for a favor. ☐ I've heard that the mayor is in with the county treasurer.

inch along (something) to move slowly along something little by little. ☐ The cat inched along the carpet toward the mouse. ☐ Traffic was inching along.

inch by inch one inch at a time; little by little. ☐ Traffic moved along inch by inch. ☐ Inch by inch, the snail moved across the stone.

inclined to do something to tend to do something; to lean toward doing something. ☐ Tom is inclined to tell jokes when he is with a group of people. ☐ I'm inclined to go to the beach tomorrow if it doesn't rain.

incumbent upon someone to do something necessary for someone to do something. (Upon can be replaced with on.) ☐ It's incumbent upon you to do the work. ☐ It was incumbent on me to make the presentation of the first prize.

innocent as a lamb Go to (as) innocent as a lamb.

ins and outs of something the correct and successful way to do something; the special things that one needs to know to do something. ☐ I don't understand the ins and outs of politics. ☐ Jane knows the ins and outs of working with computers.

inside the box 1. as if bound by old, nonfunctional, or limiting structures, rules, or practices. (An adverb. Compare this with outside the box.) ☐ If you keep your discussions inside the box, you will be bound by traditional limitations. ☐ Nothing can be accomplished inside the box to solve this problem. We have already tried every obvious solution. 2. bound by old, nonfunctional, or limiting structures, rules, or practices. (Usually inside-the-box. An adjective.) ☐ You have some really inside-the-box ideas, Ralph. Why not be more creative? ☐ After some long, tedious, inside-the-box discussions, we arrived at the same old conclusion that we always arrive at.

instrumental in doing something playing an important part in doing something. ☐ John was instrumental in getting the contract to build the new building. ☐ Our senator was instrumental in defeating the bill.

intent on doing something determined to do something. ☐ The children were intent on making a snowman. ☐ The prisoner was intent on escaping.

in(to) a jam in(to) a difficult situation. ☐ Mary cannot keep track of the many times Dave got himself into a jam. ☐ I found myself in a jam when my car overheated on the highway.

into being into existence. ☐ The new law brought more problems into being. ☐ That idea came into being centuries ago.

in(to) someone's clutches in the control of someone who has power or authority over someone else. ☐ Snow White fell into the clutches of the evil witch. ☐ Once you're in my clutches, I'll ruin you.

invasion of (someone's) privacy an intrusion that results in the loss of someone's privacy. ☐ Your invasion of my privacy is not welcome! ☐ The athlete complained about the invasion of his privacy by the press.

invest someone's time in something to put one's time, effort, or energy into a project. □ Mary invests her time in charity work. □ I invested five weeks of my time building this model ship.

invest someone with something to endow someone with something, such as power or privilege. □ The Constitution invests the vice president with the authority to act on the president's behalf in certain conditions. □ The state has invested me with the authority to unite this couple in marriage.

invest something in someone or something 1. to put money, time, effort, etc., into someone or something, hoping for a return. □ We will invest time and effort in Fred and make him into a movie star. □ Sharon invested a lot of money in the stock market. 2. to place power or authority under control of someone or something. □ The Constitution has invested certain powers in the federal government and left the rest to the states. □ The law invests the power to arrest criminals in the sheriff's department.

iron something out to solve a problem; to straighten out a problem; to smooth out a difficulty. (Also literal.) □ The principal had to iron a classroom problem out. □ I just had to iron out this little problem; then I'll be able to see you.

issue a call for something to make a public invitation or request for something. □ The prime minister issued a call for peace. □ The person who organized the writing contest issued a call for entries.

It behooves one to do something. It is necessary for one to do something.; It is incumbent upon someone to do something. □ It behooves me to report the crime. □ It behooves you to pay for the window that you broke.

It never rains but it pours. A lot of bad things tend to happen at the same time. (Proverb.) □ The car won't start, the stairs broke, and the dog died. It never rains but it pours. □ More bad news? It never rains but it pours.

It (only) stands to reason. It is only reasonable to hold a certain opinion. □ It stands to reason that most people will not buy a new car if they don't think they can pay for it. □ I think he will come back to pick up his check. It only stands to reason.

It sucks. Go to That sucks.

It takes (some) getting used to. It is very unpleasant, but when it is gotten used to, it will not be so bothersome. (Said in recognition of the unpleasantness of something.) □ I never ate duck's feet before. It takes some getting used to. □ These hot Mexican dishes seem impossible at first. They take some getting used to, I agree. But it's worth it.

It'll never fly. It will never work!; It will never be approved! (Also literal. Refers to an evaluation of an unlikely-looking aircraft of some type.) □ I have read your report and studied your proposal. It'll never fly. □ Your design for a new electric automobile is interesting, but it'll never fly!

It's about time! It is almost too late!; I've been waiting a long time! (Informal. See also the following entry.) □ So you finally got here! It's about time! □ They finally paid me my money. It's about time!

It's (all) Greek to me. It is totally incomprehensible to me. □ Can you explain what this paragraph in the lease means? Legal language is all Greek to me. □ I can't figure out this diagram of how to assemble my bicycle. It's all Greek to me.

It's high time! It is past time [for someone or something!]; [Someone or something] is overdue! (Informal. See also the previous entry.) □ It's high time that you got recognition for what you do! □ They sent me my check, and it's high time, too.

It's not over till it's over. There is still hope for things to go the way I want until the entire event is over. (Proverb.) □ They haven't won the game yet. It's not over till it's over. □ It looks bad for our side, but it's not over till it's over.

It's no use (doing something). It is hopeless to do something.; It is pointless to do something. □ It's no use trying to call on the telephone. The line is always busy. □ They tried and tried, but it was no use.

a jack-of-all-trades someone who can do several different jobs instead of specializing in one. □ John can do plumbing, carpentry, and roofing—a real jack-of-all-trades. He isn't very good at any of them. □ Take your car to a trained mechanic, not a jack-of-all-trades.

jack someone up to motivate someone; to stimulate someone to do something. (Slang.) □ The mail is late again today. We'll have to jack those people up at the post office. □ I guess I'll have to jack up the carpenter again to repair my stairs.

jack something up 1. to raise something up on a mechanical lifting device. □ Now I have to jack the car up so I can change the tire. □ Please jack up the car. 2. to raise the price of something. □ The store keeps jacking prices up. □ The grocery store jacked up the prices again last night.

jazz something up to make something more exciting, colorful, or lively. (Slang. Said especially of music.) □ When we play the music this time, let's jazz it up a bit. □ I think we need to jazz up this room. It looks so drab.

Jekyll and Hyde someone with both an evil and a good personality. (From the novel The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson.) □ Bill thinks Mary is so soft and gentle, but she can be very cruel—she is a real Jekyll and Hyde. □ Jane doesn't know that Fred is a Jekyll and Hyde. She sees him only when he is being kind and generous, but he can be very cruel.

The jig is up. Go to The game is up.

jockey for position to try to push or maneuver one's way into an advantageous position at the expense of others. □ All the workers in the company are jockeying for position. They all want the manager's job. □ It is unpleasant working for a company where people are always jockeying for position.

jog someone's memory to stimulate someone's memory to recall something. □ Hearing the first part of the song I'd forgotten really jogged my memory. □ I tried to jog Bill's memory about our childhood antics.

Johnny-come-lately someone who joins in (something) after it is under way. □ Don't pay any attention to Sally. She's just a Johnny-come-lately and doesn't know what she's talking about. □ We've been here for thirty years. Why should some Johnny-come-lately tell us what to do?

Johnny-on-the-spot someone who is in the right place at the right time. □ Here I am, Johnny-on-the-spot. I told you I would be here at 12:20. □ Bill is late again. You can hardly call him Johnny-on-the-spot.

join forces (with someone) to unite with someone. □ We joined forces with the police to search for the lost child. □ The choirs joined forces to sing the song.

join hands [for people] to hold hands so that each person is holding the hands of two other people; [for two people] to hold each other's hands. □ Let us join hands and pray together. □ The dancers joined hands and formed a circle that moved to the left.

Join the club! <an expression indicating that the person spoken to is in the same, or a similar, unfortunate state as the speaker.> (Informal.) □ You don't have anyplace to stay? Join the club! Neither do we. □ Did you get fired too? Join the club!

join the fray AND jump into the fray; enter the fray to join the fight or argument. □ After listening to the argument, Mary decided to jump into the fray. □ Tom joined the fray and immediately got knocked down.

joking aside Go to (all) joking aside.

jolt to a start AND jolt to a stop to start or stop moving suddenly, causing a jolt. □ The truck jolted to a stop at the stop sign. □ The little car jolted to a quick start and threw the passenger back in his seat.

jolt to a stop Go to jolt to a start.

judge one on one's own merit(s) to judge or evaluate one on one's own achievements and virtues, not someone else's. □ Please judge me on my own merits, not on those of my family. □ You should judge Sally on her own merit. Forget that her mother is a famous opera star.

judge something on its own merit(s) to judge or evaluate a thing on its own good points and usefulness. □ You have to judge each painting on its own merits. Not every painting by a famous painter is superior. □ Each rose must be judged on its own merit.

judging by something considering something; using something as an indication (of something else). □ Judging by your wet clothing, it must be raining. □ Judging by the looks of this house, I would guess there has been a party here.

juice and cookies trivial and uninteresting snacks or refreshments. (Also literal.) □ The party was not much. They might as well have served juice and cookies. □ After juice and cookies, we all went back into the meeting room for another hour of talk, talk.

jump all over someone AND jump down someone's throat; jump on someone to scold someone severely. (Also literal. Slang.) □ If I don't get home on time, my parents will jump all over me. □ Don't jump on me! I didn't do it! □ Please don't jump all over John. He wasn't the one who broke the window. □ Why are you jumping down my throat? I wasn't even in the house when it happened.

jump at something to seize the opportunity to do something. (Usually with it. See also jump at the chance, from which this phrase comes.) □ When I heard about John's chance to go to England, I knew he'd jump at it. □ If something you really want to do comes your way, jump at it.

jump at the chance AND jump at the opportunity; leap at the opportunity to eagerly accept the opportunity to do something. □ John jumped at the chance to go to England. □ I don't know why I didn't jump at the opportunity myself. □ I should have leaped at the chance.

jump at the opportunity Go to jump at the chance.

jump bail AND skip bail to fail to appear in court for trial and give up one's bail bond. (Slang.) □ Not only was Bob arrested for theft, he skipped bail and left town. He's in a lot of trouble. □ I thought only criminals jumped bail.

jump down someone's throat Go to jump all over someone.

jump into the fray Go to join the fray.

jump off the deep end Go to go off the deep end.

jump on someone Go to jump all over someone.

jump on the bandwagon Go to get on the bandwagon.

jump out of one's skin to react strongly to a shock or a surprise. (Informal. Usually with nearly, almost, etc.) □ Oh! You really scared me. I nearly jumped out of my skin. □ Bill was so startled he almost jumped out of his skin.

jump the gun to start before the starting signal. (Originally used in sports contests that are started by firing a gun.) □ We all had to start the race again because Jane jumped the gun. □ When we took the test, Tom jumped the gun and started early.

jump the track 1. [for something] to fall or jump off the rails or guides. (Usually said about a train.) ☐ The train jumped the track, causing many injuries to the passengers. ☐ The engine jumped the track, but the other cars stayed on. 2. to change suddenly from one thing, thought, plan, or activity to another. ☐ The entire project jumped the track, and we finally had to give up. ☐ John's mind jumped the track while he was in the play, and he forgot his lines.

jump through a hoop AND jump through hoops to do everything possible to obey or please someone; to bend over backwards (to do something). (Informal. Trained animals jump through hoops.) ☐ She expects us to jump through hoops for her. ☐ What do you want me to do—jump through a hoop?

jump through hoops Go to jump through a hoop.

jump to conclusions AND leap to conclusions to judge or decide something without having all the facts; to reach unwarranted conclusions. ☐ Now don't jump to conclusions. Wait until you hear what I have to say. ☐ Please find out all the facts so you won't leap to conclusions.

jumping-off place Go to jumping-off point.

jumping-off point AND jumping-off place a point or place from which to begin something. ☐ The local library is a logical jumping-off point for your research. ☐ The office job in that company would be a good jumping-off place for a job in advertising.

The jury is still out (on someone or something). A decision has not been reached on someone or something.; The people making the decision on someone or something have not yet decided. (Also literal.)

☐ The jury is still out on Jane. We don't know what we are going to do about her.
☐ The jury is still out on the question of building a new parking lot.

(just) as I expected I thought so; I knew it would be this way. ☐ Just as I expected. The window was left open and it rained in.
☐ As I expected, he left work early again.

(just) a stone's throw away (from something) Go to within a stone's throw (of something).

just in case (something happens) if (something happens). (Compare this with in case something happens.) ☐ All right. I'll take the umbrella just in case it rains. ☐ I'll take along some aspirin, just in case.

just one of those things just something that couldn't have been prevented; some unfortunate event caused by fate. ☐ I'm sorry, too. It's not your fault. It's just one of those things. ☐ I feel terrible that I didn't pass the bar exam. I guess it was just one of those things.

just so 1. in perfect order; neat and tidy. ☐ Her hair is always just so. ☐ Their front yard is just so. 2. (Usually Just so!) Precisely right!; Quite right! ☐ BILL: The letter should arrive tomorrow. TOM: Just so! ☐ JANE: We must always try our best. MARTIN: Just so!

just the same Go to all the same.

just the same (to someone) Go to all the same (to someone).

just what the doctor ordered exactly what is required, especially for health or comfort. ☐ That meal was delicious, Bob. Just what the doctor ordered. ☐ BOB: Would you like something to drink? MARY: Yes, a cold glass of water would be just what the doctor ordered.

K

keel over [for a person] to fall over or fall down in a faint or in death. ☐ Suddenly, Mr. Franklin keeled over. He had had a heart attack. ☐ It was so hot in the room that two people just keeled over.

keen about someone or something Go to keen on someone or something.

keen on doing something willing or eager to do something. ☐ Dave isn't very keen on going to the opera. ☐ The children are keen on swimming this afternoon. Shall I take them?

keen on someone or something AND keen about someone or something to be enthusiastic about someone or something. ☐ I'm not too keen on going to Denver. ☐ Sally is fairly keen about getting a new job. ☐ Mary isn't keen on her new boss.

keep abreast (of something) to keep informed about something; to keep up (with the times). (Also with be instead of keep, as in the examples below.) ☐ I try to keep abreast of the financial markets. ☐ I believe that I'm abreast of foreign events. ☐ Yes, I try to keep abreast by reading the papers every day.

keep a civil tongue (in one's head) to speak decently and politely. (Also with have. See the note at keep a straight face.) ☐ Please, John. Don't talk like that. Keep a civil tongue in your head. ☐ John seems unable to keep a civil tongue. ☐ He'd be welcome here if he had a civil tongue in his head.

keep a close rein on someone or something Go to keep a tight rein on someone or something.

keep after someone AND keep at someone; keep on someone; stay after someone to remind or nag someone over and over to do something. (See also get after someone.) ☐ I'll keep after you until you do it! ☐ Mother stayed after Bill until he did the dishes. ☐ She kept at him until he dried them and put them away. ☐ She kept on him for forty minutes before he finally finished.

keep an eye on someone or something Go to have an eye on someone or something.

keep an eye out (for someone or something) Go to have an eye out (for someone or something).

keep a secret to know a secret and not tell anyone. ☐ Please keep our little secret private. ☐ Do you know how to keep a secret?

keep a stiff upper lip to be calm and unmoved by unsettling events. (Also with have. See the note at keep a straight face.) ☐ John always keeps a stiff upper lip. ☐ Now, Billy, don't cry. Keep a stiff upper lip. ☐ Bill can take it. He has a stiff upper lip.

keep a straight face to make one's face stay free from smiles or laughter. (Note: Keep can be replaced with have. Keep implies the exercise of effort, and have means that a state exists.) ☐ It's hard to keep a straight face when someone tells a funny joke. ☐ I knew it was John who played the trick. He couldn't keep a straight face. ☐ John didn't have a straight face.

keep a tight rein on someone or something AND keep a close rein on someone or something to watch and control someone or something diligently. ☐ The office manager kept a tight rein on the staff. ☐ Mary keeps a close rein on her children.

Keep at it! Keep doing what you are doing!; Keep trying! (Encouragement to keep working at something.) ☐ The boss told me to keep at it every time he passed my desk. ☐ Keep at it, Tom! You can do it!

keep at someone or something 1. [with someone] Go to keep after someone. 2. [with something] to continue doing something; to continue trying to do something. ☐ John kept at his painting until the whole house was done. ☐ Keep at the job if you want to get it finished.

keep body and soul together to feed, clothe, and house oneself. ☐ I hardly have enough money to keep body and soul together. ☐ How the old man was able to keep body and soul together is beyond me.

keep (close) watch (on someone or something) to monitor someone or something; to observe someone or something. ☐ Keep close watch on Bill. I think he's loafing. ☐ Okay. I'll keep watch, but I think he's a good worker.

keep (close) watch (over someone or something) to guard or care for someone or something. ☐ I'm keeping watch over my children to make sure they have the things they need. ☐ I think that an angel is keeping close watch over her to make sure nothing bad happens to her. ☐ Angels don't have much to do except to keep watch.

keep company (with someone) to spend much time with someone; to associate with or consort with someone. (Compare this with keep someone company.) ☐ Bill has been keeping company with Ann for three months. ☐ Bob has been keeping company with a tough-looking bunch of boys.

keep cool to stay calm and undisturbed. (Also literal. Informal or slang.) ☐ Relax man, keep cool! ☐ If Sally could just keep cool before a race, she could probably win.

keep from doing something to avoid doing something; to refrain from doing something. ☐ How could I keep from crying? It was so sad! ☐ Try to keep from falling off the ladder.

keep good time [for a clock or watch] to be accurate. (See also keep time.) ☐ I have to return my watch to the store because it doesn't keep good time. ☐ My alarm clock really keeps good time.

keep harping on something to continue to talk or complain about something; to keep raising a topic of conversation. (See also harp on something.) ☐ Why do you keep harping on the same old complaint? ☐ You keep harping on my problems and ignore your own!

keep house to manage a household. ☐ I hate to keep house. I'd rather live in a tent than keep house. ☐ My grandmother kept house for nearly sixty years.

keep in touch (with someone) AND stay in touch (with someone) to remain in friendly communication with someone. (See also get in touch (with someone).) ☐ I try to keep in touch with my cousins. ☐ All our family tries to stay in touch.

keep late hours to stay up or stay out until very late. (This can cause one to be late for appointments or responsibilities.) ☐ I'm always tired because I keep late hours. ☐ If I didn't keep late hours, I wouldn't sleep so late in the morning.

keep off (something) to stay off someone's land; not to trespass. ☐ You had better keep off my property. ☐ The sign says "Keep off."

keep on an even keel to remain cool and calm. (Originally nautical. See also keep something on an even keel.) ☐ If Jane can keep on an even keel and not panic, she will be all right. ☐ Try to keep on an even keel and not get upset so easily.

keep one's cards close to one's chest Go to play one's cards close to the chest.

keep one's cards close to one's vest Go to play one's cards close to the chest.

keep one's chin up to keep one's spirits high; to act brave and confident. (Informal.) ☐ Keep your chin up, John. Things will get better. ☐ Just keep your chin up and tell the judge exactly what happened.

keep one's cool to remain calm, even when provoked. (Informal.) ☐ I have a hard time keeping my cool when someone is yelling at me. □ Whatever you do, try to keep your cool.

keep one's distance (from someone or something) to maintain a respectful or cautious distance from someone or something. (The distance can be figurative or literal.) □ Keep your distance from John. He's in a bad mood. □ Keep your distance from the fire. □ Okay. I'll tell Sally to keep her distance, too.

keep one's ear to the ground Go to have one's ear to the ground.

keep one's eye on the ball 1. to watch or follow the ball carefully, especially when one is playing a ball game; to follow the details of a ball game very carefully. □ John, if you can't keep your eye on the ball, I'll have to take you out of the game. □ "Keep your eye on the ball!" the coach roared at the players. 2. to remain alert to the events occurring around one. (Informal.) □ If you want to get along in this office, you're going to have to keep your eye on the ball. □ Bill would do better in his classes if he would just keep his eye on the ball.

keep one's eyes open (for someone or something) AND keep one's eyes peeled (for someone or something) to remain alert and watchful for someone or something. (The entries with peeled are informal. Peel refers to moving the eyelids back.) □ I'm keeping my eyes open for a sale on winter coats. □ Please keep your eyes peeled for Mary. She's due to arrive here any time. □ Okay. I'll keep my eyes open.

keep one's eyes peeled (for someone or something) Go to keep one's eyes open (for someone or something).

keep one's feet on the ground to remain firmly established. (See also get one's feet on the ground.) □ Sally will have no trouble keeping her feet on the ground. □ If you can keep your feet on the ground, there should be no problem.

keep one's fingers crossed (for someone or something) AND cross one's fingers to wish for luck for someone or something, often by crossing one's fingers; to hope for a good outcome for someone or something. □ I hope you win the race Saturday. I'm keeping my fingers crossed for you. □ I'm trying out for a play. Keep your fingers crossed!

keep one's hand in (something) to retain one's control of something. (See also take a hand in something.) □ I want to keep my hand in the running of the business. □ Mrs. Johnson has retired from the library, but she still wants to keep her hand in.

keep one's hands off (someone or something) to refrain from touching or handling someone or something. □ I'm going to put these cookies here. You keep your hands off them. □ Get your hands off my book, and keep them off.

keep one's head to remain calm and sensible when in an awkward situation that might cause a person to panic or go out of control. □ She was very angry. We had to calm her down and encourage her to keep her head. □ Always try to keep your head when others are panicking.

keep one's head above water to stay ahead of one's responsibilities; to remain financially solvent. (Also literal.) □ Now that I have more space to work in, I can easily keep my head above water. □ While I was out of work, I could hardly keep my head above water.

keep one's mouth shut (about someone or something) to keep quiet about someone or something; to keep a secret about someone or something. (Informal.) □ They told me to keep my mouth shut about the boss or I'd be in big trouble. □ I think I'll keep my mouth shut.

keep one's nose clean to keep out of trouble, especially trouble with the law. (Slang.) □ I'm trying to keep my nose clean by staying away from those rough guys. □ John, if you don't learn how to keep your nose clean, you're going to end up in jail.

keep one's nose out of someone's business to refrain from interfering in someone else's business. (See also get one's nose out of someone's business.) □ Let John have his privacy, and keep your nose out of my business, too! □ Keep your nose out of my business!

keep one's nose to the grindstone to keep busy continuously over a period of time. (See also put one's nose to the grindstone.) □ The manager told me to keep my nose to the grindstone or be fired. □ Keep your nose to the grindstone, and you will prosper.

keep one's opinions to oneself to stop mentioning one's own opinions, especially when they disagree with someone else's. □ You ought to keep your opinions to yourself if you are going to be offensive. □ Please keep your rude opinions to yourself!

keep one's own counsel to keep one's thoughts and plans to oneself; not to tell other people about one's thoughts and plans. □ Jane is very quiet. She tends to keep her own counsel. □ I advise you to keep your own counsel.

keep one's place to exhibit only the behavior appropriate to one's position or status in life. (Also literal.) □ When I complained about the food, they told me to keep my place! □ I suggest you keep your place until you're in a position to change things.

keep one's temper AND hold one's temper not to get angry; to hold back an expression of anger. (The opposite of lose one's temper.) □ She should have learned to keep her temper when she was a child. □ Sally got thrown off the team because she couldn't hold her temper.

keep one's weather eye open to watch for something (to happen); to be on the alert (for something); to be on guard. □ Some trouble is brewing. Keep your weather eye open. □ Try to be more alert. Learn to keep your weather eye open.

keep one's wits about one to keep one's mind operating in a time of stress. □ If Jane hadn't kept her wits about her during the fire, things would have been much worse. □ I could hardly keep my wits about me.

keep one's word to uphold one's promise. (The opposite of break one's word.) □ I told her I'd be there to pick her up, and I intend to keep my word. □ Keeping one's word is necessary in the legal profession.

keep on one's toes to stay alert and watchful. □ If you want to be a success at this job, you will have to keep on your toes. □ Please keep on your toes and report anything strange that you see.

keep on someone Go to keep after someone.

keep pace (with someone or something) to move at the same speed as someone or something; to keep up (with someone or something). □ The black horse was having a hard time keeping pace with the brown one. □ Bill can't keep pace with the geometry class. □ You've just got to keep pace.

keep quiet (about someone or something) AND keep still (about someone or something) not to reveal something about someone or something; to keep a secret about someone or something. □ Please keep quiet about the missing money. □ Please keep still about Mr. Smith's illness. □ All right. I'll keep still.

keep someone company to sit or stay with someone, especially someone who is lonely. □ I kept my uncle company for a few hours. □ He was very grateful for someone to keep him company. He gets very lonely.

keep someone from doing something to prevent someone from doing something. □ I kept the child from falling in the lake by grabbing his collar. □ I try to keep myself from overeating, but I seem to fail frequently.

keep someone in line to make certain that someone behaves properly. (Informal.) □ It's very hard to keep Bill in line. He's sort of rowdy. □ The teacher had to struggle to keep the class in line.

keep someone in stitches to cause someone to laugh loud and hard, over and over. (Informal. Also with have. See the note at keep a straight face.) □ The comedian kept us in stitches for nearly an hour. □ The teacher kept the class in stitches, but the students didn't learn anything. □ She had us in stitches for ten minutes.

keep someone on tenterhooks to keep someone anxious or in suspense. (Also with have. See the note at keep a straight face.) □ Please tell me now. Don't keep me on tenterhooks any longer! □ Now that we have her on tenterhooks, shall we let her worry, or shall we tell her?

keep someone or something hanging in midair Go to leave someone or something hanging in midair.

keep someone or something in check AND hold someone or something in check to keep someone or something under control; to restrain someone or something. □ Hang on to this rope to keep the dog in check. □ I was so angry I could hardly hold myself in check.

keep someone or something in mind AND bear someone or something in mind to remember and think about someone or something. □ When you're driving a car, you must bear this in mind at all times: Keep your eyes on the road. □ As you leave home, keep your family in mind.

keep someone or something quiet Go to keep someone or something still.

keep someone or something still 1. AND keep someone or something quiet to make someone or something silent or less noisy. □ Can you please keep the baby quiet? □ Keep that stereo still! 2. [with something] AND keep something quiet to keep something a secret. (See also keep quiet [about someone or something].) □ I'm quitting my job, but my boss doesn't know yet. Please keep it quiet. □ Okay. I'll keep it still. 3. AND hold someone or something still to restrain or control someone or something so that the person or thing cannot move. (See also keep still.) □ Please keep your foot still. It makes me nervous when you wiggle it. □ You have to hold the nail still if you want to hit it.

keep someone or something up 1. [with someone] to prevent someone from going to bed; to keep someone awake. □ Their party kept me up all night. □ The noise kept up the entire household. 2. [with something] to continue doing something. □ I don't know how long I can keep this up. □ I can't keep up working this way much longer.

keep someone out in the cold to prevent someone from being informed. (Also literal.) □ Please don't keep me out in the cold. Tell me what's going on. □ Don't keep your supervisor out in the cold. Tell her what's going on.

keep someone posted to keep someone informed (of what is happening); to keep someone up to date. □ If the price of corn goes up, I need to know. Please keep me posted. □ Keep her posted about the patient's status.

keep something down to keep food in one's stomach (without vomiting it up). □ I don't know how I managed to keep the pill down. □ The food must have been spoiled. I couldn't keep it down. □ Sally is ill. She can't keep solid food down.

keep something on an even keel to keep something in a steady and untroubled state. (See also keep on an even keel.) □ The manager cannot keep the company on an even keel any longer. □ When the workers are unhappy, it is difficult to keep the factory on an even keel.

keep something quiet Go to keep someone or something still.

keep something to oneself to keep something a secret. (Notice the use of but in the examples below.) □ I'm quitting my job, but please keep that to yourself. □ Keep it to yourself, but I'm quitting my job. □ John is always gossiping. He can't keep anything to himself.

keep something under one's hat to keep something a secret; to keep something in one's mind (only). (Informal. If the secret stays under your hat, it stays in your mind. Note the use of but in the examples below.) □ Keep this under your hat, but I'm getting married. □ I'm getting married, but keep it under your hat.

keep something under wraps to keep something concealed (until some future time). □ We kept the plan under wraps until after the election. □ The automobile company kept the new model under wraps until most of the old models had been sold.

keep still 1. AND hold still do not move. □ Quit wiggling. Keep still! □ "Hold still.

I can't examine your ear if you're moving," said the doctor. 2. Go to keep quiet (about someone or something).

keep still (about someone or something) Go to keep quiet (about someone or something).

keep tab(s) (on someone or something) AND keep track (of someone or something) to monitor someone or something; to follow the activities of someone or something. ☐ I'm supposed to keep track of my books. ☐ Try to keep tabs on everyone who works for you. ☐ It's hard to keep tabs when you have a lot of other work to do. ☐ I can't keep track of the money I earn. Maybe someone else is spending it.

keep the ball rolling to cause something that is in progress to continue. (Also literal. See also get the ball rolling.) ☐ Tom started the project, and we kept the ball rolling. ☐ Who will keep the ball rolling now that she is gone?

keep the home fires burning to keep things going at one's home or other central location. (From a World War I song.) ☐ My uncle kept the home fires burning when my sister and I went to school. ☐ The manager stays at the office and keeps the home fires burning while I'm out selling our products.

keep the lid on something to restrain something; to keep something quiet. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ The politician worked hard to keep the lid on the scandal. ☐ The party was noisy because they weren't trying to keep the lid on it. It got louder and louder.

keep the wolf from the door to maintain oneself at a minimal level; to keep from starving, freezing, etc. ☐ I don't make a lot of money, just enough to keep the wolf from the door. ☐ We have a small amount of money saved, hardly enough to keep the wolf from the door.

keep time 1. to maintain a musical rhythm. ☐ Bob had to drop out of the band because he couldn't keep time. ☐ Since he can't keep time, he can't march and he can't play the drums. 2. to keep watch over the time in a game or an athletic contest. ☐ Ann kept time at all the basketball games. ☐ Whoever keeps time has to watch the referee very carefully. 3. [for a clock or a watch] to keep track of time accurately. (See also keep good time.) ☐ This watch doesn't keep time. ☐ My other watch kept time better.

keep to oneself to remain solitary; to stay away from other people. ☐ Ann tends to keep to herself. She doesn't have many friends. ☐ I try to keep to myself each morning so I can get some work done.

keep track (of someone or something) Go to keep tab(s) (on someone or something).

keep up an act AND keep up one's act to maintain a false front; to act in a special way that is different from one's natural behavior. ☐ Most of the time John kept up an act. He was really not a friendly person. ☐ He works hard to keep up his act.

keep up appearances to keep oneself looking calm or happy despite serious problems. ☐ Even with all the trouble Dave was having at home, he still managed to keep up appearances. ☐ She was trained from childhood to keep up appearances no matter how bad she really felt.

keep up one's act Go to keep up an act.

keep up (with someone or something) to keep pace (with someone or something); to advance at the same rate as someone or something. (See the following two entries.) ☐ You're running so fast that I cannot keep up with you. ☐ I don't make enough money to keep up with your spending. ☐ You don't even try to keep up.

keep up (with the Joneses) to stay financially even with one's peers; to work hard to get the same amount of material goods that one's friends and neighbors have. ☐ Mr. and Mrs. Brown bought a new car simply to keep up with the Joneses. ☐ Keeping up with the Joneses can take all your money.

keep up (with the times) to stay in fashion; to keep up with the news; to be contemporary or modern. ☐ I try to keep up with the times. I want to know what's going on. ☐ I bought a whole new wardrobe because I want to keep up with the times.

□ Sally learns all the new dances. She likes to keep up.

Keep your shirt on! Be patient! (Slang. Usually considered rude.) □ Hey, keep your shirt on! I'll be with you in a minute. □ I'll bring you your hamburger when it's cooked. Just keep your shirt on, friend.

keyed up anxious; tense and expectant. (Informal.) □ I don't know why I'm so keyed up all the time. I can't even sleep. □ Ann gets keyed up before a test.

kick a habit AND kick the habit to break a habit. (Slang.) □ It's hard to kick a habit, but it can be done. I stopped biting my nails. □ I used to drink coffee every morning, but I kicked the habit.

kick off 1. to start a football game by kicking the ball a great distance. □ Tom kicked off in the last game. Now it's my turn. □ John tripped when he was kicking off. 2. AND kick the bucket to die. (Slang. Impolite.) □ Don't say that George Washington "kicked off." Say that he "passed away." □ My cat kicked off last night. She was tough as a lion. □ When I kick the bucket, I want a huge funeral with lots of flowers and crying.

kick oneself (for doing something) to regret doing something. (Informal.) □ I could just kick myself for going off and not locking the car door. Now the car has been stolen. □ Don't kick yourself. It's insured.

kick over Go to turn over.

kick someone or something around 1. to treat someone or something badly. (Also literal. Slang.) □ I finally quit my job. My boss wouldn't stop kicking me around. □ Stop kicking my car around. It does everything I ask it. 2. [with something] to discuss an idea or a proposal. (Slang.) □ That sounds like a good idea to me. Let's kick it around in our meeting tomorrow. □ We kicked around John's idea for a while.

kick someone out AND boot someone out to send someone away from a place. □ I lived at home until I was eighteen and my father kicked me out. □ He kicked out his own child? □ Yes. He booted out my brother when he was twenty.

kick something in to contribute some money (to a cause). (Literal meaning to break something in by kicking. Informal.) □ John kicked five dollars in. □ I'd be happy to kick in a dollar, but no more.

kick something off to start something; to start off an event. (Also literal.) □ They kicked the picnic off with a footrace. □ We kicked off the party by singing rowdy songs. □ That was a great way to kick off a weekend.

kick the bucket Go to kick off.

kick the habit Go to kick a habit.

kick up to cause trouble or discomfort. □ The ignition in my car is kicking up again. I will have to have it looked into. □ Aunt Jane's arthritis is kicking up. She needs to see the doctor again.

kick up a fuss AND kick up a row; kick up a storm to become a nuisance; to misbehave and disturb (someone). (Informal. Row rhymes with cow. Note the variation in the examples.) □ The customer kicked up such a fuss about the food that the manager came to apologize. □ I kicked up such a row that they kicked me out. □ Oh, what pain! My arthritis is kicking up a storm.

kick up a row Go to kick up a fuss.

kick up a storm Go to kick up a fuss.

kick up one's heels to act frisky; to be lively and have fun. (Informal.) □ I like to go to an old-fashioned square dance and really kick up my heels. □ For an old man, your uncle is really kicking up his heels.

kid around (with someone) to tease and joke with someone. (Informal.) □ I like to kid around with John. We are great friends. □ Yes, John and I used to kid around a lot.

kidding aside Go to (all) joking aside.

kid(s) stuff a very easy task. (Informal.) □ Climbing that hill is kid stuff. □ Driving an automatic car is kid's stuff.

kill the fatted calf to prepare an elaborate banquet (in someone's honor). (From the biblical story recounting the return of the prodigal son. Fatted is older English for fattened.) □ When Bob got back from college, his parents killed the fattened calf and threw a great party. □ Sorry this meal isn't much, John. We didn't have time to kill the fattened calf.

kill time to waste time. (Informal.) □ Stop killing time. Get to work! □ We went over to the record shop just to kill time.

kill two birds with one stone to solve two problems with one solution. □ John learned the words to his part in the play while peeling potatoes. He was killing two birds with one stone. □ I have to cash a check and make a payment on my bank loan. I'll kill two birds with one stone by doing them both in one trip to the bank.

killed outright killed immediately. □ The driver was killed outright in the accident. □ Twenty people were killed outright in the explosion.

a kind of (a) something a variety of something that is fairly close to the real thing, even though it is not exactly the real thing. (See also sort of something.) □ I used a folded newspaper as a kind of hat to keep the rain off. □ Bill is serving as a kind of helper or assistant on this project.

kind of something Go to sort of something.

a kink in my neck a twisted place or a cramp in the neck that causes pain. □ I got a kink in my neck from sleeping in a draft. □ When I read on the plane, I get a kink in my neck.

kiss and make up to forgive (someone) and be friends again. (Also literal.) □ They were very angry, but in the end they kissed and made up. □ I'm sorry. Let's kiss and make up.

kiss and tell to participate in something secret and private, and then tell other people about it. (Also literal.) □ The project was supposed to be a secret between Jane and me, but she spread it all around. I didn't think she was the type to kiss and tell. □ I am willing to discuss it with you, but only if you promise not to kiss and tell.

the kiss of death an act that puts an end to someone or something. (Informal.) □ The mayor's veto was the kiss of death for the new law. □ Fainting on stage was the kiss of death for my acting career.

kiss something good-bye to anticipate or experience the loss of something. □ If you leave your camera on a park bench, you can kiss it good-bye. □ You kissed your wallet good-bye when you left it in the store.

kit and caboodle the entire amount; everyone; everything. (Folksy. Often with whole.) □ Everybody in the family was there—the whole kit and caboodle. □ The sheriff came and threw the crook out of town, kit and caboodle.

kith and kin friends and relatives; people known to someone. (Older English. Kith means “acquaintances or neighbors” here.) □ I was delighted to find all my kith and kin waiting for me at the airport to welcome me home. □ I sent cards to my kith and kin, telling them of my arrival.

knee-high to a grasshopper not very tall; short and small, as a child. (Folksy.) □ Hello, Billy. I haven't seen you since you were knee-high to a grasshopper. □ I have two grandchildren, both knee-high to a grasshopper.

knew it was coming AND (had) known it was coming aware in advance that something was to happen. □ I shouldn't act surprised. I knew it was coming. □ It's his own fault. He should have known it was coming.

knit one's brow to wrinkle one's brow, especially by frowning. □ The woman knit her brow and asked us what we wanted from her. □ While he read his book, John knit his brow occasionally. He must not have agreed with what he was reading.

knock about (somewhere) to travel around; to act as a vagabond. (Informal.) □ I'd like to take off a year and knock about Europe. □ If you're going to knock about, you should do it when you're young.

knock-down-drag-out fight a serious fight; a serious argument. (Folksy.) □ Boy, they really had a knock-down-drag-out fight. □ Stop calling each other names, or you're going to end up with a real knock-down-drag-out fight.

knock it off to stop something; to cease something. (Slang.) □ Shut up, you guys. Knock it off! □ Knock it off. I've heard enough of your music.

knock off work to quit work (for the day). (Informal.) □ It's time to knock off work. □ It's too early to knock off work.

knock one off one's feet Go to sweep one off one's feet.

knock oneself out (to do something) to go to a great deal of trouble to do something. (Informal. As if one had worked oneself into unconsciousness.) □ I knocked myself out to prepare this meal for you, and you won't even taste it! □ I don't know why I knock myself out to do these things for you. You are not at all appreciative.

knock on wood  (The same as the British English "touch wood.") □ My stereo has never given me any trouble—knock on wood. □ We plan to be in Florida by tomorrow evening—knock on wood.

knock some heads together to scold some people; to get some people to do what they are supposed to be doing. (Also literal. Slang.) □ If you kids don't quiet down and go to sleep, I'm going to come in your room and knock some heads together. □ The government is in a mess. We need to go to Washington and knock some heads together.

knock someone dead to put on a stunning performance or display for someone. (Informal. Someone is often replaced by 'em from them.) □ This band is going to do great tonight. We're going to knock them dead. □ "See how your sister is all dressed up!" said Bill. "She's going to knock 'em dead."

knock someone down (to size) Go to beat someone down (to size).

knock someone for a loop Go to throw someone for a loop.

knock someone off Go to bump someone off.

knock someone or something about Go to knock someone or something around.

knock someone or something around AND knock someone or something about to mistreat someone or something physically. □ They knocked my baggage around on the flight to Mexico. □ The tough guys knocked me around a little. □ They knocked my brother about a bit also.

knock someone out (cold) 1. to knock someone unconscious. (Informal.) □ The blow knocked the boxer out cold. □ The attacker knocked the old man out cold. 2. to overwhelm someone. (Someone includes oneself. See also knock oneself out (to do something).) □ The bad news really knocked me out. □ Her story was great. It just knocked me out cold!

knock someone over with a feather to leave someone stunned or surprised by something extraordinary. (Folksy.) □ I was so surprised you could have knocked me over with a feather. □ When she heard the news, you could have knocked her over with a feather.

knock someone's block off to strike someone hard, especially in the head. (Slang. The block is the head.) □ If you touch me again, I'll knock your block off. □ John punched Bob so hard that he almost knocked his block off.

knock something back Go to knock something down.

knock something down AND knock something back to drink down a drink of something, especially something alcoholic. (Also literal. Slang.) □ I don't see how he can knock that stuff down. □ John knocked back two beers in ten minutes.

knock something off to finish something, especially in haste or carelessly. (Also literal. Slang.) □ I knocked it off with the help of Bob. □ I knocked off the last chapter of my book in four hours.

knock the props out from under someone to destroy someone's emotional, financial, or moral underpinnings; to destroy someone's confidence. □ When you told Sally that she was due to be fired, you really knocked the props out from under her. □ I don't want to knock the props out from under you, but the bank is foreclosing on your mortgage.

know (all) the tricks of the trade to possess the skills and knowledge necessary to do something. □ Tom can repair car engines. He knows the tricks of the trade. □ If I knew all the tricks of the trade, I could be a better plumber.

know a thing or two (about someone or something) to be well informed about someone or something; to know something unpleasant about someone or something. (Informal.) □ I know a thing or two about cars. □ I know a thing or two about Mary that would really shock you.

know a trick or two to know some special way of dealing with a problem. □ I think I can handle all of this with no trouble. I know a trick or two. □ I may be a senior citizen, but I still know a trick or two. I think I can help you with this.

know better (than to do something) to be wise enough, experienced enough, or well trained enough not to have done something wrong. □ Mary should have known better than to accept a lift from a stranger. □ Children should know better than to play in the road.

know-how knowledge and skill. (Informal.) □ Peter doesn't have the know-how to mend that car. □ Mary hasn't the know-how to work the computer.

know one's ABCs to know the alphabet; to know the most basic things (about something). □ Bill can't do it. He doesn't even know his ABCs. □ You can't expect to write a letter when you don't even know your ABCs.

know one's onions Go to know one's stuff.

know one's place to know the behavior appropriate to one's position or status in life. (See also put one in one's place.) □ I know my place. I won't speak unless spoken to. □ People around here are expected to know their place. You have to follow all the rules.

know one's stuff AND know one's onions to know what one is expected to know; to know what is needed. (Informal or slang. See also know the score.) □ I know my stuff. I can do my job. □ She can't handle the assignment. She doesn't know her onions.

know one's way about Go to know one's way around.

know one's way around AND know one's way about to know the techniques of getting something done, especially in a bureaucracy. (Also literal.) □ Sally can get the job done. She knows her way around. □ Since Sally worked at city hall for a year, she really knows her way about.

know someone by sight to know the name and recognize the face of someone. □ I've never met the man, but I know him by sight. □ BOB: Have you ever met Mary? JANE: No, but I know her by sight.

know someone or something like a book Go to know someone or something like the palm of one's hand.

know someone or something like the back of one's hand Go to know someone or something like the palm of one's hand.

know someone or something like the palm of one's hand AND know someone or something like the back of one's hand; know someone or something like a book to know someone or something very well. □ Of course I know John. I know him like the back of my hand. □ I know him like a book.

know something backwards and forwards AND know something forwards and backwards to know something very well; to know a passage of language so well that one could recite it backwards as well as forwards. □ Of course I've memorized my speech. I know it backwards and forwards. □ Todd knows the skeletal structure of the frog backwards and forwards.

know something by heart to know something perfectly; to have memorized something perfectly. □ I know my speech by heart. □ I went over and over it until I knew it by heart.

know something forwards and backwards Go to know something backwards and forwards.

know something from memory to have memorized something so that one does not have to consult a written version; to know something well from seeing it very often. (Almost the same as know something by heart.) □ Mary didn't need the script because she knew the play from memory. □ The conductor went through the entire concert without music. He knew it from memory.

know something in one's bones Go to feel something in one's bones.

know something inside out to know something thoroughly; to know about something thoroughly. (Informal.) □ I know my geometry inside out. □ I studied and studied for my driver's test until I knew the rules inside out.

know something only too well to know something very well; to know something from unpleasant experience. (Note the variation in the examples below.) □ I know the problem only too well. □ I know only too well the kind of problem you must face.

know the ropes to know how to do something. (Informal. See also learn the ropes.) □ I can't do the job because I don't know the ropes. □ Ask Sally to do it. She knows the ropes.

know the score AND know what's what to know the facts; to know the facts about life and its difficulties. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Bob is so naive. He sure doesn't know the score. □ I know what you're trying to do. Oh, yes, I know what's what.

know what's what Go to know the score.

know when one is not wanted to sense when one presence is not welcome; to know when one is not among friends. (Usually said when someone feels hurt by being ignored by people.) □ I'm leaving this place! I know when I'm not wanted! □ She doesn't know when she's not wanted. Can't she tell she's out of place?

know where all the bodies are buried to know all the secrets and intrigue; to know all the important details. □ He is a good choice for president because he knows where all the bodies are buried. □ Since he knows where all the bodies are buried, he is the only one who can advise us.

know whereof one speaks to know well the subject that one is speaking about. □ You are wrong! You do not know whereof you speak. □ He simply doesn't know whereof he speaks.

know where someone stands (on someone or something) to know what someone thinks or feels about someone or something. □ I don't know where John stands on this issue. □ I don't even know where I stand.

know which is which AND tell which is which to be able to distinguish one person or thing from another person or thing. □ I have an old one and a new one, but I don't know which is which. □ I know that Bill and Bob are twins, but I can't tell which is which.

know which side one's bread is buttered on to know what is most advantageous for one. □ He'll do it if his boss tells him to. He knows which side his bread is buttered on. □ Since John knows which side his bread is buttered on, he'll be there on time.

a known fact something that is generally recognized as a fact. □ That grass is green is a known fact. □ It is a known fact that John was in Chicago on the night of the murder.

known it was coming Go to knew it was coming.

a known quantity someone whose character, personality, and behavior are recognized and understood. □ We need not worry about how John will behave. He is a known quantity. □ Lisa is a known quantity and I am sure she will not surprise us by voting with the opposition.

knuckle down (to something) to get busy doing something; to get serious about one's work. (Informal.) □ It's time you knuckled down to your studies. □ Sue must knuckle down if she wants to be successful at the office.

knuckle under (to someone or something) to submit to someone or something; to yield or give in to someone or something. (Informal.) □ You have to knuckle under to your boss if you expect to keep your job. □ I'm too stubborn to knuckle under.

L

a labor of love a task that is either unpaid or badly paid and that one does simply for one's own satisfaction or pleasure or to please someone whom one likes or loves. □ Jane made no money out of the biography she wrote. She was writing about the life of a friend and the book was a labor of love. □ Mary hates knitting, but she made a sweater for her boyfriend. What a labor of love.

lace into someone or something AND light into someone or something to attack, devour, or scold someone or something. (Informal.) □ We laced into a big meal of pork and beans. □ The bully punched John once, and then John really laced into him. □ John lit into him with both fists. □ My father really lit into me when I came in late. He yelled at me for ten minutes.

laid-back relaxed and unperplexed by difficulties. (Slang.) □ John is so laid-back. Nothing seems to disturb him. □ I wish I could be more laid-back. I get so tense.

laid up immobilized for recuperation or repairs. (Said of people and things.) □ I was laid up for two weeks after my accident. □ My car is laid up for repairs. □ I was laid up with the flu for a week. □ Todd was laid up for a month.

the land of Nod sleep. (Humorous. Borrowed from the Bible, Gen. 4:16. From the fact that people sometimes nod when they are falling asleep.) □ The baby is in the land of Nod. □ Look at the clock! It's time we were all in the land of Nod.

land on both feet Go to land on one's feet.

land on one's feet AND land on both feet to recover satisfactorily from a trying situation or a setback. (Also literal. As if having fallen. Informal.) □ Her first year was terrible, but she landed on both feet. □ It's going to be a hard day. I only hope I land on my feet.

land up somehow OR somewhere to finish somehow or somewhere; to come to be in a certain state or place at the end. (Usually in the wrong place or in a bad situation. See also end up somewhere.) □ We set out for Denver but landed up in Salt Lake City. □ He's so extravagant that he landed up in debt.

a landslide victory a victory by a large margin; a very substantial victory, particularly in an election. □ The mayor won a landslide victory in the election. □ The younger man won a landslide victory in the presidential election.

lap something up to believe something, especially something untrue. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Did she believe it? She just lapped it up. □ I can't imagine why she lapped up that ridiculous story.

lapse into a coma to go into a coma. □ The survivor of the crash lapsed into a coma. □ Aunt Mary lapsed into a coma and died.

large as life Go to (as) large as life.

last but not least last in sequence, but not last in importance. (A cliché. Often said when introducing people.) □ The speaker said, "And now, last but not least, I'd like to present Bill Smith, who will give us some final words." □ And last but not least, here is the loser of the race.

a last-ditch effort a final effort; the last possible attempt. □ I made one last-ditch effort to get her to stay. □ It was a last-ditch effort. I didn't expect it to work.

the last person the most unlikely person of whom one could think in a particular situation; the most unlikely person to do something. (Also literal. Preceded by be, become, or seem like.) □ Bob seems like the last person for Tom to insult. He's so hot-tempered. □ Mary was the last person to ask to chair the meeting—she's so shy.

last will and testament Go to someone's last will and testament.

late in life when one is old. □ She injured her hip running. She's exercising rather late in life. □ Isn't it sort of late in life to buy a house?

late in the day far along in a project or activity; too late in a project or activity for action, decisions, etc., to be taken. □ It was a bit late in the day for him to apologize. □ It's late in the day to try to change the plans.

laugh all the way to the bank to be very happy about money that has been earned by doing something that other people might think is unfair. □ He may not be in the nicest business, but he is doing well and can laugh all the way to the bank. □ She makes tons of money doing what no one else will do and laughs all the way to the bank.

laugh out of the other side of one's mouth to change sharply from happiness to sadness. □ Now that you know the truth, you'll laugh out of the other side of your mouth. □ He was so proud that he won the election. He's laughing out of the other side of his mouth since they recounted the ballots and found out that he lost.

laugh something off to avoid or reject a serious problem by laughing at it. □ Tom suffered an injury to his leg, but he laughed it off and kept playing ball. □ Mary just laughed off her bad experience.

laugh something out of court to dismiss something as ridiculous. □ The committee laughed the suggestion out of court. □ Bob's request for a large salary increase was laughed out of court.

laugh up one's sleeve to laugh secretly; to laugh quietly to oneself. (Informal.) □

Jane looked very serious, but I knew she was laughing up her sleeve. □ I told Sally that her dress was darling, but I was laughing up my sleeve because it was too small.

launch forth (on something) Go to set forth (on something); take off (on something).

law unto oneself one who makes one's own laws or rules; one who sets one's own standards of behavior. □ You can't get Bill to follow the rules. He's a law unto himself. □ Jane is a law unto herself. She's totally unwilling to cooperate.

lay a finger on someone or something to touch someone or something, even slightly. (Usually in the negative. Compare this with put one's finger on something.) □ Don't you dare lay a finger on my pencil. Go get your own! □ If you lay a finger on me, I'll scream.

lay an egg [for someone] to give a bad performance. (Literal with birds and most reptiles. Informal.) □ The cast of the play really laid an egg last night. □ I hope I don't lay an egg when it's my turn to sing.

lay down one's life (for someone or something) to sacrifice one's life for someone or something. □ Would you lay down your life for your country? □ There aren't many things for which I'd lay down my life.

lay down on the job Go to lie down on the job.

lay down the law 1. to state firmly what the rules are (for something). □ Before the meeting, the boss laid down the law. We all knew exactly what to do. □ The way she laid down the law means that I'll remember her rules. 2. to scold someone for misbehaving. (Informal.) □ When the teacher caught us, he really laid down the law. □ Poor Bob. He really got it when his mother laid down the law.

lay eyes on someone or something Go to set eyes on someone or something.

lay hold of someone or something to grasp someone or something with the hands. (Informal. Compare this with get one's hands on someone or something; get (a)hold of someone or something.) □ Just wait till I lay hold of Bill! □ I can't wait to lay hold of that fishing pole. I'm ready to catch a huge fish.

lay into someone or something to attack, consume, or scold someone or something. □ Bob laid into the big plate of fried chicken. □ The bear laid into the hunter. □ My father really laid into me when I got home.

lay it on thick AND lay it on with a trowel; pour it on thick; spread it on thick to exaggerate praise, excuses, or blame. □ Sally was laying it on thick when she said that Tom was the best singer she had ever heard. □ After Bob finished making his excuses, Sally said that he was pouring it on thick. □ Bob always spreads it on thick.

lay it on with a trowel Go to lay it on thick.

lay low Go to lie low.

lay off (someone or something) to leave someone or something alone; to stop bothering someone or something; to take it easy (on someone or something). (Slang. See also lay someone off.) □ Lay off Bill. He didn't mean any harm! □ Hey! I said lay off! □ Lay off the butter. Don't use it all up.

the lay of the land 1. the arrangement of features on an area of land. □ The surveyor mapped the lay of the land. □ The geologist studied the lay of the land, trying to determine if there was oil below. 2. the arrangement or organization of something other than land. □ As soon as I get the lay of the land in my new job, things will go better. □ The company's corporate structure was complex, so understanding the lay of the land took time.

lay one's cards on the table Go to put one's cards on the table.

lay one's hands on someone or something Go to get one's hands on someone or something.

lay over (somewhere) to pause somewhere during one's journey. (Compare this with stop over (somewhere).) □ I had to lay over in San Antonio for a few hours before my plane left. □ I want a bus that goes straight through. I don't want to lay over.

lay someone away to bury someone. □ They laid my uncle away last week. □ They laid him away with a quiet ceremony.

lay someone off to put an employee out of work, possibly temporarily. □ They even laid the president off. □ The computer factory laid off two thousand workers.

lay someone up to cause someone to be ill in bed. □ A broken leg laid me up for two months. □ Flu laid up everyone at work for a week or more.

lay something by Go to put something by.

lay something in to get something and store it for future use. □ They laid a lot of food in for the holidays. □ We always lay in a large supply of firewood each November.

lay something on someone to direct blame, guilt, or verbal abuse at someone. (Also literal. Slang. See also put the blame on someone or something.) □ Don't lay that stuff on me! It's not my fault. □ The boss is in the conference room laying a lot of anger on the sales staff.

lay something on the line Go to put something on the line.

lay something to rest Go to put something to rest.

lay something to waste AND lay waste to something to destroy an area (literally or figuratively). □ The invaders laid the village to waste. □ The kids came in and laid waste to my clean house.

lay the blame on someone or something Go to put the blame on someone or something.

lay the finger on someone Go to put the finger on someone.

lay waste to something Go to lay something to waste.

lead a dog's life AND live a dog's life to lead a miserable life. □ Poor Jane really leads a dog's life. □ I've been working so hard. I'm tired of living a dog's life.

lead off to begin; to start (assuming that others will follow). □ We were waiting for someone to start dancing. Finally, Bob and Jane led off. □ The hunter led off, and the dogs followed. □ The first baseman will lead off as the first batter in the baseball game.

lead someone by the nose to force someone to go somewhere (with you); to lead someone by coercion. (Informal.) ☐ John had to lead Tom by the nose to get him to the opera. ☐ I'll go, but you'll have to lead me by the nose.

lead someone down the garden path to deceive someone. ☐ Now, be honest with me. Don't lead me down the garden path. ☐ That cheater really led her down the garden path.

lead someone on a merry chase to lead someone in a purposeless pursuit. ☐ What a waste of time. You really led me on a merry chase. ☐ Jane led Bill on a merry chase trying to find an antique lamp.

lead someone to believe something to imply something to someone; to cause someone to believe something untrue, without lying. ☐ But you led me to believe that this watch was guaranteed! ☐ Did you lead her to believe that she was hired as a clerk?

lead someone to do something to cause someone to do something. ☐ This agent led me to purchase a worthless piece of land. ☐ My illness led me to quit my job.

lead the life of Riley to live in luxury. (Informal. No one knows who Riley is.) ☐ If I had a million dollars, I could live the life of Riley. ☐ The treasurer took our money to Mexico, where he lived the life of Riley until the police caught him.

lead up to something to prepare the way for something. ☐ His compliments were his way of leading up to asking for money. ☐ What were his actions leading up to?

a leading question a question that suggests the kind of answer that the person who asks it wants to hear. ☐ The mayor was angered by the reporter's leading questions. ☐ "Don't you think that the police are failing to stop crime?" is an example of a leading question.

leaf through something Go to thumb through something.

leak something (out) AND let something (get) out to disclose special information to the press so that the resulting publicity will accomplish something. (Also literal. Usually said of government disclosures. Also used for accidental disclosures.) ☐ Don't leak that information out. ☐ I don't want to be the one to leak it. ☐ They let it get out on purpose.

lean on someone to try to make someone do something; to coerce someone to do something. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ If she refuses to do it, lean on her a bit. ☐ Don't lean on me! I don't have to do it if I don't want to.

lean over backwards (to do something) Go to fall over backwards (to do something).

lean toward doing something to tend toward doing something; to favor doing something. ☐ The union is leaning toward accepting the proposal. ☐ My friends leaned toward swimming instead of shopping.

leap at the opportunity Go to jump at the chance.

leap to conclusions Go to jump to conclusions.

learn something by heart to learn something so well that it can be written or recited without thinking; to memorize something. ☐ The director told me to learn my speech by heart. ☐ I had to go over it many times before I learned it by heart.

learn something by rote to learn something by memorizing without giving any thought to what is being learned. ☐ I learned history by rote; then I couldn't pass the test that required me to think. ☐ If you learn things by rote, you'll never understand them.

learn something from the bottom up to learn something thoroughly, from the very beginning; to learn all aspects of something, even the least important ones. ☐ I learned my business from the bottom up. ☐ I started out sweeping the floors and learned everything from the bottom up.

learn (something) the hard way AND find (something) out the hard way to learn something by experience, especially by an unpleasant experience. ☐ She learned how to make investments the hard way. ☐

I wish I didn't have to learn things the hard way. □ I found out the hard way that it's difficult to work and go to school at the same time. □ Investing in real estate is tricky. I found that out the hard way.

learn the ropes to learn how to do something; to learn how to work something. (Informal. See also know the ropes; show someone the ropes.) □ I'll be able to do my job very well as soon as I learn the ropes. □ John is very slow to learn the ropes.

learn to live with something to learn to adapt to something unpleasant or painful. (See also have to live with something.) □ Finally the doctor told Marion that she was going to have to learn to live with her arthritis. □ The floor plan of the house we bought is not as handy as we had thought, but we will learn to live with it.

least of all least; of smallest importance. (Informal.) □ There were many things wrong with the new house. Least of all, the water faucets leaked. □ What a bad day. Many things went wrong, but least of all, I tore my shirt.

leave a bad taste in someone's mouth [for someone or something] to leave a bad feeling or memory with someone. (Also literal. Informal.) □ The whole business about the missing money left a bad taste in his mouth. □ It was a very nice party, but something about it left a bad taste in my mouth. □ I'm sorry that Bill was there. He always leaves a bad taste in my mouth.

leave a lot to be desired to be lacking something important; to be inadequate. (A polite way of saying that something is bad.) □ This report leaves a lot to be desired. □ I'm sorry to have to fire you, Mary, but your work leaves a lot to be desired.

leave a sinking ship Go to desert a sinking ship.

leave no stone unturned to search in all possible places. (Refers to finding something under a rock.) □ Don't worry. We'll find your stolen car. We'll leave no stone unturned. □ In searching for a nice place to live, we left no stone unturned.

leave oneself wide open for something AND leave oneself wide open to something to invite criticism or joking about oneself; to fail to protect oneself from criticism or ridicule. □ Yes, that was a harsh remark, Jane, but you left yourself wide open to it. □ I can't complain about your joke. I left myself wide open for it.

leave oneself wide open to something Go to leave oneself wide open for something.

leave one's mark on someone [for someone like a teacher] to affect the behavior and performance of another person. □ The wise professor left her mark on her students. □ My father left his mark on me, and I will always remember all his good advice.

leave one to one's fate to abandon someone to whatever may happen—possibly death or some other unpleasant event. □ We couldn't rescue the miners, and we were forced to leave them to their fate. □ Please don't try to help. Just go away and leave me to my fate.

leave someone flat 1. to fail to entertain or stimulate someone. (Informal.) □ Your joke left me flat. □ We listened carefully to his lecture, but it left us flat. 2. to leave someone without any money—flat broke. □ Paying all my bills left me flat. □ The robber took all my money and left me flat. 3. to leave someone completely alone. □ I was at the dance with Harry, but when he met Alice, he left me flat. □ They just walked off and left us flat.

leave someone for dead to abandon someone as being dead. (The abandoned person may actually be alive.) □ He looked so bad that they almost left him for dead. □ As the soldiers turned—leaving the enemy captain for dead—the captain fired at them.

leave someone high and dry 1. to leave someone unsupported and unable to maneuver; to leave someone helpless. (Also literal. See also high and dry.) □ All my workers quit and left me high and dry. □ All the children ran away and left Billy high and dry to take the blame for the broken window. 2. to leave someone flat broke. ☐ Mrs. Franklin took all the money out of the bank and left Mr. Franklin high and dry. ☐ Paying the bills always leaves me high and dry.

leave someone holding the bag to leave someone to take all the blame; to leave someone appearing guilty. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ They all ran off and left me holding the bag. It wasn't even my fault. ☐ It was the mayor's fault, but he wasn't left holding the bag.

leave someone in peace to stop bothering someone; to go away and leave someone alone. (Does not necessarily mean to go away from a person.) ☐ Please go—leave me in peace. ☐ Can't you see that you're upsetting her? Leave her in peace.

leave someone in the lurch to leave someone waiting for or anticipating your actions. ☐ Where were you, John? You really left me in the lurch. ☐ I didn't mean to leave you in the lurch. I thought we had canceled our meeting.

leave someone or something hanging in midair AND keep someone or something hanging in midair to suspend dealing with someone or something; to leave someone or something waiting to be finished or continued. (Also literal.) ☐ She left her sentence hanging in midair. ☐ She left us hanging in midair when she paused. ☐ Tell me the rest of the story. Don't leave me hanging in midair. ☐ Don't leave the story hanging in midair.

leave someone or something in one's hands to give one control of or responsibility for someone or something. ☐ You left the whole project in my hands! ☐ I have to leave the care of baby in your hands while I go to the doctor.

leave someone out in the cold to fail to inform someone; to exclude someone. (Also literal. Informal. Compare this with the previous entry.) ☐ I don't know what's going on. They left me out in the cold. ☐ Tom wasn't invited. They left him out in the cold.

leave something on to leave something running or operating. (Also literal in reference to wearing clothes.) ☐ Please don't leave the light on. ☐ Ann went to school and left her radio on.

leave something open to leave a date or time unscheduled. ☐ I left something open on Friday, just in case we want to leave work early. ☐ Please leave an appointment open for Mrs. Wallace next week. She will be calling in to our office for an appointment.

leave well enough alone Go to let well enough alone.

leave word (with someone) to leave a message with someone (who will pass the message on to someone else). ☐ If you decide to go to the convention, please leave word with my secretary. ☐ Leave word before you go. ☐ I left word with your brother. Didn't he give you the message?

left and right Go to right and left.

lend a hand (to someone) Go to lend (someone) a hand.

lend an ear (to someone) to listen to someone. ☐ Lend an ear to John. Hear what he has to say. ☐ I'd be delighted to lend an ear. I find great wisdom in everything John has to say.

lend color to something to provide an interesting accompaniment for something. ☐ Your clever comments lent a great deal of color to the slide show of your vacation. ☐ The excellent master of ceremonies will lend color to an otherwise dry and uninteresting dance recital.

lend oneself or itself to something [for someone or something] to be adaptable to something; [for someone or something] to be useful for something. ☐ This room doesn't lend itself to bright colors. ☐ John doesn't lend himself to casual conversation.

lend (someone) a hand AND lend a hand (to someone) to give someone some help, not necessarily with the hands. ☐ Could you lend me a hand with this piano? I need to move it across the room. ☐ Could you lend a hand with this math assignment? ☐ I'd be happy to lend a hand.

less than pleased displeased. ☐ We were less than pleased to learn of your comments. ☐ Bill was less than pleased at the outcome of the election.

the lesser (of the two) the smaller one (of two); the one having the least amount.

