THE SECRET GOVERNMENT
The Origin, Identity, and Purpose of MJ-12

PART I
The Truman Years

During the years following World War 11 the government of the United States was confronted with a series of events which were to change its future beyond prediction and with it the future of humanity. These events were so incredible that they defied belief. A stunned President Truman and his top Military Commanders found themselves virtually impotent after having just won the most devastating and costly war in history. The United States had developed, used, and to date was the only nation on earth in possession of the Atomic Bomb which alone had the potential to destroy any enemy, and even the Earth itself. At that time the United States had the best economy, the most advanced technology, the highest standard of living, exerted the most influence, and fielded the largest and most powerful military forces in history. We can only imagine the confusion and concern when the informed elite of the United States Government discovered that an alien spacecraft piloted by insect-like beings from a totally incomprehensible culture had crashed in the desert of New Mexico.

13 Crashed Alien Space Craft in U.S.A.

Between January 1947 and December 1952 at least 16 crashed or downed alien craft were recovered with 65 dead alien bodies, and one living alien. An additional alien craft had exploded but nothing was recovered from that incident. Of these incidents, 13 occurred within the borders of the United States not including the craft which disintegrated in the air. Of these 13 craft, one was found in Arizona, 11 were in New Mexico, and another had crashed in Nevada. Three incidents also occurred in foreign countries. Of those, one was in Norway, and the last two were in Mexico. Sightings of UFO's were so numerous that serious investigation and debunking of each report became impossible utilizing the existing intelligence assets.

An alien craft was found on February 13, 1948 on a mesa near Aztec, New Mexico. Another craft was located on March 25, 1948 in Hart Canyon near Aztec, New Mexico. It was 100 feet in diameter. A total of 17 alien bodies were recovered from those two craft. Of even greater significance was the discovery of a large number of human body parts stored within both of these vehicles. A demon had reared its ugly head and paranoia quickly took hold of everyone then "in the know". The 'Secret' classification immediately became an 'Above Top Secret' lid and was screwed down tight. The security blanket was even tighter than that imposed upon the Manhattan Project which developed the Atomic Bomb. In the coming years these events were to become the most closely guarded secrets in the history of the world.

Project SIGN and GRUDGE

A special group of America's top scientists were organized and the name "Project SIGN" in December, 1947 to study the phenomenon. The whole nasty business was contained within the shroud of secrecy. Project SIGN evolved into Project GRUDGE in December of 1948. A low level collection and disinformation project called Blue Book was formed under GRUDGE. Sixteen volumes came out of GRUDGE including the controversial "GRUDGE 13" which I and Bill English read and revealed to the public. "Blue Teams" were put together to recover the crashed disks with living or dead aliens. The Blue Teams eventually evolved into "Alpha Teams" under Project POUNCE.

Truman Creates CIA by Executive Order

During these early years the United States Air Force and the CIA exercised complete control over the 'Alien Secret'. In fact, the CIA was formed by a Presidential Executive Order, first as the 'Central Intelligence Group' whose express purpose was to handle the 'alien presence'. Subsequently, the National Security Act (NSA) was established to oversee the intelligence community, especially THE alien endeavor. A series of National Security Council Memos and Executive Orders removed the CIA from the sole task of gathering foreign intelligence information, and slowly but thoroughly legalized the direct action in the form of covert activities at home and abroad.

On December 9, 1947, President Truman approved issuance of memo NSC-4, entitled "Coordination of Foreign Intelligence Information Measures" at the urging of Secretaries Marshall, Forrestal, Patterson, as well as the Director of the State Department's Policy Planning Staff, Kennan.

Directive Defines CIA Authority Under NSC-4

The Foreign and Military Intelligence Book 1, "Final Report of the Select Committee to Study Governmental operations with respect to Intelligence Activities", U.S. Senate, 94th Congress, 2nd Session, Report No. 94-755, April 26, 1976, page 49, stated: "This directive empowers the Secretary of State to coordinate overseas information activities designed to counter communism." A top secret annex to NSC-4, is NSC-4A which instructed the Director of Central Intelligence to undertake covert psychological activities in pursuit of the aims set forth in NSC-4. The initial authority given the CIA for covert operations under NSC-4A did not establish formal procedures for either coordination or approving these operations. It simply directed the Director (of the CIA) "to undertake covert actions and to ensure, through liaison with the Departments of State and Defense, that the resulting operations were consistent with American Policy."