□ The last two pieces of pie were not quite the same size, and I chose the lesser of the two. □ Faced with a basket containing too much and one with too little, Tom chose the lesser.

the lesser of two evils the less bad thing, of a pair of bad things. □ I didn't like either politician, so I voted for the lesser of two evils. □ Given the options of going out with someone I don't like and staying home and watching a boring television program, I chose the lesser of the two evils and watched television.

let alone someone or something not to mention or think of someone or something; not even to take someone or something into account. □ Do I have a dollar? I don't even have a dime, let alone a dollar. □ I didn't invite John, let alone the rest of his family.

Let bygones be bygones. One should forget the problems of the past. (Proverb.) □ Okay, Sally, let bygones be bygones. Let's forgive and forget. □ Jane was unwilling to let bygones be bygones. She still won't speak to me.

let go of someone or something to release someone or something. □ Please let go of me! □ Don't let go of the steering wheel.

let go (with something) AND cut loose (with something); let loose (with something) to shout something out or expel something; to shout or express something wildly. (Slang.) □ The audience cut loose with a loud cheer. □ The whole team let go with a loud shout. □ John let loose with a horrendous belch. □ I wish you wouldn't let loose like that!

let grass grow under one's feet to do nothing; to stand still. □ Mary doesn't let the grass grow under her feet. She's always busy. □ Bob is too lazy. He's letting the grass grow under his feet.

let her rip AND let it roll to go ahead and start something; let something begin. (Informal or slang. Her is usually 'er.) □ When Bill was ready for John to start the engine, he said, "Okay, John, let 'er rip." □

When Sally heard Bob say "Let 'er rip," she let the anchor go to the bottom of the lake.

□ Let's go, Bill. Let it roll!

let it all hang out to tell or reveal everything and hold back nothing (because one is relaxed or carefree). (Also literal. Slang.) □ Sally has no secrets. She lets it all hang out all the time. □ Relax, John. Let it all hang out.

Let it go. Forget it.; Stop worrying about it. □ Don't get so angry about it. Let it go. □ Let it go. Stop fretting.

let it roll Go to let her rip.

let loose (with something) Go to let go (with something).

let off steam AND blow off steam [for someone] to release excess energy or anger. (Also literal in the case of steam engines. Informal.) □ Whenever John gets a little angry, he blows off steam. □ Don't worry about John. He's just letting off steam.

let oneself go to become less constrained; to get excited and have a good time. □ I love to dance and just let myself go. □ Let yourself go, John. Learn to enjoy life.

let one's emotions show to be emotional, especially where it is not appropriate. □ I'm sorry for the outburst. I didn't mean to let my emotions show. □ Please stop crying. You mustn't let your emotions show.

let one's hair down to become more intimate and begin to speak frankly. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Come on, Jane, let your hair down and tell me all about it. □ I have a problem. Do you mind if I let down my hair?

let out some kind of sound [for a living creature] to make some kind of a noise or sound. □ Be quiet. Don't let out a sound! □ Suddenly, Jane let out a shriek.

Let sleeping dogs lie. One should not search for trouble and one should leave well enough alone. (Proverb.) □ Don't mention that problem with Tom again. It's almost forgotten. Let sleeping dogs lie. □ You'll never be able to reform Bill. Leave him alone. Let sleeping dogs lie.

let someone down to disappoint someone; to fail someone. (Also literal.) □ I'm sorry I let you down. Something came up, and I couldn't meet you. □ I don't want to let you down, but I can't support you in the election.

let someone go to dismiss someone from employment; to fire someone. □ John was not working out as well as we had hoped, and we had to let him go. □ They let a number of the older workers go and were faced with an age discrimination suit.

let someone have it (with both barrels) to strike someone or attack someone verbally. (Refers to firing a shotgun. Informal. With both barrels intensifies the phrase. Refers to the firing a double-barreled shotgun.) □ I really let Tom have it with both barrels. I told him he had better not do that again if he knows what's good for him. □ Bob let John have it—with both barrels.

let someone in on something to tell someone the secret. (Informal. The something can be a plan, arrangements, scheme, trick, or anything else that might be kept a secret.) □ Should we let John in on the secret? □ Please let me in on the plan.

let someone know (about something) to tell someone something; to inform someone of something. □ Please let me know about it soon. □ Will you be coming to the picnic? Please let me know.

let someone off easy Go to let someone or something off.

let someone off (the hook) to release someone from a responsibility. □ Please let me off the hook for Saturday. I have other plans. □ Okay, I'll let you off.

let someone or something off 1. AND let someone off easy [with someone] to release or dismiss someone without punishment. (See also get off easy.) □ The judge didn't let me off. □ The judge let off Mary with a warning. 2. [with someone] to permit someone to disembark or leave a means of transportation. □ The driver let Mary off the bus. □ "I can't let you off at this corner," said the driver. 3. [with something] to release something; to give something off. □ The engine was letting off some kind of smoke. □ The flower let off a wonderful smell.

let something (get) out Go to leak something (out).

let something pass to let something go unnoticed or unchallenged. □ Bob let Bill's insult pass because he didn't want to argue. □ Don't worry, I'll let this little incident pass.

let something ride to allow something to continue or remain as it is. (Informal.) □ It isn't the best plan, but we'll let it ride. □ I disagree with you, but I'll let it ride.

let something slide to neglect something. (Also literal. Informal.) □ John let his lessons slide. □ Jane doesn't let her work slide.

let something slide by Go to let something slip by.

let something slip by AND let something slide by 1. to forget or miss an important time or date. (Also literal.) □ I'm sorry I just let your birthday slip by. □ I let it slide by accidentally. 2. to waste a period of time. □ You wasted the whole day by letting it slip by. □ We were having fun, and we let the time slide by.

let something slip (out) to tell a secret by accident. (Also literal.) □ I didn't let it slip out on purpose. It was an accident. □ John let the plans slip when he was talking to Bill.

Let the buyer beware. The person who buys something should investigate the goods or property thoroughly for damage or suitability. (Proverb.) □ Be careful when buying things from street vendors. Let the buyer beware. □ It's the purchaser's job to make sure the goods are ok. Let the buyer beware.

let the cat out of the bag AND spill the beans to reveal a secret or a surprise by accident. (Also literal.) □ When Bill glanced at the door, he let the cat out of the bag. We knew then that he was expecting someone to arrive. □ We are planning a surprise party for Jane. Don't let the cat out of the bag. ☐ It's a secret. Try not to spill the beans.

let the chance slip by to lose the opportunity (to do something). ☐ When I was younger, I wanted to become a doctor, but I let the chance slip by. ☐ Don't let the chance slip by. Do it now!

let things slide to ignore the things that one is supposed to do; to fall behind in the doing of one's work. (Also literal.) ☐ I am afraid that I have let things slide while I was recovering from my operation. ☐ If I let things slide for even one day, I get hopelessly behind in my work.

let up (on someone or something) to take the pressure off someone or something; to take it easy (on someone or something). ☐ Please let up on me. I can't work any faster, and you're making me nervous. ☐ Let up on the project. You're working too hard. ☐ Yes, I guess I had better let up.

let us do something we will do something [together]. (A gentle command. More formal than let's.) ☐ Let us go in peace. ☐ Let us bow our heads in prayer.

let well enough alone AND leave well enough alone to leave things as they are (and not try to improve them). ☐ There isn't much more you can accomplish here. Why don't you just let well enough alone? ☐ This is as good as I can do. I'll stop and leave well enough alone.

Let's do lunch. Let's have lunch together sometime. (Informal.) ☐ Some time next week, let's do lunch. ☐ Can't talk to you now. Let's do lunch sometime.

level something at someone to aim a remark at someone; to direct something at someone. ☐ John leveled a sarcastic comment at his teacher. ☐ The editorial leveled its remarks at the mayor.

level with someone to be honest with someone. (Slang.) ☐ Come on, Bill. Level with me. Did you do it? ☐ I'm leveling with you. I wasn't even in town. I couldn't have done it.

license to do something permission, right, or justification to do something. ☐ You have no license to behave in that manner! ☐

Who granted you license to enter my house without knocking?

a lick of work [not even] a bit of work. (Usually in the negative.) ☐ I couldn't get her to do a lick of work all day long! ☐ The boys didn't do a lick of work while you were away.

lick one's chops to show one's eagerness to do something, especially to eat something. (Refers to the licking of one's lips in expectation of eating. Some animals, but not people, really do lick their chops.) ☐ We could tell from the way the boys were licking their chops that they really wanted a turn at riding the motorcycle. ☐ Fred started licking his chops when he smelled the turkey roasting in the oven.

lick one's lips to show eagerness or pleasure about a future event. (Also literal. Informal. From the habit of people licking their lips when they are about to enjoy eating something.) ☐ The children licked their lips at the sight of the cake. ☐ The author's readers were licking their lips in anticipation of her new novel. ☐ The journalist was licking his lips when he went off to interview the disgraced politician.

lick something into shape AND whip something into shape to put something into good condition. (Informal.) ☐ I have to lick this report into shape this morning. ☐ Let's all lend a hand and whip this house into shape. It's a mess.

lie down on the job AND lay down on the job to do one's job poorly or not at all. (Lay is a common error for lie.) ☐ Tom was fired because he was laying down on the job. ☐ You mean he was lying down on the job, don't you? ☐ Sorry, I was lying down on the job in English class.

lie fallow 1. [for land] to remain unused. ☐ Each year we let a different section of our farmland lie fallow. ☐ The land that is lying fallow this year will be cultivated next year. 2. [for a skill and talent] to remain unused and neglected. ☐ You should not let your talent lie fallow. Practice the piano before you forget how to play it. ☐ His writing had lain fallow for so long that he could hardly write a proper sentence.

lie in state [for a corpse] to be on display in a public place. □ The dead leader lay in state for three days in the country's main city. □ While the king lay in state, many people walked by and paid their respects.

lie in wait for someone or something to wait quietly in ambush for someone or something. □ The lion lay in wait for the zebra. □ The robber was lying in wait for a victim.

lie low AND lay low to keep quiet and not be noticed; to avoid being conspicuous. (Informal. Lay is a common error for lie.) □ I suggest you lie low for a few days. □ The robber said that he would lay low for a short time after the robbery.

lie through one's teeth to lie boldly. □ I knew she was lying through her teeth, but I didn't want to say so just then. □ I'm not lying through my teeth! I never do!

life is too short life is short and there is no point in wasting it on things like worry, hatred, vengeance, etc. □ I am not going to spend any more time trying to get even with Wally. Life's too short. □ It's a waste of time worrying about money. Life is too short for that.

the life of the party the type of person who is lively and helps make a party fun and exciting. □ Bill is always the life of the party. Be sure to invite him. □ Bob isn't exactly the life of the party, but he's polite.

Life's been good (to me). I am grateful that I am doing well in life. □ I can't complain. Life's been good to me. □ I doing fine. Life's been good.

lift a hand (against someone or something) AND raise a hand (against someone or something) to threaten (to strike) someone or something. (Often in the negative. The a hand can be replaced with one's hand.) □ She's very peaceful. She wouldn't lift a hand against a fly. □ That's right. She wouldn't lift a hand. □ Would you raise your hand against your own brother?

light as a feather Go to (as) light as a feather.

light into someone or something Go to lace into someone or something.

light out (for somewhere) to depart in haste for somewhere. (Informal.) □ The bus pulled away and lit out for the next stop. □ It's time I lit out for home. □ I should have lit out ten minutes ago.

light out (of somewhere) to depart somewhere in haste. (Informal.) □ It's time I lit out of here. I'm late for my next appointment. □ Look at that horse go. He really lit out of the starting gate.

Lightning never strikes twice (in the same place). It is extremely unlikely that the same misfortune will occur again in the same set of circumstances or to the same people. (Proverb.) □ Ever since the fire, Jean has been afraid that her house will catch fire again, but they say that lightning never strikes twice. □ Supposedly lightning never strikes twice, but the Smiths' house has been robbed twice this year.

like a bat out of hell with great speed and force. (Use caution with hell.) □ Did you see her leave? She left like a bat out of hell. □ The car sped down the street like a bat out of hell.

like a bolt out of the blue suddenly and without warning. (Refers to a bolt of lightning coming out of a clear blue sky. See also out of a clear blue sky.) □ The news came to us like a bolt out of the blue. □ Like a bolt out of the blue, the boss came and fired us all.

like a bump on a log unresponsive; immobile. □ I spoke to him, but he just sat there like a bump on a log. □ Don't stand there like a bump on a log. Give me a hand!

like a fish out of water appearing to be completely out of place; in a very awkward manner. □ Vincent stood there in his rented tuxedo, looking like a fish out of water. □ Whenever I am with your friends, I feel like a fish out of water. What on earth do you see in them—or me? □ At a formal dance, John is like a fish out of water.

like a house afire Go to like a house on fire.

like a house on fire AND like a house afire rapidly and with force. (Folksy.) □ The truck came roaring down the road like a house on fire. □ The crowd burst through the gate like a house afire.

(like) an open book like someone or something that is easy to understand. (Preceded by be or seem.) □ Jane's an open book. I always know what she is going to do next. □ The committee's intentions are an open book. They want to save money.

like a sitting duck AND like sitting ducks unguarded; unsuspecting and unaware. (The second phrase is the plural form. See also be a sitting duck.) □ He was waiting there like a sitting duck—a perfect target for a mugger. □ The soldiers were standing at the top of the hill like sitting ducks. It's a wonder they weren't all killed.

like a three-ring circus chaotic; exciting and busy. □ Our household is like a three-ring circus on Monday mornings. □ This meeting is like a three-ring circus. Quiet down and listen!

like crazy AND like mad furiously; very much, fast, many, or actively. (Slang.) □ People are coming in here like crazy. There isn't enough room for them all. □ We sold ice cream like crazy. It was a very hot day. □ When she stubbed her toe, she started screaming like mad.

like greased lightning very fast. (Folksy. Informal. See also (as) quick as greased lightning.) □ He left the room like greased lightning. □ They fled the burning building like greased lightning.

like it or lump it either accept it or drop dead. (Slang and fairly rude.) □ I don't care whether you care for my attitude or not. You can just like it or lump it. □ This is all the food you get. Like it or lump it!

Like it's such a big deal! It really isn't all that important! (Informal. Sarcastic.) □ So I dropped the glass. Like it's such a big deal. □ Like it's such a big deal. Who cares?

like lambs to the slaughter quietly and without seeming to realize or complain about the likely difficulties or dangers of a situation. □ Young men fighting in like looking for a needle in a haystack engaged in a hopeless search. □ Trying to find a white dog in the snow is like looking for a needle in a haystack. □ I tried to find my lost contact lens on the beach, but it was like looking for a needle in a haystack.

World War I simply went like lambs to the slaughter. □ Our team went on the football field like lambs to the slaughter to meet the league-leaders.

like mad Go to like crazy.

like nothing on earth 1. very untidy or very unattractive. (Informal.) □ Joan arrived at the office looking like nothing on earth. She had fallen in the mud. □ Alice was like nothing on earth in that electric yellow dress. 2. very unusual; otherworldly. □ The new car models look like nothing on earth this year. □ This cake is so good! It's like nothing on earth!

like one of the family as if someone (or a pet) were a member of one's family. (Informal.) □ We treat our dog like one of the family. □ We are very happy to have you stay with us, Bill. I hope you don't mind if we treat you like one of the family.

like sitting ducks Go to like a sitting duck.

like to hear oneself talk [for someone] to enjoy one's talking more than other people enjoy listening to it. □ I guess I don't really have anything to say. I just like to hear myself talk, I guess. □ There he goes again. He just likes to hear himself talk.

like (two) peas in a pod very close or intimate. (Compare this with as alike as (two) peas in a pod.) □ Yes, they're close. Like two peas in a pod. □ They're always together. Like peas in a pod.

like water off a duck's back easily; without any apparent effect. □ Insults rolled off John like water off a duck's back. □ The bullets had no effect on the steel door. They fell away like water off a duck's back.

likely as not Go to (as) likely as not.

the likes of someone someone; anyone like someone. (Informal. Almost always in a negative sense.) □ I don't like Bob. I wouldn't do anything for the likes of him.

☐ Nobody wants the likes of him around.

the line of least resistance the course of action that will cause least trouble or effort. (Compare this with path of least resistance.) ☐ Jane won't stand up for her rights. She always takes the line of least resistance. ☐ Joan never states her point of view. She takes the line of least resistance and agrees with everyone else.

line one's own pockets to make money for oneself in a greedy or dishonest fashion. (Slang.) ☐ When it was discovered that the sales manager was lining her own pockets with commissions, she was fired. ☐ If you line your pockets while in public office, you'll get in serious trouble.

line someone or something up with something to position someone or something (or a group) in reference to other things. (See also fix someone up (with someone or something).) ☐ Please line the chairs up with the floor tiles. ☒ Line up this brick with the bricks below and at both sides. That's the way you lay bricks. ☒ Line up the boys with the row of trees.

line someone up (for something) to schedule someone for something; to arrange for someone to do or be something. ☐ I lined gardeners up for the summer work on the gardens. ☒ I lined up four of my best friends to serve as ushers at my wedding.

line someone up with someone Go to fix someone up with someone.

the lion's share (of something) the larger share of something. ☐ The elder boy always takes the lion's share of the food. ☐ Jim was supposed to divide the cake in two equal pieces but he took the lion's share.

listen to reason to yield to a reasonable argument; to take the reasonable course. ☐ Please listen to reason, and don't do something you'll regret. ☐ She got into trouble because she wouldn't listen to reason.

litmus test a question or experiment that seeks to determine the state of one important factor. ☐ His performance on the long exam served as a litmus test to determine whether he would go to college. ☐

The amount of white cells in my blood became the litmus test for diagnosing my disease.

A little bird told me learned from a mysterious or secret source. (Often given as an evasive answer to someone who asks how you learned something. Rude in some circumstances.) ☐ "All right," said Mary, "where did you get that information?" John replied, "A little bird told me." ☐ A little bird told me where I might find you.

a little bit a small amount; some. ☐ Can I have a little bit of candy? ☐ I need a little bit of time to finish this essay.

little by little slowly, a bit at a time. ☐ Little by little, he began to understand what we were talking about. ☐ The snail crossed the stone little by little.

A little (hard) work never hurt anyone. AND A little (hard) work never killed anyone. One should expect to do hard or difficult work and not avoid doing it. (Proverb.) ☐ Go help your father with the yard work. A little hard work never hurt anyone. ☐ Go ahead. Bring me some more bricks. A little work never killed anyone.

A little (hard) work never killed anyone. Go to A little (hard) work never hurt anyone.

A little knowledge is a dangerous thing. Incomplete knowledge can embarrass or harm someone or something. ☐ The doctor said, "Just because you've had a course in first aid, you shouldn't have treated your own illness. A little knowledge is a dangerous thing." ☐ John thought he knew how to take care of the garden, but he killed all the flowers. A little knowledge is a dangerous thing.

live a dog's life Go to lead a dog's life.

live a life of something to have a life of a certain quality or style. ☐ The movie star lived a life of luxury. ☐ After Anne won the lottery, she lived the life of a queen.

live and learn to increase one's knowledge by experience. (Also informal and folksy. Usually said when one is surprised to learn something.) ☐ I didn't know that snakes could swim. Well, live and learn! □ John didn't know he should water his houseplants a little extra in the dry winter months. When they all died, he said, "Live and learn."

live and let live not to interfere with other people's business or preferences. □ I don't care what they do! Live and let live, I always say. □ Your parents are strict. Mine just live and let live.

live beyond one's means to spend more money than one can afford. (Compare this with live within one's means.) □ The Browns are deeply in debt because they are living beyond their means. □ I keep a budget so that I don't live beyond my means.

live by one's wits to survive by being clever. □ When you're in the kind of business I'm in, you have to live by your wits. □ John was orphaned at the age of ten and grew up living by his wits.

live for the moment to live without planning for the future. □ John has no health or life insurance. He lives only for the moment. □ When you're young, you tend to live for the moment and not plan for your future security.

live from hand to mouth to live in poor circumstances. (Informal.) □ When both my parents were out of work, we lived from hand to mouth. □ We lived from hand to mouth during the war. Things were very difficult.

live happily ever after to live in happiness after a specific event. (Usually found at the end of fairy tales.) □ The prince and the princess lived happily ever after. □ They went away from the horrible haunted castle and lived happily ever after.

live high off the hog AND live high on the hog to live well and eat good food. (Folksy. Note the variation with pretty. See also eat high on the hog.) □ After they discovered oil on their land, they lived pretty high on the hog. □ Looks like we're living high off the hog tonight. What's the occasion?

live high on the hog Go to live high off the hog.

live in to live at the residence at which one works. (Said of servants.) □ In order to be here early enough to prepare breakfast, the cook has to live in. □ Mr. Simpson has a valet, but he doesn't live in.

live in an ivory tower to be aloof from the realities of living. (Live can be replaced by a number of expressions meaning "to dwell or spend time," as in the first example.) □ If you didn't spend so much time in your ivory tower, you'd know what people really think! □ Many professors are said to live in ivory towers. They don't know what the real world is like.

live it up to have an exciting time; to do what one pleases—regardless of cost—to please oneself. □ At the party, John was really living it up. □ Come on! Have fun! Live it up! □ They spent a week in Mexico living it up and then came home broke.

live off the fat of the land to grow one's own food; to live on stored-up resources or abundant resources. □ If I had a million dollars, I'd invest it and live off the fat of the land. □ I'll be happy to retire soon and live off the fat of the land. □ Many farmers live off the fat of the land.

live on borrowed time to live longer than circumstances warrant. □ John has a terminal disease, and he's living on borrowed time. □ This project is living on borrowed time. It is overdue for completion.

live out of a suitcase to live briefly in a place, never unpacking one's luggage. □ I hate living out of a suitcase. For my next vacation, I want to go to just one place and stay there the whole time. □ We were living out of suitcases in a motel while they repaired the damage the fire caused to our house.

live something down to overcome the shame or embarrassment of something. □ You'll live it down someday. □ Max will never be able to live down what happened at the party last night.

live through something to endure something. □ I thought I'd never be able to live through the lecture. It was so boring. □ I just can't live through another day like this.

live up to one's end of the bargain to carry through on a bargain; to do as was promised in a bargain. □ You can't quit now. You have to live up to your end of the bargain. □ Bob isn't living up to his end of the bargain, so I am going to sue him.

live up to something to fulfill expectations; to satisfy a set of goals. (Often with one's reputation, promise, word, standards, etc.) □ I hope I can live up to my reputation. □ The class lives up to its reputation of being exciting and interesting. □ He never lives up to his promises. □ She was unable to live up to her own high standards.

live within one's means to spend no more money than one has. (Compare this with live beyond one's means.) □ We have to struggle to live within our means, but we manage. □ John is unable to live within his means.

loaded for bear 1. angry. (Slang and folksy.) □ He left here in a rage. He was really loaded for bear. □ When I got home from work, I was really loaded for bear. What a horrible day! 2. drunk. (An elaboration of loaded, which means "drunk." Slang and folksy.) □ By the end of the party, Bill was loaded for bear. □ The whole gang drank for an hour until they were loaded for bear.

lock horns (with someone) to get into an argument with someone. (Informal.) □ Let's settle this peacefully. I don't want to lock horns with the boss. □ The boss doesn't want to lock horns either.

lock something in to make something, such as a rate of interest, permanent over a period of time. (Informal.) □ We locked in an 11 percent rate on our mortgage. □ You should try to lock in a high percentage rate on your bonds.

lock, stock, and barrel everything. □ We had to move everything out of the house—lock, stock, and barrel. □ We lost everything—lock, stock, and barrel—in the fire.

long and (the) short of it the whole story; all the necessary facts. □ I was late and I missed my train, and that's the long and short of it. □ Soon after the big green frog turned into a handsome prince, Princess

Ellen and her newfound love went to live happily ever after in a kingdom by the sea, and that's the long and the short of it.

Long time no see. I have not seen you for a long time. (Informal.) □ Hello, John. Long time no see. □ When John and Mary met on the street, they both said, "Long time no see."

look as if butter wouldn't melt in one's mouth to appear to be cold and unfeeling (despite any information to the contrary). □ Sally looks as if butter wouldn't melt in her mouth. She can be so cruel. □ What a sour face. He looks as if butter wouldn't melt in his mouth.

look at someone cross-eyed to do something slightly provocative. (Informal.) □ Bob is very excitable. He'd lose his temper if anyone so much as looked at him cross-eyed. □ Don't even look cross-eyed at the boss this morning unless you want trouble.

look daggers at someone to give someone a dirty look. (Compare this with look at someone cross-eyed.) □ Tom must have been mad at Ann from the way he was looking daggers at her. □ Don't you dare look daggers at me! Don't even look cross-eyed at me!

look down one's nose at someone or something Go to look down on someone or something.

look down on someone or something AND look down one's nose at someone or something to regard someone or something with contempt or displeasure. (Also literal.) □ I think that John liked Mary, although he did seem to look down on her. □ Don't look down your nose at my car just because it's rusty and noisy.

look for trouble Go to ask for trouble.

look forward to something to anticipate something with pleasure. □ I'm really looking forward to your visit next week. □ We all look forward to your new book on gardening.

look good on paper seems fine in theory, but not perhaps in practice; appears to be a good plan. □ The plan looks good on paper, but it may not work. □ This looks good on paper. Let's hope it works in the real world.

look high and low (for someone or something)

Go to hunt high and low (for someone or something).

look in (on someone or something) AND check in (on someone or something) to see to the welfare of someone or something; to visit someone or something. □ I'll stop by your house and look in on things while you're on vacation. □ Yes, just look in and make sure nothing is wrong. □ I checked in on John yesterday. He's almost over his illness. □ He was glad I checked in.

look into something AND check into something; see into something to investigate something. □ I'll have to look into that matter. □ The police checked into her story. □ Don't worry about your problem. I'll see into it.

look like a million dollars to look very good. □ Oh, Sally, you look like a million dollars. □ Your new hairdo looks like a million dollars.

look like death warmed over to look quite ill; to look as pale as a dead person. □ Poor Tom had quite a shock. He looks like death warmed over. □ After her long ordeal with chemotherapy, she looked like death warmed over.

look like something to give the appearance of predicting (something).

□ The sky looks like rain. □ No, it looks like snow. □ Oh, oh. This looks like trouble. Let's go.

look like something the cat dragged in to look very shabby, worn, exhausted, or abused. (Also literal. Informal. Sometimes with drug.) □ That new sofa of theirs looks like something the cat dragged in. □ Poor Dave looks like something the cat drug in. He must have been out late last night.

look like the cat that swallowed the canary to appear as if one had just had a great success. □ After the meeting John looked like the cat that swallowed the canary. I knew he must have been a success. □ What happened? You look like the cat that swallowed the canary.

look on someone as something to view or think of someone as something. □ I look on you as a very thoughtful person. □ Mary looked on Jane as a good friend.

look out

Go to watch out.

look out for someone or something

Go to watch out for someone or something.

look someone in the eye

Go to look someone in the face.

look someone in the face AND look someone in the eye; stare someone in the face to face someone directly. (Facing someone this way should assure sincerity.) □ I don't believe you. Look me in the eye and say that. □ She looked him in the face and said she never wanted to see him again. □ I dare you to stare him in the face and say that!

look someone or something over to examine someone or something carefully. □ She looked him over and decided to hire him. □ Please look over this report.

look someone or something up AND hunt someone or something up to search for and find someone or something. □ I don't know where the hammer is. I'll have to hunt it up. □ Ann looked the word up in the dictionary. □ Would you please look up John? I need to talk to him.

look the other way to ignore (something) on purpose. (Also literal.) □ John could have prevented the problem, but he looked the other way. □ By looking the other way, he actually made the problem worse.

look to one's laurels

to take care not to lower or diminish one's reputation or position, especially in relation to that of someone else potentially better. □ With the arrival of the new member of the football team, James will have to look to his laurels to remain as the highest scorer. □ The older members of the team will have to look to their laurels when young people join.

look to someone or something (for something) to expect someone or something to supply something. □ Children look to their parents for help. □ Tom looked to the bank for a loan. □ Most people who need to borrow money look to a bank.

look under the hood to examine the engine of a car; to check the oil and water associated with the engine of a car. □ I finished putting gas in. I need to look under the hood. □ Do you want me to look under the hood, sir?

look up to someone to view someone with respect and admiration. □ Bill really looks up to his father. □ Everyone in the class looked up to the teacher.

loom large (on the horizon) to be of great importance, especially when referring to a possible problem, danger, or threat. (Also literal. A cliché.) □ The exams were looming large on the horizon. □ Eviction was looming large when the students could not pay their rent.

lord it over someone to dominate someone; to direct and control someone. □ Mr. Smith seems to lord it over his wife. □ The boss lords it over everyone in the office.

lose face to lose status; to become less respectable. □ John is more afraid of losing face than losing money. □ Things will go better if you can explain to him where he was wrong, without making him lose face.

lose ground to fall behind; to fall back. □ She was recovering nicely yesterday, but she lost ground last night. □ We are losing ground in our fight against mosquitoes.

lose heart to lose one's courage or confidence. □ Now, don't lose heart. Keep trying. □ What a disappointment! It's enough to make one lose heart.

lose one's cool AND blow one's cool to lose one's temper; to lose one's nerve. (Slang.) □ Wow, he really lost his cool! What a tantrum! □ Whatever you do, don't blow your cool.

lose oneself (in something) to become deeply involved in something (so that everything else is forgotten). □ Jane has a tendency to lose herself in her work. □ I often lose myself in thought. □ Excuse me, I lost myself for a moment.

lose one's grip to lose control of a situation. (Also literal.) □ I can't seem to run things the way I used to. I'm losing my grip. □ They replaced the board of directors because it was losing its grip.

lose one's head (over someone or something) to become confused or "crazy" about someone or something. (Literal in reference to execution by decapitation. Refers especially to emotional attachments.) □ Don't lose your head over John. He isn't worth it. □ I'm sorry. I got upset and lost my head.

lose one's marbles AND lose one's mind to go crazy; to go out of one's mind. (The first phrase is slang and can be literal. See also not have all one's marbles.) □ What a silly thing to say! Have you lost your marbles? □ I can't seem to remember anything. I think I'm losing my mind.

lose one's mind Go to lose one's marbles.

lose one's reason to lose one's power of reasoning, possibly in anger. □ I was so confused that I almost lost my reason. □ Bob seems to have lost his reason when he struck John.

lose one's shirt to lose all of one's assets (including one's shirt). (Also literal. Slang.) □ I almost lost my shirt on that deal. I have to invest more wisely. □ No, I can't loan you $200. I just lost my shirt at the racetrack.

lose one's temper to become angry. □ Please don't lose your temper. It's not good for you. □ I'm sorry that I lost my temper.

lose one's touch (with someone or something) to lose one's ability to handle someone or something. □ I seem to have lost my touch with my children. They won't mind me anymore. □ We've both lost our touch as far as managing people goes. □ Tom said that he had lost his touch with the stock market.

lose one's train of thought to forget what one was talking or thinking about. (See also train of thought.) □ Excuse me, I lost my train of thought. What was I talking about? □ You made the speaker lose her train of thought.

lose out (on something) Go to miss out (on something).

lose out to someone or something to lose a competition to someone or something. □ Our team lost out to the other team. □ Bill lost out to Sally in the contest.

lose sleep (over someone or something) to worry about someone or something. (Literal when worry keeps one awake.) □ I keep losing sleep over my son, who is in the army. □ Do you lose sleep over your investments? □ No, I don't lose sleep, and I never worry.

lose touch (with someone or something) to lose contact with someone or something. (Compare this with keep in touch (with someone).) □ Poor Sally has lost touch with reality. □ I've lost touch with all my relatives. □ Jane didn't mean to lose touch, but she did.

lose track (of someone or something) to forget where someone or something is; to lose or misplace someone or something. □ I've lost track of the time. □ The mother lost track of her child and started calling her. □ When I get tired, I tend to lose track.

lost-and-found an office or department that handles items that someone has lost that have been found by someone else. □ The lost-and-found office had an enormous collection of umbrellas and four sets of false teeth! □ I found a book on the seat of the bus. I turned it in to the driver, who gave it to the lost-and-found office.

lost and gone forever lost; permanently lost. □ My poor doggy is lost and gone forever. □ My money fell out of my pocket, and I am sure that it is lost and gone forever.

a lost cause a futile attempt; a hopeless matter. □ Our campaign to have the new party on the ballot was a lost cause. □ Todd gave it up as a lost cause.

lost in thought busy thinking. □ I'm sorry, I didn't hear what you said. I was lost in thought. □ Bill—lost in thought as always—went into the wrong room.

lost on someone having no effect on someone; wasted on someone. (Informal.) □ The joke was lost on Jean. She didn't understand it. □ The humor of the situation was lost on Mary. She was too upset to see it.

a lot of someone or something AND lots of people or things a large number of people or things; much of something. □ I got a lot of presents for my birthday. □ I ate lots of cookies after dinner.

lots of people or things Go to a lot of someone or something.

loud and clear clear and distinctly. (Originally said of radio reception that is heard clearly and distinctly.) □ TOM: If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times: Stop it! Do you hear me? BILL: Yes, loud and clear. □ I hear you loud and clear.

louse something up to mess up or ruin something. (Slang.) □ I've worked hard on this. Please don't louse it up. □ You've loused up all my plans.

lousy with something with something in abundance. (Slang.) □ This place is lousy with cops. □ Our picnic table was lousy with ants.

love at first sight love established when two people first see one another. □ Bill was standing at the door when Ann opened it. It was love at first sight. □ It was love at first sight when they met, but it didn't last long.

lovely weather for ducks rainy weather. □ BOB: Not very nice out today, is it? BILL: It's lovely weather for ducks. □ I don't like this weather, but it's lovely weather for ducks.

low man on the totem pole the least important person. (Compare this with high man on the totem pole.) □ I was the last to find out because I'm low man on the totem pole. □ I can't be of any help. I'm low man on the totem pole.

lower oneself to some level to bring oneself down to some lower level of behavior. (Also literal.) □ I refuse to lower myself to your level. □ Has TV news lowered itself to the level of the tabloids?

lower one's sights to set one's goals lower than they were. (Literal in reference to aiming a weapon.) □ Even though you get frustrated, don't lower your sights. □ I shouldn't lower my sights. If I work hard, I can do what I want.

lower one's voice to speak more softly. □ Please lower your voice, or you'll disturb the people who are working. □ He wouldn't lower his voice, so everyone heard what he said.

lower the boom on someone to scold or punish someone severely; to crack down on someone; to throw the book at someone. (Also literal. Informal.) □ If Bob won't behave better, I'll have to lower the boom on him. □ The teacher lowered the boom on the whole class for misbehaving.

luck out to get lucky (about something). (Slang.) □ I won $100 in the lottery. I really lucked out. □ Bob lucked out when he got an easy teacher for geometry.

[luck runs out] Go to one's luck runs out.

the lull before the storm AND the calm before the storm a quiet period just before a period of great activity or excitement. (Literal in reference to weather.) □ It was very quiet in the cafeteria just be- fore the students came in for lunch. It was the lull before the storm. □ In the brief calm before the storm, the clerks prepared themselves for the doors to open and bring in thousands of shoppers.

lull someone into a false sense of security to lead someone into believing that all is well before attacking or doing someone bad. □ We lulled the enemy into a false sense of security by pretending to retreat. Then we launched an attack. □ The boss lulled us into a false sense of security by saying that our jobs were safe and then let half the staff go.

lull someone to sleep to cause someone to fall asleep. □ The mother lulled her baby to sleep. □ The boring professor lulled the students to sleep.

the lunatic fringe the more extreme members of a group. □ Most of the members of that religious sect are quite reasonable, but Lisa belongs to the lunatic fringe. □ Many people try to avoid eating a lot of fat, but Mary is part of the lunatic fringe and will hardly eat anything.

M

mad about someone or something Go to crazy about someone or something.

mad as a hatter Go to (as) mad as a hatter.

mad as a hornet Go to (as) mad as a hornet.

mad as a March hare Go to (as) mad as a March hare.

mad as a wet hen Go to (as) mad as a wet hen.

mad as hell Go to (as) mad as hell.

mad enough to chew nails AND angry enough to chew nails angry enough to bite through metal nails. ☐ I am mad enough to chew nails! Who took my check-book? ☐ Her sudden tirade made him angry enough to chew nails.

mad for someone or something Go to mad about someone or something.

made for each other [for two people] to be very well suited romantically. ☐ Bill and Jane were made for each other. ☐ Mr. and Mrs. Smith were not exactly made for each other. They really don't get along.

made from the same mold Go to cut from the same cloth.

made to measure [of clothing] made especially to fit the measurements of a particular person. ☐ Jack has his suits made to measure because he's rather large. ☐ Having clothes made to measure is rather expensive.

made to order put together on request. (Compare this with in stock.) ☐ This suit fits so well because it's made to order. ☐ His feet are so big that all his shoes have to be made to order.

maiden voyage the first voyage of a ship or boat. ☐ The liner sank on its maiden voyage. ☐ Jim is taking his yacht on its maiden voyage.

main strength and awkwardness great force; brute force. (Folksy.) ☐ They finally got the piano moved in to the living room by main strength and awkwardness. ☐ Lifting the table must be done carefully. This is not a job requiring main strength and awkwardness.

make a bed AND make someone's bed to arrange neatly the sheets and blankets of a bed. ☐ The hotel maid made our bed. ☐ Billy had to make his bed before he went to school.

make a beeline for someone or something to head straight toward someone or something. (Refers to the way bees fly in a straight line. Informal.) ☐ Billy came into the kitchen and made a beeline for the cookies. ☐ After the game, we all made a beeline for John, who was serving cold drinks.

make a big deal about something Go to make a federal case out of something.

make a break for something or somewhere to move or run quickly to something or somewhere. (Informal.) ☐ Before we could stop her, she made a break for the door and got away. ☐ The mouse got frightened and made a break for a hole in the wall.

make a bundle AND make a pile to make a lot of money. (Slang.) ☐ John really made a bundle on that deal. ☐ I'd like to make a pile and retire.

make a check out (to someone) to write a check naming someone as payee. ☐

Please make a check out to John Jones. □ Do you want cash, or should I make out a check?

make a clean breast of something to confess something; to get something off one's chest. □ You'll feel better if you make a clean breast of it. Now tell us what happened. □ I was forced to make a clean breast of the whole affair.

make a clean sweep to do something completely or thoroughly, with no exceptions. (Informal.) □ The boss decided to fire everybody, so he made a clean sweep. □ They made a clean sweep through the neighborhood, repairing all the sidewalks.

make a comeback to return to one's former (successful) career. (Informal.) □ After ten years in retirement, the singer made a comeback. □ You're never too old to make a comeback.

make a day of doing something AND make a day of it to spend the whole day doing something. □ We went to the museum to see the new exhibit and then decided to make a day of it. □ They made a day of cleaning the attic.

make a day of it Go to make a day of doing something.

make a dent in something to begin to consume or accomplish something. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Bob, you've hardly made a dent in your dinner! □ There is a lot of rice left. We hardly made a dent in it all week. □ Get busy! You haven't even made a dent in your work.

make a face to twist one's face into a strange expression in order to show one's dislike, ridicule, etc., or in order to make someone laugh. □ The comedian made faces in order to amuse the children. □ Jane made a face when she was asked to work late.

make a face (at someone) 1. to make a face at someone in ridicule. □ Mother, Billy made a face at me! □ The teacher sent Jane to the principal for making a face in class. 2. to attempt to communicate to someone through facial gestures, usually an attempt to say "no" or "stop." □ I started to tell John where I was last night, but Bill made a face so I didn't. □ John made a face at me as I was testifying, so I avoided telling everything.

make a fast buck AND make a quick buck to make money with little effort. (Slang.) □ Tom is always ready to make a fast buck. □ I made a quick buck selling used cars.

make a federal case out of something AND make a big deal about something to exaggerate the seriousness of something. (The first entry head can be literal. Slang.) □ Come on. It was nothing! Don't make a federal case out of it. □ I only stepped on your toe. Don't make a big deal about it.

make a fool out of someone AND make a monkey out of someone to make someone look foolish. □ John made a monkey out of himself while trying to make a fool out of Jim. □ John made a fool out of himself at the party. □ Are you trying to make a monkey out of me?

make a friend AND make friends to establish a link of friendship with someone. □ I have never found it difficult to make friends. □ Mary had to make new friends when she changed schools.

make a fuss (over someone or something) AND make over someone or something 1. to worry about or make a bother about someone or something. □ Why do you fuss over a problem like that? □ Please don't make a fuss. Everything will be all right. □ Don't make over me so much! 2. to be very solicitous and helpful toward a person or a pet. □ How can anyone make a fuss over a cat? □ Billy was embarrassed when his mother made a fuss over him. 3. to argue about someone or something. □ Please don't make a fuss over who gets the last cookie. □ Please discuss it. Don't make a fuss over it!

make a go of it to make something work out all right. (Informal.) □ It's a tough situation, but Ann is trying to make a go of it. □ We don't like living here, but we have to make a go of it.

make a great show of something to make something obvious; to do something in a showy fashion. □ Ann made a great show of wiping up the drink that John spilled. □ Jane displayed her irritation at our late arrival by making a great show of serving the cold dinner.

make a hit (with someone or something) to please someone. (Informal.) □ The singer made a hit with the audience. □ She was afraid she wouldn't make a hit. □ John made a hit with my parents last evening.

make a killing to have a great success, especially in making money. (Slang.) □ John has got a job selling insurance. He's not exactly making a killing. □ Bill made a killing at the racetrack yesterday.

make a laughingstock of oneself or something AND make oneself or something a laughingstock to make oneself a source of ridicule or laughter; to do something that invites ridicule. □ Laura made herself a laughingstock by arriving at the fast-food restaurant in full evening dress. □ The board of directors made the company a laughingstock by hiring an ex-convict as president.

make a living to earn enough money to live on. □ I'll be glad when I get a job and can make a living. □ I can hardly make a living with the skills I have.

make allowance(s) (for someone or something) 1. to allow time, space, food, etc., for someone or something. □ When planning the party, please make allowances for John and his family. □ I'm making allowance for ten extra guests. 2. to make excuses or explanations for someone or something; to take into consideration the negative effects of someone or something. □ You're very late even when we make allowance for the weather. □ We have to make allowance for the age of the house when we judge its condition.

make a long story short to bring a story to an end. (A formula that introduces a summary of a story or a joke.) □ And—to make a long story short—I never got back the money that I lent him. □ If I can make a long story short, let me say that everything worked out fine.

make a meal of something to eat only a large portion of one kind of food as an entire meal. □ There were lots of salad makings, so we fixed a large salad and made a meal of it. □ We had tons of leftover turkey after the festival, so the next day we sat down and made a meal of it.

make amends (for something) to do something as an act of restitution or to make up for some error, injury, or loss that one has caused. □ After the argument, Jane later called her friend to make amends. □ After amends had been made, Jane took her friend to dinner.

make a monkey out of someone Go to make a fool out of someone.

make a mountain out of a molehill to make a major issue out of a minor one; to exaggerate the importance of something. □ Come on, don't make a mountain out of a molehill. It's not that important. □ Mary is always making mountains out of molehills.

make an all-out effort to make a thorough and energetic effort. (See also all-out effort.) □ Sally made an all-out effort to get to class on time. □ In my job, I have to make an all-out effort every day.

make a name (for oneself) to become famous. □ Sally wants to work hard and make a name for herself. □ It's hard to make a name without a lot of talent and hard work.

make an appearance to appear; to appear in a performance. (Compare this with put in an appearance.) □ We waited for thirty minutes for the professor to make an appearance, then we went home. □ The famous singing star made an appearance in Detroit last August.

make an appointment (with someone) to schedule a meeting with someone. □ I made an appointment with the doctor for late today. □ The professor wouldn't see me unless I made an appointment.

make an example of someone to make a public issue out of someone's bad behavior. □ The judge decided to make an example of John, so he fined him the full amount. □ The teacher made an example of Mary, who had disturbed the class constantly with her whispering.

make an exception (for someone) to suspend a rule or practice for someone in a single instance. □ Please make an exception just this once. □ The rule is a good one, and I will not make an exception for anyone.

make an exhibition of oneself to embarrass oneself by showing off or doing something daring in public. (Sometimes under the influence of alcohol.) □ You can be certain that Joan will have too much to drink and make an exhibition of herself. □ Sit down and be quiet. Stop making an exhibition of yourself.

make a night of doing something to do something for the entire night. □ We partied until three in the morning and then decided to make a night of it. □ Once or twice in the early spring we make a night of fishing.

make an impression (on someone) to produce a memorable effect on someone. (Often with good, bad, or some other adjective.) □ Tom made a bad impression on the banker. □ I'm afraid that you haven't made a very good impression on our visitors. □ You made quite an impression on my father.

make an issue of someone or something Go to make a point of someone or something.

make a note of something to write something down. □ Please make a note of this address. □ This is important. Make a note of it.

make a nuisance of oneself to be a constant bother. □ I'm sorry to make a nuisance of myself, but I do need an answer to my question. □ Stop making a nuisance of yourself and wait your turn.

make an uproar Go to create an uproar.

make a pass at someone to flirt with someone; to make a romantic advance at someone. (This often has sexual implications. Compare this with make a play (for someone).) □ I was shocked when Ann made a pass at me. □ I think Bob was making a pass at me, but he did it very subtly.

make a pile Go to make a bundle.

make a pitch (for someone or something) to say something in support of someone or something; to attempt to promote, sell, or advance someone or something. (Informal.) □ Bill is making a pitch for his friend's new product again. □ The theatrical agent came in and made a pitch for her client. □ Every time I turn on the television set, someone is making a pitch.

make a play (for someone) to attempt to attract the romantic interest of someone. (Informal. Compare this with make a pass at someone.) □ Ann made a play for Bill, but he wasn't interested in her. □ I knew he liked me, but I never thought he'd make a play.

make a point to state an item of importance. (Also literal, as in sports and games.) □ You made a point that we all should remember. □ He spoke for an hour without making a point.

make a point of doing something to make an effort to do something. □ Please make a point of mailing this letter. It's very important. □ The hostess made a point of thanking me for bringing flowers.

make a point of someone or something AND make an issue of someone or something to turn someone or something into an important matter. □ Please don't make a point of John's comment. It wasn't that important. □ I hope you make an issue of Tom's success and the reasons for it. □ Tom has a lot of problems. Please don't make an issue of him.

make a practice of something AND make something a practice to turn something into a habitual activity. □ Jane makes a practice of planting daisies every summer. □ Her mother also made it a practice.

make a quick buck Go to make a fast buck.

make a reservation AND make reservations to reserve a seat, as in an airplane, restaurant, or theater in advance; to reserve a room, as in a hotel in advance. □ Did you make a reservation or are we just going to chance getting a table? □ I made reservations for a flight at twelve noon.

make arrangements (for someone or something) 1. to make plans for someone or something. □ I'm making arrangements for the convention. □ It starts next week, and I hardly have time to make arrangements. 2. [with someone] to plan accommodations for someone. □ John is coming for a visit next week. Please make arrangements for him at the hotel. □ I will make arrangements for everyone when I call the hotel.

make a run for it to run fast to get away or get somewhere. (Informal. Compare this with make a break for something or somewhere.) □ When the guard wasn't looking, the prisoner made a run for it. □ In the baseball game, the player on first base made a run for it, but he didn't make it to second base.

make a scene AND create a scene to make a public display or disturbance. □ When John found a fly in his drink, he started to create a scene. □ Oh, John, please don't make a scene. Just forget about it.

make as if to do something to act as if one were about to do something. □ The thief made as if to run away but changed his mind. □ Jane made as if to smack the child.

make a silk purse out of a sow's ear to create something of value out of something of no value. (Often in the negative.) □ Don't bother trying to fix up this old bicycle. You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. □ My mother made a lovely jacket out of an old coat. She succeeded in making a silk purse out of a sow's ear.

make a stink (about something) Go to create a stink (about something).

make away with someone or something AND make off with someone or something to take someone or something away; to make someone or something disappear. □ The robber made away with the jewelry. □ The maid quickly made off with the children. We only saw them for a moment.

make book on something to make or accept bets on something. (Slang.) □ It looks as if it will rain, but I wouldn't make book on it. □ John's making book on the football game this Saturday.

make (both) ends meet to manage to live on a small amount of money. (Also literal.) □ It's hard these days to make ends meet. □ I have to work overtime to make both ends meet.

make chin music to talk or chatter. (Slang.) □ We sat around all evening making chin music. □ You were making chin music when you should have been listening.

make cracks (about someone or something) to ridicule or make jokes about someone or something. (Informal.) □ Please stop making cracks about my haircut. It's the new style. □ Some people can't help making cracks. They are just rude.

make do (with someone or something) to do as well as possible with someone or something. □ You'll have to make do with less money next year. The economy is very weak. □ We'll have to make do with John even though he's a slow worker. □ Yes, we'll have to make do.

make eyes (at someone) to flirt with someone. □ Tom spent all afternoon making eyes at Ann. □ How could they sit there in class making eyes?

make fast work of someone or something Go to make short work of someone or something.

make for somewhere to run or travel to somewhere. (Slang, especially criminal slang.) □ When I got out of class, I made for the gym. □ When he got out of jail, he made for Toledo.

make free with someone or something 1. [with someone] Go to take liberties with someone or something. 2. [with something] to take advantage of or use something as if it were one's own. (Compare this with take liberties with someone or something.) □ I wish you wouldn't come into my house and make free with my food and drink. □

Please make free with my car while I'm gone.

make friends Go to make a friend.

make fun (of someone or something) to ridicule someone or something. ☐ Please stop making fun of me. It hurts my feelings. ☐ Billy teases and makes fun a lot, but he means no harm.

make good as something to succeed in a particular role. ☐ I hope I make good as a teacher. ☐ John made good as a football player.

make good (at something) to succeed at something. ☐ Bob worked hard to make good at selling. ☐ Jane was determined to make good.

make good money to earn a large amount of money. (Informal.) ☐ Ann makes good money at her job. ☐ I don't know what she does, but she makes good money.

make good on something 1. to fulfill a promise. ☐ Tom made good on his pledge to donate $1,000. ☐ Bill refused to make good on his promise. 2. to repay a debt. (See also make something good.) ☐ I couldn't make good on my debts, and I got in a lot of trouble. ☐ If you don't make good on this bill, I'll have to take back your car.

make good time to travel fast; to progress rapidly. ☐ I am making good time. My report is almost finished. ☐ Now that we are clear of the city traffic, we can make good time.

make hamburger out of someone or something AND make mincemeat out of someone or something to beat up or overcome someone or something. (Literal when referring to foodstuffs. Figurative with people. Slang.) ☐ Stop acting silly, or I'll make hamburger out of you. ☐ Our team made mincemeat out of the other team.

make it to succeed. (See also make something.) ☐ I hope Bob's new business makes it. ☐ Donna wants to graduate this year. I hope she makes it.

make it as far as something Go to make it (until something).

make it hot for someone to make things difficult for someone; to put someone under pressure. (Also literal. Slang.) ☐ Maybe if we make it hot for them, they'll leave. ☐ John likes making it hot for people. He's sort of mean.

make it one's business to do something to do something on one's own even if it means interfering in something that does not directly concern one. (As opposed to minding one's own business. See also take it upon oneself to do something.) ☐ I know I doesn't concern me, but I made it my business to call city hall because someone had to. ☐ Jane made it her business to find out exactly what had happened to the old lady.

make it to something Go to make it (until something).

make it (until something) AND make it to something; make it as far as something to endure until something; to last until some time. ☐ I hope my car can make it to the next town. ☐ Do you think you can make it until we come to a stopping point? ☐ I made it as far as the first turn and decided to give up.

make it worth someone's while to make something profitable enough for someone to do. (See also worth someone's while.) ☐ If you deliver this parcel for me, I'll make it worth your while. ☐ The boss said he'd make it worth our while if we worked late.

make life miserable for someone to make someone unhappy over a long period of time. ☐ My shoes are tight, and they are making life miserable for me. ☐ Jane's boss is making life miserable for her.

make light of something to treat something as if it were unimportant or humorous. ☐ I wish you wouldn't make light of his problems. They're quite serious. ☐ I make light of my problems, and that makes me feel better.

make little of someone or something to minimize someone or something; to play someone or something down; to belittle someone or something. ☐ John made little of my efforts to collect money for charity. ☐ The neighbors made little of John and thought he would amount to nothing.

make love (to someone) to share physical or emotional love (or both) with someone. (This phrase usually has a sexual meaning.) ☐ Tom and Ann turned out the lights and made love. ☐ The actress refused to make love to the leading man on stage.

make merry to have fun; to have an enjoyable time. ☐ The guests certainly made merry at the wedding. ☐ The children were making merry in the backyard.

make mincemeat out of someone or something Go to make hamburger out of someone or something.

make mischief to cause trouble. ☐ Bob loves to make mischief and get other people into trouble. ☐ Don't believe what Mary says. She's just trying to make mischief.

Make no bones about it. Make no mistake (about it); Do not doubt it. (Folksy.) ☐ This is the greatest cake I've ever eaten. Make no bones about it. ☐ Make no bones about it, Mary is a great singer.

make no difference (to someone) not to matter to someone; for someone not to care (about something). ☐ It makes no difference to me what you do. ☐ Do whatever you want. It really makes no difference.

make no mistake (about it) without a doubt; certainly. (Informal.) ☐ This car is a great buy. Make no mistake about it. ☐ We support your candidacy—make no mistake.

make nothing of something to ignore something as if it had not happened; to think no more about something. (Often with it.) ☐ My father caught me throwing the snowball, but he made nothing of it. ☐ I made nothing of the remark, even though it seemed quite rude. ☐ I saw him leave, but I made nothing of it.

make off with someone or something Go to make away with someone or something.

make oneself at home to make oneself comfortable as if one were in one's own home. ☐ Please come in and make your- self at home. ☐ I'm glad you're here. During your visit, just make yourself at home.

make oneself conspicuous to attract attention to oneself. ☐ Please don't make yourself conspicuous. It embarrasses me. ☐ Ann makes herself conspicuous by wearing brightly colored clothing.

make oneself heard to speak loudly so that one will be heard above the noise. ☐ I had to shout to make myself heard. ☐ He screamed to make himself heard over the sound of the plane's engines.

make oneself or something a laughingstock Go to make a laughingstock of oneself or something.

make oneself scarce to go away. (Slang.) ☐ Hey, kid, go away. Make yourself scarce. ☐ When there is work to be done, I make myself scarce.

make (oneself) up to put makeup on oneself. ☐ I have to make up now. I go on stage in ten minutes. ☐ I will make myself up. I don't need your help.

make one's mind up to decide. ☐ Please make your mind up. Which do you want? ☐ Would you help me make up my mind?

make one's way through something Go to pick one's way through something.

make or break someone either to improve or ruin someone. ☐ The army will either make or break him. ☐ It's a tough assignment, and it will either make or break her.

make out (with someone or something) 1. to manage to do (something) with someone or something. ☐ I think I can make out with this hammer. ☐ If I can't make out with John, I'll have to ask for more help. 2. [with someone] to flirt with, kiss, or hug someone; to make love (to someone). (Slang.) ☐ Bob was trying to make out with Sally all evening. ☐ She didn't want to make out, so she left.

make over someone or something Go to make a fuss (over someone or something).

make overtures to give hints about something; to present or suggest ideas. ☐ The company made overtures about hiring me.

□ Tom is making overtures about inviting us to his country home next month.

make peace (with someone) to end a quarrel with someone. (Compare this with kiss and make up.) □ Don't you think it's time to make peace with your brother? There is no point in arguing anymore. □ Yes, it's time we made peace.

make points (with someone) to gain favor with someone. (Slang.) □ Tom is trying to make points with Ann. He wants to ask her out. □ He's trying to make points by smiling and telling her how nice she looks.

make reservations Go to make a reservation.

make sense to be understandable to someone. □ John doesn't make sense. □ What John says makes sense.

make sense out of someone or something to understand or interpret someone or something. (Also with some, as in the second example.) □ I can hardly make sense out of John. □ I'm trying to make some sense out of what John is saying.

make short work of someone or something AND make fast work of someone or something to finish with someone or something quickly. □ I made short work of Tom so I could leave the office to play golf. □ Billy made fast work of his dinner so he could go out and play.

make someone eat crow to cause someone to retract a statement or admit an error. (Informal.) □ Because Mary was completely wrong, we made her eat crow. □ They won't make me eat crow. They don't know I was wrong.

make someone look good to cause someone to appear successful or competent (especially when this is not the case). (Also literal.) □ John arranges all his affairs to make himself look good. □ The manager didn't like the quarterly report because it didn't make her look good.

make someone look ridiculous to make someone look foolish (not funny). □ This hat makes me look ridiculous. □ Please make me look good. Don't make me look ridiculous!

make someone or something available to someone to supply someone with someone or something. □ I made my car available to Bob. □ They made their maid available to us.

make someone or something over Go to do someone or something over.

make someone's bed Go to make a bed; make the bed.

make someone's blood boil to make someone very angry. (Informal.) □ It just makes my blood boil to think of the amount of food that gets wasted around here. □ Whenever I think of that dishon-est mess, it makes my blood boil.

make someone's blood run cold to shock or horrify someone. □ The terrible story in the newspaper made my blood run cold. □ I could tell you things about prisons that would make your blood run cold.

make someone's flesh crawl to cause someone's skin to feel funny or get goose pimples through fright. □ Just to hear the story of the killings made my flesh crawl. □ The horror movie made our flesh crawl.

make someone's gorge rise to cause someone to become very angry. □ The unnecessary accident made my gorge rise. □ Getting his tax bill made Bob's gorge rise.

make someone's hair curl Go to curl someone's hair.

make someone's hair stand on end to cause someone to be very frightened. (Literal if referring to the effects of a charge of static electricity. Informal.) □ The horrible scream made my hair stand on end. □ The ghost story made our hair stand on end.

make someone's head spin Go to make someone's head swim.

make someone's head swim AND make someone's head spin 1. to make someone dizzy or disoriented. □ Riding in your car makes my head spin. □ Breathing the gas made my head swim. 2. to confuse or overwhelm someone. □ All these numbers make my head swim. □ The physics lecture made my head spin.

make someone sick to disgust someone.

□ I am really tired of your vile talk. You make me sick! □ She screamed at him that he made her sick and then she ran out of the house.

make someone's mouth water to make someone hungry (for something). (Also literal for causing saliva to flow into someone's mouth. Informal.) □ That beautiful salad makes my mouth water. □ Talking about food makes my mouth water.

make someone's position clear to clarify where someone stands on an issue. □ I don't think you understand what I said. Let me make my position clear. □ I can't tell whether you are in favor of or against the proposal. Please make your position clear.

make someone the scapegoat for something to make someone take the blame for something. □ They made Tom the scapegoat for the whole affair. It wasn't all his fault. □ Don't try to make me the scapegoat. I'll tell who really did it.

make someone up to put makeup on someone. □ She made herself up before leaving the house. ☐ The crew made up the cast before the play.

make something to attend an event. (See also make it.) □ I hope you can make our party. □ I am sorry, but I won't be able to make it.

make something a practice Go to make a practice of something.

make something from scratch to make something by starting with the basic ingredients. (Informal.) □ We made the cake from scratch, using no prepared ingredients. □ I didn't have a ladder, so I made one from scratch.

make something good AND make something right to replace or restore something. (Informal. See also set something right.) □ I know I owe you some money, but don't worry, I'll make it good. □ I'm sorry I broke your window. I'll make it right, though.

make something out of nothing 1. to make an issue of something of little importance. (See also make a mountain out of a molehill.) □ Relax, John, you're making a big problem out of nothing. □ You have no evidence. You're making a case out of nothing. 2. to create something of value from nearly worthless parts. □ My uncle—he sells sand—made a fortune out of nothing. □ My model airplane won the contest even though I made it out of nothing.

make something (out) of something 1. to make an interpretation of something. □ Can you make anything out of this message? I don't understand it. □ I'm sorry, I can't make any sense out of it. 2. to interpret something negatively, possibly leading to a disagreement. (Informal. Compare this with make nothing of something.) □ So, I'm wrong! You want to make something of it? □ The hostess made too much out of my absence.

make something right Go to make something good.

make something to order to put something together only when someone requests it. (Usually said about clothing. See also build something to order.) □ This store only makes suits to order. □ Our shirts fit perfectly because we make each one to order.

make something up 1. to repay or redo something. ☐ Can I make up the test I missed? ☐ Please make up the payment you missed. □ You can make it up. 2. to create a story or a lie. □ That's not true! You just made it up! □ Bob made up a story about a tiny mouse and its friends. 3. to mix something up; to assemble something. □ JOHN: Is my prescription ready? DRUGGIST: No, I haven't made it up yet. ☐ I'll make up your prescription in a minute.

make something up out of whole cloth to create a story or a lie from no facts at all. □ I don't believe you. I think you made that up out of whole cloth. ☐ Ann made up her explanation out of whole cloth. There was not a bit of truth in it.

make something up to someone to repay someone; to make amends to someone.

□ I'm so sorry I've insulted you. How can I make it up to you? □ I'm sorry I broke our date. I'll make it up to you, I promise.

make something worth someone's while to make something profitable enough for someone to do. □ If you deliver this parcel for me, I'll make it worth your while. □ The boss said he'd make it worth our while if we worked late.

make the bed AND make someone's bed to restore a bed to an unslept-in condition. □ I make my bed every morning. □ The maid goes to all the rooms to make the beds.

make the best of something to try to make a bad situation work out well. (Compare this with make the most of something.) □ It's not good, but we'll have to make the best of it. □ Ann is clever enough to make the best of a bad situation.

make the feathers fly Go to make the fur fly.

make the fur fly AND make the feathers fly to cause a fight or an argument; to create an uproar (about something). (Informal.) □ When your mother gets home and sees what you've done, she'll really make the fur fly. □ When those two get together, they'll make the feathers fly. They hate each other.

make the grade to be satisfactory; to be what is expected. (Informal.) □ I'm sorry, but your work doesn't exactly make the grade. □ This meal doesn't just make the grade. It is excellent.

make the most of something to make something appear as good as possible; to exploit something; to get as much out of something as is possible. (Compare this with make the best of something.) □ Mary knows how to make the most of her talents. □ They designed the advertisements to make the most of the product's features.

make the scene to appear somewhere, especially at a social event. (Slang.) □ I hope I can make the scene Saturday night at the party. □ The big race is tomorrow.

Man, I've got to make the scene. The whole world will be there!

make time (for someone or something) to schedule time to see someone or do something. □ I can make time for you tomorrow morning. □ I am very busy, but I can make time. □ You are going to have to start making time for balanced meals.

make time (with someone) to flirt with, date, or hang around with someone. (Informal.) □ I hear that Tom's been making time with Ann. □ I hear they've been making time for months.

make up for lost time to do much of something; to do something fast. □ Because we took so long eating lunch, we have to drive faster to make up for lost time. Otherwise we won't arrive on time. □ At the age of sixty, Bill learned to play golf. Now he plays it every day. He's making up for lost time.

make up for someone or something to take the place of someone or something. □ John can't play in the game Saturday, but I think I can make up for him. □ Do you think that this cat can make up for the one that ran away?

make up (with someone) to reconcile with someone; to end a disagreement (with someone). □ Bill and Max decided to make up. □ They made up with each other and are still very good friends.

make use of someone or something to use or utilize someone or something. □ If you make use of all your talents and skills, you should succeed. □ The technician makes good use of a number of special tools.

make waves to make trouble or difficulties. (Also literal. Informal. Compare this with rock the boat.) □ I don't want to make waves, but this just isn't right. □ Why do you always have to make waves? Can't you be constructive?

make way to make progress; to move ahead. (Originally nautical. See also make way (for someone or something).) □ Is this project making way? □ A sailboat can't make way if there is no wind.

make way (for someone or something) to clear a path for someone or something. □ Make way for the stretcher. □ Please make way for the nurse. □ Here comes the doctor—make way!

man-about-town a fashionable man who leads a sophisticated life. □ He prefers wine bars to pubs—quite a man-about-town. □ Jack's too much of a man-about-town to go to a football game.

the man in the street the ordinary person. □ Politicians rarely care what the man in the street thinks. □ The man in the street has little interest in literature.

man to man AND woman to woman speaking frankly and directly, one person to another. □ Let's discuss this man to man so we know what each other thinks. □ The two mothers discussed their child-raising problems woman to woman.

Many hands make light work. A lot of help will make a chore seem easier. (Proverb.) □ Let's all work together and get this finished. Many hands make light work. □ Many hands make light work, so please lend a hand.

many is the time on many occasions. □ Many is the time I wanted to complain, but I just kept quiet. □ Many is the time that we don't have enough to eat.

march to (the beat of) a different drummer to believe in a different set of principles. □ John is marching to a different drummer, and he doesn't come to our parties anymore. □ Since Sally started marching to the beat of a different drummer, she has had a lot of great new ideas.

mark my word(s) remember what I'm telling you. □ Mark my word, you'll regret this. □ This whole project will fail—mark my words.

mark someone or something down 1. [with someone] to make a note about someone; to note a fact about someone. □ I'm going to the party. Please mark me down. □ Mark me down, too. 2. [with someone] [for a teacher] to give someone a low score. □ He'll mark you down for misspelled words. □ I marked down Tom for bad spelling. 3. [with something] to lower the price of something. □ Okay, we'll mark it down. □ Let's mark down this price so it'll sell faster.

mark something up 1. to mess something up with marks. □ Don't mark up your book! □ Who marked this book up? 2. to grade a paper and make lots of informative marks and comments on it. □ The teacher really marked up my term paper. □ Why did you mark my test up so much? I hardly made any errors. 3. to raise the price of something. □ The grocery store seems to mark the price of food up every week. □ They don't mark up the price of turkey at Thanksgiving.

a marvel to behold someone or something quite exciting or wonderful to see. □ Our new house is a marvel to behold. □ Mary's lovely new baby is a marvel to behold.

a match for someone, something, or some creature someone, something, or some creature that is the equal of someone, something, or some other creature, especially in a contest. □ My older brother is no match for me; he's much weaker. □ Your horse is a good match for mine in the race. Either one might win.

matter-of-fact businesslike; unfeeling. (See also a matter of fact.) □ Don't expect a lot of sympathy from Ann. She's very matter-of-fact. □ Don't be so matter-of-fact. It hurts my feelings.

a matter of life and death an issue of great urgency; a situation that will affect life or death. □ We must find a doctor. It's a matter of life and death. □ A matter of life and death demands that I return home at once.

a matter of opinion the matter of how good or bad someone or something is; a question about which there are different opinions. □ It's a matter of opinion how good the company is. John thinks it's great and Fred thinks it's poor. □ How efficient the committee is is a matter of opinion.

mean business to be very serious and determined about something. (Informal.) □ Billy, get into this house and do your homework, and I mean business. □ We mean business when we say you must stop all this nonsense.

mean for someone to do something to intend for someone to do something. ☐ John meant for us to go with them to the zoo. ☐ John meant for Jane to do the dishes.

mean nothing (to someone) 1. not to make sense to someone. ☐ This sentence means nothing to me. It isn't clearly written. ☐ I'm sorry. This message means nothing. 2. [for someone] not to have feeling for (someone or something). ☐ Do I mean nothing to you after all these years? ☐ Do all those years mean nothing?

mean something (to someone) 1. to make sense to someone. (See also the preceding entry.) ☐ Does this line mean anything to you? ☐ Yes, it means something. 2. for someone to have feeling for (someone or something). ☐ You mean a lot to me. ☐ This job means a lot to Ann.

mean to (do something) to plan or intend to do something. ☐ Did you mean to do that? ☐ No, it was an accident. I didn't mean to.

meant to be destined to exist. ☐ Our love was meant to be! ☐ It was not meant to be.

meant to be something destined or fated to be something. ☐ Jane was meant to be a chemist. ☐ I was meant to be rich, but something didn't work right!

measure up (to someone or something) to be equal to someone or something. ☐ Ann is good, but she doesn't measure up to Mary. ☐ Tom measures up to the job.

measure up (to someone's expectations) AND measure up to someone's standards to be as good as one expects. ☐ This measures up to my standards quite nicely. ☐ This meal doesn't measure up to my expectations.

measure up to someone's standards Go to measure up (to someone's expectations).

meat-and-potatoes basic, sturdy, and hearty. (Often refers to a robust person, usually a man, with simple tastes in food and other things.) ☐ Fred was your meat-and-potatoes kind of guy. No creamy sauces for him. ☐ There is no point in try- ing to cook up something special for the Wilsons. They are strictly meat-and-potatoes.

a Mecca for someone a place that is frequently visited by a particular group of people because it is important to them for some reason. (From the city of Mecca, the religious center of Islam.) ☐ New York City is a Mecca for theatergoers. ☐ St. Andrews is a Mecca for golf enthusiasts because of its famous course.

meek as a lamb Go to (as) meek as a lamb.

meet one's death AND meet one's end to experience something, especially death or problems. ☐ After 20 years, my dog finally met his death when he got hit by a bus. ☐ The sky diver met his end when his parachute didn't open.

meet one's end Go to meet one's death.

meet one's match to meet one's equal. ☐ John played tennis with Bill yesterday, and it looks as if John has finally met his match. ☐ Listen to Jane and Mary argue. I always thought that Jane was loud, but she has finally met her match.

meet one's Waterloo to meet one's final and insurmountable challenge. (Refers to Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo.) ☐ The boss is being very hard on Bill. It seems that Bill has finally met his Waterloo. ☐ John was more than Sally could handle. She has finally met her Waterloo.

meet someone halfway to offer to compromise with someone. (Also literal.) ☐ No, I won't give in, but I'll meet you halfway. ☐ They settled the argument by agreeing to meet each other halfway.

meet the requirements (for something) to fulfill the requirements for something. ☐ Sally was unable to meet the requirements for the job. ☐ Jane met the requirements and was told to report to work the next day.

a meeting of minds the establishment of agreement; complete agreement. ☐ After a lot of discussion we finally reached a meeting of minds. ☐ We struggled to bring about a meeting of minds on the issues.

melt in one's mouth 1. to taste very good. (Also can be literal.) □ This cake is so good it'll melt in your mouth. □ John said that the food didn't exactly melt in his mouth. 2. [of meat] to be very, very tender. □ My steak is so tender it could melt in my mouth. □ This fillet will melt in your mouth!

mend (one's) fences to restore good relations (with someone). (Also literal.) □ I think I had better get home and mend my fences. I had an argument with my daughter this morning. □ Sally called up her uncle to apologize and try to mend fences.

mend one's ways to improve one's behavior. □ John used to be very wild, but he's mended his ways. □ You'll have to mend your ways if you go out with Mary. She hates people to be late.

mention someone or something in passing to mention someone or something casually; to mention someone or something while talking about someone or something else. □ He just happened to mention in passing that the mayor had resigned. □ John mentioned in passing that he was nearly eighty years old.

merry as a cricket Go to (as) merry as a cricket.

merry as the day is long Go to (as) merry as the day is long.

mess about (with someone or something) Go to mess around (with someone or something).

mess around (with someone or something) AND mess about (with someone or something); monkey around (with someone or something); screw around (with someone or something) to play with or waste time with someone or something. (Slang.) □ Will you please stop messing around with that old car! □ Stop messing about! Get busy! □ Tom wastes a lot of time messing around with Bill. □ Don't monkey around with my computer! □ John is always screwing around with his stereo.

mess someone or something up 1. [with someone] to rough someone up; to beat someone up. (Slang.) □ The robbers threatened to mess Bob up if he didn't cooperate. □ John messed up Bill a little, but no real harm was done. 2. [with something] to make something disorderly. □ You really messed this place up! □ Who messed up my bed?

middle-of-the-road halfway between two extremes, especially political extremes. (Also literal.) □ Jane is very left-wing, but her husband is politically middle-of-the-road. □ I don't want to vote for either the left-wing or the right-wing candidate. I prefer someone with more middle-of-the-road views.

might and main great physical strength; great force. □ The huge warrior, with all his might and main, could not break his way through the castle gates. □ The incredible might and main of the sea crushed the ship against the cliff.

milestone in someone's life a very important event or point in one's life. (From the stone at the side of a road showing the distance to or from a place.) □ Joan's wedding was a milestone in her mother's life. □ The birth of a child is a milestone in every parent's life.

milk of human kindness natural kindness and sympathy shown to others. (From Shakespeare's play Macbeth, I. v.) □ Mary is completely hard and selfish—she has no milk of human kindness in her. □ Roger is too full of the milk of human kindness and people take advantage of him.

milk someone for something to pressure someone into giving information or money. □ The reporter milked the mayor's aide for information. □ The thief milked me for $20.

millstone about one's neck a continual burden or handicap. □ This huge and expensive house is a millstone about my neck. □ Bill's inability to read is a millstone about his neck.

mince (one's) words to lessen the force of one's statement by choosing weak or polite words; to be euphemistic. (Formal.) □ I won't mince words. You did a rotten job. □ I'm not one to mince words, so I have to say that you behaved very badly.

mind one's own business to attend only to the things that concern one. □ Leave me alone, Bill. Mind your own business. □ I'd be fine if John would mind his own business.

mind one's p's and q's to pay attention to small details of behavior, especially manners. □ When we go to the mayor's reception, please mind your p's and q's. □ I always mind my p's and q's when I eat at a restaurant with white tablecloths.

mind the store to take care of local matters. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Please stay here in the office and mind the store while I go to the conference. □ I had to stay home and mind the store when Ann went to Boston.

mind you  □ He's very well dressed, but mind you, he's got plenty of money to buy clothes. □ Lisa is unfriendly to me, but mind you, she's never very nice to anyone.

mind your manners to be careful to use good manners. □ Mind your manners while we visit Aunt Mary's house. □ Jimmy! Mind your manners!

a mine of information someone or something that is full of information. □ Grandfather is a mine of information about World War I. □ The new encyclopedia is a positive mine of useful information.

the minute something happens the point in time at which an event happens. □ I'll be inside the minute it rains. □ Call me the minute you get to town.

a miscarriage of justice a wrong or mistaken decision, especially one made in a court of law. □ Sentencing the old man on a charge of murder proved to be a miscarriage of justice. □ Punishing the student for cheating was a miscarriage of justice. He was innocent.

misplace one's trust (in someone) to put trust in the wrong person; to put trust in someone who does not deserve it. □ The writer misplaced his trust in his editor. □ The voters misplaced their trust in the corrupt politician.

miss out (on something) AND lose out (on something) to fail to participate in something; to fail to take part in something. □ I'm sorry I missed out on the ice cream. □ I lost out on it, too. □ We both missed out.

miss (something) by a mile to fail to hit something by a great distance; to land wide of the mark. □ Ann shot the arrow and missed the target by a mile. □ "Good grief, you missed by a mile," shouted Sally.

miss the boat to miss out (on something); to be ignorant (of something). (Also literal. Slang.) □ Pay attention, John, or you'll miss the boat. □ Tom really missed the boat when it came to making friends.

miss the point to fail to understand the important part of something. (Also literal.) □ I'm afraid you missed the point. Let me explain it again. □ You keep explaining, and I keep missing the point.

[mission in life] Go to someone's mission in life.

mistake someone for someone else AND mix someone up with someone else to confuse someone with someone else; to think that one person is another person. □ I'm sorry. I mistook you for John. □ Tom is always mistaking Bill for me. We don't look a thing alike, though. □ Try not to mix Bill up with Bob.

mix and match 1. to assemble a limited number of items, usually clothing, in a number of different ways. □ *Alice was very good at mixing and matching her skirts, blouses, and sweaters so that she always could be attractively dressed on a limited budget. □ Gary always bought black, blue, and gray trousers and shirts so he could mix and match without too many bad combinations. 2. to select a number of items from an assortment, often in order to get a quantity discount. (As opposed to getting a quantity discount for buying a lot of only one item.) □ *The candles were 25 percent off, and you could mix and match colors, sizes, and length. □ I found a good sale on shirts. They were four for fifty dollars, and the store would let you mix and match.

mix it up to argue or fight. (Also literal. Slang.) □ First they were just talking, then suddenly one of them got mad and they really began to mix it up. □ Look at you, Bill! Your face is bleeding. Have you been mixing it up with John again?

mix someone or something up 1. to confuse two things or two people with each other. □ Please don't mix these ideas up. They are quite distinct. □ I always mix up Bill and Bob. □ Why do you mix them up? 2. [with someone] to cause someone to be confused or puzzled. □ I'm confused as it is. Don't mix me up anymore. □ They mixed up my uncle by giving him too many things to remember. 3. [with something] to blend the ingredients of something; to assemble and mix the parts of something. (Usually refers to fluid matter such as paint, gasoline, or milk.) □ The glue will be ready to use as soon as I mix it up. □ Now, mix up the eggs, water, and salt; then add the mixture to the flour and sugar.

mix someone up with someone else Go to mistake someone for someone else.

a mixed bag a varied collection of people or things. (Refers to a bag of game brought home after a day's hunting.) □ The new students in my class are a mixed bag—some bright, some positively stupid. □ The furniture I bought is a mixed bag. Some of it is valuable and the rest is worthless.

the moment everyone has been waiting for Go to the big moment.

the moment of truth the point at which someone has to face the reality or facts of a situation. □ The moment of truth is here. Turn over your test papers and begin. □ Now for the moment of truth when we find out whether we have got permission or not.

Money burns a hole in someone's pocket. Someone spends as much money as possible. (Proverb. See also have money to burn.) □ Sally can't seem to save anything. Money burns a hole in her pocket. □ If money burns a hole in your pocket, you never have any for emergencies.

Money is no object. AND Expense is no object. It does not matter how much something costs. □ Please show me your finest automobile. Money is no object. □ I want the finest earrings you have. Don't worry about how much they cost because expense is no object.

Money is the root of all evil. Money is the basic cause of all wrongdoing. (Proverb. The full version is The love of money is the root of all evil.) □ Why do you work so hard to make money? It will just cause you trouble. Money is the root of all evil. □ Any thief in prison can tell you that money is the root of all evil.

money talks money gives one power and influence to help get things done or get one's own way. (Informal.) □ Don't worry. I have a way of getting things done. Money talks. □ I can't compete against rich old Mrs. Jones. She'll get her way because money talks.

monkey around (with someone or something) Go to mess around (with someone or something).

monkey business playful or out of the ordinary activities; mischievous or illegal activities. □ There's been some monkey business in connection with the bank's accounts. □ Bob left the company quite suddenly. I think there was some monkey business between him and the boss's wife.

monkey suit a tuxedo. (Jocular. Possibly alluding to the fancy suit worn by an organ grinder's monkey.) □ Do I have to wear a monkey suit to dinner? □ All the men except me wore monkey suits at dinner on the cruise.

months running Go to days running.

mop the floor up with someone to overwhelm and physically subdue someone; to beat someone. (Slang. See also wipe up the floor with someone.) □ Stop talking like that, or I'll mop the floor up with you! □ Did you hear that? He threatened to mop up the floor with me!

mope around to go about in a depressed state. (Informal.) □ Since her dog ran away, Sally mopes around all day. □ Don't mope around. Cheer up!

more and more an increasing amount; additional amounts. □ As I learn more and more, I see how little I know. □ Dad seems to be smoking more and more lately.

more dead than alive exhausted; in very bad condition; near death. (Almost always an exaggeration.) □ We arrived at the top of the mountain more dead than alive. □ The marathon runners stumbled one by one over the finish line, more dead than alive.

more fun than a barrel of monkeys Go to (as) funny as a barrel of monkeys.

more often than not usually. □ These flowers will live through the winter more often than not. □ This kind of dog will grow up to be a good watchdog more often than not.

more or less to some extent; approximately; sort of. □ This one will do all right, more or less. □ We'll be there at eight, more or less.

more someone or something than one can shake a stick at a lot; too many to count. (Folksy.) □ There were more snakes than you could shake a stick at. □ There are lots of flowers in the field—more than one can shake a stick at.

more than one can bear AND more than one can take; more than one can stand more of something, such as trouble or something bad, than a person can endure. □ This news is more than I can bear! □ I've heard enough of this horrid music. It's more than I can stand.

more than one can stand Go to more than one can bear.

more than one can take Go to more than one can bear.

more than someone bargained for more than one thought one would get. (Usually in reference to trouble or difficulty.) □ When Betsy brought home the sweet little puppy for a companion, she got more than she bargained for. That animal has cost her hundreds of dollars in medical bills. □ I got more than I bargained for when I took this job.

the more the merrier the more people there are, the happier they will be. □ Of course you can have a ride with us! The more the merrier. □ The manager hired a new employee even though there's not enough work for all of us now. Oh, well, the more the merrier.

more (to something) than meets the eye [there are] hidden values or facts in something. □ There is more to that problem than meets the eye. □ What makes you think that there is more than meets the eye?

the morning after (the night before) the morning after a night spent drinking, when one has a hangover. □ Oh, I've got a headache. Talk about the morning after the night before! □ It looked like a case of the morning after the night before, and Frank asked for some aspirin.

move heaven and earth to do something to make a major effort to do something. □ "I'll move heaven and earth to be with you, Mary," said Bill. □ I had to move heaven and earth to get there on time. □ Your father and I had to move heaven and earth to pay for your braces and your college bills, and what thanks do we get?

move in (on someone or something) 1. [with someone] to attempt to displace someone or take over someone's property, interests, or relationships. (Slang, especially criminal slang. Compare this with muscle in (on someone or something).) □ Look here, pal, Sally's my girl. Are you trying to move in on me? □ It looks like the south-side gang is trying to move in. We'll have to teach them a lesson. 2. [with someone] to move into someone's household. □ My mother-in-law moved in on us for two months. □ I wouldn't move in on you without an invitation. 3. to move closer to someone or something, especially with a camera. □ Now, slowly move in on the cereal box. This will be a great advertisement. □ Hold the camera very steady and move in on the baby.

move into something to get started in a new enterprise, job, etc. (Also literal.) □ I moved into a new job last week. It's very exciting work. □ John moved into a new line of work, too.

move up (in the world) to advance (oneself) and become successful. □ The harder I work, the more I move up in the world. □ Keep your eye on John. He's really moving up.

movers and shakers people who get things done; people who are productive and cause other people to be productive; people who create and produce. □ The trouble with the ABC Company is that all the movers and shakers are leaving to take jobs elsewhere. □ It seems as if all the movers and shakers of the world are employed by a very small number of large firms.

much ado about nothing a lot of excitement about nothing. (This is the title of a play by Shakespeare. Do not confuse ado with adieu.) □ All the commotion about the new tax law turned out to be much ado about nothing. □ Your promises always turn out to be much ado about nothing.

much in evidence very visible or evident. □ John was much in evidence during the conference. □ Your influence is much in evidence. I appreciate your efforts.

much sought after wanted or desired very much; highly desirable. □ This kind of crystal is much sought after. It's very rare. □ Sally is a great singer. She's much sought after.

muddy the water to make something less clear; to make matters confusing; to create difficulty where there was none before. (Also literal.) □ Things were going along quite smoothly until you came along and muddied the water. □ The events of the past month have muddied the water as far as our proposed joint venture is concerned.

muff one's lines Go to fluff one's lines.

mull something over to think about something; to ponder or worry about something. □ That's an interesting idea, but I'll have to mull it over. □ I'll mull over your suggestions and report to you next week.

mum's the word don't spread the secret. □ Don't tell anyone what I told you. Remember, mum's the word. □ Okay, mum's the word. Your secret is safe with me.

murder on something very destructive or harmful to something. □ Running a marathon is murder on your knees. □ This dry weather is murder on my crops.

muscle in (on someone or something) to try forcefully to displace someone or take over someone's property, interests, or relationships. (Slang, especially criminal slang. Compare this with move in (on someone or something).) □ Are you trying to muscle in on my scheme? □ If you try to muscle in, you'll be facing big trouble.

a must something that you must do. (Informal. Preceded by be, become, or seem like.) □ When you're in San Francisco, see the Golden Gate Bridge. It's a must. □ It's a must that you brush your teeth after every meal.

muster (up) one's courage to build up one's courage; to call or bring forth one's courage. □ I mustered my courage and dove from the high diving board. □ He had to muster up all his courage in order to attend the dance.

my gut tells me (that) something is so my instincts tell me that something is so. (This refers to one's gut reaction or gut response, that is, the way someone feels about something.) □ My gut tells me that her idea is a sound one. □ This looks good on paper, but my gut tells me that it is all wrong.

my one and only one's spouse. (Informal. See also the one and only.) □ Look at the time. I've got to get home to my one and only. □ You're my one and only. There is no one else for me.

N

nail in someone's or something's coffin Go to (another) nail in someone's or something's coffin.

nail someone or something down 1. [with someone] to get a firm and final decision from someone (on something). (Also literal. Informal.) □ I want you to find Bob and get an answer from him. Nail him down one way or the other. □ Please nail down John on the question of signing the contract. 2. [with something] to get a firm and final decision (from someone) on something. (Informal.) □ Find Bob and nail down an answer. □ Let's get in touch with John and nail down this contract.

naked as a jaybird Go to (as) naked as a jaybird.

the naked eye the human eye, unassisted by optics, such as a telescope, microscope, or spectacles. □ I can't see the bird's markings with the naked eye. □ The scientist could see nothing in the liquid with the naked eye, but with the aid of a microscope, she identified the bacteria. □ That's how it appears to the naked eye.

[name is mud] Go to one's name is mud.

the name of the game goal or purpose. (Slang.) □ The name of the game is sell. You must sell, sell, sell if you want to make a living. □ Around here, the name of the game is look out for yourself.

name someone after someone else AND name someone for someone else to give someone (usually a baby) the name of another person. □ We named our baby after my aunt. □ My parents named me for my grandfather.

name someone for someone else Go to name someone after someone else.

near at hand close or handy (to someone). (See also at hand; close at hand.) □ Do you have a pencil near at hand? □ My dictionary isn't near at hand.

neat as a pin Go to (as) neat as a pin.

neck and neck exactly even, especially in a race or a contest. (Informal.) □ John and Tom finished the race neck and neck. □ Mary and Ann were neck and neck in the spelling contest. Their scores were tied.

need something like a hole in the head not to need something at all. (Informal.) □ I need a housecat like I need a hole in the head! □ She needs a car like she needs a hole in the head.

need something yesterday to require something in a very big hurry. (Informal.) □ Yes, I'm in a hurry! I need it yesterday! □ When do I need it? Now! Now! No, I need it yesterday!

neither fish nor fowl not any recognizable thing; not any recognizable category. □ The car that they drove up in was neither fish nor fowl. It must have been made out of spare parts. □ This proposal is neither fish nor fowl. I can't tell what you're proposing.

neither here nor there of no consequence or meaning; irrelevant and immaterial. □ Whether you go to the movie or stay at home is neither here nor there. □ Your comment—though interesting—is neither here nor there.

neither hide nor hair no sign or indication (of someone or something). □ We could find neither hide nor hair of him. I don't know where he is. □ There has been no one here—neither hide nor hair—for the last three days.

never fear do not worry; have confidence.

□ I'll be there on time—never fear. □ I'll help you, never fear.

never had it so good Go to (have) never had it so good.

never in one's life not in one's experience.

□ Never in my life have I been so insulted!
□ He said that never in his life had he seen such an ugly painting.

never mind forget it; pay no more attention (to something). □ I wanted to talk to you, but never mind. It wasn't important.
□ Never mind. I'm sorry to bother you.

never would have guessed 1. never would have thought something to be the case. (Not used in other tenses.) □ He was the one who did it? I never would have guessed. □ I never would have guessed that he wanted the job. He kept it a very good secret. 2. knew it all the time because it was so obvious. (Sarcastic. Not used in other tenses.) □ I never would have guessed that he wanted the job. He only begged and begged for it. □ Now she wants to go back home? I never would have guessed! She has been homesick for days.

new ball game Go to (whole) new ball game.

new blood Go to (some) new blood.

new hire a person who has recently been hired; a newly employed person. □ Anne is our new hire who will begin work Tuesday. □ The accounting department is full of new hires.

a new lease on life a renewed and revitalized outlook on life. □ Getting the job offer was a new lease on life. □ When I got out of the hospital, I felt as if I had a new lease on life.

new to (all) this Go to (a little) new to (all) this.

next-door neighbor the person living in the house or apartment closest to one's own. □ My next-door neighbor came over to borrow a shovel. □ I will be visiting our next-door neighbor if you need me.

next of kin someone's closest living relative or relatives. □ The police notified the dead man's next of kin. □ My next of kin lives 800 miles away.

next to nothing hardly anything; almost nothing. □ This car's worth next to nothing. It's full of rust. □ I bought this antique chair for next to nothing.

next to someone or something near to someone or something; adjacent to someone or something. □ I live next to a bank. □ Please sit next to me.

nice and some quality enough of some quality; adequately; sufficiently. □ It is nice and cool this evening. □ I think your steak is nice and done now and probably overcooked.

nickel and dime someone to charge someone many small amounts of money; to assess many small fees against someone. □ We will not stay at that resort again. They nickel and dime you to death in that place. There is a charge for everything. □ Tuition at the university hasn't gone up in two years but other small fees have. They really nickel and dime you there.

night and day Go to day and night.

a night on the town a night of celebrating (at one or more places in a town). □ Did you enjoy your night on the town? □ After we got the contract signed, we celebrated with a night on the town.

night owl someone who usually stays up very late. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ Anne's a real night owl. She never goes to bed before 2 A.M. and sleeps till noon. □ Jack's a night owl and is at his best after midnight.

a nine days' wonder something that is of interest to people only for a short time. □ Don't worry about the story about you in the newspaper. It'll be a nine days' wonder, and then people will forget. □ The elopement of Jack and Anne was a nine days' wonder. Now people never mention it.

a nine-to-five job a job with regular and normal hours. □ I wouldn't want a nine-to-five job. I like the freedom I have as my own boss. □ I used to work nights, but now I have a nine-to-five job.

nip and tuck almost even; almost tied. (Informal.) □ The horses ran nip and tuck for the first half of the race. Then my horse pulled ahead. □ In the football game last Saturday, both teams were nip and tuck throughout the game.

nip something in the bud to put an end to something at an early stage. (Also literal.) □ John is getting into bad habits, and it's best to nip them in the bud. □ There was trouble in the classroom, but the teacher nipped it in the bud.

No big deal! Not a big problem! (Informal.) □ It didn't hurt. No big deal! □ It isn't a problem. No big deal!

no buts about it Go to no ifs, ands, or buts about it.

No can do. It can't be done.; I can't do it. (Slang.) □ Sorry, John. No can do. I can't sell you this one. I've promised it to Mrs. Smith. □ BILL: Please fix this clock today. BOB: No can do. It'll take a week to get the parts.

No comment. I have nothing to say on this matter. □ Q: When did you stop beating your dog? A: No comment. □ Q: Georgie, did you chop down the cherry tree? A: No comment.

no doubt surely; without a doubt; undoubtedly. □ He will be here again tomorrow, no doubt. □ No doubt you will require a ride home?

no end of something lots of something. (Informal.) □ It was a wonderful banquet. They had no end of good food. □ Tom is a real problem. He's no end of trouble.

no flies on someone someone is not slow; someone is not wasting time. (Refers to a person moving too fast to allow flies to light.) □ Of course I work fast. I go as fast as I can. There are no flies on me. □ There are no flies on Robert. He does his work very fast and very well.

no great shakes nothing important or worth noticing. (Slang.) □ It's okay, but it's no great shakes. □ I like John, but he's no great shakes when it comes to sports.

no hard feelings no anger or resentment. (Informal. No can be replaced with any.)

□ I hope you don't have any hard feelings.
□ No, I have no hard feelings.

No harm done. It is all right. No one or nothing has been harmed. (Informal.) □ It's okay. No harm done. □ A: I am sorry I stepped on your toe. B: No harm done.

no holds barred with no restraints. (Slang. From wrestling.) □ I intend to argue it out with Mary, no holds barred. □ When Ann negotiates a contract, she goes in with no holds barred and comes out with a good contract.

no ifs, ands, or buts about it AND NO BUTS ABOUT IT absolutely no discussion, dissension, or doubt about something. □ I want you there exactly at eight, no ifs, ands, or buts about it. □ This is the best television set available for the money, no buts about it.

no joke a serious matter. (Informal.) □ It's no joke when you miss the last train. □ It's certainly no joke when you have to walk home.

no kidding [spoken] honestly; [someone is] not joking or lying. (Slang.) □ No kidding, you really got an A in geometry? □ I really did, no kidding.

no laughing matter a serious matter. □ Be serious. This is no laughing matter. □ This disease is no laughing matter. It's quite deadly.

no love lost (between someone and someone else) no friendship wasted between someone and someone else (because they are enemies). □ Ever since their big argument, there has been no love lost between Tom and Bill. □ You can tell by the way that Jane is acting toward Ann that there is no love lost.

no matter what happens in any event; without regard to what happens (in the future). □ We'll be there on time, no matter what. □ No matter what happens, we'll still be friends.

No news is good news. If one has not had any information about someone or something for some time, it means that all is well, since one would have heard if anything bad or unfortunate had occurred.

(Proverb.) ☐ I haven't heard from my son since he left for college, but I suppose no news is good news. ☐ I think Joan would have heard by now if she hadn't got the job. No news is good news.

no point in something no purpose in doing something. ☐ There is no point in locking the barn door now that the horse has been stolen. ☐ There's no point in crying over spilled milk.

no problem Go to no sweat.

no skin off someone's nose Go to no skin off someone's teeth.

no skin off someone's teeth AND no skin off someone's nose no difficulty for someone; no concern of someone. ☐ It's no skin off my nose if she wants to act that way. ☐ She said it was no skin off her teeth if we wanted to sell the house.

no sooner said than done <an expression indicating that something has been done quickly and obediently.> ☐ When Sally asked for someone to open the window, it was no sooner said than done. ☐ As Jane opened the window, she said, "No sooner said than done."

no spring chicken not young (anymore). (Informal.) ☐ I don't get around very well anymore. I'm no spring chicken, you know. ☐ Even though John is no spring chicken, he still plays tennis twice a week.

no sweat AND no problem no difficulty; do not worry. (Slang.) ☐ Of course I can have your car repaired by noon. No sweat. ☐ You'd like a red one? No problem.

no trespassing do not enter. (Usually seen on a sign. Not usually spoken.) ☐ The sign on the tree said, "No Trespassing." So we didn't go in. ☐ The angry farmer chased us out of the field shouting, "Get out! Don't you see the no trespassing sign?"

no two ways about it no choice about it; no other interpretation of it. (Folksy. Note the form there's rather than there are.) ☐ You have to go to the doctor whether you like it or not. There's no two ways about it. ☐ This letter means you're in trouble with the tax people. There's no two ways about it.

no-win situation a situation where there is no correct or satisfactory solution. ☐ The general was too weak to fight and too proud to surrender. It was a no-win situation. ☐ The huge dog my father gave us as a gift eats too much. If we get rid of the dog, my father will be insulted. If we keep it, we will go broke buying food for it. This is a classic no-win situation.

no wonder [something is] not surprising. (Informal.) ☐ No wonder the baby is crying. She's wet. ☐ It's no wonder that plant died. You watered it too much.

nobody's fool a sensible and wise person who is not easily deceived. ☐ Mary's nobody's fool. She knows Jack would try to cheat her. ☐ Anne looks as though she's not very bright, but she's nobody's fool.

nod off to fall asleep, usually while sitting up. (Informal.) ☐ Jack nodded off during the minister's sermon. ☐ Father always nods off after Sunday lunch.

none of someone's beeswax none of someone's business (Slang.) ☐ The answer to that question is none of your beeswax. ☐ It's none of your beeswax what I do with my spare time.

none of someone's business not of someone's concern. (A gentle rebuke.) ☐ Q: When are you going to leave for home? A: None of your business. ☐ How I manage to keep thin is none of your business.

none other than someone the very person. ☐ The new building was opened by none other than the mayor. ☐ Jack's wife turned out to be none other than my cousin.

none the wiser not knowing any more. ☐ I was none the wiser about the project after the lecture. It was a complete waste of time. ☐ Anne tried to explain the situation tactfully to Jack, but in the end, he was none the wiser.

none the worse for wear no worse because of use or effort. ☐ I lent my car to John. When I got it back, it was none the worse for wear. ☐ I had a hard day today, but I'm none the worse for wear.

none too something not very something; not at all something. ☐ The towels in the bathroom were none too clean. □ It was none too warm in their house.

nose about Go to nose around.

nose around AND nose about to investigate; to check (into something). (Informal.) □ I don't have an answer to your question, but I'll nose around and see what I can find out. □ I'll nose about, too. Who knows what we'll find out?

nose in(to something) to move into something, front end first. □ Slowly the car nosed into its parking place. □ You must nose in very carefully.

[nose is in the air] Go to one's nose is in the air.

nose someone out to push someone away; to exclude someone. □ Where I work someone is always trying to nose me out. I'd hate to lose my job. □ John nosed out Bill from the team.

not a bit none at all. □ Am I unhappy? Not a bit. □ I don't want any mashed potatoes. Not a bit!

[not able] Go to the expressions listed at can't as well as those listed below.

not able to call one's time one's own too busy; so busy as not to be in charge of one's own schedule. (Informal. Not able to is often expressed as can't.) □ It's been so busy around here that I haven't been able to call my time my own. □ She can't call her time her own these days.

not able to go on unable to continue (doing something—even living). (Not able to is often expressed as can't.) □ I just can't go on this way. □ Before her death, she left a note saying she was not able to go on.

not able to help something unable to prevent or control something. (Not able to is often expressed as can't.) □ I'm sorry about being late. I wasn't able to help it. □ Bob can't help being boring.

not able to make anything out of someone or something unable to understand someone or something. (Not able to is often expressed as can't. The anything may refer to something specific, as in the first example.) □ I can't make sense out of what you just said. □ We were not able to make anything out of the message.

not able to see the forest for the trees allowing many details of a situation to obscure the situation as a whole. (Not able to is often expressed as can't.) □ The solution is obvious. You missed it because you can't see the forest for the trees. □ She suddenly realized that she hadn't been able to see the forest for the trees.

not able to stomach someone or something AND cannot stomach someone or something not to be able to put up with someone or something; not to be able to tolerate or endure someone or something. □ Jane cannot stomach violent movies. □ The unpopular student could not stomach a lot of ridicule.

not able to wait to have to go to the bathroom urgently. (Also literal in a general sense. Informal.) □ Mom, I can't wait. □ Driver, stop the bus! My little boy can't wait.

not agree with someone [for food] to make someone ill; [for something one has eaten] to give one minor stomach distress. □ Fried foods don't agree with Tom. □ I always have onions in my garden, but I never eat them. They just don't agree with me.

not a living soul nobody. (Informal. See also not tell a (living) soul.) □ No one was there—not a living soul. □ Not a living soul saw me leave.

not all something is cracked up to be AND not what something is cracked up to be not as good as something is said to be. (Informal. Not all is in the negative.) □ This isn't a very good pen. It's not all it's cracked up to be. □ Is this one all it's cracked up to be? □ This restaurant isn't what it's cracked up to be.

not all there not mentally adequate; crazy or silly. (Informal.) □ Sometimes I think you're not all there. □ Be nice to Sally. She's not all there.

not a moment to spare AND without a moment to spare just in time; with no extra time. □ Hurry, hurry! There's not a moment to spare! □ I arrived without a moment to spare.

not at all certainly not; absolutely not. □ No, it doesn't bother me—not at all. □ I'm not complaining. Not me. Not at all.

not bat an eyelid to show no signs of distress even when something bad happens or something shocking is said. □ Sam didn't bat an eyelid when the mechanic told him how much the car repairs would cost. □ The pain of the broken arm must have hurt Sally terribly, but she did not bat an eyelid.

not believe one's eyes not to believe what one is seeing; to be shocked or dumbfounded at what one is seeing. □ I walked into the room and I couldn't believe my eyes. All the furniture had been stolen! □ When Jimmy opened his birthday present, he could hardly believe his eyes. Just what he wanted!

not born yesterday experienced; knowledgeable in the ways of the world. □ I know what's going on. I wasn't born yesterday. □ Sally knows the score. She wasn't born yesterday.

not breathe a word (about someone or something) to keep a secret about someone or something. □ Don't worry. I won't breathe a word about the problem. □ Please don't breathe a word about Bob and his problems.

not breathe a word of it not to tell something (to anyone). □ Don't worry. I won't breathe a word of it. □ Tom won't breathe a word of it.

not buy something not accept something (to be true). (Also literal. Slang.) □ You may think so, but I don't buy it. □ The police wouldn't buy his story.

not by a long shot not by a great amount; not. (Informal.) □ Did I win the race? Not by a long shot. □ Not by a long shot did she complete the assignment.

not care two hoots (about someone or something) AND not give two hoots (about someone or something); not give a hang (about someone or something); not give a hoot (about someone or something) not to care at all about someone or something. (Folksy.) □ I don't care two hoots about whether you go to the picnic or not. □ She doesn't give a hoot about me. Why should I care? □ I don't give a hang about it.

not dry behind the ears Go to wet behind the ears.

not enough room to swing a cat not very much space. (Folksy.) □ Their living room was very small. There wasn't enough room to swing a cat. □ How can you work in a small room like this? There's not enough room to swing a cat.

not for a moment not at all; not even for a short amount of time; never. □ I don't want you to leave. Not for a moment! □ I could not wish such a horrible punishment on anyone. Not for a moment!

not for (anything in) the world AND not for love nor money; not on your life not for anything (no matter what its value). (Note the variation in the examples. The order of love nor money is fixed.) □ I won't do it for love nor money. □ He said he wouldn't do it—not for the world. □ She said no, not for anything in the world. □ Me, go there? Not on your life!

not for hire [of a taxi] not available to take new passengers. □ The taxi was going to pick someone up at a nearby hotel and was not for hire. □ The taxi had a lighted sign that said it was not for hire.

not for love nor money Go to not for (anything in) the world.

not for publication not to be talked about openly; secret. □ Please tell no one about this. It's not for publication. □ This report is not for publication, so keep the results to yourself.

not give a hang (about someone or something) Go to not care two hoots (about someone or something).

not give a hoot (about someone or something) Go to not care two hoots (about someone or something).

not give it another thought not to worry about something anymore. (A polite way of accepting someone's apology.) □ It's okay. Please don't give it another thought. □ You should not give it another thought. No one was bothered at all.

not give someone the time of day to ignore someone (usually out of dislike). (Informal.) □ Mary won't speak to Sally. She won't give her the time of day. □ I couldn't get an appointment with Mr. Smith. He wouldn't even give me the time of day.

not give two hoots (about someone or something) Go to not care two hoots (about someone or something).

not half bad okay; pretty good. (Folksy.) □ Say, this roast beef isn't half bad. □ Hey, Sally! You're not half bad!

[not] have anything to do with something Go to have something to do with something.

not hold a candle to someone or something Go to not hold a stick to someone or something.

not hold a stick to someone or something AND not hold a candle to someone or something not to be nearly as good as someone or something. (Informal.) □ Sally is much faster than Bob. Bob doesn't hold a stick to Sally. □ This TV doesn't hold a candle to that one. That one is much better.

not hold water to make no sense; to be illogical. (Also literal. Informal. Said of ideas, arguments, etc., not people. It means that the idea has holes in it.) □ Your argument doesn't hold water. □ This scheme won't work because it can't hold water.

not hurt a flea not to harm anything or anyone, even a tiny insect. (Also with other forms of negation.) □ Ted would not even hurt a flea. He could not have struck Bill. □ Ted would never hurt a flea, and he would not hit anyone as you claim.

not in the same league with someone or something not anywhere nearly as good as someone or something. (Also literal.) □ John isn't in the same league with Bob and his friends. □ This house isn't in the same league with our old one.

not know beans (about someone or something) to know nothing about someone or something. (Slang.) □ Bill doesn't know beans about flying an airplane. □ When it comes to flying, I don't know beans. □ She doesn't know beans about Bill.

not know enough to come in out of the rain to be very stupid. □ Bob is so stupid he doesn't know enough to come in out of the rain. □ You can't expect very much from somebody who doesn't know enough to come in out of the rain.

not know from nothing to be stupid, innocent, and naive. (Slang. This nothing is not replaced with something. Usually with don't, as in the examples below.) □ Old John—he don't know from nothing. □ What do you expect from somebody who don't know from nothing?

not know if one is coming or going Go to not know whether one is coming or going.

not know one's own strength not to realize how destructive or harmful one's strength can be. (Present tense only.) □ I didn't mean to hurt you. I guess I don't know my own strength. □ He might break the door down by accident. He doesn't know his own strength and could end up pushing too hard against the door.

not know someone from Adam not to know someone at all. □ I wouldn't recognize John if I saw him. I don't know him from Adam. □ What does she look like? I don't know her from Adam.

not know the first thing about someone or something not to know anything about someone or something. □ I don't know the first thing about flying an airplane. □ She doesn't know the first thing about John.

not know where to turn AND not know which way to turn to have no idea about what to do (about something). □ I was so confused I didn't know where to turn. □ We needed help, but we didn't know which way to turn.

not know whether one is coming or going AND not know if one is coming or going to be very confused. □ I'm so busy that I don't know if I'm coming or going.

□ You look as if you don't know whether you're coming or going.

not know which way to turn Go to not know where to turn.

not let someone catch someone doing something AND not want to catch someone doing something to find someone doing something wrong. (The idea is that the person ought not to do the wrong thing again, not that the person simply avoid getting caught.) □ How many times have I told you not to play ball in the house? Don't let me catch you doing that again. □ If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times: Don't do that! I don't want to catch you doing it again!

not lift a finger (to help someone) AND not lift a hand (to help someone) to do nothing to help someone. (The someone is anyone in the negative.) □ They wouldn't lift a finger to help us. □ Can you imagine that they wouldn't lift a finger? □ Sally refused to lift a hand to help her own sister.

not lift a hand (to help someone) Go to not lift a finger (to help someone).

not long for this world to be about to die. □ Our dog is nearly twelve years old and not long for this world. □ I'm so tired. I think I'm not long for this world.

not made of money [of a person] not having a lot of money; not having an unlimited supply of money. □ I can't afford a car like that. I'm not made of money you know. □ There is only so much they can pay. They're not made of money.

not miss a thing Go to not miss much.

not miss much 1. AND not miss a thing not to miss observing any part of what is going on. (Usually with do as in the examples below.) □ Ted doesn't miss much. He is very alert. □ The puppy doesn't miss a thing. He sees every move you make. 2. not to miss experiencing something that really was not worth experiencing anyway. (Sarcastic. Usually with do as in the examples below.) □ I missed the big sales meeting last week, but I understand I didn't miss much. □ BILL: I didn't see that new movie that is showing at the theater. TOM: You didn't miss much.

not move a muscle to remain perfectly motionless. □ Be quiet. Sit there and don't move a muscle. □ I was so tired I couldn't move a muscle.

not on any account Go to on no account.

not one iota not even a tiny bit. □ I won't give you any at all! Not one iota! □ I did not get one iota of encouragement from any of those people.

not one's place not one's role to do something. □ It was not my place to criticize my boss. □ It was Bill's place to ask the questions, not yours.

not on your life Go to not for (anything in) the world.

not open one's mouth AND not utter a word not to say anything at all; not to tell something (to anyone). □ Don't worry, I'll keep your secret. I won't even open my mouth. □ Have no fear. I won't utter a word. □ I don't know how they found out. I didn't even open my mouth.

not see any objection (to something) Go to see no objection (to something).

not see farther than the end of one's nose AND not see past the end of one's nose not to care about what is not actually present or obvious; not to care about the future or about what is happening elsewhere or to other people. (Could be literal or an exaggeration in a heavy fog or in dim light.) □ Mary can't see past the end of her nose. She doesn't care about what will happen in the future as long as she's comfortable now. □ Jack's been accused of not seeing farther than the end of his nose. He refuses to expand the company and look for new markets.

not see past the end of one's nose Go to not see farther than the end of one's nose.

not set foot somewhere not to go somewhere. □ I wouldn't set foot in John's room. I'm very angry at him. □ He never set foot here.

not show one's face not to appear (somewhere). ☐ After what she said, she had better not show her face around here again.
☐ If I don't say I'm sorry, I'll never be able to show my face again.

not sleep a wink not to sleep at all. (Informal.) ☐ I couldn't sleep a wink last night. ☐ Ann hasn't been able to sleep a wink for a week.

not someone's cup of tea not something one prefers. ☐ Playing cards isn't her cup of tea. ☐ Sorry, that's not my cup of tea.

not take no for an answer not to accept someone's refusal. (Informal. A polite way of being insistent.) ☐ Now, you must drop over and see us tomorrow. We won't take no for an answer. ☐ I had to go. They just wouldn't take no for an answer.

not take stock in something Go to take no stock in something.

not tell a (living) soul not to reveal something to anyone. ☐ You secret is safe with me. I won't tell a living soul. ☐ Promise you won't tell a soul, but I'm engaged.

not up to scratch AND not up to snuff not adequate. (Informal. See also up to snuff; up to scratch.) ☐ Sorry, your paper isn't up to scratch. Please do it over again. ☐ The performance was not up to snuff.

not up to snuff Go to not up to scratch.

not utter a word Go to not open one's mouth.

not want to catch someone doing something Go to not let someone catch someone doing something.

not what something is cracked up to be Go to not all something is cracked up to be.

not with it not able to think clearly; not able to understand things. ☐ Lisa's mother is not really with it anymore. She's going senile. ☐ Tom's not with it yet. He's only just come round from the anesthetic.

not worth a dime AND not worth a red cent worthless. (Informal.) ☐ This land is all swampy. It's not worth a dime. ☐ This pen I bought isn't worth a dime. It has no ink. ☐ It's not worth a red cent.

not worth a hill of beans AND not worth a plugged nickel worthless. (Folksy.) ☐ Your advice isn't worth a hill of beans. ☐ This old cow isn't worth a plugged nickel.

not worth a plugged nickel Go to not worth a hill of beans.

not worth a red cent Go to not worth a dime.

not worth mentioning 1. not important enough to require a comment. ☐ There are others, but they are not worth mentioning. ☐ A small number of books hint at the phenomenon, but they aren't worth mentioning. 2. [of an error or wrong] not worth apologizing for. ☐ This isn't a problem at all. It's not worth mentioning. ☐ No need to apologize to me. No harm done. It's not worth mentioning.

not worth one's while not worth bothering with; not worth spending time on. ☐ It's not worth my while to discuss it with you. ☐ Don't bother trying to collect money from them. It isn't worth your while.

not worth the trouble not important enough to require a comment. ☐ Don't bother with it. It isn't worth the trouble. ☐ There is no point in trying to get the spot out of the carpet. It isn't worth the trouble.

nothing but skin and bones AND (all) skin and bones very thin or emaciated. (Informal.) ☐ Bill has lost so much weight. He's nothing but skin and bones. ☐ Look at Bill. He's just skin and bones. ☐ That old horse is all skin and bones. I won't ride it.

nothing but something only something; just something. ☐ Joan drinks nothing but milk. ☐ Fred buys nothing but expensive clothes.

nothing doing no. (Informal.) ☐ No, I won't do that. Nothing doing. ☐ BOB: Will you help me with this? BILL: Nothing doing.

nothing down requiring no down payment. ☐ You can have this car for nothing down and $140 a month. ☐ I bought a winter coat for nothing down and no payments due until February.

nothing of the kind 1. no; absolutely not.

□ I didn't tear your jacket—nothing of the kind! □ Did I break your vase? Nothing of the kind! 2. nothing like that. □ That's not true. We did nothing of the kind! □ She did nothing of the kind! She wasn't even there!

nothing short of something more or less the same as something bad; as bad as something. □ His behavior was nothing short of criminal. □ Climbing those mountains alone is nothing short of suicide.

nothing to choose from no choice; no choice in the selection; not enough of something to make a choice. □ I went to the store looking for new shoes, but there was nothing to choose from. □ By the time I got around to selecting a team of helpers, there was nothing to choose from.

nothing to complain about all right. (Folksy. Said in answer to the question "How are you?") □ Bob said he has nothing to complain about. □ BILL: How're you doing, Bob? BOB: Nothing to complain about, Bill. Yourself?

nothing to it it is easy; no difficulty involved. □ Driving a car is easy. There's nothing to it. □ Geometry is fun to learn. There's nothing to it.

nothing to sneeze at not small or unimportant. (Informal.) □ It's not a lot of money, but it's nothing to sneeze at. □ Our house isn't a mansion, but it's nothing to sneeze at.

nothing to speak of not many; not much. (Informal.) □ JOHN: What's happening around here? BILL: Nothing to speak of. □ MARY: Has there been any rain in the last week? SALLY: Nothing to speak of.

nothing to write home about nothing exciting or interesting. (Folksy.) □ I've been busy, but nothing to write home about. □ I had a dull week—nothing to write home about.

Nothing ventured, nothing gained. You cannot achieve anything if you do not try. (Proverb.) □ Come on, John. Give it a try. Nothing ventured, nothing gained. □ I felt as if I had to take the chance. Nothing ventured, nothing gained.

now and again Go to (every) now and then.

now and then Go to (every) now and then.

Now hear this! Pay attention to what is going to be said! (In the manner of an announcement over the public address system, especially in the military.) □ Now hear this! You have to turn off the television and go to bed! □ Now hear this! Now hear this! Everyone is ordered to abandon ship.

now or never at this time and no other. □ This is your only chance, John. It's now or never. □ I decided that it was now or never, and jumped.

(Now), where was I? I was interrupted, so please help me remember what I was talking about. (The emphasis is on was.) □ Now, where was I! I think I lost my place. □ Q: Where was I? A: You had just described the War of 1812.

nowhere near not nearly. □ We have nowhere near enough wood for the winter. □ They're nowhere near ready for the game.

null and void canceled; worthless. □ I tore the contract up, and the entire agreement became null and void. □ The judge declared the whole business null and void.

[number is up] Go to one's number is up.

a number of things or people some things or people, in an indefinite amount. □ I subscribe to a number of different magazines. □ A number of people are here now.

nurse a grudge (against someone) to keep resenting and disliking someone over a period of time. (See also bear a grudge (against someone).) □ Sally is still nursing a grudge against Mary. □ How long can anyone nurse a grudge?

nurse someone back to health [for anyone] to provide medical care that will restore someone to good health. □ After my operation, my mother nursed me back to health. □ Lots of good food and loving care will help nurse you back to health.

nuts about someone or something Go to crazy about someone or something.

the nuts and bolts (of something) the basic facts about something; the practical details of something. □ Tom knows all about the nuts and bolts of the chemical process. □ Ann is familiar with the nuts and bolts of public relations.

nutty as a fruitcake Go to (as) nutty as a fruitcake.

nuzzle up to someone or something to nestle against someone or something, especially if pressing with the nose or face. □ The puppy nuzzled up to its mother. □ Tom nuzzled up to Jane and asked her for a kiss.

O

occur to someone [for an idea or thought] to come into someone's mind. □ It occurred to me that you might be hungry after your long journey. □ Would it ever occur to you that I want to be left alone?

an ocean of someone or something Go to oceans of someone or something.

oceans of someone or something AND an ocean of someone or something a very large amount of something. □ The naughty student was in oceans of trouble. □ After a week of vacation, there was an ocean of work to do.

odd man out an unusual or atypical person or thing. □ I'm odd man out because I'm not wearing a tie. □ You had better learn to work a computer unless you want to be odd man out.

the odd something an extra or spare something. □ The tailor repaired the odd loose button on my shirt. □ When I travel, I might buy the odd trinket or two, but I never spend much money.

odds and ends small, miscellaneous things. □ There were lots of odds and ends in the attic, but nothing of real value. □ I had the whole house cleaned up except for a few odds and ends that didn't seem to belong anywhere.

odor of sanctity an atmosphere of excessive holiness or piety. □ I hate their house. There's such an odor of sanctity, with Bibles and religious pictures everywhere. □ People are made nervous by Jane's odor of sanctity. She's always praying for people or doing good works and never has any fun.

of age old enough to marry or to sign legal agreements. (See also come of age.)