Covert Abilities Expanded

Later NSC-10/1 and NSC-10/2 were to supersede NSC-4 and NSC-4A and expand their covert abilities even further. The Office of Policy Coordination (OPC) was chartered to carry out an expanded program of covert activities. NSC-10/1 and NSC-10/2 validated illegal and extra-legal practices and procedures as being agreeable to the national security leadership. The reaction was swift. In the eyes of the intelligence community "no holds were barred". Under NSC-10/1, an Executive Coordination Group, was established to review (but not approve) covert project proposals. The ECG was secretly tasked only to coordinate alien projects. NSC-10/1 and NSC-10/2 were interpreted to mean that no one at the top wanted to know about anything until a project was over and successful. These actions established an effective buffer between the President and the information they gathered. It was intended that this buffer serve as a means for the President to deny knowledge of such activities to the public if leaks divulged the true state of affairs. This buffer was used in later years for the purpose of effectively isolating succeeding Presidents from any knowledge whatever of the alien presence other than what the Secret Government and the Intelligence Community wanted him to know. NSC-10/2 established a study panel which met secretly and was made up of scientific minds of the day. The study panel was NOT called MJ-12. Another NSC memo, NSC-10-5 further outlined the duties of the study panel. These NSC memos and secret Executive Orders set the stage for the creation of MJ-12 which would come along 4 years later.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal Objects to Alien Secrecy

Secretary of Defense, James Forrestal began to object to the secrecy since he was a very idealistic and religious man who believed that the public should be told. President Truman asked him to resign his position for divulging to leaders of the opposition party and to leaders of the Congress the alien problem. He expressed his fears to many other people and rightfully believed that he was being watched. His actions were interpreted by those who were ignorant of the facts as paranoia. Forrestal later was said to have suffered a mental breakdown and was admitted to Bethesda Naval Hospital. In fact it was feared that Forrestal would begin to talk again and he had to be isolated and discredited. Sometime in the early morning of May 22, 1949 agents of the CIA tied a sheet around his neck, fastened the other end to a fixture in his room and threw James Forrestal out the window. The sheet tore and he plummeted to his death becoming one of the first victims of a cover-up.

Living Alien Rescued at Roswell, New Mexico, 1949

The living alien that had been rescued from the 1949 Roswell crash was named "EBE". Its name had been suggested by Dr. Vannever Bush as an acronym for Extra-terrestrial Biological Entity. EBE had a tendency to lie and for over a year would give only the expected answer to questions asked by his interrogators. Those questions which would have resulted in an undesirable answer went unanswered. At some point during the second year of captivity he began to open up and the information derived from EBE was startling, to say the least. This compilation of his revelations became the foundation of what would later be called the "Yellow Book". Photographs were taken of EBE which, among others, I and Bill English were to view years later in Project GRUDGE 13.

Alien Biological System Based on Chlorophyll Process

In late 1951 EBE became very ill and medical personnel had been unable to determine the cause of his illness as they had no background about his biological structure from which to draw. EBE's biological system was chlorophyll based and processed food into energy much the same as plants did. Waste material was excreted the same as plants. It was decided that an expert on botany was called for. A botanist, Dr. Guillermo Mendoza, was brought in to help EBE recover. Dr. Mendoza worked hard to save his life until EBE died in mid-1952. Dr. Mendoza became an expert on alien Biology.

Meanwhile in the futile attempt to save EBE and to gain favor with this technologically superior alien race, the United States began broadcasting into the vast regions of space a call for help early in 1952. The call went unanswered as EBE's life ebbed away but the project continued as an effort of good faith.

Truman Creates NSA to Decipher Alien Language

President Truman created the super secret NSA National Security Agency by secret Executive Order on November 4, 1952. Its primary purpose was to decipher the alien's communications and language, and establish a dialogue with them. This extremely urgent task was a continuation of an earlier effort and was code named SIGMA. The secondary purpose of the NSA was to monitor all communications and transmissions from any and all devices worldwide for the purpose of gathering intelligence, both human or alien, and to contain the secret of the alien presence from the public at large. Project SIGMA was successful. The NSA also maintains communications with the Lunar base and other Secret Space Programs.