Preceded by be or seem.) □ Now that Mary is of age, she can buy her own car. □ When I'm of age, I'm going to get married and move to the city.

of all the nerve how shocking; how dare (someone). (Informal. The speaker is exclaiming that someone is being very cheeky or rude.) □ How dare you talk to me that way! Of all the nerve! □ Imagine anyone coming to a formal dance in jeans. Of all the nerve!

of all things Can you imagine?; Imagine that! (Folksy.) □ She wore jeans to the dance. Of all things! □ Billy, stop eating the houseplant! Of all things!

of benefit (to someone) serving someone well; to the good of someone. □ I can't believe that this proposal is of benefit to anyone. □ Oh, I'm sure it's of benefit.

of interest (to someone) interesting to someone. □ This is no longer of any interest. □ This is of little interest to me.

of late lately. (Formal.) □ Have you seen Sally of late? □ We haven't had an opportunity to eat out of late.

of no avail Go to to no avail.

of one's own accord AND of one's own free will by one's own choice, without coercion. □ I wish that Sally would choose to do it of her own accord. □ I'll have to order her to do it because she won't do it of her own free will.

of one's own free will Go to of one's own accord.

of the first water [someone] of the finest quality. (From the system of grading pearls for quality.) □ She is a very fine lady—a pearl of the first water. □ Tom is of the first water—a true gentleman.

of the old school holding attitudes or ideas that were popular and important in the past, but which are no longer considered relevant or in line with modern trends. □ Grammar was not much taught in my son's school, but fortunately he had a teacher of the old school. □ Aunt Jane is of the old school. She never goes out without wearing a hat and gloves.

off again, on again Go to on again, off again.

off and on Go to on and off.

off and running started up and going. (Also literal, as in a footrace.) □ The car was finally loaded by 9:30, and we were off and running. □ The construction of the building was going to take two years, but we were off and running, and it appeared we would finish on schedule.

off base unrealistic; inexact; wrong. (Also literal in baseball.) □ I'm afraid you're off base when you state that this problem will take care of itself. □ You're way off base!

off campus not located on the grounds of a college or university. □ Tom has an apartment off campus. □ The dean is off campus and cannot be reached.

off-center not exactly in the center or middle. □ The arrow hit the target a little off-center. □ The picture hanging over the chair is a little off-center.

off chance slight possibility. □ I need your phone number on the off chance I need more help. □ There's an off chance that we might be hiring next month.

off-color 1. not the exact color (that one wants). □ The book cover used to be red, but now it's a little off-color. □ The wall was painted off-color. I think it was meant to be orange. 2. in bad taste; rude, vulgar, or impolite. □ That joke you told was off-color and embarrassed me. □ The nightclub act was a bit off-color.

off duty not working at one's job. (The opposite of on duty.) □ I'm sorry, I can't talk to you until I'm off duty. □ The police of- ficer couldn't help me because he was off duty.

off like a shot away [from a place] very quickly. □ He finished his dinner and was off like a shot. □ The thief grabbed the lady's purse and was off like a shot.

off limits AND out of bounds forbidden. □ This area is off limits. You can't go in there. □ Don't go there. It's out of bounds. □ That kind of behavior is off limits. Stop it!

off one's nut Go to off one's rocker.

off one's rocker AND off one's nut; off one's trolley crazy; silly. (Slang.) □ Sometimes, Bob, I think you're off your rocker. □ Good grief, John. You're off your nut. □ About this time of the day, I go off my trolley. I get so tired.

off one's trolley Go to off one's rocker.

off season not in the busy time of the year. □ We don't have much to do off season. □ Things are very quiet around here off season.

off someone or something goes someone or something is leaving. (Said on the departure of someone or something.) □ It's time to leave. Off I go. □ Sally looked at the airplane taking off and said, "Off it goes."

off the air not broadcasting (a radio or television program). □ The radio audience won't hear what you say when you're off the air. □ When the performers were off the air, the director told them how well they had done.

off the (beaten) track in an unfamiliar place; on a route that is not often traveled. (See also off the track.) □ Their home is in a quiet neighborhood, off the beaten track. □ We like to stop there and admire the scenery. It's off the track, but it's worth the trip.

off-the-cuff spontaneous; without preparation or rehearsal. (Informal.) □ Her remarks were off-the-cuff, but very sensible. □ I'm not very good at making speeches off-the-cuff.

off the mark not quite exactly right. □ Her answer was a little off the mark. □ You were off the mark when you said we would be a little late to the party. It was yesterday, in fact!

off the record unofficial; informal. □ This is off the record, but I disagree with the mayor on this matter. □ Although her comments were off the record, the newspaper published them anyway.

off the subject not concerned with the subject being discussed. □ I got off the subject and forgot what I was supposed to be talking about. □ The speaker was off the subject, telling about his vacation in Hawaii.

off the top of one's head [to state something] quickly and without having to think or remember. (Informal.) □ I can't think of the answer off the top of my head. □ Jane can tell you the correct amount off the top of her head.

off the track 1. Go to off the (beaten) track. 2. irrelevant and immaterial (comments). □ I'm afraid you're off the track, John. Try again. □ I'm sorry. I was thinking about dinner, and I got off the track.

off-the-wall odd; silly; unusual. (Slang.) □ Why are you so off-the-wall today? □ This book is strange. It's really off-the-wall.

off to a running start with a good, fast beginning, possibly a head start. □ I got off to a running start in math this year. □ The horses got off to a running start.

off to one side beside (something); (moved) slightly away from something. □ Our garden has roses in the middle and a spruce tree off to one side. □ He took me off to one side to tell me the bad news.

oil someone's palm Go to grease someone's palm.

old as the hills Go to (as) old as the hills.

old enough to be someone's father Go to old enough to be someone's mother.

old enough to be someone's mother AND old enough to be someone's father as old as someone's parents. (Also literal. Usually a way of saying that a person is too old.) □ You can't go out with Bill. He's old enough to be your father! □ He married a woman who is old enough to be his mother.

Old habits die hard. It's hard to stop doing things that are part of a habit, especially a habit that one is trying to break. (Proverb.) □ A: My grandfather still uses hand signals when he turns right. B: Old habits die hard. □ Old habits die hard and bad one's last even longer.

an old hand at doing something someone who is experienced at doing something. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ I'm an old hand at fixing clocks. □ He's an old hand at changing diapers.

old hat old-fashioned; outmoded. (Informal. Preceded by be, become, or seem.) □ That's a silly idea. It's old hat. □ Nobody does that anymore. That's just old hat.

[old stamping ground] Go to one's old stamping ground.

on a bias AND on the bias on a diagonal line; on a diagonal pathway or direction. (Usually with reference to cloth.) □ The panels of the dress were cut on a bias. □ The seamstress sewed the fabric on the bias.

on account [money paid or owed] on a debt. □ I paid twelve dollars on account last month. Wasn't that enough? □ I still have $100 due on account.

on active duty in battle or ready to go into battle. (Military.) □ The soldier was on active duty for ten months. □ That was a long time to be on active duty.

on a diet trying to lose weight by eating less food or specific foods. □ I didn't eat any cake because I'm on a diet. □ I'm getting too heavy. I'll have to go on a diet.

on a first-name basis (with someone) knowing someone very well; good friends with someone. □ I'm on a first-name basis with John. □ John and I are on a first-name basis.

on a fool's errand involved in a useless journey or task. □ Bill went for an interview, but he was on a fool's errand. The job had already been filled. □ I was sent on a fool's errand to buy some flowers. I knew the shop would be closed by then.

on again, off again AND off again, on again uncertain; indecisive. □ I don't know about the picnic. It's on again, off again. It depends on the weather. □ Jane doesn't know if she's going to the picnic. She's off again, on again about it.

on a lark Go to for a lark.

on all fours on one's hands and knees. □ I dropped a contact lens and spent an hour on all fours looking for it. □ The baby can walk, but is on all fours most of the time anyway.

on and off AND off and on occasionally; erratically; now and again. □ I feel better off and on, but I'm not well yet. □ He only came to class on and off.

on any account for any purpose; for any reason; no matter what. (Compare this with on no account.) □ On any account, I'll be there on time. □ This doesn't make sense on any account.

on approval for examination, with the privilege of return. □ I ordered the merchandise on approval so I could send it back if I didn't like it. □ Sorry, you can't buy this on approval. All sales are final.

on a shoestring with a very small amount of money. □ We lived on a shoestring for years before I got a good job. □ John traveled to Florida on a shoestring.

on a splurge an instance of extravagant spending. □ Bob went on a splurge and bought a new car. □ Susan has been on another spending splurge! Look at that new furniture.

on a waiting list [with one's name] on a list of people waiting for an opportunity to do something. (A can be replaced with the.) □ I couldn't get a seat on the plane, but I got on a waiting list. □ There is no room for you, but we can put your name on the waiting list.

on behalf of someone Go to in behalf of someone.

on bended knee with great humility. (The form bended is obsolescent and occurs now only in this phrase.) □ Do you expect me to come to you on bended knee and ask you for forgiveness? □ The suitors came on bended knee and begged the attention of the princess.

on board 1. aboard (on or in) a ship, bus, airplane, etc. □ Is there a doctor on board? We have a sick passenger. □ When everyone is on board, we will leave. 2. employed by (someone); working with (someone). (Informal.) □ Our company has a computer specialist on board to advise us about automation. □ Welcome to the company, Tom. We're all glad you're on board now.

on Broadway located in the Broadway theater district of New York City; performed in the Broadway theater district. □ Our musical is the best thing on Broadway! □ I want to be a star on Broadway someday.

on call ready to serve when called. □ I live a very hard life. I'm on call twenty hours a day. □ I'm sorry, but I can't go out tonight. I'm on call at the hospital.

on campus located or being on the grounds of a college or university. □ Do you live on campus or off campus? □ I don't think that Lisa is on campus right now.

on cloud nine very happy. (Informal.) □ When I got my promotion, I was on cloud nine. □ When the check came, I was on cloud nine for days.

on consignment [of goods] having been placed in a store for sale, without transferring the title of the goods to the operator of the store. □ The artist placed his work in a gallery on consignment. □ I will attempt to sell your clothing on consignment.

on credit using credit; buying something using credit. □ I tried to buy a new suit on credit, but I was refused. □ The Smiths buy everything on credit and are very much in debt.

on dead center 1. at the exact center of something. (Dead means "exact" here.) □ The arrow hit the target on dead cen- ter. ☐ When you put the flowers on the table, put them on dead center. 2. exactly correct. ☐ Mary is quite observant. Her analysis is on dead center. ☐ My view isn't on dead center, but it's sensible.

on deck 1. on the deck of a boat or a ship. ☐ Everyone except the cook was on deck when the storm hit. ☐ Just pull up the anchor and leave it on deck. 2. ready (to do something); ready to be next (at something). ☐ Ann, get on deck. You're next. ☐ Who's on deck now?

on duty at work; currently doing one's work. (The opposite of off duty.) ☐ I can't help you now, but I'll be on duty in about an hour. ☐ Who is on duty here? I need some help.

on earth AND in creation; in the world really; indeed; in fact. (Used as an intensifier after who, what, when, where, how, nothing, nowhere.) ☐ What on earth do you mean? ☐ How in creation do you expect me to do that? ☐ Who in the world do you think you are? ☐ When on earth do you expect me to do this?

on easy street in luxury. (Slang.) ☐ If I had a million dollars, I'd be on easy street. ☐ Everyone has problems, even people who live on easy street.

on edge 1. on (something's own) edge. ☐ Can you stand a dime on edge? ☐ You should store your records on edge, not flat. 2. nervous. ☐ I have really been on edge lately. ☐ Why are you so on edge?

on fire burning; being burned with flames. ☐ Help! My car is on fire! ☐ That house on the corner is on fire!

on foot by walking. ☐ My bicycle is broken, so I'll have to travel on foot. ☐ You can't expect me to get there on foot! It's twelve miles!

on good terms (with someone) friendly with someone. ☐ I'm on good terms with Ann. I'll ask her to help. ☐ We're on good terms now. Last week we were not.

on hold 1. waiting; temporarily halted. (See also put someone or something on hold.) ☐ The building project is on hold while we try to find money to complete it. ☐ We put our plans on hold until we finished school. 2. left waiting on a telephone line. ☐ I hate to call up someone and then end up on hold. ☐ I waited on hold for ten minutes when I called city hall.

on horseback on the back of a horse. ☐ Anne rode on horseback across the field. ☐ Because they loved horses, the couple decided to marry on horseback.

on impact Go to (up)on impact.

on impulse after having had an impulse or sudden thought. ☐ On impulse, Bob decided to buy a car. ☐ I didn't need a cellular telephone. I just bought it on impulse.

on in years Go to up in years.

on land on the soil; on the land and not at sea. ☐ The flight was rough and I feel better now that I am back on land. ☐ When I am at sea, I feel more relaxed than when I am on land.

on line 1. Go to in line. 2. connected to a remote computer. ☐ As soon as I get on line, I can check the balance of your account. ☐ I was on line for an hour before I found out what I wanted to know.

on location a place, located in a place distant from the movie studio, where a movie is filmed. ☐ This movie was shot on location in Ontario. ☐ The actress went on location in Spain for her latest film.

on medication taking medicine for a current medical problem. ☐ I can't drive the car since I am on medication. ☐ He is on medication and hopes to be well soon.

on no account AND not on any account for no reason; absolutely not. ☐ On no account will I lend you the money. ☐ Will I say I'm sorry? Not on any account.

on occasion occasionally. ☐ We go out for dinner on occasion. ☐ I enjoy going to a movie on occasion.

on one's best behavior being as polite as possible. ☐ When we went out, the children were on their best behavior. ☐ I try to be on my best behavior all the time.

on one's feet 1. standing up. ☐ Get on your feet. They are playing the national anthem. □ I've been on my feet all day, and they hurt. 2. well and healthy, especially after an illness. □ I hope to be back on my feet next week. □ I can help out as soon as I'm back on my feet.

on (one's) guard cautious; watchful. □ Be on guard. There are pickpockets around here. □ You had better be on your guard.

on one's honor on one's solemn oath; sincerely. □ On my honor, I'll be there on time. □ He promised on his honor that he'd pay me back next week.

on one's mind occupying one's thoughts; currently being thought about. □ You've been on my mind all day. □ Do you have something on your mind? You look so serious.

on one's own by oneself. □ Did you do this on your own, or did you have help? □ I have to learn to do this kind of thing on my own.

on one's own time not while one is at work. □ The boss made me write the report on my own time. That's not fair. □ Please make your personal telephone calls on your own time.

on one's person [of something] carried with one. □ Always carry identification on your person. □ I'm sorry, I don't have any money on my person.

on one's toes alert. (Also literal. See also step on someone's toes.) □ You have to be on your toes if you want to be in this business. □ My boss keeps me on my toes.

on one's way to doing something Go to on the way to doing something.

on order ordered with delivery expected. □ Your car is on order. It'll be here in a few weeks. □ I don't have the part in stock, but it's on order.

on par (with someone or something) equal to someone or something. □ Your effort is simply not on par with what's expected from you. □ These two reports are right on par.

on patrol Go to (out) on patrol.

on pins and needles anxious; in suspense. (See also pins and needles.) □ I've been on pins and needles all day, waiting for you to call with the news. □ We were on pins and needles until we heard that your plane landed safely.

on probation 1. serving a period of probation. □ While Anne was on probation, she reported to the police regularly. □ John was on probation for a year. 2. serving a trial period. □ All new members are on probation for a year. □ I was on probation in my job for a full year before it became permanent.

on purpose intentionally; in a way that is meant or intended; not an accident. □ The bully stepped on my foot on purpose. □ Jealously, Jimmy destroyed Billy's sand castle on purpose.

on sale offered for sale at a special low price. □ I won't buy anything that's not on sale. □ I need a new coat, but I want to find a nice one on sale.

on schedule at the expected or desired time. □ The plane came in right on schedule. □ Things have to happen on schedule in a theatrical performance.

on second thought having given something more thought; having reconsidered something. □ On second thought, maybe you should sell your house and move into an apartment. □ On second thought, let's not go to a movie.

on someone's account because of someone. □ Don't do it on my account. □ They were late on Jane's account.

on someone's back Go to on someone's case.

on someone's behalf Go to in behalf of someone.

on someone's case AND on someone's back constantly criticizing someone. (Slang. See also Get off someone's case!) □ I'm tired of your being on my case all the time. □ It seems as if someone is always on his back.

on someone's doorstep Go to at someone's doorstep.

on someone's head on someone's own self. (Usually with blame.) □ All the blame fell on their heads. □ I don't think that all the criticism should be on my head.

on someone's or something's last legs [for someone or something] to be almost worn out or finished. (Informal.) □ This building is on its last legs. It should be torn down. □ I feel as if I'm on my last legs. I'm really tired.

on someone's say-so on someone's authority; with someone's permission. □ I can't do it on your say-so. I'll have to get a written request. □ BILL: I canceled the contract with the ABC Company. BOB: On whose say-so?

on someone's shoulders on someone's own self. (Also literal. Usually with responsibility.) □ Why should all the responsibility fall on my shoulders? □ She carries a tremendous amount of responsibility on her shoulders.

on someone's way (somewhere) Go to on the way (somewhere).

on speaking terms (with someone) on friendly terms with someone. (Often in the negative. Compare this with on good terms (with someone).) □ I'm not on speaking terms with Mary. We had a serious disagreement. □ We're not on speaking terms.

on standby waiting for one's turn, especially describing the status of travelers who wait near a train, plane, or bus, hoping that a seat will become available. □ The passenger waited on standby for an available seat. □ The agent was able to seat all of the passengers on standby.

on target on schedule; exactly as predicted. □ Your estimate of the cost was right on target. □ My prediction was not on target.

on the air broadcasting (a radio or television program). □ The radio station came back on the air shortly after the storm. □ We were on the air for two hours.

on the alert (for someone or something) watchful and attentive for someone or something. □ Be on the alert for pickpockets. □ You should be on the alert when you cross the street in heavy traffic.

on the average generally; usually. □ On the average, you can expect about a 10 percent failure rate. □ This report looks okay, on the average.

on the ball alert, effective, and efficient. (Slang.) □ Sally has a lot on the ball. □ You've got to be on the ball if you want to succeed in this business.

on the beam exactly right; thinking along the correct lines. (Informal.) □ That's the right idea. Now you're on the beam! □ She's not on the beam yet. Explain it to her again.

on the bench 1. directing a session of court. (Also literal. Said of a judge.) □ I have to go to court tomorrow. Who's on the bench? □ It doesn't matter who's on the bench. You'll get a fair hearing. 2. sitting, waiting for a chance to play in a game. (In sports, such as basketball, football, soccer, etc.) □ Bill is on the bench now. I hope he gets to play. □ John played during the first quarter, but now he's on the bench.

on the bias Go to on a bias.

on the blink Go to on the fritz.

on the block 1. on a city block. □ John is the biggest kid on the block. □ We had a party on the block last weekend. 2. on sale at auction; on the auction block. □ We couldn't afford to keep up the house, so it was put on the block to pay the taxes. □ That's the finest painting I've ever seen on the block.

on the borderline in an uncertain position between two statuses; undecided. (Also literal.) □ Bill was on the borderline between an A and a B in biology. □ Jane was on the borderline of joining the navy.

on the button exactly right; in exactly the right place; at exactly the right time. (Also literal. Informal.) □ That's it! You're right on the button. □ He got here at one o'clock on the button.

on the contrary as the opposite. (Compare this with to the contrary.) □ I'm not ill. On the contrary, I'm very healthy. □ She's not in a bad mood. On the contrary, she's as happy as a lark.

on the defensive overly ready to defend oneself. □ John goes on the defensive when his athletic ability is questioned. □ The child was on the defensive when questioned about cheating.

on the dot at exactly the right time. (Also literal. Informal. Compare this with at sometime sharp.) □ I'll be there at noon on the dot. □ I expect to see you here at eight o'clock on the dot.

on the double very fast. (Informal.) □ Okay, you guys. Get over here on the double. □ Get yourself into this house on the double.

on the eve of something just before something, possibly the evening before something. □ John decided to leave school on the eve of his graduation. □ The team held a party on the eve of the tournament.

on the face of it superficially; from the way it looks. □ This looks like a serious problem on the face of it. It probably is minor, however. □ On the face of it, it seems worthless.

on the fence (about something) undecided. (Informal.) □ Ann is on the fence about going to Mexico. □ I wouldn't be on the fence. I'd love to go.

on the fritz AND on the blink not operating; not operating correctly. (Slang.) □ This vacuum cleaner is on the fritz. Let's get it fixed. □ How long has it been on the blink?

on the go busy; moving about busily. (Informal.) □ I'm usually on the go all day long. □ I hate being on the go all the time.

on the heels of something soon after something. (Informal.) □ There was a rainstorm on the heels of the windstorm. □ The team held a victory celebration on the heels of their winning season.

on the horizon soon to happen. (Also literal. See also in the offing.) □ Do you know what's on the horizon? □ Who can tell what's on the horizon?

on the horns of a dilemma bothered by having to decide between two things, people, etc. □ Mary found herself on the horns of a dilemma. She didn't know which to choose. □ I make up my mind easily. I'm not on the horns of a dilemma very often.

on the hot seat AND in the hot seat in a difficult position; subject to much criticism. (Slang.) □ I was really in the hot seat for a while. □ Now that John is on the hot seat, no one is paying any attention to what I do.

on the hour at each hour on the hour mark. □ I have to take this medicine every hour on the hour. □ I expect to see you there on the hour, not one minute before and not one minute after.

on the house [something that is] given away free by a merchant. (Also literal. Informal.) □ "Here," said the waiter, "have a cup of coffee on the house." □ I went to a restaurant last night. I was the 10,000th customer, so my dinner was on the house.

on the job working; doing what one is expected to do. □ I'm always on the job when I should be. □ I can depend on my furnace to be on the job day and night.

on the level Go to (strictly) on the level.

on the lookout (for someone or something) watchful for someone or something. □ Be on the lookout for signs of a storm. □ I'm on the lookout for John, who is due here any minute. □ Okay, you remain on the lookout for another hour.

on the loose running around free. (Informal.) □ Look out! There is a bear on the loose from the zoo. □ Most kids enjoy being on the loose when they go to college.

on the make 1. building or developing; being made. (Informal.) □ There is a company that is on the make. □ That was a very good sales strategy, John. You're a real-estate agent on the make. 2. making sexual advances; seeking sexual activities. (Slang.) □ It seems like Bill is always on the make. □ He should meet Sally, who is also on the make.

on the market available for sale; offered for sale. (Compare this with on the block.) □ I had to put my car on the mar- ket. □ This is the finest home computer on the market.

on the mend getting well; healing. □ My cold was terrible, but I'm on the mend now. □ What you need is some hot chicken soup. Then you'll really be on the mend.

on the money AND on the nose in exactly the right place; in exactly the right amount (of money). (Also literal. Slang.) □ That's a good answer, Bob. You're right on the money. □ This project is going to be finished right on the nose.

on the move moving; happening busily. □ What a busy day. Things are really on the move at the store. □ When all the buffalo were on the move across the plains, it must have been very exciting.

on the nose Go to on the money.

on the off-chance because of a slight possibility that something may happen, might be the case; just in case. □ I went to the theater on the off-chance that there were tickets for the show left. □ We didn't think we would get into the stadium, but we went anyway on the off-chance.

on (the) one hand from one point of view; as one side (of an issue). □ On one hand, I really ought to support my team. On the other hand, I don't have to time to attend all the games. □ On the one hand, I need Ann's help. On the other hand, she and I don't get along very well.

on the other hand from another point of view; as the other side (of an issue). See the examples for on (the) one hand.

on the point of doing something AND at the point of doing something ready to start doing something. (Compare this with on the verge (of doing something).) □ I was just on the point of going out the door. □ We were almost at the point of buying a new car.

on the QT quietly; secretly. (Informal.) □ The company president was making payments to his wife on the QT. □ The mayor accepted a bribe on the QT.

on the right track following the right set of assumptions. (Refers to following the right trail.) □ Tom is on the right track and will solve the mystery soon. □ You are on the right track to find the answer.

on the rocks 1. in a state of destruction or wreckage. (Refers to a ship stranded on the rocks.) □ I hear their marriage is on the rocks. □ The company is on the rocks and may not survive. 2. [poured] onto ice cubes in a glass. □ Joan prefers her drinks on the rocks. □ Could I have a scotch on the rocks?

on the spot 1. at exactly the right place; at exactly the right time. (Also literal. Informal. See also Johnny-on-the-spot.) □ It's noon, and I'm glad you're all here on the spot. Now we can begin. □ I expect you to be on the spot when and where trouble arises. 2. in trouble; in a difficult situation. (Informal. Compare this with on the hot seat.) □ There is a problem in the department I manage, and I'm really on the spot. □ I hate to be on the spot when it's not my fault.

on the spur of the moment suddenly; spontaneously. □ We decided to go on the spur of the moment. □ I had to leave town on the spur of the moment.

on the strength of something because of the support of something, such as a promise or evidence; due to something. □ On the strength of your comment, I decided to give John another chance. □ On the strength of my testimony, my case was dismissed.

on the take accepting bribes. (Slang.) □ I don't believe that the mayor is on the take. □ The county clerk has been on the take for years.

on the tip of one's tongue about to be said; almost remembered. (Also literal. See also have something on the tip of one's tongue.) □ It's right on the tip of my tongue. I'll think of it in a second. □ The answer was on the tip of my tongue, but Ann said it first.

on the track of someone or something Go to on the trail of someone or something.

on the trail of someone or something AND on the track of someone or something seeking someone or something; about to find someone or something. ☐ I'm on the trail of a new can opener that is supposed to be easier to use. ☐ I spent all morning on the track of the new secretary, who got lost on the way to work.

on the up-and-up Go to (strictly) on the up-and-up.

on the verge (of doing something) just about to do something, usually something important. (Compare this with on the point of doing something.) ☐ I'm on the verge of opening a shoe store. ☐ Tom was on the verge of quitting school when he became interested in physics. ☐ I haven't done it yet, but I'm on the verge.

on the wagon not drinking alcohol; no longer drinking alcohol. (Also literal.) ☐ None for me, thanks. I'm on the wagon. ☐ Look at John. I don't think he's on the wagon anymore.

on the warpath angry and upset (at someone). (Informal.) ☐ Oh, oh. Here comes Mrs. Smith. She's on the warpath again. ☐ Why are you always on the warpath? What's wrong?

on the way (somewhere) AND on someone's way (somewhere) along the route to somewhere. ☐ She's now on the way to San Francisco. ☐ Yes, she's on the way.

on the way to doing something AND on one's way to doing something in the process of doing something. ☐ You're on the way to becoming a very good carpenter. ☐ She's on her way to becoming a first-class sculptor.

on the whole generally; considering everything. ☐ On the whole, this was a very good day. ☐ Your work—on the whole—is quite good.

on the wing while flying; while in flight. (Refers to birds, fowl, etc., not people or planes.) ☐ There is nothing as pretty as a bird on the wing. ☐ The hawk caught the sparrow on the wing.

on the wrong track going the wrong way; following the wrong set of assumptions. (Also literal.) ☐ You'll never get the right answer. You're on the wrong track. ☐ They won't get it figured out because they are on the wrong track.

on thin ice in a risky situation. (Also literal.) ☐ If you try that you'll really be on thin ice. That's too risky. ☐ If you don't want to find yourself on thin ice, you must be sure of your facts.

on time at the scheduled time; at the predicted time. ☐ The plane landed right on time. ☐ We'll have to hurry to get there on time.

on tiptoe standing or walking on the front part of the feet (the balls of the feet) with no weight put on the heels. (This is done to gain height or to walk quietly.) ☐ I had to stand on tiptoe in order to see over the fence. ☐ I came in late and walked on tiptoe so I wouldn't wake anybody up.

on top victorious over something; famous or notorious for something. (Also literal.) ☐ I have to study day and night to keep on top. ☐ Bill is on top in his field.

on top of something 1. up-to-date on something; knowing about the current state of something. (Informal.) ☐ Ask Mary. She's on top of this issue. ☐ This issue is constantly changing. She has to pay attention to it to stay on top of things. 2. in addition to something. ☐ Jane told Bill he was dull. On top of that, she said he was unfriendly. ☐ On top of being dull, he's unfriendly.

on top of the world Go to (feel) on top of the world; (sitting) on top of the world.

on trial being tried in court. ☐ My sister is on trial today, so I have to go to court. ☐ They placed the suspected thief on trial.

on vacation away, taking a vacation; on holiday. ☐ Where are you going on vacation this year? ☐ I'll be away on vacation for three weeks.

on view visible; on public display. ☐ The painting will be on view at the museum. ☐ I'll pull the shades so that we won't be on view.

once and for all finally and irreversibly. ☐ I want to get this problem settled once and for all. ☐ I told him once and for all that he has to start studying.

once in a blue moon very rarely. ☐ I seldom go to a movie—maybe once in a blue moon. ☐ I don't go into the city except once in a blue moon.

once-in-a-lifetime chance a chance that will never occur again in one's lifetime. ☐ This is a once-in-a-lifetime chance. Don't miss it. ☐ She offered me a once-in-a-lifetime chance, but I turned it down.

once in a while Go to (every) now and then.

once-over-lightly 1. a quick and careless treatment. (A noun. Said of an act of cleaning, studying, examination, or appraisal.) ☐ Bill gave his geometry the once-over-lightly and then quit studying. ☐ Ann, you didn't wash the dishes properly. They only got a once-over-lightly. 2. cursory; in a quick and careless manner. (An adverb.) ☐ Tom studied geometry once-over-lightly. ☐ Ann washed the dishes once-over-lightly.

once upon a time once in the past. (A formula used to begin a fairy tale.) ☐ Once upon a time, there were three bears. ☐ Once upon a time, I had a puppy of my own.

one and all everyone. ☐ "Good morning to one and all," said Jane as she walked through the outer office. ☐ Let's hope that this turns out to be a wonderful party for one and all.

the one and only the famous and talented (person). (Used in theatrical introductions. See also my one and only.) ☐ And now—the one and only—Jane Smith! ☐ Let's have a big hand for the one and only Bob Jones!

one and the same the very same person or thing. ☐ John Jones and J. Jones are one and the same. ☐ Men's socks and men's stockings are almost one and the same.

one at a time Go to one by one.

one by one AND one at a time the first one, then the next one, then the next one, etc.; one at a time; each in turn. ☐ I have to deal with problems one by one. I can't handle them all at once. ☐ Okay, just take things one at a time. ☐ The children came into the room one by one. ☐ Fred peeled potatoes one by one, hating every minute of it.

one for the (record) books a record-breaking act. ☐ What a dive! That's one for the record books. ☐ I've never heard such a funny joke. That's really one for the books.

One good turn deserves another. A good deed should be repaid with another good deed. (Proverb.) ☐ If he does you a favor, you should do him a favor. One good turn deserves another. ☐ Glad to help you out. One good turn deserves another.

one in a hundred Go to one in a thousand.

one in a million Go to one in a thousand.

one in a thousand AND one in a hundred; one in a million unique; one of a very few. ☐ He's a great guy. He's one in million. ☐ Mary's one in a hundred—such a hard worker.

one jump ahead (of someone or something) AND one move ahead (of someone or something) one step in advance of someone or something. ☐ Try to stay one jump ahead of the customer. ☐ If you're one move ahead, you're well prepared to deal with problems. Then, nothing is a surprise.

one little bit any at all; at all. (Also literal.) ☐ Jean could not be persuaded to change her mind one little bit. ☐ I don't want to hear anything more about it. Not even one little bit.

One man's meat is another man's poison. One person's preference may be disliked by another person. (Proverb.) ☐ John just loves his new fur hat, but I think it is horrible. Oh, well, one man's meat is another man's poison. ☐ The neighbors are very fond of their dog even though it's ugly, loud, and smelly. I guess one man's meat is another man's poison.

One man's trash is another man's treasure. Something that one person considers worthless may be considered valuable by someone else. (Proverb.) ☐ Q: Why would anyone want to hang a picture like that on the wall? A: One man's trash is another man's treasure. ☐ A: Bob's un- cle is always going through people's garbage, looking for old stuff. B: One man's trash is another man's treasure.

one move ahead (of someone or something)

Go to one jump ahead (of someone or something).

one-night stand an activity lasting one night. (Informal. Refers to either a musical performance or a period of sexual activity.) ☐ Our band has played a lot of one-night stands. ☐ What we want is an engagement for a week, not just a one-night stand.

one of these days someday; in some situation like this one. ☐ One of these days, someone is going to steal your purse if you don't take better care of it. ☐ You're going to get in trouble one of these days.

one sandwich short of a picnic not very smart; lacking sufficient intelligence. (Jocular.) ☐ Poor Bob just isn't too bright. He's one sandwich short of a picnic. ☐ She not stupid. Just one sandwich short of a picnic.

One thing leads to another. One event sets things up for another event and so on. (As an explanation of how little problems lead to big problems.) ☐ I kept spending more and more money until I was broke. You know how one thing leads to another. ☐ He bought a car, then a house, then a boat. One thing leads to another.

one thing or person after another a series of things or people that seems without limit. ☐ It's just one problem after another. ☐ One customer after another has been buying shoes today!

one to a customer each person can have or receive only one. (Refers to sales restrictions where each customer is permitted to buy only one.) ☐ "Only one to a customer!" said the chef as he handed out the hamburgers. ☐ Is it one to a customer, or can I take two now?

one up (on someone) ahead of someone; with an advantage over someone. ☐ Tom is one up on Sally because he got a job and she didn't. ☐ Yes, it sounds like Tom is one up.

one way or another somehow. ☐ I'll do it one way or another. ☐ One way or another, I'll get through school.

One's bark is worse than one's bite. One may threaten, but not do much damage. (Proverb.) ☐ Don't worry about Bob. He won't hurt you. His bark is worse than his bite. ☐ She may scream and yell, but have no fear. Her bark is worse than her bite.

one's better half one's spouse. (Usually refers to a wife.) ☐ I think we'd like to come for dinner, but I'll have to ask my better half. ☐ I have to go home now to my better half. We are going out tonight.

one's brother's keeper someone responsible for someone else. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) ☐ I can't force these kids to go to school and get an education so they can get jobs. I am not my brother's keeper. ☐ You can't expect me to be my brother's keeper. Each of us should be responsible!

one's daily dozen physical exercises done every day. (Informal.) ☐ My brother always feels better after his daily dozen. ☐ She would rather do her daily dozen than go on a diet.

one's days are numbered one faces death or dismissal. ☐ If I don't get this contract, my days are numbered at this company. ☐ Uncle Tom has a terminal disease. His days are numbered.

one's deepest sympathy one's very sincere sympathy. ☐ I am so sorry about the death of your father. You have my deepest sympathy. ☐ She sent her deepest sympathy to the family.

one's ears are red one's ears are red from embarrassment. (Also used figuratively.) ☐ I'm so embarrassed. Wow, are my ears red! ☐ My ears are red! I can't believe I said that.

one's ears are ringing one hears a ringing sound because of exposure to an explosion, very loud music, or some other very loud sound. ☐ After the explosion, my ears were ringing for hours. □ My ears are ringing because I have a cold.

oneself again healthy again; calm again; restored. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ After such a long illness, it's good to be myself again. □ I'm sorry that I lost my temper. I think I'm myself again now.

One's eyes are bigger than one's stomach.

One has taken more food than one can eat. □ I can't eat all this. I'm afraid that my eyes were bigger than my stomach. □ Try to take less food. Your eyes are bigger than your stomach at every meal.

one's fair share a share of something that is equal to what others get or in proportion to what is deserved. □ Let him take more. He didn't get his fair share. □ I want my fair share. You cheated me! Give me some more!

one's for the asking one's property if one asks for it. □ I have a cherry pie here. A slice is yours for the asking if you want it. □ Uncle Mac said we could have his old car if we wanted it. It was ours for the asking.

one's heart goes out to someone one feels compassion for someone. □ My heart goes out to those starving children I see on television. □ We are so sorry. Our hearts go out to you.

one's heart is (dead) set against something one is totally against something. □ Jane's heart is set against going there. □ We are dead set against it.

one's heart is in one's mouth one feels strongly emotional (about someone or something). □ "Gosh, Mary," said John, "my heart is in my mouth whenever I see you." □ My heart is in my mouth whenever I hear the national anthem. □ It was a touching scene. My heart was in my mouth the whole time.

one's heart is in the right place one has good intentions, even if the results are bad. (See also have one's heart in the right place.) □ She gave it a good try. Her heart was in the right place. □ He is awkward, but his heart is in the right place.

one's heart is set on something one desires and expects something. □ Jane's heart is set on going to London. □ My heart is set on returning home.

one's heart misses a beat AND one's heart skips a beat one's heart is fluttering or palpitating. □ Whenever I'm near you, my heart skips a beat. □ When the racehorse fell, my heart missed a beat.

one's heart skips a beat Go to one's heart misses a beat.

one's heart stands still one's heart (figuratively) stops beating because of strong emotions. □ When I first saw you, my heart stood still. □ My heart will stand still until you answer.

one's luck runs out one's good luck stops. □ My luck ran out, so I had to come home. □ She will quit gambling when her luck runs out.

one's name is mud one is in trouble or humiliated. (Slang.) □ If I can't get this contract signed, my name will be mud. □ His name is mud ever since he broke the crystal vase.

one's nose is in the air one is acting conceited or aloof. (Note the variation with always. See also have one's nose in the air.) □ Mary's nose is always in the air. □ Her mother's nose was always in the air, too.

one's number is up one's time to die—or to suffer some other unpleasantness—has come. (Informal.) □ John is worried. He thinks his number is up. □ When my number is up, I hope it all goes fast.

one's old stamping ground the place where one was raised or where one has spent a lot of time. (Folksy. There are variants with stomping and grounds.) □ Ann should know about that place. It's near her old stamping ground. □ I can't wait to get back to my old stomping grounds.

one's way of life one's lifestyle; one's pattern of living. □ That kind of thing just doesn't fit into my way of life. □ Our way of life includes contributing to worthy causes.

one's work is cut out for one one's task is prepared for one; one has a lot of work to do. (See also have one's work cut out for one.) □ This is a big job. My work is cut out for me. □ The new president's work is cut out for him.

only have eyes for someone to be loyal to only one person, in the context of romance. □ Oh, Jane! I only have eyes for you! □ Don't waste any time on Tom. He only has eyes for Ann.

onto someone or something having discovered the truth about someone or something. (Informal.) □ The police are onto John's plot. □ Yes, they are onto him, and they are onto the plot.

open a conversation to start a conversation. (See also strike up a conversation.) □ I tried to open a conversation with him, but he had nothing to say. □ She opened a conversation with an inquiry into my health, which got me talking about my favorite subject.

open and aboveboard Go to aboveboard.

an open-and-shut case something, usually a legal matter, that is simple and straightforward without complications. □ The murder trial was an open-and-shut case. The defendant was caught with the murder weapon. □ Jack's death was an open-and-shut case of suicide. He left a suicide note.

an open book someone or something that is easy to understand. □ Jane's an open book. I always know what she is going to do next. □ The council is an open book. It wants to save money.

open fire (on someone) to start (doing something, such as asking questions or criticizing). (Refers to starting to shoot at someone.) □ The reporters opened fire on the mayor. □ When the reporters opened fire, the mayor was smiling, but not for long.

open for business [of a shop, store, restaurant, etc.] operating and ready to do business. □ The store is now open for business and invites you to come in. □ The construction will be finished in March, and we will be open for business in April.

open one's heart (to someone) to reveal one's inmost thoughts to someone. □ I always open my heart to my spouse when I have a problem. □ It's a good idea to open your heart every now and then.

open Pandora's box to uncover a lot of unsuspected problems. □ When I asked Jane about her problems, I didn't know I had opened Pandora's box. □ You should be cautious with people who are upset. You don't want to open Pandora's box.

open season (on someone or something) 1. [with something] unrestricted hunting of a particular game animal. □ It's always open season on rabbits around here. □ Is it ever open season on deer? 2. [with someone] a time when everyone is criticizing someone. (Informal. See also open fire (on someone).) □ It seems as if it's always open season on politicians. □ At the news conference, it was open season on the mayor.

open secret something that is supposed to be secret but is known to a great many people. □ Their engagement is an open secret. Only their friends are supposed to know, but in fact, the whole town knows. □ It's an open secret that Max is looking for a new job.

open someone's eyes (to something) 1. to become aware of something. □ He finally opened his eyes to what was going on. □ It was a long time before he opened his eyes and realized what had been happening. 2. to cause someone else to be aware of something. □ I opened his eyes to what was happening at the office. □ Why can't I make you understand? What do I have to do to open your eyes to the problem?

open something up 1. to unwrap something; to open something. □ Yes, I want to open my presents up. □ I can't wait to open up my presents. □ Open up this door! 2. to begin examining or discussing something. □ Do you really want to open it up now? □ Now is the time to open up the question of taxes. 3. to reveal the possibilities of something; to reveal an opportunity. □ Your letter opened new possibilities up. □ Your comments opened up a whole new train of thought. 4. to start the use of something, such as land, a building, a business, etc. □ They opened the coastal lands up to cotton planting. □ We opened up a new store last March. 5. to make a vehicle go as fast as possible. (Informal.) □ We took the new car out on the highway and opened it up. □ I've never really opened up this truck. I don't know how fast it'll go. 6. to make something less congested. □ They opened the yard up by cutting out a lot of old shrubbery. □ We opened up the room by taking the piano out.

open the door to something to permit or allow something to become a possibility. (Also literal.) □ Your policy opens the door to cheating. □ Your statement opens the door to John's candidacy.

open to something agreeable to hear or learn about new ideas and suggestions. □ The store owner was open to suggestions from her employees. □ We are always open to new ideas.

open up 1. open your door. (A command.) □ I want in. Open up! □ Open up! This is the police. 2. to become available. □ A new job is opening up at my office. □ Let me know if any other opportunities open up. 3. to go as fast as possible. □ I can't get this car to open up. Must be something wrong with the engine. □ Faster, Tom! Open up! Let's go! 4. to become clear, uncluttered, or open. □ As we drove along, the forest opened up, and we entered into a grassy plain. □ The sky opened up, and the sun shone.

open (up) a can of worms to uncover a set of problems; to create unnecessary complications. (Informal. Can of worms means "mess." Also with various modifiers such as new, whole, another, as in the examples. Compare this with open Pandora's box.) □ Now you are opening a whole new can of worms. □ How about cleaning up this mess before you open up a new can of worms?

open up (on someone or something) to attack someone or something; to fire a gun or other weapon at someone or something. □ The sergeant told the soldiers to open up on the enemy position. □ "Okay, you guys," shouted the sergeant. "Open up!"

open up (to someone) AND open up (with someone) to talk frankly, truthfully, or intimately. □ Finally Sally opened up to her sister and told her what the problem was. □ Bill wouldn't open up with me. He's still keeping quiet. □ At last, Sally opened up and told everything.

open up (with someone) Go to open up (to someone).

open with something to start out with something. (Usually said of a performance of some type.) □ We'll open with a love song and then go on to something faster. □ The play opened with an exciting first act, and then it became very boring.

opening gambit an opening movement or statement that is made to secure a position that is to one's advantage. □ The rebel army's opening gambit was to bomb the city's business district. □ The prosecution's opening gambit was to call a witness who linked the defendant to the scene of the crime.

the opposite sex [from the point of view of a female] males; [from the point of view of a male] females. (Also with member of, as in the example.) □ Ann is crazy about the opposite sex. □ Bill is very shy when he's introduced to the opposite sex. □ Do members of the opposite sex make you nervous?

or else or suffer the consequences. □ Do what I tell you, or else. □ Don't be late for work, or else!

or words to that effect or with other words that have about the same meaning. □ She told me I ought to read more carefully—or words to that effect. □ I was instructed to go to the devil, or words to that effect.

the order of the day something necessary or usual; an overriding necessity. □ Warm clothes are the order of the day when camping in the winter. □ Going to bed early was the order of the day when we were young.

order someone about AND order someone around to give commands to someone. ☐ I don't like for someone to order me about. ☐ Don't order me around!

order someone around Go to order someone about.

order something to go Go to buy something to go.

the other side of the tracks the poorer section of town or the richer section of town, depending on perspective. (Also literal. Usually refers to the wrong side of the tracks.) ☐ He is from a wealthy family and I am from a very humble background, but he is the first boy I have met from the other side of the tracks, and I want to marry him. ☐ I hear he is dating someone from the other side of the tracks.

other things being equal if things stay the way they are now; if there were no complications by other factors. ☐ Other things being equal, we should have no trouble getting your order to you on time. ☐ I anticipate no problems, other things being equal.

the other way round the reverse; the opposite. ☐ No, it won't fit that way. Try it the other way round. ☐ It doesn't make any sense like that. It belongs the other way round.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. It is easier and better to prevent something bad than to deal with the results. ☐ When you ride in a car, buckle your seat belt. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. ☐ Every child should be vaccinated against polio. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

out and about able to go out and travel around. ☐ Beth has been ill, but now she's out and about. ☐ As soon as I feel better, I'll be able to get out and about.

an out-and-out something a complete or absolute something; an indisputable something. (Informal. The something must always be a specific thing.) ☐ If he said that, he told you an out-and-out lie! ☐ You're an out-and-out liar!

out cold AND out like a light unconscious. ☐ I fell and hit my head. I was out cold for about a minute. ☐ Tom fainted! He's out like a light!

out from under (something) free and clear of something; no longer bearing a (figurative) burden. ☐ I'll feel much better when I'm out from under this project. ☐ Now that I'm out from under, I can relax.

out front in the front of one's house. ☐ Our mailbox is out front. ☐ We have a spruce tree out front and a maple tree in the back.

out in force appearing in great numbers. (See also in force.) ☐ What a night! The mosquitoes are out in force. ☐ The police were out in force over the holiday weekend.

out in left field offbeat; unusual and eccentric. (Literal in reference to a baseball field. Informal. See also come out of left field.) ☐ Sally is a lot of fun, but she's sort of out in left field. ☐ What a strange idea. It's really out in left field.

out like a light Go to out cold.

out of a clear blue sky AND out of the blue suddenly; without warning. (See also like a bolt out of the blue.) ☐ Then, out of a clear blue sky, he told me he was leaving. ☐ Mary appeared on my doorstep out of the blue.

out of (all) proportion of an exaggerated proportion; of an unrealistic proportion compared to something else; (figuratively) lopsided. ☐ This problem has grown out of all proportion. ☐ Yes, this thing is way out of proportion.

out of bounds 1. outside the boundaries of the playing area. (In various sports.) ☐ The ball went out of bounds, but the referee didn't notice. ☐ The play ended when Sally ran out of bounds. 2. unreasonable. (Informal.) ☐ Your demands are totally out of bounds. ☐ Your request for money is out of bounds. 3. Go to off limits.

out of breath breathing fast and hard. ☐ I ran so much that I got out of breath. ☐

Mary gets out of breath when she climbs stairs.

out of character 1. unlike one's usual behavior. ☐ Ann's remark was quite out of character. ☐ It was out of character for Ann to act so stubborn. 2. inappropriate for the character that an actor is playing. ☐ Bill went out of character when the audience started giggling. ☐ Bill played the part so well that it was hard for him to get out of character after the performance.

out of circulation 1. no longer available for use or lending. (Usually said of library materials.) ☐ I'm sorry, but the book you want is temporarily out of circulation. ☐ How long will it be out of circulation? 2. not interacting socially with other people. (Informal.) ☐ I don't know what's happening because I've been out of circulation for a while. ☐ My cold has kept me out of circulation for a few weeks.

out of commission 1. [for a ship] to be not currently in use or under command. ☐ This vessel will remain out of commission for another month. ☐ The ship has been out of commission since repairs began. 2. broken, unserviceable, or inoperable. ☐ My watch is out of commission and is running slow. ☐ I can't run in the marathon because my knees are out of commission.

out of condition Go to out of shape.

out of consideration (for someone or something) with consideration for someone or something; with kind regard for someone or something. ☐ Out of consideration for your past efforts, I will do what you ask. ☐ They let me do it out of consideration. It was very thoughtful of them.

out of control AND out of hand uncontrollable; wild and unruly. ☐ The party got out of control about midnight, and the neighbors called the police. ☐ We tried to keep things from getting out of hand.

out of courtesy (to someone) in order to be polite to someone; out of consideration for someone. ☐ We invited Mary's brother out of courtesy to her. ☐ They invited me out of courtesy.

out-of-date old-fashioned; out of style; obsolete. (See also go out of style.) ☐ Isn't that suit sort of out-of-date? ☐ All my clothes are out-of-date.

out of earshot too far from the source of a sound to hear the sound. ☐ I was out of earshot and could not hear the conversation. ☐ Mary waited until her children were out of earshot before mentioning the party to Bill.

out of fashion Go to out of style.

out of favor (with someone) no longer desirable or preferred by someone. ☐ I can't ask John to help. I'm out of favor with him. ☐ That kind of thing has been out of favor for years.

out of gas 1. having no gasoline (in a car, truck, etc.). ☐ We can't go any farther. We're out of gas. ☐ This car will be completely out of gas in a few more miles. 2. tired; exhausted; worn out. (Informal.) ☐ What a day! I've been working since morning, and I'm really out of gas. ☐ This electric clock is out of gas. I'll have to get a new one.

out of hand 1. Go to out of control. 2. immediately and without consulting anyone; without delay. ☐ I can't answer that out of hand. I'll check with the manager and call you back. ☐ The offer was so good that I accepted it out of hand.

out of it Go to out to lunch.

out of keeping (with something) not following the rules of something; out of accord with something. (Compare this with in keeping (with something).) ☐ The length of this report is out of keeping with your request. ☐ I didn't even read it because it was so much out of keeping.

out of kilter 1. out of balance; crooked or tilted. (Slang.) ☐ John, your tie is sort of out of kilter. Let me fix it. ☐ Please straighten the picture on the wall. It's out of kilter. 2. malfunctioning; on the fritz. (Slang.) ☐ My furnace is out of kilter. I have to call someone to fix it. ☐ This computer is out of kilter. It doesn't work.

out of line 1. Go to out of line (with something). 2. improper. ☐ I'm afraid that your behavior was quite out of line. I do not wish to speak further about this matter. □ Bill, that remark was out of line. Please be more respectful.

out of line (with something) 1. not properly lined up in a line of things. □ I told you not to get out of line. Now, get back in line. □ One of those books on the shelf is out of line with the others. Please fix it. 2. unreasonable when compared to something (else). □ The cost of this meal is out of line with what other restaurants charge. □ Your request is out of line.

out of luck without good luck; having bad fortune. (Informal.) □ If you wanted some ice cream, you're out of luck. □ I was out of luck. I got there too late to get a seat.

out of necessity because of necessity; due to need. □ I bought this hat out of necessity. I needed one, and this was all there was. □ We sold our car out of necessity.

out of one's element not in a natural or comfortable situation. (Compare this with in one's element.) □ When it comes to computers, I'm out of my element. □ Sally's out of her element in math.

out of one's head Go to out of one's mind.

out of one's mind AND out of one's head; out of one's senses silly and senseless; crazy; irrational. □ Why did you do that? You must be out of your mind! □ Good grief, Tom! You have to be out of your head! □ She's acting as if she were out of her senses.

out of one's senses Go to out of one's mind.

out of order 1. not in the correct order. □ This book is out of order. Please put it in the right place on the shelf. □ You're out of order, John. Please get in line after Jane. 2. not following correct parliamentary procedure. □ I was declared out of order by the president. □ Ann inquired, "Isn't a motion to table the question out of order at this time?" 3. not operating; broken. □ The coffee machine is out of order. It takes your money and gives you no coffee. □ We will have to use the stairs. The elevator is out of order.

out of place 1. not in a proper place. □ The salt was out of place in the cupboard, so I couldn't find it. □ Billy, you're out of place. Please sit next to Tom. 2. improper and impertinent; out of line. □ That kind of behavior is out of place in church. □ Your rude remark is quite out of place.

out-of-pocket expenses the actual amount of money spent. (Refers to the money one person pays while doing something on someone else's behalf. One is usually paid back this money.) □ My out-of-pocket expenses for the party were nearly $175. □ My employer usually pays all out-of-pocket expenses for a business trip.

out of practice performing poorly due to a lack of practice. □ I used to be able to play the piano extremely well, but now I'm out of practice. □ The baseball players lost the game because they were out of practice.

out of print [for a book] to be no longer available for sale from the publisher. □ The book you want is out of print, but perhaps I can find a used copy for you. □ It was published nearly ten years ago, so it's probably out of print.

out of proportion Go to in proportion.

out of reach 1. not near enough to be reached or touched. □ Place the cookies out of reach, or Bob will eat them all. □ The mouse ran behind the piano, out of reach. The cat just sat and waited for it. 2. unattainable. □ I wanted to be president, but I'm afraid that such a goal is out of reach. □ I shall choose a goal that is not out of reach.

out of season 1. not now available for sale. (The opposite of in season. Compare this with off season.) □ Sorry, oysters are out of season. We don't have any. □ Watermelon is out of season in the winter. 2. not now legally able to be hunted or caught. □ Are salmon out of season? □ I caught a trout out of season and had to pay a fine.

out of service inoperable; not now operating. □ Both elevators are out of service, so I had to use the stairs. □ The washroom is temporarily out of service.

out of shape AND out of condition not in the best physical condition. ☐ I get out of breath when I run because I'm out of shape. ☐ Keep exercising regularly, or you'll get out of condition.

out of sight 1. not visible. (Especially with get, keep, or stay.) ☐ The cat kept out of sight until the mouse came out. ☐ "Get out of sight, or they'll see you!" called John. 2. [for a price to be] very high. (Informal.) ☐ I won't pay this bill. It's out of sight. ☐ The estimate was out of sight, so I didn't accept it. 3. figuratively stunning, unbelievable, or awesome. (Slang.) ☐ Wow, this music is out of sight! ☐ What a wild party—out of sight!

Out of sight, out of mind. If you do not see something, you will not think about it. (Proverb.) ☐ When I go home, I put my schoolbooks away so I won't worry about doing my homework. After all, out of sight, out of mind. ☐ Jane dented the fender on her car. It's on the right side, so she doesn't have to look at it. Like they say, out of sight, out of mind.

out of sorts not feeling well; grumpy and irritable. ☐ I've been out of sorts for a day or two. I think I'm coming down with something. ☐ The baby is out of sorts. Maybe she's getting a tooth.

out of spite with the desire to harm someone or something. ☐ Jane told some evil gossip about Bill out of spite. ☐ That was not an accident! You did it out of spite.

out of step (with someone or something) 1. AND out of time (with someone or something) [marching or dancing] out of cadence with someone else. ☐ You're out of step with the music. ☐ Pay attention, Ann. You're out of time. 2. not as up-to-date as someone or something. ☐ John is out of step with the times. ☐ Billy is out of step with the rest of the class.

out of stock not immediately available in a store; [for goods] to be temporarily unavailable. ☐ Those items are out of stock, but a new supply will be delivered on Thursday. ☐ I'm sorry, but the red ones are out of stock. Would a blue one do?

out of style AND out of fashion not fashionable; old-fashioned; obsolete. ☐ John's clothes are really out of style. ☐ He doesn't care if his clothes are out of fashion.

out of the blue Go to out of a clear blue sky.

out of the corner of one's eye [seeing something] at a glance; glimpsing (something). ☐ I saw someone do it out of the corner of my eye. It might have been Jane who did it. ☐ I only saw the accident out of the corner of my eye. I don't know who is at fault.

out of the frying pan into the fire from a bad situation to a worse situation. (Often with jump.) ☐ When I tried to argue about my fine for a traffic violation, the judge charged me with contempt of court. I really went out of the frying pan into the fire. ☐ I got deeply in debt. Then I really got out of the frying pan into the fire when I lost my job.

out of the hole out of debt. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ I get paid next week, and then I can get out of the hole. ☐ I can't seem to get out of the hole. I keep spending more money than I earn.

out of the ordinary unusual. ☐ It was a good meal, but not out of the ordinary. ☐ Your report was nicely done, but nothing out of the ordinary.

out of the question not possible; not permitted. ☐ I'm sorry, but it's out of the question. ☐ You can't go to Florida this spring. We can't afford it. It's out of the question.

out of the red out of debt. (Informal.) ☐ This year our company is likely to get out of the red before fall. ☐ If we can cut down on expenses, we can get out of the red fairly soon.

out of the running no longer being considered; eliminated from a contest. (Compare this with the running.) ☐ After the first part of the diving meet, three members of our team were out of the running. ☐ After the scandal was made public, I was no longer in the running. I pulled out of the election.

out of the swim of things not in the middle of activity; not involved in things. (Informal. The opposite of in the swim of things.) □ While I had my cold, I was out of the swim of things. □ I've been out of the swim of things for a few weeks. Please bring me up to date.

out-of-the-way not on the regular route; following a different, more awkward, route. □ They live on a quiet, out-of-the-way street. □ I know an out-of-the-way little restaurant on Maple Street.

out of the woods past a critical phase; out of the unknown. (Informal.) □ When the patient got out of the woods, everyone relaxed. □ I can give you a better prediction for your future health when you are out of the woods.

out of thin air out of nowhere; out of nothing. (Informal.) □ Suddenly—out of thin air—the messenger appeared. □ You just made that up out of thin air.

out of this world wonderful; extraordinary. □ This pie is just out of this world. □ Look at you! How lovely you look—simply out of this world.

out of time (with someone or something) Go to out of step (with someone or something).

out of touch (with someone or something) 1. [with someone] no longer talking to or writing to someone; knowing no news of someone. □ I've been out of touch with my brother for many years. □ We've been out of touch for quite some time. 2. [with something] not keeping up with the developments of something. □ I've been out of touch with automobile mechanics for many years. □ I couldn't go back into mechanics because I've been out of touch for too long.

out of town temporarily not in one's own town. □ I'll be out of town next week. I'm going to a conference. □ I take care of Mary's cat when she's out of town.

out of tune (with someone or something) 1. not in musical harmony with someone or something. (Compare this with in tune.) □ The oboe is out of tune with the flute. □ The flute is out of tune with John. □

They are all out of tune. 2. not in (figurative) harmony or agreement. □ Your proposal is out of tune with my ideas of what we should be doing. □ Your ideas and mine are out of tune.

out of turn not at the proper time; not in the proper order. (See also speak out of turn.) □ We were permitted to be served out of turn because we had to leave early. □ Bill tried to register out of turn and was sent away.

out of w(h)ack 1. crazy; silly; irrational. (Slang.) □ Why do you always act as if you're out of whack? □ I'm not out of wack. I'm eccentric. 2. out of adjustment; out of order. (Slang.) □ I'm afraid that my watch is out of whack. □ The elevator is out of whack. We'll have to walk up.

out of work unemployed, temporarily or permanently. □ How long have you been out of work? □ My brother has been out of work for nearly a year.

out on a limb in a dangerous position; taking a chance. (Also literal.) □ I don't want to go out on a limb, but I think I'd agree to your request. □ She really went out on a limb when she agreed.

out on bail out of jail because bail bond money has been paid. (The money will be forfeited if the person who is out on bail does not appear in court at the proper time. See also jump bail.) □ Bob is out on bail waiting for his trial. □ The robber committed another crime while out on bail.

out on parole out of jail but still under police supervision. □ Bob got out on parole after serving only a few years of his sentence. □ He was out on parole because of good behavior.

(out) on patrol away from a central location, watching over a distant area while moving through it. □ Officer Smith is out on patrol and cannot see you now. □ The soldiers who are on patrol on this snowy night must be very cold.

out on the town celebrating at one or more places in a town. (See also night on the town.) □ I'm really tired. I was out on the town until dawn. ☐ We went out on the town to celebrate our wedding anniversary.

out to lunch 1. eating lunch away from one's place of work or activity. ☐ I'm sorry, but Sally Jones is out to lunch. May I take a message? ☐ She's been out to lunch for nearly two hours. When will she be back? 2. AND out of it not alert; giddy; uninformed. (Slang.) ☐ Bill is really out of it. Why can't he pay attention? ☐ Don't be so out of it, John. Wake up! ☐ Ann is really out to lunch these days.

out West in the western part of the United States. (See also back East, down South, up North.) ☐ We lived out West for nearly ten years. ☐ Do they really ride horses out West?

outgrow something 1. to get too big for something. ☐ Tom outgrew all his clothes in two months. ☐ The plant outgrew its pot. 2. to become too mature for something. ☐ I outgrew my allergies. ☐ The boys will outgrow their toys.

outguess someone to guess what someone else might do; to predict what someone might do. ☐ I can't outguess Bill. I just have to wait and see what happens. ☐ Don't try to outguess John. He's too sharp and tricky.

outside of something except for something; besides something. (Also literal.) ☐ Outside of the cost of my laundry, I have practically no expenses. ☐ Outside of some new shoes, I don't need any new clothing.

outside the box 1. as if not bound by old, nonfunctional, or limiting structures, rules, or practices. (An adverb. Compare this with inside the box.) ☐ You need to move your discussions outside the box and get away from silly limitations. ☐ Nothing can be done outside the box in such a rigid intellectual environment. 2. not bound by old, nonfunctional, or limiting structures, rules, or practices. (Usually outside-the-box. An adjective.) ☐ You have some really outside-the-box ideas, Ralph. ☐ After some long, outside-the-box discussions, we arrived at a creative solution.

over again Go to (all) over again.

over and above something more than something; in addition to something. (Informal.) ☐ I'll need another twenty dollars over and above the amount you have already given me. ☐ You've been eating too much food—over and above what is required for good nutrition. That's why you're gaining weight.

over and done with finished. (Informal.) ☐ I'm glad that's over and done with. ☐ Now that I have college over and done with, I can get a job.

over and over (again) repeatedly. ☐ She stamped her foot over and over again. ☐ Bill whistled the same song over and over.

over my dead body not if I can stop you. (Slang. It means that you'll have to kill me to prevent me from keeping you from doing something.) ☐ Over my dead body you'll sell this house! ☐ You want to quit college? Over my dead body!

over someone's head too difficult or clever for someone to understand. (Also literal.) ☐ The children have no idea what the new teacher is talking about. Her ideas are way over their heads. ☐ She enrolled in a physics course, but it turned out to be miles over her head.

over the hill overage; too old to do something. (Informal.) ☐ Now that Mary's forty, she thinks she's over the hill. ☐ My grandfather was over eighty before he felt as if he was over the hill.

over the hump over the difficult part. (Informal.) ☐ This is a difficult project, but we're over the hump now. ☐ I'm halfway through—over the hump—and it looks as if I may get finished after all.

over the long haul for a relatively long period of time. ☐ Over the long haul, it might be better to invest in stocks. ☐ Over the long haul, everything will turn out all right.

over there Go to (way) over there.

over the short haul for the immediate future. ☐ Over the short haul, you'd be better off to put your money in the bank. ☐

Over the short haul, you may wish you had done something different. But things will work out all right.

over the top 1. having gained more than one's goal. □ Our fund-raising campaign went over the top by $3,000. □ We didn't go over the top. We didn't even get half of what we set out to collect. 2. excessive; beyond the pale; overdone. □ Her imitation of the president was over the top and completely offensive. □ This is not satire! It is cruel and over the top.

over with Go to (all) over with.

owing to because of something; due to the fact of something. □ Owing to the lateness of the evening, I must go home. □ We were late owing to the heavy traffic.

own up (to something) to confess to something. □ I know you broke the window. Come on and own up to it. □ The boy holding the baseball bat owned up. What else could he do?

P

pack a punch Go to pack a wallop.

pack a wallop AND pack a punch to provide a burst of energy, power, or excitement. (Informal.) ☐ Wow, this spicy food really packs a wallop. ☐ I put a special kind of gasoline in my car because I thought it would pack a punch. It didn't.

a pack of lies a series of lies. ☐ The thief told a pack of lies to cover up the crime. ☐ John listened to Bill's pack of lies about the fight and became very angry.

pack them in to draw a lot of people. (Informal.) ☐ It was a good night at the theater. The play really packed them in. ☐ The circus manager knew he could pack them in if he advertised the lion tamer.

packed (in) like sardines packed very tightly. (Note the variation in the examples.) ☐ It was terribly crowded there. We were packed in like sardines. ☐ The bus was full. The passengers were packed like sardines. ☐ They packed us in like sardines.

pad the bill to put unnecessary items on a bill to make the total cost higher. (Informal.) ☐ The plumber had padded the bill with things we didn't need. ☐ I was falsely accused of padding the bill.

paddle one's own canoe to do (something) by oneself. (Also literal.) ☐ I've been left to paddle my own canoe too many times. ☐ Sally isn't with us. She's off paddling her own canoe.

a pain in the neck a bother; an annoyance. (Slang.) ☐ This assignment is a pain in the neck. ☐ Your little brother is a pain in the neck.

paint the town red to have a wild celebration during a night on the town. ☐

Let's all go out and paint the town red! ☐ Oh, do I feel awful. I was out all last night, painting the town red.

pal around (with someone) to be friends with someone; to be the companion of someone. ☐ Bill likes to pal around with Mary, but it's nothing serious. ☐ Ann and Jane still like to pal around.

pale around the gills AND blue around the gills; green around the gills looking sick. (Informal. The around can be replaced with about.) ☐ John is looking a little pale around the gills. What's wrong? ☐ Oh, I feel a little green about the gills.

pale as death Go to (as) pale as death.

palm something off (on someone) to try to get something accepted as good. ☐ The crook palmed a fake $50 bill off on me. ☐ Bob palmed his research off as original work, but we all knew he plagiarized it.

pan out Go to turn out (all right).

paper over the cracks (in something) to try to hide faults or difficulties, often in a hasty or not very successful way. (Also literal when applying wallpaper.) ☐ The politician tried to paper over the cracks in his party's economic policy. ☐ Tom tried to paper over the cracks in his relationship with the boss, but it was not possible. ☐ She didn't explain it. She just papered over the cracks.

par for the course typical; about what one could expect. (This refers to golf courses, not school courses.) ☐ So he went off and left you? Well that's about par for the course. He's no friend. ☐ I worked for days on this project, but it was rejected. That's par for the course around here.

a paradise (on earth) a place on earth that is as lovely as paradise. □ The retirement home was simply a paradise on earth. □ The beach where we went for our vacation was a paradise.

Pardon my French. Excuse me for swearing or saying naughty words. (Informal.) □ Pardon my French, but get that damn cat out of here! □ He slipped and fell on his butt, pardon my French.

part and parcel (of something) part of something; an important part of something. (See also bag and baggage.) □ This point is part and parcel of my whole argument. □ Get every part and parcel of this machine out of my living room. □ Come on! Move out—part and parcel!

part company (with someone) to leave someone; to depart from someone. □ Tom finally parted company with his brother. □ They parted company, and Tom got in his car and drove away.

part someone's hair to come very close to someone. (Also literal. Informal. Usually an exaggeration.) □ That plane flew so low that it nearly parted my hair. □ He punched at me and missed. He only parted my hair.

partake of something to take something; to eat or drink something. (Formal.) □ I don't usually partake of rich foods, but in this instance I'll make an exception. □ Good afternoon, Judge Smith, would you care to partake of some wine?

partial to someone or something favoring or preferring someone or something. □ The boys think their teacher is partial to female students. □ I am partial to vanilla ice cream.

the particulars of something specific details about something. □ My boss stressed the important particulars of the project. □ What are the particulars of your request?

parting of the ways a point at which people separate and go their own ways. (Often with come to a, arrive at a, reach a, etc.) □ Jane and Bob finally came to a parting of the ways. □ Bill and his parents reached a parting of the ways.

the party line the official ideas and attitudes that are adopted by the leaders of a particular group and that the other members are expected to accept. (From political party.) □ Tom has left the club. He refused to follow the party line. □ Many politicians agree with the party line without thinking.

The party's over. A happy or fortunate time has come to an end. (Also literal. Informal.) □ We go back to school tomorrow. The party's over. □ The staff hardly worked at all under the old management, but they'll find the party's over now.

pass as someone or something AND pass for someone or something to succeed in being accepted as someone or something. □ The spy was able to pass as a regular citizen. □ You could pass for your twin brother. □ The thief was arrested when he tried to pass as a priest.

pass away AND pass on to die. (A euphemism.) □ My aunt passed away last month. □ When I pass away, I want to have lots of flowers and a big funeral. □ When I pass on, I won't care about the funeral.

pass for someone or something Go to pass as someone or something pass muster to measure up to the required standards. (Folksy.) □ I tried, but my efforts didn't pass muster. □ If you don't wear a suit, you won't pass muster at that fancy restaurant. They won't let you in.

pass on Go to pass away.

pass out to faint; to lose consciousness. □ Oh, look! Tom has passed out. □ When he got the news, he passed out.

pass the buck to pass the blame (to someone else); to give the responsibility (to someone else). (Informal.) □ Don't try to pass the buck! It's your fault, and everybody knows it. □ Some people try to pass the buck whenever they can.

pass the hat to attempt to collect money for some (charitable) project. (Refers to a hat that is sometimes used to hold the collected cash.) □ Bob is passing the hat to collect money to buy flowers for Ann.

□ He's always passing the hat for something.

pass the time to fill up time (by doing something). □ I never know how to pass the time when I'm on vacation. □ What do you do to pass the time?

pass the time of day (with someone) to chat or talk informally with someone. □ I saw Mr. Brown in town yesterday. I stopped and passed the time of day with him. □ No, we didn't have a serious talk; we just passed the time of day.

pass through someone's mind AND cross someone's mind to come to mind briefly; for an idea to occur to someone. (Compare this with come to mind.) □ Let me tell you what just crossed my mind. □ As you were speaking, something passed through my mind that I'd like to discuss.

passport to something something that allows something good to happen. □ John's new girlfriend is his passport to happiness. □ Anne's new job is a passport to financial security.

a past master at something someone proven to be extremely good or skillful at an activity. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ Mary is a past master at cooking omelets. □ Pam is a past master at the art of complaining.

past someone's or something's prime beyond the most useful or productive period. □ Joan was a wonderful singer, but she's past her prime now. □ This old car's past its prime. I'll need to get a new one.

pat someone on the back AND give someone a pat on the back to congratulate someone; to encourage someone. (Also literal when the recipient is actually patted on the back.) □ We patted Ann on the back for a good performance. □ When people do a good job, you should give them a pat on the back.

patch someone or something up 1. [with someone] to doctor someone; to dress someone's wounds. (Informal.) □ They patched John up in the emergency room. □ I patched up Ann's cuts with bandages and sent her home. 2. [with something] to (figuratively) repair the damage done by an argument or disagreement. (Also literal.) □ Mr. and Mrs. Smith are trying to patch things up. □ We patched up our argument, then kissed and made up.

the path of least resistance to do the easiest thing; to take the easiest route. (Often with follow the or take the. Compare this with line of least resistance.) □ John will follow the path of least resistance. □ I like challenges. I won't usually take the path of least resistance.

patient as Job Go to (as) patient as Job.

pave the way (for someone or something) to prepare (someone or something) for someone or something. □ The public doesn't understand the metric system. We need to pave the way for its introduction. □ They are paving the way in the schools.

pay a call on someone to visit someone. □ Grandmother always paid us a call on Sundays. □ Let's pay a call on Mary at the hospital.

pay a king's ransom (for something) to pay a great deal for something. (To pay an amount as large as one might have to pay to get back a king held for ransom.) □ I would like to buy a nice watch, but I don't want to pay a king's ransom for it. □ It's a lovely house. I had to pay a king's ransom, but it is worth it.

pay an arm and a leg (for something) AND pay through the nose (for something) to pay too much [money] for something. (Informal.) □ I hate to have to pay an arm and a leg for a tank of gas. □ If you shop around, you won't have to pay an arm and a leg. □ Why should you pay through the nose?

pay as you go 1. to pay costs as they occur; to pay for goods as they are bought (rather than charging them). (Literal when it means to pay for goods or services as you leave.) □ You ought to pay as you go. Then you won't be in debt. □ If you pay as you go, you'll never spend too much money. 2. paying costs as they occur. (Usually pay-as-you-go.) □ There is no charging allowed here. This store is strictly pay-as-you-go. □ I can't buy this then. I didn't know your policy was pay-as-you-go.

pay attention (to someone or something) to be attentive to someone or something; to give one's attention or concentration to someone or something. ☐ Pay attention to me! ☐ I'm paying attention!

pay a visit to someone or something Go to pay (someone or something) a visit.

pay for something 1. to pay out money for something. ☐ Did you pay for the magazine, or shall I? ☐ No, I'll pay for it. 2. to be punished for something. ☐ The criminal will pay for his crimes. ☐ I don't like what you did to me, and I'm going to see that you pay for it.

pay homage to someone to praise, respect, and honor someone. ☐ My parents taught me to pay homage to my elders. ☐ The widower paid homage to his dead wife by placing flowers on her grave.

pay in advance to pay (for something) before it is received or delivered. ☐ I want to make a special order. Will I have to pay in advance? ☐ Yes, please pay in advance.

pay lip service (to something) to express loyalty, respect, or support for something insincerely. ☐ You don't really care about politics. You're just paying lip service to the candidate. ☐ Don't sit here and pay lip service. Get busy!

pay one's debt (to society) to serve a sentence for a crime, usually in prison. ☐ The judge said that Mr. Simpson had to pay his debt to society. ☐ Mr. Brown paid his debt in state prison.

pay one's dues to have earned one's right to something through hard work or suffering. (Literal when referring to paying the fees required to belong to an organization. Informal.) ☐ He worked hard to get to where he is today. He paid his dues and did what he was told. ☐ I have every right to be here. I paid my dues!

pay one's last respects to attend the wake or funeral of someone; to approach the coffin containing someone in a final act of respect. ☐ I went to Bill's wake to pay my last respects. ☐ Everyone in town came to the mayor's funeral to pay their last respects.

pay someone a back-handed compliment AND pay someone a left-handed compliment to give someone a false compliment that is really an insult. ☐ John said that he had never seen me looking better. I think he was paying me a left-handed compliment. ☐ I'd prefer that someone insulted me directly. I hate it when someone pays me a back-handed compliment—unless it's a joke.

pay someone a compliment to compliment someone. ☐ Sally thanked me for paying her a compliment. ☐ When Tom did his job well, I paid him a compliment.

pay someone a left-handed compliment Go to pay someone a back-handed compliment.

pay (someone or something) a visit AND pay a visit to someone or something to visit someone or something. ☐ Bill paid a visit to his aunt in Seattle. ☐ Please pay a visit to our house whenever you are in town.

pay someone or something off 1. [with someone] to pay someone a bribe (for a favor already done). (Compare this with buy someone off.) ☐ The lawyer was put in prison for paying the judge off. The judge was imprisoned also. ☒ The lawyer paid off the judge for deciding the case in the lawyer's favor. 2. to pay a debt; to pay a debtor; to pay the final payment for something bought on credit. ☐ This month I'll pay the car off. ☒ Did you pay off the plumber yet?

pay someone respect to honor someone; to have and show respect for someone. ☐ You really should pay your boss more respect. ☐ We have to pay our parents a lot of respect.

pay someone's (own) way to pay the costs (of something) for someone. ☐ I wanted to go to Florida this spring, but my parents say I have to pay my own way. ☐ My aunt is going to pay my way to Florida—only if I take her with me!

pay the piper to face the results of one's actions; to receive punishment for something. (Also literal.) ☐ You can put off paying your debts only so long. Eventually you'll have to pay the piper. □ You can't get away with that forever. You'll have to pay the piper someday.

pay through the nose (for something) Go to pay an arm and a leg (for something).

pay to do something to be beneficial to do something; to be profitable. □ It doesn't pay to drive downtown when you can take the train. □ It pays to take an umbrella with you if it's supposed to rain.

pay up Pay me now! (Slang.) □ You owe me $200. Come on, pay up! □ If you don't pay up, I'll take you to court.

peg away (at something) Go to plug away (at something).

peg someone as something AND have someone pegged as something to think of someone in a certain way. □ Susan pegged the new employee as a lazy worker. □ I had you pegged as an angry rebel before I got to know you.

A penny saved is a penny earned. Money saved through thrift is the same as money earned by employment. (Sometimes used to explain stinginess.) □ "I didn't want to pay that much for the book," said Mary. "After all, a penny saved is a penny earned." □ Bob put his money in a new bank that pays more interest than his old bank, saying, "A penny saved is a penny earned."

penny-wise and pound-foolish <an expression meaning that it is foolish to lose a lot of money to save a little money.> (This is the British pound sterling.) □ Sally shops very carefully to save a few cents on food, then charges the food to a charge card that costs a lot in annual interest. That's being penny-wise and pound-foolish. □ John drives thirty miles to buy gas for three cents a gallon less than it costs here. He's really penny-wise and pound-foolish.

pep someone or something up to make someone or something more sprightly and active. □ I need a bottle of pop to pep me up. □ The third act of this play needs something to pep it up. How about a few good jokes?

per head Go to a head.

Perish the thought. Do not even consider thinking of something. (Formal.) □ If you should become ill—perish the thought—I'd take care of you. □ I'm afraid that we need a new car. Perish the thought.

perk someone or something up to make someone or something more cheery. □ A nice cup of coffee would really perk me up. □ Don't you think that new curtains would perk up this room?

persist in doing something to continue, with determination, to do something. □ John persists in thinking that he's always right. □ Tom persists in demanding that I agree to his terms.

persist with something to continue the state of something; to extend an action or state. □ Please do not persist with your demands that I agree to your terms. □ If you persist with this intrusion, I'm going to call the police.

perspective on something a way of looking at a situation and determining what is important. □ The jury did not have a good perspective on the crime since some of the evidence had to be ignored. □ Studying history gives one perspective on the present.

[pet hate] Go to someone's pet hate.

[pet peeve] Go to someone's pet peeve.

peter out [for something] to die or dwindle away; [for something] to become exhausted gradually. (Informal.) □ When the fire petered out, I went to bed. □ My money finally petered out, and I had to come home.

phony as a three-dollar bill Go to (as) phony as a three-dollar bill.

pick a fight with someone Go to pick a quarrel (with someone).

pick a lock to open a lock without a key; to open a lock without using a key. □ The robber picked the lock with a nail file. □ The thief picked the lock on the safe and stole the money.

pick and choose to choose very carefully from a number of possibilities; to be selective. □ You must take what you are given. You cannot pick and choose. □ Meg is so beautiful. She can pick and choose from a whole range of boyfriends.

pick a quarrel (with someone) AND pick a fight with someone to start an argument or fight with someone. □ Are you trying to pick a quarrel with me? □ Max intended to pick a fight with Lefty.

pick at someone or something 1. to be very critical of someone or something; to pick on someone or something. (Informal.) □ Why are you always picking at me? □ You always seem to be picking at your car. 2. [with something] to eat only little bits of something. □ You're only picking at your food. Don't you feel well? □ Billy is only picking at his peas, and he usually eats all of them.

pick holes in something AND pick something to pieces to criticize something severely; to find all the flaws or fallacies in an argument. (Also literal.) □ The lawyer picked holes in the witness's story. □ They will pick holes in your argument. □ She picked my story to pieces.

the pick of something the best of the group. □ This playful puppy is the pick of the whole lot. □ These potatoes are the pick of the crop.

pick one's way through something AND make one's way through something to work slowly and meticulously through written material. (Literal when referring to moving carefully through a route filled with obstacles.) □ My teacher said he couldn't even pick his way through my report. It was just too confusing. □ I spent an hour picking my way through the state tax forms.

pick on somebody your own size Go to pick on someone your own size.

pick on someone or something to criticize someone or something; to abuse someone or something. □ Stop picking on me! □ Why are you always picking on your dog? □ Don't pick on our house. It's old, but we love it.

pick on someone your own size AND pick on somebody your own size to abuse someone who is big enough to fight back. □ Go pick on somebody your own size! □ Max should learn to pick on someone his own size.

pick someone or something off to kill someone or something with a carefully aimed gunshot. (Also literal.) □ The hunter picked the deer off with great skill. □ The killer tried to pick off the police officer.

pick someone or something up 1. [with someone] to go to a place in a car, bus, etc., and take on a person as a passenger. □ Please come to my office and pick me up at noon. □ I have to pick up Billy at school. 2. [with someone] to stop one's car, bus, etc., and offer someone a ride. □ Don't ever pick a stranger up when you're out driving! □ I picked up a hitchhiker today, and we had a nice chat. 3. [with someone] to attempt to become acquainted with someone for romantic or sexual purposes. (Informal.) □ Who are you anyway? Are you trying to pick me up? □ No, I never picked up anybody in my life! 4. [with someone] [for the police] to find and bring someone to the police station for questioning or arrest. □ I tried to pick her up, but she heard me coming and got away. □ Sergeant Jones, go pick up Sally Franklin and bring her in to be questioned about the jewel robbery. 5. [with something] to tidy up or clean up a room or some other place. □ Let's pick this room up in a hurry. □ I want you to pick up the entire house. 6. [with something] to find, purchase, or acquire something. □ Where did you pick that up? □ I picked up this tool at the hardware store. 7. [with something] to learn something. □ I pick languages up easily. □ I picked up a lot of knowledge about music from my brother. □ I picked up an interesting melody from a movie. 8. [with something] to cause something to go faster, especially music. □ All right, let's pick this piece up and get it moving faster. □ Okay, get moving. Pick it up! 9. [with something] to resume something. □ Pick it up right where you stopped. □ I'll have to pick up my work where I left off. 10. [with something] to receive radio signals; to bring something into view. □ I can just pick it up with a powerful telescope. □ I can hardly pick up a signal. □ We can pick up a pretty good television picture where we live. 11. [with something] to find a trail or route. □ The dogs finally picked up the scent. □ You should pick up Highway 80 in a few miles.

pick someone's brain(s) to talk with someone to find out information about something. □ I spent the afternoon with Donna, picking her brain for ideas to use in our celebration. □ Do you mind if I pick your brains? I need some fresh ideas.

pick something over to sort through something; to rummage through something. □ They picked all the records over. □ The shoppers quickly picked over the sale merchandise.

pick something to pieces Go to pick holes in something.

pick up 1. to tidy up. □ When you finish playing, you have to pick up. □ Please pick up after yourself. 2. to get busy; to go faster. □ Things usually pick up around here about 8:00. □ I hope things pick up a little later. It's boring here.

pick up the check Go to pick up the tab.

pick up the tab AND pick up the check to intercept and pay the charges for a meal, entertainment, or other goods or services. (Meaning that the one who picks up the check pays the charges listed on it. Informal.) □ Whenever we go out, my father picks up the tab. □ Order whatever you want. The company is picking up the check.

picked over rejected; worn, dirty, or undesirable. □ This merchandise looks worn and picked over. I don't want any of it. □ Everything in the store is picked over by the end of the month.

the picture of something the perfect example of something; an exact image of something. □ The young newlyweds were the picture of happiness. □ Our family is just the picture of love and joy. □ The doctor says I am the picture of health.

pie in the sky a future reward after death, considered as a replacement for a reward not received on earth. □ You expect to get rich from this scheme, but that's just pie in the sky. □ His promises are just pie in the sky! He is a liar if I ever saw one.

piece of cake very easy. (Slang.) □ No, it won't be any trouble. It's a piece of cake. □ It's easy! Look here—piece of cake.

a piece of the action a share in a scheme or project; a degree of involvement. (Slang.) □ If you guys are going to bet on the football game, I want a piece of the action, too. □ My brother wants in on it. Give him a piece of the action.

a piercing scream a very loud and shrill scream. □ Suddenly, there was a piercing scream from the next room. □ Bob heard Susan's piercing scream and ran to help her.

pile in(to something) to climb into something or get into something roughly. □ Okay, kids, pile in! □ The children piled into the car and slammed the door.

pile out (of something) to get out of something roughly. □ Okay, kids, pile out! □ The car door burst open, and the children piled out.

pile something up to crash or wreck something. (Also literal meaning "to heap something up.") □ Drive carefully if you don't want to pile the car up. □ The driver piled up the car against a tree.

pile up to crash or wreck. (Also literal.) □ The car piled up against the tree. □ The bus piled up on the curve.

a pillar of strength AND a pillar of support; a tower of strength someone or something that consistently provides moral, emotional, or financial support as does a pillar. □ My parents are my pillars of support. □ The minister looked to God as her pillar of strength. □ Jack was a tower of strength during the time that his father was unemployed.

a pillar of support Go to a pillar of strength.

pin one's faith on someone or something AND pin one's hope(s) on someone or something to put one's hope, trust, or faith in someone or something. ☐ I'm pinning my faith on your efforts. ☐ Don't pin your hopes on Tom. He's not dependable.

pin one's hope(s) on someone or something Go to pin one's faith on someone or something.

pin someone down to force someone to make a decision or choice. (See also on pins and needles.) ☐ The doctor tried to pin Jane Smith down for her next appointment. ☐ I won't make up my mind for a week so don't try to pin me down now.

pin someone down (on something) to force someone to explain or clarify something. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ Try to pin her down on the time. ☒ Pin down Jane on exactly what she means. ☐ Please find out exactly how much it costs. Pin them down on the price.

pin someone's ears back to scold someone severely; to beat someone. (Slang.) ☐ Tom pinned my ears back because I insulted him. ☐ I got very mad at John and wanted to pin his ears back, but I didn't.

pin something on someone to place the blame for something on someone. (Also literal. Slang.) ☐ I didn't take the money. Don't try to pin it on me. I wasn't even there. ☐ The police managed to pin the crime on Bob.

pinch-hit (for someone) to substitute for someone. (Originally from baseball, where it refers to a substitute batter.) ☐ Will you pinch-hit for me at band practice? ☐ Sorry, I can't pinch-hit. I don't have the time.

pins and needles a tingling feeling in some part of one's body, especially the arms and legs. (See also on pins and needles.) ☐ I've got pins and needles in my legs. ☐ Mary gets pins and needles if she crosses her arms for long.

pipe down to be quiet; to get quiet. (Slang.) ☐ Okay, you guys, pipe down! ☐ I've heard enough out of you. Pipe down!

a pipe dream a wish or an idea that is impossible to achieve or carry out. (From the dreams or visions induced by the smoking of an opium pipe.) ☐ Going to the West Indies is a pipe dream. We'll never have enough money. ☐ Your hopes of winning a lot of money are just a silly pipe dream.

pipe up with something to speak up and say something, especially with a high-pitched voice. ☐ Billy piped up with a silly remark. ☐ Did I hear somebody pipe up with an insult?

piping hot [of food] extremely hot. ☐ On a cold day, I like to eat piping hot soup. ☐ Be careful! This coffee is piping hot!

pique someone's curiosity AND pique someone's interest to arouse interest; to arouse curiosity. ☐ The advertisement piqued my curiosity about the product. ☐ The professor tried to pique the students' interest in French literature.

pique someone's interest Go to pique someone's curiosity.

pit someone or something against someone or something to set someone or something in opposition to someone or something. ☐ The rules of the tournament pit their team against ours. ☐ John pitted Mary against Sally in the tennis match. ☐ In an interesting plowing match, Bill pitted himself against a small tractor.

pitch a tent to erect a tent at a campsite. ☐ The campers pitched their tent in a clearing in the woods. ☐ I pitched my tent next to a large oak tree.

pitch-black very black; as black as pitch. ☐ The hearse was pitch-black. ☐ The bandit rode on a pitch-black horse and wore black clothing.

pitch camp to set up or arrange a campsite. ☐ We pitched camp near the stream. ☐ Two campers went ahead of us to pitch camp while it was still light.

pitch-dark very dark; as dark as pitch. ☐ I couldn't see anything outside because it was pitch-dark. ☐ The room was pitch-dark, and I couldn't find the light switch!

pitch in (and help) to get busy and help (with something). ☐ Pick up a paintbrush and pitch in and help. ☐ Why don't some of you pitch in? We need all the help we can get.

pitch someone a curve (ball) to surprise someone with an unexpected act or event. (Alluding to pitching a curve ball in baseball. It is the route of the ball that is curved, not the ball itself.) ☐ You really pitched me a curve ball when you said I had done a poor job. I did my best. ☐ You asked Tom a hard question. You certainly pitched him a curve.

the pits the worst possible. (Slang.) ☐ John is such a boring person. He's the pits. ☐ This restaurant isn't the best, but it's not the pits either.

place an order to submit an order. ☐ My secretary placed an order for a new computer. ☐ I placed my order only yesterday.

[place of business] Go to someone's place of business.

place someone to recall someone's name; to recall the details about a person that would help you identify the person. ☐ I am sorry, I can't seem to place you. Could you tell me your name again? ☐ I can't place her. Did I meet her once before?

place the blame on someone or something Go to put the blame on someone or something.

a place to call one's own Go to somewhere to hang (up) one's hat.

a place to hang one's hat Go to somewhere to hang (up) one's hat.

plain and simple Go to pure and simple.

plain as a pikestaff Go to (as) plain as a pikestaff.

plain as day Go to (as) plain as day.

plain as the nose on one's face Go to (as) plain as the nose on one's face.

play about (with someone or something) Go to play around (with someone or something).

play a joke on someone to make a joke that tricks someone. ☐ The children played a joke on their teacher. ☐ I don't like it when you play jokes on me.

play along with someone or something to agree to cooperate or conspire with someone or someone's plan; to pretend to agree to cooperate or conspire with someone or someone's plan. ☐ I refused to play along with the treasurer when she outlined her plan. ☐ It might be wise to play along with the kidnappers, at least for a little while. ☐ I'll play along with your scheme until the others get here, but I don't like it.

play around (with someone or something)

AND play about (with someone or something) to engage in some amusing activity with someone or something; to tease someone or something. ☐ Please don't play around with that vase. You'll break it. ☐ Don't play about with the parrot. It'll bite you. ☐ Bill and I were just playing around when we heard the sound of breaking glass.

play a trick on someone to do a trick that affects someone. ☐ Somebody played a trick on me by hiding my shoes. ☐ The little boys planned to play a trick on their teacher by turning up the heat in the classroom.

play ball (with someone) to cooperate with someone. (Literal when referring to playing a ball game. Informal.) ☐ Look, friend, if you play ball with me, everything will work out all right. ☐ Things would go better for you if you'd learn to play ball.

play both ends (against the middle) [for one] to scheme in a way that pits two sides against each other (for one's own gain). (Informal.) ☐ I told my brother that Mary doesn't like him. Then I told Mary that my brother doesn't like her. They broke up, so now I can have the car this weekend. I succeeded in playing both ends against the middle. ☐ If you try to play both ends, you're likely to get in trouble with both sides.

play by ear Go to play something by ear.

a play-by-play description a description of an event given as the event is taking place. (Usually in reference to a sporting event.) ☐ And now here is Bill Jones with a play-by-play description of the baseball game. ☐ John was giving me a play-by-play description of the argument going on next door.

play cat and mouse (with someone) to alternate between kinds of behavior when dealing with someone, often in matters of pursuit. □ The police played cat and mouse with the suspect until they had sufficient evidence to make an arrest. □ Tom had been playing cat and mouse with Ann. Finally she got tired of it and broke up with him.

play dumb Go to play ignorant.

play fair to do something by the rules; to play something in a fair and just manner. □ John won't play with Bill anymore because Bill doesn't play fair. □ You moved the golf ball with your foot! That's not playing fair!

play fast and loose (with someone or something) to act carelessly, thoughtlessly, and irresponsibly. (Informal.) □ I'm tired of your playing fast and loose with me. Leave me alone. □ Bob got fired for playing fast and loose with the company's money. □ If you play fast and loose like that, you can get into a lot of trouble.

play first chair 1. to be the leader of a section of instruments in an orchestra or a band. □ Sally learned to play the violin so well that she now plays first chair in the orchestra. □ I'm going to practice my flute so I can play first chair. 2. to act as a leader. □ I need to get this job done. Who plays first chair around here? □ You're not the boss! You don't play first chair.

play footsie (with someone) 1. to attract someone's attention by touching feet under the table; to flirt with someone. (Informal.) □ Bill was trying to play footsie with Sally at the dinner table. The hostess was appalled. □ They shouldn't play footsie at a formal dinner. 2. to get involved with someone; to collaborate with someone. (Informal.) □ The treasurer got fired for playing footsie with the vice president. □ When politicians play footsie, there is usually something illegal going on.

play for keeps to take an action that is permanent or final. (Slang.) □ Mary told me that Tom wants to marry me. I didn't know he wanted to play for keeps. □ I like to play cards and make money, but I don't like to play for keeps.

play hard to get to be coy, shy, and fickle. (Usually refers to someone of the opposite sex.) □ Why can't we go out? Why do you play hard to get? □ Sally annoys all the boys because she plays hard to get.

play havoc with someone or something Go to raise havoc with someone or something.

play hob with someone or something Go to raise hob with someone or something.

play hooky not to go to school or to some important meeting. (Slang.) □ Why aren't you in school? Are you playing hooky? □ I don't have time for the sales meeting today, so I think I'll just play hooky.

play ignorant AND play dumb to pretend to be ignorant [of something]. □ I played ignorant even though I knew about the surprise party. □ John played ignorant when I asked him if he knew who had been on the telephone.

play innocent to pretend to be innocent and not concerned. □ There is no need to play innocent. I know you broke the lamp! □ John is playing innocent, and he knows more than he is telling us.

play into someone's hands [for a person one is scheming against] to come under one's control without realizing it. □ John is doing exactly what I hoped he would. He's playing into my hands. □ John played into my hands by taking the coins he found in my desk. I caught him and had him arrested.

play it cool to act calm and unconcerned. (Slang.) □ No one will suspect anything if you play it cool. □ Don't get angry, Bob. Play it cool.

play it safe to be or act safe; to avoid taking a risk. □ You should play it safe and take your umbrella. □ If you have a cold or the flu, play it safe and go to bed.

play one's cards close to one's vest Go to play one's cards close to the chest.

play one's cards close to the chest AND play one's cards close to one's vest; keep one's cards close to one's chest;

keep one's cards close to one's vest [for someone] to work or negotiate in a careful and private manner. (Literal when referring to concealing one's cards in a card game.) □ It's hard to figure out what John is up to because he plays his cards close to his chest. □ Don't let them know what you're up to. Keep your cards close to your vest.

play one's cards right AND play one's cards well to work or negotiate correctly and skillfully. (Also literal. Informal.) □ If you play your cards right, you can get whatever you want. □ She didn't play her cards well, and she ended up with something less than what she wanted.

play one's cards well Go to play one's cards right.

play one's trump card to use a special trick; to use one's most powerful or effective strategy or device. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I won't play my trump card until I have tried everything else. □ I thought that the whole situation was hopeless until Mary played her trump card and solved the whole problem.

play on something to have an effect on something; to manage something for a desired effect. □ The clerk played on my sense of responsibility in trying to get me to buy the book. □ See if you can get her to confess by playing on her sense of guilt.

play politics 1. to negotiate politically. □ Everybody at city hall is playing politics as usual. □ If you're elected as a member of a political party, you'll have to play politics. 2. to allow politics to dominate in matters where principle should prevail. □ Look, I came here to discuss this trial, not play politics. □ They're not making reasonable decisions. They're playing politics.

play possum to pretend to be inactive, unobservant, asleep, or dead. (Folksy. The possum is an opossum.) □ I knew that Bob wasn't asleep. He was just playing possum. □ I can't tell if this animal is dead or just playing possum.

play second fiddle (to someone) to be in a subordinate position to someone. □ I'm tired of playing second fiddle to John. □

I'm better trained than he, and I have more experience. I shouldn't play second fiddle.

play someone for something to treat someone like (a) something. (Slang. Compare this with take someone for someone or something.) □ Don't play me for a fool! I know what's going on. □ They played her for a jerk, but were they surprised!

play someone off against someone else to scheme in a manner that pits two of your adversaries against one another. □ Bill wanted to beat me up and so did Bob. I did some fast talking, and they ended up fighting with each other. I really played Bill off against Bob. □ The president played the House off against the Senate and ended up getting his own way.

play someone or something down to lessen the effect or importance of someone or something. □ John is a famous actor, but the director tried to play him down as just another member of the cast. □ They tried to play down her earlier arrest.

play someone or something up to make someone or something seem to be more important. □ The director tried to play Ann up, but she was not really a star. □ Try to play up the good qualities of our product.

play something by ear 1. to be able to play a piece of music after just listening to it a few times, without looking at the notes. □ I can play "Stardust" by ear. □ Some people can play Chopin's music by ear. 2. AND play by ear to play a musical instrument well, without formal training. □ John can play the piano by ear. □ If I could play by ear, I wouldn't have to take lessons—or practice! 3. to improvise; to decide what to do after one is already involved in a situation. (Compare this with wing it.) □ When we get into the meeting we'll have to play everything by ear. □ He never prepared his presentations. He always played things by ear.

play (the) devil's advocate to put forward arguments against or objections to a proposition—which one may actually agree with—purely to test the validity of the proposition. (The devil's advocate was given the role of opposing the canonization of a saint in the medieval Church in order to prove that the grounds for canonization were sound.) □ I agree with your plan. I'm just playing the devil's advocate so you'll know what the opposition will say. □ Mary offered to play devil's advocate and argue against our case so that we would find out any flaws in it.

play the field to date many different people rather than going steady. (Informal. See also go steady with someone.) □ When Tom told Ann good-bye, he said he wanted to play the field. □ He said he wanted to play the field while he was still young.

play the fool to act in a silly manner in order to amuse other people. □ The teacher told Tom to stop playing the fool and sit down. □ Fred likes playing the fool, but we didn't find him funny last night.

play the market to invest in the stock market, perhaps recklessly. (Informal. As if it were a game or gambling.) □ Would you rather put your money in the bank or play the market? □ I've learned my lesson playing the market. I lost a fortune.

play to the gallery to perform in a manner that will get the strong approval of the audience; to perform in a manner that will get the approval of the ruder members of the audience. □ John is a competent actor, but he has a tendency to play to the gallery. □ When he made the rude remark, he was just playing to the gallery.

play tricks (on someone) to trick or confuse someone. □ I thought I saw a camel over there. I guess my eyes are playing tricks on me. □ Please don't play tricks on your little brother. It makes him cry.

play up to someone to try to gain someone's favor. □ Bill is always playing up to the teacher. □ Ann played up to Bill as if she wanted him to marry her.

play with fire to take a big risk. (Also literal. Informal.) □ If you accuse her of stealing, you'll be playing with fire. □ I wouldn't try that if I were you—unless you like playing with fire.

played out worn out; spent; exhausted. □ This charcoal is just about played out. □ The batteries in this flashlight are almost played out.

pleased as punch Go to (as) pleased as punch.

plenty of something lots of something; an abundance of something; enough of something. □ I have plenty of candy. Do you want some? □ This project is giving me plenty of trouble.

The plot thickens. Things are becoming more complicated or interesting. □ The police assumed that the woman was murdered by her ex-husband, but he has an alibi. The plot thickens. □ John is supposed to be going out with Mary, but I saw him last night with Sally. The plot thickens.

plow into someone or something to crash into someone or something; to bump hard into someone or something. (Also literal if one is running a plow into someone or something.) □ The car plowed into the ditch. □ The runner plowed into another player.

plow through something to work through something with determination. (Also literal.) □ She plowed through the book to learn everything she could. □ Billy plowed through dinner and ran outside to play.

pluck up one's courage to increase one's courage a bit. □ Come on, Ann, make the dive. Pluck up your courage and do it. □ Pluck up your courage, Ann! You can do it!

plug away (at something) AND peg away (at something) to keep trying something; to keep working at something. □ John kept pegging away at the trumpet until he became pretty good at it. □ I'm not very good at it, but I keep plugging away.

plug something in to place a plug into a receptacle. (In can be replaced with into.) □ This television set won't work unless you plug it in! ☑ Please plug in this lamp.

plug something up to stop or fill up a hole, crack, or gap. □ Take out the nail and plug the hole up with something. ☑ You have to plug up the cracks to keep out the cold.

plumb loco completely crazy. (Folksy.) □ If you think you can stand up against Marshall Dillon, you're plumb loco. □ Bob is not just a little strange, he's plumb loco.

poetic justice the appropriate but chance receiving of rewards or punishments by those deserving them. □ It was poetic justice that Jane won the race after Mary tried to get her banned. □ The car thieves stole a car with no gas. That's poetic justice.

the point of no return the halfway point; the point at which it is too late to turn back. (Often with past.) □ The flight was past the point of no return, so we had to continue to our destination. □ The entire project is past the point of no return; we will have to continue with it.

point of view a way of thinking about something; [someone's] viewpoint; an attitude or expression of self-interest. □ From my point of view, all this talk is a waste of time. □ She has a strange point of view, but she has made some good observations about the problem.

point someone or something out to select or indicate someone or something (from a group). □ Everyone pointed the error out. □ She pointed the thief out to the police officer. □ She pointed out the boy who took her purse.

point something up to emphasize something; to demonstrate a fact. □ I'd like to point your approach up by citing some authorities who agree with you. □ This kind of incident points up the flaws in your system.

point the finger at someone to blame someone; to identify someone as the guilty person. (See also put the finger on someone.) □ Don't point the finger at me! I didn't take the money. □ The manager refused to point the finger at anyone in particular and said that everyone was sometimes guilty of being late.

poised for something ready for something; in the right position and waiting for something. □ The cat stared at the mouse, poised for action. □ The army was poised for battle.

poised to do something ready to do something; in the right position to do something. □ The cat is poised to jump on the mouse. □ The army is poised to attack at dawn.

poke about AND poke around to look or search around. □ I've been poking around in the library looking for some statistics. □ I don't mind if you look in my drawer for a paper clip, but please don't poke about.

poke around Go to poke about.

poke fun (at someone) to make fun of someone; to ridicule someone. □ Stop poking fun at me! It's not nice. □ Bob is always poking fun.

poke one's nose in(to something) AND stick one's nose in(to something) to interfere with something; to be nosy about something. (Also literal.) □ I wish you'd stop poking your nose into my business. □ She was too upset for me to stick my nose in and ask what was wrong.

poles apart very different; far from coming to an agreement. (Preceded by be, grow, or seem.) □ Mr. and Mrs. Jones don't get along well. They are poles apart. □ They'll never sign the contract because they are poles apart.

polish something off to finish something off. □ There is just a little bit of work left. It won't take any time to polish it off. □ Bob polished off the rest of the pie.

poop out to quit; to wear out and stop. (Slang.) □ I'm so tired I could poop out right here. □ My car sounded as if it were going to poop out.

pooped out [for a person or animal to be] exhausted. (Slang.) □ The horse was pooped out and could run no more. □ I can't go on. I'm pooped out.

poor as a church mouse Go to (as) poor as a church mouse.

poor but clean having little money but clean and of good habits, nonetheless. (Either extremely condescending or jocular. Some people would consider it offensive.) □ My salary isn't very high, and I only have two color TV sets. Anyway, I'm poor but clean. □ When Fred uttered the phrase poor but clean in reference to some of the people working in the yard, Ellen went into a rage.

pop off to make a wisecrack or smart-aleck remark. (Informal.) ☐ If you pop off one more time, you'll have to stay after school. ☐ Bob keeps popping off at the worst times.

pop one's cork 1. to suddenly become mentally disturbed; to go crazy. (Slang.) ☐ I was so upset that I nearly popped my cork. ☐ They put him away because he popped his cork. 2. to become very angry. (Slang.) ☐ My mother popped her cork when she heard about my grades. ☐ Calm down! Don't pop your cork.

pop the question to ask someone to marry one. (Informal.) ☐ I was surprised when he popped the question. ☐ I've been waiting for years for someone to pop the question.

pop up 1. [for a baseball batter] to hit a baseball that goes upward rather than outward. ☐ The catcher came to bat and popped up. ☐ I hope I don't pop up this time. 2. [for a baseball] to fly upward rather than outward. ☐ The ball popped up and went foul. ☐ The ball will always pop up if you hit it in a certain way. 3. to arise suddenly; to appear without warning. ☐ New problems keep popping up all the time. ☐ Billy popped up out of nowhere and scared his mother.

a portent of things to come Go to a harbinger of things to come.

pose a question to ask a question; to imply the need for asking a question. ☐ Genetic research poses many ethical questions. ☐ My interviewer posed a hypothetical question.

pose as someone to pretend to be someone. ☐ The impostor posed as the president of the company. ☐ My twin posed as me while I went on vacation.

possessed by something under the control of something; obsessed with something. ☐ She acted as if she were possessed by evil spirits. ☐ He was possessed by a powerful sense of guilt.

possessed of something having something. (Formal.) ☐ Bill was possessed of an enor- mous sense of self-worth. ☐ The Smiths were possessed of a great deal of fine ranch land.

postage and handling charges for sending [something] through the mail and for wrapping and handling the item. (See also shipping and handling.) ☐ The cost of the book was quite reasonable, but the postage and handling was outrageous. ☐ They did not charge postage and handling because I prepaid the order.

the pot calling the kettle black [an instance of] someone with a fault accusing someone else of having the same fault. ☐ Ann is always late, but she was rude enough to tell everyone when I was late. Now that's the pot calling the kettle black! ☐ You're calling me thoughtless? That's really a case of the pot calling the kettle black.

pound a beat to walk a route. (Informal. Usually said of a police patrol officer.) ☐ Officer Smith pounded the same beat for years and years. ☐ I don't want to pound a beat all my life.

pound something out 1. to play something loudly on the piano. (Also literal. Slang. Compare this with belt something out.) ☐ Don't pound the music out! Just play it. ☐ Listen to her pound out that song. 2. to type something on a typewriter. (Slang.) ☐ Please pound it out again. There are six errors. ☐ It'll take just a few minutes to pound out this letter.

pound the pavement to walk through the streets looking for a job. (Informal.) ☐ I spent two months pounding the pavement after the factory I worked for closed. ☐ Hey, Bob. You'd better get busy pounding those nails unless you want to be out pounding the pavement.

pour cold water on something AND dash cold water on something; throw cold water on something to discourage doing something; to reduce enthusiasm for something. ☐ When my father said I couldn't have the car, he poured cold water on my plans. ☐ John threw cold water on the whole project by refusing to participate. ☐ I hate to dash cold water on your party, but you cannot use the house that night.

pour it on thick Go to lay it on thick.

pour money down the drain to waste money; to spend money as if one were throwing it away. (Informal.) □ What a waste! You're just pouring money down the drain. □ Don't buy any more of that low-quality merchandise. That's just throwing money down the drain.

pour oil on troubled water(s) to calm things down. (If oil is poured onto rough seas during a storm, the water will become more calm.) □ That was a good thing to say to John. It helped pour oil on troubled water. Now he looks happy. □ Bob is the kind of person who pours oil on troubled waters.

pour one's heart (out to someone) to tell all one's hopes, fears, and feelings to someone. □ She was so upset. She poured her heart out to Sally. □ She sat there talking for over an hour—pouring out her heart.

pouring rain very heavy rain. □ The children's clothes were soaked after they played out in the pouring rain. □ I waited in the pouring rain for the next bus.

the power behind the throne the person who controls the person who is apparently in charge. □ Mr. Smith appears to run the shop, but his brother is the power behind the throne. □ They say that the vice president is the power behind the throne.

the powers that be the people who are in authority. □ The powers that be have decided to send back the immigrants. □ I have applied for a license, and the powers that be are considering my application.

praise someone or something to the skies to give someone or something much praise. □ He wasn't very good, but his friends praised him to the skies. □ They liked your pie. Everyone praised it to the skies.

preach to the converted to praise or recommend something to someone who is already in favor of it. (Also literal.) □ Mary was preaching to the converted when she tried to persuade Jean to become a feminist. She's been one for years. □ Bob found himself preaching to the converted when he was telling Jane the advantages of living in the country. She hates city life.

precious few AND precious little very few; very little. (Informal. Few with things that are countable, otherwise, little.) □ We get precious few tourists here in the winter. □ There's precious little food in the house and there is no money.

precious little Go to precious few.

a prelude to something an act or event that comes before and signals another act or event. □ Her rudeness to her boss was a prelude to her resignation. □ The invasion of Poland was a prelude to World War II.

press one's luck Go to push one's luck.

press someone to the wall Go to push someone to the wall.

press the panic button Go to push the panic button.

pressed for time in a hurry. □ I am sorry. I can't talk to you. I'm just too pressed for time. □ If you are pressed for time, you might want to stop for some food somewhere on the highway.

pretty as a picture Go to (as) pretty as a picture.

Pretty is as pretty does. You should do pleasant things if you wish to be considered pleasant. (Proverb.) □ Now, Sally. Let's be nice. Pretty is as pretty does. □ My great-aunt always used to say "pretty is as pretty does" to my sister.

a pretty state of affairs AND a fine state of affairs an unpleasant state of affairs. (See also fine kettle of fish.) □ This is a pretty state of affairs, and it's all your fault. □ What a fine state of affairs you've got us into.

prevail (up)on someone to ask or beg someone (for a favor). □ Can I prevail upon you to give me some help? □ Perhaps you could prevail on my brother for a loan.

prick up one's ears to listen more closely. (Alluding to animals that move their ears about to hear better.) □ At the sound of my voice on the telephone, my sister pricked up her ears. □ I pricked up my ears when I heard my name mentioned.

pride and joy something or someone that one is very proud of. (Often in reference to a baby, a car, a house, etc.) □ And this is our little pride and joy, Roger. □ Fred pulled up in his pride and joy and asked if I wanted a ride.

Pride goes before a fall. Someone who behaves in an arrogant or vain way is likely to suffer misfortune. (Proverb. From the Bible.) □ Bert was so busy admiring his reflection in a shop window that he stepped in a puddle. Pride goes before a fall. □ Jean was boasting about how well she thought she'd done on her final exams, but she failed them all. You know what they say. Pride goes before a fall.

pride oneself in something Go to pride oneself on something.

pride oneself on something AND pride oneself in something to take special pride in something. □ Ann prides herself on her apple pies. □ John prides himself in his ability to make people feel at ease.

prime mover the force that sets something going; someone or something that starts something off. □ The manager was the prime mover in getting the clerk fired. □ Discontent with his job was the prime mover in John's deciding to go to Alaska.

privy to something uniquely knowledgeable about something. □ The reporter became privy to the senator's evil plan. □ Why are you privy to this secret information?

promise someone the moon Go to promise the moon (to someone).

promise the moon (to someone) AND promise someone the moon to make extravagant promises to someone. □ Bill will promise you the moon, but he won't live up to his promises. □ My boss promised the moon, but only paid the minimum wage.

prone to something likely to [do] something; apt to have something. □ My boss is prone to fits of anger when my work isn't done. □ My sister is prone to sneezing because of her allergies.

propose a toast to make a toast before drinking. □ I'd like to propose a toast in honor of your birthday. □ At the wedding reception, the bride's father proposed a toast.

proud as a peacock Go to (as) proud as a peacock.

prove to be someone or something to be shown to be someone or something; to be found to be someone or something. □ Susan proved to be a good friend when she lent me some money. □ The food proved to be spoiled when I smelled it.

provided that something is so on the condition that something is so. □ I will come, provided that I am invited. □ I will help you, provided that you pay me.

psyche out to go wild or crazy; to become irrational. (Slang. Pronounced as if it were spelled sike.) □ I don't know what happened to me. Suddenly I psyched out and started yelling. □ Max nearly psyched out when he saw the bill.

psyche someone out 1. to figure out someone psychologically. (Slang. Pronounced as if it were spelled sike.) □ Don't try to psyche me out. Just be my friend. □ I think I've psyched out my opponent so I can beat him. 2. to confuse someone; to cause someone to go crazy. (Slang. Pronounced as if it were spelled sike.) □ All that bright light psyched me out. I couldn't think straight. □ They psyched out the enemy soldiers, causing them to jump into the river.

psyche someone up to cause someone to be enthusiastic about doing something. (Slang. Pronounced as if it were spelled sike.) □ The coach psyched up the team before the game. □ I need someone to psyche me up before I go on stage.

psyched out confused and disoriented. (Slang. Pronounced as if it were spelled siked.) □ What an upsetting day! I'm really psyched out. □ She is so psyched out she can't see straight.

psyched up (for something) excited and enthusiastic. (Slang. Pronounced as if it were spelled siked.) □ I can play a great tennis game if I'm psyched up. □ She is really psyched up for the game.

publish or perish [for a professor] to publish many books or articles in scholarly journals or get released from a university or fall into disfavor in a university. (Also occurs as other parts of speech. See the examples below.) □ Alice knew she would have to publish or perish if she took the teaching job. □ This is a major research university and publish or perish is the order of the day. □ When Jane heard that publish or perish was the rule at her university, she was afraid that she would not get any professors who were interested in her intellectual advancement.

pull a boner to do something stupid or silly. (Slang.) □ Boy, I really pulled a boner! I'm so dumb. □ If you pull a boner like that again, you're fired!

pull a fast one to succeed in an act of deception. (Slang.) □ She was pulling a fast one when she said she had a headache and went home. □ Don't try to pull a fast one with me! I know what you're doing.

pull a gun (on someone) AND pull a knife (on someone) to bring out a gun or knife suddenly so that it is ready for use against someone. □ I screamed when the mugger pulled a knife on me. □ The police shot the thief when he pulled a gun.

pull a knife (on someone) Go to pull a gun (on someone).

pull a stunt (on someone) AND pull a trick (on someone) to deceive someone. □ Let's pull a trick on the teacher. □ Don't you dare pull a stunt like that!

pull a trick (on someone) Go to pull a stunt (on someone).

pull oneself together to become emotionally stabilized; to regain one's composure. □ Now, calm down. Pull yourself together. □ I'll be all right as soon as I can pull myself together.

pull oneself up (by one's own bootstraps) to achieve (something) through one's own efforts. □ They simply don't have the resources to pull themselves up by their own bootstraps. □ If I could have pulled myself up, I'd have done it by now.

pull one's (own) weight Go to carry one's (own) weight.

pull one's punches 1. [for a boxer] to strike with light blows to enable the other boxer to win. (Slang.) □ Bill has been barred from the boxing ring for pulling his punches. □ "I never pulled my punches in my life!" cried Tom. 2. to hold back in one's criticism. (Slang. Usually in the negative. The one's can be replaced with any.) □ I didn't pull any punches. I told her just what I thought of her. □ The teacher doesn't pull any punches when it comes to discipline.

pull out all the stops to use all one's energy and effort in order to achieve something. (From the stops of a pipe organ. The more that are pulled out, the louder it gets.) □ You'll have to pull out all the stops if you're going to pass the course. □ The doctors will pull out all the stops to save the child's life.

pull rank (on someone) to assert one's rank, authority, or position over someone when making a request or giving an order. □ Don't pull rank on me! I don't have to do what you say! □ When she couldn't get her way politely, she pulled rank and really got some action.

pull someone or something down 1. [with someone] to degrade someone; to humiliate someone. (Also literal.) □ I'm afraid that your friends are pulling you down. Your manners used to be much better. □ My bad habits are pulling me down. □ There is no need to pull down everyone. 2. [with something] to earn a certain amount of money. (Slang.) □ She's able to pull down $400 a week. □ I wish I could pull down a salary like that. □ How much is she pulling down? 3. [with something] to demolish something; to raze something. □ Why do they want to pull it down? Why not remodel it? □ They are going to pull down the old building today. 4. [with something] to lower or reduce the amount of something. □ That last test pulled my grade down. □ Let's see if we can pull down your temperature.

pull someone's leg to kid, fool, or trick someone. (Informal.) □ You don't mean that. You're just pulling my leg. □ Don't believe him. He's just pulling your leg.

pull someone's or something's teeth to reduce the power of someone or something. (Also literal in the case of someone. Informal.) □ The mayor tried to pull the teeth of the new law. □ The city council pulled the teeth of the new mayor.

pull someone through (something) to help someone survive something. (Also literal.) □ With the help of the doctor, we pulled her through her illness. □ With lots of encouragement, we pulled her through.

pull something off to manage to make something happen. (Also literal. Slang. See also carry something off.) □ Yes, I can pull it off. □ Do you think you can pull off this deal?

pull something on someone to play a trick on someone; to deceive someone with a trick. □ You wouldn't pull a trick on me, would you? □ Who would pull something like that on an old lady?

pull something out of a hat AND pull something out of thin air to produce something as if by magic. (Also literal.) □ This is a serious problem, and we just can't pull a solution out of a hat. □ I'm sorry, but I don't have a pen. What do you want me to do, pull one out of thin air?

pull something out of thin air Go to pull something out of a hat.

pull something together to organize something; to arrange something. (Compare this with scrape something together.) □ How about a party? I'll see if I can pull something together for Friday night. □ This place is a mess. Please pull things together.

pull strings to use influence (with someone to get something done). □ I can get it done easily by pulling strings. □ Is it possible to get anything done around here without pulling strings?

pull the plug (on someone or something) 1. to cause someone or something to end; to reduce the power or effectiveness of someone or something. (Informal.) □ Jane pulled the plug on the whole project. □ The mayor was doing a fine job until the treasurer pulled the plug because there was no more money. 2. [with someone] to turn off someone's life support system in a hospital. (This results in the death of person whose life support has been terminated.) □ They had to get a court order to pull the plug on their father. □ Fred signed a living will making it possible to pull the plug on him without a court order.

pull the rug out (from under someone) to make someone ineffective. (Also literal.) □ The treasurer pulled the rug out from under the mayor. □ Things were going along fine until the treasurer pulled the rug out.

pull the wool over someone's eyes to deceive someone. □ You can't pull the wool over my eyes. I know what's going on. □ Don't try to pull the wool over her eyes. She's too smart.

pull through to get better; to recover from a serious illness or other problem. □ She's very ill, but I think she'll pull through. □ Oh, I hope she pulls through.

pull up (somewhere) Go to haul up (somewhere).

pull up stakes to move to another place. (Refers to pulling up tent stakes and moving to another campsite.) □ I've been here long enough. It's time to pull up stakes. □ I hate the thought of having to pull up stakes.

punch a hole in something to make a hole in something with something. □ John punched a hole in the wall with his fist. □ Mary punched a hole in the paper with her pencil.

pure and simple AND plain and simple absolutely; without further complication or elaboration. (Informal.) □ I told you what you must do, and you must do it, pure and simple. □ Will you kindly explain to me what it is, pure and simple, that I am expected to do? □ Just tell me plain and simple, do you intend to go or don't you? □ I explained it to her plain and simple, but she still didn't understand.

pure as the driven snow Go to (as) pure as the driven snow.

push off to go away. (Informal.) □ We told the children to push off. □ Push off! We don't want you here.

push one's luck AND press one's luck to expect continued good fortune; to expect to continue to escape bad luck. □ You're okay so far, but don't push your luck. □ Bob pressed his luck too much and got into a lot of trouble.

push someone to the wall AND press someone to the wall to force someone into a position where there is only one choice to make; to put someone in a defensive position. (Also literal.) □ There was little else I could do. They pushed me to the wall. □ When we pressed him to the wall, he told us where the cookies were hidden.

push the panic button AND press the panic button to panic; to become anxious or panicky. (Also literal. Slang.) □ I do okay taking tests as long as I don't push the panic button. □ Whatever you do, don't press the panic button.

pushing up daisies dead and buried. (Folksy.) □ If you don't drive safely, you'll be pushing up daisies. □ We'll all be pushing up daisies in the long run.

put a bee in someone's bonnet to give someone an idea (about something). (See also get a bee in one's bonnet.) □ Somebody put a bee in my bonnet that we should go to a movie. □ Who put a bee in your bonnet?

put a cap on something to put a limit on something (Also literal.) □ We need to put a cap on spending on every department. □ The city put a cap on the amount each landlord could charge.

put a hold on something place a restriction on something to show that it is reserved, delayed, or inactivated. □ The bank put a hold on my credit card until I paid my bill. □ The committee agreed to put a hold on the troublesome piece of business.

put all one's eggs in one basket to risk everything at once. (Also literal. Often negative.) □ Don't put all your eggs in one basket. Then everything won't be lost if there is a catastrophe. □ John only applied to the one college he wanted to go to. He put all his eggs in one basket.

put an end to something Go to put a stop to something.