NSA is Above the Law

By Executive Order the NSA is exempt from all laws which do not specifically name the NSA in the text of the law as being subject to that law. That meant that if the agency is not spelled out in the text of any and every law passed by the U.S. Congress, it is not subject to any of those laws. The NSA now performs many other duties and in fact is the premiere agency within the intelligence community. Today NSA receives 75% of the budget allotted to the total intelligence community. The old saying "where the money goes therein the power resides" is true in this case. The primary task of the NSA today is still alien communications, but now also includes other alien projects as well. Whereas, the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) is a figurehead maintained as a public ruse.

U.S.A. Shares Alien Secret with Soviet Union

President Truman had been keeping our military allies, including the Soviet Union, informed of the developing alien problem since the Roswell recovery. This had been done in case the aliens turned out to be a threat to the human race. Plans were formulated to defend the Earth in case of invasion. Great difficulty was encountered in maintaining international secrecy. It was decided that an outside group was necessary to coordinate and control international efforts in order to hide the secret from the normal scrutiny of governments by the press. The result was the formation of a secret society known as the "Bilderburgers" whose headquarters is located in Geneva, Switzerland. The Bilderburgers evolved into a secret world government that now controls everything, including the World Banking system. Banking system. The United Nations was considered then and is now, an international joke among the elite power structure.

President Eisenhower tackles the Alien Problem

In 1953 a new man occupied the White House who was used to a structured staff organization with a chain of command. His method of command was to delegate authority and rule by committee. He made the major decisions but only when his advisors were unable to come to a consensus. His normal method was to read through or listen to several alternatives and then approve one. Those who worked closely with him have stated that his favorite comment was, "just do whatever it takes". He spent a lot of time on the golf course which was not at all unusual for a man who had been career Army with the ultimate position of Supreme Allied Commander during World War II.....a position which carries five stars on it. This President was General of the Army, Dwight David Eisenhower.

During his first year in office 1953, at least 10 more crashed alien disks were recovered along with 26 dead and four living aliens. Of these ten downed craft, four were found in Arizona, two in Texas, one in New Mexico, one in Louisiana, one in Montana, and one in South Africa. There were hundreds of disk sightings reported in that year.

Eisenhower and Rockefeller Join Forces

Eisenhower knew that he had to wrestle and beat the alien problem. He also knew that he could not do it by revealing the secret to the U.S. Congress. Early in 1953, the new President turned to his friend and fellow member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), Nelson Rockefeller for help with the alien problem. Asking Rockefeller for his assistance with the alien problem was to be the biggest mistake Eisenhower ever made for the future of the United States and (probably most of all) for humanity. Eisenhower and Rockefeller began planning the secret structure of alien task supervision which would become a reality within a year. The 'matrix' for MJ-12 was thus born. Why had he turned to Nelson Rockefeller on this sensitive Top Secret issue? Nelson's Uncle Winthrop Aldrich had been crucial in convincing Eisenhower to run for President. Consequently, the entire Rockefeller family brought forth the Rockefeller empire to solidly back Ike.

Rockefeller Appointed Chairman of Advisory Committee

Within one week of Eisenhower's election he had appointed Nelson Rockefeller chairman of a Presidential Advisory Committee on Government Organization. Rockefeller was responsible for planning the reorganization of the government. New Deal programs went into one single cabinet position called the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. When the Congress approved the new cabinet position in April of 1953, Nelson was named to the post of Undersecretary under Oveta Culp Hobby.

Space Visitors Discovered by Astronomers

In 1953 astronomers discovered large objects in space that were moving towards the Earth. It was first believed that they were asteroids. Later astronomical evidence proved that the objects could only be spaceships. Project SIGMA intercepted alien radio communication. When the objects reached the Earth they took up a very high orbit around the equator. There were several huge ships, and their actual intent was unknown. Project SIGMA and PLATO, a new project utilizing computer binary language in radio telecommunications, were able to arrange a landing that resulted in face to face contact with alien beings from another planet. Project PLATO was tasked with establishing diplomatic relations with this alien race of space beings.