put a spin on something to interpret an event to make it seem favorable or beneficial to oneself. □ The mayor tried to put a positive spin on the damaging polls. □ The pundit's spin on the new legislation was highly critical.

put a stop to something AND put an end to something to bring something to an end. □ I want you to put a stop to all this bad behavior. □ Please put an end to this conversation.

put ideas into someone's head to suggest something—usually something bad—to someone (who would not have thought of it otherwise). □ Bill keeps getting into trouble. Please don't put ideas into his head. □ Bob would get along all right if other kids didn't put ideas into his head.

put in a good word (for someone) to say something (to someone) in support of someone. □ I hope you get the job. I'll put in a good word for you. □ Yes, I want the job. If you see the boss, please put in a good word.

put in an appearance to appear (somewhere) for just a little while. (Compare this with make an appearance.) □ I couldn't stay for the whole party, so I just put in an appearance and left. □ Even if you can't stay for the whole thing, at least put in an appearance.

put off by someone or something distressed or repelled by someone or something. □ I was really put off by your behavior. □ We were all put off by the unfairness of the rules.

put on to pretend; to act as if something were true. □ Ann wasn't really angry. She was just putting on. □ I can't believe she was just putting on. She really looked mad.

put on a brave face to try to appear happy or satisfied when faced with misfortune or danger. □ We've lost all our money, but we must put on a brave face for the sake of the children. □ Jim has lost his job and is worried, but he's putting on a brave face.

put on a (brave) front Go to put up a (brave) front.

put on airs to act superior. □ Stop putting on airs. You're just human like the rest of us. □ Ann is always putting on airs. You'd think she was a queen.

put on an act to pretend that one is something other than what one is. (See also put on.) □ Be yourself, Ann. Stop putting on an act. □ You don't have to put on an act. We accept you the way you are.

put one in one's place to rebuke someone; to remind one of one's (lower) rank or station. □ The boss put me in my place for criticizing her. □ Then her boss put her in her place for being rude.

put one's back (in)to something 1. to apply great physical effort to lift or move something. □ All right, you guys. Put your backs into moving this piano. □ You can lift it if you put your back to it. 2. to apply a lot of mental or creative effort to doing something. □ If we put our backs to it, we can bake twelve dozen cookies today. □ The artist put his back into finishing the picture on time.

put one's best foot forward to act or appear at one's best; to try to make a good impression. □ When you apply for a job, you should always put your best foot forward. □ I try to put my best foot forward whenever I meet someone for the first time.

put one's cards on the table AND lay one's cards on the table to reveal everything; to be open and honest with someone. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Come on, John, lay your cards on the table. Tell me what you really think. □ Why don't we both put our cards on the table?

put (one's) dibs on something to lay a claim to something; to state one's claim to something. (Informal. See also have dibs on something.) □ I put dibs on the last piece of cake. □ Mary put her dibs on the book you are reading. She gets it next.

put oneself in someone else's place AND put oneself in someone else's shoes to allow oneself to see or experience something from someone else's point of view. (See also in someone else's place; in someone else's shoes.) □ Put yourself in someone else's place, and see how it feels. □ I put myself in Tom's shoes and realized that I would have made exactly the same choice.

put oneself in someone else's shoes Go to put oneself in someone else's place.

put one's finger on something to identify something as very important. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Ann put her finger on the cause of the problem. □ Yes, she really put her finger on it.

put one's foot down (about something) to become adamant about something. (Informal.) □ Ann put her foot down about what kind of car she wanted. □ She doesn't put her foot down very often, but when she does, she really means it.

put one's foot in it Go to put one's foot in one's mouth.

put one's foot in one's mouth AND put one's foot in it; stick one's foot in one's mouth to say something that you regret; to say something stupid, insulting, or hurtful. □ When I told Ann that her hair was more beautiful than I had ever seen it, I really put my foot in my mouth. It was a wig. □ I put my foot in it by telling John's secret.

put one's hand(s) on something to locate and acquire something. (Compare this with get one's hands on someone or something.) □ I wish I could put my hands on a 1954 Chevrolet. □ If I could put my hands on that book, I could find the information I need.

put one's hand to the plow to begin to do a big and important task; to undertake a major effort. (Also literal.) □ If John would only put his hand to the plow, he could do an excellent job. □ You'll never accomplish anything if you don't put your hand to the plow.

put one's head on the block (for someone or something) to take great risks for someone or something; to go to a lot of trouble or difficulty for someone or something; to attempt to gain favor for someone or something. (Also literal.) □ I don't know why I should put my head on the block for Joan. What has she ever done for me? □ Sally tried to get me to put in a good word about her with the boss. You know, tell the boss what a great worker she is and how smart she is. The last time I put my head on the block for anyone, it all backfired, and when the person goofed up, I looked like an idiot!

put one's house in order to put one's business or personal affairs into good order. (Also literal.) □ There was some trouble at work and the manager was told to put his house in order. □ Every now and then, I have to put my house in order. Then life becomes more manageable.

put one's mind to something to give one's complete attention to something. □ I could finish this job tonight if I put my mind to it. □ Please put your mind to it and concentrate on getting it finished.

put one's nose to the grindstone to keep busy doing one's work. (Also with have and get, as in the examples. See also keep one's nose to the grindstone.) □ The boss told me to put my nose to the grindstone. □ I've had my nose to the grindstone ever since I started working here. □ If the other people in this office would get their noses to the grindstone, more work would get done.

put one's oar in to give help; to interfere by giving advice; to put one's two cents' worth in. (Refers to adding one's efforts to rowing a boat.) □ You don't need to put your oar in. I don't need your advice. ☞ I'm sorry. I shouldn't have put in my oar.

put one's shoulder to the wheel to get busy. □ You won't accomplish anything unless you put your shoulder to the wheel. □ I put my shoulder to the wheel and finished the job quickly.

put one's thinking cap on to start thinking in a serious manner. (Usually used with children.) □ It's time to put our thinking caps on, children. ☞ All right now, let's put on our thinking caps and do some arithmetic.

put one's two cents(' worth) in to add one's comments (to something). (Informal.) ☞ Can I put in my two cents' worth? □ Sure, go ahead—put your two cents in.

put one through one's paces to make one demonstrate what one can do; to make one do one's job thoroughly. (See also put something through its paces.) □ The boss really put me through my paces today. I'm tired. □ I tried out for a part in the play, and the director really put me through my paces.

put on the dog to dress or entertain in an extravagant or showy manner. (Informal.) □ The Smiths really put on the dog at their party last Saturday. □ They're always putting on the dog.

put on the feed bag to eat a meal. (Literal with horses. Folksy and slang.) □ It's noon—time to put on the feed bag. □ I didn't put on the feed bag until about eight o'clock last night.

put out (about someone or something) irritated; bothered. □ John behaved rudely at the party, and the hostess was quite put out. □ Liz was quite put out about the question.

put out (some) feelers to attempt to find out something without being too obvious. (Refers to what an insect does to sense what is happening around it.) □ I wanted to get a new job, so I put out some feelers. □ The manager was mean to everyone in the office, so everyone put out feelers in an attempt to find new jobs.

put someone away 1. to kill someone. (Also literal. Slang.) □ The gangster threatened to put me away if I told the police. ☞ They've put away witnesses in the past. 2. to bury someone. □ My uncle died last week. They put him away on Saturday. 3. to have someone put into a mental institution. □ My uncle became irrational, and they put him away. ☞ They put away my aunt the year before.

put someone down as something bad to judge that someone is bad or undesirable in some way. (See also put someone or something down.) □ He was so rude that I put him down as someone to be avoided. □ If you act silly all the time, people will put you down as a fool.

put someone down (for something) to put someone's name on a list of people who volunteer to do something or give an amount of money. □ Can I put you down for ten dollars? □ We're having a picnic, and you're invited. Everyone is bringing something. Can I put you down for potato salad?

put someone in the picture to give someone all the necessary facts about something. (Literal for a painter or digital graphics artist.) □ They put the police in the picture about how the accident happened. □ Would someone put me in the picture about what went on in my absence?

put someone off 1. to avoid responding to someone; to delay a response to someone. □ I keep asking her, but she just keeps putting me off. □ Don't put me off again. Answer me now! 2. to repel someone; to make someone feel uneasy. □ Your bad attitude puts people off.

put someone on to tease or deceive someone. (Slang.) □ Oh, you're not serious. You're putting me on. □ Stop putting me on!

put someone on a pedestal to respect, admire, or worship a person. □ He has put her on a pedestal and thinks she can do no wrong. □ Don't put me on a pedestal. I'm only human.

put someone on the spot to ask someone embarrassing questions; to demand that someone produce as expected. □ Don't put me on the spot. I can't give you an answer. □ The boss put Bob on the spot and demanded that he do everything he had promised.

put someone or something across AND get someone or something across 1. [with someone] to present someone in a good way or a good light. □ I don't want Tom to make the speech. He doesn't put himself across well. □ I get myself across in situations like this. I'll do it. 2. to make a clear explanation of something; to explain oneself clearly. □ The teacher got the idea across with the help of pictures. □ I'm taking a course in public speaking to help put my- self across better. 3. [with something] to convince someone of something; to get a plan accepted. □ After many weeks of trying, we were unable to put our plan across. They refused to accept it. □ We just couldn't get it across.

put someone or something at someone's disposal to make someone or something available to someone; to offer someone or something to someone. □ I'd be glad to help you if you need me. I put myself at your disposal. □ I put my car at my neighbor's disposal.

put someone or something down 1. to belittle or degrade someone or something. (Slang.) □ It's an old car, but that's no reason to put it down. □ Please stop putting me down all the time. It hurts my feelings. □ You put down everything you don't understand! 2. [with something] to repress or (figuratively) crush something. □ The army was called to put down the rebellion. □ The police used tear gas to put the riot down. 3. [with something] to write something down. □ I'll give you the address. Please put it down. □ I'll put down the address in my address book. 4. [with something] to land an aircraft. □ The pilot put the plane down exactly on time. □ I can't put down this plane in the rain. 5. [with something] to take the life of an animal, such as a pet that is suffering. (This is usually done by a veterinarian.) □ We had to put our dog down. She was suffering so. □ It's very difficult to put down one's pet.

put someone or something off 1. [with someone] to divert or avoid someone. □ I don't wish to see Mr. Brown now. Please put him off. □ I won't talk to reporters. Tell them something that will put them off. □ Put off those annoying people. 2. [with someone] to upset or distress someone. □ She always puts me off. She's so rude. □ I try not to put off people. 3. [with something] to delay something; to postpone something. □ I had to put off my appointment with the doctor. □ It's raining, so we'll have to put the picnic off.

put someone or something on hold 1. [with someone] to stop all activity or communication with someone. (See also on hold.) □ John put Ann on hold and started dating Mary. □ “You can’t just put me on hold!” cried Ann. 2. [with someone] to leave someone waiting on a telephone call. (See also on hold.) □ Please don’t put me on hold. I’ll call back later when you aren’t so busy. □ I’ll have to put you on hold while I look up the information. 3. [with something] to postpone something; to stop the progress of something. (See also on hold.) □ They put the project on hold until they got enough money to finish it. □ Sorry, but we must put your plan on hold.

put someone or something out 1. [with something] to extinguish something. □ Put out the fire before you go to bed. □ My grandfather told me to put out the light and go to bed. 2. [with someone] to distress or inconvenience someone. □ I’d like to have a ride home, but not if it puts you out. □ Don’t worry. It won’t put out anybody. 3. [with something] to publish something. □ They are putting the book out next month. □ When did you put out the article? 4. [with someone] to make someone “out” in baseball. □ The pitcher put the runner out. □ I thought the catcher put out the runner.

put someone or something out of one’s mind to forget someone or something; to make an effort to stop thinking about someone or something. (Almost the same as get someone or something out of one’s mind.) □ Try to put it out of your mind. □ I can’t seem to put him out of my mind.

put someone or something out to pasture to retire someone or something. (Refers to a horse that is too old to work.) □ Please don’t put me out to pasture. I have lots of good years left. □ This car has reached the end of the line. It’s time to put it out to pasture.

put someone or something to bed 1. [with someone] to help someone—usually a child—get into a bed. □ Come on, Billy, it’s time for me to put you to bed. □ I want Grandpa to put me to bed. 2. [with something] to complete work on something and send it on to the next step in production, especially in publishing. □ This edition is finished. Let’s put it to bed. □ Finish the editing of this book and put it to bed.

put someone or something to sleep 1. to kill someone or something. (Euphemistic.) □ We had to put our dog to sleep. □ The robber said he’d put us to sleep forever if we didn’t cooperate. 2. to cause someone or something to sleep, perhaps through drugs or anesthesia. □ The doctor put the patient to sleep before the operation. □ I put the cat to sleep by stroking its tummy. 3. [with someone] to bore someone. □ That dull lecture put me to sleep. □ Her long story almost put me to sleep.

put someone or something to the test to see what someone or something can achieve. □ I think I can jump that far, but no one has ever put me to the test. □ I’m going to put my car to the test right now, and see how fast it will go.

put someone or something up 1. [with someone] to provide lodging for someone. □ I hope I can find someone to put me up. □ They were able to put up John for the night. 2. [with something] to preserve and store food by canning or freezing. □ This year we’ll put some strawberries up. □ We put up a lot of food every year. 3. [with something] to offer something, such as an idea. □ We need a better idea. Who’ll put one up? □ Let me put up a different idea. 4. [with someone] to run someone as a candidate. □ I think you should put someone else up. □ We’re putting up Ann for treasurer. 5. [with something] to build a building, a sign, a fence, a wall, etc. □ We’ll put a garage up next month. □ The city put up a fence next to our house. 6. [with something] to provide the money for something. □ The government put the money up for the cost of construction. □ Who will put up the money for my education? 7. [with something] to shape and arrange one’s hair (with curlers, hairpins, etc.). □ I can’t go out because I just put my hair up. □ I put up my hair every night. 8. [with something] to make a struggle, a fight, etc. (Usually put up something, and not put something up.) □ Did he put up a fight?

 □ No, he only put up a bit of a struggle.

put someone's eye out to puncture or harm someone's eye causing blindness. □ Careful with that stick or you'll put your eye out. □ He fell and almost put his eye out!

put someone's nose out of joint to offend someone; to cause someone to feel slighted or insulted. (Informal.) □ I'm afraid I put his nose out of joint by not inviting him to the picnic. □ There is no reason to put your nose out of joint. I meant no harm.

put someone through the wringer to give someone a difficult time. (Informal.) □ They are really putting me through the wringer at school. □ The boss put Bob through the wringer over this contract.

put someone to bed with a shovel to kill someone; to kill and bury someone. (Slang.) □ That guy'd better be careful, or somebody's going to put him to bed with a shovel. □ "Watch out, wise guy," said the robber, "or I'll put you to bed with a shovel."

put someone to shame to show someone up; to embarrass someone; to make someone ashamed. □ Your excellent efforts put us all to shame. □ I put him to shame by telling everyone about his bad behavior.

put someone up to something to cause someone to do something; to bribe someone to do something; to give someone the idea of doing something. □ Who put you up to it? □ Nobody put me up to it. I thought it up myself.

put someone wise to someone or something to inform someone about someone or something. (Informal.) □ I put her wise to the way we do things around here. □ I didn't know she was taking money. Mary put me wise to her.

put some teeth into something to increase the power of something. □ The mayor tried to put some teeth into the new law. □ The statement is too weak. Put some teeth in to it.

put something by AND lay something by to reserve a portion of something; to preserve and store something, such as food. (Folksy.) □ I put some money by for a rainy day. □ I laid some eggs by for our use tomorrow.

put something down in black and white to write down the terms of an agreement; to draw up a written contract; to put the details of something down on paper. (Refers to black ink and white paper.) □ We agree on all the major points. Now, let's put it down in black and white. □ I think I understand what you are talking about, but we need to put it down in black and white.

put something down to something AND set something down to something to explain something as being caused by something else. □ I put his bad humor down to his illness. □ We set your failure down to your emotional upset.

put something forward to state an idea; to advance an idea. (Also literal.) □ Toward the end of the meeting, Sally put an idea forward. □ Now, I'd like to put something forward. □ He put several suggestions forward.

put something in 1. to submit something. (Also literal.) □ In fact, I put the order in some time ago. □ I put in a request for a new typewriter. 2. to spend an amount of time (doing something). □ You put how much time in? □ I put in four months on that project.

put something in mothballs to put something in storage. (Also literal in reference to clothing. Often said of battleships.) □ The navy put the old cruiser in mothballs and no one ever expected to see it again. □ Let's just put this small bicycle in mothballs until we hear of a child who can use it.

put something into practice to start using a scheme or plan. □ I hope we can put your idea into practice soon. □ The mayor hopes to put the new plan into practice after the next election.

put something into print to have something printed and published. □ It's true, but I never believed you'd put it into print. □ This is a very interesting story. I can't wait to put it into print.

put something into words to state or utter a thought; to find a way to express a feeling with words. □ I can hardly put my gratitude into words. □ John has a hard time putting his feelings into words.

put something off to postpone something; to schedule something for a later time. □ I have to put off our meeting until a later time. □ I put off a visit to the dentist as long as I could.

put something on to place clothing onto one's body; to get into a piece of clothing. □ I put on a heavy coat to go outside in the cold. □ Please put this on and see if it fits.

put something on ice AND put something on the back burner to delay or postpone something; to put something on hold. (Also literal.) □ I'm afraid that we'll have to put your project on ice for a while. □ Just put your idea on ice and keep it there till we get some money.

put something on paper to write something down; to type or otherwise record something important. □ You have a great idea for a novel. Now put it on paper. □ I'm sorry, I can't discuss your offer until I see something in writing. Put it on paper, and then we'll talk.

put something on the back burner Go to put something on ice.

put something on the cuff to buy something on credit; to add to one's credit balance. □ I'll take two of those, and please put them on the cuff. □ I'm sorry, Tom. We can't put anything more on the cuff.

put something on the line AND lay something on the line to speak very firmly and directly about something. □ She was very mad. She put it on the line, and we had no doubt about what she meant. □ All right, you kids. I'm going to lay it on the line. Don't ever do that again if you know what's good for you.

put something over to accomplish something; to put something across. □ This is a very hard thing to explain to a large audience. I hope I can put it over. □ This is a big request for money. I go before the board of directors this afternoon, and I hope I can put it over.

put something over (on someone) to manage to trick or deceive someone. □ They really put one over on me. □ It's easy to put something over if you plan carefully.

put something plainly to state something firmly and explicitly. □ To put it plainly, I want you out of this house immediately. □ Thank you. I think you've put your feelings quite plainly.

put something right Go to set something right.

put something straight AND set something straight to clarify something; to straighten something out. □ He has made such a mess of this report. It'll take hours to put it straight. □ I'm sorry I confused you. Let me set it straight.

put something through its paces to demonstrate how well something operates; to demonstrate all the things something can do. (Compare this with put one through one's paces.) □ I was down by the barn, watching Sally put her horse through its paces. □ This is an excellent can opener. Watch me put it through its paces.

put something together to consider some facts and arrive at a conclusion. (Also literal.) □ I couldn't put everything together to figure out the answer in time. □ When I put together all the facts, I found the answer.

put something to (good) use to use something. □ This is a very nice present. I'm sure I'll put it to good use. □ I hope you can put these old clothes to use.

put something to rest AND lay something to rest to put an end to a rumor; to finish dealing with something and forget about it. (Also literal.) □ I've heard enough about Ann and her illness. I'd like to put the whole matter to rest. □ I'll be happy to lay it to rest, but will Jane?

Put that in your pipe and smoke it! See how you like that!; It is final, and you have to live with it! □ Well, I'm not going to do it, so put that in your pipe and smoke it! □ I'm sick of you, and I'm leaving. Put that in your pipe and smoke it!

put the arm on someone to apply pressure to someone. (Slang.) □ John's been putting the arm on Mary to get her to go out with him. □ John has been putting the arm on Bill to get him to cooperate.

put the bite on someone AND put the touch on someone to try to get money from someone. (Slang.) □ Tom put the bite on me for ten dollars. □ Bill put the touch on me, but I told him to drop dead.

put the blame on someone or something AND lay the blame on someone or something; place the blame on someone or something to blame someone or something. □ Don't put the blame on me. I didn't do it. □ We'll have to place the blame for the damage on the storm.

put the cart before the horse to have things in the wrong order; to have things confused and mixed up. (Also with have.) □ You're eating your dessert! You've put the cart before the horse. □ Slow down and get organized. Don't put the cart before the horse! □ John has the cart before the horse in most of his projects.

put the clamps on (someone) to restrain or restrict someone. (Slang.) □ Tom's parents put the clamps on him. They decided he was getting out of hand. □ They got mad and put on the clamps.

put the finger on someone AND lay the finger on someone to accuse someone; to identify someone as the one who did something. (Slang. See also point the finger at someone.) □ Tom put the finger on John, and John is really mad. □ He'd better not lay the finger on me. I didn't do it.

put the heat on (someone) AND put the screws on (someone); put the squeeze on (someone) to put pressure on someone (to do something); to coerce someone. (Slang.) □ John wouldn't talk, so the police were putting the heat on him to confess. □ When they put the screws on, they can be very unpleasant. □ The police know how to put the squeeze on.

put the kibosh on something to put an end to something; to veto something. (Slang.) □ The mayor put the kibosh on the project. □ It's a great idea, and I'm sorry that I had to put the kibosh on it.

put the screws on (someone) Go to put the heat on (someone).

put the skids on (something) to cause something to fail. (Slang.) □ They put the skids on the project when they refused to give us any more money. □ That's the end of our great idea! Somebody put the skids on.

put the squeeze on (someone) Go to put the heat on (someone).

put the touch on someone Go to put the bite on someone.

put to it in trouble or difficulty; hard up (for something such as money). (Slang.) □ I'm in big trouble. I'm really put to it. □ John was put to it to get there on time.

put two and two together to figure something out from the information available. (Also literal.) □ Well, I put two and two together and came up with an idea of who did it. □ Don't worry. John won't figure it out. He can't put two and two together.

put up a (brave) front AND put on a (brave) front to appear to be brave (even if one is not). □ Mary is frightened, but she's putting up a brave front. □ If she weren't putting on a front, I'd be more frightened than I am.

put upon by someone to be made use of to an unreasonable degree. (Typically passive.) □ My mother was always put upon by her neighbors. She was too nice to refuse their requests for help. □ Jane feels put upon by her husband's parents. □ They're always coming to stay with her.

Put up or shut up! 1.  (Slang.) □ I'm tired of your telling everyone how fast you can run. Now, do it! Put up or shut up! □ Now's your chance to show us that you can run as fast as you can talk. Put up or shut up! 2.  (See also Put your money where your mouth is!) □ If you think that your horse is faster than mine, then make a bet. Put up or shut up! □ You think you can beat me at cards? Twenty bucks says you're wrong. Put up or shut up!

put up with someone or something to endure someone or something. □ I can't put up with you anymore. I'm leaving. □ She couldn't put up with the smell, so she opened the window.

put weight on to gain weight; to grow fat. □ I have to go on a diet because I've been putting on a little weight lately. ☐ The doctor says I need to put on some weight.

put words into someone's mouth to speak for another person without permission. □ Stop putting words into my mouth. I can speak for myself. □ The lawyer was scolded for putting words into the witness's mouth.

Put your money where your mouth is!
 □ I'm tired of your bragging about your skill at betting. Put your money where your mouth is! □ You talk about betting, but you don't bet. Put your money where your mouth is!

putty in someone's hands easily influenced by someone else; excessively willing to do what someone else wishes. □ Bob's wife is putty in his hands. She never thinks for herself. □ Jane's putty in her mother's hands. She always does exactly what she is told.

puzzle something out to figure something out; to try to figure something out. □ I looked and looked at it, but I couldn't puzzle it out. ☐ See if you can puzzle out this confusing mess.

Q

quake in one's boots Go to shake in one's boots.

queer as a three-dollar bill Go to (as) queer as a three-dollar bill.

quick and dirty [done] fast and carelessly; [done] fast and cheaply. ☐ I am not interested in a quick and dirty job. I want it done right. ☐ The contractor made a lot of money on quick and dirty projects that would never last very long.

quick as a flash Go to (as) quick as a wink.

quick as a wink Go to (as) quick as a wink.

quick as greased lightning Go to (as) quick as greased lightning.

quick on the draw Go to quick on the trigger.

quick on the trigger AND quick on the draw 1. quick to draw a gun and shoot. (Informal.) ☐ Some of the old cowboys were known to be quick on the trigger. ☐ Wyatt Earp was particularly quick on the draw. 2. quick to respond to anything. (Informal.) ☐ John gets the right answer before anyone else. He's really quick on the trigger. ☐ Sally will probably win the quiz game. She's really quick on the draw.

quick on the uptake quick to understand (something). ☐ Just because I'm not quick on the uptake, it doesn't mean I'm stupid.

☐ Mary understands jokes before anyone else because she's so quick on the uptake.

quiet as a mouse Go to (as) quiet as a mouse.

quiet as the grave Go to (as) quiet as the grave.

quite a bit AND quite a few; quite a little; quite a lot; quite a number much or many. ☐ Do you need one? I have quite a few. ☐ I have quite a little—enough to spare some. ☐ How many? Oh, quite a number.

quite a few Go to quite a bit.

quite a little Go to quite a bit.

quite a lot Go to quite a bit.

quite a number Go to quite a bit.

quite a something definitely [something]; a good example of [something]. ☐ The captain of the swim team is quite a swimmer. ☐ That's quite a bruise you have there.

quote a price to name or state in advance the charge for doing or supplying something. ☐ The mechanic quoted a price of $100 to repair my car. ☐ The carpenter quoted a price for fixing up the stairs.

R

race against time 1. a rush; rushing to beat a deadline. ☐ We were in a race against time to beat the deadline. ☐ It was a race against time, but we made it. 2. to hurry to beat a deadline. ☐ We had to race against time to finish before the deadline. ☐ You don't need to race against time. Take all the time you want.

rack one's brain(s) to try very hard to think of something. (Informal.) ☐ I racked my brains all afternoon, but couldn't remember where I put the book. ☐ Don't waste any more time racking your brain. Go borrow the book from the library.

racked with pain suffering from severe pain. ☐ My body was racked with pain, and I nearly passed out. ☐ I sat there racked with pain, waiting for the doctor.

rail at someone (about something) to complain loudly or violently to someone about something. ☐ Jane railed at the treasurer about not having received her check. ☐ I am not responsible for your problems. Don't rail at me!

rain cats and dogs to rain very hard. ☐ It's raining cats and dogs. Look at it pour! ☐ I'm not going out in that storm. It's raining cats and dogs.

rain on someone's parade to ruin someone's planned event; to spoil someone's plans or scheme. (Informal.) ☐ I hate to rain on your parade, but the guest of honor cannot come to the reception. ☐ The boss rained on our parade by making us all work overtime.

rain or shine no matter whether it rains or the sun shines. ☐ Don't worry. I'll be there rain or shine. ☐ We'll hold the picnic—rain or shine.

rain something out [for the weather] to spoil something by raining. ☐ Oh, the weather looks awful. I hope it doesn't rain the picnic out. ☐ It's starting to sprinkle now. Do you think it will rain out the ball game?

raise a hand (against someone or something) Go to lift a hand (against someone or something).

raise (an) objection (to someone or something) to mention an objection about someone or something. ☐ I hope your family won't raise an objection to my staying for dinner. ☐ I'm certain no one will raise objection. We are delighted to have you.

raise a stink (about something) Go to create a stink (about something).

raise Cain (with someone or something) Go to raise the devil (with someone or something).

raise havoc with someone or something AND play havoc with someone or something to create confusion or disruption for or among someone or something. ☐ Your announcement raised havoc with the students. ☐ I didn't mean to play havoc with them.

raise hell (with someone or something) Go to raise the devil (with someone or something).

raise hob with someone or something AND play hob with someone or something to do something devilish to someone or something; to cause trouble for someone or something. (A hob is a hobgoblin, a wicked little elf.) ☐ Your sudden arrival is going to play hob with my dinner plans. ☐ Sorry, I didn't mean to raise hob with you.

raise one's sights to set higher goals for oneself. ☐ When you're young, you tend to raise your sights too high. □ On the other hand, some people need to raise their sights.

raise one's voice (to someone) to speak loudly or shout at someone in anger. □ Don't you dare raise your voice to me! □ I'm sorry. I didn't mean to raise my voice.

raise some eyebrows to shock or surprise people mildly (by doing or saying something). (Some can be replaced with a few, someone's, a lot of, etc.) □ What you just said may raise some eyebrows, but it shouldn't make anyone really angry. □ John's sudden marriage to Ann raised a few eyebrows.

raise the devil (with someone or something) AND raise hell (with someone or something); raise cain (with someone or something); raise the dickens (with someone or something) to act in some extreme manner; to make trouble; to behave wildly; to be very angry. (Informal. Use caution with hell.) □ John was out all night raising the devil. □ Don't come around here and raise hell with everybody. □ That cheap gas I bought really raised the dickens with my car's engine.

raise the dickens (with someone or something) Go to raise the devil (with someone or something).

raised in a barn brought up to behave like a barnyard animal; behaving crudely. (Folksy.) □ Close the door behind you! Were you raised in a barn? □ Don't wipe your nose on your sleeve. Were you raised in a barn?

rake someone over the coals AND haul someone over the coals to give someone a severe scolding. □ My mother hauled me over the coals for coming in late last night. □ The manager raked me over the coals for being late again.

rake something off to steal or embezzle a portion of a payment. (Also literal. Slang.) □ They claimed that no one was raking anything off and that the money was only mislaid. □ The county treasurer was caught raking off some of the tax money.

rake something up AND dredge something up to uncover something unpleasant and remind people about it. (Also literal.) □ The young journalist raked up the old scandal about the president. □ The politician's opponents are trying to dredge up some unpleasant details about his past.

rally (a)round someone or something to come together to support someone or something. □ Everyone rallied around Jack when he lost his job. □ Former students rallied round their college when it was in danger of being closed.

ram someone or something down someone's throat Go to shove someone or something down someone's throat.

ramble on (about someone or something) to talk aimlessly about someone or something. □ John is so talkative. He's always rambling on about something. □ You're rambling on yourself.

rank and file 1. regular soldiers, not the officers. □ I think there is some trouble with the rank and file, sir. □ The rank and file usually do exactly as they are told. 2. the members of a group, not the leaders. □ The rank and file will vote on the proposed contract tomorrow. □ The last contract was turned down by the rank and file last year.

rant and rave (about someone or something) to shout angrily and wildly about someone or something. □ Bob rants and raves when anything displeases him. □ Bob rants and raves about anything that displeases him. □ Father rants and raves if we arrive home late.

rant (at someone) about someone or something to talk in a loud, violent way, about someone or something. □ Anne ranted about the bad service she had received at the store. □ On the bus, someone was ranting at me about the end of the world.

rap someone's knuckles to punish someone slightly. (Also literal.) □ She rapped his knuckles for whispering too much. □ Don't rap my knuckles. I didn't do it.

rap with someone to talk; to chat. (Slang.) □ I rapped with the school counselor for half an hour. □ My neighbor rapped with me on my back porch all night.

rarin' to go to be extremely eager to act or do something. (Informal.) □ Jane can't wait to start her job. She's rarin' to go. □ Mary is rarin' to go and can't wait for her university term to start.

rat on someone to report someone's bad behavior; to tattle on someone. (Slang.) □ John ratted on me, and I got in trouble. □ If he rats on me, I'll hit him!

rat race a fierce struggle for success, especially in one's career or business. □ Bob got tired of the rat race. He's retired and gone to the country. □ The money market is a rat race, and many people who work in it die of the stress.

rate with someone to be in someone's favor; to be thought of highly by someone. □ Ann is great. She really rates with me. □ She doesn't rate with me at all.

rattle something off AND reel something off to recite something quickly and accurately. □ She can really reel them off. □ Listen to Mary rattle off those numbers.

ravished with delight made very happy or delighted; overcome with happiness or delight. (Men are less likely to be ravished with delight.) □ Mary was ravished with delight by the dozen roses. □ My parents were ravished with delight when I graduated from college.

reach a compromise to achieve a compromise; to make a compromise. □ After many hours of discussion, we finally reached a compromise. □ We were unable to reach a compromise and quit trying.

reach an agreement to achieve an agreement; to make an agreement. □ We reached an agreement and signed a contract. □ We could not reach an agreement, so we stopped negotiating.

reach an impasse to progress to the point that a barrier stops further progress. □ When negotiations with management reached an impasse, the union went on strike. □ The discussion reached an impasse and no one was able to propose a compromise.

reach first base (with someone or something)

Go to get to first base (with someone or something).

reach for the sky 1. to aspire to something; to set one's goals high. □ It's a good idea to set high goals, but there is no point in reaching for the sky. □ Go ahead, you can do it! Reach for the sky! 2.  (Slang.) □ Reach for the sky! This is a stickup! □ The sheriff told the bank robbers to reach for the sky.

reach one's stride AND hit one's stride to do something at one's best level of ability. □ When I reach my stride, things will go faster, and I'll be more efficient. □ Now that I've hit my stride, I can work more efficiently.

read between the lines to infer something (from something). (Usually figurative. Does not necessarily refer to written or printed information.) □ After listening to what she said, if you read between the lines, you can begin to see what she really means. □ Don't believe everything you hear. Learn to read between the lines.

read one one's rights to make the required statement of legal rights to a person who has been arrested. □ All right, read this guy his rights and book him on a charge of theft. □ You have to read them their rights before putting them in jail.

read someone like a(n open) book to understand someone very well. □ I've got John figured out. I can read him like a book. □ Of course I understand you. I read you like an open book.

read someone out of something to expel someone from an organization, such as a political party. □ Because of her statement, they read her out of the party. □ The officers tried to read me out of the society, but they didn't succeed.

read someone's mind to guess what someone is thinking, as if one had special powers to sense someone else's thoughts. □ You'll have to tell me what you want. I can't read your mind, you know. □ If I could read your mind, I'd know what you expect of me.

read someone the riot act to give someone a severe scolding. □ The manager read me the riot act for coming in late. □ The teacher read the students the riot act for their failure to do their assignments.

read something into something to attach or attribute a new or different meaning to something. □ This statement means exactly what it says. Don't try to read anything else into it. □ Am I reading too much into your comments?

read something over to read something. □ When you have a chance, read this over. □ Also, read over this report.

read something through to read all of something. □ Take this home and read it through. □ Read through this report and see if you can find any errors.

read the handwriting on the wall to anticipate what is going to happen by observing small hints and clues. □ I know I am going to be fired. I can read the handwriting on the wall. □ Can't you read the handwriting on the wall? Can't you see what they are planning?

read up (on someone or something) to find and read some information about someone or something. □ Please go to the library and read up on George Washington. □ I don't know anything about that. I guess I need to read up.

ready to do something [of someone or some creature] prepared and willing. □ Are you ready to leave for the airport? □ If you need me, I'm ready to help.

ready, willing, and able eager or at least willing [to do something]. □ If you need someone to help you move furniture, I'm ready, willing, and able. □ Fred is ready, willing, and able to do anything you ask him.

the real thing something that is genuine and not an imitation. □ I don't want frozen yogurt, I want the real thing! Yes, ice cream! □ She hates plastic that looks like wood. She wants the real thing.

the reality of the situation the truth or actuality of the situation; the way the situation really is. □ The reality of the situation is that we must act right now. □ Let's face the reality of the situation and go out and get jobs so we can buy food.

rear its ugly head [for something unpleasant] to appear or become obvious after lying hidden. □ Jealousy reared its ugly head and destroyed their marriage. □ The question of money always rears its ugly head in matters of business.

receive someone with open arms AND welcome someone with open arms to greet someone eagerly. (Used literally or figuratively.) □ I'm sure they wanted us to stay for dinner. They received us with open arms. □ When I came home from school, the whole family welcomed me with open arms.

reckon with someone or something to deal with someone or something; to confront someone or something. □ Eventually you will have to reckon with getting a job. □ I really don't want to have to reckon with the manager when she's mad.

recognize one for what one is Go to recognize something for what it is.

recognize something for what it is AND recognize one for what one is to see and understand exactly what someone or something is or represents. □ The disease represented a serious threat to all peoples, and Dr. Smith recognized it for what it was. □ I recognize you for what you are, you scoundrel!

reconcile oneself to something to grow to feel comfortable with an undesirable or challenging situation. □ John reconciled himself to living alone. □ Anne reconciled herself to having to wear glasses.

red as a cherry Go to (as) red as a cherry.

red as a poppy Go to (as) red as a poppy.

red as a rose Go to (as) red as a rose.

red as a ruby Go to (as) red as a ruby.

red as blood Go to (as) red as blood.

red herring a piece of information or suggestion introduced to draw attention away from the real facts of a situation. (A red herring is a type of strong-smelling smoked fish that was once drawn across the trail of a scent to mislead hunting dogs and put them off the scent.) □ The detectives were following a red herring, but they're on the right track now. □ Jack and Mary were hoping their friends would confuse their parents with a red herring so that they wouldn't realize that they had eloped.

red in the face embarrassed. □ After we found Ann hiding in the closet, she became red in the face. □ The speaker kept making errors and became red in the face.

red tape over-strict attention to the wording and details of rules and regulations, especially by government workers. (From the color of the tape used by government departments in England to tie up bundles of documents.) □ Because of red tape, Frank took weeks to get a visa. □ Red tape prevented Jack's wife from joining him abroad.

reduced to something brought into a certain humble condition or state. □ The grieving family was reduced to tears. □ The poor man was reduced to begging for food.

reel something off Go to rattle something off.

refill a prescription sell a second or subsequent set of doses of a medicine upon a doctor's orders. □ The pharmacy refused to refill my prescription because it has expired. □ If you want the drugstore to refill your prescription, just give them the prescription number over the telephone.

regain one's composure to become calm and composed. □ I found it difficult to regain my composure after the argument. □ Here, sit down and relax so that you can regain your composure.

regain one's feet 1. to stand up again after falling or stumbling. □ I fell on the ice and almost couldn't regain my feet. □ I helped my uncle regain his feet as he tried to get up from the chair. 2. to become independent after financial difficulties. □ I lent Bill $400 to help him regain his feet. □ I'll be able to pay my bills when I regain my feet.

regardless of something without considering something; at any rate; whatever is done; whatever option is chosen. □ Regardless of what you say, I'm still going to the club tonight. □ I still have to pay the bill, regardless of the facts.

regular as clockwork Go to (as) regular as clockwork.

relative to someone or something 1. concerning someone or something. □ I have something to say relative to Bill. □ Do you have any information relative to the situation in South America? 2. in proportion to someone or something. □ My happiness is relative to yours. □ I can spend an amount of money relative to the amount of money I earn.

reliance on someone or something trust and dependence on someone or something. □ John's reliance on his family is holding him back. □ Reliance on sleeping pills is dangerous.

religious about doing something strict about something; conscientious about something. □ Bob is religious about paying his bills on time. □ Max tries to be religious about being polite to everyone.

reluctance to do something a feeling of not wanting to do something; unwillingness to do something. □ Mary showed great reluctance to go bowling with me. □ Because of John's reluctance to make friends, he was lonely.

reminiscent of someone or something reminding someone about someone or something; seeming like or suggesting someone or something. □ This fragrance is reminiscent of fresh flowers. □ Jane's dress is reminiscent of the style worn in the 1920s.

reputed to be something AND reputed to do something; reputed to have something thought to do, be, or have something. □ My boss is reputed to have cancer. □ My neighbor was reputed to have been a spy during the war.

reputed to do something Go to reputed to be something.

reputed to have something Go to reputed to be something.

resign oneself to something to accept something reluctantly. □ I finally resigned myself to going to Mexico even though I didn't want to. □ Mary resigned herself to her fate.

resonate with someone [for an idea, issue, or concept] to appeal to someone or cause someone to relate to it. □ The concept of buying CDs at a clothing store seems to resonate with young people. □ Your notion just doesn't resonate with the public in general.

the responsible party the person or organization responsible or liable for something. □ I intend to find the responsible party and get some answers to my questions. □ Mary sued the responsible party in the car crash.

rest assured to be assured; to be certain. □ Rest assured that you'll receive the best of care. □ Please rest assured that we will do everything possible to help.

rest in peace to lie dead peacefully for eternity. □ We prayed that the deceased would rest in peace. □ The bodies of the soldiers will rest in peace.

rest on one's laurels to enjoy one's success and not try to achieve more. □ Don't rest on your laurels. Try to continue to do great things! □ I think I'll rest on my laurels for a time before attempting anything new.

result in something to cause something to happen. □ The storm resulted in a lot of flooding. □ Her fall resulted in a broken leg.

return someone's compliment Go to return the compliment.

return the compliment AND return someone's compliment to pay a compliment to someone who has paid you a compliment. (See also pay someone a compliment.) □ Mary told me that my hair looked nice, so I returned her compliment and told her that her hair was lovely. □ When someone says something nice, it is polite to return the compliment.

return the favor to do a good deed for someone who has done a good deed for you. □ You helped me last week, so I'll return the favor and help you this week. □ There is no point in helping Bill. He'll never return the favor.

rev something up to make an idling engine run very fast, in short bursts of speed. □ Hey! Stop revving it up! □ I wish that Tom wouldn't sit out in front of our house in his car and rev up his engine.

rich in something having valuable resources, characteristics, traditions, or history. □ The entire region is rich in historical churches. □ Our soil is rich in important nutrients.

rich with something having a lot of something; not lacking; abundant. □ The beautiful book was rich with color illustrations. □ The old town was rich with elegant Victorian houses.

ride herd on someone or something to supervise someone or something. (Informal. Refers to a cowboy supervising cattle.) □ I'm tired of having to ride herd on my kids all the time. □ My job is to ride herd on this project and make sure everything is done right.

ride off in all directions to behave in a totally confused manner; to try to do everything at once. (Folksy. Can be said of one or more people.) □ Bill has a tendency to ride off in all directions. He's not organized enough. □ Now, calm down. There is no sense in riding off in all directions.

ride on someone's coattails AND hang on someone's coattails to make one's good fortune or success depend on another person. (Also with else, as in the examples below.) □ Bill isn't very creative, so he rides on John's coattails. □ Some people just have to hang on somebody else's coattails.

ride roughshod over someone or something to treat someone or something with disdain or scorn. □ Tom seems to ride roughshod over his friends. □ You shouldn't have come into our town to ride roughshod over our laws and our traditions.

ride something out to endure something unpleasant. (Originally referred to ships lasting out a storm.) □ It was a nasty situation, but the mayor tried to ride it out. ▢ The mayor decided to ride out the scandal.

ride the gravy train to live in luxury. (Informal.) □ If I had a million dollars, I sure could ride the gravy train. □ I wouldn't like loafing. I don't want to ride the gravy train.

riding for a fall risking failure or an accident, usually due to overconfidence. □ Tom drives too fast, and he seems too sure of himself. He's riding for a fall. □ Bill needs to eat better and get more sleep. He's riding for a fall.

right and left AND left and right to both sides; on all sides; everywhere. □ I dropped the tennis balls, and they rolled right and left. □ There were children everywhere—running right and left.

right as rain Go to (as) right as rain.

right at a specific time exactly or precisely at [a specific place or time]. □ Meet me at this corner right at noon. □ The restaurant is right at First and Main Streets.

right away immediately. □ Please do it right away! □ I'll be there right away. I'm leaving this instant.

right down someone's alley AND right up someone's alley ideally suited to one's interests or abilities. (Informal.) □ Skiing is right down my alley. I love it. □ This kind of thing is right up John's alley.

right off the bat immediately; first thing. (Informal.) □ When he was learning to ride a bicycle, he fell on his head right off the bat. □ The new manager demanded new office furniture right off the bat.

right on time at the correct time; no later than the specified time. □ Bill always shows up right on time. □ If you get there right on time, you'll get one of the free tickets.

right side up with the correct side upwards, as with a box or some other container. □ Keep this box right side up, or the contents will be crushed. □ Please set your coffee cup right side up so I can fill it.

(right) under someone's (very) nose 1. right in front of someone. □ I thought I'd lost my purse, but it was sitting on the table under my very nose. □ How did Mary fail to see the book? It was right under her nose. 2. in someone's presence. (Note the variation in the examples.) □ The thief stole Jim's wallet right under his nose. □ The jewels were stolen from under the very noses of the security guards.

right up someone's alley Go to right down someone's alley.

ring a bell [for something] to cause someone to remember something or for it to seem familiar. (Informal.) □ I've never met John Franklin, but his name rings a bell. □ Whenever I see a bee, it rings a bell. I remember when I was stung by one.

ring down the curtain (on something) AND bring down the curtain (on something) to bring something to an end; to declare something to be at an end. □ It's time to ring down the curtain on our relationship. We have nothing in common anymore. □ We've tried our best to make this company a success, but it's time to ring down the curtain. □ After many years the old man brought down the curtain and closed the restaurant.

ring in the New Year to celebrate the beginning of the new year at midnight on December 31. □ We are planning a big party to ring in the New Year. □ How did you ring in the New Year?

ring something up to record the cost of an item on a cash register. □ Please ring this chewing gum up first, and I'll put it in my purse. ▢ The cashier rang up each item and told me how much money I owed.

ring true to sound or seem true or likely. (From testing the quality of metal or glass by striking it and evaluating the sound made.) □ The student's excuse for being late doesn't ring true. □ Do you think that Mary's explanation for her absence rang true?

rip into someone or something to attack someone or something, physically or verbally.

(Informal.) □ The bear ripped into the deer. □ The angry teacher ripped into the student.

rip someone or something off 1. [with someone] to cheat or deceive someone; to steal from someone. (Slang.) □ That store operator ripped me off. □ They shouldn't rip off people like that. 2. [with something] to steal something. (Slang.) □ I bought it! I didn't rip it off! □ The crooks ripped off a car in broad daylight.

a ripe old age a very old age. □ Mr. Smith died last night, but he lived to a ripe old age—99. □ All the Smiths seem to reach a ripe old age.

a ripple of excitement a series of quiet but excited murmurs. □ A ripple of excitement spread through the crowd. □ As the president came near, a ripple of excitement indicated that people could really see him.

a ripple of protest a few quiet remarks protesting something; a small amount of subdued protest. □ There was only a ripple of protest about the new tax law. □ The rude comedian hardly drew a ripple of protest.

Rise and shine! Get out of bed and be lively and energetic! (Informal. Often a command.) □ Come on, children! Rise and shine! We're going to the beach. □ Father always calls "Rise and shine!" in the morning when we want to go on sleeping.

rise to the bait to be lured by some kind of bait. (Literal when referring to a fish.) □ I threatened to take another job elsewhere, but the boss did not rise to the bait. □ When I said I was leaving, Ted rose to the bait and asked why.

rise to the occasion to meet the challenge of an event; to try extra hard to do a task. □ John was able to rise to the occasion and make the conference a success. □ It was a big challenge, but he rose to the occasion.

risk of rain and risk of showers; risk of thunder(storms) a chance of precipitation or rain. (Used only in weather forecasting. There is no "risk" of hazard or injury involved.) □ And for tomorrow, there is a slight risk of showers in the morning. □ There is a 50 percent risk of rain tonight.

risk of showers Go to risk of rain.

risk of thunder(storms) Go to risk of rain.

risk one's neck (to do something) to risk physical harm in order to accomplish something. (Informal.) □ Look at that traffic! I refuse to risk my neck just to cross the street to buy a paper. □ I refuse to risk my neck at all.

rivet someone's attention to keep someone's attention fixed [on something]. □ The movie riveted the audience's attention. □ Professor Jones's lecture riveted the students' attention.

road-hog someone who drives carelessly and selfishly. □ Look at that road-hog driving in the middle of the road and stopping other drivers from passing him. □ That road-hog nearly knocked the children over. He was driving too fast.

rob Peter to pay Paul to take from one in order to give to another. □ Why borrow money to pay your bills? That's just robbing Peter to pay Paul. □ There's no point in robbing Peter to pay Paul. You will still be in debt.

rob the cradle to marry or date someone who is much younger than you are. (Informal.) □ I hear that Bill is dating Ann. Isn't that sort of robbing the cradle? She's much younger than he is. □ Uncle Bill—who is nearly eighty—married a thirty-year-old woman. That is really robbing the cradle.

rock the boat to cause trouble where none is welcome; to disturb a situation that is otherwise stable and satisfactory. (Also literal. Often negative.) □ Look, Tom, everything is going fine here. Don't rock the boat! □ You can depend on Tom to mess things up by rocking the boat.

roll in to come in large numbers or amounts. (Informal.) □ We didn't expect many people at the party, but they just kept rolling in. □ Money is simply rolling in for our charity appeal.

roll one's sleeves up to get ready to do some work. (Also literal.) □ Roll your sleeves up and get busy. This isn't a picnic. This is work! □ Come on, you guys, get busy. Roll up your sleeves and go to work.

roll out the red carpet for someone to provide special treatment for someone. (Literal when the special treatment actually includes a length of red carpeting.) □ There's no need to roll out the red carpet for me. □ We rolled out the red carpet for the king and queen.

roll (over) in one's grave Go to turn (over) in one's grave.

roll something back to reduce a price to a previous amount. (Also literal.) □ The government forced the company to roll its prices back. □ It wouldn't have rolled back its prices if the government hadn't forced it to.

rolling in something having large amounts of something, usually money. (Informal.) □ That family is rolling in money. □ Jack doesn't need to earn money. He's rolling in it.

A rolling stone gathers no moss. A person who keeps changing jobs or residences and, therefore, accumulates no possessions or responsibilities. (Proverb.) □ "John just can't seem to stay in one place," said Sally. "Oh, well, a rolling stone gathers no moss." □ Bill has no furniture to bother with because he keeps on the move. He keeps saying that a rolling stone gathers no moss.

Rome wasn't built in a day. Important things don't happen overnight. (Proverb.) □ Don't expect a lot to happen right away. Rome wasn't built in a day, you know. □ Don't be anxious about how fast you are growing. Rome wasn't built in a day.

room and board food to eat and a place to live; the cost of food and lodging. □ That college charges too much for room and board. □ How much is your room and board?

root for someone or something to cheer and encourage someone or something. (Informal.) □ Are you rooting for anyone in particular, or are you just shouting because you're excited? □ I'm rooting for the home team.

root something out to get rid of something completely; to destroy something. □ No government will ever root out crime completely. □ The headmaster wants to root troublemakers out at the local school.

rooted in something based on something; connected to a source or cause. □ The civil war was rooted in old ethnic hatred. □ This fictional book was rooted in actual events.

rooted to the spot unable to move because of fear or surprise. □ Joan stood rooted to the spot when she saw the ghostly figure. □ Mary was rooted to the spot as the mugger snatched her bag.

rope someone into doing something to persuade or trick someone into doing something. (Informal.) □ I don't know who roped me into this, but I don't want to do it. □ See if you can rope somebody into taking this to the post office.

rotten to the core completely no good and worthless. (Also literal in reference to apples or other edible things.) □ Fred is rotten to the core. He will never be a good member of society. □ I hope that just because I made one little mistake with my life that you don't think I am rotten to the core.

rough-and-ready strong, active, and ready for anything. □ John is not exactly rough-and-ready, but he is a moderately good athlete. □ Ralph is very rough-and-ready, but his table manners are very bad.

rough-and-tumble [of physical activity] rough; [of living creatures] overly active. □ The game got sort of rough-and-tumble, so I stopped playing. □ Jane runs with a rough-and-tumble crowd that's always involved in some sort of sport.

rough it to live in discomfort; to live in uncomfortable conditions without the usual amenities, such as on a camping trip. (Informal.) □ The students are roughing it in a shack with no running water. □ Bob and Jack had nowhere to live and so they had to rough it in a tent till they found somewhere.

rough someone up to beat or physically harass someone. (Slang.) □ The gangsters roughed their victim up. □ The police roughed up the suspect, and they got in trouble for it.

round out something Go to round something off.

round something off 1. to change a number to the next higher or lower whole number. □ You should round 8.122 off. □ I rounded off 8.789 to 9. 2. AND round out something to finish something by doing something special. □ She rounded her schooling off with a trip to Europe. □ I like to round out the day with a period of meditation.

round something off to something AND round something up to something; round something down to something to express a number in the nearest whole amount or nearest group of 1, 10, 100, 1,000, $\frac{1}{10}$, $\frac{1}{100}$, $\frac{1}{1,000}$, etc. □ When doing taxes, Anne rounded her figures off to the nearest dollar. □ These census figures are rounded up to the nearest million.

round something up to something Go to round something off to something.

round the clock Go to (a)round the clock.

round-trip ticket a ticket (for a plane, train, bus, etc.) that allows one to go to a destination and return. □ A round-trip ticket is usually cheaper than a one-way ticket. □ How much is a round-trip ticket to San Francisco?

the royal treatment very good treatment; very good and thoughtful care of a person. □ I was well cared for. They gave me the royal treatment. □ I had the royal treatment when I stayed at that expensive hotel.

rub elbows (with someone) AND rub shoulders with someone to associate with someone; to work closely with someone. □ I don't care to rub elbows with someone who acts like that! □ I rub shoulders with John at work. We are good friends.

rub off (on someone) [for a characteristic of one person] to seem to transfer to someone else. (Also literal.) □ I'll sit by Ann.

She has been lucky all evening. Maybe it'll rub off on me. □ Sorry. I don't think that luck rubs off.

rub salt in the wound deliberately to make someone's unhappiness, shame, or misfortune worse. (Also literal.) □ Don't rub salt in the wound by telling me how enjoyable the party was. □ Jim is feeling miserable about losing his job, and Fred is rubbing salt into the wound by saying how good his replacement is.

rub shoulders with someone Go to rub elbows (with someone).

rub someone out to kill someone. (Slang.) □ The crook said, "Bill is getting to be a problem. We're going to have to rub him out." □ The gangsters tried to rub out the witness.

rub someone's (fur) the wrong way to irritate someone. (From the rubbing of a cat's or dog's fur the wrong way.) □ I'm sorry I rubbed your fur the wrong way. I didn't mean to upset you. □ Don't rub her the wrong way!

rub someone's nose in it to remind one of something one has done wrong; to remind one of something bad or unfortunate that has happened. (From a method of housebreaking pets.) □ When Bob failed his exam, his brother rubbed his nose in it. □ Mary knows she shouldn't have broken off her engagement. Don't rub her nose in it.

rub something in to keep reminding one of one's failures; to nag someone about something. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I like to rub it in. You deserve it! □ Why do you have to rub in everything I do wrong?

ruffle its feathers [for a bird] to point its feathers outward. □ The bird ruffled its feathers when it was annoyed. □ My parrot ruffles its feathers whenever it is ready to preen itself.

ruffle someone's feathers to upset or annoy someone. (See ruffle its feathers for an explanation.) □ You certainly ruffled Mrs. Smith's feathers by criticizing her garden. □ Try to be tactful and not ruffle people's feathers.

the ruin of someone or something the cause of destruction; a failure. □ Your bad judgment will be the ruin of this company! □ The greedy politicians were the ruin of the old empire.

a rule of thumb a rough or an inexact guide; a basic or accepted pattern or rule. (From the use of one's thumb to make quick and rough measurements.) □ It's a rule of thumb that the bus will be late whenever I'm in a hurry. □ As a good rule of thumb, prepare two large potatoes for each person.

rule someone or something out to prevent, disqualify, overrule, or cancel someone or something. □ John's bad temper rules him out for the job. □ The weather ruled out a picnic for the weekend.

rule the roost to be the boss or manager, especially at home. (Informal.) □ Who rules the roost at your house? □ Our new office manager really rules the roost.

rump session a meeting held after a larger meeting. □ A rump session continued after the meeting was adjourned. □ A lot of business was conducted in the rump session.

run across someone or something Go to come across someone or something.

run a fever AND run a temperature to have a body temperature higher than normal; to have a fever. □ I ran a fever when I had the flu. □ The baby is running a temperature and is grouchy.

run afoul of someone or something Go to fall afoul of someone or something.

run after someone to chase someone of the opposite sex hoping for a date or some attention. (Also literal.) □ Is John still running after Ann? □ No, Ann is running after John.

run an errand AND do an errand; go on an errand to take a short trip to do a specific thing; to complete an errand. (The plural is with some errands.) □ I've got to run an errand. I'll be back in a minute. □ John has gone on an errand. He'll be back shortly.

run a risk (of something) AND run the risk (of something) to take a chance that something (bad) will happen. □ I don't want to run the risk of losing my job. □ Don't worry. You won't have to run a risk.

run (around) in circles Go to run around like a chicken with its head cut off.

run around like a chicken with its head cut off AND run (around) in circles to run around frantically and aimlessly; to be in a state of chaos. (See also go (a)round in circles.) □ I spent all afternoon running around like a chicken with its head cut off. □ If you run around in circles, you'll never get anything done. □ Get organized and stop running in circles.

run around with someone to be friends with someone; to go places with regular friends. □ John and I were great friends. We used to run around with each other all the time. □ Mary ran around with Jane for about a year.

run a taut ship Go to run a tight ship.

run a temperature Go to run a fever.

run a tight ship AND run a taut ship to run a ship or an organization in an orderly and disciplined manner. (Taut and tight mean the same thing. Taut is correct nautical use.) □ The new office manager really runs a tight ship. □ Captain Jones is known for running a taut ship.

run circles around someone AND run rings around someone to outrun or outdo someone. (Informal.) □ John is a much better racer than Mary. He can run circles around her. □ Mary can run rings around Sally.

run counter to something to be in opposition to something; to run against something. □ Your proposal runs counter to what is required by the manager. □ His idea runs counter to good sense.

run for it to try to escape by running. (Informal.) □ The guard's not looking. Let's run for it! □ The convict tried to run for it, but the guard caught him.

run for one's life to run away to save one's life. □ The dam has burst! Run for your life! □ The captain told us all to run for our lives.

run in the family for a characteristic to appear in all (or most) members of a family. □ My grandparents lived well into their nineties, and it runs in the family. □ My brothers and I have red hair. It runs in the family.

run into a stone wall to come to a barrier against further progress. (Also literal. Informal.) □ We've run into a stone wall in our investigation. □ Algebra was hard for Tom, but he really ran into a stone wall with geometry.

run into someone Go to bump into someone.

run like clockwork to run very well; to progress very well. □ I want this office to run like clockwork—with everything on time and everything done right. □ The plans for the party were made and we knew that we could depend on Alice to make sure that everything ran like clockwork.

run low (on something) to near the end of a supply of something. (See also run short (of something).) □ We are running low on salt. It's time to buy more. □ The car is running low on gas.

run off at the mouth to talk excessively. (Slang.) □ Shut up, John. You're always running off at the mouth. □ There is no need to run off at the mouth. Stop talking so much for so long.

run off with someone or something 1. to take something or someone away; to steal something or kidnap someone. □ The thief ran off with the lady's purse. □ The kidnapper ran off with the baby. 2. [with someone] AND run off to run away with someone, as in an elopement. □ Tom ran off with Ann. □ Tom and Ann ran off and got married.

run-of-the-mill common or average; typical. □ The restaurant we went to was nothing special—just run-of-the-mill. □ The service was good, but the food was run-of-the-mill or worse.

run out of gas to use up all the gasoline in a car's tank. □ I hope we don't run out of gas. □ I am sorry I am late. I ran out of gas.

run out of patience to become annoyed after being patient for a while. □ I finally ran out of patience and lost my temper. □ The boss ran out of patience with me and sent me back to my desk.

run out of something to use up all of something and have no more. □ We ran out of milk, so we will have to buy some more. □ I usually run out of money at the end of the month.

run out of time to use up all the available time. □ I ran out of time and couldn't finish. □ I hope she answers the question before she runs out of time.

run rampant to run, develop, or grow out of control. □ The children ran rampant through the house. □ Weeds have run rampant around the abandoned house.

run rings around someone Go to run circles around someone.

run riot AND run wild to go out of control. □ The dandelions have run riot in our lawn. □ The children ran wild at the birthday party and had to be taken home.

run scared to behave as if one were going to fail. (Informal. Typically said of someone running for election.) □ The mayor was running scared, but won anyway. □ When we lost that big contract, everyone in the office was running scared. We thought we'd be fired.

run short (of something) to use up almost all of something; to have too little or few of something left. (See also run low (on something).) □ We are running short of milk. Please buy some on the way home. □ When it comes to money, we are always running short.

run someone in to take someone to the police station and make an arrest. □ "Don't run me in," cried the driver. "I'm innocent." □ The police officer was angry and ran in the motorist.

run someone or something down 1. to degrade physically or put wear on someone or something. □ All these years of hard work have run Mrs. Brown down severely. □

Our neighbors ran down their house before they sold it. 2. to say bad things about someone or something. ☐ Why are you always running your friends down? ☒ Don't run down my paintings! You just don't understand art! 3. to look for and finally find someone or something. ☐ I finally ran John Smith down. He had moved to another town. ☒ I will see if I can run down the book that you want.

run someone or something to earth to find someone or something after a search. ☐ Lisa finally ran her long-lost cousin to earth in Paris. ☐ After months of searching, I ran a copy of Jim's book to earth.

run someone ragged to run someone hard and fast; to keep someone very busy. (Informal.) ☐ This busy season is running us all ragged at the store. ☐ What a busy day. I ran myself ragged.

run something into the ground AND drive something into the ground to carry something too far. (Informal.) ☐ It was a good joke at first, Tom, but you've run it into the ground. ☐ Just because everyone laughed once, you don't have to drive it into the ground.

run something up 1. to raise a flag. ☐ I run it up every day except when it's raining. ☒ We run up the flag every day. 2. to add to a bill; to add many charges to one's account. ☐ He ran the bill up until they asked him to pay part of it. ☒ Tom ran up a big tab at the hotel.

run that by (someone) again say that again. (Slang.) ☐ I didn't hear you. Could you run that by me again? ☐ Run that by again. I don't believe my ears.

run the gamut to cover the range [from one thing to another]. ☐ She wants to buy the house, but her requests run the gamut from expensive new carpeting to completely new landscaping. ☐ His hobbies run the gamut from piano repair to portrait painting.

run the good race to do the best that one could; to live life as well and as fully as possible. (Also literal.) ☐ He didn't get what he wanted, but he ran the good race. ☐ Joan ran the good race, and she will be remembered by all of us.

run the risk (of something) Go to run a risk (of something).

run through something 1. to waste something; to use up something rapidly. (Also literal.) ☐ Have you run through all those eggs already? ☐ I ran through my allowance in one day. 2. to read through something rapidly. ☐ I ran through your report, and it looks okay. ☐ I didn't read the novel, I only ran through it.

run to an amount of money to amount to a certain amount of money. ☐ In the end, the bill ran to thousands of dollars. ☐ His account ran to more than I expected.

run to seed AND go to seed to become worn-out and uncared for. (Said especially of a lawn that needs care.) ☐ Look at that lawn. The whole thing has run to seed. ☐ Pick things up around here. This place is going to seed. What a mess!

run wild Go to run riot.

running high [for feelings] to be in a state of excitement or anger. ☐ Feelings were running high as the general election approached. ☐ The mood of the crowd was running high when they saw the mother slap her child.

a rush on something a large demand for something. ☐ There was a rush on bottled water during the drought. ☐ During the hot summer, there was a rush on air conditioners.

rustle something up to find and prepare some food. (Folksy.) ☐ I'm sure he can rustle something up. ☒ Just go out into the kitchen and ask Bill to rustle up some food.