Aliens from Pleiades Warns U.S. about 'Grays'

In the meantime, a race of humanoid-looking aliens made contact with the U.S. Government. This alien group warned us against the aliens that were orbiting over the Equator and offered to help us with our spiritual development. They stipulated that we dismantle and destroy our nuclear weapons systems as the major condition to their offer. They refused to exchange technology citing that we were spiritually unable to handle the technology that they possessed at that time. They believed that we would only use their new technology to destroy each other. This race stated that we were on a path of self-destruction and therefore must stop killing each other, stop polluting the planet, stop raping the Earth's natural resources, and learn to live in harmony with each other. These terms were met with extreme suspicion, especially the major condition of nuclear disarmament. It was believed that meeting that condition would leave us helpless in the face of an obvious alien threat. We also had nothing in history to help with the decision. Nuclear disarmament was not considered to be within the best interest of the United States. Therefore the overtures were rejected.

Aliens from Orion Greet President Eisenhower

Later in 1954, the race of large nosed Gray Aliens which had been orbiting the Earth landed at Holloman Air Force Base. A basic agreement was reached with them. This race identified themselves as originating from a planet around a red star in the Constellation of Orion which we call Betelgeuse. They state that their planet was dying and that at some unknown future time they would no longer be able to survive there. This led to a second landing at Edwards Air Force Base. The historical event had been planned in advance and details of the treaty had been agreed upon. Eisenhower arranged to be in Palm Springs on vacation. On the appointed day the President spirited away to the airbase and the excuse was given to the press that he was visiting a dentist.

Treaty signed with Alien Nation Ambassador Krill

President Eisenhower met with the aliens and a formal treaty was signed between the U.S.A and the Alien Nation. We then received our first Alien Ambassador from outer space whose name and title were "His Omnipotent Highness Krill", (pronounce "Krill"). In the American tradition of disdain for royal titles, he was secretly called the "Original Hostage Krill". You should also know that the alien's flag is known as the "Trilateral Insignia". It is displayed on their craft and worn on their uniforms. Both of these landings and second meeting were filmed which exist today in some vault.

The Treaty stated: the aliens would not interfere in our affairs and we would not interfere in theirs. We would keep their presence on earth a secret. They could furnish us with advanced technology and would help us in our technological development. They would not make any treaty with any other earth nation. They could abduct humans on a limited and periodic basis for purpose of medical examination and monitoring of our development with the stipulation that humans would not be harmed, would be returned to their point of abduction, that the humans would have no memory of the event, and that the alien nation would furnish MJ-12 with a list of all human contacts and abductees on a regularly scheduled basis. It was agreed that each nation would receive the Ambassador of the other for as long as the treaty remained in force. It was further agreed that the alien nation and the United States would exchange 16 personnel with each other for the purpose of learning more about one another.

Alien Personnel Exchanged & Underground Base Constructed

The Alien "Guests" would remain on Earth and the human "Guests" would travel to the Alien's point of origin for a specified period of time and then return exchanging personnel to their home planet. It was also agreed that bases would be constructed underground for the use of the Alien nation. And 2 bases would be constructed for the joint use of the Alien nation and the United States Government. Exchange of technology would take place in the jointly occupied bases. These alien bases would be constructed under Indian reservations in the four corners area of Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, and Colorado. Another one would be constructed in Nevada within the area known as S-4 located approximately seven miles south of the western border of Area 51 known as Dreamland. All alien bases are under complete control of the Naval Department and all personnel who work in these complexes received their paychecks from the Navy. Construction of the bases began immediately but progress was slow until larger amounts of money were made available in 1957. Work continued on the "Yellow Book" compiling historical and sociological data about the alien culture.

Alien Space Craft Tested In Nevada: Project REDLIGHT

Meanwhile, Project REDLIGHT was formed and experimentation of test flying alien-like aircraft was begun in earnest. A super TOP SECRET facility was built at Groom Lake, Nevada in the midst of the weapons testing range. It was code-named, DREAMLAND. The installation was placed under the Department of the Navy and clearance of all personnel required a "Q" clearance as well as Executive (Presidential) Approval. This is ironic due to the fact that the President of the United States does not have clearance to visit the site. The alien base and exchange of technology actually took place in an area known as S-4, and was code-named, "The Dark Side of the Moon". (Remember the movie. . . Close Encounters of the Third Kind ?)

The Army was tasked to form a super secret organization to furnish security for all alien tasked projects. This organization became the National Reconnaissance Organization based at Fort Carson, Colorado. The specific teams trained to secure the projects were called DELTA teams. A second project code-named SNOWBIRD was promulgated to explain away any sightings of the REDLIGHT crafts as being Air Force experiments. The SNOWBIRD crafts were manufactured using conventional technology and were flown for the press on several occasions. Project SNOWBIRD was also used to debunk legitimate public sightings of alien (UFO) craft. Project SNOWBIRD was very successful and reports from the public declined steadily until recent years.

Secret Fund Finances 75 Underground Bases in USA

A multi-million dollar Secret Fund was organized and kept by the Military Office of the White House. This fund was used to build over 75 deep underground facilities. Presidents who asked about it were told the fund was used to build Deep Underground Shelters for the President in case of war. However, only a few were built for the President. Millions of dollars were funnelled through this office to MJ-12 and then out to the contractors and was used to build TOP SECRET alien bases as well as TOP SECRET DUMB (Deep Underground Military Bases), and the facilities promulgated by "Alternative 2", throughout the nation. President Johnson used this fund to build a movie theater and pave the road on his ranch. He had no idea of its true purpose.

The location and everything to do with these sites are considered and treated as TOP SECRET. The money was and is in control of the Military Office of the White House; it was and is laundered through a circuitous web that even the most knowledgeable spy or accountant could not follow. As of 1980 only a few at the beginning and the end of this financial web knew what this money was for. At the beginning were Representative George Mahon, of Texas, the Chairman of the House Appropriation Committee and of its Defense Subcommittee; and Representative Robert Sikes, of Florida, Chairman of the House Appropriations Military Construction Subcommittee. Today it is rumored that House Speaker Jim Wright controls the money in Congress and that a power struggle is underway to remove him from power. At the end of the line was the President, the Director of the Military Office, a Commander at the Washington Navy Yard, and the MJ-12.

The money was authorized by the Appropriation Committee who allocated funds to the Department of Defense as a TOP SECRET item in the Army construction program. The Army, however, could not spend it and in fact did not even know of its intended purpose. Authorization to spend the money was in reality given to the Navy. The money was channeled to the Chesapeake Division of the navy Engineers who did not know its purpose either. Not even the Commanding Officer, who as an Admiral, knew what the fund was for. Only one man, a Navy Commander, who was assigned to the Chesapeake Division but in reality was responsible only to the Military office of the White House knew of its actual purpose, amount, and ultimate destination of the TOP SECRET fund. The total secrecy surrounding the fund meant that almost every trace of it could be made to disappear by the very group who controlled it. There has never been and most likely never will be an audit of this secret fund.

Large amounts of money were transferred from the TOP SECRET fund to a location at Palm Beach, Florida that belongs to the Coast Guard called Peanut Island. The island is adjacent to property which was owned by Joseph Kennedy. The money was said to have been used for landscaping and general beautification. Some time ago a TV news special on the Kennedy assassination told of a Coast Guard Officer transferring money in a briefcase to a Kennedy employee across this property line. Could this have been a secret Payment to the Kennedy family for the loss of their son, John F. Kennedy? The payments continued through the year 1967 and then stopped. The total amount transferred is unknown and the actual use of the money is also unknown.

Rockefeller assumes post as Cold War Strategist

Meanwhile, Nelson Rockefeller changed positions again. This time he was to take C.D. Jackson's old position which had been called the Special Assistant for Psychological Strategy. With Nelson's appointment the name was changed to the Special Assistant for Cold War Strategy. This position would evolve over the years into the same position Henry Kissinger was ultimately to hold under President Nixon. Officially he was to give "Advice and assistance in the development of increased understanding and cooperation among all people". The official description was a smoke screen for secretly he was the Presidential Coordinator for the Intelligence Community. In his new post, Rockefeller reported directly, and only, to the President. He attended meetings of the Cabinet, the Council on Foreign Economic Policy, and the National Security Council which was the highest policy-making body in the government.

NSC-5410 Memo defines Scope of Majority Twelve

Nelson Rockefeller was also given a second important job as the head of a secret unit called the Planning Coordination Group which was formed under NSC 5412/1 in March of 1955. The group consisted of different ad hoc members depending on the subject of the agenda. The basic members were Rockefeller, a representative of the Department of State, and the Director of Central Intelligence Agency. It was soon called the "5412 Committee" or the "Special Group". NSC 5412/1 established the rule that covert operations were subject to approval by an executive committee, whereas in the past these operations were initiated solely on the authority of the Director of Central Intelligence.