S

sack out to go to bed; to go to sleep. (Slang. Compare this with hit the sack at hit the hay.) □ Look at the clock. It's time to sack out. □ John sacks out at about nine o'clock.

sacred cow something that is regarded by some people with such respect and veneration that they do not like it being criticized by anyone in any way. (From the fact that the cow is regarded as sacred in India and is not eaten or mistreated.) □ A university education is a sacred cow in the Smith family. Fred is regarded as a failure because he quit school at 16. □ Don't talk about eating meat to Pam. Vegetarianism is one of her sacred cows.

sadder but wiser unhappy but educated [about someone or something—after an unpleasant event]. □ After the accident, I was sadder but wiser, and would never make the same mistake again. □ We left the meeting sadder but wiser, knowing that we could not ever come to an agreement with Becky's aunt.

saddle someone with something to give someone something undesirable, annoying, or difficult to deal with. (Informal.) □ Mary says she doesn't want to be saddled with a baby, but her husband would just love one. □ Jim saddled Eddie with the most boring jobs so that he would leave.

safe and sound safe and whole or healthy. □ It was a rough trip, but we got there safe and sound. □ I'm glad to see you here safe and sound.

safety in numbers safety achieved by being concealed in large numbers of people or other creatures. □ We stayed close together, thinking that there was safety in numbers. □ The elderly people went out together for a walk, knowing that there was safety in numbers.

sage advice very good and wise advice. (Refers to a sage or wise man.) □ My parents gave me some sage advice when I turned 18. □ I asked my uncle for some of his sage advice.

sail (right) through something to finish something quickly and easily. (Informal.) □ The test was not difficult. I sailed right through it. □ Bob sailed through his homework in a short amount of time.

sail under false colors to pretend to be something that one is not. (Originally nautical, referring to a pirate ship disguised as an innocent merchant ship.) □ John has been sailing under false colors. He's really a spy. □ I thought you were wearing that uniform because you worked here. You are sailing under false colors.

the salt of the earth the most worthy of people; a very good or worthy person. (A biblical reference, Matthew 5:13.) □ Mrs. Jones is the salt of the earth. She is the first to help anyone in trouble. □ Frank's mother is the salt of the earth. She has five children of her own and yet fosters three others.

salt something away to store or save something. (Originally referred to preserving food and storing it.) □ Mary salted some extra candy away for use during the holidays. □ I salted away about $1,000 when I worked as a clerk in the grocery store.

the same as someone or something identical to someone or something. □ Can you build me a birdhouse the same as yours? □ Have you noticed that Mary looks the same as her mother?

same here Me too!; I agree! (Informal.) □ BOB: I'll have chocolate ice cream! BILL: Same here. □ MARY: I'll vote for the best candidate. TOM: Same here!

the same old story something that occurs or has occurred in the same way often. □ Jim's got no money. It's the same old story. He's spent it all on clothing. □ The company is getting rid of workers. It's the same old story—a shortage of orders.

the same to you the same comment applies to you. (Informal. This can be a polite or a rude comment.) □ BILL: Have a pleasant evening. BOB: Thank you. The same to you. □ MARY: You're the most horrible person I've ever met! JOHN: The same to you!

the sands of time the accumulated tiny amounts of time; time represented by the sand in an hourglass. □ The sands of time will make you grow old like everyone else. □ My only enemy is the sands of time.

Save it. Stop talking.; Shut up!; Tell it to me later. (Informal.) □ I've heard enough. Save it! □ Save it! You talk too much!

save one's breath to refrain from talking, explaining, or arguing. □ There is no sense in trying to convince her. Save your breath. □ Tell her to save her breath. He won't listen to her.

save (one's) face to preserve one's good standing or high position (after a failure). □ The ambassador was more interested in saving his face than winning the argument. □ Most diplomats are concerned with saving face.

save someone's neck Go to save someone's skin.

save someone's skin AND save someone's neck to save someone from injury, embarrassment, or punishment. (Informal.) □ I saved my skin by getting the job done on time. □ Thanks for saving my neck! I would have fallen down the stairs if you hadn't held my arm.

save something for a rainy day to reserve something—usually money—for some future need. (Also literal. Save something can be replaced with put something aside, hold something back, keep something, etc.) □ I've saved a little money for a rainy day. □ Keep some extra candy for a rainy day.

save the day to produce a good result when a bad result was expected. □ The team was expected to lose, but Sally made many points and saved the day. □ Your excellent speech saved the day.

save up (for something) to save money in order to buy something. □ I'm saving up for a bicycle. □ I'll have to save up for a long time. It costs a lot of money.

saved by the bell rescued from a difficult or dangerous situation just in time by something that brings the situation to a sudden end. (From the sounding of a bell marking the end of a round in a boxing match.) □ James didn't know the answer to the question but he was saved by the bell when the teacher was called away from the room. □ I couldn't think of anything to say to the woman at the bus stop, but I was saved by the bell when my bus arrived.

saving grace the one thing that saves or redeems someone or something that would otherwise be a total disaster. □ Her saving grace is that she has a lot of money. □ The saving grace for the whole evening was the good music played by the band.

say a mouthful to say a lot; to say something very important or meaningful. (Folksy.) □ When you said things were busy around here, you said a mouthful. It is terribly busy. □ You sure said a mouthful, Bob. Things are really busy.

say grace to say a prayer of gratitude before or after a meal. □ Grandfather always says grace at Thanksgiving. □ A local preacher said grace at the banquet.

say something in a roundabout way to imply something without saying it; to say something indirectly; to speak using circumlocution. □ Why don't you say what you mean? Why do you always say something in a roundabout way? □ What did she mean? Why did she say it in a roundabout way?

say something (right) to someone's face to say something (unpleasant) directly to someone. □ She knew I thought she was rude because I said it right to her face. □ I thought she felt that way about me, but I never thought she'd say it to my face.

say something under one's breath to say something so softly that almost no one can hear it. □ John was saying something under his breath, and I don't think it was very pleasant. □ I'm glad he said it under his breath. If he had said it out loud, it would have caused an argument.

say that something is so to assume something; to suppose that something were so. □ Say that x is equal to a whole number greater than 10. □ Say that two trains leave two different cities at the same time.

say the word to give a signal to begin; to say yes or okay. □ I'm ready to start any time you say the word. □ We'll all shout "Happy Birthday!" when I say the word.

say uncle to surrender; to give in. (Informal.) □ Ann held Bobby down on the ground until he said uncle. □ Why isn't it enough to win the argument? Why do you demand that I say uncle?

scale something down to make something smaller by a certain amount or proportion. □ I scaled down the guest list because I couldn't invite so many people. □ Jane's salary was scaled down by 10 percent last year.

scarcely have time to breathe Go to hardly have time to breathe.

scarcer than hens' teeth Go to (as) scarce as hens' teeth.

scare one out of one's wits Go to frighten one out of one's wits.

scare someone or something up to search for and find someone or something. (Slang.) □ Go out in the kitchen and scare some food up. □ I'll see if I can scare up somebody to fix the broken chair.

scare someone stiff to scare someone severely; to frighten someone to death. (See the explanation at scared stiff.) □ That loud noise scared me stiff. □ The robber jumped out and scared us stiff.

scare someone to death Go to frighten someone to death.

scare the living daylights out of someone Go to frighten the wits out of someone.

scare the wits out of someone Go to frighten the wits out of someone.

scared silly frightened very much. □ I was scared silly by the loud explosion. □ We were scared silly to go into the park after dark.

scared stiff badly frightened. (Frightened to the point of being petrified and unable to move.) □ We were scared stiff by the robber. □ I was scared stiff when the dog growled at me.

scared to death Go to frightened to death.

school of thought a particular philosophy or way of thinking about something. □ One school of thought holds that cats cause allergic reactions. □ I come from the school of thought that believes people should always be polite.

scout around for someone or something to search here and there for someone or something. □ Tom is scouting around for a date for Friday night. □ Please scout around for some ideas on what to cook for dinner.

scrape something together to assemble something quickly, usually from a small supply of components. □ I'll try to scrape something together for dinner. □ We really should try to have a party to celebrate the boss's birthday. Let's try to scrape together a little something.

scrape the bottom of the barrel to select from among the worst; to choose from what is left over. □ You've bought a bad-looking car. You really scraped the bottom of the barrel to get that one. □ The worker you sent over was the worst I've ever seen. Send me another—and don't scrape the bottom of the barrel.

scratch around (for something) to look here and there for something. (Informal.) □ Let me scratch around for a better bargain. Maybe I can come up with something you like. □ I'll scratch around for a week or two and see what I come up with.

scratch someone's back to do a favor for someone in return for a favor done for you. (Also literal. Informal.) □ You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours. □ We believe that the mayor has been scratching the treasurer's back.

scratch the surface to just begin to find out about something. □ The investigation of the governor's staff revealed some suspicious dealing. It is thought that the investigators have just scratched the surface. □ We don't know how bad the problem is. We've only scratched the surface.

scream bloody murder to complain bitterly; to complain unduly. (Slang. See also cry bloody murder.) □ When we put him in an office without a window, he screamed bloody murder. □ There is something wrong next door. Everyone is screaming bloody murder.

screw around (with someone or something) Go to mess around (with someone or something).

screw someone or something up to cause trouble for someone or something. (Slang.) □ Your advice about making a lot of money really screwed me up. Now I'm broke. □ Your efforts screwed up the entire project.

screw up one's courage to build up one's courage. □ I guess I have to screw up my courage and go to the dentist. □ I spent all morning screwing up my courage to take my driver's test.

scrimp and save to be very thrifty; to live on very little money, often in order to save up for something. □ We had to scrimp and save in order to send the children to college. □ The Smiths scrimp and save all year in order to go on a Caribbean cruise.

the seamy side of life the most unpleasant or roughest aspect of life. (Informal. Refers to the inside of a garment where the seams show. Seamy occurs only in this expression.) □ Doctors in that area really see the seamy side of life. □ Mary saw the seamy side of life when she worked as a volunteer in the shelter.

search high and low (for someone or something) Go to hunt high and low (for someone or something).

search something with a fine-tooth comb Go to go over something with a fine-tooth comb.

second nature to someone easy and natural for someone. □ Swimming is second nature to Jane. □ Driving is no problem for Bob. It's second nature to him.

second-rate not of the best quality; inferior. □ Bill's a second-rate tennis player compared with Bob. □ The government is building second-rate housing.

second to none better than everything. □ This is an excellent car—second to none. □ Her suggestion was second to none, and the manager accepted it eagerly.

security against something something that keeps something safe; something that protects; a protection. □ Insurance provides security against financial loss owing to theft, loss, or damage. □ A good education is a security against unemployment.

see about something to ask about something; to check on something. □ I'll have to see about your request to leave early. □ I must see about the cake I have in the oven.

see a man about a dog to leave for some unmentioned purpose. (Informal. Often refers to going to the rest room.) □ I don't know where Tom went. He said he had to see a man about a dog. □ When John said he was going to see a man about a dog, I thought he would be gone for only a minute.

see double to see two of everything instead of one. □ When I was driving, I saw two people on the road instead of one. I'm seeing double. There's something wrong with my eyes. □ Mike thought he was seeing double when he saw Mary with her twin sister. He didn't know she had a twin.

see eye to eye (with someone) (about something) AND see eye to eye (with someone) (on something) to view something in the same way (as someone else). □ John and Ann see eye to eye about the new law. Neither of them likes it. □ John sees eye to eye with Ann about it. □ That's interesting because they rarely see eye to eye.

see eye to eye (with someone) (on something) Go to see eye to eye (with someone) (about something).

see fit (to do something) to decide to do something. ☐ If I see fit to return, I'll bring Bill with me. ☐ She'll do it if she sees fit.

see into something Go to look into something.

see no objection (to something) AND not see any objection (to something) not to think of any objection to something. ☐ I see no objection to your idea. ☐ Do you see any objection? ☐ I do not see any objection to anything you have done.

see one's way clear (to do something) to find it possible to do something. ☐ I'd be happy if you could see your way clear to attend our meeting. ☐ I wanted to be there, but I couldn't see my way clear.

see red to be angry. (Informal.) ☐ Whenever I think of the needless destruction of trees, I see red. ☐ Bill really saw red when the tax bill arrived.

see someone or something as something to consider someone or something; to deem someone or something as something. ☐ The manager saw the skilled employee as a godsend. ☐ John saw the new salesman as a threat to his territory.

see someone home to accompany someone home. ☐ Bill agreed to see his aunt home after the movie. ☐ You don't need to see me home. It's perfectly safe, and I can get there on my own.

see someone to somewhere to escort someone to a place; to make sure that someone gets somewhere safely; to accompany someone to a place. ☐ I saw Mary to her door, and then got back in my car and left. ☐ Bill saw his cousin to the train station, and then they parted.

see someone to the door Go to show someone (to) the door.

see something through to follow through on something until it is completed. (Compare this with see through someone or something.) ☐ Mary is prepared to see the project through. ☐ It's going to be an unpleasant experience, but I hope you'll see it through.

see stars to see flashing lights after receiving a blow to the head. ☐ I saw stars when I bumped my head on the attic ceiling. ☐ The little boy saw stars when he fell headfirst onto the concrete.

see the color of someone's money to verify that someone has money or has enough money. (Slang.) ☐ So, you want to make a bet? Not until I see the color of your money. ☐ I want to see the color of your money before we go any further with this business deal.

see the (hand)writing on the wall to know that something is certain to happen. ☐ If you don't improve your performance, they'll fire you. Can't you see the writing on the wall? ☐ I know I'll get fired. I can see the handwriting on the wall.

see the last of someone or something to see someone or something for the last time. ☐ I'm glad to see the last of that old car. It has a lot of problems. ☐ The people at my office were happy to see the last of John. He caused a lot of trouble before he left.

see the light to understand something clearly at last. (Also literal. See also the following two entries.) ☐ After a lot of studying and asking many questions, I finally saw the light. ☐ I know that geometry is difficult. Keep working at it. You'll see the light pretty soon.

see the light (at the end of the tunnel) to foresee an end to something, such as a problem or a task, after a long period of time. ☐ I had been horribly ill for two months before I began to see the light at the end of the tunnel. ☐ I began to see the light one day in early spring. At that moment, I knew I'd get well. ☐ When I got to the last chapter, I could see the light at the end of the tunnel.

see the light (of day) to come to the end of a very busy time. ☐ Finally, when the holiday season was over, we could see the light of day. We had been so busy! ☐ When business lets up for a while, we'll be able to see the light.

see the sights to see the important things in a place; to see what tourists usually see.

- We plan to visit Paris and see the sights.
- Everyone left the hotel early in the morning to see the sights.

see through someone or something to understand or detect the true nature of someone or something. (Compare this with see something through.) □ You can't fool me anymore. I can see through you and all your tricks. □ This plan is designed to make money for you, not to help people. I can see through it! I'm not a fool!

see (to it) that something is done to make sure of something; to make certain of something; to be certain to do something. □ The manager saw to it that everyone began working on time. □ The mayor should see that the potholes are repaired.

see to someone or something to take care of someone or something. □ Tom will see to the horses. Come to the house and freshen up. □ I hear the doorbell. Will someone please see to the door? □ This paper needs filling out. Will you please see to it?

see which way the wind is blowing to determine what is the most expedient thing to do. □ We studied the whole situation to see which way the wind was blowing and decided to avoid any conflict at that time. □ Sam failed to see which way the wind was blowing and got himself caught up in an argument.

seeing is believing one must believe something that one sees. □ I never would have thought that a cow could swim, but seeing is believing. □ I can hardly believe we are in Paris, but there's the Eiffel Tower, and seeing is believing.

seeing things to imagine one sees someone or something that is not there. □ Lisa says that she saw a ghost, but she was just seeing things. □ I thought I was seeing things when Bill walked into the room. Someone had told me he was dead.

seize the bull by the horns Go to take the bull by the horns.

seize the opportunity to take advantage of an opportunity. □ My uncle offered me a trip to Europe, so I seized the opportunity. □ Whenever you have a chance, you should seize the opportunity.

seize (up)on something to (figuratively) take hold of something and make an issue of it. (Also literal.) □ Whenever I mention money, you seize on it and turn it into an argument! □ The lawyer seized upon one point and asked many questions about it.

sell like hotcakes [for something] to be sold very fast. □ The delicious candy sold like hotcakes. □ The fancy new cars were selling like hotcakes.

sell someone a bill of goods to get someone to believe something that isn't true; to deceive someone. (Informal.) □ Don't pay any attention to what John says. He's just trying to sell you a bill of goods. □ I'm not selling you a bill of goods. What I say is true.

sell someone down the river Go to sell (someone or something) out.

sell someone on a plan or idea to convince someone of something. (Informal.) □ You don't have to sell me on the value of an education. □ Try to sell John on going to Mexico for a vacation.

sell (someone or something) out 1. [with someone] AND sell someone down the river to betray someone; to reveal damaging information about someone. (Slang, especially criminal slang.) □ Bill told everything he knew about Bob, and that sold Bob down the river. □ You'll be sorry if you sell me out. ① Lefty sold out, and we'll all soon be arrested. 2. [with something] to sell all of something. □ You've sold them all out? ② We sold out all our red ones yesterday.

sell someone or something short to underestimate someone or something; to fail to see the good qualities of someone or something. □ This is a very good restaurant. Don't sell it short. □ When you say that John isn't interested in music, you're selling him short. Did you know he plays the violin quite well?

sell something for a song to sell something for very little money. (As in trading something of value for the singing of a song.) □ I had to sell my car for a song because I needed the money in a hurry. □ I have two geometry books and I would sell one of them for a song.

sell something off to sell much or all of something. □ Please try to sell these items off. We have too many of them. □ I sold off all my books.

sell something on credit to sell something now and let the purchaser pay for it later. (Compare this with buy something on credit.) □ I'm sorry, we don't sell groceries on credit. It's strictly cash-and-carry. □ There is a shop around the corner that sells clothing on credit.

send one about one's business to send someone away, usually in an unfriendly way. □ Is that annoying man on the telephone again? Please send him about his business. □ Ann, I can't clean up the house with you running around. I'm going to have to send you about your business.

send someone into something to cause someone to be in a certain state or condition. □ The horrifying news sent our family into hysterics. □ The clerk's rude behavior sent the customer into a fit of anger.

send someone off to participate in saying good-bye to someone who is leaving. □ We had a party to send Tom off on his vacation. □ Bob's parents sent him off from the airport.

send someone or something up to ridicule or make fun of someone or something; to satirize someone or something. (Informal.) □ John is always sending Jane up by mocking the way she walks. □ The drama group sent their leaders up.

send someone (out) on an errand to send someone out to do a specific task. □ Mother sent Billy out on an errand. □ I'm late because Bill sent me on an errand.

send someone packing to send someone away; to dismiss someone, possibly rudely. □ I couldn't stand him anymore, so I sent him packing. □ The maid proved to be so incompetent that I had to send her packing.

send someone to the showers to send a player out of the game and off the field, court, etc. (From sports.) □ John played so badly that the coach sent him to the showers after the third quarter. □ After the fistfight, the coaches sent both players to the showers.

send someone up the river to send someone to prison. (Slang.) □ The judge sent Bill up the river for ten years. □ The same judge sent him up the river the last time.

send something C.O.D. to send merchandise to someone who will pay for it when it is delivered. (C.O.D. means "cash on delivery" or "collect on delivery.") □ I sent away for a special book and asked them to send it C.O.D. □ This person has ordered a copy of our record. Send the record C.O.D.

send up a trial balloon to suggest something and see how people respond to it; to test public opinion. (Slang.) □ Mary had an excellent idea, but when we sent up a trial balloon, the response was very negative. □ Don't start the whole project without sending up a trial balloon.

separate but equal segregated but of equal value or quality. (A doctrine once sanctioned by the U.S. Supreme Court regarding racial segregation.) □ The separate but equal doctrine was abandoned years ago. □ They were provided with facilities that were said to be separate but equal—but were really of a lower standard.

separate the men from the boys to separate the competent from those who are less competent. □ This is the kind of task that separates the men from the boys. □ This project requires a lot of thinking. It'll separate the men from the boys.

separate the sheep from the goats to divide people into two groups. □ Working in a place like this really separates the sheep from the goats. □ We can't go on with the game until we separate the sheep from the goats. Let's see who can jump the farthest.

the separation of church and state the constitutional barrier that prevents government from establishing a state religion. (This refers to eliminating evidence of religion in connection with government as well as assuring that the U.S. government does not establish a state religion.) □ The city council stopped beginning each meeting with a prayer because someone suggested that it violated the principle of the separation of church and state. □ Many countries do not have the separation of church and state.

serve as a guinea pig [for someone] to be experimented on; to allow some sort of test to be performed on someone. (A guinea pig was once the quintessential experimental animal.) □ Try it on someone else! I don't want to serve as a guinea pig! □ Jane agreed to serve as a guinea pig. She'll be the one to try out the new flavor of ice cream.

serve notice (on someone) to announce (something) to someone. □ John served notice on his fellow workers that he would not prepare the coffee anymore. □ I'm serving notice that I'll resign as secretary next month.

serve someone right [for an act or event] to punish someone fairly [for doing something]. □ John copied off my test paper. It would serve him right if he fails the test. □ It'd serve John right if he got arrested.

serve someone's purpose Go to answer someone's purpose.

serve time to spend a certain amount of time imprisoned. □ The criminal served ten years in jail. □ After the felon served his time, he was released from prison.

set a precedent to establish a pattern; to set a policy that must be followed in future cases. □ I'll do what you ask this time, but it doesn't set a precedent. □ We've already set a precedent in matters such as these.

set a trap to adjust and prepare a trap to catch an animal. □ Bill set a mousetrap and baited it with cheese. □ The old man set a trap to catch an annoying squirrel.

set eyes on someone or something AND lay eyes on someone or something to see someone or something for the first time. □ I knew when I set eyes on that car that it was the car for me. □ Have you ever laid eyes on such a beautiful flower?

set fire to someone or something AND set someone or something on fire to ignite someone or something; to put someone or something to flames. □ The thief set fire to the building. □ The poor man accidentally set himself on fire.

set foot somewhere to go or enter somewhere. (Often in the negative.) □ If I were you, I wouldn't set foot in that town. □ I wouldn't set foot in her house! Not after the way she spoke to me.

set forth (on something) AND launch forth (on something) 1. to start out on something. (See also take off (on something).) □ We intend to set forth on our journey very early in the morning. □ What time will you launch forth? 2. to begin presenting a speech or an explanation. □ As soon as John set forth on his speech, three people walked out. □ Every time he launches forth, somebody walks out.

set great store by someone or something to have positive expectations for someone or something; to have high hopes for someone or something. □ I set great store by my computer and its ability to help me in my work. □ We set great store by John because of his quick mind.

set in [for a kind of weather, especially winter] to begin. (Often said of weather or climatic conditions.) □ Winter set in very early this year. □ We got the windows painted before winter set in.

set in one's ways leading a fixed lifestyle; living according to one's own established patterns. □ At her age, she's getting sort of set in her ways. □ If you weren't so set in your ways, you'd be able to understand young people better.

set one back on one's heels to surprise, shock, or overwhelm someone. □ Her sudden announcement set us all back on our heels. □ The manager scolded me, and that really set me back on my heels.

set one's heart against something to turn against something; to become totally against something. (See also have one's heart set against something.) □ Jane set her heart against going to Australia. □ I set my heart against her departure.

set one's heart on something to become determined about something. □ Jane set her heart on going to London. □ Todd had set his heart on returning.

set one's sights on something to select something as one's goal. □ I set my sights on a master's degree from the state university. □ Don't set your sights on something you cannot possibly do.

set sail (for somewhere) to depart in a boat for somewhere. (In a sailboat or powerboat.) □ This ship sets sail for Japan in two days. □ When do you set sail?

set someone back (some amount of money) to cost someone (an amount of money). (Informal.) □ This coat set me back about $250. □ That dinner at the restaurant last night really set us back.

set someone or something free to release someone or something; to allow someone or something to leave, go away, depart, escape. □ Jimmy went outside and set his balloon free. □ The army set the political prisoners free.

set someone or something off 1. [with someone] to get someone very excited and angry. □ Whenever I see someone mistreating an animal, it really sets me off. □ The tax bill set off Bob. He raved for an hour! 2. [with something] to start something. □ Don't set another discussion off, please! □ The question of taxes set off an argument.

set someone or something on fire Go to set fire to someone or something.

set someone or something straight 1. [with someone] to explain (something) to someone. (See also put something straight.) □ I don't think you understand about taxation. Let me set you straight. □ Ann was confused, so I set her straight. 2. [with something] to explain something (to someone). (See also put something straight.) □ This is very confusing, but with a little explaining I can set it straight. □ We'll set this matter straight in a short time.

set someone or something up 1. [with someone] to lead—by deception—a person to play a particular role in an event; to arrange an event—usually by deception—so that a specific person takes the consequences for the event; to frame someone. (Informal or slang.) □ I had nothing to do with the robbery! I was just standing there. Somebody must have set me up! □ John isn't the one who started the fight. Somebody set up the poor guy. 2. [with something] to put something together; to erect something. □ My parents bought me a dollhouse, but I had to set it up myself. □ It took nearly an hour to set up the tent. 3. [with something] to establish or found something. □ We set up a fund to buy food for the needy. □ The business owners set a bank up in the small town. 4. [with something] to make plans for something. □ John and Mary are hard at work setting something up for the meeting. □ Sally and Tom set up a party for Saturday night.

set someone's teeth on edge 1. [for a sour or bitter taste] to irritate one's mouth and make it feel funny. □ Have you ever eaten a whole lemon? It'll set your teeth on edge. □ I can't stand food that sets my teeth on edge. 2. [for a person or a noise] to be irritating or get on one's nerves. □ Please don't scrape your fingernails on the blackboard! It sets my teeth on edge! □ Here comes Bob. He's so annoying. He really sets my teeth on edge.

set someone up (as something) to establish someone as something. (Compare this with set someone up (in business).) □ Bill set himself up as boss. □ When Mary got her degree, she set herself up as a consultant. □ My father set up my sisters as co-owners of the family business. □ He set them up with the help of a lawyer.

set someone up (in business) to help establish someone in business; to provide the money someone needs to start a business. □ My father set my sisters up in business. □ He helped set them up so he could keep the business in the family.

set something down to something Go to put something down to something.

set something right AND put something right to correct something; to alter a situation to make it more fair. (See also make something good.) □ This is a very unfortunate situation. I'll ask the people responsible to set this matter right. □ I'm sorry that we overcharged you. We'll try to put it right.

set something straight Go to put something straight.

set something to music to incorporate words into a piece of music; to write a piece of music to incorporate a set of words. □ The musician set my lyrics to music. □ The rock band set the poem to music.

set the ball rolling Go to get the ball rolling.

set the stage for something to prepare for something; to get all of the appropriate things in place for something. (Refers to arranging the scenery, properties, and lighting for a theater production.) □ The events of the past week have set the stage for further negotiation with the other side. □ Your comments set the stage for the next step—which is the hard one.

set the table to place plates, glasses, napkins, etc., on the table before a meal. (The opposite of clear the table.) □ Jane, would you please set the table? □ I'm tired of setting the table. Ask someone else to do it.

set the world on fire to do exciting things that bring fame and glory. □ I'm not very ambitious. I don't want to set the world on fire. □ You don't have to set the world on fire. Just do a good job.

set to do something Go to (all) set to do something.

set tongues (a)wagging to cause people to start gossiping. □ The affair between the boss and her accountant set tongues awagging. □ If you don't get the lawn mowed soon, you will set tongues wagging in the neighborhood.

set type to arrange type for printing, now usually on a computer. □ Have you finished setting the type for page one yet? □ John sets type for a living.

set upon someone or something to attack someone or something violently. □ The dogs set upon the bear and chased it up a tree. □ Bill set upon Tom and struck him hard in the face.

set up shop somewhere to establish one's place of work somewhere. (Informal.) □ Mary set up shop in a small office building on Oak Street. □ The police officer said, "You can't set up shop right here on the sidewalk!"

settle a score with someone AND settle the score (with someone) to clear up a problem with someone; to get even with someone. (Slang. See also have a score to settle (with someone).) □ John wants to settle a score with his neighbor. □ Tom, it's time you and I settled the score.

settle down 1. to calm down. □ Now, children, it's time to settle down and start class. □ If you don't settle down, I'll send you all home. 2. to settle into a stable way of life; to get married and settle into a stable way of life. □ Tom, don't you think it's about time you settled down and stopped all of this running around? □ Bill and Ann decided to settle down and raise some children.

settle for something to agree to accept something (even though something else would be better). □ We wanted a red one, but settled for a blue one. □ Ask your grocer for Wilson's canned corn—the best corn in cans. Don't settle for less!

settle on something to decide on something. □ We've discussed the merits of all of them, and we've settled on this one. □ I can't settle on one or the other, so I'll buy both.

settle someone's affairs to deal with one's business matters; to manage the business affairs of someone who can't. □ When my uncle died, I had to settle his affairs. □ I have to settle my affairs before going to Mexico for a year.

settle (something) (out of court) to end a disagreement and reach an agreement without having to go through a court of justice. □ The plaintiff and defendant de- cided to settle before the trial. □ Mary and Sue settled out of court before the trial.

settle the score (with someone) Go to settle a score with someone.

settle up with someone to pay someone what one owes; to pay someone one's share of something. □ I must settle up with Jim for the bike I bought for him. □ Fred paid the whole restaurant bill and we all settled up with him later.

sever ties with someone to end a relationship or agreement suddenly. □ The company severed its ties with the dishonest employee. □ John has severed all ties with his parents.

sew something up to complete something; to secure something. (Also literal. Informal.) □ The manager told me to sew the contract up, or else. □ Let's sew up this contract today.

shack up (with someone) 1. to have a one-night stand with someone; to copulate (with someone). (Informal.) □ Those two just wanted to shack up for a while. □ He only wanted to shack up with me. 2. to move in with someone temporarily, presumably for sexual purposes. (Informal.) □ They shacked up for over a year until her parents found out and stopped sending her money.

shades of someone or something reminders of someone or something; reminiscent of someone or something. □ When I met Jim's mother, I thought "shades of Aunt Mary." □ "Shades of grade school," said Jack as the university lecturer rebuked him for being late.

shadow of itself Go to shadow of oneself.

shadow of oneself AND shadow of itself someone or something that is not as strong, healthy, full, or lively as before. □ The sick man was a shadow of his former self. □ The redecorated house was merely a shadow of its old self.

shake (hands) on something to clasp and shake the hand of someone as a sign of agreement about something. □ The two people didn't sign a contract; they just shook hands on the terms of the agree- ment. □ I think it would be better to sign an agreement than shake on it.

shake hands (with someone) to clasp and shake the hand of someone as a greeting. □ His hands were full, and I didn't know whether to try to shake hands with him or not. □ He put down his packages, and we shook hands.

shake in one's boots AND quake in one's boots to be afraid; to shake from fear. □ I was shaking in my boots because I had to go see the manager. □ Stop quaking in your boots, Bob. I'm not going to fire you.

shake someone or something down 1. [with someone] to extort money from someone; to blackmail someone. (Slang, especially criminal slang.) □ The gang of criminals made a living from shaking people down. □ Lefty was trying to shake down the storekeeper. 2. [with something] to try something out; to test something and give the flaws a chance to appear. (Informal.) □ We took the new car out for a trip to shake it down. □ You need to shake down a complicated piece of machinery when you first get it. Then any problems will show up while the guarantee is still in effect.

shake someone or something off 1. [with someone] to get rid of someone; to get free of someone who is bothering you. (Slang.) □ Stop bothering me! What do I have to do to shake you off? □ I wish I could shake off John. He's such a pest! 2. [with something] to avoid getting a disease, such as a cold; to fight something off. (Informal.) □ I thought I was catching a cold, but I guess I shook it off. □ I hope I can shake off this cold pretty soon.

shake someone or something up 1. [with someone] to shock or upset someone. (Slang. See also shook up.) □ The sight of the injured man shook me up. □ Your rude remark really shook up Tom. 2. to jostle or knock someone or something around; to toss someone or something back and forth. □ We rode over a rough road, and that shook us up. □ The accident shook up John quite a bit. 3. to reorganize something or a group of people. □ The new manager shook the office up and made things run a lot better. ☐ The coach shook the team up before the last game and made them better organized.

shake something off Go to toss something off.

shake the lead out Go to get the lead out.

Shame on someone. What a shameful thing someone has done! ☐ You've torn your shirt again, Billy! Shame on you! ☐ When Billy tore his shirt, his mother said, "Shame on you!"

shape someone up to get someone into good physical shape; to make someone behave or perform better. (See also shape up.) ☐ I've got to shape myself up to improve my health. ☐ The trainer was told that he'd have to shape up the boxer before the fight.

shape up to improve one's behavior or performance; to improve one's physical shape. ☐ Look at this, John! What a poor job you've done! It's time you shaped up! ☐ If I'm going to run in the marathon, I'm going to have to shape up.

Shape up or ship out. Either improve one's performance (or behavior) or leave. ☐ Okay, Tom. That's the end. Shape up or ship out! ☐ John was late again, so I told him to shape up or ship out.

share and share alike with equal shares. ☐ I kept five and gave the other five to Mary—share and share alike. ☐ The two roommates agreed that they would divide expenses—share and share alike.

share someone's pain to understand and sympathize with someone's pain or emotional discomfort. (Said in order to sound sympathetic.) ☐ I am sorry about the loss of your home. I share your pain. ☐ We sympathize about the loss of your mother. We share your pain.

share someone's sorrow to grieve as someone else grieves. ☐ We all share your sorrow on this sad, sad day. ☐ I am sorry to hear about the death in your family. I share your sorrow.

sharp as a razor Go to (as) sharp as a razor.

sharp as a tack Go to (as) sharp as a tack.

shed crocodile tears AND cry crocodile tears to shed false tears; to pretend that one is weeping. ☐ The child wasn't hurt, but she shed crocodile tears anyway. ☐ He thought he could get his way if he cried crocodile tears.

shed (some) light on something AND throw (some) light on something to reveal something about something; to clarify something. (Also with any.) ☐ This discussion has shed some light on the problem. ☐ Let's see if Ann can throw any light on this question.

shell something out to pay money (out). (Slang.) ☐ You'll have to shell plenty out to settle this bill. ☐ The traffic ticket turned out to be very expensive. I had to shell out $150.

shift for oneself AND fend for oneself to get along by oneself; to support oneself. ☐ I'm sorry, I can't pay your rent anymore. You'll just have to shift for yourself. ☐ When I became twenty years old, I left home and began to fend for myself.

shine up to someone to try to gain someone's favor by being extra nice. ☐ John is a nice guy, except that he's always trying to shine up to the professor. ☐ Mary never tries to shine up to the manager.

shipping and handling the costs of handling a product and transporting it. (See also postage and handling.) ☐ Shipping and handling charges were included in the price. ☐ The cost of the goods is low and shipping and handling added only a few cents.

ships that pass in the night people who meet each other briefly by chance and who are unlikely to meet again. ☐ Mary wanted to see Jim again, but to him, they were ships that passed in the night. ☐ When you travel a lot on business, you meet many ships that pass in the night.

shirk one's duty to neglect one's job or task. ☐ The guard was fired for shirking his duty. ☐ You cannot expect to continue shirking your duty without someone noticing.

The shoe is on the other foot. One is experiencing the same things that one caused another person to experience. (Proverb. Note the variation in the examples. See also have the shoe on the other foot.) □ The teacher is taking a course in summer school and is finding out what it's like when the shoe is on the other foot. □ When the policeman was arrested, he learned what it was like to have the shoe on the other foot.

shook up upset; shocked. (Slang. See also shake someone or something up.) □ Relax, man! Don't get shook up! □ I always get shook up when I see something like that.

shoot for something to try to do something; to attempt to do something; to aim toward a goal. □ The industrious student shot for success. □ The worker shot for a $2 per hour raise.

shoot from the hip 1. to fire a gun that is held at one's side, against one's hip. (This increases one's speed in firing a gun.) □ When I lived at home on the farm, my father taught me to shoot from the hip. □ I quickly shot the snake before it bit my horse. I'm glad I learned to shoot from the hip. 2. to speak directly and frankly. (Informal.) □ John has a tendency to shoot from the hip, but he generally speaks the truth. □ Don't pay any attention to John. He means no harm. It's just his nature to shoot from the hip.

shoot one's mouth off to boast or talk too much; to tell someone's secrets. (Slang.) □ Don't pay any attention to Bob. He's always shooting his mouth off. □ Oh, Sally! Stop shooting off your mouth! You don't know what you're talking about.

shoot something out 1. to stick, throw, or thrust something outward. □ The diamond shot bright shafts of light out when the sun fell on it. □ The little girl shot out her tongue at the teacher. 2. to settle a matter by the use of guns. (Slang. Typical of gangster or western movies.) □ Bill and the cowboy—with whom he had been arguing—went out in the street and shot it out. □ Don't they know they can settle a problem by talking? They don't need to shoot out the problem when they can talk it over.

shoot the breeze to spend time chatting. (Slang. See also the following entry.) □ I went over to Bob's place and shot the breeze for about an hour. □ Don't spend so much time shooting the breeze. Get to work!

shoot the bull to spend time chatting about one's accomplishments, especially with others who are doing the same. (Slang. See also the previous entry.) □ Those guys out in the backyard are just sitting around shooting the bull. □ It was raining, so everybody spent the day indoors drinking beer and shooting the bull.

shoot the works to do everything; to use up everything; to bet everything. (Slang.) □ Shall I bet half our money, or shall I shoot the works? □ We shot the works at the carnival—spent every cent we brought with us.

shop around (for something) to shop at different stores to find what you want at the best price. □ I've been shopping around for a new car, but they are all priced too high. □ You can find a bargain, but you'll have to shop around.

short and sweet brief (and pleasant because of briefness). □ That was a good sermon—short and sweet. □ I don't care what you say, as long as you make it short and sweet.

short for something <[of a word] being a shortened form of a word or phrase.> □ Photo is short for photograph. □ Dave is short for David.

short of something not having enough of something. □ I wanted to bake a cake, but I was short of eggs. □ Usually at the end of the month, I'm short of money.

a shot in the arm a boost; something that gives someone energy. (Informal.) □ Thank you for cheering me up. It was a real shot in the arm. □ Your friendly greeting card was just what I needed—a real shot in the arm.

a shot in the dark a random or wild guess or try. (Slang.) □ I don't know how I guessed the right answer. It was just a shot in the dark. □ I was lucky to hire such a good worker as Sally. When I hired her, it was just a shot in the dark.

shot through with something containing something; interwoven, intermixed, or filled with something. □ The rose was a lovely pink shot through with streaks of white. □ John's comments are often shot through with sarcasm. □ I want a well-marbled steak—one shot through with fat.

shot to hell Go to (all) shot to hell.

a shotgun wedding a forced wedding. (Informal. From imagery of the bride's father having threatened the bridegroom with a shotgun to force him to marry.) □ Mary was six months pregnant when she married Bill. It was a real shotgun wedding. □ Bob would never have married Jane if she hadn't been pregnant. Jane's father saw to it that it was a shotgun wedding.

should have stood in bed should have stayed in bed. □ What a horrible day! I should have stood in bed. □ The minute I got up and heard the news this morning, I knew I should have stood in bed.

shoulder to shoulder side by side; with a shared purpose. □ The two armies fought shoulder to shoulder against the joint enemy. □ The strikers said they would stand shoulder to shoulder against the management.

shove one's way somewhere to make a path through a crowd by pushing. □ The impatient man shoved his way through the crowd. □ The reporter shoved her way to the front of the crowd.

shove someone or something down someone's throat and ram someone or something down someone's throat; force someone or something down someone's throat to force someone or something on someone. (Slang and a little rude.) □ I don't want any more insurance, and I don't want anyone to shove any insurance down my throat. □ Mary isn't invited to my party, and I don't wish for anyone to ram her down my throat! □ Someone is always trying to force some stupid propaganda down my throat.

show-and-tell a trivial presentation of something of little interest. (Refers to the name of a classroom period in the lower grades where children bring something interesting into the classroom and show it to the rest of the class.) □ I wouldn't call that meeting useful. It was sort of a grown-up show-and-tell. □ After the show-and-tell session where the author talked about his book, we all went into the hall and had refreshments.

show good faith to demonstrate good intentions or good will. □ I'm certain that you showed good faith when you signed the contract. □ Do you doubt that she is showing good faith?

show off to do things in a way that is meant to attract attention. □ Please stop showing off! You embarrass me. □ John is always showing off to his girlfriend.

a show of hands a display of raised hands [in a group of people] that can be counted for the purpose of votes or surveys. □ We were asked to vote for the candidates for captain by a show of hands. □ Jack wanted us to vote on paper, not by a show of hands, so that we could have a secret ballot.

show one's hand to reveal one's intentions to someone. (From card games.) □ I don't know whether Jim is intending to marry Jane or not. He's not one to show his hand. □ If you want to get a raise, don't show the boss your hand too soon.

show one's (true) colors to show what one is really like or what one is really thinking. □ Whose side are you on, John? Come on. Show your colors. □ It's hard to tell what Mary is thinking. She never shows her true colors.

show one to one's seat Go to show someone to a seat.

show signs of something to show hints or indications of something. □ I let the horse run at full speed until it began to show signs of tiring. □ Sally is showing signs of going to sleep.

show someone or something off to display someone or something so that the best features are apparent. □ Mrs. Williams was showing off her baby to the neighbors.

☐ Bill drove around all afternoon showing his new car off.

show someone the ropes to tell or show someone how something is to be done. ☐ Since this was my first day on the job, the manager spent a lot of time showing me the ropes. ☐ Take some time and show the new boy the ropes.

show someone to a seat AND show one to one's seat to lead or direct someone to a place to sit. ☐ May I show you to your seat, sir? ☐ The ushers showed us to our seats politely and efficiently.

show someone (to) the door AND see someone to the door to lead or take someone to the door or exit. ☐ After we finished our talk, she showed me to the door. ☐ Bill and I finished our chat as he saw me to the door.

show someone up to make someone's faults or shortcomings apparent. ☐ John's excellent effort really showed up Bill, who didn't try very hard at all. ☐ John is always trying to show someone up to make himself look better.

show someone up as something to reveal that someone is really something (else). ☐ The investigation showed her up as a fraud. ☐ The test showed the banker up as unqualified.

show something to good advantage to display the best features of something; to display something so that its best features are apparent. ☐ Put the vase in the center of the table and show it to good advantage. ☐ Having and using a large vocabulary shows your intelligence to good advantage.

shuffle off this mortal coil to die. (Often jocular or formal euphemism. Not often used in consoling someone.) ☐ Cousin Fred shuffled off this mortal coil after drinking a jug full of rat poison. ☐ When I shuffle off this mortal coil, I want to go out in style—bells, flowers, and a long, boring funeral.

shut someone up to silence someone. ☐ Oh, shut yourself up! ☐ Will you please shut up that crying baby!

shut something down Go to close something down.

shut the door on someone or something AND close the door on someone or something 1. to close the door in order to keep someone or something out. ☐ Bob opened the door, and when he saw it was Mary, he closed the door on her. ☐ "Don't shut the door on me!" screamed Mary. 2. [with something] to terminate, exclude, or obstruct something. ☐ Your bad attitude shuts the door on any future cooperation from me. ☐ The bad service at that store closes the door on any more business from my company.

shuttle someone or something from person to person AND shuttle someone or something from place to place to move or pass someone or something from person to person; to move or pass someone or something from place to place. ☐ My phone call was shuttled from person to person. ☐ Mary shuttled her children from home to school to practice.

shuttle someone or something from place to place Go to shuttle someone or something from person to person.

shy away (from someone or something) to avoid someone or something. ☐ The dog shies away from John since he kicked it. ☐ I can understand why the dog would shy away. ☐ I shy away from eating onions. I think I'm allergic to them.

sick and tired of someone or something disgusted and annoyed with someone or something. ☐ I'm sick and tired of Ann and her whistling. ☐ We are all sick and tired of this old car.

sick as a dog Go to (as) sick as a dog.

sick in bed remaining in bed while (one is) ill. ☐ Tom is sick in bed with the flu. ☐ He's been sick in bed for nearly a week.

side against someone to be against someone; to take sides against someone. ☐ I thought you were my friend! I never thought you would side against me! ☐ The two brothers were always siding against their sister.

side with someone to join with someone; to take someone else's part; to be on someone's side. □ Why is it that you always side with him when he and I argue? □ I never side with anybody. I form my own opinions.

sight for sore eyes a welcome sight. (Folksy.) □ Oh, am I glad to see you here! You're a sight for sore eyes. □ I'm sure hungry. This meal is a sight for sore eyes.

a sign of things to come Go to a harbinger of things to come.

sign one's own death warrant to do something (knowingly) that will most likely result in severe trouble. (As if one were ordering one's own execution.) □ I wouldn't ever gamble a large sum of money. That would be signing my own death warrant. □ The killer signed his own death warrant when he walked into the police station and gave himself up.

sign on the dotted line to place one's signature on a contract or other important paper. (The line is usually straight and solid.) □ This agreement isn't properly concluded until we both sign on the dotted line. □ Here are the papers for the purchase of your car. As soon as you sign on the dotted line, that beautiful, shiny automobile will be all yours!

sign on (with someone) to sign an agreement to work with or for someone, especially on a ship. □ The sailor signed on with Captain Smith. □ Hardly any other sailor was willing to sign on.

signal (to) someone to do something [for someone] to give someone a command or instruction using a signal. □ The traffic cop signaled me to stop. □ Bill signaled the other driver to pull over to the side of the road.

signed, sealed, and delivered formally and officially signed; [for a formal document to be] executed. □ Here is the deed to the property—signed, sealed, and delivered. □ I can't begin work on this project until I have the contract signed, sealed, and delivered.

silent as the dead Go to (as) silent as the dead.

silent as the grave Go to (as) silent as the grave.

silly as a goose Go to (as) silly as a goose.

silly season the time of year, usually late in the summer, when there is a lack of important news and newspapers contain articles about unimportant or trivial things instead. □ It must be the silly season. There's a story here about peculiarly shaped potatoes. □ There's a piece on the front page about people with big feet. Talk about the silly season!

simmer down to get quiet or calm. (Informal.) □ Hey, you guys! Simmer down! Stop all the noise and go to sleep! □ I'm very busy now. Please come back in a few hours when things have simmered down a bit.

since time immemorial since a very long time ago. □ My hometown has had a big parade on the Fourth of July since time immemorial. □ Since time immemorial, the trees have blossomed each spring.

sing a different tune AND sing another tune to change one's manner, usually from bad to good. (Almost the same as dance to another tune.) □ When she learned that I was a bank director, she began to sing a different tune. □ You will sing another tune as soon as you find out how right I am!

sing another tune Go to sing a different tune.

sing someone's praises to praise someone highly and enthusiastically. □ The boss is singing the praises of his new secretary. □ The theater critics are singing the praises of the young actor.

single file Go to (in) single file.

sink in [for knowledge] to be understood. (Also literal. Informal.) □ I heard what you said, but it took a while for it to sink in. □ I pay careful attention to everything I hear in class, but it usually doesn't sink in.

sink into despair [for someone] to grieve or become depressed. □ After losing all my money, I sank into despair. □ There is no need to sink into despair. Everything is going to be all right.

sink one's teeth into something 1. to take a bite of some kind of food, usually a special kind of food. ☐ I can't wait to sink my teeth into a nice juicy steak. ☐ Look at that chocolate cake! Don't you want to sink your teeth into that? 2. to get a chance to do, learn, or control something. ☐ That appears to be a very challenging assignment. I can't wait to sink my teeth into it. ☐ Being the manager of this department is a big task. I'm very eager to sink my teeth into it.

sink or swim to fail or succeed. ☐ After I've studied and learned all I can, I have to take the test and sink or swim. ☐ It's too late to help John now. It's sink or swim for him.

sit around (somewhere) to sit somewhere and relax or do nothing; to sit idly somewhere. ☐ Tom likes to sit around the house in shorts and a T-shirt on hot days. ☐ Too many people are just sitting around doing nothing at my office.

sit at someone's feet to admire someone greatly; to be influenced by someone's teaching; to be taught by someone. ☐ Jack sat at the feet of Picasso when he was studying in Europe. ☐ Tom would love to sit at the feet of the musician Yehudi Menuhin.

sit back and let something happen to relax and not interfere with something; to let something happen without playing a part in it. ☐ I can't just sit back and let you waste all our money! ☐ Don't worry. Just sit back and let things take care of themselves.

sit bolt upright to sit up straight. ☐ Tony sat bolt upright and listened to what the teacher was saying to him. ☐ After sitting bolt upright for almost an hour in that crowded airplane, I swore I would never travel again.

sit (idly) by to remain inactive when other people are doing something; to ignore a situation that calls for help. ☐ Bob sat idly by even though everyone else was hard at work. ☐ I can't sit by while all those people need food.

sit in for someone to take someone's else's place in a specific activity. (The activity usually involves being seated.) ☐ I can't be at the meeting Thursday. Will you sit in for me? ☐ Sorry, I can't sit in for you. John is also going to be absent, and I am sitting in for him.

sit in (on something) to witness or observe something without participating. (Usually involves being seated.) ☐ I can't sign up for the history class, but I have permission to sit in on it. ☐ I asked the professor if I could sit in.

sit on its hands [for an audience] to refuse to applaud. ☐ We saw a very poor performance of the play. The audience sat on its hands for the entire play. ☐ The audience just sat on its hands.

sit on one's hands to do nothing; to fail to help. ☐ When we needed help from Mary, she just sat on her hands. ☐ We need the cooperation of everyone. You can't sit on your hands!

sit on someone or something to hold someone or something back; to delay someone or something. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ The project cannot be finished because the city council is sitting on the final approval. ☐ Ann deserves to be promoted, but the manager is sitting on her because of a disagreement.

sit on the fence not to take sides in a dispute; not to make a clear choice between two possibilities. (Also literal.) ☐ When Jane and Tom argue, it is well to sit on the fence and then you won't make either of them angry. ☐ No one knows which of the candidates Joan will vote for. She's sitting on the fence.

sit something out not to participate in something; to wait until something is over before participating. ☐ Oh, please play with us. Don't sit it out. ☒ I'm tired of playing cards, so I think I'll sit out this game.

sit through something to witness or endure all of something. ☐ The performance was so bad that I could hardly sit through it. ☐ You can't expect small children to sit through a long movie.

sit tight to wait; to wait patiently. (Informal. This does not necessarily refer to sitting.) □ Just relax and sit tight. I'll be right with you. □ We were waiting in line for the gates to open when someone came out and told us to sit tight because it wouldn't be much longer before we could go in.

sit up and take notice to become alert and pay attention. □ A loud noise from the front of the room caused everyone to sit up and take notice. □ The company wouldn't pay any attention to my complaints. When I had my lawyer write them a letter, they sat up and took notice.

sit up with someone to stay with someone through the night, especially with a sick or troubled person or with someone who is waiting for something. □ I had to sit up with my younger sister when she was ill. □ I sat up with Bill while he waited for an overseas telephone call.

sit with someone 1. to stay with someone; to sit up with someone. □ Sally was upset, so I sat with her for a while. □ My uncle sat with me my first day in the hospital. 2. to stay with and care for one or more children; to baby-sit for someone. □ I hired Mrs. Wilson to sit with the children. □ We couldn't go out for dinner because we couldn't find anyone to sit with the kids.

a sitting duck someone or something vulnerable to attack, physical or verbal. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like. See also a sitting target.) □ You are a sitting duck out there. Get in here where the enemy cannot fire at you. □ The senator was a sitting duck because of his position on school reform.

sitting on a powder keg in a risky or explosive situation; in a situation where something serious or dangerous may happen at any time. (Informal. A powder keg is a keg of gunpowder.) □ Things are very tense at work. The whole office is sitting on a powder keg. □ The fire at the oil field seems to be under control for now, but all the workers there are sitting on a powder keg.

(sitting) on top of the world feeling wonderful; glorious; ecstatic. □ Wow, I feel on top of the world. □ Since he got a new job, he's on top of the world.

sitting pretty living in comfort or luxury; in a good situation. (Informal.) □ My uncle died and left enough money for me to be sitting pretty for the rest of my life. □ Now that I have a good-paying job, I'm sitting pretty.

a sitting target someone or something that is in a position that is easily attacked. (See also a sitting duck.) □ The old man was a sitting target for the burglars. He lived alone and did not have a telephone. □ People recently hired will be sitting targets if the company needs to cut back.

six of one and half a dozen of the other about the same one way or another. □ It doesn't matter to me which way you do it. It's six of one and half a dozen of the other. □ What difference does it make? They're both the same—six of one and half a dozen of the other.

sixth sense a supposed power to know or feel things that are not perceptible by the five senses of sight, hearing, smell, taste, and touch. □ I have a sixth sense that told me to avoid going home by my usual route. Later I discovered there had been a fatal accident on it. □ Jane's sixth sense demanded that she not trust Tom, even though he seemed honest enough.

size someone or something up to observe someone or something to get information; to check someone or something. □ The comedian sized the audience up and decided not to use his new material. □ I like to size up a situation before I act.

skate on thin ice to be in a risky situation. (Also literal. See also on thin ice.) □ I try to stay well informed so I don't end up skating on thin ice when the teacher asks me a question. □ You are skating on thin ice when you ask me that!

a skeleton in the closet AND skeletons in the closet a hidden and shocking secret. □ You can ask anyone about how reliable I am. I don't mind. I don't have any skeletons in the closet. □ My uncle was in jail for a day once. That's our family's skeleton in the closet.

skin and bones Go to nothing but skin and bones.

skin someone alive to be very angry with someone; to scold someone severely. (Folksy.) □ I was so mad at Jane that I could have skinned her alive. □ If I don't get home on time, my parents will skin me alive.

skip bail Go to jump bail.

skip out (on someone or something) to sneak away from someone or some event; to leave someone or an event in secret. (Slang.) □ I heard that Bill skipped out on his wife. □ I'm not surprised. I thought he should have skipped out long ago.

skip rope to jump over an arc of rope that is passed beneath one's feet then over one's head, repeatedly. □ The children skipped rope on the playground. □ The boxer skipped rope while training.

The sky's the limit. There is no limit to the success that can be achieved or the money that can be gained or spent. □ If you take a job with us, you'll find the promotion prospects very good. The sky's the limit, in fact. □ The insurance salesmen were told that the sky was the limit when it came to potential earnings.

slack off 1. to taper off; to reduce gradually. □ Business tends to slack off during the winter months. □ The storms begin to slack off in April. 2. to become less active; to become lazy or inefficient. □ Near the end of the school year, Sally began to slack off, and her grades showed it. □ John got fired for slacking off during the busy season.

a slap in the face an insult; an act that causes disappointment or discouragement. □ Losing the election was a slap in the face for the club president. □ Failing to get into a good college was a slap in the face to Tim after his years of study.

slap someone down to rebuke or rebuff someone, possibly with actual slapping. □ You may disagree with her, but you needn't slap her down like that. □ I only asked you what time it was! There's no need to slap me down! What a rotten humor you're in!

slap someone on the wrist Go to give someone a slap on the wrist.

slap someone's wrist Go to give someone a slap on the wrist.

slap something together Go to throw something together.

slated for something scheduled for something. (Refers to a schedule written on a slate.) □ John was slated for Friday's game, but he couldn't play with the team. □ Ann is slated for promotion next year.

slated to do something scheduled to do something. □ John was slated to play ball Friday. □ Who is slated to work this weekend?

a slave to something someone who is under the control of something; someone who is controlled by something. (Preceded by be, become, seem like, or act like.) □ Mary is a slave to her job. □ Bill is a slave to his drug addiction.

sleep in to oversleep; to sleep late in the morning. □ If you sleep in again, you'll get fired. □ I really felt like sleeping in this morning.

sleep like a baby Go to sleep like a log.

sleep like a log AND sleep like a baby to sleep very soundly. □ Everyone in our family sleeps like a log, so no one heard the fire engines in the middle of the night. □ Nothing can wake me up. I usually sleep like a baby.

sleep on something to think about something overnight; to weigh a decision overnight. □ I don't know whether I agree to do it. Let me sleep on it. □ I slept on it, and I've decided to accept your offer.

sleep something off to sleep while the effects of liquor or drugs pass away. □ John drank too much and went home to sleep it off. □ Bill is at home sleeping off the effects of the drug they gave him.

sleep with someone 1. to share a bed with someone. □ Do I have to sleep with my little brother? □ Many little boys have to sleep with their brothers. 2. to copulate with someone. (Euphemistic.) □ I hear

Sam's sleeping with Sally now. □ Whom did you say he slept with?

a slice of the cake a share of something. (Also literal.) □ There's not much work around and so everyone must get a slice of the cake. □ The company makes huge profits and the workers want a slice of the cake.

slick as a whistle Go to (as) slick as a whistle.

slip away AND slip off; slip out to go away or escape quietly or in secret. □ I slipped away when no one was looking. □ Let's slip off somewhere and have a little talk. □ I'll try to slip out for an hour or two when Tom is asleep.

slip off Go to slip away.

a slip of the tongue an error in speaking where a word is pronounced incorrectly, or where something that the speaker did not mean to say is said. □ I didn't mean to tell her that. It was a slip of the tongue. □ I failed to understand the instructions because the speaker made a slip of the tongue at an important point.

slip one's mind [for something that was to be remembered] to be forgotten. □ I meant to go to the grocery store on the way home, but it slipped my mind. □ My birthday slipped my mind. I guess I wanted to forget it.

slip out 1. [for secret information] to be revealed. □ I asked her to keep our engagement secret, but she let it slip out. □ I didn't mean to tell. It just slipped out. 2. Go to slip away.

slip through someone's fingers to get away from someone; for someone to lose track (of something or someone). (Also literal.) □ I had a copy of the book you want, but somehow it slipped through my fingers. □ There was a detective following me, but I managed to slip through his fingers.

slip up to make an error. (Informal. Also without up.) □ Try as hard as you can to do it right and not slip up. □ Everything was going fine until the last minute when I slipped up.

slippery as an eel Go to (as) slippery as an eel.