In 1954 by secret Executive Memorandum, NSC 5410, Eisenhower had preceded NSC 5412/1 to establish a permanent committee (not ad hoc) to be known as Majority Twelve (MJ-12) to oversee and conduct all covert activities concerned with the alien question. NSC 5412/1 was created to explain the purpose of these meetings when Congress and the Press became curious. Majority Twelve was made up of Nelson Rockefeller, the Director of the CIA Allen Welsh Dulles, the Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Admiral Arthur W. Radford, the Director of the FBI J. Edgar Hoover, and six men from the executive committee of the Council on Foreign Relations known as the "Wise Men". These men were all members of a secret society of scholars that called themselves "The Jason Society", or "The Jason Scholars" who recruited their members from the "Skull and Bones" and the "Scroll and Key" societies of Harvard and Yale, respectively.

Key members from the Jason Scholars, Secret Society

The "Wise Men" were key members of the Council on Foreign Relations. The membership totaled twelve which included six individuals from governmental positions thus the name, Majority Twelve. This group was made up over the years of the top officers and directors of the Council on Foreign Relations and later on from the Trilateral Commission. Notable names as Gordon Dean, George Bush, and Zbigniew Brzezinski were among them. The most important and influential of the "Wise Men" who served on MJ-12 were John McCloy, Robert Lovett, Averell Harriman, Charles Bohlen, George Kennan, and Dean Acheson. It is significant to recall that President Eisenhower as well as the first six MJ-12 members from government state departments were also members of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Thorough researchers will soon discover that not all the "Wise Men" attended Harvard or Yale and not all of them were chosen from "Skull and Bones" or "Scroll and Key" memberships during their college years. You will be able to quickly clear up this mystery by obtaining the book The Wise Men by Walter Isaacson and Evan Thomas, Simon and Schuster, New York. Under illustration #9 in the center of the book you will find the caption "Lovett with the Yale Unit, above far right, and on the beach: His initiation into Skull and Bones came at an airbase near Dunkirk". I have found that members were chosen on an ongoing basis by invitation based upon merit post college and was not confined to only Harvard or Yale Grads.

A chosen few were later initiated into the Jason Society. They are all members of the Council on Foreign Relations and at that time were known as the "Eastern Establishment". This should give you a clue to the far reaching and serious nature of these very secret college societies. The Jason Society is alive and well today, and now includes members within the Trilateral Commission as well. The Trilateralists existed secretly several years before 1973. The name of the Trilateral Commission as you remember was taken from the alien's flag insignia known as the "Trilateral Insignia".

MJ-12 Known Under Many Names

Majority Twelve was to survive right up to the present day. However, under Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy it was erroneously called the "5412 Committee"; more correctly, it was called the "Special Group". In the Johnson administration it became known as the "303 Committee" because the name 5412 had been compromised in the book The Secret Government. Actually NSC5412/1 was leaked to the author to hide the existence of NSC 5410. While under Nixon, Ford, and Carter the Special Group was called the "40 Committee". And under Reagan, it became the "PI40 Committee". Over all those years its purpose remained the same, only the name changed.

Aliens Break Treaty, Mutilate Human Bodies, 1955

By 1955 it became obvious that the aliens had deceived Eisenhower and had broken the treaty. Mutilated humans were being found along with mutilated animals all across the United States. It was suspected that the aliens were not submitting a complete list of human contacts and abductees to "MJ-12" as agreed by Treaty, and it was suspected that not all abductees had been returned. The Soviet Union was suspected of interacting with them and this proved to be true. It was learned that the aliens had been and were continuing to manipulate masses of people through the occult movement, various cults, secret societies, witchcraft, magic, and religions. After several Air Force combat air engagements with alien craft, it became blatantly apparent that our weapons were no match against their technology.

Subsequently, in November of 1955 Eisenhower issued NSC-5412/2 establishing a study committee to explore "all factors which are involved in the making and implementing of foreign policy in the nuclear age." This was only a blanket of snow that covered the real subject of intense scrutiny on the alien question.

NSC-5412/2 Creates Contingency Plan to Study Alien Problem

By secret Executive Memorandum, NSC-5411 (1954), Eisenhower had commissioned the study group to "examine all the facts, evidence, lies, and deception and discover the truth of the alien question." NSC-5412/2 was only a cover that had become necessary when the press began inquiring as to the purpose of regular meetings of such important men. The first meetings began at Quantico Marine Base. The study group was made up of 35 members of the Council on Foreign Relations, secret scholars known as the "Jason Society" or the "Jason Scholars". Dr. Edward Teller was invited to participate. Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski was the study director for the first 18 months. Dr. Henry Kissinger was chosen as the group's study director for the second 18 months. Nelson Rockefeller was a frequent visitor during the study.

Second Phase Meeting of 'Study Group'

The second phase meetings were also held at the Marine Base at Quantico, Virginia and the group became known as Quantico 11. Nelson Rockefeller built a retreat somewhere in Maryland for MJ-12 and the study committee that could only be reached by air so that they could meet away from public scrutiny. This secret meeting place is known by the code name "The Country Club". Complete living, eating, recreation, library, and meeting facilities exist at the location.

The study group was "publicly" closed in the latter months of 1956 and Henry Kissinger published what was officially termed the results in 1957 as "Nuclear Weapons and Foreign Policy" by Henry Kissinger, published for the Council on Foreign Relations by Harper & Brothers, New York. In truth the manuscript had already been 80% written while Kissinger was at Harvard. The study group continued veiled in secrecy. A clue to the seriousness Kissinger attached to the study can be found in statements by his wife and friends. Many of them stated that Henry would leave home early each morning and return late each night without speaking to anyone or responding to anyone. It seemed as if he were in another world which held no room for anyone else.

These statements are very revealing into the nature of Henry's personal dilemma. The revelations of the alien presence and their actions during the study must have been a great shock to his reality system. Henry Kissinger was definitely out of character during the time surrounding these meetings. He would never again be affected in this manner no matter the seriousness of any subsequent event. On many occasions he would work very late into the night after having already put in a full day. This behavior eventually led to divorce.

Major Finding resulted from Alien Study: Economic Collapse

A major finding of the alien study was that the public could not be told since it was believed that this knowledge most certainly would lead to economic collapse, collapse of the religious structure, and national panic which would lead into anarchy. Secrecy thus was continued. An offshoot of this finding was that if the public could not be told then the Congress could not be told either; thus funding for the projects and research would have to come from outside normal government channels. In the meantime money was to be obtained from the military budget and from CIA confidential non-appropriated funds.

Second Major Finding: Genetic Experiments upon Humans

Another major finding was the aliens were using humans and animals for sources of glandular secretions, enzymes, hormonal secretions, and blood, as well as in horrible genetic experiments. The aliens explained these actions as necessary to their survival. They stated that their genetic structure had deteriorated and that they were no longer able to reproduce. They also stated that if they were unable to improve their genetic structure their race would soon cease to exist. We looked upon their explanations with extreme suspicion.

Current Weapon Technology Useless against Aliens

Since our weapons were literally useless against the aliens MJ-12 decided to continue friendly diplomatic relations with them until such time as we were able to develop a technology which would enable us to challenge them on a military basis. Overtures would have to be made to the Soviet Union, and other nations, to join forces for the survival of humanity. In the meantime plans were developed to research and construct two weapons systems using conventional and nuclear technology which would hopefully bring us to parity.

The results of the research were Projects JOSHUA and EXCALIBUR. Joshua was a weapon captured from the Germans which at that time was capable of shattering four inch thick armor plate at a range of two miles using low frequency sound waves. It was believed that this weapon would be effective against the alien craft and their beam weapons. Excalibur was a weapon carried by missile not to exceed 30,000 feet AGL, not to deviate from designated target more than 50 meters, would penetrate 1,000 meters of tufa hard packed soil such as that found in New Mexico, would carry a one megaton warhead, and was intended for use in destroying the aliens in their underground bases. Joshua was developed successfully but never used to my knowledge. Excalibur was not pushed until recent years, and now there is an unprecedented effort to develop this weapon.

Vatican Archives reveals 'End Times' Prophecy True

The events at Fatima in the early part of the century were scrutinized. On suspicion that it was alien manipulation, an intelligence operation was put into motion to penetrate the secrecy surrounding the event. The United States utilized its Vatican moles that had been recruited and nurtured during WWII and soon obtained the entire Vatican study which included the prophecy. This prophecy stated that if man did not turn from evil and place himself at the feet of Christ, the planet would self-destruct and the events described in the book of Revelations would indeed come to pass. It stated that a child would be born who would unite the world with a plan for world peace and initiate a false religion beginning in 1992. By 1995 the people would discern that he was evil and was indeed linked with the Anti-Christ. World War III would begin in the Middle East in 1995 with an invasion of Israel by the United Arab nations using conventional weapons which would culminate in a nuclear holocaust in the latter part of 1999. Between 1999 and the year 2003 most of life on the planet Earth would suffer horribly and die as a result. The return of the Christ would occur in the year 2011.