Slow and steady wins the race. Deliberateness and determination will lead to success, or (literally) a reasonable pace will win a race. (Proverb.) □ I worked my way through college in six years. Now I know what they mean when they say, "Slow and steady wins the race." □ Ann won the race because she started off slowly and established a good pace. The other runners tried to sprint the whole distance, and they tired out before the final lap. Ann's trainer said, "You see! I told you! Slow and steady wins the race."

slow as molasses in January Go to (as) slow as molasses in January.

slow going the rate of speed when one is making progress. □ It was slow going at first, but I was able to finish the project by the weekend. □ Getting the heavy rocks out of the field is slow going.

slow on the draw 1. slow in drawing a gun. (Slang. Compare this with quick on the draw. Cowboy and gangster talk.) □ Bill got shot because he's so slow on the draw. □ The gunslinger said, "I have to be fast. If I'm slow on the draw, I'm dead."

2. AND slow on the uptake slow to figure something out; slow-thinking. (Slang. Compare this with quick on the draw.) □ Sally didn't get the joke because she's sort of slow on the draw. □ Bill—who's slow on the uptake—didn't get the joke until it was explained to him.

slow on the uptake Go to slow on the draw.

slow someone or something down Go to slow someone or something up.

slow someone or something up AND slow someone or something down to cause someone or something to reduce speed. (The phrases with up are informal.) □ I'm in a hurry. Don't try to slow me down. □ Please slow up the train. There are sheep near the track.

slower and slower at a decreasing rate of speed; slow and then even slower. □ The car is going slower and slower and will stop soon. □ The dog's breathing got slower and slower as it went to sleep.

slower than molasses in January Go to (as) slow as molasses in January.

slow(ly) but sure(ly) slowly but with a purpose; slowly and deliberately. (The expression without the -ly is informal.) □ Slowly but surely, the little train reached the top of the mountain. □ Progress was slow but sure. Someday we would be finished.

sly as a fox Go to (as) sly as a fox.

smack-dab in the middle right in the middle. (Informal.) □ I want a big helping of mashed potatoes with a glob of butter smack-dab in the middle. □ Tom and Sally were having a terrible argument, and I was trapped—smack-dab in the middle.

small fry 1. unimportant people. (Small fry are small, juvenile fish.) □ The police have only caught the small fry. The leader of the gang is still free. □ You people are just small fry! I want to talk to the boss. 2. children. □ Peter's taking the small fry to the zoo. □ We should take the small fry to the pantomime.

small hours (of the night) AND wee hours (of the night) the hours immediately after midnight. □ The dance went on into the small hours of the night. □ Jim goes to bed in the wee hours and gets up at lunchtime.

the small print AND the fine print the part of a document that is not easily noticed, often because of the smallness of the print, and that often contains important information. □ You should have read the small print before signing the contract. □ You should always read the fine print in an insurance policy.

small-time small; on a small scale. (Informal.) □ Our business is small-time just now, but it's growing. □ He's a small-time crook.

smear campaign (against someone) a campaign aimed at damaging someone's reputation by making accusations and spreading rumors. □ The politician's opponents are engaging in a smear campaign against him. □ Jack started a smear campaign against Tom so that Tom wouldn't get the manager's job.

smell a rat to suspect that something is wrong; to sense that someone has caused something wrong. (Slang.) □ I don't think this was an accident. I smell a rat. Bob had something to do with this. □ The minute I came in, I smelled a rat. Sure enough, I had been robbed.

smell to high heaven Go to stink to high heaven.

smile on someone or something to be favorable to someone or something. □ Fate smiled on me and I got the job. □ Lady luck smiled on our venture and we made a profit.

smoke and mirrors deception and confusion. (Said of statements or more complicated rhetoric used to mislead people rather than inform. Refers to the way a magician uses optical illusion to create believability while performing a trick.) □ Most people know that the politician was just using smoke and mirrors to make things look better than they really were. □ Her report was little more than smoke and mirrors. No one will believe any of it.

smoke someone or something out to force someone or something out (of something), perhaps with smoke. (In cowboy or gangster talk this refers to the smoke from gunfire.) □ There was a mouse in the attic, but I smoked it out. □ The sheriff and the deputies smoked out the bank robbers.

smooth as glass Go to (as) smooth as glass.

smooth as silk Go to (as) smooth as silk.

smooth something out Go to smooth something over.

smooth something over AND smooth something out to reduce the intensity of an argument or a misunderstanding; to try to make people feel better about something that has happened. (Also literal.) □ Mary and John had a terrible argument, and they are both trying to smooth it over. □ Let's get everyone together and try to smooth things out. We can't keep on arguing with one another. ☐ We can smooth over the whole affair.

- a snake in the grass a low and deceitful person. ☐ Sally said that Bob couldn't be trusted because he was a snake in the grass.
 ☐ "You snake in the grass!" cried Sally. "You cheated me."

snap at someone to speak sharply or angrily to someone. ☐ Don't snap at me. What did I do? ☐ Why did you snap at me? What did I do?

snap out of something to become suddenly freed from a state. (Informal. The state can be a depression, an illness, unconsciousness, etc.) ☐ I was very depressed for a week, but this morning I snapped out of it. ☐ It isn't often that a cold gets me down. Usually I can snap out of it quickly.

snap something up 1. to grab and buy something. ☐ I always snap bargains up whenever I go shopping. ☐ I went to the store, and they had soup on sale, so I snapped up plenty. 2. to make something go faster. ☐ You're playing this music too slowly. Snap it up! ☐ This performance is getting slow and dull. Let's snap up the whole thing!

sniff someone or something out to locate someone or something. (Also literal.) ☐ I'll see if I can sniff out the correct stylus for your stereo. ☐ Billy was lost, but by looking around, we were able to sniff him out.

snug as a bug in a rug Go to (as) snug as a bug in a rug.

so-and-so a despised person. (Informal. This expression is used in place of other very insulting terms. Often modified, as in the example below.) ☐ You dirty so-and-so! I can't stand you! ☐ Don't you call me a so-and-so, you creep!

So be it. This is the way it will be. ☐ If you insist on running off and marrying her, so be it. Only don't say I didn't warn you! ☐ Mary has decided that this is what she wants. So be it.

so clean you could eat off the floor [of a room or a house] very clean. ☐ Her kitchen is so clean you could eat off the floor! ☐ It's so clean here you could eat off the floor. I prefer a little mess, myself.

so far as anyone knows Go to (as) far as anyone knows.

so far as possible Go to as far as possible.

so far as someone or something is concerned Go to (as) far as someone or something is concerned.

so far as something is concerned Go to (as) far as something is concerned.

So far, so good. All is going well so far. ☐ We are half finished with our project. So far, so good. ☐ The operation is proceeding quite nicely—so far, so good.

So it goes. That is the kind of thing that happens.; That is life. ☐ Too bad about John and his problems. So it goes. ☐ I just lost a twenty-dollar bill, and I can't find it anywhere. So it goes.

so long good-bye. (Informal.) ☐ So long, see you later. ☐ As John got out of the car, he said, "Thanks for the ride. So long."

so long as Go to as long as.

so mad I could scream very mad. ☐ I am just so mad I could scream! Why is he such a jerk? ☐ She makes me so mad I could scream.

so much for someone or something that is the last of someone or something; there is no need to consider someone or something anymore. ☐ It just started raining. So much for our picnic this afternoon. ☐ So much for John. He just called in sick and can't come to work today.

so much the better even better; all to the better. (Informal.) ☐ Please come to the picnic. If you can bring a salad, so much the better. ☐ The flowers look lovely on the shelf. It would be so much the better if you put them on the table.

so quiet you could hear a pin drop Go to so still you could hear a pin drop.

so-so not good and not bad; mediocre. (Informal.) ☐ I didn't have a bad day. It was just so-so. ☐ The players put on a so-so performance.

so soon early; before the regular time; ahead of schedule. □ I got there early because my bus arrived so soon. □ Because the meeting ended so soon, I had some extra time.

so still you could hear a pin drop ^{AND} so quiet you could hear a pin drop very quiet. (Also with can.) □ When I came into the room, it was so still you could hear a pin drop. Then everyone shouted, "Happy birthday!" □ Please be quiet. Be so quiet you can hear a pin drop.

so to speak as one might say; said a certain way, even though the words are not exactly accurate. □ John helps me with my taxes. He's my accountant, so to speak. □ I just love my little poodle. She's my baby, so to speak.

soaked to the skin with one's clothing wet clear through to the skin. □ I was caught in the rain and got soaked to the skin. □ Oh, come in and dry off! You must be soaked to the skin.

sober as a judge Go to (as) sober as a judge.

sock something away to store something in a safe place. (Informal.) □ While I worked in the city, I was able to sock $100 away every month. □ At the present time, I can't sock away that much.

soft as a baby's bottom Go to (as) soft as a baby's bottom.

soft as down Go to (as) soft as down.

soft as silk Go to (as) soft as silk.

soft as velvet Go to (as) soft as velvet.

soil one's diaper(s) [for a baby] to excrete waste into its diaper. □ The baby soiled his diapers. □ I detect that someone has soiled his diaper.

soil one's hands Go to get one's hands dirty.

sold out [of a product] completely sold with no more items remaining; [of a store] having no more of a particular product. □ The tickets were sold out so we couldn't go to the concert. □ I wanted new shoes like yours, but they were sold out.

solid as a rock Go to (as) solid as a rock.

(some) new blood new personnel; new members brought into a group to revive it. □ This company needs some new blood on its board to bring in new ideas. □ We're trying to get some new blood in the club. Our membership is falling. □ Our club needs new blood. It has become boring. □ The firm's management has at last got a little new blood. Things should improve now.

someone or something checks out someone or something is verified or authenticated. (Informal.) □ I spent all afternoon working with my checkbook, trying to get the figures to check out. □ The police wouldn't believe that I am who I say I am until they made a few telephone calls to see if my story checked out.

someone of note a person who is famous. □ We invited a speaker of note to lecture at the next meeting. □ The baseball player of note was inducted into the Hall of Fame.

someone's ace in the hole something or someone held (secretly) in reserve; anything that can help in an emergency. (Slang. Refers to an ace dealt facedown in poker.) □ The hostages served as the terrorists' ace in the hole for getting what they wanted. □ The twenty-dollar bill in my shoe is my ace in the hole.

someone's bread and butter someone's income; someone's livelihood—the source of one's food. (Work or a job leads to a paycheck that will buy bread and butter.) □ I can't miss another day of work. That's my bread and butter. □ I like to go to business conferences. That's good because that's my bread and butter.

someone's goose is cooked one is finished; one has been found out and is in trouble. □ It's over. His goose is cooked! □ If I get caught, my goose is cooked.

someone's last will and testament a will; the last edition of someone's will. □ The lawyer read Uncle Charles's last will and testament to a group of expectant relatives. □ Fred dictated his last will and testament on his deathbed.

someone's mission in life one's purpose for living; the reason for which one lives on the earth. □ Bob's mission in life is to make money. □ My mission in life is to help people live in peace.

someone's pet hate something that is disliked intensely by someone and is a constant or repeated annoyance. □ My pet hate is being put on hold on the telephone. □ Another pet hate of mine is having to stand in line.

someone's pet peeve one's "favorite" or most often encountered annoyance. □ My pet peeve is someone who always comes into the theater after the show has started. □ Drivers who don't signal are John's pet peeve.

someone's place of business a place where business is done; a factory or office. □ Our place of business opens at noon each day. □ You will have to come to our place of business to make a purchase.

someone's swan song the last work or performance of a playwright, musician, actor, etc., before death or retirement. □ His portrayal of Lear was the actor's swan song. □ We didn't know that her performance last night was the singer's swan song.

someone's train of thought someone's pattern of thinking; someone's sequence of ideas; what one was just thinking about. (See also lose one's train of thought.) □ My train of thought is probably not as clear as it should be. □ I cannot seem to follow your train of thought on this matter. Will you explain it a little more carefully, please?

someone wrote the book on something to be very authoritative about something; to know enough about something to write the definitive book on it. (Also literal. Always in past tense.) □ Ted wrote the book on unemployment. He's been looking for work in three states for two years. □ Do I know about misery? I wrote the book on misery!

something about someone or something something strange, special, or curious about someone or something. □ There is something about Jane. I just can't figure her out. □ I love Mexican food. There's just something about it.

something else something wonderful; something extra special. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Did you see her new car? That's really something else! □ John hit a ball yesterday that went out of the stadium and kept on going. He's something else!

something else (again) something entirely different. (Informal.) □ Borrowing is one thing, but stealing is something else. □ Skin diving is easy and fun, but scuba diving is something else again.

something of the sort something of the kind just mentioned. □ This is a spruce tree, or something of the sort. □ Jane has a cold or something of the sort.

something or other something; one thing or another. (Informal.) □ I can't remember what Ann said—something or other. □ A messenger came by and dropped off something or other at the front desk.

something to that effect AND words to that effect something like what was just said. (Informal.) □ She said she wouldn't be available until after three, or something to that effect. □ I was told to keep out of the house—or something to that effect.

something's up something is going to happen; something is going on. (Slang.) □ Everybody looks very nervous. I think something's up. □ From the looks of all the activity around here, I think something's up.

(somewhere) in the neighborhood of an amount approximately a particular measurement. □ I take somewhere in the neighborhood of ten pills a day for my various ailments. □ My rent is in the neighborhood of $700 per month.

somewhere to hang (up) one's hat AND a place to hang one's hat; a place to call one's own a place to live; a place to call one's home. □ What I need is somewhere to hang up my hat. I just can't stand all this traveling. □ A home is a lot more than a place to hang your hat.

son of a bitch 1. a very horrible person. (Informal. Use with caution. Usually intended as a strong insult. Never used casually.) □ Bill called Bob a son of a bitch, and Bob punched Bill in the face. □ This guy's a son of a bitch. He treats everybody rotten. 2. a useless annoyance; something worthless. □ This car is a son of a bitch. It won't ever start when it's cold. □ This bumpy old road needs paving. It's a real son of a bitch. 3. a difficult task. (Informal.) □ This job is a son of a bitch. □ I can't do this kind of thing. It's too hard—a real son of a bitch.

son of a gun 1. a horrible person. (Informal. A euphemism for son of a bitch. Use with caution.) □ When is that plumber going to show up and fix this leak? The stupid son of a gun! □ Bob is a rotten son of a gun if he thinks he can get away with that. 2. old (male) friend. (Informal. A friendly—male to male—way of referring to a friend. Use with caution.) □ Why Bill, you old son of a gun, I haven't seen you in three or four years. □ When is that son of a gun John going to come visit us? He's neglecting his friends.

son of a sea biscuit a person, usually a male. (Sometimes a substitute for son of a bitch.) □ Why, good to see you, you old son of a sea biscuit. □ You son of a sea biscuit! You make me so mad I could slug you.

soon as possible Go to (as) soon as possible.

sooner or later eventually; in the short term or in the long term. □ He'll have to pay the bill sooner or later. □ She'll get what she deserves sooner or later.

sorry Go to (I'm) sorry.

sort of something AND kind of something almost something; somewhat; somehow. (Informal.) □ Isn't it sort of cold out? □ That was kind of a stupid thing to do, wasn't it?

sort something out to clear up confusion; to straighten out something disorderly. (Also literal.) □ Now that things are settled down, I can sort out my life. □ This place is a mess. Let's sort things out before we do anything else.

sound as a dollar Go to (as) sound as a dollar.

sound as if AND sound like to seem, from what has been said, as if something were so. (Sound like is colloquial.) □ It sounds as if you had a good vacation. □ You sound like you are angry.

sound like Go to sound as if.

sound like a broken record to say the same thing over and over again. (From an earlier age when a crack in a 78 rpm record would cause the needle (or stylus) to stay in the same groove and play it over and over.) □ He's always complaining about the way she treats him. He sounds like a broken record! □ I hate to sound like a broken record, but we just don't have enough people on the payroll to work efficiently.

sound like something to seem like something. □ That sounds like a good idea. □ Your explanation sounds like an excuse!

sound off (about something) to speak loudly and freely about something, especially when complaining. (Informal.) □ The people at the bus stop were sounding off about the poor transportation services. □ Bob was sounding off about the government's economic policies. □ Sam sounds off every chance he gets.

sound someone out to try to find out what someone thinks (about something). □ I don't know what Jane thinks about your suggestion, but I'll sound her out. □ Please sound out everyone in your department.

soup something up to make something (especially a car) more powerful. (Slang.) □ I wish someone would soup my car up. It'll hardly run. □ Bill spent all summer soup-ing up that old car he bought.

sour as vinegar Go to (as) sour as vinegar.

sow one's wild oats to do wild and foolish things in one's youth. (Often assumed to have some sort of sexual meaning.) □ Dale was out sowing his wild oats last night, and he's in jail this morning. □ Mrs. Smith told Mr. Smith that he was too old to be sowing his wild oats.

spaced-out dopey; giddy. (Slang.) □ I don't see how Sally can accomplish anything. She's so spaced-out! □ She's not really spaced-out. She acts that way on purpose.

spare someone something to exempt someone from having to listen to or experience something. □ I'll spare you the details and get to the point. □ Please, spare me the story and tell me what you want.

speak for itself AND speak for themselves [for something] not to need explaining; [for things] to have an obvious meaning. □ The evidence speaks for itself. □ The facts speak for themselves. Tom is guilty. □ Your results speak for themselves. You need to work harder.

speak for themselves Go to speak for itself.

speak highly of someone or something to say good things about someone or something. (Note the variation in the examples. See also think a lot of someone or something.) □ Ann speaks quite highly of Jane's work. □ Everyone speaks very highly of Jane.

speak ill of someone to say something bad about someone. □ I refuse to speak ill of any of my friends. □ Max speaks ill of no one and refuses to repeat gossip.

speak off the cuff to speak in public without preparation. □ I'm not too good at speaking off the cuff. □ I need to prepare a speech for Friday, although I speak off the cuff quite well.

speak of the devil said when someone whose name has just been mentioned appears or is heard from. □ Well, speak of the devil! Hello, Tom. We were just talking about you. □ I had just mentioned Sally when—speak of the devil—she walked in the door.

speak one's mind to say frankly what one thinks (about something). (See also speak out (on something).) □ Please let me speak my mind, and then you can do whatever you wish. □ You can always depend on John to speak his mind. He'll let you know what he really thinks.

speak out of turn to say something unwise or imprudent; to say the right thing at the wrong time. □ Excuse me if I'm speaking out of turn, but what you are proposing is quite wrong. □ Bob was quite honest, even if he was speaking out of turn.

speak out (on something) to say something frankly and directly; to speak one's mind. (See also speak up.) □ This law is wrong, and I intend to speak out on it until it is repealed. □ You must speak out. People need to know what you think.

speak the same language [for people] to have similar ideas, tastes, etc. (Also literal.) □ Jane and Jack get along very well. They really speak the same language about almost everything. □ Bob and his father didn't speak the same language when it comes to politics.

speak up 1. to speak more loudly. □ They can't hear you in the back of the room. Please speak up. □ What? Speak up, please. I'm hard of hearing. 2. to speak out (on something). □ If you think that this is wrong, you must speak up and say so. □ I'm too shy to speak up.

speak up for someone or something to speak in favor of someone or something; to speak in someone's defense. □ If anybody says bad things about me, I hope you speak up for me. □ I want to speak up for the rights of students.

speak with a forked tongue to tell lies; to try to deceive someone. □ Jean's mother sounds very charming, but she speaks with a forked tongue. □ People tend to believe Fred because he seems plausible, but we know he speaks with a forked tongue.

spell something out 1. to spell something (in letters). (Also without out.) □ I can't understand your name. Can you spell it out? □ Please spell out all the strange words so I can write them down correctly. 2. to give all the details of something. □ I want you to understand this completely, so I'm going to spell it out very carefully. □ The instruction book for my computer spells out everything very carefully.

spell trouble to signify future trouble; to mean trouble. (Informal.) □ This letter that came today spells trouble. □ The sky looks angry and dark. That spells trouble.

spick-and-span very clean. (Informal.) □ I have to clean up the house and get it spick-and-span for the party Friday night. □ I love to have everything around me spick-and-span.

spill the beans Go to let the cat out of the bag.

spin a yarn to tell a tale. □ Grandpa spun an unbelievable yarn for us. □ My uncle is always spinning yarns about his childhood.

spin one's wheels to be in motion, but get nowhere. (Slang.) □ This is a terrible job. I'm just spinning my wheels and not getting anywhere. □ Get organized and try to accomplish something. Stop spinning your wheels!

spin something off to create something as a by-product of something else. □ When the company reorganized, it spun its banking division off. □ By spinning off part of its assets, a company gets needed capital.

spit (something) up to throw something up; to vomit something. (A little gentler than throw (something) up.) □ I guess that the food didn't agree with the dog, because he spit it up. □ The baby has been spitting up all morning. □ Bob spit up his whole dinner.

split hairs to quibble; to try to make petty distinctions. □ They don't have any serious differences. They are just splitting hairs. □ Don't waste time splitting hairs. Accept it the way it is.

split one's sides (with laughter) to laugh so hard that one's sides almost split. (Always an exaggeration.) □ The members of the audience almost split their sides with laughter. □ When I heard what happened to Patricia, I almost split my sides.

split people up to separate two or more people (from one another). □ If you two don't stop chattering, I'll have to split you up. □ The group of people grew too large, so we had to split them up. □ I will have to split up that twosome in the corner.

split something fifty-fifty Go to divide something fifty-fifty.

split the difference to divide the difference evenly (with someone else). □ You want to sell for $120, and I want to buy for $100. Let's split the difference and close the deal at $110. □ I don't want to split the difference. I want $120.

split up [for people] to separate or leave one another; [for a couple] to divorce or separate. □ I heard that Mr. and Mrs. Brown have split up. □ Our little club had to split up because everyone was too busy.

spoken for taken; reserved (for someone). □ I'm sorry, but this one is already spoken for. □ Pardon me. Can I sit here, or is this seat spoken for?

spook someone or something to startle or disorient someone or something. (Folksy.) □ A snake spooked my horse, and I nearly fell off. □ Your warning spooked me, and I was upset for the rest of the day.

spoon-feed someone to treat someone with too much care or help; to teach someone with methods that are too easy and do not stimulate the learner to independent thinking. (Also literal.) □ The teacher spoon-feeds the students by dictating notes on the novel instead of getting the children to read the books. □ You mustn't spoon-feed the new recruits by telling them what to do all the time. They must use their initiative.

a sporting chance a reasonably good chance. (See also fighting chance.) □ If you hurry, you have a sporting chance of catching the bus. □ The small company has only a sporting chance of getting the export order.

spout off (about someone or something) to talk too much about someone or something. (Informal.) □ Why do you always have to spout off about things that don't concern you? □ Everyone in our office spouts off about the boss. □ There is no need to spout off like that. Calm down and think about what you're saying.

spread it on thick Go to lay it on thick.

spread like wildfire to spread rapidly and without control. □ The epidemic is spreading like wildfire. Everyone is getting sick. ☐ John told a joke that was so funny it spread like wildfire.

spread oneself too thin to do so many things that you can do none of them well. ☐ It's a good idea to get involved in a lot of activities, but don't spread yourself too thin. ☐ I'm too busy these days. I'm afraid I've spread myself too thin.

spring for something to treat (someone) to something. (Slang.) ☐ John and I went out last night, and he sprang for dinner. ☐ At the park Bill usually springs for ice cream.

spring something on someone to surprise someone with something. (Informal.) ☐ I'm glad you told me now, rather than springing it on me at the last minute. ☐ I sprang the news on my parents last night. They were not glad to hear it.

spruce someone or something up to make someone or something clean and orderly. ☐ I'll be ready to go as soon as I spruce myself up a bit. ☒ I have to spruce up the house for the party.

square accounts (with someone) 1. to settle one's financial accounts with someone. ☐ I have to square accounts with the bank this week, or it'll take back my car. ☐ I called the bank and said I needed to come in and square accounts. 2. to get even with someone; to straighten out a misunderstanding with someone. (Informal.) ☐ I'm going to square accounts with Tom. He insulted me in public, and he owes me an apology. ☐ Tom, you and I are going to have to square accounts.

square deal a fair and honest transaction; fair treatment. (Informal.) ☐ All the workers want is a square deal, but their boss underpays them. ☐ You always get a square deal with that travel company.

square meal a nourishing, filling meal. ☐ All you've eaten today is junk food. You should sit down to a square meal. ☐ The poor old man hadn't had a square meal in weeks.

square off (for something) to get ready for an argument or a fight. ☐ John was angry and appeared to be squaring off for a fight. ☐ When those two square off, everyone gets out of the way.

a square peg in a round hole a misfit. ☐ John can't seem to get along with the people he works with. He's just a square peg in a round hole. ☐ I'm not a square peg in a round hole. It's just that no one understands me.

square someone or something away to get someone or something arranged or properly taken care of. ☐ See if you can square Bob away in his new office. ☒ Please square away the problems we discussed earlier.

square up to someone or something to face someone or something bravely; to tackle someone or something. ☐ You'll have to square up to the bully or he'll make your life miserable. ☐ It's time to square up to your financial problems. You can't just ignore them.

square up with someone to pay someone what one owes; to pay one's share of something to someone. (Informal.) ☐ I'll square up with you later if you pay the whole bill now. ☐ Bob said he would square up with Tom for his share of the gas.

squared away arranged or properly taken care of. ☐ Is Ann squared away yet? ☐ I will talk to you when I am squared away.

squeak by (someone or something) to just barely get by someone or something. (Informal.) ☐ The guard was almost asleep, so I squeaked by him. ☐ I wasn't very well prepared for the test, and I just squeaked by.

squirrel something away to hide or store something. (Folksy.) ☐ Billy has been squirreling candy away in his top drawer. ☒ I've been squirreling away a little money each week for years.

stab someone in the back to betray someone. (Also literal. Informal.) ☐ I thought we were friends! Why did you stab me in the back? ☐ You don't expect a person whom you trust to stab you in the back.

stack something up to make a stack of things. (Also without the up.) ☐ Where should I stack them up? ☐ Please stack up these boxes.

stack the cards (against someone or something) Go to stack the deck (against someone or something).

stack the deck (against someone or something) AND stack the cards (against someone or something) to arrange things against someone or something. (Slang. Originally from card playing.) ☐ I can't get ahead at my office. Someone has stacked the cards against me. ☐ Do you really think that someone has stacked the deck? Isn't it just fate?

stake a claim (to something) to lay or make a claim for something. (Informal.) ☐ I want to stake a claim to that last piece of pie. ☐ You don't need to stake a claim. Just ask politely.

stall someone or something off to put off or delay someone or something. ☐ The sheriff is at the door. I'll stall him off while you get out the back door. ☐ You can stall off the sheriff, but you can't stall off justice.

stamp someone or something out 1. [with someone] to get rid of or kill someone. (Slang.) ☐ You just can't stamp somebody out on your own! ☐ The victim wanted to stamp out the robbers without a trial. 2. [with something] to extinguish something. ☐ Quick, stamp that fire out before it spreads. ☐ Tom stamped out the sparks before they started a fire. 3. [with something] to eliminate something. ☐ The doctors hope they can stamp cancer out. ☐ Many people think that they can stamp out evil.

stand a chance to have a chance. ☐ Do you think I stand a chance of winning first place? ☐ Everyone stands a chance of catching the disease.

stand and deliver to give up something to someone who demands it. (Originally used by highway robbers asking for passengers' valuables. Now used figuratively.) ☐ And when the tax agent says "Stand and deliver" you have to be prepared to pay what is demanded. ☐ The robber stopped the coach and demanded of Lady Ellen, "Stand and deliver!"

stand behind someone or something AND stand (in) back of someone or something to endorse or guarantee something or the actions of a person. (Also literal.) ☐ Our company stands behind this product 100 percent. ☐ I stand behind Bill and everything he does.

stand by to wait and remain ready. (Generally heard in communication, such as broadcasting, telephones, etc.) ☐ Your transatlantic telephone call is almost ready. Please stand by. ☐ Is everyone ready for the telecast? Only ten seconds—stand by.

stand by someone to support someone; to continue supporting someone even when things are bad. (Also literal. Compare this with stick by someone or something.) ☐ Don't worry. I'll stand by you no matter what. ☐ I feel as though I have to stand by my brother even if he goes to jail.

stand corrected to admit that one has been wrong. ☐ I realize that I accused him wrongly. I stand corrected. ☐ We appreciate now that our conclusions were wrong. We stand corrected.

stand for something 1. to endure something. ☐ The teacher won't stand for any whispering in class. ☐ We just can't stand for that kind of behavior. 2. to signify something. ☐ In a traffic signal, the red light stands for "stop." ☐ The abbreviation Dr. stands for "doctor." 3. to endorse or support an ideal. ☐ The mayor claims to stand for honesty in government and jobs for everyone. ☐ Every candidate for public office stands for all the good things in life.

stand in awe (of someone or something) to be overwhelmed with respect for someone or something. ☐ Many people stand in awe of the president. ☐ Bob says he stands in awe of a big juicy steak. I think he's exaggerating. ☐ When it comes to food, you can say that it's delicious, but one hardly stands in awe.

stand (in) back of someone or something Go to stand behind someone or something.

stand in (for someone) to substitute for someone; to serve in someone's place. ☐ The famous opera singer was ill, and an in- experienced singer had to stand in for her. □ The new singer was grateful for the opportunity to stand in.

stand in someone's way to be a barrier to someone's desires or intentions. (Also literal.) □ I know you want a divorce so you can marry Ann. Well, I won't stand in your way. You can have the divorce. □ I know you want to leave home, and I don't want to stand in your way. You're free to go.

stand on ceremony to hold rigidly to protocol or formal manners. (Often in the negative.) □ Please help yourself to more. Don't stand on ceremony. □ We are very informal around here. Hardly anyone stands on ceremony.

stand one's ground AND hold one's ground to stand up for one's rights; to resist an attack. □ The lawyer tried to confuse me when I was giving testimony, but I managed to stand my ground. □ Some people were trying to crowd us off the beach, but we held our ground.

stand on one's own two feet to be independent and self-sufficient. (Informal. Compare this with get back on one's feet.) □ I'll be glad when I have a good job and can stand on my own two feet. □ When Jane gets out of debt, she'll be able to stand on her own two feet again.

stand out to be uniquely visible or conspicuous. □ This computer stands out as one of the best available. □ Because John is so tall, he really stands out in a crowd.

stand over someone to monitor or watch over someone, possibly while actually standing near the person. □ You don't have to stand over me. I can do it by myself. □ I know from previous experience that if I don't stand over you, you'll never finish.

stand pat to remain as is; to preserve the status quo. (Informal.) □ We can't just stand pat! We have to keep making progress! □ This company isn't increasing sales. It's just standing pat.

stand someone in good stead to be useful or beneficial to someone. □ This is a fine overcoat. I'm sure it'll stand you in good stead for many years. □ I did the mayor a favor that I'm sure will stand me in good stead.

stand someone to a treat to pay for food or drink for someone as a special favor. □ We went to the zoo, and my father stood us all to a treat. We had ice cream and soft drinks. □ We went to a nice restaurant and had a fine meal. It was even better when Mr. Williams told us he'd stand us to a treat, and he picked up the bill.

stand someone up to fail to meet someone for a date or an appointment. □ John and Jane were supposed to go out last night, but she stood him up. □ If you stand up people very often, you'll find that you have no friends at all.

stand still for something AND hold still for something to tolerate or endure something. (Often in the negative.) □ I won't stand still for that kind of behavior! □ She won't hold still for that kind of talk.

stand to reason to seem reasonable. □ It stands to reason that it'll be colder in January than it is in November. □ It stands to reason that Bill left in a hurry, although no one saw him go.

stand up and be counted to state one's support (for someone or something); to come out for someone or something. □ If you believe in more government help for farmers, write your representative—stand up and be counted. □ I'm generally in favor of what you propose, but not enough to stand up and be counted.

a standing joke a subject that regularly and over a period of time causes amusement whenever it is mentioned. □ Uncle Jim's driving was a standing joke. He used to drive incredibly slowly. □ Their mother's inability to make a decision was a standing joke in the Smith family all their lives.

stare someone in the face Go to look someone in the face.

stark raving mad totally insane; completely crazy; out of control. (Often an exaggeration.) □ When she heard about what happened at the office, she went stark raving mad. □ You must be stark raving mad if you think I would trust you with my car!

start from scratch to start from the beginning; to start from nothing. (Informal. Compare this with make something from scratch.) □ Whenever I bake a cake, I start from scratch. I never use a cake mix in a box. □ I built every bit of my own house. I started from scratch and did everything with my own hands.

start off on the wrong foot to begin [something] by doing something wrong. (Also literal. See also be off on the wrong foot; get off on the wrong foot.) □ I don't want to start off on the wrong foot by saying something stupid. What should I say? □ Poor Donna started off on the wrong foot when she arrived forty minutes late.

start (off) with a clean slate AND start (over) with a clean slate to start out again afresh; to ignore the past and start over again. (Refers to making marks on a [clean] slate with chalk.) □ I plowed under all last year's flowers so I could start with a clean slate next spring. □ If I start off with a clean slate, then I'll know exactly what each plant is. □ When Bob got out of jail, he started over with a clean slate.

start (over) with a clean slate Go to start (off) with a clean slate.

start someone in (as something) AND start someone out (as something) to start someone on a job as a certain kind of worker. □ I got a job in a restaurant today. They started me in as a dishwasher. □ I now work for the telephone company. They started me out as a local operator.

start someone out (as something) Go to start someone in (as something).

start something to start a fight or an argument. (Also literal. Something is anything or nothing in the negative.) □ Hey, you! Better be careful unless you want to start something. □ I don't want to start anything. I'm just leaving.

start something up to start something, such as a car or some procedure. (Also without up.) □ It was cold, but I managed to start up the car without any difficulty. □

We can't start the project up until we have more money.

start the ball rolling Go to get the ball rolling.

stay after someone Go to keep after someone.

stay in touch (with someone) Go to keep in touch (with someone).

stay put not to move; to stay where one is. (Informal.) □ We've decided to stay put and not to move to Florida. □ If the children just stay put, their parents will come for them soon.

steady as a rock Go to (as) steady as a rock.

steal a base to sneak from one base to another in baseball. □ The runner stole second base, but he nearly got put out on the way. □ Tom runs so slowly that he never tries to steal a base.

steal a march (on someone) to get some sort of an advantage over someone without being noticed. □ I got the contract because I was able to steal a march on my competitor. □ You have to be clever and fast—not dishonest—to steal a march.

steal someone's thunder to lessen someone's force or authority. □ What do you mean by coming in here and stealing my thunder? I'm in charge here! □ Someone stole my thunder by leaking my announcement to the press.

steal the show Go to steal the spotlight.

steal the spotlight AND steal the show to give the best performance in a show, play, or some other event; to get attention for oneself. □ The lead in the play was very good, but the butler stole the show. □ Ann always tries to steal the spotlight when she and I make a presentation.

steamed up angry. (Informal.) □ What Bob said really got me steamed up. □ Why do you get so steamed up about nothing?

steaming (mad) very angry; very mad; very upset. □ The steaming coach yelled at the clumsy players. □ The principal was steaming mad when he found that his office had been vandalized.

steer clear (of someone or something) to avoid someone or something. □ John is mad at me, so I've been steering clear of him. □ Steer clear of that book. It has many errors in it. □ Good advice. I'll steer clear.

step-by-step little by little, one step at a time. (Refers both to walking and following instructions.) □ Just follow the instructions step-by-step, and everything will be fine. □ The old man slowly moved across the lawn step-by-step.

step down (from something) to resign a job or a responsibility. (Also literal.) □ The mayor stepped down from office last week. □ It's unusual for a mayor to step down.

step into someone's shoes to take over a job or some role from someone. □ I was prepared to step into the boss's shoes, so there was no disruption when he left for another job. □ There was no one who could step into Alice's shoes when she left, so everything came to a stop.

step in(to the breach) to move into a space or vacancy; to assume the job of someone who has left it. □ When Ann resigned as president, I stepped into the breach. □ A number of people asked me to step in and take her place.

step on it Go to step on the gas.

step on someone's toes to interfere with or offend someone. (Also literal.) □ When you're in public office, you have to avoid stepping on anyone's toes. □ Ann stepped on someone's toes during the last campaign and lost the election.

step on the gas AND step on it hurry up. (Informal.) □ I'm in a hurry, driver. Step on it! □ I can't step on the gas, mister. There's too much traffic.

step out of line to misbehave; to do something offensive. (Also literal.) □ I'm terribly sorry. I hope I didn't step out of line. □ John is a lot of fun to go out with, but he has a tendency to step out of line.

step (right) up to move forward, toward someone. □ Step up and get your mail when I call your name. □ Come on, everybody. Step right up and help yourself to supper.

step something up to cause something to go faster. □ The factory was not making enough cars, so they stepped up production. □ The music was not fast enough, so the conductor told everyone to step it up.

stew in one's own juice to be left alone to suffer one's anger or disappointment. (Informal.) □ John has such a terrible temper. When he got mad at us, we just let him go away and stew in his own juice. □ After John stewed in his own juice for a while, he decided to come back and apologize to us.

stick around [for a person] to remain in a place. (Informal.) □ The kids stuck around for a time after the party was over. □ Oh, Ann. Please stick around for a while. I want to talk to you later.

stick by someone or something AND stick with someone or something to support someone or something; to continue supporting someone or something when things are bad. (Informal. Compare this with stand by someone.) □ Don't worry. I'll stick by you no matter what. □ I feel as if I have to stick by my brother even if he goes to jail. □ I'll stick by my ideas whether you like them or not.

Stick 'em up! Go to Hands up!

stick-in-the-mud someone who is stubbornly old-fashioned. □ Come on to the party with us and have some fun. Don't be an old stick-in-the-mud! □ Tom is no stick-in-the-mud. He's really up-to-date.

stick one's foot in one's mouth Go to put one's foot in one's mouth.

stick one's neck out (for someone or something) to take a risk. (Informal.) □ Why should I stick my neck out to do something for her? What's she ever done for me? □ He made a risky investment. He stuck his neck out for the deal because he thought he could make some money.

stick one's nose in(to something) Go to poke one's nose in(to something).

stick out like a sore thumb to be very prominent or unsightly; to be obvious and visible. (Informal.) □ Bob is so tall that he sticks out like a sore thumb in a crowd. □ The house next door needs painting. It sticks out like a sore thumb.

stick someone or something up 1. [with something] to affix or attach something onto a wall, post, etc. □ This notice ought to be on the bulletin board. Please stick it up. □ I'm going to stick up this poster near the entrance. 2. to rob someone or something. □ One robber stuck the cashier up first, but someone sounded the alarm before any money was taken. □ The robbers came in and tried to stick up the bank, but they got caught first.

stick someone with someone or something to burden someone with someone or something. (Informal.) □ The dishonest merchant stuck me with a faulty television set. □ John stuck me with his talkative uncle and went off with his friends.

stick something out to endure something. (Also literal.) □ The play was terribly boring, but I managed to stick it out. □ College was very difficult for Bill, but he decided to stick it out.

stick together to remain together as a group. (Also literal. Informal.) □ Come on, you guys. Let's stick together. Otherwise somebody will get lost. □ Our group of friends has managed to stick together for almost twenty years.

stick to one's guns to remain firm in one's convictions; to stand up for one's rights. (Informal. Compare this with stand one's ground.) □ I'll stick to my guns on this matter. I'm sure I'm right. □ Bob can be persuaded to do it our way. He probably won't stick to his guns on this point.

stick to one's ribs [for food] to last long and fortify one well; [for food] to sustain one even in the coldest weather. (Refers to the inside of one's ribs.) □ This oatmeal ought to stick to your ribs. You need something hearty on a cold day like this. □ I don't want soup! I want something that will stick to my ribs.

stick up for someone or something to support someone or something; to speak in favor of someone or something. □ Everyone was making unpleasant remarks about stick with someone or something Go to stick by someone or something.

John, but I stuck up for him. □ Our team was losing, but I stuck up for it anyway.

sticks and stones elements of harm [directed at someone]. (Part of a rhyme, "Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me.") □ I have had enough of your sticks and stones. I have enough trouble without your adding to it. □ After the opposing candidate had used sticks and stones for a month, suddenly there were kind words heard.

stiff as a poker Go to (as) stiff as a poker.

still as death Go to (as) still as death.

stink to high heaven AND smell to high heaven to smell very bad. □ What happened? This place stinks to high heaven. □ This meat smells to high heaven. Throw it away!

stir someone or something up 1. [with someone] to make someone angry or excited; to make someone get active. (Also literal.) □ I need a cup of hot coffee to stir me up in the morning. □ Reading the newspaper always stirs up my father. 2. [with something] to cause trouble; to foment disagreement and difficulty. □ They stirred up quite a commotion. □ Who stirred up this matter?

stir up a hornet's nest to create trouble or difficulties. (Also literal. Informal.) □ What a mess you have made of things. You've really stirred up a hornet's nest. □ Bill stirred up a hornet's nest when he discovered the theft.

stock up (on something) to build up a supply of something. □ Before the first snow, we always stock up on firewood. □ John drinks a lot of milk, so we stock up when we know he's coming.

a stone's throw (away) (from something) Go to within a stone's throw (of something).

stoop to doing something to degrade oneself or condescend to doing something; to do something that is beneath one. □ Whoever thought that the manager of the de- partment would stoop to typing? ☐ I never dreamed that Bill would stoop to stealing.

stop-and-go halting repeatedly; stopping and continuing repeatedly. ☐ This project has been stop-and-go since we began. Problems keep appearing. ☐ The traffic was stop-and-go for miles. I thought I would never get here!

stop at nothing to do everything possible (to accomplish something); to be unscrupulous. ☐ Bill would stop at nothing to get his way. ☐ Bob is completely determined to get promoted. He'll stop at nothing.

stop by (somewhere) AND stop in (somewhere) to visit a place, usually briefly. ☐ I was coming home, but I decided to stop by my aunt's on the way. ☐ She was very glad that I stopped in.

stop in (somewhere) Go to stop by (somewhere).

stop, look, and listen to exercise caution at street corners and railroad crossings, by stopping, looking to the left and to the right, and listening for approaching vehicles or a train. ☐ Sally's mother trained her to stop, look, and listen at every street corner. ☐ It is a good practice to stop, look, and listen at a railroad crossing.

stop off (somewhere) to stop somewhere on the way to some other place. ☐ I stopped off at the store to buy milk on the way home. ☐ We stopped off for a few minutes and chatted with my uncle.

stop over (somewhere) to break one's journey somewhere, usually overnight or even longer. (Compare this with lay over (somewhere).) ☐ On our way to New York, we stopped over in Philadelphia for the night. ☐ That's a good place to stop over. There are some nice hotels in Philadelphia.

stop short of doing something not to go as far as doing something; not to go as far as something. ☐ Fortunately Bob stopped short of hitting Tom. ☐ The boss criticized Jane's work, but stopped short of reprimanding her. ☐ Jack was furious but stopped short of hitting Tom. ☐ Jane wouldn't stop short of telling lies in order to get a job.

A storm is brewing. 1. There is going to be a storm. ☐ Look at the clouds. A storm is brewing. ☐ A storm is brewing in the west. 2. There is going to be trouble or emotional upset. ☐ He looks angry. A storm is brewing.

the straight and narrow a straight and law-abiding route through life. (Informal. From straight and narrow pathway.) ☐ You should have no trouble with the police if you stick to the straight and narrow. ☐ Roger was the kind who followed the straight and narrow every day of his life.

straight as an arrow Go to (as) straight as an arrow.

(straight) from the horse's mouth from an authoritative or dependable source. ☐ I know it's true! I heard it straight from the horse's mouth! ☐ This comes from the horse's mouth, so it has to be believed.

straight from the shoulder sincerely; frankly; holding nothing back. ☐ Sally always speaks straight from the shoulder. You never have to guess what she really means. ☐ Bill gave a good presentation—straight from the shoulder and brief.

straighten someone or something out 1. [with someone] to make someone understand something. (Also literal.) ☐ Jane was confused about the date, so I straightened her out. ☐ I took a few minutes and straightened out everyone. 2. [with someone] to reform someone. ☐ Most people think that jail never straightens anybody out. ☐ The judge felt that a few years at hard labor would straighten out the thief. 3. [with something] to make a situation less confused. ☐ John made a mess of the contract, so I helped him straighten it out. ☐ Please straighten out your checking account. It's all messed up.

straighten someone or something up 1. to put someone or something into an upright position. ☐ The fence is tilted. Please straighten up that post when you get a chance. ☐ Bill, you're slouching again. Straighten yourself up. 2. to tidy up someone or something. ☐ John straightened himself up a little before going on stage.

☐ This room is a mess. Let's straighten up this place, right now!

straighten up 1. to sit or stand more straight. ☐ Billy's mother told him to straighten up or he'd fall out of his chair.

☐ John straightened up so he'd look taller.

2. to behave better. ☐ Bill was acting badly for a while; then he straightened up.

☐ Sally, straighten up, or I will punish you!

stranger to something or somewhere someone who is new to an area or place. ☐ Although John was no stranger to big cities, he did not enjoy visiting New York. ☐ You are a stranger to our town, and I hope you feel welcome.

strapped (for something) very much in need of money. (Informal.) ☐ I'm strapped for a few bucks. Can you loan me five dollars?

☐ Sorry, I'm strapped, too.

stretch a point AND stretch the point to interpret a point flexibly and with great latitude. ☐ Would it be stretching a point to suggest that everyone is invited to your picnic? ☐ To say that everyone is invited is stretching the point.

stretch one's legs to walk around after sitting down or lying down for a time. ☐ We wanted to stretch our legs during the theater intermission. ☐ After sitting in the car all day, the travelers decided to stretch their legs.

stretch the point Go to stretch a point.

stretch the truth to exaggerate; to misrepresent the truth just a little bit. ☐ She was stretching the truth when she said everything was ready for the party. ☐ I don't want to stretch the truth. Our town is probably the wealthiest around here.

(strictly) on the level honest; dependably open and fair. ☐ How can I be sure you're on the level? ☐ You can trust Sally. She's strictly on the level.

(strictly) on the up-and-up honest; fair and straight. (Slang. Compare this with on the level.) ☐ Do you think that the mayor is on the up-and-up? ☐ Yes, the mayor is strictly on the up-and-up.

strike a balance (between two or more things) to find a satisfactory compromise between two extremes. ☐ The political party must strike a balance between the right wing and the left wing. ☐ Jane is overdressed for the party and Sally is underdressed. What a pity they didn't strike a balance.

strike a bargain to reach an agreement on a price (for something). ☐ They argued for a while and finally struck a bargain.

☐ They were unable to strike a bargain, so they left.

strike a chord (with someone) to cause someone to remember something; to remind someone or something; to be familiar. ☐ The woman in the portrait struck a chord and I realized that it was my grandmother. ☐ His name strikes a chord with me, but I don't know why.

strike a happy medium AND hit a happy medium; find a happy medium. to find a compromise position; to arrive at a position halfway between two unacceptable extremes. ☐ Ann likes very spicy food, but Bob doesn't care for spicy food at all. We are trying to find a restaurant that strikes a happy medium. ☐ Tom is either very happy or very sad. He can't seem to hit a happy medium.

strike a match to light a match. ☐ Mary struck a match and lit a candle. ☐ When Sally struck a match to light a cigarette, Jane said quickly, "No smoking, please."

strike a pose to position oneself in a certain posture. ☐ Bob struck a pose in front of the mirror to see how much he had grown. ☐ Lisa walked into the room and struck a pose, hoping she would be noticed.

strike a sour note AND hit a sour note to signify something unpleasant. (Informal.) ☐ Jane's sad announcement struck a sour note at the annual banquet. ☐ News of the crime hit a sour note in our holiday celebration.

strike home Go to hit home.

strike it rich to acquire wealth suddenly. (Informal.) ☐ If I could strike it rich, I wouldn't have to work anymore. ☐ Sally ordered a dozen oysters and found a huge pearl in one of them. She struck it rich!

strike out 1. [for a baseball batter] to be declared “out” after three strikes. (See also strike someone out.) □ Bill almost never strikes out. □ John struck out at least once in every game this season. 2. to fail. (Slang.) □ Ann did her best, but she struck out anyway. □ Give it another try. Just because you struck out once doesn’t mean you can’t do better now.

strike out at someone or something to (figuratively or literally) hit at or attack someone or something. □ She was so angry she struck out at the person she was arguing with. □ I was frantic. I wanted to strike out at everything and everybody.

strike someone as something [for a thought or behavior] to affect someone a certain way. □ John’s rude behavior struck me as odd. □ Mary’s attitude struck me as childish.

strike someone funny to seem funny to someone. □ Sally has a great sense of humor. Everything she says strikes me funny. □ Why are you laughing? Did something I said strike you funny?

strike someone out [for a baseball pitcher] to get a batter declared “out” after three strikes. □ I never thought he’d strike Tom out. □ Bill struck out all our best players.

strike someone’s fancy to appeal to someone. (See also tickle someone’s fancy.) □ I’ll have some ice cream, please. Chocolate strikes my fancy right now. □ Why don’t you go to the store and buy a record album that strikes your fancy?

strike the right note to achieve the desired effect; to do something suitable or pleasing. (A musical reference.) □ Meg struck the right note when she wore a dark suit to the interview. □ The politician’s speech failed to strike the right note with the crowd.

strike up a conversation to start a conversation (with someone). □ I struck up an interesting conversation with someone on the bus yesterday. □ It’s easy to strike up a conversation with someone when you’re traveling.

strike up a friendship to become friends (with someone). □ I struck up a friend- ship with John while we were on a business trip together. □ If you’re lonely, you should go out and try to strike up a friendship with someone you like.

strike while the iron is hot to do something at the best possible time; to do something when the time is ripe. □ He was in a good mood, so I asked for a loan of $200. I thought I’d better strike while the iron was hot. □ Please go to the bank and settle this matter now! They are willing to be reasonable. You’ve got to strike while the iron is hot.

string along (with someone) to accompany someone; to run around with someone. □ Sally seemed to know where she was going, so I decided to string along with her. □ She said it was okay if I strung along.

string something out to draw something out (in time); to make something last a long time. (Also literal.) □ The meeting was long enough. There was no need to string it out further with all those speeches. □ They tried to string out the meeting to make things seem more important.

a stroke of luck a bit of luck; a lucky happening. □ I had a stroke of luck and found Tom at home when I called. He’s not usually there. □ Unless I have a stroke of luck, I’m not going to finish this report by tomorrow.

strong as a horse Go to (as) strong as a horse.

strong as a lion Go to (as) strong as a lion.

strong as an ox Go to (as) strong as an ox.

a struggle to the death a bitter struggle either to success or failure. (Also literal.) □ It was a struggle to the death, but I finally finished my report on time. □ I had a terrible time getting my car started. It was a struggle to the death, but it finally started.

strung out 1. extended in time; overly long. □ Why was that lecture so strung out? She talked and talked. □ It was strung out because there was very little to be said.

2. doped or drugged. (Slang.) □ Bob acted very strangely—as if he were strung out or something. □ I've never seen Bob or any of his friends strung out.

stubborn as a mule Go to (as) stubborn as a mule.

(stuck) in a rut kept in an established way of living that never changes. □ David felt like he was stuck in a rut, so he went back to school. □ Anne was tired of being in a rut, so she moved to Los Angeles.

stuck in traffic to be caught in a traffic jam. □ I am sorry I am late. I was stuck in traffic. □ Our taxi was stuck in traffic, and I thought I would never get to the airport on time.

stuck on someone or something 1. [with someone] to be fond of or in love with someone. □ John was stuck on Sally, but she didn't know it. □ He always is stuck on the wrong person. 2. [with something] to be locked into an idea, cause, or purpose. □ Mary is really stuck on the idea of going to France this spring. □ You've proposed a good plan, Jane, but you're stuck on it. We may have to make some changes.

stuck with someone or something burdened with someone or something; left having to care for someone or something. (Informal.) □ Please don't leave me stuck with your aunt. She talks too much. □ My roommate quit school and left me stuck with the telephone bill.

stuff and nonsense nonsense. (Informal.) □ Come on! Don't give me all that stuff and nonsense! □ I don't understand this book. It's all stuff and nonsense as far as I am concerned.

stuff the ballot box to put fraudulent ballots into a ballot box; to cheat in counting the votes in an election. □ The election judge was caught stuffing the ballot box in the election yesterday. □ Election officials are supposed to guard against stuffing the ballot box.

stumble across someone or something AND stumble into someone or something; stumble (up)on someone or something to find someone or something, usually by accident. □ I stumbled across an interesting book yesterday when I was shopping. □ Guess who I stumbled into at the library yesterday? I stumbled on a real bargain at the bookstore last week.

stumble into someone or something 1. to bump into someone or something accidentally. □ I stumbled into John, and I apologized. It was my fault. □ I stumbled into a post and hurt my arm. 2. Go to stumble across someone or something. 3. [with something] to enter something or a place by stumbling. □ I tripped on the curb and stumbled into the car. □ I stumbled into the house, exhausted and in need of a cool drink.

stumble (up)on someone or something 1. Go to stumble across someone or something. 2. to trip over someone or something. □ There were three of us sleeping in the small tent. Each of us would stumble on the others whenever we went out or came in. □ I stumbled on the curb and twisted my ankle.

stumbling block something that prevents or obstructs progress. □ We'd like to buy that house, but the high price is the stumbling block. □ Jim's age is a stumbling block to getting another job. He's over 60.

subject to something 1. likely to have something, such as a physical disorder. □ The sick man was subject to dizzy spells. □ I am subject to frequent headaches. 2. tentative, depending on something; vulnerable to something. □ I have made all the necessary plans, subject to your approval, of course. □ My remarks are, of course, subject to your criticisms.

subscribe to something to have a standing order for a magazine or something similar. □ I usually buy my monthly magazines at the newsstand. I don't subscribe to them. □ I subscribe to all the magazines I read because it's nice to have them delivered by mail.

such and such someone or something whose name has been forgotten or should not be said. (Informal.) □ Mary said that such and such was coming to her party, but I forgot their names. □ If you walk into a store and ask for such and such and they don't have it, you go to a different store.

such as 1. of a particular kind; of the sort that is; like. ☐ Where can I get a haircut such as yours? ☐ I'd like to buy a vase such as the one in your display case. 2. for example. ☐ Bill enjoys many kinds of fruit, such as apples, pears, and plums. ☐ Mary has many hobbies, such as swimming, bowling, and running.

such as it is in the imperfect state that one sees it; in the less-than-perfect condition in which one finds it. ☐ This is where I live. This is my glorious home—such as it is. ☐ I've worked for days on this report, and I've done the best that I can do. It's my supreme effort—such as it is.

Such is life! That is the way things happen, even it isn't the way I want it to be! ☐ Oh, well. Everything can't be perfect. Such is life! ☐ So I failed my test. Such is life! I can take it again some time.

suck someone in AND take someone in to deceive someone. (The expression with suck is slang.) ☐ I try to shop carefully so that no one can take me in. ☐ I think that someone sucked in both of them. I don't know why they bought this car.

suggestive of something reminiscent of something; seeming to suggest something. ☐ Bill's homemade soup is suggestive of his mother's. ☐ The new movie was suggestive of an old one I had seen on TV.

suit oneself to do something one's own way; to do something to please oneself. ☐ If he doesn't want to do it my way, he can suit himself. ☐ Take either of the books that you like. Suit yourself. I'll read the other one.

suit someone to a T AND fit someone to a T to be very appropriate for someone. ☐ This kind of job suits me to a T. ☐ This is Sally's kind of house. It fits her to a T.

sum and substance a summary; the gist. (See also form and substance.) ☐ Can you quickly tell me the sum and substance of your proposal? ☐ In trying to explain the sum and substance of the essay, Thomas failed to mention the middle name of the hero.

sum something up to summarize something. (Literally, to figure out the total.) ☐ At the end of the lecture, Dr. Williams summed up the important points. ☐ He said when he finished, "Well, that about sums it up."

Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes one's best clothes. (Folksy. See also in one's Sunday best.) ☐ John was all dressed up in his Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes. ☐ I hate to be wearing my Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes when everyone else is casually dressed.

supply and demand the availability of things or people as compared to the need to utilize the things or people; the availability of goods compared to the number of willing customers for the goods. ☐ Sometimes you can find what you want by shopping around and other times almost no store carries the items you are looking for. It depends entirely on supply and demand. ☐ Sometimes customers ask for things we do not carry in stock and other times we have things in abundance that no one wants to buy. Whether or not we can make money off of a product depends entirely on supply and demand.

supposed to do something expected or intended to do something; obliged or allowed to do something. ☐ You're supposed to say "excuse me" when you burp. ☐ Mom says you're supposed to come inside for dinner now.

sure as death Go to (as) sure as death.

surf and turf fish and beef; lobster and beef. (A type of meal incorporating both expensive seafood and an expensive cut of beef. Refers to the sea and to the pasture.) ☐ Walter ordered the surf and turf, but Alice ordered only a tiny salad. ☐ No surf and turf for me. I want fish and fish alone.

the survival of the fittest the idea that the most able or fit will survive (while the less able and less fit will perish). (This is used literally as a part of the theory of evolution.) ☐ In college, it's the survival of the fittest. You have to keep working in order to survive and graduate. ☐ I don't give my houseplants very good care, but the ones I have are really flourishing. It's the survival of the fittest, I guess.

susceptible to something 1. easily persuaded; easily influenced. □ The students were susceptible to the allure of drugs. □ The young revolutionaries were susceptible to propaganda. 2. likely to contract a sickness; likely to become sick. □ People with AIDS are susceptible to pneumonia. □ Infants and the elderly are more susceptible to illness than other people.

swallow one's pride to forget one's pride and accept something humiliating. □ I had to swallow my pride and admit that I was wrong. □ When you're a student, you find yourself swallowing your pride quite often.

swallow something, hook, line, and sinker to believe something completely. (Slang. These terms refer to fishing and fooling a fish into being caught.) □ I made up a story about why I was so late. The boss swallowed it, hook, line, and sinker. □ I feel like a fool. I swallowed it, hook, line, and sinker.

[swan song] Go to someone's swan song.

swear by someone or something 1. to take an oath on someone or something. □ My uncle is sort of old-fashioned. He makes promises by swearing by his "sainted mother." □ He sometimes swears by his foot! 2. to have complete faith and confidence in someone or something. □ I'm willing to swear by John. He's completely dependable. □ This is an excellent brand of detergent. My sister swears by it.

swear on a stack of Bibles AND swear on one's mother's grave to state something very earnestly, pledging to tell the truth. (Stack of Bibles refers to swearing to tell the truth in court by placing one's hand on a Bible.) □ I swear on a stack of Bibles that I am telling the truth. □ Of course, I'm telling the truth. I swear on my mother's grave!

swear on one's mother's grave Go to swear on a stack of Bibles.

sweat blood to be very anxious and tense. (Slang.) □ What a terrible test! I was really sweating blood at the last. □ Bob is such a bad driver. I sweat blood every time I ride with him.

sweat something out to endure or wait for something that causes tension or boredom. (Informal.) □ I had to wait for her in the reception area. It was a long wait, but I managed to sweat it out. □ I took the test and then spent a week sweating out the results.