Aliens Confronted with Biblical Prophecy

When the aliens were confronted with this finding they confirmed that it was true. (The reader is cautioned to remember that the alien's hidden agenda is support by lying.) The aliens further explained that they had created the human species through hybridization and had manipulated the human race historically through religion, Satanism, witchcraft, magic and other occult movements. They further purported that they were capable of time travel and the events would indeed come to pass according to the text in Revelations if the current trends and attitudes persist. Later exploitation of alien technology by the United States and the Soviet Union utilizing time travel confirmed the prophecy. The aliens showed a hologram which they claimed was the actual crucifixion of Christ and allowed the government to film.

We didn't know whether to believe them or not. Were they using genuine religions to manipulate us? Or, were they indeed the source of our religions with which they have been manipulating us all along? Was this the beginning of the genuine END TIMES and the RETURN OF CHRIST which has been predicted in the Bible? No one knew the answer.

A symposium was held in 1957 which was attended by some of the greatest scientific minds living then. They reached the conclusion that by the end of the century or shortly after the year 2,000 the planet would self-destruct due to increased population and man's exploitation of the environment without any help from God or the aliens.

Jason Scholars are asked to develop Alternative Scenario

By secret Executive Order of President Eisenhower, the Jason Scholars were ordered to study this scenario and make recommendations called "Alternatives 1, 2, & 3." Alternative One was the use of nuclear devices to blast holes in the Stratosphere from which the heat and pollution would escape into space. Change the human cultures from that of exploitation into cultures of environmental protection. Of the three this was decided to be the least likely to succeed due to the inherent nature of man and the additional damage the nuclear explosions would themselves create. Alternative Two was to build a vast network of underground cities and tunnels in which a select representation of all cultures and occupations would survive and carry on the human race. The rest of humanity would be left to fend for themselves on the surface of the planet. Alternative Three was to exploit the alien and conventional technology in order for a select few to leave the earth and establish colonies in outer space. I am not able to either confirm nor deny the existence of "Batch Consignments" of human slaves which would be used for the manual labor in the effort as part of the plan.

The Moon, code named "Adam" would be the object of primary interest followed by the planet Mars, code named "Eve". As a delaying action, all three alternatives would include birth control, sterilization, and the introduction of deadly microbes to control or slow the growth of the Earth's population. AIDS virus is only ONE result of these plans. There are other contingencies at work. It was decided since the population must be reduced and controlled that it would be in the best interest of the human race to rid ourselves of the undesirable elements of our society. The joint U.S. and Soviet leadership dismissed Alternative One, but ordered work to begin on Alternatives Two and Three virtually at the same time.

Rand Corporation Symposium on Underground Shelters

In 1959 the Rand Corporation hosted a Deep Underground Construction Symposium. In the Symposium report, machines are pictured and described which would bore a tunnel 45 feet in diameter at the rate of 5 feet per hour. It also displays pictures of huge tunnels and underground vaults containing what appear to be complex facilities and possibly even cities. It appears that in the previous five years an all-out underground construction effort had made significant progress by that time.

Illegal Drug Markets become Financial Resource for CIA

The ruling powers decided that one means of funding the alien connection or other black market projects was to corner the illegal drug market. A young ambitious member of the Council on Foreign Relations was approached with this concept. He was president and C.E.O. of Zapata Oil Co. based in Texas. George Bush is his name. Zapata Oil was experimenting with the new technology of offshore drilling. It was correctly thought that the drugs shipped from South America to offshore platforms by fishing boats could be brought ashore by the normal transportation route used for supplies and personnel. By this method no customs or law enforcement agency would subject the cargo to search procedures. George Bush agreed to help and organized the operation in conjunction with CIA support. The plan worked better than anyone had ever anticipated and has since expanded worldwide. There are now many other methods of bringing the illegal drugs into the country. It must always be remembered that George Bush began the sale of drugs to our children. Regardless of the present day media hype campaign to "Just Say No! to Drugs", our country's Drug Czar is George Bush. The CIA now controls all the world's illegal drug markets.
